Judith turned the electric light on in obedience to his command. Stokes slammed the door, locked it, and put the key in his pocket.

"Recognize your old quarters, Beauty?" he said. "You'll don't you? Well, you're not going to stay longer this time—just as long as you continue to behave yourself."

He advanced toward her. Judith put the centre table between them.

"Stop!" she said. "I realize I'm in your power, and I'm ready to talk business with you. But don't come any nearer until we've had an understanding."

"Ho, ho!" Stokes stopped, undecided. "So you're ready to negotiate. But suppose my terms are these? Not agreement but unconditional surrender?"

"You wouldn't be so silly," said Judith coldly "When you had me here before I was a friendless girl, with mighty few friends and no money. It's different now. I've just inherited a million dollars and some powerful and influential friends. My absence will be quickly noted, and no stone will be left unturned to find me. You couldn't afford to keep me a prisoner here even if I should offer you nothing for my release, but I am prepared to pay you handsomely if you'll let me go."

"Ya," said Stokes, with sudden anger— "pay me handsomely with your own money! That's one of the scores I have to settle with you, young woman. Give me your and your cunning work with the old man, I'd be the boss. And you'd have the nerve to offer me a small piece of my own fortune that you've defrauded me of, to let you go! It won't work."

He started to walk around the table, but Judith also stepped forward and kept it between them.

"Don't be foolish!" she said sharply. "You know very well that I did no cunning work with your uncle. There was no one any more surprised than I to find that he had left his money to me. Still, I am willing to give you $10,000 to let me go."

Stokes stopped and grinned fatuously.

"Cut it with you!" he demanded.

"Of course not—"

"Well, you might write me a check for it—say! If the check's good enough for it—and I'll let you go," said Stokes with a cunning look in his eyes. "On second thoughts, though, that's too damned little — just make it $35,000. Here's a blank check and a fountain pen. You can fill it out on at this table. Of course I'll keep you here until I've cashed the check."

Stokes produced a blank check and a fountain pen.

"I can't write you a check for any such amount," said Judith. "You know the estate has not been settled yet, and Mr. Anderson just owes me money from time to time until the details have been arranged. My bank balance is only a few hundred dollars right now. But I will give you an order on Mr. Anderson for $25,000 if you let me go at once, unconditionally."

Stokes' cunning grin changed to a scowl.

"So you think I'm a complete fool, girl? What would old Anderson do when I presented that order? He'd clap me into jail for extortion, and love to do it. The old rascal's got it in for me anyhow. He's forced me out of the firm, and he's hinted at things that make it unhealthy for me to get out of the country. You and he have conspired together against me—now you cheat me out of my rightful inheritance. But for you, Bates, I'd be wallowing in wealth right now instead of broke and, you might as well say, a fugitive. Oh, I've got a score to settle with you, Beauty! You've insulted me and robbed me. Why shouldn't I revenge myself on you to the limit? By God, I'll do it!"

Stokes had worked himself into a rage, which was steadily increasing in intensity. A maniacal light shone in his eyes. Judith shrank from him in fright. He looked at her gloatingly and for a minute ravished his evident purpose to seize her, that he might torture her mentally, as a cat plays with the doomed mouse.

"If you leave this room alive, it will be because I'm more merciful than I feel at this moment! If you do leave, even Randall Spencer won't want you when I'm through with you. I'll avenge myself on him and you both—it'll be the chair for him and the brothel for you!"

With a quick movement he turned the table over and crushed Judith in his arms.

JUDITH PUTS UP A BATTLE

CHAPTER 37

Rob Harley threw himself into a chair in Judith's apartment at the Metropolitan Hotel. Sally's keen eyes noted instantly his haggard face and bloodshot eyes. Her heart sank and her hopes fell.

"We can get no trace of her," said Rob, rumpling his red hair with a shaking hand. "Captain McMahon has sent out a general alarm. If she is in the city, she'll be found."

A low moan came from Sally's quivering lips.

"The river!"

"Yes, there's the possibility of course," said Rob. "But I don't believe it. I don't think Judith is the kind of girl who would destroy her self—unless—unless she was out of her mind. The police will be dragged, though. If she isn't found by noon, I'll tell you what I think, Sally—I think she's safe and sound with Randall Spencer."

"I hope so!" breathed Sally.

"I don't know!" said Rob, grimly, "whether that's anything to congratulate ourselves over. Of course we don't know that she is madly in love with him—and it looking as though he were paying madly mash with her too. Maybe she knew where to find him and he had her to show up at Mac's office and went to him, and they've gone off together. I'm not shrewd enough to be pulled the wool over our eyes. Here Mac has been hunting him for weeks, and he ran right into his arms—and then Mac let him go on his promise to show up at the police station at eight o'clock last night!

"I've got to bear part of the responsibility for that," Rob confessed sheepishly. "Mac put it up to me—and I was fool enough to say that I believed Spencer would keep his word. I did —which shows I'm a chump."

"I don't know," said Sally, "I don't blame you for believing him. I would have. Bobbie, I can't help thinking that you and Captain McMahon are all wrong about Randall Spencer! I don't believe he's guilty of all—nor any—of the things you have piled on him. If he said he'd give himself up to Captain McMahon at a certain hour, he'd do it if he was able to. He's no coward, whatever else you think he is. If he promised to be there at eight, and he didn't come, something's happened!"

"You've been seeing too many romantic movies," said Rob but his tone was not especially convincing. "Even Judith was satisfied last night that she had been deceived in him. Of course she didn't say so, but her looks showed it. Poor girl! It was a terrible blow to her when he failed to come."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Little Benny's Note Book

Me and Pop was taking a week before supper, me tawking and pop listening partly asserting, and I said, Cl, pop, look.

Meaning a funny looking squinty eyed baby in a baby carriage outside a grocer store, and pop said, By golies I'm glad you called my attention. It's a small world and yet it's amazing how many things you miss if nobody calls your attention, he said.

Holey smokes, pop, did I look like that when I was a baby? I said, and pop said, Not a bit, I can assure you on my word of honor, and I cry wuh I knew somebody who could assure me of as much. I hope you dont imagine I looked anything like that when I started life's unequal struggle, he said.

No sir, G wimickers, pop, I bet there wasn't even any resemblance, I said, and pop said, I hope there was a vast difference, but I thank you for your kind words all the same. Yes gods look at that nose, he said.

Being a little bit of a tern up nose hardley big enough to breathe out of, and I said, And holey smokes look at those ears.

Being stick out ears big enough to last the baby the rest of its life but a way they was, and pop said, That mouth isn't so bad either, either.

Wich it wasn't, being kind of nave on obside than the other, and just then a lady came out of the grocery store, and started to wheel the baby carriage away, saying to me and pop, I dont blame you for looking, isn't he the most adorable fascinating bewitful thing?

Madam, you underestimate him, if anything, pop said.

And we kept on going, pop saying, I've often seen it said, and now I know it, nature in wonderful.

Wich it is.

Copyright, 1935, by Harper Features, Dallas, Texas, U.S.A. All Rights Reserved

TEX AND HIS PALS (Actual Photographs) By Leslie A. Hill

BRINGING UP FATHER — By George McManus

TILLIE THE TOILER— By Russ Westover

DANGER TRAILS— TRAPPED By The Famous Explorer Martin Johnson

MR. AND MRS— By Briggs

TARZAN THE UNTAMED— (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service)

Intermediates Take Game With Gananoque by 13-3

Local Team Secures a Playoff Berth by Victory

The Belleville intermediates practically assured themselves of a playoff berth in the Bay of Quinte League, when they came out on the long end of a 13 to 3 score over the Gananoque aggregation at the Civic Field Grounds last evening. The locals proved much too good for the "seasonaires" in every department, especially at bat, where the Fanlington collected 13 solid base blows.

Bud Wilkins, diminutive right hander of the Quinte squad held Gananoque Paudeens down on the starting pitcher, but was removed from the game in the fourth inning, as he injured his ankle, sliding back into first base. Ernie Smith, stocky lad of right field for the locals, then took up the hurling duties and hurled three hit ball for the remainder of the pastime. McCauley and Battams shared the second duty for the visitors, but were in no way effective. Smith, with a fast breaking curve struck out six Gananoque batters in five innings and counted home to an easy victory behind the slugging of his team mates.

Cy Barrage, local short stop, led the hitting for the day, when he had a perfect day at the bat, counting five hits in five trips to the plate. Barrage injured his hand, making a catch in the seventh, and was replaced by Phil Loft, but not before the local short fielder had cuffed the spheroid for the last single. Little with 3 singles and a triple, and Morgan with three hits a number of hits were the other big notes for the Pennington nine at bat. Smith, the Gananoque catcher, was the only visiting batter to collect more than one safe blow, he getting two singles.

Defensively the Belleville infielders played a brand of ball that stamps them as keen contenders for the league honors in the play-offs. The home town victory elevated the local team's average to four victories and three defeats, equal to second position in the league standing.

PLAY BY PLAY

First Inning

Gananoque—C. Orser struck out, Kenney went out, second to first, as dig Amo.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors

Belleville— Shine took Little's delivery for a single. Morgan hit a single past third, Latchford walked, getting two on. Orser was the next slugging the base pass. Cretney struck out, swinging, Hazmett hit to left on Kenney's error, three runs scored. Cy Barrage singled, Chas. Barrage struck out ending the melee.

3 runs, 2 hits, 1 error.

Second Inning

Gananoque—Shine rifled a hit to short. Bigby popped to second. Orser hit to centre advancing Shine. Ballard faced Shine and struck all advancing on a wild pitch. Smith beat out an infield hit scoring Orser. Smith stole second. Battams scoring on the throw to second. Macauley popped to short.

2 runs, 2 hits, 0 errors.

Belleville—Collins singled to left and stole second. Little walked. Morgan walked filling the bases. Latchford skied to right. Green hit to left scoring Wilkins and all were safe on Kenney's error. Cretney skied to centre. Little scoring on the throw-in. Smith struck out.

2 runs, 1 hit, 2 errors.

Third Inning

Gananoque — C. Orser walked. Kenney hit into a double play, short to second to first. Amo flew to left.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

Belleville — Cy. Barrage hit to centre, Chas. Barrage sacrificed, Wilkins hit to short, Barrage moving up to third on Battams' error, Sliding back into first Wilkins turned his ankle and was carried from the field. Rigby running for Wilkins pilfered third. Little reached to left clearing the sacks, Morgan scored Little when he hit for three behind steadily pitching by Dracup, who fanned the next batsmen, Collins hurled fine ball for Finch's after a fearful first inning. With few exceptions the pitchers for both clubs turned the opposition back with parallel-like precision.

The line-ups: Simpsons— Amo; Cooper; White; Clarke; Rowbotham; Dracup; Moore, Muir and Lloyd.

Finch's—Darvell; Giffen; Kelly; Bamford; Tracey; Jenkins; Fulton; Noakes and Clare.

Score by innings:

Simpsons ..... 300 100 010—5
Finchs ..... 100 100 010—3

Umpires—Thompson and Smith.

AN EASY WIN

Belleville	AB	R	H	PO	A
Little, 3b	5	2	3	2	3
Morgan, cf	5	2	4	2	0
Latchford, c	4	2	1	1	0
Orser, p	4	2	1	1	0
Cretney, 1b	5	0	0	9	0
Hazmett, rf	4	1	1	0	0
Rigby, rf	1	1	1	0	0
Kidd, rf	0	0	0	0	0
Cy. Barrage, ss	5	3	5	2	2
Loft, ss	0	0	0	0	0
Chas. Barrage, 2b	4	0	1	2	3
Wilkins, p	2	1	1	0	0
E. Smith, p	0	0	0	0	0
Total	42	13	18	27	13

Gananoque	AB	R	H	PO	A
W. Orcser, rf	4	0	0	3	1
Kenney, lf	4	0	0	1	1
Amo, 2b	4	0	1	0	3
Shine, 1b	3	0	1	8	0
Kirby, 3b	3	0	0	1	2
T. Orcser, cf	3	1	1	3	1
Carmichael, cf	3	1	0	0	0
Ballard, ss, p	3	1	0	2	2
Smith, C.	4	1	2	7	2
McCauley, p, ss	3	0	1	0	2
Total	34	3	6	24	11

Score by innings R H E
Gananoque ... 300 000 001—3 6 4
Belleville ... 324 011 20x—13 18 2

Summary—Errors, Latchford, Cy Barrage 2, Kenney 2, Kirkby, Ballard; earned runs, Belleville 9, Gananoque 3; three base hits, Little, Shine; two base hits, Chas. Barrage; left on base, Belleville 10; Gananoque 9; hits by pitcher, Ballard (Rigby); stolen bases, Wilkins 1 in three innings, by E. Smith 1, by McCauley 1, by Battams 1 in base, on balls, off Wilkins 1; off Smith 3; off McCauley 1, off Orser 1; Wilkins 3 in six innings, off McCauley 12 in six innings, off Ballard in two innings; losing pitcher, McCauley; winning pitcher, Wilkins; double plays, Cy Barrage to Little to Cretney; stolen bases, Wilkins, Amo, Smith 2, Ballard; sacrifice hits, Chas. Barrage; passed ball, Belleville; Umpires, Wallace, Gananoque, plate; Clapper, Belleville, bases. Time of game 1 hr., 50 min.

1 run, 4 hits, 0 errors.

Seventh Inning

Gananoque — Smith was thrown out by the short stop McCauley asked to centre. W. Orcser struck out.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

Belleville—Latchford fouled to the catcher. Green hit through the box, Cretney flew to centre. Rigby was hit by ball. Cy Barrage singled right scoring Green, Rigby battams threw out Chas. Barrage.

2 runs, 2 hits, 0 errors.

Eighth Inning

Gananoque — Kenney walked, Amo singled to right, Shine forced Amo at second, Cy Barrage injuring his thumb and being replaced by Phil Loft. Kirkby popped to second Carmichael batting for T. Orcser was thrown out by Barrage.

0 runs, 1 hit, 0 errors.

Belleville—E. Smith struck out. Little struck out, Morgan singled to left, was out trying to steal.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

Ninth Inning

Gananoque— Ballard lined to Pitcher Smith beat out an infield hit and stole second, Ernie Smith threw out McCauley, W. Orcser was safe on Latchford's error, Smith scoring. Kenney struck ending a weird time.

1 run, 1 hit, 1 error.

SOFTBALL

Simpsons took a closely contested Mercantile League softball game from the Pinkie side by the score of 5 to 3 last evening. The pitchers were in complete command of the pastime, hits being rather scarce throughout.

Winning Simpson squad scored three runs in the initial frame and hung grimly to their lead there behind steady pitching by Dracup, who fanned the next batsmen, Collins hurled fine ball for Finch's after a fearful first inning. With few exceptions the pitchers for both clubs turned the opposition back with parallel-like precision.

The line-ups: Simpsons— Amo; Cooper; White; Clarke; Rowbotham; Dracup; Moore, Muir and Lloyd.

Finch's—Darvell; Giffen; Kelly; Bamford; Tracey; Jenkins; Fulton; Noakes and Clare.

Score by innings:

Simpsons ..... 300 100 010—5
Finchs ..... 100 100 010—3

Umpires—Thompson and Smith.

CURRENT SPORT

DAY BY DAY

Decks have been cleared and war has officially been declared between the Oshawa and Belleville baseball clubs, similar to the sport writers on both sides of the fence. Our Oshawa correspondent waxes and wanes about Tuesday's game and goes on to say, that the wide world just knew it was all about and was not within 80 miles of the local alfalfa field. (Belleville Parks Commission please note).

The Oshawa scribe tells his readers that Kirwin blocked McIlroy off the plate and that McIlroy did not so much as touch the platter. For his information we can positively say that McIlroy was not only safe, but slid across the plate, scraping the dust from his face on his hips, where Kitchen touched him. In trying to defend Umpire Mike Sullivan's scribe beats around a path around the bush, but he falls to tell Umpire Doxe Ogden, who personally informed us after the game that the Radios lost their own game, but we can truthfully say that Fair had an off day, (it seems to have plenty of them, when the Oshawa and Belleville clubs clash), incidentally any rule we are from Missouri, but if it is an inch over 233 feet, we will still "set 'em up, Georgie."

Again the Oshawa scribe flat footedly, on should we say fine footedly, denies that any ground rule has been made in the Oshawa stadium for the past two seasons in regards to the abbreviated right field. For his, and others' information, we know better because as the head man of a ball game last night (we're welcome, Georgie, we mean the umpire) there was a two base hit pilfered from Fair over the fence on a certain white paint mark in right field. Before we forget it, the great May, the glove thrower and grandstander, did not look so good in the outfield, as the Oshawa boys, the outfielders can "go get 'em".

For the information of the Oshawa public we have a rather amusing tale to relate. Recently when in Kingston we were seriously admonished by a number of the Limestone City fans, who were positively sure that the Radios were "planted" in the City of Oshawa" in order to "rub the Pensies out". We will be playing there the same lines, but it only goes to show in what contempt the Kingston fans hold the Oshawa outfit.

Today the Radios are playing an exhibition game in Picton while tomorrow they journey to Peterboro where a Belleville victory will elevate the Radios into second place, as the Oshawa outfit will be lucky to split their double-header with the league leading Pensies. In the meantime it is still too hot for comfort.

Lovers of boxing can take in the crowning of a new world's heavyweight champion at the Belle Theatre, Wednesday night, when Manager Forhan has procured the Barr-Braddock pictures and is showing them at the Belle tonight. Those interested in the fight game can catch the fine fistic encounter, Barr-Braddock beat the ex-champion. The picture is clear and distinct throughout.

Fanning's "rustlers" save notice that they are to be split considerably by the Intermediate League. The clean-cut 13 to 3 victory hung up by the locals over Gananoque nine last eve made Geens persona non grata, so they immediately made an ally a delegation from Picton was on hand to look over Ernie Smith. They got what than we can say, as the local elongated right hander was in fare form as he continually turned back the visitors with marked success. Another starling pitcher for the locals, was going nicely when he turned his ankle in the fourth. Smith was rushed to the hilltop to fill Wilkins' shoes and capably carried on the duties of relief hurler.

The Belleville Intermediates are virtually in the bay of Quinte playoffs, as the Napanee entry is a class "A" team and cannot compete in the play-offs, leaving Belleville and Picton to battle it out for a lady series, as big Roy Church's wars rest with Belleville when hosting Belleville clubs.

WITH THE LAWN BOWLERS

by McElheran & Watkin

Home one remarked on the green last night, when it is not raining it is too hot. Weather conditions have surely been against us to date.

In a game od doubles between Bob Wray and A. Symons v. Walter Belair and Alf Hayworth, the Wray team by 7 shots.

Our Monday night Ninev was quite a success. Eleven players won there three games. The winners were: Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Watkin, Bob Wray, A. Symons, W. Walsh, H. Stock, Mr. Logan, N. Wilbur, C. Peck, J. Galloway, D. Fisher.

Our Wednesday afternoon game was postponed until right at 7 p.m. The games committee have decided to continue to do this for at least 4 weeks. This seemed to be quite popular with the bowlers. It gives several a chance to play that do not get the Wednesday afternoon off, and of that it is much cooler.

The winners of Wednesday night games were as follows: 2 games high John Kiles, Mark Wilbur; 1 game high Percy Thompson, skip. 1 game high, N. Wilbur, H. Cross, Mrs. Holgate, D. Fisher, skip.

Tonight (Friday) is men's jitney We need everyone out that can possibly be there.

In a game of doubles between D. Fisher and Jos. Gardener v. Doug Eldridge and Geo. Watkin, the Gardener rink won by 4 shots after 20 ends had been played. Doug is our youngest member and sure makes a good lead.

A rink from our ladies club went to Stirling on Monday to compete in their annual tournament. The rink composed the playing players: Mrs. Shaw...; Mrs. McElheran; Mrs. Houston and Mrs. Holgate. Mrs. Houston succeeded in winning their first two games but were beaten by Peterboro in the final game. Better luck next time.

Wally Walsh has quite a smile on his countenance these days. Warm weather and fertilizing our greens on Saturday have sure made a big difference to it again Bob.

To the new players: Get your doubles going as soon as possible. You have nine nights to play and you can play two each night if you start early enough.

The hostesses at the Ladies' Club this week are as follows: Mrs. Bottum, Mrs. Sandercock and Mrs. Richards.

The winning rinks: Mrs. Stoneburg, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Duff, skip.

The following teams went to Stirling on Wednesday to compete in the Townsend and Clarke doubles tournament: Mildred Simmons, Hayworth and Belair and Dewar and Wray.

Attached to Bulman cause second in the Primary.

Dewar and Wray were second in the hard luck. Nog so bad for three teams.

One team journeyed to Cobourg to the men's rink. The team were Joe Black, Fred Harper, Charlie Symons and H. McElheran, skip. This team was defeated by Belleville teams sure travelled some on Wednesday.

Next Week's activities are as follows. Monday, 7 p.m., Mixed Jitney. Wednesday, 7 p.m., Women's Rinks. Friday, 7.30 p.m., Men's Jitney.

THOU SHALT NOT KILL!

Drive Carefully!

C.D.S.

A Good Place to Buy your warm weather needs

Girls' Rayon

Vests and Bloomers

Cool, summer undies for girls 2 to 14 years. In pink and white, bloomers with elastic at waist and knee, with lace trimmings. Special

Each 39c

— Second floor

Children's

Cotton Voile Frocks

Delightful little affairs with panties to match, cool cotton voile fashions; them in several clever styles. In neat printed designs in pastels on white, organdy trimmed. Sizes 2 to 6 years.

Each 1.00

— Second floor

Angleskin (Rayon) Slips

Specially Priced!

Almost velvety in texture, these angleskin (rayon) slips fit smooth and at this price it means selecting several. Tailored or lace trimmed, in tea rose or white. Sizes in the group 32 to 44.

Each 89c

— Second floor

Eatonia

GOOD VALUE...GOOD MERCHANDISE

Notes on

Eatonia Silk Hose

A fine, clear knit silk hosiery which has met with constant approval of discriminating shoppers. They are full fashioned, in bodyhaze, chiffon or sheer chiffon, suitable for all summer occasions. Popular favorites such as Tradance (light brown), Sunbeam (medium brown), Fawn-taupe (sandy taupe), Illusion (smoky grey), Sunmist (greyish taupe) with sizes 8½ to 10½. Exceptional value.

1.00

Sale! White Leather Purses

Real leather, too, fine quality, in WHITE for summer smartness. A smart array of new and novel shapes, some smartly woven, some with slide fasteners, others convenient with handle styles. Many are fitted, others are equipped only with a mirror. With such a low pricing as this for real leather, we certainly advise prompt shopping. Outstanding value, Saturday, each

1.00

— Main floor, centre

White Cotton Table Cloths

The size 52 inches by 52 inches; excellent for summer cottages and homes. A sturdy weave of cotton yarns, with a dash of color in their neat borders. Snow white with borders in mauve, green, rose, blue or yellow. Special, each

59c

— Main floor, rear

Manufacturer's Clearance!

Rayon Rough Crepe Frocks

1.95

A smart array of styles, designed on youthful lines which will appeal to the eye of the miss taking sizes 14 to 20. Of soft, rayon crepe in that popular rough weave and here's real fun, too, they come in those very attractive polka dots, various sizes, with contrasting collars and cuffs. A manufacturer's clearance and hence it means substantial savings on smart wearables—frocks which would ordinarily cost you much more. Sizes in the group 14 to 20. Special, each

— Second floor

Sporty Cotton Trousers

1.95

Of cotton drill with black or tan stripes. They're washable, and are just sporty enough to suit the young man taking sizes 31 to 40. Cool, comfortable tailored with belt loops, five pockets and cuff bottoms. Special, pair

Men's Store

Ruffled Scrim Curtains

33c

Ivory or white grounds in these dainty ruffled scrim curtains, and they'll provide charm and smartness to your windows for summer. Some with colored banding, and stitchings, in blue, rose, green or yellow. Size 18-17" by 2 yards long. Pair....

— Main floor, rear

Men! You'll like this

"Brevet" Underwear

It's comfortably cool, designed to give perfect freedom and yet very low in price. Of fine spring needle knit, of soft cotton yarns, with a range of sizes from 30 to 44. Shirts and shorts. Priced

each 50c

— Men's Store

Window Shades

Of English washable shade cloth, cream color only. Mounted on a strong spring roller. Size 36" x 70"

each 79c

— Main floor rear

Eatonia

GOOD VALUE...GOOD MERCHANDISE

Notes on

"Glider" BICYCLES

You'll get a good enjoyment out of riding a handsome, modern Eatonia Bicycle. The heavily drop frame model (at right) is designed and equipped by us to suit Canadian conditions by a prominent bicycle firm in England. "Glider" bicycles are made under the approval by our Research Bureau, so you can depend on them for sturdy, dependable service. Men's and Boys' Standard models with 24", 26" Balloon and 28", 28½ Extra Value.

Each 25.75

Borderless Style

Congoleum Rugs

Several pretty designs to make a charming, fresh appearance in any room. Choose from tones of blue and green or rust and tan, in room sizes, too. Borderless style, in five sizes to suit your requirements.

6' x 9'	each 3.90
7' 6" x 9'	each 4.88
9' x 9'	each 5.85
9' x 10' 8"	each 6.88
9' x 12'	each 7.80

— Basement

Figured

Tapestry Scatter Rugs

Fine interpretations of Oriental designs may be seen on these sturdy tapestry scatter rugs. Size is convenient, 24" x 48"—in colorings of blue, tan, rose and green on a fawn colored ground. Special

each 1.69

— Main floor, rear

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

STOPS ITCHING In One Minute

D. D. Prescription Speeds Relief

For quick relief from the itching of pimples, eczema or other forms of skin trouble, use D. D. Prescription. Forty years' success. Penetrates the skin, soothing and healing the inflamed tissues. Clears as it does—no mess. Clear, greaseless and stainless. Inexpensive to use. Try D. D. D. Prescription. Stops the most intense itching instantly. A clinical test, at any drug store, is guaranteed to prove it—or money back. D. D. D. is made by the owners of ITALIAN BALM.

RADIO PROGRAMS

—Daylight Saving Time—

FRIDAY	SATURDAY
	9.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ
	11.00—Galaxy of Stars—WBEN
	11.00—Banjoiers—WEAF
8.15—Lucille Manners, soprano—WJZ	11.15—Rex Battle's Ensemble—WEAF
8.30—College Prom; Ruth Etting, Red Nichols Orch.—WJZ	5.15—Jackie Heller, tenor—WJZ
8.30—Court of Human Relations—WABC	5.30—News, Jim Gumbrecht—WJZ
8.30—Waltz Time, Frank Munn, tenor; Abe Lyman's Orchestra—WEAF, WTAM	7.00—Portland Symphony Orch.—WJZ
9.00—Hollywood Hotel—WABC	7.00—Gregory Orch.—WJZ
9.00—To be announced—WJZ	7.15—The Jamboree—WEAF
9.30—Bert Braddock Broadcast from London—WABC	7.30—To be announced—WABC
9.30—Barn Dance; WJZ	8.00—Grace Hayes, songs—WJZ
10.00—First Nighter, drama—WEAF	8.00—Operatic Gems—WJZ
10.30—Circus Nights in Silvertown—WEAF,	8.00—Hit Parade, Lennie Hayton Orch.—WEAF
10.30— Andre Kostelanitz—WABC	8.30—Modern Minstrels—WABC
11.15—Jesse Crawford, organist—WJZ	8.30—Concert Band Concert—WJZ
11.30—Press News—CHCT	8.45—Press Broadcast From London—WABC
11.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WGN	9.30—Barn Dance; WJZ
	10.00—Musical Melodies—WABC
	10.30—Summer Follies—WEAF
	10.30—Carefree Carnival—WJZ
	10.30—Jan Garber's Orch.—WGN
	11.30—Abe Lyman's Orch.—WABC
	11.30—News—CHCT
	11.35—Ray Noble's Orch.—WJZ
	11.30—Claude Hopkins' Orch.—WABC
	11.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WGN

CIGAR STORE
Cigarettes, Tobaccos, Magazines
Candies

WEATHER
Lower Lake region and Georgian Bay — Moderate westerly winds, fine and warm today and Sunday.

TEMPERATURES
Max. Min.
Today 78 63
One year ago 78 62
Rainfall yesterday—.32.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, JULY 13, 1935

AUSTRIAN CHANCELLOR'S WIFE CRASH VICTM

NEWS BRIEFS AND OODITIES

Washington, July 13—(CP)—Representative Short believes in living up to his name.

While autobiographies of United States Congressmen take up 127 pages of the Congressional Directory and run as long as 400 words, Short's are a statement:

"Dewey Short, Republican, of Galena, Mo."

Okmulgee, Okla., July 13—(CP)—Arondagh Mitchell, negro, announced last night that about 100 Okmulgee negroes have signed to fight for Ethiopia in the event of a North African war.

Mitchell said the statement recruiting movement now is under way, and that recruits will leave for Africa about August 1, with Ethiopia paying the transportation.

Washington, July 13—(CP)—A lady of Brookfield, Conn., has solved her summer problem, direct to Uncle Sam.

She wrote this letter:

Uncle Sam, U. S. Post Office:

"Dear Uncle,

"What I'd do about it?

A field mouse with long ears and a big bushy tail has been in my shed all year, and every time I go in the top I disturb him and he disturbs me. Now I have to leave this pest card on top.

"Affectionately yours alone,

"Frances Lindquist".

Windsor, Ont., July 13—(CP)—"Five winter and orange day parties don't but one three Walpole Island Indians refused to sadly today. They came to Windsor yesterday to take part in yesterday's parade but the call of the battle carried hostly. They answered it, were sent back drunk by police and clapped into jail.

Windsor, Ont., July 13—(CP)—Mrs. Mackenzie, 82-year-old member of L. U. E. Tiel Chapter, was the oldest coach-driver at being the oldest member present at yesterday's Orange field at Lasalle Park. She was winner donated the money to the Loyal True Blue Orange Orphan Home for orphan children at Richmond Hill, Ont.

Kitchener, Ont., July 13—(CP)—A workman at Waterloo Park here is the maiden in the industrial giant. Told to clean up a paper-littered area, he picked up a $2 bill from his pocket on the ground. A gang of workmen passed, he stooped over and picked up the money. They may be more lucky, he observed.

The grounds were immediately filled with men feverishly picking up papers.

Hammond, Ind., July 13—(CP)—A. C. Colby, Hammond Trustee executive, has invented a new lawn signs such as these in Central Indiana.

"Biggest little city on earth".

"Centre of the United States".

"The Edens".

Today he said he found the Champion. Sign: "Population, 36. Four more coming."

Indianapolis, July 13—(CP)—Thomas E. Hood, 78, a thin fellow, escaped injury when an eight-coach passenger train passed over him. Hood stretched the conductor to help him board.

Hood stepped from the path of an east bound train. He saw a west bound train moving down upon him and dropped between the rails.

The locomotive and cars came to a screeching stop some distance beyond the trestle. The conductor Hood suffered only a tear in his suit when he leaped from the locomotive pilot.

Kitchener, Ont., July 13—(CP)—Cold officials here are trying to figure out some way of a prize for a Waterloo man who turned in a case of bottles which he broke. The "gofer" posed a sparkling 37 on the second hole.

YUGOSLAVS FEAR HAPSBURG RETURN

Little Entente Will Mobilize Armies, is Warning

Bucharest, July 13—(AP)—Foreign Minister Nicholas Titulescu announced today after a conference with Prince Paul, regent of Yugoslavia, that if the proposed restoration of the Hapsburg dynasty in Austria were carried out it would mean the automatic mobilization of the Little Entente armies.

DREYFUS IS DEAD, ONCE PRISONER OF DEVIL'S ISLAND

Nightmares of Four Tortured Years Harried Him

WAS PARDONED

World Wide Scandal Over, Alleged Spying 41 Years Ago

Paris, July 13—Death last night wrote the final chapter in the famed, fantastic "Dreyfus Case".

Though nightmares of the four tortured years he spent on Devil's Island for alleged treason to France harried him to his last breath, Lieutenant-Colonel Dreyfus died peacefully, surrounded by family about him. He was 75 years old.

The bitter, world-wide controversy Dreyfus' imprisonment stirred at the turn of the century was in sharp contrast to the almost hermit-like seclusion of his latter years.

He was convinced of selling France's military secrets to Germany and held captive on Devil's Island until the storm of protest moved the French president, to pardon him. Vindication and honors followed.

M. Dreyfus, and his son and daughter, Pierre and Jeanne, died all they could to avoid reviving bitter memories of the case, but they remained indelible in his mind to the last.

A year ago friends disclosed that nightmares of his imprisonment still often woke him from sleep, though it had been 35 years since he was pardoned.

Four years ago the aged Dreyfus, steadily growing feebler, suffered a grand trouble. Another severe attack occurred last year. Since he had been almost conclusively ill his death, which occurred at his home at 9 p.m. yesterday, was ascribed to an ailment of the bladder and the infirmities of old age. His daughter's husband, Dr. Pierre Paul Levy, attended him in his last illness.

Dreyfus knew he was dying. Calmly he set his affairs in order, and was conscious to the last, though he died without speaking. Mme. Dreyfus, who had been constantly with him during recent years, said he had slept much the last night.

Alfred Dreyfus, inconspicuous son of an unsuccessful business family in easy circumstances who emigrated from Alsace to escape the annexation of Alsace-Lorraine by Germany in 1871, became the victim of the most famous frame-up French history—the now famed "Dreyfus Case" which aroused death and disgrace.

Dreyfus was born at Mulhouse, Alsace-Lorraine, in 1856. He was schooled in Paris with brilliant results. Graduated from the Ecole Polytechnique, he received his commission as second lieutenant of artillery when he was 21.

SALE OF BEER IN GALT NEXT WEEK

Toronto, July 13th—(CP)—Sale of beer in Galt will be resumed on licenses will re-open following a decision of the Ontario Government that a petition against their opening did not contain a sufficient majority, will likely start next week, it was learned today at the offices of the Liquor Control Board.

After Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn announced yesterday petitions rooms would be permitted to reopen, Arnold Smith, Deputy Chief Commissioner of the Board, said application forms for authorities were sent to the three local, which formerly sold beer and wine in Galt.

Halifax Resident "Gyped" by Gypsy $2,710 in Cash Taken by Old Ruse

Halifax, July 13—(CP)—Because he believed in the age-worn tale of a gypsy that could double his money a south shore resident, whose name police did not reveal, today was bemoaning the loss of $1710 in cash and detectives are hot on the trail of the biggest known incident in the confidence game to break in Halifax for years.

The victim of the south shore man, his finances shattered by business reverses, and his mind a prey to worry, came to Halifax on a visit, met a gypsy who demonstrated by a trick she could double his money.

A few days and he returned with $2710, borrowed from friends and relatives. This too, he gave the gypsy, watched her wave it up in the same magic white square. He was to leave it in a safety deposit box in a Halifax bank for three months. By then it would have grown to $4,420, she said.

But as the days wore on and he thought of the stories told about gypsies, and he grew worried. Yesterday he came to Halifax and opened the safety deposit box and the cotton piece. In it were 13 one dollar bills.

RECONSTRUCTION PARTY IS LAUNCHED IN TORONTO

The new Reconstruction Party, launched in Toronto when Mr. Stebbins was deserted by M. H. Stevens, former Minister of Trade and Commerce in the Bennett cabinet, was officially four party chiefs as they finished the long statement. LEFT to RIGHT Thos. D. Lizon, Hamilton; Thos. H. Bell, Montreal; H. H. Stevens, and Warren K. Cook of Toronto.

PILOT FORCED TO JUMP FROM AEROPLANE IN DEAD OF NIGHT

Far off his course in a night flight from Grand Rapids, Mich., to Bellridge Field, north of Detroit, W. J. Bell, U.S. army flier, was forced to leap from his aeroplane near Guelph, landing near the city limits. It was his first parachute jump. Bell had run out of gas and found his course but to jump into the night without the vaguest notion where he would land. The aeroplane crashed into a farm some distance from the city. Photographs of Pilot Bell are shown ABOVE.

COOLER WEATHER FOR THE STATES

Latest Rampage Scorching Heat Appears to Subside

CHICAGO, July 13—(AP)—Nature's latest rampages of scorching heat, floods, rain and lightning appeared to be subsiding today but in their wake was an unofficial toll of four score dead, including at least twenty drowned.

Promises for cooler weather were held out to the east after two days of searing heat. Moring eastward after a swing through the middle-west, it had not come to a sufficient majority, will likely start next week, it was learned today at the offices of the Liquor Control Board.

After Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn announced yesterday petitions rooms would be permitted to reopen, Arnold Smith, Deputy Chief Commissioner of the Board, said application forms for authorities were sent to the three local, which formerly sold beer and wine in Galt.

MONTREAL GIRL SHOT THRU HEART

Standing at Door Trying to Keep Out An Intruder

Montreal, July 13—(CP)—A bullet from a rifle ended the life of Germaine Legault, 28, early today as she stood with her shoulder against her bedroom door vainly trying to block the entrance of an intruder.The bullet crashed through the door and into her head.

What police describe as a furious family quarrel, Placide Legault, 68, the girl's uncle, also received a wound in the shoulder. Telephone Legault, another uncle, was held by police as a material witness for the inquest.

In the middle of the night, police said they were told, the family was aroused by a man forcing his way into the back door of Placide's house, where he lived with his wife, two sisters, Mrs. St.-Amour and Miss Evelina Legault, and two lodgers Albert Saute and Joseph Robillard.

Seeing the figure of a man in the darkness, Mrs. St. Amour ran into Germaine's bedroom and began barricading the door. Germaine alone stood with her back pressed to it. The crash of the rifle was followed by the sound of Germaine slumping to the floor.

Placide ran from his room into the hallway and grappled with the intruder. He received a slight shoulder wound.

FARMER DIES OF STROKE

Cornwall, Ont., July 13—(CP)—Frank Ashton, 67, retired farmer and hotel keeper, died here yesterday shortly after he suffered a stroke while talking to a neighbor, He was a native of St. Anicet, Que.

CANADIAN WINS POSSIBLE

Bisley Camp, England, July 13 (CP Cable)—Lt.-Col. W. W. O. Gibson of Hamilton, Ont., and Capt. Bisley, today posted a perfect score of 50 in the Times shoot at 200 yards, one of the principal matches of "newspaper day" in the supreme meeting of the National Rifle Association swung into intensive competition

OIL BARGE UPSETS IN SMART GALE

Big Craft Rolls Over in Lake 20 Miles From Cobourg

Cobourg, July 13—Towed by the tugs Ajax and Musslooge of Toronto, the oil barge Bruce Hudson of the Lloyd Refineries, Port Credit, capsized yesterday, 20 miles off Cobourg in the face of a stiff southwester.

The captain and crew of six were taken off shortly before the barge turned turtle. The tanker was on her way from Montreal to Port Credit with 7,500 barrels of oil aboard.

According to Captain Bill Bilt of the Ajax and Captain W. Shields of the tanker, a heavy sea was rolling, whipped by a stiff southwest wind. The 125-foot tanker, drawn which draws ten feet, rolled badly in the sea, and when she started to list, the Ajax took the crew and captain off. Almost immediately afterward the bow of the tanker gave a plunge, the cargo apparently shifted and the barge capsized. The Ajax brought the crew into Cobourg and left later to pick up the other tug in towing the floating barge into Cobourg Harbor. The tanker will be anchored off the harbor and efforts will be made to right her, after which she will be unloaded.

The members of the tanker's crew are: R. McRae and C. McKellar, Cornwall; Norman and Emmerson Causton, Toronto; George Ashley, Toronto; J. Moran, Toronto and Captain W. Shields, Toronto. The officers were removed safely and no injuries were sustained.

ABSENT-MINDED

Kitchener, Ont., July 13—(CP)—And now there is the absent minded salesman.

Police here conducted a 12 hour search for a car reported stolen, and were about to mail out a circular describing it, when the salesman telephoned to apologize.

"I forgot I put the car in the garage," he explained.

SCHUSCHNIGG IS BADLY SHAKEN AS CAR PLUNGES

Chauffeur Loses Control And is Seriously Hurt

AUSTRIA STIRRED

Accident Within Day of Anniversary of Dollfuss' Death

Vienna, July 13—(CP-Havas)—Frau Schuschnigg, wife of Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg of Austria, was killed today in an automobile accident. Her husband was slightly injured.

Schuschnigg's son, who was accompanying his parents, also was slightly injured.

The Austrian Chancellor and his family were en route to Linz for the week-end when the accident occurred.

The Chancellor was hurled clear of the car when it turned over. Frau Herma Schuschnigg, died a few minutes after the accident.

Schuschnigg was rushed to the Linz hospital where he was found suffering from severe nervous shock.

The automobile was speeding toward Linz when the chauffeur lost control of the wheel and it crashed into a tree near the village of Ebelsberg and turned over. The chauffeur lost control of the wheel and it crashed into a tree near the village of Ebelsberg and turned over. The chauffeur was seriously if not fatally injured.

The Chancellor's bodyguard was slightly injured. Frau Schuschnigg's child, was accompanied the family, escaped unhurt.

It was not known what had caused the chauffeur to swerve but it was thought he had been taken ill.

The accident occurred within a day of the fourth anniversary of the assassination of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss which resulted in the stirring of Schuschnigg to head the Austrian Chancellorship.

Austrian authorities issued an emphatic denial at once to spike rumors that the Chancellor himself had been killed. These rumors spread rapidly and stirred all Austria.

KILLED BY TRAIN

Burlington, Ont, July 13.—(CP)—Robert Taylor, war veteran, was killed at an early hour this morning when struck by a C.N.R. freight train. Taylor was last seen walking down the track a short time before the train came along. This morning his body was found three feet from the right-of-way. Coroner Dr. W. A. Weaver has ordered an inquest.

TRANS-CANADA CAMPS TO OPEN

Highway to be Built in 5 Units of 21 Miles Each

Toronto, July 13—(CP)—Within a week or ten days the first of the 21 road camps along the route of the Trans-Canada Highway between White River to Schreiber will be completed, R. A. Campbell, Deputy Minister of Northern Development said today but it will be about the middle of August before the big stretch can be started.

Each camp will accommodate 200 men. Of this total 150 will be labor recruited from the district, cooks, mechanics and the like.

Employment offices of the Province and Dominion will recruit men for the work. The road is being built in five units of 21 miles each.

Police Rush to Belfast After Short Resumption Of Friday's Fatal Riot

Sequel to Mock Battle Feared Tonight in North Irish City

GUNFIRE AND STONES

Bloody Night Follows Peaceful Twelfth Observance

By STEPHEN WILLIAMSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

Belfast, Northern Ireland, July 13 (AP)—An urgent appeal that every available policeman in Northern Ireland be rushed to Belfast was issued today following a short-lived resumption of last night's bloody rioting which claimed two lives and 44 wounded.

At the same time police announced a curfew would be imposed at 11:30 p.m. when all public buildings will be closed and all citizens must be indoors.

The Belfast military garrison was confined to barracks.

George O'Neill, eight years old and a man whose name was not given were wounded in the second outbreak of antiging today. Police patrols covering the city in armored cars and afoot, prevented the disorder from growing.

Weary police prepared for further demonstrations tonight when orangemen and others were to return from staging a mock battle 30 miles from Belfast in the annual re-enaction of the Battle of the Boyne.

Home was Scarce

Authorities searched houses for arms, exerting every precaution to prevent a renewal of the clashes.

"The disturbance is very serious," said the Belfast police commissioner, "the feeling is still most bitter."

Rooftop snipers started the trouble by firing on a Scottish band which was returning from an Orangemen's demonstration in celebration of the 245th anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne.

Thousands of spectators at first were unaware of the whining bullets and thought those who dropped had fainted. The sound of the shots blended with the rapid tattoo of the drummers, which were indistinguishable from the bursts of machine gun fire.

The victims of the shooting were Lawrence Broderick, 29, and Edward Withers, 18.

Stones Hurled

Rioting started in the hours. Police made many arrests, dragging silent participants of the fight from their beds. Stones were hurled and scores of those injured in the fight were reported in a critical condition.

Police shot into a crowd along York Street, near the centre of Belfast, when they made an effort to restore order and two detectives were in the thick of the fray.

The bloody night followed a peaceful day celebration of the Battle of the Boyne. Lord Craigavon made Protestantism secure in Northern Ireland, and Parliament had adopted a resolution urging that Protestant propaganda against their faith.

KING TAKES SALUTE

Aldershot, England, July 13—(AP)—King George, clad in khaki, and mounted on a charger, reviewed with a royal salute from 9,000 massed troops in Rushmoor arena today in a brilliant silver jubilee review before 50,000 spectators.

Accompanied by his four sons, also khaki clad, His Majesty rode into the arena and after the troops had marched past Mary and watched from a stand, decorated a few deserving and medals glistening in the bright sun, march and ride past the royal pavilion.

Composer Strauss Quits, Nazi Opposition Reported

Production of "The Silent Woman" provoking a fight in Nazi ranks between Richard Strauss, Nazi Minister Dr. Goebbels, propaganda minister, and Alfred Rosenberg, Nazi Philosophical Dictator and Pagan Faith leader.

Goebbels attempted to prevent staging of the opera although the libretto was written by Zweig apparently without the fact of his international scandal in case the opera was revived.

Rosenberg and his followers opposed presentation. They sent word around a musical critic named Wilhelm Herzog who is in a number of newspapers described the "monstrous" text as a scandal.

Goebbels attempted a revoking Herzog's license as a newspaper writer. The latter fled Germany forcing Goebbels to reinstate Herzog. Rosenberg proved stronger than the propaganda ministry.

Elmer Dunkley, Picton, Found In Montreal

Montreal, July 13 (CP) — Frank Elmer Dunkley, 20, of Picton, Ont., who had been missing from his home for several days, was found here last night and taken to St. Luke Hospital for observation. Physicians believed a sunstroke had affected his memory.

He was discovered on Mount Royal by a policeman and was unable to recall his name or where he lived. In his pocket was a notebook bearing the name of Elmer Dunkley. Asked if that were his name the youth replied: "I think it is but I'm not sure."

Word from Brockville had been received here reporting Dunkley's disappearance from Picton. Relatives were viewed to identify the young man.

He appeared to be in good health except for a bruise over the left eye and his blank memory.

ITALIANS DENY PACT VIOLATION

It is Reported Italy Will Attend Council if Meeting Called

Rome, July 13—(AP)—Italy will attend a meeting of the council of the League of Nations if one is called shortly on her dispute with Ethiopia, it was said today in authoritative circles.

Associated Press Foreign Staff Writer, July 13 (AP)— Italian authorities, commenting unofficially on declaration of Stanley Coerdil Hull's declaration in support of the Briand-Kellogg Pact, were quick to contend that Italy in her war violated that treaty. Since there has been no violation of peace, it was said, the Briand-Kellogg Pact does not come into play.

Italian circles insisted Italy was the victim of agression in recent Ethiopian border incidents and had made every effort to settle its differences with the African kingdom.

The Washington statement was construed in Italian circles as adding to the American note sent to Addis Ababa, regarded here and in other capitals as a plea for the rejection of Ethiopia's request that the United States bring pressure on Italy over invocation of the Kellogg Pact.

Some circles in Italy said they will be unable to achieve her aims in Ethiopia without war. There was no hesitation in voicing those views —a protectorate backed by military power.

If Emperor Haile Selassie will ask for this protectorate, giving Italy the economic hinterland she needs for her East African colonies, there will be no war.

WEATHER

The weather has become a little cooler in the prairie provinces, where it has been fair and warm throughout the western provinces. Pressure continues high over the western portion of the continent and relatively low along the Atlantic coast.

Lake Superior, Kenora and Rainy River — Moderate northwest and west winds; fair and warm.

Georgian Bay — Moderate westerly winds; fair and warm.

Saskatchewan and Alberta — Moderate winds; fair and warm.

Coming Events

MIDNIGHT FROLIC AT MELODY
Jun. Sunday night, July 14th, 12.05 D.S.T. Music by Jack Grant and his Aces. Admission 45c, couple and 3c. 7-13-1c

DANCING AT TWEED PAVILION every Wednesday night. Ages over 18 years. 7-13-1c

DANCING AT KEENE'S CLUB HOUSE Saturday night. Music by Jack Grant and his Aces. Admission 45c, couple and 3c. 7-13-1c

DANCING EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT at the Moose, a well ventilated hall, with Bert Bowerman's Orchestra. Admission 25c plus 5c tax. 7-13-1c

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC SUNDAY MORNING —Mrs. Helen Hunt Alien, Pittsburgh violinist, will play. Mrs. Dolan Ketcheson will sing. Do not fail to hear these talented artists. 7-13-1

MONDAY, JULY 15. LAWN SOCIAL on the lawn of Bridge Street United James' Church, Sidney, on lawn of Mrs. Harold Farrell. Home cooking, afternoon tea, home-made candy, Mission Band Tea Room. Dancing and Orchestra, gymnastics and comedy boxing bouts. Supper at 6 o'clock. Adm. 25c. 7-13-1c

Clear or Cream
Moon Glow
THE NAIL POLISH NOW MOST POPULAR WITH BELLEVILLE WOMEN
Applies more smoothly—Will NOT CHIP, PEEL or CRACK
29c
FOR A LARGE BOTTLE
GEEN'S DRUG STORE Phone 121
PAULEY Formerly Ostrom Phone 186
J13-2c

City and District News

Glaring Headlights Cause of Drive

The largest number of transients to apply at the local police station for a night's lodging during the present month put in an appearance last night, when 17 weary travellers were admitted to the cell block, all being liberated this morning. One long inebriate was picked up by the police late yesterday and was held in custody all night. In the morning's police court the incorrigible was remanded until Saturday morning, although no serious motor accidents were reported in this immediate vicinity, Highway Traffic Officers have been quite busy of late checking the lights of motor vehicles traversing public highways at night. War has been declared on glaring headlights by the Provincial Highway Department, as they are considered responsible for numerous accidents occurring after sundown.

SHORT CIRCUIT IN TRANSFORMER

A smouldering transformer situated on a hydro pole on Dundas street was the cause of a fire alarm in Belleville early last evening. Upon the arrival of the department, however, and after Chief Lynch notified the trouble department of the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission in Belleville, the cause appeared on the scene and remedied the fault. A short circuit in the transformer is believed to have been the cause of the trouble. When the fire department arrived only smoke was seen pouring out of the smouldering transformer. Rather than take a chance on ruining the transformer and perhaps throwing that portion of the city into darkness, Chief Lynch called the expert hydro workers. A large gathering of curious onlookers watched the proceedings.

S. A. BAND TO GIVE TRENTON CONCERT

The local Salvation Army Band under the direction of Bandmaster David Wardle, tomorrow night (Sunday) will journey to Trenton where in Victorian Park Hall they will render an after church band concert at 8.30.

BAND CONCERT

The second of a series of band concerts by the Belleville Municipal Band will be held at the Fair Grounds on Monday evening, July 14th at 8.30 o'clock under the direction of Lieutenant Bandmaster Johnson, weather permitting.

Program

O'Canada.
March (Old Friendship) Chambers
Overture (Hearts and Flowers) Tobani
Request, Luppe.
American Sketch (Down South) Myddleton
Trombone solo (Holy City) Asellina. Adams.
Waltz (Nights of Gladness) Ancliffe.

Intermission

Selection (Maid of the Mountains) Fraser Simmons
Fantasia (Gems of Stephen Foster) Tobani
Sacred Overture (Joy to the world).
March (Religious) Chambers.
Hymn—Abide with me.
God Save the King.

It Pays to Shop at the Rexall Store.
KLENZO CLOTH
POLISHES AS IT CLEANS
FOR AUTOMOBILES AND FURNITURE
59c
McKeown's Drug Store

EVERY DAY LOW PRICES
Not a special Sale now or later is ever undersold by low prices—that's the I.D.A. Policy.
SAVE SAFELY AT YOUR
I.D.A. DRUG STORES

Mr. Meyers
Late of McLaughlin's
HAS MOVED, TO
150 Front St.
All kinds of upholstering, including automobiles. Work guaranteed. Prices right
PHONE 1579
J13-2c

Obituary

FREDERICK WIDENSOL

The death of Frederick Widensol of Seymour Township occurred at Belleville General Hospital. Mr. Widensol suffered a broken left leg and other serious injuries about a month ago when he fell from a wagon on his farm. He was born in Basel, Switzerland, fifty years ago and had been a resident of Canada for twenty years, formerly conducting a hotel at Englehart, Northern Ontario, where, during the flu epidemic eight years ago, he lost both his wife and two children. The remains were taken to Campbellford for interment.

LATE FRED DOUGHTY

Madoc—At an early hour on Thursday morning at his home in Madoc Township Mr. Fred Doughty passed away. The late Mr. Doughty was seventy-one and had been a resident of Madoc Township all his life. Besides his wife formerly (Miss Fox) he leaves two sons and two daughters, Harry and Ruby at home; Willard residing in Madoc Township and Frida (Mrs. McMullen) of Detroit. The funeral was held from his late residence on Friday afternoon to Trinity United Church Madoc, Service conducted by the Rev. W. A. Hunter. Interment at Lakeview cemetery. The I. O. O. F. conducted the service, the late Mr. Doughty being a member of Madoc Lodge.

LATE JOHN WESLEY MAINES

Tweed—The funeral of the late John Wesley Maines, aged 74, a resident of Hungerford Township, was held on Tuesday, July 9th, under the direction of Tweed Lodge A. F. and A.M. of which he was a member. A thrilling story of how the held from his late residence with interment in the Tweed Union Cemetery. The bearers were A. H. Mouck, Murrey Graham, J. W. Kingston, H. Graham, Ernest Graham and T. G. Graham.

The deceased passed away at Kingston Hospital on July 7th after an extended illness. He was born in 1864 and following the occupation of farming for many years. In 1894 he married Millie Finkle, who passed away a number of years ago. The late John Maines was a Liberal in politics and a member of Bethel United Church. He is survived by an adopted son, William Maines, at the old home, and one brother, D. W. Maines of Trenton.

LATE WALLACE NEIL McGeachy

Tweed—On Monday, July 8th, Wallace Neil McGeachy passed away at Belleville General Hospital after an illness of but a few days. His death came as a shock to his many friends. The deceased who was in his thirty-fifth year lived in Elzevir Township where he was a highly respected and successful farmer. He was a son of the late Neil McGeachy who passed away early in June of this year. The late Wallace McGeachy was a member of the United Church and a Conservative in politics. He is survived by his wife, formerly Ida Freeburn, a daughter, Marion, aged nine years, and his mother. The funeral was held on July 10th from his late residence with Rev. Merritt Price of Actinolite in charge.

Late Mrs. Edward Donohue

Tweed—The funeral of the late Mrs. Edward Donohue was held on Tuesday from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Brock to St. Carthagh's Roman Catholic Church with Rev. Fred Buckley conducting Requiem Mass. The deceased, who was in her ninetieth year, had been ill for several weeks. Surviving are three daughters and two sons.

HOME AGAIN

ARTICLE NO. 18.

By G. M. JAMES

Travelling Representative of THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

The most beautiful and at the same time the most comforting and cherished word in any language is "HOME". It is a very simple word, yet the best things of life are simple and common that all may enjoy them as fully and freely as a king.

It has often been remarked that the best part of a holiday or a journey is the home-coming with all those mingled feelings of content, and rejoicing at the thought that Providence has been merciful and kind to us far beyond our deserts and certainly much beyond thousands we encountered on other shores and in foreign lands. If the reader is discouraged and downhearted just go away, anywhere, for a few months and you will return rejoicing counting your many blessings.

And all these thoughts apply with extra special force when the homecoming is to the Quinte district and to Belleville. Is it possible to find such adorable friends and neighbours in any other part of the world? How charmingly they narrate your every shortcoming and forget your faults! Surely this is just a bit of Heaven! Some of these dear people have gone there since our departure a few short months ago! They will be greatly missed but our loss is their eternal gain and so we still rejoice.

THE GARDEN OF EDEN.

Then we always come home as hungry as wolves. No matter what high-sounding, aristocratic dishes they serve "de luxe" on Atlantic liners, in New York or elsewhere, they are never fully satisfying, and we yearn to meet our country friends on the Belleville market again, where so much can be found far better than Adam and Eve enjoyed in the Garden of Eden. For example, the McIlmoyle red apple, the most delicious fruit in all the world, has been brought into existence and developed by modern science within the memory of the people now alive. It is said to do much damage with a crab-apple, what might have happened through the lure of a rosy, McIlmoyle? Similar development and excellence applies to most of our fruits, grains and vegetables. Is it any wonder that we want to come home to enjoy the best food in the world and to meet the wonderful people who produce it? Every time we come home we vow we will never stray away again like the meditations of a lost lamb recovered.

DEPRESSION PRICES AND WAGES.

"What about those low prices are paying us?" whisper our good country friends with a significant smile (slightly sarcastic).

Quite true worthy brothers, you are not receiving enough for your faithful toil and neither are we, your customers. Most of us have had practically no employment for years and those who have a steady job have short hours and surprisingly low pay. When times were good we were your reliable customers and paid you good prices cheerfully as we shall be delighted to do the same again as soon as it is possible. We sympathize with your financial worries but assure you that ours are no less burdensome. Canada is the best and greatest country in all the world. It will recover fully in due course of time; meanwhile let us all be courageous, faithful and patient. Briefly we will never forget our country friends, who do so much to make our lives happy. What more can Belleville say or do at the moment?

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Three weeks ago we left New York for Albany, where we stopped over to tour the beautiful capital of the state of New York, the greatest state in the union. Nearly all the streets of Albany go up or down hill, but perhaps this novelty would be forgotten after a time. Albany contains the main street to the top of a small hill, you are confronted with the state buildings where the state legislature meets. It is a fine building but not as great or grand as the Parliament Buildings at Toronto. The stores are very nice and up-to-date but on the whole we think that Syracuse is much more beautiful than Albany. The people everywhere throughout the United States are very kind and friendly to visitors. They go out of their way to be helpful and often feel that this is a nice way to live, being kind and helpful to each other.

Then we made a through trip from Albany to Toronto, where much business awaited us, and as a result this final letter is somewhat unavoidably late.

THE GREATEST EDUCATIONAL PROBLEM.

For many years all shades of political and educational thought have admitted the fact that the country child has not had equal opportunities (educationally) with the city child and that as a result (at least partly) the country child has drifted more and more from the farm with deplorable and alarming results.

The writer while in Toronto recently discovered that this problem is still Ontario's greatest educational problem and he decided to investigate as thoroughly as possible. For various reasons the writer cannot mention any names, but the facts now submitted may be considered as fully reliable and authentic.

CO-OPERATION ESSENTIAL.

In the past the rural residents have been the chief obstacle to their own betterment due to the fact that their revenues were falling while their expenses were increasing and consequently they were not very enthusiastic about any changes in their schools when might increase their tax burden already too great for their resources. This attitude on their part has been quite natural and perhaps justifiable but at the same time no one can help us against our own free will. Rural residents, especially their trustees, must express a willingness to co-operate in some desirable changes for the better, otherwise such improvements are impossible.

THE DOOR OF OPPORTUNITY STANDS OPEN.

The writer's recent investigations prove beyond a doubt that the present is a very opportune time for rural trustees and their supporters to take themselves on greatly improved conditions in their schools, such as will make them the equal of the city schools without adding further burdens to rural taxpayers, but it must be borne in mind that nothing better can be expected from present rural school conditions. As rural schools are at present constituted, they can never have the teaching of music, household science, technical and manual training, and many other modern subjects besides the present course of studies much improved.

But the time is opportune to secure all the above, and more, without additional expense to the rural taxpayer on the following conditions:

1. The secretary-treasurer of each rural school should express the willingness on the part of his section to co-operate fully in the suggested changes providing his financial burdens are not increased.

2. Would his school section consent to the amalgamation of union of three or four neighbouring rural schools at some suitable central point if the enlargement of some present school for the purpose involved no additional cost? Under such a plan distant pupils would be conveyed by a school bus.

3. Would his school section consent to one Township school board, providing that all school interests within the township were carefully and impartially guarded?

To get educational advantages equal to city facilities mergers or unions would be necessary, and to administer such mergers successfully, one school board for each township is indispensable.

HOW TO CO-OPERATE

Our rural friends in Hastings and Prince Edward should express their views on these vital matters promptly, because opportunity does not knock at our door forever. The James Tweed, Belleville, Ontario, Trustees, know personally most of the rural trustees of these two banner counties, and the writer would be pleased to prepare a letter, briefly expressing intelligence setting forth the views of the rural trustees of Hastings and Prince Edward, with special reference to suggested changes and improvements. Either write a letter, or see the writer personally at 183 Front Street. Name, full address, and school section will always be necessary as a guarantee of good faith, but these will be treated as strictly confidential or otherwise made public. It is of the utmost importance that those interested respond promptly and that they bring it to the attention of others who may not see this paper. Perhaps older readers in Hastings and Prince Edward counties would be good enough to reprint this article for the worthy cause of better education? The writer's only interest in this matter is to assist the many rural schools, who have been such esteemed customers of The James Tweed Trustees, give the writer a chance to help you soon; you will never regret it.

FASHION NOTES.

As compared with New York this season, dresses are worn longer in Toronto, about three-quarters length for street wear.

Three-quarter length coats are worn in this much worn in New York for street wear, about three-quarters length or shorter, while in Toronto the same material is used for afternoon tea and evening wear, very long, almost touching the ground, also a few shorter for street wear.

In Toronto the stiff muslin dresses are also quite long for teas or picnics.

Much more linens with coat and skirt are worn in New York than in Toronto, linen, shorter length coat for street wear. Beige and natural colour is worn with purple, mauve, or yellow very short jacket in New York.

Very little purple or mauve for dresses or suits is to be seen in Toronto no doubt because these are trying colors.

Just prior to leaving New York, Mrs. James noticed that the wine shade is all the rage and dresses are rushing in. A large wine shade hat in felt or straw with handbag to match and with white dress was very popular and becoming.

String knit cotton suits, all colours, with hat to match, street length, are very cool and popular in New York. In Toronto they prefer the silk and wool knit suits but they are more expensive, and not as cool as the former. They also have the string knit cotton suits in Toronto but they are not as beautiful as those made in New York.

On the whole Toronto is as up-to-date as New York in every way only its dresses are longer.

Best wishes to all.

THREE THOUSAND DIE IN FLOODS
Dikes Break Open With Pressure of Flood Waters
Hankow, China, July 13.—(AP)—The harrowing story of how the flooded Upper Han River broke through dikes surrounding the city of Tianmen and wiped out the lives of at least 3,000 persons was told today by survivors.
Hapless refugees poured into Hankow by the hundreds from the north, where the Han, like the mighty Yangtze, is on a merciless rampage.
Thirty homes had been destroyed their rich farm lands ruined and many of them lost relatives in the catastrophe.
Hankow itself was menaced as the Yangtze approached, the 52-foot mark which engineers said was the maximum level the great Changkung dike could sustain.
Almost the entire population, including 100,000 refugees, therefore were busily engaged in transferring their belongings to upper stories and roof tops. Many foreigners living in the low-lying Japanese concession and near the Tangtze's headwaters would keep the river at flood level for several more weeks.
Colonel O. C. Stubbe, chief engineer of the Hankow Conservancy Commission, here, warned that the Ohantung Dike could hardly stand for more than another day against the pounding floodwaters. On the outskirts 2,500 houses have been destroyed.

BELLE TUESDAY WEDNESDAY
COLUMBIA PICTURES Cont. Present the PRIZE WINNERS
WORLD'S GREATEST STARS and PICTURES
CLARK GABLE CLAUDETTE COLBERT in "IT HAPPENED ONE NIGHT" DIRECTED BY FRANK CAPRA
GRACE MOORE TULLIO CARMINATI in "ONE NIGHT OF LOVE" DIRECTED BY VICTOR SCHERTZINGER BIGGEST SHOW EVER OFFERED ITS EQUAL MAY NEVER BE SEEN AGAIN

ZELLERS
RETAILERS TO THRIFTY CANADIANS
YARD GOODS SALE
Monday and Tuesday

FLOCK DOT VOILES
Fancy voile in navy, brown and black. Modish designs. 36" wide. Sale price, yard 27c

Novelty Weave Organdy
Suitable for trimmings — white only. 36" wide. Sale price, yard 21c

RAYON PIQUE
A delightful summer fabric, wide walk. 38" wide. Sale price, yard 23c

Flock Dot Organdy
White grounds, floral designs, guaranteed washable. 36" wide. Sale price, yard 21c

DOTTED VOILES
Pastel colors with woven dots. 36" wide. Sale price, yard 12c

BATISTE
Small floral designs, suitable for children's dresses. Sale price, yard 21c

ENGLISH CRETONNE
Reversible Cretonne in neat floral designs. 36" wide. Yard 17c

DRESS CREPES
Fashion your own summer dresses at low cost. 36" wide. Yard 49c

BROADCLOTH
White and colored Broadcloth. 36" wide. Yard 15c

Printed Broadcloth
Colorful prints. 36" wide. Sale price. Yard 19c

IMPORTANT
HAVE YOU READ YOUR CONTRACT?
DO YOU UNDERSTAND YOUR COVERAGE?
DISCUSS THESE THINGS WITH US.
HAIG BROS. Limited
BELLEVILLE
188 Front St. Open Saturday Evenings. Phone 188

DIDN'T LIKE NAME

Toronto, July 13—(CP)—Controller Sam McBride celebrated his 65th birthday today, happy in the knowledge he persuaded city council to call Toronto's new ferry boat "Columbine" instead of "Hepatica". Their veteran civic official objected to the flam McBride's because it was hard to pronounce. He also said it reminded him of a laxative.

G. FRASER HURT AS CARS COLLIDE

Driver of Car Without Lights Suffers Severe Injuries

PICTON—Between eleven and twelve o'clock on Saturday night a bad car accident occurred on the East Lake Road, in front of the residence of Mr. Samuel Fraser. Chas. Mr. George Fraser, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Frith Fraser, was driving without lights towards Picton, when he struck a car driven by Willis Watson of the Outlet. Mr. Fraser was the only one to suffer serious injuries, a fractured collar bone and a split knee cap, and was removed to Prince Edward County Hospital. Miss Catharine Pearce, who was riding in the car with Mr. Fraser, received bruises and a severe shaking up.

On Thursday night, July 11th, Mrs. James Mitchell, passed away in the local hospital, where she had been a patient for the past eight days. She was seventy-three years of age. A daughter Mrs. William Conway of Picton, survives.

Red cabbages are scarce, in surprisingly large numbers, about the lawns and flower beds this summer. They are very tame, and chatter, at the children who delight in watching them

A Thriller . . A Chiller
A comedy of Mysteries . . .
Chan unearths the lost secrets of Ancient Egypt.
CHARLIE CHAN IN EGYPT
A FOX picture
WARNER OLAND "PAT" PATERSON
THOMAS BECK • RITA CARSINO
STEPIN FETCHIT as Chan's reluctant aide
—PLUS—
A SCREEN FULL OF JOY
ALL-STAR Comedy
"OKAY TOOTS"
Crammed with Laughs.
TODAY and MONDAY
BELLE CAREFULLY COOLED
LATEST WORLD NEWS
PARAMOUNT COLOR CLASSIC

Extra! Added! TODAY ONLY
KEN MAYNARD and his horse TARZAN in "The Phantom Thunderbolt."
Last Times Today
Public Enemy No. 1 of all the world
"THE MAN WHO KNEW TOO MUCH"
with
Peter Lorre — Edna Best — Nova Pilbeam
Also
A TOM HOWARD COMEDY CARTOON — NEWS
CAPITOL

United, Loyal Orange Order Speakers' Plea at Celebration Of Twelfth at W. Huntingdon

14 Lodges Numbering 500 Parade in Ideal Weather

SPORTS PROGRAM

Ivanhoe Wins Title After Good Contest With Evergreen

A plea for unity among Protestant denominations was voiced especially by Orange Order visitors to the many speakers at West Huntingdon on Friday afternoon, when the Glorious Twelfth was celebrated by lodges of Centre Hastings. Another celebration of part of Centre Hastings was held at Pinson, which to some extent mitigated against a large attendance and also the rain, which fell early in the morning, kept many away but the crowd was large and the enthusiasm had not waned.

The celebration at West Huntingdon was held in Thompson's Grove under the auspices of West Huntingdon L.O.L. No. 206, the Ladies' Aid of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and the Ladies' Aid of the United Church of that circuit. A cafeteria lunch was served and the meeting were quite gratifying. Several booths were also conducted on the grounds which brought in good returns. In the afternoon was ideal, a cooling breeze prevailed, while the sun shone brightly. At every celebration in the rural districts, a certain part of the time is spent in visiting with friends and neighbors. The 12th of July is a great day to forget troubles and worries and come out to show the colors of the Orange Order and listen to the messages from the several speakers.

Bands Played

No celebration of the 12th would be complete without the fife and drum bands and all the afternoon in every corner of the grounds, the bands played the favorite tunes heard on many occasions. Again after the prade had been completed and three cheers given for His Majesty, the Grand Master and the District County Master, the bandsmen again gathered and the parade was called over the air till far into the gathering twilight. Corps from different lodges combined their forces and with a large crowd around, the men and boys returned to the host and surroundings. It was their day and they were making the most of it. Shortly after one o'clock the call was given to fall in by the various lodges and headed by W. J. Tanner, County Director of Centre Hastings, the parade moved off, marching to the old mill and return. The parade was headed by the Stirling Citizens Band and followed by Sam Tweed, District Director of District No. 3, Charles Burkitt, District Director of No. 1, and Tom Webb, Director of West Huntingdon, under whose auspices the celebration was held. W. J. Cottrell, County Master, was given a prominent position in the parade. A pleasing item of the march was the appearance of five young boys, Lindsay George Ashton, Billy Dunn, Arthur Hassel and Russell Ellis all from West Huntingdon Lodge. Two goals covered with banners, prominently displayed by West Huntingdon L.O.L. No. 206 were led by two of the youngsters and all were making a very active interest in their part of the proceedings at this time as they had all they wanted to handle to keep the goals under control. Immediately after the parade and the appearance of Miss Myrtle Ensign, pianist, who was to accompany with Thomasburg Lodge and played the flute for that lodge's band, Miss Ensign proved an accomplished artist on the instrument and created considerable interest with the onlookers.

Also prominent in the procession were a number of stalwarts of the Orange Order, they being members for many years, some of whom had passed the time of marching but were driven from the route in a car and took as much interest and probably more than the younger members. Those to ride in the car were W. C. Martin, who has been treasurer of West Huntingdon district for 50 years, Robert Eggleton, John F. Mosier, Andy McGee and Joe Reid. Also on the grounds were James Donnan of Stirling, a man in his 90th year and Sam Goodfellow for 82 years and Sam Good boasting of 81 years, all hale and hearty. Mr. Good was busy all day renewing acquaintances and seemed to stand the heat better than some of the younger people.

Lodges on Parade

The order of march from the grounds were Marmora L.O.L. No. 2, Stirling L.O.L. No. 1, Tweed Centennial L.O.L. No. 442, Wellman's Corners L.O.L. No. 172, Tunnen L.O.L. No. 509, Halloway L.O.L. No. 251, Frankford L.O.B.A. Crookston No. 631, Downey Lodge L.O.L. Crookston No. 625, Beulah L.O.L. Ivanhoe No. 633, Stirling L.O.B.A. No. 855, Stirling L.O.L. No. 115, Thomasburg L.O.L. No. 131, Ormsby L.O.L. No. 392 and Tweed L.O.L. 747. There were fourteen lodges in the procession and about 500 Orangemen and Orangewomen took part. The parade was most colorful many of the lodges wearing distinctive regalia while the Women's lodges took to the route garbed in white with a dash of Orange. Harry Holden is Worshipful Master of West Huntingdon Lodge, Mack Sarles, Deputy Master and Don Parger, Recording Secretary. The last celebration held in West Huntingdon was 21 years ago and the County Master, W. J. Cottrell celebrating his first Orange Walk at that time, which was a coincidence and commented upon by the chairman of the afternoon, Phillip Carr, Reeve of Huntingdon Township.

Addresses Given

After the Stirling Band had entertained with a number of selections, Phillip Carr, the chairman, called the meeting to order, the platform being erected in the grove, with ample seating accommodation. He thanked all for their attendance and called upon the County Master, W. Cottrell to open the speech making. The speaker but lightly touched on the Orange Order question protesting the diversion of funds for the teaching of Romanism, stating that the Orange Order from its district had forwarded a resolution against the measure to the Ontario government. He stated, that the Orange Order was the open Bible and the loyalty to the open Bible and the Protestant faith would never be denied. "There are no chapters sealed to view and before members are admitted to the Order they must testify to their belief in the Holy Bible. There is one subject we cannot accept because their teaching is not taken by the Holy Trinity", said the speaker. Mr. Cottrell said in the future, there were so many empty pews in the churches, the people were allowing personal feelings to interfere with sound principles and Orangeism is built on sound principles declared the speaker. In closing the speaker declared the day was coming, when there will be a deeper realization and appreciation of the Orange Order.

Rev H. A. Turner

This speaker declared that for the past third of a century the Protestant forces throughout the world drawn closer together and the reasons could be ascribed to the inter-denominational spirit and common heritage of the scripture and Ministers of the Gospel at home and abroad. He believed the world was in a decline as he has reported during the state of the public mind and the people were as trying to do things in a hurry, ignorant of the Holy Bible and lack of leisure hours for reading urged for their study. He described the birth of capitalism stating that it came from the spirit of antism, when the feudal system was abolished. "These two have been closely linked", said the speaker, "but we are witnessing in our time a total collapse of capitalism and Protestantism will go if something is not done". He declared the spirit of fear of class war and to prevent that clash, it is our duty to carry on "Capitalism is a good system misunderstood and it is our duty in distributing one and there will not be much relief until the poor are brought back to the land and the land distributing one and there will not be much relief until the poor are brought back to the land and the land is made productive." He declared that the Orange Order was not begun with any sympathy for the good God and good Devil age, that now prevails.

Rev. M. O. Price

A war veteran and a member of the Order, Rev. M. O. Price, delivered a stirring message to his listeners. He stated that the Orange Order was in North America and that the Orange Order must not be made political but told the gathering that 62 per cent of the residents of the United States were not Orangemen or British flag and that he was present, when the Orange Order was visited in Toronto last fall declaring only one per cent. of the people spoke English language. "Is it not time that something should be done? asked the speaker. "We have had a depression and some under relief were faring far better than those employed, therefore the so-called depression and relief has been a conspiracy for having hardships and that all could neither find work nor relief without assistance providing everyone was ready to make a few sacrifices. Many people have come from a foreign shore the speaker declared that they have left their all after here and had more freedom and liberty than in their own country, yet they were continually trying to stir up strife. "We should be forgiving kind and loving but we should not be too soft" said Rev. Mr. Price. "The Orange Order is not as Loyal as it should be and there is much work to be done."

Rev. Mr. McConnell

The Rector of Stirling Anglican Church challenged any organization to show where they had done more to fight the Church of Rome than the Anglican Church. He declared the Orange Order stood for good enough and he also protested of sharing any part of the school taxes. He exhorted all to uphold the democracy of the country. H. Darby, Past District Master thought there should be more uniform dress, when the Order went on parade and that Lodges should be proud of their members to have their regalia bright and shining on the 12th. The principles of the Order were explained and the speaker believed there was only one organization outside the Orange Order that could do more for the growing child; that being the Sunday School.

Rev. Mr. Lane spoke briefly declaring "If you are not a Christian you are not an Orangeman and he advised all the members to go home and read their constitution. In closing he thought there was a need of loyalty against the forces not allied to Christianity if Christianity was to be preserved in the world and he made the prediction, that the time was coming when Protestants and the Catholics would be standing together to fight the evils of the world.

W. E. Tummon, M.P.

The member for East Hastings-Frontenac-House in South Hastings devoted his time to an explanation of the session's meeting held in Toronto, declaring that all 'isms' had no place in the life of Canada, only true democracy and undying fealty to the British Empire. Mr. Tummon had no objections to anyone coming into this country from another country providing they came to live a peaceful citizens and uphold the laws of this Dominion but it will be found he will be sent back to his own country. Reading extracts from a secret report, which he had in his hand Mr. Tummon told his listeners the new propaganda had its head office in Moscow and that was proposed to stir up strife in this country. The speaker declared every lumber camps and industries was part of the plan. Mr. Tummon stated and "if they did not succeed, the trusted members of the organization must break up the camps by any means, even to setting fire to them. There is one fact that orders were issued to put oil and gasoline on the food and if that did not work, to strike brakers, poison was to be used. He declared, the trusted members were to take pictures of the inside and outside of plants paying particular attention to the machinery. He declared money would be forthcoming and the ultimate general walkout would be ordered and in front of the Red Army would usher in wage a revolution and establish a Soviet Russia, crush capitalism and impose the Red flag instead of the "rad" Flag of Russia. "I want to impress upon you, that we are facing a dangerous position and we must all get together to fight a common foe" said Mr. Tummon in conclusion.

James F. Hill, M.P.P.

Mr. Hill needed no introduction to his audience for he has represented the district in which he was speaking in the Ontario parliament for many years. He complimented the Huntingdon Lodge on the success of their celebration and hoped for their continued success in Orangeism. Mr. Hill stated that the unofficial of the Orange Order had just begun and why it had prospered so many years was the fact, that it was founded on the open Bible. "The Orange Order has proved a leading of fact", said the speaker, and he advised his listeners to see the country remained democratic and to not let it fall into hands of a dictator. Speaking on the Bible he said we must continue in the beaten path was the path of Protestant organizations and banded together in the common purpose. Rev. Jas. Semple of Bridge Street United Church, Belleville and George A. Reid of this city were to have spoken but owing to the late time from Foxboro, where they addressed large audiences. The meeting was closed with the National Anthem.

Softball

A tournament was completed during the afternoon between the following teams, Minto, Evergreen and Ivanhoe, with Ivanhoe winning from Evergreen and Evergreen defeating Minto. The first game was a seven-inning game for one inning was in the fifth with a five run splurge, but Evergreen came back with five in the sixth, but could do no better than a 11-10 win.

The third game Ivanhoe scored seven runs in two frames before Evergreen could manufacture a counter, but they were not enough to give Ivanhoe to coast home a winner, by a score of 7-6.

The teams:

Evergreen—D. Stapley r; C. Devolin ss; D. Rogers 2b; Aubrey Rogers p; Ken Roadworth c; D. Rowe 1b; H. Stapley 3b; C. Mills cf; R. Heath, 3b.

Ivanhoe—Cook, 3b; Tanner rf; Heagle cf; Reid 1b; Mudbury ss; Haberman 2b; D. Sine c; C. Sine cf; Ray p.

Score by innings:

Minto ..... 030 250 0—10
Evergreen ..... 021 304 1—11
Umpires—Thomlinson and Bateman.

2nd Game

Ivanhoe—Thomlinson c; K. Holland rf; Broad 3b; Heiderson 1b; E. Woods 2b; C. Woods lf; R. Mersaw 3b; Shaw cf; H. Merraw ss.

Evergreen—Same as before.

Score by innings:

Evergreen ..... 001 301 1—6
Ivanhoe ..... 430 011 x—8
Umpires—Thomlinson and Bateman.

School Tax Issue Paramount On Glorious Twelfth Platform At Monster Rally at Foxboro

Twenty Lodges Gather at Maple Grove to Hear Addresses

LENGTHY PARADE

Women's Lodge of Belleville Given Prize For Best Turnout

If there is one County in the Province of Ontario that members of the Orange Society are true to the organization in the commemoration of the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne is it Hastings County. There are in the county many Orange Societies and on the 12th of July every effort is made to hold fitting celebrations at various centres. This year lodges in the southern part of the county gathered at the village of Foxboro. Rain during the forenoon did not dampen the enthusiasm of members. The celebration was held under the auspices of L.O.L. No. 3 of Foxboro and those in charge are to be commended for their efforts by seeing a large number in attendance, not only of Orangemen but also a large number of L.O.B.A., but visitors. Some twenty lodges were represented in the parade which was by every respect a most creditable. The parade took place in Carter's grove which is located on the north of Foxboro village limits. It is in every respect an ideal place for such an event. Shortly after 1 o'clock standard time the parade was formed at the grove and the line of march was to the lumber camps and industries" was part of the plan. Mr. Tummon stated and "if they did not succeed, the trusted members of the organization must break up the camps by any means, even to setting fire to them. There is one fact that orders were issued to put oil and gasoline on the food and if that did not work, to strike brakers, poison was to be used. He declared, the trusted members were to take pictures of the inside and outside of plants paying particular attention to the machinery. He declared money would be forthcoming and the ultimate general walkout would be ordered and in front of the Red Army would usher in wage a revolution and establish a Soviet Russia, crush capitalism and impose the Red flag instead of the "rad" Flag of Russia. "I want to impress upon you, that we are facing a dangerous position and we must all get together to fight a common foe" said Mr. Tummon in conclusion.

James F. Hill, M.P.P.

Mr. Hill needed no introduction to his audience for he has represented the district in which he was speaking in the Ontario parliament for many years. He complimented the Huntingdon Lodge on the success of their celebration and hoped for their continued success in Orangeism. Mr. Hill stated that the unofficial of the Orange Order had just begun and why it had prospered so many years was the fact, that it was founded on the open Bible. "The Orange Order has proved a leading of fact", said the speaker, and he advised his listeners to see the country remained democratic and to not let it fall into hands of a dictator. Speaking on the Bible he said we must continue in the beaten path was the path of Protestant organizations and banded together in the common purpose. Rev. Jas. Semple of Bridge Street United Church, Belleville and George A. Reid of this city were to have spoken but owing to the late time from Foxboro, where they addressed large audiences. The meeting was closed with the National Anthem.

Softball

A tournament was completed during the afternoon between the following teams, Minto, Evergreen and Ivanhoe, with Ivanhoe winning from Evergreen and Evergreen defeating Minto. The first game was a seven-inning game for one inning was in the fifth with a five run splurge, but Evergreen came back with five in the sixth, but could do no better than a 11-10 win.

The third game Ivanhoe scored seven runs in two frames before Evergreen could manufacture a counter, but they were not enough to give Ivanhoe to coast home a winner, by a score of 7-6.

The teams:

Evergreen—D. Stapley r; C. Devolin ss; D. Rogers 2b; Aubrey Rogers p; Ken Roadworth c; D. Rowe 1b; H. Stapley 3b; C. Mills cf; R. Heath, 3b.

Ivanhoe—Cook, 3b; Tanner rf; Heagle cf; Reid 1b; Mudbury ss; Haberman 2b; D. Sine c; C. Sine cf; Ray p.

Score by innings:

Minto ..... 030 250 0—10
Evergreen ..... 021 304 1—11
Umpires—Thomlinson and Bateman.

2nd Game

Ivanhoe—Thomlinson c; K. Holland rf; Broad 3b; Heiderson 1b; E. Woods 2b; C. Woods lf; R. Mersaw 3b; Shaw cf; H. Merraw ss.

Evergreen—Same as before.

Score by innings:

FREE for RHEUMATISM

HEMPLETON'S RHEUMATIC CAPSULES (T-R-C) act on you from the inside and relieve all rheumatic pains and soreness; give quick, safe relief from that dreadful, torturing pain of rheumatism and neuritis; stubborn pain of sciatica, lumbago, backache. Prove T-R-C at our risk. Send for FREE TRIAL OFFER. Write HEMPLETON'S, Dept. 1-C, Toronto. Send, Forward, 3, Ontario.

Twenty Lodges Gather at Maple Grove to Hear Addresses

LENGTHY PARADE

Women's Lodge of Belleville Given Prize For Best Turnout

If there is one County in the Province of Ontario that members of the Orange Society are true to the organization in the commemoration of the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne is it Hastings County. There are in the county many Orange Societies and on the 12th of July every effort is made to hold fitting celebrations at various centres. This year lodges in the southern part of the county gathered at the village of Foxboro. Rain during the forenoon did not dampen the enthusiasm of members. The celebration was held under the auspices of L.O.L. No. 3 of Foxboro and those in charge are to be commended for their efforts by seeing a large number in attendance, not only of Orangemen but also a large number of L.O.B.A., but visitors. Some twenty lodges were represented in the parade which was by every respect a most creditable. The parade took place in Carter's grove which is located on the north of Foxboro village limits. It is in every respect an ideal place for such an event. Shortly after 1 o'clock standard time the parade was formed at the grove and the line of march was to the lumber camps and industries" was part of the plan. Mr. Tummon stated and "if they did not succeed, the trusted members of the organization must break up the camps by any means, even to setting fire to them. There is one fact that orders were issued to put oil and gasoline on the food and if that did not work, to strike brakers, poison was to be used. He declared, the trusted members were to take pictures of the inside and outside of plants paying particular attention to the machinery. He declared money would be forthcoming and the ultimate general walkout would be ordered and in front of the Red Army would usher in wage a revolution and establish a Soviet Russia, crush capitalism and impose the Red flag instead of the "rad" Flag of Russia. "I want to impress upon you, that we are facing a dangerous position and we must all get together to fight a common foe" said Mr. Tummon in conclusion.

James F. Hill, M.P.P.

Mr. Hill needed no introduction to his audience for he has represented the district in which he was speaking in the Ontario parliament for many years. He complimented the Huntingdon Lodge on the success of their celebration and hoped for their continued success in Orangeism. Mr. Hill stated that the unofficial of the Orange Order had just begun and why it had prospered so many years was the fact, that it was founded on the open Bible. "The Orange Order has proved a leading of fact", said the speaker, and he advised his listeners to see the country remained democratic and to not let it fall into hands of a dictator. Speaking on the Bible he said we must continue in the beaten path was the path of Protestant organizations and banded together in the common purpose. Rev. Jas. Semple of Bridge Street United Church, Belleville and George A. Reid of this city were to have spoken but owing to the late time from Foxboro, where they addressed large audiences. The meeting was closed with the National Anthem.

Softball

A tournament was completed during the afternoon between the following teams, Minto, Evergreen and Ivanhoe, with Ivanhoe winning from Evergreen and Evergreen defeating Minto. The first game was a seven-inning game for one inning was in the fifth with a five run splurge, but Evergreen came back with five in the sixth, but could do no better than a 11-10 win.

The third game Ivanhoe scored seven runs in two frames before Evergreen could manufacture a counter, but they were not enough to give Ivanhoe to coast home a winner, by a score of 7-6.

The teams:

Evergreen—D. Stapley r; C. Devolin ss; D. Rogers 2b; Aubrey Rogers p; Ken Roadworth c; D. Rowe 1b; H. Stapley 3b; C. Mills cf; R. Heath, 3b.

Ivanhoe—Cook, 3b; Tanner rf; Heagle cf; Reid 1b; Mudbury ss; Haberman 2b; D. Sine c; C. Sine cf; Ray p.

Score by innings:

Minto ..... 030 250 0—10
Evergreen ..... 021 304 1—11
Umpires—Thomlinson and Bateman.

2nd Game

Ivanhoe—Thomlinson c; K. Holland rf; Broad 3b; Heiderson 1b; E. Woods 2b; C. Woods lf; R. Mersaw 3b; Shaw cf; H. Merraw ss.

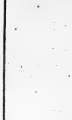
Evergreen—Same as before.

Score by innings:

Evergreen ..... 001 301 1—6
Ivanhoe ..... 430 011 x—8
Umpires—Thomlinson and Bateman.

FREE for RHEUMATISM

HEMPLETON'S RHEUMATIC CAPSULES (T-R-C) act on you from the inside and relieve all rheumatic pains and soreness; give quick, safe relief from that dreadful, torturing pain of rheumatism and neuritis; stubborn pain of sciatica, lumbago, backache. Prove T-R-C at our risk. Send for FREE TRIAL OFFER. Write HEMPLETON'S, Dept. 1-C, Toronto. Send, Forward, 3, Ontario.



CANT SLEEP 2

IT'S YOUR NERVES

Relief comes soon with use of

Dr. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

"Keep Your Pipe Cool",

Advises Mr. Picobac

● "Ninety in the shade doesn't bother me," said the philosopher of Sunny Southern Ontario's Burley tobacco belt. "Turn on the heat."

Having chosen a comfortable spot for his feet on the verandah railing, Mr. Picobac filled his pipe from a seal-tight Picobac pouch and leaned back in his chair for a mild cool sweet smoke.

"Heat ripens the Burley," said he. "That's why we have it hot down here on the Lake Erie front. We don't mind a little heat. We need it in our business."

"When I want to keep cool on a hot day, first thing I do is clean out my pipe. A clean pipe is a cool pipe. Then I fill her up with Picobac tobacco. Because Picobac is a cool tobacco. Picobac, you understand, is the pick of Canada's Burley, and good Burley burns cool. Try it. You'll enjoy the hot weather better if you smoke Picobac. It's a mild . . . cool sweet smoke — in summer time or any time. And the new seal-tight pouch keeps Picobac quality and flavour moist and fresh."

NEW SEAL-TIGHT POUCH 15¢

½-POUND "LOK-TOP" TIN 60¢

ALSO PACKED IN HANDY POCKET TINS

Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Limited

"IT DOES TASTE GOOD IN A PIPE!"

Picobac

GROWN IN SUNNY, SOUTHERN ONTARIO

FAMILY PICNIC GREATLY ENJOYED

Hillier—Mrs. Clifton Gamble spent a few days last week at Bloomfield with her aunt Mrs. Hiram Nelson.

Mr. Harry Charlton and Mrs. Department of Conscience and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kent and sister, and Jim Charlton, Lake Shore, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Brook were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wall and Marion, Consecon; Miss Dorothy and Betty Gifford of Oshawa; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Allore, Trenton; Mrs. W. Gordon and Miss Dora Vanhouten; Mrs. Wm. Monnahan, Wellington; Miss Lena Young and Mrs. Florence Young; Mrs. J. D. Campbell and Mrs. J. McLeod, Hillier.

Mr. Orval Trumpour is operating the pea viner at Mr. William Hardy's.

Mrs. Geo. Wall and Mrs. M. L. Gifford of Oshawa and Miss Helen Wall, Consecon, called on Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Campbell, Sunday.

The annual meeting of the Pinda-Landgon families was held at Mrs. Wilma Rosebrugh's on July 7th. Mr. Sunday, July 7th. Tables beautifully decorated with summer blooms and fairly groaning with all sorts of dainties to tempt the most fastidious. Games were played on the spacious lawn. There were guests from Brighton, Smithfield, Trenton, Rochester, Belleville, Roslin and Hillier. 74 in all, who not only enjoyed themselves but remained for a social visit with relatives long parted and all voted the picnic a success, leaving after a most delightful day.

Miss Freda Fox spent a few days last week visiting in Springbrook.

Mr. George McCrimmon, Miss Venus Owens spent one day last week in Belleville.

Master Billie Long of Meaford is spending his holidays with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ellis of Marmora spent Friday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wessa.

VISIT FRIENDS IN MALONE DISTRICT

Malone—Mr. and Mrs. Morrey Nickle and son Glen also Measre Dan and Robt. Auld of Madoc spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nickle.

Mrs. Ben Wesse of Belleville is spending some time visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. Harold Long and family of Madoc are spending a couple of weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wesse.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCann spent Tuesday afternoon in Marmora.

Mr. B. J. Nickle of Belleville is spending a few days with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nickle.

Mrs. H. Wesse and Mrs. B. Wesse spent dinner hour Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wenham, guests.

Mrs. John Ellis, Fred, Bill and Reta of Belleville also Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Arthurs, Trenton, Doris and Bobbie and Miss Agnes Foley of Belleville called at the Wesse home on Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Wesse spent Monday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Long.

Miss Freda Fox spent a few days last week visiting in Springbrook.

Mr. George McCrimmon, Miss Venus Owens spent one day last week in Belleville.

Master Billie Long of Madoc is spending his holidays with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ellis of Marmora spent Friday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wesse.

Advises Mr. Picobac

● "Ninety in the shade doesn't bother me," said the philosopher of Sunny Southern Ontario's Burley tobacco belt. "Turn on the heat."

Having chosen a comfortable spot for his feet on the verandah railing, Mr. Picobac filled his pipe from a seal-tight Picobac pouch and leaned back in his chair for a mild cool sweet smoke.

"Heat ripens the Burley," said he. "That's why we have it hot down here on the Lake Erie front. We don't mind a little heat. We need it in our business."

"When I want to keep cool on a hot day, first thing I do is clean out my pipe. A clean pipe is a cool pipe. Then I fill her up with Picobac tobacco. Because Picobac is a cool tobacco. Picobac, you understand, is the pick of Canada's Burley, and good Burley burns cool. Try it. You'll enjoy the hot weather better if you smoke Picobac. It's a mild . . . cool sweet smoke — in summer time or any time. And the new seal-tight pouch keeps Picobac quality and flavour moist and fresh."

NEW SEAL-TIGHT POUCH 15¢

½-POUND "LOK-TOP" TIN 60¢

ALSO PACKED IN HANDY POCKET TINS

Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Limited

"IT DOES TASTE GOOD IN A PIPE!"

Picobac

GROWN IN SUNNY, SOUTHERN ONTARIO

FAMILY PICNIC GREATLY ENJOYED

Hillier—Mrs. Clifton Gamble spent a few days last week at Bloomfield with her aunt Mrs. Hiram Nelson.

Mr. Harry Charlton and Mrs. Department of Conscience and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kent and sister, and Jim Charlton, Lake Shore, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Brook were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wall and Marion, Consecon; Miss Dorothy and Betty Gifford of Oshawa; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Allore, Trenton; Mrs. W. Gordon and Miss Dora Vanhouten; Mrs. Wm. Monnahan, Wellington; Miss Lena Young and Mrs. Florence Young; Mrs. J. D. Campbell and Mrs. J. McLeod, Hillier.

Mr. Orval Trumpour is operating the pea viner at Mr. William Hardy's.

Mrs. Geo. Wall and Mrs. M. L. Gifford of Oshawa and Miss Helen Wall, Consecon, called on Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Campbell, Sunday.

The annual meeting of the Pinda-Landgon families was held at Mrs. Wilma Rosebrugh's on July 7th. Mr. Sunday, July 7th. Tables beautifully decorated with summer blooms and fairly groaning with all sorts of dainties to tempt the most fastidious. Games were played on the spacious lawn. There were guests from Brighton, Smithfield, Trenton, Rochester, Belleville, Roslin and Hillier, 74 in all, who not only enjoyed themselves but remained for a social visit with relatives long parted and all voted the picnic a success, leaving after a most delightful day.

Miss Freda Fox spent a few days last week visiting in Springbrook.

Mr. George McCrimmon, Miss Venus Owens spent one day last week in Belleville.

Master Billie Long of Madoc is spending his holidays with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ellis of Marmora spent Friday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wesse.

VISIT FRIENDS IN MALONE DISTRICT

Malone—Mr. and Mrs. Morrey Nickle and son Glen also Measre Dan and Robt. Auld of Madoc spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nickle.

Mrs. Ben Wesse of Belleville is spending some time visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. Harold Long and family of Madoc are spending a couple of weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wesse.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCann spent Tuesday afternoon in Marmora.

Mr. B. J. Nickle of Belleville is spending a few days with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nickle.

Mrs. H. Wesse and Mrs. B. Wesse spent dinner hour Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wenham, guests.

Mrs. John Ellis, Fred, Bill and Reta of Belleville also Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Arthurs, Trenton, Doris and Bobbie and Miss Agnes Foley of Belleville called at the Wesse home on Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Wesse spent Monday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Long.

Miss Freda Fox spent a few days last week visiting in Springbrook.

Mr. George McCrimmon, Miss Venus Owens spent one day last week in Belleville.

Master Billie Long of Madoc is spending his holidays with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ellis of Marmora spent Friday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wesse.

SAVE EACH WEEK

London, Ont., July 13—(CP)—Of the 1,114 candidates examined this year for junior high school entrance standing 87.9 per cent were successful. The per centage last year was 84.7. Six hundred and eighty-eight gained standing on their year's work and 36.7 per cent per cent of those who tried the departmentals passed, compared with 30 per cent in Toronto.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

HARVEST

Four million tons of hay will call for harvesters in Ontario in a few days or weeks. This is twice last year's crop in volume. It will be worth no less than $35,000,000 or $40,000,000. So the sturdy Ontario farmer and his helpers will work and perspire in the glorious hayfields of this province and reap where he has sown and where nature with his co-operation has produced this immense wealth.

This is the hay-month of the ancient Anglo-Saxons to whom our agriculture looks for much of its lore. Cutting will begin in a few days and the sound of the reaper will be heard in the land while the noble horses plough their way through the fields which support the races of man and beast. It is the old earth, the sky with its showers, and its clouds and its sun and its moon which make this annual miracle. Nature's bounty has with it a bounty bestowed the crops of this land this year. Riches in every form of blade and leaf, plant and flower and fruit is the nature way.

The berry crop has been partially harvested and put away in the form of preserves for the coming year. And now the hay has begun.

Out of the many thousands of grasses which are to be found on earth have come the cereals we prize so much and which the man from the tallest stages of agriculture has known how to prize. And hay is a grass of great economic importance as it provides food for horses and cattle during the winter when the fields are silent the drivers are audible, shouting and laughing regardless of the feelings of citizens within hearing desiring to sleep. Then the light comes and when the trucks start to pull out, no effort being made, apparently to move quietly. This is not their town, why bother? Repeated complaints have been made to the police but results have not been satisfactory, it is stated by the complainants. Hotel in the noise area claim that travellers refuse to accept rooms overlooking Front Street because of the noise, and demand rear rooms or none. The hotel proprietor fears a serious loss if a business man's reputation as a sound sleeper is quieter. As the same hotel is feeding from ten to twenty transients daily, free, good wholesome meals, and thus performing a duty which should rest on the taxpayers generally instead of one individual, the complaint is entitled to even greater consideration. Seems as though there were ample cause for complaint here and vigorous remedial action should begin at once.

x x x

WEEDS ALONG THE HIGHWAY in profusion are not the most attractive sights possible for tourists from countries where weeds are never permitted to mature. Provincial Highway Department please take notice.

x x x

WITH THE MODERN PUMPER, recently purchased by the City of Belleville, as the nucleus, a smart up-to-the-minute fire department should be created. Some of the equipment and buildings are somewhat antequated, but with the new pumper installed, the rest of the equipment will have to be improved to keep pace with the new magnificence and the ultimate result will be a fire-fighting department, smart and efficient and equal to any demands which may be made upon it. Even a fire alarm box system. Such as they have in Napanee, Kingston, Toronto and other places, may be possible.

x x x

BRITISH SUBJECTS, Americans and all other foreign residents of Abyssinia have been ordered out on account of impending war with Italy. War correspondents are going in, including that happy-go-lucky scribbler of facts as they are, Richard Halliburton. All of which indicates that the war clouds are gathering thick. Mussolini, the Dictator, like all Dictators, is strutting like a turkey cock and making a great fuss of fighting the blacks for the honor of dear old Italy and all that stuff. Seems like when a man pushes himself out of the herd and takes one of the seats of the mighty to which he hasn't been born or trained, he just has to has not been born or trained, he just has to has not been born or trained, he just has to has not

L.O.B.A. VISIT HALLOWAY LODGE

Degrees Are Conferred by Team From Stirling

Stirling—On Tuesday evening July 9th, a large representation of the district L.O.B.A. No. 666 visited the lodge at Halloway and the degree team of Stirling conferred degrees on a number of candidates of that fraternity. Among those from Stirling who were in attendance were: Misses Pearl McGee; Jennie Burkitt; Lulu Juby; Gertie Coon; Laura Condé; Alla Grosmaire; Bessie Rodgers; Blanche Cordinier; Amelia Crawford; Agnes Hammond; Agnes Francis; Mollie McGee; Gladys Richardson; Vera Mitts; Don Hubble; Greta Knaston and Minnie Morrison. After the ceremonial business of the evening a dainty lunch was served and an hour of social enjoyment followed.

Wednesday, July 10th, was a red letter day in the lives of the members of the Youngsters. For many days previous to this date children talked almost continually of the two approaching picnics and the town was besieged and anxious children all through the early part of Wednesday, anxiously scanning the heavens hoping for fair weather. Their wishes were certainly granted and the friendly weather man on this occasion for Wednesday was a most ideal day for picnicking.

St. Paul's annual picnic and congregational picnic held in the grove on the north side of the town was largely attended by young and old and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Promptly at 10 a.m. the large gathering enjoyed a sumptuous dinner served on the lakeside and the entire afternoon was devoted to various kinds of sports and games including horseshoe pitching, running races, etc.

Following are the prize winners:

Mixed race 7 and under—Gerald Scott; Joan Bradley.

Girl's race, 9 and under—Joan Munro; Gladys Delme; Marion Tulloch.

Boy's race, 9 and under—Fred Eggleston; G. Scott; Orland Delme.

Girl's 11 and under—Ellen Harrington; Alleon Tanner; Dorothy Rahn.

Boy's 11 and under—Ralph Vandervoort; Orland Delme; Artie Shore.

Girl's 13 and under—Reta Tucker; Mary Shore.

Boy's 13 and under—Artie Shore, Ralph Vandervoort.

Girl's 15 and under—Mary Shore; Reta Tucker.

Boy's 15 and under—Artie Shore, Malcolm Reid.

A relay race with pie plates, Douglas Patterson's team, Helen Jeffrey's team and Artie Shore's team.

Wheelbarrow race—Gerald Barrett and Delbert Ashley; Chas. Feeley and Artie Shore.

Girl's shoe race—Reta Tucker; Juna Woodbeck.

Boy's Shoe race—Donald Tucker; Ralph Vandervoort.

Slow race—June Woodbeck; Dorothy Rahn.

Maple Leaf Mission Band of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church were entertained at a splendid outing and picnic at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Harper Rollins "Roll-Inn" at Oak Lake on Wednesday afternoon and evening. Over 50 children were present and some were accompanied by their parents. All joined heartily in the many sporting events which occupied the entire afternoon at the conclusion of which a fine supper, served with the assistance of some of the senior girls, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Following is a Primary girl's running race — Marjorie Gay, Dor Rodgers, Dora Connelly.

Prize Winners

Jr. girl's running race—Dorothy Gay; Marie Gay; Lila Chambers; Maxine Hine; Shirley Montgomery.

Jr. Boy's running race—Bob Tulloch; Earl Dafoe; Grant Montgomery; Harper Sills.

Intermediate girl's—Eileen Chamberz; Lois Hay; Madeline McGee.

Women's knot race—Mrs. E. T. Ward; Gena Spry; Mrs. Gay; Mrs. Montgomery.

Boy's boot and shoe race—Cameron Foster; Frank Rodgers; Bob Tulloch; Grant Montgomery.

Children under 5—Doreen Fox; Jimmie Gay; Agnes Mitchell; Ruth Tulloch.

Girl's clothes pin race—Gena Spry Ines Eigle; May Johnston.

Girl's three legged race—Helen Fitchett and Madeline McGee; Jean Dafoe and Dorothy Montgomery; Shirley Montgomery and Dorothy Gay.

Boy's clothespin race—Earl Dafoe Frank Rodgers; Bob Tulloch; Cameron Foster.

Many of the fine prizes in these events were given by Mr. Albert Hammond.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGee and daughter of Detroit, are visiting and spending two weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McGee.

Mr. J. S. Morton has returned home after attending the International convention of Rexall Druggist held this week at the Royal York hotel in Toronto.

Mr. Alex Smith of Havelock has returned home after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Burkitt.

Mrs. Grace Johnson and son of Niagara Falls visited Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Burkitt this week.

LAKE WATER NOT BLAMED

Leamington, Ont., July 13—(CP)—Dr. J. L. R. Eade, Medical Health officer for this town termed as "evidentiary" the rumor typhoid germs existed in Lake Erie off here. The dirty and unattractive condition of the water, due to the annual invasion of fish flies is beyond respectable for the human.

REVOLT IN THE DESERT

by

T. E. LAWRENCE

The narrows of Wadi Ilm increased in intricate ruggedness as we penetrated deeper. Below Ekthire we found Turkish post after Turkish post, empty. Their men had been drawn in to Khadra, the entrenched position (at the mouth of Ilm), which covered Akaba so well against a landing from the sea. Unfortunately for them the enemy had never imagined attack from the interior, and of all their great works not one trench or post faced inland. Our advance from so new a direction threw them into panic.

In the afternoon we were in contact with this main position, and heard from the local Arabs that the subsidiary posts about Akaba had been called in or reduced, so that only a last three hundred men barred us from the sea. We dismounted for a council, to hear that the enemy were resisting firmly in bomb-proof trenches with a new artesian well. Clearly it was rumoured that they had little food.

No more had we. It was a check. Our council swayed this way and that. Arguments bickered between the prudent and the bold. Tempers were short and bodies restless in the incandescent gorge whose granite peaks radiated the sun in a myriad shimmering points of light, and into the depths of whose tortuous bed no wind could come to relieve the utter stagnation of the air with heat.

Our numbers had swollen double. So thickly did the men crowd in the narrow space, and press about us, that we broke up our council into ones or thries, partly because it was not good they should overhear us wrangling, partly because in the sweltering confinement our unwashed smells offended us. Through our heads the heavy pulses throbbed like clocks.

We sent the Turks summonses, first by white flag, and then by Turkish prisoners, but they shot at both. This inflamed our Bedouin, and while we were yet deliberating a sudden wave of them burst up on the rocks and sent a hail of bullets spattering against the enemy. Nasir ran out barefoot, to stop them, but after ten steps on the burning ground screeched for sandals; while I crouched in my action to follow, he wearied of these men (whose minds all were my livery) to care who regulated their febrile impulses.

We had a third try to communicate with the Turks, by means of a little conscript, who said that he understood and so do it. We watched down close to the trenches with him and sent in for an officer to speak with us. After some hesitation this was achieved, and we explained the situation on the road behind us; our growing forces; and our short control over their temperers. The upshot was that they promised to surrender at daylight. So we had another sleepless an event rare enough to chronicle in spite of our arrival.

Next day at dawn fighting broke out on all sides, for hundreds more hill-men, again doubling our number, had come in the night; and, not knowing the arrangement, began shooting at the Turks, who defended themselves. Nasir went off with Ibn Daghetthir and his Ageyl marching in fours, down the open bed of the valley. Our guns opened fire. The Turks then stopped, for their rank and file had no more fight in them and no more food, and thought we were well supplied. So the surrender went off quietly after all.

As the Arabs rushed in to plunder I noticed an engineer in grey uniform, with red beard and purplish eyes; and spoke to him in German. He was the well-borer, and knew no Turkish. Recent doings had amazed him, and he begged me to explain what we meant. I said that we were a rebellion of the Arabs against the Turks. This, it took him time to appreciate. He wanted to know who was our leader. I said the Sherif of Mecca. He supposed he would be sent to Mecca. I said rather to Egypt. He inquired the price of sugar, and when I replied, "cheap and plentiful," he was glad.

The loss of his belongings he took philosophically, but was sorry for the well, which a little work would have finished as his monument. He showed me where it was with the pump only half-built. By pulling on the sludge bucket we drew enough delicious clear water to quench our thirsts. Then we raced through a driving sandstorm down to Akaba, four miles further, and splashed into the sea on July the sixth, just four months after our setting out from Wejh.

CHAPTER XII

Akaba, Seen, Allenby

We sat down to watch our new streaming past; at lines of flushed vacant faces without message for us. For months Akaba had been the horizon of our minds, the goal we had had no thought, we had refused thought, of anything beside. Now, in achievement, we were a little despising the entities which had spent their extremest effort on an object whose attainment changed nothing radical either in us or our body.

Hunger called us out, of our trance. We had now seven hundred prisoners in addition to our own five hundred men and two thousand expected allies. We had not any money (or, indeed, a market); and the last meal had been two days old. In our riding camels we possessed meat enough for six weeks, but it was poor diet, and a dear diet, indigence in which would bring future immobility upon us.

Supper taught us the urgent need to send news over the Hejaz railway and fifty desert miles to the British Al Buss for a relief ship. I decided to go across myself with a party of eight, mostly Howeitat, on the best camels in the force—one even was the famous Jedhah, the seven-year-old for whom the Nowaseb had fought the best Sakhr. As we rode round the bay we discussed the manner of our journey. If we went openly, sparing the animals, they might fall sick with fever. If we rode hard they might break down with exhaustion or sore feet in mid-desert.

(To Be Continued)

Dionnes So Lively Nurses Kept Busy

Callander, Ont., July 13—(CP)—Rapid gains in strength and vitality are making the Dionne quintuplets so lively, nurses at the Dafoe hospital are having their hands full in maintaining discipline.

"When they are romping together it is necessary for one of the nurses to be constantly on guard," Dr. Allan R. Dafoe said today. "Otherwise someone is liable to be hurt".

Inquest Jury Deplores Danger of Streets

Windsor, Ont., July 13 (CP)—A rider deploring the fact there seemed to be no way to overcome the danger of motor cars striking children who play on the streets after dark was included in verdict of a coroner's jury inquiring into the death of three-year-old Eva Ynard. The girl was struck and fatally injured by a car driven by Guiseppe Trevisiol, on the night of July 3. The driver was absolved of all blame and the death declared accidental.

ARMY FLIER BAILS OUT NEAR GUELPH

Machine Wrecked When it Lands on Farmer's Field

Guelph, Ont., July 13—(CP)—Lt. Gordon Bell, R.A.F. army flier, was forced to bail out a distance of 5,000 feet when his plane ran out of petrol and crashed early today.

Bell, flying from Grand Rapids, Mich., to Uplridge Army Field, got off his course and ran out of fuel over Guelph. He jumped out with a parachute and landed near the Ontario Reformatory, and his craft crashed to earth on the farm of Arthur Farr, Eramosa Road. Bell was unhurt, but the plane was nothing but a twisted mass of wreckage today.

Badén Steel Hats Dissolved Today

Karlsruhe Germany, July 13 — (AP)—The ministry of the interior today dissolved 46 groups of the Baden Steel Helmets, the German veterans organization, on charges of subversive tendencies.

The dissolution order says that the local ranks of the Steel helmets were swelled by former opponents "under whose influence the Baden Helmet organization turned into political opposition to the Nazi movement, thus seriously endangering the political loyalty of the German people."

UTILITY PUBLICITY COSTS $300,000

Washington, July 13—(AP)—Evidence that more than $300,000 had been spent by United States Public Utility companies in an effort to defeat the provision in the Utilities Bill to break up pyramided holding companies in seven years was received today by the Senate Lobby Committee.

British Exposition Satisfies The French

(By The Canadian Press)

Satisfaction in Paris was apparently the most important reaction today to the house of Commons by Sir Samuel Hoare, new Foreign Secretary.

All available comment from the French capital indicated Sir Samuel's references to the European situation, especially his pointed invitation to Germany to conclude the Eastern and Central European Pacts, have removed the coolness which sprang up when Britain negotiated the naval accord with Germany

ORDER FOLLOWS 'QUAKE

Tokyo, July 13.—(AP)— Authorities of the Shizuoka area restored the district to a semblance of normality today after many of the inhabitants remained under the open sky during the night in fear of further earthquakes.

MONTREAL

FOR thousands of years the Mount Royal Hotel has stood on the site of Montreal. Perhaps many of the Indians who lived in the "Land of the Hiawatha" ate meals on the very spot where this hotel now stands. Breakfast, lunch or dinner, with all kinds of interesting food, served in a delightful way. Delicious pastries and ices. Tempting sandwiches. Delightful surroundings. Prices moderate. Service unsurpassed. Just a step from the business and shopping districts. Garage facilities. Write or telephone for reservations.

MOUNT ROYAL HOTEL

J. ALDERIC RAYMOND, PRESIDENT — VERNON G. CARDY, MANAGING DIRECTOR

For the BEST VACATION YOU EVER HAD

SOLID STEEL TURRET TOP BODIES BY FISHER

KNEE-ACTION RIDE

WEATHERPROOF CABLE-CONTROLLED BRAKES

BLUE FLAME ENGINE

FISHER NO-DRAFT VENTILATION

GOING VACATIONING soon? Start out in a new Master Chevrolet and assure the success of your holiday plans! You travel smartly in this aristocrat of the low-priced field. You travel dependably, economically, care-free. And best of all, you travel in Canada's most modern low-priced automobile—the only car in its class with the safe new Turret Top bodies by Fisher . . . with Knee-Action front wheels . . . with Cable-Controlled Brakes, Blue Flame Engine and Fisher no-draft Ventilation! Your nearest dealer can make immediate delivery of your car now . . . call in and see him today. At the same time, look over the new Standard Chevrolet, the lowest-priced fully equipped car on the market. Easy GMAC terms.

THE TURRET TOP : : : the newest, safest automobile body construction known. The roof of the car is one solid, seamless sheet of steel—extending down to steel sides and a steel floor. A Fisher Body advantage, offered only on the Master Chevrolet in its price class.

KNEE-ACTION : : : owners and engineers both agree that you have Knee-Action front wheels for the ultimate in riding ease! Only the Master Chevrolet in the low-price field gives Knee-Action plus balanced weight.

BLUE-FLAME ENGINE : : : Chevrolet's latest development of the famous valve-in-head six-cylinder engine. Proved economy and dependability—along with power and performance!

CABLE-CONTROLLED BRAKES : : : Another exclusive Chevrolet feature —for smooth, equalized, positive braking under all conditions.

FISHER VENTILATION . . . the proved, built-in No-Draft system pioneered by Chevrolet. Actually cools the car interior in hot weather.

PRICED FROM $901 (For the Master 2-Pass. Coupe) DELIVERED IN BELLEVILLE ONLY EXHIBITION. Government Registration Tax only Extra

See the new Standard Series models priced as low as $728 Delivered in Belleville

C-195A

Drive a CHEVROLET

READY FOR IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

J. B. BOYCE

CHEVROLET, OLDSMOBILE, BUICK, PONTIAC

SALES AND SERVICE

348-50 Front Street Belleville Phone 704

FOR ECONOMICAL TRANSPORTATION

Personals

ENGAGEMENT NOTICE

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bailey, Belleville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Beverley Sarah, to Mr. John Edgar Garratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Garratt of Wellington. The wedding will take place August 7th.

Mr. Fred Plummer was admitted to hospital to undergo a mastoid operation.

Miss Matilda Peat of Edmonton, Alberta, is visiting her parents, 224 Coleman Street.

Mrs. H. Williams and Mrs. H. Hoey were in Deseronto at the Belleville Golf Club this afternoon.

Miss Mary Scanlan of Chicago is visiting Miss Clare Mullins, South George Street.

Misses Violet, May and Ruth Hobson, are visiting in Toronto with their brother, Thomas, is holidaying at Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Aman and baby Donald, Murray Street, are spending the week-end in Grimsby.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mitchell and family, Melrose Avenue, motored to Ottawa today attending the funeral of the former's mother, Mrs. Reid Mitchell.

Yesterday afternoon about twenty-five members of the Girl Guide Council enjoyed a picnic supper at Hillcrest, and were royally entertained by the Guides. A sports programme, picnic supper and campfire gave the visitors a glimpse of the Guide's camp day.

Mr. S. Tickell, 254 Church Street, is accompanied by his nephew, Mr. P. J. Tickell of Palo Alto, California, left Montreal by Str. Ausonia on Friday for Cobh in the British Isles.

"As the sunfire partly had last evening at the South End Yacht Club, the following officers were elected: Commodore, Arthur Hirst; Vice-Commodore, Mrs. Conn; secretary, Mrs. Hirst; treasurer, Mrs. Graham; fourth; Mrs. Graham, first, L. Stephenson; second, Mrs. Monsman; third, Mrs. Conway; fourth, J. Lynch. Mrs. Conway and G. Cole were winners of the home hand prizes.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Evans Weese, 224 Coleman Street, was the scene of a delightful party on Thursday evening, July 11th, when about thirty relatives and friends gathered there a surprise party, it being the thirtieth anniversary of the former's birthday. Those present from Rochester and Kingston, as well as many local points. The evening was spent in cards and music, which everyone enjoyed. A very dainty lunch was served by the visiting ladies and at the conclusion of a very happy evening, all joined in singing, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." On leaving for their homes everyone wished Mr. and Mrs. Weese many more years of happy wedded life.

Belleville and Mr. Merritt Lloyd of Oshawa visited Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Craig of Halfway Bay, Miss Myrna and daughter, Viola, of Trenton, and Mrs. H. M. Ward of Sidney, were recent visitors at the Anglican rectory.

Mrs. Donald Leslie has returned to her home here after spending the past week with her daughter and Mrs. Albert Martin, of Thomasburg.

Birth—On Monday, July 1st., a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ish, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carter, and Mrs. Pearsall of Rednersville, Floyd Hobbert and Miss Dorothy Hobbert of Toronto, on Wednesday evening. The party was arranged in honor of Miss Hobbert on the occasion of her birthday.

Rev. H. R. Nelson of Prescott, Mr. Allen and Miss Nelson made several calls in the village on Tuesday evening, on their way to their summer camp near Bancroft.

Weddings

COLDEN—EASTON

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Rev. R. J. Walker, 371, George Street, Peterborough, on July 11th, when Jean Eva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Easton, Belleville, became the bride of Mr. William Frederick, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Colden, Belleville. Mr. and Mrs. H. Acker attended. The young couple will reside in Belleville.

WILKINSON—MACDONALD

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on June 25th, at the Baptist parsonage, Picton, when Miss Hester, of Jennie R. McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley MacDonald, Point Anne, and Howard K., son of the late Pr. and Mrs. J. Wilkinson, Picton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Cohen.

The bride, who was dressed in blue with white accessories, carried a bouquet of American roses, was attended by Miss Naomi Van Thorn and Mr. D. Roker officiated as groom. A wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Leo Uabold, in Rochester, N.Y., and Mrs. Wilkinson will reside at 844 Averill Avenue.

Library Corner

The discovery of three hundred letters of Napoleon to Marie Louise is an event which does not occur in a life of that great dictator. The collection appeared mysterious-ly in December, 1924, for sale in a London auction room and under-went an institute analysis prior to its introduction remarks, "The writing fan seems to have had a discovered letters is that they show in dramatic proportion both the great love affection for Marie Louise and his growing terror for her incompetence. They clearly demonstrate that had she been a really intelligent woman, capable of carrying out the commands and suggestions of these epistles, the whole course of European history might have been different." The letters which have been given to the public by the courtesy of Mr. Dr. Reddick by the Sessions and Publishing Company, Inc., New York. B. Simpson Black of the Presbyterian Church, Brighton, and Rev. Mr. Smith of the Baptist Church, Campbellford and J. J. Hamilton of the Presbyterian Church, Burnbrae were also present and the Rev. Mr. Black presided. Mr. Reddick's charges was asked and received, that there be unity and co-operation with the new minister and his charges. At the close Mr. Black called on Mrs. Reddick and two daughters Helen and Dorothy, who sang a duet in front of the church. Mr. Alex Hume read an address to the former and welcomed the newcomers to our midst and introduced Hound's daughter, Mrs. John Church, who best Tinney, Elder of English Line Church. Mr. Reddick and Mr. Petherick's introduced their congregations. Mrs. Reddick received a general get-together in social chat brought the meeting to a close.

Induction

Friday afternoon, July 8th was the occasion of the Induction of Rev. R. J. Walker into the pastorate of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Burnbrae following the resignation of Rev. Mr. Reddick. Rev. Mr. Black, Moderator of Rev. Mr. Reddick, Rev. Mr. Walker of St. Andrew's Belleville, Dr. Reddick of Seymour Church, Rev. Mr. Smith of St. John's United Church, Campbellford, Rev. J. J

CLASSIFIED ADS POINT THE WAY TO SURE PROFITS

UP TO $60. EACH PAID FOR U. S. INDIAN HEAD CENTS

We pay these prices for cents—Dated 1859 to $2.00 each; 1858 Small Letters $2.00 each; 1856 Large Letters $500.00 each; 1857 Large Letters $1000.00 each. Certain Indian Head cents, each for Canadian coins. We buy Stamp Collections, Medals, Bank Notes, Old Paper Money, Gold, etc. Send us the large illustrated price list and instructions. Satisfaction guaranteed or the refunded.

HUB COIN SHOP
130-132 FRONT ST.
SARNIA — ONTARIO

Business Directory

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Or Financing of All Kinds.
S. J. FISHER & SON
30 Bridge St. East Telephone 128
Belleville
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto - Ottawa - London - Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

B. A. WYATT, Ph.G., CHIROPRACTOR and Drugless Therapist. Radiodiet examination and treatment. Electric consultation of tonsils and hemorrhoids. Spinal and foot adjustments. Manipulative surgery with electric treatments available. Consultation free. 202 Coleman street, Belleville, phone 1286.

VERA E. STICKEN, CHIROPRACTOR, D.C., and E. R. Sticken, Chiropractor and Drugless Therapist, Radiodiet Diagnosis and Treatment, Ultra-Violet and Infra-Red Radiations and Electrical Treatments. 474 Bridge St. E., Belleville, Ont. Phone 1274.

DENTIST

DR. ROBT. M. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 68 349½ Front St.
11-32

RADIO SERVICE

JOHN A. DEWAR
RADIO TECHNICIAN
Registered — Graduate
Phone 217
382 John St. 41-47

SURVEYORS

FRANKLAYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Belleville, Ont. Phone and Correspondence. Enquiries attended to.
PHONE 8 — P. O. BOX 69
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance
SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
261 Front St. Phone 126

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass
272 Front St. Phone 1134-W

STOCKS & BONDS

HOGAR AND CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1778. P. H. Welch, branch manager. 11-12

LEGAL

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND CO. (Successors to the late F. B. Wallbridge). Barristers, Solicitors, etc. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, Belleville. Trust & Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Madoc. Campbell St., Belleville.

F. W. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public, etc. 13 Campbell St., Belleville, Ont. Phone 1197. 11-12

FORSTER, PAYNE AND ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. A. E. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott. Offices: Bank of Montreal Building.

CARON AND GRAHAM, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Bridge St., Belleville. Solicitors, Bank of Montreal. Money to lend at lowest rates. N. Potter, K.C., B.A., J. E. Graham. Office: Dalley's Block.

DOREMAN AND BUTLER, B. C. Doreman, K.C., B.A., D.C.L., Barrister, Solicitor, etc. Notaries Public and Commissioners. Division Court Chambers, Building, Belleville, Ont. Phone 238.

Small Farm For Sale

3¼ miles east of Belleville, short distance off the highway

5 1-2 Acres

EXCELLENT LAND

Comfortable house, newly repaired and decorated. Barn, hen house, good well.

This is worth investigating

SOLE AGENTS

Belleville Locators

GEO. N. GORMAN, PROP.

186 Front Street
Phone 30 House Phone 687

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagement Notices, $1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; Floral Tributes, 10c a line; In Memoriams, $1.00. Maximum for Poetry, minimum charge, $1.00 for 12 lines, over that 10c per additional line. Local Society Announcements, minimum charge, $1.00.

CLASSIFIED — (Per line based on 6 lines to the inch). Three cents per word for first insertion, subsequent insertions 1c per word, minimum 30 words.

COMING EVENTS—25c per insertion (per line). Not to be under, nor less than 30 words.

PROFESSIONAL, LEGAL AND BUSINESS CARDS (Card Contract)—$2.00 per month per inch.

OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES (including these concerning Estates and Wills) 1c per word, minimum 30c per line. Boldface type 2c per line for subsequent insertions.

AUCTION SALE—3c per word, heading to count as 10 words minimum. 25 words for 75c; consecutive insertions, 2c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

The estimating allow five words to the line.

To advertise your Want Ads when it is more convenient PHONE 99.

The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one insertion of an incorrect ad. Phone us if it is wrong.

Advertisers may have their replies addressed to this office care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

COOK FOR SMALL HOTEL. $20.00 PER month. Room and board with Bothwell Hotel, Cobourg, Ont. 213-11

CASH WEEKLY SELLING RED TAG Brand Vegetable Seeds. Outstanding business opportunity. Steady income. Small equipment. Helpful sales cooperation supplied. Write Dominion Nurseries, Montreal. 213-11

LADIES! SEW-NO-MORE MARVELOUS new product ends stocking runs instantly. Makes "permanent invisible" mends which can be washed, boiled, ironed. Guaranteed, paid. Sample 10c. Local agency open. Scientific Products, Box 182, Desoronto, Ont. 213-11

MALE HELP WANTED

A LESSON FROM THE DEPRESSION—Be Correspondence Instructor, Secretary, Examiner, Clerk, Stenographer, etc. Booklet "How to Get a Government Job" M.C.S. Civil Service School, Toronto. 213-13-26-TF

THREE OR FOUR ROOM HEATED apartment, centrally located. Possession first week of August. Apply Box "G" Ontario Intelligencer, stating particulars. 213-21

SUMMER BOARDERS IN PRIVATE home, country district, bay shore, good fishing, rates reasonable. Phone 314 Sprague Line, Mountain View. 30-31

FOR SALE

CARNAGE PLANTS FOR SALE—JOHN Fox, Marshall Road, phone 418-r-21. 213-11

DESIRABLE BRICK HOUSE, 43 HIGHland avenue. Will be sold cheap for cash, combined gas and coal range, 40 gal. h. & a. hot water tank. Apply 211 Dundas street. 211-25

1926 CHEV. TOURING. GOOD RUBber. Apply J. Haight, Tweed. Telephone 8R14 Thurlow. 211-25

UPRIGHT RADIANT HOME HEATER, 24 inch pot, nearly new and 8-inch stove pipe. Will sell in a body or singly. Mrs. Jenior, corner Bridge and Herchimer. 211-25

FOR SALE OR RENT

TWO SUMMER COTTAGES ON MOIRA Lake and Bapteme Lake. Apply Fred Baglin, Madoc.

TO LET

ROOMS TO LET—APPLY S. BURROWS, 251 Front street. 213-tf

COMPLETELY FURNISHED SUPERIOR class cottages, by week, month or season, opposite Deseronto Beach, electric light, running water, ice, dock, bass fishing, safe bathing. Beautiful clean cedar park and lawn; only four cottages in park. Apply to Mrs. Hamilton Ireland, Deseronto, Private grounds. Drive down any time via Napanee, Bellevile to camp 32 miles. R. Roy, Napanee. 213-16-18

270 GEORGE STREET—ALL CONVENIences. C. A. Payne, Ext. 213-tf

FOUR ROOM HEATED APARTMENT—all conveniences. Also room apartment. Apply 130 Front. Phone 1372. 212-tf

181 GEORGE STREET, BELLEVILLE — Possession August 1, 1935. Apply to Wallbridge, Cameron and Company, phone 420. 210-12-13

SEVERAL UNFURNISHED, HEATED apartments. All conveniences. 257 Bleecker avenue. Apply on premises. M38-TF

PERSONAL

WOMEN WANTED TO START PRIVATE Kindergarten Schools in their own homes this coming Fall. Free outfit and co-operation. Interesting, profitable. Institute, Toronto (established 1907). J1-E2-TF

DO NOT STAND ON ONE FOOT LIKE a stork. Use Cross Corn or Bunion Salve. At Dolan the Druggist. 213-11

LOST

YELLOW PERSIAN KITTEN—FINDER kindly call at 194 East Dundas street or phone 1284. Reward. 213-11

LOST

THURSDAY MORNING — SUM OF money in Bible. Finder please phone 68R13. Reward. 213-21

TICKELL & BROWNE
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve Ye Less
FUNERAL HOME
Corner Church St. and
Victoria Ave. Phone 2225

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
257 Campbell St.
Phone 716-W Day and Night
J. W. IRLAM
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

Thomas G. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
32 Francis St. Phone 62
Office
282 Front St. Phone 62

BAY OF QUINTE
FIRE INSURANCE CO.
Pays Full Loss. Lowest Premium Rates. Asks and Windstorm Insurance.
C. W. BURR, Agent
311 Front St. Phone 2396
Belleville
213-1a-Stf

ROOFING

All Kinds of Repairs; Roofs Rebuilt, Coated or NEW ROOF SUPPLIED
Advice and Estimates on Application

P. J. Fortin

217 Albert St. Phone 1210w

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHERS

IN THE ESTATE OF GERTRUDE SPURR, late of the City of Glendale, in the State of West Virginia, married woman.

NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to Statutes in that behalf that creditors and others having claims or demands against the estate of Gertrude Spurr, who died on or about the 15th day of February, 1935, are required to send by post prepaid or deliver to the 15th day of July, 1935, or deliver to Messrs. Porter & Graham, 28 Bridge street, Belleville, Solicitors for the Executor, their names and addresses and full particulars of their claims or demands, their accounts and the nature of the security (if any) held by them duly verified.

AND TAKE NOTICE that after the 15th day of July, 1935, the said Executor will proceed to distribute the estate of the said Deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which he shall have had notice, and that the said Executor will not be liable for the said estate or any part thereof to any person or persons of whose claim he shall not then have had notice.

DATED at Belleville this 25th day of July, 1935.

PORTER & GRAHAM,
28 Bridge Street, Belleville,
Solicitors for the Executor.
Benjamin M. Spurr,
Executor.
220-JP-G-6-13

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

IN THE ESTATE OF ISABEL FENN, late of the City of Belleville, in the County of Hastings, widow.

NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to the Statutes in that behalf that creditors and others having claims or demands against the Estate of Isabel Fenn, who died on or about the 30th day of June, A. D. 1935, are required to send by post prepaid or deliver to the undersigned on or before the 31st day of July, 1935, their names and addresses and full particulars of their claims and the statement of their accounts and the nature of the security, if any, held by them duly verified.

AND TAKE NOTICE that after the fifteenth day of July, 1935, the said Executor will proceed to distribute the Estate of the said Deceased among the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which he shall then have had notice, and that the said Executor will not be liable for the said Estate or any part thereof to any person or persons of whose claim they shall not then have had notice.

DATED at Belleville this 31st day of June, A.D., 1935.

COLLINS & CURRIE,
Belleville, Ontario,
Solicitors for the Executor.
J32-JP-J6-13

FRONT RD. CHOIR HOLDS PICNIC

The choir of the Front Road United Church presented a concert in the church on Thursday night in aid of the Sunday School work. There was a good attendance considering the harvest season is at its height. Rev. Mr. Keough pastor of the Church called the gathering to order, and after a few opening remarks he asked the Rev. Mr. Farnsworth, Belleville, to take charge of the programme and the first item was a chorus by the choir "March On", Chairman's address by Mr. Farnsworth; Solo, Mr. Ross, "The Way to Mandalay" and "Evening Prayer"; reading, Miss J. Bowen; Duet, Roy Snider, James Maidment, Ruth Greatrix; Reading, Miss M. Bell; Violin Solo Roy Snider; Reading, "Dalsy Belle" by Young People; Reading, Miss M. Brown; Duet, Roy Snider and James Maidment (That Silver Haired Daddy of Mine"; "God Save the King".

A dainty lunch of lemonade, sandwiches, cake and nut bread was served the young people.

Aline MacMahon and Guy Kibbee in a scene from the mystery thriller "While the Patient Slept" starting at the Capitol Monday.

Sale of Assets by Tender

in the Matter of

Percival Plow & Stove Co. Limited

In Bankruptcy

Merrickville, Ont.

Sealed Tenders for the purchase of the following Assets, consisting of the Stock-In-Trade and the Equipment of the above mentioned Estate, will be received by the Trustee at the Office of Messrs. McDonald, Currie & Co., Montreal, Que., until 12 o'clock Noon, Monday, July 22nd, 1935.

Lot No. 1—PRESCOTT STORE:

Merchandise & Stock-In-Trade	4,010.24
Equipment & Fixtures	132.00
	$4,142.24

Lot No. 2—BROCKVILLE STORE:

Merchandise & Stock-In-Trade	5,960.80
Equipment & Fixtures	605.00
	$6,565.80

Lot No. 3—KINGSTON STORE:

Merchandise & Stock-In-Trade	7,186.30
Equipment & Fixtures	261.30
	$7,447.60

Lot No. 4—BELLEVILLE STORE:

Merchandise & Stock-In-Trade	6,191.70
Equipment & Fixtures	319.00
	$6,410.70

Lot No. 5—TRENTON STORE:

Merchandise & Stock-In-Trade	3,508.32
Equipment & Fixtures	214.30
	$3,722.62

Lot No. 6—PERTH STORE:

Merchandise & Stock-In-Trade	3,643.71
Equipment & Fixtures	94.00
	$3,737.71

Lot No. 7—SMITH'S FALLS STORE:

Merchandise & Stock-In-Trade	4,195.06
Equipment & Fixtures	152.30
	$4,347.36

Lot No. 8—MERRICKVILLE STORE:
Merchandise on hand in Warehouse at Merrickville ..... $ 2,842.07

Lot No. 9—Farm Implements & Repair Parts $30,568.73

CONDITIONS

All Tenders should be marked "TENDER."

An accepted cheque of 10% must accompany each Tender. The balance of the purchase price must be paid in cash upon delivery of the Assets, and delivery must be taken on or before August 3rd, 1935.

Highest or any tender not necessarily accepted. If tenders are made for more than one lot they must specify the amount tendered for each separate lot.

Overs and shorts to be adjusted in the ratio which the purchase price bears to the list price of the merchandise.

Premises are open for inspection during business hours, and Inventory Sheets are on the premises and available for examination.

Further information in connection with the Inventories, leases, and occupation of the premises may be obtained at the company's office at Merrickville Ontario, or at the office of the Trustee, 507 Place d'Armes, Montreal,

H. C. HAYES,
Trustee.

Office of McDonald, Currie & Co.,
507 Place d'Armes,
MONTREAL.

Two Surprised Citizens

FEW REALIZE to the full the tremendous selling power of the Classified Advertisements. Wanted, For Sale, To Rent, Help Wanted, Employment, etc. The Classified Page is perhaps the most widely read page in the paper and the reactions to Want Advs. are quick and snappy, as those who have ever tried them have realized.

The lady who advertised in this paper for a second hand wringer Wednesday phoned early Thursday morning saying: "Please take that advertisement for a wringer out, I have had my choice of fifty and more are arriving every minute."

The Front Street business man who advertised an automobile for sale Wednesday evening had it sold before nine o'clock that night, and asked that the advertisement be taken out as enquiries were constantly coming in.

If you have anything to sell, rent or exchange, or want to buy or rent, or what have you—want a job or want to hire a man or woman, the Classified Advs. will do the trick so quickly you will lthink a miracle happened.

TWENTY WORDS FOR THIRTY CENTS.

DOYLE'S
DRUG STORE
OPEN SUNDAY

HARNESS HARNESS PARTS
and Harness Repairing
TRUNKS — SUIT CASES — TRAVELLING BAGS
T. G. WELLS
13 Campbell St. Phone 1211J

A Reliable Firm Are We For Watch, Clock and Jewelry Repairing
Modern Methods
Guaranteed Work
A. E. Wonnacott
232 FRONT STREET
Next to Loblaw's
Phone 1319

F. LaPalm
Local and Long Distance Hauling
Closed Furniture Vans
Open Trucks
All Goods Insured During Transit
Office—155 Pinnacle Street
Phone 1066
House Phone 1066

HONOR ROLL

The following is the report of Promotion Examinations for S.S. 17, Thurlow:

Honours 75 per cent. pass 60 per cent.

Sr. III to Jr. IV—Irene Hall 84.7 per cent; Evelyn Outwater 72.6 per cent; Hazel Chapman 71.3 per cent; Earl Gray 70.7 per cent; Marjorie Creeper 69.8 per cent; Tom Gray 66.4 per cent; Harold Gibson 63.7 per cent; (recommended in two subjects).

Jr. III to Sr. III— Oscar Moore 62.9 per cent; Carrie Goodfellow 60.7 per cent.

Jr. II to Jr. III—Audry Hall 78.8 per cent; Eileen Carlisle 78.1 per cent; Vera Carleton 67.3 per cent; Beth Dunning 67.3 per cent.

Jr. II—Irvine Moore 66.8 per cent; Beryl Platt, absent.

Sr.—Marjorie Outwater 86.8 per cent; Marion Prindle 86.3 per cent Ernie Barker 82.5 per cent.

Primer to First—Garth McCreary 85.6 per cent; Walter Elliott 84.4 per cent. Harold Jackson 78.4 per cent; Howard Elliott 76.4 per cent; Jack Carleton 60 per cent.

M. I. McCamus, teacher.

REPORT OF QUEENSBORO PUBLIC SCHOOL

Jr. IV to Sr. IV— Earl Sexsmith 71 Mac Franklin 68.

Sr. III to Jr. IV — Clayton Holmes 76 hon.

Jr. III to Sr. III—Bernice Sager 75.2 hon.; Margaret Sexsmith 75.1; Clifton Mathews 73; Georgina Delyea 69; Willie Franklin 68; Helen Alexander 68; Roy Gerrow 68.

Sr. I to Jr. II—Lola Groves 89.

Jr. II to Sr. II—Beverley Chaplin 72; Allan Gordan 68; Kevin Barry 68; Carl Gordon 66.

Jr. I to Sr. I—Jackie Alexander 68; Annie Sexsmith 68.

Jr. I—Dorothy Franklin 91.

Sr. Pr. to Jr. I—Dorothy Johnston 71, Mathews 71; Georgina Delyea 69; Willie Franklin 68; Helen Alexander 68; Roy Gerrow 68.

Sr. I to Jr. II—Lola Groves 89.

Jr. II to Sr. II—Beverley Chaplin 72; Allan Gordan 68; Kevin Barry 68; Carl Gordon 66.

Jr. I to Sr. I—Jackie Alexander 68; Annie Sexsmith 68.

Jr. I—Dorothy Franklin 91.

Sr. Pr. to Jr. I—Dorothy Johnston 71, Mathews 71; Georgina Jr. Pr. to Sr. Pr. —Dorothy Leslie 81 hon.; Betty Franklin 71; Roberta Sager 71; Jimmie Gordon 67; Joyce Groves 67; Velma Laird 67.

Primer A to Jr. Primer—Jackie Johnston.

Teacher, Vera Bonter.

Miss Minnie Greig of Peterboro is spending the holidays at her home here.

Miss Hazel Thompson left last week with friends for a motor trip to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Miss Lois Groves spent last week with Miss Marion Reynolds at Frankford.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Groves and Mr. and Mrs. John Groves of Tyrone spent Sunday last with Mr. and Mrs. John Groves.

Mr. Bert Brown of Ottawa, was the guests of Mrs. Jas. Cassidy on Monday.

Miss Ida McCaw is spending some time in Toronto.

Hooper girls' baseball team played Queensboro girls on Monday evening at Queensboro's Holiday team winning by a good score.

Miss Doris Fleming of Springbrook is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tokley.

SPRINGBROOK NEWS OF PAST WEEK

Springbrook—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tokley of Queensboro on Sunday guests at Mr. R. W. Fleming's.

Misses Leafa Thompson of Syl-

Sunday Churches

UNION SERVICES
11.00 a.m.: Bridge Street Church.
Subject:
ARE YOU RUNNING AWAY FROM LIFE?
7.00 p.m. Tabernacle Church.
Subject:
THE CRUCIFIED LIFE.
During the Morning Service Special References will be made to the passing of Right Rev. J. E. H. Oliver, former Moderator of The General Council.

HOLLOWAY STREET UNITED CHURCH
Minister: Rev. R. E. Newman - Music: Clifford Templer A.T.C.M.
9.45 a.m.—Sunday School and Young People's Bible Class.
11.00 a.m.—GOD'S HIDDEN ASSETS. Reference to Dr. Oliver's Passing.
7.00 p.m.—CAUGHT OFF GUARD.

JOHN STREET UNITED CHURCH
Minister: Rev. Robert Hall, B.A., B.D.
Music: Miss Leona Riggs
Mr. Alec Gordon
Morning Worship at Eleven o'Clock conducted by Rev. PRINCIPAL BENT HOWARD of Albert College.
Evening Service withdrawn.

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Rev. W. J. Walker, B.A., B.D., Minister
11.00 a.m.—WAGES OR GIFT.
No Evening Service During July and August

VICTORIA AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH
REV. ALEXANDER GRANT SINCLAIR, Minister
10.00 a.m.—Sunday School.
Services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.
Thursday, 8 p.m.—Prayer Service.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY
(I.O.O.F. Temple, 271½ Front Street)
Service will be held at 11.00 a.m.; Sunday School 11.00 a.m.
Subject—"ATONEMENT."
Wednesday meeting second Wednesday of each month at 8 p.m., which includes testimonies of healing through Christian Science
You are cordially invited to attend these services.

REGULAR BAPTIST CHURCH
(Masonic Building)
Pastor: J. Scott
11 a.m.—"Beams of Light from Darkness."
7 p.m.—"Why People Do Not Go to Church."
Everybody Welcome to these Services

ALLIANCE
Moira St. West.
Rear Upper Bridge
10 a.m.—Sunday School.
11 a.m. — "Conquering the World."
7 p.m.—The Heart of Jesus"
Pastor—W. Hardtner

CHURCH OF ENGLAND
FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY
CHURCH OF ST. THOMAS CHRIST CHURCH
Rev. A. Beauchamp Payne, Vicar Rev. G. G. Wright, L. Th., Rector.
The Vicar of St. Thomas' Church is in charge of both parishes during the month of July.
8.00 a.m.—Holy Communion in Christ Church.
11.00 a.m.—Matins in St. Thomas' Church.
7.00 p.m.—Evensong in Christ Church.

...hter on Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold Murphy of Ottawa have arrived back from their honeymoon trip to Montreal and Ottawa. Mr. Murphy is the former Miss Julia MacBrien, daughter of Major-General Sir James A. MacBrien, and Mr. Murphy is the son of Col. and Mrs. George Paterson Murphy of Ottawa.

stone and Anna Runnalls of Harold are holidaying at Mrs. Frank Runnalls.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Moon and family of Madoc spent Sunday in the village.

Miss Jean Murray of Campbellford spent last week at Mr. M. Fitzgerald's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay McKeown and baby were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reg McKeown.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heath spent a day in Frankford.

Mrs. Denton returned to her home in Toronto on Friday after spending the past few weeks with the village.

her sister, Mrs. (Rev.) H. W. Foley.

Mr. Nathon Mason and family of Belleville were Sunday visitors at Mr. Jeremiah Wilson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Runnalls entertained Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Thompson and family of Sylestone on Sunday.

Miss Laura Fox is visiting at Mrs. Laura Bateman's.

Miss Verna Baker of Grafton called on relatives in the village on Wednesday evening.

Miss Hazel Carswell of Madoc spent a few days of last week in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyne Heath of Stirling have taken up residence in the village.

HOLIDAY INSURANCE. $5000 for $1.00

We insure you against Accident while on holiday and will pay:
IN THE EVENT OF YOUR DEATH BY ACCIDENT ..$5,000
LOSS OF BOTH FEET OR HANDS 5,000
ONE FOOT OR HAND 2,500
TOTAL DISABILITY (limit of 52 weeks) .. .. per week 25

The rates are: 4 days $1; 7 days $1; 15 days $2; 30 days $3.

We also insure your baggage at very low rates. For anything in the line of insurance address me.

JAMIESON BONE & CO.

Phone 1204 187 Front St.

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

TORONTO STOCKS, CLOSE

Toronto, July 13 (CP)—The forces working for the rise in the liquor shares were apparently ready to call it a week at the close yesterday as they made no attempt to lift the list higher in today's short session of the Toronto Exchange. Scattered selling in fact shaded the price level slightly.

Wabasso common closed around 30½, for a loss of about ¾ and the other leaders, Distillers Seagrams and Industrial Alcohol A were about steady.

The quotations firmed slightly for Brazilian and International Nickel and Ford A had a minor recession. Losses in the utilities took in Shawinigan, Power Corporation and Consumers Gas. Banks were quiet with prices firm.

TORONTO MINES — CLOSE

Toronto, July 13—Disregarding a mild display of weakness in the silver group, the result of a sharp drop in the price for metal, the mining section of the Toronto Exchange concluded the week with a steadier tone but with trading in decidedly small volume. A few of the gold issues perked up a bit.

Bralorne was inclined towards a better level today, coming back 15 cents to 4.45 while prices for Hollinger, Little Long Lac, God's Lake, Sturco and Sylvanite were on the upside narrowly at the close.

Hudson Bay and Base Metals Corporation were firm spots in the base metal group while Noranda was steady at 77. In the silvers Elrose also dropped about 3 cents on small offerings and Castle and Bear weakened a couple of cents each.

NEW YORK CLOSE

(By Victor Eubank, Associated Press Financial Writer)

New York, July 13 (AP)—The Stock Market ended the week today in a fairly optimistic frame of mind.

While there was no buying rush during the brief session, the rails picked up a friendly following and a number of new highs of the year were registered in other divisions. The close was steady. Transfers approximated 550,000 shares.

RECORD FLIGHT

Laura Ingalls, well-known aviatrix, posed for pictures before she left, Floyd Bennett airport in her speedy Lockheed aeroplane, bound for California, non-stop, the first woman to have done so. After a short stay in California, Laura will "hop to" Texas and fly non-stop to New York, in an attempt to create a new mark from New York to California and return.

TREK TO OTTAWA RUNS INTO SNAG

Winnipeg, July 13—(CP)—Plans of Manitoba's relief-camp strikers to start a trek to Ottawa ran into a snag today.

Indications were the proposed march would not get underway until tomorrow night, if at all, instead of early tonight as scheduled, due to poor response from citizens for the loan of automobiles to carry the strikers eastward.

While 400 laggers solicitated public support in a tag day their leaders announced the march number of the 600 odd men here who will leave, and the departure time, would be made known at a mass meeting tonight at the Manitoba Legislature's grounds.

Board Room Gossip

As supplied to Bigger and Crawford by Financial Service.

Milling operations were resumed by Base Metals Mining Corporation, Limited at Field, B.C., on June 26, after a shutdown since Feb. 15.

The last 18,000 shares of a block of 50,000 shares of Parkhill which had been overhanging the market for several months was sold in one transaction on the Montreal Curb Market at 30 cents.

Recent development at the property have been a favourable nature. The new vein having been cut on the ninth level after having been drifted on for over 150 feet on the level. Production was recently stepped up from 35 to 80 tons daily.

The alcohol stocks were features in yesterday's trading with the buying emanating from informative quarters, according to one group. The public is waking up to the fact that these companies have been doing their best year since the boom period and that the market has not yet discounted this constructive factor.

Distillers-Seagrams is strongly entrenched in the American market and have recently been operating at a very high rate. Indications are that this should be the most favoured for the year just closing. At the present time, earnings are equivalent to $5 a share as will be reported

Baseball
Current Sport

IN THE REALM OF SPORTING EVENTS

Bowling
Golf

BASEBALL (C.O.B.L.)

Exhibition Grounds, Belleville, July 16th at 6.15 p.m., D.S.T.

Peterboro (Sea Horses) vs. Belleville (Stewart Warners)

There are always plenty of Thrills when these teams meet. Give the home team a boost.

USUAL ADMISSION

BRIGHTON TIES WITH TRENTON

Day Brothers of Belleville in Lineup of Brighton Team

Trenton, July 13 (Special)— The Trenton United soccer team journeyed to Brighton Wednesday night and could only get a 1-1 tie in a very listless game. Trenton were without the services of Johnny Knapton and Johnny Smallwood while Brighton have acquired Hap and Fred Day of Belleville who are working in Brighton. The tie brings the Brighton club out of the cellar, one point ahead of Belleville. The local team have not yet suffered a defeat. Phil Moon, playing outside left, scored the first counter twelve minutes after the play opened. Wright of Brighton evened the count two minutes later to end the scoring.

Brighton F. C.—Goal, Dickson; right back, C. Dauncey; left back, A. Donald; right half back, F. Day; centre half back, H. Day; left half back, Tiller; outside right, T. Wright; centre forward, A. Watson; inside left, P. Day; outside left, J. Gilbert.

Trenton United—Goal, Wall; right back, Richardson; left back, Anstis; right half back, Leslie; centre half back, James; left half back, Woodacre; outside right, Smith; inside right, Ormshaw; centre forward, Brown; inside left, Golden; outside left, Moon.

Referee—P. Daly, Trenton. Linesmen, J. Solderstein, Brighton; J. Knapton, Trenton. 1st half and Ben Calder, 2nd half.

Canada Beat 14-Benedict-Proctor 10

The league leading Canada Bed softball team defeated the tail-end Benedict-Proctor on Tuesday night by 14-10. The game was listless throughout. Herm Chambers tossed them over for the winners while Hood looked after the pitching duties for the silver-platers. Bumper Waldron took two homers off Hood while Bowden was credited with one. Score by innings: Canada Bed—Benedicts have not hit the win column this season.

Canada Bed—L. Johnson ss; Bowden 3b; Long 1b; Lott rf; G. Johnson cf; Chambers p; Waldron lf; Kennedy 2b; Miller c.

Benedict-Proctor—Thomas 3b; Hood c; Johnson 2b; Ketcheson cf; Davis c; Paris 1b; Hickerson rf; Wannamaker ss; Roberts lf.

Score by innings

Benedicts	.....	000	140	5—10
Reds	.....	000	000	0—0

Umpires—Plate, Jess Baker, bases W. Chambers.

Benedict-Proctor 16-R.C.A.F. 13

After winning their last three games, the R.C.A.F. softballers lost to the lowly Benedict-Proctor last evening in the last half of the seventh when the latter eked out one run margin to win 16-13. This is the first win for the silver-platers this season. Six runs for the airmen in the fifth, put them in the lead of 13 to 6 but in the silver slinger's sixth they came back to knot the score at the pastime. Pafford for the air force whiffed eleven and Bowden struck out nine for the rich. Hood started for the winners but was relieved in the fifth in favour of Bobby Vieau. Broadbent and Neff hit homers for the losers while Pafford got a circuit clout in the fifth for the winners.

Benedict-Proctor—Ketcheson, rf; Hickerson lf, A. Johnson 2b; Hood, p and ss; Thomas 3b and p; Paris 1b; Wannamaker ss and 3b; Roberts 2b; Anderson cf; Davis c.

R.C.A.F.—Broadbent 3b; Wilkinson 2b; Hobson lf; Powers and Bowden cf; Pafford, c; Pafford p; Neff 1b; Tough 2b.

Score by innings:

R.C.A.F.	.....	213	280	0—13
Benedicts	.....	191	227	1—16

Umpires—Plate, Jess Baker, bases, Bill Chamberlain.

Weeder Defeat Whitfall Can 7-3

Weeder softball team looked more like themselves last night when they handed the second place Whitfall Can team a 7-3 beating. Old "Soup" Tree, veteran hurler was in rare form and his teammates gave him first class support in allowing only a few hingles for the losers. Tree struck out seven and issued one free trip. Barry was given the honor of support although he let Wooler down with only four hits, one a home run by Tom Ruttan. The losers only took four safeties but made them count. Derry whiffed four and walked seven.

The loss drops the Whitfall's from the second position in favour of the Downs-Coulter who now are in that position alone.

CURRENT SPORT

DAY BY DAY

Commodore Bill Fry of the Asjamas Canoe Club, mailed his list of entries, for the northern division of the Canadian Canoe Club trials at Ottawa on July 20 yesterday. Skipper Fry is taking eight local paddlers to the capital city where they will compete in six events, singles, doubles and fours. Those to represent Belleville at this important canoe race meet are Karl Gruber, Jack Spratley, Louis Marsden, Art Liddle, Bud Davidson, Ron Doyle, Lucien Raimault and Jack Doyle. Four relay parties named being the local junior fours.

In Karl Gruber the Asjmas Club and the city of Belleville have a potential Olympic paddling prospect of the highest school standing back over Gruber's achievements in Canadian canoe racing circles was the fact that Karl won the double blade junior singles during the British Empire games at Hamilton in 1930 and was the international double blade paddling champion for 1931, 1932 and 1933 and retained the $500.00 gold cup that went perpetually to the canoeist to win it three times in succession. On top of these achievements Karl Gruber was also Canadian Canoe Association championship for 1931 and 1932, while he was the Toronto Dominion Canoe Club titleholder in 1932 and 1933. Karl is also senior swimming champion of the city.

With the possibilities of winning the O.C.A. honors paddled with that Karl is casting longing eyes on another international title which would go far towards assuring him of a trip to the 1936 Olympics as well as his native land. Karl Gruber is a quiet unassuming young man and a credit to whatever organization he might represent. Skipper Fry expects his ace paddler to win the double blade intermediate title at Ottawa and also make a creditable showing in the junior singles. In the doubles Karl is teamed with Jack Murphy. The many cups and trophies won in years past by Karl Gruber were on display in Walker's Barber Shop window all week, with the exception of the junior single cup which the gentleman prizes highly. The Asjmas Club natty ball apparel finances this year and they keep their paddlers during the Ottawa sojourn and are appealing to the sport fans of the city for their possibilities of an Olympic athlete and hope this should be easily taken care of.

The Asjmas paddlers have gone in for hikes and conditioning workouts. For example the eight boys are at present residing at Rossmore where the ice cream mornings and 5 a.m. sand go through a regular two and half hours of paddling under the watching to their individual daily labors. The boys have taken a polishing to the sport like a duck to water and boast possession of three racing shells, two doubles and a four. Any canoe prospect to have a little more authentic coaching for the time for the boys to the other members of the crew.

Today the Stewart-Warners are scheduled to play in Peterboro versus the Sea Horses and the game Tuesday evening the return game will be played on the Belleville diamond. With competition running at a fever heat in the C.O.B.L. and anything liable to happen the two weeks ago the Radios and the Orchard crew agreed were fighting for the league leadership while today we find the Stewart-Warners on the slide fighting to stay out of the cellar. After the excitement of the last six games played in Belleville, the stands should be jammed to the rafters. Maybe the locals did not play their best game of the season on Tuesday, but it can safely be said that plenty of excitement was injected into the pastime. After all is said and done it's the uncertainty of the game that makes baseball popular. "The old ball game is never over until the last man is retired," is said the late John McGraw once. . . .

While in conversation with Clem Allen, guiding light of hosting for the Stewart-Warner-Alemite A. C. recently, we were informed that two local militants, Bill Crawford and Howard Wheeler, have been included on Fred Robert's all-star amateur boxing show to be staged at the Maple Leaf Gardens this fall. Wheeler and Crawford are also slated to appear on an international card at Buffalo later in the season. These two boys made quite a reputation for themselves at the Kingston Frontenac Lion's charity boxing show, as they practically stole the attraction. Naturally Promoter Allen is highly proud of his proteges.

For the information of many fans who seem confused, there has been no definite statement as to when the charity wrestling show for Chris Findlay's widow will be held, as yet.

Second-guessing while conducting a baseball club or baseball game, the Kingston sport scribe says: "The rowdies had their innings in Belleville, but the fans were not." That's a laugh. If the Belleville baseball fans entered in Kingston there would have been a riot, and along the grandstand roof of the Bay of Quinte only the players from both clubs participated, no fans entering into the controversy, except verbally, at any stage of the game. Such is never the case in Kingston. We will admit that only the grandstand barrier kept the fans from every possible fracas that could well be copied by Kingston. They will always have on a ploughed field with not so much as even a picket to mount and crowds on every side of the playing field. As for the Oshawa scribe's remark that the blame of Tuesday's "as at the door of Umpire Hicks" is the latest bet their own ball game in the ninth inning. Hicks was correct, as he inferred in regards to it, "he was the" fact he "wasn't so hot". Incidentally, we might add, scattered hits, Buffalo winning 5-3. Butch Myers and Link Wasem connected for four safeties apiece in the game in an Buffalo runs. Woody Abernathy hit for the circuit in fourth inning for the Orioles.

Meanwhile the Toronto Leafs were beginning to press the Orioles and Royals as they won their second straight game from the Newark Bears 1-0 in a brilliant pitching duel between Walter (Wishy) Hilcox of the Leafs and Jack Larocca of the Bears. Hilcher allowed five hits winning his fifteenth decision of the season while Larocca held the Leafs to four hits.

Johnny Kromer and Jim Moore led the Syracuse Chiefs to a 7-6 victory over Rochester to move the Chiefs into fifth place. They both got homers and drove in seven of the Chiefs' runs between them.

Batting Leaders

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Batting—Johnson, Athletics, .332; Gehringer, Tigers, .330.

Runs — Gehringer, Tigers, 70; Foxx, Athletics, 65.

Runs batter in—Greenberg, Tigers, 101; Johnson, Athletics, 97.

Hits—Gehringer, Tigers, 132; Greenberg, Tigers, 106.

Doubles — Greenberg, Tigers, 26; Cramer, Athletics, 22.

Triples—Simmons, Senators, 12; Cronin, Red Sox, 11.

Home runs—Greenberg, Tigers, 25; Johnson, Athletics, Simmons, Red Sox, 17.

Stolen bases — Werber, Almada, Red Sox, 14.

Pitching—Tamulis, Yankees, 7-2; Lyons, White Sox, 9-3.

A WANT-AD will FIND IT!

CARDINALS MOVE TO FIRST PLACE

Juvenile Team From East Hill Too Good For Starlights

The Cardinals moved into first place in the local City Juvenile Baseball League following their 20 to 8 triumph over the Starlights in the exhibition park on Thursday.

The Jimmie Mills-led aggregation pounded the offerings of three Starlight pitchers most prolifically. The big hitters were J. Mills, B. Mills, McBride, Pepper, Cook and Warren, all of whom had three safeties, including extra base hits by Warren, Cook, Pepper and Mathews hit one triple. Pepper and Salyr struck out six Starlights as the former whiffed four. The combined pitching efforts of the Starlights resulted in five strikeouts being registered.

Cardinals—J. Mills, rf; B. McBride, 2b; Salyr, ss, p; Pepper, p, ss; Connor, cf; B. Mills, lf; Cook, 3b; Warren, 1b; S. McBride, c.

Starlights—McCaffrey, c, 1b; F. Givens, p, c; Matthews, p; B. Mashaw, 2b; Caleman, Appleton, lf; Meagher, rf; Fitzgibbon, p, 1b; Burkholder, cf.

Score by innings:

Cardinals	.....	604	100	601—20
Starlights	.....	130	021	000—8

Umpire—Bonisteel.

League Standing.

	W.	L.
Cardinals	3	1
Tigers	2	2
Starlights	1	4

ROYALS FIRST BY ONE POINT

Leafs Win Hurling Duel by 1-0 Count

The Montreal Royals had assumed a new role in the International League today by longer the purchasers they were pursued this time—but if by only one percentage point.

By a strange coincidence it was a former teammate of the Royals, Orlocks, George Granger, who helped the Royals ascend to the leadership for the first time this year and it was a a queer quirk of fate that Montreal got him.

In shipping Granger down to Birmingham in the Southern Association the Orioles manufactured for the usual formality of asking waivers on him and forgot the key open for him to be claimed by Montreal.

The Royals defeated the Albany Senators 11-3 last night to give them a victorious margin of .556 over a percentage of .376 while the Orioles were defeated by Jersey City 5-4. This gave Baltimore 50 wins against 37 losses for a percentage of .575.

Wins Five Hurls

Lefty Art Jacobs of the Blanks limited his first start of the season to and one for the Orioles as he held to nine safeties scattered hits, Buffalo winning 5-3. Butch Myers and Link Wasem connected for four safeties apiece in the game in an Buffalo runs. Woody Abernathy hit for the circuit in fourth inning for the Orioles.

Meanwhile the Toronto Leafs were beginning to press the Orioles and Royals as they won their second straight game from the Newark Bears 1-0 in a brilliant pitching duel between Walter (Wishy) Hilcor of the Leafs and Jack Larocca of the Bears. Hilcher allowed five hits winning his fifteenth decision of the season while Larocca held the Leafs to four hits.

Johnny Kromer and Jim Moore led the Syracuse Chiefs to a 7-6 victory over Rochester to move the Chiefs into fifth place. They both got homers and drove in seven of the Chiefs' runs between them.

W. J. "PENEY" MILLS

The coach of the Belleville Stewart-Warners and the oldest player in the matter of years of service, in the C.O.B.L., who may be prevailed upon to pinch himself this Tuesday night's Peterboro at Belleville senior baseball game at the local exhibition park. One of the most feared hitters in the province, Mills would doubtlessly add power to the Radios on the attack. With the league race a bit over heiged, Tuesday's game means milch to both clubs concerned, as all teams in the loop are bunched tooth and nail for a playoff berth.

BASEBALL RECORDS

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Montreal	56	37	.576
Baltimore	50	37	.575
Toronto	49	39	.557
Syracuse	45	41	.523
Buffalo	44	41	.518
Newark	44	43	.512
Rochester	33	51	.393
Jersey City	32	57	.360

Friday's Scores.

Syracuse 8, Rochester 7.
Toronto 1, Newark 0.
Montreal 11, Albany 3.
Buffalo 5, Baltimore 3.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
New York	50	21	.704
St. Louis	39	29	.574
Chicago	42	32	.568
Pittsburgh	41	36	.532
Brooklyn	33	38	.458
Cincinnati	33	43	.440
Philadelphia	23	45	.338
Boston	21	54	.280

Friday's Scores.

Philadelphia, at St. Louis, rain.
Only game scheduled.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
New York	56	30	.644
Detroit	48	30	.615
Boston	46	31	.597
Cleveland	38	35	.521
Chicago	37	37	.500
Philadelphia	31	41	.431
Washington	31	44	.413
St. Louis	23	52	.288

Friday's Scores.

Detroit 9, Washington 1.
New York 8, Cleveland 2.
Philadelphia 9, St. Louis 0.
Chicago 13, Boston 2.

KLIOWITZ TO TURN PRO?

Montreal, July 13—Abe Kliowitz, brilliant backfielder with Ottawa Senators of the Big Four Football League, said here to-day he would play with Ottawa next season unless Detroit Lions met his terms.

Big Abe said he had forwarded his terms to Lions' owner Fred Anderson last week and if they accepted he would play there.

He was seen at the ball stadium watching practice of the International Baseball League with the St. Lawrence League. Wally Masters, Ottawa Roughriders coach, is having a tough time getting by in the St. Lawrence League, but "he'll get by. He's a sweet pitcher."

MAX SCHMELING TO SIGN

Berlin, July 13 (AP) — Max Schmeling was on his way in from Paris tonight to sign a contract to battle Joe Louis of Detroit in a 15-round bout in Berlin in September.

Joe Jacobs, the German's American manager, said yesterday that Schmeling, on a hunting trip, called him by telephone and agreed to meet the dusky bomber who slugged Primo Carnera out of the heavyweight title picture recently.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Zeke Bonura, White Sox—Led attack on Red Sox, with two doubles and single and scored three runs batted in four.

Alvin Crowder, Tigers — Limited Senators to five hits, allowing only one in last seven innings.

Lou Gehrig, Yankees—Hit twelfth home run of season to start Yanks off to victory over Indians.

George Blaeholder and Jimmie Foxx, Athletics—Former blanked the Browns with seven hits, latter made three singles and scored twice.

ETHIOPIAN ARMY GOES MODERN IN WAR PREPARATIONS

Reserve soldiers and conscripts of the Ethiopian army are shown here undergoing training for the machine gun corps upon their arrival at Addis Ababa. Thousands of Abyssinians are flocking into the capital from all parts of the country to answer the call of Emperor Haile Selassie in preparation for the impending clash with invading troops of Italy. Ab RICHET is an officer in a new uniform, which replaces the white mule-like uniform worn by the Ethiopian fighters.

WINDSOR CAR MEN STAGE WALK-OUT

11 Employees Refuse to Take Out Union Cards

Windsor, Ont., July 13 (CP) — Windsor and the border area was without street car service today for the first time in 20 years, result of a walkout by Bank-Windsor Railway employees.

The strike was called following the refusal of 11 employees to take out union cards in accordance with the demand of the Street Railway Union. The dispute is strictly between the employees, S. E. McCrimmon of the three-man board, which has operated the railway during the past year, having refused to take part in any of the negotiations.

On arrival of the last car at the barns at 2.15 a.m., a meeting of the strikers was held which Mayor Geo. Bennett attended. The mayor in immediate past president of the union. He is on leave from his duties as mayor for two months on his mayoral duties. No statement was issued at the close of the meeting.

In February last the semi threatened to strike when their demand for a 50-cent minimum wage was refused. After two months of investigation into the finances of the system a settlement was effected granting the 50-cent minimum provided no further wage demands are made until the end of 1936.

Until September 1934 the system was operated by the Canadian Hydro Electric Power Commission. Since then it has been under a three-man board has managed operations.

APPOINTMENTS TO CREATE INTEREST

Seventeen Vacancies to be Filled in Senate in Near Future

Ottawa, July 13 (CP) — At the end of a week which saw a new political party come into being, Ottawa Observers are keeping a close eye upon with this factor included, the installation of Hon. H. H. Stevens, in which he set forth programs and ideals of the Reconstruction Party which he has recently studied carefully. Comment of political circles is generally speaking withheld. Possibly it will not be long until guns begin to boom in the campaign.

Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, although relieved of parliamentary duties, was today finishing up a week but less strenuous than when the House was in Session. Cabinet meetings numerous callers and letters kept the Prime Minister of Australia. Hon. J. A. Lyons, returned to keep Mr. Bennett rocking most of his time

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE BELLE

"Charlie Chan in Egypt."

Warner Oland Triumphs as Eighth Charlie Chan Film Proclaimed Thrill-Hit.

Warner Oland's latest screen appearance as that genial and philosophical Chinese sleuth, Charlie Chan—one of the most completely captivating detective heroes in the history of book or screen, is now on the Belle screen, and Monday, matinee and evening in Fox Film's latest vehicle for the inimitable Warner Oland, "Charlie Chan in Egypt."

In this picture, the eighth of the famed Chan series, Fox Film has planned in its any of the mysterious and baffling mystery, thickly studded with intrigue.

"Charlie Chan in Egypt" is the biggest and most pretentious Chan picture ever made, Charlie Chan interest from thrill-packed sequence with Sergio Peralta dancing back well-received comedy.

The story carries Charlie Chan to the mystery-scented land of the Pharaohs, to the Valley of the Kings, amid the splendors and riches of the last resting places of the mighty monarchs of forty centuries of years ago.

Priceless gold and jeweled treasure have been taken from among those brought to life by the French Historical Society's expedition, near Luxor on the Nile, and Charlie Chan is engaged by the Egyptian government to solve the mystery of the thefts and with the shadowy hand of death casting its gloom over the entire family of the expedition's leader, Charlie Chan's skill and courage are tested to their limit. Eye Chan's daughter, Iris, triumphantly the newest of Charlie Chan mysteries and all its predecessors and Oland once more registers heavily his most celebrated role. Top support of Warner Oland, "Charlie Chan in Egypt," has a distinguished cast, with the romantic leads falling to the capable hands of "Pat" Paterson, who is teamed with Thomas Beck and Stepin Fetchit. The picture also features "Dr. Fang's Poison Claw" created by Earl Derr Biggers.

Three Bronny Features

A program of three peppy varied features will add the necessary variety to the feature offering including Al-Star Comedy "Chop Suey Tools," introducing a large cast of famed funmakers. The Bronny review provides these two adept fun makers with a vehicle which is packed with laughs and thrills. The second feature on next week's program is entitled "Charlie Chan at Ringside," depicts the charming country of Ireland and the fine engagement of beauty. It is a rollicking romance interspersed with songs and lively native dances. The engagement continues for three days beginning next Monday. On the last half of next week the management proudly announces the long-awaited jungster picture, "Tarzan" that is now the U. S. Government secret agents thriller of the season. The picture is to be one of the outstanding pictures of the current season.

THOU SHALT NOT KILL!

Drive Carefully!

Senate vacancies, without taking into consideration the numerous other posts, will produce a lengthy announcement.

At his country home in Kingsmere eight miles from Ottawa, Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader is combining work with rest. He is preparing for the coming campaign, though no announcement has been made as to whether or not he will stump an election manifesto.

AT THE CAPITOL

"The Man Who Knew Too Much"

Thrilling Western Film Starring Ken Maynard Booked For Today

While Capitol patrons seem satisfied with the current feature that is now being shown, "The Man Who Knew Too Much" that thrilling melodrama of a murder in the diplomatic corps of the British Foreign Office, Ken Maynard and Hac Lorre, Nina Best and Leslie Banks, the management has booked in an added attraction for Saturday afternoon and evening. It is a real he-man Western feature called "The Phantom Thunderbolt."

"The Phantom Thunderbolt" stars the virile Ken Maynard and his wonder horse, "Tarzan" and shows Ken in the role of one of the most picturesque figures in the west who is forced into the role of a bad man when his pal and buddy, Newsy, declares that the best way for Ken to keep out of trouble is to appear looking for it.

Ken get is good and plenty when the people of Coyote Gulch decide to rid Ken and his swift guns against a band of outlaws who outsmarts the gang and makes it possible for Coyote Gulch to win the railroad line, in spite of the tough opposition furnished by the lawbreaking town of Spotted Horse. Frances Lee as one of the local girls furnishes the love interest. Undermining Ken to take up the battle on behalf of the town. With Tarzan, his trick horse he exhibits a brand horsemanship that is unequalled in motion pictures.

Besides this stirring Western and thrilling feature there is also a entertaining program of short subjects that includes a comedy called "An Ear For Music," in which Oliver Hardy creates a flock of hearty laughs. A novelty called "Chop Suey No. 1" and a Movietone Newsreel completes this entertaining bill.

Starting Monday the Capitol announces a double feature program with Mitzie Mordon and Roy Wilcox again being co-starred, it is stated "Within the Patient Siege" and provides these two adept fun makers with a vehicle which is packed with laughs and thrills. The second feature on next week's program is entitled "Charlie Chan at Ringside," depicts the charming country of Ireland and the fine engagement of beauty. It is a rollicking romance interspersed with songs and lively native dances. The engagement continues for three days beginning next Monday. On the last half of next week the management proudly announces the long-awaited jungster picture, "Tarzan" that is now the U. S. Government secret agents thriller of the season. The picture is to be one of the outstanding pictures of the current season.

THE RED TIGER

By ALANSON CROSBY

"Yes and when she got home and thought it over, lying on that davenport, she just made up her mind that something had happened to Spencer, and she left here to find him!" said Sally with conviction. "And now something's happening to her—and you and Captain McMahon aren't doing a thing that's got any sense to it! My Gawd, men are dumb!" Sally stamped her foot in frustration.

"Sally, you're unreasonable," said Bob uncomfortably. "What reason have we to suppose that anything's happened to Randall Spencer? Wouldn't it be perfectly logical for him to make his getaway when he knows McMahon's got the goods on him—and to take Judith", with him, if she'd consent to go?"

"Judith wouldn't run away like that," said Sally flatly. "She'd go to Spencer—yes—if she thought he was in trouble. And he was in trouble and he knew it, and he'd suspend here just his appointment. You can't tell me, Bob Harley! A woman knows things where a man just blunders along and makes mistakes. And you and Captain McMahon and the whole police force have done nothing but blunder where Randall Spencer and Judith were concerned." Sally's face was getting red and her eyes were snapping.

"What about that automobile that went over the cliff and Judith only escaped by jumping? You've never told me the facts about that yet. What did you and the marvelous McMahon find out about that?"

"Nothing, practically," said Bob, staunchly. "Judith told us nothing except a wild story that the chauffeur, Stokes, who, she said, turned out to be a white man blacked up, opened the car as the road curved at the hill and got out and released the emergency brake so the car would roll over the cliff."

"Is that all?" said Sally with scornful sarcasm. "And your bump head, police force keep on bounding Randall Spencer and are not interested in a deliberate attempt to murder Judith Bates? My Gawd, what

WEATHER
Cloudy and comparatively cool with occasional showers; moderate to fresh shifting winds. Tuesday, fair and warm.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES

	Max.	Min.
Today	79	58
Year ago	86	60

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, MONDAY, JULY 15, 1935

10 NEW SUBMARINES ORDERED BY MUSSOLINI

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Syracuse, N.Y., July 15 (CP) — Robert K. Tooley, who claims 104 years of age, went to a baseball game in a city park Sunday.

A batter popped a foul ball and Tooley was struck on the head. It took some persuasion to get him into an ambulance and he was taken to the hospital. There, when his injuries were diagnosed as minor, he refused to stay and ordered that he be assisted to the family car.

"Nothing small like a baseball'll ever get me," he said, he grimaced. "It's going to take something big and the last going to happen to me will be when I'm my mother 115 when she died."

Moncton, Me., July 15 (CP) — Lightning never struck twice, they say. It appears to be just another old wives' tale. It struck in the same place on the old A. Tedeuz Farm, and what's more, it came from the south sky and destroyed two sheds of wheat—just as it did 25 years ago.

Boston, July 15 (CP)—The Jefferson Club of Somerville was in an outing.

"The next event," announced the announcer, "will be the fat women's race."

No fat women left the field.

"Cancelled," announced the announcer, "as everybody else will be the plumpish-plump ladies' race."

Dover, July 13 (CP)—For the first time in the history of Crich Park Zoo, a Dorcas hatched mongoose is thriving. The bird, which was hatched May 13, is now almost fully grown.

In the past, birds of this species have never lived more than a few days. Now the zoo will normally deposits its eggs and hatches them out by the mongoose, before migrating south in the spring.

Indianapolis, July 15 (CP)—Add blonde to the history of Colonial Americana.

J. C. Metcalfe, only expert, today reported an exclusive survey shows Indianapolis blonds have decreased 22 to 29 per cent in the last 25 years. He said National scientific tests showed similar decreases.

Even synthetic blonds are getting rare," he asserted. "Real redheads are much harder to find."

Goderich, Ont., July 15 (CP) — Considerable damage resulted when two teams entangled on the farm of George Sowerby, Goderich township, runaway team drawing a hay rake collided with horses pulling a stonecart. Just before the drivers could disentangle the rake, the hay rack was demolished, harness torn to pieces and one horse badly injured.

Guelph, Ont., July 15 (CP) — Summoned by a query of boys who found rifle in a field, police killed a six foot snake on a main street here. Shots failed to disabled the snake and police were forced to chop off its head.

Waterford, Ont., July 15 (CP) — Murray Forsyth, farmer here, was forced to shut up a new hen coop in the back of his barn when the farm mule persisted in attempting to steal the animal away from its mother. The mule took possession of the coop after driving the hen away, and when the young animal was removed to another field, "Jack" broke down a fence to follow.

THOUGHT ACTION TO BE BEST ONE

Police Say Blind Musician Threw Girl Partner From Window

Boston, July 15 (AP)—Forrest Rivelli, 30-year-old blind accordionist, today was accused by police of having thrown Dorothy Martelli, blind partner, Hazel Martin, 20, from a third floor window of a Boston hotel and killing her.

Police Inspector Harry Pieters said Rivelli, a former Detroit resident, admitted throwing the girl from the window as "an act of mercy."

Wife, Pierce said, told of being "broke" and afraid the Martin girl, whom he met in Columbus, and brought here two years ago, would be in want.

Pierce quoted Rivelli as saying he "thought it the best thing to do," after telling the girl he had written the girl during the past 18 months.

PAIR FOUND SLAIN, PLANNED TO WED THIS AFTERNOON

Kitchener Paper-Covered Shack is Scene of Double Shooting

TWO SHOTS HEARD

Dead Are Kathleen Britton, 19 and Clarence Johannes, 24

Kitchener, Ont., July 15—(CP) — Nineteen year old Kathleen Alice Britton, and 24 year old Clarence Johannes, both of this city were shot to death late this morning in a paper-covered shack off Kent Avenue where Johannes resided.

They were to have been married at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Two shots were heard by persons near the Johannes shack off Kent Avenue and the bodies of the pair were found together. Police could not immediately say who was caused the shooting or who was responsible.

SEES U. S. DUPED BY RUSSIA

Karl Radek, Soviet editor, whose declarations reflect official views, is telling readers of Russian press that a dictatorship of middle-class origin will be set up in U.S. within a short time.

IL DUCE ORDERS ANOTHER ARMY OF BLACKSHIRTS

Ten New Submarines Ordered For Construction

QUESTION TO LEAGUE

British Ambassador to France Confers Daily With Laval

(By Andrew Berding)

(Associated Press Foreign Staff)

Rome, July 19 (AP)—With war between Italy and Ethiopia regarded as virtually inevitable, Premier Benito Mussolini today ordered the mobilization of another regular army division and the creation of additional division of blackshirt militia.

Il Duce also ordered the immediate construction of 10 new submarines.

An official communique said: "the accelerated rhythm of military preparation by Ethiopia forced us to proceed with additional measures of military character."

Five Divisions

Today's order brings the number of regular army divisions designated for East Africa to five. Five blackshirt divisions also have been created. This means Italy will have at least 200,000 men for service against Ethiopia, should war begin.

The Communique said it Duce had called out specialists and "technical experts of the classes of 1909, 1910 and 1922, and summoned new officers in grade and specialists for the air force.

Question Before League

London, July 15—(CP Cable) — The issue of peace or war between Italy and Ethiopia will, it is expected in authoritative circles here, be fairly and squarely before the League of nations council which meets in special session on July 25.

The special meeting of the council was originally arranged to appeal for a fifth and neutral arbitrator in case the four arbitrators of the conciliation commission of the Walwal frontier incident were unable to agree. They were not only unable to agree, but the arbitration proceedings broke down.

Although no decision has been reached it is taken for granted that the special meeting of the council will be the merits of the dispute between Italy's aliddist it is said here, Italy will certainly raise the issue before the council.

Conversations With France

Conversations between the British Ambassador to France and Premier Pierre Laval are proceeding daily. No special negotiations are under way directly between London and Rome, but contact is being maintained through the French government to be for frontier rectification, economic concessions, railways between Eritrea and Italian Somaliland and possibly a mandate for Italy conducting across Ethiopia—are the preliminaries to the League's action to the Ethiopian Stale Department.

The first two demands are not regarded as presenting any special difficulty, but to the latter two the Ethiopian government offers resolute opposition. Ethiopia will not accept anything in the nature of an Italian protected zone along the railway, nor will she accept Italian control. These demands are interpreted in Addis Ababa as tantamount to sacrifice of political independence.

Foreign Enlistments

The British government, it is learned, is not invoking the foreign enlistments act against British subjects at present enlisting either in the Italian or Ethiopian army. The question has arisen as a result of recruiting offers of volunteers which the Ethiopian legation is said to have received from British ex-service men.

The act provides the government can penalize by fine or imprisonment British subjects who join the forces of another country at war with a country with which the United Kingdom is at peace. But the act, it is held, applies only after war has been declared. It does not apply to enlistment with the forces of a country still at peace, even though it should subsequently go to war.

While informal discussions among diplomatic representatives of the League powers in Paris are now considered likely now, it was said such discussions might be held at Geneva when the League council meets.

POWER THROUGH AIR

"The greatest achievement of my life", said Nikola Tesla on his 79th birthday, pictured in New York when speaking of his latest mechanical invention, a peace of defence as guide for ships and as indicators of world's mineral wealth. Inventor also can be used in time of war to explode bombs anywhere.

AIR DISASTER TO BE INVESTIGATED

Third One For Netherlands to be Wrecked in Six Months

AMSTERDAM, July 15.—(AP). Authorities ordered a rigid investigation today into the series of disasters to the Netherlands Air Lines after Sunday's tragedy in which six persons were killed at the Schiphol Aerodrome.

The giant plane which crashed into a dyke and burst into flames yesterday soon after taking off from Hamburg was the third "flying hotel" of the Netherlands wrecked little more than six months.

The charred wreckage of the great four-motored plane was under Not even officials of the Air Line were permitted to approach.

A post mortem disclosed that the fatal victims—including two English passengers whose curiosity to inspect the operating mechanism led to their being trapped in the pilot compartment—died before the flames reached them.

Thirteen other passengers and one member of the crew escaped through a small rear door, which burst open in the crash. Three survivors were injured.

The dead, trapped behind a barrier door from the cabin, included the two English passengers and Captain Newman and Hoddes, the four crewmen—Pilot Silverstein, Wireless Operator Nisbor and Mechanics Brom and Van Dyk.

TERMS, LASHES, TORTURE ROBBERY

Convicted of Tying Farm Hand to Tree And Beating Him

LONDON, Ont., July 15 — (CP) — Joseph Millott, Hamilton and Claude Millott, Toronto, were sentenced today to four years in penitentiary and eight lashes each for the torture robbery of Fred McDonald, 16-year-old farmer of Mount Brydges, in this city one week ago.

Millott and Powers were convicted on charge of robbery with violence after they had tied McDonald to a tree on Forward Avenue and beat him until he was covered with welts. They had lured him to the spot on pretense of selling him a bicycle.

DEDICATION OF BRIDGES TODAY

Shorten Distance Between Falls And Buffalo by 7 Miles

Buffalo, N. Y., July 15—(CP)—Linking of Grand Island in the Niagara River to the Niagara Falls mainland by two bridges was the occasion of an international ceremony today.

Dedication of the two bridges was scheduled to take place at 2 p.m. D. S. T., with Governor Herbert H. Lehman of New York speaking, Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn of Ontario, Jesse Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Dr. Alexander C. Flick, State Historian, Lithgow Osborne, State Conservation Commissioner and Robert Moses, Chairman of the State Council of Parks, also were to make speeches.

Following the bridge ceremony, Governor Lehman and his party will open a part on Grand Island and then drive over Niagara Falls, N. Y., where the 50th anniversary of State Conservation is being observed.

Governor Lehman and Mr. Hepburn are the main speakers at the functions.

The bridges and a road across the island shorten by seven miles the distance from Buffalo to Niagara Falls. One is from Tonawanda, the other from Niagara Falls. They cost $3,500,000.

Girl is Abducted From Parents Tent?

Hamilton, July 15—(CP)— Police today were searching the vineland area for Ethel Kabze, 16, whose parents reported she had been abducted from their tent during the night.

The Kabze family pitched in the city from Belmont, and then proceeded down to the fruit district where they had been living in a tent. When the family awoke this morning the daughter was missing and in notifying police, the father declared she must have been taken by another tent.

The family trekked all the way from Belmont, leaving that place last May 7 and carrying all their worldly possessions on a hay hand wagon. They had been living in a small tent just off No. 8 highway, between Beamsville and Vineland, the father and mother having been employed at work on the farm.

Awakened by the barking of a dog about four o'clock this morning, Mrs. Kabze looked over to the cot across over her daughter and found that the girl was gone.

Masonic Grand Lodge Meets At Hamilton

Hamilton, July 18 (CP)—Delegates from all parts of Ontario, representative officers from the various provinces of Canada, east of the Rocky Mountains, and many distinguished members from the United States are arriving in this city today to attend the eighteenth annual communication and conference of the Grand Lodge of Canada, A.F. and A.M. of the Province of Ontario, which opens Wednesday in the auditorium for a two-day session.

Total Eclipse of Moon to be Seen In This Section of Canada Tonight

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Editor)

New York, July 15—Most of the entire United States and some of Canada and Mexico has been set tonight for a total eclipse of the moon, the first for the country since 1927.

No one will have to stay up all night, and most folks won't have to be up even late to see this eclipse.

The curving edge of the earth's black shadow will cut into the side of the moon at 11.12 P. M., E.D.T.

That is the moment when the shadow touches the edge of the earth's shadow, which extends about 860,000 miles out into space.

The moon will enter this cone at a point about 226,000 miles out. It will take the moon 57 minutes to pass completely into this black shadow cone. Then the moon will be seen as the earth's shadow, a round blur far bigger than the moon, moving across the Lunar face until the moon is completely engulfed.

At 12.09 A. M., E. D. T., the shadow will completely cover the moon. It will remain covered for an hour and 40 minutes, the time necessary to pass through the black cone.

The moon may, or may not, be completely invisible during the hour and 40 minutes.

FILLING TRACTOR IS BADLY BURNED

Portion of Gasoline Falls on Hot Exhaust Pipe

Port Erie, July 15 (CP) —While filling gasoline into a tractor in front of tourist camp on Garrison Road here shortly before noon John Trendell son of Mr. Joseph Trendell of Bertie township, was badly scalded about lower limbs and body, when a portion of liquid fell on a hot exhaust pipe.

The tractor was destroyed together with large building containing name of the tourist camp. The boy was rushed to the hospital for where it was said his burns are serious.

EASTERN DISTRICT HYDRO OFFICIALS TO MEET IN CITY

Will Convene on July 24th to Discuss Business

MAYOR AS CHAIRMAN

Delegates Likely to be Given Banquet in The Evening

Through the efforts of Mayor Geo. O. Cross, as the result convention of Hydro held at Bigwin Inn, a convention of Hydro representatives of the Eastern District numbering between seventy-five and one hundred delegates from municipalities, between the district of Toronto and the Quebec boundary will assemble in Belleville on July 24th at two p.m. Daylight Saving Time at the city hall. The convention has been called by the Hydro Electric Power Commission of Ontario, for the purpose of organization work in the eastern district.

According to a communication received today by Mayor Cross, he has been asked to act as chairman of the meeting.

The communication received from T. J. Hannigan states that Mr. T. Stewart Lyon, Chairman of the Ontario Hydro Commission will be present and answer any questions regarding the eastern division.

In asking the cooperation of citizens and merchants generally in arranging transportation for the visitors, Mayor Cross today pointed out that several other municipalities have arranged for banquets during their stay. It is expected that the day's business will be terminated by a banquet arranged for the guests.

WATER LITERALLY LEAPED BREACH

Estimated 10,000 Lost Lives in Chinese Flood

Hankow, China, July 15 (AP) — Chinese Airlines estimated 10,000 persons perished today when the Yangtze River broke its banks and surged through a dike near Hankow, inundating the populous flat areas of the thickly populated countryside.

Members of a Chinese motorboat crew, who saw the bursting of the dike, relayed the story. They brought back a vivid eyewitness account of the disaster.

"It was a horrible sight," one of them said. "A wall of water, 20 feet high, rushed with the breath-sweeping everything before it — houses, trees, people, animals.

"The survivors must have been distributed by the flood waters and taken utterly by surprise and had no time to seek safety."

Thousands of Hanyang itself adjacent to Hankow, was estimated by the crew to have been flooded, order of the city is situated on hills to which most of the populace fled while the water boiled and eddied about their homes.

WINDSOR RESIDENTS AGAIN RIDE TO WORK

WINDSOR, Ont., July 15.—(CP) Citizens of Greater Windsor rode to work in street cars and buses today as the street railway resumed services after a 27-hour strike tie-up.

Meanwhile a petition was on its way to the Dominion Government asking for a Conciliation Board to settle the dispute among operators which led to the first serious labor wrangle since the city was constituted two weeks ago.

One man was held in custody, charged with property damage, in connection with several disturbances that broke out following the walkout members of the street railwaymen's union employed by the Sandwich Windsor and Amherstburg railway.

KINGSMILL DIES AT SUMMER HOME

Ottawa, June 15 (CP)—Admiral Sir Charles Kingsmill, former director of Canadian Naval Services, died at his country residence early today. Sir Charles had returned only recently from a visit to his daughter, Lady Lorne Gordon-Lennox in London.

Aged Couple Honeymooning Under Duress

Erie, Pa., July 15 (AP)—Julius Zuress, 68, and his 56-year-old bride are honeymooning under duress at an Erie Hotel, their honeymoon marred by neighbors and other residents of the town who disapproved of the wedding.

Zuress married Mrs. Ruth Switzer by a former marriage, is in charged with abducting the dead Laurence Field, a neighbor, after the bridegroom's daughter fled her mother's home. Police said Field, bearing an arrangement between Zuress and Mrs. Switzer.

Switzer and his fifth wife were married in Chippewa, N.Y., justice of the Peace J. Albert Eckerds, Jr., said. Zuress and Erie were arrested for Field's death, which occured July 3.

About four persons, carrying tar and feathers, visited the aged couple's home yesterday. Their intent consisted of a storm of missiles which broke the windows. They tore the railing from the porch and burst inside.

Police and firemen forced their way through the crowd, rescued the bridegroom and his bride and took them to the city jail for safe keeping. Then they sent the newlyweds to Erie.

"Ginger Up" Migration Plan of British Tories Who See Trend to West

Canada One of Greatest Industrial Centres Foreseen

DEPUTATION TO CANADA

Early Migration to Canada From British Isles is Hope

By GEORGE HAMBLETON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, July 15—(CP Cable) — Forty-five Conservative members of the House of Commons and 30 Conservative members of the House of Lords banded themselves together today to "ginger up" empire migration.

Known as the "imperial policy group" they declared their policy to be based on "true Tory faith directed to an imperial end."

A motion which Lord Mansfield and Sir Henry Page Croft moved Wednesday marks the opening of the campaign, it will draw attention to the lack of any policy of His Majesty's government for imperial and colonial development. It will urge long-term proposals for the permanent reduction of unemployment in this country by a scheme of orderly organized overseas settlement in co-operation with His Majesty's governments overseas.

Migration an Urgent Need

A delegation from the group which visited the "distressed areas" where unemployment is chronic, reported they were convinced that the only solution for them be found in large migration. Their idea is a community settlement in the Dominions and colonies. They point out that present schemes for moving unemployed from the distressed areas to small holdings elsewhere in the United Kingdom affects only 2,000 families, while there are 150,000 families in need of moving.

Prime Minister G. M. Huggins of Southern Rhodesia has already been approached, and he said to be favorable to the project.

The group intend to send a delegation of three to Canada after the Canadian general elections to explore the possibilities of migration to the Dominion.

They contemplate a drift of industries westward as a result of this policy, with Canada eventually established as one of the greatest industrial centres of the empire.

While their policy covers a wide field, unemployment will be described as the main theme.

MAYOR STRESSES FARM HELP NEED

Raps Anyone Who Needing Work Refuses to Go on Farm

Unemployed men on relief who have been passing up the opportunity of working on farms in for official censure by Mayor Tice today.

"Farm help is urgently needed at this moment and yet I am told that farmers are finding it hard to get men to do any work," the Mayor said. "We expect to make a check up of some of these men. We must."

"I just want to point out that any man who does get a chance at farm work will be jeopardizing his privileges and has a perfect right to use the money he earns in any manner as long as it is in the best interests of his family."

NEW NURSE APPOINTED

OTTAWA, July 15.—Miss Eva Gagne nurse in the Children's Ward Ottawa General Hospital, left this week-end for Dalhousie Mills, Ont., where she has accepted an appointment as the first hospital nurse to attend the famous Dionne quintuplets. Miss Gagne succeeded Miss Gagne's appointment is for one month but she may possibly remain longer on duty with the Dionne babies after taking a short holiday upon completion of her first month.

KEEPS KING'S PURSE

Lord Sysonby of Wonersh, formerly Sir Frederick Ponsonby, G.C.B., G.C.V.O. treasurer to His Majesty, King George, and keeper of the privy purse, who has been created a peer in the honors list last month.

QUIET PREVAILS IN BELFAST RIOT

Troopers With Fixed Bayonets Patrol Streets

By Stephen Williamson
Associated Press Staff Writer

Belfast, Northern Ireland, July 15—(AP)—Steel-helmeted troopers with bayoneted fixed patrolled the streets today, alert for any new outbreak of the disturbances, which caused five deaths and 76 wounded.

Comparative quiet prevailed during the early hours after a series of religious riots, originating with last Friday's celebrations by Orangemen of the 245th anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne.

The latest casualty was the seven-year-old Kathleen Stewart, who was shot down by a sniper from behind a chimney pot last night while she was playing on a street. She was taken to a hospital with a bullet in her shoulder.

A search for arms was pressed, and police, in official obtacle precautions to prevent further disturbances during the funeral for two of Friday's victims, Mary Broderick, 39, and Matthew Mullan, 18.

An armored car was detailed to accompany the funeral processions to the cemetery, and the place of burial is kept secret.

CORT VON DER LINDEN DIES

The Hague, July 15—(CP-Havas) —Cort Von Der Linden, Prime Minister of the Netherlands during the World war, died here today at the age of 86.

WEATHER

Toronto, July 15—(CP)—Shallow depressions over the great lakes have caused some heavy thunderstorms in Ontario and showers have occurred in Northern districts of Quebec and Manitoba, but it has been generally fair and warm in the west with high temperatures in Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Northern Ontario — Moderate northerly winds; cloudy and rather cool with showers. Tuesday mostly fair and warmer.

Lake Superior — Moderate variable winds; some light showers at first, then clearing and warmer.

Kenora and Rainy River—Moderate winds; unsettled with showers at first, then clearing and warmer.

Manitoba and Saskatchewan—Moderate winds; fair and quite warm.

Alberta — Mostly fair and decidedly warm.

Coming Events

CARD PARTY, 57 CHURCH'S SUNDAY School, Tuesday, July 16, 8 o'clock sharp. Admission 25c. Refreshments, Prizes. Everybody welcome. J15-1t

LIBERAL MEETING SOUTH END Yacht Club, Tuesday July 16th, 8 p.m. Refreshments. Speakers. All those interested in the welfare of Canada are cordially asked to attend. J15-1t

DANCE AT MELODY INN TUESDAY, July 16. Music by Jack Grant and his Aces. Dancing 9 to 1 D.S.T. J13-1t

Parachute Torn in Mid-Air Jumper Saved by Striking Parachutist

Moscow, July 15—(AP)—A jumper whose parachute was torn away in midair was saved by a fellow parachutist in a thrilling episode at the Moscow military airfield today.

Soldier Noskoff caught on the stabilizer of an airplane after leaping from the wing. But his chute and hurtled down. In midair he struck another parachutist, soldier Kraskkoff, and clutched him desperately.

They fell rapidly, until 300 feet above the earth Noskoff finally found the cord of Kraskoff's reserve chute and opened it in time to check their fall.

Both landed safely.

WEATHER
Cloudy and comparatively cool with occasional showers; moderate to fresh shifting winds. Tuesday: fair and warm.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES

	Max.	Min.
Today	79	58
Year ago	86	60

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, MONDAY, JULY 15, 1935

10 NEW SUBMARINES ORDERED BY MUSSOLINI

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Syracuse, N.Y., July 15 (CP) — Robert K. Tooley, who claims 104 years of age, went to a baseball game in a city park, Sunday.

A batter popped a foul ball and Tooley was struck on the head. It took some persuasion to get him to an ambulance and he was taken to the hospital. There, when his injuries were diagnosed as trivial, he refused to stay and ordered that he be assisted to the family car.

"Nothing small like a baseball he ever stopped him," he explained. "It's going to take something big and fat and going to happen for anything to stop my mother 115 when she died."

Moosic, Mo., July 15 (CP) — Lightning never struck twice, they say. It appears to be just another old wives' tale. It struck in the same place on the A. Tedesco farm, and what's more, it came from a clear sky and destroyed two sheds of wheat—just as it did 25 years ago.

Reston, July 15 (CP)—The Jefferson Club of Reston has adopted an outing.

"The next event," announced the announcer, "will be the fat women's race."

No entries.

"Cancelled," remarked the announcer. "The next event will be the plump-to-plump ladies' race."

Six 226-pounders went to the post.

Denver, July 15 (CP)—For the first time in the history of the Park Zoo, a Denver hatched snow goose is thriving. The bird, which was hatched May 15, is now almost fully grown.

In the past, birds of this species have never lived more than a few days. The birds were abnormally deposits in eggs and hatched, young, the latest addition to the migrating group in the spring.

Indianapolis, July 15 (CP)—Add Mount Olympus to the list of vanishing Americana.

T. C. Stample, only expert, today reported an excessive survey shows Indianapolis bloods have decreased from 6 to 10 per cent in the last 25 years. He said Nordenal student have shown similar decreases.

Even synthetic blonds are getting rare," he explained. "Real redheads are much harder to find."

Goderich, Ont., July 15 (CP) — Considerable damage resulted when two teams entangled on the farm of George Sowerby, Goderich township, when they met in drawing a hay rake collided with horses pulling a stonecart, and before the drivers could disentangle the rake, the hay rack was demolished, harness torn to pieces and one horse badly injured.

Guelph, Ont., July 15 (CP) — Summoned by a group of boys who found a dead baby in a vacant lot, police killed a six foot snake on a main street here. Shots failed to kill the snake, and police were forced to chop off its head.

Waterford, Ont., July 15 (CP) —Harvey Forsyth, farmer here, was forced to shut up a new born calf in his "baby" chicken house. The farm mate persisted in attempting to steal the animal away from its mother. The mate took possession of the calf after driving off its mother. Later, when the young animal was removed to another field, "Jack" broke down a fence to follow.

THOUGHT ACTION TO BE BEST ONE

Police Say Blind Musician Threw Girl Partner From Window

Boston, July 15 (AP)—Forest R. Wells, 30-year-old blind accordionist, today was accused by police of having thrown his partially blind partner, Hazel Martin, 25, from a third floor window of a Boston hotel and killing her.

Police Inspector Harry Pierce said Wells, a former Malden resident, admitted throwing the girl from the window as an act of mercy.

Wells, Pierce said, told of being "broke" and afraid the Martin girl, whom he met in Columbus, O., and brought here two years ago, would be in want.

Pierce quoted Wells as saying he "thought it the best thing to do," after telling of marrying the girl with the girl during the past 18 months.

PAIR FOUND SLAIN, PLANNED TO WED THIS AFTERNOON

Kitchener Paper-Covered Shack is Scene of Double Shooting

TWO SHOTS HEARD

Dead Are Kathleen Britton, 19 and Clarence Johannes, 24

Kitchener, Ont., July 15 (CP) — Nineteen year old Kathleen Alice Britton, and 24 year old Clarence Johannes, both of this city were shot to death late this morning in a paper-covered shack on Grant Avenue in which Johannes resided.

They were to have been married at two o'clock this afternoon.

Two shots were heard by persons near the Johannes shack off Kent Avenue and the bodies of the pair were found together. Police could not immediately establish what caused the shooting or who was responsible.

TERMS, LASHES, TORTURE ROBBERY

Convicted of Tying Farm Hand to Tree And Beating Him

LONDON, Ont., July 15 — (CP) — Joseph Elliott, Hamilton and Joseph Power, Montreal, were sentenced today to four years in penitentiary and 15 strokes each for the torture robbery of Fred McCormick, 70-year-old farmer of Mount Brydges, in this city one week ago.

Elliott and Powers were convicted on charge of robbery with violence after Dep. Sheriff Archibald Kelly, in a tree on Forward Avenue and beat him until he was covered with bruises. They had lured him to the lonely spot on pretense of selling him a bicycle.

Girl is Abducted From Parents Tent?

Hamilton, July 15—(CP)— Police today were searching the vineland area for Ethel Kaine, 16, whose parents reported she had been abducted from their tent during the night.

The girl's father, Frederick Kaine, is drawing a hay rake collided with horses pulling a stonecart, and before the drivers could disentangle the rake, the hay rack was demolished, harness torn to pieces and one horse badly injured.

DEDICATION OF BRIDGES TODAY

Shorten Distance Between Falls And Buffalo by 7 Miles

Buffalo, N. Y., July 15—(CP)— Linking of Grand Island in the Niagara River to the United States mainland by two bridges was the occasion of an international ceremony today.

Dedication of the two bridges was scheduled to take place at 3 p.m. D. S. T., with Governor Herbert H. Lehman of New York speaking. Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn of Ontario, Jesse Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Dr. Alexander C. Flick, State Historian, Lithgow Osborne, State Conservation Commissioner and Robert Moses, Chairman of the State Council of Parks, also were to make speeches.

Following the bridge ceremony, Governor Lehman and his party will open a park on Grand Island and then drive to Niagara Falls, N. Y., where the 50th anniversary of State Conservation is being observed.

Governor Lehman and Mr. Hepburn are the main speakers at this function.

The bridges and a road across the island shorten by seven miles the distance from Buffalo to Niagara Falls. One is from Tonawanda, the other from Niagara Falls. They cost $3,500,000.

FILLING TRACTOR IS BADLY BURNED

Portion of Gasoline Falls on Hot Exhaust Pipe

Fort Erie, July 15 (CP) — While pouring gasoline into a tractor in front of tourist camp on Garrison Road here shortly before noon Lyndell son of Mrs. Joseph Trendell of Bertie Township was badly burned about lower limbs and body, when a portion of liquid fell on a hot exhaust pipe.

The tractor was destroyed together with the shed bearing the name of the tourist camp. The boy was rushed to the local hospital where it was said his burns are serious.

Masonic Grand Lodge Meets At Hamilton

Hamilton, July 15 (CP)—Delegates from all parts of Ontario, representative officers from the various provinces of Canada, east of the Rocky Mountains, and many distinguished members from the United States arriving in this city today to attend the eighteenth annual communication and election of the Grand Lodge of Canada, A.F. and A.M. in the Province of Ontario, which opens Wednesday in the auditorium for a two-day session.

SEES U. S. DICTATOR

Earl Radek, Soviet editor, whose declaration likens official views, is telling readers of Russian press that a dictatorship of middle-class origin will be set up in U.S. within a short time.

IL DUCE ORDERS ANOTHER ARMY OF BLACKSHIRTS

Ten New Submarines Ordered For Construction

QUESTION TO LEAGUE

British Ambassador to France Confers Daily With Laval

(By Andrew Berding)

(Associated Press Foreign Staff)

Rome, July 19 (AP)—With war between Italy and Ethiopia regarded as virtually inevitable, Premier Benito Mussolini today ordered the mobilization of another regular army division and the creation of an additional division of blackshirt militia.

Il Duce also ordered the immediate construction of 10 new submarines.

An official communique said: "The accelerated rhythm of military preparation by Ethiopia forces us to proceed with additional measures of military character."

Five Divisions

Today's order brings the number of regular army divisions designated for East Africa to five. Five blackshirt divisions also have been created. This means Italy will have at least seven men for service against Ethiopia, should war begin.

The Communique said it had been "ascertained with certainty" that Italian specialists and technical experts of the classes of 1909, 1910 and 1912, and summoned new groups of officers and specialists for the air force.

Question Before League

London, July 15—(CP Cable) — The issue of peace or war between Italy and Ethiopia will, it is expected in authoritative circles here, come before the League of Nations at the league of nations council which meets in special session on July 25.

At this special meeting of the council was originally arranged to settle the fifth and last dispute between the two countries, but in case the four arbitrators of the mixed commission of conciliation and frontier incident were unable to agree. They were not only unable to agree, but the arbitration proceedings broke down.

Although no decision has been reached it is taken for granted that the special council meeting will have the merits of the dispute before it. Whatever Italy's attitude is it said here, Ethiopia will certainly raise the issue before the council.

Conversations With France

Conversations between the British Ambassador in Rome, Sir Eric Drummond, Pierre Laval are proceeding daily. No special negotiations are under way between Premier Mussolini and Rome, but contact is being maintained. Italy's demands are reported to be for frontier rectification, economic concessions, railway extensions and Somaliland cutting across Ethiopia—and the appointment of Italian advisers to the Ethiopian State Department.

The first two demands are not expected at presenting any special difficulty, but to the last two the Ethiopian government is resolute opposition. Ethiopia will not accept; arrangements to make her solo the protected zone along the railway, nor will she accept Italian "advisers." The demands are interpreted in Addis Ababa as tantamount to sacrifice of political independence.

Foreign Enlistments

The British government, it is learned is not formulating the forces of enlistments as against British subjects at present enlisting either in the Italian or Ethiopian forces. The question has arisen as a result of several cases of service which the Ethiopian legation is said to have received from British ex-service men.

The act provides the government can penalize by fine or imprisonment British subjects who join the forces of another country at war with a country, with which Britain is at peace. But the act, it is held, applies only after the hostilities occur, does not apply to enlistment with the forces of a country still at peace, even though it should subsequently go to war.

While informal discussions among diplomatic representatives of the three powers at Paris are not considered likely now, it was said such discussions might be held at Geneva when the League council meets.

POWER THROUGH AIR

"The greatest achievement of my life," said Alcock, basis on his 39th birthday, pictured in New York when speaking of his latest mechanical impulses to the sports of flying as guide for ships and as indicators of world's mineral wealth.

pulses can also be used in time of war to explode bombs anywhere.

AIR DISASTER TO BE INVESTIGATED

Third One For Netherlands to be Wrecked in Seven Months

AMSTERDAM, July 15.—(AP)— Authorities ordered a rigid investigation today into the series of disasters to the Netherlands Air Lines after Sunday's tragedy in which six persons were killed at the Schiphol Aerodrome.

The Fokker plane which crashed into a dyke and burst into flames yesterday soon after taking off from Ramburg was the third "flying fatal" of the Netherlands wrecked within seven months.

The charred wreckage of the great four-motored ship was awful. Not even officials of the Air Line were allowed to approach.

A post mortem disclosed that the six victims—including two English passengers whose names had not yet been established—died before the flames reached them.

Thirteen other passengers and one member of the crew escaped through an emergency door, which burst open in the crash. Three survivors were injured.

The dead, jrapped behind a jammed door forward in the cabin, included the two English passengers and Herman and Hudson, Dutch, and four crewmen—Pilot Silverstein, Wireless Operator Nanov and Mechanics Bram and Van Dyk.

KINGSMILL DIES AT SUMMER HOME

Ottawa, June 15 (CP)—Admiral Sir Charles Kingsmill, former director of Canadian Naval Service, died at his country residence early today, Mr. Charles had returned only recently from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Victor Gordon-Lennox in London.

Aged Couple Honeymooning Under Duress

Erie, Pa., July 15 (AP)—Julius F. Switzer, 68, and his 56-year-old bride, Mrs. Hannah Hemmerling Gureas at an Erie Hotel, their home wrecked by neighbors and other guests, after Police had fled, bearing an argument between the two newlyweds.

Switzer and his fifth wife were married Wednesday, N.Y., by justice of the Peace J. Albert Eckerds Jr., several days after Elting was arrested on charges of desertion and non-support.

Neighbors, persons, carrying tar and feathers, visited the aged couple's home yesterday. Their tribulers consisted of a storm of missiles which broke the window. They tore the railing from the porch and burst inside.

Police and firemen forced their way through the crowd, rescued Geisger and his bride and took them to the city jail for safe keeping. Then they sent the newlyweds to Erie.

EASTERN DISTRICT HYDRO OFFICIALS TO MEET IN CITY

Will Convene on July 24th to Discuss Business

MAYOR AS CHAIRMAN

Delegates Likely to be Given Banquet in The Evening

Through the efforts of Mayor Geo. O. Tice, at the recent convention of Hydro held at Bigwin Inn, a convention of Hydro representatives of the Eastern District municipalities will convene in this city and one hundred delegates from municipalities, between the district of Toronto and the Quebec boundary will assemble in Belleville on July 24th at two p.m. Daylight Saving Time at the city hall. The convention has been arranged for the purpose of organization work in the eastern district.

According to a communication received today by Mayor Tice, he has been asked to act as chairman of the meeting.

The communication received from T. J. Hannigan states that Mr. T. Stewart Lyon, Chairman of the Ontario Hydro Commission will be present and answer any questions relating to Eastern District Hydro.

In asking the cooperation of citizens and merchants generally in arranging transportation for the visitors, Mayor Tice today pointed out that several other municipalities had been after the honor of entertaining the delegates, but the Mayor-To-be have the delegates come through the city and district during their stay. It is expected that three busses will be chartered by a banquet arranged for the guests.

WATER LITERALLY LEAPED BREACH

Estimated 10,000 Lost Lives in Chinese Flood

Hankow, China, July 15 (AP) Chinese estimates submitted 10,000 persons perished today when the Yangtze waters of flood fury surged through a dike near Hanyang and swept through the streets of the thickly populated countryside.

Members of a Chinese motorboat crew, who saw the bursting of the dike, said: "The water leaped the breach like a vivid eyewitness account of the flood.

"It was a horrible sight," one of them said. "A wall of water literally leaped through the breach, sweeping everything before it — houses, trees and humanity.

"The survivors must have been stricken by the torrent before being taken utterly by surprise and had no time to seek safety."

Dr. Charles Boynton returned only recently from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Victor Gordon-Lennox in London.

WINDSOR RESIDENTS AGAIN RIDE TO WORK

WINDSOR, Ont., July 15.—(CP)— Citizens of Greater Windsor rode to work in street cars and buses today as the street railway's operating services after a 27-hour strike tie up.

Meanwhile a petition was on its way to the Dominion Government from the Windsor Board of Trade to settle the dispute among operators which led to the first serious labor wrangle since the city was constituted two years ago.

One man was held in custody, charged with property damage, as a result of minor disorders that broke out following the walkout members of the street railwaymen's union employed by the Sandwich Windsor and Amherstburg railway.

"Ginger Up" Migration Plan of British Tories Who See Trend to West

Canada One of Greatest Industrial Centres Foreseen

DEPUTATION TO CANADA

Early Migration to Canada From British Isles is Hope

By GEORGE HAMBLETON

Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, July 15—(CP Cable)— Forty-three Conservative members of the House of Commons and 30 Conservative members of the House of Lords banded themselves together today to "ginger up" empire migration.

Known as the "imperial policy group" they declared their plan would be based on "true Tory faith directed to an imperial end."

A motion which Lord Mansfield will submit to the Upper House next Wednesday starts the opening of the campaign. It will draw attention to the lack of any policy of His Majesty's government for imperial and colonial development, and to any long-term proposals for the permanent reduction of unemployment in this country by a scheme of properly organized overseas settlement in co-operation with His Majesty's governments overseas.

Migration as Cure

A delegation from the group which visited the "distressed areas" where unemployment is chronic, reported they were convinced that the only solution is to be found in Empire migration. Similar idea is entertained by two Dominions and colonies. They point out that present schemes for moving unemployed from the distressed areas to rural holdings elsewhere in the United Kingdom affects only 3,000 families, whereas there are 150,000 families in need of moving.

Prime Minister O. M. Huggins of Southern Rhodesia has already been approached, and is said to be favorably disposed to the plan.

The group intend to send a delegation of three to Canada after the Canadian general elections to explore the possibilities of migration to the Dominion.

They contemplate a drift of industries westward as a result of their policy, with Canada eventually becoming as one of the centres for industrial centres of the empire.

While their policy covers a wide range, industrial development is described as the main theme.

MAYOR STRESSES FARM HELP NEED

Reps Anyone Who Need-ing Work Refuses to Go on Farm

Unemployed men on relief who have been passing up the opportunity of working on farms in order to get relief cenaure by Mayor Tice today.

"Farm help is urgently needed at this time," declared the Mayor, "and farmers are finding it hard to get help of any sort," stated Mayor Tice.

"We expect to make a check up of some of these men," he added.

"I just want to point out that any man who does get a chance at farm work and who loses his relief privileges and has a perfect right to use the money he earns, in any manner he sees fit, as it is the best interests of his family."

NEW NURSE APPOINTED

OTTAWA, July 15.—(CP)—Miss Ida Clarke has been appointed Ward Ottawa General Hospital, left over the week-end for Callander, Ont., where she has accepted an appointment on the Dafoe Hospital staff.

Miss Clarke is a graduate of Queen's University, N.Y., by journalist in a thrilling episode at the Ottawa military academy.

Soldier Stakoff caught on stabilizer of an airplane after leaping from the wing, has fallen and buried down. In midair he safely.

KEEPS KING'S PURSE

Lord Stamfay of Wemersh, formerly Sir Frederick Ponsonby, G.C.B., G.C.V.O., treasurer to His Majesty, King George, and keeper of the privy purse, who has been raised a peer in the honors list last month.

QUIET PREVAILS IN BELFAST RIOT

Troopers With Fixed Bayonets Patrol Streets

By Stephen Williamson

Associated Press Staff Writer

Belfast, Northern Ireland, July 15—(AP)—Steel-helmeted troopers with bayonets fixed patrolled the streets today, alert for any new outbreak of the disturbances, which have caused five deaths and 74 wounded.

Comparative quiet prevailed during the early hours after a series of religious riots, culminating with last Friday's celebrations by Orangemen of the 245th anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne.

The latest casualty was seven-yearold Kathleen Stewart, who was shot down by a sniper from behind a chimney pot last night while she was playing on a street. She was taken to a hospital with a bullet in the abdomen.

A search for arms was pressed today, and police took elaborate precautions to prevent further bloodshed during the funeral Wednesday of Friday's victims, Mary Broderick, 39, and Edward Wilkens, 45.

An armored car was detailed to accompany both funeral processions to the cemetery, and the place of burial was guarded.

GORT VON DER LINDEN DIES

Cape Hague, July 15—(CP-Havas) —Gort Von Der Linden, Prime Minister of the Netherlands during the great war, died here today at the age of 98.

WEATHER

Toronto, July 15—(CP)—Shallow depressions over the great lakes have been causing some heavy thunderstorms in Ontario and showers have occurred in Northern districts of Quebec and Manitoba, but it has been generally fair and warm in the west with high temperatures in Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Northern Ontario — Moderate northerly winds; cloudy with rather cool with showers. Tuesday — mostly fair and warmer.

Lake Superior — Moderate variable winds; some light showers at first, then clearing and warmer.

Kenora and Rainy River—Moderate northeasterly winds; fair and warm.

Manitoba and Saskatchewan — Moderate winds; fair and quite warm.

Alberta — Mostly fair and decidedly warm.

Total Eclipse of Moon to be Seen In This Section of Canada Tonight

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Editor)

New York, July 15 (AP)—Most entire United States and some parts of Canada, the moon will be shaded tonight for a total eclipse of the moon — the first for the country since 1927.

No one will have to stay up all night, and most folks won't have to be up even late to see this eclipse.

The curving edge of the earth's shadow will cut into the side of the moon at 9 P. M., E.D.T.

That is the moment when the moon touches the black of the earth's shadow, which extends about 860,000 miles out into space.

The moon will enter this cone at a point about 236,000 miles out. It will take the moon 37 minutes to pass completely into this black shadow cone. For that time the moon will be seen as the earth's shadow, always bigger than the moon, moving across the Lunar face until the moon is completely engulfed.

At 12.06 A. M., E. D. T., the shadow will completely cover the moon. It will remain covered for an hour and 41 minutes, the time necessary to pass through the black cone.

The moon may, or may not, be completely invisible during the hour and 41 minutes.

Parachute Torn in Mid-Air Jumper Saved by Striking Parachutist

Moscow, July 15—(AP)—A jumper whose parachute was torn away in midair was saved by a fellow para-

Soldier Kraskoff caught on stabilizer of an airplane after leaping from the wing, has fallen and buried down. In midair he safely.

Coming Events

CARD PARTY, ST. GEORGE'S SUNDAY School, Tuesday, July 16, at Masonic hall. Auspices Sunday School teachers. Good prizes. Admission 25c. Commencing at 8.15-11

LIBERAL MEETING SOUTH END Yacht Club, Tuesday night. Cards, refreshments, speakers. All those interested in the election of Charles Cannon, K.C., welcome. 215-11

DANCE AT MELODY INN TUESDAY night. Music by Jack Grant and his Aces. Dancing 9 to 1 D.S.T. 215-11

City and District News

DEFECT IN LEVER CAUSES DELAY

Mechanical trouble, which arose from a defect in a switch lever at the bay bridge yesterday caused a temporary blockage of water traffic during the afternoon. Several boats were held up for a considerable period while the defect was being remedied. The steamer Glen Allen on her regular run to Trenton was forced to ramp at Ostrom's dock during the afternoon.

COMMITTEE TO INSPECT CLOCK

Whether the faithful tolling of the city clock bell will be resumed in the near future will depend upon a report tendered by a special committee of city council which will inspect the clock on Tuesday. The committee which will make their inspection of the clock is composed of Aldermen Marshall; Barlow; Paley; Arndt; Thomson and city engineer Chas. Mott.

TRAFFIC HELD UP BY COLLISION

A collision between two cars occurred on Sunday morning at the east end of the Frankford bridge, which spans the River Trent and Murray Canal. One car was travelling eastward and a car going westward came together with a considerable impact. Both cars were damaged to a considerable extent while the occupants escaped with a severe shaking. Traffic was held up for some time.

ARM BROKEN BY PASSING TRUCK

Albert Hagley, Sidney farmer, sustained a badly fractured arm, when struck by a passing motor truck on No. 2 highway on Friday last. Mr. Hagley was removed to the Belleville General Hospital, where the fracture was found to be compound. The reduction was later reduced. The matter was investigated by Traffic Officer Delaney, who reported that a truck, being driven westerly some 100 miles per hour by Belleville, had struck Hagley. The truck was driven by Foster Boulton, Trenton. Young Mr. Boulton left the rack of the truck apparently struck Hagley, who was standing on the side of the road. A charge of the negligent operation of a motor vehicle causing actual bodily harm was laid by the officer against Boulton and will be heard in Friday's court.

CLOUDS MAY HIDE ECLIPSE OF MOON

Towering clouds which shaded the district during the greater part of the day may dampen the ardour of amateur astronomers of the city and district this evening who have been waiting for the looked for eclipse of the moon. The eclipse will be visible locally for two hours, commencing at midnight, with the totality occurring shortly after.

YOUNG RED FOX DASHES ON LAWN

Bushy tail erect, and sharp nose scenting for early garbage pail, a young red fox was observed on the lawn of the home of Mr. Geo. Wallbridge and the Rev. Robert Hall on Dundas street, where the animal is believed to be one of three still missing from a litter of a red vixen that made her home in the vicinity of a residence of that district.

It Pays to Shop at the Rexall Store.

KLENZO COTTON

POLISHES AS IT CLEANS

FOR AUTOMOBILES AND FURNITURE

59c

McKeown's Drug Store

EVERY DAY LOW PRICES

Not a special Sale once or twice a year, but consistently low prices—that's the I.D.A. Policy.

SAVE SAFELY AT YOUR

I.D.A. DRUG STORES

SHOP AT ZELLERS

IT PAYS

Increase Your Ice Cream Sales by Serving "Neilson's Fine Ice Cream" The Trade Supplied by CITIZEN'S DAIRY Phone 126

A36-M-W-F-tf

MR. DENTON MASSEY has a message of great importance to the Young People of Ontario

Listen Over Any Ontario RADIO STATION

TUESDAY NIGHT from 9.00 to 9.30

Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

WHITE SPARROW TOO

Fort Erie, Ont., July 15—(CP)—An albino robin is no novelty here but 1 visits Fort Erie every spring but residents of Brock Street were thrilled when a white robin, number Harry Bush, saw and collected attention to a pure white sparrow flitting about cherry trees.

CAPITOL
2 BIG FEATURES
TODAY - TUES. - WED.
Dinnerware Tonight and Tues.

SPEND AN EVENING IN DEAR OLD IRELAND

"Lily of KILLARNEY"
GINA MALO
as the beautiful colleen JOHN GARRICK
her charming lover
Dramatic HIGHLIGHT in the role of
A most lovable character
ELITE
STARTS THURSDAY
The Startling! Sensational!
"G-MEN"
with
James Cagney

CLUE CLUB
MYSTERY MASTERPIECE
Alice Mac MARON
GUY KIBBEE
in Mystery Masterpiece
"While the Patient Slept"
A Real Laugh Riot
LYLE TALBOT
PATRICIA ELLIS
ALLEN "JENKINS"

Letters to the Editor

UNEMPLOYMENT AND RELIEF

Belleville, Ont., July 10, 1935.

Editor, Ontario Intelligencer:

During the present unemployment situation I feel that we should all have the benefit of the city ratepayers and our unemployed citizens at large, through this letter, which I trust will arouse the interest of our citizens generally and the attention of our city fathers to a few facts which should be food for thought. I feel sure that this would assist in relieving the heavy burden which our ratepayers are forced to shoulder, and command the respect of our unemployed, so that let us refer to an item appearing in the issue of the Toronto Mail and Empire of July 8th, 1935.

"Cash Relief Work Starts In Oshawa"

"Men Will Get 40 Cents Per Hour, 44 Hours Per Week"

"Oshawa, July 8—Approval has been given by the Unemployment Relief Branch of Ontario Department of Public Welfare of the cash relief scheme of public works submitted by the Oshawa Public Welfare Board. The scheme will get under way Monday, July 15 and will be in effect for three months.

J. C. McGill, relief administration, stated the scheme would cost approximately $13,000 of which amount the Government would assume 90 percent; fifty-five men would be employed on a rotation basis so that all men able to work will have an opportunity of earning relief. It is stated that the men will receive 40 cents per hour, eight hours' day and a five day or 44 hour per week. Workers will be entitled to work sufficient to earn enough money to pay for food and fuel, plus one third extra over the Campbell scale. The money will be paid in cash to the men and therefore they will be able to shop where, where and how they wish."

Now, I do not wish to ridicule or criticize our city council but surely the above quotation should be immediately investigated, as the possibility of sponsoring the same scheme in our own city.

It is already admitted our taxes are on the upgrade and in view of this should we be contented to sit idly by, making little effort if any, to relieve same. By paying 1-3 cost of actual relief, expenditure which even in summer is paying, and citizens on relief practically forced on certain merchants, while other merchants get little if any of this trade, it also has a tendency to create dissension in the ranks of our unemployed who are deprived of the opportunity of earning their keep in cash and the right to spend their own earnings. And it must be admitted that we should be proud of our unemployed. They are real citizens and are in sympathy with anything that does not stand for constituted authority, law, and order. Now why can't we do something for them?

Here is an idea.

Why not arrange a special meeting which would include city council, city engineer, a few of the executive of the Ratepayers Association, three of the executive of the Co-operative Workers Association to discuss different suggestions whereby we could outline a work program along the same lines as that which was adopted by the city of Oshawa. This would relieve the present cost of relief from 1-2 to 1-3 and be greatly appreciated by our ratepayers and our unemployed.

In conclusion I wish to thank you Mr. Editor for space and leave you and your readers with the question in mind. "

Ern. J. Baldrey.
Co-operative Workers of Belleville.

10 MINERS KILLED IN GERMAN BLAST

Undetermined Number of Men Trapped 2400 Feet Below

Dortmund, Germany, July 15 (AP)—Ten miners were killed, 22 injured and an undetermined number trapped underground when an explosion 2,400 feet below the surface today set fire to the coal shaft in the Hansa mine near Dortmund.

The mine employs 1,600 miners, half that number, 700, were working when the blast occurred.

Refusing to divulge the extent of the disaster or reveal how many were trapped, the director of the mine said:

"We are forbidden to talk or give details about the explosion. The management is preparing a statement for the press which will be announced through official channels."

Confidence was expressed that the fire raging below, which was said to be already "limited", could be extinguished before it set off the entombed workmen from suffocation.

Nearby mines were asked to send help to the Hansa mine's ventilation shaft, where the disaster occurred, and rescuers were working frantically to control the fire.

TO VISIT EAST AFRICA

Rome, July 15 (CP-Havas)—Premier Benito Mussolini probably will visit the Italian Colonies in East Africa to view progress of his military preparations, it was learned tonight.

If Duce will go either to East Africa by warship, with a naval escort, or by seaplane, on an officially inspection tour, it is expected.

THURLOW RESIDENT FOUND NOT GUILTY

Magistrate Finds F. W. Jones Had Legal Right To Sell

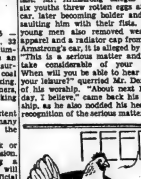
After viewing the evidence in the case of Fred W. Jones, of Thurlow, who was charged with having illegally selling meat without first having procured a county licence so to do, His Worship Magistrate E. J. Butler, K.C., handed down judgment in favor of the defendant Monday. In his findings the Magistrate commented as follows:

"This is a prosecution under bylaw No. 1036 of the County of Hastings, the accused man being charged with going from place to place and to other men's houses with a motor vehicle carrying meat for sale without having obtained a licence.

I am of the opinion that parties peddling meat in the County of Hastings are within the provisions of the by-law, but in this case, I think upon the evidence, that the man is a resident of the County of Hastings and the meat he offered for sale was the product of a heifer obtained by him some six weeks prior to its slaughter and killed by him for the purpose of obtaining meat. I do not think he comes within the provisions of the by-law and that he was therefore not bound to procure a licence.

Had he told the Provincial Police the entire facts as were sworne to by himself and Mr. Williams, no prosecution would likely have been made, but nevertheless I must dismiss this case as I think upon the evidence he was legally entitled to sell the meat of his own preparation."

The evidence in the case was submitted in the local police court one week ago. Charles A. Payne, K.C., represented the County of Hastings during the taking of evidence, and C. A. Cameron represented the defendant.



YOUTHS REMANDED ON 18 CHARGES

Alleged Interference With Occupants of Parked Cars Aired

Six youths, residing in the surrounding community, appeared in the local police court, held before Magistrate E. J. Butler, K.C., this morning, facing eighteen charges. Each lad was charged on three counts, following the interference with motor car occupants in the vicinity of the C.N.R. coal-chutes. The youths were charged with the malicious destruction of property, theft and the assault of one Gordon Weese, by striking him with their fists. The youths to appear were Gordon Aitkins, George Bennett, John Seeley, George and Donald Whalen, all of Thurlow, and Neil Harris of this city. The charges are the result of alleged concerted attacks on the alleged interference with occupants of parked automobiles in the vicinity of the second section of Thurlow. The charges were enlarged for one week at the request of Charles A. Payne, K.C., who represented some of the accused youths.

R. C. Donnan, K.C., local Crown Attorney, intimated during the court proceedings that should the evidence on charges in these cases may face the accused youths, as certain complaints in regards to the actions of persons in the community adjacent to the C.N.R. coal chutes are being received daily by the provincial police, following the publicity given in the matter over the week-end.

According to the O.P.P. the trouble seems to be heat when complaints were registered by D. J. Armstrong, of his city in relationship to the youths molesting him while he was in his own parked automobile near the coal chutes on the night of July 10 last. Mr. Armstrong alleges that six youths threw rotten eggs at his car, later becoming bolder and assaulting him with their fists. One young men also removed wearing apparel and a radiator cap from Mr. Armstrong's car, it is alleged by him. "This is a serious matter and will have considerable of a bearing. When will you be able to hear it at your leisure?" questioned Mr. Donnan of his worship. "About next Monday, I believe," came back his worship, as he also nodded his head in recognition of the serious matter.

FEED YOUR GROWING PULLETS NOW FOR EARLY EGG PRODUCTION
We Sell the Best Brands of GROWING MASH
BLATCHFORD'S and O. A. C.
in Large or Small Orders.
C. E. Bishop & Son
Phone 262—WE DELIVER

THURLOW BAND CONCERT MUCH ENJOYED

Municipal Band Gives Varied Program at Fair Grounds

The second in a series of open air band concerts, given by the Belleville Municipal Band, attracted a large audience at the Exhibition Park last evening. Benches were provided for the citizens to sit upon, while surrounding the bandstand while accommodating the band filled with appreciative listeners, who applauded the endeavours of the band thoroughly. The Belleville Municipal Band was under the leadership of Lieutenant Bandmaster Jobson.

A lengthy program was presented featuring selections from "The Maid of the Mountains" and a medley of hymns, that sounded encouraging. The Overture "Poet and Peasant" was also highly appreciated. Hundreds of local citizens enjoyed the evening's program.

The complete program:

O'Canada.

March (Old Friendship) Chambers.

Overture (Poet and Peasant) by request, Luppe.

American Sketch (Down South) Myddleton.

Theodore solo (Holy City) Asela-Adams.

Waltz (Nights of Gladness) Ancliffe.

Intermission

Selection (Maid of the Mountains) Fraser Simmons.

Fantasia (Gems of Stephen Foster) Tobani.

Secret Overture (Joy to the world).

March (Religious) Chambers.

Hymn (Abide With Me).

God Save the King.

Entrance Results At Stirling Centre

Harry Bateman; Roy Bateman; Ross Bateman; Isobel Beckett; Doreen Chambers; Vada Cooke; Margaret Cotton; Phyllis Ewart; Donald Fleming; Verna Gay (segrotat); Evelyn Gibson; Edna Hubble; Helen Jeffrey (H); Belle Joyce; Earl Linen; Leela Ligh (H); Ive Lummis; Orwell McIlroy; Herbert McCrery; Elmer McInroy (H); Garland McKeown; Marion McKeown; Nina McKillop (H); Nora McMullen (H); Lillian Matthews; Pearl Merriman; Winnie Phillips; Malcolm Reid; Norma Reid; Douglas Richardson; Marjorie Richardson; Helen Rose; Ruth Sharpe (H); Malcolm Sharpe; Frank Spencer; Ina Swartz; Verna Thompson; Helen Thain (H); Jack Tull; Muriel Wellbourn; Marie Sharpe; Hilda Moorcraft (segrotat); Kenneth Wallace (segrotat).

There were many visits of recent weeks and the opening of the season on the 15th. Large numbers high waters in the region of Rossmount Landing and Glen Ross which is a favorite spot for fishermen. Many fishermen from all parts of the country fishing here and the season of 10 years until two weeks ago. Since that time some excellent catches have been reported. Last Tuesday Mr. Alred Livingston accompanied by Mrs. Livingston and the latter's son spent three hours on the water and landed over two large pickerel, one black bass, three pike, two white fish and eight-four perch. Others reported a few fishermen perhaps, but not bad, not bad.

Refers To Death of Former Moderator

During the Sunday morning service in the Bellaway Street United Church, the pastor, Rev. R. E. Newman spoke of the passing of Rt. Rev. Dr. R. B. Oliver, former Moderator of the United Church of Canada. He referred to the outstanding contribution made to the church and the nation at a critical time in the history of Canada. The congregation stood for a minute of silence, after which a prayer of Thanksgiving was offered for services rendered. The organist, Mr. Clifford Templer concluded this part of the service with a beautiful rendering of "Going Home" by Dvorak. Mr. Clare Patterson contributed two solos in a most capable manner.

VACATIONS

CAMERAS 69c
KODAK FILMS
27c NOXZEMA 15c
PREP 20c
50c UNQUENTINE .. 44c
FLASHLIGHT ... 69c
Poison Ivy Lotion .. 30c
Mercurochrome 25c
LAURA SECORD CHOCOLATES
VACUUM BOTTLES 39c

DOLAN
THE DRUGGIST
Phone 138

Progress!

Not once in the past 35 years, covering good times and bad, has the London Life failed to make a gain each year in the amount of Life Insurance in force.

More and more, Canadians are buying their life insurance from this Company.

London Life Insurance Company

District Office
17 Bridge St. E. Belleville

Obituary

Late Mrs. Catherine Kerby

Stirling—(Special)—A very large number of friends and relatives gathered at St. James' Roman Catholic Church, Stirling to pay final tribute at the funeral of the late Catherine Kerby, which took place on the morning of Friday, July 12th, the late Mrs. Kerby, who passed away at her home in Sidney, on Wednesday, 10th, in her 78th year, was born in Huntingdon Township, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Doran. Her husband predeceased her by many years ago. About twenty years ago Mrs. Kerby and family moved to Stirling, where she was dearly loved by a large circle of friends. She was a devoted member of St. James Church, President of the altar Society, member of the St. James Catholic Women's League. Solemn Requiem High Mass was offered by Rev. Father Farrell of Stirling. Numerous floral and spiritual tributes testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Left to mourn her loss are, seven daughters, Mrs. Mrs. Kerby and family moved to Stirling, where she was dearly loved by a large circle of friends. She was a devoted member of St. James Church, President of the altar Society, member of the St. James Catholic Women's League. Solemn Requiem High Mass was offered by Rev. Father Farrell of Stirling. Numerous floral and spiritual tributes testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Left to mourn her loss are, seven daughters, Mrs. Mrs. Kerby and family moved to Stirling, where she was dearly loved by a large circle of friends. She was a devoted member of St. James Church, President of the altar Society, member of the St. James Catholic Women's League. Solemn Requiem High Mass was offered by Rev. Father Farrell of Stirling. Numerous floral and spiritual tributes testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Left to mourn her loss are, seven daughters, Mrs. Mrs. Kerby and family moved to Stirling, where she was dearly loved by a large circle of friends. She was a devoted member of St. James Church, President of the altar Society, member of the St. James Catholic Women's League. Solemn Requiem High Mass was offered by Rev. Father Farrell of Stirling. Numerous floral and spiritual tributes testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Left to mourn her loss are, seven daughters, Mrs. Jas. Kerby, Stirling; Mrs. Sister Bercheron of Harold, Mrs. Jos. Fitzsimmons of Sidney, Mrs. John Haight of Brasebridge, nd one son Michael at home; one brother in the latter Mrs. Dan Donohue of Belleville, and one brother, Mr. Jas. Doran of Thurlow, Mrs. Mrs. Felix James and Thomas predeceased her.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Clinton Meeker, J. E. Fitzsimmons, Jos. Belshaw, H. McPaul, T. McAvoy, J. Furestall. Interment was made in St. James cemetery.

MISS IDA MARRILLA KECK

After an illness which had extended for the past six months, Miss Ida Marrilla Keck, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Hazel Keck and the late John Keck, died in the Belleville General Hospital on Saturday morning. She was born in Matilda, Ontario, and previous to coming to this city three years ago resided in Smith's Falls. Surviving are her mother, one brother and one sister.

The funeral was held from her late residence in Hamilton Road on Sunday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. Jas. Davis of the Regular Baptist Church. The remains were taken by the Belleville Funeral Company to South Mountain, Ontario, where interment will be made on Monday.

MRS. BRIDGET KERWIN

The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Kerwin, took place from her late residence in the Concession of Tyendinaga on Saturday morning to St. Charles R. C. Church at Read where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Carey with interment in the Catholic cemetery. Many floral tributes and spiritual offerings testified to the esteem in which the deceased in her community was held. Those pallbearers were: The bearers were: A. Phillips, D. Kehoe, M. McDermott, J. Corcoran, J. Brennan and J. P. Farrell.

Police News

Local police were kept quite busy over the week end investigating numerous minor cases and accidents. A large number of inebriates occupied the police cells on Saturday night some being allowed to return to their homes on Sunday morning with instructions to appear at a subsequent court for trial.

Ten transients fire on Saturday night and an equal number on Sunday night appeared at the night Sergeant's desk in quest of a night's lodging. They were instructed to "move along" upon being arrested, as the local authorities do not desire to have transients loitering about the city with so many rumors of "trekkers" being circulated throughout the Dominion.

A slight motor accident occurred at the corner of Colborne and Mary streets about midnight Sunday, but no damage was all that was found when the police investigated.

POLICE COURT

One of the largest police court dockets of the season was disposed of in Magistrate E. J. Butler's local court this morning, the proceedings taking well over ninety minutes.

John Fredericksen, transient was not asked to plead when charged with intoxication and assaulting and resisting a police officer. Fredericksen was taken into custody by Chief Hayes of Tweed last night following which he struck the officer. Crown Attorney R. C. Donnan, K.C. asked for an enlargement in the matter until Friday. The request was granted and the case will be heard in Tweed before Magistrate Lloyd.

A. C. Huck, Point Anne, was fined the minimum, amount possible under the H. T. A. after pleading guilty to driving a motor car at night without the proper lights lighted. His driver's license was suspended for one month also.

Three inebriates appeared, all pleading guilty. Two of them were fined $10 and the third received the jail sentence, they being unable to raise the necessary cash.

A local resident found himself in court charge assaulting his wife. As the matter was strictly a family affair, it was held in camera. At the suggestion of the Crown Attorney the matter was enlarged for one month during which the man's actions will be scrutinized. Excessive drink is alleged by the wife's wife to be the cause of the family troubles. Two such cases were heard in today's court.

PHONE 2380
BLUE'S MARKETERIA

Grocery Department

MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE 1's .... lb. 37c
CROSSE & BLACKWELL OATSUP ..... 2 for 25c
TOILET SOAP ..... 3 bars 8c

Meat Department

BOLOGNA ..... 2 lbs. 25c
COOKED PICNIC HAM ..... lb. 47c
SLICED BACON ..... lb. 23c
HAMBURG STEAK ..... lb. 10c
VEAL PATTIES 15c

Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert in "It Happened One Night," coming to the Belle tomorrow, Double bill.

Tomorrow & Wednesday
THE BIGGEST SHOW EVER OFFERED
TWO PRIZE WINNERS!!
Clark Gable
Claudette Colbert in
IT HAPPENED ONE NIGHT
This feature at 2.30 and 8.30 p.m.
GRACE MOORE
"ONE NIGHT OF LOVE"
THE GREATEST SINGING PICTURE EVER MADE
This feature at 2.45; 7.00 and 9.30 p.m.
BELLE
Today Only
WARNER OLAND
"CHARLIE CHAN IN EGYPT"
3 Others of Merit
CAREFULLY CHOSEN

THRIFTY WOMEN are choosing their
FUR COAT NOW!
FINEST SELECTIONS.
LOWEST PRICES
DEFERRED PAYMENTS
Woodleys Furriers
272 Front Street

Personals

ENGAGEMENT NOTICE

Mrs. Eugene LaRoche wishes to announce the engagement of her daughter, Lois Lillian to Dr. Basil McDonald Koster of Kingston, the wedding to take place in August. 1-15-1t

MARRIAGE NOTICE

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Givins announce the marriage of their youngest daughter, Jean to John William Cook, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cook. The marriage took place in Trenton on May 25th, 1935. Miss Ruby Kaiser and Mr. Thomas McKee were attendants. 1-15-1t

Miss Shirley Tapp has returned home after spending the week end with Miss Margaret Lamb.

Master Joseph Black and Master Francis Robertson left on Friday to spend their vacation at De La Salle Camp, Jackson's Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Twomey Black spent the week end in Toronto the guests of Mrs. Black's mother, Mrs. Walsh.

Miss Vira Flynn, Chicago, Ill., is visiting with Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Flynn, 24 Queen street.

Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Segar of Toronto, spent the week end at the home of Mrs. E. Holst Earl St.

Mr. Ormonde Butler is attending the Federation convention of Collegs Catholic Clubs of America at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto.

Miss Marjorie Doolittle and Miss Ruth Minaker, nurses-in-training, left today to enter the Shriners Hospital, Montreal.

Miss Mary Carmichael has returned from Detroit, Mich. and Sarnia, after spending the past week with her aunt and cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. Syd. Hopping and baby Marilyn, and Miss Betty Holst of Campbellford, spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. E. Holst, Earl Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Segar of Toronto, entertained by Mrs. E. Holst and Mrs. Wes. Dougherty of this city, have left on an extended trip to Quebec and the Maritime provinces.

Miss Phyllis Mills, Shannonville, in company with her cousins Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Mack and son, Raymond of Peel, left today for on a camping trip to North Bay, returning by Lake Callander, where they hope to visit the Dafoe Hospital and the famous quintuplets.

R. B. Cooper representing the North American Life Assurance Company, left yesterday for Toronto where he became a large party of the star salesmen of the company, covering territory from Halifax to Vancouver. The party left by special train for Montreal where they will be guests of the company at Bigwin Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stratton Gallagher of Grand Rapids, Mich., are spending their holidays with his parents and Mrs. Herbert W. Gallagher of Adolphustown.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Fenwick of St. Thomas also Mr. and Mrs. Stratton Gallagher of Grand Rapids Mich., spent the week-end with

NOW IS THE TIME

To Get That WRIST WATCH
you promised your Girl or Boy if they made the grade in their examinations. Don't disappoint them.
Girls' Wrist Watches
$4.50, $5.50, $7.00 up
Boys' Wrist Watches
$4.50, $6.50, $7.50 up
All Watches Guaranteed
J. O. R. McCURDY
Phone 518 - 234 Front St.
J12-13-15

EATON GROCETERIA
Specials for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday
Wethey's Red "with pectin" PLUM JAM 32-oz. Jar 21c
Kelsey's Tuck Shop PEANUT BUTTER 32-oz. Jar 25c
EXTRA! Sunlight Soap 20 bars 1.00
Dove Brand Fancy Golden Bantam Corn No. 2 Tins 9c
LIBBY'S Pork and Beans 5 16-ounce tins 25c
Purity Brand—Free Running or Iodized SALT . . . 2 -lb. Cartons 5c
Quaker or Kellogg's CORNFLAKES 3 packages 22c
SLICED BEEF BOLOGNA 2 lbs. 25c
Blue Brand Beef Roasts CHUCK SHOULDER BLADE lb. 13c
SLICED BREAKFAST BACON per lb. 25c
SUNKIST ORANGES Good Size. Full of Juice dozen 25c
HOME GROWN TOMATOES lb. 21c
FIRM CUCUMBERS Good Size 2 for 17c
PHONE 800—Orders of $1.00 or more selected and Delivered Without Extra Charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Pott, Shannonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McMullen and family of Toronto, are spending the summer at their cottage, Roseland.

Miss Hazel Thrasher of Toronto spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Thrasher, 163 Yeomans street city.

Inspector Francis Gardner of the Provincial Police has returned to the city after spending a holiday at Thirty Island Lake.

Fred "Buster" Plummer underwent a successful operation for mastoid and is progressing favorably.

Mrs. F. J. M. Anderson of this city and Mrs. James D. Ponton of Port Credit have returned home from their visit from Quebec.

Mr. F. A. Scott, Trent Road, accompanied by his aunt, Miss Helen Scott of Stirling, Scotland, returned home on Saturday after having spent twelve weeks in Scotland. They returned on the "Duchess of York" having a very pleasant voyage.

Mrs. F. A. Scott and family and Mrs. W. Harvey have returned from motor trip to Montreal, where they met Mr. Scott and Miss Helen Scott on their arrival from Scotland.

Mrs. C. A. Lawson, Mrs. J. T. Lynch, Miss Hilda McCormick and Miss B. McCormick of Niagara Falls, Ontario, formerly of Belleville, have been guests at the New Queens Hotel for some days, renewing former acquaintances in this city. All are daughters of Mr. Daniel McCormick of Louisdale, and Saturday evening, they entertained at a birthday party in the Dining Room, the occasion being his seventy-sixth birthday. The party was held at the New Queens Hotel and a number of friends were present to wish the honored guest the best of health and happiness.

Weddings

MARTIN—BAWDEN

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Michael's Church this morning at eight o'clock when Mabel Bawden, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bawden, became the bride of Mr. Cyril Joseph Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martin of Toronto. Rev. C. E. Baker, officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Harold Bawden, wore a lovely frock of powder blue crepe elaborately embroidered in rose and trimmed with touches of sparkling diamante, with white hair picture hat and carried a bouquet of roses.

Miss Lorna Bawden was bridesmaid and wore a pretty frock of peach crepe with white picture hat. Her flowers were sweet peas.

Mr. Jack Bissell, Trenton, was groomsman.

Following the ceremony wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Martin left for their new home in Toronto, the bride's traveling costume being a pink sharper suit with white hat and accessories.

First Wedding in 50 Years at Glen Miller Church

The first wedding in fifty years at the English Church, Glen Miller, Ontario, took place last week, when Miss Ona Collar, became the bride of Mr. Harold Collier, Rev. F. Arthur Smith of Trenton, officiating. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a large number of friends was present.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Theodore Collar, was attired in pale blue embroidered crepe with large white picture hat.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Marie Collar, while Mr. Jim Ireland of Glen Miller was groomsman. Mr. Bill McKay of Tweed, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Glen Pearson were ushers.

After a reception at the bride's home the happy couple left by motor for Montreal. Upon their return they will reside at Glen Miller, where the groom is engineer at the paper mill.

Kent Substitutes For Prince of Wales

London, July 15.—(AP)—The Duke of Kent, King George's youngest son substituted for his brother, the Prince of Wales, today to open the sixth international congress for scientific management.

He told representatives of 34 nations "The industrial future of every country is closely bound up with the recognition of the importance of the management factor, I am sure you will not overlook the face that behind it all is the human being."

Two thousand delegates congregated, claiming a record for size of a business congress and for procedure—not speeches and no resolutions.

MALCOLM RETIRES

Owen Sound, Ont., July 15.—Hon. James Malcolm, of Kincardine, former Minister of Trade and Commerce of Canada in the King cabinet, has announced his retirement from public life and will not seek re-nomination for the riding of North Bruce, which he has represented for the past 15 years.

Cagey Guy Kibbee, as detective, in "While the Patient Slept" now playing at the Capitol, Double bill.

Trust 1,000 Men In Safety

Toronto, July 15.—(CP)—An experiment in human nature began today when 1,000 Toronto citizens received a $1 bill in the mail.

The currency was enclosed in an envelope with a message from the Ontario Safety League.

"Here's a dollar. Keep it if you want to, but I don't think you will," read the letter from J. F. H. Wyse, Secretary of the League.

The experiment started, officials said, when a citizen donated $1,000 to the League, and asked it be used in 1,000 persons as an appeal for funds to protect the safety of children.

With $1 Bill Experiment

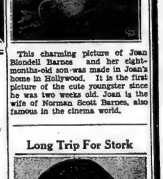
The donor pointed out 1,000 children were killed in Canada since 1925 and declared, "the enclosed dollar is evidence of one man's faith in humanity and is invested in the belief every dollar will come back—and that each dollar will bring more."

Writ of Mandamus Sought by R.C.M.P.

Toronto, July 15 — (CP) — R.C.M.P. officers today applied to the Supreme Court of Ontario for a Mandamus authorizing the removal from jail here of Matt "On-to-Ottawa" trekker, wanted in Regina for trial in connection with the 1935 riot in that city. The case will be heard at Osgoode Hall tomorrow.

The move followed failure of police officials to obtain the signatures of a single Toronto magistrate to the document necessary for Shaw's removal from Ontario.



BUILDINGS FIRED BY LIGHTNING, SAVED

London, Ont., July 15.—(CP)—Struck by lightning in London's first severe electric storm of the season, two London buildings were saved from destruction by the fire department early this morning.

The first alarm was received shortly after 5 o'clock from the Gorman Knitting Ltd., where a bolt of lightning had fired a large crate of clothes in the middle one of the windows of the plant. Before all apparatus had returned to their stations an alarm was received from the Ontario Hospital where lightning had struck the department building to the east of the main hospital structure. The building was saved.

This charming picture of Joan Blondell Barnes and her eight-months-old son was made in Joan's home in Hollywood. It is the first picture of the cute youngster since he was two weeks old. Joan is the wife of Norman Scott Barnes, also famous in the cinema world.

Long Trip For Stork

Desiring her children to be born American citizens, Mrs. Enrico Nahum, who resides with her husband of Cairo, Egypt, has travelled the 12,000 miles from Egypt to Massachusetts, her native state. She is shown as she arrived in Boston to await family addition.

Grace Moore in "One Night of Love" coming to the Bells tomorrow, Double bill.

MAN FOUND INJURED ALONGSIDE HIGHWAY

Brockville, Ont., July 15—(CP)—Believed to have been struck by a passing car or truck, a man giving the name of A. Brown, of no known address was found early today on highway No. 2 a short distance west of Mallorytown, by Morris Beckwith and Wilfred Allair, of Picton.

Suffering from injuries to his left side, arm and shoulder, as well as from a cut on the back of the head, the man was so weak that he could not talk when taken to St. Vincent de Paul Hospital here, but wrote the name of "A. Brown" in answer to a question. He is believed

Stevens Satisfied With Developements

Ottawa, July 15—(CP)—Back in Ottawa today from Toronto and Montreal, Hon. H. H. Stevens reported encouragement from central, eastern and western Canada.

"The two days I spent in Toronto and the short week-end in Montreal were surprisingly encouraging, and I was amazed at the progress made in organization and the reaction of the manifesto of the new party," he stated to press representation.

"I am very, very satisfied with the situation that is developing."

Blondell's Favorite

LIPSON'S MID-JULY SALE
Tuesday (One Day) July 16
THIS IS NOT A CLEARANCE SALE. WE HAVE A COMPLETE STOCK IN ALL LINES ADVERTISED, BUT THESE PRICES PREVAIL FOR ONE DAY ONLY — TUESDAY
PRINTED CREPE DRESSES Distinctive, neat and practical while prints or pastel prints on dark grounds. Sizes 14 to 38. A $2.95 seller but on a special ... out they go at ... 1.39
MEN'S OXFORDS Made to Sell at 4.95 White, brown and white, black and white and also all black oxfords for men. Leather and rubber soles, with leather and rubber heels. Sizes 6 to 11, tomorrow 2.94
COTTON MESH Gloves White only; sizes 6 to 8. Gloves made to sell at 29c. Special for Tuesday ... 19c
LINENE Dresses Good quality white with red, blue or green belt and trim with tie to match, no sleeves. Sizes 8 to 16. Special 59c
BOYS' Coveralls Blue drill, long legs, short sleeves, sizes 2 to 8 years. Reg. 75c seller. Tuesday Special ... 49c
FINE LISLE Anklettes Sizes 6 to 10 10c pair
BOYS' Whoopee Pants Another shipment of these fast selling pants just received. Made to sell at 89c, we are still going to sell them at ... 69c
WOMEN'S COTTON Hose Sizes 8 to 10½ 10c pair
Shoes Oxfords, T. straps and One-Straps, patent and white calf; sizes 8 to 2. Special 1.00
Slacks Blue and white with fancy trim. Sizes 14 to 20. Women's slacks at 97c
Shirts Women's polo style shirt, yellow or white with contrasting collar and short sleeves. Special 79c
Blouses Boys' fancy print summer blouses. Sizes 6 to 13 years. Special for Tuesday 29c
Bathing Suits Trunks and Speed style, all wool suits for Boys and Men. In blue, maroon and black. —special ... 1.00
STREET DRESSES Fine French crepes, seersuckers and Voiles, some in dive piece styles; summery prints, pastels and solids. All sizes. Special ... 1.90
Lipson's Lingerie Sale Now On!

HEPBURN SAYS NO INTERFERENCE

Provincial Police Will Not Halt On-to-Ottawa Trek

Toronto, July 15—(CP)—Premier Hepburn indicated clearly today he will not grant the request of Mayor Nolan of Ottawa that the trek of unemployed to the capital should be stopped by Provincial authorities.

Mr. Hepburn declared the Ontario authorities would not interfere with the marchers although he repeated his warning that any infraction of the law would bring prompt action.

"We are not going to chase the marchers all over the roads like they are doing in Quebec," Premier Hepburn declared.

Mr. Hepburn confirmed today that it would be special instructions that Toronto authorities extend to endorse the warrant for the arrest of Matt Shaw, Regina hunger marcher, "Men like Shaw have a fine record and by arresting him Premier Bennett is playing into the hands of Red agitators", he said.

BARGAIN EXCURSION
COBOURG TO ROCHESTER, N.Y.
FRIDAY, JULY 19th. GOING AND RETURNING
FRIDAY, JULY 19th. ... Return 1.25
Going Friday, July 19th—Returning to or before July 21st. $2.50 return
Steamer Belleville—Standard Time
GOING: Leave Cobourg ... 8:00 a.m. Arrive Rochester ... 1:45 p.m.
RETURNING: Leave Rochester ... 4:45 p.m. Arrive Cobourg ... 11:30 p.m.
Excellent Orchestra on Board for Dancing
Low prices for meals on steamer—breakfast 50c, lunch and dinner 75c each. Also Lunch Counter service.
Ample free motor parking space at steamer dock at Cobourg Purchase Tickets from Local CANADIAN NATIONAL Agent or at Steamer.
ONTARIO CAR FERRY COMPANY
(Cobourg-Rochester Steamship Route)

U.F.O. COMMENDS STEVENS' PARTY

Asks All Clubs in The Province to Support Manifesto

TORONTO, July 15.—(CP)—Although it has no power to direct provincial officers of the United Farmers of Ontario yesterday "commended" the Reconstruction Party of Hon. H. H. Stevens to the farmers of Ontario.

From Montreal Mr. Stevens expresses gratification.

The U.F.O. over the signatures of R. J. Scott, President and H. H. Hanna, secretary, "welcomed" the birth of Mr. Stevens in breaking "from the old line partyism taking an independent stand and giving vigorous leadership for social and economic reconstruction".

His program was "in harmony with pronouncements made by our people from time to time". The executives pointed out however, the responsibility for definite political action lies within each constituency.

The officials referred to a resolution passed thirteen years ago when, after electing a government majority in the 1919 Ontario election, E. C. Drury at its head the U. F. O. placed itself outside the realm of politics as a province-wide organization and gave local autonomy to provincial ridings.

Parent organization of farmers' Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, when that party came into being, but parted company with it in January, 1934.

NEGROES LYNCHED NEAR COLUMBUS

Taken From Sheriff Seeking to Spirit Them Away

Columbus, Miss., July 15—(AP)—Two negroes, identified as Berl Moore and Dooley Morton, were lynched today eight miles from Columbus by a mob of infuriated white citizens.

The arrival of the lynching were accused of two attempted attacks on white women in this section during the past two weeks.

They were taken from the sheriff while he was trying to spirit them away from Columbus to Aberdeen and were found by a posse behind a church on a country road.

NEW PLAN FOR C.A.S.

Toronto, July 15 The new system of boarding wards of the Children's Aid Societies in private homes, put into effect by the Ontario Government seven months ago, will be adopted by the Essex County society, it was decided at the monthly meeting here. The eight children at present in the shelter will be boarded out, and all employees of the shelter but the superintendent and matron will be dismissed.

LAUGH at SUNBURN
Instant relief or money refunded
NOZZEMA doesn't bring instant relief to the restless, sweat sunburn, your money will be refunded. First Aid Hospitals at biggest beaches use Nozzema—for nothing relieves sunburn like this soothing, cooling cream. Notice how quickly all heat and soreness disappears. Greaseless, will not stain. Get Nozzema at any drug store.
Nozzema Cream
SAVE 25%—BUY 1.08 SIZE 90 oz. 1.08 — 6 oz. 54c

Now at a New Low Price!
The TRIPLE VALUE SALAD & COOKING OIL
1 makes Wonderful MAYONNAISE
2 is Perfect for DEEP FRYING
3 is Most ECONOMICAL
MAZOLA
THE CANADA PRODUCTS CORP. LIMITED, MONTREAL

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon and Sunday morning at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

FARM INCOME AND WEALTH

Farm income in Canada during 1934, according to a report of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, amounted to $934,347,000 as compared with $802,946,000 in 1933 and $766,794,000 in 1932, says the monthly letter of the Alexander Hamilton Institute. As a matter of fact, farm income during 1934 was higher than during any year since 1930. The reason for the increase in farm income is due to higher prices in practically all the commodities produced on the farm. The following table shows the gross farm revenues during 1930 as compared with 1933 and 1932, classified according to the source of income:

Canada's Gross Farm Revenue	1934
Field crops	$544,975,000
Farm animals	99,438,000
Wool	2,645,000
Dairy products	181,966,000
Fruits and vegetables	39,145'000
Poultry and eggs	44,267,000
Fur farming	4,127,000
Maple products	3,047,000
Tobacco	7,232,000
Flax fibre	252,000
Clover and grass seed	2,010,000
Honey	2,245,000
Total	$934,347,000
*Net revenue	$569,015,000

* Estimated by deducting from the gross revenue the value of such items as feed for farm animals and potatoes, seed and unmerchantable grain, and vegetables produced on farms for home use.

The increase in the income derived from farming has had a favorble influence on the entire national economy of the country. Although prices of some types of commodities have declined during the first half of 1935, others—and particularly the price of meat and of other animal products—has continued to rise sharply. It is therefore expected that farm income during 1935 will be equal to or even higher than that of 1934.

In spite of the increase in gross farm revenue during 1934, the gross agricultural wealth of the Dominion during the year has shown very little change, amounting to $5,608,157,000 as compared with $5,583,790,000 in 1933 and $5,499,432,000 in 1932.

LATE REV. DR. OLIVER

In the suddenness of the death of Rev. E. H. Oliver, former head of the United Church and principal of St. Andrew's College, Saskatoon, his church feels a distinct loss as do other churches and institutions of learning for Dr. Oliver has sympathies and outlook broad enough to take in all. He was the son of Canada, he was a brilliant student and at the age of twenty-three received his Doctor of Philosophy degree at Columbia University, New York. His field of study was broad, classics, economics, sociology, history and religion. As an educationist he touched not only the student life but also intimately the social and public life of the west where for twenty years he served church and state. He served the Government of Saskatchewan as provincial representative on the Royal Commission of Agricultural Credit and Co-operation which made a tour of Europe. He served as chaplain overseas in the Western Universities Battalion and was mentioned in despatches and advanced to the rank of lieutenant-colonel. He was professor of history and economics of Saskatchewan from 1909 and four years later took the principalship of the Presbyterian Theological College, now St. Andrew's, of which he was head at the time of his death.

His intimate knowledge of the west made it possible for him to bring knowledge of actual conditions of the rural west to the church membership in the east with the result of a complete understanding of the situation.

He served Canada in many a capacity and men of his stamp are always missed in his native province. His life had crowded much activity and service, all of a social character which was the mark of the man he was.

TYPE OF HOUSE

A three thousand dollar cellarless home has won the award at New York for the least cost design. The idea behind the competition was to suggest a low-cost house "to meet the needs of 75 per cent. of the nation's population, many of whom are now unable to own their own houses." This contest called for a house to accommodate a family of two adults and two children.

The winning plan will call for a house which will cost from $3,000 to $5,000 depending upon location and cost of material and labor. These figures are of course figures for New York where land and labor are high compared with what they are in other parts of the country.

The design in the modern style, with flat roof and straight lines, is very interesting. The exterior would be of stucco or wood studding. There would be no basement. The house would be built on a cement floor laid close to the ground, above which would be laid floors of composition material or wood laid on mastic.

The interior walls and ceiling would be of thin veneer board and the roof would be of impregnated felt and pitch. The space between the inner and outer walls would be filled with rock wool for insulation.

A small and simple heating plant would utilize oil for fuel and would be equipped with filters and humidifiers to provide a certain degree of air-conditioning. This heating system would be placed just off the kitchen or in it.

A compact use of space is provided to give a comfortable kitchen, dining room and living room on the first floor and three bedrooms and a bath on the second floor.

SIDELIGHTS
THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the events of the day, ideas prompt and general news topics as revealed by the home folks —Member One—Member Two—Occasional comments Grave and Gay. — Reported by The Lamplighter.

FORSAKEN CRESTS

Upon a hill, no matter where,
A hill abrupt and bold, rock-strewn,
Four walls, unfinished, cleave the air
And fade in light of sun and moon.

They crumble in the wind and rain;
All unperceived, slow year by year,
They mingle with the earth again.
Their outline grows less sharp, less clear.

I wonder if the builder's thought
Does not, in longing, sometimes wing
Back to this hope which came to naught,
This poor, eroded, ruined thing?

Once I built so; dear God, I yearn
For vistas cloud-brushed, sun-sweet, vast!
Who knows? Perhaps I shall return
To those forsaken crests at last!

—Aline Michaelis.

x x x x

like a new popular game to take swipes at FISH," but he dodged this one. Looks like a new popular game to take swipes at the Louisiana "Kingfish" every time he appears in public, but he is getting expert at dodging and no longer has to wear his eyes in mourning as a result. Worse than the outward and visible symbol of someone's violent dislike for his person, his habits and everything connected with him, is the attempt of Long, of Louisians, hands out a lot of abuse to all and sundry from his protective stand in the United States Senate and he is safe, care not to be seen much in public places where those whom he lambastes from the Senate floor might take a crack at him. However out in the open he is the other night and went to a dance, and being as how he couldn't dance except on the feet of his partner and so forth, he became the least popular man in the room and soon various persons started taking pokes at him, no doubt seeking the honor of receiving the Kingfish's lamps, an honor certain to be rewarded by Front Page publicity. The Kingfish got quite a wallop and he soon retired from the swinging ballroom test some wild swing might accidentally land on his Louisiana countenance and lay him up for repairs again.

x x x x

JULY 11, 1844, there was born in Brockville, Ontario, a baby boy, who grew up under the name of Ebenezer Nicholson. In that boy, somehow, some way, was also born a talent for entertaining. As a baby he was full of fun, as a schoolboy he had something the other boys had not, a trick of telling stories and getting laughs, a trick of imitating older folks which was too funny for words. Although handicapped per with such a name as Ebenezer, he grew out of his orbit in spite of it and graduating from the small town on the banks of the river St. Lawrence to the big town on the banks of the Hudson, Harlem, Long Island Sound, and other waters including Vichy and Apollinaris, he acquired the moniker of "Little Mac." He made his stage debut with Dan Bryant's Minstrels in 1860, and after a very successful career on the stage, died full of years and happy memories in 1899.

x x x x

G. HOWARD FERGUSON, Lord High Commissioner for Ontario to London, formerly Premier of Ontario, has been performing on the radio, and there are those of his friends who think he should be a more frequent broadcasting toward the English nobility accent in Howard's talk. Can it be that Howard Ferguson, of Kemptville, back in the sticks, who declared he would nail a certain near-statesman's hide to the barn door, and did so, metaphorically speaking—can it be that this plain Howard of the people is getting uppity? Woe is me! next it may be a monocle.

x x x x

"WOE'S US! Just another political meeting to attend, just another political party to keep in touch with for the readers of this paper." Thus mourns the editor of the 'Trenton Courier-Advocate.' Just our sentiments, also.

x x x x

Prisoner—"Judge, I don't know what to do."

Judge—"Why, how's that?"

Prisoner—"I swore to tell the truth but every time I try, some lawyer objects."

TREASURE HUNTERS RESCUED

Their fifty-foot yacht Casaroo, leaking badly and drifting helpless in stormed-tossed seas off the coast of Cuba. Mr. R. Rice of Toronto, his wife, two sons and Kheon James of Daytona, Florida, spent eight anxious days before they were rescued by the Cuban gunboat, Santa Clara. The yacht had sent out showed SOS two days before aid arrived. The party, now safe at Batabano, will be forced to abandon their plans in search for fortune of sunken loot in buried gold. Mr. and Mrs. Rice are shown at TOP going over their ship with some of the officers of the Cuban gunboat. The yacht is

REVOLT IN THE DESERT

by

T. E. LAWRENCE

Finally we agreed to keep at a clean valley-sweep below the desired guard house of the Sinai police. We let the camels breathe for half an hour and drank ourselves. Then forward again, plodding through a silence of night so intense that continually we turned round in the saddles at fancied noises away there by cloak of the stars. But the activity was all ourselves. In the reading of our passage through the undergrowth perfumed like ghost-flowers about us.

We marched into the very slow dawn. At sun-up we were in a hollow in the plain through which sheaves of water-courses gathered towards the Gulf of Suez. We left the camels camels a few minutes mockery of pasture. Then again in the saddle till noon, and past noon, when behind the mirage rose the lonely ruins of Nekhl. There we left on our right. At sunset we halted for an hour.

Camels were sluggish, and ourselves utterly wearied; but Mosling, the cagey owner of Sedfan, called us to action. We remounted and at a mechanical walk climbed the Mitla Hills. The moon came out and their tops, contoured in shadow, were like Arctic shoals as though crystalline with snow.

In the dawn we passed a melon field, sown by some adventurous Arab in this no-man-s land between the armies. We halted another of our precious hours, loosing the disgusted camels among the sand valleys for food while we cracked the unripe melons and cooled our chapped lips on their pithy flesh. Then again forward, at the head of the day; though the canal valley, constantly refreshed by breezes from the Gulf of Suez, was never too oppressive.

By midday we were through the dunes, after a happy switchback ride up and down their waves, and out on the flatter plain. Suez was to be guessed at, a haze behind the indescernable points mowing and bobbing in the mirage of the canal-hollow far in front.

We reached great trench-lines, with forts and barbed wire, roads and railways, falling to decay. We passed them without challenge. Our aim was Ismailia, a port opposite Suez on the Asiatic bank of the Canal, and we arrived in it late one afternoon in the afternoon, forty-nine hours out of Akaba. Nasir thought that his would have been fair time, and we were tired men before ever we reached Ismailia.

Shaitt was in usual disorder, with even a greater rage to stop us, despite having appeared there two or three days before. So the old woman was hurriedly cleared, left standing, while the troops broucached out in the clear street. Then Nasir knew nothing of this, but hunted the small officer till he found a telephone. I rang up Suez headquarters and said I wished to land.

They regretted that it was not their business. The Inland Water Transport managed transit across the Canal after their own fashion. There was a sniff of implication that the business of the service was the General Staff. Undaunted, for I was never a Londoner of any nominal rank of the service, I rang up the office of the Water Board and explained that I had just arrived in Shaitt from the desert with urgent news for their headquarters. They were sorry, but had no free boats just then. They would be glad to send first thing in the morning, to carry me to the Ismailia Club, where I could wait for them.

Now I had been four months in Arabia continually on the move, in the last three of them riding fifteen hundred miles by camel, not sparing myself anything to advance the war; but I refused to spend a single superfluous night with my familiar comforts, a razor, a bath, and something with ice in it. Nasir and the escort had already all sticking to my saddle sores in filthiness; to eat something quick, bracketed with green fruit, and camel slaver. I got through again to the Inland Water Transport and rang up like Chyrsostom. It had no effect. They were sorry, but could not move them. Then, once more, they cut me off. I was growing very vivid, with fruitful accents from the military exchange floated down the line: "It's no good, they'll keep their decks then fookin water boogers."

This expressed the apparent truth; and the broad-spoken operator worked me somehow. Here, Lytleton, a major in of the busiest, had added to his many duties the business of catching Red Sea warships one by one as they entered Suez canal and persuading them (how some loved it!) to put their high their decks over to Wejh or Yenbo. In this way he ran our thousands of tales and men, free, as a by-play in his routine; and found time as well to smile at the curious games of us curious folk.

He never failed us. As soon as we heard who and where I was, and what was not happening in the Inland Water Transport, the difficulty was over. His launch was ready: would be at the Shatt in half an hour. It was to come straight to his office; and not explain (till perhaps now after the war) that no common harbor launch had entered the canal zone without permission of the Water Directorate. All fell out as he said. I sent my men and camels next day to Cairo; where, by telephone from Suez, I would join them myself, and shelter in the animal camp on the Asiatic shore. Later, of course, came the reward of hectic and astonishing days in Cairo.

TO BE CONTINUED

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JULY 15th, 1915.

Mrs. C. Shorey and Miss Vera Shorey of Napanee are the guests of Mrs. R. Gibson, Near Street.

In the boys' races at the Holloway Street Church picnic at Massassaga Park the following were the winners in order given: First race Malcolm Clarey, Gerald Woodley, Vincent Hudgins. Second race — Russell Clarke, Arthur Henly, Norman Ireland. Third race — Gilbert Wale, Stanley Hagerman, Willie Wessels. Fourth race — Max Henly, Gladstone Walle, Russell Woodley, Peanut race — Gilbert Wale, Russell Woodley, Wheelbarrow race — Max Henly and Harold Woodley; Harry Wale and Russell Woodley. Three legged race Albert Dusberry and Tim Budd, Leonard Reid and Gladstone Wale. Boys' shoe race — Harold Woodley, Russell Woodley, Gilbert Wale. Standing Jump — Max Henly, Gladstone Wale. Donkey Race — Max Henly and Albert Dusberry; Russell Woodley and Harry Wale. The judges were A. Walker, W. Morrison, C. Walters and the starter was W. L. Smith.

30 Years Ago

JULY 15th, 1905.

The shoe dealers in the city have entered into an agreement not to give credit nor to send goods out on approbation after August 1st.

Morris R. Lavole of Queen Victoria School having obtained the highest marks in the recent entrance examinations has won the Governor General's medal. The Intelligencer congratulates Morris upon his success.

Mr. Lindsay Elliott of Calgary, Alberta, is visiting with his parents Mr. C. Y. Powell is visiting friends in Chicago.

Mrs. J. G. Jamieson of St. Paul, Minn., formerly of Belleville, is the guest of her father, Mrs. G. P. Holton, Charles St.

40 Years Ago

JULY 15th, 1895.

The construction of the street railway is now going on over the new Front street sewer.

The Rev. J. C. Ash is visiting friends in Portland.

Mr. W. Denison is home from New York to spend his vacation.

Mr. William Givens will leave in the England yesterday for Bolse City, Idaho.

The Rev. Mr. Woodcock of this city preached in Brockville on Sunday.

Mr. Frank T. Frost, who is teaching in the high school at Hagersville, Ont., is home to spend his vacation.

Mr. Frank R. Price of the Molsons Bank, St. Thomas, spent Sunday in this city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Price. He was on his way to Montreal having been promoted to the head office staff.

50 Years Ago

JULY 15th, 1885.

Mr. Fred Roux returned home from Ogdensburg yesterday.

The Sunday School of the Methodist Tabernacle held its annual excursion to the Murray Canal today on the steamer Bohtan.

The officers of the 15th and 49th, N. Battalions are wearing mourning for thirty days as a token of respect to the memory of the late Col. Williams of the 49th Battalion.

The playing team of the Belleville football club will leave for Picton tomorrow morning on the steamer Annie Gilbert, to play a match with the team of that town. The following compose the Belleville team: A. E. Wills, A. Elliott, R. Elliott, W. Lingham, W. Henderson, H. Thomas, L. Schultz, H. Simpson, D. Smith, C. O'Neil and S. Ross, G. Titus.

Mr. J. H. Brown, for many years a teacher in the D. & D. Institute here has resigned to accept the principalship of the D. & D. Institute at Pittsburg, Pa. Many friends regret his departure from this city.

McLARNIN WEDS CHIL DHOOD SWEETHEART

Jimmy McLarnin, twice welterweight champion of the world, shown with his childhood sweetheart, Miss Lillian Cupt, in a recent photograph. Jimmy and Lillian are now

Mr. and Mrs. James McLarnin. They were married in Vancouver, July 11, with only members of their respective families and Jimmy's manager, "Pop" Foster, present.

Champion Gate Crasher Fails to Gain Admittance at a Free Show

(By Dale Harrison, Associated Press Staff Writer)

New York, July 15 (AP)—Anything can happen now. One-eyed Connolly has been observed trying and failing—to crash a free show.

Connolly is the head man in gate crashing. What the small boy began when he first cavilled under decrius tent has been elevated by Connolly to a fine art.

In recent years Connolly, much to the boon will be sought, has been in eclipse. Here and there, of course, he has crashed a gate with the good old Connolly touch; but generally he has been inactive.

The fault was as much the gates' as it was Connolly's. There were, during the depression years, few gates important enough for him to crash.

This inactivity made him restive, he went, therefore, the other night to a broadcasting studio. It was considerably beneath his dignity because the broadcast are free, admissions being by tickets, which the program sponsors and the broadcasting company distribute as they set fit.

He presented himself and demanded admittance. A page boy barred his path.

"Make way" Mr. Connolly said, in effect, "for the champeen gate crasher of the world."

"I regret to advise you, sir," said the boy, who was very polite, "that under our rules and regulations no one is admitted without a ticket."

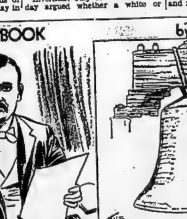
The champion gate-crasher went away, talking to himself. He had failed to crash a free show.

SCOTLAND AT STRIKE OVER COLOR OF TIE

Inverness, July 15.—Scotland today argued whether a white or black bow tie was correct with tailed evening dress.

The MacIntosh of MacIntosh, 24 chief of Clan Chattan and Lord Lieutenant of Inverness-shire, started the fight when he declared himself for the black tie. He said the Kilt Society he would resign if crossed.

The Kilt Society has been summoned to an special session to settle the problem. The Duke of Atholl were a white tie at His Majesty's Highland dinner, causing the society to publish a booklet prescribing his custom as official.



ELECTROCUTED HUNTING WORMS

Detroit, July 15.—Mrs. Margaret Patisch, 63 years old, was electrocuted Sunday by her husband while the police when the device she was using to gather worms for a fishing expedition, short-circuited.

The dental assistant of a pair of electrodes, attached to the electric system in the house, and placed to ground a current through the ground and force the worms to the surface.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

by R. J. SCOTT

THE LIBERTY BELL WAS NOT RUNG ON THE FOURTH OF JULY—1776, AS IS POPULARLY SUPPOSED. IT WAS RUNG JULY 8—WHEN THE DECLARATION WAS READ IN THE STATE HOUSE YARD TO ASSEMBLED SOLDIERS AND CITIZENS AT PHILADELPHIA.

THE FIRST CABLEGRAM SENT AROUND THE WORLD WAS SENT BY PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT JULY 4TH, 1903; JUST AFTER THE PACIFIC CABLE WAS LAID.

FISH HAVE THE STRONGEST SENSE OF SMELL OF ALL LIVING ORGANISMS

HALIAN, BOY, SCOUT CALLED BALILLA, ON STAMP OF ITALY

(1935 IS THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE U.S. BOY SCOUTS)

LOW FARE EXCURSION

JULY 19 - 20

TORONTO	HAMILTON	BUFFALO
$2.30	$3.10	$4.45

To
Also to Smithville $2.55; Dunnville 2.80; Welland $2.85

RETURN LIMIT—JULY 22

Routes—via Pooled Services to Toronto, except trains 6 and 15.
Thames Con. Fwy. T. H. and B.; Michigan Cent.

Consult your local Agent for full information. Ask for handbill.

CANADIAN PACIFIC CANADIAN NATIONAL

Madoc Students Successful In Entrance Examinations

Tweed, July 15—The following are the results of the Junior High School entrance examination for Madoc centre as per a report issued from the office of Inspector A. W. McOuire, B.A. Tweed.

Passed on recommendation with-out writing final examinations: — Armstrong, Jack; Bailey, Madeline; Bliss, Douglas; Carswell, Velma; Cassidy, Kenneth; Chambers, Evelyn; Davidson, Myrtle; Dewar, Irene; Emory, Russell; Emmory, Elmer; Ford, Lillian; Greenlee, Irene; Keller, Ila; Keller, Gerald; Lewister, Audrey; Lee Margarite; McCoy, Allan; McCoy, Keith; Martin, Kenneth; Morrison, Douglas; Moon, Gordon; Moore, Evelyn; Noble, Lawson; O'Connell, Margaret; Parks, Kathleen; Pritz, Edna; Reynolds, Edward; Ross, Tom; Smith, Mary; Sanford, Norman; Stewart, Frederick; Smith, Reta; Smith, Audrey; Smith, Helen; Shaw, Dean; Stewart, Betty; Stalker, Patricia; Thompson, Myrtle; Thompson, Wilfrid; Trotter Enid; Wellman Helen.

Passed on final examination: — Armstrong, Donald (Reg. 5.11); Ash, Donald (Reg. 5.11); Ayerworth, Gladys (Hons.); Berry, Agnes (Reg. 5.11); Caterer, Barbara; Chambers, Harold (Reg. 5.11); Cournoyea, Hilda (Reg. 5.11); Dandy, Francis; Donaldson, May; Elliott, Marg.; Burr, Edith (Hons. 5.10); Belcher, Josephine (Reg. 5.10); Fenn, Betty (Hons.); Fitzgerald Lois; Gawley, Robert (Reg. 5.11); Goodchild, Donald (Reg. 5.11); Groves, Merle; Hallstone, Twi (Reg. 5.11); Henderson, Doris; Holland, Roy (Hons.); Hoover, Gwendolyns; Hoover, Leslie; Kelly, Lillian; Kincaid, Newton (Reg. 5.11); LaPain, Raymond; Laton, Veronica; Lawrence, Laura (Hons.); Lough, Aileen; McCaw, Mabel (Hons.); McGuire, Patricia (Hons.); McMeekin, Jean (Reg. 5.11); Murray, Pearl; Murdock, Cynthia; O'Reilly, Gerald; Rogers, Margaret; Reid, Ernest; Roy, Minnie (Reg. 5.11); Scrimm, Jack; Severin, Audrey; Thompson, Mary; Whitmore, Walter (Reg. 5.11).

Cee Hill Centre

Passed on recommendation: — Murphy, Madeline.

Passed on final examination: — Batchelor, Clarence (Reg. 5.11); Carney, Doris; Marshall, Olive; Neil, Alvin; Sprackett, James; Thompson, Anna.

Promotion Report of S. S. No. 1 Elzevir

(Actinolite Public School)

To Senior Fourth — Kempton Woodcox, Alma Dafoe, Cecilia Might.

To Junior Fourth—Brice Price, Doris Cournoyea, Reta Nolan, Winfred Sexsmith, Harold Wannamaker, Donna Scott, James Mahaffy; Ronald Sexsmith, Clare Kleinsteiber, Howard Koening.

To Junior Third—Joey Price, Julia Fobser, Vincent Fobser, Kathleen Benn, Amelia Lefebury, Anna Forbes, Harry McGeachy, Emma Lindsay, Dean Edwards, Gerald Sexsmith, Anna Woodcox.

Also O'Neill, teacher.

To Junior Second— Kenneth Nolan, Lawrence Lajoie, Clayton Woods, Dorothy Kleinsteiber, John Stewart, Viola Benn (Rec).

To Junior First—Isabell Forbes, Theodore Forbes, Rose Kleinsteiber, Pryce LaJoie, Maurice McGeachy, Joseph Sexsmith, Audrey Stewart, Keith Woodcox, Gerald Woods.

To Senior Primer—Doris Forbes, Marjorie Elliott, teacher.

Rev. A. F. Dowdall, rector of the Anglican Church at Fevrus for the past three years, has been transferred to Lansdowne.

Lieut. Gerard Cooper of St. John's, Newfoundland, has been appointed to the local Salvation Army corps to assist Capt. Arthur Rawlins. For some time Lieut. Cooper has been in Toronto.

The following members of Tweed Ladies' Bowling Club attended the tournament in Stirling last Monday: Mrs. R. Ward, skip; Mrs. C. Sager, Mrs. W. E. Prust, Mrs. J. G. Grange, who were successful in winning fourth prize. Mrs. C. M. Reeves, skip; Mrs. Geo. Clark, Mrs. W. Bonter, Mrs. Ivan Conneyes, Miss M. Kerr, Mrs. A. Sexton, Miss A. Bonter, Mrs. W. J. McCutcheon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Prust and Audrey left on Tuesday for their new home in Linwood where Mr. Prust has been appointed agent. Before going Mrs. Prust was entertained by the Ladies' Bowling Club of which she was a member. Later a number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. H. E. Wager and presented her with an umbrella. Mrs. Jennie Wright read the address and made the presentation. Mrs. Sager, Mrs. Sexsmith, Mrs. Smith and two children Frances and Edward also attended from here. Mrs. W. W. and Mr. C. H. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wager, Mrs. Fowler and Miss Flossie Campion have returned from an enjoyable motor trip through the State of New York.

A number of local Orangemen and their friends attended the Twelfth of July celebrations at Shannonville, Lake, West Huntingdon and Flinton. Tweed L.O.L. attended the "walk" held at West Huntingdon.

On Wednesday afternoon and evening the local bowling clubs held a mixed tournament for the members. Six rinks were entered. First prize was won by Fred Mitchell, skip, Miss Annie Frost, Mrs. W. A. Beatty and Miss Myrtle Dark with three games and the highest pins. Second prize for two games and highest plus went to Leonard Kelly, skip, Mrs. W. E. Dark, Mr. W. S. Gordon and Miss Margaret Kerr.

Promotion Report of S. S. No. 12, Hungerford

Fifth Class—Patricia Provost, Elwin Bosley.

Senior Fourth—Yvonne Goulah.

Junior Fourth—Mabel Lazarin.

Junior Fourth—Mabel Langevin, Ernest Wright, George Lucas, Margaret Lafrenière.

Senior Third—Reta Provost.

Junior Third—Margaret Lucas, Fred Langevin, Iona Lafrenière (Rec), Valeria Goulah (Rec).

Senior Second —Oakley Langevin, Vincent Lafrenière (Rec.).

Junior Second—Marvin Kellar, Donald Flynn, Donald Lafrenière (Rec.).

First Class—Jeanette Lafrenière, Theresa Goulah, Donald Goulah, (Rec.), Edmund Trudeau (Rec.).

Primer—Cecil Trudeau.

Mrs. Kellar, teacher.

Promotion Report, Flinton Public School

To Junior Fourth—Mary Juby, Gerald Lessard, Francis Allair, Albert Baskey, Gwin Sedore, Bernard Lessard.

To Senior Third—Joseph Lessard, Eva Jerome, Malina Juby, Marjorie Brochu, Marion Brochu, Douglas Davison, Bernard Baskey.

To Junior Third—Willard Clark, Pauline Baskey, Verna Lessard, Violet Clark, Howard Pringle, Gus Baskey, Harold Pringle.

To Junior Second—Mildred Bryden, Harold Bryden, Shirley Pringle, Nora Wood, Ralph Sedore, Clayton Spicer Evelyn Wigg.

To Senior First—Helen Bryden, Marion Cox, Roy Hasler.

To Junior First—Evelyn Budreau, Norman Marriott.

To Senior Primer—George Prisburn, Veronica Lessard, Alice Pringle, Hazel Pringle.

POLITICAL POT AGAIN SIMMERS

Announcement Election Date Expected Quite Soon

OTTAWA, July 15.—(CP)— The political pot continues to simmer, and only the announcement of the general election date is required to start it boiling merrily. The reconstruction party is Hon. H. H. Stevens is now out with its platform. The Co-operative Commonwealth Federation headed by J. S. Woodsworth, member of House of Commons for Winnipeg North Centre, will have its manifesto before the country today or tomorrow. The two younger parties are earliest in the field.

No announcement of policy or program has yet come from Mackenzie King, Liberal leader. Out of the capital preliminary over since the business of parliament was completed, Mr. King is understood to be working on the platform or a manifesto or a keynote campaign speech. Which course he will select has not been announced.

Prime Minister Bennett has not yet succeeded in getting away for the rest, which it was expected he would. Essential to the house proposed, Cabinet meetings nearly every day, a steady stream of callers, not to speak of the numerous matters incidental to the holding of a general election, have combined to keep Mr. Bennett tied to his office. It is suggested, that he may be able to get away some day this week.

It is expected that some, at least, of the many appointments he has to make will be announced very soon. Starting with a list of seventeen Senate vacancies, the Prime Minister has also several very important posts in the public service and judiciary to fill. A measure of Senate reconstruction is also in contemplation, but whether or not it will be introduced in the near future has not been intimated.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

WINNIPEG STRIKERS ESCORTED TO ONTARIO BY R. C. M. POLICE

Though armed R.C.M.P. followed them all the way, an advance guard of Manitoba camp strikers left Winnipeg by motor car, on their way to Ottawa. It is expected that 600 more will follow in this apparently nation-wide "On-to-Ottawa" trek of relief camp strikers. Above pictures show crowds gathered around trekkers' car at Kenora, forming a human barrier to any attempt to stop it. Also shown are R.C.M.P.- Constables Taylor and Gunn examining car of Sam Wolfe of Winnipeg, who drove strikers to Kenora. Police questioned him but made no attempt to stop him or the second car carrying strikers across the Manitoba boundary.

ADVENTURE LURES DARING SISTERS

Two adventurous young women who hope to hitch-hike around the world have started on their unusual journey. They are Miss Katherine Wilson (RIGHT), stenographer, and Miss Clara M. Wilson (LEFT), school teacher, two sisters of West Vancouver, B.C., shown as stewardesses on the freighter S. S. Haramhis for the voyage to Australia. They plan to sign off when they reach Australia and then catch a ship to India or South Africa. They will begin the overland journey to the Mediterranean, Europe and England. They are serving as stewardesses on the British freighter.

"NOW, WITH THE ENEMY OVER THERE...."

An interesting picture made at a fascist military school, as an officer of the Reich showed new army recruits military strategy, using a roller model to illustrate his points. Note the intense concentration on the faces of the pupils as they follow the instructor, point by point.

PROOF AGAINST SNAKE BITES?

Beebe De La Fontaine, 21, shown when she permitted a Florida diamond-back rattlesnack to bite her on the right hand, twice, in an effort to prove that vegetables, particularly spinach, provided protec-tion against snake venom. The snake biting took place under the auspices of the United Brotherhood of Vegetarians. The idea is to prove that vegetables made the system immune to snake bites.

SOVIET YOUTH PRESENT HEALTHY APPEARANCE AT PARADE

Clad in brilliant sports costumes, 125,000 athletes, both men and women, marched through Moscow in the annual parade. The impression of the whole was one of strength and youth. Political observers have regarded a conjecture of what a formidable mass they would form in the event Russia were forced into war.

EVER THE WOMAN

Just like her fashionable sisters in the south, this Eskimo woman keeps up with the style. She is powdering her nose from a vanity case secured from trader, probably sacrificing half a winter's supply of blubber, just to be in fashion swim.

PARIS OUTRAGED?

JOAN WARNER

Her trial ended Jean Warner, above, 23-year-old American "poseur of nude rhythm," wailed while three bewhiskered judges in a Paris court deliberated to decide whether she had committed a public outrage against modesty by dancing naked in Paris restaurants. Judges were expected to render a verdict July 18.

YOUTHFUL WIFE FOUND GUILTY

Margaret Waley Convicted For Part Taken in Kidnapping

TACOOMA, Wash., July .5—(AP) —Reports that the Government was closing in on William Dalnard, fugitive "brains" of the George Weyerhaeuser kidnapping, continued to circulate here today, while Mrs. Margaret Waley awaited in jail the pronouncement of sentence for her part in the crime.

19 Years Old

The 19-year-old girl was convicted of both "Lindbergh law" and conspiracy charges by a Federal jury Saturday for her allegedly unwilling participation in the $200,000 kidnapping of George Weyerhaeuser.

In four hours and forty-five minutes a jury of ten men and two women returned through legal technicalities to reach the decision.. The 5-foot-2-year-old junior-college heir had been taken abreast the Washington-Oregon state line by kidnappers, thus warranting application of the "Lindbergh law."

She assisted Waley in transporting the boy across the State line.

3.—She actively conspired, despite her protestations to the contrary, with her husband, Harmon M. Waley, and Dalnard to kidnap the boy and collect $200,000 ransom.

The woman, described by her attorneys as a child of abject poverty took the verdict without a flicker of emotion.

Sentence on Wednesday

Federal Judge E. E. Cushman set next Wednesday morning for pronouncement of sentence.

The Junior Waley sentenced Waley to forty-five years in prison on a plea of guilty to similar charges. He gave no inkling of what his Judgment would be.

Life sentences are possible on both charges. On the other hand, the law sets no minimum.

Mrs. Waley said in a statement; "I am satisfied with the verdict, as I told the truth and tried to please the jury. I did not know I was in a criminal conspiracy until my husband was involved in it, after which I went through with it rather than betray the man I love."

Earlier, sitting in the court room waiting for the Jurge to enter, she had blown her line nervously as she talked with United States Marshal A. J. Chitty, and kneaded a green-edged handkerchief in her fingers.

TIP TOP CANNERY OTTERVILLE BURNS

Tilsonburg And Delhi Brigades Send Apparatus

OTTERVILLE, July 13.—(CP)— Company officials and firemen working today to definitely determine the extent of the loss at the plant of Tip Top Canners, Ltd., swept by fire last night. Estimates of damage ranged between $60,000 and $200,000. About 250 employees of the plant were jobless as a result. Firefighters from Tilsonburg and Delhi came to this village, 30 miles southeast of London, to help combat the flames, which destroyed all the processing machinery in the plant and all the stock, totalling about 100,000 cans of vegetables. The office building and several smaller structures were saved, as fire lines of hose were used to concentrate water on the fire to prevent its spread.

The fire started in the boiler room, of the cause still unknown. Flames were discovered by an employee who turned in an alarm about 7.45 p.m. E.S.T. More than 5,000 persons gathered from the district to watch the fire, which was visible from Tilsonburg, ten miles away.

The company had contracted to process 750 acres of peas but less than one-half of the heavy crop had been handled. The plant, employing 250 persons had been operating 15 hours a day for the past week.

NEW PASTOR OF STANDARD CHURCH ARRIVES IN MADOC

MADOC—Rev. Mr. Slack of Shawville, Quebec moved his family to Madoc on Wednesday. Mr. Slack takes up the pastoral duties of the Standard Church for the coming two years. Previous to his last charge he was a missionary in Kenya. The new pastor Rev. Mr. Smith has been moved to Woolcott and with his family for their new home last week.

St. Peter's Presbyterian Sunday School held their annual picnic at Cecone Park on Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was ideal that could be desired and usual races for the wee tots to the men and pupils were run off and a splendid supper provided by the parents for all.

On Wednesday afternoon a number of members of Madoc Bowling Club motored to Campbellcroft to take part in the tournament. Some eighteen rinks taking part during afternoon and evening. Madoc teams bringing home the first, second and third prizes. Those taking part were. Winners of first prize:—

Mrs. Rupert, Dr. Beatty, Mrs. Beatty, James Watson, —Skip.

Winners of second prize:—

Mrs. Kellar, M. Caverly, Mrs. M. Caverly, F. Gunn,—skip.

Winners of third prize:—

Mrs. C. I. Rose G. I. Rose Mrs. G. C. Moon, L. Askey —Skip.

Mr. and Mrs. Geddie Gray of Peterboro are visiting friends in Madoc and community.

Mr. Cord Gunn and family of Toronto are visiting Mr. Gunn's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Gunn of Madoc Township.

Miss Jennie Ayerworth of Toronto, is spending a few weeks in Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Wallbridge left on Friday to spend two weeks camping in Muskoka guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clute.

Mr. and Mrs. Harshmen of Toronto, are spending the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Kincaid.

Mr. and Mrs. Ireland of Toronto visited their friends Mrs. Sandercock on Thursday.

Mrs. Duncan McKenzie of Toronto is visiting friends in Madoc.

Mr. Salisbury of Belleville, has been spending a few days guests of Miss Edna Salisbury.

Mrs. Gordon Munro and Wellington Munro, are visiting friends in Thomasburg, Ontario.

Little Benny's Note Book

THE WEEKLY NEWS

Weather. Yes.

ADVICTION

Saftiday morning Shorty Judge found an abestoned pillow in the back street and he tore it open and filled his pockits and his House and his cap with the feathers and jumped off the top of Sam Crowe's back fenis to see if he would come down any lighter, which he didn't.

FREE MEDICAL ADVISE

By Dr. B. Potts, edwire

Dear dock, I mimmix After I comb and brush my hair it is all ruff again. How can I correct this? Skinny Kid

Anser. Brush it every 4 minnits. Dear dock. I always feel wide awaye at nite and sleepy in the morning. Is there any way I can change it to be the other around? Puds G.

Anser. Sure. Go to bed in the morning and get up at nite.

HISTERICAL EVENTS

Once there was such a lazy man he used to ask people to brush his teeth for him.

One nite his wife said to him, "Did you bolt the front door?" and he replied, "Well part ways," and she said, "Did you turn off the gas in the kitchin?" and he answered, "Well I gave it a kind of a little push."

That nite burglers crawled rite in the front door and stole the man's overcoat and all his cigars. The moral of this story is about it because of being so sensitive to un-ion gas.

Grey Trotters Favored in $40,000 Classic

By Central Press Canadian

Goshen, N. Y., July 13— For the first time in history two gray colts will go to the post as outstanding favorites in the Hambletonian stake. Picking a winner gives harness turf fandom a job with midnight oil.

In Greyhound and Silver King the $40,000 Hambletonian here, August 14, brings out two of the turf's most spectacular performers. In addition to the color coincidence — something never before seen in the Hambletonian—the two colts established such enviable records in 1934 that they threaten to divide popularity equally.

Speedy Stars

Greyhound, owned by E. J. Baker of St. Charles, Ill. and piloted by Sep Palin, noted Indianapolis reinsman, recently kicked off his season by soundly trouncing another Hambletonian hopeful, Lawrence Hanover. In doing this chore, the gray menace cut his mark of 2.06 3-4 earned last year to 2.04 1-4, practically unheard of speed for a three-year-old at the beginning of the year.

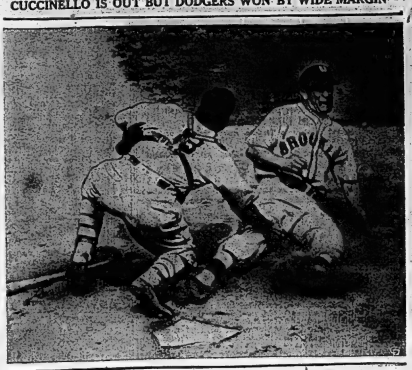
Silver King, 2.06, is owned by K. J. Merkle of Columbus, O., and is trained by Ben White of Lexington, Ky. This handsome stepper has not moved as fast to date as his gray rival, but both his owner and driver have tasted victory in the Hambletonian.

Merkle won the Hambletonian in 1927 with Izoola's Worthy, and Ben White copped the stake in 1933 behind Mary Reynolds. Whether this experience will help or hinder them in August at Goshen remains to be seen.

Share Juvenile Honors

Last year saw Greyhound win more races than Silver King as a two-year-old, but Silver King copped most money. That puts the two on virtually the same plane and makes one guess as good as another.

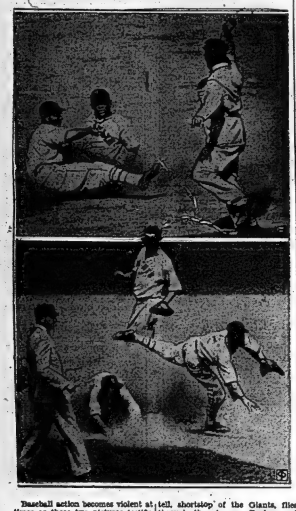
In Lawrence Hanover, however, both grays will find plenty of tough competition, unless the entry of La Salle stable, with Doc Parshall up, should develop some of the temperament which last year caused him to drop out of the running until toward the end of the season.



Silver King, Greyhound and Lawrence Hanover are believed to be fairly unbeatable by their own camps of enthusiastic followers. But such other Hambletonian stars as Prince John, Guardsman, Tilly Tonka, Miss Kate B., Zillah Hanover, Pedro Tipton and Volo Arion, the one-eyed colt must be given serious consideration.

The Grand Circuit races swing onto Canadian soil July 17 when Toronto shows a six-day meeting with most of the candidates for the Goshen classic available.

U. S. Champ Shows His Winning Drive



CUCCINELLO IS OUT BUT DODGERS WON BY WIDE MARGIN

Those Dodgers scored pretty much as they pleased against the lordly N.Y. Giants in this game at the Polo grounds. The camera catches the New Yorkers making out snappy putout at the plate. It's Tony Cuccinello, Dodger infield star, who is making the futile effort to evade the ball held by Gus Mancuso. Umpire Ziggy, is looking the situation over and ruling for the defense. The Brooklyn hopefuls didn't miss lost run. They scored fourteen against the Giants' four. This particular action happened in the fourth inning.

FAST ACTION ON BIG-LEAGUE BASELINES

Baseball action becomes violent at times as these two pictures testify. TOP, Danny Taylor of the Dodgers is out trying to stretch a double into a triple when revis Jackson halts him at third. Jackson has the ball well blocked. Below, Dick Bartell, shortstop of the Giants, flies through the air as Buchet of Brooklyn slides into second base. Bartell, fielding Frey's grounder, stepped on the base, forcing Buchet and threw to first in time to get Frey, completing the double play.

RELIGION MAY SPLIT BAER AND BRIDE

Rumors are already rife that Maxie Baer the playboy of fistiana and his bride of a few days ago, Mary Ellen Sullivan, have discovered a rift in their wedded bliss. Religious difference are said to have caused a split. Baer admits to part Jewish ment blood while his wife is a strict Roman Catholic. "I didn't realize she took her religious views so seriously" Max was quoted as saying. The two are shown above as they arrived at their New York penthouse apartment.

CANUCK WOMEN TENNIS STARS SHOW FORM AT WIMBLEDON

Though eliminated early in the all-comers' tournament at Wimbledon, Eleanor Young and Caroline Deacon, both of Vancouver and women's representatives on the Canadian tennis team playing in England have shown good form in other important tournaments. Miss Young was caught by the camera in action on the Wimbledon tennis courts. Inset shows Miss Young (Left) and Miss Deacon (Right), photographed at the nets during a practice session.

COULDN'T BEAT IRELAND'S HERO

The bold, bad Indian rassler who failed to break the winning streak of Irish Dan O'Mahoney in a world championship bout at Yankee stadium under Hearst Milk Fund auspices. About 15,000, a under-par crowd attended.

DRIVES TROTTERS

BEN F. WHITE

Veteran Driver Ben F. White is regarded by many as possibly winner of the $40,000 Hambletonian in August at Goshen, N.Y., with his Silver King, promising candidate for the classic of the Grand Circuit.

IN LONDON

IN LONDON—Helen Jacobs, left, international tenniser, trades quips with Dorothy Round, Centre, Admiral Earl Jellicoe.

INBOARD—Bob and Dot Munson try out their inboard speedboat, a new style craft, preparing for H earst regatta at Long Beach, Cal.

FAD—Special helmets are worn by vacationists at Old Point Comfort, Va., to walk on the ocean floor and spear fish.

CLASSIFIED ADS PROVE THE WAY TO SURE PROFITS

TO ZOS. EACH PAID FOR U. S. INDIAN HEAD CENTS

We buy all dates regardless of condition. Up to $1.50 each paid for U. S. Liberty Head coins. Up to $10 each for Canadian coins. We buy Paper Money, Stamps, Gold and Silver Bullion, Jewelry, Watches, etc. Send 10c for our illustrated price list and full particulars. Satisfaction guaranteed or 20c refunded.

HUB COIN SHOP

138-39 FRONT ST.
SARNIA - ONTARIO

Business Directory

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner for Financing of All Kinds.
S. J. FISHER & SON
30 Bridge St. East Telephone 1482

Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto - Ottawa - London - Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

A. WYATT, Ph.C., CHIROPRACTOR and Drugless Therapist. Successful treatment of all diseases. Thorough examination of nose and throat. Complete line of modern adjustments. Electrotherapy treatments with other treatments exists many operations. 208 Coleman street, Belleville, phone 900.

VERA B. FISCHER, CHIROPRACTOR, 250½ E. R. Fischer, Chiropractor and Drugless Therapist, Rathbone Block, next to Bridge. Office hours: 9 a.m. to 12 and 1:30 to 5. Closed Thursday afternoon and Saturday evening. Phone 1214. Bridge St. E. Belleville, Ont., Phone 1214.

DENTIST

DR. ROST. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
Phone 402 X-Ray 307½ Front St. Belleville

RADIO SERVICE

JOHN A. DEWAR
RADIO SERVICE
Radiomet — Orthola
245 John St. Phone 727

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH,
Ontario Land Surveyor,
Professional Engineer, Land Surveyor, Architect, Valuator, etc.
Money to Loan.
FRONT ST., P.O. BOX 88
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance
SANDY BURROWS
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
41 Front St. Phone 139

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass
272 Front St. Phone 1114-W

STOCKS & BONDS

HIGGAR AND CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange, 1126, P. E. Wills, branch manager. 282-tf

LEGAL

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND CO., Successors to the late Wallbridge & Wallbridge, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc., Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge Streets, Belleville, Ontario.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Etc. Office: Campbell St., Belleville.

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public, etc. Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. 101-tf

FOSTER, PAYNE AND ARNOTT, BARristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. C. A. Payne, K.C. (1914-1934). Office: Campbell St., Belleville, Ont.

FOSTER AND GRAHAM, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Conveyancers, Office: 36 Bridge St. East, Belleville, Ont. Phone 65. Solicitors for the Bank of Montreal. W. N. Foster, K.C., H. J. R. Graham. Other Belleville.

DONNAN AND BUTLER, K.C., G. Donnan, K.C., B.A., D. Butler, B.A., Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Conveyancers, Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ont. Phone 22.

Small Farm For Sale

2¼ miles east of Belleville, short distance of the highway

51-2 Acres

EXCELLENT LAND

Comfortable house, newly repaired and decorated. Barn, hen house, good well.

This is worth investigating

SOLE AGENTS

Belleville Locators

GEO. N. GORMAN, PROP.
164 Front Street
Phone 980 House Phone 657

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagement Notices, $1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; Floral Tributes, 10c a line; In Memoriams, 10c a line; Cards of Thanks, 50c; Resolutions of Societies, 10c per line; over than 100 per count line; Lodge and Church Entertainments, minimum charge, 75c. CLASSIFIED RATES—Cash with order. 1½c—1 line per word each for first TWO insertions. 1c per word for consecutive insertions after the second.

CASH DISCOUNTS—10 per cent discount for 24 words or under, over that amount 20 per cent.

PROFESSIONAL, LEGAL AND BUSINESS CARDS—$5.00 per month.

OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES—Rates (including those concerning Legal Sales)—10c per agate line (14 lines to inch) for first insertion; 10c per line for subsequent insertions.

AUCTION SALES—$5 per week, based on one sale. Terms of sale must be addressed to 282 Numbers are care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Telephone your Want Ads when it is more convenient. We will bill you.

The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any Classified Advertisement ordered for more than one time.

Replies addressed to box care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

USED CEDAR SKIFF, GOOD CONDITION, 12' x 42" beam. Write immediately stating particulars to Dale Cascadette, 21, Parry Sound; Lewis Cascadette, Parry Sound, Ontario. 313-tf

SINGLE MAN TO TRAVEL WITH CREW of Tobacco Curers. 1st Months Salary. Write Box "C" Ontario Intelligencer. 313-tf

GOOD USED COAL OIL STOVE — phone 2015. 313-15

SUMMER BOARDERS IN PRIVATE home, Bay of Quinte district. Phone good fishing, rates reasonable. Phone 314 Spargo Line, Mountain View. 79-26

FOR SALE

TWO SKETLAND PONIES WITH HARness and Buggy, will sell separately. Riverview Fig Tree, Casselman. 313-15

TO LET

FOUR ROOM HEATED APARTMENT—all conveniences. Also one room apartment. Phone 1197 or 150 Front. Phone 313-tf

GENERAL HOUSEWORK, HEATED apartment, in country home. Apply Ellsmere avenue. Apply on premises. M39-tf

FOR RENT OR SALE

SUMMER COTTAGE AT OAK LAKE. Apply 41 Station street or at cottage, R. D. Mott. 313-31

LOST

THURSDAY MORNING — SUM OF money in bill. Finder please phone 68813. Reward. 313-31

AUCTION SALE

Ernie Effects Antiques and Modern at 19 Highland avenue, Belleville, Thursday, 18 at one o'clock.
GEO. O. TICE, Auctioneer.
313-31

Notice

All ladies interested in Young Canadian Concert party at Canadian Legion Hall Monday report at Conservative clubrooms Wednesday at 8 p.m.
T. R. D. ARNOTT, Agent.
313-15

9 TREKKERS FREED BY SUDBURY P.M.

Joseph Marsh of Belleville Discharged on Begging Charge

Sudbury, Ont., July 15.— (CP)— Nine "on-to-Ottawa" trekkers, arrested here on charges that they attempted to hold a tag-day in defiance of Mayor W. J. Cullen's ban, final were dismissed in the city police court this morning on charges of begging when Magistrate J. B. McKessock found no evidence to support the charges. Charlie Hare a strong suspicion of what he was doing, I have no evidence," observed Magistrate McKessock in connection with the charges against Joseph Marsh, 27, Belleville, the only one of the trekkers to be arraigned on the charge. "I don't think there's any use of proceeding unless we have stronger evidence," the Magistrate advised E. D. Wilkinson, K.C., Crown Attorney.

Evidence was produced by Detective Sergeant Frank Scott and Sergt. L. Campeau, that they had observed the accused obstructing pedestrians. The accused were later accompanied by Burpee Kenny, 35, no address, carrying a tagging box, filled with red tags marked, "on-to-Ottawa". The police were unable to produce any evidence of a direct sale. Chief Constable T. Douden told the court that municipal regulations required permission before a tag-day could be held which permission had not been obtained. Magistrate McKessock ruled that they had applied to Mayor W. J. Cullen, Friday, but the Mayor refused to grant the permission without the knowledge of the City Council, the latter having met in council meeting but the trekkers on Saturday preceded with their tagday.

G. A. Lamon was retained as counsel for the trekkers by the Labor Defence League which was represented by police court this morning by Joe Billings, local representative.

The other trekkers who were freed this morning when the charges in their cases stood were Dale Cascadette, 21, Parry Sound; Lewis Cascadette, Parry Sound; Kenny Ryan, 25, no address; Adelbert Lafrancoise, 18, 190 Elizabeth street, Sudbury; Alo Koivula, 19, Broder Township; Ronald Schofield, 21, Sudbury; Ed. Kenneth, 20, Regina, and John Smith, 20, Ottawa.

Those released on bail to return to the city police have been living in a tent on the Trans-Can Labor Temple here pending arrangements to proceed to Ottawa. They are expected to move out of the city tonight toward North Bay, where they are said to be meeting another contingents headed for Ottawa.

RAIN WASHES OUT TREKKERS' START

Rations Worth $900 a Day Collected by Organizers

Toronto, July 15—(CP)— Pelting rain which began shortly after early part of today, interfered with plans of marchers to hold a mass meeting at Queens Park. Where a trek officials said the men would be served their rations for the proposed march "on Ottawa which is expected to get underway sometime this week.

According to official estimate 200 trekkers have already arrived and quartered in Toronto and 500 more are expected to arrive here before dawn today. Trek leaders stated 2,000 Toronto and district unemployed have registered and will immediately join the same number will take to the road.

Organization and direction with the problem of collecting daily rations, which, according to the men would be needed on a day to day basis. How is if they are going to get three meals a day while on board.

Meanwhile aftermath of a tag day held in Toronto today is in defiance of civic authorities found one marcher in court today charged with begging. The charge was dismissed. He was remanded to July 22 for trial and held on bail of $200.

The trekkers were informed today by Mayor James Simpson that no begging bowls or tin cans on city streets without a permit would be tolerated. The Mayor's warning was given after a band of men marched past the city hall today.

Fifty members of the city council was scheduled for today at which a delegation from the trekkers was expected to press claims for sleeping accommodation and free rail transportation grounds and city parks. Ernie police will be on duty at the meeting.

HUNGER TREK MEN GRUMBLING

Thirty Run Out of Food Before The Trek Begins

North Bay, Ont., July 15—(CP)— Camped in a large tent near the lake shore behind the Canadian Pacific Railway stock yards, 30 hunger marchers from Sudbury ran out of food supplies before they began to grapple over the lack of definite information as to when the trek would start.

Two of them, Robert Sorenson and Bruce Loosemore, interviewed Hobart Jamieson, Mayor of North Bay, and stated that if something definite was not done immediately the men would pack up and return to Sudbury, from where they came Sunday in a truck.

The Sudbury contingent drove to Wallace Park where they arrived there and pitched a large tent, a small kitchen tent, and lighted a fire. They had a quantity of food.

Police ordered them out. The leaders persuaded their men to leave quietly. The men then established their presents quarters.

Mayor W. G. Bullbrook said today he had granted the Trekkers the park. Police apparently were under the impression that he had not.

Thousands of marchers from the north and west are expected to leave tonight and arrive in North Bay Tuesday morning. Mayor Jamieson will seek permission today from Mayor Bullbrook to hold a tag-day.

HEAVIEST IN YEARS

London, Ont., July 15 (CP)—With last night's rain of 2.04 inches a new record for rainfall within 12 hours is believed to have been set for this district. The weather bureau here says it is the heaviest rainfall in three years at least.

TICKELL & BROWNE
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve Every Need in
FUNERAL HOME
Corner Church St. and
Victoria Ave. Phone 2238

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 716-W Day and Night
10 Everett St. Phone 61
Proprietor
Manufacturer Cryptic For Sale

Thomas C. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
32 Everett St. Phone 61

322 Front St. Phone 61

TUESDAY at WEDNESDAY LUCKIN'S 286 Front St. Phone 319

SPECIAL TUESDAY ONLY
"WHY—PAY—MORE"
BLADE ROAST 12½c
STEW VEAL 22c
LEG VEAL STEAK 22c
Shoulder Veal Chops.. 12½c
Sliced Bologna lb. 10c

LAMB LEGS	LAMB FRONTS	LAMB LOINS
25c	10c	lb. 25c

½ LB. COOKED HAM, ½ LB. PORK, ¼ LB. VIRGINIA HAM ¼ LB. OX TONGUE
THE FULL POUND FOR ... 45c

SAUSAGE MEAT, HAMBURG STEAK, BEEF CUTTINGS, SLICED LIVER, FRESH KIDNEYS
ALL ONE PRICE LB. ... 10c

JEWEL SHORTENING 2 lbs. 23c
BUTTER ... 21c with meat orders

HOLIDAY INSURANCE. $5000 for $1.00

We insure you against Accident while on holiday—and will pay:
IN THE EVENT OF YOUR DEATH BY ACCIDENT ..$5,000
LOSS OF BOTH FEET OR HANDS 5,000
ONE FOOT OR HAND 2,500
TOTAL DISABILITY (limit of 52 weeks) ... per week 25

The rates are: 4 days $1; 7 days $2; 15 days $4; 30 days $5.

We also insure your baggage all year for rates. For anything in the line of insurance telephone us.

JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Phone 1344 127 Front St.

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

NEW YORK CLOSE

New York, July 15—(AP)— The stock market today responded to a renewed demand for rails, steels, equipment and scattered specialties. Trading was relatively quiet, but a number of issues edged into new high territory for the year.

American Locomotive preferred advanced 2 points and others, up fractionally to a point or more, including Northern Preferred, Pullman, U.S. Rubber common and preferred Bethlehem, Bullard Case and Johns-Manville. The utilities were backward. General Motors and Chrysler were a little better than even. The lake lons was fairly firm. Transfers for the approximated 850,000 shares.

TORONTO MINES CLOSE

Toronto, July 15 (CP) — Heavy buying at advancing prices developed in the penny issues, Mr. Anthony and Sullivan, on the mining board of the Toronto Exchange today while price variations were narrow elsewhere. Base metal stocks were inactive on meagre turnover and the silvers were weakened slightly by a drop in the London metal quotation. Oil shares traded in a little better volume at firm prices.

A sagging tendency prevailed in today's mining share market with prices about a per cent to a point per cent low volume. Hollinger, Sangamo and Little Long were up 5c to 10 cents each. Hollinger at 13.90 selling at its top for the year. Base metal issues were firm but quiet and silvers slow and slightly unsettled.

Gold shares in terms of cents were boarded for Eldorado and Castle Trethewey and sold a cent higher at 54. A minor reduction in the London metal price helped to dampen the enthusiasm for the white metal shares in the base metal group, Sherritt-Gordon and Noranda Metals Corporation were up about 3 cents each.

TORONTO STOCKS CLOSE

TORONTO, July 15—(CP)—The market went well today for the liquor stocks, the leaders of months ago, with a new flow of buying orders, mainly from New York that has since enlivened the market for the last three weeks. Gains up to a point or more were recorded by members of the group. The general list of the Board was steady to strong with trade small outside the liquors. Heavy Industrials a few points upward higher.

Liquor stocks swung into action again today, opening early after a slow morning and gains of 2-8 to a half point were recorded by early afternoon for Walker's common, Distillers Seagrams and Industrial Alcohol A on the industrial board. Most other groups remained steady with trade moderate, in small volume.

Steel issues were inclined to trail the advance of the New York listings, Steel of Canada, and the preferred issues of General Electric and Dominion Steel selling higher.

Food issues displayed mild heaviness with fractional losses showing for the Loblaw issues. Dominion Stores and Canada Bread B.

Board Room Gossip

As supplied to Higgar and Crawford by Financial Service.

The local market gave a comparatively quiet session of itself last week, although most of the interest was centred in a few issues. The trend was going to life and are giving every indication of moving higher. The principal reason for this on the realisation that the alcohol companies have experienced better earnings than earlier anticipated.

Canadian Celanese, Howard Smith preferred and Distillers-Seagrams all appear in line for dividend action before the end of the year. Consequently the issues offer interesting speculative possibilities for market enhancement.

Financial Service learns that Canadian Industrial Alcohol is negotiating for the sale of another large portion of its investment in American interests. This order, it is unofficially reported, calls for 500,000 gallons. At the present policy of the management is maintained, Canadian Industrial Alcohol will be entirely liquidated.

Schenley Distillers is being mentioned among the early dividend prospects, although it is not certain that this action or stock payment will be considered.

Rumors in Wall Street have been in effect that a prominent industrialist has been responsible for the selling in International Nickel, Canada Nickel and Falconbridge. It is generally established that liquidation in International Nickel was coming from Canada and it was said that Canadian interests were disposing of outstanding holdings, since second quarter earnings may be disappointing. Falconbridge also faced that the company would not seek permanency in its shares, although an application has already been filed with the New York Stock Exchange and the Sec.

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted mines as furnished by A. H. Ketchenson and Co. today:

Alaska 2¾-3¼.
Ascot 27-29.
Bankfield 14-16.
Bathurst 1¾-2¾.
Bouzquet 10-13.
Casey 6¾-7¼.
Cons Chib 75-85.
Cont Pore 20-24.
De Santis 208.
Et Bonanza 14-18.
Garnet 72-75.
Gold Eagle 29-32.
Graser 64-7.
Greenlaw 5¼-6¼.
Hardrock 41-44.
Lafayette 6¼-7¼.
Lamaque 218-228.
Magnet 3¼-4.
McLeod 4¼-5¼.
Morris 31-34.
Okland 27-30.
Schaeffer 41-43.
Smelters 4-5-6.
Sun Bear 18-20.
Wells 5-7.
Wendigo 13-16.
Wingold 7-8.
Young Davidson 18-17.
Dunlop ¾-1¼.
Forty Four 7905.
Golden 6 bid.
Glenora 72.
Hudson Patricia 17-18.
Lagoon 65.
Mosher 3-2.
Rice Lake 2¼-3¼.
T Cad 4-5.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Higgar and Crawford, F. E. Wills, branch manager.

Mines.

Acme 18½-20.
Alaz 21-25.
Ashley 103.
Anglo Hur 400-2.
Bruck Silv 14-15.
Big Missouri 54-5.
Bagamac 3¾-5.
Brabrac 400-3.
Brownlee 1b.
Brz 7½.
Buffalo Ank 260-5.
Castle Treth 101.
Can Kirk 14-5.
Can Malar 63.
Central Patricia 167-8.
Chemical Research 100.
Coast Copper 185-5.
Chibougamau 17-5.
Clarke 3.
Conlaurium 160-3.
Dome 382-5.
Eldorado 190.
Falconbridge 376-5.
Gillies 14-5.
God's Lake 139.
Goldale 115-5.
Greene Stabilite 202-5.
Harker 41-5.
Hasaga 51-5.
Hollinger 1390-5.
Howey 70-5.
Hudson Bay 15-5.
J M Cons 17-5.
Kirk Townsite 24-5.
Kirkland Lake 37-5.
Lake Maron 3-5.
Lake Shore 690-5.
Lebel 3¾-5.
Lee Gold 4-5.
Little Long Lac 460-5.
Macassa 1600-5.
Malcolm 14-5.
Man R 5.
Maple Leaf 3-5.
McIntyre 40¼-5.
McKenzie 112-5.
McMillan 13-5.
McWatters 117-5.
Mining Corporation 140-5.
Noranda 36¾-5.
Osisko 350-5.
Parkhill 21-5.
Paymaster 29-5.
Pet C3¾-5.
Perron 67-5.
Pickle Crow Gold 51-5.
Pickle Crow 220.
Pioneer 20-5.
Premier 144.
Prox Air 1323.
Read Authier 89-5.
Reno 127.
Royalite 23¼-5.
San Antonio 350.
Sherritt Gordon 56-5.
Sisco 282.
Stadacona 22¾-5.
St. Anthony 24-5.
Sudbury Basin 140.
Sullivan 24-5.
Sylvanite 315-5.
Teck-Hu 41-5.
Teck Hughes 411-5.
Toburn 110-5.
Ventures 52-5.
Waite Amulet 55-5.
Wayside 10-5.
White Eagle 1¾-5.
Wright Hargreaves 7.85.
Yenic 30-5.
Nickel 27-5-8.

NEW YORK

American Can 139 1-2
American Tel & Tel 126 1-3
American Radiator 15 1-8
Anaconda 18 1-4
Atlantic 23
Chie 1-8
Chrysler 74 7-8
General Electric 27 1-8
General Motors 36 7-8
Elec. Auto Lite 25 1-8
Inter. Harvester 3 5-8
North American 17 3-8
Kodak Pathe Ward 2 1-2
Phillips Pet. 21 3-4
Radio 3 1-4
Standard Oil of N.J. 43
Standard Brands 15 7-8
Texas Gulf Sul. 43 1-2
U.S. Smelters 108 3-4
U.S. Steel 57 3-8
United Aircraft 18
Vanadium 15
Westinghouse 59 3-8

TORONTO

Bell Telephone 126 1-2 B
B. A. Oil 15 1-4
Brewing Corp. 3 1-4B
Brazil Tho. 4 1-2
Can. Bud Brewery 8 3-4B
Can. Cement 6 1-4B
Can. Dredge 20 3-4B
Can. Ind. Alcohol 10
C.P.R. 13 3-4
Can. Malting 32 1-4
Can. Vinegar 27 3-4B
Canada Car 6 3-4B
Cons Bakeries 13 1-2 B
Con. Smelting 158-5
Dominion Stores 6 7-8
Dist. Seagrams 32
Fanny Farmer 9 1-8
Ford A 3 1-2
Gypsum 5
Goodyear 71 1-3
Imp. Oil 19 7-8
Inter. Pete 35 1-8
Imp. Tobacco 14 1-4B
Loblaw 19 1-8
Massey Harris 4 1-8
Mont. Power 30 1-4B
McColl-Frontenac 15 8-8B
Steel of Canada 43 3-4
Supertest 21 1-4B
Shawinigan 32 1-2B
Walker's 31 1-8B
Walker's Pfd. 117 7-8B
Walkerville Brewery 3B

SUSTAINS FRACTURED SKULL

Chatham, Ont., July 15 (CP)— Mrs. Nesita Labadie, 66, is in St. Joseph's Hospital with a fractured skull and torn scalp, and Delore Charon,17, with a broken leg, received late last night when a light truck in which they were passengers overturned after a crash with a car at a Dover township intersection.

Cheese Industry In England is Fully Explained

Mr. R. V. Ilsley, Manager of the Bank of Commerce, was present on Saturday at the Belleville Cheese Board and being called upon by President R. W. Morrow spoke briefly in reference to his recent trip to the old country, particularly about the cheese industry. England today, he said, was the most sought after market and cheese was one of the chief products. Canadian cheese was in competition with English cheddar cheese, also with cheese from New Zealand, which is sold at 44s to 45s per hundred. He said it was hard to conceive how New Zealand is going to continue in regard to cheese and no doubt a crash will eventually come. Canadian cheese is in a class by itself. His advice to those present was to stick to the quality of their cheese, increase the quantity and the time would come when they would get a better price for their product. He was pleased to see what the government was doing to encourage the cheese industry. His closing remark was for all to sit tight and play the game.

Only One Bid

There were boarded 1664 boxes of white cheese with only a small portion sold. Only one bid was for what was made, namely 10 c which was 1c lower than that paid the week previous. Mr. Ross secured the boxes, Mr. Hunter 180 boxes, Mr. Morton 180 boxes and Mr. Carter 39. Balance unsold. Thirty factories were represented as follows:

Factory	W
Shannonville	53
Brook	53
Harold	50
Silver Springs	50
Union	51
Eclipse	51
Holloway	50
Acme	50
Wooler	47
Sidney T. H.	46
Maple Leaf	46
Cloverdale	46
W. Huntingdon	46
Melrose	46
Zion	71
East Hastings	53
Springbrook	53
Mountain	54
Weller's Bay	53
Moira Valley	53
Bloomfield	53
Roslin	53
Quinte	53
Stoneridge	90
Frankford	90
Rogers	90
Stirling	33
Victoria	33
Rubblin	33
Glen	29

CHEESE BOARD

Riviere du Loup, July 15.—At the regular meeting of the Riviere du Loup Dairy Board there were 800 boxes of cheese offered and sold to Dominion Fish and Fruit Co., Quebec, at 19 15-16 cents.

Vankleek Hill, July 15.—At Saturday's meeting of the Vankleek Hill Cheese Board 1078 boxes of white cheese sold to Hodgson and Rowson at 9 15-16 cents; 1078 boxes of colored cheese sold to Ayer Jr Co., at 9 15-16 cents.

Perth, July 15.—At Saturday's meeting of the Perth Cheese Board 659 boxes of white cheese sold to Canmont at 9 7-8 cents. Buyers present were Stedman, Beckett, Osmond Taylor and Cooke.

Alexandria, July 15.—At Saturday's meeting of the Alexandria Cheese Board there were 1,722 boxes of cheese boarded, of which 1,524 boxes were white and 198 boxes were colored; 45 boxes sold to Hodgson & Rowson at 9 15-16 cents; 1,271 boxes sold to Lamb & Chrisholm at 9 7-8 cents. Buyers present—Wert for Hodgson & Rowson, Dever for Lovell and Christie, McGruer for Ayer, Fraser for Hodges. Attendance 4.

Napanee, July 15. — At today's meeting of the Napanee Cheese Board there were offered 1,200 boxes and 247 boxes of colored cheese boarded. All cheese sold at 9 7-8 cents. The usual buyers were present.

Cornwall, July 15—At Saturday's meeting of the Cornwall Cheese Board there were 1,200 boxes offered and 682 boxes of colored cheese boarded and sold at 9 7-8 cents; 157 flats sold at 10 1-8 cents.

Casselman, July 15.—At Saturday's meeting of the Casselman Cheese Board there were 787 boxes of cheese boarded and sold at 9 7-8 cents. Dominion bought 702 box of white cheese at 9 7-8 cents, the remaining 85 boxes of colored cheese were sold. Buyers present — Hodgson, Rowson, Ayer and Lovell Christie.

Lansdowne July 15, (Special) —At the meeting of the Lansdowne Cheese Board there were offered 1,000 boxes of white and 460 boxes of colored cheese were offered. Sales price bid was 9 7-8 cents. All boxes of white and 202 boxes of colored were sold at 9 7-8 cents.

DENIES SALE OF "DIZZY"

St. Louis, July 15.—(AP)—Sam Breadon, President of the St. Louis Cardinals' Baseball Club, denied today reports that pitcher Dizzy Dean had been sold to the Chicago Cubs. "There is not a single word of truth in such a report," Breadon said. "Sale of Dizzy Dean has not been discussed with any club, in fact. It has never been hinted by the Cubs that they wanted Dizzy."

Produce Markets

(By United Farmers Co-Operative Company)

Toronto. — Wholesale prices on product delivered at Toronto as supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co. here to-day were:

Eggs	Dozen
Grade A large, doz.	.20 to 20½c
Grade A, medium, doz.	.19 to 19½c
Grade B, doz.	.17½
Grade C, doz.	.13
Butter
Ontario No. 1 Creamery, lb.	20 1-2
Ontario No. 2 Creamery, lb.	.20
Churning cream
No. 1, lb.	.19
No. 2, lb.	.17

(F.O.B. shipping point)

Poultry	Dressed
	Live Dressed Milkfed
Hens—	"A" "A" "A"
Over 5 lbs.	.11
4 to 5 lbs.	.10
3 to 4 lbs.	.09
Old roosters	.07 .08
Broilers, 4½ to 5 lbs.	.13
Broilers, 3½ to 4 lbs.	.14
Broilers, 2½ to 3 lbs.	.15
Broilers, over 4 lbs.	.16

Selling Prices

United Farmers Co-operative Co. reports the following selling prices to retail dealers at the following prices:

Eggs
Grade A, large, doz.	.23
Grade A, medium, doz.	.22½
Grade A, medium, doz.	.21
Grade C doz.	.20
Butter
No. 1 Creamery, prints	.22½
No. 2 Creamery, prints	.21½

Bay and Straw

No. 2 timothy hay, baled ton, $11.50 to $12.00; No. 3 timothy hay, ton, $10.00; oats straw, $7.50 to $8.50.

Graded Egg Prices

Toronto dealers Thursday were paying the following wholesale prices for graded eggs, cases free:

Grade A-large, doz.	.20½
Grade A-medium, doz.	.19½
Grade B-pullets, doz.	.17½

Livestock Quotations

(Toronto)

Steers, up to 1,550 lbs., good and choice	6.25	6.65
do. medium	5.75	6.25
do. common	4.50	5.50
Heifers, under 1000 lbs., good and choice	6.50	7.25
do. medium	6.00	6.50
do. common	5.00	5.75
Heifers, good and choice	6.25	6.50
do. medium	5.75	6.25
do. common	4.50	5.50
Cows, good and choice	4.00	4.75
do. medium	3.50	4.00
do. common	3.25	3.75
Canners and cutters	1.50	2.50
Bulls, good	3.75	4.25
do. common	3.00	3.25
Milkers and Springers	33.00	45.00
Veal calves, choice
good	4.75	5.25
do. common	4.00	4.50
Calves, good and choice
veals	6.00	7.00
do. common to medium	4.00	5.75
do., grasers	3.00	4.00
Hogs, bacon, f.o.b.	8.00
do., off cars	8.75
do., fed and watered	8.25
Good ewes and wether lambs		8.50
Good lambs	8.00	8.50
do. bucks	6.50	7.00
Spring lambs	8.00	8.25
Sheep, good light	2.00	3.25
do. culls	1.00
do. medium	1.50	2.00

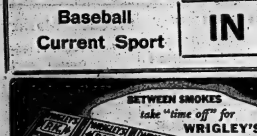
Produce Prices on Montreal Market

Toronto, July 15—(CP)— Wholesale prices on produce delivered at Toronto as supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co., here today were: Eggs, Grade A, large, 21c; Grade A, medium, 20c; Grade A, 17c; Grade "B" doe, 16c; Grade "C" doz., 13c; Creamery, prints, No. 1, 24c; No. 2 lb. 22c; Butter, No. 1, solids lb. 20½c; No. 2 solids, lb 20c.

Grain Markets

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. E. Ames and Co., Toronto:

	High	Low	Close
WHEAT—
July	.80	.80	.80
August	80 5-8	80 3-8	80 5-8
BARLEY—
July	.41	.41	.41
October	41 3-8	31	41 1-4
December	.0	.0	.30
RYE—
July	.36	35 1-4
October	36 1-2	35 1-2	36 3-8
December	.0	.0	36 3-8
RYE—
July	.35 1-4	34 1-2	34 7-8
October	.37 7-8	37 1-4	37 1-2
December	39 1-2	38 3-4	38 7-8



HOGS

Toronto, July 15 (CP)—Steadiness prevailed on bacon hog prices today as all reporting market points showed unchanged levels. Prices: Chatham, $8.25; Barrie, $8.25; Strathroy, $8.25; Kitchener, $8.35; Brantford, $8.60; Hull, $8.60.

Baseball Current Sport

IN THE REALM OF SPORTING EVENTS

Bowling Golf

Stewart - Warners Outlucked When Peterboro Stages Rally Winning Close Contest 4-3

Locals Score Three Runs in The First Innings ONLY 3 HITS

Same Teams Meet in This City on Tuesday Night

Peterboro, Ont., July 15— Scoring twice in the eighth innings here Saturday Johnnie Moores pelted out a 4-3 verdict over Belleville Stewart Warners, in a classy O.B.L. game last. The visitors led from the first inning till the eighth and they had the bases full in the ninth but were outlucked. Chief Williams and Bill Callaghe staged a hurling duel with the latter wilder but holding Belleville to three hits and getting air-tight support for the win. A big crowd saw the thrilling tussle.

Williams allowed just seven hits in a good performance as he fanned four and walked three. Callaghne fanned six men and issued six free tickets. Wetr and Green shone defensively for "Peney" while Burton, Murphy and Ash were outstanding for the Pets. Sonny Green got two of the three Belleville bingles with Kerr getting the other. Murphy and Burton both safely twice each for the winners and Ash had a double.

The Radiomen notched three runs in the first frame. Gray drew a walk and advanced to second on Kerr's single to left. Barclay sacrificed both; Ash was slow on Weir's fielder's choice, letting Alex on and Gray score. Kerr stopping at third. On a double steal, Weir was trapped but Ash 'et him get away as he threw home too late to put the out Kerr. Green's single scored Weir. The Pets didn't get a run till the third when Kearns' walked, stole second and tallied on Kerr's snuff of Callaghne's long fly. In the fourth they added one, Murphy singling, moving on on Whatley's hit and scoring home on Burton's single. Green got Whatley at the plate.

The Mills crew failed to threaten, despite a walk in the fifth and sixth but Green's accurate throws singled and advanced twice on outs but died on third. A single by Burton, who was out trying to stretch it—and Ash's double did the trick—and Ash's double did the trick—and Ash's double did the trick

THE RED TIGER

By ALANSON CROSBY

— Chapter 25 —

AN OLD ACQUAINTANCE

"My dear young lady," Captain McMahon expostulated, "we can't go in a woman's house and ransack it without a search warrant. And that can't be issued without reasonable cause for suspicion. We—"

"Reasonable cause!" scoffed Sally. "What reasonable cause have you had for hounding Randall Spencer, I'd like to know? And now Judith is gone, and I just know they're both being held prisoners by that terrible woman—if she hasn't murdered them! And you talk about reasonable cause! My Gawd! If I only had a woman or two to go with me I'd reach the house without 'reasonable cause.' Men are so dumb for any use."

Captain McMahon threw up his hands and looked at Bob Harlan comprehensively. "Do I—a nice guy like you not to be off with a girl like that," his lo'ks said as plainly as though his lips had formed the words. Bob reddened and returned a defiant look to the captain. Nobody could separate him and Sally, even by a glance, and get away with it.

"Sally's right—at least partly so, Mac," said Bob. "There is reasonable ground for suspicion in this case, and the house ought to be searched."

"Well, surely not at four o'clock in the morning," growled McMahon. "We'll at least have the decency to wait till daylight before invading the lady's premises. And somebody'll have to get out a search warrant before I'll touch it."

"I'll do it!" said Sally quickly. "I'm not afraid of her, and I'm not afraid of offending the aristocratic McMahon either. I don't think a woman who could deliberately plan and instigate murder to get rid of her rival ought to have such tender consideration as you seem to want to give her, Captain McMahon."

"Murder is a pretty hard word, young lady. What reasonable grounds have we to suspect that she ever thought of such a thing?"

"Didn't you hear Judith tell about the man getting out of the car and releasing the emergency brake to send it over the cliff, with her in it?" Sally demanded.

"It didn't sound very convincing to me," said McMahon. "And the young lady didn't stress the point much. I tell you frankly, Miss Foster, that your room-mate has been giving us a good deal more trouble and concern with her gangs and counterfeiters and murderous disappearances and adventures. It's no play for a good girl to be acting."

"Do you mean to insinuate that Judith is not a good girl?" demanded Sally angrily.

"No—o," drawled McMahon. "But I'd be most sorry if it is the case, seein' less of this fellow Spencer. He's a smooth lad, but I wouldn't trust him with a good-lookin' woman any further than I could throw him with one hand."

"You needn't let that worry you," said Sally haughtily. "Judith can take care of herself. . . . How long before we're going to start for Miss Madison's?"

"Not a step before daylight," said McMahon firmly. "I feel it's a fool's errand, and I'll be the laughing stock of the town. She'll probably have the mayor fire me. I don't care for that, though. I've been sick of being a policeman for quite awhile, all right, with the grief and curses—if yer honest. . . . Now, young lady, you can just swear out an information, and I'll get Judge Pat McMahon has got to be the goat in this wild goose chase."

"I'll swear it out," said Bob. "No need to bring you into it, Mac."

"And if it turns out as I expect it to, you'll lose your job, too, young fella," said McMahon grimly. "Sorry I'll be sorry company."

"You needn't be concerned about bringing me into it," said Sally, tossing her head. "You can't keep me out of it. I'm going with you. I wouldn't trust such an important matter to any man!"

As the circle of light approached Judith flattened herself against the wall, hoping to evade detection. But she knew even of she did so that she was trapped. In a moment the glare of flashlight was full on her, its glare in her eyes, causing her to blink involuntarily. If she could have seen behind the flashlight she would have detected a grim, set expression on the face of the man behind it.

"Well, young woman, who are you and what are you doing here?" he said in a deep voice that Judith somehow thought was not a natural one.

Judith hesitated, not knowing what kind of a reply to make.

"This is a strange place for a girl like you to be in," the voice continued. "Do you know where you are?"

"Y-e," said Judith, finally determining that the truth was the best answer. "I know—it's the Red Tiger."

"Indeed. Won't you please take that flashlight out of my eyes?"

The arc of the light was lowered and the man came close enough to reach out and touch her. Judith's heart faltered for a moment. She wondered if she had stepped out of the frying pan into the fire.

"Now then, what does this mean?" he said gruffly. "What are you doing here? This place has been closed for weeks."

"A man broke into me here against my will," said Judith. "He chloroformed me in a cab."

"Uh-huh! That's what they all say," said the man with coarse sarcasm. "Who is here and where is he?"

"Harold Stokes," said Judith. "In one of those rooms back there. He fell and hurt himself."

"What again?" laughed the man. "Seems to me he had you here once before and fell and hurt himself. You're quite lucky getting out of scrapes, ain't you?"

"I don't know," said Judith, somewhat bewildered by the man's attitude and comments. "I hope, if I am, my luck will keep up. . . . I don't know you—"

"But I know you," said the man, with a rather unpleasant chuckle. "You're Judith Estes. Oh, yes. I know you—but you don't know me. It's a good job!"

"If you know who I am," said Judith, musing, "you know that I can afford to reward you for any service you are willing to do me. Please get me out of here and back to town. I'll pay you well."

"I—ah!" said the man with strange, ironic amusement. "But maybe somebody else would pay better not to . . . Oh, well, come on, kid. I'll take you along."

It struck Judith as odd that he did not bargain for reward—even in fact, rather strangely indifferent to the terms of payment for the service he was about to render her. There might be grounds for suspicion in that circumstance, but Judith was in no mood to analyze or pick flaws. The main thing was to get back to the Metropolitan Hotel as quickly as possible and organize a relief expedition for Randall Spencer.

Judith followed the strange man silently down the stairs. On the ground floor he produced a key and unlocked a door which led out into the yard, where, in the moonlight, Judith could see her new rescuer—if such he was—for the first time. He was a bulky man, strangely reminiscent in figure of someone she had seen, but in Judith's face averted and Judith wracked her brains in vain to identify him.

There was a small one-seated car standing close in the paved area which had once been the parking grounds for scores of automobiles, before the "Red Tiger" was closed by the police.

"Get in!" grunted the man, and Judith obeyed with alacrity, glad to get out of this place and away from Harold Stokes, even though her companion might not be her first rescuer—if such he was—for the second

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE CAPITOL

"While the Patient Slept"

MacMahon-Ribbee at Capitol in Clue Club Film

"While The Patient Slept," First National's latest murder mystery drama, the second to be produced under the insignia of the Clue Club, opens at the Capitol Theatre today.

The picture is based on the popular novel by Mignon G. Eberhart, and is unusual in that it is packed with humor and rollicking laughter as well as thrills, suspense and creepy situations that make the scalp tingle.

Aline MacMahon has the stellar role as the nurse in a rambling, ghostly, suburban mansion where wealthy owner is supposed to be dying. Guy Kibbee portrays a love-lorn small town detective who is trying to solve the killing of the rich man's eldest son, and at the same time making blundering love to the nurse.

The two comedians who starred together in "Babbitt," "Big Hearted Herbert" and other hits, provide much of the humor while Allen Jenkins and Eddie Shubert as Kibbee's dumb assistant detectives, furnish many laughs.

The romantic leads are Lola Talbot and Patricia Ellis, both of whom are suspected of the crimes by the police. Others involved in the plot include Robert Barrat, Hobart Cavanaugh, Dorothy Tree, Henry O'Neill, Russell Hicks, Helen Flint, Brandon Hurst and Walter Walker.

The story revolves about the attempt to wrest the fortune from the rich recluse, which results in two murders. The action is fast and furious, winding up in a most surprising climax, in which the crimes are solved and the murderer apprehended.

AT THE BELLE

"I Happened One Night"

and "One Night of Love"

Return as Twin-Program

Belleville and vicinity motion picture fans who have been waiting with keen delight for the popular request return engagement of "I Happened One Night", first prize Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences winner co-starring Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert, together on the screen for the first time in their distinguished careers, will be appeased with the news that the film opens at the Belle Tomorrow (Tuesday), for a two day engagement, matinee daily.

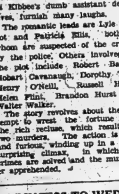
Gable, today, is undoubtedly the most popular masculine stellar figure on the screen. He secured a meteoric rise to film prominence in "The Easiest Way", "Strange Interlude", and others, but his performance in "I Happened One Night" is said to top them all for artistry and effectiveness ... a fact for which he is deeply indebted to Director Frank Capra and Robert Riskin, who adapted the screen version from Samuel Hopkins Adams' novelette, "Night Bus", which appeared in Cosmopolitan Magazine.

Miss Colbert enjoys nearly as much a following as Gable's, for her work in recent pictures has boomed her stock tremendously, and she's streaking upward like a skyrocket. Fans will remember her sterling performances in "Sign of the Cross", "Torch Singer", "Tonight is Ours", and "The Smiling Lieutenant".

Frank Capra, whose recent hit pictures stamp him as one of Hollywood's finest Megaphone wielders, was assigned to direct the picture.

Grace Moore, Returns

Superlatives seem suddenly inadequate and words of meaning faced with the task of describing the superb thrills to be experienced at the Belle Tomorrow and Wednesday when Grace Moore, ravishing, alluring, golden-voiced beauty, acts and sings in the starring role of the romantic film "One Night of Love", announced as the second super-feature attraction on the same program.



For three years a leading figure on the New York stage, renowned and beloved throughout the world for her exotic charm and glorious voice, Miss Moore now emerges triumphantly as one of screendom's most captivating figures. She brings to the screen a distinctively new type of personality.... gay, joyous, exuberant, romantic with the fire of youth.

But the reintroduction of Miss Moore to movie audiences is but one of the many highlights in a production resplendent with wealth and entertainment. The musical and romantic interest is solidly sustained by a gripping and convincing story. "It Happened One Night" starts daily at 1.30 and 3.30 P. M. "One Night of Love" starts daily at 3.40, 7.00 and 9.30 P. M.

"Charlie Chan in Egypt"

Fox Film's most latest and baffling mystery thriller, "Charlie Chan in Egypt" delighted a large audience at the Belle on Saturday. Warner Oland is seen in the leading role. The favorites in the supporting cast include "Pat" Patterson, Thomas Beck, Rita Cansino and Stepin Fetchit. Three other screen gems will be exhibited on the same program.

PRINCESS TO WED?

Princess Arpasia, widow of King Alexander of Greece, is rumored fiancee of John H. Harris, American contractor now residing in Paris.

Kinsale, Irish Free State, July 15—(AP)—Jack MacCarthy, 76, a baker who baked all night and "smiled all day, died today.

When he was a young man, MacCarthy decided that sleep lost too much time sleeping. So he gradually cut down on his sleep, keeping until he said he was able to forego slumber entirely.

Recently, however, he slept less in 36 years than the average man does in six months. As to how he did it, he always declined to say.

RADIO PROGRAMS

— Daylight Saving Time —

MONDAY

9.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ.
10.45—Joe White, tenor—WEAF
2.15—Cincinnati All-Star Baseball Game—WEAF
4.00—Betty and Bob—WJZ
4.30—"To Be Announced"—WJZ
6.00—U. S. Army Band—WJZ
8.30—News; Jim Hunter—CRPB.
8.30—Music Box—WABC
7.00—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF
7.15—Tony and Gus—WJZ
7.15—Tito Guizar—WEAF
7.30—Rhythm Boys—WEAF
8.00—Guy Lombardo's Orch. —WABC
8.30—Mixed Chorus—WEAF
8.30—One Night Stands—WABC
9.00—Harry Horlick's Gypsies WEAF
9.30—Princess Pat Players—WJZ
Chicago—WJZ
10.00—Wayne Kings' Orch—WABC
10.00—Lullaby Lady—WEAF
10.00—Cuckoo Hour—WJZ
10.30—Max Baer in "Lucky Smith" Sketch—WEAF
11.00—Horace Heidt's Orch.—WGN
11.30—Ray Noble's Orch.—WJZ

TUESDAY

11.45—Al and Lee Reiser, piano duo —WEAF.
12.00—The Three Scamps—WEAF
1.15—Radio Gossip Club—WGR
1.30—Music Guild—WEAF
1.30—Rex Battle's Orch.—CRCT
2.30—Three Flats—WJZ.
3.00—Harmony Trio—WABC
3.30 Nellie Revell Interviews—WJZ
4.00—Betty and Bob—WJZ.
5.30—Singing Lady—Wjz.
7.15—Midwest Hymn Sing—WEAF
8.30—News; Jim Hunter—WGR
7.00—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF
7.15—Tony Wakeley—WJZ.
7.30—Jacki Heller, Tenor—WEAF
8.00—Lou Gehrman's Orch—WEAF
9.00—"Lavender and Old Lace"—WJZ.
8.00—Crime Clues—WJZ
8.30—Wayne King's Orch—WEAF
8.30—To Be Announced—WABC
8.30—Edgar A. Guest—WJZ
9.00—Hey Bernie—WEAF.
9.30—Eddy Duchin's Orch—WEAF
9.30—Ozzie Nelson's Orch.—WABC
9.30—Goldman Band Concert—WJZ
10.00—Beauty Box Theatre. At Goodman's Orch.—WEAF
10.00—To Be Announced—WJZ.
13.15—Jesse Crawford, organist. —

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Stage Another Popular Money-Saving Event Tuesday!

DOLLAR DAY

Sanette Cans

With galvanized inside pail, which can be removed. Cream colored outside container; fook treadle at bottom for lifting lid. Each . . . . . Basement

1.00

Hot Plates

One burner type, with 660 watt element. Colored body, on nickelled legs. Terminal guard ventilated preventing plug overheating. Lem cord, each

1.00

— Basement

Nonelled

Grass Rugs

The size that is in demand for cottages, or verandahs, or sun porches. Well made, with stencilled designs in blue, green or brown, on natural colored ground. 2 floral and modernistic designs in the group. Sizes 6' 6" x 7' 6". Special, each

1.00

— Main floor, rear

Double Bed Size

Bleached Cotton Sheets

Plain hemmed cotton sheets, snow white and in double bed size, 72" x 90". You'll want these for summer and fall use, stock up now. Each . . . .

1.00

— Main floor, centre

Folding Camp Stools

These stools are made with seat of canvas. Folding type, for slipping into car easily. Good size.

3 for 1.00

Ruffled Scrim Curtains

3 pairs 1.00

Cream or white ground, with colored stitchings in blue, rose, green or yellow. Size 17-18" x 2 yards long. Put up new hangings in the kitchen, bathroom or bedroom at a big saving on Tuesday.

24-35" Figured Drapery Chintz

In attractive floral patterns on blue or black ground. 24-35" wide and advantageously priced Dollar Day at

9 yards 1.00

Unfinished Medicine Cabinets

Of unfinished beas wood with mirror on front of door and fitted with two shelves. Size 11½" x 18".

Each 1.00

Awning Stripe Material

3 yards 1.00

Put up those gay striped awnings at this low price, you can well afford to! Of sturdy awning duck, 29-36" wide in self-toned green or brown stripe. Buy your needs Dollar Day.

Folding Card Tables

With black fibre top and green painted legs and rim. Folds up compactly to be put away when not in use. Standard size, about 29½" x 29½". Each 1.00

— Main floor, rear

Plain Hemmed Cotton Sheets

Snow white bleach, size 68" by 86 inches.

Each 1.00

— Main floor, rear

Mixing Bowl Sets

Nest porcelain, assortment of 5 graduated sized bowls handy any kitchen.

Set 1.00

18 Pc. Tea Sets

Ideal for cottages or summer camps, 6 cups, 6 plates, 6 saucers. In blue windmill design on a creamy white ground. Set

1.00

— Basement

Galvanized Pails

5 for 1.00

Handy 4 quart size, strongly made and very durable.

— Basement

4-string Corn Brooms

3 for 1.00

Kettles

Scotch grey enamelware kettles, in 7 quart size. At

2 for 1.00

Mop and Broom Set

Reversible dust mop, and 12 inch push broom. The set of two

for 1.00

— Basement

Table Oilcloth Squares

Our best quality table oilcloth five coating assure long service. Three pretty designs in blue, green and yellow as recommending shades. 54" x 54", and wonderful value. Each 1.00

— Main floor, centre

Boys' Brown Duck Running Boots

Lace-to-toe style, of sturdy brown duck, with thick rubber sole and made with wide protectors. First quality boots, specially priced for Dollar Day. Sizes 1 to 5. At . . . . . 2 pair 1.00

— Men's Store, rear

Tennis Balls

3 for 1.00

1935 stock, approved by the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association. Will stand lots of use. For hard court play.

— Basement

Cotton Sheeting

3 yards 1.00

Sturdy well woven sheeting, 72" wide, at this price means stocking up your chests

— Main floor, rear

Fibre Window Shades

3 for 1.00

Cream and green only in these splitwood fibre shades, mounted on a strong spring roller and fitted with all necessary hanging equipment. Size 36" x 72".

— Main floor, rear

Linen Cream Cloths

Size 52" x 68", a limited quantity only at this price so plan on early shopping. Sturdy crash linen with a dash of color in their hand borders. Excellent for everyday service and saving good wear. The borders in blue, green, rose or mauve. Dollar

Day, each 1.00

Stamped Cotton Pillow Cases

4 for 1.00

Of snowy white cotton, even and strong in weave. Hemstitched on ends, and 42-inch size. Buy several at this price, Dollar Day.

— Main floor, centre

Men's Half Hose

4 pairs 1.00

Of fine cotton and rayon yarns, in black, blue, grey, or tan. Reinforced heel and toe makes for long wear. Elastic snug fitting top that will appeal to men for summer wear. Sizes 10 to 11½.

Odd Lines Men's Comb. Underwear

2 for 1.00

Odd sizes in two popular lines of summer underwear, priced for big savings Tuesday! In short and long sleeves with long legs. A fine cotton underwear that is ideal for summer wear. Sizes in the lot from 36 to 42.

— Men's Store

Men's Fine Linen Handkerchiefs

12 for 1.00

At 12 for 1.00 they are amazingly good value. Superb quality linen, snow white with neat hemstitched edge. A generous size, too, about 17".

Chinese Lace Cloths

Of sturdy cotton yarns in soft warm shade, all hand made. Intricate designs make them exceedingly popular. They're a big saving at 1.00 each. Size also about 72 x 90." A limited quantity only. Save! Each 1.00

Stamped Bath Towels.

Soft, well napped cotton bath towels with stamped ends for working. Colored borders of rose, blue, green or mauve. About 21" x 42" in size. A feature 5 for 1.00 at . . . . . Main floor, centre

Men's Fine Shirts

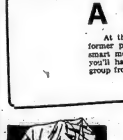
Sturdy cotton broadcloths tailor these, in plain shades of blue or tan or white. Full bodied, with collar attached. Excellent value at this price. Full range of sizes from 14 to 17. At

2 for 1.00

— Men's Store

Men's Pyjamas

Of fine cotton broadcloth in fancy stripes, or solid tones. Well cut and smartly finished. Sizes 36 to 43. Dollar Day, each



1.00

— Men's Store

A Rousing Sale of Women's Summer Shoes

At this price there'll be crowds of thrifty shoppers at the doors . . . sharply reduced they offer substantial savings over the former pricings. White, brown, two tones, and black and white . . . of good quality leathers, including some fabric shoes in smart mesh effect. Designed for summer wear and all fitted with leather soles. Wonderful Value—No Dollar Day Bargain Table about this group! You'll have to come early! See the windows for a representative showing of just what this fine group contains. Sizes in the group from 3 to 8. Dollar Day, pair 1.00

— Men's Store, rear

Seconds in Women's Silk Hosiery

Of real thread silk, full fashioned, clear and firm, silk to the very hem! You'll like the smart costume shades they come in for wearing right now or later. Mocoa (light brown), Nutmeg (medium brown), Spokesmist (smoky grey), Pawnlaupe (smoky taupe). Sizes from 8½ to 10½ in the group. A feature at . . . . . 2 pair 1.00

Women's Hose of Celanese Yarn

A serviceable hose for women fashioned from celanese yarns. First quality, in popular shades such as Gunmetal (dark grey), Garbo Grey (med. grey), Blake (beige), Sumba (sand), Sunny (light beige). Sizes from 9 to 10 only. . . . . 4 pair 1.00

— Main floor, left

Cotton Print House Frocks

2 for 1.00

Gay or subdued in coloring, practical in cut for house wear and even for outdoor wear, cape and no sleeve styles. In floral and block designs. Sizes 36 to 44 in the lot.

— Second floor.

Odds and Ends Pullovers and Blouses

Wool or wool and rayon pullovers and cotton and rayon blouses in the group of odds and ends, and you'll snap them up quickly if we could mention regular prices! A few twin sweater sets are also in the group. Various colors to choose from, to suit misses 14 to 20 in the group. Each . . . 1.00

— Second floor

Odds and Ends of Infants' Wearables

Odds and ends of infants' wearables, such as dresses, rompers, embroidered pillow covers, etc. Some remnants as cotton voiles, rayons and fine cottons are in the group. Infants' sizes only, i. e. 3 years. Clearing at, each . . . 1.00

— Second Floor

Boys' Blouses

2 for 1.00

Of fine cotton broadcloth, in fancy blue or tan stripes. Buy several for your lad to be in from 8 to 14 years old. They tub up well.

Clearing! Smart Summer Hats

Cotton piques, linens, etc., style these smart hats for summer months, and Tuesday they are at a special clearing price! Brimmed styles, large brims or small, sailors, and sporty shapes, in white and a host of pretty pastels. Early shopping is important at this low marking. Each 1.00

— Second floor.

Broken Lines of Summer Frocks

Here are smart, wearable frocks that can be worn for several months yet, priced to induce early shopping Tuesday! Angel-skin (rayon) crepes or cotton prints, in short sleeve and sleeveless, featured in white and a wealth of pretty printed effects, 14 to 38 in the group — and very limited quantity of each. Act promptly Tuesday morning. Each 1.00

— Second floor

Girls' Summer Frocks

Celanese crepe, cotton voiles and cotton prints, makes a wonderfully complete selection to choose from — clever, good looking styles for summer wear, with short cape and no sleeves, 7 to 14 in the group, in many smart colorings. Real value, one that demands early shopping. Each 1.00

— Second floor.

Save on Lingerie!

Rayon Crepes, Silk Crepes and Rayon Materials

feature this group, and included are PANTIES, DANCE SETS, SLIPS, ONE PIECE PYJAMAS. Tailored garments garments with lacy trimmings are here, and the colorings, too, are in a good assortment. Sizes small, medium and large in the lot. Clearing each or set 1.00

—Second floor

WEATHER
Fair today and Wednesday becoming warmer; moderate winds today, shifting to southerly on Wednesday.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES

	Max.	Min.
Today	75	57
One year ago	78	50

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, TUESDAY, JULY 16, 1935

NAVAL STRENGTH OF BRITAIN REVIEWED BY KING

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

—Woodstock, Ont., July 16 (CP) Motorists here are wondering over a sign intended by the city for motorists.

The sign was placed at the outskirts of the city, but is located on the wrong side of the street directly at the entrance of Woodstock cemetery.

It reads: "Goodbye and good luck."

—Clinton, Ont., July 16 (CP)—Perhaps it was the heat. Provincial Chief Jo. Cree who investigated smoke pouring from a grocery store found the cause in an electric refrigerator on fire, when the motor which generates current for ice cubes burned out.

—London, Ont., July 16 (CP)—Lt. Col. Thomas Harry Smith's day off, so when his car caught fire, he didn't put it out himself — he called the fire department. While "the boys" put out the blaze, Smith sat in the yard and enjoyed the activities.

—Alberni, Texas, July 16 (CP)—Leh Raley, 13, walked from her home in Alberni to Raley, a distance on a paved highway.

Other Nichols, astride, thought she was a good place to paper. He threw over one horse.

Her cook and broiler were only recovered.

—Oklahoma City, July 16 (CP)—A bloodstream injection of a solution of salts—the common household variety—has been credited with having checked the venom of a black widow spider's bite.

Charles Meyers, 34, a farmer, was brought to a hospital here today, several hours after he was bitten. His condition was termed serious. Dr. J. T. Hicks, who made the injection, said "the main thing to be in a case of this kind is calm."

—Alliston, Ont., July 16 (AP) — Five-year-old William Erb of Holidaysburg broke his leg again yesterday—for the fifth time.

His mother, Mrs. Samuel Erb, left the boy in the care of the family car as she went into a store to shop.

Upon her return William cried: "Mama, I've broken my leg again."

Physicians say the child's bones are very brittle due to a lack of calcium in his body.

—Topeka, Kan., July 16 (CP) — A mother cat killed a two-headed kitten a few minutes after it was born here yesterday. The strange kitchen born in the same litter were normal.

—Poplar Bluff, Mo., July 16 — (CP)—It was the Hillard-Naldendling day of the year in baseball circles here yesterday. Hillard-Naldendling are the names of Mrs. Hillard-Naldendling who pooled their baseball batting averages in the game while pursuing a long fly.

Lady fans caught their breath and turned their shoulders as Mrs. Hillard, 54, emerged from his crescent. His teammates quickly gathered around and whitewashed to five wags stings.

GEORGE SPROULE, BRAMPTON, DIES

Noted Lacrosse Player, And Born at Napanee

Brampton, Ont., July 16—(CP)—George Sproule, 64, well known lacrosse player of this district 60 miles northwest of Toronto, died last night after an operation for cancer of the throat. Born in Napanee, he was a member of many Canadian championship lacrosse teams. He is survived by his wife and three daughters.

Sproule played coverpoint on the Brantford Excelsiors when they defeated New Westminster in 1890 for the Dominion lacrosse championship. He was the first winner of the James Murphy Memorial Trophy, awarded annually to the most valuable player in the league.

He was also a member of the Brampton team that went to the coast in 1913. They were beaten on that trip, but later Sproule was a member of three Canadian championship teams.

His playing days gradually ended after 1920 when, in the second game of the New Westminster series he broke his ankle, while scoring a goal. He only took part in three or four games for the Excelsiors, who won the championship, the next year.

TREKKERS STAY ADDITIONAL DAY IN QUEEN CITY

Parade to Riverdale Park Will End at That Place

FURTHER ORGANIZATION

Premier Hepburn Postponed Visit to Homes of Unemployed

Toronto, July 16 (CP)—Trekkers in the "On-to-Ottawa" march will remain at least one more day in Toronto, officials declared here today.

Edward O. Humphries and W. G. Harris stated definitely today the parade from Queen's Park to Riverdale Park would end at the latter place and there would not be a move to extend the parade to the Ottawa route.

Reports last night declared the trekkers were considering moving out of the city under cover of the parade.

Leaders slated postponement of the march was necessary for further organization.

At headquarters just before the Queen's Park demonstration today an application was made out for a second parade permit for tomorrow.

"But this time we are not asking even if the permit is granted," Humphries declared.

Leaders said if the permit was not issued there would be no demonstration which would result in police action.

Toronto, July 16 (CP)—So that he can be "on the job" if any trouble develops out of the proposed Ottawa hunger march, Premier Hepburn is again postponing his projected visit to homes of unemployed in several parts of the province, he announced today.

Although the Ontario Government is continuing its policy of non-interference with the On-to-Ottawa trekkers, he is being provided with complete reports of the progress of the march.

CROSSING HIGHWAY IS STRUCK BY CAR

Brockville, Ont., July 16 (CP) — Struck by a car while crossing No. 2 highway at Smithland yesterday, Mrs. Jean MacCallum of that place, was admitted to the General Hospital last night. She observed that after having suffered cuts and bruises, they suffered from Miss Catherine Russell, Prescott.

Falls From Freight, Is Badly Shaken Up

Brockville, Ont., July 16 (CP) — Falling from a freight train as it was leaving the Manitoba yard of the C.N.R here, Nick Nester, Edmonton, Alta., was injured and was taken to St. Vincent De Paul Hospital last night suffering from a shaking up. His condition is not considered serious.

Swallowing River Water is Blamed For Typhoid

Windsor, Ont., July 16—(CP)—Despite the repeated warnings of Dr. Fred Adams, against the danger of disease as the result of bathing in the Detroit River, two children have contracted typhoid. The two little girls, Helen and Oreen Badder went in for a swim and Dr. Adams is convinced they swallowed river water.

They are the first case of typhoid here this year.

THINK FUGITIVE WILLIAM DAINARD

Two Policemen Killed While Searching Bank Robber

Tacoma, Wash, July 16.—(AP)—Department of Justice agents joined searchers today in the search for the slayer of two Puyallup policemen, while some authorities expressed the belief the fugitive was William Dainard, alleged "brains" of the Seattle-Tacoma bank robber holdup.

Police highways blocked by police; searchers plunged through underbrush in the Puyallup Valley hoping to trap the killer, who shot the officers, while they were seeking a stolen car.

The victims were chief of Police Frank Chadwick and Patrolman Harry W. Sloven.

The officers were killed in a burst of gunfire in a road outside Puyallup, while they were searching for a stolen car.

Dainard is wanted on a $5,000 Ontario State Bank of $500.

HOUSING SCHEME SOON TO OPERATE

Possible to Borrow up to Eighty Percent of Cost

Ottawa, July 16 (CP)—Within a matter of weeks it will be possible for a prospective home builder in Canada to secure a loan up to 80 per cent of the cost, over a long term and at a low interest rate—through the operations of the housing scheme set at the last session of parliament.

Administration of the Act is being rapidly whipped into shape under direction of Prime Minister R. B. Bennett and Dr. W. C. Clark, Deputy Minister. It is anticipated that it will be early in August when announce the list of approved loaning companies and the conditions upon whom borrowers may apply for benefits under the Act.

Administration of the Act will deal directly with loaning companies and there will be no special government body set up to deal with the public. An official of the Department of Finance will have specific charge of the government's loans to companies and they will deal with companies only and they will function under the Act in accordance with contracts between them and the government.

'League a Corpse by Jan. 1st' If Ethiopia Not Forced Out

Italian Newspaper Says Italy Will Quit League If That Step is Not Taken

Rome, July 16—(CP-Havas)—Italy will quit the League of Nations if it is not forced out before Jan. 1, and a League member by Jan. 1, an unsigned article attributed to Premier Benito Mussolini declared today in Popolo D'Italia, Milan newspaper founded by Il Duce.

A warning that Italy would brook no interference from any source in pursuing its military plans appeared in the newspaper Il Messagero in an article on the 10 new submarines for which plans have just been announced.

The Milan article on the League and Ethiopia was written in an Italian sense of a member of the League on Jan. 1 the League was no more than its handsome new palace in Geneva, the article said.

"There are still five months, and that is a long time in these days. Perhaps the League will arrive at that date with a new mentality, deprived of an unrecognized guest, or else reduced to the state of a corpse, as we have known."

"Perhaps, too, the new palace will be an empty building. A temple without ideals, that will bear witness for young peoples to the incomprehension of the League of Nations, which will show that, when one will not reconcile the true hierarchies of justice and power, the right of wealth sets ends up in a pathetic and unlovely fashion."

Warning that Italy would withstand all pressure also came in an article in the newspaper Lavoro Fascista inspired by the laying-down of new naval keels announced yesterday.

"Italy," said the newspaper, "that Italy is ready for an eventuality. She intends to make everyone understand that we are disposed to stand for any more or less clear-cut violation of sanctions from where ever it may come."

Meanwhile plans for pushing Italian troops in Italy itself are to include the greatest peace-time war manoeuvres ever held by the Italian army. Four separate Italian warunits will take part in shams battles on four fronts, from the lower passes of the Tyrrols, Alps and the Yugoslav and Austrian borders south to Naples. Seven divisions are to centre on Bologna, pure Austrian territory but now in Italy.

THOUSANDS SEE MOON ECLIPSED BY EARTH SHADE

Most Beautiful of Celestial Sights is Observed

FEW CLOUDS PASS

Scientists Find No Trace of Precipitaton on Moon in Eclipse

Standing on back door steps and front verandahs, thousands of residents of the city who kept a late night vigil last evening observed one of the most remarkable phenomena when the light of the full moon in an undimmed blaze faded to a dull orange as the earth passed between it and the sun.

The spectacle which was of considerable duration was one of the most striking of the few eclipses amateur astronomers of this district have been privileged to see.

Unlike an eclipse of the sun, the moon was not blotted out entirely by a sharp shadow but was merely shaded by the earth. To pass in front of the sun which bent themselves around to earth gave a lurid tinge of blood red to the moon.

The eclipse was first witnessed in the city at about 11:45 with from which time the first shadows gradually lengthened and different degrees were able to secure many clear pictures of the phenomena as it repeated today.

New York, July 16 (AP)—The moon, totally eclipsed by the earth, shone copper-colored from refracted rays of the sun, as it passed into a celestial spectacle that kept millions up past midnight.

The eclipse was the longest visible in Canada and the United States in 38 years. There will not be another of such length for another half century.

The phenomenon came with direct alignment of sun, earth and moon, the moon sliding through the earth's umbral cone, which extended 860,000 miles into space, at a point approximately 236,000 miles away.

Eclipse Begins

The moon touched the penumbra in which part of the sun's light is cut off, at 10.15 p.m. E.D.T., and reached the umbra, or inner part of the shadow at 11.13 p.m.

By 12.09 it was in total eclipse, merging fro mthe other side of the earth's shadow on the west horizon, later, and clearing the penumbra at 2.35 a.m.

The refracted rays from the sun, which gave the eclipsed moon a dark phosphorescent glow, are what made it still visible, were bent around and directed to the earth's surface by refracting substances about the earth's surface.

No Change in Craters

Williams Bay Ki., July 16 (CP)—Astronomical observers at Yerkes Observatory said today they learned during the lunar eclipse last night that there had been no change in the craters on the surface of the moon since the last time it was covered by the earth's shadow.

"No previous observations," Dr. G. Van Biesbrock said, "there were observed some craters on the dark surface, and we had expected to find others this time, but as far as we could learn, there had been none."

Neither, he said, did scientists who watched the astronomical event from the University of Chicago's observatory here, find any evidence of the truth of a theory that there was a precipitation on the moon during the eclipse.

"The basis for the theory," he explained, "is that during the sudden cooling of the moon in the earth's shadow, some sort of a moisture probably collects on the surface, existed. But we found no suggestion of such thing."

Ne Photographs at Dunlap

Toronto, July 16 (CP)— No photographs were taken of observations made at Dunlap Observatory, Richmond Hill, during the lunar eclipse with the eclipse of the moon, Professor R. K. Young said last night. The telescope at the observatory is the largest in the British Empire but the eclipse was not seen better with the naked eye, Professor Young said.

The observatory staff is engaged in a study of the surface of the stars and is not interested in the moon which is classed as a "natural event."

FISHERMEN ESCAPE COMBER

Saint John, N.B., July 16 (CP) — Two fishermen in Saint John harbor narrowly escaped death early this afternoon when a comber overturned their boat and smashed it to bits against the rocks on Partridge Island. The fishermen, named McGill and Jennings, were fortunate enough to land unharmed on a small beach on the island.

25 INCARCERATED AT COUNTY JAIL

With a total of twenty-five prisoners now incarcerated, accommodations at the Hastings County Jail are taxed. The present number confined was reported today by Jail Governor French to be a high average, considering the fact that the average population during the cold months.

"I can't explain it, but we always seem to have a lot more prisoners during the summer months," commented Governor French.

Ex-Taxi Driver Appointed

Galt, Ont., July 6—(CP)— A. H. McFadyen, former taxi-proprietor has been appointed cemetery superintendent at a salary of $1,200 a year, succeeding A. W. Gibson.

INSOLENCE SAID CAUSE OF RIOTS

Jews Mistreated And Abused by Nazis in Berlin

Berlin, July 16.— (CP-Havas)— Quiet prevailed in Berlin today in the wake of the anti-Jewish outbreaks which disturbed Kurfuerstendamm, Nollendorf and other districts.

The rioting lasted two hours as a mob of nearly 1,000 Nazis pursued and beat Jews here and there and ejected Jews. It died down suddenly at midnight after the establishment a number of persons were arrested.

The communique issued by the official German News Bureau describing the disturbances as a popular and spontaneous manifestation, was preceded by the insolence of the Jews. Anti-Jewish demonstrations occurred also in other quarters of Berlin. In the Nollendorfplatz district, inhabited by working men, the Nazis systematically invaded cafes and restaurants, where patrons were questioned and many of them mistreated.

According to witnesses, the trouble began when a storm trooper hailed a Jew passing a theatre, Asking him standing in anti-Jewish film, The Nazi was arrested but released later.

Nazis Protest

The Nazi newspaper Der Angriff yesterday afternoon invited Nazis to protest energetically against the "provocations" nightfall. The capital was filled with brown-shirted storm troopers standing in groups in company with the regular police patrols.

As word of the disorders spread, people flocked into the Kurfurstendamm, the fashionable promenading place for Jews. Attackers were beaten up and man they believed resembled a Jew. Cries of "Down with the Jews" and "Purge the Jews out" resounded through the streets.

Riot cars rushed fifty-two detachments of helmeted police to the scene. Jews standing in sidewalk cafe a scene of desolation, tables overturned, chairs broken, windows smashed. The crowd defied the police and his uniformed colleagues. his revolver his comrades persuading him to put it back in its holster.

On the Ku-Damm, the main fashionable resort of the Kurfuerstendamm, the cry "Here comes a foreigner". His pursuers ceased the chase, allowing him to "become a citizen".

Many of the raiders were Brown shirts under their coats and wore the boots of storm troopers.

STEVENS OPENS CAMPAIGN JULY 19

Reconstructionist Leader Will Speak at Hamilton

Hamilton, Ont., July 16 (CP) — Hon. H. H. Stevens, leader of Canada's New Construction Party, will open his national campaign in Hamilton on Friday night, July 19.

This announcement was made today by Mr. Stevens' secretary, Fred Vlot-Chairman of the Stevens' Hamilton committee, and Controller Norm Frances Henderson, Acting Chairman of the Hamilton Committee.

Mr. Stevens, it was stated, is to fire his opening guns at a public meeting in the Hamilton Auditorium. Plans of the chairman of other possible meetings were among the details which had not been completed. It was known, however, that Warren K. Cook, Toronto Dominion Chairman of the Reconstructive party, would be present and in all probability be one of the speakers.

SAGA OF SACRIFICE TOLD BY 2 GIRLS ADRIFT ON BARGE

Guide Jumps to Save Boy Who Fell Overboard

GUIDE CALLS HELP

Mother of Children Dives in to Help And Drowns

Ilowanna Lake, N.Y., July 16—(AP)—Two little girls, who drifted, crying, through a fierce storm, told a tragic story today of how their mother, a guide and a seven year old boy drowned before a storm broke yesterday.

Seven-year-old Joseph Middleton, Brooklyn, fell overboard from a motor barge when he tried to retrieve a rubber ball. Mother Von Ness Moe, 36, the guide, stopped the boat and dove after him.

Through their wars the two girls, Cornelia Schwarz, seven, and Henrietta Schwarz, her sister, three, told State Police that Van Ree held the boy up for a few minutes and then both disappeared.

"Then mother dove in to help him," Cornelia said.

The mother, Mrs. Lillian Prentiss Schwarz of Scarsdale, was not able to help, and drowned with the guide and the boy.

The story came up soon after ward with violence that causes damaging flood in northern New York.

Clarence Collier, another guide, went out in a speedboat to find out what the barge crew had reported. He discovered it in a marsh, swept there by the wind. "The two frightened children told him what had happened.

Vatican Protests German Failure

VATICAN CITY, July 16—(AP)—It was learned today the Vatican has protested strongly to the German Government against its fusure to carry out terms of the Concordat with the Vatican.

JAPS RETALIATE AGAINST CANADA

50 Per Cent Surtax Approved by Cabinet at Tokyo

Tokyo, July 16 (C.P. Cable) —The Japanese Government has approved a surtax of 50 per cent. on commodities constituting Canada's chief export trade in retaliation against alleged Canadian discrimination of Japanese goods.

Tokyo, July 16 (CP)—Decision of Japan to impose a surtax on imports from Canada is regarded here as a direct blow at the Canada-Japan trade agreement with respect to the trade situation.

Low production costs in Japan and vigorous trade policies of that country, combined with the depreciated value of the yen have resulted in Japanese competition which Canadian manufacturers have found disturbing, officials here have stated.

Negotiations are understood to be still in progress, but whether or not they are successful has not been learned. Canada's principal item of lumber; paper and wood pulp to Japan are appreciable.

CHIEF OF POLICE REINSTATED IN POST

Leamington, Ont., July 16—(CP)— Chief of Police Thomas Lamarsh, who was suspended indefinitely on July 9 for laxity in performance of his duties, was reinstated by the town council last night, upon recommendation of the police committee.

His suspension had been ordered by the police committee, as a result of ring in camera and was caused by his failure to act promptly,it is claimed, on a gas station robbery.

Sailor Monarch Reviews Strength of Empire Navy In 5 - Mile Long Lines

Quarter of Million People Line Shore at Portsmouth

KING IS CHEERED

Home And Mediterranean Fleets Stretch For Miles

Portsmouth, England, July 16.—(CP Cable) — The Empire's sailor King reviewed his fleet today.

Standing on the bridge of the Royal Yacht Victoria and Albert as she slowly steamed through Portsmouth Harbor, the King saw five-mile long lines of grim gray ships, mammoth battleships and battlecruisers, aircraft carriers, scouting cruisers, destroyers and submarines and satellites lying in the steely sunlit-waters.

Beyond were great merchantmen and on the extreme right of the line marking the turning point for the Royal Yacht lay the ninth Lumenberg Schooner Bluenose, champion of North American fleets over North Atlantic fleets ever here on an exhibition tour.

People Wildly Cheer

On shore, as the Royal Yacht moved away, packed masses of people wildly cheered and cheered again their greetings. All day thousands and more thousands arriving to swell the crowds that had been there all night in the open. It was estimated a quarter of a million persons lined the shore between Southsea and Gosport-the-Gosport of which stretched the combined circuit of the home and the Mediterranean fleets.

(Continued on Page 7).

20 Million Trees To be Planted in West

Ottawa, July 16—(CP)—Preparations have been completed to provide 20,000,000 yearling trees for planting on the prairies next year. They are grown at the forestry nursery stations of the Dominion Department of Agriculture at Indian Head and Sutherland Sask. These stations this year provided the prairies farmers with 8,000,000 trees.

Tree plantings will be one of the important features of the campaign to rehabilitate the drought areas of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, Hon. Robert Weir will leave Ottawa tonight for the west where he will inspect the progress of this campaign.for which parliament last session provided $500,000

GUTHRIE OUTLINES MATT SHAW CASE

Difficulties With Toronto Police Magistrates is Related

OTTAWA, July 16.— (CP)—Minister of Labour Hon. Norman Rogers issued a statement outlining the circumstances under which Matt Shaw, one of the British Columbia hunger marchers was arrested in Toronto for the Regina riots under section 98 of the Criminal Code. Mr. Rogers' statement followed with the Toronto Police Magistrates before reaching the Regina jail.

Warrant for the arrest had been issued in Regina, the minister said, but before it could be executed Shaw had left for Toronto. He was subsequently arrested there at the request of Regina authorities on a message the police officer was sent to Toronto with the warrant to make Shaw return back to Regina. A police magistrate in Toronto advised the officer that he had been instructed from Ontario Attorney General not to endorse the warrant, under Section 98, 653 of the Criminal Code for the reason such endorsation.

"On Friday of last week," the minister said ,"word was received by Department of Justice of the refusal of the Toronto Magistrate to endorse the warrant, and telegrams were sent to the Crown Agent of the Department in Toronto to appear before the Magistrate together with the Constable and make formal application for endorsement of the warrant in accordance with the provisions of Section 653.

"Yesterday afternoon, word was received from the Crown Agent of the Department of Justice that the Magistrate had refused to endorse the warrant to compel the return of Matt Shaw to Regina to answer the charge laid against him before the police magistrate there."

Gasoline Price War Rages in Montreal

Montreal, July 16 (CP)—Montreal's gasoline price war was on again today when several of the old companies announced a cut in the price of their first and second grades of gasoline, and the independents reduced their prices to 17½ cents a gallon for their second grade.

In Verdun, a garage owner announced he would give two gallons of gasoline away with every purchase of a gallon of motor oil, which he offered at a price about 10 cents below the usual level.

Officials of the St. Lawrence Oil Company, the company which started the present price war, stated they were not putting prices up regardless of what the other companies were doing.

BURY KINGSMILL AT PORTLAND, ONT.

One of Few Canadians to Reach Flag Rank Laid to Rest

Portland, Ont, July 16.—(CP)— Admiral Sir Charles Kingsmill, one of the few Canadians to achieve flag rank in the Royal Navy, was buried in the little village cemetery in this Rideau lake county. The funeral of the distinguished sailor was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Commodore Percy W. Nelles, director of Naval Services, represented the Canadian Navy. Ti aldakdsa also were Pay Commander J. O. Cossmann, Secretary, and Lieutenant Commander A. D. Grant. A number of the late Admiral's friends from Ottawa attended.

The service was conducted by Rev. H. O. Coleman, rector of the Anglican Church at Portland.

Montreal-North Men Go Back to Work

Montreal, July 16—(CP)—Several of their demands taken under advisement by their employers, some 400 relief workers of Montreal-North, a suburban town, who have been on strike since last Monday noon returned to work at their former salaries at 10 cents per hour, today.

The men had refused to work unless they received an increase to $1 per day, plus relief, but threats of striking them off the relief lists of the town, it is added to bringing them back on the job.

WEATHER

Toronto, July 16—(CP)—In western provinces the weather was fair yesterday and very warm in Alberta and Saskatchewan, but it has been cooler today with some showers in Alberta. Prospects are fair for the Atlantic and Pacific coast and for the remainder of the region but for month of Manitoba.

Forecasts: Moderate Ontario; Moderate southwesterly winds; fair today and most of Wednesday, becoming warmer.

Coming Events

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN — DON'T forget Riley's Tuesday night dances start to-night. Come along and help make this dance a success. Free bus leaves Bridge and Coleman streets at 8 o'clock sharp. 7-16-1t

ANNUAL KELLY REUNION PICNIC to be held at Oak Lake on Friday, July 19th, 1935. Bus will leave Tweed at 10 A.M. Sharp. 15-16-1t

JITTERBUGS AT TWEED EVERY night every Wednesday night. Admission 35c. 15-16-1t

LIBERAL MEETING SOUTH END Yacht Club tonight. Cards, refreshments, speakers. All Dems interested in the election of Charles Cameron are asked to attend.

DANCE WEDNESDAY, JULY 17, at Tabaloma on the Lake, one mile from the Corbi Beach. Good Harmony orchestra. Admission 50c. Everybody welcome. 16-1t

THURSDAY NIGHT, JULY 18, 8 o'clock Garden Party and Concert, Ruth's Island School. Admission 25c. Children 10c Proceeds Belleville Mission (Anglican.)

DANCE TOMORROW NIGHT (Wednesday) at the Cedars'. Admission 25c. Good music. Jitney dancing. Sponsored by Chamiften Ball Club. 7-16-1t

City and District News

SUCCESSFUL PUPILS AT MUSIC EXAMS

The following pupils of Bessie Handley, A.T.C.M. were successful in passing Toronto Conservatory of Music examinations.

Piano—

Intermediate—Reta Clarke, Junior—Beth Galley.

Primary—Nesbit Sharpe, Doris Hinton, Anita Cavanagh.

Theory—

V.—Harmony — Laurel Arndt.

Grade III. Harmony — Dorothy Orvil (honors).

Grade II. Rudiments—Adelaide Powers, (first class honors), Kathrine Hogle (honors).

SWEET CORN SOLD ON MART TODAY

Tuesday's market was well attended with fruit and vegetables being the chief products offered for sale, sweet corn also made its first appearance. Mrs. Percy Johnson, who resides in the 6th concession of Sidney township, was the vendor, and her supply was quickly disposed of at 25 cents per dozen ears. The sample was all that could have been desired.

TWEED IS HIT BY HAIL STORM

Tweed district was visited by a hail storm last evening. Pieces of hail were broken down by hail stones and damage to gardens was extensive.

FIREMEN READY FOR TEST RUN

Firemen of No. 1 Station were standing to with part of their apparatus in the station this morning in anticipation of a test run to the local hospital following the completion of the installation of the automatic alarm system at that institution the alarm from which has been installed by the Dominion Alarm Company will be sounded in the boiler fire station and will be entirely automatic in action, governed primarily by the temperature in the hospital and nurses' home.

COMMENCE WORK ON CLERK'S OFFICE

City council chambers today in session all day were being prevailed into serve as a temporary office for the occupancy of the office of the city clerk, while remodelling work is being carried on in that office. First work of importance will be wall paper and saddling the wooden trim of the office was commenced this morning by decorators.

HEAT CAUSE OF WALKS HEAVING

Department of public works officials of the city during the past week or so have been busy at work on hand with a new problem. During the recent heat wave sections of sidewalk in various parts of the city have been literally ex-ploding under the extension and contraction of the concrete through the heat has resulted in considerable heaving resulting in some work for employees of the repair crew.

ROUTINE BUSINESS AT PARKS BOARD

A regular meeting of the Parks Board was held last evening in the city building presided over by Chairman G. J. Symons. The routine business transacted was purely of a routine nature only, specially being brought forward.

Parish Appreciates Gift of Litany Book

Rev. A. L. Geen has received from the secretary of the Rectory board of the parish of Tyendinaga, a letter expressing the gratitude of the congregation of Christ Church, Tyendinaga for the kindness in presenting the church with a handsome Litany book. We all appreciate this very thoughtful generosity, not only on this occasion but through the long years that are past," the communication states.

It Pays to Shop at the Recall Store

KLENZO COTTON

FOLDERS AS IT CLEANS

FOR AUTOMOBILES AND FURNITURE

59c

McKeown's Drug Store

EVERY DAY LOW PRICES

Not a special Sale once in a year, but a steady saving every hour prices—that's the I.D.A. Policy.

SAVE SAFELY AT YOUR

I.D.A. DRUG STORES

SHOP AT ZELLERS IT PAYS

SPECIAL OFFER

LADIES' HALF SOLES AND HEELS

Tie Complete

MEN'S HALF SOLES AND HEELS

$1.98 Complete

Tilbrook's

MODERN SHOE REPAIR SHOP

113 Front St. Phone 411

Boots Called for and Delivered

J-18-tf

CUT FLOWERS

Gladiola, Delphinium, Snapdragon, Marigolds, Gaillardia, Asters, etc.

E. E. MUNNINGS

Quinte Gardens 128 MacDonald Ave., Near Dundas St. Ph. 1382

Our Changes in Fruit Prices on City Market

There were few changes to note in prices of farm and garden products offered for sale on the market on Tuesday. Raspberries were quite plentiful selling at 20c per box and two boxes for 35c. Cherries sold from 50c to 60c a basket according to quality; gooseberries 20c a quart, and strawberries 18c a box, two boxes for 35c. The ruling prices for new potatoes were 30c and 35c per peck.

T-O-D-A-Y and WEDNESDAY ALINE MacMAHON GUY KIBBEE "WHILE THE PATIENT SLEPT" 2nd. Feature "LILY OF KILLARNEY" A musical romance of Old Ireland

Starts THURSDAY

The Startling sensational story of U.S. government agents and desperate criminals.

"G-MEN" with JAMES CAGNEY

DINNER WARE TODAY

Every Lady Patron receives a Beautiful piece, of De Barry pattern china.

CAPITOL

FEW WARDS LEFT IN C. A. SHELTER

One Alone Will Remain After Two Are Taken to Orillia

There are only two wards now in the Children's Shelter at Belleville and these are waiting to be transferred to Ontario Hospital for the whole-Minded at Orillia, stated Inspector Thos. D. Ruston in answer to a question as to the number of wards under care in the home. Another ward who is normal is in the hospital at the present time.

In the recent adoption campaign seven wards were placed out with a view to adoption, the officer said. At the plan of the Provincial department is to get the children into foster homes and have more prevailing houses for the reception of wards. It is expected that in the course of time shelters will be closing and smaller quarters secured. Asked what was going to be done with the local shelter, Mr. Ruston said that no decision had been made.

BLOOMFIELD WINS WAY TO FINALS

Debaters Will Take Part in Belleville Contest in October

Resolved "that the power of the press has increased, is increasing, and should be diminished" was the subject of an interesting debate held in the Trinity United Church on S. Monday night, July 8th when the winning team was Bloomfield who defeated Picton and Prince Edward, Bloomfield; Mr. H. T. Sherry, Picton; Mr. H. E. Morphy, Colborne, neutral judge. Fred Barnard, of Bailieboro, was chairman and the visitors were welcomed by Mr. Sherry of Colborne who regretted the absence of Rev. W. P. Woodger, pastor of Colborne United Church, who is in camp with boys of the church.

Rev. Mr. Woodger's wife, Mrs. Jessie Imrael expressed the pleasure of the Cobourg Presbytery in having the visitors in their midst. Mr. Barnard moved a vote of thanks to the ladies of the Trinity United Church and Miss Imrael, which was heartily endorsed.

"TERRY" SCANLAN BREAKS SHOULDER

Playing Ball With His Son And Playmates Near His Home

T. V. "Terry" Scanlan, manager of Howe and Ragerman's Hardware Company, sustained a severely fractured left shoulder while playing baseball with his son and their playmates near their Forin Street home last night. Mr. Scanlan was endeavouring to field a ball batted by his son, Jack, when he tripped and fell into his left shoulder. At the time Mr. Scanlan was under the impression that his shoulder was only scratched, but a subsequent X-ray at the surgery of Dr. McCreary showed the shoulder to be broken. The fracture was reduced last night and Mr. Scanlan is able to return to his duties as manager of Howe and Ragerman's today. Although the injured shoulder will impede his progress for some time, Dr. McCreary informed the injured man following the fracture reduced last night. Mr. Scanlan jokingly remarked to his son Jack—"If you had of believed that ball night, I might not have broken my shoulder, young man." "Yes, but if I'd have batted that ball the way you wanted me to you'd have caught me out," was the surprising reply from little Jackie.

RASPBERRIES SELL AT 20 CENTS BOX

POLICE COURT

Owing to the fact His Worship Magistrate Masson, K.C., is holding police court in Kingston today, a special session of local court was called in Belleville shortly after 11.00 p.m. last night, during which two cases were disposed.

George Patterson, One Hill, pleaded guilty to a charge of keeping liquor for sale and was sentenced to two months in the common jail.

The accused man was transported to Belleville by Provincial Constable F. Morris of Bancroft, who investigated the case and made the arrest.

WITH THE LAWN BOWLERS

by McElheran & Watkin.

At the bowling green Monday evening a mixed tournament was started impromptu. This tournament consists of three six end games. It is very popular with the members and makes a very enjoyable evening. Individual prizes are awarded to eight with the highest scores. Last night the winners were as follows.

Rev. I. B. Naylor, R. A. Backus, C. H. Hyde, H. A. Shook, E. Catcher, H. Singer, T. Morrell and Mrs. Holgate.

Will all the members take note that the time for these games is 7.30 p.m. The games committee cannot arrange the draw until all members are present. Would it not be possible for those who cannot come on time to "phone in their entry so that we can get going earlier, and not miss so much daylight? A little co-operation will help a great deal.

Don't forget Wednesday afternoon!

Obituary

MRS. R. C. HAYS, Goderich

Goderich, July 16—Mrs. R. C. Hays died suddenly at her home on Sunday morning, exactly four months after the death of her husband, the late R. C. Hays, K.C., well-known barrister of Goderich and dean of the bar of Huron.

She was an accomplished musician, being a talented pianist, and prior to her marriage was organist of St. George's Anglican Church here. She was a member of the Ladies' Chapter, I.O.D.E., and St. George's Church.

Mrs. Hays, formerly Miss Hattie M. Price, was born in Belleville, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Price and came at 12 years with her parents to Goderich. She is survived by one son, R. Cockburn Hays, of Goderich, and by five daughters, Mrs. Wm. Wallace, Mrs. Lorne Mills and Mrs. Frank Evans of Goderich; Mrs. R. D. Lucas, of Markdale, and Miss Catherine Hays of Goderich. Mrs. St. George Price of this town is a brother, and Mrs. Wm. Wright, Toronto, and Mrs. (Dr.) Walter Turnbull are sisters. A sister. There are eight grandchildren.

LATE HENRY E. BALDREE

Attended by a large number of friends of the deceased, the funeral of the late Henry Edward Baldree, former well known resident and storeader of Belleville was held from the home of his son-in-law, Wilfrid Lapworth, 14 Holloway street on Monday afternoon.

Following funeral services conducted at the home by the Rev. F. E. Scott, of the Bridge Street Church; interment was made in the Belleville cemetery.

Pallbearers were F. Cook, B. Robinson, S. Taylor, D. Flagler, Thos. Dean, C. Wills, all former friends and railroad associates of the deceased.

Flower—Family.

Broken Heart—Maud and Ted Baldree, California.

Basket—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Baldree and Evelyn.

Wreath — C.N.R. Shop Employees.

Sprays — Grandchildren, Picton, Belleville, Napanee, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence and Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Wannamaker, Mr. Paul Smith, Mrs. Ernest Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fraser, Mrs. Hudson and Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Oliphant and Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. Vroon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackman, Marjorie and Alma Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Personal letter, Dr. Faulkner. Several telegrams and cards of sympathy and letters.

WILBERT FRANKLIN OSBORNE

Wilbert Franklin Osborne died in the Belleville General Hospital at noon Tuesday after an illness of one week, he having underwent an operation for appendicitis. The late Mr. Osborne was born in Tyendinaga Township, 56 years ago, being the son of Mr. Thomas and the late Mrs. Osborne and some thirty years ago moved to the city where he was for a residence of two years moved to the Massassaga Road in Prince Edward County, where he has lived for the past thirty years. He was well known and highly respected in the community and was a successful farmer and gardener. He was a member of the Massassaga United Church and leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, formerly Miss Isobel Kelso, his father, Benjamin Osborne, resident at his home.

CAPITOL Starts THURS.

Last Story of the Federal Agents' Shot by Shot Dramatization of Gangland's Waterloo!

G-MEN

JAMES CAGNEY

With ANN DVORAK - Hugh Sim Cost!

Clandette Colbert and Clark Gable co-star in the delightful romantic comedy-drama "It Happened One Night," Belle, now playing.

QUACK REMEDIES NOT ADVOCATED

Dr. Jones of Kingston Speaks on Subject of Cancer

Belleville Rotarians were treated to a talk on "The Facts and Fancies of Cancer," by Dr. W. A. Jones of the Ontario Institute of Radiotherapy, Kingston. Dr. Jones explained the rapid strides which have been made by medical science in the treatment of cancer, notably in radio and X-ray treatment. Cancer could not be such a bugaboo as some people seem to think it is. Advance in the diagnosis and treatment of cancer, more through research, and extended publicity seems to indicate that cancer is on the increase, when such is not the case. Knowledge of the disease has increased and the spread of education has caused more cases to be brought in the open.

Dr. Jones warned against the danger of quack remedies which at the best were extremely painful and dangerous and at the worst a positive menace. People have been doomed to death by the advice of well-meaning friends, who advise some treatment they have heard about and the victim grasps it.

Consult your family physician at the first indication of anything wrong, a lump, or sore which does not heal, and have the medical treatment in four weeks at the outside if a cure is to be made.

The causes of cancer were described by the speaker, such as irritation of the skin, irritating foods, dirt, etc.

Cancer is not hereditary, nor contagious, but a tendency toward cancer can be hereditary.

Dr. Jones went very thoroughly into the subject of cause and cure of this dread disease and stated positively that taken early cancer could be cured by modern methods, radium and X-rays such as are in use at the Ontario Institute of Radiotherapy, Kingston, which he directs.

The speaker was introduced by O. H. Rose and hearty appreciation was expressed by Chas. T. Doian.

QUEENSBORO

Queensboro— Mrs. Brown and children of Ottawa, spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. James Kelso during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howe and family of Toronto, spent Thursday and Friday with friends here.

A large number attended the 12th of July celebration held at Flinton on Friday.

Miss Madeline Barry has been spending this week with her grandfather, Mr. E. Delpes.

Miss Edna Moore of Toronto, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore.

Mr. James Delpes has been spending a few days in Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan McCoy and family of Remington, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Groves.

Miss Annie Laton has been spending the past two weeks in Belleville.

Miss Alberta McCoy of Remington and Mrs. Newell Brod of Harlowe, also Mrs. A. Manchester of Madoc, were guests of Miss Marion Love on Thursday.

Miss Dougan of Tweed, spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Laird.

Shirley and Stanley Reynolds of Brantford, are holidaying with relatives here.

Mrs. Ogden and children of Oshawa and Mrs. Jos. Belcher, Madoc, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander on Sunday.

Miss Josephine Laton and friend of Brockville, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Alex. Laton.

Misses Hickey and Varcoica Alston have been visiting friends at Consecon, N.Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Groves spent the week end at Consecon.

Misses Merle Groves and Evelyn Holmes spent the week-end in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton McMurray, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Rourke and family and Mrs. Vernon Spencer and family also Miss Aileen Holmes spent Sunday at Crows Lake.

POLICE ARE READY LEAVE CANCELLED

Three Department Heads Refer to Prospective Trek

"As long as they abide by the law and behave themselves as law-abiding Canadian citizens they will not be disturbed by any police department, but we do not intend to tolerate with any roughism or such-like", stated Chief Kidd in reference to the much talked of Ontario trekkers, who are scheduled to leave Toronto in a day or so on their way east to Ottawa. "As long as they conduct themselves in an orderly manner everything will be quiet in Belleville during their proposed visit to this city, but, we are prepared to police and safe-guard local property and local citizens and have already been in conference with the local heads of the R.C.M.P. and Inspector Francis Gardner, of the Provincial Police," concluded Chief Kidd this afternoon after which presumably a couple of days respite from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dracup.

Miss Evelyn Melville spent last week with her grandparents at Marmora.

Mrs. Gilbert Smith and Miss Helen Smith entertained on Friday Mrs. D. J. Rolls and daughter Betty of Wallbridge and Mrs. F. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. Jas. and Mrs. R. B. Hall, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thrasher, Mrs. Will Pike, Mrs. G. Weaver, Mrs. R. McKown and Mrs. Frank Seth spent a day last week in Hayden Provincial Park.

Mount Pleasant Women's Missionary Society entertained the members of the Sunbeam Mission Band at their July meeting and over twenty members in attendance. Mrs. Arthur Phillips, president, opened with hymn, and Mrs. Will Pike, Secretary, offered prayer. Twelve members answered roll call and the treasurer reported $22.80 for June.

Mrs. Phillips then welcomed the Mission Band and the vice president, Mrs. Anna Sharp presided. The call to worship was given and the first hymn, followed by prayer and the third psalm.

Miss Edna Thrasher gave the study story, which outlined the life of a little Indian baby whose mother died and who was cared for by a white missionary. Twelve members answered roll call and Mrs. Arthur Phillips McKown and Mabel Turner were appointed representatives to Campbellford.

Miss Marion Rose recited "Two ways of giving". Miss Isobel Turner contributed a piano solo "Lovey Mine" and Mrs. Will Pike sang "Consecration". The program closed with the Band prayer.

Mrs. Phillips at the wood organ and guitar accompaniment "When we drive up that golden street." Miss Ruth Rose sang a solo "Tell me my Shepherd Boy" who helped others to find the Jesus way. Mizpah and Lord's Prayer, Evelyn Melville, Gladys Sharpe and Marion Johnson sang a chorus "He loves you." The program closed with the Band prayer.

Mrs. Phillips at the wood organ welcomed Mrs. Rose Hoard, who became of literary interest, to attend the meetings. She also welcomed Rev. and Mrs. Beckel and the junior choir and a vote of thanks was tendered.

The members then served a delicious lunch, topped off with cake and another pleasant afternoon was brought to a close.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brodsworth, Bethel, on Friday, July 12, 1935, a son.

Mr. Ernest White, Percy and Ray, spent a day last week at Mount Pleasant Mr. Gerald Sharp, Frankford.

Mrs. F. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. Gilbert Smith, Miss Helen Smith, Mrs. D. J. Rolls and Betty were guests of

GIRL IS ACCUSED OF INFANTICIDE

Toronto Police Make Arrest in Death of 30 Months Old Boy

Toronto, July 16.—(CP)—Charge with the murder of her two-and-a-half-year-old son, Billy Hamilton, June 4, Miss Jean Grunlief, 25, was arrested by police today.

She is charged with throwing the child into the lake after a fatal fight with him, grounds into Lake Ontario. The body was discovered later and a police investigation began which ended in the arrest of Miss Grunlief.

The police state she admitted the murder when questioned about her child.

Until last night there had been no word that identification had been made. At the time, a search was made of the waters of the bay for the life guards, when it was first believed that the child's clothes had been taken by the lake.

Miss Grunlief is unmarried. The police stated, adding that she had changed her residence since the day the boy is alleged to have thrown the boy in the lake.

On the morning eye witnesses said they saw a woman with a child in her arms walking along the water-front. She was walking west, they stated, and a little while later there was a report of the same description returning, but without the child.

Toronto, July 16 (CP)— Jean Grunlief, 25, charged without bail formally charged with the murder of her 2½ year old son, Billy Hamilton, appeared in Women's Court here today. She was remanded for a week without bail on election of the request of her counsel. She is unmarried.

Police claim Miss Grunlief took her child from the Canadian National Exhibition grounds in a fit of despondency and walked about the city all night of June 4. Next morning the body was found floating near the sea wall. Dragging operations started at once when it was reported a woman had been seen with a child near the spot. They continued for three days before police abandoned the search.

BELLE TODAY WEDNESDAY

COLUMBIA PICTURES Com. Present the PRIZE WINNERS WORLD'S GREATEST STARS and PICTURES

CLARK GABLE in CLAUDETTE COLBERT in

GRACE MOORE in TULLIO CARMINATI in

"IT HAPPENED ONE NIGHT"

Shows at 2.45 p.m. 7.00 p.m. 9.30 p.m.

"ONE NIGHT OF LOVE"

Shows at 3.30 p.m. 8.00 p.m.

BIGGEST SHOW EVER OFFERED ITS EQUAL MAY NEVER BE SEEN AGAIN

CUTWORM PLAGUE DEVASTATES N. B.

Saint John, N.B., July 16 (CP)—With tens of thousands of dollars worth of crops already lost in wards, New Brunswick farmers are lining up in a solid front to combat the worst plague of cutworms in recent years, and the fight is on to the finish today.

Already J. E. King, deputy minister of Agriculture, estimated today some 35 per cent. of the maggot has gone. The situation is one of problems for livestock and poultry raisers.

HEAT CAUSES 9 DEATHS

Tunsa, Alta., July 16 (AP)—Nine deaths in this district within 24 hours were attributed today to the heat. The mercury rose to 108 here yesterday.

MOUNT PLEASANT W. M. S. MEETS

Rawdon—Mrs. S. Roberts of Chicago spent three weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Laycock at Marmora and this week she is holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heath, and Mrs. Lochiels Heath.

Born—At Bethel on Saturday, June 22nd, 1935 to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Green, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Chisholm and Mrs. Harold Jenkins of Alberta have spent a couple of days together in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dracup.

Miss Evelyn Melville spent last week with her grandparents at Marmora.

Mrs. Gilbert Smith and Miss Helen Smith entertained on Friday Mrs. D. J. Rolls and daughter Betty of Wallbridge and Mrs. F. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. Jas. and Mrs. R. B. Hall, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thrasher, Mrs. Will Pike, Mrs. G. Weaver, Mrs. R. McKown and Mrs. Frank Seth spent a day last week in Hayden Provincial Park.

Mount Pleasant Women's Missionary Society entertained the members of the Sunbeam Mission Band at their July meeting and over twenty members in attendance. Mrs. Arthur Phillips, president, opened with hymn, and Mrs. Will Pike, Secretary, offered prayer. Twelve members answered roll call and the treasurer reported $22.80 for June.

Mrs. Phillips then welcomed the Mission Band and the vice president, Mrs. Anna Sharp presided. The call to worship was given and the first hymn, followed by prayer and the third psalm.

Miss Edna Thrasher gave the study story, which outlined the life of a little Indian baby whose mother died and who was cared for by a white missionary. Twelve members answered roll call and Mrs. Arthur Phillips McKown and Mabel Turner were appointed representatives for August.

Miss Marion Rose recited "Two ways of giving". Miss Isobel Turner contributed a piano solo "Lovey Mine" and Mrs. Will Pike sang "Consecration". The program closed with the Band prayer.

Mrs. Phillips at the wood organ and guitar accompaniment "When we drive up that golden street." Miss Ruth Rose sang a solo "Tell me my Shepherd Boy" who helped others to find the Jesus way. Mizpah and Lord's Prayer, Evelyn Melville, Gladys Sharpe and Marion Johnson sang a chorus "He loves you." The program closed with the Band prayer.

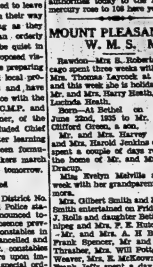
Mrs. Phillips at the wood organ welcomed Mrs. Rose Hoard, who became of literary interest, to attend the meetings. She also welcomed Rev. and Mrs. Beckel and the junior choir and a vote of thanks was tendered.

The members then served a delicious lunch, topped off with cake and another pleasant afternoon was brought to a close.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brodsworth, Bethel, on Friday, July 12, 1935, a son.

Mr. Ernest White, Percy and Ray, spent a day last week at Mount Pleasant Mr. Gerald Sharp, Frankford.

Mrs. F. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. Gilbert Smith, Miss Helen Smith, Mrs. D. J. Rolls and Betty were guests of



WILSON'S FLY PADS REALLY KILL

One pad kills all day and every day for 2 or 3 weeks. 3 pads in each package. No sprays, no stickiness, no bad odor. Keep your Dooryard, Barn and Stables free from flies.

10 CENTS PER PACKET

WHY PAY MORE?

THE WILSON FLY PAD CO., Hamilton, Ont.

Gina Malo, the petite and sweet little Belgian actress, who portrays the role of an Irish colleen in "Lily of Killarney" at the Capitol.

"ON-TO-OTTAWA" TREKKERS READY FOR LONG HIKE

Winnipeg, Toronto And North Bay Are Focal Points

SITUATION QUIET

In Some Places Food Situation is "Precarious"

(By The Canadian Press)

"On-to-Ottawa" unemployed marchers were gradually getting ready to take the road to the Dominion capital today in both Manitoba and in Ontario. Elsewhere they were quiet.

Despite the fact one of their leaders said "we are not leaving today" an early start of 2,000 in Toronto was looked for. The suggestion was made marchers might start out on the road to Ottawa during a mobilization drill and parade.

Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn granted them three trucks to carry emergency and other supplies, the city granted them right to a parade but beyond that they failed to obtain any concessions. Minister of Highways T. B. McQuesten told police to seize trucks carrying marchers.

The Premier instructed a Magistrate to endorse the warrant under section 41 on which Sam Scott, wanted for Regina as a result of the recent riots there, and who earlier refused to grant the concession.

Other Developments

Winnipeg—Six Hundred marchers leave today for Kenora, Ont., in buses arranged for with funds obtained in a day; after Premier John Bracken had earlier refused them a grant.

Regina—Agitators from ranks of relief camp marchers in jail awaiting trial in September were blamed for a disturbance Sunday when privileges said to have been the chief after the service.

Montreal—Sentences of from 12 days to four months were imposed on 21 marchers arrested en route to Ottawa as members of the Montreal contingent. In all 130 appeared in court.

Ottawa—Asked what they hoped to accomplish, one spokesman of the unemployed leaders said: "Nothing definite except further publicizing the enormity of government of our work and wages demands."

Valcartier, Que.—Relief camp strike collapsed. Police ejected 32 who disobeyed the order to return to work.

London, Ont.—Two thirds of the "thunder and lightning" marchers left for Toronto in two trucks, with the remainder expected to follow. A leader said the food situation "was precarious."

North Bay—City council granted marchers permission to hold a tag day as the easiest solution to their local problem. Last night there were in the city, including those from Sudbury. Today 1,500 were expected.

Pembroke, Ont.—The local branch of the National Unemployed Council asked relief trains be prepared to pass through here. The town council passed the request on to the Ontario government.

Making of Custard Pie Comedy in Sound With Old Favorites Delights Hollywood

But Tears Mingle With Laughter on Sets as Days Gone By Are Recalled; New Facts on Pastry Throwing Give Honors to Ford Sterling as Champion

Ford Sterling and Hank Mann doing a scene.

By OBERA ROWLES
Central Press Canadian Correspondent

Hollywood, Cal., July 16— Say folk, do you remember the custard pie comedies of pre-war days, the knockdown and drag-out comedies where the bathing girls who will grave the picture just as in the good old days. You will recognize Marie Prevost, Juanita Hansen, Virian Oakland and other old favorites.

Not in years has Hollywood been so excited. Technicolor, television and third dimension angles have caused only a mild ripple of interest compared to the enthusiasm shown in the revival of the art of throwing pies. To carry on a tradition sacred to old-timers, all of the pies being used are made on the set on the movie lot. Not one of the old experts would think of throwing a bakery pie.

Ford Sterling holds the world record for pie-throwing—319 feet, 5 1-2 inches. He uses a full-crust apple pie, taking the discus stance and whirling around twice before he lets it fly. His custard pie record is just short of 300 feet. With a lemon meringue pie, even in his heyday, he could clear only 150 feet before it lost its filling.

Underhand Delivery

Hank Mann uses the underhand delivery. The pie leaves his hand edge on, curves sharply right, and proceeds full ahead so that when it lands the contents are in a position to do the most good. His prefers pumpkin and raisin pies, Conklin uses the overhand curve delivery, and when his pies reach their mark they have lost not one drop of custard. Cherry pies have no standing at all with the comedians. The cherries scatter like buck shot and leave stains wherever they land.

Ben Turpin is one of the worst pie-throwers in Hollywood, but by the finest receiver of them all. According to Turpin, he always catches a pie with his eyes open. You can spot an amateur because he closes his eyes. Turpin likes coconut and banana cream pies best.

Hundreds of Pies Thrown

So far, there has been 749 pies thrown in the current comedy which will be called "Keystone Hotel". You can see how many hearty guffaws you are in for, folks.

Many film notables who started their careers with the old Biograph Sennett and Keystone companies have visited the set as interested spectators to observe this revival of real comedy. Mack Sennett, Charlie Chaplin, Charles Murray, Louise Fazenda, Gloria Swanson, Virginia Fox, Phyllis Haver, Polly Moran, Al St. John, Harold Lloyd and others have dodged the pies and stumbled over props as they exchanged reminiscences. Audiences will laugh again—but on the set tears mingle with the laughs, for though the players have no real wish to turn back the calendar, they have found the magic of the old days has gone forever.

QUEBEC STORM IS WORST IN YEARS

Three Killed, Two Injured And Property Damage Heavy

Montreal, July 16—(CP)— Three persons died, two in hospital seriously injured and several minor injuries following a child with only a slightly burned foot to show, that lightning had struck him was the toll counted today after one of the worst electric storms to sweep down the St. Lawrence Valley in years.

Damages to property, trees and power services mounted to hundreds of dollars yesterday. Cellars were flooded in Montreal, roofs torn from buildings at Ottawa and water rushing down Quebec's hills tied up traffic in the lower section.

In Montreal, Aid. Benjamin Goyer, 59, of the suburb of Ville St. Laurent, was fatally injured when the driver of the car in which he was riding, blinded by the heavy downpour, crossed the tracks in front of a Canadian National Railways train.

Seeking shelter from the rain, which stopped their playing in Liberty Park, Clayton Halpin, 12, and Yvette Herbert, 11, ran under a tree. Lightning flashed and Emile Pell to the ground, fatally injured. Yvette was badly burned, when the tree caught fire. She was taken home after hospital treatment.

At Montebello, Que., about 40 miles east of Ottawa, Philippe Thomas, 22, was struck and killed by lightning as he and his father drove along the highway with a load of hay. The father and the horses were unharmed.

At Pascati, Pie., near Montebello, 11-year-old Hazel Labrede was knocked down by another bolt. He escaped with a slightly burned foot.

BINDER INVENTOR DIES AT FROME

Thomas Lunn, Worked Many Years With Massey-Harris Co.

St. Thomas, Ont., July 16—(CP)—Thomas Lunn, inventor of the first grain binder manufactured in Canada, and pioneer of the rural telephone system in Western Ontario, died last night at his home in the Village of Frome, near here.

Mr. Lunn was for many years in the employ of the Massey-Harris Co. and while engaged by them perfected his binder. He was 87 years old.

Members of a Scottish family, he came from his native Scotland with his parents when he was five years of age.

Early in life he entered the service of the A. Harris and Sons machinery plant in Brantford. Of a mechanical bent, he gave much time to the development of machinery. His first, binder tied the sheaves with wire and was known as the "trouble shooter."

FARMERS!

IF YOU NEED HARVEST HELP, ADVISE YOUR REEVE OR THE NEAREST ONTARIO GOVERNMENT EMPLOYMENT OFFICE.

GIVE WORK TO THE UNEMPLOYED!

UNEMPLOYED MEN— HELP HARVEST ONTARIO'S BUMPER CROP!

IF YOU TAKE A FARM JOB

Your Family Will Receive Relief In Your Absence.
There Will be No Deduction Because of Your Earnings.
You Can Use Your Earnings to Replace Necessary Household Equipment.
You Can Re-register for Relief on Your Return.

THE ONTARIO GOVERNMENT WILL APPRECIATE YOUR CO-OPERATION.

MITCHELL F. HEPBURN, Acting Minister of Public Welfare.

REVOLT IN THE DESERT

by

T. E. LAWRENCE

Lyttleton saw my weariness and said just a surprised welcome. So Ras es the night before I had scribbled a short report; so we had to talk of only of what needed doing. Before the hour ended, the Admiral rang for sign to say that the Duffers' loading flour for her emergency relief.

Clayton drew sixteen thousand pounds in gold and got an escort to take it to Suez by the three o'clock train. This was urgent, that Nasir might be able to meet his dates. The note we had issued at Bair, Jefer and Guweira were pencilled promises, on simple telegraph forms, to pay so much to bearer in Akaba. It was a great system, but no one had dared issue notes before in Arabia, because the Bedouins had neither pockets in their shirts nor strong rooms in their tents, and notes could not be buried for safety. So there was an unconquerable prejudice against them, for our good name it was essential that they be early redeemed.

Afterwards, in the hotel, I tried to find clothes less publicly exciting than my Arab get-up; but the motley had corrupted all my former store, and it was three days before I became normally ill-dressed.

Winchester's eye caught my starring. He wondered who it was, for I had grown unusually very long lagard with travel. (Later I found my weight to be less than seven stone.) However, he supposed, and I explained the history of our unannounced raid on Akaba. He smiled him. I asked that the admiral send a steamship there at once. Burmester said he could, which came to that day, should load all the food in Suez, go straight to Akaba, and bring back the prisoners. (Splendid.) He would order it himself, not to interrupt the Admiral and dismiss.

"Allenby! what's he doing here?" cried I. "Oh, he's in command now." "And Murray?" "Gone home". This was news of the biggest, insistently concerning me: and I climbed back and fell in a stupor of this dear republished man was like ordinary generals, and if we should have trouble for six months teaching him Murray and Belinda had begun so irreconcilably that one thought the first days had been, not to defeat the enemy, but to make our own chiefs let us live. Only by time and performances had we converted Sir Archibald and his Office of Arab, who in their last months, wrote to the War Office commending the Arab venture, and especially Feisal in it. This was generous of them and our secret triumphant, for they were an odd pair in one chariot—Murray all brains and claws, no will, vous, elastic, changeable; Lynden Bell so oddly built in layers of professional opinion, glued together after Government testing and approval, and later trimmed and polished to standard pitch.

Al Cairo my undecided feet slipplapped up the quiet Savoy corridors to Clayton, who habitually cut his lunch hour to be with the thronging work. As I entered he glanced up from his desk and a muttered "Mush fadi" (Anglo-Egyptian for "engaged") but I spoke and got a surprised welcome. In Rasthe night before I had scribbled wanted to weigh me.

It was a comic interview, for Allenby was physically large and confident, and morally so great that the comprehension of our littleness came slow to him. He sat in his chair looking at me—not straight, as his custom was, but sideways puzzled. He was newly from France, where for years he had been a tooth of the great machine grinding the enemy. He was full of Western ideas of guh power and weight—the worst training for our war—but, as a cavalry-man, as already half persuaded to throw up the new school, in this different world of Asia, and accompany Dawnay and Chetwode to forge the worn steel of manoeuvre and movement; yet he was hardly conscious of having an odd as myself—a little bare-footed silk-shirted man offering to bobble the enemy by his personality if given sieves and sirns and a fund of two hundred thousand reversible to convince and control his converts.

Allenby could not make out how much was the genuine performer and how much charlatan. The problem was to interest his eye, and as I left him upbidged to solve it. He asked me two questions, not talk much, but studied the man and listened to my unfolding of Eastern Syria and its fanatical hatreds. As the end he put up his chin and said quite directly, "Well . . . will do for you what I can", and that ended it. I was not sure how far I had caught him; but we learned gradually that he meant exactly what he said; and that what (personal) Allenby could do was enough for his very greedient servant.

KILLS MOSQUITOES-MOTHS ANTS-FLIES-ALL INSECTS FLY-TOX

THIRD THURLOW NEWS BRIEFS

Third Thurlow—Mr. and Mrs. Percy Leland and family called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tweedy on Sunday.

Miss Joy Cooney of Niagara Falls, N.Y., is spending a month with her aunt, Mrs. Harry McPherson.

Mrs. W. H. Clarke and Reta called on Mr. and Mrs. F. Easton on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Eggleton, Detroit, and Mrs. Elizabeth Sidney, took dinner on Friday with the former's brother, Mr. Clayton Eggleton.

The Misses McPherson called on Miss Betty Tweedy on Sunday.

Mrs. Clare Vanderwater, B.C., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dorland and Dr. Alex Hall, Hornell, spent Sunday in Campbellford.

Mrs. Jas. McPherson and Miss Joy Cooney were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tweedy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Dorland spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Westover, Sidney.

Mrs. A. Cannilton, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Amy McPherson.

Mr. Norman Christie and Mr. Bruce Christie, Gilead, spent Sunday at their home in Belleville.

League was well attended on Tuesday evening. The Missionary programme was in charge of Mr. J. Smith.

Mrs. Woodrow, Toronto, and Mrs. W. Brown, Belleville, were the guests on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw and Stella, fourth line, called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tweedy on Sunday.

Dr. Alex Hall, Hornell, spent the weekend with his sister Mrs. R. W. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker and family were Sunday callers at Mr. Harry Tweedy's.

Mr. and Mr. W. Waterhouse, Sidney, spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. J. July.

BRITAINIA RULES THE AIR AS WELL AS THE WAVES!

Striking and significant picture, made at Mildenhall aerodrome on July 6 during the annual Royal Air Force review witnessed by His Majesty, King George. Hundreds of England's war birds can be seen on the ground, stretching away in every direction as a squadron of six aeroplanes overhead. This annual R.A.F. review of aeroplanes was intensified this year, it being the silver jubilee of the King's reign. It was the largest assembly of fighting aircraft in history.

RADIO PROGRAMS
Daylight Saving Time

TUESDAY

9.00—Breakfast Club
11.45—Al and Lee Reiser, piano duo —WEAF
12.00—Three Scamps—WEAF
1.15—Radio Gossip Club—WGR
1.30—Music Guild—WEAF
2.30—Rex Battle's Orch.—CROT
2.30—Three Plats—WJZ
3.00—Harmony Trio—WJZ
3.30 Nellie Revell Interviews—WJZ
4.00—Betty and Bob—WJZ
5.00—Singing Lady—WJZ
6.15—Midwest Hymn Sing—WEAF
6.30—Dinner Jim Hunter—WJZ
7.00—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF
7.15—Tony and Gus—WJZ
7.30—Jackie Heller, Tenor—WEAF
8.00—Leo Reisman's Orch.—WEAF
8.30—"Lavender and Old Lace"—WGR
8.00—Orphan Clues—WJZ
8.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WEAF
9.00—To Be Announced—WABC
8.30—Edgar A. Guest—WJZ
9.00—Ben Bernie.—WEAF.
9.30—Dentine Magic Moments "Four Men And A Vote"—CRCT CFRB
9.30—Eddy Duchin's Orch.—WEAF
9.30—Fred Waring's Orch.—WABC
9.30—Goodman's Band Concert —WJZ
10.00—Beauty Box Theatre, Al Goodman's Orch.—WEAF
10.00—To Be Announced—WJZ
11.15—Jesse Crawford, organist.—

WEDNESDAY

8.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ
11.15—Wendall Hall, songs—WJZ
11.30—Radio Gossip Club—WGR
8.30—Betty and Bob, drama—WJZ
8.30—Jim Hunter, News—CFRB
8.45—Lowell Thomas—WJZ
7.00—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF
7.15—Tony and Gus—WJZ
7.15—Uncle Ezra—WEAF
7.45—Dangerous Paradise, sketch —WJZ
8.—Hal Kemp's Orch., Babs and Her Buccaneers—WABC
8.00—Johnnie and His Foursome—WABC
8.00—Our Man's Family—WEAF
8.30—Broadway Varieties—WABC
8.30—House of Glass—WJZ
8.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WABC
9.00—Our Home On the Range; John Charles Thomas, baritone—WJZ
9.00—Fred Allen's Revue—WEAF
9.00—Tito Guizar—WABC
9.30—Rosemary; Mark Warnow —WABC
10.00—To Be Announced—WEAF
10.00—Burns and Allen—WABC
10.00—Hits and Hits—WJZ
10.30—Ray Noble's Orch.—WEAF.
10.30—Melody Masterpieces—WABC
11.00 Claude Hopkins' Orch. —WABC
11.30—Ted Florito's Orch.—WEAF
12.30—Jan Garber's Orch.—WABC

RADIO TONIGHT
DENTON MASSEY
Will speak to the YOUTH of Ontario: Subject
FOUR MEN IN A VOTE
Tuesday, July 16th, 9 - 9.30 p.m. D.S.T.
CRCT CFRB CKNC CKCL CKCO CRCO
AND A COMPLETE ONTARIO HOOK-UP

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

IMPOUND CARS

Impounding of motor vehicles in the case of major motor offences as well as suspension of the drivers' licences is promised by the highway minister the Hon. T. B. McQuesten.

The minister has issued the following explanation:

"Highway transportation is causing too much waste of life, of health and property. In Ontario during the first five months of this year, the motor vehicle, as the price of this pleasure and convenience is afforded us, took a toll of lives almost thirty per cent. greater in number than during the same period of 1934. Accidents, injuries and the property damage loss have also advanced far out of proportion to the increase in the registration of vehicles or vehicle travel.

"The general public has apparently failed to appreciate the gravity of the situation, despite the efforts of the Motor Vehicles Branch, with the assistance of various other organizations, also aided by the press, to stir it into action. Individuals seem to endorse these safety efforts one minute but when behind the wheel of their car or when walking, disregard every established rule which interferes with their individual convenience or pleasure. They apparently fail to appreciate that their action may be the next victim, or that their neighbour's safety is as important as their own.

"The failure to conform to safe driving practices is only one alternative means of bringing about an improvement in the situation, and that is a vigorous enforcement of the traffic regulations. Briefly, the chief is out for safer transportation — less transportation.

"With this in mind, more suspensions of driving privileges have been imposed by the Department in recent months than at any time during the past. Incidentally, of 1,753 suspensions during the first six months of the year, 15 per cent were applied by the Department of Highways.

"I also recently joined with the Attorney-General, Mr. A. W. Roebuck, in asking the magistrates of Ontario to make wider use of their powers in the matter of license suspension.

"I feel, however, that present conditions warrant even more drastic action, and I wish to specifically warn all drivers that in future, in all cases of conviction for wilful, careless and negligent driving, consideration will be given by the Department, not only to the suspension of the operating license but also to the revocation of the vehicle permit. In other words, we will, in those cases which justify such action, impound the car — by removing the markers therefrom — of every driver convicted of a major traffic offence."

FAREWELL TO CELLARS?

"There is no cellar in the prize-winning Fouilhoux model small house. Of course there is a basement. The absence of the latter goes without saying," says New York Times. "An attic is only a storehouse for obsolete equipment. The kitchen of which we mentioned nowadays is the place where people who ought to know better insist on keeping a lot of spiritual and moral rubbish which they should have thrown away long ago.

Cellars are different. They retain a measure of social standing. They continue to serve many useful purposes. They shelter the foundations of the house. They harbor the furnace and sometimes the laundry. They also provide miscellaneous storage room. It is an odd circumstance that things stored in attics are by definition obsolete junk and a drag on progress. Things stored in cellars hive social worth. No opprobrium attaches as yet to preserved fruit in jars and vegetables in cans, kindling-wood for open fires, and ping-pong tables. These things make up the contents of cellars.

"But only to mention such cellar furniture is to see why Mr. Fouilhoux has found it possible to make a forward step and omit the cellar from his model small home. Ping-pong tables are not a necessity of life. The modern home can be air-conditioned in such a way as to dispense with the need of an elaborate furnace installation. At least the machine will be small enough to go into the kitchen. Fuel will be oil, dispensing with the need of storage for coal. Canned peaches and string beans are, after all, a sentimental relic in an age of refrigeration which draws its fruits and vegetables from all climes and all seasons.

"So the cellar, like the attic, must vanish from the modern world. The modern house will be something like a box or something like an Oriental palace, severely cubical. It will be nailed to the ground in some manner to keep it from blowing away. After many days of sweltering heat, it is a pang to lose the cellar. It is so cool down there."

It is a dark sign when the owner is seen to be growing poor and his steward is found to be growing rich.—Spencer.

SIDELIGHTS

THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the events of the day, home people and general news notes as reported by the Intelligencer Correspondents, Reporters and Special Writers Grave and Gay. — Supervised by Tom Longfellow.

THE DOUBTER

"Into this Universe, and why, not knowing,
Nor whence, like Water willy-nilly flowing,
And out of it, as Wind along a Waste,
We know not whither, willy-nilly blowing."

.....OMAR KHAYYAM

Mustapha walked, and pondering as he went,
Within his mind arose great argument.
What is mankind, whence came we, whither go,
Wherefore the alternate of joy and woe?
They say that Allah gives us from above
Our life's brief span, the briefer years of love;
Why are such chequered through with strife and pain
Downpouring on us like a flooding rain?
Mustapha walked, while from the tall minaret
Came a shrill cry to prayer; the hot sun set.
Tortured of soul was he; to him no light
Pierced from the dark of philosophic night;
Nor Korean Book, nor Mueszin, nor Priest
Unveiled for him the mystery of the East.
Undone, at utter end of thought, he cried,
"Why do I live?" And then Mustapha died.

F. S. M.

YOUNG MAN RELEASED FROM JAIL

one morning recently after serving a term for drunkenness, was arrested the same night in a helpless condition from intoxication. He blamed his condition on beer but experts at the police station said that he never could get in that state from beer — unless a firm foundation was laid of "canned heat" (alcohol soaked in wax). Just how much fun there is in getting "blotto" in such a short space of time is hard to understand.

x x x x

ARGYL LIGHT INFANTRY BAND under direction of Bandmaster Ross Hunter gave an open air concert at the Fair Grounds Sunday evening and the attendance was amazing, showing how popular an open air band concert can be in agreeable surroundings. The Fair Grounds make an ideal spot for a band concert, plenty of room to walk or sit without crowding and ample parking place for cars there being over two hundred parked in the grounds as well as a number outside.

x x x x

YANKEE TOURIST on his way to Banff brought along a pair of skates. Must be prepared to spend considerable time in Canada if he wishes to use those skates. Perhaps he will wait till the hot springs around Banff freeze over.

x x x x

"BEST BASS WATERS on continent are in Kingston District" according to Morris Ackerman, editor-writer of the Scripps-Howard chain of newspapers in the United States, as quoted in an interview in the Kingston Whig-Standard. This proves conclusively that Morris Ackerman has never fished the waters of Belleville district and the recently formed tourist-attracting association should see that he is enlightened at once. Bass fishing there may be in the Kingston district but nothing like the bass fishing of this district — why good catches of bass are made every day from the Bay bridge, but the real bass fishing is back north where the bass are ready for battle all the time. "The biggest proportion of our people are bass fishermen," said Mr. Ackerman. "Bass, especially the big-mouth bass is the game fish of the people; it is what ninety per cent of the United States fishermen come to Canada to catch, and it makes me laugh when I hear of a party that has gone right through this district, the best bass fishing country they could hope to find, just because they figure it wasn't far enough away for good fishing. The best thing that ever happened for bass fishing in Ontario is when the Government said the season would open on July 1 instead of June 15. The bass fishing has been getting better ever since and will continue to get better. The Government should never be persuaded to go back to June 15."

x x x x

"HUNGER MARCHERS", so called, forbidden to hold tag days or panhandle money or food, will find the going rough if they persist in moving in mass on Ottawa or any other strategical point. Then, too, the withdrawal of railway transportation privileges means that it is a case of walk, and there is no law against walking, if they keep going — but fully mackerel imagine walking on an empty stomach, if you can — we can't. Somebody is always taking the joy out of life.

Trenton and District

Penitentiary Term of 2 Years For Thos. Mountenay, Trenton

Youth of Nineteen Has Served a Term Previously

Trenton, July 15 (Special) —Two years was the sentence given to Thomas Mountenay, 19, in Trenton police court yesterday afternoon by Magistrate E. J. Butler, K.C., of Belleville. Mountenay was charged with an unnatural offence. He will be sent to the Kingston penitentiary. While a juvenile he had been convicted twice and had just served a three month sentence for assault.

A 14 year old boy was charged with indecent assault. A week ago he pleaded not guilty but yesterday afternoon he pleaded guilty and was given a two year suspended sentence and ordered to report every Saturday at the police station.

Two Frankford families brought their family quarrel into court in order to have the difficulty ironed out. Percy Cleveland claimed that Mrs. Ashley Thomas Moreland had struck him three times in the face. The latter denied it. The argument started over cattle trespassing on each others property and the case of a cow that had that the son claimed should not have been driven off. Witnesses were called but the evidence was found very conflicting. The Magistrate bound the parties involved over to keep the peace.

Trenton Rotary Club

The regular weekly dinner and meeting of the Trenton Rotary Club was held on Monday evening at the Grand Hotel, Gilbert. The usual toast to President, George Shonkler, and officers, Vice-President, J. Hall; Secretary B. F. Joyce, Treasurer, K. Crews, Sgt.-at-Arms, G. J. Asa, Directors, C. W. Graham, Charles Allore and Norman Bower occupied their new offices.

The annual Rotary Carnival was discussed and plans arranged. It was decided that it would be held on or about August 21st. The proceeds from this annual function is utilized for crippled children' work for Trenton and the neighboring community and the Trenton Rotary Club has done a great work along this line. The Chairman of the Crippled Children Work, in his report, stated that at the present time they have a 12-3 year old child in the Toronto Children's Hospital. This child has not been able to walk and the case is being diagnosed and it is believed that the child will be helped. He reported several other cases that will be taking taken care of by them. The work of the various committees were also reviewed.

The secretary, B. F. Joyce, announced the new committees for 1935-36 (the chairman in each instance first named) Club Service and Objects: J. J. Macnab, C. Allore, E. E. Smithrim; Club Service and O'Rourke. E. A. Simmons, R. D. Bonter; Vocational Service: N. Bower, K. Crews, W. J. Bryson; Community Service: A. E. Cuff, D. Harrison, W. House; Boys' Work: G. J. Asa, W. J. Bryson, R. J. Whitney, Crippled Children: D. Bonter, K. Crews, G. H. Cobley; Membership and Classifications: G. Crouch, G. W. Lott, C. Graham; Attendance: D. Harrison, G. H. Cobley, H. O'Hearter; Fellowship and Rotary Education: E. E. Smithrim, W. House, J. G. Ryder; Programme: E. A. Simmons, N. Bower, B. F. Joyce; Sunshine: K. Crews, J. C. Meagh, G. Graham; International Service: C. Allore, R. J. Whitney, J. G. Ryder; Auditors: R. F. Joyce and C. Allore; Pianist: Leslie Hearn; Honorary Members: H. E. Ireland, W. A. Fraser and J. L. McLean.

Wooler Defeats R.C.A.F.

The Wooler softball team gained a decisive victory over the R.C.A.F. last night when they met on the Bayshore diamond. The score was 14-1.

Both teams started off with a bang and Wooler put Putnam, Free and Claude Ruttan around the bags. The Fliers gained a one run lead in their half of the 1st when Pollows, Broadbent, Wilkinson and McKee crossed the plate. Wooler added the lead when Claude Ruttan rapped out a long homer into the bushes, scoring Free and Free. McColl also scored. From then on the game was decidedly in the local's favor. Follows, first man up for the R.C.A.F. in the 4th and 5th innings, Free and Broadbent, Free also had a homer to the credit.

The lineups:

Wooler: Putnam 3b, Fox c, Free p, Claude Ruttan 2b, Radcliffe ss, Greenbury lf, C. Ruttan cf, Reid lb, McColl rf.

R.C.A.F.: Follows 2b, Broadbent ss, p. 3rd., Wilkinson 3b, Hobson c, Free p, 1st., Mansfield lf, Stafford p., ss, 3rd, Massiah c, Neff lb.

Score by innings:

Wooler ..... 346 004 1—17.
R.C.A.F. ..... 430 101 1— 9

Umpires, plate, O Ward, bases, S. Leiben.

Orange Lodge Church Parade

The Trenton Loyal Orange Lodge No. 208, Loyal Orange Women's Association, and the Orange Young Britons figured in one of the largest Orange Church parades on Sunday morning, yet held here for some time. The parade led by the Orange Fife and Drum Band marched to the St. Georges Church where they took part in the service. Canon T. Austin Smith had charge of the service and based his text latch, chapter 51, verse 1: "Look unto the rock whence ye are hewn." Cannon Smith delivered an exceptionally fine address to the Orange members present and was assisted in the service by Rev. A. L. Geen of Belleville.

Belleville Silver Band

The Salvation Army Silver Band visited Trenton on Sunday evening and gave a splendid concert at the Salvation Army Citadel. A large number attended the concert and enjoyed the splendid musical and vocal numbered rendered.

Personals

Mr. J. Gee of Rochester is the guest of Mr. W. Ireland, Spring Street.

Mr. Angus Wemyss, of Toronto, is spending a vacation visiting his parents and camping at Bass Lake.

Mr. R. W. Wemyss is spending a few days vacationing at Muskoka Lake.

Mrs. Arthur Begin of Toronto is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed Begin, McGill Street.

Miss Vera Walsh of Toronto is in town visiting friends.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JULY 16TH, 1915

Mrs. W. S. Minns, Yeomans street, is visiting friend in Toronto.

Excursionists from Picton and other bay ports visited the city today. They came on the steamer Brockville.

Tomorrow the old Belleville boys and girls who are now residing in Toronto will visit "their old home town" and remain two days and they will receive a hearty welcome. Put out your flags on stores and dwellings.

Mr. C. J. Wills and family motored to Marlbank this evening to visit his daughter, Mrs. O. Hayes.

Mrs. E. L. Casey, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Hubbs, Belleville, and friends in Prince Edward County, has left for her home in Winnipeg.

30 Years Ago

JULY 16TH, 1905

A thermometer on Front Street registered 96 in the shade this afternoon.

On Wednesday afternoon of this week an excellent aquatic sports aquatic sports is promised. In addition to the sailing races, which will include, sailing, dinghy and punts, a game of water baseball is being arranged to take place in the harbor just off the park.

Mrs. George Wilson and son of Hamilton are visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Thos. Corbett of Calgary, an old Belleville boy, is home on a visit.

Mr. Fred Mullett of Pueblo, Colorado, has arrived for the Old Boys' Reunion.

Mr. Ed Coulson of Toronto, is home for a few days.

40 Years Ago

JULY 16TH, 1895

Mr. Stephens and the boys of the Y.M.C.A. who have been in camp at the Island for some time, have returned to the city. They report having had a delightful time.

Mr. E. D. Gough, clothier has rented the store formerly occupied by Brignall and Thompson.

Mr. R. Dunn is spending today in Kingston.

Mr. Walter Petty is home from New York on a visit to his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Couldery have arrived home from England.

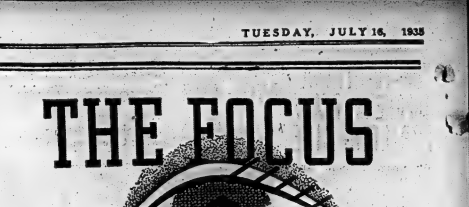
Mr. Harry Hampton of the Oak Hall staff is visiting friends in Frankford.

Mrs. Fred Bull of Hamilton is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. I. C. Pascoe will attend the annual meeting of the Odddfellows' Association at Kingston tomorrow.

50 Years Ago

JULY 16TH, 1885



Four carloads of boxes of cheese were shipped from the Belleville station yesterday.

The steamer Puritan took the children and friends of the Congregational Church, Hotel Street to Indian Point this morning for their annual picnic.

Mr. James Robertson, formerly of Belleville, had been appointed to position on the staff of steamers of the Hudson Bay Company at Portage La Prairie. We extend our congratulations.

The annual meeting of over forty of those interested in the game of baseball was held in the parlor at Hyde Hotel last night for the purpose of organizing a baseball club. The following officers were elected: President, D. K. J. McKinnon; vice president, D. S. Canniff; treasurer, A. Bates; secretary, H. Lister; captain, B. P. Dickens. The membership fee was placed at fifty cents.

THE FOCUS

OF THE PUBLIC EYE!

Canada has fifty-six thickly settled cities—the centres of highest buying power—from which radiate all the important markets of the Dominion.

More than two million daily newspapers are bought by Canadians every day, for daily newspaper reading is a habit that has grown and fastened itself upon our national life.

All the play and movement of civilization, from the Arctic Circle to the Equator, from the mystic East to the heart of the ultra-practical West—the life of the world—is focused in the newspaper every day.

The readers of the daily newspaper embrace every class of occupation, every income group—the woman in her home; the executive in his office, and the messenger boy sitting outside; great merchants and keepers of small shops; artists, artisans, financiers and clerks; to each and all the daily newspaper is an essential part of everyday life, the focus of all human activities.

Daily Newspapers help to sell more goods than any other advertising medium because they are read by more people.

ADVERTISE IN DAILY NEWSPAPERS FOR action

SPONSORED BY THE

CANADIAN DAILY NEWSPAPERS ASSOCIATION

Belfast Boards Up Side Streets To Prevent Further Street Trouble

Belfast, Northern Ireland, July 16—(AP)—The soldiers on riot duty since the outbreak of disturbances following the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, last Friday, today were withdrawn.

Large detachments of police stood ready, however, to meet any recurrence of the recent lyctic days which resulted in five deaths and the wounding of 75.

Warrow streets abutting into York Street, the riot centre, were boarded up to enable authorities to cut off any future trouble-makers.

Meanwhile there was a violent reaction in the ulster trouble in the Irish Free State where Protestant shops were attacked. In Kenny, County Donegal, window-smashing and fires caused damage estimated at £10,000 (approximately $48,500).

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

by R. J. SCOTT

"Der Tag" Seen at Hand by Austrian Monarchists Who Hope to Place Hapsburg Archduke on Throne

Mussolini Aid Paves Way But Many Oppose

By ROBERT M. LOW

(Central Press Canadian Writer)

London, July 16—"Der Tag", long awaited by Austrian monarchists—the restoration of the 22-year-old Archduke Otto of Hapsburg to the throne of his ancestors—may soon dawn after nervous years of exile.

With the first steps already being taken, the Austrian government has moved to allow members of the former ruling family to return to their native land and also to hand over to them all royal property confiscated by the republican government following the revolution of 1918.

This is considered a prelude to the restoration of the monarchy with young Otto as emperor.

Many Enemy in Post

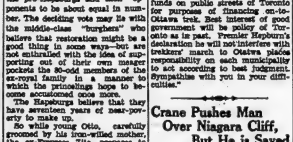
For years rumors of the impending return of the Hapsburgs have been discussed in many European quarters—from foreign offices to coffee houses. The closest to truth the rumors ever came, until today, was after the abortive Nazi putsch in Vienna last year. There was much speculation then in diplomatic circles whether or not Mussolini would support the return of the Hapsburgs in order to prevent German domination of Austria and use them as a buffer between Italy and Germany.

Although Il Duce did seriously consider the matter at the time, he deemed it advisable to await a more suitable moment, leaving the Austrian ship of state in the hands of Prince Ernst von Starhemberg, Fascist leader and vice chancellor and War Minister Fey. Since that time both Starhemberg and Fey—as well as Chancellor Schuschnigg—have avowed monarchists —have stated publicly that they favored the restoration and were working toward it. This latest move is the fruit of their labor.

Italy Desires It

At the same time, the Ethiopian situation has forced Mussolini's hand in regard to Italy's relations with the Italian dictator goes through with his plan to restore monarchy, he apparently intends to, he will be very definitely weakened. He is in the same army which was prepared last year to march into Austria to the moment's notice, to "defend the country's frontiers."

With the Hapsburgs back in Austria, ready to ascend the throne at any time, Il Duce will have no use up his sleeve should the internal situation in Austria be threatened by a Nazi victory in any plebiscite they might try or stage.



Backed by Prince Starhemberg, his close friend and political ally, who recently became a virtual dictator of Austria, Mussolini could then, at his leisure, consolidate the restoration, thus saving the country from Nazi domination—and himself from the embarrassing predicament of having to fight a "last army" right on his own border.

Archduke Otto of Hapsburg.

Hitler's German Nazis on parade.

Italian Troops on Austrian frontier.

Germany's Nazis' look with disfavor on attempt by Austrian Fascists to crown Otto; on the other hand, Italian Fascists are for it, as a bulwark against Germany

Littel Entente Arrested

Such a series of moves would ultimately result in an international crisis for not only does Germany, but the Little Entente oppose Hapsburg rule. At one time Czechoslovakia threatened to mobilize her forces if ever the restoration rumors proved true. Hungary—though still a monarchy in name—today is ruled by Admiral Horthy, regent, and Premier Gombos, pro-Nazi dictator, and they, too, actively oppose any such move on the part of the Austrians. Despite all assurances given by Austrian monarchists that Otto never will attempt to exert his influence beyond the present borders of Austria, the Little Entente has refused to consider the matter in a favorable light.

Thus with her system still functioning, the Hapsburg supporters may win easily over at least a majority of the opposition abroad during the confusion into which Europe would be thrown if, and when, Mussolini actually declares war on Ethiopia. For an Italian offensive against Ethiopia spells the end of the league's prestige and its crude, self-imposed sanctions—international peace—and that means alignment of nations in Europe. Then anything can happen including the Hapsburg restoration.

Otto And Mother Seem Victors in Fight

Bitterly opposed to the powerful forces aiding the restoration movement are the masses of workers, the Socialists who established a republic in Austria years ago, and a goodly proportion of the police and gendarmes, all of whom want neither a monarchy nor union with Germany—the only democratic form of government for which they fought and for which many died. Also opposed are the Nazis and all who favor the "anchluss" — alliance with Germany—and all Nazis.

Czet Bathers Chlldren

Probably a plebiscite would show the pro-Hapsburgs and their opponents to be about equal in number. The deciding vote may lie with the middle-class "burghers" who believe that restoration might be a good thing in some ways—but are not enlightened with the idea of supporting out of their own meager pockets the 80-odd members of the ex-royal family that are scattered which the privileges hope to become accustomed once more.

The Hapsburgs believe that they have seventeen years of near-poverty to make up.

So while young Otto, carefully groomed by his mother, Zita—who the ex-Empress Zita, prepares to leave Steenokkerzeel, near Brussels, home in Belgium for the past ten years, the monarchists are ready to give him an unofficial yet "royal" welcome.

Injures Arm in Fall From Verandah

Lonsdale—The farmers have been busy in their hay fields and there has been a little backward on account of recent rain. Crops and the pasture fields are looking wonderful.

Service was held in Lonsdale Church on Sunday and was quite largely attended.

Mrs. Alfred McCullough is slowly improving in health.

Mrs. Jas. Nicholson fell from a step from the veranda and hurt her arm badly.

Some dogs have been through this neighborhood and a few sheep have already been killed.

Mrs. Jas. McCullough, sons Frank and Harry and Mrs. Jas. White's son, Mr. Norman Whiteman, attended the Sunday School picnic, Mrs. Mary Grant, Hillier, on Monday afternoon.

A number of young people from this vicinity are attended the summer school at Camp Kempville.

Miss Margaret Whiteman is spending some of her holidays at her home here.

Mr. J. McMath is visiting her sister Mrs. Will Haight.

A number from this community were in Belleville on Thursday.

A new Union Jack was recently presented the Twelfth celebration in Napanee on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Colberry are pleased with the arrival of a baby girl on Saturday morning last.

Mr. P. Sexsmith called on some friends one day last week.

Miss Mary Waddingham is enjoying part of her holidays in Toronto.

Quite a number enjoyed the dancing party given on the parish hall, Marysville Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Anslelne is entertaining relatives from Napanee.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McHenry entertained some company one evening last Saturday.

A little girl from Toronto is visiting some time with Mrs. Jas. Nicholson home of Mr. and Mrs. Will McNab.

TYENDINAGA EAST W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of Tyendinaga East W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. B. Kimmerly on July 5, with sixteen members present and several visitors. Mrs. Kimmerly was in the chair all way. After repeating the Lord's Prayer, the roll call was answered by a "Recipe for a hot day" and "Jam". The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. A letter of thanks was read from the persons receiving a quilt and parcel of clothing.

Rev. W. Smith, pastor at Selby Empey Hill gave a very interesting and instructive talk on health and ways to take better care of our health. He gave a comparison between the system of medical help in England and Canada, showing ahead of English hospitals. A plan in what ways our Institute could help to impose taxes on the people for doctor bills, as it would share alike was discussed.

A vote of thanks was then given Rev. Smith and a solo by Mrs. Smith for the excellent talks from both.

Current events were read by Mrs. G. Allen followed by the taking up of questions in guest box by Mrs. K. Tuckey.

The Chairman of Historical Research has charge of the question box for August.

A suggestion that those who could would bring exhibits of antiques, etc. be talked about and planned for the Grandmother's meeting. After the collection (1.10 was taken) the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem. A sumptuous lunch was served by hostess and lunch committee. A vote of thanks to the chairman was tendered to the hostess for her kind hospitality.

OTTAWA MAYOR BLAMES TORONTO

Mayor Simpson Replies To Nolan's Letter

Toronto, July 15 (CP)—Declaration of Premier Hepburn that he will not interfere with bankers places the responsibility upon municipalities, Mayor Simpson maintained today in a statement to a telegram sent him by Mayor Nolan, Ottawa, criticizing the action of the city of Toronto in dealing with a trekkers' tag day here Saturday. Mayor Nolan would attempt to hold Toronto responsible in the courts for any damages that might result in Ottawa as a result of the march.

Mayor Simpson stated the Ottawa Mayor as follows: "In reply to your telegram, deserters from relief camps not being allowed to collect funds on public streets of Toronto for the purpose of financing on-to-Ottawa trek. Best interest of good government will be policy of Toronto as in past. Premier Hepburn's declaration he will not interfere with Ottawa march in Ontario places responsibility on each municipality for the securing of best judgment. Sympathize with you in your difficulties."

Crane Pushes Man Over Niagara Cliff, But He is Saved

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 15 (CP) —David B. Adams, 30, was lucky. He was pushed over the Niagara cliff at Honeymoon Point by a big crane and lives and will live to tell the tale. Adams is foreman in charge of the crane operation and did not see the crane moving toward him. He was thrown from the top to the rocks on a ledge 100 feet below. Workmen rescued him from the ledge by stretcher perch and rushed him to hospital where it was found that he had sustained only a broken leg and head injuries but his condition is not regarded as serious.

HOLIDAY GUESTS AT CROWE LAKE

Marmora, July 16—Mr. Jack Simpson of Brockville was in town on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor and son Jackie, who have been visiting for the past two weeks, returned to Sudbury on Monday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ada O'Neil, who will visit them for a couple of months.

Mrs. Orville Miller of Kingston are guests at the Tipperlee cottage for the past couple of weeks.

Miss Francis Rose of Peterboro, is holidaying at her home here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor and son Jackie, who have been visiting for the past two weeks, returned to Sudbury on Monday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ada O'Neil, who will visit them for a couple of months.

Mrs. Orville Miller of Kingston are guests at the Tipperlee cottage for the past couple of weeks.

Miss Francis Rose of Peterboro, is holidaying at her home here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert and family of Toronto are holidaying at Miss Sullivan's cottage at Crowe Lake for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Orville Miller of Kingston are guests at the Tipperlee cottage for the past couple of weeks.

Miss Francis Rose of Peterboro, is holidaying at her home here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert and family of Toronto are holidaying at Miss Sullivan's cottage at Crowe Lake for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert and family of Toronto are holidaying at Miss Sullivan's cottage at Crowe Lake for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. R

• FOR WINDBURN and SUNBURN
A COOLING
FACIAL
$1.00
MANICURE 35c
Polly Elvins
383½ Front St. Phone 1286

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Berwick of Detroit, are visitors in the city for a few days.

Miss Jocelyn Jones, John street, left today to visit friends in Sudbury.

Mr. Tom McRae of this city, was a guest at the Kingston Yacht Club dance on Saturday night.

Colonel W. N. Ponton left on Monday afternoon for Masonic Grand Lodge, which meets in Hamilton this year.

Dr. and Mrs. McKenna, (formerly Miss Margaret Beamish), Portland, are spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. Jack Marsh and Mrs. Walter Harden, left Sunday on a month's vacation at Villa Park, Lake Ontario.

Miss Margaret Lee of St. Michael's Hospital Toronto, is spending two weeks vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Phillips and daughter, Dorothy, of Ottawa, are spending their holidays with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brook, Trent Road.

Mrs. Charles Logan, Mrs. Russell Logan and Miss Joan Logan of Crestwood, Belleville, were the guests of Mrs. Ponton at Sidney Cottage.

Mr. Harry Pearson, Brockville, was a visitor in the city today.

Word was received by friends in the city of the death of Clarence De Long in Kingston hospital on Sunday.

Most Wor. Brother Rev. A. L. Geen, Grand Chaplain has returned in the Orange Services at St. George's Church on Sunday. There was a large attendance of L.O.L. and L.O.B.A. members.

Mr. Fred Hinde, president of Belleville Pressed Brick, Ltd. who has been confined to his home for some weeks through illness is making satisfactory progress towards recovery and expects to be out again in the very near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Crewe had have returned to the city after a trip to Bay City, and Saginaw, where they were guests at the golden wedding of Mrs. Crewe's sister, Mrs. Crawford and Mr. Stanley Prince of Pontiac, Mich.

Rev. John E. Burke of the Pacific Fathers, New York City, is visiting his brother, Dominic Burke, Church street. Father Burke preached on Sunday in the Vocational Guidance to which a Pontifical Mass was celebrated by the Archbishop of Toronto, to mark the opening of the convention of College Catholic Clubs.

Mrs. L. A. Kells and Miss Ethel Adams were hostesses at a charming shower tea at the former's home last evening, in honour of Miss Gertrude Eckleson, bride-to-be. Twenty-five guests called and Miss Kecheson was the recipient of a handsome kitchen cabinet. Pink and blue were the colour scheme carried out in the tea table was very attractively arranged with pink snapdragons and pink tapers in silver holders. Mrs. R. H. Ketcheson poured tea.

Mrs. J. G. Boomhower and young daughter of Montreal, are visiting her mother, Mrs. E. O. Ecker, Dundas street.

Mr. J. C. Moore, Regina, is visiting his sister and brothers, Miss Lily Moore, Mr. Wilmot Moore, Hillcrest Avenue, and Mr. Alex. Moore, George street. Mr. Moore is a native of Plainfield, but resided in the West for the past fifty years. Crop conditions there are more favourable this year than for several years, the latter reports.

Mrs. Vincent MacDonald was hostess at an enjoyable kitchen shower held last evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Wells, 11 Strachan street, in honor of Miss Florence Kelley, bride-elect. The rooms were very prettily decorated with flowers. Bridge parties and amusing games were played during the evening. Mrs. Percy Murphy and Miss Lou Mallory won two prizes at games while Miss Marjorie Bowerman and Miss Pauline Kelley were also prize winners. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the interesting evening.

Weddings

MACDONALD—BEET

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 136 Dundonald street, on Saturday, July 13th, when Mr. George Clifton MacDonald and Miss Mary Etta Beet, both of Belleville, were united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Farrow, B.A., pastor of the bride.

The young couple left on a tour to points west and on their return they will reside in Belleville.

HONOR ROLL

STOCKDALE, JUNE REPORTS S.S. NO. 17 MURRAY

Names in order of merit.
Honours 75 per cent. ; Pass 60 per cent.

Beginners — Vera Cox, Marjorie Wall, Theresa Corrigan, Velma Palmer, Donald Crowe, Roydon Sharpe, Shirley Sharpe.

Sr. Pr. to Sr. Pr.—Norma Crowe Wesley Benson.

Jr. Pr. to I — Shirley Westlake 80 (hon.); Shirley Reynolds 67 (hon.); Jack Powell 71.3 (hon.).

I to II — Jack Benson 82.4 (hon.); Glen Sharpe 77.7 (hon.); Herman Cox 74.4 (Pass); Elwood Reid 73.5 (Pass); Earl Crowe 72 (Pass); Vera Hall 66.6 (Pass); Stanley Reynolds 58 (rec.); Arthur Handley 52.4 (rec.).

Jr. to Sr. II—Billy Benson 73.7 (Pass); Pauline Westlake 67.3 (Pass); Ethel Hall 66.3 (Pass); Norman Cox 64.6 (rec.).

Sr. II to Jr. III—Garland Shabbot 89 (hon.); Irvine Twiddy 80.3 (hon.); Jack Benson 78.3 (Pass); Garnet Powell 66.3 (Pass); Keith Benson 59 (Pass).

Marcia Sprague, teacher.

Results of Entrance Examinations

Entrance to High School—Evelyn Crowe (hon.); Walter Shadbolt (hon.).

Jr. IV to Sr. IV—Irvene Lenoir 81.1 (hon.); Dorothy Hall 77.1 (hon.); Harold Pilcher, Carman Westlake.

Intermediate—Carl Powell.

Jr. III to Jr. IV—Pearl Cox, (hon.); Ruth Hall, Lorne Benson.

Jr. II to Sr. III—Jos Corrigan, Bertha Westlake, Mary Westlake, Idelbe Wall, Nellie Cox, Helen Orr, John Wadsworth, Lorne Hall.

Pearl Meyers, teacher.

CENTENARY W. A.

The Women's Association held its July meeting on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Wm. Ellis, Pinnacle Ave. A sumptuous dinner was served at noon, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the twenty-seven present.

Mrs. Fred Aikens, President, was in charge of the meeting which opened with a hymn. Mrs. Ellis offered prayer and all repeated the 23rd Psalm. Minutes of last year's meeting entitled "I'll stay where you put me", The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Donation for day $4.15. Rev. Mr. Plant closed with prayer.

CENTENARY W.M.S.

The W.M.S. of Centenary Church held its July meeting July 11th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thrasher, 174 President. Mrs. Roy Thrasher gave the call to worship and opened the meeting with a hymn. Mrs. Jas. Radford led in prayer. The keynote for next meeting is "sorrow". The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. Roy Thrasher gave a reading on "Our duty". Collection for day with duet, $3.15. Mrs. Wilf. Ray, group leader, the took charge of the group program consisting of hymn 26, followed with the Lord's Prayer in unison, Mrs. Ray then read the Scripture reading. Mrs. J. Ray gave a reading "Japanese Honour". Mrs. Herman, (Foxboro) gave a duet "Unumphant" followed by hymn "Rescue the perishing". Mrs. Garland gave a reading on "peace" and Mrs. S. Ray gave the "Old Time Road" Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Plant gave a duet, "Bringing them back to the fold". Mrs. Florence Johnson offered prayer and also read a beautiful poem on "Prayer" and asked the congregation to spend one minute in prayer communion with God. Rev. Mr. Plant closed the meeting with prayer.

2 KILLED IN CRASH

London, July 16—(AP)—Two persons were killed today in the blazing wreckage of an airplane which crashed on the edge of Western Airdrome after a takeoff for Spithead for the silver jubilee review of the British fleet.

MADOC JCT. NEWS OF NEIGHBORHOOD

Madoc Junction, July 16—Mr. and Mrs. J. Rayner entertained relatives over last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Shipley and Grant and Mr. and Mrs. G. Fralick and Rosella enjoyed a drive to Trent Bridge and Healey Falls on Sunday.

Master Seymour Ashley is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Philip Hamilton of Mountain View.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beanderis entertained friends on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Eggleton and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Munroe of Ponliac, Mich., also Mrs. Wallen Eggleton of Belleville spent Thursday evening at Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Shipley's and also visited Mrs. Geo. Clarke.

Quite a number from here attended the 12th of July celebration at West Huntingdon.

Miss Helen of Wentworth is visiting at her sister', Mrs. Warren Hayes.

Miss Marguerite Jeffrey of Tweed is spending part of her vacation with her sister, Mrs. Douglas Shipley.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Beanderis of Colborne were Friday evening callers at Mr and Mrs. O. Shipley's.

Mrs. George Clarke spent the seahour last Sunday in Stirling with her brother, Mr. Thomas Hamilton.

Mrs. Sarah Stapley spent Sunday in Stirling with Mr. and Mrs. F. Stapley.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Pitchett and Rosella, Mr. and Mrs. O. Stapley, Donald and Grant also Miss Ruby Stapley visiting last week at Oak Lake, Sunday evening.

Rev. Mr. Dow, pastor here preached at Eggleton Church on Sunday afternoon taking for his text Psalm 91 and the 15th verse.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eggleton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hough of Frankford on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Wannamaker entertained Mr. and Mrs. N. Wannamaker on Sunday.

Miss Annie Cooke of West Huntingdon is visiting her sister Mrs. Stapley.

Eggleton W.M.S.

The regular July meeting of the Eggleton W.M.S. was held at the church on Thursday night. Mrs. Warren Harlow presided and opened the meeting with hymn "Day is Dying in the West" after which Mrs. Raymond Chambers led in prayer.

The Scripture lesson John 14, 1-15 verses was read by Mrs. John Cooke. Then a hymn was sung.

Roll Call was answered by seven members and six visitors. Mrs. C. Pitchett and Miss Helen McCubben each gave a reading.

An interesting dialogue on "Faith and Prayer" was given by Mrs. R. Chambers, Mrs. Mina Wilson and Miss Marion McMullen.

Offering was taken and the meeting closed with singing "Take Time to be Holy".

Denton Massey to Address Young Canada Conservatives

The great approach of the general election adds significance to the banquet of the executive committee of the Provincial Young Canada Conservative Clubs, which will take place in Toronto's Royal York Hotel next Tuesday evening. At that time, practically every representative of this organization will listen to an address by Denton Massey.

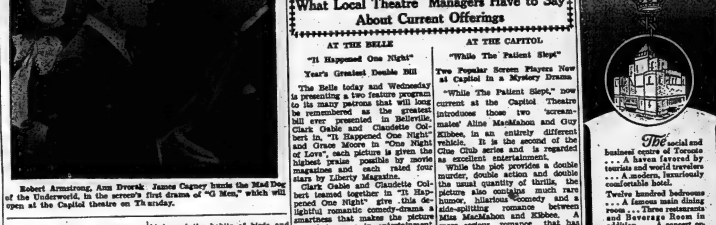
About two hundred Young Canadians will be on hand tonight; thousands will hear Mr. Massey speak over the radio. Probably the most interesting will be familiar with the thinking processes of young Canada, or more is grouped with its ideals and aspirations than Denton Massey. Among our young people Denton Massey's is a name to conjure with throughout the province, and many an oldster will tune in on the Royal York next Tuesday evening to learn what this young man has to say about "Four Men and a Vote."

Katharine Hepburn and Charles Boyer in a scene from the drama "Break of Hearts", modern romantic drama, at the Belle, Thursday.

PHONE 2340
QUALITY FURS, REPAIRS
SPECIAL PRICES
Ashley Furs
294 FRONT STREET
Next to Elsie's, Belleville, Ont.

"SUNDAY TRAFFIC" SLOWS UP ROMANCE

But you don't have to be a celebrated beauty to appreciate all that Lifebuoy does for the complexion! Lifebuoy penetrates, purifies, deep-cleanses the pores. Yet it is more than 20% milder than many so-called "beauty soaps." Scientific skin tests. Complexions can't help thriving on Lifebuoy care!



A good time to repeat . . .

No one is safe from "B.O." (body-odour)—and never is this truer than in summer! Bathe regularly with Lifebuoy. Even in cold water, Lifebuoy lather is fragrant, refreshing, purifying. Its clean, quickly-vanishing scent suggests, "Lifebuoy for summer safety."

Approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau

MILLIONS SAY "It proves active body odour!"

LIFEBUOY HEALTH SOAP

ROTARIANS VISIT CAMP AT MOIRA

Boys of Teen Age Having Time of Lives at Lake

Belleville Rotarians to the number of thirty, headed by President Herb Hoyce and Past President Jamieson Bone motored to Moira Lake Monday evening and were the guests of Joe Shortt, commandant of the Boys' Camp, and his crew of forty husky boys, who are just finishing up a two-weeks' stay at the camp. Fifteen is the top age for the boys, which means that the camp is one big dynamo of energy and happiness.

Dinner was served in the large dining room, a camp cooked meal, with all that implies, and the hungry Rotarians certainly did themselves proud in their attack on the victuals, and were loud in their praise of the camp cook and the service of the camp leaders, who moved about swiftly, quietly and with an efficiency that permitted no Rotarian to want for anything from a glass of spring water to a second helping of roast beef.

Songs by the boys entertained the visitors and community singing in which all joined filled the air with music and generated a general air of jollity.

Camp Life Outlined

Life in the camp with its program of sports and recreation and study was detailed in an interesting manner by the camp manager, Joe Shortt, showing the advantages to the boys attending, including learning to swim, nature study in the woods, learning the names of the trees and shrubs, also the names of birds and the habits of birds and animals, learning craftsmanship, in the making of baskets, boats, totem poles, and canoes, etc. The boys are also taught to be neat and tidy in their beds and keep the log bunk house in order so that it will not pass the inspection of the camp officers appointed for that purpose. The best record for bunkhouse efficiency is rewarded with the honor flag for the day, which is regarded quite a distinction in the camp. Individual merit marks are also scored and awarded at the close of the camp, a senior and junior camp champion and runner-up and for the greatest number of merit marks. A chart hangs in the mess hall on which progress is noted thereon, including the proficiency in sports, his manners and general conduct toward the other boys, and if he is rated 1%

REALTY! YOU'RE READING THE WANT ADS!

UP TO $50. EACH PAID FOR U. S. INDIAN HEAD CENTS

We are paying this premium for U. S. cents. Up to $50. each for U. S. Lincoln Head cents. Up to $10. each for Canadian cents, dated as follows: Small cents, 1858 to 1867; large cents, 1858 to 1867; Obverse, Head, Old Style. Reverse, Wreath. Send 10c for New Illustrated price list and other coin information. Guaranteed or no return.

HUB COIN SHOP
136-138 FRONT ST.
BELLEVILLE - ONTARIO

Business Directory

AUTO LOANS

AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Car Financing
Plan of All Kinds
S. J. FISHER & SON
26 Bridge St. East Telephone 168
Belleville
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto - Ottawa - London - Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

B. A. WYATT, Ph.G., CHIROPRACTOR and Drugless Physician. Consultation, examination and treatment. Electro-vibration, electro-therapeutic and ultra-violet ray. Spinal and foot adjustments. Manipulative massage and electric treatments avoids nasty operations. 282 Ontario street, Belleville. Phone 1274.

TWO CHIROPRACTORS
DR. J. S. Fricker, Chiropractor and Drugless Physician. Consultation, examination and treatment. Ultra-violet and infra-red rays. Electro and Mechanical Treatments. 62½ Bridge St. E., Belleville, Ont. Phone 1274.

DENTIST

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 468 Belleville 2-3-4 Front St.

RADIO SERVICE

JOHN A. DEWAR
RADIO ELECTRICIAN
Graduate
343 John St. Phone 811

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH
ONTARIO LAND SURVEYOR
Land Surveyor, Civil Engineer, Land Surveyor, Civil Engineer, Land Surveyor, Civil Engineer,

CANADIAN MILLIONAIRES MAY CHOOSE SARK AS TAX REFUGE

Harry Oakes (TOP) and William H. Wright (BELOW), two of Canada's richest men, whose annual income tax payments are estimated to aggregate $3,000,000, are reported to be considering moving their residences to the Channel Islands (see map) because parliament is to tax income is spent in taxes. The bleak island (RIGHT, ABOVE) is ruled by a woman, Mrs. Sybil Mary Hathaway, Wright, director of Wright, Hargreaves mine, claims 70 per cent of Sark (shown in session below). Mr. doesn't impose income taxes.

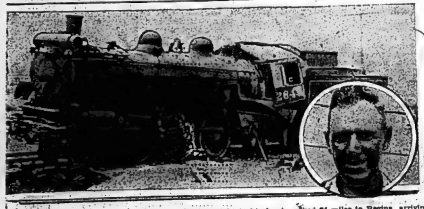
IRISH CHAMP DEMONSTRATES FLYING SCISSORS

PRESENTED TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

The official portrait of His Majesty, King George V, which was presented to President Roosevelt, representing the United States, by Sir Ronald Lindsay, British ambassador, in a ceremony at the White House. The president sent the portrait to the National Museum in Washington, where it will be hung.

NORTHERN ALBERTA SCOURGED BY FLOOD



Since the middle of June, the great Peace River country from the Lesser Slave Lake district north to Grande Prairie, has been cut off from Edmonton, the city which keeps the northland stocked with necessities. Lesser Slave lake has swept over its banks, driving hundreds from their homes, laying waste thousands of acres of crops, washing out highways and railway roadbeds.

Further north, rain choked rivers have expanded into lakes, putting a large fraction of the Peace river area under water. Highways for a few weeks negotiable by scows, horses and corduroy floating roads, are now impassable.

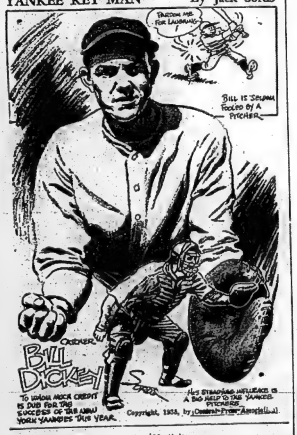
Trains have been stalled along the right of way for close on two weeks. Mail and food supplies are flown in along with newspapers, to keep the people of the Peace in touch with the outside world. Cattle are starving to death, buildings fall as foundations crumble and farmers count-ing their losses in millions, pray for a let up of the month-king steady rainfall.

Above layout shows TOP, town of Peace River under water. CENTRE, to get to your room in this hotel, take boat in door (arrow) paddle through beverage room to stairway. BELOW, in vicinity of Slave Lake. Note how water reaches near top of barn door.

SEES 12 INJURED IN TRAIN WRECK IN HIS FRONT YARD

John Nelson, farmer of Craven, Sask., got up early one morning and sat on his front steps to watch a passenger train plunge headlong into a work train right in his front yard. Twelve were injured in the crash and the engineer of the work train, A. J. Johnson of Moose Jaw, was so dazed and shaken that he walked 24 miles to Regina, arriving there eight hours after the collision. A view of the wrecked passenger engine and Farmer Nelson are shown above.

BOUND FOR EUROPE AND ALTAR



As Douglas Fairbanks and Lady Sylvia sailed from Quebec, cameramen tried to get them to pose together without success, but they obliged separately. Fairbanks intimated his long expected marriage to Lady Ashley will take place in Europe next January when his divorce from Mary Pickford becomes final.

FAMOUS FLIER ON AIR HONEYMOON

Leigh Brintnell, famous Canadian flier and president of Mackenzie Air Service, is flying from Toronto to Great Bear Lake on his honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Brintnell and aeroplane are shown above. Mrs. Brintnell was formerly Miss Caroline Mitchell of Charleston, West Virginia. The honeymooners will be accompanied by a party of mining men, headed by Gilbert Labine.

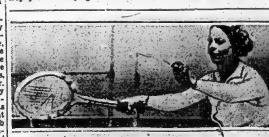
YANKEE KEY MAN By Jack Sords

FUTURE STAR?

YVETTE SAWYER

Rated the most promising possibility for senior tennis honors developed in Quebec, Miss Yvette Sawyer, is ready to start the trail to tennis glory. A winner of hard practice indoors has helped the pretty French-Canadian miss, ranked No. 2 in her home province.

YANKEE SKIPPER INVADES CANADIAN WATERS



Richard A. Hendry of Quincy, Mass., who skippered a boat participating in the Prince of Wales trophy race carrying with it the north Atlantic championship for junior events, at Yarmouth, N.S. His captain was Frank "Bud" Montgomery with Hendry as mate. He is shown at the tiller of his boat.

DANNO O'MAHONY, THE IRISHMAN WHO CAME TO AMERICA TO WIN THE HEAVYWEIGHT WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIP FROM JIM LONDOS, AND DID SO, EXHIBITING HIS FLYING SCISSORS GRIP TO THROW ED MESKE, A SPARRING PARTNER, DANNO SUCCESSFULLY DEFENDED HIS TITLE IN YANKEE STADIUM AGAINST CHIEF LITTLE WOLF. THE CAMERA SHUTTER REVEALS CLEARLY HOW HE MAKES THIS TOSS.

SKYLIGHT BROKEN WRIST IS CUT

Robert Kidd, son of Chief Constable Kidd, sustained a badly lacerated right wrist when the skylight, that he was washing broke, the jagged glass inflicting a three inch gash in his wrist impeding the movement of his fingers. Bob, as he is familiarly known to his friends, was removed to the surgery of Dr. J. J. Robertson by H. G. Woodley and the driver of White's hardware truck, where the wound was closed. After receiving first aid at the office of Dr. Robertson, Bob was removed to the Belleville General Hospital, where it is estimated at least six stitches will be required to close the wound.

ALICE CAN'T PLAY—Physician's orders prevent Alice Marble, above, Pacific tennis star, from competing in east this summer.

HE ISN'T YAWNING—Jack Medica, star Seattle swimmer, has his mouth open but he isn't yawning. It looks like work.

THIRD AMELIASBURG

3rd. Ameliasburg —Mr. George Maidens of London, is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Alyea.

Misses Flossie Humphrey and Marion Adams were among those who attended Consecon League picnic on Saturday at Oak Lake.

Miss Helen Jones of Stirling, is visiting this week at Mr. Arnold Mastin's.

The farmers are very busy at present hauling peas to the Consecon canning factory. There seems to be an abundant crop of peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bouyant of Belleville and Mrs. Campbell of Peterboro were Sunday evening callers at Mrs. E. Humphrey's.

Master Arthur Adams of Centre, is holidaying at his grandfather's, Mr. Everett Adams.

THE RED TIGER

By ALANSON CROSBY

THE PERFECT SERVANT

CHAPTER TWENTY-NINE

Judith was aghast at the discovery that the man beside her, who manifestly was not taking her in the direction of the Metropolitan Hotel was no other than the burly black chauffeur who had sent Miss Madison's car deliberately over the cliff.

The conviction that her present plight was an even more dangerous one than that which threatened her at "The Tiger" chilled her. Yet what could she do? Escape seemed impossible. Perhaps letters could accomplish something.

"I know you now," she forced herself to speak calmly, though her heart was pounding.

"It's-ah!" grinned the chauffeur.

"I don't know where you are taking me, or what your ideas are, but I want to go to the Metropolitan Hotel. I'll make it well worth your while to take me there."

"Sorry," came the mocking reply in the way he used the word. "Can not turn around now. Miss Madison wants to see you. Most there."

Something in his grim tone and clipped sentences quelled that argument or bribery would be useless. There was in this man a strange loyalty to the mysterious, dangerous woman who enjoyed him—to love or that did not balk at murder and all manner of unspeakable indignities was impervious to all Judith Madison's wishes, too—but not aloof. There was no way out. She could only get word to Bob Harley or Captain Middleton. Even in that event the hope dim almost to non-existence —she could contrive a plausible story for Miss Madison. Possibly—and she knew the possibility—that was her only real chance now—the stranger better who had accumulated her to "watch her step" on her previous visit would still be secretly friendly. At any rate there was nothing for her to do but wait developments as calmly as she could.

Even as these thoughts were passing through her mind, the small car swung through the ring-way at Miss Madison's stately grounds and in a minute was stopped before a door in front of a rear wing in the manner of a side door of the great house. The chauffeur evidently had access to the servants' entrance and would take her into the house that way.

Dawn had broken suddenly and the grey sky rang with the music of myriad birds. The distant hills were clad in rose, and sunlight was already on the sea far above the horizon and the valley below. Judith's big heart was filled. Never, she thought, had earth been more beautiful. Was the beauty of her future or was it so splendid only because it was the last dawn she was to look upon? Her throat ached with the tears that she brushed the tears from her eyes and stiffened her drooping figure. She would not give way to doubt or despair.

Her captor silently beckoned her to follow him and opened a door with a key from the bunch he carried. She followed him into what seemed only a small plainly furnished room. He pointed to a chair and said:

"Make yourself comfortable. Miss Madison isn't downstairs yet, but she's an early riser, and won't be long." Leaving he turned suddenly and said with an unpleasant grin:

"Don't try to get away—you can't."

Judith heard the click of the key in the door. Opposite her was another door. She tried it mechanically and found, as she expected, that it was also locked. Again, she was a prisoner, as definitely as she had been in the small room on the third floor of "The Red Tiger."

Judith sat down in the chair indicated by the chauffeur and looked around her. There was nothing striking about the room, unless its smallness and plainness could be classified by that term. What particular use was she going to be put to? She smiled ironically and she smiled grimly at the thought. Perhaps the reception room for prisoners. High above was a very small window, admitting light but affording no means of viewing the outside world or of escaping to it.

Being without her wrist watch, Judith could not determine exactly the passage of time, but it seemed at least an hour that she waited, with nothing to occupy her but her thoughts before the farther door opened and Miss Madison entered with a chilled - malignant smile.

"Quite an early call, Miss Bates," she said, with a studied effort to be insulting. "I hope you're picked you up at a notorious resort known as 'The Red Tiger.' I suppose you do go to such places, but how did you come to be there? Not looking for trouble, I'll wilt embarrass you—it is none of my business, of course it is none of my business."

Judith looked inwardly with anger but tried to speak calmly.

"My being there was an accident, but your chauffeur's bringing me here wasn't. He promised to take me to the Metropolitan Hotel. Why did he bring me here, Miss Madison?"

"I suppose he thought I'd want to express my regret for your unfortunate accident the other evening," said Miss Madison coolly. "Sam tells me the car got out of his control and ran over a cliff. Unfortunately for you it seems you were not in it at the time. The car, I understand, is a total wreck. I should congratulate you, I guess, on your good fortune."

Judith shuddered at the woman's sarcasm and controlled herself effort-fully.

"Why you want to kill me, Miss Madison?" she demanded, point-blank.

After Madison fitted her facilities together and laughed, mirthlessly.

"Ha! Ha! What an absurd question, my dear Miss Bates! Why should I want to kill you? Really, aren't you a bit theatrical?"

"No," said Judith flatly. "There is no doubt in my mind that your chauffeur sent your car over that cliff deliberately and, of course, by instruction. If I had not jumped I would have been killed. Now he brings me here instead of taking me to my hotel. As he promised. Of course I didn't recognize him at first, with the black off his face. Why was he blackened up right before last if the wrecking of the car was not deliberately planned?"

Miss Madison shrugged her shoulders and smiled superciliously.

"Sam is funny that way. A perfect servant, supremely faithful and would do absolutely anything I asked him to, without a question. There was significance in the deliberation and emphasis of the last sentence. But he has a childish passion for masquerade. It would not surprise me to see him come in next disguised as a Chinaman! And, do you know, he actually got away with it? Always fools strangers. If I hadn't known him my self and so will I might be deceived myself!"

There was a sinister quality in this short monologue that was not lost upon Judith. Sam was a perfect servant—would do anything—was a master of disguise. It was as much as to notify Judith that Sam would murder her gladly at his mistress' bidding, altering a disguise for the purpose that would effectively conceal him from discovery. Judith's blood ran cold in contemplation of the danger, of the unscrupulous fatally this masterful woman could inspire in an underling, and of Madison's own cold-blooded unscrupulousness in gaining her ends. For the first time the full realization came to Judith of her own precarious position and of the tremendous obstacles she and Randall Spencer would have to surmount if they outwitted Harriet Madison in the end. As matters stood Miss Madison held all the trumps.

"Why can't there be peace between us?" Judith said impulsively. "Why do you hound me Miss Madison?"

"Hound you? Did you get that word out of a novel or a movie?" said Miss Madison with a short laugh. "As to peace—well, what are your terms?"

"I ask nothing of you," said Judith. "except that you leave Randall Spencer and me alone."

"You offer nothing and ask every thing," said Miss Madison, coldly. "You are ridiculous, my dear. I claim on Randall Spencer, I have. Because he is temporarily infatuated with you do you suppose for a minute that I am going to give him up to you?"

"It is not a temporary infatuation," Judith protested. "He loves me."

TO BE CONTINUED

Little Benny's Note Book

I was around at the firehouse tawking to Mr. Riley the bookin ladder driver, and I asked him if firegines went on vacations like ordinery people or whether they dont need a vacation, and Mr. Riley said, They need vacations the same as anybody elss, but they very seldom take one because they're found from sad experience that a fireman can never get away from fires any more than a herd can get away from feathers. My own last vacation was a good illustration, he said

O, what happened, I said, and Mr. Riley said, Well, Mrs. Riley wanted to see this volcano, Mount Vissovida. It seems wimmin get hunny noshuns but anyways I took her on a boat trip to Naples, where this volcano has set itself up. I thought I'd get a little rest from fires, but on the contrary one broke out on the trip before we hardly pulled up the anker, and from then on there was fires aboard at least once a day and sometimes 3 and 4 times, Mr. Riley said.

Well gosh, what caused them? I said, and he said, They was the work of a practical joker, and who do you supose he was but the captain himself. He found out I was a fireman, generly from a habit I have of always wearing my uniform, so he knew there couldn't be any real danger from fire as long as I was on board, so he decided to have a little fun at my expense. Every day fires would brake out in different parts of the ship, and finely I had to recruit a volunteer fire brigade among the passengers.

O, they must of had fun I said, and Mr. Riley said, I dont know but they learned a lot about putting fires out, because finely I got so that I couldn't sit down for a meal or stretch out for a wink of sleep without getting a hurry call from the captain telling me another blaze was reported. That captain was a card. I can tell you I heard later that several of my volunteer firemen stuck to the work and became professionals and are holding down good jobs now. Well, I dont you drop in again some time? Mr. Riley said and I said, I will.

Wich I will.

TEX AND HIS PALS (Actual Photographs)

Copyright, 1935, by Bayless Features, Dallas, Texas, U.S.A. All Rights Reserved

By Leslie A. Hill

BRINGING UP FATHER—

By George McManus

TILLIE THE TOILER—

By Russ Westovers

DANGER TRAILS—WITCH CRAFT

By The Famous Explorer Martin Johnson

MR. AND MRS—

By Briggs

TARZAN THE UNTAMED—

(Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service)

Usanga was for taking his first lesson in aviation immediately. The Englishman attempted to dissuade him. Whereupon the sergeant began threatening. "All right, old top," muttered Roger. "I'll give you the lesson of your life!" Then, to Olga: "Ask Jim to let you come."

Usanga glowered savagely and refused. "She stays here," he said, "my people will not harm her unless you fail to bring me back safely." "Tell him," said Roger, "that if you are not landing in plain sight British camp."

Usanga agreed and explained this to his warriors. Once sealed within the plane, however, his courage began to wane. When the motor was started and the great propeller commenced to whir, Usanga screamed to Roger to stop the thing and let him out.

By this time the plane was moving along the ground. As it arose and soared gracefully over the trees, the sergeant was terrified. He saw the earth dropping rapidly away from him. Higher and higher Roger drove the plane, swinging in a wide circle above the forest.

Baseball
Current Sport

IN THE REALM OF SPORTING EVENTS

Bowling
Golf

KIWANIS JUNIORS HELD TO DRAW BY FOXBORO NINE

Score is 7-7 With Some Good Baseball Thorwn in

ERRORS HURT

Bawden Hurls Nice Ball And Bennett Hits Well

Errors forced the Belleville Kiwanis juniors to accept a 7 to 7 draw in an exhibition baseball game played at Foxboro versus the home team of the South Hastings League last night. Despite the fact the Kiwanis kids outhit the Foxboro nines, they also out-errored the homsters, especially in the fourth inning, when three errors, a walk and a hit netted the homsters three runs and a tie. Staging a last inning rally, however, the local juniors came from behind to pull ahead of the home team, but the hits in the last half of the eighth resulted in the home nine scoring the tieing run, the game then being terminated on account of darkness.

To open the pastime the Kiwanis juniors played systematic baseball for Coach Meagher and amassed four runs in the first three frames, four more in the fourth part, subsequent errors on their part, however, eased the homsters into the lead which the locals' overcame with a belated eight tuning rally. Johnny Bawden hurled the game for the Kiwanis juniors striking out ten and walking but one. Harry Ketcheson started on the mound for the Foxboro nine, but was derricked in the sixth in favor of S. Ashley Ketcheson. Wilfred three Belleville ballers as Ashley only struck out one. The Belleville kids laid down four beautiful sacrifice hits to advance base runners during the fifth inning.

Bennett with three singles led the hitters of the day as Bawden, the local hurler counted two timely doubles in three official times at bat. A fly ball with a double and two singles led the homsters while Ketcheson and C. Wall each helped themselves to two hits, blasted Rod Johnson, Belleville third baker, provided the fielding sensation of the three circus catches of a pool ball behind third, while Bawden ran back into right to deprive Ketcheson of Sexsy's hit. The Belleville Kiwanis juniors are endeavoring to work out in future exhibition games with league teams in order to prepare themselves for the coming junior O.B.A.A. play-downs.

The Lineups:

Belleville Kiwanis: Sinfield If, Hughes rf, Whaley ss, Bennett 2b, Johnstone 3b, Ridd c, Cole 1b, Knoll and McCabe, p, Bawden p.

Foxboro: Ashley, Besley, Bailey, Longwell, E. Ketcheson and Carr, p, Ketcheson and Carr, c.

Score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	R	H	E
Belleville	2	1	0	0	0	0	4	0	7	9	5
Foxboro	0	0	0	3	0	1	0	3	7	6	6

Batteries: Clapper, plate; Paul, bases, both of Belleville.

PRINTERS DOWN IN SECOND PLACE

Defeated by American Hardware Team by 13 to 3

In a one-sided scoring game the American Hardware defeated the Ontario Intelligencer nine by the score of 12 to 3 in a regular scheduled Mercantile softball game played on their Yeomans street Grounds last night. The loss sustained by the "printers" drops them from a tie for first place into second berth in the league standing.

Harris on the hillop for the "printers" was his free wnile errors entered into the position much too frequently for his liking. "Jumbo" Graham, burling for the "lockmakers" received errorless support and was in rare form as he turned the team back scoreless in every inning, except the second and fifth.

Gardiner three runs in the initial frame the American Hardware nine kept adding to their account until they drove one even dozen across the plate, Reid, Bell and Hogan were the big wheelhorses for the winners while Lunberg was the only "printer" to get on base more than twice. This evening the last League match "lockmakers" defend the league leadership.

The line-ups:

Ontario Intelligencer— Lunberg, Kemp, Robinson, Philp, Ling, Oldpharb, Brockhurst, Hardwick and Harris. American Hardware—J. McGuire, Smith, Bell, Reid, Smith, J. Graham, F. McGuire, Hogan and P. Graham.

Ont. Int. 0 1 0 0 2 0 0 0 0— 3 runs
Am. Hard. 3 6 2 0 1 1 2 2 x—12

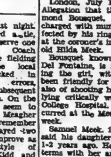
Umpires—Thompson, plate; Croxton, bases.

BULWARKS OF N. Y. GIANTS IN DRIVE FOR LEAGUE PENNANT

To this platoon of ball tossers New York Giants can credit much of their 1935 success which sees them at this stage of the league far out in front of the National circuit and apparently headed for the pennant—unless, like last year, they fade in the stretch. Terry's Giants have about everything a good ball club needs, but most of all they have a competent hurling corps which is functioning perfectly. A bit of hef-

CURRENT SPORT

DAY BY DAY



This evening the Stewart-Warner team can materially better their standing in the C.O.B.L. by taking the Peterboro "Tea Horses" into camp. Doubtlessly Art Calhoun will draw the pitching assignment of the day, and who will oppose him is somewhat of a mystery. Knotty Lee has been tempted to throw his veteran lefthander, Frankie Whitehouse in against the Radios, but always backs down at the last minute. In any event Proprietor "Spook" Scriver or Russ Kitchen will draw the flinging duties for the locals when the umpire-in-chief calls "play ball" at 6.15 p.m. this evening.

On the season's play with the Petes the Radios are one game up on the Petes as the Hills by here was three and lost two to Knotty Lee's charges. The Radios have one other game this evening, that being in Kingston on Friday twilighter. If the Stewart-Warners could surprise themselves and take those two games in succession, well everything would be Knotty Lees once again in the Mills-Lennox-Hastings camp. The locals have won their two games versus the Petes by scores of 3 to 0 and 5 to 0. Let's hope they continue the good work this evening.

Up in Oshawa on Saturday temperatures in the Parkdale and the Brewers split a twin bill, Clancy winning the afternoon tilt 5 to 3 while Letty Wills turned the Packs back, as the homsters won 7 to 1 behind her 10 safeties. Oshawa Central Park for their scheduled game last night, they waited, and they waited, for the Redneersville nine to put in an appearance, but, alas it seems the Prince Edward County aggregation are not playing in the local softball loop any longer. They just up and withdrew, and not without some justification, we understand. It seems there has been some little shifting of players hither and thon in local softball circles recently. The Asiamsas that their shortstop to the Alemites and promptly Manager Bowler Hegpeth cut and signed Jimmy Cook of the Redneersville squad. Of course both of these players legally obtained their release but it just seems as though the individual clubs think more of the league softball game and their own end, than the welfare of the league and future of the game. No person can blame the Redneersville nine for their stand and they are naturally going to a local softball circles forthwith. We doubt if there is one local club that would have hung on as did the Redneersville squad this season. Away in the cellar, they only had won two games this season, the Wannamaker-Ked aggregation stayed with the league, however, and once every game a battle. They are to be complimented upon their sportsmanship on the field and their dropping from the league should be regretted by all of those in the fraternity representing the clerk forced more.

The Oshawa Canada Juniors got another exhibition game under their belts at Foxboro last night. Although the game ended a.,ie, seven all it did much to serve one good purpose. It showed Coach Meagher that considerable fielding practice is needed by the Oshawa kids. Last night they kicked in with at least six glaring errors, nearly all resulting in subsequent scoring by the home team. On the attack the Kiwanis kids seem to be o.k., and as Coach Meagher points out: "you must remember there boys have only played two games together and will improve as they learn each other's style of play." President Chief Kidd and Manager Geo. Lean accompanied the team and were their most ardent supporters. Actually what the Kiwanis kids need is more baseball. The management is trying to procure the much needed games for the kids, but it is a tough proposition to book exhibition games so late in the season.

SEEKING SEVEN FEET

Confident he will be able to high-jump seven feet before finishing competition, Cornelius Johnson, "black kangaroo" from Los Angeles, is pictured above. Johnson already has cleared 6 feet 10 3-4 inches. He adds to the list of heroes taking top honors in U. S. track and field events.

BOA OF MONTREAL SCORES POSSIBLE

Alexandra Challenge Cup Outstanding Match of Day.

By THOMAS T. CHAMPION
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Bisley Camp, England, July 16.—(CP) Qubec.—The second and last week of the empire meeting of the National Rifle Association opened today with shooting conditions better than ever, and more of the high scoring that has resulted in numerous ties in most shoots.

The Alexandra challenge cup fired at 200 and 900 yards was the outstanding match of the day, and dozens of perfect scores, 36, were posted at the first distance. Lieut. James Boa of Montreal headed the Canadians with a possible in the first stage.

Plenty of sunshine and refreshing breeze made conditions better than last week, when some of the marksmen suffered from the heat.

Smashed early in the Alexandra, the veteran Coms. Alex Parnell of Verdun, Que., had a 34, as did the same as Lieut. Roger Sweet of Hamilton, Lt.-Col. F. W. Hinton of Toronto, and Lt. A. P. Williams of Ottawa. Major J. A. Burry of Toronto and Capt. A. W. Ross of Winnipeg turned in 33's; Sgt. W. H. Odell, Ottawa, Sgt. M. Freeman and Cpl. E. E. Wright of Montreal 32; and Lt. H. D. Proctor of Ottawa 30.

ALLEGE BOXER'S BRAIN AFFECTED

Raymond Bousquet is Charged With Murder of Sweetheart

London, July 16.—(CP Cable)—Alleged to have killed Miss Evelyn Raymond Bousquet, Winnipeg boxer charged with murder, had been affected by his ring career, it was learned at the coroner's inquest on 21-year-old Hilda Mears.

Bousquet known in the ring as Dal Hawkins, was described as having the girl, with whom he had been friendly for a long time, and also of choking her after, who by lying critically wounded in King's College hospital. She died as a result of the Monks' home last night.

Samuel Mook, father of the girl, said his daughter met the boxer 1-2 years ago and was on friendly terms with her and other members of the family, but was a regular visitor to the house.

Mook said that year ago when Pontaine "the worse for drink" he took a cigarette from the girl and threw her on the floor. They were reconciled however and that was the last he learned, he told the court.

"Hilda was greatly attached to me," Mook continued. "On the night of July 10, I was in a public house when my wife and son came and told me of the shooting.

"I rushed to the house in time to see Bousquet lying on the floor in his arms, carrying her through the front door. She was lying face behind him and I was shut out.

"A lodger in the house I saw my daughter lying on a couch and Bousquet standing at the head of the couch with his hands on her throat. He said 'I have done Hilda and Dal Hawkins.'

"The boxer made no attempt to escape," said.

Answering the defence, Mr. Meek said he did not know that Bousquet was receiving monthly allowance for a blood clot on the brain.

CANADIAN BOAT WINS FIRST RACE

Rochester, N.Y., July 16.—(AP)—Mist, entry of the Royal Canadian Yacht Squadron of Toronto, took the lead in the first race of the International Cup race for six metre class boats on Lake Ontario and behind in a rough sea to win the first event in the two-day program.

Only 15 seconds separated the first and third boats in the initial event, making it a dog fight from the start.

Jack Waterlown Yacht Club entry defending the Canadian colors did not been in competition since 1927 and Meteor, Toronto Yacht Club entry, forced Jack Ryder, its helmsman into Skipper, into a pocket at the start of the race and he could be found going to his liking.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By the Associated Press)

Ival Goodman, Reds — led 18-hit attack on Giants pitchers with triple and three singles.

Bill Herman, Cubs — connected with two doubles and single, his last two-bagger scoring winning run against Brooklyn.

Leo Durocher, Cards — Drove in seven runs with two homers, pair of singles in four times at bat.

Lonny Frey, Reds — Hit seventh inning double beat Senators.

Jimmy McLarnin Weds Schooldays' Sweetheart

JIMMY McLARNIN AND HIS BRIDE

Ex-king of the welterweights, Jimmy McLarnin of Vancouver, was married to his boyhood sweetheart, Miss Lillian Cupit, also of Vancouver. Above wedding with only the immediate families and Jimmy's manager, Charles 'Pop' Foster present. Jimmy says he will not go in the ring for some time yet and plans for new fights are in the offing. The McLarnins, husband and wife, are shown above. Miss Cupit has been teaching school in her home city.

Schumacher Knocked Off Heap As Reds Defeat Giants and Cut Their Lead to Five Games

Cincinnati Has An Up And Coming Ball Club

CARDS WIN

Defeat Braves And Run Their String of Victories to 11

(By Andy Clarke, Associated Press Sports Writer)

The bush leaguers of Cincinnati Reds has produced some mighty fine ivory.

Most of Minor League clubs here and there the Reds have brought in baseball timber that has been transformed into an aggregative, tightball club and some of the other teams are wondering what is going to happen when these fledglings become thoroughly seasoned.

Yesterday Reds shook off the four year jinx of Hal Schumacher and his mates collected 18 safe blows to give the Dizzy one his 15th triumph of the season. Schumacher bested two homers and Joe Medwick got a third.

The lone American League game played yesterday St. Louis Browns defeated Washington Senators 3-2, the margin of victory being provided by Lyn Lary in the 11th inning. Lary, who Washington traded to St. Louis a few weeks ago, turned back his former mates with a double, that drove in the deciding tally.

LEAGUE STANDING

C.O.B.L. Senior)

	W.	L.
Kingston	8	3
Peterboro	7	3
Oshawa	7	4
Belleville	7	7

Games this week—Tonight, Petes at Belleville; Friday, Belleville at Kingston; Saturday, Oshawa at Peterboro.

BAY OF QUINTE (Intermediate)

	W.	L.
Picton	6	1
Bellevill	4	2
Napanee	4	3
Gananoque	1	6

Games this week—Wednesday, Belleville at Picton; Friday, Napanee at Gananoque.

Teuton Slugger To Fight Either Louis or Baer

NEW YORK, July 16.—(AP)—It seems that Max Schmeling is going to fight somebody in September, but his opponent's identity has been obscured in a cross fire of contradictory statements.

The most that can be said at present is that the Teuton slugger will fight either Joe Louis, the Brown Bomber of Detroit, or Max Baer, the hitting bridegroom from Livermore, Calif.

James J. Johnston of Madison Square Garden announced last night he had closed negotiations for a 15-round match between Schmeling and Baer on or about September 20th at the Garden Bowl on Long Island.

Mike Jacobs of the 38th Century Club previously had announced that Schmeling had been matched to fight Louis at the Polo Grounds Sept. 18th.

Johnston said he had concluded his arrangements yesterday over the Trans-Atlantic telephone with Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's American manager, who is in Berlin.

"As a matter of fact," said Johnston, "we already had Schmeling under contract. We signed Baer through his manager, Ancil Hoffman, last Friday."

The news incensed Mike Jacobs, who immediately called his namesake in Berlin.

Turning from the telephone he denied that Johnston's statement was based on actual developments.

Joe Jacobs, reached in Berlin, said however, that inasmuch as Schmeling had not yet returned to Berlin from a hunting trip he had signed nothing.

Hoffman, manager of Baer, said Baer would be ready to fight at the Garden's pleasure.

TORONTO LEAFS BACK TO SECOND feat Baltimore Orioles 5-3 in a Night Game

(By the Associated Press)

Some 3,000 baseball fanatics, rulers of the International League circuit, turned out last night to watch the high places.

At any rate they don't do things peacemeal. If they win, they win it all, if they lose, they lose a lot. At least that's the way they play the splurge and there are fans, who predict that they are going to keep on until they find themselves back at the top of the heap again.

Last night they extended their string of victories to four and delivered their 32nd victory of the year. Bill Harris was tagged for three hits in the first inning before throwing it up to the Syracuse infield and retiring the 2-4. Harris allowed seven hits but tan his way without and only one chief reached second base. It was the 13th victory of this campaign and 10th straight on the road.

The shutout wasn't entirely the work of Harris, however, for his mates contributed three clever double plays.

Mullaney connected for two doubles and a single off Mulligan and Jack Fitzgerald for a pair for a round trip. Harris fanned Kroner and Fitzgerald in the last frame to dispose of the entire side on strikeouts.

Toronto moved into second place by the same standing by defeating Baltimore Orioles 5-3 in another night game.

Harris had handed Cliff Melton rather roughly and collected 10 hits in eight straight while Melton on the mound for Toronto was touched for 11 blows but managed to come through with a 5-3 win this season.

Orioles got two runs in the first and another in the sixth but then Melton settled down and Toronto bunched hits to score two in their half of the sixth and three more in the seventh.

Batting Leaders

By the Associated Press

AMERICAN LEAGUE

No changes.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Beiting—Vaughan Pirates .389; Medwick Cardinals .384.

Runs — Medwick Cardinals 68; Martin Cardinals and Ott Giants 56.

Runs batted in — J. Collins Cardinals 75; Ott Giants 73.

Hits — Medwick Cardinals 118; Terry Giants 113.

Doubles — Herman Cubs 30; Medwick and Medwick Cardinals 29.

Triples—Suhr Pirates and Goodman Reds 8.

Home runs — Ott Giants 20; J. Collins Cardinals 18.

Stolen bases — Martin, Cardinals 11; Moore Cardinals, Bordagaray, Hack Cubs and Goodman Reds 7.

Pitching — Parmelee Giants 10-3; Schumacher Giants 15-3.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, JULY 17, 1935

WEATHER
Moderate to fresh southerly winds; fair and warm today and most of Thursday; possibly a thunderstorm Thursday night.

TEMPERATURES
	Max.	Min.
Today	84	54
Year Ago	82	51

TREK SCHEDULED TO LEAVE TORONTO TODAY

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

New York, July 17 (CP) — Round for Hollywood, Chealy Countridge, British soldier, arrived on the Majestic yesterday to make her first United States vacation.

The actress said she was "bewildered" from her English company by Mickey Cochrane's query, "I'm very nervous and lonely," she said.

St. Catharines, Ont., July 17 (CP)—George Alderdice saw the screen eclipse his one new stars. Alderdice inspected the pharmaceutical exhibit at the Canadian National Exhibition a parted car, bloodshed himself unconscious.

Orangeville, Ont., July 17 (CP) — A city soldier taught the motorists here a good deed this week.

Nothing but suckers there, they told an American tourist who pointed to the Nottawasaga River.

The tourist was from Missouri, however, and proceeded with the catch of 24 rainbow trout, averaging almost two pounds each.

The river is now a popular fishing place.

New York, July 17 (CP)—The reward around the still form of the boy lying on the bank made way for Dr. Nicholas Arabian.

The doctor stepped off his seat and for four hours calmly used every ounce of his professional skill—in vain.

He finally pronounced the 16-year-old boy dead.

A policeman asked if anyone could identify the body. "I can," said the doctor, "it's my son, Nahan."

Springfield, Mass., July 17 (CP)—The boy that killed a snake unfriendly enough to bite Uncle Lengh's dog—and then bore a reward, a reprieve, a coupon head, stretched on her front porch Mrs. Lena Lengh decapitated it with a hoe "Ha!" she, lapped some of the snake's blood, apparently to make sure it was dead. All three did within a few minutes.

Hamilton, Ont., July 17 (CP)—"Hamilton" MacWhinney is in council.

"Hamilton" ran "Tinnegan" city hall viewer, and the Board of Control met on the roof of his brag door cat in the roof of his cage and a step-ladder handily it was "Hamilton" MacWhinney.

"That was four months ago. Now I'm a lawyer, I'd like to can about this," complained MacWhinney.

DYSART SWORN IN AS N. B. PREMIER

First Liberal Government In Province in Ten Years

Fredericton, N. B., July 17—(CP)—New Brunswick's first Liberal Government in 10 years was sworn in here Tuesday night under Hon. A. A. Dysart as premier and minister of education.

Other cabinet members are:

J. B. McNair, Fredericton, attorney-general.

F. W. Pirie, Grand Falls, minister of lands and mines.

C. T. Richard, Edmundston, secretary-treasurer.

A. C. Taylor, Salisbury, minister of agriculture.

Dr. W. F. Roberts, Saint John, minister of health and labor.

A. P. Paterson, Saint John, president of the executive council.

W. B. Anderson, Newcastle, chairman of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission and minister without portfolio.

The new Government succeeds that of Hon. L. P. D. Tilley, who resigned last Friday, as a result of the provincial elections June 27, when only five Conservatives were returned as against 43 Liberals. Every member of the old Cabinet lost his seat.

The Liberal party had declared an intention to abolish the department at federal affairs, and Mr. Patterson was mentioned as the most likely choice for the new post. Legislation would be necessary to create this department.

50,000 CHILDREN IN CEYLON DIE OF MALARIA

Colombo, Ceylon, July 17 (AP)—Reports from the headmen of Ceylon disclosed today that 50,000 children have died of malaria since the beginning of the year.

Although areas still were suffering from the effects of the epidemic, a steady improvement throughout most of the island was noted by the Ministry of Health.

On-to-Ottawa Trekkers Are Granted Permit To Leave Toronto Today

Provincial Police Will Supervise Conduct on Highway

14 MEN REMANDED

3 Trucks With Medical Supplies Will Accompany Men

Toronto, July 17 (CP)—Unable to raise bail, 14 "on-to-Ottawa" trekkers were remanded in custody in police court here today to face the following their arrest last night on charges of soliciting for funds without a permit. Bail for those charged with vagrancy was set at $500 each, while bail for 13 charged with soliciting funds for the march was set at $100 each.

Granted a permit by the leave the city in parade formation "on-to-Ottawa" trekkers, who have been bitleted here for the past 10 days were scheduled to start their first day of the journey to the Dominion Capital at 2.30 E.D.T. today, following the noon lunch.

Meanwhile 14 trekkers who were arrested yesterday for soliciting funds and vagrancy were out on bail and will be tried later.

No disorders marked the stay of the marchers here, although trekkers were said to be indignant today over the arrest of men soliciting funds for the march.

Three trucks, loaded with provisions for the long journey to Ottawa expected, to accompany the men on their march, it was said.

No assistance will be given the marchers by Provincial authorities, Premier Hepburn stated, in declining how the men expected to get food. Provincial relief would not be permitted police declared.

Trekking Through Bush

Kenora, Ont., July 17 (CP)—After an all-night trek through rain and mosquito-infested bush through the Lake-of-the-Woods district, 96 Manitoba single - camp strikers today were expected to arrive here some time this afternoon.

Since nine last night, when the men left the Manitoba-Ontario boundary they have slogged 26 miles along the Trans-Canada highway to Kenora.

But the mosquitoes, rain, and the muddy highway took their toll. Fifty-five strike marchers were transported by motor, while they straggled along the highway in small groups for the first 20 miles east of the Manitoba border.

Strike leaders said they hoped the food and rest would be enough mce brought to Kenora by trucks and the food and medical supplies would be enough to enable exhausted men to continue their journey to Ottawa.

Vanguard at Ottawa

Ottawa, July 17 (CP)—A vanguard of 20 relief camp strikers from Petawawa camp near Pembroke, Ont., arrived in the Capital this morning. They made the trip by freight train in which they hitched a ride, or other police, their leader, Alfred Vince stated.

There was no sentry at the camp where 1,500 workers are quartered, Vince reported, but a large number of the men were ready to join the "on-to-Ottawa" marchers as the advance guard had made the trip to make preparations for the arrival of the main guard at a later date. They had checked out on Monday, July 15, the same day drawing their allowances. Most of the men wore camp clothes.

Toronto, July 17. — The last trek of 2,000 men to Ottawa, wry under the title Relief Camp Workers' Unity, escorted the men and at the city limits the provincial police took over the escort. Some women walked with the men. Twenty-five first aid men accompanied the trekkers.

50,000 Germans Leave Germany

London, July 17 (AP)—James G. McDonald, New York, High Commissioner for German refugees appointed by the League of Nations, reported to the governing body of the League today that 50,000 Germans, many of Jewish descent, mainly Jews, have quit Germany under the Hitler regime.

Hitler Patrols Streets to Prevent Anti-Jew Riots

Berlin, July 17—(AP)—Reichsfuehrer Hitler, himself, it was learned today, patrolled the Kurfuerstendamm last night to see that there was no new outbreak of anti-semitic rioting.

Der Fuehrer twice rode up and down the fashionable thoroughfare in an automobile, accompanied by adjutants and secret service men.

Hitler made the personal survey, it was said, to assure himself that firm steps were being taken to prevent a repetition of Monday's disturbances.

ENTRY OF HIRED BUSES BANNED

Must Have Provincial License Before Proceeding

Toronto, July 17 (CP)— Entry of hired buses carrying Ottawa relief trekkers from Manitoba and Quebec or other provinces outside Ontario into this province will be banned, Hon. G. McQuesten, Minister of Highways and Acting Attorney-General announced.

The Minister said a number of buses had been chartered by Ontario trekkers in Manitoba and some of these were reported as having reached Kenora.

"They have no right in this province without a provincial license, Mr. McQuesten said, "and will be stopped by the police." Instructions to stop any such buses with Manitoba or other provincial licenses were given to Major General V. A. S. Williams, commissioner of provincial police today.

League Council to Meet

Geneva, July 17 (AP)— The League of Nations announced today that it is proposed to convoke the Council about July 25 to deal with Italy-Ethiopian crisis, considering that there remains for revival of arbitration.

DRIVER ESCAPES SERIOUS INJURY

Fence Rail Pierces Windshield And Door in Accident

Stirling, July 17—(Special)—Mr. Charles Sharpe of the 4th Concession of Rawdon narrowly escaped serious injury, when driving his car north on Highway 14 early Monday morning. He left the road just outside the village and collided with a rail fence which he had crossed. A fence rail passed through the windshield and buried itself in the door on the left of the driver's head. The driver was arrival at 409 Wingar Avenue, under his own power to a Stirling garage, where he remained for a while after police investigation.

Mr. Sharpe is well known in the Township being the operator of the grader on Highway 14.

CEMETERY SCENE RIOT RENEWAL

Funeral Service of Victim Disturbed by Fighting

Belfast, Northern Ireland, July 17—(AP)—Hand to hand fighting between the opposing factions of the recent riots broke out again today at a cemetery, where the burial services were being performed for a victim of the Protestant-Catholic fighting.

Three persons, including a young boy, were beaten in disorders, that broke out while the funeral procession was en route to the cemetery. The military was called out to rescue the boy from the mob attacking him.

A short time later Francis Birmingham, 19, and Edmund Gallagher, 31, were dragged from trucks by rioters, and severely beaten they had to be taken to hospital.

A number of shots were heard downtown, believed to have been fired in the Carrick Hill district.

FLOOD AREA

Map shows area affected by flood of Yang-tse river in China. Mounting death toll is reported at more than 10,000 with thousands missing and incalculable damage done by the waters of the Yang-tse and Yellow rivers while city of Hankow is menaced.

20 Year Term Given Mrs. Margaret Waley

Tacoma, Wash., July 17—(CP)—Mrs. Margaret Waley today was sentenced to twenty years imprisonment for her part in the Weyerhaeuser kidnapping.

U. S. FEDERAL DEBT

TOUCHES 29 BILLIONS

Washington, July 17—(AP)—The United States federal debt has crossed $29,000,000,000 to a new peak.

The treasurer's daily statement showed today that on Monday the figure was $29,177,000,000, reflecting the receipt of funds from the recent offerings of $500,000,000 in treasury notes.

300 Planes Will be Supplied To Italy's Colonial Forces

Mussolini Admits African Policy Not Well Understood

IL DUCE'S INTERVIEW

(By the Canadian Press)

General mobilization of fighting men in Ethiopia today seemed imminent, as Emperor Haile Selassie prepared to address his parliament tomorrow on the dispute with Italy. Defensive military preparations took on a building tempo and ordered mobilization of an Ethiopian National Red Cross got under way.

In Rome plans for sending a force of 300 fighting planes to Italian Colonies in Africa, Reuters was disclosed, some having already been forwarded. Gen. Emilio De Bono was appointed Under-Secretary for Air General Giuseppe Vale would personally lead the force.

Meanwhile Reuters dispatches to London said heat and sickness were taking a heavy toll of the Italian soldiers now in Eritrea. Rain is imperilling Italians dying daily of the heat. While a report from Rome to the Paris newspaper Le Jour claimed it was certain, Il Duce would shortly fly to East Africa to personally inspect his military preparations.

League Council to Meet

Geneva, July 17 (AP)— The League of Nations announced today that it is proposed to convoke the Council about July 25 to deal with Italy-Ethiopian crisis, considering that there remains for revival of arbitration.

A preliminary warning was sent to members of the League Council that their presence may be required soon in Geneva.

A meeting of the Council July 25 was envisaged by the joint arbitration commission broke up in deadlock.

LONDON, July 17. — (AP) — Malcolm MacDonald, Colonial Secretary, told the House of Commons today that Great Britain's military forces in Kenya, on the borders of both Ethiopia and Italian Somaliland, "are adequate" and have contributed in view of the possible conflict with Italy, he added.

MacDonald said that it was "considered unnecessary to reinforce Kenya," despite the situation.

He said the government was "in communication" with the Acting Governor of Kenya and was keeping a watch on developments.

His statement was in reply to a question from Sir Percy of the House concerning the British government steps to protect the Kenya border from the Italian possessions in Ethiopia.

Arms Shipments

Usually well-informed quarters hinted today and yesterday that may soon permit the "legitimate shipment of arms to Ethiopia, following a flurry of communications from the Emperor Haile Selassie of the African Empire.

It was said the Emperor had sent direct appeals to London and Paris Ababa, attesting to his empire's need of two arms shipments held up here by the Quai d'Orsay.

(Continued on Page 7)

Must Renew 'White Flame' Of Devotion Marking Entry In Masonry, Members Told

Hamilton, Ont., July 17—(CP) — Permanent happiness can only be attained when men "preserve their relations with each other on the thought that God is our living father and that all of them are of that common fatherhood are brothers," Frank A. Copus, Grand Master of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada in Ontario, told the 80th annual conference of the lodge here today.

All should pause to take stock of themselves and examine their present tendencies were leading, he said. It was for a renewal of the first "white flame" of devotion which had marked the entry of many into Masonry might be needed.

"This much may be said, that it is no light thing to be a man among men in the year 1935. It is a challenge to our manhood, to our fortitude, to our imagination and to our faith," Mr. Copus continued.

The speaker reviewed such panaceas for the cure of its ills—tariffs, protectionism, reciprocity, socialism, paternalism, individualism, collectivism, socialism, communism—but the list could be extended indefinitely.

Lose Sight Higher Law

Each and every of them has its earnest and well-meaning apostle. Let us give them credit for sincerity. But each and all of them are an illusion to the extent that they lose sight of a higher than higher than Masonic law that men can find permanent happiness only as they predicate their relations with each other of the thought that God is our loving father and that all of us because of that common fatherhood are brothers.

"A period of economic distress," he continued, "has always provided a happy hunting ground for cranks and agitators and demagogues, and never more so than today. And so we have the preachers of the "mad" dog" theories of a false democracy.

"We have the doctrine that all men are equal in the ability to govern themselves and others not-withstanding all the experience of humanity to the contrary. We have learned the majority opinion is mandatory no matter how much that opinion may be a common sense and that it is sacrosanct no matter how much that opinion is substantiate or false premises it may have been secured. We have the fantastic situation developing in which it would appear many may be entitled to vote who have not what he has soon in the way of intelligent safeguard for his family and for the state at large.

"The past year has witnessed a gradual crystallization in many thoughts as to what must be done in the development of a form of definite sense of the need for a new system of social justice for a revival of the spirit of recognition of life's true values.

Must Enlarge Horizons

"Insofar as this new social conception is sound, it is entirely to be directed along sound humanitarian lines it is to be welcomed. But it is not sound, it is capable of misdirection and abuse by political demagogues and by agitators of the baser sort it constitutes a new and disquieting public peril.

"Let us at once refuse to longer die complacently in a fool's paradise of thinking these are only things as they are. We dare not blindly drift with events.

"It seems to me it will be necessary for us to enlarge our horizons, to seek to develop a new spirit of toleration of sympathy and of understanding so we can better fulfill side. Let us lead the world in concert, in hope, in faith, in love, in sympathy and in toleration.

"It is for Masonry's high task to dedicate herself to a mission of reconciliation, a spiritual reunion with men of good-will everywhere rich and poor, Jew and Gentile, Catholic and Protestant, employer and employee, differing in so many respects but alike in the fact that all children of a common father and therefore brothers," he said in conclusion.

SGT. M. PENMAN MONTREAL IS IN KING'S PRIZE

Has Perfect Score at Ranges of 200 and 500 Yards

LARGEST ENTRY

Best 300 Scorers Qualify For Second Stage Friday

By THOMAS T. CHAMPION
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Bisley Camp, England, July 17—(CP Cable)—Making his first appearance in the classic, Sgt. M. Penman, great war veteran from Montreal, today posted an aggregate of 104 out of a possible 105 in the first stage of the King's prize today.

The Canadians came to the front in real "form" opened at Bisley Camp today when Sgt. M. Penman of Montreal captured the bronze medal for leadership in the first stage of the King's Prize.

Bisley Camp, England, July 17 — (CP Cable)—Sgt. M. Penman of Montreal, making his first bid in the classic Kings Prize, shot perfect scores at the two-thirds mark in today's first day of the mammoth feature of the empire rifle meeting here.

Penman was the only one of the 18 Canadians able to post highest possible score of 35 at both the 200 and 500 yard ranges. The 600 yard range remained to be shot late today. The first stage, a returning field of more than 1,000 marksmen to 300 for the next stage Friday.

It is a long and arduous trail however to the pot of gold waiting for the finalist on Saturday, the King's Prize, of about $1,250 in cash prizes, a gold medal, a bronze medal, gold badge and gold medal. The total of the cash prizes more than $6,000 in cash prizes.

Largest Entry

One thousand and fifty-two entrants from all over the Empire made the largest body of competitors of recent years in the great match, first fired in 1860 and ever since the greatest event of the National Rifle Association's empire meeting.

Penman's perfect shooting possible score of 35 at the short first distance were Lt. Col. G. T. Armstrong, Capt. Lt. P. J. Martinson of La Tuque, Que., CQMS Alex Parnell of Verdun, Que., and four men are making their first trip to Bisley—Sgt. Penman of Montreal, Lt. Col. D. Proctor and Lt. A. P. Williams of Ottawa, and Sgt. F. Wallace Mount Dennis, Toronto.

KING WITNESSES SHAM SHIP FIGHT

157 Warships Take Part Before King And Three Sons

Portsmouth, England, July 17—(CP-Havas) — Britain's fighting fleet, one of the greatest in the Royal Yacht Victoria and Albert steamed into the Solent today to demonstrate to the Sovereign by sham fighting that the ships and men were in proper battle trim.

Naval maneuvers and firing practice by 157 warships of the combined home and Mediterranean fleets are being held in a part of the English Channel southeast of the Isle of Wight, shut off for the first time being to merchant shipping.

The King was accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of York and Kent, three of his four sons, as he sailed today for the Solent to witness the sham battle or that was to follow yesterday's great naval review.

(Continued on Page 3)

'Ensols' Arrest Cancer, May Control Disease Kingston Doctor's Find

Forty Year Old Doctor, Hendry C. Connell, Discoverer

INJECTED INTO BLOOD

"Ensols" Produced by Growing Harmless Tiny Organisms

Kingston, Ont., July 17.—(CP)—Discovery of a new series of biological products which he calls "Ensols", one of which has arrested growth of cancerous cancer, and may control it, was announced today by Dr. Hendry C. Connell of Kingston from his laboratory at Queen's University. The new solution is injected into the bloodstream of its own result all parts of the body.

Dr. Connell, 40-year-old specialists in diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, said he realized his announcement may be regarded as premature but his laboratory findings are positive and conclusive and early clinical effects uniform and definite.

Dr. Connell's "Ensols" are produced by growing tiny living organisms on protein media which are liquefied in the process. These micro-organisms are non-pathogenic or non-disease-causing, and of the proteolytic type, which means the cleavage of proteids with formation of simple and soluble products.

In liquids produced in an active phase which can be separated from the other constituents they and made sterile. This has the effect of rendering them suitable to be used in the human body without any toxic effect. These "Ensols" produced in this way from less protein, which is broken down calcareous lens tissue but does not affect other specific action.

His Specific Action

So-also, said Dr. Connell, "Ensol" produced from a carcinoma, has a specific action upon carcinoma tissue, demonstrated in repeated laboratory tests. "Ensol" produced from Carcinoma is being used upon patients with carcinoma, pronounced incurable . No inflammatory reaction occurs, and there is remarkable and immediate improvement in the patient's general condition, apparently the growth of the cancerous is arrested and the process reversed to one of reinforcement.

Dr. Connell said detailed reports of his work are under review and will be published in a scientific journal as soon as possible. His announcement today was made with some reluctance, because so many rumors concerning patients under treatment and other features of the work have appeared. He was able to make known just what has been done and the present condition of the research.

Four years ago Dr. Connell began research upon cataract, His original idea was based upon the theory conception of the nature of the cataract. He was led into new paths. Seeking a substance which would break down lens protein into soluble substances, he found that the harmless micro-organisms and was surprised at the results. His demonstrated the specific character of the "Ensol" in breaking down lens protein. This led him to make a wide application of the same principle, and found results equally particularly to the various forms of cancer.

Lignify Hard Fibroid

The principle of the treatment is said to be applicable to all forms of neoplasm, or morbid growth and is particularly applicable to the innocent growths such as fibroids, for a laboratory test upon a hard fibroid uterus was found to be softened and dissolved by action of similar micro-organisms.

Mr. Bertram Holsgrove, technician in the Department of Bacteriology at Queen's University, has been associated with Dr. Connell throughout the investigations.

Dr. Charles Mundell has given valuable assistance in the clinical center material, in making biopsies and

(Continued on Page 3)

Soothsayer Uses Book of Daniel to Predict Italian Win in Ethiopia

Chicago, July 17—(AP)—Wilbur Glen Voliva, overseer of the religious colony of Zion, Ill., opened today with some hard news for Emperor Haile Sellassie I and all the Ethiopian fans.

Italy will win the threatened Italian-Ethiopian war, said Voliva, who has planned the whole thing —war and outcome—was foretold in the Bible.

The old exponent of a flat world, now dieting on nuts and buttermilk on the hope of living to be 100, charted the conflict today out of the Book of Daniel.

Mussolini is "the superman," the "man of iron" Voliva said. He is predicted there, and thinks this is the "time of the end." If that is so, then:

Mussolini will take over Ethiopia, and add the inhabitants to his armies," said the overseer.

"He will then proceed to carry out his program, with armies unto the Red Sea, the Suez Canal, the Mediterranean Sea, Egypt and Palestine."

'Ensols' Produced by Growing Harmless Tiny Organisms

IN R.A.F. UNIFORM

King George V has managed to shake off illness which laid him up in midst of his silver jubilee celebrations and he's attending ceremonies again. Photo shows him at air force review appearing in uniform as marshal of air force for this time.

ANTEDELUVIAN SKELETON FOUND

Great Archeological Discovery Made at Dussdorf

Dortmund, Germany, July 17 — (CP-DNB)—Excavators may prove to be one of archaeology's most important finds—discovery of the skeleton of a pre-historic mammal—was reported here today.

The fossilized bones were found beneath St. Martin Church at Dussdorf, 7km receding Dortmund and the jutting brow, unusually prominent features of the skull, indicate that the skeleton belonged to an antediluvian epoch.

WEATHER

Toronto, July 17 (CP)— The weather has been mostly fair and comparatively cool from Ontario eastward but showers have occured in the western part of the province. It has been warm in the West but is now becoming somewhat cooler with a few light scattered showers.

Lake Superior: Fresh southerly winds; mostly cloudy and showery and warm; probably local thunderstorms.

Lake Huron and Rainy River: Fresh shifting winds; warm at first with continued thunderstorms.

Manitoba: Fresh winds, shifting to northwest; mostly cloudy; becoming somewhat cooler; probably scattered thunderstorms.

Saskatchewan: Fresh northwesterly winds; cooler with scattered thunderstorms.

Alberta: Northwesterly winds; cloudy with somewhat lower temperature; a few scattered showers.

Coming Events

GARDEN PARTY THURSDAY evening, July 18, 82 Cedar street, Group 2, Tabernacle Church.W.A. Band present. Admission, Refreshments, 15c. j-17-1i

LIBERAL GATHERING AT SIDney Town Hall, Friday, July 19th, at 8 o'clock, p.m. Speakers—Hon. J. L. Ralston, K.C., Minister of Health; Charles A. Cameron, Liberal candidate for Hastings East, and others. All are welcome. God Save the King. j-17-2i

TENNIS PARTY AT HOME OF Dorothy Dafoe, Tuesday, July 23, for the benefit of Trinity church and their friends. Admission 75 per couple. Jack Sheppard. 217-20-22

LIBERAL RALLY, SLEEKEN'S HALL, Thurlow, Thursday evening, July 18. Speakers—Hon. W. Pirie, Hastings East; Charles A. Cameron, Liberal candidate, and others will speak on the political issues of the day. Refreshments served. 217-1i

MEMBERS OF LYDIA LODGE 260, ARE requested to meet at the Temple on Front street on Thursday evening at eight o'clock. As uniforms. 217-1i

City and District News

MASONIC BRETHREN AT GRAND LODGE

Several members prominent in the Masonic Craft of this city are among some 1,500 others of the Order from throughout the United States and Canada at Hamilton where the 80th annual communication of the Grand Lodge in Canada is being held today.

Included among those who have left Belleville for the convocation are Most Wor. Bro. Col. W. N. Bowden, Past Grand Master, who will be present reports on fraternal correspondence; Rt. Wor. Bro. W. C. Mikel, Present District Deputy Grand Master of the Prince Edward District; Rt. Wor. Bro. Major D. Diamond and J. W. Barlow, Past District Deputy Grand Masters; with Wm. Conley of Moira Lodge, John Meagher of The Belleville Lodge and R. Lennox, Eureka Lodge Masters of the three local lodges also present.

The convocation will be presided over by A. E. Amos, M.P., Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Canada in Ontario.

CAR ABANDONED NEAR CORBYVILLE

Reported stolen at Gananoque on June 30th last a Buick sedan was found abandoned in a clump of bushes off the Corbyville road by Traffic Officer Sam Irvine yesterday. The car was identified by Nearly received good mechanical care and is now in excellent running order, when discovered minus the license plates. The vehicle had been driven over 1,500 miles since it was stolen, Constable Irvine announced. The car was recently brought into Belleville and stored in a local garage, the Gananoque police department later starting police the recovery. The car was discovered at Office Wilson was handling his best aid observed it resembled in the bushes. Upon investigation he subsequently discovered the serial number of the engine and through that means identified it with the automobile reported stolen at Gananoque. The license plates have apparently been discarded and destroyed.

HAD RAIN ON ST. SWITHIN'S DAY

Monday, July 15th, was St. Swithin's Day and this district had a aptitude or two of rain to be polished out by a local resident.

According to the old legend, if it rains on St. Swithin's Day it will rain for forty days. Saturday's weather records disprove this legend but this year the forty day's rain would only be in keeping with the weather for the forty days previous to St. Swithin's.

DOUBT BOTTLE CROSSED OCEAN

Mr. Thomas D. Barriage, 77 Church street, while walking on the marsh by Houston's Lumber Co., spied an empty beer bottle with a piece of paper in it floating in the water. Becoming inquisitive Mr. Barriage waded out and picked the bottle which was sealed tight by a cork, on the light he could see that to be broken open to get at the paper, rolled up inside. It was a note written by a Mr. McLarin, Edinburgh, Scotland, and a man's name on it. Scribbled at the bottom were the words "Reward". Whether this is a joke is hard to say, but it does seem possible, that a bottle could possibly cross the ocean float up the St. Lawrence and find its way here in the Bay of Quinte.

CLOCK INSPECTED BY A COMMITTEE

Repeated telling of the city clock bell during the late hours of Tuesday indicated, that a number of the city fathers comprising the special council meeting for the purpose were busily engaged in exercising the mysteries of the clock and levers making up the mechanism of the clock. The striking of the hour on the bell at the clock has been silent, except for police calls, City council, prompted by the fact that the striking of the hours on the bell was a familiar sound to many and rang from city life throughout a special committee to enquire into the cost of repairs to the mechanism. The clock was thoroughly inspected by the committee on Tuesday.

It Pays to Shop at the Rexall Store.

GYPSY CREAM for SUNBURN Soothes, Cools, Protects.

50c

McKeown's Drug Store

EVERY DAY LOW PRICES

Not a special sale once or twice a year, but every day low prices—that's the I.D.A. Policy.

"HAVE SAFELY AT YOUR I.D.A. DRUG STORES

SHOP AT ZELLERS IT PAYS

SPECIAL OFFER

LADIES' HALF SOLES AND HEELS 70c Complete

MEN'S HALF SOLES AND HEELS $1.00 Complete

Tilbrook's

MODERN SHOE REPAIR SHOP

213 Front St. Phone 149

Boots Called for and Delivered

7-16-tf

UNITED EFFORTS TO BRING SUCCESS LIBERALS TOLD

Mayor and P. S. MacLaurin Speakers at Social Function

EUCHRE PLAYED

Party Must Sell Self to Electors, Says One Speaker

At one of the most successful socials held in the South End Club rooms last evening, arranged by the local liberal association for the interests of Mr. O. A. Cameron, candidate for the riding of South Hastings, Mayor Geo. O. Tice and Mr. P. O. MacLaurin, guest speakers of the evening, pointed in their brief addresses to those present to recognize the need for immediate action in the matter of working for the party they represent.

"Election day, as you know, is just a few weeks away and must be ready for that day when it comes. But this means hard work, and lots of it before that time," pointed out Mayor Tice.

Introduced by Mr. Thos. Mason, chairman of the evening Mayor Tice pointed out that the meeting was one of the one hundred and tenth held for Mr. Cameron during recent years.

"We must forget petty differences during this election," reminded the Mayor. "We must all work for the same end, but remember, we've got a fight here in South Hastings and only through united effort will we see success."

Party Must Sell Self

Mr. P. C. MacLaurin in a confidential, easy chat with the large gathering, pointed out that any government must be able to sell itself just a surely as any merchant must be able to dispose of his goods. In the case of government, it was service, that must be sold—service, that was in the best and highest interests of the people, which it represented. "It is our job now to sell our party to the people, the electors of the country in as courteous a manner as we can, we must show them that the Mackenzie government has something, which the people need."

"The government of the past five years has failed in the large line business of the country. And things have been getting worse all the time as we have been going along," charge Mr. MacLaurin.

"Bennett has had enough following, while in office to put through any measure he wished to install. He stood in the position of being able to do anything he thought best in the best interests of the country. But everything has been weighed in the balance, and he has been found wanting."

Premier Bennett was likened by the speaker to a store manager, who was again taking the same job back "even though he has been fired twice." Mr. MacLaurin, himself, "A look at the history of Mr. Bennett will show that he has always been a beautiful starter but a poor finisher. He has a genius for getting up a good one, that has been drafted out in one night with the aid of his colleagues and continuing only of several of the best and most outstanding of these has been stated manifesto of Mr. Bennett and the Hon. Mr. Rhodes."

Stevens Defeeping Issue

"We are not trying to belittle Mr. Stevens' attempts with his new party, but he is not getting very far with it, simply. If we do our own thinking on this matter Stevens is missing in the city during the morning, especially at the lower end of the town where the soft grass of the park lured many. Although spills up into small groups, the men seem to be under any organization or with any plan in mind. To industries made they were singularly numb and unconcentrated. The theory that the men were awaiting further reinforcements from other points has not been generally held.

EUCHRE PARTY

A euchre party will be held in the Foresters' Hall, Bridge street, Wednesday evening, July 17th, at 8.30 o'clock. Prizes and refreshments. Admission 25c.

TRANSIENTS COME WITH BIG PACKS

Men Do Not Appear to be Under Any Organization

Laden with travel strained parcels and other light baggage, and clad in playing some traces of weariness from apparently extended hikes from some unknown starting points a number of transients were noticed loafing in the city during the morning, especially at the lower end of the town where the soft grass of the park lured many. Although spills up into small groups, the men seem to be under any organization or with any plan in mind. To industries made they were singularly numb and unconcentrated. The theory that the men were awaiting further reinforcements from other points has not been generally held.

POLICE COURT

A local resident and his "girl friend" appeared before Magistrate K. J. Butler, K.C., today charged with intoxication. Both doubted the charge very much, prompting His Worship to enlarge the matter until Friday in order to hear all of the evidence. The pair were arrested on Dundas St., yesterday afternoon by P. C. Arnott and Traffic Officer Mac. They are being held in custody until Friday.

H. Hanna, sidney, faced a charge of drunk in charge of a motor car. In reply to the charge Hanna said "I guess I'm guilty all right." "Is this the first offence for this many?" queried the Bench, "It is", replied Provincial Constable John Kelly, who investigated the case and arrested the accused.

"There is no alternative in these cases, fines in the case of criminal" asserted Magistrate Butler as he subsequently cancelled the driver's license for a period of three months.

Directly following the court His Worship hurried to Picton where he is scheduled to hold police court at 10.00 a.m. standard time.

Police News

A local motorist presented himself at the police station last night and informed the authorities of an accident caused by his automobile. It seems while driving on Water St. the motorist struck three lighted lanterns that had been placed on an excavation. The matter was reported to the Traffic Department of the city and the lantern re-lighted.

Little Bobbie Covell, age nine years, was knocked down by a passing motor car on Station St., about 9.30 p.m. last night. The little fellow darted out in front of an automobile driven by Chas. F. Brown, 24 Brown St. Mr. Miles immediately applied the brake of his car, stopped and picked the little fellow up, later driving him home. Mr. Miles reported the incident to Traffic Officer Roe and assured the officer the little lad had suffered no serious injuries, however.

His transients applied for a night's lodging at the police station last night, none giving Ottawa as their destination which would thus the authorities to believe they might be connected with the "Ottawa-to-Ottawa" marchers.

"Pat" Melchior, 44 Evans St., reported the loss of his bicycle to the authorities last night. Mr. Melchior informed the police that he parked his "bike" at the upper end of Front St. early in the evening, but upon his return it was missing from the spot. The wheel was described as being painted black and is a single barred bike.

TRAFFIC POLICE READY AT CALL

Everything in Readiness In Event Trek to Ottawa Starts

Orders from the Attorney General's Department of the Ontario Government were received by Highway Traffic Officers Gordon Irvine and Bert Delaney, local motorcycle police, to "be ready for instructions to call" to proceed westward and accompany the "On-to-Ottawa" marchers if they leave Toronto today. Officers Irvine and Delaney left two of the motorcycles at Toronto to accompany the marchers from Oshawa to Ottawa, should they finally elated today. The highway traffic officers have also been given special instructions to patrol carefully all highways in Eastern Ontario and keep a sharp watch for any possible public conveyance, especially motor trucks, that might be transporting the marchers eastward. It is expected that Officers Irvine and Delaney will be called out on special duty to escort the marchers to the Provincial border, however.

In reference to the marchers Inspector Chandler, Provincial Police of Ontario Provincial Police for District No. 2, Kingston, Ont., has been in direct communication with his superior officers in Toronto and doubled very much if the trek would commence. "The order to the effect of the marchers leaving Toronto today was received by me early this morning to see the folly of their attempt to walk to Ottawa and even if they start out from Toronto, we do not believe that they will go very long as they will not be allowed any form of transportation," stated Inspector Chandler today, as he termed the trek as "futile".

POLICE BLOTTER

When a dog bites a man, that's not news, but when a bite a dog, well that's front page news. Ordinarily when two automobiles collided nowadays and only fender damage is the result, there is little news value, but when the police are on its way to investigate an accident is implicated in a motor accident, well that comes into the same category as the man biting the dog, and that is exactly what happened in Belleville about 11.15 p.m. last night.

Sergeant Harman and P. C. Evans were returning in the police car from an investigation of slight importance when another motor car, driven by Noel Langton of this city, while heading out from the turn on East Bridge street, collided with the right rear fender of the "black maria." Fortunately the fender damage resulted and no serious damage followed, however, it a matter was amicably settled.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Joyful As Can

The liver should pour into your bowels 1 pints of liquid bile every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food does not digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't relieve you. You must get those 1 pints of bile flowing freely to feel right. Ask your druggist for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains the vegetable laxative that thousands say makes bile flow freely. Its action is gentle, yet you can depend on it to get those 1 pints of bile flowing freely. Follow directions. Print Pills for children. 35 cents, 60 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

ROSS MILLER DOG AND PUPPY BISCUITS ARE THE FINEST WARM WEATHER FOODS FOR YOUR PET Call or Phone for Your Supply Today

C. E. Bishop & Son SEEDSMEN Phone 283 173 Front St.

CATTLE SPRAYS

All are Stainless Sprays that will not tain milk nor discolor nor burn the hide or hair.

HAMOO In Bulk, Imperial Measure. Gallon 79c

ZENOLEUM 1 Gallon Can. Imperial Measure 98c

CHANNELS 1 Gallon Can. Imperial Measure 1.25

STOCKAID 1 Gallon Can. Wine Measure ... 1.00

SMITH HARDWARE PLUMBERS AND TINSMITHS

Increase Your Ice Cream Sales by Serving "Neilson's Ice Cream" The Trade Supplied by CITIZENS DAIRY Phone 226

A-M-M-W-F-tf

STOP

LOSE NO TIME

You know the necessity of heeding signals. Look at those which your tires offer! They say, "replace me!" and now is the time. Now, you can take time to obtain the best tire for the least price. If you wait until Time "blow" on the road you may not be near a tire store. Call in the shop, as well as the time, for the best Tires AND prices!

Central Tire and Battery Service

Phone 302 246 Front St.

CAPITOL Starts THURS.

EPIC OF THE END OF GANGDOM

G-MEN

JAMES CAGNEY

with Ann Dvorak • Robert Armstrong

ENSOLS ARREST CANCER, FOUND

(Continued From Page 1)

in caring for patients under treatment.

Dr. Charles Elliott has an important role to play in his cure.

So far no charge has been made for the remedy supplied to those fees accepted for services.

If there is criticism that the announcement is premature and that a greater mass of evidence should be collected, it may be answered said Dr. Connell that there can be no doubt of the fundamental soundness of the cure and that it can be put fully to the test only by applying it to all sorts of cases. This can be done only when the discovery is made generally known. Dr. Connell himself has borne almost the entire expense of this research.

Dr. Connell's report said all cases treated for the present must be under the direct supervision, first for accurate diagnosis when for observation during the course of treatment and to insure that records will be kept, radiographs made and results carefully recorded. He will welcome any inspection, investigation and criticism, that may assist him. Provincial health officials will be rigidly observed, but he hopes any medical man will be invited and his technician.

Dr. Connell is a native of Kingston and a graduate of Queen's University. He has been associated for the past 15 years with Dr. Ernest Jones, a veteran specialist in diseases of the nose, ear and throat, who for years was Dean of Queen's Medical College.

Dr. Connell served in the war and a half with a Canadian military hospital at Wolfenbuttel, where many cases of typhus were treated.

Time is Tester

Toronto, July 17.—(CP)—Necessity for tests over a long period of time was stressed today by Dr. Alex. Robinson, University of Toronto Pathologist, in commenting on the announcement by Dr. Harry Connell of Queen's University, Kingston, of the discovery of biological products called "ensols", one of which has extended development of carcinoma cancer.

"Time is the tester," said Dr. Robinson, "and it will be two or five years to know if the patient is cured and then it may be only a five-year cure."

In cancer research work, Dr. Robinson stated, the difficulty is to obtain a substance which has selective qualities between normal and abnormal tissues."

Comment Withheld

Saint John, N.B., July 17—(CP)—Announcement of new cancer treatment discovered by Dr. Harry C. Connell of Kingston was heard with keen interest by members of the medical profession in Saint John today. All preferred to withhold comment pending further study of the "ensol" solution when explained by Dr. Connell today.

Claims Extraordinary

New York, July 17.—(CP)—"Bitter experience has taught us to accept all announcements of discoveries on the cause and cure of cancer with the utmost caution."

Dr. Alfred Goldhamer, executive secretary of the Information Bureau of the New York Academy of Medicine, said today after being informed of the reported discovery of a possible cure for cancer by Dr. Hendry Connell.

Until this instance we have not even the benefit of the research protocols, since, according to Dr. Connell's preliminary report, the results reports of his work are yet to be published in medical journals.

The press release is of the vaguest character as far as scientific particulars are concerned, continued Dr. Goldhamer, and consequently there is no basis upon which even preliminary comment can be made on the work.

The claims made by Dr. Connell are more extraordinary. At the present and until such time as dependable proof of forthcoming all we can say is that the announcement is most remarkable.

Work Commended

Charlottetown, July 17.—(CP)—Dr. J. G. Fitzgerald, president of the Prince Edward Island Medical Association, today in his presidential address, today of the work of Dr. Hendry Connell of Kingston in developing a possible cure for cancer.

"Dr. Connell is a well recognized authority," he said, "and his announcement of successful research to control of Carcinomous cancer will be hailed as a great triumph."

It was difficult to comment on this reported discovery at this stage, the doctor added, but knowing the caution taken before the release of Dr. Connell's laboratory findings, he was convinced it would be a wonderful assistance in fighting cancer.

"This is remarkable," Dr. Simpson remarked, "that a Canadian scientist has already given the medical world a cure for diabetes, and that now we have this possible cancer control."

Leslie IS CLEARING All Women's White Shoes

AT SENSATIONAL REDUCTIONS

All white Shoes must be sold regardless of profits—and have been marked down to a price which will ensure quick sale.

DON'T LINGER OR THE CHANCE WILL BE GONE

TRAVELLING GOODS

LESLIE is showing some of the very latest creations in travelling goods from Aeropaks, which carry a surprising amount of clothing, to Wardrobe trunks

If you want something smart, as well as Durable in Travelling Goods you can get it here.

Leslie's Shoe Store

255 Front St. Belleville Phone 553

REST ROOM FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN

THE REAL STANDARD—of value, in coal as in everything else, is QUALITY. How good it is, rather than how much it costs, is of the most vital importance. Coal quality is remembered long after price is forgotten! When you buy our good, clean coal for all heating requirements, you receive the highest quality at the lowest possible price.

QUALITY

HARRY SMITH

152 PINNACLE STREET. PHONE 2071

THE FEET

What is worse than Sudden Pain in the Feet and Sore, Aching Feet? Relief is found in Dr. Chase's Ointment! Why suffer from Corns? The pain-relieving medicinal Ointment soothes and relieves and heals at the same time.

Dr. Chase's OINTMENT

LOCKED IN GARRET WIFE LOOKS 80

Woman of Forty-Eight Has Dwindled to 77 Pounds

Philadelphia, July 17 (AP) — Grey-haired and hollow-eyed, her body wasted to seventy pounds, Mrs. Ann Vera stared up from a hospital cot today and offered detectives her only explanation for five years spent locked in a garret prison with only scrap for food.

"My husband didn't like my cooking," she whispered.

She looked all of 80 years—she is 48—when the detectives found her on a bed in a lonely third-story room. Shafts of dim light boarded windows and nailed-down shades.

She clutched weak strands in each hand. A cup of water and a bucket were on the floor. Beside the bed, the room was furnished with a chair. The door was locked.

She was too weak to walk, so they carried her to an ambulance and sped her to morals court and then to a hospital. She replied the garbage pail for at least one ravenous meal while her alleged captors—her husband, William, 54-year-old window washer and his sister, Catherine, 57—were away from home, the Van Cleve's neighbors said.

They never knew she was there, they said, until they saw wild eyes staring through slits between the boards on the window.

Then neighbor, Charles Cabbell, told detectives he tied food to a fishing pole and pushed it through her window after he witnessed the strange pull-and-haul. But she was too scared to take it.

It was in answer to detectives' pleas that the detectives investigated. They went to the house into the window and found Mrs. Vera and her sister.

"She was crazy," Cabbell said. "She was filthy. And I wanted my sister to do the cooking."

BELLE Thursday & Friday

Katherine HEPBURN in Break of HEARTS

Each Twilight IT HAPPENED ONE NIGHT and "ONE NIGHT OF LOVE"

CHARLES BOYER JOHN BEAL Also Comedy—Cartoon

Daily 2.30; 7.15; 9.10;

LAST TIMES TODAY

ALINE MacMAHON GUY KIBBEE

"WHILE THE PATIENT SLEPT"

—2nd. Feature— "LILIES OF KILLARNEY"

A magical romance of Old Ireland

Starts TOMORROW

The Startling, sensational story of U.S. government Agents and desperate criminals.

"G-MEN"

with JAMES CAGNEY

"G-MEN" will be shown at 1.00; 3.01; 10.15

—ADDED— COMEDY CARTOON NEWS

CAPITOL

Airship 300 Feet Up Hauls Man from Earth

Moscow, July 17—(AP)—An airship, floating at a height of 300 feet, today hauled up a passenger from the ground with the aid of a cable and hook.

A Red army soldier volunteered for the experiment, and was pulled aboard the airship 10 minutes after he had been yanked from the ground.

JUDGES IN RIOT PROBE WITHDRAW

Saskatchewan Commission Was to Have Begun Duties Tomorrow

Regina, July 16 (CP)— Three judges appointed by the Saskatchewan government to inquire into the fatal Dominion day relief camp strikes riot here have withdrawn from the commission, W. G. Davis, Attorney-General of Saskatchewan, announced today.

The judges, chief Justice J. T. Brown, Mr. Justice W. M. Martin and Judge A. E. Doak were the appointees to a Commission, that was to hold its organization meeting tomorrow and start regular sittings about Aug. 1.

Their withdrawal followed correspondence between the Federal and Saskatchewan Governments over the legality of the inquiry.

The Commission had been given full power to investigate all phases of the relief camp strikers situation from the time they left camps of British Columbia and Alberta until their departure from Regina.

Mr. Davis in a statement issued today dealt with the withdrawal of the appointees from the Commission, in his report of correspondence with the Department of Justice at Ottawa and the fact that the Inquiry Act was not in force when the Commission

In the meantime, said Mr. Davis' statement, the Saskatchewan government was taking the matter up further action under consideration.

WHEAT CARRYOVER WILL BE LOWER

New Crop Not Expected on Market Before Sept. 1st

OTTAWA, July 16.—(CP)— The Canadian Wheat Board probably will take over operations on Sept. 1, it was learned here today. Until it begins to function no announcement is expected as to the disposal of the wheat carry-over, except the repeated assurance of Premier R. B. Bennett it would not be dumped on the market.

The visible supply of Canadian wheat is now somewhat under 200,000,000 bushels and will be less at the end of the crop year, July 31. It is not expected much new wheat will come onto the market before September 1, because the late spring held back seeding so the visible supply should continue to fall until that date.

The Act creating the board provides the board buy wheat from the farmer at a fixed minimum price and make later payments if it is able to dispose of the wheat at prices higher than the minimum.

CROFTON WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

Crofton, July 17—Mr. Matthew Downey and daughter Margaret of Kingston spent a day last week with Mrs. W. O. Frink. Miss Downey and Miss Dorothy Wilson accompanied them and remained in camp up here for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jordan spent the ten hour one day last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Frink and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Boogard, Betty and Jewold were Sunday guests of Mr. Hannah and Mrs. Bongard at Glenora.

Mrs. W. J. Gray and Margaret were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Parsons at Demorestville. Little Miss June Parsons returned home with them for a short holiday.

Mr. James Clement and Mrs. E. Williams and Marguerite of Big Island spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Jones and family. Miss Bernice Williams remained for a week with them after having spent the past week with her cousin, Miss Noreen Jones.

Mrs. Con. Townsend and Miss Laura Doolittle spent the tea hour on Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crook and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Provins and son Larry were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Mowers. Master Larry remaining for a time with his grandparents.

REVOLT IN THE DESERT

by T. E. LAWRENCE

CHAPTER XIII
REFORMING OURSELVES

Upon Clayton I opened myself completely. Akaba had been taken on my plan by my effort. The cost of it had fallen on my brain and nerves. There was much more I felt inclined to do, and capable of doing—if he thought I had earned the right to be my own master. The Arabs said that each man believed his ticks to be gazelles. I did, certainly.

Clayton agreed they were spotted and profitable ticks; but objected that actual command could not be given to an officer junior to the rest. He suggested Joyce as commanding officer at Akaba: a notion which suited me perfectly. Joyce was a man in whom one could rest against the world: a steady, unchanging, comfortable spirit. His mind, like Pastord Maitrejo, had four corners to its view: cared-for, friendly, limited, displayed.

The rest was easy. For supply officer we would have Goslett, the London fruiterer, a man who had made chaotic Wejh so prim. The aeroplanes could not yet be moved; but the armoured cars might come straight away, and a guard-ship (if the Admiral was generous. We rang up Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, who was very generous: his Majesty's ship Lyralus should sit there for the first few weeks.

Genius, this was, for in Arabia ships were esteemed by the number of funnels, and the Euryalus with four, was exceptional in ships. Her great reputation assured the mountains that we were indeed the winning side: and her huge crew, by the prompting of Everard Feilding, flew to build up a good port.

On the Arab side, I asked that the expensive and difficult Wejh be right flank, only one hundred miles from his centre, but eight hundred miles from Mecca. As the Arabs prospered Cadi would be free to move more and more in the Palestine sphere. So it was logical that Feisal be transferred from Akaba to Wejh. Hussein to become an army commander of the Allied expedition under Allenby.

This idea held difficulties. "Would Feisal accept?" I had talked it over with him in Wejh months ago. The High Commissioner's: Feisal's army had been the largest and most distinguished of the Hejaz levies: its fatigue would not be dull. General Wingate had assumed full responsibility for the Arab Movement in its darkest moment, a great risk in reputation: dare we ask him to relinquish its advance-guard now on the very threshold of success?

Clayton, knowing Wingate very well, was not afraid to broach the idea to him: and Wingate replied promptly that if Allenby could make direct and large use of Feisal, it would be both his duty and his pleasure to give him up for the good of the show.

A third difficulty of the transfer might be King Hussein: an obstinate, narrow-minded, suspicious man, after, little likely to sacrifice a pet family for unity of command. The opposition would endanger the whole campaign. I offered to go down to talk him over, calling on the way to get from Feisal such recommendations of the change as should fortify the powerful letters which Wingate was writing to the King. This was accepted. The Duff-in, on returning from Akaba, was detailed to take me to Jidda for the new mission.

The King came down from Mecca and talked discursively. Wilson was the royal bonchateau by which to try doubtful courses. Thanks to him, the proposed transfer of Feisal to Allenby was accepted at once. King Hussein taking the opportunity to stress his complete loyalty to our alliance. Then, changing his subject, as usual without obvious coherence, he began to expose his religious position, neither strong Sunni nor strong Sunni, aiming rather at a simple pre-schism interpretation of the faith. In foreign politics he betrayed a mind as narrow as it had been broad in unworldly things, with much of that destructive tendency of the man to deny the honesty of opponents. I grasped something of the fixed jealousy which made the modern Petal suspect in his father's court: and realized how deadly mischief-making would corrode the King.

While we played so interestingly at Jidda, two abrupt telegrams from Egypt shattered our peace. The first reported that Howeitat were in treasonable correspondence with Medina: the second connected Auda with the plot. This dismayed us. Wilson travelled with Auda, and formed the inevitable judgment of his perfect chivalry: yet Mohammed-el Dheilan was capable of double play, and ibn Jad and his friends were still uncertain. We prepared to leave at once for Akaba. Treachery had not been taken into account when Nasir and I had built our plan for the town's defence.

Fortunately the Hardings were in harbor for us. On the third afternoon we were in Akaba, where Nasir had no notion that anything was wrong. I told him only of my wish to greet Auda: he lent me a swift camel and guide: and at dawn we found Auda and Mohammed and Zeal all in a tent at Guweira. They were confuse when I dropped in on them unexpectedly. They protested that all was well. We fed together in friendship.

TO BE CONTINUED

WALLBRIDGE NEWS BRIEFS

Wallbridge, July 17—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hitchcock, Jr. and also Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Fair and Lorna spent Sunday at the Gulfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Parks spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. John Chisholm.

Miss Vera Kemp is spending a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hendricks

Mr. and Mrs. George Nicolson and daughter of Frankford also Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hendricks and Mr. John Hogg on Sunday.

Mr. Lawrence Ketchson is able to be out again after his illness.

The local Orange lodge went to Pinhorn for unity of Wallbridge. Mr. and Mrs. Will Sine attended the Orange celebration at West Huntingdon.

Memorial Candles for Dollfuss Used at Funeral of Successor's Wife

Vienna, July 16 (AP)— Black funeral banners and the funeral candles prepared for display on July 25, the anniversary of the assassination of the late Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, were used instead for the funeral of Mrs. Hermine Schuschnigg, the wife of the present Chancellor, today.

Frau Schuschnigg's grave in Hietzing cemetery was only a few feet from the temporary resting place of Dollfuss and, but for a tragedy of fortune, it also would have been the grave of his successor, for Kurt Schuschnigg barely escaped with his life from the automobile accident last Saturday in which his wife was killed.

The realization of the terrific physical and nervous shock suffered by the Chancellor in the accident lent the funeral of Frau Schuschnigg a significance beyond its private sorrow and public sympathy. Official assurance that peace, however, that after a brief rest he would be able to resume the cares of office.

VINCENT FOLEY SEEKS PAROLE

Has Served Only Ten Months of Five Year Sentence

London, Ont., July 17 (CP) — After spending only about 10 months of his five years term in Portsmouth Penitentiary, Vincent C. Foley, one time local lawyer, has applied for a parole, it was learned here.

Last October Foley pleaded guilty and was sentenced to four years for conversion of client's money and this was later increased to five years by County Judge Joseph Wearing.

It is understood, that in his application, Foley declares that he was made a victim of persecution by the press in being linked with a so-called blackmail ring. He points out, it is said, that he was never convicted of extortion.

Mrs. May Turnbull, gray haired London woman, who got three years for blackmail conspiracy, was recently released from the women's section of the penitentiary because of ill-health. She broke down at about the time of being tried and had been in prison hospital since being sent there. It is reported she is reported to be at her son's home here, her condition still critical.

SUMMER MENUS THEME OF W. I. JULY MEETING

Halloway, July 17—The new pastor Rev. Mr. Horton preached his first sermon at this appointment on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Kennedy and granddaughter from Saskatchewan and Mrs. Rogers of Belleville were guests of the latter's daughter, Mrs. G. H. Rose on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ashley of West Huntingdon visited at the home of Mr. W. Cadman on Sunday.

Mrs Rose Rose and daughter Mrs. Irish and Mrs. Kingston spent a day recently with Mrs. Rose.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. B. Pinkie were among those who attended the funeral of Mr. J. Mines at Bethel near Hungerford on Tuesday last.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Pettum and family of Consecon were recent visitors at the home of Mr. J. Lowery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Faulkner spent the ten hour on Thursday at the home of Mr. C. Cadman.

Mrs. J. Ross had tea recently with Mrs. W. Wilson.

Mr. A. Reid is recovering from an attack of tonsilitis.

Mrs. Lloyd of Belleville, assisted in the home of her brother Mr. N. Reid on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Ward called on Prof. S. Hamilton on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hough and Mr. and Mrs. M. Robson were guests at Mr. E. Hough's of Frankford on Sunday.

Mrs. J. Townsend has returned after spending the past week canning at Cobourg.

Mrs. Ross Hall is spending a few days in Pusboro.

A Cottage prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. MacInnis on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. Marshall and daughter, Mrs. Chant called on Mrs. W. Fredrick on Monday.

Mrs. McLellan and son Reggie and granddaughter from Bay Chaleur, Que., spent the week end at the home of the former's son, Mr. McLellan.

Mr. Donald Wilson of Belleville is holidaying with the latter of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Hamilton.

Mrs Vera Rose spent a few days last week with friends in Tweed.

Both pupils of Miss Pearl Townsend, Misses Irene and Marguerite Schuyler are successful in passing their entrance examinations.

W. Kelly and Aileen of Maidoc had tea with Mrs. R. Townsend on Wednesday evening.

Messrs. Leslie Wilson and Joe Ryan spent the week end at their homes.

Mrs. C. Townsend and friend spent Sunday with friends at Newcastle.

For the July meeting of the W.I. members were entertained at the home of Mrs. Nathan Reid on Tuesday afternoon.

Callers at Mr. S. W. Hamilton's during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Rose, Miss R. Rose, Mrs. R. Townsend and Mrs. W. Cadman.

The July meeting of Chatterton Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Nathan Reid on Tuesday afternoon with thirteen members and visitors present. In the absence of the President, Mrs. N. Reid conducted the meeting which was opened with the singing of the Ode and the Lord's prayer in unison. Minutes of last meeting were read by the secretary and roll call was responded with a recipe for hot weather. "Cold Puking at Home" was sung from song sheet and Dorothy Reid then gave a reading, "Commends Community Enterprise." This was followed by a piano solo by Marjorie Bekour. Discussion of a menu for a summer Sunday dinner was also responded to. After collection and business a contest was put on by Myrtle Reid. Mrs. R. Townsend received the prize. At the close the hostess served ice cream and cake.

The L.O.L. attended West Huntingdon celebration on July 12th. Some from this vicinity have visited the blackberry marshes in the north country and find lots of huckleberries but they have not ripened enough for thirty picking.

FARMERS!

IF YOU NEED HARVEST HELP, ADVISE YOUR REEVE OR THE NEAREST ONTARIO GOVERNMENT EMPLOYMENT OFFICE.

GIVE WORK TO THE UNEMPLOYED!

UNEMPLOYED MEN— HELP HARVEST ONTARIO'S BUMPER CROP!

IF YOU TAKE A FARM JOB

Your Family Will Receive Relief in Your Absence.
There Will be No Deduction because of Your Earnings.
You Can Use Your Earnings to Replace Necessary Household Equipment.
You Can Re-register for Relief on Your Return.

THE ONTARIO GOVERNMENT WILL APPRECIATE YOUR CO-OPERATION.

MITCHELL F. HEPBURN, Acting Minister of Public Welfare.

NABORHOOD SHOE STORES

A Mammoth Organization Consisting of 42 Stores and 4 Factories Announce the Season's Greatest 10-Day

MID-SUMMER SHOE SALE

COMMENCING TO-MORROW MORNING AT 9 O'CLOCK WE OPEN THE GREATEST SALE IN THE HISTORY OF THE NABORHOOD SHOE STORES

The sale includes every pair of shoes in our entire organization . . . all this season's models, and almost every known style and leather. Every pair has been drastically reduced, and represent values and savings that you have never known or seen before. We suggest that you come as early as possible for best selection.

Women's WHITE Dress AND SPORT SHOES

$1.48

Others at $1.88

Ties — Pumps and Oxfords — Straps in high and Cuban heels. Plenty of sizes and widths to choose from.

Your choice of white, all white, black and white, brown and combination with leather or rubber soles.

Opening Special

LADIES' SUMMER SANDALS

Light, cool and airy, suitable for beach or general Summer wear. Several colors and styles.

88c

Men's and Boys' Tennis and Outing Shoes

Made from strong reinforced duck with heavy rubber sole

68c

CHOICE OF ANY SIZE

WHITE PUMPS

Reg. $2.98 and $3.45 pumps in fine baby calf and kid leathers, widths A, C and D all sizes in the group.

NO REFUNDS. NO EXCHANGES

$1.00 PAIR

Frank Hurlburt

No connection with HURLBUT CO., Trenton

CAMP SHOES

Shoes for Children

Made of brown leather, with rubber soles. Extra values.

Women's Leather House Shoes

78c

One-strap style with solid leather soles, all sizes

Colors: Black Brown White Cream

Choice of Any Style Sizes Oxfords Ties

Sizes 5 to 7½ $1.78

Sizes 8 to 10½ $1.98

Sizes 11 to 2 $2.38

SALE Starts TOMORROW AT ALL NABORHOOD SHOE STORES

242 FRONT STREET. PHONE 919

"WHERE SHOE FITTING IS A SCIENCE"

BOYS' 98c MEN'S $1.28

All Sizes

Men's Sport Shoes $1.88

In brown, cream combinations, with rubber soles.

Children's Shoes

Black patent Strap Shoes with sewn leather soles, well made; all sizes from 5 to 10½, 11 to 2.

The balance of our Elk and Patent Sandals included in this group.

98c

Men's Sport Shoes

In black and white, cream and brown, and all-white, in soft leathers, with leather or rubber soles.

$2.38

Men's WORK BOOTS

Built for sturdy, honest wear, with solid leather uppers. Your choice of Pasco or leather soles.

$1.88

NABORHOOD SHOE STORES

HAY FEVER No Longer a Terror

If Hay Fever or Summer Asthma has you miserable, don't suffer another day. Get a bottle of Templeton's RAZ-MAH and how you will bless the day you read this announcement. Safely acts, internally. Relieves Hay Fever, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds. Sold on Money Back Guarantee. Don't suffer! Get RAZ-MAH today. Obtainable from one 24 hr. store or mail direct from

THE GENUINE — TEMPLETON'S RAZ-MAH

"Started in with 1 bottle of your Raz-Mah. Now 2nd & 3rd bottle gone. Feel 5 years younger. Raz-Mah and how it has helped me all summer." — Mrs. Wm. Hall, Ottawa.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sundays and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

MOON'S TOTAL ECLIPSE

The moon's total eclipse on Monday night seen by residents of this section in a clear sky of deep blue was one of the most majestic and moving of visions ever to come before mortal gaze. With the steady march of the eternal processes of nature, the shadow of the earth slowly obscured to a deep copper tone the disk of the moon. For fifty-seven minutes the process of obscuring the surface went on, then, as the moon was covered as with copper for the space of much over an hour and then the gradual emergence from the shadow began.

Hung aloft in lone beauty in the night, with the stars shining as a setting, the moon created a picture of sublime beauty.

The almost total eclipse of the sun several years ago was an awe-inspiring sight as the earth darkened and a cool air sprang up. But in pure beauty it could not approach the sublime sight of the total eclipse of the moon.

An eclipse is a natural event in the courses of nature and there are many other things of beauty spread on all sides, but the sublimity of an eclipse is something unique because, while it is a regular process of nature, it is rarer than these other forms of beauty. It can never be forgotten as on a calm summer night as the stars silently shine and the planets of the solar system swing in their appointed orbits, earth's satellite is dimmed by earth's shadow.

SERMONS IN BRIEF

A plea for patience and harmonious living was made in St. James Lutheran Church, Madison Avenue, New York on Sunday by the Rev. Dr. Charles Trexler. He urged tolerance for the peculiarities of others. He admitted that learning to live with other people was a difficult problem and that many never quite mastered it while others utterly fail. "We are so much alike," he said. "Many of us who are trying to live with other people have never learned to live happily with ourselves. We live constantly with our regrets, our grievances, and our fears and not able or unwilling to square up with ourselves we take it out on other people who are frequently in the same plight."

In performing the activities necessary for success, happiness, and contentment, Christians cannot always "use high-powered salesmanship," Bishop Rogers of Ohio, told St. Bartholomew's Episcopal congregation. "You cannot always force economic recovery. Some things must wait their turn. There are times and seasons and we need to get an adjustment of ourselves. Every individual, every home, every nation needs, as it were, a place of meditation, a place to think, a place to have perspective, a place to lose our egotism, a place to forget for a while our own importance."

The universal language through which men shall come to know ultimate peace is not in words, but deeds, said Rev. Dr. Milton J. Hoffman, at the Fort Washington Reformed Church. What could be greater than love and honor, beauty and integrity? What would these virtues be worth if our whole acquaintance with them were through headlines and reading? We never know what beauty is until we set out to see it. We shall never know peace until we strive to attain it. It is my profound conviction that through Christianity man's hope of peace shall triumph. The language of Christianity is not words but deeds. It is God's great trainer for beauty and truth."

Religious experience must in the absence of narrowing dogma be directed by intelligence and it is reflected in the daily jobs of intelligent man, said Principal W. J. Reagan at the Friends' meeting house. "Jesus came to us not primarily that we may have religion but life. Thus every section may have religious implication . . . A religious attitude will appear in the most homely of daily activity.

Rev. Dr. Robert Speer speaking of the early church made a plea for collectivism showing that there was no color line. He said that the early Church made the experiment of complete Communism sharing everything. "This system evidently broke down, whether of itself we do not know but probably because equality is a law of neither nature nor human nature. The early Christians followed the law of self-sacrifice, not of selfishness, or personal gain. They did not convince others of their changed lives by philosophical arguments but by the object lesson of love binding these men and women together as every little group was welded together by a common sense of reality and companionship. There was no evidence of church organization as it exists today but their Christianity was a living and vital thing."

The sublimest thoughts are conceived by the intellect when it is excited by pious emotion.—W. Nevins.

If a man be gracious to strangers, it shows that he is a citizen of the world, and his heart is no island, cut off from other islands, but a continent that joins them.—Bacon.

Consider the lilies of the field, whose bloom is brief. We are as they; like them we fade away, as doth the leaf.—Rossetti.

SIDELIGHTS
THE HOME FORUM

Showing the events of the day, items purely and personal news topics as revealed by the home newspaper, together with comment and reflection. Conducted by The Lamplighter.

PARADES

I cannot watch parades go by
Nor hear the proud drums beat
But I recall a soldier song
And tramp of marching feet,
Remembering how flags were hung
Like courage in our street.

And when the shining bands blare out
A soldier's lullabies
Above the lusty shout of boys,
Above the children's cries,
I have to turn my head against
The ghosts in women's eyes.
— Gertrude Callaghan.

x x x x

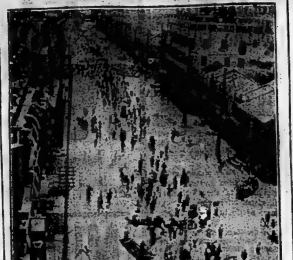
GRADUATING EXERCISES. Commencement, or whatyoumaycallit, of the Hobo College in New York City, was well covered by the metropolitan press, star reporters and sob sisters being sent to cover the unique ceremony which took place under a hot sun in Union Park, the other day. Diplomas were handed out and the outstanding principles of hobodom ascertained. The first man to receive a diploma was Dan O'Brien, 76 years old, called "King of the Hoboes." His was a red diploma for his thirty-five years in the road. "No bo shall go to work until every married man has a job," said Dan O'Brien, "and maybe then we'll all be dead." The word work was manifestly unpopular in the gathering but Herman Bernstein, "hobo comedian," threw a monkey wrench into the proceedings by declaring that "The hobo will work when there is work to do. He wants work. I am fighting for a four-hour day, the five-day week, and the six months' year. That will end unemployment." Not much enthusiasm was aroused by the work declaration and it was readily apparent that work was distasteful to those present. According to the New York Times report of the commencement meeting marked the opening of the twenty-fifty annual hobo conference. It will continue for five weeks at the Hobo College, 422 East Fifteenth Street. The most important subject that will be discussed is the question of old-age pensions for hobos over sixty years old. Sessions will be held in the daytime as the hobos have to find their sleeping places in the parks for the night. Commencement day officers were elected, the opening of the twenty-fifty annual hobo conference. It will continue for five weeks at the Hobo College, 422 East Fifteenth Street. The most important subject that will be discussed is the question of old-age pensions for hobos over sixty years old. Sessions will be held in the daytime as the hobos have to find their sleeping places in the parks for the night. Commencement day officers were elected, all of which said the president officer. All of which sounds to confirm the belief, allegedly held by some, that the world is going goofy.

x x x x

JAMES J. BRADDOCK won the championship pugilistic crown of the world in a fifteen round contest in which neither man received a blow with force enough to knock him down. The pictures show a typical boxing contest which degenerated into what looked like a butting contest, each man boring in with head down, each man beating the other with head and both heads touching. At Chantilly, France, March 10, 1888, there was a contest between John L. Sullivan, champion pugilist of the world, and Charlie Mitchell, champion of England, in a 24-foot ring. The battle lasted over three hours. Mitchell was knocked down fifteen times but came was knocked down each time and completely tired the "Boston Strong Boy" out, making him chase him around the ring in the ring until he was glad to call it a draw. Mitchell was pretty well bunged up but claimed "First blood" on the mighty John L., and was certainly pleased as punch to obtain a draw. That was London Prize Ring rules with bare fists, and Mitchell had to be carried to his corner several times to be revived, so that he could continue the fight, London Prize Ring rules permitting a fight to continue as long as a fighter could be revived time and was willing to go on.

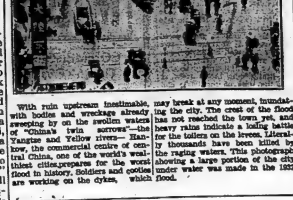
x x x x

IN OUR HASTE TO COMMEND the Fair Grounds as a very suitable place for evening band concerts we inadvertently mixed up the names of the Argyll Light Inf. and gave credit to the Argyll Light Infantry Band for the excellent concert Sunday evening last which drew such a large attendance to the Fair Grounds. It was the Municipal Band under direction of Bandmaster Jobson which rendered the program Sunday evening. This we learned before the ink was dry on the paper Tuesday afternoon, and have been returning every hour since, showing what a keen interest is taken in the Municipal Band and also that this column has a wide circle of readers. We might mention in passing that the news report of Sunday evening's band concert in Monday's paper was correct in every particular. And so, after mature consideration we have arrived at this thought, that it pays to make a mistake now and then just to ascertain if the column is being widely read and if the readers take interest enough in the column to take the trouble to point out mistakes.



x x x

An American millionaire says that he has never yet visited a London night club. This accounts for the fact that he is still a millionaire.



x x x

"FAIR AND COOLER" sounds a lot more cheering than "Fair and Warmer", seemingly a stock phrase of the Weather Bureau.

THOUSANDS PERISH IN FLOODS

With ruin upstream inestimable, may break at any moment, inundating the city. The crest of the flood has not reached the town yet, and heavy rains indicate a lofty battle for the toilers on the levees. Literally thousands have been killed by the raging waters. This photograph showing a large portion of the city under water was made in the 1933 flood.

James Cagney and Margaret Lindsay have the greatest roles of their career in "G Men" at the Capitol theatre on Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JULY 17TH, 1915.

Mr. Publow, Chief Dairy Inspector for the Province of Ontario, is making an inspection tour of the factories in this district with Mr. R. T. Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Coon are in the city enroute to the 1000 Islands where they will spend their holidays.

A very valuable souvenir was received today by Col. Ponton from the 39th Battalion in the form of the menu card of the farewell dinner given on board the Mississaga on July 2nd. Signed with the autographs of all the fifty-one officers on board including Commander Evans of the Missasaga. They report a splendid passage. British decorum conveyed them for the last 900 miles.

30 Years Ago

JULY 17TH, 1905.

A despatch from Kingston says that the Rev. W. T. Fitzgerald of Londonvale has declined a call to Christ Church, Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Abraham of Toronto are spending a few days in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Sprague of Chicago are visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. Frank Carve of the Merchants Bank at Brandon, is home to spend his vacation.

Mr. J. Martin of the Post Office Department, Ottawa, is an old Belleville boy, is spending his vacation here with relatives.

Mr. Paul Lalonde left today for Columbus, Ohio, where he will join the Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Mr. Robert Alford is home from Montreal where he has been attending McGill University.

40 Years Ago

JULY 17TH, 1895.

Mr. Robert McGuinnes has returned from the military school at London, Ont., where he spent several weeks taking a course of instruction.

Eggs fishing in the bay is improving.

Mr. M Lally went to Tweed today on business.

The Rev. Mr. George of St. Louis is visiting in the city.

Mr. D. Barraer of this city is visiting friends in Hawdon.

Rev. Owen McCarthy, one of the old boys of Belleville high school, now a successful physician at Niagara Falls, N.Y., is renewing acquaintances in the city.

Messrs. L. C. Pascoe, Allan Mc-Tee, J. T. Osborne and G. S. Hotchkiss are attending the annual meeting of the Oddfellows' Relief Association at Kingston today.

50 Years Ago

JULY 17TH, 1885.

The John B. Doris circus will be in the city one week from today.

Mr. James Neilson of Chicago is in the city visiting his mother and renewing acquaintances.

Col. Lazier has purchased a complete equipment of instruments for the 15th Battalion band. The band will turn out twenty strong to assist in welcoming the volunteers next week.

Mr. W. B. Riggs, leader of the Oddfellows' Band is instructing the Warkworth brass band. The members of the band could not have a better leader.

The volunteers will arrive home from the Northwest in the 22nd inst.

At a special meeting of the Randolph Wheel Club the following members were elected, Messrs. H. Palliser, D. K. I. McKinnon, Geo. F. Hope, R. R. Lazier, John Markle, J. C. Jamieson, W. W. Pope, Jas. Jenkins, Jas. Macoun, A. I. Bird, S. R. Bakwell, Geo. H. Brower, C. Chale, F. L. Pellows, S. A. Spangenberg, Robert Gordon and Edgar Foster.

● All the countless thousands who buy newspapers every day are potential customers of those who offer goods for sale to the consuming public.

Practically every merchant in Canada will lose customers in 1935 — a law of business. This loss must be replaced or his business will die. The trader who loses customers, even to the deeper point, can find them again and increase his turnover by good merchandising linked with advertising in the daily newspapers.

People are reading daily newspapers as never before, not from curiosity, but from need to know today the best things offered to supply their daily wants.

Lost markets, which are only other words for lost customers, are now being regained by you or acquired by others. You owe it to yourself and to your business to keep in touch through the newspapers every day with the Canadian buying public.

ADVERTISE IN DAILY NEWSPAPERS FOR Action

SPONSORED BY THE
CANADIAN DAILY NEWSPAPERS ASSOCIATION

SPEND VACATION IN MADOC DISTRICT

Madoc, July 17—Misses Enid and Joan Connor of Tweed are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Connor.

Miss Mary Hargeety of Belleville is visiting her friend, Miss L. West.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Huxtable of Oakland are spending the week end at Mr. Roy Walker's.

Mrs. Allan Wilson of Toronto, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Joe Bunn.

Mrs. Hector Thompson and children of Ottawa, are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Tufts.

Mr. Chas. Hill of Toronto spent the week end with his father, W. J. Hill.

Mrs. Spence and little daughter of Bradford, is spending a few week, with her sister, Mrs. W. Parks.

Miss Hazel Rose of Toronto spent a few days with her cousin, Miss Walter Ross.

Miss Helen Whytock is camping at Crowe Lake with her aunt, Mrs. A. R. Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. Alma Odgen and children, Mr. Odgen and Mr. E. Alexander of Oshawa spent Sunday with Mrs. Horace Taylor.

Mrs. Mary Warren of Hamilton is visiting at Mrs. W. Ross.

Mrs. Mabel Kerveson and Mr. Charlie Kerveson of Toronto were Sunday visitors in Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Curtin and children of Dresden are spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. O. Foote.

THE ADS ARE Part of THE NEWS

SCOTTS SCRAPBOOK

by R. J. SCOTT

Evolution in Retailing Goods Told Kiwanis Members by President of Zellers Limited

Visit of Montreal Members to Belleville, Enjoyable Event

TEN MAKE Trip

Visitors Shown Beauty Spots of City After Luncheon

An inter club visit of unusual interest took place on Tuesday at the Queen's Hotel, when the Belleville Kiwanis Club played host to eleven members of the Montreal Kiwanis Club, which included President Henri Pryor of the Montreal Club, Jack Harrison, Walter P. Zellers, Percy Gardner, Douglas Wheeler, Cliff Nevins, Adelard Raymond, Jeff Jeffrey, Joseph Johnston, Arthur Taylor and Joe Hillsbrand. Belleville Kiwanians numbering 30 were present as the distinguished guests, who received their welcome in the form made a visit to all Ontario and everyone was delighted with their reception and hoped, that the visit would soon be returned. The introduction of the Montreal members by Jack Harrison was a "scream" he being able to wisecrack in every instance. Their visit made very welcomed and made to feel at home. Walter P. Zellers, head of Zellers Limited of Montreal who recently opened a retail store in this city, which considerably added to the beauty of Front Street was the special guest of the day, the address on "Evolution in Retailing" being carefully received. The speaker of the day was introduced by Frank Donnelson and Kiwanian Johnston expressed his appreciation on behalf of

Fine Programme

Eddie Staples, Inter Club chairman, carried out in such a fine programme, the visitors being entertained before the luncheon and after the meeting were shown the beauty spots of Belleville and Quinte. Some Kiwanians went to the two golf clubs for a friendly game, while others were driven at the Quinte hotel. The party left on the evening train for the east. The telling of the biggest fish story created quite a number of laughs with Charlie Mikel winning the prize for the best one. George Lee, Frank Donnelson, Bill Sinclair and others tried to tell one but Charlie was away in the lead and Mr. Zellers acting as judge had no hesitancy in awarding the prize. The meeting singing led by Jack McIntosh with Leo H. Riggs at the piano and the latter also assisted with his favorite piano selection "Valse."

Two new members, George Zakos, proprietor of a Front Street confectionery store and Cecil Cowan, proprietor of the Crystal Hotel were introduced by Kiwanian Johnston and George Lee respectively. They were instructed in their duties as members by President Cliff Harrower and presented with their badges. A formal invitation to the club members will be made at a later date. Middle Kiwanian announced that the members would visit the Boys' camp at Stoco on the Wednesday afternoon and invited every Kiwanian to go along. There will be an afternoon of baseball, swimming and a good supper served in camp style.

In introducing Walter Zellers to the members, Kiwanian Donnelson stated that the speaker was a native of Kitchener and schooled in the public and high schools of that city. He also stated, that the head of Zellers Limited was from a basement clerk to president of his own chain store and that he had filled every position in the store and every executive office with ability and honesty. The company was formed in 1921, which now comprises 17 stores across Canada. Mr. Zellers in his address to the Kiwanians on the following subject:—

Evolution in Retailing

"Evolution in business has been wonderful toward one final objective; the Greatest Number of Goods for the Greatest Number of People at the Lowest Possible Prices; and in the process of evolution it is impossible to forecast what particular type of Merchandising Organization will be the final development in the field, whether the Individual Store, the Chain Store or some other type. The Consumer is the Master of all Merchants, and the consumer will decide the fate of each."

The manner in which supply responds to demand is the story of Retailing from the crude, unsanded days of trade, and barter to modern merchandising at legitimate prices on a satisfactory merchandise basis.

Modern Retailing has travelled the same path in the days of trade and barter; and each step forward has been in answer to, or in anticipation of, changing consumer demand. As powers of production increased, the needs of the consumer increased. And the retailer, that active agent between supply and demand, always grants to the other chap who wants it, has had to step lively to distribute the ever-increasing flow of production to an ever-increasing number of people.

Sir Alfred Bertcher is quoted as saying—"I refuse to believe in hard times. I am convinced that every man, woman and child on this globe has at least sufficient of the necessities of life and a very considerable margin of luxuries as well."

Even though today's necessities and luxuries are greater than ever it would want to return to the days of the harness shop and the cobbler and shop? No one! Not when modern production holds out a promise of plenty for all and inspires people with an ambition for better standards of living as a fuller and more enjoyable life.

The method of trade and barter pointed the way to a fuller life for our primitive forefathers. As soon as part of the day's work produced could be exchanged for part of what you would produce, you set about learning to serve the other's needs. Each of us was starting in the business of what's in it for me, and what's in it for you.

Specialization in the division of labor and vision; and by that much the Individual lives more by exchange.

That pioneer of organized retailing, the Peddler, was responsible for a step forward in the distribution of more varied products among a greater mass of people. In the Peddler Post were assembled clothing, implements, household goods and even a few simple luxuries, to be obtained in exchange for what the consumer had to sell. The Peddler's home was the road, his store carried on his back, and his customers were the people he met. Peddling was a hard life, for customers in wearing apparel cause the merchandise to set up its headquarters, with Men's Wear as his specialty. The development in the field of merchandising brought the Dress Store into being; Doctors found that cases of illness in the community would no longer cover their fields of prescriptive medicine. And so very many individual stores have been became independent of the general store, confining itself to a general rule, the larger the community the more likely it was to become able to concentrate on a limited assortment, but it is significant, to note that the Department Store is impossible for the development of the modern city, where there was the demand or the consumer.

Variety Store

The Variety Store, which is often referred to as the Five Price Limit Store, is another development from and parallel with the General Store, the Department Store and the Specialty Store. This type or store has found its place in the retailing field by bringing within reach of the people physical and financial, that certain merchandise service at a reasonable price. The original development was strictly as a price limit store, and in the less permissive days by F. W. Woolworth's and Metcalfe's. Then it was confined in a small general store in Waterloo, Ont. Merchandise which apparently did not sell was placed on the shelves where it was not seen by the consumer, and merchandise was only when displayed openly on the counter. This display not only created a demand, but also encouraged by calling it to the attention of the customer. Then the assortment was further reduced by the fact that the stock was confined to fast moving lines, eliminating the necessity of having customer enquiring the price. The idea of the Five Price Limit originated in Woolworths Mr. Woolworth that an enormous trade could be developed on the same theory. He proceeded to open his first 5c store, and while this venture did not prove successful, he was satisfied the idea was basically sound and was not discouraged. His second venture included a larger assortment of merchandise, with his prices increased to 10c. This store eventually proved to be the development of what we know today as the Five and Ten Cent Store.

Basically the variety idea was a proper one, and with the earliest shopper, who could find under one roof some of a wide variety of useful items coming within a very moderate price limit. It was not long before that this fundamental variety principle should extend itself to the merchandise selling at higher prices, and today the Variety Store, either as a price limit store, or as one maintaining an assortment of merchandise within an inexpensive price range, has become a standard institution in Canadian retailing.

Mail Order

Another form of retailing which has filled a very definite need is the Mail Order business. Before the days of the automobile, making it impossible for many rural families to visit shopping centers, the catalog actually brought a modern store right into the home. Automobiles and good roads have, no doubt, reduced the percentage of business going to the mail order houses, however, I am firmly of the opinion that it will be many years before the Mail Order House will cease to serve a certain consumer demand, and that as long as this demand exists in this type of merchandising will also continue.

House to House Sales and Delivery

The House to House Sales and Delivery method of retailing has undoubtedly very limited in its scope, but it does possess a very definite service to the community in the retailing of certain specific products, or, of course, to Bread, Milk, etc. Few of us would want to buy Shoes or Clothing under this plan, but certainly all of us appreciate the fact that fresh cream for our coffee is waiting at the back door at times for breakfast in the morning. Methods of Retail Store Operation

I have given you a brief outline of the different Methods of Retail Distribution, each on a development from the early General Store, I believe these six methods account for all except a very small percentage of the Retail Stores operating in Canada. I have, however, made no mention of the different Methods of Operation, all of which are in use in a more or less degree in each of the six Methods of Distribution. The most important of these are:

1.—The Individual or Merchant Partnership Corporation operating independently.

2. The Individual Merchant operating under his own name but who is a member of a Voluntary Chain or Buying Group.

3. The Corporation Chain operating a group of Individual units through a central headquarters.

The Independent

The most important difference in the Methods of Operation between the three groups is, of course, in the method of selecting and buying merchandise. The Independent Merchant makes his selection in the open market, and while at times he may visit the market, the general practice is to make his purchases from the travelling representative of the manufacturer or wholesaler. While the size of the business regulates the size of the personnel, and also their duties, as a general rule the person who makes the selection also makes the sale. The sales person is of necessity better more familiar with the merchandise, and in a position to talk more intelligently to the consumer. The only exceptions the same goods sold by his competitors are available to the Independent, and while in some cases he may be required to pay a higher price, this is not as a rule of at least offset by his lower cost of doing business.

During the period of more rapid development of other methods of retail store operation one often heard the remark that the day of the independent retailer was a matter of the past. The inference being that the Independent merchant was unable to compete with chain store competition. While dealing with the subject of the Independent Store, I would like to present just a few facts and figures which I believe prove conclusively that the development of the chain store has had no adverse effect on the relative strength of the independent retailer. Canada has a population of 10,000,000 held in the grotery field, and it is interesting to note the high record of failures in grocery and meat stores, compared to failures in all trading establishments, has been continually downward since 1919. The percentage of sales in the grocery trade of chains from 1926 to 1933, as given by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, demonstrates that the possibility of varying chain strength the rate of the Dominion, for chain store sales, ranged from 13.3% in Nova Scotia, where the consumed chain strength of 13.3% of the total, to 23.2% in Saskatchewan. It is significant to note that the greatest percentage of depression affected Saskatchewan in a greater degree than any other Province in the Dominion. Therefore, there is no appreciable difference between the sales of Independent retailers in Quebec and Ontario in spite of the fact that chains are more than twice as strong in the latter Province—Quebec 18.8% of the total, Ontario 42.2%.

While no doubt the development of the Chain Store has had the most convincing Mr. Woolworth that an enormous trade could be developed on the same theory. He proceeded to open his first 5c store, and while this venture did not prove successful, he was satisfied the idea was basically sound and was not discouraged. His second venture included a larger assortment of merchandise, with his prices increased to 10c. This store eventually proved to be the development of what we know today as the Five and Ten Cent Store.

Basically the variety idea was a proper one, and with the earliest shopper, who could find under one roof some of a wide variety of useful items coming within a very moderate price limit. It was not long before that this fundamental variety principle should extend itself to the merchandise selling at higher prices, and today the Variety Store, either as a price limit store, or as one maintaining an assortment of merchandise within an inexpensive price range, has become a standard institution in Canadian retailing.

Mail Order

Another form of retailing which has filled a very definite need is the Mail Order business. Before the days of the automobile, making it impossible for many rural families to visit shopping centers, the catalog actually brought a modern store right into the home. Automobiles and good roads have, no doubt, reduced the percentage of business going to the mail order houses, however, I am firmly of the opinion that it will be many years before the Mail Order House will cease to serve a certain consumer demand, and that as long as this demand exists in this type of merchandising will also continue.

House to House Sales and Delivery

The House to House Sales and Delivery method of retailing has undoubtedly very limited in its scope, but it does possess a very definite service to the community in the retailing of certain specific products, or, of course, to Bread, Milk, etc. Few of us would want to buy Shoes or Clothing under this plan, but certainly all of us appreciate the fact that fresh cream for our coffee is waiting at the back door at times for breakfast in the morning. Methods of Retail Store Operation

I have given you a brief outline of the different Methods of Retail Distribution, each on a development from the early General Store.

THRIFTY WOMEN are choosing their
FUR COAT NOW!
FINEST SELECTIONS.
LOWEST PRICES
DEFERRED PAYMENTS
Woodleys Furriers
321 Front Street

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stinson of Ville La Salle, Montreal, are visiting in the city.

Miss Carrie Canning is holidaying at Port Erie, Ont.

Miss Mildred Ward of Oakville, is a guest of Miss D. Tillcock.

Miss Ruby Copping of Ville La Salle, Montreal, is visiting Miss Mildred Graydon.

Miss Audrey Garlick of Toronto, is the guest of Miss Helen Smith, 81 Russell street.

Miss Violet Reynolds, who was operated on recently for appendicitis, is progressing favourably.

Mr. Bill Cook has just returned from a fishing trip in the north.

Mr. Brenner of Berlin, Germany, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hammels for a few days.

Miss John Fairbairn and Miss Alice Potter were hostesses at the Belleville Golf Club this evening.

Mrs. H. French of Detroit, is spending a week at the home of her brother, Mr. Jack Dunlevy.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Clarke and baby daughter, Betty Ann, of Toronto are visitors in the city.

Mr. Jack Halfway has just returned from a two weeks' vacation spent at Detroit and the Niagara Peninsula.

Mrs. A. Walsh and Miss Viola Walsh, Moira, N.Y., are spending a few days with Mrs. D. A. Peets, Chatham street.

Mrs. George Biggar, Toronto, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bull, Charles street.

The hostesses at the Bay of Quinte Country Club this afternoon were, Mrs. A. I. Bird, Mrs. W. C. Springer, Mrs. F. S. Wilson and Mrs. Charles Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Brooks who have just returned from England, are guests of Mrs. Boyd, 324 George street, en route to their home in Kanasack, Sask.

The many friends of Miss Hilda Tice, 382 Coleman street, will be glad to know she passed her Normal School examination for Interim first class certificate. Miss Tice has also secured a school at Gilmour.

The neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Grow, 6 South Park street, gathered at their home on Friday evening, the occasion being the era of their 25th anniversary and surprised them with a beautiful silver basket filling with roses and baby's breath. Mrs. F. McMaster read the address while Bills Miss Helen Harris and Master Robert Sherwin made the presentation, all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Grow many more anniversaries.

Dr. G. S. Cronk and family left the city today on their summertrip to Big Island Lake in the Kideaus. They will return to the city in the first week of August.

Mrs. S. Kroch, Charles street, is spending a week with relatives in Hamilton.

After having spent the winter in Florida cruising on their parents' yacht the "Allen", Jim and Sally Johnson on their return to the city tried and were successful in passing the provincial examinations to the senior third and senior fourth classes respectively, obtaining first class honors. The children were away, returned their studies under their tutor, Miss Maria Kenny.

TRENTON

MANY ATTEND AT LAWN SOCIAL

Held Under Auspices of St. Peters Church, Trenton

Trenton, July 17.—(Special) — A large number attended the chicken supper and lawn social held under the auspices of the St. Peters' Church, on the church lawn last night. About 400 people sat down to the well laden tables. Plates of fowl, bingo tables, fish ponds and ice cream tables were much in favour. A perfect night marked the function. Father D. O. Hanley had charge of the social Mrs. Harry Pilkon was the head waitress for the supper and the ladies in charge of the tables were Mrs. A. LaMoore, Mrs. W. Allore, Mrs. Louis LaMoore, Mrs. Charles Allore, Mrs. J. Staples, Mrs. J. O'Neill, Mrs. Alex. Lakeman, Mrs. T. Arnold, Mrs. T. Quinn, Mrs. B. White. The kitchen arrangements were ably carried out by Mrs. T. Orvill, Miss Julian, Miss A. Shoemaker, Mrs. Chas. Coleman, Mrs. K. Genereaux, Mrs. J. MacPherson, Mrs. R. McDonald and Mrs. A. O'Neill.

The Bingo Table was in charge of Misses Harry LaMoore, Lawrence LaMoore, Frank Lafferty, William Shonker; the wheel of fortune, Louis LaMoore, William O'Neill, James McDonald, C. Staples; the pond, Misses Allore and O'Connor, Frances McDonald, Helen Gauthier; the cream and candy table, Misses Eileen Pillon, Jessie Segio, K. Dadswell, and Magdelene Robinson; Mrs. L. Desjardins, H. G. Robinson sold tickets while Messrs. R. E. Mcauley and James Armstrong were at the gate, Mrs. W. Fitzpatrick looked after the tables.

Messrs. McNair & Goodsell kindly loaned a radio for the entertainment of the large gathering.

Distinguished visitors present were—Magr. Nicholson of Belleville, Fathers O'Gorman of Marysville, Carey of Rear, Shanney of Stocco, Buckley of Tweed and Collins of Belleville.

ALMEY—MEYERS

A very pretty wedding took place at St. George's Church, last week at seven o'clock, when Doris Isobelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Meyers, of Trenton, became the bride of Ernest Almey, son of Reg. Segt.-Major Ernest Almey, R.S.M., and Mrs. Almey, Trenton Road. Canon T. Austin Smith officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a very pretty pale organdie dress with white net, a white hat and accessories to match. She wore a corsage.

Miss Ida Embury, the bridesmaid, was gowned in a yellow printed silk dress with brown accessories.

Mr. William Meyers, brother of the bride, was the groomsman.

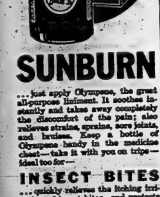
Following the ceremony the happy couple left immediately for Lindsay where they will reside at 3 Melbourne street. The bride's travelling costume was a blue silk, white sedora hat, with white accessories.

Mr. Almey is employed in the Dominion Bank. The groom was formerly at the Quinte Sun, Trenton.

R.C.A.F. Defeats Downs-Coulter

The Downs-Coulter softball team received a squeeze-out by one run last night when they met the R.C.A.F. boys at the Bayshore Park ball diamond when the R.C.A.F. 7, Downs-Coulter 6.

The D.-C. lads have been slopping up steadily from the first part of the league play but they were contenders for second position and the game last night kept the Flyers in their same position.



Bell and C. Benham, for the Downs-Coulters, pitched and Pilot in the opening and Brinklow, C. Benham and Bell in the field for the team. The hard working efforts of the R.C.A.F. batters in the first two innings put them in front but in the last five innings tallies were made in every one.

At the end of the 5th the Downs team was leading 3 to 2 but Wilkinson made the records and Marshall and Neff in the last put the Flyers one run to the good.

The game was tight from start to finish and the softball fans enjoyed the play.

D.-C.	.	.	.	.	2	3	1	1	0	0—
R.C.A.F.	.	.	.	.	0	0	2	2	1	1—

Downs-Coulter—C. Bell, Brinklow,

SUNBURN
...just apply Olympene, the great all-purpose liniment. It soothes and instantly relieves any complaint by the direct action of the pain; also relieves stiffness, soreness and tiredness. Keep a bottle of Olympene handy in the medicine chest—take it with you on trips—ideal too for—
INSECT BITES
...quickly relieves the itching irritation of insect bites—and protects against infection.
Olympene is Economical
4 oz. 50¢
10 oz. $1.00
OLYMPENE
THE ANTISEPTIC LINIMENT

CROWNED MOST BEAUTIFUL IN EUROPE

Miss Alicia Navarro, 21-year-old brunette, who had previously received the title of "Miss Spain" and who was then selected as the most beautiful girl in Europe, shown being crowned by Ralph Lynn, one of the members of the international jury that made the selection at Torquay, England. The 1935 "Miss Europe" hails from the Canary Islands, and will soon compete for the title of "Miss Universe."

O. Benham, C. Niddery, J. Benham G. Drake, F. Kennedy, F. Coughlin.

R.C.A.F.—Follows, S. Broadbent, P. Wilkinson, Marshall, McKee, G. Tough, Pafford, Maslish, Neff.

Weddings

CONWAY—KELLEY

A quiet wedding took place this afternoon at three o'clock at Tabernacle United Church parsonage, when Florence Gertrude, youngest daughter of Mrs. George Kelley and the late Mr. Kelley, became the bride of Mr. Durwood Conway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Conway, Napanee. Rev. J. B. Taylor officiated.

The bride wore a charming frock of powder blue crepe with turban to match and corsage of Sunbeam roses and cornflowers. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Walter Walls, who was attired in a pretty ensemble of mauve crepe with white hat and accessories. Gold wore a corsage of sweet peas and baby's breath. Mr. Walter Walls acted as groomsman.

Mr. and Mrs. Conway left on a motor trip west, the bride travelling in an ensemble of yellow crepe, with brown taffeta jacket and yellow felt hat. Mr. and Mrs. Conway will reside in Oshawa.

KINCAID—McKIBBON

Picton,—(Special) — At a quiet ceremony at the United Church Parsonage, at half past ten on Monday morning, July 15th, in the presence of only a few immediate relatives and friends, Miss Rose McKibbon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman McKibbon was united in marriage to Mr. Gordon Kincaid of Hamilton. Rev. David Wren performing the ceremony. The bride was lovely in a gown of white crepe with white hat and wore a corsage of roses. The couple were unattended. Immediately following the ceremony, the happy couple left on a motor trip north, later they will visit Lake Nipissing, Lake and Lake Baptiste. On their return they will reside in Dundas.

BEAUTY IN DISTRESS

Mozelle Ransome (above), "Miss Dallas" of 1929, found her second marriage to Philip Distillator, New York sportsman, questioned by movie for divorce made by first husband, Carl Shaw, actor. Situation is further complicated as Shaw is en route to Europe with second wife, Frances Arthur, actress.

RECEIVES VIEWS OF N. Z. 'QUADS'

Miss Hamilton Sends to New Zealand Views of 'Quints'

Miss Pearl Hamilton, Reg. N. of R.R. No. 7, Belleville (Massassaga) Point Road, received a picture of the quadruplets born in New Zealand some time ago sent pictures of the Dionne triplets to the Department of Health, at Dunedin, New Zealand and received from Mr. Jeffery, Nurse Inspector, a letter which explained everything to you. You will note that they are mentioned in the clipping."

According to a clipping from the Dunedin Evening Star, the Johnson quadruplets had a total weight of 17 pounds 7 ozs. Those four children are three girls and a boy. The boy first born weighed 4 pounds 10 ounces, the first girl weighed 4 pounds 2 ounces, the second 4 pounds 15 ounces and the third 3 pounds 9 ounces. The mother had been admitted to the hospital about two weeks before and an X-ray revealed the condition.

Quadruplets were born in 1919 in New Zealand, all born Medical authorities state that the chance of quadruplets being born into the world is one in every 787,000 births and the chance that all four children will be born alive is much less. of the quadruplets born at Dunedin Hospital, Nurse Hall on Thursday, March 6th, 1935, to Mrs. George Johnson of Caversham, New Zealand. In the recent letter to Miss Hamilton the nurse expressed:

"I was speaking to the matron of the Karitane Harold Hospital a couple of days ago, under whose care the babies have been since they were two days old and all babies are making excellent progress and are being fed on breast and say further photos appear at a later date. I think I shall look forward then to you, and thank you very much for the photo of the quintuplets kindly forwarded by

MANY TO ATTEND HYDRO CONVENTION

Members of the Kingston Public Utilities Commission and Manager, J. C. Folger of the Kingston Hydro plant are expected to be among those from this city and other delegates of the Eastern Division of the Ontario Municipal Electric Association, who will attend the convention to be held in this city on July 24, 25 and 26. Delegates will attract representatives of the various municipalities between Toronto and the Quebec boundary.

The city council has been asked and is expected to be one of the hosts. The city has had Mayor Tice will act as chairman.

EVERYONE ADMIRES ME SINCE I GAINED 10 POUNDS

Gain weight quickly this new easy way!
4 to 15 pounds often gained in few weeks with Dr. C. & B. Tonic Tablets
Don't be called "skinny" and "scrawny" any longer. You can be as attractive as others—round out your form—add to your weight quickly with Dr. C. & B. Tonic Tablets. Just see how good they are at your druggist's today. Take them for short time and if you are not delighted with results, or your money will be refunded without question. Don't hesitate—get Dr. C. & B. Tonic Tablets right away. Return empty box to C. C. & B. Tonic Tablets, Limited, Hamilton and Ont., and receive FREE PROFESSIONAL measuring way they put on—clear up aches, pains, constipation which frequently accompany poor health and tired, rundown feeling.
3 Tonics in 1—That is why C. C. & B. Tonic Tablets Build You Up
C. C. & B. Tonic Tablets contain Yeast, Iron and Extract of cod liver oil—the three most powerful tonics known to the system with six vitamins added—and they exercise help you put on weight. They also help clear the blood of impurities, remove the cause of constipation and relieve from constipation. Chocolate coated—easy to take.
DECIDED IMPROVEMENT FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY
SUNDOWNS—If you are Rundown, you feel Sundowns. Take C. C. & B. Tonic Tablets and they will lose by your wretched feeling and you will feel like your old self. Start today. Get this important ANNOUNCEMENT.
Make This Money Back Test!
Get the package from your druggist (see display below) and if for 15 days after you use it you are not satisfied in every way return the empty box and your $1.00 will be refunded in full. No offer could be fairer. If locon't have C. C. & B. Tonic Tablets, send $1.00 to International Distributors, 37 Front St. W., (Dept. B) Toronto, Ont.
DOLAN THE DRUGGIST

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE CAPITOL

"G-Men"

First Federal Agent Film Coming Thursday

The way of the United States Government against the master criminals of the nation has been made into a thrilling drama with James Cagney in the stellar role and opens tomorrow at the Capitol.

These fearless officers serve men whose exploits in rounding up the arch criminals of the country have been told in newspaper headlines for the past year as the "G-Men", and "G-Men" is the title of the screen's first dramatization of their battles with public enemies.

The picture follows the career of one of these "G-Men" from the time he joined the service, through his training period, through machine gun battles with gangsters to a thrilling climax in which he finally rounds up, and exterminates, a gang of murderous kidnapers.

James Cagney, heretofore Hollywood's most famous "bad man" type depicts the "G Man" who set the deadly trap for the mad dog of the underworld, "Public Enemy No. 1" whom no jail could hold, to an ignominious death.

Opposite him is charming Margaret Lindsay and has the part of the sister of Bob Armstrong, one of Cagney's fellow officers, and the girl whom Cagney loves.

Ann Dvorak portrays the role of the night club entertainer who is in love with Cagney, but resents her affections are not returned, marries a gangster. She also affords her another opportunity to sing and dance for which she displayed surprising ability, especially in Rudy Vallee's "Sweet Music."

Besides the usual features for the last half of the week, the Capitol will present an entertaining program of short subjects, including a two reel comedy, called "Three Little Pigskins" a cartoon that is bound to amuse youngsters and elders alike. The Pathe News will bring to the screen the latest events from all parts of the world completes the bill.

Today is the final showing of those two splendid feature, "While the Patient Slept" in which Allie Mackenzie and Guy Kibbee provide the many laughs, and "Lily of Killarney" a charming musical romance of Ireland.

AT THE BELLE

"Break of Hearts"

Hepburn Achievement One of Outstanding Excellence

Enchanting personality of star given full scope in romantic, strictly modern role with Charles Boyer bracketed in triumph.

A versatile Katharine Hepburn in a role which reveals every facet of her many-sided personality when "Break of Hearts" her latest starring production for R. K. O. Radio Pictures opens a two days' engagement at the Belle Tomorrow (Thursday) Matinee daily at 2.30 P. M. The role which is said to present the "complete Hepburn" for the first time in the star's colorful career, is that of a young music student who finds love and grief through her love for a famous symphony orchestra conductor, played by Charles Boyer.

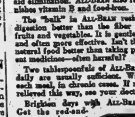
Miss Hepburn's characterization is being acclaimed by critics as her finest because it combines the dark and bright highlights of her "Morning Glory" portrayal with the human qualities of her "Little Women" and the tenderness and fire of her Babbie in "The Little Minister". The characterization also possesses the virtue of novelty in that it places the star in a modern girl who wears fashionable clothes with grace and distinction.

Thus "Break of Hearts" is regarded as the crowning achievement of the versatile star which has long enchanted and often puzzled the theatre-going public. But in this stage days of her career, Katharine Hepburn was accorded an ovation that stamped with the mark of genius. Just graduated from Bryn Mawr College, she had been swept into the stage world with something of the force of a tornado.

Supporting Miss Hepburn and Charles Boyer in "Break of Hearts" is John Beal as the third figure in the love triangle. Jean Arthur will be remembered as her leading lady in "Whirlpool". Others are Jean Hersholt and Sam Hardy have important parts.

An excellent array of featurettes will be shown in addition to "Break of Hearts" including an all-talking Pathe News and Sidney-an all color musical cartoon. "The Chinese Nightingale" and an interesting travel-talk subject "Windsor Castle". Complete performances start at 7.00 and 9.10 P. M.

ENDS TONIGHT



Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert in "Cleopatra" Happened One Night" and Orson Moore in "One Night of Love", the finest double feature program ever offered in Belleville will be seen at the Belle Tonight for the last time. A shold not be missed, complete performances start at 7.00 and 9.10 P. M.

Joliet, Ill., July 17 (CP)—The multiple birth fashion reached into Mrs. Jesse Gordon's chicken yard yesterday.

Two baby chicks stepped from the shells with four legs each. One of the twins were doing nicely several hours later.

Topeka, Kansas, July 17 (CP)—That old home week idea has stayed with Samuel Walther who sent the children's park wading pool to a hatchery.

When he finished, he pulled the plug. Total 14,000 gallons of water went down the drain.

Brighten up with ALL-BRAN!

You've had days when you've felt discouraged and low. Nothing seemed to go right. Frequently these dreary days are caused by sluggish constipation, due to lack of "bulk" in the diet.

This ailment may cause headaches and loss of energy. Correct it by eating ALL-BRAN regularly.

Laboratory research shows Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to aid elimination. And ALL-BRAN also relieves vitamin B and food-iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is not digested better than the fiber in fruits and vegetables. It is gentle—and yet it relieves! Let this natural food better than taking pastes and medicines—and harsh drugs.

Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. Why not start today? Get ALL-BRAN at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Keep on the Sunny Side of Life

McINTOSH BROS.
CLEARANCE
Three BIG BARGAINS
FOR WEEK-END THRIFTY SHOPPERS. COME EARLY, THEY WON'T LAST LONG AT THE PRICE.
Boys' Bathing Suits
In navy blue, royal blue, green, maroon — contrasting trim; sun-tan back.
Regular $1.50 Value
98c
Men's Polo Shirts
In shades of white, yellow, brown, heather, blue.
Regular $1.00 Value
79c
Men's Balbriggan Undershirts
Sizes 34 to 44
Regular 50c Value—While They Last
35c
McIntosh Bros.
Belleville

Katharine Hepburn and Charles Boyer co-starred in the romantic drama "Break of Hearts" which opens a two days engagement at the Belle, Thursday.

RADIO PROGRAMS
— Daylight Saving Time —

WEDNESDAY

4.00—Baby and Bob, drama—WJZ
6.30—Jim Hunter, News—CFRB
6.45—Lowell Thomas—WJZ
7.00—Amateur Night—WEAF
7.15—Tony and Gus—WJZ
7.15—Uncle Ezra—WEAF
7.45—Dangerous Paradise, sketch —WJZ
8.00—Hal Kemp's Orch., Babs and Her Brothers—WJZ
8.00—Johnnie and His Foursome—WABC
8.00—Men's Family—WEAF
8.30—Broadway Varieties—WABC
9.00—House of Glass—WJZ
9.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WABC
9.00—Our Home On the Range; Jack Charles Thomas, baritone—WJZ
9.00—Hilda's Revue—WEAF
9.30—Tito Guizar—WABC
9.30—Presenting Mark Warnow —WABC
10.00—To Be Announced—WEAF
10.00—Burns and Allen—WABC
10.00—Hits and Bits—WJZ
10.30—Ray Noble's Orch.—WEAF
10.30—Melody Masterpieces—WABC
11.00—Claude Hopkins' Orch —WABC
11.30—Ted Florito's Orch.—WJZ
12.30—Jan Garber's Orch.—WABC

THURSDAY

9.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ
10.30—Mrs. Allen, and Horace Lapp—CFRB
11.00—Seth Parker—WABC
4.00—Betty and Bob, drama—WJZ
6.30—Jim Hunter, News—CFRB
6.45—Lowell Thomas, news—WJZ
7.00—Amateur Night—WEAF
7.15—Tony and Gus—WJZ
8.00—Smith's Sweetest Music —WABC
9.00—Show Boat—WEAF
9.00—Death Valley Days—WJZ
9.30—To Be Announced.—WABC
9.30—Goldman Band Concert—WJZ
10.00—Paul Whiteman's Orch.—WEAF
10.00—Maxie Crawford, organist—WABC
11.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WJZ
12.00—Portland Symphonic Orch —WABC

REALIZE Your WANTS-Depending Other Peoples WANT-ADS

UP TO $00.-EACH PAID FOR U. S. INDIAN HEAD CENTS

We buy all dates regardless of condition, up to $1.00 each. Keen 1909-S at $1.50, 1877 at 75 cents. Up to $100 each for Canadian cents, 1858 to 1920. Complete Catalogue, 10c. Buying Offer Money, Gold, etc. Send 25c for large illustrated price list and buying information. Guaranteed honest or no return.

HUB COIN SHOP

139-305 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE ONTARIO

Business Directory

AUTO LOANS

AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Car Financing
Plan
E. J. FISHER & SON
39 Bridge St. East Belleville
Telephone 162

Campbell Alic Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto - Ontario - London - Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

WYATT, Ph.C., CHIROPRACTOR
Graduate of Canadian Chiropractic examinations and treatment. Electro concussion and Ultra-violet Inspector
Health. Spinal and food adjustments.
Neuro-Calometer used. All electric treatments weeks many operations.
329 Coleman, Belleville, Ontario.
Phone 900.

VERA S. FITCHER, CHIROPRACTOR
Dr. F. S. Fitcher, Chiropractic Physician and Surgeon. Graduate of Toronto and Canadian Universities and Toronto Medical Institute. Ultra-Violet and Tuttle-Hall Radiation and Mechanical Treatments. 67½ Bridge St. E., Belleville, Ont. Phone 1276.

DENTIST

DR. ROST. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
Phone 600 2-4 Bridge St. E. Belleville

RADIO SERVICE

JOHN A. DEWAR
RADIO TECHNICIAN
Authorized — Graduate
25 John St. Phone 227
Belleville

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Canada Land Surveyor, Registered
Professional Civil Engineer, Land Surveyor, Plans and Estimates promptly attended to.
PICTON — P. O. BOX 69
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance
SANDY BURROWS
HOWARD FROST
Real Estate and Fire Insurance
161 Front St. Phone 120

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance Underwriters.
Accident and Plate Glass
171 Front St. Phone 1735-W

STOCKS & BONDS

HIGGAR AND CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange
178. P. E. Wills, branch manager.

PHONE 99 Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagements Notices, $1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; Floral Tributes, $1.00; Memoriam Notices, $1.00; Motorists Notices, $1.00; Cards of Thanks, $1.00; Lodge and Society Notices, 50c; Lodge Meeting Announcements, minimum charge, 50c.
CLASSIFIED — (Per Ads. Wanted, Sale, Lost, For Rent, Etc.) 1c per word first insertion, subsequent insertions ½c per word.
ANYONE ADS—1c per word, beginning 10 cents up to 12 words minimum for words in Ads. Numbers count for one word, 5c per word.

As initial or figure counts as one word.
Count the words after you write the line.
Telephone your Want Ads. when it is more convenient. PHONE 99.
"On-Account-Rates" (Credit) will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any Ad. ordered for more than one time.
Advertisers may have their replies addressed to Box Number care of the Intelligencer, without extra charge.

WANTED

EXPERIENCED GIRL FOR GENERAL housework and companion for elderly lady in comfortable modern home. Application provided. Apply evenings after 6 p.m. 70 Victoria Crescent. 17-tf

TO RENT—SMALL HOUSE OR TWO OR three unfurnished rooms. Phone 1873. 17-tf

WANTED IN WEST BELLEVILLE FOUR or five room house, for rent on or before August 1. Give particulars. Write Box "M" Ontario Intelligencer. 17-1-p

AT ONCE—ONE OR TWO UNFURNISHED rooms suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 180 Front St. or phone 1-W. 17-1-p

WANTED—MALE HELP WANTED
AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS WITH NATURAL ability to earn $30 to $50 weekly spare time. No obligation. Write, Information Bureau, Arlington, Ont. 17-1-p

MAN WANTED IN BELLEVILLE TO handle Watkins Quality Products. Permanent and profitable connection. Write Cleansers and other new lines adding full time. Splendid opportunity. Also opening in Prince Edward County for Watkins Products. W. T. Watkins Co. Company, John South, Hamilton, Ont. 17-2-p

BOOMERS — PRIVATE HOME WITH all conveniences. Desirable location at 20 Nest Metro street. 17-2-p

STENOGRAPHER WANTED; EXPERIENCE not necessary. Apply in own handwriting. Write Box "D" Ontario Intelligencer, stating experience and wages expected. 17-2-p

FOR SALE

TWENTY CHICKS IN BELLEVILLE district for sale. Apply Box 'N' Intelligencer. 17-1-p

SUMMER SUITS, SHIRTS AND SHOES, quiet and quick sale. No reasonable offer refused. Apply 180 Front St. or phone 1-W. 17-1-p

SUMMER SUITS AND SHOES FOR SALE. Apply Russel Grills, Thomasburg R. 2. 17-1-p

CARE'SAFE 41 x 28 x 36 INCHES IN good condition. Apply Post Office, Roslin, Colborne, Ont. 17-1-p

HOT WATER HEATING SYSTEM — Boiler, 4 rads. Heating for 6 room unit or separately. Apply 371½ Front street. 17-2-p

1926 SEDAN COACH, GOOD CONDITION apply Al's Tire Shop, 371½ Front street. 17-2-p

LICHTON CHICKS READY JULY 17 and 26. Also started chicks. Phone Brenton, Corbyville, phone 23032. 17-2-p

TWO SHETLAND PONIES WITH HARness. Apply Ernest Hall and Sons, Riverview Piggery, Canniton. 17-2-p

FOR RENT OR SALE

SUMMER COTTAGE AT OAK LAKE. Apply 41 Station street or at cottage. 17-2-p

LOST

THURSDAY MORNING — SUM OF money in bills. Finder please phone 4811, Rewar. 17-1-p

AUCTION SALE

Entire Estate Antique and Modern at 19 HUBBLE AVENUE, Belleville, July 18 at one o'clock. No reserve.
GEO. O. TICE, Auctioneer 17-2-p

PERSONAL

HAVE YOU A CARE? IF SO YOU CAN cope with terrifying periods of nervousness. Write Nervous Specialist. We will teach. Help, and pay you while learning. Write Luke Brothers Laboratories, Montreal. 17-1-1

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION

This is to notify all persons interested of the dissolution of partnership between Alexander Wallace and Alexander Wallace of the Walmsley Dairy and that I have purchased the interest in the said dairy. A. Wallace. 17-1-p for Alice Britton and Clarence Joannes, victims of a murder and suicide here Monday, Rev. N. J. B. Adamson of Waterloo conducted the services for the girl first and Rev. A. G. Jacobi, of First English Lutheran Church, Kitchener, for Joannes later. Burial took place at Belleville Cemetery here the bodies being laid to rest in adjoining graves.

Curious Are Dispersed At Kitchener Funerals

Kitchener, Ont. July 17.—(CP)—While a large crowd of sensation seekers lined valley to gain admittance until dispersed by police, funeral services were held today at the Bauer-Schneider Funeral Home

BIRTH

STEWART—At the Belleville General Hospital on Tuesday, July 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stewart, a daughter. 17-1-p

BIRTH

EMMONS—At the Belleville General Hospital on Wednesday, July 17, 1935, to Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Emmons, Thomasburg, a daughter (twin). 17-1-p

BIRTH

DELONG—To Mr. and Mrs. Gerald T. DeLong, 345 Catherine street, July 17, 1935, a son. 17-1-p

TICKELL & BROWNE
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve for Less
FUNERAL HOME
Corner Church St. and
Victoria Ave. Phone 2255

BELLEVILLE
SURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
37 Campbell St.
Phone 1700 Night and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Motor Equip For Sale

Thomas G. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
82 Everett St. Phone 43
Office
266 Front St. Phone 43

BELLEVILLE MADOC BUS

Leaves Madoc .... 8.00 a.m.
Leaves Belleville .... 5.30 p.m.
Daily Except Sunday
Parcel Express
PHONE 1940

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHERS

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF ISABELLA MARY CLARKE late of the City of Belleville in the County of Hastings, Widow, deceased.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1927, Chapter 120, Section 51, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of Isabella Robinson Quinn Clarke, who died on or about the 27th day of May, 1935, are required to send by post prepaid or deliver to the undersigned their claims, duly proven, to the undersigned on or before the 15th day of August, 1935.
AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that after the said date the executors will proceed to distribute the assets among the parties entitled thereto having regard only to such claims of which they shall have notice.
DATED at Belleville this 2nd day of July, 1935.
Wallbridge, Cameron & Company, Solicitors for the Executors.
Belleville, Ontario.
JP-18-15

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHERS

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF BENJAMIN HOWARD CLARKE late of the City of Belleville in the County of Hastings, Gentleman, deceased.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1927, Chapter 120, Section 51, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of Benjamin Robinson Quinn Clarke, who died on or about the 27th day of May, 1935, are required to send by post prepaid or deliver to the undersigned their claims, duly proven, to the undersigned on or before the 15th day of August, 1935.
AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that after the said date the executors will proceed to distribute the assets among the parties entitled thereto having regard only to such claims of which they shall have notice.
DATED at Belleville this 2nd day of July, 1935.
Wallbridge, Cameron & Company, Solicitors for the Executors.
Belleville, Ontario.
JP-18-15

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In the Matter of the Bankruptcy of Arthur Henry Hall of the Township of Huntingdon in the County of Hastings, Yeoman, Debtor.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the above named debtor of the Township of Huntingdon, made an assignment on the 11th day of July, 1935, and that the first meeting of creditors will be held at the Office of the Official Receiver, 19 Bridge St. E., Belleville, on Friday, the 26th day of July, 1935, at 10 o'clock in the afternoon, Daylight Saving Time, for the purpose of the appointment of Inspectors and Committee of Inspection.
Creditors may also prove their claims and may appoint a proxy.
All proofs of claim and proxies must be filed with us prior to said meeting.
Those having claims against the estate are required to file the same with us on or before the 26th day of July, 1935, after which date the assignee will proceed to distribute the assets of the estate having regard only to the claims of which he then has notice.
DATED at Belleville this 16th day of July, 1935.
Ross A. Gardiner, Official Receiver,
Belleville, Ontario.
Solicitor: Wm. Lake, Belleville.
JP-17-21

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In the Matter of the Estate of Arthur Henry Hall of the Township of Huntingdon, in the County of Hastings, Yeoman, Deceased.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1927, Chapter 120, Section 51, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of Arthur Henry Hall, who died on or about the 11th day of July, 1935, are required to send by post prepaid or deliver to the undersigned their claims, duly proven, to the undersigned on or before the 26th day of July, 1935.
AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that after the said date the executors will proceed to distribute the assets among the parties entitled thereto having regard only to such claims of which they shall have notice.
DATED at Belleville this 16th day of July, 1935.
Wallbridge, Cameron & Company, Barristers, &c.,
Dominion Building,
Belleville, Ontario.
Solicitors for the Executor.
JP-16-17

NEW YORK EXCHANGE

New York July 17 (AP)—The stock market retained the full vigor ar its forenoon firmness during the early hours today.

At the beginning of the final hour leaders showing advances of ½ to a point or more included Chrysler, Consolidated Gas, Radio, General Motors, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Eastman Kodak, Johns-Manville, Liberty Group, Continental Can, Columbian Carbon, Montgomery Ward and U. S. Steel. The late tone was firm. Sales approximated 1,250,000 shares.

Shoemakers Seek Laws Against Evils

Toronto, July 17—(CP)—More than 800 members of the Provincial Association of Shoemakers and repairers representing 28 Ontario cities convened here today for their 18th annual two-day session.

President S. Bishop, Toronto, in his address to delegates, declared the Association was asking for government legislation to assist in fighting the evils which have threatened the trade and called on the members to make a united effort to raise the status of the industry and improved conditions for workers.

Matters concerning uniform retail shoe prices, advancement of early closing hour-laws, and a fixed minimum repair price will be discussed at the convention.

FRUIT

Toronto, July 17 (CP)—The following price changes in fruit and vegetables were reported by Whiting and Co., here today: Canadian raspberries, pint 5 1-2 to 8c; Canadian black cherries, 6-qt. iron basket 75 to 90c; Lemington peaches, No. 1 11-qt basket $1.25 to $1.50; No. 2 11-qt basket $1.00; hothouse tomatoes 11-qt basket $2.25 to $2.50.

HOLIDAY INSURANCE

While you are spending Accident while on holiday may spoil you!

IN THE EVENT OF YOUR DEATH BY ACCIDENT ..$5,000
LOSS OF BOTH FEET OR HANDS 5,000
ONE FOOT OR HAND 2,500
TOTAL DISABILITY (limit of 52 weeks) 25

The rates are: 4 days $1.; 7 days $2; 15 days $4; 30 days $6.

We also insure your baggage at very low rates. For anything in the line of insurance see us.

JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Phone 1364 121 Front St.

FINANCIAL MARKETS
NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Board Room Gossip

As supplied to Ryan and Chartered by Financial Service.

After sinking to a new 1935 low of 13 cents last week, Hollinger has recovered strongly this week on news that the company is now operating at a profit. Milling is in the neighborhood of 1,000 tons a day of approximately $8.00 ore with a monthly production of $30,000 or better. An operating profit of $10,000 was made in May and the June profit is estimated at $15,000.

Milling and milling costs are reported at $4.25 to $4.50 per. This, with the $7 to $9 grade of mill heads, shows the company to be making a small profit.

According to a wire from the Long Lac district a rich find has been made in Hamilton Red lead. No details available yet.

The annual Wall Street is in its latest issue stated that Distillers-Seagrams' earnings in the last six months of its fiscal year, which ends with this month, were equal to $4.8 share on the outstanding stock. Such glowing predictions of earnings fail to impress the public the security not only in Canada but across the line as well.

There is a modest speculative quality about the liquor business that suggests the advisability of treating stocks in this group purely as trading issues rather than investments, says Garnett Gwyn, Calgary. If this latter point of view is adopted the Walker and Gooderham issue made for possible sudden change in the outlook either for the industry or for individual units, we would be inclined to look upon these stocks as attractive trading media for those for the following reasons.

The industry appears to benefit considerably from an upturn in American business, the prosperity of variably influences the demand for quality liquors. Those companies which control the United States as well as in Canada—especially Hiram Walker and Distillers Corporation—should experience higher earnings from American operations. Those companies which have large interests tories available for export—as, for example, Canadian Industrial Alcohol and Malchem—should find it easier to liquidate their inventories within a reasonable period of time.

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted markets as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson & Co.

	Asked	Bid
Aldermac	27-00
Amulet 27-30
Banf 20 1-2-31
Bellhaven 2 1-4	2 1-4
Bouse 3 1-2 10 1-3
Casey 2 1-4 3
Coen Chib 68-78
Cent Tech 33-34
De Santis 20c
Et Bou 14 1-2 15
Garnet 1-4 1-2
Gold Eagle 30-34
Great Bear 2.00
Greenlaw 5 1-2 6 1-2
Hard Rock 30-34
Lafayette 6 1-2 7 1-2
Lamaque 320-330
Magnet 3 1-4
McLeod 4-5
North 2 1-2 4
Okleg 36-40
Pickle Crow 1-3 41 1-3
Smelters 7-8
Sun Beam 19-20
Wells 6 1-3-4
Wendigo 14-15
Wingold 2-3 2
Young Davidson 14-16
Dunlop 5 1-2 7
Forty four 626-725
Gladiola 4
Pamour 135-200
Quinlan 7-8
Rice Lake 2-3
Teck 2 1-4 5
B.C. Nickel 29-30
Mon. Con 4 1-2 5
Sty 78-81
Nicol 8-9
Pacific Valley 7 1-2 8 1-2

HOGS

Toronto, July 17—(CP)—Bacon hog prices remained unchanged today, following market points sold supplies in a range of $8.35 to $8.40. Prices:
Barrie, $8.35; Kitchener, $8.35; Stratford, $8.35; Hull, $8.50; Brantford $8.40.

POULTRY

Toronto, July 17 (CP)— Wholesale prices on live "A" grade poultry as supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co. here today: Prices: Broilers 1 1-2 to 2 1-4 lb. 31c; 2 1-2 to 3 lb. 33c; 3 to 3 1-2 lb. 34c; over 3 1-2 lb. 36c; 4 lbs. 36c; over 4 lb. 38c; 4 to 5 lb. 11c; 5 to 6 lb. 9c; old roosters 11c.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Bagger and Crawford, F. J. Wills, branch manager. Quotations at 2.00 p.m.

MINES

Ashley 100
Anglo Hur. 4003
Brech. Trem. 1 1-28
Barry Hollinger 4 1-4B
Base Metals 5623
Bear Ex. 97
Bobjo 23
Big Missouri 5423
Bagamac 3 1-4B
Brabazon 4003
BRX 53
Buffalo Ank. 3003
Castle Tr. 100
Can. Kirk 1 1-4B
Can. Malar. 415
Central Pat 175
Chemical Research 115
Coast Copper 180
Chiboug 1178
Clericy 38
Conlaurum 180
Coons 6 7-8.
Dicondo 180
Falconbridge 3808
Gilbec 1
God's Lake 172
Goldale 11 2-4B
Greene St. 22
Harker 53
Hone Gold 1128
Hollinger 1390
Howey 28
Hudson Bay 14.75
J. M. Cons. 17 3-4B
Kirk. Crom. 160
Kirk. Lake 4578
Lake Shore 1-4B
Lake Shore 50 1-4B
Lebel 1
Lee Gold 4 1-4B
Little Long Lac 418.
Macassa 1.70
Malrobic 1½
Matabibi Eastern 4½B.
Maple Leaf 2½B.
McIntyre 39¼B.
McKenzie 1.18.
McMillan 13¾B.
McWatters 1.40
Mid-Continent 1.40
Normeta 37½B.
Obrien 30B.
Parkhill 18½B.
Paymaster 27.
Pet. O 3¼B.
Perron 69B.
Pend Oreille 31B.
Pickle Crow 218.
Pioneer 9407B.
Premier 1.44.
Pros Air 4.00
Read Authier 903.
Reno 10B.
Royalite 23¼B.
San Antonio 35B.
Sherritt Gordon 62.
Sisco 2.77.
Stadacona 22.
St. Anthony 16¼B.
Sudbury Basin 160.
Sudbury Mines 8¾.
Sullivan 85.
Sylvanite 11.25.
Teabola 60B.
Teck Hughes 410B.
Tobrun 1103.
Ventures 82¼B.
Walte Amulet 60B.
Wayside 12¼B.
Wrnte Water 19¼B.
Wright Hargreaves 780B.
Yuzr 31.
Mickel 37¼.

TORONTO

Bell Telephone 139 1-2B
B. A. Oil 15 1-2
Brewing Corp. A 1-4
Brss. Can. 8 3-4B
Can. Bud Brewery 6 1-2B
Can. Cement 41 1-4B
Can. Dredge 24 1-2B
Can. Ind. Alcohol 9 1-4B
C.P.R. 9 2-4B
Can. Malting 34 1-2B
Can. Steam Ships 3-4
Canada Car 6 2-4B
Coca. Exploit 1 1-4
Con. Smelting 1593
Dominion Stores 8 5-4B
Dist. Seagrams 1.00
Dom. Tar 7 1-2B
Dom. Woollens 49 2-4B
Supertest 27 1-4B
Walkers 2 1-2B
Walker's Pfd. 29 3-4B
Walkerville Brewery 3B

American Can 140.
American Tel. 127¼.
American Radiator 17¾.
Anaconda 18¼.
Auto Fin. 4.
Case 50.
Chrysler 53¾.
General Electric 27¾.
General Motors 44¾.
Electric Auto Lite 23¼.
Inter Telephone 9½.
North American 17¾.
Montgomery Ward 39¾.
Phillips Pet. 21¾.
Radio 6¼.
Standard Brands 11¾.
Stewart-Warner 12.
U. S. Smelters 107¼.
U S Steel 76¾.
United Aircraft 16½.
Vanadium 31.
Westinghouse 58¼.

Produce Market

(By United Farmers Co-Operative Company)

Toronto — Wholesale prices on product delivered at Toronto as supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative, Co. here to-day were:

Buying Prices

Eggs—
Grade A, large, doz. .... 20 to 20½c
Grade A, medium, cse .... 19 to 19½c
Grade A, pullet 17½c
Grade C, doz. 18
Butter—
Ontario No. 1 Creamery, 20½-20½c
Ontario No. 2 Creamery 19½-20
Churning cream—
No. 1, lb .... .19
No. 2, lb .... .17
(F.O.B. shipping point)
Poultry
Dressed
Live Dressed Milling
Hens— "A" "A"
Over 5 lbs. 11
4 to 5 lbs. 10
3 to 4 lbs. .... .09
Old roosters .... .07 .08
Broilers, 3½ to 3½ lbs. .... .12
Broilers, 3½ to 4 lbs. .... .14
Broilers, 1½ to 2½ .... .14
Broilers, over 4 lbs. .... .16
Selling Prices

United Farmers Co-Operative Co. today advises Ontario points to retail dealers at the following prices:

Eggs—
Grade A, large, loose, doz. .... .23
Grade A, medium, doz. .... .22½
Grade A, pullet, doz. .... .20
Grade C doz. .... .20
Butter—
No. 1 Creamery, prints .... .29
No. 2 Creamery, prints .... .28½
Hay and Straw
No. 2 timothy hay, baled ton, $12.00 to $14.00; No. 1 timothy ton, $11.50 to $12.50; straw, wheat baled, ton $10.00; oats straw, $7.50 to $8.50.

Graded Egg Prices

Toronto dealers Thursday were paying for the following nominal prices for graded eggs, cases free:

Grade A-large, doz. 20-20½
Grade A-medium, doz. 19-19½
Grade B-pullets, doz. .... .17½

Livestock Quotations

(Toronto)

Steers, up to 1,050 lbs., good and choice 6.25 6.65
do. medium 5.75 6.25
do. common 4.50 5.50
Heifers, good and choice 6.00 6.40
do. medium 5.75 6.25
do. common 4.50 5.50
Cows, good 4.75 5.50
choice 7.00 7.50
Butcher bulls 5.50 6.50
Cows, good 4.00 4.25
do. medium 3.50 4.00
do. common 2.75 3.25
Canners and cutters 1.50 2.50
Bulls, good 5.00 5.50
do. common 3.00 3.25
Milkers and Springers 53.00 65.00
Stocker and feeder steers, good 4.75 5.25
do. common 3.50 4.50
Calves, good and choice veals 7.00 7.25
do. common to medium 4.00 5.75
do. grassers 3.00 4.00
Hogs, baconers, f.o.b. 8.00
do. off cars 8.75
do. off cars 8.35
Good ewes and wether lambs 8.50
do. medium 8.00 8.25
do. bucks 6.50 7.00
do. culls 5.00 6.00
Sheep, good light.. .... 3.00 3.50
do. culls 1.00
do. medium 1.50 2.00

Grain Markets

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co. to-day:

	Close	Prev. Close
July	80¼	80
October	81½	80½
Oats—
July	44	42¾
October	31⅝	30¾
December		29¾
Barley—
July	35½	34⅝
October	35⅛	33¾
December	35⅛	34⅛
Rye—
July	37½	35
October	38¾	36¼
December	40¼	38¼

Produce Market

Toronto, July 17—(CP)—Wholesale prices on produce delivered in Toronto as supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co., here today were: eggs: grade "A" large, doz. 18c; grade "A" medium, doz. 17c; Grade "B" doz. 16c; grade "C" doz. 15c; churning cream, no. 1 lb., 28c; No. 2 lb., 27c; Butter No. 1 solids lb. 20c; no 2 solids lb. 19c.

Ontario new potatoes, bushel 65c; Prince Edward Island potatoes, bag 15c

Livestock

Toronto, July 17 (CP) — Cattle trading was slow at the opening of the Toronto livestock market today with prices about steady on the few early sales. Holdovers numbered 600 head. Calves, sheep and lambs opened unchanged while hogs, as usual, were unsettled.

Receipts as reported by the Dominion Livestock Branch were:

Cattle, 220; calves, 190; hogs, 340; sheep and lambs, 350.

A few fair to handyweight butcher steers and heifers sold from 84 to 86 cwt., according to quality while medium quality weights of cattle sold at $5.35 to $5.75. Good butcher cows sold from $3.75 to $4.25 and a few bologna bulls made $3 to $3.25.

The calf division was steady at $6.50 to $7 for choice vealers though the bulk went at $5 to $6.50. Lambs opened at $8.25 for good ewes and wethers, $6.50 to $7.50 for bucks and $6.50 for culls. A few good, light sheep went at $3 to $3.50.

Hogs had their usual unsettled opening. Indications pointed to a steady settlement.

Quotations: Cattle, calf, sheep and lamb quotes were unchanged.

Hogs—No quotes.

Grain Markets

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co. to-day:

	Close	Prev. Close
July	80¼	80
October	81½	80½
Oats—
July	44	42¾
October	31⅝	30¾
December		29¾
Barley—
July	35½	34⅝
October	35⅛	33¾
December	35⅛	34⅛
Rye—
July	37½	35
October	38¾	36¼
December	40¼	38¼

300 AIRPLANES WILL BE SUPPLIED

(Continued From Page 1)

The Efficeror was said to have stated that the arms were "for the legitimate use of the Ethiopian Army". Since this statement conforms to treaty provisions, it was said here, the Samuel-Eden, Foreign Secretary, may approve the request, nor arms shipments' permits.

The applications for permits were held up recently on the grounds that they were "incomplete"—minus the official Ethiopian signatures.

A Wealthy Land

Rome, July 17.—(AP)—As Italy's army massed in East Africa, the semi-official publication "L'Azione Coloniale" (Colonial Action), calls Ethiopia a land of tremendous wealth, ripe for development by the "civilizing work of the European".

The Azione Coloniale has found in a survey of Ethiopa's potential wealth these resources.

Cattle in plenty; innumerable herds; fertile land suitable to the cultivation of cotton, coffee, bananas, cotton and coffee, forests; platinum, mica, coal, chromate, iron, copper, petroleum, potassium and rock salt.

These resources have not been developed the Azione Coloniale says, owned, because of the ignorance of the population of the highlands to do hard work, indifference of the natives toward enterprisinr strangers and lack of communications.

The Azione Coloniale admitting openly that Italy's cause in East Africa has been misunderstood and misstood in some parts of the world, was insistent that Italy's motives—and only Roman justice—should be employed to settle the issue.

He received the French Ambassador, Count De Chambrun, late yesterday to discuss the crisis. He conferred also with the Japanese Ambassador, Yotaro Sugimura, who arrived in Rome from a visit ancient to East Africa and would not intervene.

Mussolini Confident

Later Mussolini received two Americans, H. C. Ackerson, Mrs. Scottie McKenzie Frazier, Dothan, Ala., newspaper woman. Courtesy to his usual custom he consented to receive the questions presented by Kaltenborn.

Q. Are you determined on war whatever the attitude of what happen?

A. I have not said so.

Q. Is it not a fact that you have presented your East African case to the League of Nations?

A. Yes, the case has not been thoroughly presented.

Q. Would it be possible to harmonize the East African situation by the establishment of a joint Italian, British and French protectorate?

A. Unfortunately, many, multilateral protectories are no good.

Q. Does Italy wish to resign from the League of Nations?

A. Not at all. I do not wish to take such a step.

Q. Is there still a good chance of peace?

A. Peace is possible.

Lack of Optimism Shown

Kaltenborn said, however, that although Il Duce seemed willing to consider the claims of possible peace in East Africa, he was not optimistic over the possibility.

Going to NEW YORK?

Enjoy a NEW hotel

. . . where luxurious, sunlighted rooms command magnificent panoramic views . . . where convenience and comfort, Private bath. Radio with your choice of programs. Courteous service and ultra-modern service-superlatives.

. . . where careful, uninterrupted sleep is assured by night-time quiet—specially designed soundproof room sheets, soft pillows and fluffy blankets.

. . . where rates are $3.00 for one and $4.00 for TWO—and everything with the times. Now you can enjoy NEW YORK'S finest hotel.

1200 ROOMS and BATHS
C. W. RAMSEY, JR., Manager
3 daily
HOTEL GOVERNOR CLINTON
7th AVENUE at 31st STREET
OPPOSITE PENNSYLVANIA STA.
NEW YORK CITY

For Sale 246 Charles Street

(Between Queen Street and Victoria Ave.)

FINE BRICK RESIDENCE

Beautiful rooms; 5 bedrooms; drawing room; living room; dining room; kitchen; garage; fine grounds.

LOW PRICE TO CLOSE AN ESTATE

Belleville Locators
GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.
166 Front St.
Phone 99 - Home Phone 887

Baseball
Current Sport

IN THE REALM OF SPORTING EVENTS

Bowling
Golf

Radios Elevate Position in C.O.B.L. Defeating Peterboro Behind Calhoun's Hurling 5-2

Allows Only Six Hits With Swell Support Afforded

FORD BEST STICKER

Secures Two Doubles, While Alex Weir Knocks Triple

"Happy days are here again"

Showing a complete reversal of form and playing hands-up baseball in practically every inning, the local Stewart-Warners moved into third place in the O.B.L. following a clean-cut victory over the Peterboro Sea Horses at the local Exhibition Park last evening. Throwing the ball well where the Peterboro bats were not, Art Calhoun scattered the six visiting hits well and was given marvelous support by his team mates in the dying innings, when the Leemen threatened. Big Russ Kitchen went to the mound for the visitors, but like the pitcher to the well, he appeared once too often, his deliveries proved no mystery to the local batsmen, who cuffed the portsider of thirteen safe blows, including two doubles by Ford and a triple by Weir from the bat of Alex Weir.

Opening ostensively in the initial frame the Radios garnered in three hits and two were never headed big runs and were never headed from that point, only to mount their numbers with runs in the fifth and eighth, while the luckless Petes procured a sort run in the fourth and still another easy counter in the fifth, but from that point on Calhoun pitched steady ball and by was given air-tight support by his fielding team mates. Using a fast breaking curve and a change of pace, that had the Petes popping all evening Calhoun only experienced trouble in the sixth inning as Foley and Konopka singled, but failed to score as the big right hander bore down and was materially assisted by smart fielding by Ford and Barclay as he struck out one to end the agony. On the other hand Kitchen's deliveries failing to puzzle the locals materially, who connected frequently when hits counted into runs.

Dean Ford lead all hitters of the day with two doubles and a single, while Alex Weir's mighty triple and a single accounted for two runs. Kerr and Mellroy also collected two safeties, while all locals smacked out at least one safe swat except Sonny Green, who fielded well around the hot corner back. Next the single Peterboro batter managed to get over one safe hit, so well did Calhoun keep the locals scattered behind marvelous support in the field.

Sonny Grey's running catches in the fourth featured as he accepted right field features as he accepted right five chances as Ford kicked in with six chances without an error while Alex. Weir's running catches of Kearns' line drive in the fifth was sensational and stopped a threatening rally. Alex. raced in behind second to take the ball in his stride and with the applause of the stands, Green squeezed three nice flies for Sonny Green's opening in the ninth. Tommy Foley's running catch of Barclay's fly in the seventh was a beautiful effort in left-centre as he handled five others faultlessly. Konopka and Murphy played good defensive ball around the keystone sack.

The local victory elevates the Radios into a tie with Peterboro, who rests for third position in the O.B.L., while another victory this week-end by Radios in Kingston on Friday will move the Millmen near the second rung of the league ladder.

HITS COUNT

Belleville	AB	R	H	PO	A
Grey rf	4	0	1	3	0
Ford ss	5	1	2	1	0
Barclay c	4	1	1	7	0
Weir, cf	4	1	3	2	1
Green 2nd	4	0	0	2	3
Smith 1st	4	0	1	9	0
Calhoun p...	4	0	1	0	2
Ford as	4	1	2	0	0
McElroy 3rd ...	3	0	0	1	2
	36	5	13	27	7

Peterboro	AB	R	H	PO	A
Kearns rf ...	4	0	1	1	0
Caladine 3rd ...	4	0	0	3	3
Foley cf ...	4	1	1	5	0
Konopka 2nd ...	3	1	1	2	3
Murphy ss ...	4	0	0	1	3
Whatley c ...	4	0	1	3	1
Burton lf ...	3	0	0	1	0
Ash 1st ...	4	1	1	8	0
Kitchen p ...	4	0	0	0	2
Cadd ...	1	0	0	0	0
	35	2	6	24	12

Score by innings:
Peterboro 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 0 0—2 6 1
Belleville 1 0 0 0 2 0 0 2 x—5 13 4

Summary—Errors, Kitchen, Grey, Barclay, Green, Calhoun. Two base hits, Ford 2; Three base hits, Weir; Sacrifice hits, Murphy; Stolen bases, Kerr, Whatley; Earned runs, Belleville 5, Peterboro 1; Runs batted in, Weir 2; Green, Barclay, Ford Whatley, Foley; struck out by pitcher, by Kitchen 2; Left on bases, Belleville 7, Peterboro 9. Umpire McGillicuddy. Peterboro pilot: Woodley. Belleville bases. Time of game one hour and forty-five minutes.

When Kearns stole second Ash stretched home on Grey's single, Caladine broke his bat as he lined to first—1 run, 1 hit, 1 error.

Belleville—Kerr popped to third, Barclay was out pitcher to first. Weir was called out on strikes — 0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

4th Inning

Peterboro—Foley flew to centre. Konopka golded a single over second. Murphy hit to Calhoun who threw wild to second and all were safe. Whatley singled to right scoring Konopka, Burton flew to Weir. Ash out Calhoun to first on 3 put, 1 error.

5th Inning

Belleville—Green went out third to first. R. Smith flew to centre. Konopka tossed out Calhoun — 0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

5th Inning

Peterboro—Kitchen flew to right, Kearns lined to Weir in centre, Alex. making a sensational catch. Caladine whiffed—0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

Belleville — Foley fumbled to centre, Mellroy skied to centre, Grey hit to kitchen who threw out Foley at first. Ford at second and all were safe, Kerr beat out a hit to third jamming the sacks. Barclay popped to short. Weir rifled a hit at short scoring Ford, Green skied to right—1 run, 3 hits, 1 error.

6th Inning

Peterboro—Foley walked as did Calladine, Murphy sacrificed advancing the runners. Whatley hit to Ford who threw Foley out at the plate. Whatley stole second. Burton went out swinging—0 runs, 0 hits 0 errors.

Belleville—R. Smith fouled out to the catcher. Calhoun out short to first. Barclay got a hit past third. McElroy singled to centre. Grey asked to left—0 runs, 2 hits, 0 errors.

7th Inning

Peterboro—Ash singled to centre, Kitchen forced Ash at second, one out. Kearns asked to Weir. Grey took Caladine's fly in right—0 runs 1 hit, 0 errors.

Belleville—Kerr flew to Foley. Kearns line ticket to left centre, Foley making a nice running catch. Weir forced in second—0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

8th Inning

Peterboro—Foley bounced a hit off Green's second, scoring Ash at first by Ford. Murphy bounced a hit off McIlroy's shins. Whatley flew to Grey. Foley fanned by Burton, popped to Green—0 runs, 2 hits, 0 errors.

Belleville—Green out third to first. R. Smith rifled a hit past short. Calhoun hit to left scoring R. Smith. Calhoun out going into second. Barclay received a hit off Kitchen's glove, Ford going to third. Grey walked filling the sacks. Kerr forced Grey at second to retire the side—1 run, 4 hits 0 errors.

9th Inning

Peterboro—Ash popped to Ford. Kitchen struck out. Kearns flied to Green—0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

LONDON LUNCH ON TOP RUNG

Defeat C. D. S. 24 to 19 With Ten Runs in One Frame

In a free hitting contest George Kikes' London Lunch "munchers" moved into sole possession of first place in the local Mercantile softball loop with a clean-cut 24 to 19 victory over the C.D.S. The winners scored ten big runs in the second frame to forge well into a lead they never relinquished.

It was the London Lunch team's fifth victory in six starts and assures them of a full games schedule over the second placed club in the loop. The C.D.S. used two hurlers in their efforts to stem the tide of hits coming from the bats of the London Lunch nine, but without avail. Brown started on the hilltop for the losers, but was forced in the seventh in favour of MacLean. Tommy Hughes went the route for the "munchers" being ably handed by Manager Kikes behind the bat.

Circuit Rows were hit by Rocky and Sergeant, each boasting a count with two aboard. Hall and Wickerson also hit profusely for the victors, while Sergeant, Brown and Booth swung the more wicked bats for the losers. Box score:

The line-ups—London Lunch — Ross, Wickerson, Sergeant, Bennett, Cole, Cromlish, McCreary, Hall, Carr, Westfall and Rocky. C.D.S.—Brown, Thompson, Childs, Langbeer, Royle, Brown, Baker, MacLean, Booth and Hughes.

London Lunch	4	0	1	0	1	1	1	1	1	24
C.D.S.	4	0	0	3	0	1	0	5	0	19

2 YEAR CONTRACT FOR J. McCARTHY

Signs on Dotted Line to Lead Yankees in 1936 And '37

NEW YORK, July 17.— (AP)—Genial Joe McCarthy will rule the Yankee dynasty for two more seasons at least.

Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the New York team, announced yesterday that McCarthy had been signed for the seasons of 1936 and 1937 at the same salary he now is paid, understood to be around $25,000.

The announcement dispelling the rumors of Bucky Harris' return as a possible successor to McCarthy, was made by the Yankee owner in Chicago Cubs in 1931.

Ruppert called baseball scribes into his office before the game with White Sox and told of signing McCarthy.

"I don't know what there is much more to say," he said, "except that we are up in first place now and this is as good a time as any for me to show my confidence in McCarthy. He has done a good job for the club. I'm completely satisfied with him and this is my way of showing it."

Ruppert said that there was no particular reason for signing the manager at this time.

31 PASS FINAL SWIMMING TEST

Free Instruction at "Y" Most Successful Venture

Commencing on July 8th the Y.M.C.A. has carried on a programme of free instruction in swimming for boys of the city from 10 to 15 years who were not able to attend the regular week or full hour lessons including opportunity to practise, which have been in progress. Five days a week for two weeks these boys were privileged to take advantage of the free instruction provided by the Association and following the two weeks' period given an opportunity to take two tests to qualify for awards being given the successful candidates.

Tuesday morning of this week, Instructor Gordon Hall and Assistants, Harry Moncrief and Howard Ketcheson conducted the tests and the final tests and the results were highly gratifying, 31 members or members of the group were able to swim across the pool and qualified for the Beaver Medal. Sixteen received members of the class passing the test for the Intermediate Medal to qualify in this test by a small margin but nearly all succeeded in being able to swim a short distance. All members passing the tests were given opportunity to try for the National Y.M.C.A. Junior Swimming Certificate, three to be able to swim at least 50 feet) and Intermediate Certificate (ability in passing this test.

Carried on over the short period of two weeks the swimming campaign just concluded was one of the most successful conducted by the local Association. The boys themselves were most appreciative and lent splendid co-operation to the instructors and the Belleville Y in the free instruction, field of labor. Tuesday evening (Wednesday), at 8 p.m. the boys who learned to swim during the campaign, will assemble at the Y and from there they will be presented with their awards and also enjoy a social half hour together.

CURRENT SPORT
DAY BY DAY

"Those who came to scoff remained to cheer" and was it not ever true!

Returning to form that elevated them into the league leadership earlier in the season, the local Stewart-Warners defeated Mr. Kneeley Lee's Petes one swell defeat right before the eyes of President Brennan and a host of Peterboro fans at the local Fair Grounds last eve. With the exception of the third inning, the Radios looked much the better team, which was no surprise of his life, when the Radios ruffled the pelet for 13 safeties and safe hits, three of them for extra bases, while defensively the locals gave Calhoun fine support, especially in the dying frames when the Petes applied what little pressure they could muster

Art Calhoun pitched a beautiful game keeping the Petes' six hits well scattered and was given marvelous support by Alex Weir, Sony Grey, Dean Ford and Sonny Green while Roy Smith handled all that came his way ably. Dean Ford's doubles and Alex's crashing triple brought glatness to the heart of Bob Brennan as Kitchen's Nice over the Radios has been broken and now Peterboro may have to try a southpaw against the locals in the future. Russ Kitchen has been in a batting slump of late, but last eve. they came out of the slump once and hereby give notice that he will be on the beam hereafter. "All C.O.B.L. pitchers please note." The Radios rose to heights in the field as the Petes to the tickets they get two aboard and none get last Calhoun retired the side. He was given sensational support by his teammates, Alex. making a catch of Foley at the plate and a strike out stopped the Petes and ended their winning aspirations for the day.

A lot of comment was heard in relationship to the balls that were whizzing down to Bill Caladine at third. It must be remembered, that these hits were travelling right smartly and none of them bounced back to the box. "Caladine is good an amateur league and it is doubtful if some of those hits would have been grabbed by pro guys, at that. At any rate the Radios are now in first place and they are beginning to hit the ball with some degree of consistency and they only continue their slugging and combine this with their usual fielding efforts, and the Radios will be in there when the final reckoning comes.

For his failure to fulfil his contract and appear in the local, and other rings throughout the province, Frankie Genovese has his license indefinitely suspended, according to information received by George Lee, chairman of the Kiwanis wrestling committee yesterday. The information was forwarded by core runs aplenty.

TORONTO WINS IN 11 FRAMES

Boone And Schulmerich Tally Three Hits Apiece

A perusal of the records would indicate that a great deal of its success to its pitching staff.

Boyds have won nine straight games and six pitchers have split those games, one hurler winning but one of one of them having to be relieved in the box once he started. Chad Kinsey, Pete Appleton and Ray Fritz have pitched two games apiece and Leo Mahoney, George Granger and Harry Smythe one each.

Fritz pitched the league-leaders to a 9-5 victory over Newark under the lights last night, but the tight pitching staff there caused him to be relieved in the sixth by Leo Mahoney, who pitched the last three innings, but his 1 1/3 less caused him to be yanked in the sixth. Preno Thomas got a 2 to 1 decision in relief work with three singles.

Burnish and scored an easy win over 4th Syracuse Chiefs in an exhibition tilt game 6-1, by taking five in a row and 11 victories in their last 12 starts.

Howie McDonald, young outfielder, drove in half the Bison tallies with a home run and a single while Cronus contributed a homer to the Bison 13 hit attack. Jim Bivin threw the six innings he worked.

Rochester defeated Albany 3-2, three errors helping the Albany team figuring in the Red Wing runs

Toronto defeated Buffalo seven second place in the league by turning in a 4-3 victory in the first game of a twin bill. Ed Holmes pitched steady ball to stave off defeat but it was a tough one. He hit a home run, a triple and a single but he had in all three of the Baltimore runs.

Manager Joe Boone and Schulmerich Schulmerich drove three apiece for Toronto.

Louis to Take Off 6 Pounds

Chicago, July 17 — (AP) — Joe Louis seeks to get rid of the ugly riding himself of six pounds picked up during the past three weeks in training and drills for his 10 round bout with King Levinsky August 7 at Comiskey Park, home of the Chicago White Sox.

Joe, the target for the affair the Kingfish, was due in Chicago from Tomahawk, Wis., where he has been intensively conditioning candition maneuvers. Levinsky, down from Canada, planned to start boxing, planned to leave tonight for his outdoor camp at Crescent Lake, Ill.

The Detroit negro, who has been in the ring since he defeated Primo Carnera down three weeks ago, said he would remain there and will remain here until a camp site is lined up.

Louis, weighing 203 pounds, about six more than he carried against Carnera, said he was eager to get to work.

"I have been having my fun for the last three weeks, but now I am ready to settle down to business," he said. "I want to know if I want to get into condition for Levinsky."

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By The Associated Press)

Sammy Byrd, Reds — drove in five runs against the Giants, including the decisive one with a double and sending two in with a single.

Johnny Allen, Yankees — held White Sox to two hits and fanned 10.

Sam Leslie, Dodgers — found Pittsburgh pitching to his liking, getting a triple, a home run and a double and five runs home.

Dolf Luque, Reds, Browns — Had perfect day at bat with three hits against Senators.

Firestone TIRES PRICED FOR EVERY PURSE

$4.75 and up
SENTINEL 30x3½

$6.05
4.40-21
SENTINEL
4.50/21 - - $6.60
4.75/19 - - 7.35
5.00/19 - - 8.00
Other sizes in proportion

$7.85
4.40-21
OLDFIELD
4.50/21 - - $ 8.80
4.75/19 - - 9.70
5.00/19 - -10.40
Other sizes in proportion

$9.50
4.40-21
HIGH SPEED
4.50/21 - - $10.45
4.75/19 - - 11.65
5.00/19 - - 12.60
Other sizes in proportion

There's no need to sacrifice quality and safety to buy tires at so-called bargain prices. For Firestone has a quality tire in every price class—as low as $4.75—and every one carries the Firestone name and guarantee. Get Firestone Safety and Service at unusually low prices. Drive in today to your nearest Firestone Dealer and see how little money is required to equip your car.

ONLY Firestone GIVES YOU ALL THESE EXTRA VALUES
GUM-DIPPING lengthens the Safety life of the cords by 38%
2 EXTRA COOL RIBS under the tread—Firestone Tires run cooler at any speed
SAFETY TREAD in the new High Speed tire gives 36% added non-skid mileage

30 x 3½ not guaranteed.

MADE AND GUARANTEED BY Firestone

HOLWAY BROS.
"TOOTS" and "BOUNCER"
RED INDIAN SERVICE STATIONS
BELLEVILLE, Phone 1998 and TRENTON, Phone 170
"Our Business Isn't Selling Gas . . . . It's Keeping Your Car on the Road."

Cards Whittle Giant's Lead To 4 Games, Showing Form Of Title Team of Last Year

Frisch And Boys Have Vision of World Series

GIANTS SLUMP

Yankees' Lead Increased to Two And One Half Games

(By Andy Cohen, Associated Press Staff Writer)

Red Birds of St. Louis are cutting down the stuff on which the Giants hung their pennant hopes. Just a year ago, Cardinals have begun a belated drive, which has reduced the league lead of the Giants to four games. Cards are getting stronger and Giants, figured early winners a few short weeks ago, have been cuffed by injuries and loss of form. New York men who contemplated a "nickle series" look dolefully to September's finish.

Here it is mid-July and Cardinals have won a dozen straight games, in a fortnight they have cut the New York lead more than they will have to jut it for the remainder of the season to go into first place. And that's only half the story.

Two of the Giants pitching staff are in the sick bed and the great portsider Carl Hubbell isn't cutting the corners as he has in the past. Hal Schumacher has been pitching great ball but Cincinnati Reds blanked him briefly the other day.

Weigh this against the case of the Cards. The Deans have hit their stride. Dizzy leads both leagues in the number of games won and Willie Hallahan has come out of his slump to pitch some of the finest ball of his career.

Frankie Frisch and his boys are playing heads-up ball and physically. They are the champions and they remember the golden flow of world series profits. They won last year and they figure they can do it again.

Yesterday Jess Haines pitched a 2 to 1 victory over the Braves as Giants dropped another to Cincinnati 7-3. Castleman of the Braves suffered his 12th straight defeat although he held the Cards to seven hits.

Sammy Byrd Cleats 'Em

Sammy Byrd who used to warm the Yankee bench showed his real form when some good, when he went to bat twice with the bases loaded and delivered the blows that enabled Reds to overcome Giants. In the fourth, with the Reds trailing 1-0, he whaled a double to clear the loaded sacks. Again in the eighth with the Reds trailing 5-4, with a single to score two more runs and a minute later Higgs brought home another, when Soul threw one to Phillies and Reds chased Parmelee to the showers in the seventh.

Phillies trailed Brooklyn, Benshaw of the box with a four run lead in the second but had to chalk up a 7-5 win over Chicago Cubs and and their five game losing streak and snap the Chicagoans string of eight straight victories. Twenty-four hits, all singles and 13 of them by the Cubs, bounced off the bats.

Old Tom Zachary pulled some tricks from his aging sachel to give Brooklyn Dodgers a 3-1 victory over the Pittsburg Pirates. Sam Leslie led the Dodger attack with three hits.

Johnny Allen returned to early season form as Yankees leading the American League, defeated the third-place Chicago White Sox 2-0 The victory coupled with the defeat of Tigers, widened Yankee's lead to two and a half games. Allen held his opponents to two singles and fanned nine to increase his strikeout record of 84 for the season.

The Philadelphia Athletics defeated Tigers 8-2 as Jimmy Foxx hit his 30th home run of the year. Louis Browns won their second straight game from Washington 6 to 4 to square their series.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Leading Batters—Vaughan, Pirates 388; Medwick, Cardinals .381; Rome—Medwick Cardinals 68; Ott, Giants 67.

Runs Batted In— Collins, Cardinals 78; Ott, Giants 73.

Runs—Medwick Cardinals 84; Terry Giants 114.

Doubles—Medwick Cardinals Hemsley Cubs 36.

Triples—Suhr Pirates, Goodman Reds 9.

Home Runs—Ott Giants 30; Collins Cardinals 18.

THE RED TIGER

By ALANSON CROSBY

"Love! Bah! What do you know of love?" Miss Madison's eyes glistened with a baleful look. "Look here, Judith Bates—there is just one thing for you to do. Examine Randall Spencer critically, finally, and irrevocably. Your experience the other evening ought to teach you that I am a weasel who cannot be lightly trifled with."

"You are threatening me," said Judith, "and I resent it."

Miss Madison shrugged her shoulders.

"You will not refuse—unless you are mad. But you need not make up your mind at once. I have no doubt whatever of your final decision. I am prepared to wait—also to be patient—as long as may be necessary. Circumstances, which you will readily appreciate without my describing them, will operate somewhat against you during this period, however."

"Which means?" said Judith, "that I am your prisoner?"

Miss Madison laughed.

"Put your own construction on it. . . . You will not insist in this room. My perfect servant, Sam, is a cook, among his other accomplishments. He is preparing your breakfast. It ought to be ready by now. I want you to particularly notice his eat-up. If Sam has any weakness at all, it's a bit of vanity over his gifts as an actor. Ah, he's coming!"

The door through which Miss Madison had entered the small room opened and someone brought in a tray of dishes and a pot of coffee. If Judith had not been told by Miss Madison that Sam's next distant relative might be that of a man, she would not have known the perfect servant. Every line of nature of Sam was recognizable beyond doubt, but the shuffle of the yellow face and piled up queue the shuffling, slippered feet, and the mannerisms were those of a typed and still, a certain deformity of the mouth and chin were proof that Judith that the Chinese servant was indeed Sam, the master servant, who would eat a guest's throat at his mistress' bommand without batting an eye!

MISS MADISON'S ANTIQUES

CHAPTER THIRTY

The prefect servant set his tray and coffee pot on a small table, bowed low and shuffled out. The fumes of the bacon and coffee were appetizing enough, but Judith's hunger was not as keen as her suspicion. A servant, so loyal to his mistress' interests that he would not be squeamish about hurling a casual stiletto into a back or a cliff, might also poison the coffee and bacon. Judith pushed the food aside.

"Thanks but I'm not hungry," she said in explanation.

Miss Madison watched her with grim amusement.

"No, I don't think Sam has poisoned your breakfast, and I don't think Judith's thoughts had been printed on her brow, or haven't given him any such orders. Death by starvation is painful, too, my dear. You are likely to be here quite a while. If you refuse all the food Sam offers you will get him to exceed the fashionable limit. Besides, Sam is very proud of his gustatory accomplishments, and I'm afraid your failure to appreciate them will offend him."

Judith bit her lip in vexation but said nothing. She was completely in this woman's power and at her mercy seemed now beyond question. There was nothing to be gained by any resistance, however. Miss Madison evidently derived considerable pleasure from the infliction of mental torture upon her. The best way to meet the situation, it seemed to Judith, was to appear to oppose her will against her fate. But she could not—she set Sam's breakfast—that was too great a risk.

"I'm sorry," she said. "But really, I am not a bit hungry. Isn't it rather early for breakfast?"

"Perhaps." Miss Madison conceded "I am rather an early riser, and usually breakfast about eight. Since Sam's culinary talents do not appeal to you, perhaps you will honor me with your presence at my breakfast table? Not as a precedent, however, for Sam will continue to be the joy of your waking hours—and of body-guard, euphemistically speaking. In the meantime, shall we look about the place outside?"

Judith followed Miss Madison eagerly, in the faint hope that some means of escape would reveal itself.

"The drawing room you have seen," said Miss Madison, with mock politeness. "Wasn't it right before you burned me with a call? This is the library."

They stood inside a small, panelled room whose bookshelves, built in on three sides, bulged with volumes. There was a large flat-top desk near the centre of the room, and the usual quota of comfortable chairs and divans. A huge open fireplace suggested comfort and dampness on cold winter nights.

"This is specifically a study room," said Miss Madison. "My father, now dead, a retired army officer, loved this room. Reading was the best of it, too. He will spend a good deal of his time here, I decide, when we settled down after our marriage. We shall spend a year or two abroad first."

While seeks evenly, almost casually as though there were no issue between them as to Randall Spencer, had she cared to look, she could not see Judith were hard and cruel.

"If I could hear that from Randall Spencer's own lips," said Judith calmly, "I would never try to see him again. If what you say is true, why don't you take me to him and let me hear him say it?"

Miss Madison shrugged her shoulders.

"Why should I bother? . . . And where should I take you?"

"He is somewhere in this house. I am sure," said Judith. "You are holding him—a prisoner—as you are me."

"Why do you say this?" Miss Madison turned upon Judith almost fiercely.

"Because he told me that he was coming to see you yesterday; that he would talk with you finally, and that he would see me at eight o'clock last night," said Judith defiantly. "He did not come. I know that he would have kept his word had he been able to."

A paroxysm of rage seemed to seize Miss Madison momentarily, and a look of hatred that made Judith's blood run cold transformed her coldly beautifully face into a fiend. Then, as though with a great effort, the woman calmed herself and the cruelly cynical tone came back into her steely voice.

"Quite romantic. Trusting young girl deceived, and all that. Some day you will learn that men's promises and protestations are to be taken with a grain of salt. . . . Randy's a slight boy, but he will live. . . . and being a handsome brute he goes make congratulating maidens to skip a beat. I trust yours is not damaged beyond repair. . . . This is my breakfast room. . . . Oh, not don't you think?"

Miss Madison had opened a door off the library as she was speaking and Judith stepped a small, daintily furnished room in a blue color scheme, through the large bay windows of which the sun was pouring. But more interesting to Judith than the physical properties or the aesthetic beauty of the room was the fact that her casual friend, Dick, ex-thug and present butler, was setting the table.

The butler went on with his work quite stolidly, seeming not to notice his interlopers, but as Judith were about to turn away—in fact, Miss Madison's back was turned—he surreptitiously winked at Judith. There was no particular significance that could be attached to the scarce ly perceptible drooping of one eyelid, but Judith interpreted it as an ocean that she had one friend in this house of enmity, and it was a great ful assurance. Just how Dick would be able to help her, or whether he would dare to do so if he were so inclined, was not clear, but the thought of his presence was something. Judith gave him a faint and fleeting smile as she left the room.

"I doubt if you are interested in my housekeeping arrangements," said Miss Madison as they left the breakfast room, "but there is one part of this old house I want show you. It is tremendously interesting to me, though you may not care for it. Follow me."

They returned to the small room to which the misgivening chauffeur had first conducted Judith and Randall Spencer how many hours ago lay on the table; thence along the narrow passage which seemed to traverse one whole side of the house, to a small bolted door in the extreme end.

With some misgivings Judith followed Miss Madison down a narrow and dimly lighted stairway. As they reached the bottom of a long flight of steps the atmosphere seemed dank musty.

"This house was built in the early eighteenth century," Miss Madison explained, "and has taken hoary from the descendants of the original owners. They must have been a picturesque family. This old cellar is full of mysterious passages, chambers and dungeons. They were smugglers, likely—or pirates. It is really quite interesting."

"I don't believe I care to see it," said Judith apprehensively. She could feel a chill spreading over her back.

"Oh, you must!" said Miss Madison with polite compulsion.

And Judith knew there was no backing out.

Suppressing her fears as best she could she followed her hostess through a tortuous passage penetrated by fawn light came from somewhere—just enough to enable Judith to see Miss Madison a few steps ahead of her. Probably, she thought there were small windows somewhere in the cellar.

The narrow passage suddenly widened out into a large chamber, and Miss Madison walked at the entry for Judith to catch up with her. There was something weirdly uncanny about the room, and Judith felt an instinctive repulsion.

"Sorry I didn't think to bring a flashlight," said Miss Madison, "It's rather dark. I've never had the cellar wired for lights. In fact, it's practically as was in the seventeen hundreds, when it was the repository of a hoard of smuggled and pirates. Come—I want you to see the old whipping post."

Miss Madison spoke in the matter-of-fact way she might have used to call attention to a pretty piece of bric-a-brac, Judith shuddered.

"Feel the wood," Miss Madison urged. "Hard as iron. I don't know what the material is, but you have specimens of it substantial. Notice those pegs sticking out a foot or two above the level of your head? That's where they tied the hands of slaves—or prisoners when they were whipped. Interesting, isn't it?"

"It's horrible!" said Judith. "Let's go back."

TO BE CONTINUED

TEX AND HIS PALS (ActualPhotographs)

By Leslie A. Hill

BRINGING UP FATHER—

By George McManus

TILLIE THE TOILER—

By Russ Westover

DANGER TRAILS—

By The Famous Explorer Martin Johnson

MR. AND MRS—

By Briggs

TARZAN THE UNTAMED—

(Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service)

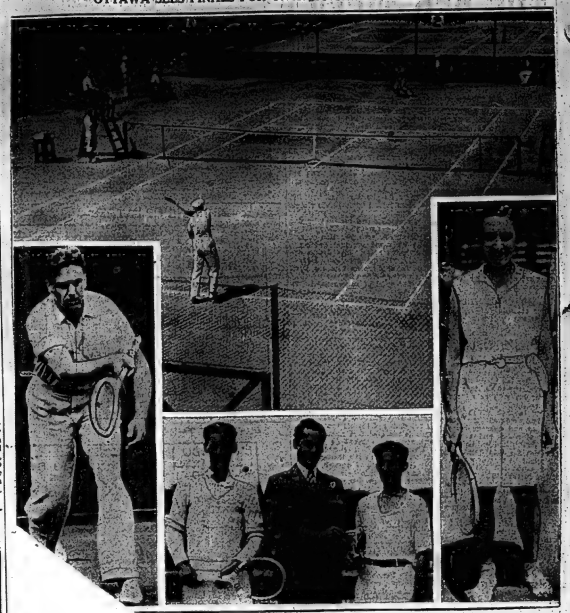
Much to his own surprise, Usanaga discovered his terror was waning as the plans soared above Numabo's village. He began to take notice of the manner in which the white man guided and manipulated the 'greabird'. After half an hour, Roger rose rapidly.

Suddenly, without warning, he looped, and flew with the plans upside down for a few seconds. "I said I'd give him the lesson of his life," he murmured as he heard, even above the propeller's whir the shriek of the terrified Usanga. Roger righted the machine.

He circled slowly a few times above the meadow until he had assured himself that the girl was there and apparently unharmed. Then he dropped gently to the ground, stopping the plane near Olga and Usanga's warriors. Usanaga tumbled out of the fuselage, trembling.

With solid ground under foot, Usanga quickly regained his composure. He strutted about, "showing off" before his admiring warriors. He insisted on making camp beside the plane, lest it be stolen. Two days they camped there and Usanaga compelled Roger to instruct him.

3,000 READY TO MARCH FROM TORONTO TO OTTAWA



More than 3,000 relief camp strikers, unemployed and sympathizers paraded in Toronto prior to their departure on long trek to Ottawa, there to join fellows from other parts of Canada—it is hoped. Provincial government decrees will make it necessary for trekkers to walk all the way. Layout shows men and women parading, signs and crowd gathered at Queen's Park, Toronto, before parade.

SWEET TOOTH

One of his many two-legged admirers, presented "Pete," the New York Bronx Zoo hippopotamus, with a tiny cake when Pete celebrated his thirty-second birthday. Cake, candle and all are seen about to disappear down the cavern Pete uses for a mouth. The hippo was born on July 13, 1903, in New York.

OTTAWA SEES FINALS FOR ONTARIO TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Walter Martin of Toronto (LEFT) won the men's singles tennis championship of Ontario at Ottawa in a finals match against his fellow citizen, Ross Wilson, before rain and high wind forced postponement of many last-round matches. TOP, CENTRE shows Martin, in foreground, on the court against Wilson. Meanwhile, Mrs. W. T. Patrick of Montreal captured the women's singles crown, defeating Mrs. Gilbert Nunns of Toronto. The winner is shown at RIGHT. LOWER CENTRE, LEFT to RIGHT, are George Robinson, Montreal and Quebec provincial junior ace, Gordon Southam, president, Rideau Lawn Tennis Club, Ottawa; and Roger Durivage, Montreal. Durivage is accepting the trophy emblematic of junior singles championship, Robinson was the defeated finalist.

"Black Eagle" Ready

Hubert Julian (above), "Black Eagle" of Harlem, has answered call for volunteers for service in Abyssinia against Italy. He's joined the Emperor's air force as officer.

Italy Also Has Fierce Tribesmen to Fight Against Abyssinia

Italian colonial artillery troops, shown practising in the mountains outside Asmara Eritrea, capital of Italy's colony. If war flares between Italy and Abyssinia, these troops will have to furnish a "front-line" until the regulars can take up their positions. The artillerymen are the tall coal-black countrymen of the region, officered and trained by Italians. Without their uniforms and European drilling, they would still be first-class fighting men, like the wild hill riflemen from over the border who will follow Emperor Haile Selasse of Abyssinia into battle.

BRITISH RACING DRIVER SETS 24 NEW AUTO SPEED RECORDS

The camera shutter clicked fast to catch this photo of John Cobb, British business man and sportsman in his racing automobile as he sped around the Utah salt flats to shatter 24 racing auto records, six of them world marks. The latest British auto racing threat travelled a t speed of 162.12, the fastest time ever made on a circular track. He hopes to set a new record for a 24-Hour run on the same salt beds. Sir Malcolm Campbell may make another attempt to reach 300 miles per hour in his 4-ton Bluebird over this same speedway next September. There is also a possibility that Cobb, who is seen close up (inset) may attempt to top Sir Malcolm's present mark later date.

HAS FINE SCORE

"BUD" DONOVAN

Winnipeg golf ace, who finished in a tie with Byron Nelson, Ridgewood, N.J., pro, for second place in the General Brock and Seagram open tournament at Lookout Point, Ontario. The 23-year-old amateur shot a fine 292, one stroke back of the winner, Tony Manero, for the 72-hole course.

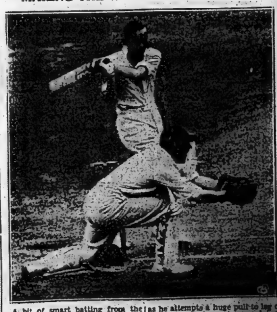
BEERY ENJOYS WRESTLING TIGER

Tu Wallace Beery, film star, wrestling bout with a full-grown Bengal tiger is good clean fun. After making several scenes with the 600-pound beast for a new picture, cage to protect Beery.

Beery grew on some of his circus experience of years ago and staged an exhibition wrestling match. There were no guards outside the

PAYS MORTGAGE

Smiling, curly-haired Marilyn Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Miller of Pierre, S. D., who recently celebrated her second birthday, has the distinction of having paid off the mortgage on the family homestead. Judged "America's most beautiful baby" at the Chicago fair last year, Marilyn brought home $10,000 in prize money, half of which was set aside as an endowment for her college education and the remainder used to buy her parents a home. Above photos were taken on her first and second birthdays.



FIRST TURN—One of the reasons why horse players go back for more—thrilling action at first turn at Empire.

EX-CHAMP AND BRIDE—Jimmy McLarnin, former welter champion, pictured in Vancouver, B. C., withe bride, formerly Lillian Cupit.

MAKING THE WICKET-KEEPER DUCK

A bit of smart batting from the British cricket fields. Pekre, crack Worcester left-hander makes Brooks, Somerset wicket-keeper duck fast as he attempts a huge pull to leg off Pender when the teams met in a county cricket game. The match was played at the historic Oval.

WEATHER

Moderate southerly winds; fair and quite warm; Friday—Partly cloudy and warm; probably local thunderstorms.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES

	Max.	Min.
Today	85	55
Year Ago	85	59

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, JULY 18, 1935

BLACK EMPEROR CALLS ETHIOPIANS TO BATTLE

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Fort Erie, Ont., July 18 (CP)—Why immigration officers go grey-headed.

"How long have you lived in the United States" as official asked a woman at Peace Bridge.

"Why all my life, of course," she replied—"or nearly so—I was only 36, when I went to that country."

Goran, Sask., July 18 (CP) — St. Hocking, town clerk is on the "spot" in connection with a beer parlor vote here, the vote was a tie. The Attorney-General's department picked Mr. Hocking to cast the deciding vote.

The 24 "spotters" and the 24 "no" voters are watching the town clerk.

Kitchener, Ont., July 18 (CP) — A Kitchener man has given up golf, withdrew his ball receipts for February. After 12 successful attempts to drive his ball from a tee, he finally connected but the ball struck a windmill and bounced back on the tee "presentation" donated the man had turned in his clubs.

Sarnia, Ont., July 18 (CP) — Most watermelons are selling at a price of bananas to discourage more than one per cent. There were one hundred sold wholesale at $2.50 a case. The price is now $7.00.

Chicago, July 18 (CP)— Dr. N. E. Sepley of Chicago, after examining himself today and reported his kidneys functioning, patient was coming along nicely.

Dr. Sepley, who is 36 years, breathes his last at 1.00 p.m. (Central Time). Their health, gave himself a clean bill of health. Sepley died, and advises to pass away beside.

Dallas, Tex., July 18 (CP) — "I am 45 years old, have good health and willing to marry" said letter Mayor George Sergeant received from a Sparrow Point, Md., woman.

She added, however, that she was trying to provide a home for her aged father, and could give $400 to complete payments on the house. The mayor said he didn't have the $400.

Cartersville, Ill., July 18 (CP)— A boy with a lighted match proved that you can burn up a road. He threw his match on the primary coat of an asphalt mixture containing naphtha.

Pocksahll, N.Y., July 18 (CP)— The State Department of Correction has found the town beard H's get to wash the blankets and clean up the town hall—or close it!

Elkoro, B.C., July 18 (CP) — Mrs. Willie Smith's turkey hen set on 41 eggs, and hatched 17 turks. A set of twins was among the brood.

Kansas City, July 18 (CP) — Amid the clatter of dishes at Ed. Lapin's lunch room, a roast beef customer asked the waitress to summon the proprietor. After giving the bill to Mr. Dewey Garnett, Kas., he tendered the astonished Lapin a dollar bill, explaining:

"Ten years ago when I was down and out you gave me a free dollar meal ticket on credit. I was only 1 kin to be sure of that turn on it. Here's the other dollar."

70 Persons Affected At Derwent Banquet

Edmonton, July 18—(CP) — Royal Canadian Mounted Police today penned the report of the epidemic illness of 70 persons following a banquet at Derwent, Alta., was due to poisoning.

Of the 70 persons affected, 25 of them are still in hospital at Elk Point. It was alleged a drug was placed in milk used at the banquet an affair arranged by the Ukrainian Community Organization.

C.C.F. Officers Quit To Join Stevens Group

Simcoe, Ont., July 18—(CP)— Resignations of Mayor Lloyd Carter as president and Thomas Hopers as secretary respectively of the Simcoe C.C.F. Club were received at a special meeting of the C.C.F. executive last night. Both expressed their intention of lending their support to the new Reconstruction party. Mayor Carter declared his acceptance of the C.C.F. presidency was under pressure and was with the reservation that he would support a Stevens party should one be organized.

NAZI ADVOCATE DEATH PENALTY ON JEW OFFENDERS

Various Associations With Ayrans Protested in Campaign

TURN TO WORD

Papers Protest Against Headlines in Foreign News

By RUDOLPH JOSTEN

Associated Press Foreign Staff

Berlin, July 18.—(AP)—Nazi Jew-baiters, percolated in their anti-semitic campaign today, dropping more violent means under government orders but turning to the written word to demand death to Jews for various associations with Ayrans.

The newspaper Angriff boldly advocated the death penalty for Jews guilty of intimacy with Aryan women.

The Nazi party's syndicate service, in an article in the "National Sozialistische Partei Korrespondenz", demanded that Jews be forbidden to rent apartments to Aryans, engage Aryan domestic help or accept Aryan clients, under pain of death if necessary.

A post-card depicting an Aryan girl standing in a gutter with a Jewish couple and surrounded by storm troopers was shown in a conspicuous place, with a placard around the girl's neck bearing this rhyme:

"A swine am I, the town about
With Jews alone do I go out."

Printed in large type below the picture was a warning to passersby on a main thoroughfare to see Palsdame: Plats: "Do you want to be photographed like that?"

Confined to Sheets

Reports from the Schoneberg hospital said Aryan women were congested before a Jewish-owned shop there, but that the disturbance was confined to shouts as police looked on.

The controlled press protested bitterly against atrocity reports abroad of the anti-semitic disorders, although they did not deny that the incidents occurred.

Whole columns were devoted to criticism of the foreign reports of the demonstrations under such headlines as "unjustified foreign attacks against Germany", "malicious reports," and "exaggerated descriptions."

One newspaper, the Hachtauguabe asserted:

"No German editor ever would think of publishing any of those horrible bloody clashes which occur daily."

It cites two United States examples—the lynching of a negro in Columbus and strikes at Tacoma in which 100 persons were injured, and were treated in hospitals."

Reports of lynchings in the United States have been confirmed to the German press by the official agency and published as has been reports of disorders elsewhere such as those in Belfast, Northern Ireland.

CANADA LOSES McKINNON CUP

Most Prized Award of Bisley Meet Goes To England

(By Thomas T. Champion)
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

Bisley Camp, England, July 18— (CP Cable)—Canada this afternoon lost the historic Mackinnon Cup, one of the greatest prizes at the annual meeting of the National Rifle Association, when England's team took the trophy with an aggregate of 1,053. Scotland was second with 1,042 and Canada third with 1,034.

India finished in a tie with the Canadian in the same total, Wales was fifth with 1,033, Ireland sixth with 1,031 and the Channel Islands last with 980.

Last year Canada had won the trophy for the sixth time since it was instituted in 1891, with a team total of 1,060.

Cow Charges Man, is Charged by Car And Again Charges Doctor's Car

Hamilton, Ont., July 18.—(CP)— Arthur Lyons, Mineral Springs, is recovering today from severe bruises and possible concussion, the result of injuries received when he was attacked by a cow which was being driven across Mineral Springs yesterday.

The animal broke loose from its handlers and bolted up a road where it charged Lyons. He was in serious difficulty when Stewart Ward drove up and charged the cow with his car.

When Dr. R. R. Glendinning, Dundas, arriving in a truck, the enraged animal charged the truck, crushing a fender.

The cow was removed to a field where it was shot.

FAMOUS AUTHOR AND SON RETURN FROM AUSTRALIAN TOUR

The man who presides over St. Stephen's church, Winnipeg, as Rev. Charles William Gordon, D.D., but who is known to thousands as Ralph Connor, arrived in Vancouver after a four-months' visit to Australia. With him are his daughter Ruth and his son Kling, who accompanied him on the tour. The author-preacher, 70 years of age, is a tall, spare, white-haired man, whose keen eyes miss very little and whom seems to be thoroughly enjoying himself. He talked with enthusiasm of his visit to Australia and was impressed with the cheerfulness of the people there.

CONCORDAT MAY BE ABROGATED

Catholics in Germany Amazed Covenant Would be Broken

(By Louis P. Lochner).

(Associated Press Foreign Staff)

Wiesbaden, Germany, July 18. — (AP)—Catholic circles asserted they learned today of Nazi Party plans to announce abrogation of Germany's concordat with the Holy See.

Catholics said they were amazed on being informed that the Nazis would break off the convenant, concluded between the Hitler Regime and the Vatican, July 8, 1933, during their annual conversation in September at Nurnberg. No confirmation of the Catholic report could be obtained from Nazi sources, since such matters are held confidential.

Dr. Wilhelm Frick, Nazi Minister of Interior, has come out openly on the side of Dr. Alfred Rosenberg, leader of the German Faith Movement and Catholic circles were convinced that the concordat would be repudiated.

These sources said Reichsstuerer Adolf Hitler was determined to establish a special ministry for religion of all faiths, with Hans Kerrl, president of the Prussian Diet, in charge as minister without portfolio.

EIGHT TREKKERS ARE CONVICTED

Fifty Dollar Fines Are Levied in Toronto Court

Toronto, July 18—(CP)—Eight "on-to-Ottawa" trekkers were convicted on charges of illegally soliciting on behalf of the Hamilton section of marchers and were fined $50 each or 30 days in default, by Magistrate J. E. Jones in police court today.

The charge was laid under the Department of Public Welfare Act (1931).

North Bay, Ont., July 18—(CP) Quietly during the night, North Bay's quota of "on-to-Ottawa" marchers left the city and were believed to be headed east on their way to Ottawa. They did not go by freight, but took the trophy with an aggregate of 1,053. Scotland was second with 1,042 and Canada third with 1,034.

India finished in a tie with the Canadian in the same total, Wales was fifth with 1,033, Ireland sixth with 1,031 and the Channel Islands last with 980.

Last year Canada had won the trophy for the sixth time since it was instituted in 1891, with a team total of 1,060.

TO LEAD ARMY

CROWN PRINCE HUMBERT

It is expected from Rome that Crown Prince Humbert, popular 30-year-old heir to Italy's throne, will have command of a division of Italy's forces in Africa for expected war on Abyssinia. He holds the rank of general.

LIBERALS USE RADIO TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

OTTAWA, July 18.—(CP)— The Liberal General Election Campaign will be ushered in by three radio addresses which Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King will deliver, They will be on July 31, Aug. 2, and Aug. 5 from 10 to 10.30 p.m. Eastern Daylight time. On August 7, the Liberal Leader will speak at a party rally in Kingston at which Eastern Ontario Constituencies will participate. Liberal headquarters here made the announcement today.

DR. A.E. CARLETON ELECTED D.D.G.M

F. F. Long of Campbellford Choice For District of Peterboro

Dr. E. A. Carleton of Stirling Lodge was elected D.D.G.M. for Prince Ilsway District No. 13 at the Masonic Grand Lodge meeting in Hamilton. Other D.D.G.M.'s are Peterboro—P. F. Long, Campbellford.

Frontenac —F. E. Switzer, Moscow.

MANY SEEK FARM JOBS

Toronto, July 18. — (CP)—Welfare Department officials are busy handling applicants for farm jobs who are seeking transportation to the farms.

In the past week the Department has supplied transportation to 26 men, and married men are now applying at the rate of four or five a day, he said.

HUSBAND, WIFE ARE FOUND DEAD

Murder And Suicide Are Alleged in North Tragedy

MITCHEN, Ont., July 18.—(CP)— Police today were probing a shooting tragedy at Seiers, Ont., eight miles north of here in which Lawrence Anderson, 37, "not sane," shot and killed his wife and then turned the gun on himself.

Both were dead when Coroner Dr. W. R. Crowe, Mitchen arrived shortly after the shooting last night.

A stray shot went out a window, striking a passing car, Robert McIlwraith, driver, Orlant, was badly cut about the face by flying glass but was not struck by the missile.

Anderson had been making his living doing odd jobs and it is thought worry over financial matters may have caused the tragedy. Neighbors heard the shooting about seven o'clock last night and the screams of Anderson's 22-year-old wife, but were afraid to enter the house, Provincial Constable Evans, Mitchen and Dr. Crowe were called, but Anderson and his wife were dead when found.

According to relatives and neighbors the Andersons never quarrelled and neither used liquor. There were no children.

Although an inspection was made, no message was found.

An inquest was opened last night, and after the jury had viewed the remains, it was adjourned.

ELECTION DATE MAY BE SEPT. 3

Possible Machinery Can Be Put in Effect For Early Polling

Ottawa, July 18—(CP)—Lacking anything more definite than Prime Minister Bennett's statement before Parliament prorogued, that the general election would be held just as soon as the necessary preliminaries could be completed, observers here are more of the opinion that the polling date may be as early as Sept. 2, or possibly August 26.

Primer are working on three shifts preparing the revised lists and the preliminary details could be completed for polling on the dates mentioned. Legal authorities have stated that although the statute requires polling in general election to be held on a Monday, it may be on the next day if the Monday selected were a statute holiday.

The first statute holiday in August is Labor Day and if that were selected the vote could be taken on Tuesday legitimately, law officers declare.

With W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, opening his campaign on the last day of July, indications today were the Prime Minister would not be far behind him. Mr. Bennett is expected to take at least a week's holiday before entering the campaign. Mr. King has been at his summer home almost prorogation.

CIVILIANS TO BE CUT FROM RANKS MOUNTED POLICE

Detailed Description of Force Given by Sir James McBrien

ONLY 300 MOUNTED

Believe Word "Mounted" Will Soon be Taken From Title

Montreal, July 18—(CP)—Detailed description of the smooth-working machinery which makes up what is probably the most storied police force in the world—Royal Canadian Mounted Police—today was given by Sir James Macbrien, commissioner of the R.C.M.P., to United States and Canadian crime experts gathered at the concluding convention session of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Sir James said that twice already there has been a change in the name of the R.C.M.P. "When I joined it as a recruit it was known as the Northwest Mounted Police. Later the name was changed to the Royal North-West Mounted Police. —It is now believed that some day our name will be changed again to drop the word 'mounted'."

Out of our force of 2,900 men we have but 300 mounted now," he said. "We have many more cars than we have horses, and most of our men now travel in automobiles, airplanes and boats."

In future, he added, recruits to the force will not be trained in horsemanship except those that are specially suited for the mounted detail. Instead they will spend more time learning the scientific aspects of police work.

It is the intention of the Commissioner of the R.C.M.P., he said, to be staffed in all of the branches of activity in which the police force is necessary, by members of the force.

"We do not believe," he said, "that the force will be increased if we have civilians and female stenographers mingled among the men.

Sir James described in detail the different operations of the R.C.M.P. as a Federal force, and as a Provincial police force, in six or seven of the nine provinces; as a preventive body with 250 sea-going officers on the coasts of Canada, and as the guardians of the law in the unsettled north.

Has Sung 63 Years In 2 Church Choirs

Lindsay, Ont., July 18—(CP)— A. H. Veale, Nestleton gardener, has perhaps the longest continuous record for choir of any man in Ontario. Sixty-three years in the choir of the same church is the 75-year-old songster who has taken his place there the last 63 years in the Nestleton United Church choir, his first three years being spent in the choir of the old Bowmanville Church.

Mr. Veale has lead for 40 years secretary of the Nestleton Church and for 28 years choir leader, has never missed a Sunday or Wednesday in all this time.

Doug Won't Wed Until Next Year

Southampton, July 18—(AP)— Lady Ashley, arriving here today with Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., on the S.S. Empress of Britain, said there was no chance of their marriage this year because she "wouldn't think of marrying him a bigamist."

Lady Ashley said: "He couldn't be married if he wanted to until I receive word in California (from Mary Pickford) becomes final in January. Then I suppose we can get him jailed for bigamy."

Reservoir Empty 13 Buildings Burn

Roberval, Que., July 18 —(CP)— Fire which swept the town in the Lake St. John region of Quebec last night while the municipal water reservoir was empty for repairs, with the result that 12 buildings were destroyed, the chance of saving many of the flames without hoses. They were: Three stores, commercial establishments and a bucket line.

Eucharistic Congress To Bless Entire World

Strasbourg, France, July 18 — (AP)—Pope Pius asserted today, in a letter to the National Eucharistic Congress, that the whole world "will be blessed" by the Eucharistic communion Madden Township, three miles south of Cobalt, Ontario.

McIntosh, Detroit, driver of the car, told police he was confused by the headlights of approaching cars.

Believing War Inevitable Ethiopian Emperor Calls Subjects to Die Free

States He Will Lead The Army Personally in Battle

NO FEAR OF DEATH

Mussolini "Brutally Rejected" All Offers of Peace Says Emperor

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, July 18—(AP)— Emperor Haile Selassie called on all Ethiopians to follow him into battle today, declaring it was better to die free than to live without liberty.

The Kings of Kings and Lion of Judah, addressed both his parliament and his soldiers.

In impassioned tones, he said the military preparedness by Italy, now going forward, proved the intentions of that country to conquer Ethiopia.

He called on all his subjects to unite and co-operate for the defence of the country, saying he would lead the troops into war. He appealed to all not to fear death.

"Our ancestors," he shouted, "preserved their independence by sacrificing their lives follow their example!

God will be our fortress and shield and the modern armament of aggressors cannot deter our only which is prayer for Ethiopian independence."

Rendering Ethiopia's past relations with Italy and the events from the signature at Uchiali last December until now, the Emperor described Ethiopia's efforts for a friendly settlement of the dispute and "our similar efforts by the League of Nations, which, he said, Premier Mussolini of Italy had "brutally rejected."

Danger of War Evident

He said the fact that Italian military preparations were continuing proved Italy's intension to conquer Ethiopia forcibly and said the danger of war was evident, despite the fact that Ethiopia was profoundly inclined with respect for promises and the sanctity of treaties.

Ethiopia did not seek war but would defend herself to the last man if attacked.

Ethiopia did not desire a regimony and did not menace her neighbors, he was masters of her own country and would fight to the bitter end defending her independence, "We would die for the fatherland and happy mortals.

"Soldiers, traders, peasants, young and old and women, unite and co-operate for the defence of the country.

"As in the past, women will heroically encourage the men and care the wounded.

"Our adversary, now speaking, will be among you unhesitatingly to fight all his blood for independence!"

He repeatedly stressed, that Ethiopia does not want war and is desirous of following the ways of peace mentioned in the Kellogg-Briand pact. He said his appeal to the United States under that pact and the initiation of final steps by the League of Nations council was proof of this' desire.

"If our repeated efforts for good will fail, we shall arise as one and the Ethiopian people, united, can confidently march on to victory, with God who will defend the just case of the country, upholding the heroic courage of our soldiers in a battle for independence."

AIDS ABYSSINIA

Major Granville Pollock (above) who, with Hal de Bernier, German American air pilot, will head the corps of pilots for Ethiopia, shown as "pilots" with French Foreign Legion.

ANTI-SEMITE LEADER

Julius Streicher, whose anti-Semitic campaign is blamed for new demonstration against Jews in Germany.

THROWN FROM CAR

Windsor, Ont., July 18—(CP)— Geraldine Beaudoin, 22, of Amherstburg, was almost instantly killed last night when she was thrown from an open roadster as it swerved and turned over on the Talbot Trail concession Malden Township, three miles south of Amherstburg. Three companions escaped injury. Driver of the car told police he was confused by the headlights of approaching cars.

MEET IN TORONTO IN 1936

Toronto, Ont., July 18.—(CP)— Toronto will be chosen as the next place of meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada, A. F. and A.M. in the Province of Ontario, at the 50th Annual Conference here yesterday.

WEATHER

Toronto, July 18.—(CP)—Synopsis—The weather has become unsettled and somewhat cooler in the West with thundershowers chiefly in southern districts of Alberta and Saskatchewan, but it has been mostly fair and warm from the Great Lakes eastward. A shallow depression over Lake Superior has caused thunderstorms in Northern Ontario.

Lake Superior—Moderate to fresh shifting winds; partly cloudy; scattered thunderstorms.

Ontario and Georgian River—Cloudy with thunderstorms.

Lake Erie—Mostly fair not quite so warm.

Saskatchewan—Partly cloudy and not so warm; local thundershowers.

Alberta—Partly cloudy and comparatively cool.

Coming Events

LIBERAL GATHERING AT SIDney Town Hall, Friday, July 19th, at 8 o'clock, p.m. Speakers—Hon. Jas. A. Faulkner, Minister of Health; Charles A. Cameron, Liberal candidate in Hastings and others. All are welcome. God Save the King.—17-20

LIBERAL HALL, BLEECKER WARD. Grand Ball Monday Eleventh. 102 Great St. James, corner Bowen street. Thursday, July 18, 8 p.m. Charles A. Cameron, Liberal candidate, and others will speak on the political issues of the day. Refreshments served.—17-18

DANCE TO THE COMMODORES TONight at Sliter's Pier. Fine music as usual. Admission 25c plus tax.—17-18

YACHT CLUB EUCHRE FRIDAY EVEning 8 p.m. Two prizes. Two aggregates. Admission 50c plus tax.—17-18

City and District News.

OILING JOB BETTER THAN LAST YEAR

Street oiling was temporarily suspended this week after a successful resumeng of the majority of roads throughout the city. Just twelve miles roads at various locations, remain to be completed. Oiling how-ever will not commence on these until minor repairs and patching is carried out. Work or oiling is expected to be resumed on these streets about the last week in July. According to City Engineer Mott, a better quality of asphalt and chloride stone, which has been supplied in conformity with newer regulations has resulted in a better job on the city streets this year.

RECORD HEIGHT FOR SWEET CLOVER

Although crops in the rural districts of this section are flourishing, a crop worthy of note is also to be found right on the sides of streets within this city. What may be a record for sweet clover growth was found on Penton Street, where city workmen are now engaged in weed cutting. One fine specimen of sweet clover had attained a measured height of 9 feet 6 inches with the remainder of the crop correspondingly tall. Weed cutting for the second time this season is now in progress.

FINDING JOBS FOR RELIEF WORKERS

Just the odd single man is finding employment at farm work from the office of the District Relief Bureau. It was reported by relief officials at the office, this morning, following orders by Mayor Geo. C. Tice a check up of single and married men on relief is now being completed, compiled by an effort on the part of the office to find those registered work of some kind.

GEORGE WARDLE OF CUSTOMS PROMOTED

Notice has been received at the local customs office of the promotion of Miss Estelle Jones, the grader-clerk grade 2 to acting customs examiner. Mr. Reginald E. F. Alford recently promoted to acting cashier.

SWIMMERS BEAT PUNT ASHORE

During the sailing event on the bay Wednesday afternoon two of the crew on one of the punts presumed that they could make the point off Victoria Park in shorter time than the craft/they were upon, and when abreast of the lighthouse, stepped overboard. They succeeded in reaching shore ahead of the punt which was vertically handed, naturally they were good swimmers.

RED RASPBERRIES SELL 15c PER BOX

Fruit and vegetables were the chief products offered for sale on Thursday's market which was well attended. In the fruit line, cherries were quite plentiful retailing at 60 and 65c per basket; red raspberries at 15c per box; red currents, two boxes for 25c; huckleberries 30c per quart; gooseberries 10c a quart. There were no strawberries offered for sale as the crop is about done. New potatoes were sold at 30c a peck and have retailed at 10c a quart.

AUTOMATIC ALARM SYSTEM TESTED

Members of the Belleville Hospital Board were interested spectators at the hospital and nurses' home this morning, when a first test of the newly installed automatic fire alarm system was carried out. The test of the system was accompanied by an actual test run of one company of the local fire department to the hospital following the alarm received by the direct wire. Over 150 thermostats which automatically open a circuit and ring an alarm at No. 1 Fire Station at the least rise in temperature in various parts of the buildings are part of the new system of fire protection.

TOURIST BOOKLET NOW ON DISPLAY

Elaborate with many interesting photographs reproduced of beautiful camping sites, catches of fish and scenic vistas in the Bay of Quinte district, the new "Bay of Quinte Tourists Association booklet printed and recently completed in an effort to build up greater tourist business calls attention to the beauties of this district as a summer resort. The illustrated booklet or folder contains also a large scale map of the district from the bay to the provincial park. It includes the district between Kingston and Brighton.

CANNIFTON WINS FROM MELROSE 6-1

In a regular scheduled South Hastings League baseball game played at Cannifton the home team defeated Melrose by the score of 6 to 1. Jack Bush, on the hill-top for the Cannifton nine, kept the visitors from scoring by scattering the Melrose hits well and receiving fine support by his team mates. Melrose batteries: Melrose moundsman pitched no hit ball for six innings, but errors mixed profusely into the contest as the Cannifton squad got three runs in the first half of the struggle. The home team victory also saw the Cannifton team well in the league standing. The batteries: Cannifton—Bush and Jarrell; Melrose — Earl Bawden and Don Thomas.

MANY TOURISTS IN NORTH COUNTRY

Lakes and bays in the north country are teeming with fish, and summer resorts are teeming with tourists this week-end, the accounts from this year have become limited so great has been the demand during the earlier part of this month.

Although slightly fewer registrations have been made at the local Chamber of Commerce this summer than during the city's history, there has been a heavy one, according to the Chamber of Commerce secretary and gasoline service stations. Figures at the tourist camps are expected to be somewhat in excess of last year.

This year also complaints regarding overcharging are few, although restaurants and road side stands have been practically nil. Up to date not a single official complaint of this nature has been made at the local Chamber of Commerce.

HIGH WATER MAY KEEP DOWN ALGAE

With a daily average pumpage of about two and one half million gallons of water being forced through the mains of the city daily, in spite of the past several days of warm weather and the consequent use of water both inside and outside of local houses, no extraordinary consumption of water over that of the same period last year has been noted, according to city officials of the department this year.

Owing to the higher water level of the Bay of Quinte this year it is hoped, that less trouble with algae, which choked the intake pipes last year will be experienced. "Although it is a little early yet to make any predictions of that nature", added an official. "As yet we have had no trouble from that source."

CAR IS 'TICKED' AS IT BACKS OUT

On Front Street near the corner of Victoria Avenue last night shortly after eleven o'clock a car just ticked a car that was backing out of one of the parking lanes. The driver of the car evidently did not see the bug for he backed out as the bus was passing by; the rear fender of the bus scraped along the back of the car but the only damage done was a partially dinged rear fender.

H. B. FETTERLEY PURCHASES HOME

Mr. H. B. Fetterley, former well known superintendent of the Collegiate School for the Deaf, who has lately been public school inspector at Amherst, Ont., is expected to return to Belleville again where it is intimated that he may take up permanent residence here. He has recently completed the purchase of a home at 19 Highland Avenue from Mr. Geo. N. Simmons of this city. No definite announcement has been made by Mr. Fetterley...

DREDGING IN BAY

The Hanley Construction Company Ltd., of Toronto, started work this week dredging in the Bay of Quinte at the mouth of the Trent River. The work has been tarted after negotiations by Mayor E. J. Cory, with the Dominion Government.

The channel has been staked out and it is the intention to widen it as well as dredge. The channel has been gradually filled in by the silt and sediment that is brought down the river. Coal boats coming into the Trenton harbor had a great deal difficulty following the channel and twice this season boats have run aground at the mouth of the bay. It is believed that it will take nearly three months to complete the work.

It Pays to Shop at the Rexall Store.

SPECIAL VALUES!

Patents and Toiletries

SEE BILLS, SEE WINDOW

McKeown's Drug Store

EVERY DAY LOW PRICES

Not a special Sale once or twice a year, but consistently low prices—that's the I.D.A. Policy.

SAVE SAFELY AT YOUR

I.D.A. DRUG STORES

FOR SUMMER COMFORT CHECK THIS LIST OF HOT WEATHER IDEAS.

NEW! Evening in Paris Talcum Tin 35c

St. Denis Dusting Powder, Special 50c

Bluejay Foot Powder now only ... 25c

Stone Filler Gallon Cutting Oils 1.98

BATHING CAPS, SUNBURN REMEDIES, SANDALS

NU-PEST Medicated Insoles for Tired Feet

We Deliver Promptly

PAULEY DRUGGIST

Phone 195 Formerly Ostrems

SPECIAL OFFER

LADIES' HALF SOLES AND HEELS The Complete

MEN'S HALF SOLES AND HEELS The Complete

$1.00 Complete

Tilbrook's

MODERN SHOE REPAIR SHOP

318 Front St. Phone 411

Boots Called for and Delivered

ALUMINUM SPECIALS

Good Quality Wares Well Finished and Service-able

TEAKETTLES 2 quart size. Non-scald pattern 79c

SAUCEPANS New Style with lock covers. 2 qt. size 79c

PRESERVING KETTLES 10-qt. size with ball handles .. 89c

MEASURING SAUCEPANS 2-qt. size with DOS. cleaner Free 34c

SMITH HARDWARE PLUMBERS and TINSMITHS

CAPITOL

Now!—First Story of Uncle Sam's Secret Agents!...Epic of the End of Gangdom!...

Sensational Headline Cases Filmed!...

"Most Exciting Motion Picture in Years!"

Feature Shown at 3.05 5.06 10.10

FIRST SHOW AT 9.15 TONIGHT

ME

Starring JAMES CAGNEY the

Screen's Famous "Public Enemy" as a

"G Man"—with Ann Dvorak in Huge Cast

also COMEDY — CARTOON — NEWS.

ODD BIRD IS SEEN NEAR DESERONTO

Is it Pelican, Stork, Hybrid or Just Heron?

DESERONTO, July 18.— For the past week the marshy back of Forsters' Island has been the feeding ground of a strange bird which has everyone puzzled as to its specie.

Never before has such a strange bird been around the bay in the memory of those who have seen it, says the Deseronto Post.

The bird has a long neck, a long body and short legs. The body is snow white. The wings are white with black feathers extending along the back of each wing from the body to the wing tip. It is a wading bird and feeds the same as the blue herons (more commonly called cranes). In the flight the bird doubles its neck up like a crane, but the feet do not extend past the tail. One peculiar part of the bird is the beak which must be at least ten inches in length. Both upper and lower sections of the beak are similar with the exception of the end, the lower part hook down over the lower one.

Herbert Mascie, caretaker at Forsters' Island, has noticing it for about a week and stated in discussing the bird that although it flies like a crane, it goes up in the air like a homer-hawk, circling before going out of sight.

An attempt will be made to get a photograph of the bird for identification. Is it a pelican or a stork or hybrid?

THE ADS ARE Part of THE NEWS

PICTON

LAWN SOCIAL WELL ATTENDED

Congregation of St. Gregory's Church Holds Annual Event

Picton—With the church grounds brilliantly lighted, small flower-scented tables conveniently placed for refreshments, attractive booths doing a rushing business, and the regimental band in attendance, the Lawn Social of Tuesday evening of St. Gregory's Church, was an enjoyable and successful affair.

Mr. Bradley and Rod Rundle were in charge of the entrance fees; Mr. Hannon and Beatrice Delaney of the dart board; Perry Bailey and Geo. Rhiney of the ball throwing game; Mrs. David Harrington, Harry Doyle and Andrew Cochrin conducted the Bingo game, Mrs. Jno. Goodwin, Mrs. F. Healey and Miss H. Ward were in charge of the Fish Pond and Mrs Bernard Cole and Mrs. Irvine of the Fish Pond and Candy Table. In the refreshment booth were Misses Edith Herriman and Isabel Hyndman, Jack Davis, The Children of Mary had a booth where they sold hot dogs, candy and fancy work. Coffee and cake were served by the ladies of the congregation. A very large crowd moved about the grounds all evening. At 9.30 o'clock a Grand Drawing took place with the winners as follows:—

$12.00—Miss Marguerite McNally
$10.00—Harrington Bros.
$8.00—Mrs. Wm. Foley
$6.00—Miss Helen Bond, Brockville.
$5.00—Miss Mary Cavanaugh of the Bell Telephone Co.
$4.00—Jack E. Barton.
$3.00—Miss Laura Hammel.
$2.00—Miss Margaret Hyndman.
Blanket—Miss Margaret Bailey.
Table Lamp—T. Thomas, Toronto.
Flowers—Thos. Shannon.
Iler, Mr. Middleton, N. J., was about the grounds and made all welcome.

Mrs. E. Mandeville of Wellington spent the week end with friends in Picton.

Mrs Margaret Goodwin Reg. M. N. A. Toronto is spending a special duty at St. Michael's Hospital.

Miss Annie Doyle of Syracuse N. Y., visited her aunt Miss Mary Doyle and her uncle Mr. Harry Doyle this week.

Mrs. Jas. Seymour Chaldrick of Syracuse came to Picton for a few days after visiting Mr. M. H. Mikel in Toronto last week.

Miss Lotlie McKeegan, Mr. Tom McKeegan and Mrs. and Mrs. William Cook of Toronto spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mercer.

Miss Eleanor Turner of Toronto is spending a few days with her uncle Mr. Roy Turner and family.

A large party from Picton motored to Consecon on the late Miss Maggie Morrison.

Mr. Samuel McLelland is ill at her home on Union St.

Mrs. Trim Bell-Irving, King St., Kingston, is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Porte.

BIRTHDAY PARTY ON ANNIVERSARY OF TWEED W.M.S.

Interesting Function Held in The United Church

Tweed, July 18.—A severe electric storm accompanied by a heavy downpour of rain and hail the afternoon of last week gave Tweed on Monday morning. Some damage was done to standing crops especially to the grain which in some fields was flattened as by a gentle roller. A chimney on Mr. A. W. McGuire's house was struck by lightning and several pine trees in a grove near Mr. W. H. Hicks' home were shattered by a lightning bolt. The hailstones were not large enough to break any windows. The storm was of short duration lasting about twenty minutes during which the rain fell in torrents. The district south and east of Tweed had little or no rain and hail.

The funeral of the late Joseph Reid of Actinolite who passed away on Sunday, July 14th was held on Tuesday, July 16th from his late residence to Actinolite United Church of which the deceased was a member. Rev. M. O. Price had charge of the service.

The late Mr. Reid was in his eighty-fourth year having been born on May 21st, 1850, near Tamworth. Death was due to cancer. Surviving are his widow, a daughter, Pearl at home, and a daughter, Mrs. Fred Sedore of Actinolite. Two sons, Jack and Percy were killed in the Great War. Interment was in the cemetery at Actinolite.

The first birthday party of the Women's Missionary Society of Tweed United Church was held in the church parlors on Thursday, July 18th and was attended by fifty-five, which included a number of visitors. The president, Mrs. Claude Burnett, extended a welcome to the members and their friends. Prayer was offered by Mrs. W. H. Hicks who read a very nice letter from Mrs. Forbes. Mrs. J. W. Kingston, Christian Steward-ship Secretary read a letter from Mrs. Farnsworth. The Scripture passage and devotional leaflet were read by Mrs. S. G. Way. A delightful solo was sung by Miss Dorothy Bager. Mrs. (Rev.) H. Hannington of Thomasburg, gave a splendid talk on Christian leadership leaving with the audience some excellent thoughts on what it meant to be a Christian leader, and the effect one's example has both in and out of the church. Mrs. J. G. Frost delighted the audience with a piano solo. Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. L. Ketchabaw.

Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Dales and children left on Monday for a month's visit with friends and relatives in Western Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watson and children of Toronto are camping for two weeks on Sugar Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Gill and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gill of Toronto spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Conner.

Gordon Steel Works secured sweet revenge from SHAAO, on Monday evening for the trimming received in Belleville when these two teams last met. On the present occasion the locals romped off with a 12 to 1 victory much to the delight of their supporters. Gowsell twirled a steady game and received excellent support from his teammates, particularly Tennoff and Orr who made spectacular catches. Segar for the visitors pitched a good enough game except in the first fifth and sixth innings when the locals scored a flock of runs on some lucky clouting. Lott scored the only run for the losers.

Lineups:

Steel Works (12)—Lott, Whitehead, Green, Goulin, Rigby, Barriage, Caddick, Rushlow and Segar.

SHAAO (1)—Gowsell, Hopkins, Simpson, McCutcheon, Gowsell, Orr, Prevost, Tunmon, Marshen, Brisbois.

Summary:

S.S.A.F. ... 001 000 000— 1 run
Gordon Steel 401 132 02x—12 runs

Thomasburg horseshoe flingers proved too strong for the locals when they met in Tweed on Monday evening, the former victors by 10 games to 6. C. Jeffrey and L. Martin won all four of their games. As did C. Jeffrey and G. Thompson to account for eight of their points. Davis and C. Shewring and A. Clark and Masters won two out of four.

Summary:

Court One:

C. Adams, H. Thompson 21-32; A. Davis, G. Shewring 9-16.

C. Adams, H. Thompson 22-32; A. Clark, L. Martin 21-16.

C. Adams, H. Thompson 22-32; C. Jeffrey, L. Martin 13-11.

C. Adams, H. Thompson, 20-21; A. Blakely, H. A. McClarey 16-4.

Court Two:

C. Jeffrey, L. Martin 21-3; Blakely, McCrary 7-16.

C. Jeffrey, L. Martin 22-21; Shewring, Davis 16-15.

C. Jeffrey, L. Martin 13-21-21; A. Clark, Masters 21-13-7.

C. Jeffrey, L. Martin 7-22-34; C. Jeffrey, R. Carter 21-19-12.

Court Three:

C. Jeffrey, R. Carter 8-26; Mason, A. Clark 21-21.

C. Jeffrey, R. Carter 21-17-7; Blakely, McCrary 19-21-21.

K. Jeffrey, R. Carter 4-11; Davis, Shewring 21-21.

K. Jeffrey, R. Carter 23-21; Amas Clark, Fraser 18-9.

Court Four:

A. Bewer, T. Smith 14-21-19; Clark, Fraser 21-16-21.

A. Bewer, F. Smith 18-26-32; Blakely, McCrary 22-17-11.

A. Bewer, F. Smith 10-23-18; Clark, Masters 22-20-21.

A. Bewer, F. Smith 10-19; Davis, Shewring 21-21.

Tweed Horticultural Society held a successful afternoon tea on Mrs. A. C. Blakely's beautiful lawn on Tuesday afternoon. Tables were placed among the beds of flowers which made an ideal setting for such an event. The net proceeds amounted to approximately twelve dollars.

BRITISH TRADERS EXPECTED HERE

Second Annual Tour of District Made in Early Autumn

In larger numbers than ever on their second good will trip to Can., the members of the Maple Leaf Tour Party from the British Isles who visited Belleville last year will again honor Belleville with their presence on their second Canadian tour this fall. The party is expected to arrive again in Belleville at about the same time as last year, coinciding their visit with Belleville Fair Week. Mayor Geo. C. Tice and the Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce have already been advised of their return.

The tour which is made annually in the hope of acquainting members of the party with diversified Canadian manufacture and production, with the aim of building up greater markets between Canada and the British Isles has already resulted in much benefit to this country. Overseas trade channels have been established as the result of the first visit here.

Last year's party was made up of 65 businessmen from many of the larger centres of Great Britain and Ireland, mainly interested in the grocery and provision trades. They were largely from the London area, which made an ideal setting for such an event. The net proceeds amounted to approximately twelve dollars.

LADIES! ATTENTION!

We Will Sell You Any Pair of LADIES' SHOES In Our Large Stock at a DISCOUNT OF 20%

All Colors All Styles

Now Is Your Time to Make Some Money

HAINES SHOE HOUSE

230 Front Street Belleville

TODAY!

A DRAMA AS VIVID AS THE ROARING GUNS SHE HEARS! THE SCREEN'S MOST BRILLIANT STAR...

Katharine HEPBURN in "Break of Hearts"

WITH CHARLES BOYER JOHN BEAL and JEAN HERSHOLT

RKO RADIO PICTURE

ADDED WITH ALL STAR COMEDY

COLOR CARTOON

SCENIC

Daily 2.15 7.15 9.15

BELLE

Shop at BLUE'S Phone 2380

GRANULATED SUGAR 10 pounds 47c

FRIDAY MORNING
White Fish
Fresh and Smoked Fillets
Salmon
Lake Trout

With Every $1.00 Purchase Consisting of Other Groceries, Fresh Fruits, Meats and Vegetables.

.. Free Delivery at Cash and Carry Prices ..

Thrown From Horse Receives Back Injuries

Bayside, July 18—Miss Linds Reid is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Taylor at Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hall spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sarles.

Miss Margaret Spafford of Toronto, is holidaying with her grandmother, Mrs. A. Pace.

Miss Margaret Wetzes has returned home after spending a vacation in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rutter, Macklin and Gertrude visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reid and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Volney Pinkle and Junior also Mr. and Mrs. Jason Shea spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Chas. Sahara.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meggison visited Sunday at the home of the latter's sister Mr. and Mrs. S. Chappell of Campbellford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fair and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer of Frankford.

Mr. Frank Jeffery was seriously injured when riding horseback to get the cows. The horse became suddenly frightened and darted quickly ahead throwing Mr. Jeffery off. He landed on his back receiving painful injuries to his back and ribs.

On Thursday evening, July 11th a large crowd of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benson Bonisteel in honor of their daughter, Clarabel, bride-to-be. Rev. Jas. A. Plant called the gathering to order and after a few well chosen words to the bride and groom the presents were unwrapped. Clarabel and Edward thanked their friends for the many useful gifts and invited everyone to visit them in their new home at Johnstown. Lunch was then served.

The Women's Institute was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. Meggison on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

BIG ISLAND NEWS OF THE PAST WEEK

Big Island—Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Clement called on Mrs. Lena Clement at Prince Edward County Hospital on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Black, Solmesville spent Sunday with their daughter Mrs. C. Peck and Mr. Peck.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Peck spent the dinner hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilmot and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Cooke of Napanee spent the week end with the latter's son, Mr. Wilmot and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Anderson spent Sunday evening with her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Clement.

Those who spent the week end in the north seeking huckleberries were: Mrs. J. K. Sprague, Billy and Jean; Messrs. Carson and Lewis Williams, Kenneth Latta, Harold Mitchell and Henry Sallans.

Miss Lillian Wager is spending some time with her grandmother, Mrs. H. Cooke, Napanee.

Mr. Hadden Hallett and friend of Toronto spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hallett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Johnson, Donald and Ross spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Van Blaricom, Demorestville.

Mr. J. W. Milligan has returned home from a visit with relatives throughout U. S. A.

Miss Madeline Hallett has returned home from a visit with her brother in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wager spent Saturday evening in Belleville.

Mr. James Clement, Mrs. Lees Williams, Marguerite and Bernice spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Jones, Crofton.

JULY MEETING OF WEST LAKE W.M.S.

West Lake—Mr. and Mrs. John Cook of Brockville and Miss Gertrude Cook, Reg. N. of Brooklyn N. Y., arrived at their cottage here on Friday. Mrs. Eugene Yale and little son also of Brooklyn accompanied them.

Mrs. McDonald, Miss Quinn and Miss J. Delong all of Elmbrook were guests of Mrs. Roy Crawford on Saturday at the church here on Thursday. An interesting meeting was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crawford entertained friends from Vineland, Ont. over the week end.

Miss C. Baxter, East Lake road is staying with Mrs. Mitchel Kleinsteiber during the tourist season.

Miss Mable Crossley of Vineland, Jessie Jeffery is holidaying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Maude.

Mr. and Mrs. Maibees were in Belleville on Friday.

Little Miss Marion Beatty of Sulphide is visiting at the home of her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Kleinsteiber.

Mrs. Hattie Blakely and Robert Hook were in charge of the prayer meeting last Sunday evening, which was fine.

The many friends of Miss Flossie Jackson are sorry indeed to learn of her serious illness in Toronto hospital and hope that encouraging word may be received from her soon. Her sister, Mrs. Ben Payne is in Toronto with her.

Mrs. Helen and little Miss Barbara spent a day last week with Mr. Aaron Rankin.

PICTON RESIDENT MAKES FINE CATCH

Picton, July 18—Mr. Geo. Lowery left on Saturday for his home in Rochester, N.Y. Mrs. Lowery remaining for a longer visit.

Local men of the Prince Edward and Hastings County regiment left here to Milford on Sunday in trucks for manoeuvres. On Monday, July 21st they will motor to Barrytield.

Mr. D. A. Fournier caught a pickerel weighing seven pounds, in the waters of West Lake, fishing with Mr. Clarence King on Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Van Dusen and family of Wellington spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Kellog.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grindrod and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dendall and son are spending holidays camping at the Lake.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Fred Shannon was hostess at a happy birthday party in honor of her eleven year old daughter Gladys. The young guests had a jolly time at games in the afternoon and later enjoyed a delicious supper, featuring a glowing birthday cake.

Miss C. Bonisteel Showered With Gifts

Sidney Crossing—Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bay entertained company to tea on Friday evening.

Mr. Clayton Sticks and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sticks, Johnstown.

There was no service in Alden's Church on Sunday owing to the illness of the pastor Rev. H. B. Johnston.

A number of this neighborhood attended the shower in honor of Miss Claribel Bonisteel on Thursday evening of last week at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Benson Bonisteel.

Miss Marion Aikens and some of her girl friends are spending a few days camping at Oak Lake.

FIVE WOMEN ON JURY

Detroit, July 17.—(AP)—A jury of five men and five women was selected today to try Merton Ward Goodrich on a charge of first degree murder for the slaying of 11-year-old Lillian Gallaher last September.

INTEREST SHOWN IN BALL GAMES AT RURAL CENTRES

Foxboro—A large number attended the L. O. L. Celebration here in Carter's grove on Friday.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Clare Pinkle on the daughter Shirley won a prize in the baby contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ketchenon of Trenton spent Sunday at Mrs. Rogers's and attended the Orange celebration.

Mrs. Lucilla Thompson of Kingston spent the week end with Miss Ethel Gowsell and Miss Miller.

Mrs. J. F. Yorke and Clare of Clifford spent a few days at Mr. W. Hodgen's.

A great deal of interest in manifest in the ball games and a goodly number attend each evening.

Mrs. G. S. Jackson and children of Niagara Falls, N. Y., spent Friday at Mrs. Bonkin's.

Miss Dorothy Usman of Stirling spent a few days with her cousin Miss Marion Daniels.

A good representation attended the Instruction Service in the United Church on Monday evening. Rev. Semple, Belleville, Rev. Lane and Rev. Merrick were also present and assisted with the services when Rev. Fred Horton was inducted into the Bay of Quinte Conference. Rebekah and lunch served when a pleasant time was spent socially. A welcome is extended to our new pastor Rev. Horton and family.

Mrs. M. McCrudden of Toronto is staying for a time with her sister Mrs. J. Gowsell.

Mrs. Col. Ketcheson called on Mrs. Ketcheson on Friday.

Miss Gladys Yorke of Stirling spent Friday with Mrs. W. Hodgen.

Miss Evelyn Johnston of Belleville is visiting friends in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chisholm of High River, Alberta called on Miss Millar and Miss E. Gowsell recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lang of the west are visiting at the home of Mr. Davis'.

A large number attended church service on Sunday evening when Rev. Horton delivered a splendid discourse on The Parable of the Sower. Mrs. (Rev.) Horton and daughter are visiting Mrs. Farmer's father who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Huff and family Mary and Hudson of Bloomfield, also Mr. and Mrs. D. Ketcheson and Everett spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. A. Shukin.

Miss Dorothy Jarrett and Eileen Stewart and friend of Oshawa returned home after visiting for a time at the home of Mrs. L. Hartman.

Miss Irene Hall of Latta is holidaying with her friend Miss Betty Hodgen.

SIXTH SIDNEY WEEKLY NOTES

6th Sidney—Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Yates of Sandmount, Florida were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rose.

Mr. and Mrs. John Steel and Margaret of Trenton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stickle.

Mrs. Ross Dafoe spent the week end with her parents on the 4th of Sidney and Mrs. R. H. Wright.

Sunday School and Mission Band was held in Scotts' Church on Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cadman of Hillcrest were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Waller Scott spent Sunday evening at the Mount Zion guests at the home of Mr. Willmott Herrington.

Mrs. Egbert Sine is visiting in Toronto a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lott were tea hour guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Linn Stirling.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Davis of Peterboro also Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lang of Dover Lack Sask. were Wednesday evening guests at the home of Mr. H. W. Rose.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stickle, Miss Clara Carr and Mr. E. Smith spent Sunday at Little Lake, Lake Smith's field.

Mrs. James Howe of Toronto, Mrs. Walter Hawkins of Oshawa and Mrs. Charlie Turnciiff of Glen Miller were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stickle.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Sine spent Sunday at Moira guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Morton.

Miss Olive Hughes of Ottawa is a guest it the home of Mr. Hugh Badgley.

CENTRE ITEMS OF INTEREST

Centre—Mrs. Myrtle Bass spent last Wednesday evening with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ira Frymer.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hagerman of Wellington spent the tea hour Tuesday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Bellyou.

Mr. Freeman Thompson had the misfortune to have his finger severely cut in the mower while helping his father last Wednesday.

Mrs. Jack Dehaney and children spent Tuesday evening with Mrs. Marcus Hagerman.

Mr. and Mrs. James Barber and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redner spent Sunday at Crowe Lake.

Miss Ruth Townsend of Belleville spent the week end at her home.

Mr. Elmer Young, Mr. and Mrs. Morley Moy and Miss Jean and Robert Redner spent Sunday afternoon at Oak Lake.

Mr. Willis Maybe of Belleville spent Monday afternoon and evening with Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Bellyou.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Fox spent Sunday in Trenton.

Miss Phyllis Hubbs and Miss Valassa spent Monday afternoon and evening with Miss Minnie and Phebee Howell.

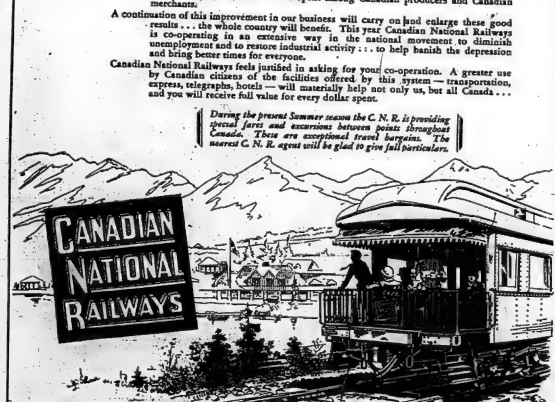
Mr. and Mrs. Davidson of Toronto are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Nobes.

A Few Words to You About the C. N. R.

During 1934 the average number of persons employed by Canadian National Railways was 74,774, and the wages paid them came to almost one hundred million dollars. This represented, both as to number employed and amount of payroll, an advance over 1933, and practically the whole increase in personnel was due to re-engagement of those whose services had previously been dispensed with owing to lack of business.

The average mileage of road operated in 1934 was 23,676 miles, making Canadian National Railways the largest single railway system in the Western Hemisphere.

In 1934 the total freight transported by Canadian National Railways amounted to 44,719,477 tons, an increase of eighteen per cent over the previous year. The average haul of freigh was 326 miles. The value of this freight is not ascertainable, but it must run into many hundred millions of dollars, and, comprising all kinds of necessities and luxuries, bespeaks the welfare and happiness of every man, woman and child in the Dominion.



Canadian National Railways carried over 10,000,000 passengers during 1934. This was also an increase over 1933. These paid in fares $16,331,229, or an average of $1.62 per passenger with an average journey of seventy-one and three-quarter miles.

These figures, without embellishment or amplification, show the vastness of the public services rendered by Canadian National Railways. The system is conducted on as economical a basis as is consistent with the highest standards of railway operation. The improvement in business in 1934 over the previous year enabled more people to be employed . . . more wages to be paid . . . more service to be rendered. Also, more money was available to be spent among Canadian producers and Canadian merchants.

A continuation of this improvement in our business will carry on and enlarge these good results . . . the whole country will benefit. This year Canadian National Railways is co-operating in an extensive and sustained movement to diminish unemployment and to restore industrial activity . . . to help banish the depression and bring better times for everyone.

Canadian National Railways feels justified in asking for your co-operation. A greater use by Canadian citizens of the facilities offered by this system — transportation, express, telegraphs, hotels — will materially help not only us, but all Canada . . . and you will receive full value for every dollar spent.

During the present Summer season the C. N. R. is providing special fares and excursions between points throughout Canada. These are exceptional travel bargains. The nearest C. N. R. agent will be glad to give full particulars.

ZELLERS
RETAILERS TO THRIFTY CANADIANS

MID - MONTH Specials
FRIDAY - SATURDAY

Values that talk in terms of thrift. Check every advertised item carefully! You will find it pays to shop at Zellers.

CHIC CHOICE FOR SUMMER!
Sportsy Dresses
Novelty knit summer dresses in white and pastel shades. A timely offer at a price to suit your purse 1.59

COLORFUL
SUMMER CREPES
Smart new and attractive! Prints and pastels, correct for sports and dressy wear. Sizes 14 to 44. Only 2.98

SUMMER
GIRDLES
Two-way stretch girdles, white and flesh. Subs. 49c

PILLOW SLIPS
40, 42 and 44-inch sizes. Special, each 25c

Unbleached SHEETS
81 and 72-inch sizes. Subs. Special, each 64c

Bleached SHEETS
81 and 72 inch sizes. Subs. Special, Each 1.00

DRESSER SCARVES
White organdie with colored design, 13 x 32. Special 15c

TEA TOWELS
Allover check cotton towels, 20 x 30. Special 3 for 25

Men's Sweat SHIRTS
Terry cloth, with collar and name. Sizes 34 to 42 1.19

SUMMER CAPS
Brown and black, checked. Special 25c

Baseball CAPS
In black and red, very large peaks, only 15c

MEN'S HOSIERY
Fancy cotton hose. Special, pair 15c

ALUMINUMWARE SPECIALS
5-qt. TEA KETTLE
6-cup PERCOLATOR
6-cup TEA POT
2-qt DOUBLE BOILER
59c
8-qt. Straight SIDE
4-qt. SAUCE PAN
10-qt. KETTLE
10½" ROASTER
EACH

CREPE HOSE
Another grand value, in crepe hosiery. Subs. of a month higher priced line. Pair 39c

ANKLE SOX
Ladies' anklets assorted colors and sizes. Pair 11c

CELANESE HOSE
New summer shades. First quality. Pair 29c

RAYON PANTIES
Well made of durable, fine woven rayon. Lace trimmed. Only 25c

CANDY SPECIALS
Toasted Marshmallow, lb. 12c
SALTED PEANUTS, lb. 12c
ASSORTED CAKES, lb. 12c

MUSIC RECITAL IS PRESENTED

Huff's Island—Mesdames I. Walbridge, R. Fairman, E. Wallbridge and daughters attended The music recital at Miss Winifred Purtelle's Wednesday afternoon.

Some from the island attended the ice cream social at Victoria Wednesday evening.

Mr. Noel Montgomery made some calls on the Island Thursday afternoon.

Callers at Mr. C. Barbers on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. R. Barber, Billy and Betty; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Montgomery, Harmon and Kathleen.

Mrs. Scheminger and Mrs. (Dr.) Morris called on Mrs. Julia Thompson Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Shyl VanOstl, Saginaw Mich., spent a few days last week with her aunt Mrs. E. Hall and Mr. Hall.

Mrs. T. Hall called on her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. Spafford Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Barber and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. Parliament and Mr. and Mrs. S. Black were Sunday callers at Mr. W. Black.

Miss Rita Stevens, Belleville, spent the week end with Miss Olive Nightingale.

Misses F. Benson and D. Maybee were Sunday guests at Mr. F. Nightingale's.

HARDWOOD FLOORING
The Product of a reliable manufacturer which was formerly distributed by SEAMAN KENT CO. well known in this territory.
BUY ONLY THE BEST.
The Houston Co., Limited
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

TAKE MOTHER AWAY FROM THAT HOT KITCHEN AND SERVE OUR TASTY—FISH and CHIPS
BEAN'S IDEAL
Fish and Chip Cafe
331 Front St. Phone 1543 for Prompt Delivery
THIS STORE IS NOW OPEN ALL DAY MONDAY

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER
DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon, Monday and Saturday at the County Building, Front Street, Belleville.

THE NAVAL REVIEW

Once the Sailor Prince, now the King
Emperor of Great Britain and Land and the British Dominions, looked his navy on Tuesday and Wednesday this week in a program associated with silver jubilee. On Tuesday off Spithead saw his great armada, the visible sign
Britain's strength upon the mighty p, vessels to guard and protect the sty and integrity of that empire, not t for conquest. Say what other nations
, Britain requires a fleet because her meland is small and her Dominions can y be reached over the Seven Seas.
As nations in turmoil witness the serene urity in recovery and the peaceful at-ude of her people which Britain shows, y might well envy that power and length which by its very being is power-and does not require to be stirred up d set at war to exercise an influence in orld affairs.
Today nations realise that Britain's vy is largely a peace arm, for it is not ed as a tyrant might use a similar force crush races, but as a means of defence.
is is recognized to the extent that Britn's contention that she needs a large vy largely as a peace measure is accepd by others.
In the night of 147 battleships can the orld read a lesson of power and secur-
? Surely it is an object lesson to those tions in turmoil. Did the sham air man-uvres mean anything to the British peole and to other peoples? Surely they did.
As His Majesty looked over those ships,
e looked upon the greatest naval power which was ever represented, power which ould be used for aggression if the people emanded or if an evil-minded dictator ame into power, but power today dediated to the peace of the world. An obect lesson to the world of peace.
In this sense the Sailor King who knows he sea and the ships and the men who man the navy can rest proud of his people and their place in history and his part in ecent history. Surely his people can sing
Rule Britannia" and "God Save the King".

For this occasion Rudyard Kipling, the oet of the Empire who has sung of the British soldier in lands afar and told tales of barracks, has written a poem "The King and the Sea", which he gave out
Tuesday night in connection with the royal review and silver jubilee date. The words sum up the close ties of Britain's king with the sea and symbolize the close affinity of Britain and the oceans:

After his realms and states were moved
By him their hearts to the King they breed,
Tendering themselves in homage and devotion,
The tide-wave up the Channel spoke
To all those sayers, unsaid, look:
Hear now what man has given you by the ocean.

There was no thought of orb or crown
When the single wooden chest went down
To the steering fist and the careless gunroon haled
by him
To learn by ancient and bitter use
How neither favor nor excuse
Now aught save his sheer self henceforth awaited him.

There was no talk of birth or rank
By the slung hammock's common plank
In the steel-girted prisons where I cast him
But niggard hours and a narrow space
For rest—and the naked light on his face—
While the ship's traffic flowed unceasing past him.

Thus I schooled him to go and come—
To speak at the word—at a sign be dumb,
To stand to his task, not seeking others to aid him,
To share in honor what praise might fall
For the task accomplished and—over all
To swallow rebuke in silence. Thus I made him.

I loosened every mood of the deep
On him, a child and sick for sleep
Through the long watches that no time can measure
When I drove him deafened and chicked and blind
At the wave tops, cut and spun by the wind
Lashing his face and eyes with my displeasure.

I opened him all the guile of the seas—
Their silken swift-sprung treacheries
To be fought or forestalled or dared or dismissed with laughter.
I showed him worth by folly concealed
And the flaw in the soul that a chance revealed
(Lessons remembered—to bear fruit thereafter).

I dealt him power beneath his hand
For trial and proof with his full command,
Himself alone and no man to gainsay him.
On him the end, the means and the word
And the banner judgment if he erred.
And—outboard—ocean waiting to betray him.

Wherefore when he came to be crowned
Strength in duty held him bound
So that not power misled nor care enamored him
Who had spared himself no more than his star had spared him.

After his liege in all his lands
Had laid their hands between his hands
And his ships thundered service and devotion
The tide wave ranging the planet spoke
On all our foreshores as it broke:
"Know now what man I gave you—I, the ocean."

PARKING

Everyone admits that the present dilemma of parking conditions is one that cannot be allowed to go on forever. Some one has to come up a bright idea which will be adopted. Nothing new in parking has been offered for so long that many motorists have forgotten that there really are parking laws.

Everyone who knows Front street realizes that some day some one will move for a new system of handling the parking problem.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the events of the day, being gossip and general news notes as covered by the home reporter, supplemented by jumps and dispatches from Ottawa and Gay. — Supervised by The Lamplighter.

THE LONGEST DAY.

There is sadness in the longest day.
We feel somehow the year has sent his best;
He seems to look around, then make his way,
With shortening breath, down to his
Then scarce-wrapt rest.
But 'tis not so—his best is yet to be,
When his child, Autumn, shall with gifts abound,
And when at happy Yuletide, we shall see
His snow-white head with wreaths of holly crowned.
Then tell me not that life's best part is gone,
Because the high noon of the day is
There is a beauty in the twilight deep
One has not felt at any hour since dawn
And what is there for tired man to fear
When night comes in with stars and dreams and sleep?
—Alexander Louis Fraser.

x x x

JUST AT THIS SEASON of the year business in retail stores takes a decided drop, as a rule. Wise merchandisers always prepare for this and by presenting attractive values stimulate a lackadaisical trade. Wise shoppers, too, always look to this time of year to pick up many money-saving necessities. And the lever which moves the world, publicity, helps to move goods which seemed glued to the shelves. If you want to sell 'em, the first and most important thing is to tell 'em. Don't forget, this Great Family Journal goes into more than six thousand homes every day, all potential patrons of Belleville business men.

x x x

MOIRA LAKE BOYS CAMP conducted under direction of the Y. M. C. A. is a splendid monument of merit to the service clubs. Belleville Rotary bought the site which embraces many acres of hill, dale, forest and lake, one of the most beautiful pleasure parks in the country. Rotary invested four hundred dollars in the site and certainly made a splendid investment and worthy of having a lot more money expended upon it to make it one of the finest pleasure grounds in the Dominion. As a boys' summer camp it has been a great success, and boys privileged to spend a vacation there come away more manly and in better physical and mental health. Even the girls are privileged to use the camp when the boys are finished, and the girls' camps each summer are eagerly anticipated and very beneficial. Of the forty boys who have been in camp not one enjoyed it more than the lad who has been battling for health in a Toronto hospital through the good offices of the Belleville Rotary Club. He has spent over 1400 days in hospital and his vacation at the boys' camp is just like a preview of Paradise for him. He is able to walk now without crutches or cane and has been the pet of the camp, the boys vying with each other as to who can show him the most kindness. The open air and the happy surroundings and associates have put the glow of health on this lad's cheek and helped to blot out the pain and suffering of his long sojourn in hospitals.

x x x x

PEDESTRIANS ARE A NUISANCE to many motorists who have apparently forgotten that they once had to walk and like it. Hence the following appeal to motorists on behalf of "Pedestrians", published by an insurance company, is worthy of attention: "Pedestrians—Regardless of traffic lights, stop signs, or any other form of right-of-way that a motorist may have, he should always give way to pedestrians and cyclists. Treat them as you would a tightrope walker. Don't frighten them. Give them plenty of room and SLOW DOWN. In the interests of humanity pledge yourself this day to exercise now and always CARE, COURTESY, COMMON SENSE.

x x x x

MEN SUFFER IN THE SUMMER more than necessary from wearing clothes which generate a lot and hold the heat. Writer in Montreal Star chides the men of that city for not wearing light white clothes as do the women. They are afraid to take off their coats on the street lest the ladies see their gaudy suspenders, says the writer, who opines that most women have at one time or another seen a man's braces, and all women surely know that man must have something to keep his trousers up. On the golf links or at the beach garments are shed and nothing thought of it, but on the street in Montreal, apparently the man must wear his coat to preserve his dignity. So he thinks, with the perspiration running down his cheeks, but the women he encounters just think him a silly ass for his pains, and pass on. So, pals, it's all right to dress down to the weather, and instead of carrying around on our frames fifty pounds or more of excess clothing let's imitate the women and condense the clothes burden to the lowest possible diminution, expressed in ounces only, and few of them.

KLEPTOMANIA CALLS FOR HELP OF EXPERT MIND

But Real Kleptomaniac is Rare And Abnormal

By Louis E. Bisch, M.D., Ph.D.
Famous Authority on Health and Psychology

(Copyright 1935 King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Kleptomania — a very loose term — is often wrongly employed. It is used to denote excessive stealing, stealing on the part of young people, uncontrolled impulses to steal and stealing that is purposeless.

Genuine kleptomania is, however a rare condition. One finds it more prevalent among women than among men. Scientifically, a kleptomaniac is an individual, young or old, male or female who has an uncontrollable urge to steal; the act of stealing — not the article stolen — being the primary motivating factor.

That is why wealthy and prosperous kleptomaniacs will steal trifles. That is also why they do not make use of what they steal.

An ordinary thief, one with a normal mind, steals always for a reason. He thinks before he acts. A regular thief exercises judgment both before and after the act of stealing. The use to which he intends to put his loot conditions and prompts the theft.

But in the kleptomaniac there is no purpose behind the act. Therefore, the mind of the true kleptomaniac is abnormal. In fact, a certain proportion of all criminals are abnormal. Some are insane; thievery is merely part and parcel of their mental derangement. Some are feeble minded; the brain is but developed sufficiently to enable them to distinguish between right and wrong. Some are psychopathic or that is, incurably abnormal in all their emotional reactions.

Strange to say — yet it is a comforting fact — there are right few women thieves, sick or well.

If the female offender is not a kleptomaniac or not otherwise abnormal mentally, she is almost invariably working for, and under the influence and direction of, a man.

Science has taught us a lot about the close relationship between all sorts of crime and defective, diseased nerve and brain structures. Nevertheless, we must not jump to the conclusion that criminals are abnormal and therefore irresponsible.

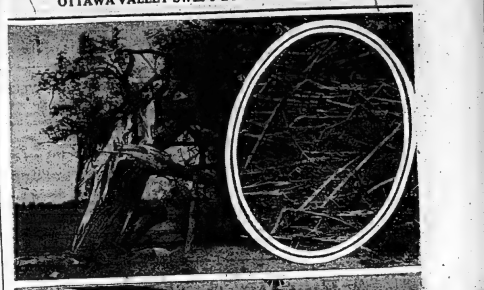
And let us be sensible also about kleptomaniacs. If they are sick, they should be treated. Various methods are available and cases of true kleptomania can be cured.

It would be well if all criminals, of all classes and kinds, were first subjected to a physical and mental examination before we passed judgment upon them.

Cure those who can be cured. Place those who are insane, feeble minded or psychopathic in hospitals for the incurable.

Dr. Bisch's Daily Diet Hint

An inexpensive as well as palatable and nutritious dish is jellied consomme made from chicken feet. Take a dozen chicken feet cap each in hot water (not boiling) for half a minute then lightly scrape off the outer skin. Put in a large pot with plenty of water and the usual soup greens; boil slowly for about three hours, add canned tomatoes, cook a half hour longer, and allow it to jell.



Spider Catches Snake

S.P.C.A. agents insisting on freeing a 7-inch garter snake after it had been entrapped by hungry black spider in cellar of Bronx borough, N. Y., home. Critics denounced act as interference with laws of nature.

"The Market That Sets the Pace"
CICERI — BOLTON
FREE PHONE 926 DELIVERY
KELLOGG'S CORNFLAKES 3 for 23c | CATSUP Crosse and Blackwell's 2 for 25c
HEADQUARTERS FOR PICNIC SUPPLIES
OLIVES, MAYONNAISE, PICKLES, SANDWICH SPREADS, MEATS, ETC.—ALL AT MODERATE PRICES.
LOG CABIN COFFEE Bean Freshly Ground lb. 24c | GRAN. SUGAR 10 lbs. 53c
GOOD SIZE ORANGES 2 doz. 39c | CHOICE GRAPEFRUIT 5 for 25c
RIPE BANANAS doz. 25c & 29c | LARGE SIZE CUCUMBERS each 7c
RUMP ROASTS . . lb. 15c | SPRING LAMB FRONTS lb. 15c
BRISKET lb. 7c | FRESH PORK CHOPS lb. 19c

OTTAWA VALLEY SWEPT BY TERRIFIC STORMS

Representations to the provincial government are being made by farmers in Carleton, Russell and other counties in the Ottawa valley after terrific storm leveled crops, destroyed barns, killed one man, Oval corn field ruined; BELOW, land inflicted scores. Hundreds of thousands of dollars damage was done by hail, lightning and gale winds. Layout shows, TOP, damage to trees.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JULY 18th, 1915.

The Rev. William Stacey, Congregational minister at Belleville about thirty years ago, passed away recently at Clevelon, England. He was a native of St. John, Newfoundland, and was son and uncle of Mr. A. W. Rowland of this city.

Mr. Frank McCoy of Hillside street, is spending some time in Napanee.

Many families have arrived at the Lake Shore House at the Sandbanks to spend a part of the summer. The resort is very popular this season.

Belleville market prices: Huckleberries 15c per quart; red raspberries 15c per box; new potatoes 25c per peck; eggs 21c to 22c per dozen; butter 25c to 35c per pound; chickens $1.00 to $1.40 per pair.

Mr. Victor Wensley of Toronto, formerly of Belleville, is spending a few days in the city.

Mr. Thos. Stevenson of Toronto, formerly of Belleville, is spending a few days here with friends.

30 Years Ago

JULY 18th, 1905.

There was a large crowd in the city yesterday to attend the circus.

Mr. Charles Smith of Campbellford was a visitor in the city today.

Mr. Sanford Burrows has returned from Muskoka where he spent his vacation.

Mrs. John Stark and two children of Grand Rapids, Mich., are visiting at the home of Mr. James Moxam, Bleecker Avenue.

40 Years Ago

JULY 18th, 1895.

The upset bridge at last being reheeted with tamarack plank.

The season's drive of saw logs is now being tallied into the booms.

Dr. J. A. Marshall of this city was elected secretary for the annual meeting of the Ontario Dental Association now being held in Toronto.

The "Oneta Waltz" composed by Mr. Frank Wesley Ialll of this city and dedicated to Mrs. Campbell is a production which has met with much favor. We congratulate our young townsman on his success as a composer and trust that he will realize his highest ideal.

Mr. F. E. O'Flynn and family of this city are Summering at Day's Island.

Mr. John Holden, son of the late Thos. Holden, is home from Toronto to spend his vacation.

Mr. Will Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, is home on a holiday.

50 Years Ago

JULY 18th, 1885.

Mr. Alex. Ray of this city has left for Calgary where he will spend six weeks with relatives and friends.

The best fish catch on the bay this season is credited to a lady who was trolling near Davey's Island. Her catch was a maskinonge which measured four feet, seven inches and weighed 27 pounds and some ounces.

A meeting of the subscribers to the fund for the erection of a monument to the memory of the late Rev. A. Schuster will be held on the 20th. inst. in the office of Mr. W. N. Ponton, solicitor, at 4 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walton, Sr., of Belleville, who are on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Peter Grover at Seward, Ill., celebrated their golden wedding while with their daughter.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

by R. J. SCOTT

STIRLING CLUB SPONSORS JITNEY BOWLING TOURNEY

Five Campbellford Rinks in First Meet of Series

Stirling, July 18—A great deal of interest was shown in the mixed bowling tournament held on the local green on Monday evening July 15th, when five rinks from the Campbellford Club and five local rinks took part in the first of a number of jitney tournaments to be sponsored by the Stirling Club this season. Two ten end games and one eight end game were played, and the prizes for the largest number of points were taken by Mrs. Thompson and Archie Meyers of Campbellford, and Mrs. Agar Osborne and Jack Butler of the Stirling Club. At the conclusion of the tournament, a lunch was served by the ladies of the Stirling Club in the club house which were appropriately decorated for the occasion. These tournaments are gaining in popularity throughout the province and it is the intention of the Stirling Club to hold a number of them through the season when club rivals from other towns will be invited to take part.

Win District Shield

This week there is on display in the window of W. Whitty's office the shield which was won by Messrs. Whitty and Osborne and which is symbolic of the District Championship in bowling for Orillia. The provincial championship play-offs were held a short time ago in Belleville, and these two gentlemen were successful in winning the much coveted trophy. Last year's winners were Messrs. Wiginton and Meyers of Campbellford who made an excellent bid to retain the shield for host rink to the Stirling pair after playing an extra end. By virtue of this win it looks as if the Stirling club will be represented at the Provincial finals which are to be played in Toronto later in the season. This fine shield becomes the property of the club winning the most times in ten seasons and was started last year.

Chicken Supper

The spacious lawns about the home of Mr. Angus Purcell on the fifth concession of Rawdon were a spectacle of color and gleaming lights as a large crowd of happy merrymakers gathered for the annual chicken supper and garden fete held under the auspices of St. James' Roman Catholic Church, Stirling. Considerable work must have been required in preparation for this splendid affair, and those in charge deserve a great deal of credit for the results were the results of their labors. The tables were artistically decorated with many beautiful flowers and the bill of fare for the delicious supper for which St. James' Church is quite famous was served to the guests by the ladies in a very efficient manner.

Many booths were about the grounds where ice cream and soft drinks could be obtained and were well patronized throughout the evening as were the many interesting games. Musical numbers were supplied in the early part of the evening by the Boy Scout Band from Stirling, and much interest was shown in the program supplied by the members of the troop. An amusing boxing tournament was one of the thrilling numbers on the program, Jack Potter and Don Ward met in three exciting rounds of clever boxing, with James Lagrow acting as the third man in the ring. The encounter was keen and exciting, and the boys gave an excellent display in the art of self-defence with the points being equally divided and the conflict ending in a draw. Following this was a fine exhibition in tumbling by three of the Scouts James Ward, Don Ward and John Munro. These gymnastics were cleverly executed and perfectly timed and proved very interesting of the spectators.

A great deal of merriment was created by a comic boxing bout between John Munro (5 ft. 2 ins tall) and Clifford Holmes (over 6 ft tall) with Scoutmaster Tom Ward acting a referee. In this amusing event the referee suffered the most punishment and was dragged to safety by a spectator after apparently being counted out by both contestants. These boys proved to be very clever clowns and their antics brought rounds of laughter from the audience, especially near the end of the bout when John succeeded in flooring the big fellow and the band began to play. John danced a jig to the music as the referee administered the well known long count over the body of big Cliff Holmes who appeared like Prince Carnera beside his much smaller adversary.

An excellent view of the eclipse drew the attention of everyone sometime during the evening. Throughout the evening, there were always some in the gathering with their faces turned skyward to watch its progress.

The late hours of the evening were spent in round and square dancing to the fine music supplied by the Scout orchestra and continued until 1 a.m. Those in the Scout orchestra were John Munro (traps), Reg. Matheson (violin), James Ward and Geo. Duffin (cornets), Ray Williams and E. West (bands), O. Sprentall and L. Rowland (saxaphone), Mr. Exton at the piano.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. C. Macklin were Sunday visitors of friends in Cobourg.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hulin of Malton spent Sunday evening at the home of the former's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hulin.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moon of Frankford were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Eggleton and Mr. Robt Eggleton spent Sunday with friends in Consecon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert of North Marmora were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Snider.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Miss Flonia Hulin and Mrs. Holden spent Sunday afternoon in Frankford.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weaver and Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moon of Frankford, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Patterson and Tommy spent Sunday in Trenaville Park.

Mrs. Caverley, Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Kelly, Lena and Harold of North Marmora spent Monday with the former's daughter, Mrs. Jos. Snider.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Yorke of Oshawa were Sunday guests of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eggleton and Marilyn spent Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Eggleton's parents in Madoc.

Mrs. Bessie Balmforth and Gerald and Miss Frances Clark are spending a week at Oak Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hough of Detroit, Mich., are spending a few days visiting his uncle Mr. A. L. Hough and other friends in Stirling.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Duncan accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. N. McKee enjoyed a fine drive Sunday when they motored to Petersboro and Port Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pick of Leonia, New Jersey, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Pick's mother, Mrs. Geo. Drewry.

Mrs. Andrew Hay of Campbellford has returned home after spending a few days at the summer home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Whitehead at Oak Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Landon of Lombardy have returned to their home after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Williams.

Mr. A. Slack of Lansdowne was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Williams.

Mr Lester Fraser principal of Coulston public school is spending his vacation at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. M. Fraser at Glen Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Dellan of Cleveland, Ohio, (nee Maribelle Morton) are visiting at the home of Mrs. Van Dellan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morton.

Rev. J. A. Koffend returned home on Saturday after spending a few days camping at Newcastle.

Community Activities In Malone District

Malone—Mr. and Mrs. Dan McCrimmon also Mrs. Owens and grandchild spent Sunday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nickle.

A number from here attended the Orange celebration at Plinton last week.

Mr. Bill Kelly spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weese.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nickle and family of Belleville spent Sunday with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nickle.

Miss Leona Gawley was taken suddenly ill on Thursday last and was rushed to Belleville General Hospital where she was operated on for appendicitis. She is gaining favorably. All hope she will soon be able to be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weese and children spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Pack.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCann left on Friday last to spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives in Toronto, Oshawa and other points west.

Mrs. Ben Weese is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wannamaker.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Moffatt and son Milo Mr. and Mrs. John Pack visited Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Pack on on Sunday last.

Mr. W. J. Nickle of Belleville spent a few days last week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. Nickle.

Mrs. B. Weese spent the dinner hour last Wednesday with Mrs. Charlie Reilly.

Mrs. Haines is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Nickle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiley and family spent Saturday with the former's mother Mrs. A. Wiley.

Mrs. Walter Gawley and family spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gawley.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Burnside of Madoc spent Sunday afternoon at the home of the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Nickle.

LOW FARE EXCURSION

JULY 19 - 20

TORONTO	HAMILTON	BUFFALO
$2.30	$3.10	$4.45

to also to Bowmanville $2.05; Deseronto $3.00; Welland $3.85.

RETURN LIMIT—JULY 22

Route:—via Passed Services to Toronto, except trains 6 and 15, thence Can. Pac.; T. H. and B.; Mich. Cent.

Consult your local Agent for full information. Ask for handbill.

CANADIAN PACIFIC

CANADIAN NATIONAL

SOLID GASOLINE

Solid gasoline, non-explosive and reducing the fire hazard in a relative to a minimum, has been perfected after sixteen years of experimental work. This announcement was made at the Daniel Guggenheim School of Aeronautics at New York University. The safe aeroplane fuel has been named "solene" by Dr. Adolph Prussin, chemical, who worked for years to produce a solidified gasoline in a form readily usable in internal combustion engines. The new type fuel costs less than one cent a gallon more than ordinary liquid fuel. Army and navy air forces, through the use of solene, will thus be able to avoid the hazard of tracer or explosive bullets igniting gas tanks during air battles. Bullets were fired into tanks of the solid gasoline without igniting the fuel. When ignited by a flame, the fuel burns slowly, like wood, and does not melt in the process. The solid is reduced to a vapor by heat from the exhaust and through suction of the engine. A BOYE we see A. N. Drabkin, who, with Dr. Alexander Klemin has been conducting final tests, with the solid gasoline, giving the solid gas two stern tests. In one picture Drabkin is holding the slow-burning Jelly-gasoline. In the other he holds a mass of the jelly in his hand.

LOBLAW

GROCETERIAS CO., LIMITED

This Week in Our Stores We are FEATURING

Junket PRODUCTS

ICE CREAM MIX Assorted Flavors 2 Pkgs. 19c

JUNKET POWDERS OR TABLETS Pkgs. 11c

PRIDE OF ARABIA COFFEE In Roaster Freshness is delivered to you by the medical vacuum-packed tin. Fine or Med. Grind 1-lb. TIN 36¢

Special CHIPSO Large Package 18¢

OXO CUBES Concentrated Strength 10 Cube Box 26c

Special EMERY BRAND CORNED BEEF 12-oz. Tin 9¢

ROSE BRAND SWEET MIXED PICKLES 7½-oz. Bottle 9c

Special HEINZ Delicious Baked Beans In Tomato Sauce Med. Size Tin 10¢

LUX TOILET SOAP 2 Cakes 11c

Special GLENWOOD Choice Quality Asparagus Cuttings 12-oz. Tin 9¢

RED RIVER CEREAL Nature's Food for Young and Old Pkg. 22c

Special Brown Label Salada TEA Black or Mixed ½-lb. Pkg. 31¢

Special GRAPE NUTS FLAKES 2 Pkgs. 19¢

EXTRA GOOD SPECIALS

"B" SODAS WESTON'S Large Fancy Pkg. 10¢

Bran FLAKES KELLOGG'S Package 9¢

EVAPORATED MILK ST. CHARLES CARNATION NESTLE'S 2 Small Tins 9¢ Tall Tin 8¢

BEEHIVE CORN SYRUP 24-lb. Tin 16¢

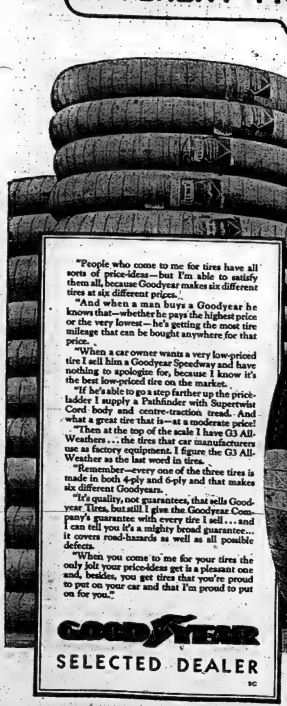
PEAS "NATURE'S BEST" No. 4 Sieve 9¢ No. 2 Tin

CATELLI'S COOKED SPAGHETTI 33-oz. Tin 14¢

Save the Premium Coupons

GRAVE'S SOLID PACK APPLES 31-oz. Tin 12¢

For Delicious Pies



FREE One pkg. HANDY AMMONIA with each purchase of 10 Bars Comfort SOAP 35c

Special GOLDEN BELL CHOICE RED COHOE SALMON Halves—Tin 11¢ Tall Tin 19¢

GROCERY SPECIALS on SALE JULY 18 to JULY 24

Our Specials at other points are not all the same but you will always find them equally as profitable.

GOODYEARS GIVE YOU BIG VALUE AT 6 DIFFERENT PRICES

"People who come to me for tires have all sorts of price-ideas—but I'm able to satisfy them all, because Goodyear makes six different tires at six different prices.

"And when a man buys a Goodyear he knows that—whether he pays the highest price or the very lowest—he's getting the most tire mileage that can be bought anywhere for that price.

"When a car owner wants a very low-priced tire I sell him a Goodyear Speedway and have nothing to apologize for, because I know it's the best low-priced tire on the market.

"If he's able to go a step farther up the price-ladder I supply a Pathfinder with Supertwist Cord body and centre-traction tread. And what a great tire that is—at a moderate price!

"Then at the top of the scale I have G3 All-Weathers . . . the tires that car manufacturers use as factory equipment. I figure the G3 All-Weather as the last word in tires.

"Remember—every one of the three tires is made in both 4-ply and 6-ply and that makes six different Goodyears.

"It's quality, not guarantees, that sells Goodyear Tires, but still I give the Goodyear Company's guarantee with every tire I sell . . . and I can tell you it's a mighty broad guarantee . . . it covers road-hazards as well as all possible defects.

"When you come to me for your tires the only jolt your price-ideas get is a pleasant one and, besides, you get tires that you're proud to put on your car and that I'm proud to put on for you."

GOODYEAR

SELECTED DEALER

MORE PEOPLE RIDE ON GOODYEAR TIRES THAN ON ANY OTHER KIND

White Hat Sale
.59
1.00
1.49
1.79
Woodleys Furriers
372 Front Street

Personals

Mr. Fred Facey, Station street, is a party of friends are spending a few days at Concession Lake.

Misses Nancy and Helen Walker, from Toronto, are visiting for Niagara Falls and spend two weeks' vacation at the home of their grandmother.

Mrs. S. D. Scripture of Ottawa, formerly of Belleville, is visiting for a few weeks with Mrs. E. Boyd, 15 Dufferin Avenue.

Miss Gloria Stuart is spending her holidays with her aunt, Miss Mae Stuart, Campbellford.

Mr. J. W. Inglis is spending two weeks at Birch Cliff Lodge, at Bayview Lake.

On Wednesday afternoon, Larry Ashley entertained Jimmy Arnold to celebrate their third birthday. Games and cake were enjoyed by the children and a pleasant afternoon was spent.

Dr. and Mrs. Gibson returned today from Quebec.

Mrs. J. F. Wilder and daughter, Mrs. of Hamilton, N.Y., are visiting Mrs. Wilder's brother, Dr. M. J. Kane.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Clapp, Moira street, left on Saturday on a motor trip to Grand Rapids, Mich.

Miss Alice Potter was hostess at an enjoyable dance last evening at the Belleville Golf Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carles and children of Southern, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Plunder, Dundas Street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bateman and two boys, Bobby and Jack, of Toronto, are spending two weeks' holiday days with Mr. Bateman's mother, George street.

Mrs. J. H. Chamnis, and daughter, Miss Pauline, returned from Minneapolis, to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. McCarthy, 238 Charles Street.

Mr. Percy MacDonald, former well known Belleville resident, is at present renewing acquaintanceships in the city during a visit from Detroit, where he has been for the past many years.

Mr. J. L. Mulligan has returned to Windsor after spending the week end in the city. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Mulligan and their two children who have been visiting Mrs. Mulligan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Patterson for the past two weeks.

A delightful birthday party in honour of Miss Jean Holloway was held at her home 42 Forin street, last night. The party was in the form of a surprise and was given by her brother, Mr. Will Holloway. Between 30 and 40 were in attendance and thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment.

The Young People's Societies of Belleville Presbytery held an enjoyable picnic yesterday afternoon at Oak Lake. There was a large attendance of members and a splendid program of games and contests was held during the afternoon, followed by a delicious picnic supper. Worship service at sunset was most impressive and was conducted by Miss Hazel Morton, President of the Y.P.S. of the Presbytery.

Continuing — McNabb's
SUMMER DRESS SALE
BUY for now and next summer at such low prices.
ENTIRE SUMMER STOCK MUST BE CLEARED
20% to 50% REDUCTIONS
The J. A. McNABB, Ltd.
Phone 444 254 Front Street Belleville

Jimmie Calgey and Robert Armstrong in "G-Men", the story of secret service activity. "G-Men" is now at the Capitol theatre.

Wedding at Salem United Church Is First in Forty Years

RAWDON, (Special)— A very pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized at seven a.m. on Thursday, July 18th, in Salem United Church when Vera Susanah Wright, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wright became the bride of William Thompson Warren, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Warren of Bethel, with the pastor, Rev. H. Lacke, officiating.

The bride was charmingly gowned in a white crepe ensemble and wore a picture hat of white braid, with accessories. She carried a bouquet of pale pink roses and baby's breath and was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Wm. Wright.

She was attended by her cousin, Miss Alice Horton of Holloway, who was attired in a pale pink crepe frock with white accessories and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses with baby's breath.

Mr. Albert Warren of Bancroft, assisted the groom as best man. Edwin Warren of Bethel and Fred Heddington of Holloway, were ushers.

Miss Leola Kelusky of Bancroft, opened in white crepe with a touch of blue and white accessories, played the wedding march and during the signing of the register Miss Annie Elliott of Bethel wearing a frock of mauve satin with white accessories sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride's mother was dressed in navy blue crepe with white accessories and the groom's mother, wore navy blue figured crepe, with white accessories.

As this was the first wedding held in Salem United Church for forty past forty years, Mr. Wm. Johnson made a brief address and Mr. Charles Mumby presented the bride with a lovely leather bound Bible, on behalf of the congregation.

Following the ceremony the immediate relatives journeyed to the bride's home where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served to about twenty guests. The bride's sister, Miss Laura Wright, and her friends, Miss Edith Warren were in charge.

The color scheme for the wedding table was pink and white and the dining room table was pretty decorated with a large wedding cake.

The groom's gift to the bride was a white gold bracelet watch, to the maid, pleated and sodalite white pleated crepe, to the best man and ushers white gold tie clips.

The bride received a large array of useful gifts, the groom's gift was cut glass and china. During the afternoon the happy couple left by motor for Edwin Warren of Bethel and Fred Heddington of Holloway, were ushers.

Mrs. Leola Kelusky of Bancroft, opened in white crepe with a touch of blue and white accessories, played the wedding march and during the signing of the register Miss Annie Elliott of Bethel wearing a frock of mauve satin with white accessories sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride's mother was dressed in navy blue crepe with white accessories and the groom's mother, wore navy blue figured crepe, with white accessories.

As this was the first wedding held in Salem United Church for forty past forty years, Mr. Wm. Johnson made a brief address and Mr. Charles Mumby presented the bride with a lovely leather bound Bible, on behalf of the congregation.

Following the ceremony the immediate relatives journeyed to the bride's home where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served to about twenty guests. The bride's sister, Miss Laura Wright, and her friends, Miss Edith Warren were in charge.

The color scheme for the wedding table was pink and white and the dining room table was pretty decorated with a large wedding cake.

The groom's gift to the bride was a white gold bracelet watch, to the maid, pleated and sodalite white pleated crepe, to the best man and ushers white gold tie clips.

The bride received a large array of useful gifts, the groom's gift was cut glass and china. During the afternoon the happy couple left by motor for Edwin Warren of Bethel and Fred Heddington of Holloway, were ushers.

THE WASHERS ALL RIGHT, JIM. I WAS USING THE WRONG KIND OF SOAP

Now she knows why she couldn't get gleaming, snowy clothes from her washing machine. The trouble was with the soap she was using. Soap she designed to lather, the clothes come out with a dingy whiteness. Colours look dull and gay as new. Just try it—and see!

Why don't you try Rinso? Makers of 24 famous Canadian washers recommend it. Wonderful for your washer, too. Soaks out dirt—saves scrubbing. That saves the clothes. So easy on the hands! Get Rinso at your grocer's today.

MOST WOMEN BUY THE LARGE PACKAGE. Rinso

Refreshing Miss Has Right of Way

She was as refreshing and fragrant as a morning in June as she minced along Pinnacle Street, past the post office to the corner of Bridge, with the sun shimmering in the slight morning breeze, her head was in the air, her mind in reveries—or upon her coming summer vacation.

It was a thundering colossus of metal—a juggernaut loaded with three ton of steel, bulging over its rar stained sides. It rumbled along oblivious of the smaller wheeled vehicles, which scuttled hurriedly to safety.

Both arrived at the intersection at about the same time; the vision in summer dress stepped from the curb unheeding. But there still lives a Galahad clad in overalls. A growl of brakes as they were hastily applied, and the thundering truck shuddered to a stop, a grimy hand waved from the cab window, and with a flash of red, as car horns tooted behind the truck, the vision swept majestically across the road. A dainty head nodded, gears chuckled in the truck and once more it rumbled majestically on.

The moral of this story is that chivalry is not dead, and that the modern knight is as courteous as his predecessor of the days of old.

SISTERS WED IN TWIN CEREMONY

Misses Etta and Dorothy Thompson, Brides at Stirling

Stirling, (Special)— Double ceremony took place on Wednesday June 19th, at seven-thirty a.m., at the home of Mrs. C. W. Thompson, Front street, Stirling, when her two daughters were married at pretty summer weddings. Rev. R. W. Rowand of St. Paul's United Church officiated at both ceremonies.

Miss Etta Bernice, daughter of Mrs. C. W. Thompson, became the bride of Mr. Clifford Allan Metz, of Preston, Ont., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Metz, Ivanhoe. Miss Dorothea Agnes, became the bride of Edward George Reynolds, of Frankford, Ont., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Reynolds of Dover, England.

The brides, who were given in marriage by their brother, Mr. J. A. Thompson, looked charming in gowns of white silk lace over white satin, with long white tulle veils and white accessories to match. They carried cascade bouquets of American beauty and bridal roses and fern.

The wedding music was played by Miss Dorothy Joblin and Miss Betty Conley, sang a soprano solo, "I Love You Truly". The ring ceremony were unadlended.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the brides' mother and they wore a gown of black and white crepe. Mrs. Metz, mother of Mr. Clifford Metz wore black and white crepe.

Later the happy couples left for their wedding trips, Mr. and Mrs. Metz going to Rice Lake for a two weeks' stay, the bride travelling in a navy blue ensemble with white accessories; Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds on a motor trip to Ottawa. The bride travelling in navy crepe with accessories to match.

Among the out-of-town guests were—Mrs. Charles Pearce, Mrs. Harold Wilson, Miss Ada Varty of Trenton; Mr. and Mrs. C. Leger of Merrickville, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson, Northern Ontario.

Fashion Flashes

Float along in ethereal fabrics as you move across the dance floor. A charming frock of filmy chiffon, like de sole in bright electric blue is sprinkled all over the tiny dots. A broad bright blue patent leather belt marks the waist.

A southern accent marks many of the new evening frocks. Reminiscent of the old South is a frock of magnolia pink sheer organdie with a flounce and a floating flounced panels of deep pink chiffon. The bodice in front is caught by a cluster of magnolia blossom.

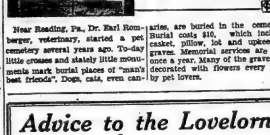
The courts are busy. We mean, of course, the tennis courts. A smart tennis frock is in pink linen. Collar, cuffs, yoke and belt are white linen. Another frock is in cross-barred shanting of white with yellow linen. Yellow buttons go all the way down.

It is easy to keep cool any where if one dresses wisely. Printed black and white chiffon make a lovely frock for the ball room. The white black chiffon with wide chevron insertions of black lace. Above each set has a jacket and dress of sheer black crepe with large white dots very widely spaced. The neck is a mass of white organdie petals.

It doesn't matter how warm the weather may be, one is sure to see fur capes as smart evening places. The wedding attire may be of gray ermine which buttons softly with the large fur buttons. The collar slopes down to form revers.

The sun shines down on smart Canadian girls this summer, especially as so many people are remaining in town. A lovely town costume consists of a navy blue linen dress worn with a jacket which has a long frothy jabot of pale linen.

"Company" in Merger



Velma Gresham, 36, Memphis socialite, incorporated herself and her stock in the "company" back in 1932 to finance an assault on Hollywood's gates. Now she announces the "company" is dead; he said the marriage proposal of Paul J. Zigler, attached.

THRONGS MOURN AT PET CEMETERY

Near Reading, Pa., Dr. Karl Homberger, veterinary, started a pet cemetery several years ago. To-day it's little crowded and stately little monuments mark burial places of "man's best friends". Dogs, cats, even can-

Unique cat and dog cemetery at Stonerville, Pa., where 400 canines and felines rest in peace

aries, are buried in the cemetery. Burial costs $10, which includes casket, pillow, lot and upkeep of graves. Memorial services are held once a year, when the graves are decorated with flowers every week by pet lovers.

Advice to the Lovelorn
By Beatrice Fairfax

"Don't pick as your husband a fellow who is the life of the party, who is good fun at dances and who is always ready to taxe charge of entertainment."

This is no may-be so, but sober fact culled from three hundred years of history. Dr. Lewis M. Terman and Miss Winifred Bent Johnson, of Stanford University, made the survey, and the results are published in a current magazine article. Three hundred married couples were studied. One hundred were happily married, 100 were unhappily married and 100 were divorced.

The first thing to remember, if you are considering marriage, is that conservative people are likely to make the best partners. These psychologists go on to say:

"The happy husband is outstandingly co-operative. He works well with others, is not touchy or grouchy, is non-critical of others. But he is not the jolly fellow type of good mixer. He prefers going to see a play to attending a peppy dance, and is quite content with a quiet evening at home."

Kindness to old people, the sick, or those with deformities and personal peculiarities are some of the traits of the happily married man, who radiates his happiness in being helpful to the less fortunate. He is not fond of dancing or over talkative people.

It is the old- fashioned girl who makes the happiest wife and keeps the happiest home these experts have demonstrated. Therefore, young ladies who hope to wear orange blossoms should watch their steps and refrain from sowing wild oats. This type of girl exemplifies the kind of feminine virtue familiar in the old-fashioned protected quarters — the type ex- divorce.

MAKING COMEBACK

Mother of two children, Norma Shearer, Montreal-born Hollywood film star, is making a comeback after several months' absence from screen work. She is shown in new fashion attire.

For Sale 246 Charles Street
(Between Queen Street and Victoria Ave.)
FINE BRICK RESIDENCE
Beautiful recpm; 5 bedrooms; drawing room; living room; dining room; kitchen; garage; fine grounds.
LOW PRICE TO CLOSE AN ESTATE
Belleville Locators
GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.
136 Front St.
Phone 38 Home Phone 687

PHONE 2240
QUALITY FURS, REPAIRS
SPECIAL PRICES
Ashley Furs
304 FRONT STREET
Next to Rose's, Belleville, Ont.

NOW AT A NEW LOW PRICE
The TRIPLE VALUE SALAD AND COOKING OIL
MAZOLA
1 most Wonderful MAYONNAISE
2 is Perfect for DEEP FRYING
3 is Most ECONOMICAL

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE BELLE

"Break of Hearts"

Catharine Hepburn Has Greatest Role

There is but one way to describe the powerful emotional drama "Break of Hearts", starring Katharine Hepburn and Charles Boyer which opened a two days engagement at the Belle today (Thursday), it is to say that this beautiful love story is one of the most inspiring pictures which has been filmed in recent years and that the stars give a brilliant performance that surpasses all forecasts.

It is a new Hepburn that comes to the screen in this production and one who is far more alluring than ever, in the role of a young composer who marries a famous maestro, she combines all the genius that brought her fame in her previous films with a new found pictorial beauty and a vibrant warmth of interpretation that is irresistible.

Charles Boyer, idol of the French stage and screen has a magnetic charm that promises to send him to the height of popularity as a result of his work in "Break of Hearts".

The picture tells the story of the making, breaking and remaking of a romance and not in recent years have such enchanting love scenes been played on the screen as those between the bewitching Hepburn and Boyer.

John Beal, who will be remembered for his fine portrayal of the title role in "The Little Minister" with Miss Hepburn, plays a romantic role that adds further laurels to his fame.

An interesting feature of the presentation from a feminine standpoint is that Miss Hepburn is seen in smart, ultra-modern clothes. Her wardrobe was designed by Bernard Newman, internationally famous stylist and Irene and Susan Fleming, Jean Howard and Irene Mullins.

Enjoyable added hits with the above are "Mickey's Orphans" and "Stripes and Stripes" featuring an all-star cast of funmakers, a new and interesting musical creation "The Chinese Nightingale", all in Technicolor and a number of the popular travel series. This is also showing interesting scenes in England around Windsor Castle.

Complete performances start on Thursday and Friday at 2.30, 7.15 and 9.10 P. M.

AT THE CAPITOL

"G-Men"

Cagney Film Adds to Gangland Fable

In the opinion of many authorities, First National Pictures has performed a patriotic service by showing how one branch of the government's law enforcement agencies will wipe out gangland through methods depicted in the latest James Cagney starring vehicle "G Men" which opens today at the Capitol.

Thoroughly aroused by the challenge of the underworld, the Federal sleuths started out on a war of extermination —with results that are familiar to every newspaper reader.

Around these actual occurrences Gregory Rogers wrote a screen play, and for the first time to screen fame as Hollywood's most notorious bad man who insisted to perform the dirt on him hunted down the Mad Dog of Gangland, found public enemy No 1 all ready hold into a rendezvous with death.

Death Knell of Gangs

Officials believe the last hold of the criminal mobs on the imagination of the public will be broken by this picture, which shows criminals as they are— and how helpless they are when the government starts to crack down.

It is tremendously thrilling drama of the fiercest man hunt in history.

Enormous sets were prepared on specially constructed sound stages, the actual settings of the battles in the underworld were duplicated, even an entire metropolitan railroad depot was reproduced, and exciting gunfire filling the air. The picture so that its authenticity might not be doubted by the public in general and, in particular, those devotees of daring-do in whom it will undoubtedly inspire terror.

In the cast of "G Men" is a man to be found above all how gangland feels about the Federals. He is Barton Sherlock. Who as detective sergeant on the Chicago police force for the gangsters' hatred sent him to the hospital for seven months and ended his career every one of them. He told the story to Director William Keighley and to Screen Play Author Jim Cowan and Margaret Lindsay.

Public Opinion Aroused

The "G Man" may go anywhere he wishes, and do what he will so long as his assignment lasts indefinitely," Keighley explained. "When he is given a job to run down a criminal and that his job. He is called on to handle a dozen other assignments at the same time, as is the average city detective.

"Department of Justice men rarely ever call upon the police department or the sheriff's office or State police for help, or rely on co-operation," Sherlock continued.

"One of all reasons for their success is that the Department of Justice enjoys public favor. When a 'G Man' makes a pinch, it sticks. He can't be sprung by bail bonds or an 'wring' the crook. Besides this, public opinion is behind him. He wears no badge and registers, and the people know what they must crush crime."

RADIO PROGRAMS
— Daylight Saving Time —

THURSDAY

2.30—Ray Bellis Orch.—CBCT
2.30—Kitchen Party—WHAP
4.00—Betty and Bob, drama—WJZ
4.30—Jim Rimmer, Hymns—CFRB
5.45—Lowell Thomas, news—WJZ
6.15—Tom Terris—WHAP
7.15—Tony and Gus—WJZ
7.30—Merry Minstrels—WHAP
8.00—Ruby Valley—WHAP
8.00—Kate Smith's Swanee Music Hour—WJZ
9.00—Show Boat—WHAP
9.00—Death Valley—WJZ
9.00—Death Valley—WJZ
9.30—Goldman Band Concert—WJZ
10.00—Paul Whiteman's Orch.—WJZ
10.00—Heidt's Brigadiers—WABO
10.15—U. S. Navy Band—WABO
11.30—Stevens Orch.—WJZ
12.00 Peerless Symphony Orch—WABO

FRIDAY

9.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ
9.30—Wonderful Hill Songs—WJZ
1.15—Radio Gossip Club—WGBS
2.30—Ray Bellis Orch.—CBCT
2.30—Kitchen Party—WHAP
4.00—Betty and Bob—WJZ
4.30—Jim Rimmer—CFRB
5.00—Concert, Jessica Dragonette, soprano—WJZ
5.15—Lucille Manners, soprano—WJZ
6.15—Tom Terris—WHAP
8.00—Wendy Time, Frank Munn, tenor; Abe Lyman's Orchestra—WJZ
9.00—Hollywood Hotel—WABO
9.00—To Be Announced—WHAP
9.00—Show Boat—WJZ
9.30—Paul Baker—WJZ
10.00—Richard Himber's Orch.—WABO
10.00—Dog Fighter, drama—WHAP
10.30—Ciriaca Nights in Silvertown Orch—WJZ
10.30—Andre Kostelanetz—WABO
10.30—Freddie Rich—WABO
11.15—Isaac Grayzel, organist—WHAP
11.30—Music News—CBCT
11.30—Horace Kings Orch.—WJZ

REALIZE Your WANTS BY READING Other Peoples WANT-ADS

UP TO 200, EACH PAID FOR D. S. INDIAN HEAD CENTS

We buy all dates regardless of cond. Up to $2.50 each for 1908-S. Up to $5.00 each for 1909-S. Up to $10. each for Canada, 1858, 1870, 1871, 1881, 1888, 1902-H, 1907, Sold Old Paper Money, Gold, etc. Send 10c. for Illustrated Coin Folder and Buying Catalogue. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

HUB COIN SHOP

130-136 FRONT ST. BELEVILLE — ONTARIO

Business Directory

AUTO LOANS

AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Car Financing
Any Kind, Any Make
E. J. FISHER & SON
28 Bridge St. East Phone 125

Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto — Ottawa — London — Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

A. A. WYATT, PH.C., CHIROPRACTOR
Graduate of Canadian National Institute of Chiropractic. Electro examination and treatment. Electro Therapeutic Lamp. Ultra violet ray lamp. Spinal and foot adjustments. Manipulative surgery with electric treatment. Office hours 9 to 5. Phone 388 Coleman street, Belleville, phone 388.

VERA B. FITCHER, CHIROPRACTOR, and H. B. Fitcher, Chiropractor and Drugless Therapeutist. Graduates of Canadian National Institute of Chiropractic and Drugless Therapeutics, Toronto. Office hours 9 to 5. 257 Bridge St. E., Belleville, Ont., Phone 1276.

DENTIST

DR. ROST, H. EMPSON
DENTIST
E-Ray
Phone 422 369½ Front St. Belleville

RADIO SERVICE

JOHN A. DEWAR
RADIO SERVICE
Registered — Graduate
165 John St. Phone 521
47-tf

SURVEYORS

FRANK AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Phone 1276 Front and Dundas Sts., Belleville. Phone 1276.

FRED J. ROSE
Ontario Land Surveyor
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance
SANDY BURROWS

HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
261 Front St. Phone 339

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Sickness
282 Front St. Phone 1154-W

STOCKS & BONDS

RIGGAR AND CRAWFORD, MEMBERS Toronto Stock Exchange. Belleville 172. E. Hall, Investment Representative.

LEGAL

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND CO. (Successors to the late C. H. Wallbridge, K.C.) Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyancers, etc. Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville. Phone 1.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Etc. Office: Campbell St., Madoc.

F. J. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public, Conveyancer, etc. Belleville. Telephone 74. 85-tf

PORTER, PATTE AND ARNOTT, BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, ETC. Office: Cor. Coleman and Bridge Sts. Belleville. Cable Address, "Porter." Phone 4. E. M. D. Arnott, K.C. Counsel. Hon. W. H. Price, K.C. Counsel.

PORTON AND CHISHAM, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Conveyancers, etc. Office: Bank of Montreal Building, Belleville. Cable address, W. N. Porton, Belleville. W. N. P. Chisham, Telephone 1. Counsel: Hon. Geo. P. Graham.

DONNAN AND BUTLER, B. C. Donnan, K.C., G. Butler, Barristers, Solicitors, etc. Registrar Public and Commissioner, Bridge Street, Napanee. Telephone 68. Belleville, Out. Phone 528.

LOST

A BEAUTIFULLY FURNISHED HOUSE

To-Let
234 Charles St.
(Corner of Queen Street)

New Hardwood Floors throughout (up and down); Newly papered and painted; Lovely Bath Room; New Hot Air Furnace.

Living Room, Dining Room, Kitchen, three bed rooms—garage.

See this place if you want a nicely finished, comfortable, clean home.

IMMEDIATE POSSESSION

Belleville Locators
168 Front Street
GEO. W. GORMAN, Prop.
Phone 39 House Phone 647

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagements, $1.00; Deaths, $1.00; Cards and Funeral Notices, $1.00; Memoriam Notices, 10c a line; Minimum charge, 50c. Memoriam Notices, $1.00; Memoriam Notices with cut, over that 10c per count line. Cards of Thanks, 50c minimum charge. Obituaries, 10c per count line. CLASSIFIED—(For Sale, Wanted, Situation, Lost and Found) 1c per word. TWO insertions, subsequent insertions (no change) 1c per word. Minimum charge, 25c.

COUNTING EVENTS—50c per insertion for 25 words or less. Over 25 words, amount 2c per word.

PROFESSIONAL, BUSINESS AND BUSINESS CARDS (Yearly Contract) $5 per month per line.

OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES—Municipal, Township, Commercial, Financial, per agate line (14 lines to inch) for first insertion; 5c per line for subsequent insertions.

AUCTION SALES—Per word, heading to count as 12 words minimum charge for first insertion; 1c per word subsequently inserted.

ALL initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

The Intelligencer reserves the right when it is more convenient. PHONE 99.

The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any Want Advertisement.

Advertisers will have their replies addressed to Box Number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

TWO BOYS ABOUT FIFTEEN TO HELP on farm. Mrs. Frank Salter, Trinity Road.

COOK, GENERAL FOR APARTMENT, Belleville. Phone 1342. 118-tf

GIRL FOR GENERAL HOUSEWORK. Apply 316 Coleman street between 4 and 7 p.m.

THREE FURNISHED OR PARTLY FURNISHED ROOMS for Office. Central. Intelligencer. 118-11

WOMAN FOR GENERAL HOUSEWORK. Apply Box 118 Ontario Intelligencer. 117-tf

GIRL FOR GENERAL HOUSEWORK. Apply Box 117 Ontario Intelligencer. 117-tf

TO RENT—SMALL HOUSE OR TWO OR three unfurnished rooms. Phone 1342. 118-tf

AT ONCE—ONE OR TWO UNFURNISHED rooms suitable for light housekeeping. Inquire 164 Dundas St. "O" Ontario Intelligencer. 118-2t

SMALL HELP WANTED—Apply
AMATEUR ARTIST WITH NATURAL ability. Write stating age and experience. No obligation. Write, Interlakes Studios, Toronto. 118-3t

MAN WANTED FOR BELLEVILLE to handle Ward's Quality Food Products, Toilet and Laundry Soaps, Household Cleansers and other new fast selling lines. Permanent connection for right man. Commission Prize Reward Country for Man with Car. The J. R. Ward Co. Company, John Ward, Hamilton, Ont. 118-2t

BOOKKEEPER — PRIVATE HOME WITH two grown people; good locality. Apply at 30 East Moira street. 116-3t

STENOGRAPHER — Experienced, registered preferred, for general office. Interviews, stating experience and salary, Intelligencer. 116-3t

WOMEN WANTED TO START PRIVATE Kindergarten Schools in their own homes. Experience unnecessary. Write for particulars. Canadian Kindergarten Institute, Toronto (25). Established 1927. 111-26-tf

"CALLISES SO SAD DIED A CANE"— Many a man has died from a cane, however. At Dolan the Druggist. 118-1t

BUSINESS LINERS

Whip-Poor-Will Lodge

2 hours drive from Belleville on Lake Ontario. Boat, Boo-Kies Fishing, bathing, boating. Modern conveniences. Cabins for rent. Cabins accommodated with beds, quilts, blankets. Cook-stoves, Oven.

TWO FISHERMEN HOOK SAME PIKE

Harry Hitchon And 'Al' Stilwell Offer The Proof

Here's a fish story which up to the present tops all previous ones.

It happened at Oak Lake. Mr. Harry Hitchon of the city and Mr. 'Al' Stilwell, Toronto, former teacher at the Collegiate Institute, who is camping at the lake were fishing, when they had a bite. Stilwell, a fine fisherman, and after a determined struggle a five pound pike was brought within range of the landing net. Just as the fish was about to be scooped up the line snapped and a fine catch disappeared back into the lake.

Second thoughts on the line was felt by Mr. Hitchon. "I've got him" exulted the second fisherman. Another struggle with some unknown species and, with the help of his partner, Mr. Hitchon was soon the proud owner of a fine pound specimen of pike in the net.

"Let's get gassed Mr. Stilwell, after the fish was landed in the boat. I wonder if people will really believe this fish story, Mr. Hitchon."

In the mouth of the fish was found two lures belonged to Mr. Stilwell who had hooked the fish just previous, the second was Mr. Hitchon's.

An amicable division of the spoils was made.

TICKELL & BROWNE
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve Rich or Less
FUNERAL HOME
Corner Church St. and Victoria Ave. Phone 2253

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Motor Equipment
Phone 76—Day and Night
A. W. H. BELL
Proprietor
Modern Crypt For Sale

Thomas G. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
25 Everett St. Phone 49
Office
322 Front St. Phone 62

ROOFING

All Kinds of Repairs; Roofs Re-laid, Coated or NEW ROOF SUPPLIED
Advice and Estimates on Application

P. J. Fortin
317 Albert St. Phone 1310w

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHERS

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF ROBERT FLETCHER, late of the City of Belleville, in the County of Hastings, Gentleman, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the Trustee Act, Revised Statutes, 1927, Chapter 156, Section 31, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of Mary Fletcher, late of the City of Belleville, who died on or about the fourth day of May, 1935, are required to forward their claims duly proved to the undersigned, on or before the 31st day of July, 1935.

AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that after the said date the executor will proceed to distribute the estate, having regard only to the claims of which he shall then have notice.

DATED at Belleville, this 4th day of July, 1935.

Wallbridge, Cameron & Company, Barristers, &c.
Dominion Bank Building,
Belleville, Ontario.
Solicitors for the Executor. 117-18-21

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION

This is to notify all persons interested that the partnership heretofore between Herbert Ridley Muir and Arthur Wales at the Village of Foxboro, and that have no further interests in the above entity. A. Wales.

PERSONAL

WOMEN WANTED TO START PRIVATE Kindergarten Schools in their own homes. Experience unnecessary. Write for particulars. Canadian Kindergarten Institute, Toronto (25). Established 1927. 111-26-tf

HOLIDAY INSURANCE. $5000 for $1.00

We insure you against Accident while on holiday and will pay: IN THE EVENT OF YOUR DEATH BY ACCIDENT ... $5,000
LOSS OF BOTH FEET OR HANDS 5,000
ONE FOOT OR HAND 2,500
TOTAL DISABILITY (Benefit 52 weeks) ... per week $25

The rates are: 4 days $1; 7 days $2; 15 days $4; 30 days $5.

We also insure your baggage at very low cost. For anything in the line of insurance telephone us.

JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Phone 1394 137 Front St.

FINANCIAL MARKETS
NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

NEW YORK CLOSE

New York, July 18 (CP)—Specialties again ruled the stock market today with a number of issues forging ahead into new high territory for the year. Most of the utilities were hesitant.

Shares up practically to 2 points or so included Hydraulic Power, Manville, Allied Chemical, Air Reduction, U. S. Pipe, Santa Fe, Phillip Morris, American Tobacco "B," Standard Oil, Bethlehem, U. S. Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Walgreen and United Aircraft. American Superpower and Consolidated Gas were about unchanged, as was Pullman, Atlantic Gentral and Standard Oils of N.J. and California. The late tone was firm.

Transfers approximated 1,000,000 shares.

TORONTO MINES—Close

Toronto, July 18—The Toronto Mining Market was in small but better picture today as volume increased and in the metal group as a firm to strong price structure. Turnover in the big gold issues was greater and in the metal group to a quarter point for Brazilian, Hollinger, Lake Shore and Wright Hargreaves.

All the base metals, golds, silvers and base metals, were inclined upward on the opening section in the early trading today. Senior golds were more active than usual and higher prices asked for Lake Shore, Dome, Pioneer, Wright Hargreaves and Brazilian.

Heavy buying developed in Bear Exploration around the 44c and the price advanced to 64¾ for a gain of 19¾ while other issues, Mylorado and Premier were slightly lower. Among the cheaper metals, Sherritt Gordon, Base Metal Corporation and Fend Orville advanced a few cents each.

God's Lake, Sucoe, San Antonio, Pickle Crow and Gunnar sold higher.

TORONTO STOCKS CLOSE

Toronto, July 18.— (CP)—While not particularly active the industrial section of the Toronto Exchange maintained its upward trend today with leadership on the upside resting in the Pulp, Oil, Land and Steel Shares. Ford A was a strong feature and Dominion as it pushed up a half point to new high ground.

Trading dragged on the Industrial section but prices holding strong in sympathy with a buoyant display on the New York Board. As in recent sessions, the Liquor and Oil shares had a good following and left the Liquors steady to strong and the Oils off slightly. Gains had a slight edge on losses among the arbitrage.

Ford A perked up for a half point gain to 26 3-4. Consolidated Smelters moved up a point to 39 while Nickel remaining steady.

Harris reported in on the company's report that sales had recently shown an up consideably. Food issues improved with gains of more than a point showing for Westons, Canners A and Canada Bread A.

Grain Markets

Quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as supplied by A. H. Ketcheson and Co. to-day:

	High	Low	Close
July	80¾	80¼	80¾
October	81¾	80¾	80¾
Oats—
July	44	43¾	43¾
October	31¾	31¼	31¼
December	29¾	29¾	29¾
Barley—
July	35¾	35¼	35¼
October	35¾	34¾	35
December	35¾	35¼	35¼
Rye—
July	35¾	34¾	34¾
October	38¾	37¼	37¼
December	40¾	39	39

Livestock

Toronto, July 18 (CP)—Lambs and calves sold steady at the opening of the Toronto market but cattle and hogs were at a standstill. No sheep were offered. Trade was indecisive, mostly of plain quality and including light stuff, with prices from $5.50 to $6.

Receipts reported by the Dominion Livestock Branch were:

Cattle, 200; calves, 100; hogs, 60; lambs, 80.

The light offering of common to medium calves sold steady at $3.75 to $4 per cwt. Lambs also were steady at $8.50 for good steers and heifers and at $6.50 to $7.50 for other grades.

FRUIT

Toronto, July 18 (CP)—The following price changes on fruit and vegetables were reported by Wholesale and Co.—here today: Canadian raspberries, pint 4c to 6c; Leamington tomatoes, 11-qt. baskets $1.50 to $1.50; No. 2, 11-qt. baskets 75c to $1.

FINANCIAL MARKETS

Board Room Gossip

As supplied to Riggar and Crawford by Financial Service.

According to wire advices from the mine, the crosscut at Sullivan should reach the objective some time next week. The crosscut now has 30 feet to go. And with crosscuts at the rate of 5 feet daily it will be another week before the south ore zone is reached. On the last 100 feet of the rock cut has gone to the mill 2,000 tons of mineable, ore section of 60 feet having averaged approximately .8 oz. per ton.

Strength in Wayside following the drop in the stock to a low of 10 cents, announcement by a company official that the mine was going right ahead with its program of sinking a 100 foot shaft which should be reached for operation by the end of August. Reserves, positive and indicated, are said to be sufficient to run the mill at capacity for a period of two years.

Opinion by Brandeis, Goldschmidt and Co. Ltd., London, metal dealers: Lead—Consumption has been rather quieter but prices have been steadily maintained. The demand from the consuming trades has continued, although it would not be unusual to experience some slackening during the summer months. The question of the revision of the duty on foreign lead into England, which has been under consideration for some time, is understood to be practically settled, and it is likely that the present 2d valorem duty will be replaced by a fixed duty of probably £7 10s. per ton and be put into operation very shortly. Consumers are, therefore, reluctant ask the present time to buy forward material having the existing higher tariff.

Zinc—It is likely that the present duty on Spelter will also be changed to a fixed basis in the case of this metal of probably 12/6d. per ton and it is possible that the revised duty will be put into force at the same time as that for lead. The proposed alteration should be of considerable benefit to the London market. During the past week prices have remained little change. The consumptive demand remains fairly good and a moderate business is reported from the galvanizing industry. There has been no change in the position in America and the price has been steadily maintained at £30 cents St. Louis.

Those who predict a rising market this fall base their opinion on two factors. First, the usual seasonal pick-up in business in the fall months together with reflection in security prices. Second, the tendency caused by the forthcoming Federal election that the business and financial elections will be eliminated by the Government and a more independent attitude on the part of business men and investors should become noticeable.

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted Mines as supplied by A. H. Ketcheson and Company.

	Bid	Asked
Adanac	2	3
Base Metals	2	3
Barnat	53-54
Bellekeno	11½-2
Bonga	10	12
Casey	4-3½
Coin. Chib	56-78
Cent. P.	22c
De Santis	20c
El Bon	14-16
Elkhorn	1-1½
Gold Eagle	30-34
Great Bear	66-70
Hasaga	11-14
Hard Rock	48-52
Lafayette	14-15
Lamaque	220-230
Magnet	2¾-4¼
McLeod	5-6
North Is.	3½-4
Oakland	20-21
Shawkey	40-41
Stadacona	8-9
Sun Bear	18-30
Wasa	3½-4
Wright	16-17½
Wright H.	2¾-3
Young Davidson	14-18
Dunlop	9-11½
Forty Four	225-725
Galetes
Hammer	195-200
Glenora	5-7
Hudson Pat.	1
Mosher	14-15½
Rice Lake	2-3
Tech Hughes	4-5
Jellico	5-7
Consolidated	48-50
Lagoon	6-7

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Riggar and Crawford, P. H. Wills, branch manager. Quotations at 2.30.

Mines.

Acme	13
Ajax	11½
Ashley	10
Brewis	1½
Barry Hollinger	4¼
Base Metals	2
Bear Ex	64
Bobjo	22
Big Missouri	5
Bagamac	3½
Brabazon	4.70
Brownies	13
Bay	6
Buffalo Ank	36
Castle Trethewey	1.04
Can Kirk	1.25
Can Malar	64
Central	1.18
Chemical Research	106
Coast Copper	190
Chibeng	17½
Clericy	23
Commonwealth	1602
Dome	23
Eldorado	1
Falconbridge	330
Gilbec	3½
God's Lake	1.78
Goldale	12
Gunnar Gold	203
Harker	8
Hone Oil	13
Hollinger	13.00
Howey	67½
Hudson Bay	15½
J M Cons	19½
Kirk Town	15
Kirkland Lake	17.75
Lake Mason	3½
Lake Shore	201½
Lebel	3½
Les Gold	2
Little Long Lac	4.60
Macassa	1.60
Malcolm	3
Manitoba	2
Maple Leaf	13
McIntyre	39½
McKenzie	1.17½
McMillan	1.05
McWatters	130
Mining Corporation	142
Noranda	37½
Obelisk	3
Parkhill	10½
Paymaster	28
Pet. C	3½
Perron	60
Pend Oreille	80
Pickle Crow	230
Pioneer	93
Premier	1.43
Pros Air	150
Read Authier	92
Reno	1.25
Sayalda	2
San Antonio	260
Sherriti G	64
Sisco	1½
Stadacona	23½
Stadacona	8
Sudbury Basin	1.40
Sudbury Mine	6
Sullivan	18
Sylvanite	2.15
Teck Hughes	4.12
Thom Lith	1.29
Ventures	33
Waite Amulet	55
Wayside	10
White Eagle	1¾
Wright Hargreaves	800
Ymir	2013
International Nickel	27

New York.

American Can	141¼
American Tel	136⅝
American Radiator	15⅜
Anaconda	16¾
Auburn	23⅝
Case	61
Chrysler	54¼
General Electric	27¼
General Motors	47
Electric Auto Lite	25½
Int. Harvester	54¾
North American	17¾
Montgomery Ward	30
Phillips Pet	14⅝
Radio	8¼
Standard Oil of N J	46¾
Standard Brands	15⅜
Stewart-Warner	12
U S Smelters	38½
U. S. Steel	58¾
United Aircraft	17¼
Vanadium	15¼

Westinghouse 80½

TORONTO

Bell Telephone	130½
B.A. Oil	15½
Brewing Corp.	3
Bras. Trac.	8¾
Can. Bud Brewery	6¼
Can. Cement	64½
Can. Dredge	20½
Can. Ind. Alcohol	9c
C.P.R.	13⅞

Can. Malting 34½
Can. Vinegar 27½
Can. Wire & Cable 10½
Con. Smelting 163
Dominion Bridge 64½
Dist. Seagrams 20½
Famous Player 8½
Ford A. 26
Gypsum 50
Hollinger 13
Imp. Oil 18¼
Imper. Tob. 14¾
Imp. Tobacco 13⅜
Loblaw 19½
Massey Harris 4¾
Mond. Power 30½
McColl-Frontenac 13½
Steel of Canada 50
Supertest 7½
Shawinigan 15½
Walker's 36½
Walker's pfd. 17½
Walkerville Brewery 30

Toronto, July 18.—(CP)—A 10-cent advance at Barrie was the only change in Toronto hog levels today. Supplies at all other reporting markets points were steady to a trifle up at $8.40 to $8.60. Prices:

Peterborough, $8.35; London, $8.35; Barrie, $8.45; Kitchener, $8.35; Stratford, $8.25; Mitchell, $8.50; Stratford, $8.40.

Produce Markets

(By United Farmers Co-Operative Company)

Toronto, July 18.—Wholesale prices on product delivered at Toronto as supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co. here to-day were:

Eggs.

Grade A. large, doz.	19
Grade A, medium, doz.	17
Grade B, doz.	17
Grade C, doz.	13

Butter.

Ontario No. 1 Creamery	20
Ontario No. 2, Creamery	19

Churning Cream—

No. 1, lb.	19
No. 2, lb.	17

(F.O.B. shipping point)

Poultry

	Dressed
	Live Dressed
Hens	"A" "A"
Over 5 lbs.	21 24
4 to 5 lbs.	20
3 to 4 lbs.	20
Old roosters	17 .09
Broilers, 2½ to 3½ lbs.	23
Broilers, 3½ to 4 lbs.	24
Broilers, 1¼ to 2½	21
Broilers, over 4 lbs.	26

Selling Prices

United Farmers Co-Operative Co to-day has offered provisionally for fall dealers at the following prices:

Eggs.

Grade A, large, loose, doz.	24
Grade A, medium, doz.	22½
Grade B, medium, doz.	22
Grade C doz.	21

Butter.

No. 1 Creamery, prints	22½
No. 2 Creamery, prints	22

Hay and Straw

No. 2 timothy hay, baled ton $13.50 to $14.50; No. 3 timothy hay, ton, $11.00 to 12.00; straw, wheat baled, ton $10.00; oats straw, $7.50 to $8.50.

Graded Egg Prices

Toronto dealers Thursday were paying the following provincial prices for graded eggs, cases free:

Grade A, large	21
Grade A, medium, doz.	20
Grade B, pullets, doz.	18

Livestock Quotations

(Toronto)

Steers, up to 1,050 lbs. good and choice	5.85	6.25
do. medium	5.25	5.75
do. common	4.25	5.25
Steers, over 1050 lbs., good and choice	6.25	6.50
do. medium	5.75	6.00
do. common	4.75	5.75
Heifers, good and choice	6.00	6.25
do. medium	5.25	5.75
do. common	4.25	5.25
Red calves, good and choice	7.00	7.50
do. common	6.50	6.50
Cows, good	4.00	4.25
do. medium	3.25	3.75
do. common	2.75	3.25
Bulls, good	3.50	3.75
do. common	3.00	3.25
Milkers and Springers	30.00	60.00
Stockers and feeder steers, good	4.75	5.25
do. common	3.50	4.50
Calves, good and choice veals	6.00	7.00
do. medium	5.00	6.00
do., grassers	3.00	4.00
Hogs, bacon, f.o.b.	8.25
do. off cars	8.65	8.75
do. off trucks	8.00
Sheep and spring lambs	8.50
do. medium	6.50
do. common	5.00
Sheep, good light	6.00
do. culls	1.00
do. medium	1.50	2.00

Produce Prices on Montreal Market

Montreal, July 18—Butter prices were fairly steady in dairy markets here, dealers quoting, on a carlot or l.c.l. lot basis, No. 1, pasteurized at 20¾c, the level at which butter sold at yesterday's auction at the Board of Trade, to 20¾c, and about unchanged from Tuesday. Demand remained light, however, and trade in the quotation was 22 cents for prints, 21c for solids. Creamery butter, excluding truck receipts, totalled 1653 boxes.

The cheese market was again exceedingly dull with some shading of prices on Ontario cheese, which dealers now quote at 9½c to 10c on carlot or l.c.l. lot basis. Quebec was quoted around 9¼c to 9¾c, the former level being the auction price. Receipts, 1,977 packages.

Eggs prices were unchanged in all directions from yesterday's close on A-large, carlots or l.c.l. lots, 21c on A-medium, 20c on B's and 18c on C's. Yesterday's receipts, 1,773 cases. The range of prices quoted by jobbers to the retail trade was unchanged, as follows:

Produce Market

Toronto, July 18 (CP)—Wholesale prices on produce delivered at Toronto as supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co., here today were:

Eggs—

Grade A—large, doz.	19
Grade A—medium, doz.	17
Grade B, doz.	17
Grade C, doz.	13

(F.O.B. shipping point)

Poultry

	Dressed
	Live Dressed
Hens	"A" "A"
Over 5 lbs.	21 24
4 to 5 lbs.	20
3 to 4 lbs.	20
Old roosters	17 .09
Broilers, 2½ to 3½ lbs.	23
Broilers, 3½ to 4 lbs.	24
Broilers, 1¼ to 2½	21
Broilers, over 4 lbs.	26

Selling Prices

United Farmers Co-Operative Co today has offered provisionally for fall dealers at the following prices:

Eggs.

Grade A, large, loose, doz.	24
Grade A, medium, doz.	22½
Grade B, medium, doz.	22
Grade C doz.	21

Butter.

No. 1 Creamery, prints	22½
No. 2 Creamery, prints	22

Hay and Straw

No. 2 timothy hay, baled ton $13.50 to $14.50; No. 3 timothy hay, ton, $11.00 to 12.00; straw, wheat baled, ton $10.00; oats straw, $7.50 to $8.50.

LINER COLLIDES WITH FREIGHTER

Premier Lyons Aboard Ship in Royal Roads

Victoria, July 18—(CP)—Passengers were taking off the S. S. M. S. Niagara early today as the Canadian Australasian liner lay at anchor in Royal Roads following a collision last night with the freighter King Egbert.

The crash, details of which were meager, occurred in the Straits of Juan de Fuca, 23 miles west of Race Rocks, apparently in a dense fog.

Both ships steamed into Victoria under their own power and the King Egbert, a lumber carrier now alongside a coal dock at Esquimalt, was smashed in from the forefoot and cut in to a depth of 10 feet in the main deck.

It was reported none of the passengers aboard the Niagara, among whom was Premier J. K. Lyons of Australia, suffered injury or discomfort. A member of the King Egbert's crew said he thought the Niagara was badly holed forward the stern.

The 142 passengers were taken off, the Niagara proceeded to Esquimalt drydock where her damage will be surveyed.

First to send out an S. O. S., the Niagara, steaming between Vancouver and Victoria to Honolulu, Fiji, Australia and Australia was carrying a fair list of passengers at the time of the collision. The King Egbert was chartered from Port Alberni on the west coast of Vancouver Island, Victoria to drop off a lumber cargo.

MAY ARGUE C.T.A. IN SUPREME COURT

Province Will Fight For Right to Deal With Liquor Problems

Toronto, July 18—(CP)—Although an appeal to the Privy Council may be taken from any part of the Ontario government can circumvent the decision of the supreme court of Canada that the Canada Temperance Act is in force in three Ontario counties, Premier Hepburn declared today his government would not have the constitutional issue involved argued before the Supreme Court.

Whether he goes to the Supreme Court or to the Privy Council the Premier indicated he intended to fight for the province's right to deal with its own liquor problems.

As he emphasized the difficulty of having federal liquor laws in force in one province and the province he pointed out that on Manitoulin Island, where the Canada Temperance Act supersedes the Liquor Control Act, Ontario government is powerless to enforce provincial liquor laws there. Although sale of liquor is forbidden on Manitoulin, the Premier pointed out that importation by consumers is not prohibited and there were no regulations to govern such consumption. "Why a man should import liquor from off the island and sit by the roadside and drink it if he wanted to," he said.

CHINESE WEDS 5-10 CENT GIRL

Wedding of Son of Chinese President to be 'Looked Into'

Cincinnati, O., July 18.—(AP)—W. A. Carmichael, District Head of the United States Immigration Service here, made known today his investigation would be made into the status of Jacks-Lin, son of the president of the Chinese Republic, whose Kentucky marriage to a Columbus Five-and-Ten cent store clerk Wednesday, was revealed.

Carmichael added, however, that he had no plans to go to Ohio on his own yet."

Initiating no steps will be taken until papers concerning the youth's wife have been assembled, he said there was no report to indicate at the moment.

The Columbus, O., Lin today ridiculed reports (not carried by the Cincinnati papers) that he had been married previously in his native land.

Lin told a reporter that he had had "romances" in China, but declared emphatically there was nothing to" the marriage report.

Miss Jacks-Lin, Ella Brown, 24, of Columbus, a former Five-and-Ten-cent store clerk, met Lin here when the young woman returned to the city from Europe.

Lin and his bride, said they intended to remain in Columbus until the expiration his Master's degree at Ohio State University next winter.

Young Lin said, they will go to China.

7 MINERS FOUND DEAD

Van Buren, Ky., July 18.—(AP)—Seven of the nine men entombed by a coal mine explosion here yesterday were found dead as rescue workers today, and all hope was abandoned for four others.

MILLIONS WAIT 6 MONTREALERS

$16,000 Left by Rich Brother to Sister's Family

New York, July 18.—(CP)—Abraham Harry Levy, stricken iron worker who learned last night that he had inherited more than a million dollars, today was considering exchanging his little east side shop for a home in Palestine.

In the midst of his family's excitement he sat in a corner of his crowded apartment, thinking of his old dream of living out the rest of his years among his own people in the Jerusalem of his forefathers.

Around him crowded scarcely a crowd of friends and neighbors, offering congratulations, hearing for the 100th time the fabulous story of the long-lost uncle with the $17,000,000 fortune.

"I actually think the old man will get it," said Max, one of his sons who is always talking about the corrections and the Jews' place in the homeland. As a boy in Russian Poland he saw the pogroms under the Czars.

"He is deeply religious and the new way of life appeals to him," he said. "But we are the new generation of Jews forsaking the old customs and the old faith. He doesn't like it much in America. If he does go, mother will go with him. All of the rest of us—" Max shrugged his shoulders.

Twenty years ago the miraculous uncle, Harry Koslack, left Poland and started digging diamonds out of the South African fields. When he died he left $6,000,000 to his sister, the ironworkers mother. That was five years ago and while the lawyers were untracing the submerged Starr family, the sister and her husband divided it with his five brothers and sisters in Montreal. The family has not yet been officially notified of its inheritance, and some of the children don't dare to hope it is true.

Bride And Groom Honored by Friends

Nonarlaw—On Monday evening of this week a large number of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McKeown gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. McKeown and showered them with many beautiful and useful presents. An address was read by Miss Kathleen McComb wishing them much and sincere happiness in which both Mr. and Mrs. McKeown replied in a few well chosen words, thanking the friends for their manifestation of friendship and the many gifts. They were given three hearty cheers and a tiger and all sang "They are jolly good fellows". Miss Evelyn Barnum delighted the guests with a number of piano solos and Mrs. (Rev.) W. G. Swayze played for community singing. A dainty lunch was provided by the ladies.

Mr. W. J. Barlow, Wor. Master of Marmora Lodge A.F.A.M. No. 229 left on Tuesday of this week for Hamilton, Ont., where he will attend the session of Grand Lodge in that city. He was accompanied by Mrs. Barlow and Miss Marjorie McKeown.

Miss Edna Bateman and Miss Blanche Penn are visiting friends in Whitby and Oshawa for several days this week.

Born on Tuesday, July 16th., to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McInroy, a son.

For COOL, Appetizing Desserts

Nothing Equals

BENSON'S CORN STARCH

GOLDEN RIVER CUSTARD

1 Cup Milk
1 Egg Yolk
2 Tbl. Sugar
1 Tbl. Benson's "Crown Brand" Corn Syrup
1 Tbl. Benson's Canada's Corn Starch
½ Teaspoon Vanilla
2 Cups Cream
2 Teaspoons Vanilla

Method.—Cook first six ingredients in a well greased double boiler, until mixture is thick. Remove from heat and freeze. When set commence and stir every 15 minutes. Serve with "Crown Brand" Corn Syrup and nuts.

COLD ORANGE PUDDING

1 Tablespoon Benson's Corn Starch
¼ Cup "Crown Brand" Corn Syrup
¼ Cup Sugar
¼ Salt
1½ Cups Milk
1 Tablespoon Orange Juice
1 Teaspoon Lemon Juice
1 Teaspoon grated Orange rind
2 Tablespoons Fruit Sugar

Method.—Scald one cup of milk in the top of a double boiler. Mix the salt and Benson's Corn Starch with the remaining quarter cup of milk and stir into the hot milk. Stir occasionally until the mixture thickens. Then cook 10 minutes over the water. Beat the egg yolk with the sugar, corn syrup and orange juice. Pour the hot mixture slowly over the egg mixture, stirring constantly. Return to double boiler and cook 2 minutes longer, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and remove the fruit. Cool slightly. Fold in the egg white which has been stiffly beaten and to which has been added the fruit sugar. Chill and serve.

Nothing equals its smooth fineness . . . the amount of nourishment it contains . . . its absolute purity and goodness. And nothing equals BENSON'S CORN STARCH for making delicious frozen desserts that will tempt even the most jaded appetite.

At the new low price there is no reason why you should accept ordinary corn starches . . . because BENSON'S is best . . . and has been so for 75 years.

Other Uses for "BENSON'S"

As a baby powder . . . safe and soothing for the most sensitive skin.

For sunburn its cooling action gives quick and positive relief.

Dusting tired feet with Benson's gives instant relief.

To allay the irritation of insect bites, dampen them and dust with Benson's.

BENSON'S CORN STARCH

One of the famous products of

The CANADA STARCH COMPANY, Limited

Fourth Thurlow Neighborhood News

Fourth Thurlow—The members of Bethany W.A.S. held their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Badgely and family, Deseronto, were Sunday guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Badgley.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Latta of Detroit and Miss Mabel Latta, White Lake, called Thursday evening of last week on Mrs. Harold Yeomans and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, Shiloh, visited Mr. and Mrs. S. Cooley and family one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bradshaw and Stella spent the 12th at Napanee.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Cole are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the arrival of a baby boy.

Mrs. Chas. Martin of Batavia, N. Y., visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. S. Cooley and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooke and Margaret of Stirling called Sunday afternoon on their daughter, Mrs. Grant Cole.

Miss Margaret Cooke remained with her sister for a short time.

A number from this line spent the 12th at Foxboro.

Rev. Merrick was a dinner hour guest on Sunday at the home of Mr. Robert Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradshaw called Sunday afternoon on Mr. and Mrs. Grant Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller also Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sparrow spent Sunday on the huckleberry rock.

Miss Stella Bradshaw called on her friend Miss Mildred Tweedy, 3rd line on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sprackett of Belleville also Mrs. Hourigan of Toronto spent Monday with the former's daughter, Mrs. Ernest Wilson.

9 Miners Trapped Near Lexington, Ky.

Lexington, Ky., July 19.—(AP)—Nine miners were trapped by an explosion in the mine fire mine of the Consolidation Coal Company at Van Lear, Ky., according to information received here by John F. Daniel, Chief of the Department of Mines and Minerals.

The fate of the trapped men was not immediately determined.

The explosion cut off their exit from the shaft.

Fifty rescuers and a rescue crew from the coal company were sent into the mine in an effort to rescue the men.

SISTER SOCIETIES ARE ENTERTAINED BY BURR'S L. A.

Burr's—On Thursday, Burr's Ladies' Aid were hostesses to Wellington and Ameliasburg Societies. There was a good attendance and a pleasant afternoon was spent.

On Tuesday evening about 60 friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Burr to tender a miscellaneous shower to Mr. and Mrs Guy Welch who had just returned from their honeymoon. They received quite a number of nice gifts and all wish them a long and happy married life. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies.

Mrs. Sine and daughters Anna and Ada, Rawdon, are spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. Ed McIntyre.

Mr. Noble, Ameliasburg, spent over Thursday evening and Friday with Mrs. Frank Burgitt.

Mrs. Frank Delaney visited his sister, Mrs. Clifford Hough on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Doolittle visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Noonan on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morden, Messrs Thos. Vancott and Jack Keay were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wash Pine on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Phyllis Oram, Mt. Pleasant, visited Mrs. Clifford Hough on Sunday.

On Sunday morning at the invitation of Melville Sunday School, the teachers and scholars of Burr's Sunday School journeyed to Melville to join schools for the day, and assist each other. There was a good representation from Burrs and all enjoyed the new idea.

Mrs. Harold Baker and Doris spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fox.

SWEARS ORDERS GIVEN TO DESTROY PAPERS

Washington, July 18. —(AP)— Testimony R. P. Herron, bond salesman for the Associated Gas and Electric Company, said he had received instructions from his employers to destroy all papers that may prove damaging in the Commission's investigations of activity for and against the Utilities Bill was received today by the Senate Lobby Committee.

30-HOUR WEEK APPROVED

Washington, July 17.—(AP)—United States House of Representatives Labor Committee today approved a bill to establish a 30-hour week and prevent child labor in industries sending products into interstate commerce.

GREEN PEA CROP SHOWS GOOD YIELD

Centre, July 18.—Mrs. Julia Fox has been quite a few weeks in Toronto with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fox accompanied Mr. Roy Anderson to Wellington Hospital, Toronto, on Sunday, to visit Mrs. Anderson who is a patient there. They found her improving in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Pulver and Morris spent Sunday at Selby visiting relatives.

The harvesting of the green pea crop for canning purposes is still keeping the men busy in this vicinity. The yield is good.

The recent rains have flattened a good deal of his grain owing to the rank growth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Redner and children also Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Redner enjoyed a motor picnic trip on Sunday.

Elmer Young spent Sunday afternoon at Oak Lake.

Rodney Burr of Burr's neighborhood is spending his holidays with his aunt Mrs. Willie Fox.

Congratulations to Hubert Townsend and Clayton Thompson who were successful in their entrance examinations.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hanna also Mr. and Mrs. Will Bush of Sidney were visitors in this community on Sunday.

Victoria W.A. entertained the W.A. of Centre, Redneraville and Albury at Victoria Church on Wednesday evening.

Barbershop Quartettes Sing in N. Y. Parks

New York, July 18.—(AP)—Treasured songs of the gay "nineties" dear to the heart of every barber shop warbler will echo through New York's parks.

With a tear in the eye for the "dear, dear days beyond recall," the Park Department is sponsoring a contest for barber shop quartettes. The grand prize will be a straight shave and an old-fashioned lavender shaving mug.

BONNETS FOR QUINTS

Toronto, July 18.—(CP) — Mrs. Roberta Goldring of Hollywood, a native here today, and announced she had brought with her five bonnets for the Dionne quintuplets made by Mrs. Harold Lloyd, wife of the film comedian. She will take the bonnets to Callander where they will be given to the babies.

MRS. G. BLACK A CANDIDATE

Wife of Former Speaker And Resides in Yukon

Ottawa, July 18.—(CP)—A resident of far-north Yukon constituency for 24 years, Mrs. George Black, wife of the former Speaker of the House of Commons, has announced definitely she will contest that riding as a Conservative candidate. Her husband, who since 1921 was member for Yukon in the Commons parliament, recently suffered a serious illness and was forced to retire from the speakership which he had held for four years.

Mrs. Black is a veteran of the gold country. She went into the Yukon over the trail of '98 and except for three war years when she was overseas, has lived there ever since. Her husband was commissioner of the Yukon when war broke out, and took a Yukon infantry company to Victoria for training. The company, with Captain Black in command, went overseas in January 1915. Lyman Black, youngest son of Captain and Mrs. Black, had enlisted as a private, While Mrs. Black acted as a volunteer nursing sister.

Special Music at Mount Pleasant Service

Rawdon—Master Roy Bruce of Marmora, has been engaged by the Master Roy Sharp at Wellman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McKeown and Francis and Mrs. and Mrs. Kenneth McKeown were guests at a miscellaneous shower on Monday evening in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McKeown.

On Sunday evening at Mount Pleasant Miss Vera McAdam gave a very fine address entitled, Freedom and the choir rendered an anthem "Wide, Wide, as the Ocean".

Mr. and Mrs. Ross McMullen, and Leon of Sidney Crossing, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharp, Wellman's.

A large number of Rawdon folk attended a shower in honour of Miss Vera Wright last Wednesday evening. The groom-to-be, Mr. Warren of Kingston, was also in attendance.

The Mount Pleasant pupils who tried their entrance examinations were also successful. Winnie Phillips, Anna Sharp, Edna Hubbs, Malcolm Sharp and Donald MacMillen were taught by Miss Muriel Milligan of the Allan School and Frank Spencer Jr. and Phyllis David were pupils of Mr. Williams' School with Miss Doris Rainnie, teacher.

The recent rains have lodged the grain crop and several fields of oats are rolled flat to the ground. However the pasture and hay crops are thriving with the abundance of moisture.

Miss Eida McMullen of Bine School passed her entrance with honors. Miss Florence Eggleton was the teacher.

Miss Ellen Sharp is spending this week with her daughter at Wellman's.

Mrs. Edgar McKeown, presided over the interesting programme at the close of Bethlay School on Sunday morning at which Rev. Merrick gave an interesting talk with "Who will go and work today?" and prayer was offered by Misses Edna Thrasher and Anna Sharpe.

Master Stanley Sharp read the First Psalm and Mrs. Arthur Phillips read a Missionary article at the meeting.

Mr. John Coggins delighted with a vocal solo with Miss Thrasher as accompanist. Miss Helen Smith gave a splendid talk on the latter subject. "Present day conditions in the China." The offering amounted to $4.15 and the Supt. Mr. James Sharp closed this helpful meeting.

Miss Ethel Reid is spending a few days this week in Toronto as sponsor for the school her family resided near for her sister, Miss Clara Reid, on Monday morning.

Rawdon folk attended various celebrations on the glorious twelfth. Those journeyed with Wellman's Lodge 172 and West Huntingdon while others visited Foxboro, Flinton, Bancroft and Lindsay. The Orange Lodge in Wellman's motored to the air and made an ideal day for marching and entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hubel of Akron, Ohio, are holidaying with relatives at Rawdon.

Mrs. Thomas McKeown and Mary Ann are spending a few days with Allan's Mills while Mr. and Mrs. Allan are holidaying in the States.

THIRD THURLOW WEEKLY NOTES

Third Thurlow, July 18— Mrs. Harold Wallbridge and son Douglas of Trenton are spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mills, Canniton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson and Mrs. Roy Pound called on Mr. H. Walker of Crowe Lake on Sunday afternoon.

The Misses Elsie and Hazel Langmaid of Belleville spent the tuesday last week with their aunt Mrs. Harry Pound.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garrett of Port Hope, Mrs. Pettit of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thackeray with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pound, Mrs. Harry Bruton of Colborne called on Mrs. A. Hall on Wednesday afternoon.

A large number from this line and Canniton attended Twelfth of July celebrations at Foxboro on Friday.

Miss Sylvia is remodelling the home of Mr. Clarence Copeland, Canniton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sprackett of Belleville also Mrs. Dave Hourigan of Toronto are spending the week with Mrs. Ernest Wilson.

Sunday guests at Mr. Walter Harrison's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Adams spent a day recently with Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Platt at Norham.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Badgely of Gilead are spending a few days with their son Mr. Howard and Mrs. Badgely.

Mrs. M. Geen, Mr. and Mrs. N. Carter and Mr. Wesley Morton spent Wednesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Morton at Avondale.

Miss Audrey Holbert is spending this week with friends in Kingston.

Miss D. Blackburn of Wabaswas, is holidaying with her aunt Mrs. Percy McTaggart and other relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. Harold Chesney of Toronto, is holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Badgely.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hill and family of Tweed were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Holbert.

Mrs. Thomas Moran and Myrtle of Halloway are spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coulson.

Mrs. Harry Finley and son of Jasper, Alta., are visiting her brother Mr. David Thompson and other relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. Wilson Fluke has returned to his home in Toronto after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lancaster.

Mrs. Ray Brent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. A. Beatty at Bethel.

Mrs. W. E. Kerr is spending this week with her sister, Miss S. Emmerson at Roslin.

Mr. Archie Reid who recently purchased the Emmerson property is now erecting a gasoline station.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Herrington and Miss Lucille, spent the dinner hour on Monday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Chappelle.

3094 MILE RECORD SET FOR SEAPLANE

ROME, July 18.— (AP) —Mario Stopponi reported today that he bettered the world's distance record for seaplanes when he landed at 9:15 a.m. at Sestern, British Somaliland, after a flight of 4,900 kilometers (3,044 miles) from Trieste.

The standing record of 4,300 kilometers was held by Francesco Agello, an Italian aviator, took off with a navigating officer and radio operator from Trieste day before yesterday in the air a little less than 25 hours.

Air Liner Crashes 11 Passengers Safe

Bushire, Persia, July 18.—(AP)— An air liner employed on the route between the Netherlands East Indies and the Netherlands, forced down on a beach six miles from here, today with today when it attempted to take off again and was destroyed by fire. The seven occupants, including seven passengers, escaped unhurt.

GIANT BATTLEPLANE TESTED IN SEATTLE

Seattle, July 18.—(AP)—A giant aerial battle cruiser, described by its builders as the largest land plane ever assembled in the United States awaited tests here before being submitted to the army corps.

The 18-ton ship, with its huge wing spreading 105 feet and an overall length of 70 feet, is powered with four 700-horsepower motors, equipped with automatic variable pitch constant speed propellers. It is designed capable of flying from 200 to 250 miles an hour.

HAVE MORE FUN ON MOTOR TRIPS

It's pretty hard to beat a motor trip for sheer fun—if you're well. But you have to feel good to enjoy play, as well as work.

Keep fit as a fiddle when you travel. Avoid the effects of motor car. Take along a bottle of Eno's "Fruit Salt." Whenever you get tired, or tired, or when you begin to feel the effects of change of cooking and lack of exercise, take a dash of Eno in a glass of water. Eno is the travellers' best friend. It makes a pleasant-tasting, thirst-quenching, refreshing drink.

Eno is alkaline. It neutralizes the acids of other foods . . . gives heartburn a short shrift. Enoclears the intestines of poisonous waste, cools the bloodstream, regularizes the entire inner system. Keep free from constipation and enjoy life, both at home and on the road. Eno does the trick. The action is gentle—natural. Every effect of Eno's "Fruit Salt" is pleasant and wonderful . . . and safe! Handy size 50c. Household size 85c.

RED & WHITE Food Stores

MIDSUMMER SALE

FASTER MORE ECONOMICAL FOODS & OUTSTANDING VALUES....

CHECK THESE EXTRA SAVINGS

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday

RED and WHITE
Dry Ginger Ale - 2 quart bottles 25c
Plus Usual Refundable Bottle Charge.

RED and WHITE
PEANUT BUTTER - 1½ lb. tin 15c
IT PAYS TO BUY
Mazda Electric Bulbs Now Only 20c

A Delicious Cereal
OAT PUFFS In The Cellophane Bag 2 for 19c

PEARL White Naptha
SOAP 5 bars 19c
For general cleaning
Snowflake 2 pkgs. 15c

Clark's Pork & Beans 2 squat tins 19c
EXTRA SPECIAL
Welches Grape Juice med. pints 25c
PREMIUM BRAND
Fancy Red Salmon No. 1 tins 23c
FALCON BRAND
Pure Rich Cocoa 1 lb. square tin 15c
DOCTORS RECOMMEND
Shredded Wheat 2 pkgs. 25c

WHY BAKE WHEN YOU CAN BUY THESE?
FANCY BISCUITS CHOCOLATE MARSHMALLOW, SANDWICH and COCONUT TOP BISCUITS 2 lb. 25c

RECKITT'S
BLUE
Use it for your Summer washing and notice how white your summer togs are PACKAGE OF 2 CUBES.
9c

Jewel Shortening 1-lb. Carton 13c
FEATHERSTRIP FRESH
Baker's Coconut lb. 23c

OVALTINE
Hot or cold this health creating beverage will prove satisfying small can 38c
large can 98c

Fruit Snacks
Delicious Fruit Flavored Clear Candy Individually Wrapped
YOU WILL LIKE IT! lb. 15c

QUALITY ALWAYS HIGHER THAN PRICE

Special
VACATION FARES

Get particulars of these Bargains in comfortable travel during pleasing Fruit vacation. Save money. Travel by rail and avoid congested highways. Return Trip Tickets.

For long or short vacations—or week-end trips to the country or seashore, ask about

LOW WEEK-END FARES

Going Friday Noon to 2.00 p.m. Sunday, returning leave destination by 12.01 midnight. On sale all year.

21 DAY FARES to

Lower St. Lawrence and Maritime Provinces, until Sept. 2, and to Maine Coast, until Sept. 30.

16 DAY FARES to

National Parks—Sault Ste. Marie, etc., until Sept. 16.

45 DAY FARES to

Western Canada (until Sept. 30), Pacific Coast (until Nov. 10)—good for passage in (A) Standard Sleeping Cars—(B) Tourist Sleeping Cars—(C) Coaches.

ALL-EXPENSE GREAT LAKES CRUISES

June 22 to Sept. 18.

SPECIAL SUMMER FARES

to Chicago, Detroit, Manitoulin and many United States points, until Sept. 30.

TRAVEL BY RAIL

Ask any Railway Agent about low fares and vacation resorts.

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS
CANADIAN PACIFIC

CHARGE TEACHERS DIVORCE HUBBIES

U. S. Women Refer to Wedded Teachers as London Lifts Ban

London, July 17 (CP Cable)—The London County Council today lifted the ban on married women teachers.

There are 12,000 women teachers in London's schools, and hitherto they had to resign when they got married.

Los Angeles, July 17 (AP) Charges that many women school teachers throughout the United States are divorcing their husbands to hold their jobs but maintaining marital relations with them were made by several speakers at the closing session of the National Association of women lawyers.

Perettia Lawyer Randolph, Los Angeles, newly-elected President of the association said yesterday in Cashford's many teachers conceal their marriages, while others obtain divorces to escape discrimination against married women.

"Am speaking somewhat because teachers come to Nevada for convenient divorces," said Police Cohn, the only woman lawyer in the State of Nevada. "I've came in on the day I let them. Four of them told me they wanted such divorces. Most of them intend, at some time, to remarry their divorced husbands."

ASK FOR Kellogg's

BIG VALUE in cereals!

IF YOU WANT the biggest possible value in the cereal you buy—insist on Kellogg's Corn Flakes! With Kellogg's you get the most for your money. Many servings for only a few cents. The season's biggest value!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes are the most popular ready-to-eat cereal in the world. They're oven-fresh. Because they're heat-sealed in the patented WAXTITE inner bag. And they're flavor-perfect. No imitation has ever matched their delicious flavor.

Be sure, when you ask for Corn Flakes, that you get Kellogg's. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

OVEN-FRESH FLAVOR-PERFECT

HOW THEY PARK FOR MERE NICKEL

Oklahoma City, July 17— Nickel-in-the-slot parking was introduced in Oklahoma City, Tuesday. Two hundred meters, invented by Carl Magee, attorney and publisher, have been installed.

A motorist drives his car into a space blocked off with white lines along the curbing. When he deposits a nickel in the meter, set up at the edge of the curb, a flag flies up, indicating that the meter has been "paid."

Then a hand starts moving slowly across a graduated scale. When it shows the hour is up, the flag drops. Following that the car for being in the space without its next paid.

Queen Bee Robot Plane Brought Down

Portsmouth, England, July 17 — (AP)—A new-type anti-air-craft gun on the battleship Rodney today brought down one of the new "Queen Bee" pilotless radio planes in battle manoeuvres staged by the combined fleets of the Mediterranean fleets in the channels for King George.

Shells from the Rodney struck the plane's wing and sent it into the water, a builder of the robot planes, just ahead for actual battle practice, crashed shortly after being launched from a cruiser, but was not hit.

CANADIANS IN LONDON HONOR EXPORTSMEN

LONDON, July 17.—(CP-Havas) Canada's next Governor-General Lord Tweedsmuir, was guest of honor at a luncheon tendered by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce here today.

"I am warned off every variety of politics, and will be for the next five years," he said smilingly.

THE DUCHESS AND THE QUEEN

Her Royal Highness, the Duchess of York at LEFT, shown with Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, women's singles tennis champion, at the charity ten-nis matches staged at West Hill, Highgate, London. Lady Crosfield sponsored the affair, and many of the stars who took part in the Wimbledon championships played.

LATE HENRY OLIVER IS LAID TO REST

Empey Hill—Mr. and Mrs. Percy Akey of St. Catharines and Mrs. W. Akey of Kingston spent the week-end with their parents Mr. and Mrs. D. Akey.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kimmerly of Windsor are visiting their friends in this vicinity.

Miss Hester Stapley Morven, spent Sunday at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hudson were Sunday visitors at Mr. Ernest Waddington's.

Rev. and Mrs. Smith spent the tea hour on Thursday at Mr. W. Alexander's.

Mr. T. J. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. R. McMath called on Mr. and Mrs. J. McMath Sr. in Desoronto on Sunday.

Mrs. M. Detlor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Alexander, Dorothy and Kenneth Alexander of Arden, Mr. and Mrs. W. Winter, Messrs. Harold Winter and Kenneth Penny were Sunday visitors at Mr. S. E. Winters'.

Miss Marguerite Woods of Selby is holidaying with her cousins the Misses Doris and Delnis Kimmerly.

Mrs. A. Penny, Napanee spent the tea hour on Sunday at Mr. W. Penny's.

Mr. and Mrs. R. McMath spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. R. Harvey.

Master Mack Mowbray is ill. Friends hope he will soon be better again.

Mrs. Baker of Newburg has returned home after spending a few days with her niece Mrs. E. E. Wimler.

Mr. McGillivray McMath spent the tea hour on Sunday at Mr. Geo. Dupre's.

A large crowd assembled at the funeral of the late Henry Oliver on Wednesday to pay their last respects to an old and highly respected neighbor. Rev. W. Smith conducted the service and Mrs. R. Price and Mr. O. Stapley sang a suitable duet. Interment in Desoronto cemetery.

UNION VALE NOTES OF NEIGHBORHOOD

Union Vale—Mrs. Harry Cornell and daughter Caroline of Maple Wood, New Jersey spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Vincent and Mr. F. Vincent.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sullivan and family of Belleville visited with Mr. and Mrs. Neal Pearsall.

Mr. Lambert Riedell of Kingston is spending a few weeks with his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Vincent.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Tubbs and family were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. L. Jones of Hillier.

Miss Reta Pearsall is visiting with relatives in Belleville this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Vincent, Mrs. Clifford Vincent and George spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bluff of Adolphustown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Pearsall and Aileen were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Hubbs of Bloomfield.

Mrs. Viola Reynolds and Riha returned home on Saturday after visiting a week with her son Mr. Keith Reynolds at Alymer.

Mr. Carman Sullivan of Belleville is visiting this week with his cousin, Mr. Leland Pearsall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Vincent and George and Mr. F. Vincent and Mrs. Cornell and Caroline were Wednesday evening callers with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bonsell of Bonga's Corners.

Mrs. Earl Snider and children of Consecon, Mrs. W. Henderson and little Ruth Longwell of Demorestville called on Mrs. F. Pearsall one afternoon last week.

WEED INSPECTOR ADDRESSES W. I.

Wooler—The Wooler Branch of the Northumberland Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Orvis on Wednesday afternoon owing to the heat not many were present. The guest speaker Clarence Wessels, weed inspector of Murray township gave an excellent address having twenty five different weeds exhibited, and was able to give information as to noxious weeds throughout the county and desired co-operation of the Women's Institute to help clean up on this menace to our roadsides and farms.

The President Mrs. George Anderson presided over the open air meeting.

Clinton Ellis accompanied by Mr. Taverron of Toronto spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker.

Mrs. Hinchcliff of Syracuse and her daughter Mrs. Munroe spent a few days with their aunt Mrs. Silas Palmer and Mr. Palmer.

Neta Ellis leaves on July 12th for Montreal by train and on to Quebec by bus to board the "Empress of Britain" for England, a fast trip, the journey expecting to reach destination on the 18th.

Mr. Cook returning accompanied by Mr. Lishman, Nigeria, West Africa, called on Enil Terrill on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Terrill are spending this week end at Picton at the Royal Hotel, guests of Mr. A. Thomas of Calgary who with her sister Mrs. Jackson of Calgary are spending a month in Picton.

Mrs. William Parks of Codrington is the guest of Mrs. Fanny Clark.

Mrs. S. Palmer accompanied her niece to Syracuse for a few weeks.

F. Weeks and his class of 'teen age boys are camping at Grand River.

Patricia Poulter is having a holiday in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hinforth are back on the huckleberry plains.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lawson and Mr. and Mrs. Ken. Gotsell spent Sunday at Cobourg.

Mrs. Agnes and Ria Milligan of Toronto are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Terrill.

Raspberries are ripe and plentiful but cherries are scarce.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Herrington of Richmond Hill and Mrs. Herrington of Frankford spent Monday with the Terrills.

Mrs. N. McColl returned home from Picton and Wellington.

Mrs. Maude Ellis of Syracuse, N. Y. spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott and Mrs. E. McConnell spent Sunday at Presqu'ile.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest King of Toronto spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. P. Goode.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Anderson of Edinburgh are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Sharpe of Belleville spent Sunday with Mrs. Emma Sharpe.

Howard Reed of Bloomfield called on friends on Sunday.

BALL GAME IS WELL ATTENDED

Christian Street—Mr. Herb Rutter had the misfortune to smash the car of Mr. Hagey in a cow stanchion on Monday. His friends hope it will soon heal.

Quite a number attended the ball game between Crofton and Fruit Growers at Crofton on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Harold Noxon, Mrs. Cecar Sparks and Mrs. Harold Cross attended the meeting of Quinte Chapter, I.O.D.E. at Ameliasburgh on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Nellie Anderson of Belleville spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Warden.

Mrs. Hanson Huff and family of Picton spent Friday with her mother Mrs. James Noxon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Calnan and children of Downey's spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Allen Calnan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Fetterly of Aurora spent several days last week with her mother Mrs. D. W. Allison and attended the Orange celebration at Fozboro on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Demsmore Doolittle spent Sunday with their daughter Mrs. Harold Noon and Mr. Noon.

Mrs. Basil Alnaworth entertained their daughter Florence, Mrs. Douglas and baby Jean last week.

Mrs. Willet Norton of Rochester and Mrs. Ida Hunt of Bloomfield are visiting Mrs. S. J. Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Warden and Mrs. Nellie Anderson enjoyed a motor trip on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Burr and Ronald in their new car.

Miss Mary Huff of Mount Pleasant spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Marion Werden.

Miss Dorothy and Master Lawrence Vandusen spent Sunday with their aunt Mrs. Harold Cross and family.

Harvesting hay and green peas is still a big job with the farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. MacDonald also Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ned Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Hern Rutter.

Sunday school was well attended on Sunday but there is still room for many more.

The many friends of Mr. F. W. Bovay of Crofton are very sorry to hear of his serious illness in Belleville Hospital where he had one operation and will have another shortly. Everyone hopes he will soon be restored to health.

FLOUR

A&P Canadian Quality WHERE ECONOMY RULES

OUR OWN TEAS

BLENDED	lb.	45¢
INDIA
SPECIAL BLEND	lb.	35¢

DAILY GROWTH

Growing Mash	100 lb. Bag	2.05
Oyster Shell	100 lb. Bag	99c

The World's Largest Selling Soap

P & G SOAP 10 Bars 33c

The Soap of Beautiful Women

LUX Toilet Soap 5 Cakes 25c

GENUINE SPRING

LAMB

Fronts	Boneless and Rolled Upon Request	lb. 15c
Loins	Flank On	lb. 23c
Chops	Cut From Loin	lb. 29c

CUT FROM RIB, Lb. 27c

SWIFT'S PREMIUM

Ham Whole or Half lb. 29c

SMOKED BREAKFAST STYLE

Bacon Centre Cuts and Steaks, lb. 27c By the Piece lb. 25c

DOMESTIC OR EXSTIRSIT

SHORTENING Lb. Print 12¢

SUNNYFIELD PASTRY 7 lb. Reg. 17¢

FEATURED for this WEEK-END

AYLMER

Pork and Beans 4 16 oz. Tins 21c

LIBBY'S

Tomato Juice 6 10½ oz. Tins 25c

QUAKER, KELLOGG'S, POST TOASTIES,

Corn Flakes 3 Pkgs. 20c

ENCORE

Olives Plain, Queen 10 oz. Bot. 19c

ENCORE

Mayonnaise 16 oz. Jar 25c 8½ oz. Jar 15c

SWIFT'S GOLDEN WEST

FOWL 4½ to 5 lbs. Average lb. 21c

Sweet Pickled—Boneless and Rolled

Side Pork lb. 21c

COLD PLATE SPECIAL!

Jellied Veal Loaf, Veribest Loaf, Dutch Loaf, Mecaroni and Cheese Loaf lb. 25c

FRESH HADDOCK

Fillets lb. 15c

FRESH CAUGHT

Whitefish lb. 15c

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

FOLLOW the CROWDS to BAKER'S

There's a Goodyear Tire Bargain to suit every purse

Below are illustrated the three well-known treads of the three different Goodyear Tires for passenger cars. And at the right are our low prices on these good Goodyear Tires. Take your pick. Each one is a bargain. You cannot equal these tire values elsewhere. In addition to Goodyear's written guarantee, we'll give you our expert personal tire service.

All-Weather		Pathfinder		Speedway
Size 4.40 x 21	$9.50	Size 30 x 3½	$5.55	Size 30 x 3½	$4.75
Size 4.50 x 21	$10.45	Size 4.40 x 21	$7.85	Size 4.40 x 21	$6.05
Size 4.75 x 19	$11.65	Size 4.50 x 21	$8.80	Size 4.50 x 21	$6.60
Size 5.00 x 19	$12.60	Size 4.75 x 19	$9.70	Size 4.75 x 19	$7.35
Size 5.00 x 20	$12.80	Size 5.00 x 19	$10.40	Size 5.00 x 19	$8.00

Baker's Service

3 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 606

FLAVOUR

. . . better flavour is the answer. That is also why most people prefer QUAKER CORN FLAKES.

Quaker Corn Flakes are guaranteed to be the most delicious corn flakes you have ever eaten—or your money back. Try them once and you'll come back for more.

REVOLT IN THE DESERT

by

T. E. LAWRENCE

Others of the Howeitat came in, and there was gay talk about the war. I distributed the King's presents; and told them, in their laughter, that Nasir had got his month's leave to Mecca. The King, said enthusiast for the revolt, believed that his servants should work as manfully. So he would not allow visits to Mecca, and the poor men found continual military service heavy banishment from their wives. We had lasted a hundred times that, if he took Akaba, Nasir would certainly go holiday; but he had not really believed in its coming until I gave him Hussein's letter the evening before. In gratitude he sold me Ghazala, his regal camel he won from Auda Howeitat. As her owner I became one of new interest to the Abu Tayi.

After lunch, by pretence of sleep, I got rid of the visitors; and then abruptly asked Auda and Mohammed to walk with me to see the ruined fort and remount. Nasir and others were about to touched on their present correspondence with the Turks. Auda began to laugh Mohammed to look disgusted. At last they explained that Auda's real and haunting had taken Auda's seal and written to the Governor of Maan, offering to accept the Sherif's cause. The Turks had replied gladly, promising great rewards. Mohammed asked for something on account. Auda then heard of it, waited till the money-packet was in his hand, caught him, robbed him to the skin; and was deriving additional fun share of the spoils. A farcial story, and we laughed richly over it; but were left behind.

They were angry that no guns or troops had yet come to their support; and that no rewards had been given them for taking Akaba. They were anxious to know how I had learnt of their secret dealings, and how much more I knew. We were on a slippery ledge. I played on their fear by my unnecessary amusement, quoting in careless laughter, as if they were my own words, actual phrases of the letters they had exchanged. This created the impression desired.

Parentically I told them Feisal's entire force was coming up; and how Allenby was sending rifles guns, high explosive, food and money of gold. Finally I suggested that Auda's present expenses in hospitality must be great, would it help if I advanced something of the great gift of Feisal would make him, perhaps, when he arrived? Auda saw that the immediate moment would not be unprofitable: that Feisal would be highly profitable; and that the Turks would be always with him if other resources failed. So he agreed, in a very good temper, to accept 20 gold sovereigns: and with it to keep the Howeitat well-fed and contented.

It was near sunset. Zaal had killed a sheep and we ate again in the mouth. After meal I remainded with Mufadhil (to draw Auda's allowance), and of Rahiman, servant of Mohammed's who, so he whispered me, would receive any little thing I wished to send him separately. We rode all night towards Akaba, where I recalled Nasir from sleep, to run over our last business. Then I paddled out in a derelict canoe from "Eurydus jetty" to the Hardings just as the first dawn crept down the western peaks.

I went below, bathed and slept till the afternoon. When I came on deck the ship was rushing grandly down the narrow gulf under full steam for speed. My appearance caused a sensation, for they had not dreamed I could reach Guweira overland, and yet get back in less than six or seven days, to catch the homeward mail. We rang up Cairo and announced that the situation at Guweira was thoroughly good, and our reaching abroad. This may have been hardly true; but since Syria lay to the west, stirring hereof, we must reduce impolitic truth to keep her confident and ourselves a legend. The crowd wanted book-heroes, and would not understand how more human old Auda was because, after battle and murder, his heart yearned towards the defeated enemy and subject at his free choice, to be spared or killed: and therefore never so lovely.

CHAPTER XIV

Pricking The Enemy

Vessels steamed up the Gulf of Akaba. Petrol landed, and with him Jaafar, his staff, and Joyce, the fairly confidential. There came the armoured cars, Goslett, Egyptian labourers and thousands of troops. To repair the six weeks' peace, Falkenhayn had been down to advise the Turks, and his fine intelligence made them worthier our opposition. Maan was a splendid commander. Under Behjet, the old G.O.C. Sinai. He had six thousand infantry, a regiment of cavalry and mounted infantry, and had entrenched Maan till it was impregnable according to the standard of manoeuvre war. A flight of aeroplanes operated daily thence. Great supply dumps had been collected.

By now the Turkish preparations were complete; they began to move. Concluding that their objective was Guweira, I made for Akaba. Two thousand infantry pushed out to Abu el Lissan, and fortified it. Cavalry kept the outskirts, to contain a possible Arab counter-stroke from the Wadi Musa side.

This nervousness was our cue. We would play with them and provoke them to go for us. In Wadi Musa, where the natural obstacles were so tremendous that the human defending factor might behave as badly as it liked, and yet hold the place against attack.

To bait the hook, the men of neighbouring Delagha were set busy. The Turks, full of spirit, put in a counter-stroke, and suffered sharply. Nr. rubbed in the peasantry of Wadi Musa the rich booty now enjoyed by their rivals of Delagha. Maulud, the old war-horse, went up with his mule-mounted Bedouins, and quartered himself among the famous ruins of Petra. The encouraged Lieutenant, under their shy eyed sheikh, Khalil, began to foray out across the plateau, and to snaffle by twos and threes Turkish riding or transport animals, together with the rifles of their escorting guards. This went on for weeks, while the irritated Turks became bolder and hotter.

We could also prick the Turks indiscomfort by adding General Salmond for his promised long-distance air raid on Maan. As it was distant, Salmond had chosen Stem with other tried pilots of Rabegh and Weih, and told them to do their best. They had experience of forced landing on desert surfaces, and could pick out an unknown destination across unmapped hills: Stem spoke Arabic perfectly. The flight had to be air-contained, but its commander was full of resources and display, like other bundles of nerves, who to obtain theirmastered old cool unseeing things. On this occasion he ordered low flying, to make sure the aim; and pulled the machine-guns, and dropping thirty-two bombs in and about the unsuspecting station. Two bombs into the barracks killed thirty-five men and wounded fifty. Eight struck the engine-shed, heavily damaging the plant and shops. A bomb in the General's kitchen finished his cook and his breakfast. Four fell on the aerodromes. Despite the abrupt manner of their departure the aeroplanes returned safely to their temporary landing ground at Kuntilla above Akaba.

That afternoon they patched the machines, and after dark slept under their wings. In the following dark they were off. Once more, three of them this time, to Abu el Lissan, where the sight of the great camp had made Stem's mouth water. They bombed the horse lines and stampeded the animals, visited the tents and scattered the Turks. As on the day before, they flew low and were much hit, but not fatally. Long before noon they were back in Kuntilla.

Stent looked over the remaining petrol and bombs, and decided they were enough for one more effort. So he gave directions for every one to look for the battery which had troubled them in the morning. They started in the midday heat. Their loads were so heavy they could get no height, and therefore caught sight during over the crest behind Abu el Lissan, and then the valley of about three hundred feet. The Turks, always somnolent at noon, were taken completely by surprise. Thirty bombs were dropped: one silenced the battery, the others killed dozens of men and animals. Then the lightened machines soared up and home to El Arish. The Arabs rejoiced: the Turks were seriously alarmed. Behind the scenes they set to digging shelters, and when his aeroplanes had been repaired disposed them innocously about the plateau for camp defence.

By air we had disturbed the Turks: by irritative raids we were hiring them towards a weak objective. Our third resource to ruin their offensive was to hinder the railway, whose need would make them apply up the striking force on defensive duties. Accordingly we began on many demolitions for mid-September.

I decided also to revive the old idea of mining a train. Something more vigorous and certain than automatic mines was indicated, and I had imagined a direct firing by electricity, of a charge under the locomotive. The British sappery encouraged me to try, especially General Wright, the chief engineer in Egypt, whose experience took a sporting interest in my irregularities. He sent me the reconditioned tools: an exploder and connecting wire cable. With them I went on board H.M.S. Humber, our new guardship, and introduced myself to Captain Seagre, in command.

Seagre was fortunate in his ship, which had been built for Brazil, and was much more magnificently furnished than British monitors; and we were doubly fortunate in him and in this. For he was the spirit of hospitality. His inquiring nature took interest in the shore, and saw the comic side, even of our petty disasters. To tell him the story of a failure was to laugh at it, and always for a good story he gave me a box, balik, and tea with civilised trappings, free from every suspicion of blown sand. His kindness and help served us in fits of visits to Egypt for repairs, and enabled us to hammer on against the Turks through month after month of feckless disappointment.

The exploder was in a formidable locked white box, very heavy. We might open it round a hatchet handle, and pushed it down without touching the slip. The wire was heavy rubber-insulated cable. We cut it in half, fastened the ends to the terminals on the box, and transmitted shocks to one another convincingly. It worked.

I fetched detonators. We sniffed the free ends of the cable into one stopped in the handle: nothing followed. We tried again and again ineffectually before we grew it. At last Seagre rang his bell for the gunner warrant officer who knew all about explosives. He suggested special electric detonators. The ship carried some, and gave me three of them. We joined one up with our box, and when the switch was crashed down it popped off beautifully. So I felt that I knew all about it and turned the business over to Pisani, said.

Of targets, the most promising and easiest to reach were the Hejaz railway, a water station eighty miles south of Maan. A smashed train would embarrass the whole enemy. For men, I would have the tried officers of Stent. At the same time the expedition would test the three Hauranni peasants whom I had added to my personal followers. In view of the new importance of the railway, there was need for us to learn its dialect, the construction and weakness of its skin-frame-work, and its names and roads. These three fellows, Rahail, Asaf, and Hemeid, would teach me their home-affairs—imperceptibly, as we went on business, chatting.

To make sure of the arrested train required guns and machine-guns. For the first, why not French-marines? for the second Lewis guns? According Egypt drew two powerful sergeant-instructors from the Army School at Zeitoun to teach gunners of Arabs in Akaba how to use such things. Seagre gave them quarters in his ship, since we had, as yet, no convenient English camp ashore.

Their names may have been Yells and Brooke, but became Lewis and Stokes, after their jealously-loved tools. Lewis was an Australian, long, thin and sinuous, his supple body lounging in unmilitary curves. His hard face, arched eyebrows, and predatory nose set off the peculiarly Australian air of reckless willingness and capacity to do something very soon. Stokes was a stocky, English yeoman, very human, fat and silent; always watching for an order to obey.

Lewis, full of suggestion, emerged bursting with delight at what had been well done whenever a thing happened. Stokes never offered opinion until after action, when he would, after his cup reflectively, and painstakingly recount the mistakes he must have made, avoid. Both were admirable men. In a month, without common language or interpreter, they had made the Arabs love classes and taught them their weapons with remarkable precision. More was not required for an empirical habit appeared to agree with the spirit of the Bedouin, and aids better than complete scientific knowledge.

(To Be Continued)

Little Benny's Note Book

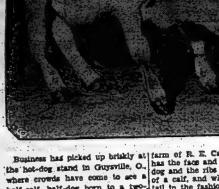
Pop was smoking and thinking in his private chair and ma said, Some people really seem to have a 3rd insight into other peoples affairs, and never have you ever met anyone like that, Willyum?

Well, I knew one chap who always seemed to have an uncanny sense when he was expected to pay the check, and he invarably disapeered as though by magic, pop said, and ma said, Said Mews had often spoken about this friend of hers. Mrs. Spofford her name is, but this afternoon was the first time I ever met her in the anual flesh. Really she could read my ina and outs like an open transparant book. She seemed to be hidden from her, ma said.

Did she tell you that you have an insurmable habit of maligning your diamond ring once or twice a week, and that I had it in my vest pocket at the very moment she was speaking to you? pop said, and ma said. She doesn't even bother with such petitle trifles as that. I was quite worried about that thing, ere it is to me, ma said.

With pop did and ma put it on her finger saying. The first thing you know you will be saying nothing pleases me more than to revere my wife when it comes to wearing them on the other hand, the shoe is on an entirely diffrent foot, and that's certeny me all over.

Amazing pop said, and ma said, And I could add it has an even temperment.



Even as you and I, pop said, and ma said. She said for instants I never like to go to extremes. Exercise best makes me very uncomfortable, she told me, and at the same time I have almost a horrer of having my toes or my nose numbed by the cold. Now is that remarkable or not? ma said.

You may well ask, pop said. Did she tell you that you refuse to believe that you occasionally snore in plain by said, and ma said, Now you're getting silly.

And she started to do the crossword puzzle and pop got in back of the sporting page.

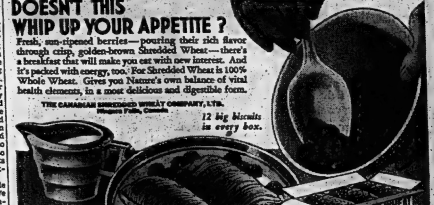
'DOGGY CALF' ATTRACTS ATTENTION

Business had picked up briskly at the hot-dog stand in Guysville, O., where crowds have come to see a half-calf, half-dog born to a two-year-old Jersey cow on the dairy farm of R. E. Calvert. The animal has the face and forelegs of a bulldog and the ribs and hind-quarters of a calf. Yelps and whines and wags its tail in the fashion of a dog. The what-you-may-call it is pictured.

3.6 cts. Passenger Mile Too High, 2 Cent Mile Rate is Favored

Washington, July 17 (AP)—An examiner's report to the Interstate Commerce Commission today had unreasonable the present regular basic passenger fare railroad rate structure throughout the United States. It is 3.6 cents per passenger mile.

The report, made after an extensive investigation, recommended as a reasonable maximum future fare basis a rate of two cents per passenger mile in coaches and three cents per passenger mile in pullmans.



DOESN'T THIS WHIP UP YOUR APPETITE?

Fresh, sun-ripened berries—pouring their rich flavor through crisp, golden-brown Shredded Wheat—there's a breakfast that will make you eat with new interest. And it's packed with energy, too. For Shredded Wheat is 100% Whole Wheat. Gives you Nature's own balance of vital health elements, in a most delicious and digestible form.

THE CANADIAN SHREDDED WHEAT COMPANY, LTD.
Niagara Falls, Canada

12 big biscuits in every box.

SHREDDED WHEAT

MADE IN CANADA — OF CANADIAN WHEAT

Crack Train, Hits Trailer, Derailed, Spreads Destruction Three Blocks

Upper Sandusky, O., July 17 — (AP)—The Liberty Limited, crack train of the Pennsylvania Railroad, crashed into a truck trailer, then derailed here today, spreading destruction for three blocks and causing injuries to 10 persons.

The train sheared off the platform of a freight depot, splintered freight cars, and snapped and bent rails before it stopped with the locomotive and tender overturned.

Joe Loula of Detroit, noted negro fighter was among the passengers in the wreck, but was not injured.

Three persons were injured.

DOMINION STORES' GIGANTIC TEA SALE

TEAS PERSONALLY SELECTED TESTED BY 'DOMINION'S OWN TEA EXPERTS

Dominion's Selected Fine Teas provide that refreshing aroma—only GOOD TEAS can give—You'll marvel that such excellent teas can be obtained at these low prices.

Domino Red Package	Reg. Price 35c lb.	Sale 1/2-lb. pkg. 20c	39c
Richmell Blue Label	Reg. Price 45c lb.	Sale 1/2-lb. pkg. 25c	49c
Richmello Yellow Label	Reg. Price 60c lb.	Sale 1/2-lb. pkg. 33c	29c
Golden Tip Reg. Price 1/4-lb. 40c		Sale 1/4-lb. pkg.	37c
Green Bamboo Japan	Reg. Price 50c lb.	Sale 1/4-lb. pkg.	35c
Special Blend Reg. Price 35c lb.		Sale 1/2-lb. pkg.	35c

THESE SPECIAL PRICES EFFECTIVE ONLY UNTIL WEDNESDAY, JULY 24th.

Chipso Large Pkge. 17c

AYLMER PEAS No. 4 Sieve 2 Tins 19c

GOLD SOAP 7 Bars 25c

CORN FLAKES QUAKER OR KELLOGG'S Pkge. 7c

CORNED BEEF BOVRIL OR EMERY Tin 10c

MONARCH FLOUR 24 LB. BAG 69c

HERRING In TOMATO SAUCE. 14 oz. tin 10c

DAIRY SALT 2 LB. BAG 39c

TOMATO JUICE 20-oz. tin 3 for 14c

PAROWAX 1 lb. Pkg. 2 for 25c

ZINC RINGS dozen 20c

Junket Ice Cream POWDER pkg. 10c

FRUITS

ONTARIO COOKING ONIONS 10 lbs. 21c

TRANSPARENT APPLES 2 lbs. 15c

IMPORTED LIMES 21c doz.

ONTARIO CUCUMBERS 5c each

Manyflowers SOAP 3 Cakes 13c

Marmalade GLASSCO'S 32-oz. Jars 25c

Pineapple SINGAPORE SLICED 2 19-oz. Tins 19c

POTTED MEATS Clark's 3 Tins 25c

SHREDDED WHEAT 2 Pkgs. 23c

Peanuts Salted lb 10c Spinach Smart's 2 No. 2 tins 25c

Certo Bottle 29c Beets Whole or Cut 2 No. 2 tins 21c

Mustard Prepared 6-oz. Bot. 9c Peaks Fancy Pkg. 27c

SOMETHING NEW! BAYSIDE

Olives QUEENS 17½ oz. Jar STUFFED 11-oz. Jar 25c

DOMINION STORES

MUTILATION OF CHILDREN CHARGE

Italy Tells of Raid on Colony on May 31st Last

By A. K. STUNTZ

Associated Press Foreign Staff

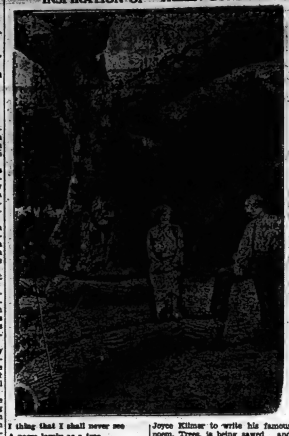
Rome, July 18—(AP)—Italy charged Ethiopian tribesmen today with "mutilating numerous children" in a mass attack on distinctive natives of Eritrean Danakil.

Widespread indignation was aroused as the full details of the alleged raid on the Italian colony May 31, charged in a propaganda ministry communique, were published for the first time in this morning's Italian press.

Premier Benito Mussolini's own newspaper, Popolo D'Italia, reviewing the Yeha-Ethiopian crisis in an article believed to have been written or at least inspired by Il Duce himself, asserted:

"A duel opened with arms cannot be resolved except in arms."

A government spokesman gave assurance that Italy watched developments toward Ethiopian mobilization and a special session of the League of Nations Council, confident of its own preparedness and the justifications of its cause.



He said that Italy was keenly aware of Ethiopian military preparations, indicating it would not be caught napping by an imminent Ethiopian declaration of general mobilization.

He insisted that Italy was sure Ethiopia did not want peace, citing Ethiopian tactics in the conciliation commission which broke up when representatives of the African empire sought to take up boundary issues.

BAY OF QUINTE W. I.

The Bay of Quinte W. I. held their regular July meeting at the pleasant home of Mrs. Joe Magginson, Bayside, with the President, Mrs. Rexilend presiding. There was a large attendance of members and visitors. The meeting opened by singing the Opening Ode followed by Lord's prayer. The roll call "My favorite vegetable and how I like it served", was well responded to. Several important items of business were dealt with and plans made for the girls' sewing projects. Mrs. C. Holmes was appointed to attend "Home Conference" class this fall. The program was in charge of Mrs. Joe Magginson who gave a very interesting talk on her trip last winter to California, Phyllis and Evelyn Frost delighted everyone with two songs and guitar accompaniment. Several community songs were sung while the lunch was being prepared. Mrs. Magginson and convenors served a very delicious lunch for a hot day. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

INSPIRATION OF "TREES" GONE

I thing that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.

Massive elm at home of Mrs. Frederick W. Stevens (l), in Larchmont, N.Y., which inspired late Joyce Kilmer to write his famous poem, Trees, is being sawed and chopped up. The elm was condemned by state authorities in fight on Dutch elm disease. (Trees is copyright by Doubleday, Doran and Co.)

Trenton and District

Lower School Promotions At Trenton High School

List Issued Show Subject Missed by The Students

Trenton, July 18—(Special)—The following is a list of Lower School promotions at Trenton High School issued this week.

The names appear in alphabetical order, and a subject appearing after a name indicates that credit has not been obtained in that subject. This list is final and complete.

Form I to Form II

D. Ament, O. Benns, S. Bonter, M. Brant, Wm. Burke, P. Burrows, V. Burk, M. Campbell, E. Chase, Ray Cottrell, N. Funnell, C. Gamm, J. Gilchrist, J. Green, R. Griffith, H. Gunter, H. Harder, P. Harrington (language), B. Heaslip, F. Hill, G. Hogle, E. Jeffery, (geog.), J. Lowerby, F. Long, L. Lott, F. Macmillan, N. McKibbon, J. McIlmurray (French), G. Mallory, A. Manlle, M. Merara, A. Miller, J. Miller, H. Minaker, E. Milton, E. Moon, K. Moore, A. Mountenay, F. Pidgery, M. Norsworthy, M. Pennington, R. Peterson (cond't.), J. Quackenbush, J. Rose, I. Roy (alg.), K. Sealis, (geog.), M. Shanael, G. Simpson, B. Smith, A. Sutcliffe, A. Thompson (bot.), A. Vanderwater (cond't) L. Ward, H. Webb, A. White, (lat.), J. White, June White, L. Whitley, Jean Wilson (bot.), O. Wood.

Form II to Form III

M. Acker (geom.), D. Armstrong J. Ashworth, M. Ashworth, H. Batchelor, M. Seal, T. Bray, D. Bell (French), M. Crosby, R. Cunnell, P. Dempsey, B. Foster, A. Douch (physics.), F. Gilhards, P. Hill, K. Hunt, A. Hunter, J. James, J. Langdon, D. Little, L. Little, L. McColl, G. McWater, K. Mann, I. Mason (arith.), D. Moore, F. Morgan, J. Nugent (physics.), G. Peterson (gram.), V. Quinn, H. Salisbury (French), W. Simmons, D. Sherbert, C. Smith, J. Snyder, K. Stevens, M. Stickle, J. Sutherland (physics), P. Taylor (arith.), A. Vandervoort (physics), S. Weaver (physics), V. White (cond't.), M. Wood (cond't.), D. Wright, J. Fitton (physics), O. Goodsell (E. Gram.), E. Saylor (physics), H. Wannamaker.

STEPS TAKEN TO FORWARD PEACE

Disorders in Belfast Claim Seventh Victim

Belfast, Northern Ireland, July 18 (CP)—The disorders arising from Orangemen's celebration of the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne claimed a seventh victim today with the death from a sniper's shot of James Andrews, sole support of his blind parents.

Religious leaders took steps to bring peace. Protestant Bishop Dr. Macneice called a meeting of his clergy for tomorrow to "help create a meeting of his clergy for tomorrow to "help create an atmosphere without which we cannot hope for peace."

Catholic leaders sent to Viscount Craigavon, Prime Minister of Northern Ireland an emphatic protest against the "inadequacy of measures taken by the Northern government to end the unchristian campaign in Belfast."

The charred ruins of 15 houses burned during the night were guarded against looters by 250 special officers.

NELLIE SMITH

Announces a Most unusual sale of individual

SUMMER DRESSES AND ENSEMBLES

$7.95 • $10.95 • $19.75

WE HAVE spared neither time nor effort to make this an outstanding event worthy of every woman's consideration. These are fresh, new summer town and country dresses and ensembles—the type you are seeing on the smartest women wherever you go. There are town ensembles with their own coats—spectator sports costumes in the newest and most exhilarating color combinations— afternoon frocks with expensive hand touches—jacket frocks galore—sheer town costumes—daylight dining costumes and evening gowns. In fact there is everything that could possibly be included in a smart summer wardrobe. . . . And here's a more than unusual opportunity to assemble one — at a fraction of its original worth.

WOMEN'S SIZES—34 to 46 MISSES' SIZES 13 to 20

NELLIE SMITH

KINSON BUILDING (UPSTAIRS) 208A FRONT STREET

Ayres & MacLaurin

PHONE 1490 PROMPT 186-188 FRONT ST. COURTEOUS SERVICE PHONE 1490

EXTRA SPECIAL! Fancy Cream Sandwich Biscuits lb. 11c

FREE DELIVERY WITHIN CITY LIMITS

FREE RUNNING SALT 2 Large Packages 15c

CHOICE HAND-PACKED Tomatoes 3 tins 25c

SUGAR-CRISP Cornflakes 4 pkgs. 25c

CREAMERY BUTTER 2 lbs. 43c

Mild Canadian Full Cream CHEESE 15c lb.

MAZDA Electric Bulbs 25 — 40 — 60 Watt. 20c each

PEAMEALED Cottage Rolls 18c lb.

GLENDALE—Freshly Ground COFFEE Special lb. 23c

JEWEL SHORTENING 2 1-lb. prints 25c

CRUNCHY SWEET MIXED PICKLES 25 ounce Bottle 25c

TOMATO CATSUP 2 large Bottles 27c

FRESH LOCAL Beets, Carrots 2 bunches 9c

LOCAL CABBAGE head 5c

New Local POTATOES Peck 25c

Large California ORANGES Dozen 35c

Fancy CUCUMBERS Large size 2 for 15c

Finnesia Stuffed OLIVES 25 ounce bottle 25c

VERDELLI LEMONS Dozen 33c

Mixed SAUSAGE 4 lbs. 25c

PRIME BEEF

SIRLOIN STEAK OR ROAST ..... lb. 18c
PORTERHOUSE STEAK OR ROAST ..... lb. 20c
ROLLED RIB ROAST ..... lb. 18c
POT ROAST ..... lb. 12c
HAMBURG STEAK ..... lb. 10c

LIPTON'S BLACK TEA ½-lb. Package 27c

FEATHER STRIP COCOANUT 17c lb.

CANADA MATCHES 3 boxes 20c

ONTARIO COOKING ONIONS 4 lbs. 15c

NIAGARA DRY GINGER ALE 2 Quart Bottles 25c

LIBBY'S Pork and Beans 3 large tins 25c

FRESH Picnic Hams 18c lb.

FOOD SHORTAGE FACES MARCHERS

Break Police Lines to Camp Near School at Scarboro

(By The Canadian Press)

In Northern Ontario and in a little town outside of Toronto where they had camped on high school grounds without permission, several hundred "on-to-Ottawa" marchers awoke today to consider the next lap in their long march to the Dominion Capital.

Outside of Toronto 337 marchers ended the first leg of their march by stopping at Scarboro, five miles away, last night. Refusing to camp in a field they crowded over to school grounds with eighteen police officers powerless to stop them. Today they were faced with a food shortage. Undaunted, they announced they hoped to make Ottawa in nineteen more days.

Refreshed after being provided with meals and sleeping quarters in a tabernacle, 240 marchers were considering their position at Kenora. They knew they could not linger long. Half of $2,000 collected in a Winnipeg Tag Day was gone. Fifty-five had dropped out on the 85-mile walk from the Ontario border. Meanwhile 130 more were en route from Winnipeg in buses. They, too, will take the road on foot to Kenora. Marchers at Kenora thought a month more would see them in Ottawa. Fifty-five awaited them at North Bay.

Stragglers drifted into Ottawa yesterday, largely those who had evaded the Quebec ban on organized marches. There was no large movement. Thirty from Petawawa camp arrived. Strike headquarters reported feeding 180, and 200 more were cared for in private homes. A small group had arrived from Valcartier, Quebec, camp.

A WANT-AD will FIND IT!

Liberal Leader Opens Campaign At Kingston

Ottawa, July 18—(CP)—Confronted with pressing problems such as the Japanese trade situation and the unemployed march on Ottawa, Prime Minister Bennett was still hard at work here today. His rest after the session appeared on nearer the latter part of this week than last. There was still a possibility, that he might get away at the week-end.

Thus far, those who eagerly await news of the numerous appointments, which the government will make before the election have watched in vain. Upwards of 40 vacant posts, including 17 Senatorships, will be filled, but just when the Prime Minister can announce the names of the appointees is indefinite. It had been expected, that some announcement would be made this week. Now there appears no definite assurance that this is so.

Tomorrow night at Hamilton the leader of Canada's youngest political party will open the speaking campaign. Prior to leaving on a swift tour of Western Canada, Hon. H. H. Stevens, leader of the Reconstruction Party, will address a meeting called by his supporters in Hamilton.

Further proof, that the campaign is about to get underway in real earnest comes with the announcement that Mackenzie King, Liberal Leader, will make his opening platform speech at Kingston, Ont., on August 7. The Liberal candidate in the riding, which is represented by Gen. A. E. Ross, Conservative, is Prof. Norman M. Rogers one of Mr. King's former secretaries.

Date of the election is still to be announced, that it will take place some time in September is the view expressed here, but more definite word is lacking.

Catharine Hepburn, Charles Boyer, Jean Howard and Anna Gray, in a scene from the modern romantic drama "Break of Hearts" now playing at the Belle theatre.

Baseball
Current Sport

IN THE REALM OF SPORTING EVENTS

Bowling
Golf

"Lefty" Grove, Bill Hallahan Stage Comeback in Majors, Both Hurling Winning Ball

Boston And Cards Both Win Behind Great Hurling

GIANTS WIN

Pop Bottles Heaved in This Game on a Decision

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer

Every baseball season seems to bring out a great "comeback" on the part of at least one major league veteran, who was considered on the way out. At this stage of the current campaign there are two outstanding candidates for the year's honors in that line, Robert Moses Grove and "Wild" Bill Hallahan.

Grove has attracted the more attention largely because of the $100,000 price tag he carried, while Connie Mack and his A's won the pennant the first of the year, but the revival of Hallahan has been almost as startling.

Last season Hallahan, no longer as wild as he used to be, just managed to pitch in 30 ball games and had a record of eight victories and 12 defeats with a pennanting club.

He got off to a poor start again this year, losing his first three games and barely staggering along until nearly mid-season. Then he broke the spell on June 16 and has rolled up a string of eight consecutive victories, seemingly getting better on each start.

In four complete games since, that first inning jinx has allowed a total of 14 hits, checking the Braves with two runs and the Cubs with a scoreless streak to 12 straight with a 3-1 triumph yesterday.

Grove's comeback (or real opposition on the hill, giving only seven blows, two of them scratch infield-ing home) broke up the battle artistry of Manager Bill Terry's Giants, smacked a short double and scored the tying run in the eighth.

Grove Wins, Lead Five

Grove, who also had plenty of trouble this spring as he set out to prove he wasn't just another guy with a lame arm, got on the victory road earlier and has won eleven games so far, the last five in succession.

He assumed the Red Sox of a day to the American League's first division by pitching them to a 3-1 triumph over Cleveland in the second game of yesterday's doubleheader after they had hammered out a 13-5 decision in the opener.

The more famous "Lefty" was touched for eight blows, while Monty Pearson gave the Sox only five but the batterymate, Moe Berg, drove in three runs to decide the game. The twin triumph put the Red Sox into fourth place by two full games.

The Cardinal victory, while it didn't put them any closer to the first, settled them more firmly in second place as Phillies turned back Chicago 8-1 on the combination of Curt Davis' five-hit flinging and a concentration of four straight blows off Bill Lee in the fourth, while Dodgers belted Pirates over twice. After barely lasting to take the opener 5-4, Brooklyn raked up a 5-0 triumph when big George Earnshaw turned in a one-hit game.

The Giants broke a three-game losing streak by slamming out 15 blows behind Carl Hubbell to defeat the Reds 6-3. It was the first Cincinnati loss in eight starts and the fans took it hard, heaving pop bottles at the umpires when a Giant double play was ruled completed because Ernie Slade interfered with the fielder.

Washington rounded out the American League program by pounding three St. Louis pitchers for a dozen hits and an 8-4 victory. Hain halted Tigers and Athletics while White Sox-Yankee game was played in last Sunday's doubleheader.

YESTERDAY'S STARS!

(By The Associated Press)

Jim Bucher, Dodgers: Rapped Pittsburgh pitching for three hits in each game of doubleheader.

Curt Davis, Phillies: Limited the Cubs to five hits, retiring last 18 men in order.

Bill Werber and Lefty Grove, Red Sox: Werber hit four straight Cookies in first game; Grove outpitched Ferrell to take second from Indians.

Travis Jackson, Giants: Led attack on Reds with three hits driving in two runs.

Johnny Stone, Senators: Cracked out double and two singles against Browns.

Bill Hallahan and Terry Moore, Cardinals: Hallahan held Braves to four hits; Moore won game with home run in ninth.

FOLLOWS BROTHER

ROY JOHNSON

While batting averages show Bob Johnson, outfielder of the Athletics among the leading hitters in his league, Bob's oldest brother Roy, shown here, is the veteran of the batting battle of Managor Bucky Harris' Detroit Tigers. Roy is also a resident of Oklahoma, of Cherokee parentage.

TWO CLASSES UNFINISHED

Lack of Wind Dissapoints Sailing Enthusiasts on Wednesday

Owing to lack of wind the sailing events, which take place every Wednesday afternoon upon the bay off the southern portion of Victoria park was yesterday afternoon rather disappointing. A large number of spectators were present during the afternoon and the various classes were well filled with the boat sailing punts owned in the city. Shortly before 3 o'clock Mr. Wm. Rogers, the official starter fired the first gun as a warning for the crafts to prepare to start. At that time there was a slight breeze, which eventually died down to a calm, the water being as smooth as glass. One upset occurred, the Dorothy, owned by A. Rushlow turned over at the first buoy, thus pulling her out of the event.

Crafts in six events were entered but only the punts in classes A and C finished in the time limit. Mr. Charles Jeff was secretary and timer. The entries in the two classes which finished were as follows:

Class C—Three, owned by F. Green completed the short course in this class in 59 min., 31 secs., being owned by Cook, the only other competitor finished 2 m. 43 secs. behind Cook.

Class A—There were six punts placed in this class and four You, owned by Maurice J. Callaghan proved to be an easy winner, finishing some minutes ahead of her nearest competitor, Joka, owned by D. Smith. The crewing of You was by her owner, Callaghan and her nearest competitor, Joka, owned by H. Semark finished third. Other entries in this class were the Presto owned by P. Salisbury; Mary Lou, owned by W. Finkle; and Delly Vardan owned by J. Shannon.

Unfinished classes—Both being able to finish within the time limit were the entries entered in class C, the Snips, class and 18 footer. At times these crafts were virtually becalmed.

There was every prospect that competition in the various classes would be keen as entries were numerous, being far in excess of the last previous. Had there been a good or even moderate breeze the spectators would have been treated to a fine exhibition of skill and courage.

HOME STAND OF ROYALS PROVES SATISFACTORY

Carry Winning Streak of 10 Straight Games Out on Road

PLAY TORONTO

Leafs Split With Orioles, Winning First And Losing Second

(By The Associated Press)

The Montreal Royals looked back with satisfaction on their latest home stand as they invaded Toronto today for the opening contest of a road trip, that will carry them into every International League city ending their tour at Syracuse.

When they opened their stay at home on July 6, they were in second place. Two days later they had dropped three more games and were more deeply embedded in the runner-up position, two and one-half games back of the Baltimore Orioles. Today they were leading the pack by three and one-half games with Maple Leafs in second place and carried a winning streak into Manager Ben Chapman's camp on the road.

Royals have shown plenty of power at the plate but it has been their pitching that has been outstanding. In the 10 victories and the last two of the three defeats, Montreal hurling pitcher was in the box at the end of the game. Harry Smythe, Pete Jonnard, Ray Pytlak and Chad Kimsey turned in two victories each, while Hank Mangum, and George Granger accounted for the other decision.

Smythe won his second yesterday in hurling the Royals a 5-4 victory over the Newark Bears. The defeat was Bears' 11th straight setback.

Smythe held Newark to seven hits but got a break when Ted Kleinhans was yanked for a pinch hitter in the seventh with the score tied at four-all. Cecil Spitzer, who succeeded Kleinhans, was ineffective and Royals put over five runs in the next two frames.

Leafs Split

Baltimore Orioles finally snapped their losing streak at seven games, defeating the Maple Leafs 3-1 in the second game of a doubleheader after Toronto had taken the opening contest to 2. Frank Pearce hurled four-hit ball to give Orioles their victory. They had to put the first away in the early innings by missing Cy Moore for two runs in the first and Bill Lohrman for two more in the fourth.

After taking a free-for-all slugging contest 13-11 in the afternoon opener, sixth straight victory, the Buffalo Bisons fell before the five-hit pitching of Jim Grabowski in the night game, Syracuse Chiefs triumphing 7-2. In addition to his five pitching Grabowski slammed out a double and two singles, while Johnny Gerner drove in six runs with a pair of homers and a single. Twenty-four hits including eight circuit drives, punctuated the afternoon contest, Bisons' clouch drive by Jack Smith, with two mates on in the fifth, settled the issue.

Fitzgerald and Legett got two home runs each, Carnegie his first of the season and Wright, Oana and Siebert also hit for four baggers.

Rochester Redwings rallied in the late innings to turn back the Albany Senators 4-3 with Mills getting three hits to drive two of their runs home.

Batting Leaders

(By The Associated Press)

American League

Batting: Johnson, Athletics .358; Vosmik, Indians .345.

Runs batted in: Greenberg, Tigers 72; Greenberg, Tigers 70.

Runs batted in: Greenberg, Tigers 106; Johnson, Athletics 72.

Hits: Cramer, Athletics 115; Gehringer, Tigers 115.

Doubles: Greenberg, Tigers, 26; Werber, Red Sox 27.

Triples: Stone, Senators 12; Cronin, Red Sox 8.

Home runs: Greenberg, Tigers 26; Johnson, Athletics 15.

Pitching: Ruffing, Yankees 7-2; Weiland, Indians, Werber, Red Sox 15; Almada, Red Sox 14.

Pitching: Ruffing, Yankees 7-2; Lyons, White Sox 10-3.

National League

Batting: Vaughan, Pirates .387; Medwick, Cardinals .364.

Runs batted in: J. Collins, Cardinals 73; Ott, Giants 74.

Hits: Medwick, Cardinals, 121; Terry, Giants 114.

Doubles: Medwick, Cardinals and Herman, Cubs 26.

Triples: Goodman, Reds 10; Boyle Dodgers and Suhr, Pirates 9.

Home runs: Ott, Giants 20; J. Collins, Cards 18.

Stolen bases: Madlin, Cardinals 11; Goodman, Reds 8.

Pitching: Parmelee, Giants 10-2; Schumacher, Giants 13-3.

Fifty thousand fans packed Berlin's sports stadium to see Max Schmeling, of Germanay, former heavyweight champion of the world, win a 12 round decision over Paulino Uzcudun of Spain. Schmeling is shown here on the Right, landing a straight left to the Basque woodchopper's face during an early round of the fight.

CURRENT SPORT

DAY BY DAY

The local motorcyclists to compete in the 200-mile open road race at Keen, N.H., over the week end returned home a sadder but more experienced group of young men. First of all they learned that the class of machines used by the Quinte Motorcycle Club are not adapted for such competition, although they are just as fast as the Yankee machines. The local riders use the English Norton type, which is a low built machine for track racing.

For instance after being well up with the leaders for 23 laps, George Pepper was forced out of competition when his machine struck a boulder in the road which damaged the clutch to such an extent he was forced out of the race. Johnnie McLean continued well through the race but was severely sandwiched and spilled. Johnnie suffered slight injuries and was not able to continue. The other local rider, Fred Newman, was clipped in the first lap and his front wheel bent. Gordon Davies, Hank Wallbridge and Bruce Bristol accompanied the local contingent to Keene. All reported a keen race and are planning to return next year, at which time they will have had further experience behind them and naturally expect better results. All the local ridden machines are quickly as fast as the American built ones.

It was a pleasure to observe the improvements in the outfield at the Fair Grounds on Tuesday. The absence of long grass kept the ball in sight of the fans all evening and the outfielders are no longer handicapped. "I'm knee deep in daisies", Deadsheep, when Ted Kelly first removed the alfalfa from the outer garden this and accordingly assisted the locals with their three extra bases hits, as the long grass materially impeded the progress of rolling baseball. May the good work continue. In the meantime the Radio journey to Kingston on Friday and providing the Millmen can maintain the speedball, as per Tuesday, Joe Daly and his team should be able to fire a sweet trimming. Jack Williams will, naturally, get the pitching assignment as he has not been affording the best defensive support during his last few. Radios will be in there fighting for Johnson Bay. If the Radios can't the Penics and Oshawa clips the wings of the Peter boys will have what a swell Sunday-mixup will follow in the league standing

Although it has been always supposed, that golf originated in Scotland, there is some doubt as to this claim. Major W. G. Tinker of the Royal Blackheath Golf Club in England, which claims to be the oldest existing golf club in the world, constituted sometime in the 15th century, says that the origin of golf is lost in the midst of antiquity. He firmly believes the game probably derived from the Teutonic word "kolf", a low Dutch expression for game. In the early part of the 15th century it was illegal to play golfing in any sport that interfered with archery and other military sports, both golf and football being specially mentioned as banned sports at that time. Golf became known as a "royal sport" and has continued as such down through the years.

Here is one for the tennis wavers—A 'racket' that's exploded in courts. It's quite a growing menace—

Too many stunning girls in shorts Confine their 'love' to tennis".

—Author unknown.

A dull wind kept the times down in yesterday's weekly 5 and 10 cent races off Victoria Park, considerable tacking being necessary on tin wee leg. By actual count there were ninety punts on the Bay, but seemingly some of them did not enter the races. Maybe it was the calm lilies, maybe this was caused by the lunderful wind that was at hand. At any rate a goodly crowd was on hand and enjoyed an afternoon's entertainment. These weekly sailing races are staged each Wednesday afternoon by the S.E.A.C. aquatic committee.

The local interpredicties staged an eighth inning rally at Picton yesterday, to score five runs, but otherwise they failed to get going at the meeting the game as they finally lost 7 to 6.. Errors militated the efforts of the locals as they literally threw the game away in the seventh, when the Belleville team scored four runs materially assisted by bad baseball on the part of the local aggregation. Of course the locals are still in third position and are practically assured of a play-off berth in the series. Apparently Lefty Bishop was held "Keen" responsible as he and his batters beat to the bench via the three strike route when he was materially assisted by the locals' inability to connect with what was really counted. Manager Fanning has high aspirations of winning the "B" group, he still contends

The fat was in the fire over at Central Park last night during the Alemite-Aajmaas game when two players were suspended, we were informed, but from the heat that feelings ran high throughout and were culminated with a general free-for-all, that saw players St. Denis and Morgan suspended for fighting. Despite the prevailing elements players should learn to curb their tempers during ball games, as after all it is only another game and today's game is but a memory tomorrow. On paper it looks as though Vic Willis' boys are in for a battle to successfully master of the situation as the Alemites won over league leaders the Aajmaas 6 to 4. While blanking the league leaders until the ninth, the Alemites by timely swatting capitalized on their hitting and the errors of the Aajmaas' for to score their whole four runs. Incidentally the Alemites will be up by all and more especially the fans, who thoroughly enjoyed the evening's entertainment, to see in all its phases. The Aajmaas are still 'tops' in the local league, but the battle for the remaining three play-off position is surely a merry one and perhaps is one of the reasons why the players are on edge during every tilt.

Is it a fact that Oshawa paid the first hundreds 'jeers' are the hardest? But then, some people think Oshawa is a hundred miles away.

Following the Peterboro at Belleville senior game here on Tuesday night, Manager Fanning, who lowered his dignity and accompanied the locals on the road, had the following to say in relationship to the contest—the locals dropped a close decision in Belleville yesterday, the loss leaving 'em in second place with a record of 7 games won and only half a tilt up on Oshawa and Belleville tied for third. The locals didn't look so good. Kitchen was limited freely and his support was wobbly. The official scorer—from Belleville—had an off day and misread some on both sides. He gave the Petes just one error but should have charged Caldbick with two and Murphy with one. The players themselves will admit it. And he chalked up a couple against Belleville players that were awful, thereby robbing locals of hits. Could it be as the Kingston scribe intimated in the morning, Belleville they're trying hard to make Calhoun—Toronto Maple Leafs look good. The umpiring was excellent and not a kick was registered all through.

"LUBRICANTS" DOWN AAJMAAS

Vic White Sets League Leaders Down With 6-4 Score

Behind superb pitching by Vic White the Alemites downed the league leading Aajmaa A.C. by the score fo 6 to 4 in a regular scheduled senior softball fixture at Central Park last night. The game was in no way devoid of excitement as a general free-for-all broke out and players entered freely into the melee with the final result, that two participants were suspended from further play in the loop.

White was in rare form and kept the Aajmaas from the score sheet from the initial frame until the final inning when the Bowler-led aggregation pounced on his offerings and coupled with an error or two managed to squeeze four runs across the plate. They just fell two shy of knotting the count. Feeling ran high throughout the entire game with many a verbal battle being passed between the players of both sides. George Jenkinson hurled a smart game for the Aajmaas but the failure of his teammates to connect with the much needed hits in the pinches deprived him of a possible win as White proved the master of the situation at the barrier to the wire.

The only incident occurred during the game when Dusty Fisher, Aajmaa outfielder, scored four of his teammates six runs, and succeeded two of their eight hits. This occurred in the fifth inning when Alemites 9 to 8 but failed to make their hits count as they missed the runs. The loss in no way affected the chances of the Aajmaas nine, but the victory of the Alemites materially assisted them in their battle for a play-off berth, thanks to the superb pitching of Vic White and his pitches.

The lineups:

Alemite: Flagler, Dickey, Gordon, Henn, Baker, Lepenski, Morgan, Ridley and White.

Aajmaa A.C.: St. Denis J. Hawden, Kiser, Hannah, Grey, H. Hawden, Clarke, Cook, O'Brien and Jenkinson.

Score by innings:

	R	H	E
Aajmaas	000 000 004	4	4
Alemite	001 010 03x	6	4

Umpires: Risher and Rollins.

Aspirations of Intermediates To Finish First Goes with Loss

Picton Wins 7-6 Despite Rally in 8th For Five Runs

First place aspirations of the Belleville Intermediates were practically obliterated in Picton yesterday, when the homesters downed the B.A.R.A. entry by the score of 7 to 6, but not before the Fanning aggregation staged a belated eight inning rally to score five runs and all but pull the game from the fire. Belleville errors entered profusely into the pastime and materially assisted in their downfall.

Ernie Smith, ex-Belleville senior moundsman, was Manager Fanning's choice as the hurler of the day and rightly he deserved the call. Smith hurled winning ball in the pinches, but glaring errors in the dying frames literally robbed the local hurler of a victory, as he kept ten Picton hits well scattered. Vern "Lefty" Bishop was the home town" choice as the mound assistant and the ex-Napanee southpaw hurled marvelous ball until the eighth, when he weakened and the locals cuffed his offerings for five safeties, that netted them the five runs, after having scored in the first frame when Belleville failed in the pinches deprived him of a possible win as White proved the master of the situation at the barrier to the wire.

The only incident occurred during the game when Dusty Fisher, Aajmaa outfielder, scored four of his teammates six runs, and succeeded two of their eight hits. This occurred in the fifth inning when Alemites 9 to 8 but failed to make their hits count as they missed the runs. The loss in no way affected the chances of the Aajmaas nine, but the victory of the Alemites materially assisted them in their battle for a play-off berth, thanks to the superb pitching of Vic White and his pitches.

The lineups:

Alemite: Flagler, Dickey, Gordon, Henn, Baker, Lepenski, Morgan, Ridley and White.

Aajmaa A.C.: St. Denis J. Hawden, Kiser, Hannah, Grey, H. Hawden, Clarke, Cook, O'Brien and Jenkinson.

Score by innings:

	R	H	E
Aajmaas	000 000 004	4	4
Alemite	001 010 03x	6	4

Umpires: Risher and Rollins.

Picton Wins 7-6 Despite Rally in 8th For Five Runs

First place aspirations of the Belleville Intermediates were practically obliterated in Picton yesterday, when the homesters downed the B.A.R.A. entry by the score of 7 to 6, but not before the Fanning aggression staged a belated eight inning rally to score five runs and all but pull the game from the fire. Belleville errors entered profusely into the pastime and materially assisted in their downfall.

Ernie Smith, ex-Belleville senior moundsman, was Manager Fanning's choice as the hurler of the day and rightly he deserved the call. Smith hurled winning ball in the pinches, but glaring errors in the dying frames literally robbed the local hurler of a victory, as he kept ten Picton hits well scattered. Vern "Lefty" Bishop was the home town" choice as the mound assistant and the ex-Napanee southpaw hurled marvelous ball until the eighth, when he weakened and the locals cuffed his offerings for five safeties, that netted them the five runs, after having scored in the first frame when Belleville failed in the pinches deprived him of a possible win as White proved the master of the situation at the barrier to the wire.

The only incident occurred during the game when Dusty Fisher, Aajmaa outfielder, scored four of his teammates six runs, and succeeded two of their eight hits. This occurred in the fifth inning when Alemites 9 to 8 but failed to make their hits count as they missed the runs. The loss in no way affected the chances of the Aajmaas nine, but the victory of the Alemites materially assisted them in their battle for a play-off berth, thanks to the superb pitching of Vic White and his pitches.

The lineups:

Alemite: Flagler, Dickey, Gordon, Henn, Baker, Lepenski, Morgan, Ridley and White.

Aajmaa A.C.: St. Denis J. Hawden, Kiser, Hannah, Grey, H. Hawden, Clarke, Cook, O'Brien and Jenkinson.

Score by innings:

	R	H	E
Aajmaas	000 000 004	4	4
Alemite	001 010 03x	6	4

Umpires: Risher and Rollins.

Following Greer had the hitters of the day with three singles and a homer and a double and a single to his credit. Preut accounted for two singles as did McQuaid. Rigby with a double and a single led the Belleville team as Gregory drove in a run with his two singles. A fast double play was executed by Preut to Greer to Crutney, Bishop struck out six to Smith's four, while the Picton hurler issued but one free pass.

The lineups:

Belleville: Little ss, Morgan, cf., Latchford c., Green lf., Crutney 1b., Rigby rf., Darrah and Cooke 2b., Gregory 3b., Greer p.

Picton: Rudgin cf., Leavens rf., Rorke ss., Preut 3b., Greer c., McQuaid lf., Midgen 2b., Cole 1b., and Bishop p.

Score by innings:

	R	H	E
Belleville	001 000 05x	8	2
Picton	202 001 30x	7	9

Umpires: Tapper, Belleville, plate; Young, Picton, bases.

Following Greer and McQuaid to score when proved the winning run.

The Belleville nine staged a determined rally in the eighth as Rigby opened with a double to centre, Cooke, batting for Darrah flew to left and as McQuaid made a sensational catch he doubled Rigby off second. Marriage beat out an infield hit and stole second, Smith was safe on Midgton's error and Little hit to centre scoring Smith tripe. Morgan hit scoring Smith and on Latchford's home run to deep centre. Little and Morgan scampered home ahead of the local catcher, Green went out short to first as the locals made their last and final stand, that saw them one short of knotting the count. Latchford's four base shout was an honest to goodness west end salad for over the head of the Picton centre fielder.

Greer led the hitters of the day with three singles and a homer and a double and a single to his credit. Preut accounted for two singles as did McQuaid. Rigby with a double and a single led the Belleville team as Gregory drove in a run with his two singles. A fast double play was executed by Preut to Greer to Crutney, Bishop struck out six to Smith's four, while the Picton hurler issued but one free pass.

The lineups:

Belleville: Little ss, Morgan, cf., Latchford c., Green lf., Crutney 1b., Rigby rf., Darrah and Cooke 2b., Gregory 3b., Greer p.

Picton: Rudgin cf., Leavens rf., Rorke ss., Preut 3b., Greer c., McQuaid lf., Midgton 2b., Cole 1b., and Bishop p.

Score by innings:

	R	H	E
Belleville	001 000 05x	8	2
Picton	202 001 30x	7	9

Umpires: Tapper, Belleville, plate; Young, Picton, bases.

THOU SHALT NOT KILL!

Drive Carefully!

FORGOTTEN CITY

● If newspapers were to stop, this city would practically be forgotten.

You would quickly realize how much we all depend upon our daily publication. If daily newspapers throughout Canada were stopped, communities would be upset and disorganized—ordinary trade paralyzed—the populace panicky and easily misled.

The universal communication maintained by the Daily Newspapers nourishes and stimulates our social, business and economic structures in countless ways—and is necessary to their healthy functioning. Daily Newspapers have established and have sustained spot markets everywhere—that all may contact the publicand cultivate its goodwill.

ADVERTISE IN DAILY NEWSPAPERS FOR action

SPONSORED BY THE
CANADIAN DAILY NEWSPAPERS ASSOCIATION

THE RED TIGER

By ALANSON CROSBY

"Oh, no," Miss Madison protested. "The time we polite fel lows spend on a lady's hair is always wasted. I have much more to show you. This old cellar is as full of curios as an antique shop—and much more interesting. This evidently was the torture chamber—and frequently used, you may be sure, in the 'good old days'."

There was a cunning implication in Miss Madison's words that was not lost on her unwilling guest.

"See—in this corner," he went on, as proudly as a child exhibiting to love, "are the relics of an old-time breaking wheel. Refractory prisoners could be very satisfactorily dealt with by means of this delicate instrument, don't you think? Really, I should have it restored. You're turning away"—as not interested? Why, how rude!"

"Please don't show me any more," said Judith. "It is ghastly!"

She leaned against the pile of wood and closed her eyes to shut out not only the grim outline of the breaking wheel but the leering, cruel countenance of her hostess.

"Oh, very well," said Miss Madison, shifting the air of one much disappointed by a friend's lack of appreciation of her treasures. "I see you are tired, my dear, and fatigue. But one more thing I must show you, as you really must, and I am so proud of it."

She took Judith's arm and forced her unwilling feet across the grim chamber floor to another and still smaller cellar. Down this path, ever growing darker, they walked, Judith very reluctantly. Finally Miss Madison paused at a grated iron door and lifted a bolt which kept it closed. The door revealed open at her insistent urge.

"This," she said, as she gripped Judith's trembling arm, "is one of the most interesting facts of my entire old cellar. It's very dark in there, as you can imagine, this one of the dungeons—there are several. We doubt a good many stubborn captives have partaked in it!"

With the last words Miss Madison gave Judith a push. Taken unawares, she stumbled forward and fell before she could recover her equilibrium. She heard a mocking laugh, the grate of an iron door swung to, and the sound of a bolt as Miss Madison shot it into place.

UNDERGROUND

CHAPTER XI

Sally Foster paced impatiently up and down the Hotel Ambassador's second floor of Capt. McMahon's office in the police station. Captain McMahon was making copious notes of the statement which Bob Harley, his hair unraveled from frequent contact with his nervous fingers, slouched in a corner chair, red-eyed and sleepy-looking. The sun was high in the heavens, as Sally could see from the big open window.

Sally glanced at her wrist watch and stamped her foot impatiently.

"Oh, come on!" she cried. "What are we waiting for? It's after seven o'clock."

"Sweet's pretty early to call on a fashionable lady," said Captain McMahon, "and the more I think of it the less I like the idea at all. It's a wild goose chase, I'm sure of that. She'll be furious—and she ought to. If the papers get it I'll be roasted to death. Bob'll suppress it of course unless she goes over his head to the boss, but that other sheet would just love to get something on me. You're making me an awful lot of trouble, young woman."

"Trouble!" said Sally, indignantly. "What's your puny trouble compared with Judith, Bob?" And then, the minute we're losing now may be precious. I just know she's shut up some somewhere in that big house! You forget that your pals John Madison had her man try to kill Judith by running the car over a cliff. When I think of this, I'm afraid we're too late already. That woman's a fiend, I tell you! But, of course, you wouldn't see it, either one of you, being men and just naturally dumb. Come on—I'm going alone if I must."

Captain McMahon pushed back his chair with a sigh audible even above the sound of his scraping. Bob was already on his feet, yawning. They turned toward the door of them, with Sergeant Foley, of the police force, were in the Captain's car.

"We'll just stop on the way and get a bite to eat," said McMahon. "I always like to have the commissary department satisfied when I'm going on an important mission—or a fool's errand. I'll need a couple of cups of hot coffee, at least, to face that Irish female devil."

"You would!" said Sally scornfully. "Well make it snappy! I do not want any breakfast, but a man can never forget that he's got a stomach."

Judith pounded futilely on the iron door with her naked fists and shook the grating, to no avail. She was unquestionably a prisoner, at the mercy of a demon whose motives she was now disposed to question, but of whose vindictiveness and cruelty she already had ample evidence.

It was indeed a dungeon into which she had been thrust—damp dark, and ill-smelling. A very dim light came from the passageway, whose feeble illumination scarcely penetrated the darkness at the door. The walls of the chamber were undistinguishable. Whether it was large or small could only be determined by feeling with one's hands. That it was low and windowless was evident.

There was no escape from this foul cell without assistance; of that Judith was convinced without further investigation. Still, to make assurance doubly sure and to give herself some employment—without which, it seemed, she would go mad in that dank, dark solitude—she began an exploration with her hands.

The wall was cold and clammy to her touch. Stepping carefully, for fear of pitfalls in the dark, and counting her steps, she started at the grated door, and, hand to wall circumnavigated the cell. Eight short steps took her to a corner; then ten more brought her up against the opposite wall. Eight steps again; then ten, and she was back at her starting point. Thus she estimated the dimensions of her cell as approximately ten by 12 feet.

The floor beneath her feet was earth, packed hard by centuries of time and, doubtless, the despairing tread of human feet. That the cell had been used as a prison for unfortunate victims of the ancient rogues so admiringly spoken of by Miss Madison, Judith had no doubt.

And, that Randall Spencer was a prisoner in a similar dungeon seemed very probable to her. For what Miss Madison's object could be in restraining him was not clear; but Judith was satisfied that this determined and vindictive woman would stop at nothing to keep them apart.

That she was intensely, indeed insanely, jealous of Spencer, she had made all too apparent. Judith had understood vaguely that there was a kind of love which jealousy turned into hatred; that persons of a certain abnormal, neurotic temperament were unaccountable for fiendish acts committed under the spur of such jealous hatred. Now she, who had never been able to quite comprehend that any love could become so perverted, shuddered at the reality. Here, indeed, was a case of love turned to hate—and the outcome bade fair to be disastrous to both her and Randall Spencer.

Judith tried to pluck up courage by the thought that she had been in tight places before and somehow had squeezed through. But the terrible surroundings in which she found herself this time were not conducive to optimism. Her survey of this new apartment, by touch of hand, had revealed most scanty furnishings. In fact there was apparently nothing—not a chair, or even a block of wood—to sit on or so much as a pallet of rags to lie on. Dogs in their kennels were ruling in luxury in comparison with the comforts of this tomb.

The silence and the darkness were oppressive. Judith feared they would become maddening in time. She wondered, if Randall Spencer were confined in a similar dungeon, would it be possible to make him hear her if she called? Almost afraid to try her new voice in the solitude and stillness, she pondered it a while, then, with a sudden summoning of desperate resolve, she pressed her face to the grated door and called out as loudly as she could screamed:

"Randall! Randall Spencer! Are you here? It is I—Judith!"

She strained her ears for an answer; then repeated the call. It seemed as though the narrow passageway fronting the grated door magnified her words; as though the stone walls were in conspiracy against her, as indeed, she thought, they were—everything here was.

Still, faintly, as though from a far distance, and greatly muffled, she thought she heard an answering cry. Was it fancy, or did she actually make out the faint words: "My God, Judith, where are you?"

She had to press her face hard to her bosom to still the wild beating of her heart. Whether it was or no her desire were playing a trick on her, or it was actually his voice, she must answer.

"I'm near you, Randall, but locked up. Don't worry; don't despair —God will help us!"

Would He, Judith wondered? For it seemed to her that only by His intervention could their enemy be circumvented.

Far away, she thought, she could hear a groan and the words, very faint: "Oh, Judith, why did you come?"

"Don't give up! Don't give up!" she shouted back. He, up there, somewhere, she now was sure, Her imagination had not quickened up his voice. He was a prisoner, like her, in one of those horrible dungeon cells. Now that she had satisfied herself of his presence, Judith was sorry that she had made her own known. It would only worry and torture him to know that she was in Miss Madison's fiendish power. What could she do—what could she do?

She stood staring in the dim light of the passageway, seized with despair. She could see but on possibility. Miss Madison would come to gloat over her, no doubt. Judith would promise to go away and never see Randall Spencer again if the woman would release him. And she would keep her promise. She would give him up to save him. Her love was of like that mad woman's—who would destroy rather than surrender. But would Miss Madison believe her? Probably not. The fiendish mind that could plan and execute such devilish cruelties would trust nobody to act nobly.

"Judith!"

Judith was startled out of her reveries by the whispered interjection of warning. She had been so occupied with her thoughts that she had not heard a tiptoeing in the passage, nor sensed a presence on the other side of the grated door until he spoke. It was Dick, the gunman-butler.

TO BE CONTINUED

TEX AND HIS PALS (Actual Photographs)

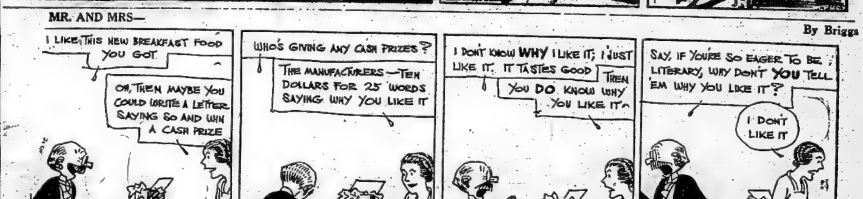
By Leslie A. Hill

BRINGING UP FATHER—

By George McManus

TILLIE THE TOILER—

By Russ Westover



DANGER TRAILS—

By The Famous Explorer Martin Johnson

MR. AND MRS—

By Briggs

TARZAN THE UNTAMED—

(Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service)

Recalling his own months of arduous training, Roger smiled as the ignorant African's conceit, for Usanga was already commanding that he be permitted to make a solo flight. "If it were not for losing the machine," the Englishman explained to Olga, "I'd let the bounder take it up."

"He'd break his fool neck in two minutes," said Olga. However, Roger persuaded Usanga to wait a few more days' instruction. In Usanga's suspicious brain came the idea that the white man was "stalling." He determined to outwit the aviator, and his upon a plan.

This plan would also leave him in possession of the white girl whom he was determined to have. He hardly knew that night as the idea unfolded in his excited brain. At dawn, Usanga could scarcely wait to commence his scheme. He gave orders to certain warriors.

Roger, who usually kept an eye upon his captor, saw that something was up. Evidently Usanga was persuading his followers to some new plan. Several times he saw the savage eyes turned toward himself and Olga. Everything suggested that trouble was brewing for them both.

A Real Scorcher!

OUR JULY SHOE CLEARANCE

WOMEN'S WHITE KID TIES and PUMPS
All sizes. Clearing price
1.48

WOMEN'S SPORT OXFORDS
Black and white, leather or rubber soles. All sizes, clearing price
1.48

WOMEN'S WHITE KID SANDALS, PUMPS and TIES
Clearing price
1.88

WOMEN'S WHITE MESH SANDALS
Cool and comfortable. Special
98c

WOMEN'S OXFORDS
MEN'S WHITE, built-in arch support, rubber heels. Special
1.98

MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S PATENT LEATHER STRAPS
All sizes, solid leather. Special
98c

CHILDREN'S BROWN LEATHER SANDALS
Heavy scrap soles. Special
59c

MENS' SPORT OXFORDS
Black and white, all sizes. Clearing price
1.98

HOLEPROOF HOSIERY
For women. Full fashioned, fine quality chiffon or service. All the latest shades. Special
69c

ADAMS
THE SHOEMAN

THOMAS MEIGHAN FIGHTS FOR LIFE

Thomas Meighan, star of the silent screen was reported "holding his own" despite serious complications which followed a throat operation in New York. Three photos of Meighan, taken at various periods of his career, are shown above.

RESULT OF PYTHON'S EMBRACE

Otis Lloyd, attendant at Frank Buck's storehouse at Massapequa, L.I., is one of the few men to have been embraced by a python and lived to tell about it. He is shown in panel today.

No arrests were necessary in Belleville during the past 24 hours, while motor accidents were also at a low ebb. Inspector Francis Gardner of the Ontario Provincial Police, was called into C. P. P. headquarters at Toronto last night where this organization convened in connection with the "on-to-Ottawa" marchers problem. Inspector Gardner is expected back in the city this evening with authentic information relative to the handling of these men, while enroute hospital after eight men succeeded in uncoiling the snake from his body. The python, which aquesses its prey to death, is seen in a motion picture as it grappled with a tiger.

LENGTHEN LIFE BY MORE SAFETY

Head of Association States Many Accidents Are Preventable

Declaring that accidents are very largely preventable, Secretary H. E. Trevrett of Commercial Travellers Mutual Accident Association points to the rising death toll taken by the automobile in the Province of Ontario as a graphic illustration of the extent to which the average life span of modern man could easily be lengthened by reduction of the accident hazard.

Eight hundred twenty-eight automobile accidents in Ontario in the single month of May were reported by J. P. Bickell, registrar of motor vehicles for the Province. Thirty-two persons were killed in these accidents, and 130 were injured. The toll for the latest month reported brought the total number of auto accidents in Ontario to more than 3,000 for the year to date. These accidents caused more than 2,100 injuries and 158 deaths. The seasonal factor galls for a virtually uninterrupted increase for each month from now through next October, according to Commercial Travellers' statistical department.

Automobiles are said to cause only about 15 per cent. of all accidents, although the seriousness of auto accidents is usually greater than other types.

All accidents are estimated to be second only to heart disease as a cause of death among men, and disability resulting from accidents represents millions of dollars in medical expenses and loss of earnings every month.

Development of medical science and public agencies to improve health have brought about a great reduction of the toll taken by disease, with relative improvements of the mortality factor on this account. Meanwhile, says Mr. Trevrett, the number of accident fatalities has advanced without important interruption to a new all-time high in Canada and the United States in 1934. Large part of the increase is attributable to the automobile, with railroad accidents notable among the classifications which have shown continuing reduction.

In advising its 210,000 members to cooperate with all worthy public safety movements and to practice caution in their homes, this world's largest cooperative accident association points out that reduction of this great mortality factor would obviously increase the life expectancy of the average man to a greater extent than by any other method now within human control. Aside the incidental lessening of all personal and financial loss resulting from accidental disability would be a worthwhile dividend.

CONVERSION OF MONEY CHARGE

Toronto, July 18.—(CP)—Donald S. Paterson, stock broker, charged with theft, before Magistrate J. E. Jones in police court, was remanded to July 26, on bail of $25,000. Bail was provided by J. A. Wilson and H. W. Purdy.

Paterson is charged on complaint of Wilfrid Bovin, solicitor of the Ontario Securities Commission, with converting his clients' money in accepting cash and securities to the value of $4,500 for the delivery of 34,850 shares of Casey Contact Gold Mines, while he had but 25 shares for delivery and with obtaining by fraud shares from the treasury of Casey Contact Gold mines to the value of $14,000.

Other complainants who charge theft are:— Harry Long, Peterborough, $1,680; A. E. Bingham, Walkerton $415; Mrs. E. Ode, Dunsford, $8.57; F. M. Summerville, Peterborough $168; Charles Leferte, Toronto, $1,000; Mrs. J. Chrasley, Toronto $2,520.

POLICE BLOTTER

A local youth caused the police considerable labours yesterday, when he faked a robbery in his own home. It seems the lad stole $6.00 from his grandparents and disturbed the house furnishings in order to make it look like an honest-to-goodness robbery. Detective Izard questioned a number of lads before he finally ferreted his activities around the youth in question. The lad reluctantly broke down and confessed taking the money but was able to return it as he had not spent any portion of it. He also admitted the theft of a lesser amount previously, at which time he also disturbed the household goods in order to make things look like an outside robbery.

Walter Ward, Stirling, was brought back to Belleville by Provincial Police from Lindsay yesterday and lodged in the police station. Ward was taken before a Justice of the Peace this morning and charged with failing to provide for his family. The matter was adjourned for trial.

His Worship Magistrate E. J. Butler, K. C., senior magistrate for Provincial District No. 9, held police court in Kingston and Napanee today.

Two Surprised Citizens

FEW REALIZE to the full the tremendous selling power of the Classified Advertisements. Wanted, For Sale, To Rent, Help Wanted, Employment, etc. The Classified Page is perhaps the most widely read page in the paper and the reactions to Want Advs. are quick and snappy, as those who have ever tried them have realized.

The lady who advertised in this paper for a second hand wringer Wednesday phoned early Thursday morning saying: "Please take that advertisement for a wringer out, I have had my choice of fifty and more are arriving every minute."

The Front Street business man who advertised an automobile for sale Wednesday evening had it sold before nine o'clock that night, and asked that the advertisement be taken out as enquiries were constantly coming in.

If you have anything to sell, rent or exchange, or want to buy or rent, or what have you—want a job or want to hire a man or woman, the Classified Advs. will do the trick so quickly you will think a miracle happened.

TWENTY WORDS FOR THIRTY CENTS.

CONTINUING JULY SALES

SHOP to SAVE at EATON'S
A MONTH OF

Specials for FRI. & SAT.
BLUE Brand BEEF
—GOVERNMENT GRADED—
CHUCK or SHOULDER ROAST lb. 12c
BLADE ROAST lb. 13c
Sliced Frenchside BACK BACON 1/2 lb. pkg. 16c
Devon Brand Fresh SAUSAGE lb. 17c
Sliced Beef BOLOGNA 2 lbs. 25c
Choice Smoked WEINERS 2 lbs. 29c
FRESH SPRING LAMB LEGS lb. 25c
LOINS lb. 22c. FRONTS 15c
Thinly Sliced Premium COOKED HAM lb. 49c
Smoked Shankless PICNIC HAMS lb. 24c
King Beach Brand CHOICE APRICOTS 2 Squat Tins 29c
MONARCH PASTRY FLOUR 24-LB. BAG 67c

Just Arrived from England—a fresh Shipment of Peak Frean's Famous BISCUITS
Try a Package of These Delicious Biscuits this Week-End
Swiss Fiske Sandwich; Arabs Meal; Assorted Creams; Lemon Puffs; Celery Sandwich; Raspberry Wafers; Shortcream; Dorchester Wafer; Abernethy; Caviar Puffs; Butter Puffs; Cream Crackers; Wholewheat; Oval Digestive; Savoury Snacks

CALAY The SOAP of Beautiful Women Cake 5c
LUX SOAP FLAKES Small Pkg. 9c
GILLETT'S LYE EXTRA DIRT Tin 11c

PHONE 800
Orders of $1.00 or More Selected and Delivered Without Extra Charge.

Note These Many Chances to Save
Extra Special—Norfolk Brand—with pectin STRAWBERRY JAM 33 oz. Jar 31c
Extra Special—Eatonia Brand No. 3 Sieve Small CHOICE PEAS 2 No. 2 tins 25c
Special—a delicious summer dessert QUALITY Br. PEARS No. 2 1/2 tin 10c
Special—Woodland Brand—No. 3½ Size tin TOMATO JUICE 3 tins 25c
Special—Crosse and Blackwell's CHILI SAUCE 2 12 oz. Bottles 27c
Special—for crispness—Kellogg's CORN FLAKES package 7c
Special—Tuck Shop Brand PEANUT BUTTER 25-oz. Jar 25c
Special—Canadian Brand ASPARAGUS CUTTINGS 13 ounce tin 2 tins 25c
Special—Honey Boy CLOVER HONEY 4 lb. 8 oz. tin 49c
Special—"Square Deal" Brand CLEANSER - - tin 4c

FRUITS and VEGETABLES
Choice Lemons doz. 33c
GOOD SIZE GRAPEFRUIT each 5c
SUNKIST ORANGES . doz. 25c
ALSO FULL LINE OF FRESH FRUIT and VEGETABLES

TEA SALE
A FINE BLEND OF INDIA and CEYLON
A low cost reduction to introduce this delightful blend. Usually sells for 55c lb., which we are sure you will enjoy. It will pay you to buy more than one package at this money-saving price. Quality unexcelled.
lb. 45c

A BIG SALE OF 5 POINT COFFEE
Even at the regular price our Five Point coffee is excellent value and a wonderful thirst quencher. Special price you will find it a thirty point coffee at a thrifty price. Good coffee—Eaton Fresh—and ground fresh daily. Five points stands every chance of meeting your approval.
lb. 21c

Summer Foods
THE NEW THOMPSON'S LIME RICKEY
Made from fresh limes — concentrated — 2 tablespoons make a refreshing cool- ing glass full 24c
25 ins. 24c
SUNKIST BRAND ICE CREAM MIX
Makes creamy delicously rich ice cream at home—easy and economical — four flavors: chocolate, butterscotch, vanilla, maple. Each 10c
Eaton's Green Seal MAYONNAISE
8½-ounce Jar 19c
MOLASSES SNAPS 2 Pounds 19c
EAST CUT WAX PAPER
20 feet to roll 12c
Rainbow Silver Circle SERVIETTES
20 in a Package 2 for 25c
Glacier Brand SARDINES
A summer meal necessity — these tasty little fish are always welcome when served with lemon slices or mayonnaise. This advantage of summer at special price this week. 3 tins 20c

FRONT STREET. BELLEVILLE
EATON GROCETERIA

FOR THE TITLE—Fred Perry, right, British champ, is congratulated by his finals opponent, Gottfried von Cramm.

IT'S THE BERRIES—Mrs. Max Baer feeds the former champion the berries at breakfast in the Long Branch, N. J. honeymoon home.

TRENTON

WHITTALLS & CANADA BUDS 3

The Canada Buds leaders in the Trenton softball league took their second defeat last night, this time at the hands of the Whittall Can team. The fans were looking forward to this tilt since the Whittalls are one of the strong teams in the league and in a previous game the Buds only gained a scant victory over them.

The game from the opening was tense and both lineups worked hard when at bat. Jack Reid, on the box for the Whittalls, had nine strike outs to his credit and only two walks (the two men he hit batting). Jim Chambers twirled a good game and the runs scored were through no fault of his.

Jack Heaney made the only home run of the game and that was on an error which also brought in Bennie Anderson. Roberts and Heaney made the rounds in the third innings and LaMore and Kidd in the 5th. Sager made the only counter for the Buds in the sixth.

Earl Mitchell made a beautiful play in the sixth when he ran in to catch Miller's fly, from centre field, and caught Roberts leading off second base.

Umpires plate: Jesse Baker Sr., bases, Ken Evans.

Canada Buds ..	000 001 0	—total 1
Whittalls	202 020 x	—total 6

Lineups:

Canada Buds: L. Johnson ss., G. Borden 3b, B. Miller c, H. Kidd 1b, G. Rosenplot 2b, H. Chambers lf, G. Johnston cf, B. Waldon lf, D. Sager rf.

Whittalls: B. Anderson ss, T. Roberts 3b, J. Heaney 1b, A. LaMore c, J. Kidd p, J. Ellis rf, F. Mitchell cf, G. MacMillan lf, E. Grey 2b.

Softball Standing

	Won	Lost
Canada Buds	8	3
Downs Coulter	7	4
Whittall Can	7	4
Wonder	6	4
Carrying Place	5	5
R.C.A.F.	4	7
Maple Leafs
Relief Project 26	3	7
Benedict-Proctor	1	9

Cincinnati Reds Make It Tough Going

The Ontario Intelligencer

WEATHER
Moderate winds; mostly fair and warm today and Saturday; probably local thunderstorms.

TEMPERATURES

	max.	min.
Today
Year Ago	87	63
Temperature of Bay—Ni

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1935

GOV'T. OFFERS TREKKERS BUSSES TO GO HOME

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Winnipeg, July 19 (CP)— An unidentified youth was arrested by the Red River early today following a hazardous 70-mile-an-hour chase by police after two youthful automobile thieves. Both lived into the river in an effort to escape.

One of them was able to reach the opposite bank despite the weight of his clothes while the other sank before the eyes of police and pedestrians, watching from the bank.

Montreal, July 19 (CP)— Rev. W. Allen, Hamilton organizer of the Vimy pilgrimage which is being planned by the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League, was today in conference with representatives of the reception and Minding of Canada's names army, which, at this time next year, will be crossing the Atlantic enroute to the battlefields of Belgium and France.

Burley, Idaho, July 19 (CP) — Minnie Fyfe was all in favor of the prize package being given away by a local store to attendants at a baseball game but knocked about the situation.

It was a joint of whiskey. Minnie Fyfe lives in Burley in good standing of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

The result: The Union adopted a resolution condemning raffles.

Portland, Ore., July 19 (CP)— The late Harry Miller family had been at war for some time and decided to do something about it.

Harry Miller received, via a Portland newspaper, a message from Miller 2424 with a note that urged "take your give a better impression of humanity."

The money order was from the inmates of the Oregon State penitentiary.

Chicago, July 19 (AP)— Michael Pasquale, newsboy, passed an unbreakable test as the driver was sporting gasoline into the carburetor. Head from the fuel tank ignited and the blaze motored behind the flaming fuel can to bury him.

"It struck Michael and in an instant he was enveloped in flames. Screaming, pedestrians watched a policeman extend fire extinguishers in a panic to get out the flames and took the boy to a hospital where his condition was said to be serious.

Los Angeles, July 19 (CP) A movie of a fan dancer will be shown in 21 gaols made necessary of the Federal Grand Jury investigation of films as they decide whether its transmission through the mails was illegal.

Assistant U. S. Attorney William Fleet Palmer decided to pass decision on to the Grand Jury after he viewed the film.

"I couldn't say it was or isn't-ly wicked," said Palmer, "but maybe the Grand Jury would think otherwise."

Los Angeles, July 19 (CP) — A trip of 13,000 miles has ended for Nancy Hay of Johannesburg, Africa, but her travels have merely begun.

Nancy Hay, shy and blond, arrived yesterday by train for a visit with her father, Sir Arthur of Tay Garnett, film director. She plans to study dancing here and on their return to Johannesburg in October on a motion picture exposition around the world.

Brantford, Ont., July 19 (CP)— Terrified screams disturbed the nocturnal quiet of the Brant County home when the occupants saw an upstairs flat fled to the street after discovering a wicked tarantula sporting about the living room.

When male members of the building, armed with broom, baseball bat and knives attacked the apartment the spider had disappeared.

The hunt is continuing, meanwhile, the family is living elsewhere.

Lindsay, Ont., July 19 (CP) — A Lindsay fisherman holds the unique distinction of having landed himself.

Floundering his rod in the approved manner, he made a long cast, but his calculations were not set, and he soon landed in his mouth.

A doctor removed the painful barb.

RIDE ALPS ON ELEPHANT

Martigny, France, July 19.—(CP-Havas)—Richard Halliburton, United States writer and explorer, accompanied by an elephant, on which he says he will emulate Hannibal in crossing the Alps, arrived here today from Paris. Halliburton said the elephant crossed the mountains by way of St. Bernard Pass to Pisa, thence to Rome.

$35,000 STAKES WON AT SANDOWN BY WINDSOR LAD

Last Year's Derby Winner Wins Eclipse Stakes

AGA KHAN'S THEFT 2nd

Windsor Lad Starts at 4 to 7, Theft at 7 to 2

Sandown Park, England; July 19 —(CP Cable)—Windsor lad, M. H. Benson's Derby winner of last year, today won the $35,000 Sandown Eclipse Stakes over the mile and a quarter route. The Aga Khan's Theft was second and J. A. Dewar's Fair Trial third.

The race was worth approximately $35,000. Windsor Lad started at 4 to 7, Theft 7 to 2 and Fair Trial 4 to 1. William Woodward's Bondsman and Adept were the only others started.

Windsor Lad won by three-quarters of a length and the same distance separated second and third.

KOLAPORE CUP WON BY INDIA

First Time in 64 Years of Match Has This Country Won

Sisley Camp, Eng., July 19 (CP)— For the first time in the 64 years of the match, India today won the Polo Association's Imperial Challenge cup, greatest team shoot of the empire meeting of the National Rifle Association.

Canada, defending the trophy, lost it by a single point after one of the strimmest battles the Kolapore shar ever seen.

India wound up the three ranges with an aggregate of 1,147, a record for the match. Canada had 1,146, the mother country 1,136, Guernsey 1,110 and Jersey 1,103.

The Canadians were four points behind at the 300-yard, four points behind at 500 yards and still a point behind when the match was completed at 600 yards.

Canada thus loses both major Imperial cups of the great meeting, yesterday having lost possession of the Mackinnon Challenge Cup to Australia.

Lt.-Col. C. G. Gibson of Hamilton and Lieut. Neal Dow of Saint John topped the Canadian individual scoring with totals of 56 out of a possible 100. Lt. A. B. Coulter of Ottawa and C.Q.M.S. Alex Parnell of Toronto, both 55; James Ross, also of Montreal 143; Capt. A.W. Hunt of Winnipeg and Lieut. C. Iddles of Calgary 139; and Lieut. P. J. Martinson of Le Tuque, Que. 141.

Flight Attempt Ends in Wreck

Cairo, Egypt, July 19—(CP Cable via Reuters)—The attempt of H. L. Brook to set a new record for the flight from England to Cape Town was ended here today.

His machine was completely wrecked, when he was forced down in the darkness through lack of fuel, after being unable to locate the aerodrome here. The aviator was not hurt, however.

He took off from London shortly after midnight, Wednesday night, London time and stopped briefly at Rome.

Dillinger Delighted Reading Stories Of His Crimes, Says 'Woman in Red'

Copyright, 1935
By The Associated Press

Chicago, July 19—(AP)— John Dillinger was never without the latest editions of the newspapers, Anna said, "He would sit—sometimes hours he would avidly read the details of Dillinger's crimes.

"Jimmy" said he thought Dillinger must have been very clever. He said Dillinger was too smart for the cops. Now he knows why Jimmie thought so highly of Dillinger."

Regarding the oft repeated assertion of police that she knew the sweetheart of "Public Enemy" was John Dillinger, Mrs. Sage vehemently denied this charge.

FACTIONAL RIOTS CONTINUE IN BELFAST

Castle Place, Belfast.

Parliament buildings" at Belfast.

Here are views from rick-torn Belfast, Northern Ireland, where serious been killed, scores injured and scores, public buildings, and residences burned during flareups between Nationalists and Orange-men. Fighting began on July 13 between Roman Catholics and Protestants and has flared intermittently ever since as truce bodies continue to attack each other despite police activity.

Violent Anti-Semitic Leader Assumes Berlin Police Post

New Attack on Jews And Catholics is Forecast

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
Associated Press Foreign Staff

Berlin, July 19.—(AP)—Indications of a war drive against politics in Germany's Protestant Church as well as the Roman Catholic were seen today simultaneously with the appointment of an avowed anti-semitic as head of the Berlin police.

Magnus von Levetzow, who failed to obtain Jews out of Berlin at least restrict them to the ghetto, resigned today, then five, as Berlin Police President and his post was filled by Count von Helldorf, regarded as a violent anti-semitic.

It was he who, in 1929, organized the first anti-semitic demonstration with the Kurfuerstendamm, where several Jews were beaten up this week in anti-semitic outbreaks.

He was appointed to the post by Wilhelm Frick, Minister of the Interior, following a stormy meeting of Nazi party leaders and officials.

An official statement declared:

"It is the honorary task of the (Nazi) party, politics and the city administration to co-operate and preserve the character of Berlin and make it worthy of being the capital of the Nazi Reich."

The anti-semitic campaign meanwhile developed openly. In Schoeneberg, a Berlin suburb, banners were stretched across the streets announcing, "We don't want to see any Jews in Berlin," "Out with the Jews" and similar messages.

The official Nazi news journal "NSZ" attacked the Berlin Marriage Licensing Bureau with a headline: "A racial shame still tolerated in Berlin!" Although no legal decrees exist which forbid the intermarriage of Aryans and non-Aryans, the Nazi publication has heralded for not forbidding such marriages at registration.

STEVENS OUTLINES HIS PARTY PLANS

New Party Leader Will Make Key Speech at Hamilton

Toronto, July 19.—(CP)—Organization meetings, private conferences and reception of reports on progress his party is making throughout Canada, occupied Hon. H. H. Stevens, leader of the Reconstruction Party here today. He arrived from Ottawa this morning and will go on to Hamilton later in the day where this evening he makes his key-note campaign speech. Tomorrow afternoon he is scheduled to address an open air meeting at St. Catharines after which he returns to Ottawa.

"I propose to cover every province of Canada" Mr. Stevens said today "and never to set a question in the campaign plans. He added however that his itinerary was still indefinite partly because no date for the election had been announced. He will probably leave for the West early next week spending about three weeks touring the Prairies and British Columbia.

He stressed that reference to his mine development plans were still owned and controlled by the Crown he would endeavor to have the development handled in such a way as to accrue to the profit of the state.

"I propose to cover every province Canadian all mines," he said.

It has been said that his platform was made up of planks taken from those of the Conservative and Liberal parties. Mr. Stevens was told. He smiled. "Well, it looks the same, and I can say that if we are elected to office they will be put to a constructive use instead of being piled up in corners as by the old parties."

LIFE IN PRISON GOODRICH'S FATE ON GUILTY PLEA

Trap Drummer, Pale And Trembling as Sentence Given

'HARD LABOR' IMPOSED

Trial of Slayer of 11 Year Lillian Gallaher Ends

Detroit, July 19—(AP)—Merton Ward Goodrich brought his trial for the murder of 11-year-old Lillian Gallaher to an abrupt end today by pleading guilty.

Pale and trembling, the one-time trap drummer in beer garden orchestras stood before Recorder's Judge Henry S. Sweeny as sentence of life imprisonment at hard labor in the Marquette Branch prison was imposed.

'PEG' BOXER FACES TRIAL IN LONDON

Prosecution Claims 'Del Fontaine' Married With Family

London, July 18—(CP-Cable)— Raymond Bousquet, Winnipeg boxer who fights under the name of "Del Fontaine" appeared in police court today for preliminary hearing on a charge of murdering Hilda Rose Alice Nielson, 31-year-old actress with whom he had been friendly for two years, and wounding the girl's mother.

The prosecution declared Fontaine was married with three children at home in Canada. He said Fontaine met Miss Meek in about 2 1-2 years ago and the couple were on affectionate terms. The prosecution declared Miss Nielsine about Miss Meek in the sitting room of her home, that she ran out on the street and there collapsed. Fontaine then shot Miss Meek and went out carrying the girl back into the house where she died. It was alleged. The elder woman is still in critical condition.

Fontaine, who avoided questioning as declaring when taken to the police station: "I shot the girl. I really cared for her but she has broken my heart and ruined my life. I don't care if I die. Don't think I am crazy".

Fontaine, the prosecution contended, loved both the girl and the girl had some drinks earlier in the evening at public houses. Later he heard her make an appointment over the telephone with some one for after he had gone out. He shouted in the telephone: "You're a liar. I'll kill you anywhere," and the girl in turn shouted, "All right" and then hung up the receiver.

The boxer threatened to shoot himself but when he let her go with any one else, the prosecution continued, and then he shot both the mother and daughter.

FUGITIVES CAUGHT CREEPING BACK

Two Men From Burwash Farm Four Days in Bush

Sudbury, Ont., July 19.—(CP)— Creeping back to Burwash Industrial farm under cover of darkness early this morning, Joseph Farmer, 21, Toronto, and William Ritchie, 20, Chatham, were captured by Burwash officials at 4 a.m. today. They had been four days in the bush following their dash for freedom early Monday afternoon.

They were arraigned in police court here today and were each sentenced to two years in Kingston penitentiary by Magistrate J. R. McKeslock. Both pleaded guilty to charges of escaping custody.

Meanwhile Helen Ross of Toronto was arrested by city police on a charge of vagrancy when police visited her apartment on Borgia street, Wednesday afternoon, looking for the escaped prisoners. She appeared in city police court this morning and was remanded until Saturday.

14,000 MEN ENROL ANSWERING CALL OF KING OF KINGS

Northern Frontier Incident is Not Confirmed

AIM AT SETTLEMENT

Questions of Arms Denial is Considered

(Copyright 1935)
By The Associated Press

Addis Ababa, July 19.—(AP)— Widespread military preparations for the general mobilization order which is believed imminent were reported throughout Ethiopia today, following Emperor Haile Selassie's speech in which he touched on the subjects that it was better to die free than to live conquered.

Fourteen thousand persons already have joined the new Patriotic Association "Love of Country" formed at last night's big meeting of adherents to the Emperor's plea for unity.

Unconfirmed reports of a new incident on the northern frontier were received but the foreign ministry was unable to gain a certified report.

The Emperor's firm declaration that Ethiopia wanted peace, not a mandate or protectorate of any nature was enthusiastically received by the people and seemed effectively to dispose of reports abroad that such a plan to divert war was under consideration.

Addis Ababa was quiet this morning. The Emperor's assurance that residents or foreigners were in no danger and the numerous policies taken for their security had a quieting effect. Business generally continued to stream out from the capital.

League Hopeful

Geneva, July 19.—(AP)—Officials of the League of Nations were still hopeful today that direct Haile-Ethiopian arbitration would be resumed and an official communique was issued saying that the time limit for the arbitration would be extended until July 25.

Great Britain, France and Italy are seeking to work out a settlement of the dispute on a basis of political basis as the nations realize that a solution of mere frontier questions could open the way to economic aspirations.

The League's delay, although the present dispute was furnished by a report of the League financial and economic committee, that, broadly speaking, financial pressure could be exerted and hastened by a unified decision on the matter, leaving it to the individual governments to apply the coercive measures with the economic life of a nation.

SIXTH TOOTH FOR QUINTS

Callander, Ont., July 19 (CP)— The seventieth tooth among the litter of quintuplets made its appearance today in baby Cecile's mouth, two more than any of the other quintuplets. Annette and Yvonne have four apiece and Marie and Emilie three each.

Despite an unsatisfactory last week, the babies with one exception, gained more than an ounce. Marie lost one half ounce, Cecile topped the 19 pound mark for the first time, and Emilie made the greatest gain seven ounces

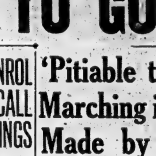
Band of Fortune Hunters Convinced Location of 10 Million Cargo Found

Lewes, Del., July 18 (AP).—The first step toward guard for 17 years over the treasure chests of the Spanish galleon Don Carlos was taken today and a band of fortune hunters were convinced they had located the privateer's $10,000,000 cargo.

From the shifting sands off Cape Henlopen in Delaware Bay and Delaware Bay—where the British sloop of war Hussar struck a rock on an old wooden railing to place the treasure site.

The rail mendelately a place from the sunken hulk, the treasure hunters were hailed by Randolph MacCracken, great grandson of the Don Carlos's skipper.

Content with his word, the leaders of the salvage expedition, Chas. H. Gallaher, of Atlantic City, and Richard T. Wilson, of Providence, R.I., hurried back to New England for equipment to raise the hulk.



The ancient hull lies half buried in the sand, thirty miles from Cape May, Florida, reported. Through weeks of probing the bay floor, he and his associates felt the hull but stopped every other search since they thought they had struck the bottom.

Sailing from the West Indies with Captain James Drew in command, the De Braak was seeking an anchorage near the Cape. Her sails caught a sudden gust of wind and laid her on her beam. She filled with water and sank.

Then, with the Hussar, from two captured Spanish galleons, and her own cargo of $800,000 in gold went to the bottom with her.

Throughout the 19th century, the wreck attracted treasure seekers.

"AE" Of Letters Dead

In the forefront of modern Irish literary men, George William Russell poet, painter, editor, essayist and agricultrist, died in Bournemouth, England, at the age of 68. He was known throughout the world under the curious pen-name "AE." Russell led the revival of Irish agricultural activity. He published several volumes of poetry.

'Pitiable to Think of It, Marching in Heat;' Offer Made by Ont. Premier

On-To-Ottawa Marchers Leave Pickering For Oshawa

335 IN TREK

Trekkers Hope to Do First Twenty-Nine Miles by Nightfall

Toronto, July 19 (CP)—Premier Hepburn announced today that hunger marchers who are nearing Oshawa on their trek to Ottawa are being given a chance to abandon their march and return home in buses provided by the Ontario government.

The Premier's offer, made to marchers by Provincial Police early today, expires tomorrow at six p.m. When the Premier reached his office today, himself gasping with the heat, he remarked "it's pitiable isn't it to think of these men and women marching in this heat. I am afraid some are going to suffer heat prostration, therefore I am instructing the police to offer them transportation back to their homes. We will bring any that want to come back. But after tomorrow evening any who drop out of the march must get back as best they can. We don't help them."

Sun Broils Marchers

Pickering, Ont., July 19 (CP) — Under a broiling sun, Toronto's "On-to-Ottawa" marchers today trampled out of Pickering bound for Oshawa 10 miles east, the next objective.

Before the day of the tramp to Ottawa found the trekkers prepared for the sun with varied types of hats and bonnets. Hardened by two days of tramping, the marchers' feet were prepared for the long trek into today although many cases of blisters were treated by first aid squads.

The marchers, numbering about 230, spent the night at Camp Yengfield, operated under radical auspices, near Pickering.

On arrival at Oshawa the trekkers will have covered 29 miles of the 275 mile tramp to Ottawa.

Says Premier's Bluffing

WINDSOR, Ont., July 19.—(CP) —Relief strikers at Windsor's wood yard today gutted Premier Hepburn's plan of "no relief no work" and threw a picket line around the yard to warn away those who might seek jobs in place of the axes and saws.

"Hepburn is just bluffing," was the opinion expressed by speakers and leaders of the relief camp welfare workers who urged them to go back on the cash relief plan of 50 cents per day.

Police, fearing trouble, rushed 30 men to the woods where 1,200 armed with tear-gas bombs and clubs, were on hand. Strikers intended themselves with jeering remarks and nothing serious developed.

Adj. Raycraft is leading the strikers.

Busses Offered

Kenora, Ont., July 19.—(CP) — Three hundred and eighty relief workers here today had been offered free transportation back to Winnipeg if they said that after two o'clock this afternoon, no more free meals or accommodation will be provided.

From that time on, said a pamphlet signed by Mayor T. McCrudden and distributed among the men after breakfast, the strikers will be treated as ordinary transients. Such men are allowed to stay in Kenora only two days.

This means the 250 men who started the Winnipeg-bound trek must fare for themselves. The second contingent that walked from the Manitoba border yesterday have until tomorrow.

Dead Line 2 p.m.

The offer of free transportation was made by the council after they had been empowered to do so by the Ontario Government. After the 3 p.m. deadline the no assistance of any kind will be given strikers unless the transportation offer was accepted, the Mayor's statement said.

Before breakfast the men voted to continue the march to the lakehead as soon as possible. There they said, they hoped to pick up additional followers to travel to Ottawa and protest camp conditions. A meeting was called for later in the day to consider the transportation offer.

HOTTEST DAY OF YEAR

The mercury in the thermometer over the Filtration Plant extended to 91 today for the highest mark this year. There was little breeze, but humidity being exhcusive.

Forecast of thunderstorms may break the heat wave but no hope is held that such will be the case by the weatherman.

ATTEND CAUCUS

Toronto, July 18 (CP)—Approximately 200 delegates, including five Dominion cabinet ministers with Ontario party leaders, attended a Conservative caucus here.

Hon. Earl Lawson, Minister of Railways, Hon. R. J. Matthews, Finance Minister, Hon. Gerald Sutherland, Minister of Pensions and National Health, Hon. H. A. Stevens, Hon. Dr. Manion, leader and Hon. Wesley Gordon, Minister of Labor attended.

WEATHER

Toronto, July 19.—(CP) —Some heavy thunderstorms have occurred in Southern districts of Manitoba and Saskatchewan, with light scattered showers in other parts of the West. Thunderstorms have also occurred in Northern Ontario and Quebec. It has been warm on the Lower Lakes and in the Maritimes.

Forecasts:—Moderate to fresh winds, shifting to easterly; fair at first, becoming unsettled at night.

Lake Superior—East to fresh winds; mostly cloudy with showers or thunderstorms.

Manitoba—Moderate to fresh winds; mostly cloudy with showers or thunderstorms.

Saskatchewan.—Partly cloudy and comparatively cool; scattered showers.

Alberta — Partly cloudy with moderate temperature.

Coming Events

ICE CREAM SUPPER, BETHEL Church, Finkle Church, Wednesday evening, by Sills Ball game. Good program. Refreshments, including all ice cream you can eat. Adults 35c Children 15c. 1-19-1t

BASKET ANNUAL PICNIC WILL BE held at Massassaga Point, July 25th. 2-19-1t

LUCKY BALLOON DANCE SATURDAY night at Queen's Club Rooms, by Jack Grant and his Aces. Admission 50c and tax. Jl8-2t

City and District News

HAYING IS NOW IN FULL SWING

Haying operations now in full swing has resulted in a correspondingly decrease in the number of men employed on road work and other jobs in Hastings County, it was stated today by Mr. Johnson, the county road superintendent. At the present time only a nominal force of employees are at work in particular townships. Only one crusher is in operation in the county.

HEAVY CROP OF APPLES OBSERVED

Fruit trees and especially apple trees are bending throughout this section under one of the heaviest crops observed in years. It was reported today by one well known agriculturist. Although many of the trees were winter killed last year, this ones remaining give promise of extraordinary yield. Props are being used in many cases to avoid breakage of limbs.

McEntee of Cobourg District Deputy

Included in the list of district deputies of the Knights of Columbus in the various Knights of Columbus districts throughout Ontario as announced by State Deputy George L. Rush of Guelph, is Mr. J. McEntee, Cobourg, has been named to that office for the territory of Kingston, Belleville, Trenton, Peterboro and Lindsay.

FIRE BRIGADE IN QUICK RUN

Members of No. 1 Fire Company believe a new record was set up for distance covered in the run to a test run held to the local hospital, late yesterday morning. From the time alarm gongs rang in the station only 1 minute and 46 seconds had elapsed before the hall had reached the hospital and were ready for action. The test was held in the presence of members of the Hospital Board following installation of a new automatic fire detection system in the hospital and the nurses' home.

FATAL ILLNESS LASTED BUT WEEK

Miss Ida Marrilla Keck, sixteen year old daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Keck, 80 Carrington Road, and of the late John Keck, died in the home this week, not after months as stated in an obituary which appeared in this paper on Monday. She suffered from appendix trouble.

FINE GROWTH OF ALFALFA SEEN

Mr. Stanley May, second concession of Thurlow, brought to the editorial room today a fine sample of alfalfa, the seed being planted this year. One stalk was over four feet high, while the average height of the crop is three feet. In many states, that crops are exceptionally good in that district this year.

SEVEN SINGLE MEN PLACED ON FARMS

Seven single men who had volunteered for farm work have been placed on farm positions by superintendent James W. Rose of the local Employment Service. The details office yesterday. With haying operations now commenced in the district a wage of one dollar and fifty cents is being offered for the work, which will occupy about two weeks. A high as $20 per month is being offered some farmers for steady help it was stated.

CANDIDATE SPEAKS AT DESERONTO

Mr. Chas. A. Cameron, Liberal candidate for the riding of South Hastings and Mayor Geo. O. Tice are scheduled as chief speakers at a rally to be held in Deseronto this evening. At Wallbridge, the Hon. Dr. J. A. Faulkner and other speakers will address a similar meeting there.

It Pays to Shop at the Rexall Store.

SPECIAL VALUES!

Patents and Toiletries

SEE BILLS, SEE WINDOW

McKeown's Drug Store

SHOP AT ZELLERS

IT PAYS

EVERY DAY LOW PRICES

Not a special Sale once or twice a year, but consistently low prices—that's the I.D.A. Policy.

SAVE SAFELY AT YOUR I.D.A. DRUG STORES

Increase Your Ice Cream Sales by Serving "Neilson's Ice Cream" The Trade Supplied by CITIZEN'S DAIRY Phone 126

A35-M-W-F-tf

MEMBERS SHOOT FOR CLASSIFICATION

A company of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment will be at Barriefield Camp, Kingston, on Sunday for their annual shoot for classification. About thirty members will comprise the company.

FORTY-SIX BLOOMS ON TIGER LILY

Toronto horticulturist had to fame with a record blooming tiger lilly may be eclipsed by the unusual growth of a similar plant in the garden of O. P. Lowery, 85 Bridge Street West. Forty-six blooms were counted on one stalk of his tiger lily.

County Councillors Receive Minutes

Following a resolution to that effect passed at the last session of Hastings County Council, reeve and deputy reeves throughout the county will receive this week or next completed printed forms of the seventy minutes of the last session of Council. They have been under preparation at office of the county clerk for some time past. This is a new departure.

BLEECKER WARD LIBERALS MEET

Charles A. Cameron, The Candidate And Other Speakers Heard

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Liberals of Bleecker Ward was held Thursday evening, on the premises of Mr. Isaac Stephenson, Great St. James street, in the interest of Mr. Charles A. Cameron, Liberal candidate for the Federal riding of South Hastings.

Mr. Thomas Mason acted as chairman and brief addresses on the political issues were made by Mayor George O. Tice, Col. W. B. Riendeau, W. F. Fairbairn, Q. C.; MacLaurin and Mr. Cameron. Reference was made by Mr. Cameron to the hastily prepared manifesto of Mr. Stevens, which consists mainly of planks taken from other party platforms.

The important promises made in the past by Mr. Bennett and Mr. Stevens, and left unfulfilled, were remembered against them. Conditions, that were good in the days of the King Government have gone steadily from bad to worse under the Bennett Government. To avoid a continuance of extreme depression and unemployment for five years more, the Bennett-Stevens aggregation will surely be dismissed from office. The retirement of many of the Bennett cabinet just before the election is virtually their admission of a victory for the Liberal party under the leadership of Right Honourable Mackenzie King. A Liberal victory will insure sane reform measures as well as sound trade and labor policies that will bring back prosperity to Canada as in the days of the former Liberal regimes of Laurier and King.

At the conclusion of Mr. Cameron's address, refreshments were served and a hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson and the lady workers of Bleecker Ward.

POLICE COURT

One of the largest dockets of the year was presented before His Worship Magistrate E. J. Butler, K.C., today, practically all cases heard of a minor nature but took considerable time.

Two inebriates, a local resident and his lady friend were also arrested earlier in the week on a charge of intoxication pleaded guilty as charged and in default of the payment of the fine were sentenced to serve ten days in the common jail, dating from the time of arrest.

A charge of the theft of a watch laid by W. Parnell of the city against Joseph Rollins, Moira Street was dismissed. During the evidence it was clearly established that the watch was stolen the time piece as security for board received. A second charge against Rollins of using grossly insulting language was enlarged until the court produced the city bylaw under which the charge was laid.

Two assault cases were to have been presented but when the counsels concerned convened during a short recess, an enlargement was asked in both cases. They were family affairs, it was intimated in the court, although no evidence was submitted.

His Worship reserved judgment on a charge of the negligent operation of a motor car laid against Ted Courneya, Tamworth, after the evidence had been submitted. The charge followed a motor accident that occurred at Marysville on the night of July 10th last when two automobiles, one driven westerly by Courneya and the other by Clapcotie direction by F. H. Correll of Napanee collided. Traffic officers Delaney and Ervine gave evidence after having investigated the case. Both officers and Mr. Correll testified that the Courneya car was on the wrong side of the road, while the occupants of the Courneya auto swore that Mr. Correll was driving in a manner, that indicated he was about to leave the highway on his left hand side, causing Courneya to swerve to the left to avoid a headon collision. Judgment will be given in the case one week from today.

Erwins Switzer, of this city, pleaded guilty to a charge of theft of tires from Gregory Bell, his employer and a local tire dealer, when he appeared before Magistrate E. J. Butler, K.C., today. As the charge was Switzer's first one and upon the promise, the restitution would be made, the court took a lenient view of the matter and allowed the accused to return to his home on a two year's suspended sentence.

The value of the tires and accessories alleged to be taken amounted to around $200.00. R. C. Donnan K.C., Crown Attorney, informed the court. W. A. Griffin, Napanee, barrister, represented the accused man and spoke of the previous good reputation. Costs in the case were imposed by the accused. The case was investigated by city and Provincial police.

ONLY One More Week TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS OFFER

Silver Jubilee Offer

COMMUNITY PLATE

Famous Grosvenor DESIGN

1/3 OFF REGULAR PRICES PLUS EXTRA SAVINGS ON SETS

26-PIECE SERVICE FOR SIX, IN THE "ROYAL" CHEST.....

$17.65

Regular Open Stock Price, $30.50

YOU SAVE $12.85

"Crestwood", a traditional Community Plate design at the lowest prices ever offered! One that graces the table in many of Canada's finest homes! And you buy it at ⅓ off regular prices, as a special Jubilee feature! This offer expires soon!

July 20 to July 25 only

Other Community Plate Designs at Regular Price

Angus McFee

USE OUR DEFERRED PAYMENT PLAN.

Obituary

LATE WILBERT F. OSBORNE

With scores of former friends from a wide area in this district present to pay their last respects, the funeral of the late Wilbert F. Osborne one of the largest held in the district in some time, took place from his late residence on the Massassaga Road on Thursday afternoon. A profusion of floral tributes accompanied the former popular resident to his grave.

During the service held at the home at 1:30 and conducted by the Rev. D. J. Campbell, assisted by the Rev. J. D. P. Hoag, Mr. Fred Eaton, of Morristown, New Jersey, rendered a solo, "In Heavenly Love Abiding", He was accompanied on the piano by Mr. Leo. B. Riggs of this city.

Following services at the home the funeral entourage went to the Belleville Cemetery where after further graveside service, interment was made in the family plot.

The bearers were John Weese, M. P.; John Walker; K. Ackerman; J. Nightingale; J. Broad and H. Wallbridge.

PUPILS SUCCESSFUL IN MUSIC EXAMS

V. P. Hunt, director of the Albert College Conservatory of Music had the following pupils, who were successful in the recent examinations of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, held at Albert College:

Piano—Associateship A.T.C.M. Solo Performer's—Helen Milligan.

Elementary—George Stobbs, Organ, Junior —Dorland Houston, (honours).

Tibbey— Grade V

Musical Form and Analysis—Alice Hutley, (honours); Margaret Hutley, (honours).

Grade III

Fay L. Bunkard, (honours).

Grade II

Clarence McLean, (First Class Honours).

GENERAL UTILITY HOUSE PAINTS

A serviceable paint, made with pure Linseed Oil in 6 colors and white, gallon

1.95

RICHMOND PAINTS ENAMELS VARNISH & VARNISH STAIN

QUART

69c

PINTS 39c

SMITH HARDWARE

PLUMBERS and TINSMITHS

Mickey Roach Signs With Syracuse Stars

Toronto, July 18.—(CP)—Frank Selke, business manager of the Toronto Maple Leaf Hockey Club of the National Hockey League said today Mickey Roach, coach of the Buffalo Bisons of the International Hockey League last year, has signed a year's contract to coach the Syracuse hockey club of the International League this season.

Selke declined to say the Toronto Maple Leafs would break a working agreement with Syracuse this season.

TRAIN CONDUCTOR KILLED

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., July 19 (CP)—The body of James E. Brennan, 52, train conductor in the employ of the Algoma Steel Corporation was found early this morning on the tracks inside the Steel Corporation yards, badly mangled. It is believed he was struck by an engine and killed instantly. He leaves a widow and nine children.

ONLY One More Week TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS OFFER

Silver Jubilee Offer

COMMUNITY PLATE

Famous Grosvenor DESIGN

1/3 OFF REGULAR PRICES PLUS EXTRA SAVINGS ON SETS

26-PIECE SERVICE FOR SIX, IN THE "ROYAL" CHEST.....

$17.65

Regular Open Stock Price, $30.50

YOU SAVE $12.85

"Crestwood", a traditional Community Plate design at the lowest prices ever offered! One that graces the table in many of Canada's finest homes! And you buy it at ⅓ off regular prices, as a special Jubilee feature! This offer expires soon!

July 20 to July 25 only

Other Community Plate Designs at Regular Price

Angus McFee

USE OUR DEFERRED PAYMENT PLAN.

WILL NOT BUILD SHEDS THIS YEAR

Will Use Tents To House Livestock at The Fair

Although serious consideration had been given by members of the Belleville Fair Board to the question of the erection of more permanent buildings at the agricultural grounds to care for the ever increasing number of exhibits each year, it was decided at a meeting of the Board held last evening to forego further building for this season and to use tents to house livestock exhibits. Other routine matters occupied the attention of the Board.

"We expect this year to be the biggest ever," stated President Wilbur Asselstine in commenting on the coming fair. "And that isn't just merely repeating what has been said on previous years. This year we expect to be really taxed to find room for the exhibitors. Already we have been giving out rental space in the buildings and these are being rapidly contracted for. We expect it to be the best ever."

131 CHILDREN ATTEND OPENING

Daily Vacational Bible School is Opened This Morning

The Daily Vacational Bible School for school age children began at the Alliance Tabernacle, West Moira Street, this morning. Registration of names filled out the morning routine. 131 children registered during the morning and 4 more this year for the all time record of the school.

The school has been on the increase every year since it was started. Two years ago the average attendance was 90. Last year the daily attendance averaged 126 with a high attendance of 167. This year at the present rate the average should hover around 140 which will be almost the maximum number that can be accommodated. Rev. Mr. McArthur informs us that the Alliance Tabernacle who is in charge is greatly delighted with the turnout. Teachers in charge are Mrs Morgan, teacher for the 11 year old girls and over; Mr. McArthur, teacher for the 11 year old boys and over; Mrs. MacGregor, 9-10 year girls; Gerald Alyea 9-10 boys; Mrs. Lloyd, 8 year old boys and girls; Dorothy Morgan, 7 year old girls; Dorothy Mitchell 6 year boys and girls; Doris Morgan and Margaret Alyea will teach the beginners.

The school goes in at nine o'clock each morning and is over at twelve. There is a fifteen minute recess period when happy choruses suited to the theme taken will be sung. Th purpose of the school is to emphasize the memorization of Scripture, teaching of Bible stories and the learning of doctrine. The theme this year is Building Life's Temple. In front of the church platform is a large miniature of a ship cut out of cardboard with the Bible secure for the sails. A screen is also used for the singing of hymns, using a lantern to play on it.

General assemblies are held every morning when all the children enter the main auditorium and have their lessons in the various Bible class rooms. The beginners room contains a sand table where they learn to put things together and can enjoy themselves to the fullest in the sand.

Enthusiasm at the school runs high. Already the morning session was over grouge of children still lingered around the church discussing what they will take up this year and who they had for teachers. Half an hour after the school was over three and four children entered the church and enquired of Mr. and Arthur if the school had started. With a friendly and cheerful smile Mr. McArthur told them that it was over for this morning but to be sure and come next Monday morning. The school will have a two weeks' duration ending on August 3.

2ND BATTALION TO HOLD REUNION

Will Meet in This City on Aug. 31st And Bowmanville on Sunday

The annual reunion of the veterans of the 2nd Canadian Infantry Battalion, C.E.F. will be held at Belleville on August 31, it was announced here today. On the following day the veterans will proceed to Bowmanville, for the annual memorial service in St. Paul's United Church, where the colors of the unit are deposited. Principal speaker at the Reunion dinner will be General Sir Archibald G. MacDonell, K.C.B., former commander of the 1st Canadian Division.

The 2nd Battalion is perpetuated in the non-permanent active militia by the Governor General's Foot Guards of Ottawa, and the Peterborough Rangers. The Veterans' association is affiliated with the 2nd Australian Infantry Battalion Association of Sydney, N.S.W.

One of the original units of the 2nd Canadian Contingent, the 2nd Battalion had a distinguished war record. In 1915 it fought at Ypres, Festubert and Givenchy. Its campaigns of 1916 included Mill 30, Mount Sorrel, Pozieres and the Regina trench. The year 1917 saw the unit in the Vimy Ridge, Fresnoy, Hill 70 and Passchendaele while in 1918 it took part in stemming the German advance south of the Somme, in the battle of Amiens, the second engagement at Arras, the Drocourt-Quehant line, the Canal du Nord and the pursuit to Mons. The battalion proceeded to Germany as part of the occupation and garrisoned the Cologne Bridgehead for several months.

Branches of the Battalion Association are active in Montreal, Kingston, Belleville, Toronto and Windsor, Ont.

PREMIER OPPOSES IRWIN ARGUMENT

Enforcement of C. T. A. Not Necessary Says Hepburn

Toronto, July 18—(CP)—Despite the arguments of Dr. A. J. Irwin, Secretary of the Ontario Temperance Federation, Premier Hepburn is determined to appeal against the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada that the Canada Temperance Act is in force in three Ontario counties.

Mr. Hepburn today took issue with Dr. Irwin's statement that the Provincial Government is obliged to enforce the Canada Temperance Act. "Our law officers advise us that if we do not appeal obligation to enforce the Canada Temperance Act" said the Premier who has admitted that the Ontario Government is making no effort to enforce Dominion regulations in Northern Jaland where the Canada Temperance Act prevails.

Beyond that Mr. Hepburn would not discuss the question.

Just Two Bits of Glass!

But what wonders they work for millions of us in conversing a nervous wreck to a normal comfortable existence—in rendering possible tasks which otherwise would be positively prohibited—in replacing misery by enjoyment.

The more careful and experienced your examiner the greater the value for your expenditure.

To avoid loss of time 'phone 26 for appointment

J. A. McFEE

Professional Optometrist

This Week's SATURDAY SPECIAL

AT OUR FOUNTAIN

Cantaloupe Sundae

15c

LATTIMER'S DRUG STORE

Phone 67

228 Front Street. We Deliver

FARMERS! Protection Against Loss by HAIL

Both Canada and the United States have lost heavily this year as a result of destructive storms. You are certain of insurance but not about the weather.

FOR RATES SEE OR PHONE

HAIG BROS. Limited

126 Front St. Open Saturday Evenings. Phone 126

ELEMENTARY PIANO EXAMS

Robert Henthorne, Corbyville, has received word from the Toronto Conservatory of Music, that he was successful in passing his Elementary piano examination held at Albert College, in June. Robert is a pupil of Vira Kindred.

BATTER UP!

THE BATTIER THE BETTER!

as the Wild Man of Baseball is Struck Dumb by a Blonde's curves.

He Knows Baseball Backwards and That's Just How He Plays It!

JOE E. BROWN

in Harry Langdon's

Alibi Ike

with OLIVIA De HAVILLAND - RUTH DONNELLY

BELLE Saturday & Monday

2.30: 7.15: 9.10

ENDS TONIGHT—Katharine Hepburn in "BREAK OF HEARTS"

CAPITOL

Now Playing also Saturday

The Whole Amazing Story of the Government Agents Who Matched Science and Courage Against the Underworld!

"G-MEN" with

JAMES CAGNEY — MARGARET LINDSAY

Also COMEDY NEWS CARTOON

EXTRA ADDED — SATURDAY ONLY

2.00: Shows at 7.15: 8.40

CANNING FACTORY WORKS 24 HOURS

All Available Labor at Frankford Now at Work

Frankford, July 19—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herrington of Richmond Hill, were week end guests of Mrs. S. Herrington.

Mrs. R. Y. Cooper also Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper and daughter of Bloomfield spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Leavitt.

Mrs. J. J. Caswell and son of Madoc, are spending a few days in the village.

Mrs. J. Mirat and niece of Brighton are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Conrad.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Chase have returned home from Orillia where they were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison for the past two weeks.

Miss R. Austin of Wooler, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carr.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy Sarles and family have taken up residence in Wellington.

Freddie Spencer who has been at Boys' Camp, Cedardale for a week has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonisteel spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Bonisteel.

Mr. D. O. MacKenzie of Kingston, spent the week end in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce and daughter have returned to Hamilton after spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. O. Baker.

Mr. Kenneth, Stewart of Deseronto is spending a few days in town.

Mrs. Geo. Rogers spent Saturday afternoon with friends in Trenton.

The canning factory is working night and day this week. The crop of peas is the biggest for some years and at present every available man and woman in the village is at work. Farmers are having trouble in getting help just now as for a few weeks the canning factory has us all the surplus men.

Bro. A. S. McConnell spent Tuesday afternoon in the village calling on his parishioners.

Geo. H. Spencer, M.M., of Prince Edward Lodge A.F. and A.M. is attending Grand Lodge at Hamilton this week.

Miss Dorothy Foster spent Sunday visiting friends in Toronto.

Over a thousand people attended the afternoon and evening services at the Free Methodist Camp Ground on Sunday which was the last day of the meetings for this year in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mayhes and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. S. Herrington.

Miss Isabel Dickson Reg. N., of Ottawa is spending a few days at her home in the village.

Miss Ethel Conley of Trenton, is spending her vacation at her home in the village.

Miss Pearl Fowell returned home this week after spending a few days at Campbellford the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Southworth.

Mrs. Geo. Frost and Mrs. Mae Frost spent the week end in Toronto.

Miss Beatrice Harrison is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison.

Mrs. Brown of Timmins, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Simmons for a few weeks.

SOLID AS THE CONTINENT

Today, as when first assured by Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, Dominion Minister of Canada and first President of North American Life, this Company remains true to its description "Solid as the Continent". It is a mutual company. Its assets are controlled by its policyholders.

North American Life Assurance Company

NORTH AMERICAN LIFE

Solid as the Continent

R. B. COOPER District Manager
235 Front Street Belleville

ALL PROFITS FOR POLICYHOLDERS

Mr. Geo. E. Sine is in Toronto this week on business.

Messrs. W. D. Simmons and Geo. D. Wright attended Masonic Grand Lodge held at Hamilton this week.

A. J. ANDERSON IS GRANDMASTER

Installation at Masonic Grand Lodge at Hamilton

Hamilton, Ont., July 18—(CP)—A. J. Anderson of Toronto will be installed as the new Grand Master elect of the Grand Lodge of Canada, A. F. & A. M. in Ontario at the close of the communications here later today, Most Worshipful brother Anderson is not opposed in his nomination for the high office. Balloting was proceeding and the results will be known this afternoon.

A resolution of sympathy was forwarded to the United Grand Lodge of Great Britain expressing the regret of the Grand Lodge in Ontario at the passing of the late Lord Ampthill, Program Master of the British body.

REV. H. TURNER IS INDUCTED INTO PASTORATE

Impressive Service is Held at West Huntingdon United Church

West Huntingdon, July 18—The hay question is causing the farmers considerable worry, the recent rains have reduced the quality considerably, in fact, some of the sweet clover and alfalfa hay has been almost spoiled. But now that the eclipse of the moon is passed perhaps there will be good hay weather. .

The several committees that were appointed to arrange for the 12th of July celebration met on Tuesday evening and were well pleased with the financial returns.

A number of local people have visited the huckleberry rocks, but report that the crop is only average.

Mr. James McMechan of Madoc, is the guest this week of Mr. Arthur Wilson.

Miss Georgia Pitman is spending this week with friends at Millbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Irwine of Tweed were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Pitcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Carr and family attended the Tufts-Shapley picnic held at Oak Lake on Wednesday.

Mrs. (Dr.) Moran of Buffalo, is spending a couple of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bray of Mill Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McGowan of Rochester, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McGowan.

Miss Joan McCurdy is spending a few days the guest of Miss Sarah Wilson at Frankford.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Harrison of Kingston were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sills of Church Street.

Mr. Jack Hassall has purchased the Murray farm situated at the end of Church Street and will take immediate possession.

Mr. Harold Ashley spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Ashley of Rosser Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Heagle of Hoard's Station were Friday evening guests of Mrs. Effie Wilson.

Mrs. Geo. Robinson of Tweed is visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fargey's this week.

Miss Bell of Belleville is the guest of her niece Mrs. Foster Wilson.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. German Wright of West Huntingdon, a son.

Mr. Keith Bray has secured a good position in a cheese and creamery factory near Wallbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee and Borden, of Ida passed the Sunday evening at Mr. Geo. Post's.

Messrs. Geo, Ross, Judson McGowan, Murray Wright and H. Benson attended the 12th of July celebration at Bancroft.

A very interesting and inspiring meeting was held on Monday evening at the United Church when the president, Rev. Dr. Semple of Belleville, took charge conferring the the president of Belleville Presbytery Rev. Rowland of Stirling, and members of the West Huntingdon circuit which composed the five appointments of Moira, Fuller, Eggleston and West Huntingdon met for the ordination of the Rev. Harold Turner into the pastorate of this charge.

Rev. Rowland was chairman of the evening's service and conducted worship period which consisted of singing hymns, and the reading of Scripture lesson and prayer by chairman Rev. Andrew McLaughlin a very close friend of the minister, delivered the message to the new minister and first of all stated he knew Mr. Turner's life from boyhood up also knowing his parents as well. He could therefore commend him to this charge.

He used Paul's words to Timothy when he said "make full proof of thy ministry" and urged his minister brother in the ministry to first of all preach the gospel, as it was the greatest work in the world. He also gave some good advice to the congregation.

A quartette composed of Messrs. Arthur and Geo. Brought, Ross Palmer and Floyd McCauley of Fuller sang "Take Your Burden to the Lord." Their young men are very much appreciated in all gatherings for their helpful contributions in song.

Mrs. W. Pitchitt assisted at pianist.

Dr. Jas. Semple of Belleville gave a very brief but helpful message to the congregation bringing a new thought in that while we had a new minister did it ever occur that a new congregation was just as necessary.

Dr. Semple divided his talk into four parts, 1 We must protect our ministers reputation, time and influence, praise him, pay him, pray for him.

Rev. Rowland conducted the impressive induction service of the United Church and the officials and members present gave the new minister the right hand of fellowship and declared by a standing vote to be loyal to him.

The gathering was largely attended.

Rev. Mr. Turner left on Tuesday morning on his holidays, and on his honeymoon as he is being married this week.

McIntosh Bros. Gigantic July Clearance

THE Event OF THE SEASON!

WHITE PURSES FOR WOMEN

Underarm or strap style purses. Some purses have zipper fastening. Many have fancy ornaments. All purses are washable. Regular $1.00. While they last 79c

Ladies' Summer Gloves (PERRINS) Selling Below Cost!

Summer gloves, all sizes. Shades of white, grey, black or black trimmed white. Some have cuffs, some are plain. Silk mesh or cotton mesh materials. The best line of summer gloves we have every stocked. If you are in need of gloves do not fail to see our lines before buying!

GLOVES Reg. $1.50 Sale 95c
GLOVES Reg. $1.00 Sale 69c
GLOVES Reg. 79c Sale 50c
GLOVES Reg. 50c Sale 29c

Misses' and Women's BATHING SUITS

Here ladies is an opportunity for you to save money on that Bathing Suit. We have decided to clear from our stock all plain shades in ladies' Pure Wool Bathing Suits in Black, Blue, Green and Red. The regular price is $1.95.

Special 1.39 Suit

Children's Dimity Pyjamas
REGULARLY TO 89c. Clearing at 49c

Children's Print Bloomer Dresses
Sizes 2 and 3 years only. CLEARING AT 59c

Children's Silk Dresses
2 to 6 years. REGULARLY $1.00 CLEARING AT 69c

LADIES' BATHING SUITS Regular 2.95 Clearing $1.95

LADIES' Shorts
Linen shorts for sports wear. Various shades; not all sizes. Regular $1.95. Sale $1.50

LADIES' and MISSES' Shorts
Made from a fine quality cotton. Shades of white, blue and green. Only a few left so be early. Reg. $1.50. Sale price $1.00

CHILDREN'S 3 Piece Suits
Consisting of blouse, skirt and shorts, sizes 8 to 14 years. Copen shade only. Regular $1.25. While they last $1.29

Sports Suits (3 PIECE) FOR WOMEN
Sport outfit consists of pullover or sport shirt, shorts and skirt. Shades of light blue, white, sand and grey. Only a few sizes left. Reg. price $2.95. Sale price $1.95

McINTOSH BROS.
257 Front Street Belleville Phone 802

B. A. GASOLINE and OILS

IT IS OUR BIRTHDAY PARTY

GOODYEAR TIRES

and We want You to Feel that

YOU ARE INVITED

This is the fourth anniversary of our opening the Belleville Branch of BAKER'S SERVICE. During the past four years we have had the pleasure of serving a great many customers. The fact that our business has continued to grow, indicates quite clearly that we have enjoyed the confidence of those we have served.

Now to show our appreciation of that confidence and in order to make new friends we are extending an invitation to YOU to visit our service station on

SATURDAY, JULY 20th

WE ARE GOING TO HAVE

FREE ICE CREAM CONES and Special Prizes up to $5.00 In Value

BE SURE TO BRING THE CHILDREN

There are no strings to this offer. There is no contest. Simply make a call at our service station, corner Front and Dundas Streets, purchase anything you need for your car, (even gasoline) and let us furnish the treats.

CHILDREN UNACCOMPANIED BY THEIR PARENTS CANNOT BE SERVED

Baker's Service

U. S. L. BATTERIES

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

WASHING and GREASING

GEO. W. RUSSELL IRISH POET, DIES

"AE" Prominent Jack of All Literary Trades

Bournemouth, England, July 18. — George William Russell, Irish journalist, writer, and painter, known to poetry lovers by the pen-name "A.E." died last night. He was 68 years old.

Although primarily noted as a poet, he was an energetic jack of many trades—a painter, business man, organizer, editor and co-founder of the famous Abbey Theatre in Dublin.

Russell was in his late twenties when, in 1904, he published his first book of poems, "Homeward: Songs by the Way". "The Yeats "Celtic Twilight" cult had just achieved world prominence, and Russell, with his spiritual mysticism, was immediately taken to the hearts of poetry lovers.

His last book, "House of the Titans and Other Poems," appeared in 1934.

RAWDON NEWS OF PERSONAL INTEREST

Rawdon—Miss Laura Tucker presided at the organ at Bethel United Church on Sunday afternoon and Miss Annie Elliott rendered a vocal solo "The Ascent of Calilee".

Mr. Walter Warren of Bethel, who has been ill during the school week is slowly recuperating.

Mrs. Kenneth Hagerman and children, have been holidaying with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rice.

Mrs. Clarence Scott and baby son Wilmot Ray, spent Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mr. Thomas Andrews.

Several Rawdonians watched the eclipse of the moon on Monday evening and viewed the strange sight in the clouds.

The spacious lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Farrell, Rawdon, was the scene of a lawn social and chicken supper in aid of St. Janes' Church on Monday evening and a large number were in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey were dinner guests on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sine, of Stirling.

Mrs. Mabel Hayton, teacher of S. S. No. 7 Fourth Line school, has been fortunate in having all of her entrance pupils pass their exams. Miss Muriel Welbourne passed on her year's work and the rest of the pupils were — Douglas Richardson, Verna Sudsbrand, Roy Coleman and Marjorie Richardson.

Miss Helen Thain and Miss Mabel Beckett, pupils of Miss P. Cook were also successful in gaining their entrance.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pitman of Trenton were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Pitman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wiley and family of Oshawa spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bristol.

FELLOW-STUDENTS ARE ENTERTAINED

Melville, July 19—Misses Norma and Vivian Wood are spending some time with relatives in Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wood and boys were Friday evening callers at Mr. W. Wood's.

A number from this vicinity attended the ice cream social at Foxboro on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Jimmie, Toronto, are visiting with their uncle Mr. Shackleton, Toronto, spent the week at their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bullock.

Mrs. Matilda Arthur and Mrs. Nellie Arthur, Ann Street, Belleville, were Sunday guests of Mrs. H. B. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morton and Isabel, Jean and Hilda, Mr. and Mrs. Will Morton, Mr. John Morton, Mr. and Mrs. F. Russel, Ameliasburg and Mrs. Jas. Morton held their picnic on Mrs. Jas. Morton's shore on Sunday.

Misses Isabel and Jean Morton entertained over twenty of their Consolidated School girl friends from Wellington, Lake Shore, Cliff, Bowerman's and Surr's in honor of their guest Miss Margaret Leslie, Belleville on Friday afternoon. A very pleasant time was spent in cards, contests and music. The girls were invited to the spacious dining room were a very delicious tea was served. Mrs. Morton was assisted by Mrs. Will Morton.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield French accompanied by Mrs. H. B. Anderson were at Wellington on Saturday evening.

DANDRUFF CLEAN YOUR SCALP by Rubbing in MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

Sole Agents Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Limited, Toronto

ATTEND SESSION OF GRAND LODGE

STIRLING— The following members of the Stirling Lodge A.F. & A.M. No. 69 are attending the 85th annual communication of the Grand Lodge in Canada, being held in Hamilton this week—Wor. Bro. Ed. Salisbury, Master of the Stirling Lodge and Past Masters, Wor. Bros. Dr. E. A. Carlton, T. W. Holmes, H. Rollins, H. Cobbe, C. R. Hacked, H. Donnan, V. Richardson, W. Fox, C. Wright, D. Hagerty, G. E. Bedford, R. W. Meiklejohn and Dr. C. F. Watt.

Mr. Fred Houchin and Mr. Jack Butler spent Wednesday in Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Patterson of Dunnville, are spending a couple of weeks' vacation with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Halpeny, Mary and John of Aylmer, Ont., are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B Belshaw.

Mr. Victor Elliott of Belleville, is spending a few days visiting friends in Stirling.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Misses Lila and Margaret Zills and Mr. Wilfred Zills of Trenton, spent Sunday with Mrs. Simmons.

Mr. B. MacMillan as moved into the apartment in the Coulter block which was recently vacated by Mr. Fred T. Hallen.

Mr. Snider and Rev. Mr. Smith, minister of the Standard Church combined in a special evangelistic service which was conducted in the large tent on Church street on Wednesday evening.

Are You Sluggish? To Throw Off Energy-Stealing Impurities, enjoy a glass or two each week of Energizing, Effervescent ANDREWS LIVER SALT In TINS—25c and 60c EXTRA LARGE BOTTLE, 75c

Joe E. Brown and Olivia De Haviland in Ring Lardner's parody of baseball and blended "Alibi Ike" at the Belle Saturday and Monday.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Block, Front Street, Belleville.

GOVERNORS FOR SPEED

In Ontario as elsewhere the claim has been made that it is not fast driving but reckless driving which is to blame for the multitude of highway calamities.

From the office of the New York State Motor Vehicle Commissioner comes the report of a paradox. 469 fewer accidents over a period on the state highways with 82 more fatalities. One writer says:—"Obviously there can be only one explanation for this seeming paradox. Reckless driving may have caused many of the accidents but excessive speed can alone count for their severity." Commissioner C. A. Harnett remarks the faster motor vehicles are moving, the more serious the result if an accident occurs."

Harnett makes a statement which will cause many to stop and think. Experience has shown, he declares, that government of speed by law is a difficult if not impossible task. Accordingly he comes out for mechanical control, recommending that motor vehicles of all types be equipped with governors, set at fifty miles an hour, say for ordinary passenger cars and at lower speed for commercial vehicles. This would not prevent, he believes, a lot of reckless driving in the thirty to fifty mile range but it might put a curb on the man who wants to run amok at sixty and seventy miles an hour. It is suggested that some adaptation of this idea might be tried out with the youthful and inexperienced driver, who is now so often the cause and the victim of highway tragedy.

TESTING TIME

Europe looks piecemeal to the casual observer today, probably because of the merciless light which is shining upon every political incident in these days. Yet there always was a term Balkanization. What was worse off, in the Great War days and in the Napoleonic Wars. But today every rent in its international coat of many colors is visible to the public affairs in the light of League of Nations thought which has so gripped the world which realizes the aims of the League.

It is a time when countries and ideals, Communism and Fascism which have sprung up out of the international turmoil and national weakness are going through the severest test. One country may be on the verge of a war which looks to many peoples as unwarranted, a war to "pep up" an autocratic cause. In Britain and in the United States time-honored institutions like the monarchy and the republican form of government are standing the ordeal. In France the Republic is still holding, while in Austria there is a trend back to the monarchy.

But the importance is that there is peace and with peace the good that is in these systems will reveal itself. That may be why one nation may find a war cause so convenient, because dictatorship cannot hold in time of peace. But the longer peace is preserved the nearer will be the failure of those systems which are founded on dictatorship, and absence of representative government. British and American peoples will prevail but first there are only two systems which will endure, the limited monarchy and the republic.. But governments of set up by beggars on horseback cannot endure. When they are in the saddle, they may cause much havoc but sooner or later they are unhorsed.

On the face of it the times look dark, and the aspect of the present affair is not favorable but efforts still go forward to prevent an outbreak. Such a hope is worthy of the great effort Britain is putting forth to preserve peace.

Internally nations have their own struggles just as the world has its international problems, but the staid forces are holding well against the radical elements.

Honeymoon Point has been blasted away at Niagara, not to destroy the institution of honeymooning, which will last as long as Niagara, but for safety. The honeymooners will just pick another spot instead. As a matter of fact erosion of lower strata of the rock made Honeymoon Point dangerous and to prevent possible risk, dynamiting was restored to.

With the New Reconstructionist Party ready to open the campaign, and the Liberal Leader scheduled to begin the Liberal drive on Ottawa, all that awaits is the opening gun to be fired by Premier Bennett, with the announcement of the date of the impending fray.

HEAT IS A MATTER of mental adjustment, that is the feeling of heat by humans, according to the Toronto Globe which has been consulting a high medical authority on the subject. This high and mighty pundit hands out the glib assurance that if you keep your mind busy on icebergs, ice cream and ice houses, no amount of summer heat will affect the body. Wouldn't it be nice to be one of those strong-minded cusses who could freeze a bore by a glance of the left eye, and melt an ice mountain with a flash of the right eye.

SIDELIGHTS
THE HOME FORUM

Missing five weeks of the city, the Editor and Chief has returned refreshed by the holiday spent on the shores of the Georgian Bay, and is now Capt. — Recorded by The Lieutenant Guvnor

When Kindness Like a Planet Sets
When kindness like a planet sets,
And bitter thoughts infect the mind,
When love her phantasy forgets,
When blind suspicion leads the blind,
Imagination fainting lies,
With fallen stars her ways are strewn,
And fancy, once her firebird, flies
To the cold caverns of the Moon.

—Eric Clough Taylor.

x x x

DIETS ARE MANY, varied and interesting, and most of them radically different. Reminds one of the rhyme which ran something like this "Jack Sprait could eat no fat, his wife could eat no lean". Folks are certainly finiky about their eats nowadays, indicating that stomachs are not as robust as of yore—when it was said that some persons could digest nails. English newspaper revives the story of a noted trencherman of the olden days who ordered a meal, apparently. This gluttonous eater whose appetite was clearly genuine, was Nicholas Wood, of Harrison Kent, who was wont to eat a whole sheep, raw, at a single sitting. Three pigs, one soon was another meal, and he once ate enough to satisfy thirty men at a sitting. Other extraordinary feats by this man of prodigious appetite, at a meal, eighteen yards of black pudding (London measure), sixty pounds of black cherries, a whole hog, followed by three pecks of damsons, six loaves of bread, three veal pies, one pound of butter in an hour. His great hunger so, impoverished him that, though a good worker, he died very poor in 1630.

x x x

BELLEVILLE HAS FOUR GOOD BANDS, the Argyll Light Infantry Band, the Belleville Municipal Band, the Salvation Army Band, and the Boys Band—enough to give a concert almost every night in the week—but few concerts are held, perhaps for lack of public support through the City Council and citizens. Why not get up a popularity contest and have the bands play a concert at least once a week and the votes of the listeners decide which is the most popular band? Some means could be devised, also, to place some money in the treasury of each of the bands taking part in return for the entertainment. Music costs money, so do instruments and uniforms. Let's loosen up and show our appreciation of four such excellent bands by digging down in our jeans for a ducat or two.

x x x

THAT OLD BARBER SHOP QUARTETTE which used to sing "Sweet Adeline" around the gas lamp on the corner, or with feet on brass rail before the mahogany while frequent schooners crossed the polished bible floor, is going popular for the Parks Board of New York City has announced its intention of encouraging quartette singing in the parks by offering prizes for the best singing heard in the line. Guitars or banjos will be permitted as added equipment but pianos are barred, and the quartettes are strictly restricted to male performers. A public competition will be given on the band stand on the Mall of Central Park, and the props will conjure up the merry days of old for the platform will contain an old-fashion striped barber pole, not the new-fangled rotating kind, china spittoons with hand-painted decorations, red plush barber chairs, with gold fringes, a fly-specked clock that doesn't tell the right time, a rack full of initialled shaving mugs, a pot-bellied stove and copies of the Police Gazette for the chair-warmers to read. No professional will be allowed and the judges will include Ex-Governor Al. Smith, George Cohan, Franklin P. Adams, Sigmund Spaeth, W. Kingsland Macy, Marc Connolly and several jurists. A list of songs which the quartette will be permitted to sing include, of course "Sweet Adeline" and the following old-timers:—

I've been Working on the Railroad.
Mandy Lee.
Swanee River,
Down By the Old Mill Stream.
Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet.
Lindy.
Banks of the Wabash.
In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree.
My Old Kat.
Can't you Hear Me Calling, Caroline.
Old Black Joe.
Sweet Genevieve.
Oh, Eveline.
Darling Nelly Gray.
We Were Drifting Along Down Moonlight Bay.
There's Music in the Air.
Way Down Yonder in the Cornfield.
Old Black Mammy.
Let Me Be Tonight in Dreamland.
When You Were a Tulip.
Old Grey Home in the West.
Old Calhan Bucket.
Down Where the Swanee River Flows.
Farewell, My Blushell.
When You and I Were Young, Maggie.
I Want to Be Only With Thine Eyes.
Swing Low, Sweet Chariot.
O, Them Golden Slippers.

The flights of the human mind are not from enjoyment to enjoyment but from hope to hope.—Johnson.

REVOLT IN THE DESERT
by T. E. Lawrence

As we worked at the organisation for the raid, our appetites rose. Undoverwars station sounded unbearably tempting. Indeed, might not a fish fit successfully. That would be an achievement, for its deep swell was the calm in the dry sector below Mann. Without its water, the trans-service across the gap would become uneconomic in food.

Lewis, the Australian, at such an ambitious moment, said that he and Stokes would like to be of my party. A new, attractive idea. With them we should feel sure of our technical detachments, whilst also lacking a garrisoned place. Also, the sergeants wanted to go very much, and their good work deserved reward. They were warned that their experience might not at the moment answer altogether joyful. There were no rules; and there could be no guarantee of the marching, feeding, and fighting. Indeed, I never yet they would have their British Army comfort and privilege, to share and share with the Arabs (or eat in body!) and suffer exactly their hap in food and discipline. The sergeants went wrong with me, how, not speaking Arabic, would be in a tender position.

Stokes replied that he was looking for just this strangeness of life. He stokes supposed that if we did, he could. So they were lent two of my best camels (their battle-camels, fed with bully-beef and biscuits) and on the seventh of September, at 11 o'clock, we were up the Wadi Itm, to collect our Howeitat from Auda in Mudowwara.

For the sergeants' sake, to harden them gently, things were made as simple as they were. We marched very easily for today, while we were still in the hills, and camped by the well on a camel before, and there was clear that the fourth day, in the naked granite walls of Itm might knock them out before the trip had fairly begun. September was then in the heat month. A few days before, in Akaba beach, the thermometer had shown a hundred and twenty-five degrees. We halted for midday under a cliff and in the evening rode only ten miles to camp for the night.

Next day, in the early heat, we were near Aba el Lissan, crossing the ancient plain of rutted pink with its grey-green undergrowth, when there came a message through the air. Quickly we drove the camels off the open and into the bush-speckled ground, where irregular colouring would not be smashed by the uneven almond. As the loads of blasting gelatine, my reverse and most powerful explosive, and the many ammonal-filled shells of the Stokes' gun would be left neighbours in a shrinking kit. We waited there, soberly in the saddle, while the camels grazed their fill, which was worth eating in the scrub until the aeroplane had circled twice about the rock of Guweira in front of us, and planned three found landing.

The aeroplane was the quaint machine of public memory in the Guwetra camp. The Arabs, up as ever before dawn, waited for it: when it came, at dawn or dusk, to peak to sound the first warning. Immediately the camels stood up, the Arabs would saunter, chatting in parade of carelessness towards the rock. Arrived beneath it, a man climbed to the ledge he fixed forward. After landing, the pilot threw the key of his slaves, with his coffee on the heated sand of the carpet. In a shaded nook he and Auda would sit and talk till the little, shiver of excitement, passed from man to down the crowded ledges when fleet fringes, a fly-specked clock that doesn't tell the right time, a rack full of initialled shaving mugs, a pot-bellied stove and copies of the Police Gazette for the chair-warmers to read. No professional will be allowed and the judges will include Ex-Governor Al. Smith, George Cohan, Franklin P. Adams, Sigmund Spaeth, W. Kingsland Macy, Marc Connolly and several jurists. A list of songs which the quartette will be permitted to sing include, of course "Sweet Adeline" and the following old-timers:—

HAD TO "BAIL OUT"

Weary and bewhiskered, and nursing a badly injured arm, Maj.-Gen. George R. Leach, commander of all National Guard troops in the United States, and believed the highest-ranking officer ever to bail out of an aeroplane, arrives at the U.S. Army airport at Mitchell Field, Mineola, from Washington; Leach was forced to make use of his chute when his aeroplane burst into flames. He landed in the desert near Kingman, Ariz.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JULY 15th, 1916.

Mr. H. Field of Winnipeg is visiting at the home of Mrs. Holmes, Charles street.

Mrs. G. Staufler (nee Miss J. Galway) of Baltimore, Md., is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. G. F. Barnes of Prince Rupert, B. C., has arrived to see her parents, Mr and Mrs. J. J. Johnson, Charles Street.

Mrs. Jas. Cook, Kansas City, Mo., is visiting at the home of her cousin, Mr. W. H. Biggs.

The Rev. A. Hubly has arrived home and accepts a call to fill the duties as pastor of Emmanuel Church on Aug. 1st.

Mrs. H. A. Thompson left today to visit relatives in the western provinces.

Miss J. L. Gamble and Miss Ellen Walker of Lonsdale, Kingsley, are visiting their sister, Mrs. A. J. Cochrane, Corbyville.

30 Years Ago

JULY 19th, 1896.

Mr. Charles Hamilton of Omaha, Neb., is renewing acquaintances in the city after many years absence.

Mr. George Deadlie of Minneapolis, Minn., is spending his vacation with his parents at Bay Ores.

Mr. Harry Fitzpatrick ad family of Rochester, N. Y., are visiting friends in the city.

Mr. John Palmer of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Arthur Marsh has returned from the northern part of the county where he spent two weeks.

Judge Fralick and family have gone to their summer cottage at Oak Orchard.

Mr. Frank Burton is home from Rochester, N. Y., to spend his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs H. D. Lake and two children of Minneapolis, Minn., are guests at the home of Mr. P. L. Diamond.

40 Years Ago

JULY 19th, 1886.

Lt. Col. L. H. Henderson, city solicitor and town councillor, was married yesterday afternoon in his office in the city hall. Deputy Mayor Ketcheson performed the ceremony before medical aid arrived. The whole city was shocked and grieved at his sudden death. The late Col. Henderson was born in Preston 72 years ago. He came to Belleville when quite young and was educated here. For several years he represented Coleman ward in the old town council and in 1876 was appointed local solicitor and later city solicitor. Upon the retirement of Mr. Robert Tennahill from the position of city treasurer in 1882, the offices of solicitor and treasurer were combined and Col. Henderson received all the appointments. He was prominent in military circles, being in the 15th Batt. and 49th Batt. Col. of the 15th Battalion. He had been connected with the Masonic order for many years and had worked himself up from rank to rank until upon the retirement of Col. S. S. Lister about a year ago when he was appointed commander of the regiment. He was an earnest and enthusiastic member of the Masonic order and had during the past year taken a leading part in all the highest offices in the craft with the exception of Grand Master of the jurisdiction which office he had repeatedly declined. Death will be received with deep regret by all the members of the craft throughout the province where he was best known. He was a prominent member of the Presbyterian church and was highly esteemed by those who knew him best.

50 Years Ago

JULY 19th, 1876.

The following officers were elected at the current term at a recent meeting of Belleville Lodge No. 156, A. F. and A. M.: E. Fillitier, J. P. C. J. P. Stanton, C. O.; H. F. Thomas, S. W.; C. A. Abraham, R. S.; Wm. Mellis, P. S.; J. Hart, W. M.; Wm. Hart, S. D.; A. Jones, cond.; A. L. Geen, steward; Stanton, Hart, G. N. G.; W. Dickens, L. S. N. G.; J. Moorman, R. S. N. G.; J. Wallbridge, P. G. M.; J. I. Newton, R. S. S.; C. Lawrence, J. S. S.; Rev. C. Connish, I. O.; S. Vandervoort, O. G.

Mr. H. T. Wills of London, Ont., son of Mr. Thos. Wills, is spending a short visit here.

The city is being well decorated in welcome bunting and streamers from the Northwest.

Penn Bros. and James Wareham have a fine evergreen decoration over the entrance to their premises next door. It bears the motto "15th, and 49th. Heroes Welcome Home".

I'm sure Willyum will be very happy to stay a few rubbers, or at least I mean I think perhaps I can indoor him to stay a few rubbers soon, I'm sure.

Bridge, pop, I said, and he said, Not bridge to blame.

And he layed back in his private den, closed his eyes and made somebody that thawt they was asleep, and me came in, saying, O, Willyum. Maud Hews wants to know, O deer, he's taking an after dinner nap, such a habbit to be getting into. O deer I dont think I'd better wake him up to ask him, O deer I dont like to put him in a non-bridge humor. Well I will be a little bit naps never do any long, she said.

With that one would of probbly lasted so long it would of broke all records, coz I was pop's nose nowwhich somebody that had no interes and didn't want to and he sneezed terrw sneeze, and me saying Good hel- me, himself up, my lands he's still asleep, the ideer of sleeping through a sneeze now of all times, O deer.

With just then pop sneezed another sneeze and still didn't wake up, which was a mirakle. And pop sneezed a even fearser one and me thinking even sure eye, and me said. This is impossible. Willyum Potts you're just a pritend old thing. You're no more asl-ep than the day you were born and nobody knows it but yourself. Willyum, do you hear me? she said. Willyum if you don't I could hear her even if he was asleep for real, and he opened one eye and looked at me. Pritend I'm dead one saying. Did you say something, did you call me? What can I do for you my deer? Shall we play a little bridge to somebody now? How about calling up the Hewses, maybe we could induce them to come over here for a few rubbers, he said.

We're going over there and play them and you know it, such a man, me said.

Morning pop.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

by R. J. SCOTT

Little Benny's Note Book

After supper I was looking at the funnies and pop was smoking and thinking with a satisfied expression, and the telefone rang and me could hear ma sneering it saying. Why yes, Maud, thank you. Maud, sleaping through a sneeze now of

JUDGMENT GIVEN VIOLIN PLAYER

$70 a Week For Year And Indemnity of $1,131.39 Awarded

Toronto July 19.—(CP)— John Langley, professional violinist of Toronto, was successful in an action against the Fidelity Insurance Co., of Canada, to receive an indemnity under a policy of insurance for damages suffered when two fingers were blown off his left hand by the discharge of a shotgun.

The case as tried before Mr. Justice W. T. Henderson last week, and in reasons for judgment given at Osgoode Hall today, Mr. Langley is awarded $70 per week for 52 consecutive weeks and the costs of the action. Arrears of indemnity and interest amount to $1,131.79.

The Insurance Company contended the plaintiff was negligent in carrying a loaded gun in his car, but Mr. Justice Henderson made the distinction that at the time of the accident the plaintiff was not "carrying" the gun.

A further reason dealt with the identity of counsel. For four or five years it was shown the plaintiff earned upwards of $5,000 a year in his profession.

POSTAL RULES DELAY SUCCESS

Serum Had to Be Re-shipped Because of Rules

Philadelphia, July 19 (CP) British postal rules delayed an international medical research problem, for the success of which speed is imperative and fast airplanes and steamships were employed.

Dr. Stuart Mudd, head of the University of Pennsylvania, bacteriology department, said today fresh, permissible serum, rushed from the scene of Britain's influenza epidemic to Philadelphia and then to London ran afoul of English postal service rules and as a result had not reached its destination six weeks after it was sent.

The serum was mailed, Dr. Mudd said, by first class registered mail because he thought that would be the fastest. About a month later, he said, the package arrived back from England with the explanation that English postal rules do not permit packages to go as first class mail, and that one would have to be insured and wrapped again for the "small package mail".

Dr. Mudd remailed the serum.

EXPENSES PAID TO RETURN HOME

Premier Hepburn Makes Offers to Trekkers at Kenora

(By the Canadian Press)

Four hundred Manitoba "On-to-Ottawa" marchers, undecided on their next move as they rested at Kenora, today considered an offer from Premier Hepburn of Ontario of their expenses if they would return home.

Acceptance meant their immediate start by rail or bus back to Winnipeg—refusal, means they would receive no assistance from the Ontario Government.

Other developments:

Toronto—Several hundred weary marchers started another day in the trek to the Capital from Pickering, 26 miles from here, and 141 irrelevant discomforts of heat hastened their number.

Kenora—With arrival yesterday of 700 more Manitoba over the Manville mosquito-infested section between here and the Manitoba boundary, 250 marchers were counted as their next move. They were undecided about the date of departure for Fort Arthur 209 miles away.

Montreal—Seventy-five arrested in connection with the march appeared in court, 36 being dismissed, disposition of the other cases being postponed. Of 36 men arrested 17 were jailed, six jobless arrived to decline $60 being left in small groups for Quebec to join the march.

Ottawa — Fifty marchers who reached here interviewed Hon. H. H. Stevens and arranged for an interview with him Monday. He thought the trek was ill-advised, but if you want to work I am hearthy behind you", an echelon of begging was reported.

Regina—Alleged leaders of the riot of Western Canadian marchers were due to be arraigned in court for trial.

FLY-TOX kills MOSQUITOES FLIES, ANTS and ALL INSECTS SAFE - SURE ECONOMICAL FLY-TOX

Trekkers Leave Toronto With Ottawa Destination

Still fully determined to reach Ottawa in their protest march and undeterred by opposing governments or sun-heated pavements, an-to-Ottawa trekkers leaves Toronto where they were delayed for several days and take the highway leading east toward the capital. Women and children were not absent from the ranks as the column started out and (TOP) "Junior" probably is much more comfortable than plenty of "comrades", especially with mother to guide his chariot. But there were plenty of sore feet before the trek got very far and (BELLOW) a marcher stops to treat aching and blistered feet before proceeding.

Catholic Church Must Rule on Annulment

Freed by New York's supreme court of his marital bonds to Countess Marie-Ann von Wurmbrand-Stuppach of Austria, Clendenin J. Ryan, Jr., heir to New York traction millions, was reported planning to ask an ecclesiastical court of the Roman Catholic Church to strike away the religious ties. Supreme Court Justice Salvatore Cotillo referred to the countess' mother, Countess May Wurmbrand-Stuppach as prime mover in "the greatest American fortune plot ever attempted. Letters of matrimony advise telling Marie how to catch an American millionaire were part of the evidence submitted. The 19-year-old Countess Marie was shown to have been in love at the time of her marriage with the Polish count Uladislas Mitrowsky, to whom she was said to have sent impassioned calls. She is shown with Ryad immediately after their wedding.

CRACK LOCOMOTIVE CRASHES TRUC K; 17 INJURED

This is had occurred when the Liberty Limited, crack Pennsylvania flier, crashed into a truck on a grade crossing in the business section of Sandusky, Ohio, travelling at 80 miles an hour. The locomotive broke away from the train, tore up three blocks of pavement and overturned and exploded. Seventeen persons were injured, four seriously when the ten cars left the track. The train was speeding from Washington, Baltimore and Pittsburgh to Chicago.

BLACK WIDOW SPIDER SLAYS HUGE ADV ERSARY IN BOWL

In a glass bowl in the Hollywood aquarium, a dread black widow spider and a great hairy wolf spider many times the size of its more deadly adversary, fought a battle to the death. The wolf spider attempted to throw off the black widow unsuccessfully. Weaving a web about her prey, the black widow closed in and administered her coup de grace as she shot her deadly poison into the body of the wolf. Photo shows the black widow closing in for attack, and the wolf attempting to escape up the side of the bowl.

Modern Army Not Hampered By Terrain of Ethiopia

Climate After Rainy Season Would Not Present Obstacles

(By Elmer Peterson)
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, July 19.—(AP)—Many observers said today that while the Ethiopian Terrain was decidedly rough in many places, it would not in their opinion hamper greatly a modern invading army.

They pointed out, for one thing, that the Ethiopians have almost completely deforested their country by kindling wood during the centuries.

In many sections an Ethiopian army would have far more mobility as well as the advantage of knowing the enemy increasingly, but the observers pointed out that modern military science would be well able to overcome any such factors as difficult Terrain.

They agreed that the Ethiopian climate, after the rainy season ends in September, would present no obstacle of any kind to an invading force.

The climate varies considerably between lowlands and uplands, but on the whole it is healthful and suitable for white persons.

Ethiopia is today, as in its long past, a colorful, surging sort of country, still wild and untamed in many respects with plenty of rags and lots of riches.

Its cultural advance has been indicated as much by development of a sturdy Nationalist spirit as by anything else.

To Addis Ababa there are touches of modernity, but Ethiopia is at heart the land of hundreds of years ago.

Outside of Addis Ababa, the various peoples, part of a feudal system and with forced labor in vogue, live very much as did their ancestors. Their dwellings are crude one-room circular huts sometimes constructed of stone but more often of reeds and mud. Their food is mainly bread made of "Teff", a sort of millet, varied by occasional feasts on raw meat.

The standard of living is low and per capita expenditure per year by the native population has been estimated at less than 60 cents for imported goods.

Stevens Opens His Campaign At Hamilton

Ottawa, July 19 (CP)—Political eyes today turn toward Hamilton, where Hon. H. H. Stevens will launch the initial canonade of the campaign of the Reconstruction Party, before his keynote public speech with an address Saturday night. Dr. Stevens, founder and leader of the Reconstructionists will return to Ottawa Sunday to remain here for a few days before leaving on a speaking tour of the West.

The campaign of the Liberal party next will be ushered in when Mackenzie King delivers three radio addresses. The Liberal leader will go over the radio on the nights of July 31, Aug. 3 and Aug. 5 on be followed by a public address at Kingston on Aug. 7.

Premier Bennett has not named the time he will open the Conservative campaign. He is holding another meeting of cabinet council today, when trade negotiations with Japan are due for some further discussion, as well as appointments and a clean-up of other business. It is understood the Prime Minister plans to leave during the week-end for a brief holiday and after his return the election date will be announced and the government campaign will start.

SELECTED AS CANDIDATE

Kingsville, Ont., July 19 (CP)—Eccles J. Gott, M.P., who has represented this riding in the House of Commons for the last 10 years, was selected as Conservative candidate at the party convention held here last night. In accepting the nomination, Mr. Gott said he was proud to have served under Premier R. B. Bennett, but added he put the interests of the people of the riding before any leader of any party.

When You Feel A Cold Coming On!
Stop it at once by Taking ZUTOO TABLETS. Remember that Grippe and Pneumonia begin with a common cold. These tablets stop the pain and fever immediately, and assist nature in throwing off the cold. Taken in the beginning, the cold is often stopped
Zutoo
FOR SALE EVERYWHERE 25c

CLAIMS DIVORCE DECREE INVALID

Mrs. O. C. McPherson Says Suit Not Heard in Open Court

(By George Hambleton)
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, July 19.—(CP Cable) —The validity of the divorce decree granted O. L. McPherson at the time he was Attorney-Minister of Public Works, four years ago, was challenged before the judicial committee of the Privy Council, the Empire's chief court.

The appellant is Mrs. McPherson, the divorced woman, who offers her grounds in appeal in forma pauperis. The issue is an unusual one—whether the divorce petition was heard in an open court, or in secret.

Four years ago McPherson divorced his wife, naming Leroy Malcolm Matters respondent. Later he married Mrs. Matters. The first Mrs. McPherson, through the action in Supreme Court of Alberta to have the decree set aside as null and void on the grounds the suit was not heard in open court. The Supreme Court dismissed her action and now by special leave she is appealing to their Lordships here.

The original suit was heard by Mr. Justice Ives sitting in his Chambers at Edmonton in April, 1931.

FOUR KILLED IN HEAD-ON CRASH

Reports Indicate Collision Occurred At Blind Siding

Pasco, Wash., July 19 (AP)—The engineer and all least three trainmen were killed in a head-on collision of a Northern Pacific passenger train and a freight 24 miles north here on the Walla branch near midnight.

The dead engineer is Stanley Cowan of Pasco. The identity of other victims could not be immediately determined.

Meagre reports from the scene indicated the collision occurred on a blind siding. Both engines were reported damaged badly, with three freight cars an two passenger cars derailed.

CONTINUING
Lipson's
CHAIN OF POPULAR PRICED STORES
MID-JULY SALE
Our July Sale has been a sensational success, and you'll quickly see the reason when you read this "Ad," and the ADVERTISEMENT which you received earlier this week. Read both carefully and then prepare to pay us a visit. Extra sales staff to serve you.

Bed Sheets
Made to sell at $1.15, but for this great event we place them on sale at 77c
2 for $1.50
Pair

Shoes
Another 100 pair thrown on the table for Thursday morning only. Tans and Blacks. Sizes 3 to 7-1-2 in the lot. Pair 1.00

GIRLS' BETTER
Dresses
Regularly $2.98. Figured and pastel Crepes. Sizes 3 to 14 ..... 1.29

MEN'S Shirts and Drawers
Reg. 49c seller. Summer-knit balbriggan. Shirts sizes 36 to 46. Drawers 34 to 42. Each .....

SILK CREPE
Slips
A regular $1.49 seller; Satin trim, lace trimmed, adjustable straps. Sizes 32 to 44. Special .....

MEN'S Swim Suits
Regularly $1.98; all wool, in navy and black. Sizes 30 to 42 ..... 1.00

F. F. CRUTON
Hose
Irregulars of a well-known brand. Large assortment of colors. Sizes 8 1-2 to 10 1-2. Special .....

MEN'S BROADCLOTH
Shirts
Regularly 89c. White, blue and sand. Collar attached. Sizes 14 1-2 to 17 .....

SUMMER
Slacks
White and bitte with red and white trim; good serge finish. Sizes 34 to 38. Special.....

MEN'S Khaki Pants
Made to sell at $1.49. 2 patch pockets, cuff bottoms. Sizes 30 to 42 .....

White Shoes
Regular to $3.49. Pumps, Ties, Straps and Oxfords. Priced for a grand clean-up. Pair .....

MEN'S Shirts and Shorts
Regularly 89c. Broadcloth shirts with collar attached. Sizes 14 to 17. Shorts athletic cut. Sizes 30 to 42. Each .....

ANKLE
Sox
Reg. 19c
10c pr.

CLEARANCE WOMEN'S
Dresses
Printes, flowered crepes and cotton voiles. Summer sport types. Sizes 14 to 42 in the lot. To clear .....
1.95

HAND
Towels
Reg. 15c
10c

Buttermakers' Club Entertain Junior Farmers at Wallbridge

V. S. Milburn of Peterboro of Cream Producers is Speaker

The Bay of Quinte Buttermakers' Club held their regular monthly meeting in Sidney Town Hall, Wallbridge last evening having as their guests the Junior Farmers of that district, some 25 buttermakers and Junior Farmers being present.

Mr. V. S. Milburn of Peterboro, and secretary of the newly organized Ontario Cream Producers Association was the guest speaker. Mr. Milburn outlined the purposes for forming such an organization giving its aims and objects, chief of which are:

1 To improve the quality of cream produced by farmers.

2 To co-operate with creameries in consolidating cream gathering trade.

3 To study marketing methods to protect the sales of butter against the use of loss leaders by the retail trade.

4 To study marketing methods so that butter might be sold on grade.

A cream grading competition was held for the Junior Farmers. The prize winners were:

1 Bill Sutherland, Stirling, 97 points. 2 Grant Longwell, Foxboro, 96 points. 3 George Ketchason, Foxboro, 95 points.

The regular club cream and butter grading competition resulted as follows:

Senior:

1 Roy Jose, Belleville Creamery, 95.5 points. 2 R. Dudgeon, Belleville Creamery and T. Mallette, Swifts, 94.0 points. 3 W. Dickey, Citizen's Dairy, 92.5 points.

Junior:

1 T. Mallette, 96.95 points. 2 Les. Thompson, Swifts, 96.72 points. 3 F. McGuire, 96.0.

Grand Championship:

1 Roy Jose, 196.95 points. 2 T. Mallette, 196.95 points. 3 L. Thompson, 191.75 points.

Announcement was made of the cream grading competition for Junior Farmers at Belleville Fair.

Mr. Owran, secretary of the Belleville Creamery, Secretary of Ontario also spoke a few words of interest.

The next meeting of the club will be held at Brighton, August 8th.

Mr. George Hambleton, on behalf of the Junior Farmers moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Milburn and Mr. Cowan for their addresses, also to the buttermakers for coming to Wallbridge to associate with the producers, and lastly at Bellevill Creameries and Swift Canadian Co. who supplied the lunch.

Duke Loses His Shirt Playing With Prince

Portsmouth, Eng., July 19—The Duke of Kent lost his shirt playing golf against his older brother, the Prince of Wales.

The two Princes bet on the links at Hayling Island before the Jubilee Cup navy trophy. Wales is a good form and Kent was losing. The latter pealed off his shirt and the game went on. They quit two holes short with Kent far down with little time left to get to the river.

The Duke of Kent went back after his shirt. It was gone.

Obituary

MURNEY SHARPE

Sawton, (Special) Murney Sharpe, a life-long resident of Rawdon passed away at his home near Stirling on Thursday, July 18, after an illness of several months. Mr. Sharpe was unmarried and in his forty-seventh year. He leaves his mother, Mrs. Allan Sharpe and one brother, Leroy of Sidney. His father passed away a month ago. The funeral service will be held in St. Andrew's Church, Stirling, on Saturday.

WHEN USING WILSON'S FLY PADS
READ DIRECTIONS CAREFULLY AND FOLLOW THEM
Each pad will kill flies all day and every day for three weeks.
5 pads in a package
10 CENTS PER PACKET
at Druggists, Grocers and General Stores
WHY PAY MORE?
THE WILSON FLY PAD CO., Hamilton, Ont.

THRIFTY WOMEN are choosing their
FUR COAT NOW!
FINEST SELECTIONS.
LOWEST PRICES
DEFERRED PAYMENTS
Woodleys Furriers
313 Front Street

FOR WINDBURN ... and SUNBURN
A COOLING
FACIAL
$1.00
MANICURE ... 35c
Polly Elvins
Phone 711
313½ Front St.

Personals

Miss Dorothy Mooney of Kingston, is visiting in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Walker are spending a few days in Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kirby and daughter, Barbara, have from a fishing trip in the north

Mrs. J. W. Imlah left yesterday for a two weeks' holiday at Baptists Lake, and on Mr. Imlah as mentioning yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bird, Kenneda and Mr. Bird, Alberta, are guests of Mr. Bird's brother, Mrs. N. Bird, North Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Misses Ena Kerr, Irene Russell and Norma Weddell, who are on a motor trip to the coast have arrived in Banff.

Mrs. Nora M. Trouman (nee Nora Wilson) and granddaughter, Betty Lou Wagner of Chicago, are visiting at 55 Bridge street, Pinnacle street, and other friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. J. A. Floyd of Toronto, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Fraser returned home today.

Mrs. Lake, Mrs. Curran and Mrs. Graham, of Toronto, are spending this week the guests of Mrs. and Mrs. Merrick, Hamilton.

Mrs. (Dr.) Pocock with son, Dick, of Kearney, Ont., is visiting her mother, Mrs. R. Arnott.

The lawn at the home of Mrs. R. B. Gross, 61 Cedar street, presented a gala scene last evening, when members of Young A. Tabernacle United Church W.A., entertained at a garden party. Colored lights, flags and bunting added to the attractiveness of the well-arranged booths. The many guests were received by Mrs. Gross, Mrs. G. C. Ashley and Miss T. Bell, Mrs. C. S. Sharpe was treasurer. The grocery table was in charge of Mrs. J. Blakely, the drinks, Mrs. and Miss Palmer and Mrs. G. Ashley, candy, Mrs. M. Keech, Fish Pond, Mrs. F. Cohan. Refreshments were served by the following:—Mrs. W. Boyd, Mrs. F. Izard, Mrs. Roy Ashley, Mrs. A. Claydon, Mrs. W. Laughlin, Mrs. J. Faulkner, Miss Gladys Thompson and Miss Hazel Blakely. During the evening the Belleville Municipal Band played a splendid program, which was greatly appreciated by those present and for which the group is very grateful. Chairs were kindly loaned by J. W. Imlah and C. Thompson.

BANK CLOSES SUDDENLY

Paris (CP)—Havas: The Travelers' Bank here was quite familiar to tourists, closed suddenly yesterday without explanation and was still closed despite a notice pasted on the door saying that it would re-open this morning.

The Paris edition of the New York Herald said the head of the bank could not be found.

CHAFING
To relieve chafing apply cooling, soothing MENTHOLATUM
In the irritated skin.
MENTHOLATUM
Made in CUMBERLAND, Maryland

AIDS STEVENS

MISS PHYLLIS AXFORD
Selected to head women's organization work for the Reconstruction Party, headed by Hon. H. H. Stevens, is Miss Phyllis Axford of Brantford. Miss Axford is a graduate of Harvard University, specializing in economics.

VERSATILE STAR

RENE DOYER
Tap dancer in New York vaudeville—blues singer in Montreal night clubs—featured vocalist with Columbia network—that's the story of pretty Rene Doyer.

PROPER LIVING STANDARD ASKED

Farmers of Saskatchewan to Stage Grain Strike if Not Granted

Saskatoon, July 18—(CP)— The problems of the debt-ridden farmers of Saskatchewan, backed by the threat of a farm-strike entailing non-delivery of grain, are to be passed into the lap of the Provincial government.

In annual convention here last night the United Farmers of Canada (Saskatchewan section) voted unanimously to organize an agricultural revolt throughout the Province in co-operation with farmers in Manitoba and Alberta unless a proper standard of living was granted them with security against evictions, seizures and foreclosures.

A resolution which dwelt on the fear of farmers, that the first good crop in several years might chiefly go to creditors was passed. Immediate and absolute guarantee was asked which would enable the farmer to withhold from the proceeds of his crop sufficient for a proper living standard for one year.

Unless such guarantee was forthcoming, the resolution stated, "we instruct and request the U.F.C. to organize an agricultural revolt throughout the province in co-operation with Manitoba and Alberta, with meetings to discuss the farmers' problem and appoint a large delegation to wait upon the government and present our demands. If these are not granted we propose to organize a non-delivery grain strike, selling only for day-to-day needs."

Speaking to the resolution, O. R. Bickerton, President, said that if the creditors wanted all the crop, he was not prepared to work 800 acres of land, when 30 acres would feed his family. His answer was to either hold the wheat in the bin or else to work only 30 acres and let the creditors work the rest.

MARMORA NEWS OF HOLIDAY GUESTS

Marmora, July 18—Miss Agnes Keene is a patient in Bell Memorial Hospital, Kingston, having undergone an operation for sinus trouble. Her condition is favorable.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thomson and son Gordon, of Picton, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Graham.

Miss Betty Hodge of Toronto, is visiting the Misses Gladney this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barrons of Kirkland Lake, are holidaying in North Marmora for a couple of weeks.

Miss Alice Henry has returned home after holidaying in Oshawa for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac McCamey of Madoc, were in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sanderson are visiting relatives in Collingwood and other western towns.

Miss Margaret O'Connor is visiting relatives in Madoc.

Mr. M. Moss of Kingston, was in town on Monday.

Miss Laura O'Sullivan of Toronto, is holidaying with the parents for a couple of weeks.

Mr. T. Thompson of Toronto was in town on Monday.

Mr. Osmerford of Coniston is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Forestell.

Mr. W. H. Ollmen of Campbellford was in town on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parker and family of Toronto are visiting relatives at Crowe Lake for a couple of weeks.

GIVE SWIMMERS BRONZE BUTTONS

30 Boys Rewarded For Learning to Swim at "Y"

The Y.M.C.A. Assembly Hall was the scene of a happy gathering of boys yesterday evening. Thirty odd of Belleville's young water lovers were on hand to receive their awards obtained for passing their tests following the Learn to Swim Campaign operated by the Y.

At about 8.15 the meeting was called to order and Mayor Tice asked to preside. He performed the presentations given each boy who was able to swim across the Y Pool at least once, over the course of instruction. His Worship following a few words of congratulation to the boys, gave out the Association swimmers button to the following: Harry Donald, Jack Huffman, Tommy Gilmour, William Wilson, Leslie Plummer, Charles Cook, Hensley McGillican, Vernon Welsh, Fred Bly Harry Denike, Robert Rose, Alex Bass, George Allen, James Daniels, Leslie Cassina, Walter Hutchison, Milton Pindall, Robert Mills, George Winter, Norman Herring, Sidney Cooper, Douglas McDonald, Ray Langabeer, Donald Appleton and Billy Boynton.

Following the presentation by the Mayor, Ex-Mayor M. P. Duff as president of the Belleville Y.M.C.A. extended his congratulations to the boys and shaking each by the hand, presented the National Y.M.C.A. swimming test certificates to nineteen of the above group for successfully passing the Junior Beginner test. Each boy swam over 50' (1.) Honorably mention was also made of six boys who came very close to passing the test to secure their swimmers pin. These were Francis Cronin, Jack Sinclair, Francis Pigeon, Raymond Reid, Raymond Anderson and Vernon Pindall. The programme of the evening had as its concluding number the total demolishment of a number of handsome water mellons and in this activity some of the boys required say instructions.

YOUNG PEOPLE HOLD ENJOYABLE OUTING

Misses Corners, July 19—Mrs. A. N. Dafoe spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. G. H. Clapp.

Mrs. Morris and children of Belleville are staying for a few days with her sister, Mrs. Earl and Harry Ellis.

A number of young people here held a weiner roast at Pleasant Bay one night last week.

Mrs. J. D. Reid and daughter of Belleville are staying for a few days with her sister, Mrs. Earl Ellis.

Miss Jean Baird of Wellington, was here for a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Earl Ellis.

Mr. Ben Ellis Sr., has returned home after spending nearly two weeks at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roga Cruickshank, Melville.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ellis and Mrs. L. Ellis spent Sunday pleasantly at Wellington park.

Eugene Wheeler and little daughter Joy of Belleville are staying for a time at A. N. Dafoe's.

ITCHING TORTURE Stopped Instantly
D. D. D. Prescription Speeds Relief
Even the most stubborn itching of eczema, pimples, ringworm or other torment of the skin, scalp, feet or body starts to soothe quickly yields to Dr. D. D. Prescription's gentle, liquid oil. D. D. D. Prescription. Forty years world-wide success. Penetrates the skin, soothing and healing the inflamed tissues. No fuss — no bother. Any druggist supplies. D. D. D. It dries up blisters immediately. Try it. D. D. D. Prescription. Stops intense itching instantly. A 35c trial bot. proves it — or money back. D. D. D. is made by the owners of Italian Balm.

• HERE'S A BUY! SATURDAY ONLY
Regular 25c (Letter Size)
Linen Pad 2 for 23c
ENVELOPES TO MATCH ..... 3 pkgs. 19c
GEEN'S DRUG STORE
L.D.A. DRUGGIST. Phone 131 PROMPT DELIVERY

• WATCH OUR WINDOWS •
The GEORGIA SALON
(OPPOSITE POST OFFICE)
"We Cater to Milady's Most Intimate Needs."

INTER-RACIAL WEDDING STRIKES A SNAG

Following a romance that blossomed after she had found and returned a billfold, belonging to K. M. James Lin, lost at her counter in a five-and-ten-cent store in Columbus, O., Viola Brown lived with Lin, son of China's president. Reports from China claimed that Lin was already married and has children. He went into hiding, leaving his bride uncertain of his whereabouts when interviewers sought him.

'MONKEY GLAND' SPECIALIST ON VACATION

Dr. Serge Voronoff, famous "monkey gland" specialist, photographed with his beautiful young wife when they arrived at Vichy during their annual vacation.

MOUNTAIN VIEW TAKE GAME FROM AMELIASBURG

Mountain View, July 19—Mrs. C. Scharrel of Toronto, spent Wednesday with her aunt, Mrs. Clarke Sprung.

Miss Bessie Way of Belleville, spent a couple of days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sprague.

Miss S. Hancock of Saginaw, Mich., spent a few days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sprung.

Misses Jean and Margaret Sprague of Big Island, are holidaying with their cousin, Miss Evelyn Sprague.

Mrs. Myrtle Bass of Belleville, spent the an hour on Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fyner.

Miss Hazel Minaker, Jean Sprague, Evelyn Sprague, Margaret Sprague and Leland Sprague enjoyed a picnic supper at Bboltn's Lake on Wednesday afternoon.

Misses Helen Millar Reg. N., and Marie Kenny of Toronto, spent the the hour on Thursday night with Mr. H. J. Parliament.

Mrs. O. Frederick and Norrine and friend of Belleville spent Thursday holiday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sprung.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rikley and Donald and Marlene of Pearson spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Mr. Everett Minaker's.

Mrs. H. J. Vanwart spent a couple of days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lough and family.

Mrs. Howard Wallbridge and daughter Miss Helen Wallbridge of Massassaga returned home on Saturday night after spending a couple of days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Sprague.

The Mountain View boys softball team fourneyed to Ameliasburg on Friday night to play an exhibition game, resulting in a win for the visitors.

Misses Jean Sprague and Margaret Sprague of Big Island and Miss Evelyn Sprague spent the tea hour on Friday Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sprague.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Dorsee and family of Dorsee's were Thursday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sprague.

Mrs. Howard Calnan and Jimmie of Belleville spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hovey.

Mr. Bruce Oliver spent the tea hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Langabeer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bovay and Marjorie and Jean Wellington spent with the latter parent, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wood.

Mrs. Wilbert Channel of Waupoos, was Sunday afternoon caller of her mother, Mrs. W. J. Hickenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Elden Adams and Margaret of Victoria, were Saturday evening callers of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sprague.

Mr. H. J. Parliament spent the dinner hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sprung.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Noxon and children of Belleville and Mr. Geo. Noxon of Toronto, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Channell of Waupoos.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Barber and son and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reddon of Belleville, were Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Barlow of Bonarlaw.

Miss Mary Hamilton Reg. N., spent a couple of days last week with her aunt, Mrs. Jay Sprague of Massassaga.

Miss Joyce Keeble and friends enjoyed a picnic at Crowe Lake on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Davidson of Toronto, spent a few days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sinclair.

Misses Jean Wanamaker and Dorothy Wannacott of Belleville are spending holidays with the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wannacott.

Miss Rhoda Brummell spent a couple of days recently with her friend, Miss Mary Hamilton, Reg. Nurse.

Mr. William Vanvart has accepted a position with the C.N. Railway at Mallorytown. His family will move in the near future. We regret losing Mr. and Mrs. Vanwart and family from our community.

Miss Audrey Way and Eleanor Sprague spent the dinner hour on Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Way of Bowerman's.

Mr. J. D. Keeble, a local fancy poultry breeder who was listening to a Salvation Army programme over the Brantford radio station on Sunday, July 7th, heard a familiar name mentioned. Mrs. Keeble recalled of how twenty-five years ago he used to know a man by the same name in the Salvation Army. So Mr. Keeble decided to write and ask him if he was the same man. Ensign Brown he used to be acquainted with.

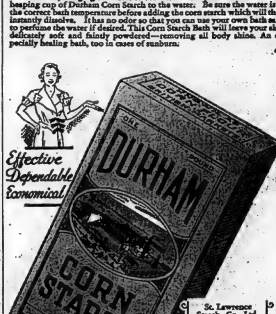
Mr Brown replied by dedicating two beautiful hymns in Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Keeble and family in memory of their acquaintance on Sunday, July 14th over the Brantford radio broadcast.

Ensign Way of Bowerman's and Mrs. Ensign Way of Bowerman's, and Mrs. J. D. Keeble took charge of the church service at Ameliasburg on Sunday evening in Rev. D. A. Campbell's absence.

Born on Wednesday, July 17th in Belleville General Hospital to Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Craft (nee Beatrice Mason) of Ameliasburg, the gift of a son.

Hands Bound, Woman Found Dead in Sewer

Chicago, July 18—(AP)—The body of an unidentified woman, her hands bound, was found today in a sewer. Police immediately began an investigation to determine whether the victim was the missing Mrs. Viola Smith, wife of Marshall Smith, gangster sought in the "wedding murder" of Ervin Lang, 28.



Mrs. Smith along with her Chinese husband, Harry Jung, vanished without a trace, July 10. The same day police arrested Jung's mother-in-law, Mrs. Blanche Dunkel, 43, who admitted, police said, that she hired Mrs. Smith to murder Lang for a promised $500.

Use DURHAM CORN STARCH for Sunburn

DURHAM CORN STARCH for culinary use is unequalled in quality, purity and absolute uniformity—famous for three generations. But here's another thrifty, effective use for this time-tested corn starch. This summer save money; use Durham Corn Starch to relieve sunburn. Apply liberally so that the skin is generously covered. Gently cooling and relieving—quick and reliable—this pure corn starch will relieve the sting and smart of sunburn. Recent investigations disclose that hundreds of families have been successfully using this economical remedy for sunburn for many years. So gladly we pass on the valuable information to you—a thrifty remedy for a thrifty age. Be sure to keep a package of Durham Corn Starch handy for this practical use.

DURHAM CORN STARCH BEAUTY BATH

Try for yourself another thrifty use for corn starch—a relaxing, velvety smooth corn starch beauty bath. Follow these fascinating Rms of your bath as usual, bringing the water to the desired temperature. Then add a heaping cup of Durham Corn Starch as the water. Be sure the water is at the correct bath temperature before adding the corn starch which will then instantly dissolve. It has no odor so that you can use your own bath salts to perfume the water if desired. This Corn Starch Bath will leave your skin delicately soft and faintly powdered—removing all body shine. An especially healing bath, too in cases of sunburn.

Effective Dependable Economical

St. Lawrence Starch Co. Ltd. Port Credit, Ont.

Manufacturers of Canada Laundry Starch, Durham Corn Starch, Lacry Glos Starch, Benson's Enamel Starch, Durham Corn Starch.

RADIO PROGRAMS

— Daylight Saving Time —

FRIDAY

9.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ
11.15—Wendell Hall, Songs—WJZ
11.30—Ozark Ozzie Clubs—WOR
1.30—Rex Battle Orch. —CBOT
2.30—Kitchen Party—WEAF
3.00—Gray and Bob—WJZ
7.00—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF
8.00—Concert, Jessica Dragonette, WEAF
8.15—Lucille Manners, soprano —WJZ
8.30—College Prom! Ruth Etting, Red Nichols Orch.—WEAF
8.30—Court of Human Relations—WABC
9.00—Waltz Time. Frank Munn, tenor; Abe Lyman's Orchestra—WEAF, WTAM
9.00—Hollywood Hotel—WABC
9.00—To Be Announced—WJZ
9.00—Gen. Hugh Long Speaker —WJZ
9.30—Phil Baker—WJZ
10.00—Richard Himber's Orch. —WABC
10.00—Fray Righter, drama—WEAF
10.30—Circus Nights in Silverton —WEAF
10.30—Anko Kostelanitz—WABC
11.00—Freddie Rich—WABC
11.15—Jerk Crawford, organist —WEAF
11.30—Press News—CBOT
11.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WJZ

SATURDAY

9.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ
11.00—Bamboers—WEAF
1.15—Rex Battle's Ensembles —WEAF
1.30—Transoceanic Broadcast from London—WABC
5.15—Jackie Heller, tenor—WJZ
6.30—News, Jim Hunter—CFRB
6.30—Portland Symphony Orch.
7.00—Dorsey Bros. Orch.—WJZ
7.30—Jack Denny Orch.—WEAF
7.30—Concerto Gems—WJZ
8.00—His Parade, Lennie Hayton's Orch.—WEAF
8.00—Modern Minstrels—WABC
9.00—Hollywood Court—WABC
9.00—To Be Announced—WJZ
9.45—Intl Broadcast From London—WABC
9.30—Save Dance—WJZ
9.30—Lombardi, Jr. Dance—WEAF
9.30—Calif. Melodies—WABC
10.30—Summer Follies—WEAF
10.30—Jan Garber's Orch.—WJZ
10.30—Jan Garber's Orch.—WABC
11.00—Abe Lyman's Orch.—WABC
11.30—News—CBOT
11.30—Ray Noble's Orch.—WEAF
11.30—Ted Weems' Orch. Hapshaw Orch. WJZ
11.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WABC

REALIZE Your WANTS-BY READING Other PEOPLE'S WANTS

UP TO 200, EACH PAID FOR U. S. INDIAN HEAD CENTS

We buy all dates regardless of condition. Up to $2.00 each for 1877 U. S. Liberty Head cents. Up to $10. each for Canadian cents, 1858, 1870, 1881, 1902, 1907, 1920, 1921, 1922 and the large 1923 issue must be sent registered. Satisfaction guaranteed or full refund.

HUB COIN SHOP
138-39 FRONT ST.
BELLEVILLE - ONTARIO

Business Directory

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner. Car Financing Our Specialty
S. J. FISHER & SON
39 Bridge St. East
Belleville 2-1-1
Campbell-Ritz Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto — Ottawa — London — Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., CHIROPRACTOR and Drugless Therapeutist. Consultation, examination and treatment. Specialty of nervous troubles, stomach and bowel troubles. Home treatment by electricity, vibration, massage and electro-therapeutic methods. Office hours 9 to 5. Phone 1274. 52 Campbell St., Belleville.

DENTIST

DR. ROST, H. EMPSON
DENTIST
Phone 689 Belleville 39½ Front St. 11-200

RADIO SERVICE

JOHN A. DEWAR
RADIO TECHNICIAN
Authorized Graybar Dealer
Phone 211 348 Dundas St.

SURVEYORS

FRANK M. AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Engineer. Surveys, Plans and Reports. Subdivision Plans a Specialty. Phone 2-2-2
PHONE 8 — P. O. BOX 99
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance
SANDY BURROWS and HOWARD FROST
Life, Fire and Automobile Insurance
251 Front St. — Phone 139

HALL & ZARLEY
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass
276 Front St. — Phone 2-1-1

STOCKS & BONDS

HOGABIN and CRAWFORD, MEMBERS Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 124. P. H. Hill, branch Manager. 82-1-1

LEGAL

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND CO. (successors to the late F. B. Wallbridge) Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Money to loan. Commission Bank Building, Belleville. Ont. Bridge street, Bellville, Ontario.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, K.C., BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office: Campbell St., Belleville.

T. W. WILLS, K.C., BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public, Etc. 13 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 68.

FORSTER, FATHE AND ARNOTT, BARristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Solicitors for the Bank of Nova Scotia. Office: 241 Front St., Belleville. Phone 267-W.

FORSTER AND GRAHAM, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Solicitors for Dominion Securities Corporation, Limited. Solicitors, Bank of Montreal, Money to loan at 5% and 5½%. W. D. Forster, K.C. R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

DONNAN AND BUTLER, K. C. Donnan, K.C., E. G. Butler, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Commissioner, Office: Bank of Montreal Building, Belleville. Ont. Phone 238.

A BEAUTIFULLY FINISHED HOUSE
To-Let
234 Charles St.
(Corner of Queen Street)
New Hardwood Floors throughout (up and down); Newly papered and painted; Lovely Bath Room; New Hot Air Furnace.
Living Room, Dining Room, Kitchen, three bed rooms upstairs.
See this place if you want a fully finished, comfortable, clean home.
IMMEDIATE POSSESSION
Belleville Locators
186 Front Street
GEO. M. GORMAN, Prop.
Phone 39 House Phone 687

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages, 50c; Deaths, 50c; Cards of Thanks, $1.00; Deaths and Funerals, $2.00; In Memoriams, $1.00; Marriage Proposals, minimum charge, $1.00 for 25 lines, over that 1½c per line; Marriage Leader Receiving Announcements, minimum charge, $1.00.
CLASSIFIED (Not Trade) Wanted, For Sale, Lost, Found, each for first insertion, 1c per word minimum 25c per insertion. Each subsequent insertion ½c per word, minimum 10c each.
COMING EVENTS—50c per insertion for 25 words or under, over that 1c per word per insertion.
BUSINESS, PROFESSIONAL AND MANUFACTURERS CARDS (Yearly Contract)—$4.25 per month per inch.
OFFICIAL NOTICES AND CONCESSIONARY NOTICES (including those commonly Legal Notices)—50c per agate line (14 lines to inch) for first insertion; 25c per line for each subsequent insertion.
AUCTION SALES—50c per word, handled in connection with The Intelligencer's Auction Sale Register. Minimum charge 75 words for The Consecutive insertions, 25 per week.

An initial or figure counts as one word.
In estimating allow five words to the line.
Telephone your Want Ads when it is more convenient. Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of an incorrect ad. Phone 99 or 2111.
Advertisers may have their replies addressed to a box number in the care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

COOK, GENERAL, MUST HAVE REFERences. Apply giving particulars to Box "C" Ontario Intelligencer. 219-21

GIRL FOR GENERAL HOUSEWORK. Apply Box "N" Ontario Intelligencer. 219-21

FEMALE HELP WANTED
AMATEUR ARTIST WITH MATURE personality to travel Ontario. Salary $1,000 first year. Write, Imperial Artists, Winnipeg, Man. 218-21

FOR SALE

FARM ON BELLEVILLE ROAD FIVE miles west of Napanee, 200 acres more or less. Will sell whole or part. New brick house, 8 rooms, bath and basement, new steel stock, new cow barn, 40 x 60, with cement floor. Apply to Box "A" Ontario Intelligencer, Belleville, Ont. 219-21

FARM OF 50 ACRES, BEING LOT 24, 2nd concession, Township of Ameliasburgh, one mile west of Roblin's Mills. Good soil, fair buildings, orchard, well watered. Apply to Mrs. Ida Wright, Roblin's Mills, R. R. 2. 219-21

MASSEY HARRIS 6 FOOT BINDER, also Frost and Wood 7 foot binder, one spring-tooth Massey Harris cultivator, 16-inch Massey Harris plow, International Harvester, 325 Front street. 219-21

ONE USED CREAM SEPARATOR FOR sale, good condition, capacity 500 lbs. Reasonable. 220 Front street. 219-21

CRUISER TYPE BOAT 22 FT. LONG, with 40 h.p. motor. Will sell or trade for small car. Apply 241 Dundas St. Apply A. Corfield, Attractaburg. 218-21

2-ROOM WALNUT BED ROOM SUITE, 3-piece Chesterfield Suite, Walnut Dining Suite, Walnut Side Board, Walnut Extension Table, Kitchen Cabinet, Coal Heater, Coal Stove. 378 George street. 218-21-18

TWENTY ACRES OF BELLEVILLE Manufactur. Will sacrifice for cash and only reason for selling, poor health. Apply to Box "S" Ontario Intelligencer, Belleville. 218-21

LOST

THURSDAY MORNING — SUM OF money in bulk. Finder please phone 68811. Reward. 219-21

COMFORTABLE FIVE ROOM FRAME cottage, Bridge street, Stirling at Rosemount. Apply to Mrs. J. Morrison, Belleville 7. 218-21

TO LET

GOOD SIZED TENT BY WEEK OR month. Reasonable. Apply 344 Dundas. Phone 827-W. 219-21

REVEAL, UNFURNISHED, HEATED flat, all conveniences, Bleecker avenue. Apply on premises.

A WANT-AD will FIND IT

VACATION DAYS Ahead?

It's a Safe Bet you have a glorious vision in mind of long, golden hours spent in coaxing the fish out of the lake.

For a successful holiday see that your fishing tackle is complete. We have everything you need!

TACKLE BOXES
LANDING NETS
MINNOW TRAPS
FLY RODS
ALL KINDS OF BAITS, etc.

WALKER HARDWARE
COMPANY LIMITED
248 Front St. Belleville Phone 168

TICKELL & BROWNE
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve for Less
FUNERAL HOME
Corner Church St. and Victoria Ave. Phone 2220

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
87 Campbell St.
Phone 716-W Day and Night
J. W. IRELAN
Proprietor
Motor Ambulance Crepe For Sale

Thomas C. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
25 Everett St. Phone 61
Office Phone 60
352 Front St. Phone 60

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION

This is to notify all persons interested of the dissolution of partnership between Walter Wallace of the Township of Wallace of the Walmsley Dairy and the undersigned, which partnership is the above Dairy. A. Walmsley. 217-21

BUSINESS LINERS

Whip-Poor-Will Lodge

2 hours drive from Belleville on Lake Ontario. Fishing, bathing, boating, dancing, boating. Rooms, cottages, meals. Special rates for week-ends. Chicken dinners with boats, rollers, lunches. Address Chapman, Ont. 218-21

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHERS

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF ALDEN LOUIS WARD, late of Belleville in the County of Hastings, Gentleman, deceased.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1927, Chapter 156, Section 31, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of the said Alden Louis Ward, who died at Belleville in the County of Hastings on the 25th day of February, 1935, are required to send by post prepaid, or deliver to the undersigned, Executors of the Estate of the said Deceased, on or about the 21

Baseball
Current Sport

IN THE REALM OF SPORTING EVENTS

Bowling
Golf

Pennant Races Likely to Reach Exciting Point This Week-End When Leading Teams Clash

Cards Open Series With Giants And Yankees With Tigers

YANKS FAIL

Schoolboy Rowe Yields Only Five Hits in Beating Red Sox

(By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.)
(Associated Press Writer)

Barring unforseen happenings over the coming week-end, there are indications of exciting times in the major league pennant races early next week, when New York's two leaders encounter their nearest rivals.

Both Giants and the Yankees have been watching their leads dwindle steadily in the past couple of weeks and here are two of the smaller Monday when the Tigers go to New York to take on Yanks and Giants invade St. Louis for a bout with Cardinals.

The Yankee margin was again clipped to 1 1-2 games yesterday, when they coss out with a short end of a 4-1 score after an 11-inning battle with the cellar-dwelling Browns, while Giants escaped from Cincinnati with a tourgame lead and nothing much else after they had gone twelve frames to beat the Reds 5-3 in the only ten break for the series. Before Monday Yanks have three more encounters with St. Louis, while Giants take on the third-place Cubs who have been acting quite tough lately.

Fail to Smash Hits

Yanks' failure to bunch their hits off Dick Coffman cost them the decision for Charley Ruffing pitched five-hit ball for ten frames before he finally weakened and was boun-ded for the odd run. Then Pat Malone forced in two more tallies with passes, Giants worked just the other way, scoring twice in the ninth with the aid of two errors and parcel ball then batting out two more off relief flinger Don Brennan in the 12th.

There, meanwhile, slashed into Yanks' lead by bowling over Red Sox 5-0 as Schoolboy Rowe pitched a five-hit game and nicked his mound rival, West Ferrell, for three important blows. Cardinals, still playing as if every pitch meant a pennant, rang up their 45th consecutive victory, beating the Braves 13-3 to keep pace with Giants. Paul Dean did the flinging giving five hits, while Burgess Whitehead led the 15-hit attack with four blows and Bill Delancey and Pepper Martin socked homers.

Hitting Spree for Cubs

Cubs also put on a hitting spree to remain four games behind Cards as they trounced Phillies 11-3 with Joe Sid of circuit seats by Chuck Klein. Augie Galan and Frank Demaree and some brilliant relief hurling by Charley Root. Brooklyn moved back into fifth place ahead of Cincinnati by knocking off Pirates for the fourth straight time, 8-3 as Ray Benge pitched four-hit ball until he weakened in the ninth and Dodgers finished it.

Senators and Athletics, rounded out a big day for the American League's second division clubs, the former trimming the White Sox 6-4 with a 13-hit attack behind Buck Newsom, the latter beating the Indians 7-4 as Pinky Higgins clouted two homers, the second supplying the winning runs.

Batting Leaders

(By the Associated Press)

American League

Batting—Johnson, Athletics, .348; Vosmik, Indians .345.

Runs—Gehringer, Tigers, 72; Greenberg, Tigers 70.

Runs batted in—Greenberg, Tigers, 110; Johnson, Athletics, 78.

Hits—Cramer, Athletics 117, Gehringer and Greenberg, Tigers 113.

Doubles—Greenberg, Tigers and Werber, Red Sox 27.

Triples—Averill, Indians, 12; Cronin, Red Sox 11.

Home Runs—Greenberg, Tigers, 26; Johnson Athletics 19.

Stolen Bases—Werber, Red Sox 16; Almada, Red Sox 14.

Pitching—Tamulis, Yankees, 7-2; Lyons, White Sox, 10-3.

National League

Batting—Vaughan, Pirates, .384; Medwick, Cardinals .370.

Runs—Medwick, Cardinals, 72; Ott, Giants, 71.

Runs batted in —J. Collins, Cardinals, 7; Ott, Giants 73.

Hits—Medwick, Cardinals, 122; Terry, Giants 117.

Doubles— Martin, Cardinals and Herman Cubs 21.

Triples—Goodman Reds; 10; Suhr, Pirates 9.

Home runs—Ott, Giants, 20; J. Collins, Cardinals 18.

Stolen Bases—Martin Cardinals 11 Goodman, Reds and Bordagaray, Dodgers 10.

Pitching— Ramsdell, Giants 10-2; Schumacher, Giants 12-3.

DAN O'MAHONY.

With the world's heavyweight wrestling crown firmly ensconced on the Irish dome, Dan O'Mahony can afford to smile. He won the real title from old Jim Londos and defended it against Chief Little, Wolf, Indian bad man

WITH THE LAWN BOWLERS

.....
.....
.....

THE RED TIGER

By ALANSON CROSBY

"Come on, Miss Bates, and follow me," he whispered, as he shot back the bolt. "Quick! Not that anybody can hear us upstairs, but you never know where that devil Hart may be lurking."

"This is being you've saved me," whispered Judith gratefully, slipping quickly out of the cell. "I'll never be able to repay you. I'll do what I can. But you will release Mr. Spencer, too?"

"Yes," Dick replied. "Things have smashed the cell door so that anybody can hear us upstairs, but you never know where that devil Hart may be lurking.

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE CAPITOL

"G-Men"

Jim Cagney Tough in Gangster Role

The leap from gangster to cop per would not appear such a long jump for some players, but the last person one would expect to succeed in the role of law and order is Jimmy Cagney.

Nevertheless, the one and only Cagney, tough guy of the movies, has turned Federal sleuth in the First National production "G-Men" now showing at the Capitol. The story in which, as a member of the United States Department of Justice, he leads down and eliminates the very type of character he has so often portrayed.

Cagney is still the tough guy—tougher even than he has ever been before.

Gregory Rogers, author of "G-Men" built his story around the headlines that have been chasing one another across the front pages of America's newspapers for the last two or three years. He was inspired by the heroic deeds of the G-Men—the government men who have knocked the very foundations out from under gangdom—and he gave the title "G-Men" to his production.

Jimmy Cagney got the role of "Brick Davis," a tough guy from New York's East Side who throws overboard a meager but promising law practice to become a G man and exterminate the gang responsible for bringing to an untimely conclusion the life of his colleague, Eddie Buchanan (Regis Toomey) who went straight from law school into the Secret Service.

Besides Cagney, the cast boasts of several well known screen players, including Ann Dvorak, Margaret Lindsay and Robert Armstrong.

An excellent program of short subjects round out an entertaining bill. A hilarious comedy played by the Three Stooges, called, "Three Little Pigskins", a cartoon that gives us some Hitting Italian arias and the usual interesting Fox Newsreel.

For a special showing on Saturday only, the management has booked a red-blooded Western feature picture, entitled, "Riders of Destiny," in which the popular and hard-riding John Wayne appears as "Singin' Sandy" who gets mixed up in a rancher's war over water rights in the cattle country. Pretty Cecilia Parker is the feminine lead with Al St. John and George Hayes and Edward Cook-lin lending capable support.

The Saturday matinee will start promptly at 2 p. m. due to the length of the program, showing of the feature film, "G-Men," will be at 2.39 at the matinee, and at 7.15 and 10 p. m. in the evening.

AT THE BELLE

"Alibi Ike"

Joe E. Brown in His Funniest Role

Joe E. Brown is always good for a big laugh.

He is the film favorite of all kids in whatever part of the world motion pictures are shown and "Taking the children to see Joe E. Brown," has become as plebeian and a diversion for grown-ups as taking them to the circus.

Now Joe E. has the kind of a role his fans have always sought for him and the immortal humor of the late Ring Lardner combined with the comedian's own talents, made the Warner Bros.' home run comedy "Alibi Ike" which opens at the Belle tomorrow for a two days engagement, Saturday and Monday, one of the season's best bills.

Ring Lardner knew more about baseball than any author of his time and his stories of their idiosyncracies and habits made him famous, "Alibi Ike" was the most popular of them, and all its side splitting fun has been incorporated into the film version.

As the title would imply, Joe E. is a great ball player who always has an alibi, no matter whether he is right or wrong. This habit not only brought him his nickname, but almost cost him his girl, and led him into a series of adventures as thrilling as they are hilarious.

That Joe is better than ever goes without saying, for he has a better and funnier role than usual, and in it which he is given a real opportunity. The story has more romance than is usual in a Joe E. Brown comedy, the feminine lead being taken by Olivia De Havilland.

That young lady had her first film role as Hermia in "A Midsummer Night's Dream," for which she was picked by Max Reinhardt, her work so impressed Warner Bros. that she was given a long term contract and jumped into a lead with Joe E. Brown. Her work justifies the selection.

Others in the cast who do remarkable work are Ruth Donnelly, Roscoe Karns, William Frawley, Eddie Shubert, Paul Harvey, Adrian Hoskey and a score of ball players.

An all-color classic "The Spectacle Maker", a clever Terry-Toon Kartune "Amateur Night" and the popular "Paramount News" will also be presented at each performance on Saturday and Monday, starting times for these two days will be daily at 2.30 - 7.15 and 9.15 P. M.

"Break of Hearts"

Throbbing human emotions are blended in a symphony of love and drama in "Break of Hearts" which brings together for the first time the fascinating Katharine Hepburn and the dashing Charles Boyer.

Love, glorified through sacrifice, is the theme of the story, which runs the scale from laughter to tears in inspiring harmonies.

The film tells the story of a young composer who married a great orchestra leader but leaves him through pride when she believes her love is only an incident in his career. Later they both come to the realisation that their love for each other is the only worthwhile thing in their lives. The man's inspiration leaves him with the loss of her and she foregoes wealth, position and security to join him in poverty and hardship and help him win back his high place in the world.

"Break of Hearts" is one picture that we urge you to see and hope that you will not miss the opportunity of attending the Belle tonight to see this outstanding production. Complete performances start at 7.15 and 9.10 P. M.

BELIEVE GELERT MAN SHOOTS WIFE, THEN HIMSELF

Supposedly in a jealous rage, Lawrence Anderson, 34, of Gelert, eight miles east of Minden, is believed to have shot his wife with a high-powered rifle about 3 p. m. Wednesday, and then turned it on himself. Hearing shots, then a scream, then another shot, neighbours found Mrs. Anderson lying on the floor of their cottage near the front door with a bullet in her side, and Anderson sprawled on the kitchen floor. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are shown in (1) while in (2) is shown Robert McElwain, who was driving past the house when two shots plowed through his car window, just missing him. Glass from the shattered window, also shown, cut his neck.

ITALY LIKELY TO GIVE ULTIMATUM

ROME, July 19.—(AP)— Italian unofficial circles asserted today that Emperor Haile Selassie's conference with his people to "fight to the last man" rendered remote any early settlement of Italy's dispute with Ethiopia.

These sources interpreted the address as an indication of the Emperor's determination not to yield to Italian demands. No official reaction could be obtained, however, authorities declining to issue any formal comment.

The possibility arose, meanwhile, of final diplomatic negotiations between Rome and Addis Ahaba.

The authoritative Foreign Affairs review, "Affari Esteri," asserted that the controversy could be solved peacefully if Ethiopia would accept solutions which eventually will be proposed by the East African Empire.

This statement was taken by informed circles to mean that at some given moment Italy will deliver an ultimatum to Ethiopia, containing its conditions for peace, with a clear understanding that if the conditions are not accepted, war will follow.

Helpful Warm Weather Hints from the C.D.S.

Cool and Comfortable for Summer, COTTON DRILL

Shorts

In the country, at the beach, the camp, etc., these are being worn extensively and are very popular. Select a pair Saturday, we have a fine lot of cotton drill in plain shades, some with contrasting belt or anchor trim, pleated for fullness on sides. Cool and smartly designed for the utmost in summer comfort.

Navy, white, royal blue and fawn. Sizes 14 to 20.

Each 89c

For Girls' 7 to 14 Years!

Voile Dresses

Dainty cotton voile frocks with short and cape sleeve effects, in pretty floral designs, in pastel shades. Many with crisp organdy for trimmings. Select from green, blue, yellow, rose or pink, with contrasting designs. Sizes 7 to 14 years. Each 1.00

— Second floor

Rayon Bloomers

(SOME SECONDS)

Elastic at knees and waist, or elastic at back and a flat band front. Cool, comfy bloomers, in tearose, pink, mauve or blue. Sizes small, medium and large in the lot. Special, each 59c

— Second floor

Women's and Misses' Washable Celanese Dresses

Short sleeves, for coolness, or if you like select a jacket frock that may answer for several different occasions, you'll find extensive selection, in these summery frocks of celanese, and they're washable, too. They may be smartly pleated, in skirt, smartened with a neat collar, button trimmed and distinguished by some other little fashionable stitch or detail interest. No matter what style you select from choose either White or a pretty pastel. The sizes in this group run from 14 to larger 44. The price only

5.95

—Second floor

SATURDAY OFFERS ANOTHER BIG SPECIAL SALE OF

Fresh Candies

Toasted Marshmallows. lb. 15c

Cut Jellies. Lb. 15c

Marshmallow Bananas. ... lb. 19c

Marshmallow Peanuts. ... lb. 19c

Broken Chocolate. ... Lb. 17c

Nougat Rolls. Lb. 19c

— Main floor, right

Women's Fine Hosiery of Celanese Yarn

Only 36c a pair for these fine, clear, silk-like hose Saturday. Fashioned from fine quality celanese yarns, with a good stretchy top. Choose them in Beige (brown), Biska, (light beige), Gunmetal (dark grey), Sunny (light fawn.) Sizes from 9 to 10 in this line.

pair 25c

— Main floor, left

New! Smart! Men's Fine Shirts

With the Ever-Neat Collar

A new acquisition to men's wearable, a fine cotton broadcloth shirt, in white that features a new collar—warranted by the manufacturer not to wilt, will not wrinkle, has no starch, will not curl, has no stiffness, requires no studs, and will not shrink. The very thing men have long wanted, especially in such hot, sweltering weather as this. Think of it—at the end of the day a collar that will look as smart as when first put on—and the price, too, the same as you'd pay ordinarily for any good quality shirt. Sizes 14 to 18½. Each 2.00

— Men's Store

Men's Fine Rayon Combinations

Athletic cut, of fine run-resist rayon, with a choice of button front or button at left shoulder. Cool, comfortable lining-underwear that is ideal for summer weather. Sizes 36 to 44. Each 1.00

— Men's Store

EXTRA SPECIAL!

Heavyweight 36 inch White Cotton Pique

An extra heavy quality, white cotton pique, for making shirts, frocks, jackets, etc. A limited yardage, hence the unusually low pricing. 36 inches wide too. Special, yard

19c

— Main floor, rear

Bridge Lamp and Shade

Complete with cord and attachments, a smart little bridge lamp, with twisted metal stem, in gilt finish. Shade is of parchment paper and nicely decorated to harmonize. It's a special feature Saturday 1.98

—Main floor, rear

35" - 36" Drapery Chintz

In pretty floral pattern, smart chintzes for making your home or cottage gay for summer months. A quality that is used extensively for draperies, cushions, slip covers etc. Special, yard 17c

—Main floor, rear

(Seconds.) Heavy Weight

Cotton Bath Mats

Slightly soiled or imperfect, the reason for this clearance! Thick, well woven in effective colorings such as blue, green, rose or mauve. They're washable, too, which should mean a great deal to you. The size 20" x 36". Special, each 69c

—Main floor, rear

50-FOOT LENGTH

Lawn Hose

Half-inch size, all rubber, black garden hose, complete with necessary couplings. In 50-foot lengths. Special 2.89

—Basement

Motor Oil

2 GALLON CANS 1.39

In three grades, Medium Grade (SAE 30); Heavy (SAE 40); Extra Heavy (SAE 50); with good body and heat resisting qualities. It's a rare "buy" at this price.

— Basement

72" x 90" Brocaded Rayon and Cotton Spreads

Two colors—blue or yellow, and they won't last long either at this low pricing. Here's an opportunity to add color and beauty to your bedrooms, at small outlay. Brocaded in large floral patterns of lustrous rayon yarns and strongly reinforced with cotton. The size 72" x 90". Excellent! Special, each 1.79

—Main floor rear

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

LEARN-TO-SWIM DRIVE ENDORSED

Premier Hepburn Manifests Interest in Life-Saving

Toronto, July 19—Hearty endorsation of the Ontario Learn to Swim-Learn Life Saving Campaign which is being sponsored in this Province under the auspices of the Canada Amateur Swimming Association (Ontario Section), through local committees, was received this morning by Harry R. Cillard, president of the provincial body and founder of the campaign, in a conversation with Premier Mitchell Hepburn.

"The safety of a person to swim, even to a slight degree, would play an important part in preventing the many drownings one hears about of adults and children falling unexpectedly into holes while wading, and from boats," the leader of the provincial government contended. "The campaign, conducted at this time when the Hon. R. B. McQuesten is endeavouring to reduce highway accidents by creating a "safety-consciousness" on the part of the public, even though partially successful, will undoubtedly make the holiday period of each year so much happier by a lessened decrease in fatalities.

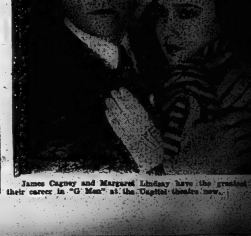
The premier, incidentally has a real personal interest in life-saving. President Gillard learned during his interview. Two members of Mr. Hepburn's family, through their ability as swimmers and their knowledge of resuscitation, were able to save six lives when an unexpected misfortune occurred at Port Stanley, in September three years ago, sweeping the unsuspecting victims out into Lake Erie. As a result of this piece of heroism Carnegie medals were presented to Dr. Angus McEachan, and his younger brother, Alan McEachlan.

Angus, then captain of the University of Western Ontario Rugby Team, subsequently received a Rhodes Scholarship, and recently in England was awarded the coveted degree of Fellow of Royal College of Surgeons. Allan McEachlan also is an all round type of young man, he winning the Sir Arthur Currie Scholarship in the past season.

The Learn to Swim-Learn Life Saving campaign founded and promoted by President Gillard with the assistance of officers of the Ontario branch of the C. A. S. A. church organizations and service clubs, should gain considerable impetus now that the campaign is well under way. From all sides heartiest endorsations have been received, and, in their own interests and that of the community, every person, both young and old, is urged to join in the effort now being propogated to make the summer swimming months less dangerous.

$48,000 Bank Loot Carried Off Today

Chester, Pa., July 19—(AP)—Five robbers today held up a branch of the Delaware County National Bank and fled with $48,000.



The holdup-men, all masked, covered employes and patrons with guns, forcing them to lie on the floor.

They scooped the money from the cashier's cage and fled in an automobile.

10 PER CENT WAGE INCREASE

Sydney, N.S., July 19.—(CP)—A general wage increase of 10 per cent for the 2,000 workers at the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation's Steel plant here was announced today by the Corporation's President's Sir Newton Moore. It becomes effective August 1st.

At the same time, Sir Newton announced, the eight-hour day will be placed in effect in the plant's open hearth, rail mill and yard departments.

James Cagney and Margaret Lindsay have the greatest roles of their career in "G Men" at the Capitol theatre now.

WEATHER
Moderate winds; east or decidedly warm; Sunday, mostly fair; decidedly warm; probably local thunderstorms.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES
	Max.	Min.
Today	88	69
Year ago	94	70

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, JULY 20, 1935

FRENCH OF ENGLAND WINS KING'S PRIZE

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Blue Springs, Mo., July 20 (CP) — Otto Fennema, 65, years-old proprietor of a nearby soap factory here had only divorced his wife and paid her alimony, but entertained her at his camp until she was ready to go to Reno to get married.

Fennema then bought the marriage license, paid the Minister's fee and gave the couple $500 and his blessing.

Evanston, Ill., July 20 (CP) — While five officers watched over completion against Northwestern, Ill., negro, in connection with an automobile accident, the prisoner disappeared. When a search of the grounds failed to locate him, a request for his arrest was issued to all officers.

Wanda Hawiak later, Lieut. Peter Goldschacker went in a limousine for a lawsuit. He stumbled over an object on the floor. When he turned a light on the "object" was blinked and yawned.

"I'm a prisoner," the "object" replied to the officer's query. "I guess I was just mistaken."

Los Angeles, July 20 (AP)—Dr. David H. Calder, 57, diagnosed his wife's case when he attended a meeting of the Los Angeles tumour commission today.

"I think it may be a touch of laryngitis," he told a fellow commissioner, seated next to him — and then crumpled in his chair. He died of the heart ailment at home later.

Augusta, Ga., July 20 (CP) — The self-stretched mental leg of a dog's stomach was found in the cage of W. F. Yeomn impaled a flying gnat.

Aberdeen, Wash., July 20 (CP) — Carrying the ashes of Private D. Hutchinson surrounded into a casket he was drafted. Suddenly the rope snapped and dead he fainted. He was revived by smelling salts and each force 8 expended, but he escaped with minor injuries.

Kitchener, Ont., July 20 (CP) — Abraham Bauman, 70, was fined $5 and costs in Police Court today when a Kitchener constable "Tat-ted," and emphasized his remarks with a right to the chin. He paid a $10 fine for the privilege.

Hamilton, Ont., July 20 (CP)— For 16 years Walter Archer has tended cherry trees on his front lawn—but he has never had a cherry from them. Each year a mischief is constant watch on the trees, and remove the fruit the moment it becomes ripe.

Hamilton, Ont., July 20 (CP)— For 25 cents a Hamilton housewife purchased a "bottle of soup" from a transient salesman. Later she removed the bottles from the stove to discover they were filled with water.

5000 MOSLEMS RIOT AT MOSQUE

Troops Forced to Fire Ten Persons Being Killed

Lahore, India, July 20—(AP)— British troops killed two persons, and wounded several others today when they fired into a crowd of 5,000 Moslems who were attempting to visit the Shahidgnna Mosque.

The police made several hundred arrests.

The Mosque, which the Moslems claimed as their property, was undergoing demolition by Sikhs, which had caused a riot July 8.

STORM CLOUDS MEET OVER DELHI

Cyclone Damage to Crops Reported Very Heavy

Delhi, Ont., July 20—(CP)—A brief but severe cyclone, apparently originating in the reading collision of two huge storm clouds, seriously damaged crops in this area yesterday.

The cyclone was confined to the Brandy district, three miles northwest of here. Fields border-ing the main highway, along which the twister travelled, were flattened. Other fields were untouched.

The cyclone picked a path in the severe rain and hail storm which caused limited damage to crops in this section of Ontario. About 300 acres of tobacco plants were riddled by hailstones.

OFFER OF BUSSES IS TURNED DOWN BY TORONTO MEN

Ranks Reduced to 295 by Time Oshawa is Reached

WEEKEND AT OSHAWA

Trek Army at Kenora Accepts Transportation to Their Homes

(By The Canadian Press)

Movement of hundreds of unemployed marching to Ottawa was halted today, in one case—that of 280 at Kenora in Northern Ontario —the halt was permanent, but in others it was merely a week-end camp.

A day of negotiations ended at Kenora last night when the Manitoba unemployed decided to accept the offer of Premier Mitchell Hepburn who promised he would pay their expenses if they would return immediately to Winnipeg.

The decision accepted after long negotiations during which Premier Hepburn refused to pay expenses of a delegation to Ottawa. But the marchers decided to go as a delegation of five to Ottawa anyway. Their expenses will be paid with funds sent by Mr. Hepburn.

Week End At Oshawa

The Toronto contingent prepared to spend the week end at Oshawa, 33 miles from Toronto, after a 10-mile hike from Pickering. Meeting after their arrival here, Premier Hepburn's offer of transportation back to their homes. They will leave again Monday. Their numbers were reduced to 295. Two dropped out at Oshawa.

Elsewhere in the north marchers from North Bay were camped at Mattawa. Fifty-five left North Bay early in the morning on foot, the ground. They assured police they would leave when requested.

GREECE NEARING RULE BY ROYALTY

Reshuffled Cabinet Bears Move to The Right

Athens, July 20 (C.P.-Havas) — Greek political crisis was dissolved today with announcement by Premier Panagiotis Tsaldaris of a ministerial list in which the majority of the portfolios had been shifted.

The crisis was provoked over a Monarchist issue yesterday when certain ultra-Republican cabinet members were asked to resign. The reshuffle, observers said, was more to the right, it is said, and consequently brings Greece one step nearer the restoration. Newspaper publishing the list of the new cabinet members said the public referendum on which the people of Greece will vote yes or no on the question will be held in August or September.

The new cabinet list retains General George Kondylis, the popular hero who spearheaded the Venizelist revolt of last March, and who, with Premier Tsaldaris, is an ardent advocate of restoration. General Kondylis is vice-premier and Minister of War.

Norseman Flyer Starts Long Flight

Seven Islands, Que., July 20 (CP)—Thor Solberg, Norseman pilot took off from the St. Lawrence River here at 8.33 A. M. (E.D.T.) for Harre St. Pierre, further along the north shore of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, on the third leg of the flight from New York to Bergen, Norway. At Harre St. Pierre Solberg and Doc Oxaal, canyan, his radio man, will refuel for the flight to Cartwright, Labrador.

Cocoidiosis Breaks Out in Herd, Rare Disease Found in Leeds Twp.

Gananoque, July 20—(CP)—Dr. G. R. Booth, veterinarian, today confirmed the report that a case of cocoidiosis had been reported in a herd of cattle in the rear of Lansdowne and Leeds Twp. This disease is very rare in Ontario but is more common in Western Canada among range cattle. It is a disease usually attacking young cattle.

The infection is spread by water of pools and marshes.

Dr. Booth added that in 1924 he reported a similar outbreak at Palmerston, Ont., in Wellington County, which was the first time this disease was ever reported in cattle in Ontario.

AS THERMOMETER SOARS

Whew! Hot? Not for these kiddies at Victoria Park bathing pool. These kids have found a new way to cool off as the present heat wave and also too cold.

mounting thermometer which hit 88 degrees in the shade for a second record today. Judging by the face of one little chap the cold shower is a little

Economies are Effected Claims Hon. Dr. Faulkner Under Hepburn Regime

Unemployment, He Says Must be Solved Outside Politics

TRAVELLING CLINICS

Federal Liberal Candidate C. A. Cameron Attacks Third Party Entry

"Honest labor is still needed in this country. Do not expect your government, or any other government, to do it all."

The unemployment problem in Canada and Ontario is one that must be dealt with irrespective of politics.

"With the erection of the sanatorium in this city for the treatment of sufferers, the first step in the fight against tuberculosis in this immediate district which has become especially deadly, will have been put in earnest. It must be stamped out."

Premier Hepburn has effected many economies since he was elected to office and has been able to turn the money derived to other channels where it has been badly needed. Aid for hospitals of the province is only one instance."

"Discharge a man from a job, even though it is a superfluous one, and you have made an enemy— many enemies. Appoint a second one to another position and it is all taken for granted. Not one in five would bother shaking hands with you afterward."

Points by points the Hon. Dr. J. A. Faulkner, Ontario Minister of Health, speaking at Wallbridge last evening in the interests of Mr. Chas. Cameron, Liberal candidate for South Hastings in the coming Federal election, dealt with the chief problems the present day administration by the Ontario and Federal government, dissecting and clarifying many leading questions of the day.

Head Cuts Attendance

Although the sweltering heat of Friday evening and cut down the attendance at the town hall somewhat, an enthusiastic gathering, which rendered boisterous welcome to the Minister of Health was present to hear the issues of the day discussed not only by Hon. Dr. Faulkner, but by Harry W. Johnson, secretary of the Liberal Association for the Province who accompanied Dr. Faulkner here from Toronto, Mr. Chas. A. Cameron, Mayor Geo. S. Tice and many from Belleville as well as from throughout a wide area of the audience were present.

Rounds of applause greeted Dr. Faulkner as he rose following his introduction by Mr. Walter Harder, president of the Sidney Liberal Association and chairman of the evening.

"I bring you the greetings of the Prime Minister of the Province", said Dr. Faulkner in his opening remarks.

"Before the election you are all aware that I never made a promise as to what I would do if I were elected. Since then I just want to show, that things have really been accomplished, I point out, that we have had the interests and the welfare of West Hastings at heart, even though conditions have not been ideal since then."

Dr. Faulkner declared, that even though the federal government has made a drastic reduction in the grant in aid of hospitals that had

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 1)

WEAPONS OF WOOD MADE IS CHARGE

Alleged Leaders in Uprising at Regina Face Hearing

Regina, July 20—(CP)—Evidence that Sioux camp strikes had fashioned weapons of wood and leather prior to the fatal Dominion Day rioting here, was written in to court records here following preliminary hearing of alleged leaders of the uprising.

The six men are Arthur Evans, Matt Shaw, John Cosgrove, Ernest Edwards, George Black and Ivan Bell, a Communist. They are held they appeared for preliminary hearing yesterday, all are charged with being members of an unlawful association.

Evidence given concerning the making of clubs at the strikers camp in Regina stadium was given by Don Taylor, Winnipeg Police Investigator.

Wooden laths, pieces of rubber hose, pipe and wooden clubs with leather handles were spread out as exhibits as Taylor testified. Seats in the stadium had been ripped apart and fashioned into clubs, R. Forsythe, Exhibition Superintendent testified.

CHAMPION SHOT POSTS 289 TOTAL IN TWO STAGES

Lt. Col. Gibson of Hamilton Plugs 15 Bull's Eyes in Succession

MONTREALER'S CUP

Major Banks-Feat for Gold Coast Wins Wales' Prize ia Tie

Bisley Camp, Eng., July 20 (CP)—Armourer-Sergeant F. C. French of England today won the historic King's prize.

French posted a total of 289 out of a possible 300 in the combined second and third stages of the historic match, first stage of which was won by Sergeant-Major Lance, with 291 out of a possible 300.

French had been among the king's hundred in the first stage, fewer than eight times before, starting in 1911 and getting into the final two out of three years in succession, but this was his first victory in the event. His highest score previously was the silver cross.

A sharp downpour of rain swept the ranges as the marksmen went to the firing point, but the King's prize final and it upset many of the competitors.

Col. Gibson's Scoring.

Unperturbed, Lt.-Col. C. W. Gibson of Hamilton, Ont., in the Connaught Rifle Association team, scored 15 consecutive bull's eyes for a possible 75 and an aggregate of 289 out of a possible 300, equalled the aggregate of Lt. P. J. Martinson of La Tuque, Que., for the prize.

Capt. A. B. Coulter of Ottawa scored 75 for 215; C.Q.M.S. Alex Fraser of Toronto, 75 for 214; Sergeant-Major Bell of Toronto, 75 for 214; Sergeant-Major Dow of Saint John 67 for 211; Lieut. H. E. Dow of Ottawa 65 for 206; Lieut. A. P. Williams of Ottawa 65 for 206; Lieut. A. Scott of Montreal 64 for 206; and Sgt. Fred Wallace of Mount Dennis, Ont., 60 for 198.

Maloy Banks-Feat from the Gold Coast was the winner of the rich Prince of Wales prize in a tie-shoot with the other marksmen who had finished the match Thursday with 68 out of a possible 70. He took the N.R.A. Gold and cash prize of $500.

The Daily Telegraph silver cup went to Sgt. Everett of the Hill Lancers, in a shoot-off with 19 others who had also scored scores of 50 in the match Thursday.

Montrealer Wins Cup.

The Bernie Rifle Association Cup, unsquadded daily competition, was won by Lieut. James Box of Montreal, Canada's second victory of the meeting, carrying also a cash prize of $100. Private Taylor was fourteenth, and Lt.-Col. Ulton also of Toronto, fifteenth.

War Cripple Wins Cup.

Lieut. G. Sutherland, who lost

(Continued on page two)

LAST HOPE SEEN IN KING'S PRIZE

Canadians to Bring Only Meagre Bag From Bisley

Bisley Camp, England, July 20. —(CP Cable)— Unless they come through in the Daily Telegraph Cup itself, or in the St. George's challenge vase today, the Canadians will go back from Bisley Camp this year with more of the honours than their meagre bag on record.

And not for lack of shooting ability. Scores have been amazingly high all round this year and with a number of attached by the Silver Jubilee, the going has been keen and close.

Just the same, the only victory for the Canadians has come in the two weeks of competition with the mother country and the best of the Empire's shots was in the first stage of the King's prize, when Sergeant-Major Lance, Montreal, won the bronze medal for top score.

The Canadians have lost both the Great Imperial team trophies they won a year ago. England took the Kolapore Cup, the long-distance shoot, on Thursday when Australia and New Zealand and India capturing the Senior trophy, the Kolapore by one point over the Canadians after a gruelling struggle.

A year ago at this stage, on the eve of the wind-up of the great meeting, the Canadians had also posted both aggregates, the all-comers and the Grand, thanks to Lt. P. J. Martinson of La Tuque, Que., Sergeant Bowland of Toronto, had annexed the Prince of Wales prize, second only to the King's

TOBACCO CROPS LAID WASTE BY ELECTRIC STORMS

Ontario Swelters in Heat Wave With no Chance of Breaking

MANY PROSTRATED

Crops Flattened, Cellars Flooded in Western Ontario

Ontario took off its coat and loosened its collar and prepared to do other battle with sweltering temperatures today. Weathermen forecast continued hot weather—with a possible lowering temperature due to clouds—and a few local thunderstorms, but the heat demon would still hold sway they said.

Farmers in Western Ontario today took stock of their ruined farms across upon acres of tobacco and other crops were laid waste by electrical storms. At least one death was attributed to the heat and scores of persons were in hospital and prostrated and scores of those who sought relief in lakes were innumerable.

At Listowel F. S. Howe,70, collapsed and died a few minutes later from a heart attack brought on by the heat. In Hamilton Charles St. John, 16, was drowned in a lake and was rushed to hospital. His condition was only fair today. The thermometer soared to 95 and 96.

Many Prostrations.

In Toronto Miss Maud Robinson, 68, of Hamilton, was prostrated from the heat. Released later from hospital she went for a swim in Lake Ontario and died. Mrs. Annie Bell, 70, of Toronto, was also prostrated by the heat but rallied after a narrow escape from drowning. Three also guards saved five who were in danger out on the lake.

At Tillsonburg rain and hail damaged the tobacco and other crops between that point and Delhi. No losses were reported in other localities.

Hail, rain and high winds also flattened crops, disrupted communications and felled trees in many western Ontario points. For Orford, Norfolk and Elgin counties it was the second such storm of the week.

Cain, barley and corn crops suffered when the storm cut a 13-mile swath at Brigden. Cars in that village were flooded. Joseph Parr fractured his wrist when the storm slammed a door in his home shut. Oats and other crops also suffered when the storm struck and electrical wires were damaged by falling trees.

Hottest spot in the province was Fort Frances with a temperature of 103 degrees at Petrolia. Lambton and Kent counties also suffered in the rain and wind.

Toronto Suffers.

Toronto suffered yesterday with the mercury at 91, which was the record so far for 1935. A year ago it was 90. Humidity was 70 per cent.

In the Manitou Peninsula heavy rains damaged crops and flooded the streets of Manitowaning. The Sheguiandah township's man narrowly escaped injury when a tree was struck by lightning.

Eastern Ontario was comparatively cool, with 84 at Ottawa. Further west, Winnipeg recorded 86, but elsewhere the mark was cool.

16 Year Youth Killed In Father's Saw Mill

St. Joseph D'Alma, Que., July 20 —(CP)—Paul-Emile Collard, 16, son of the owner of the sawmill here was instantly killed yesterday when he fell into the path of a revolving saw. The young boy placed his hand too close to the machine and was pulled beneath the mechanical saw. His body mutilated body came out at the lower end of the machine and was thrown on the floor before the accident was noticed.

Decentralize Wealth Is Plan of Stevens As He Opens Campaign

Reconstructionists Offer Plan to Deal With Unemployment

EASE OF CREDIT

Hamilton, Ont., July 20 (CP) — Before the Canadian electorate today were further details of the Reconstruction Party programme outlined by its leader, Hon. H. H. Stevens, former Dominion Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Opening gun in the campaign of the youngest political party in the field was fired here last night by Mr. Stevens. With him on the platform were the men who figured in the creation of the party, all of whom will again be with the former Minister when he speaks today at St. Catharines.

Following the St. Catharines rally Mr. Stevens will journey to Ottawa to prepare for a tour of the Western Provinces.

People or the Few

A sweltering crowd, coatless men and women fanning themselves with newspapers heard the new political chieftain ask: whether the people should rule Canada or continue to be dominated by a handful of men who dictated the affairs of the country.

The party he leads, he asserted, has definite purpose to further concentration of power and wealth. Rather, it aims for decentralization of both. Those who lolled must be given their fair share of what they produced.

The Reconstruction Party had offered a new deal, he declared, the end it desired to attain, Mr. Stevens explained, was "abundance divided into two main divisions: Immediate relief for unemployment and ultimate elimination of unemployment. Early adoption of such measures of reform as would ensure more equitable distribution of ownership and control of wealth.

Youth's Place

Mr. Stevens claimed he wanted to see youth come into its own. There should be employment for Canadian youth, he declared, and so far as he was concerned he would pick many young men for his cabinet posts. "Youth" he emphasized, "must not be supplanted by age." Canada's story followed a swift series of decrees and acts, aimed at absolute domination of Germany, , by which Nazidom increased with increasing force. Catholics, Jews and war veterans.

WEATHER

Toronto, July 20. Synopsis — The weather has been decidedly warm in Southern Ontario with thunderstowers in some parts of the province.

Thunderstorms have also occurred in Manitoba and a few light showers in Southern Alberta and Saskatchewan. It is comparatively cool in the West and moderately warm in Quebec and the Maritimes; pressure is high over Quebec and the Eastern States but low in the Hudson Bay region, with a shallow trough extending southwestward to the Rocky Mountain States.

Northern Ontario — Fresh south and southwest winds; mostly fair; cloudy and warm today and Sunday with thunderstorms.

Lake Superior—Moderate to fresh shifting winds; partly cloudy and warmer; probably local thunderstorms.

Kenora and Rainy River— Fresh winds; partly cloudy; probably thunderstorms.

Manitoba Partly cloudy with somewhat lower temperature; probably some showers.

Saskatchewan—Partly cloudy and not so warm; a few light showers.

Alberta—Partly cloudy; not much change in temperature; probably some showers in southern districts.

Lords Find Claim of Osteopaths To Treat All Diseases Not Proven

By George Hambleton
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, July 20 (CP)—A select committee of the House of Lords today reported to Parliament that the claim of osteopaths to be able to treat all disease has not been established.

The committee report recommends that the Osteopaths Bill which had been under consideration should be rejected in the House of Commons without amendment and not proceeded with. The effect of the report is that the bill will be dropped.

The purpose of this bill was protection of the public against the practice of osteopathy by incompetent persons. Penalties were asked for institution of a state register of osteopaths.

The committee reports that the establishment of a state register of any one profession is the nature of a "bull mark" to osteopathy. It accepts the claim that osteopathic methods are effective by osteopathic methods. On the other hand it notes there have been many failures. The same may be said of many other methods of healing and the committee has not been in any considerable degree influenced by evidence of either cures or failures, the report says.

Coming Events

TENNIS DANCE BAY OF QUINTE Country Club Tuesday, July 23rd. Dancing 9 to 1. Tennis and dancing Thursday, July 25th. Dancing 9 to 1. Grand and his Aces. 217-30-33

LUCKY BALLOON DANCE SATURDAY night at Picton Rink. Music supplied by Jack Grant and his Aces. Admission 25c. 218-33

DANCING EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT at the Dance Pavilion, Stirling, Ont., with the Commodores playing. Admission 25c. 218-33

RICHARD AND DANCE, MONDAY, JULY 22nd, at Wallbridge Hall, Point Anne. Catholic Women's League. Music by Ottawa Grant's Aces. Dancing 9 to 1. Admission 35c and 25c tax. 218-33

City and District News

NORTHERN PIKE PUTS UP BATTLE

Mr. Jack Shuppee, 24 Cedar St., on a fishing trip at Long Lake near Tamworth, caught a 13-pound northern pike which is indeed a beauty. According to Mr. Shuppee he had quite a struggle before landing it. For over an hour the fish thrashed the water in a mighty effort to get away. Just before hauling he had another catch but after fighting him for a good while, a long, unbending in the trolling rig is a necessity or the one that managed to straight free. The 13-pounder Mr. Shuppee landed 2 1/2 to 3 lbs. shy.

PLAY SAFE AND BAIL THE WATER

"If you intend going to some out of the way summer resort this summer on your vacation, where the water supply cannot be relied on, play safe; boil it". The annual warning is issued on the local board of Health.

"Keep your eyes wide if you can. Even one that looks all right may contain lurking typhoid germs, no matter how clear the water looks."

"Even large lakes, where settled camps are maintained, should always be pointed at this time of the year. Water should always be given a caution of boiling." It is pointed out.

POLICE COURT

Owing to the fact His Worship Magistrate K. J. Deacon, K.C., is holding police court in Kingston and Napanee today, no regular sitting was held in this city, but a few cases were up for remand before P. S. Dawson.

Miss Pinks, Hungerford, was charged with assault and was not asked to plead, his case being enlarged until Monday. The accused man was arrested on the complaint of Ford home by Chief Constable Hayes of Tweed late night after causing a disturbance among his family and allegedly striking them. Pinks objected to the charge of assault and it was only after considerable effort that Chief Hayes was able to escort him to Belleville. Where he is now in the cell block at the police station for the night.

Five brothers were picked up on local streets last night at different intervals, all of whom cases were enlarged until Monday and the accused allowed to return to their respective homes on their own bail.

POLICE BLOTTER

Numerous minor activities kept the local police occupied during the past 36 hours, although no serious crime was reported in the city. Only three transients were booked at the sergeant's desk last night, all being allowed their liberty after the cells of the transients were headed westward responsible for jobs the "On-to-Ottawa" marchers.

Nicol, Peoples, 219 Farnham St., reported an accident to his car police shortly after 6.30 p.m. last night. Mr. Peoples stated his automobile was struck and knocked down R. H. Allison, 296 1-2 William St. at the Bridge and Pinnacle St. intersection. Mr. Allison was walking across the intersection when the accident occurred about to make a turn. The driver stopped and upon seeing what assistance possible, and no injuries were sustained, Mr. Peoples assured the authorities.

Decidedly Warm Weather Forecast

Rain-cooling showers over a heat parched and wilted district on the fourth day of the present spell of humidity was held out by weather experts today as the prelude to the break in higher temperatures over this week end. A vague promise of thunderstorms was coupled with the announcement from the meteorological bureau that Sunday would be "decidedly warm." Today's temperatures in some areas hanging around the 88 mark with the humidity during the night being registered at 96 degrees. Yesterday was today Belleville and district registered temperatures which ranged around the 96 mark.

LAST TIMES TODAY
The Biggest Show of Sensational!
"G-MEN"
with
JAS. CAGNEY
ANN DVORAK
EXTRA ADDED: Today:
JOHN WAYNE
"RIDERS of DESTINY"
Shows Today:
2.00 p.m.
7.15 p.m.
9.30 p.m.

STARTING MONDAY
TWO FEATURES
"THE LINE-UP"
with
Marian Nixon Wm. Gargan
"VILLAGE TALE"
DINNERWARE
MONDAY
and TUESDAY
CAPITOL

It Pays to Shop at the Rexall Store.
WEEK-END SUMMER CANDY
Choice JELLIES CARAMELS Cellophane Bags—
10c
McKeown's Drug Store

SHOP AT ZELLERS
IT PAYS

EVERY DAY LOW PRICES
Not a special Sale once or twice a year, but consistently low prices—that's the I.D.A. Policy.
SAVE SAFELY AT YOUR
I.D.A. DRUG STORES

SCHOOL OF DANCING
MISS PETTLEY WHITE
a graduate of
THE MARGARET EATON SCHOOL of Physical Education, Toronto, is organizing classes in Creative, Ballroom and Tap Dancing, Health Exercises; Danish and German Gymnastics, for all ages, boys and girls.
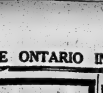
In BELLEVILLE, beginning in September.
Those interested write immediately for further information to PHYLLIS WHITE,
Mill Street Port Hope
J27-28,31,30,33

Obituary

MRS. CHARLOTTE LUCRETIA STORK

Mrs. Charlotte Lucretia Stork passed away at her home in Windsor on Friday. Shortly before Christmas the deceased slipped on an icy pavement, while boarding a street car in the city, fracturing her hip and never fully recovered from the fall. The late Mrs. Stork was born in Windsor and after marriage to Charles M. Stork, moved to this city where her husband was manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

She continued her residence here from 1888 until after the death of her husband in 1922, when she returned to Windsor, where she has continuously resided. While in this city, the late Mrs. Stork was an active member of St. Thomas' Church, taking part in many organizations of the church. Surviving is one son, Morris Stork of this city, and two daughters, Mrs. J. D. Narraway of Melville, Sask., Mrs. Alice Stork of Toronto, one brother, Col. F. H. Laing, Windsor and one sister, Miss Alice Laing, also of Windsor. The body will arrive in this city on Sunday evening and be taken to the home of her son, Morris, 241 East Dundas street, from where the funeral will be held on Monday.



KEEP COOL BY THINKING COOL

A Little Exercise Will Do No Harm Doctor Says

The coolest people in Belleville during the past day or so of sizzling heat are not found among those who sit on the verandah of their homes languidly fanning themselves to the accompaniment of the clink of glasses containing cooling drinks. The coolest people are to little folk who even through the hottest periods of the day have been whooping and wrestling and engaging in calisthenics that would leave their elders balking in astonishment to the point of exhaustion, points out a well known local doctor.

"It's because they don't think of the heat," As much as they jump around and run their feet off in the heat the little ones don't raise a blood pressure or perspire unduly because they are unconscious of the fact that it really is hot. Of course too much surf or too much exercise should be allowed but a little of it is all right".

The doctor passes on a tip to the children, "Keep cool by thinking cool. That's all".

Mixed Him

Was this one (Lost and Found)

Rags ran off one summer's day

The great big world to see.

Left his master, Bill, just eight

As sad as he could be.

What a tragedy is this!

It was—till Billy's dad

Called out number (just below)

And ran a little ad,

Now Billy's happy, so is Rags,

A Want-Ad did the trick.

If you ever lose something,

Call this number—quick!

PHONE
98 or 99
Ask for an Ad-Taker
Ontario Intelligencer

MRS. J. WOODLEY, 91, CELEBRATES

Advises Present Generation to Preserve Health

Birthday congratulations and good wishes were showered on Mrs. Jas. Woodley, 80 Octavia Street, yesterday on the occasion of her 91st birthday, of one of Belleville's oldest residents. Born Dundas St. east then known as the Kingston Road, Mrs. Woodley was formerly Miss Maria Brooker, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Brooker.

Mrs. Woodley recalls Belleville in its humble pioneer days and can contrast to the city as she knows it. Practically all her life has been spent here, excepting a few years spent in Thurlow where she first attended school, finishing her education at the West Hill school, Belleville. When she returned to make Belleville they lived for a time near the "East Mill," later moving to the West Hill where Mrs. Woodley has resided as girl and matron since the war closed in 1865.

To visit even for a short time this very charming lady is to be inspired by the cheerful philosophy that life has given her. Although confined to her bed for many months, her outlook is unfailingly hopeful and one of thoughtful solicitude for others, which seems to have been the guiding motive in her long and active life.

"Yes, there are very few people in Belleville who have reached the age of ninety-one," she smiled, "very few of the next generation will live that long. People today don't live as long as their parents as they should, don't keep regular hours. That is, I expect a long life if they don't."

Mrs. Woodley's mother was within a few months of her one hundred and first birthday when she passed away. Her father lived to be over eighty-one. In her younger days Mrs. Woodley was a faithful member of Holloway Street United Church, and belonged to the Women's Missionary Society. She has one daughter, Mrs. C. G. Miller, Buffalo, and one son, Mr. Bailey Belleville; A. H. and P. J. Woodley of Belleville.

Gifted with perfect hearing and eyesight, Mrs. Woodley is greatly interested in things about her, yesterday brought messages from near and far, and many beautiful and thoughtful gifts from her many friends, all of whom were eager to bring their personal greetings.

It was a very happy birthday, indeed, as Mrs. Woodley commented and her parting words were characteristic. "And I hope you, too, have a happy birthday tomorrow."

NO DAMAGE TO CAR BY BLAZE

A loud explosion followed by flames coming out of the rumble seat of a motor car in which two small girls were seated, caused considerable commotion on Station St. at 10 o'clock last night. Constables Evans and Taylor hurriedly arrived at the scene of the blaze and upon investigation into the cause of the trouble it was found that some paint remover had been spilled in the rumble seat and had ignited when the owner, Lyle Goodrich lit a match. The girls were Irene Harvey, 4, and Retia Rowland, 11, both friends of Mrs. Greatrix. The driver of the car had been to a nearby grocery and upon his return the girls informed him that something was leaking upon the floor.

Anxious to discover the trouble Mr. Greatrix lit a match, which ignited the fumes of the paint remover and caused the explosion. Mr. Greatrix and other occupants of the car got the girls out without injury.

OAT AND WHEAT CROP QUITE HEAVY

James R. Robinson, second concession of Ameliasburg, visited the Editorial Room today with as fine a sample of Eldorado Wheat and Banner Oat crop raised as has been observed this year. Both samples were fully six feet long with extra length and both on the wheat and oats and was quite straight. Mr. Robinson stated that the crop was quite even and had been grown on corn and buckwheat ground.

FOUR LIFE SAVERS AWARDED HONOR

Medal And Parchments Reward Brave Actions

Sarnia, Ont., July 20.—(CP)—Four persons, two from Ontario and two from Detroit were awarded medals and parchments in recognition of "their prompt action and presence of mind in conquering the rescue of persons from the St. Clair River," at the regular meeting of Sarnia Rivania Club held at Corunna.

Donna Sutton, 13, Corunna, was presented with a Royal Canadian Humane Society Medal, which was in for saving the lives of Helen and Marion Ulrick, Sept. 13, 1934. Mrs. Sutton accepted the medal for her daughter who is ill. Three others recognized by the Society for bravery and courage in rescuing Gus Yarding, Detroit, from drowning in the St. Clair July 23, 1934 were Marjorie Richards, Carl Cundy of Detroit and Leslie Richardson of Corunna. They received parchments.

More Than 400 Strikers in Ottawa

Ottawa, July 20—(CP)—Strength of strikers in the city today stood at between 400 and 500, it was estimated by the newly established publicity bureau of the strikers.

An advance guard of four from North Bay and two more men from Regina arrived during the night and registered at the Labor Temple headquarters.

The committee in charge has completed arrangements for the systematic changing of the guard at headquarters and for reception of new arrivals at all hours.

RASPBERRIES SELL AT 2 FOR 25 CTS

Fruit is Feature of Saturday Market Trading

Saturday's market was scrupulously large with vendors and buyers in attendance. The display of farm and garden products was the finest seen thus far this season. Prices were reasonable with but slight changes to note over those of a week ago.

In the fruit line cherries, raspberries and huckleberries predominated with a few offerings of strawberries, possibly the last of the season. The samples were by no means of high quality.

Vegetables were offered for sale in abundance and found ready purchasers. Green corn sold at 20c a dozen and the ruling price for new potatoes was 30c a peck, new cabbage sold at 5c and 10c per head according to size, beets and carrots sold at 10c per bunch.

There were no particular changes to note in prices for dairy products. Eggs were 20c per dozen and butter 24c for pulled eggs. The ruling price for butter was 24c for a two pound roll. Home cooking was a feature of the interior of the market building and it was certainly of a tempting nature.

During the past week there has been no change to note in the hog market which is rather weak.

Quotations are as follows:

Alfalfa	$14.00 to $15.00
Fall wheat, bus	.80
Spring wheat, bus	.80
Barley, bus	.45
Oats, bag	.40
Rye, bus	.50
Buckwheat, bus	.40
Dressed hogs, cwt	12.00
Live hogs, cwt	9.00
Butter, lb.	.23 to .25
Eggs, No. 1 dozen	.20
Pullets, dozen	.17 to .18
Chickens	.60 to 1.10
Live chicken	.18
Broilers, pair	80c to 70c
Potatoes, per bag	.50
Onions, peck	.40
Carrots, peck	.30
Beets, peck	.30
Turnips, peck	.30
Beets, peck	.30
Green Onions, bunch	.05
Rhubarb, bunch	.10
Lettuce, bunch	.10
Radishes, bunch	.05
New potatoes, peck	.30
Green peas, quart	.20c to .25c
New cabbage, each	.5c to .10c
Beef ribs	17 to 21c
Veal skins, lb.	.04
Deacon skins	.02
Sheep skins	.20 to .25
Horse hides	.50 to .75
Lake Salmon, lb.	.18 to .20
Pike, lb.	.12 to .15
Muskellunge, lb.	.20
White Fish, lb.	.15
Cherries, per basket	.55c to .70c
Strawberries, box	.10 and .15c
Raspberries, box	.15c
Gooseberries, box	.10c
Huckleberries, quart	.20c

MEN'S CHORUS TO GIVE BROADCAST

Belleville Organization to be Heard on Coast to Coast Hookup

Residents of this district will hear a local musical organization when Belleville Men's Chorus over a coast to coast hookup of the Canadian Radio Commission on Sunday afternoon, commencing at five o'clock Daylight Saving Time and continuing for one half hour. This organization has been heard frequently in Belleville and city and the Mayor has requested, that all listen in Sunday next to this particular time on this program. The Men's Chorus were chosen by the Radio Commission from a large number of applications to show the musical talent in Canada. In making it musically and they have made rapid strides since their organization. The Chorus, Director and Accompanist with the members giving of their services free of charge for rehearsals and the citizens of Belleville and district should be especially proud of their success. Harry Moorman, manager of the chorus has done splendid work in keeping interest has been together, while Ross Hunter, their efficient director has devoted much time to their work. In the absence of Alec Gordon, who is now in Scotland, Leo B. Riggs will act as accompanist. The members are to meet early on Sunday morning and spend the day as guests of the Commission. The Mayor will accompany the Chorus to Toronto but will take no part in the proceedings.

TEN ARE KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

Accident Occurs in Storm Over Canton Of Grisons

BERNE, Switzerland, July 20.—(AP)— Ten persons were believed to have been killed today in the crash of a passenger plane, en route from Milan, Italy, to Frankfort-on-Main, Germany.

The plane was said to have been one of several operated by a Netherlands line.

The accident occurred during a storm in the Moesocco Valley in the Canton of Grisons.

CHAMPION SHOT POSTS 289 TOTAL IN TWO STAGES

(Continued from page one)

both lags while serving with the Queen's Own Rifles in the Great War, today won the St. George Challenge Vase, one of the biggest individual trophies in Empire rifle shooting circles at Bisley.

Sutherland, who has taken a good share of the awards during the past fortnight of the National Rifle Association meeting, posted a perfect score of 75 in the second stage of the shoot, which included five 15 shots at the long range for service rifles of 900 yards. Lt. W. Clarke of the Highland Light Infantry also had a possible, but Sutherland beat him in the tie-shoot.

'BACK TO GHETTO' IS GERMANS' CRY

Alternative is to Make it Impossible to Earn Living

Berlin, July 20.—(AP)—The cry "Back to Ghetto" was heard in Berlin today like a bugle call following increasing frequency lately in such violent anti-semitic organs as the Stuermer and the Judenkenner.

That is the alternative, these papers say, to forcing all Hebrews to leave the country, by making it impossible for them to earn their living.

Yesterday's rapid developments in the capital's latest drive to remove the Jewish element in Germany's strictly banned from public baths and public beaches, notably resorts. Special localities, away from the German people, are to be set aside for them.

The edition of the Stuermer appearing today, for instance, published a picture of Jewish bathers at Mannheim purporting to show them being ejected from the bath. A party of persons in bathing attire is shown being driven from the swimming pool where a sign reads "No Jews Admitted." The slogan here, too, is "Germany for Aryans and not baths in our German Rhine".

Ex-King George Waits With Plane

LONDON, July 20.—(AP)—Former King George of Greece is reported to be prepared to start by air Croydon Air Field to fly him to Athens, it was learned today when Captain William Leslie, the pilot, was summoned he was awaiting instructions.

Woodyard Strikers Off Relief Lists

Windsor, Ont., July 20 (CP) — All striking welfare recipients, who have refused to work at the Windsor Utility Yards, were struck off from the relief rolls, Mike Neil, Welfare acting Welfare administrator, told a score of workers who waited on her today.

EMPEROR'S WORDS CALLED VIOLENT

Italian Minister at Addis Ababa May Protest

Rome, July 20—(AP)—The Italian press today branded Emperor Haile Selassie's an allusion with "great seriousness" an authoritative source said today. The Emperor made the official Ethiopian text of Emperor Haile Selassie's speech on Thursday.

This source said that the original text was more hostile to Italy in tone than the text given out in French in Addis Ababa.

It was considered likely that the Italian Minister in the Ethiopian capital would immediately protest the "violence" of the Emperor's speech.

(In the French language version Haile Selassie declared that Italy was preparing war against his country and called on his subjects to die in battle rather than sacrifice their liberty.)

Meanwhile Italy "sent ahead with more preparations against the possibility of war.

The steamship Monte Bianco sailed from Naples for East Africa with 3,000 soldiers and 1,000 tons of supplies for the Italian expeditionary forces. The steamship Aranjo sailed a few days ago with about 500 troops aboard.

Mobilization for almost 1,000,-regular army officers constituted another step in preparation for the war, it was thought.

London, July 20.—(AP)—The Cabinet today moved to formulate a definite decision regarding the nation's position in the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

A meeting of the assessmen for this purpose authoritative sources stated today, has been tentatively set for next week.

The necessity for such a clarifying policy became apparent with the denial in authoritative quarters that Great Britain favored an Italian protectorate in Ethiopea. Reports had persisted that Anglo-French diplomatic exchanges had dealt with such a protectorate.

The League itself would not countenance that arrangement, it was pointed out, as both Italy and Ethiopia are members of the league.

BETTERS RECORD

London, July 20 (AP) — Keith Brown, Yale captain and pole vault ace, bettered the British record for the second time in eight days when he cleared the bar at 14 feet today in the track and field meet bringing together the combined Harvard-Yale and Oxford-Cambridge forces at White City Stadium.

RETIREMENT ANNOUNCED

Peterborough, Ont., July 20 (CP)—Edward Arnold Peck, K.C., Conservative member of parliament for Peterborough West since 1926, today announced his intention of retiring from political life.

"Pressure of other business" stated Mr. Peck, "has led to my decision not to contest the forthcoming election."

MURRAY TENNIS WINNER

Peebles, Scotland, July 20 (CP Cable)—Young Bobby Murray of Montreal today won the Scottish lawn tennis championship defeating the veteran I. G. Collins after a grim extra set battle.

FARMERS:

Do not let your good crops worry you. We know that hot weather usually means HAIL STORMS. INSURE this risk with us for a trivial sum. Now rains are so low that you can not afford to be without HAIL INSURANCE.

HAIG BROS. Limited
168 Front St. Open Saturday Evenings. Phone 168

WEEK-END SPECIALS

THAT ARE FAR TOO TEMPTING TO MISS

DELICIOUS DEVON ICE CREAM

FRESH RASPBERRY SUNDAE 15c
Luscious Berries—Delicious Devon Ice Cream.

CANTALOUPE SUNDAE 20c
Devon Ice Cream — Pure Crushed Fruit— Chopped Walnuts — Topped With Whipped Cream.

Belmont Restaurant
Exclusive Dealer for Devon Ice Cream
229 FRONT ST. PHONE 719W

Jobless Men in This Area Will Not Swell Trekkers

Belleville will not add to the ranks of the on-to-Ottawa trekkers if and when they arrive in the city, it is freely predicted by local working citizens. It is the opinion that no man is picked up here he will probably be enlisted from the ranks of the transients, many of whom have been noticed in the city during the past week or so. Frankly, however, local jobless men are in sympathy with the movement or the march itself.

"Why should we be?" questioned one local man, who has in the past held executive positions in unemployed organizations here, "Why should any of us favor any such scheme? If there was anything to be gained by this march, then it would be different. But as it looks to me now the majority of these fellows, who are marching are just out for excitement; they just want to see what they might be able to get. Of course, however, there may be the few here and there who are really serious regarding the whole thing. The idea, fickly, doesn't appeal here among the men who I have talked with".

"All serene at the Airport" it was in sympathy with the movement for the march itself.

So far there has been no sign of unrest among the men who are quartered there, and no talk of any of them joining the march has been heard. The men, it is pointed out, are free to leave the camp any time they wish to make application, it is pointed out.

AMERICAN WINS

Wimbledon, July 20—(AP)—Donald Budge of California, registered the first triumph for the United States in the Inter-Zone Davis Cup tennis series with Germany today by defeating Hedwig Hankel, youthful Teuton, in a four-set struggle. The scores were 3-6, 11-9, 6-4, 6-4.

Sunday Fateful Day In German Church

Berlin, July 20.—(AP)—The Ministry of Justice today ordered all Catholic clergymen to preach "political Catholicism" without regard for personal position "but with calm determination and unyielding vigor".

The order to the prosecutor was interpreted as warning Catholic clergymen to be careful of their comments from the pulpit concerning the happenings of the past few weeks.

Catholic congregations throughout the country have been awaiting Sunday with keen interest from the priests as to their conduct in the face of increasing Nazi repression of the church.

THE ADS ARE Part of THE NEWS

Whatta Pitcher! Whatta Picture!
HE'S DIZZY! HE'S DAFFY!
JOE E. BROWN
in Ring Lardner's "Alibi Ike"
With Ruth Donnelly
Olivia de Havilland
BELLE
TODAY & MONDAY
CAREFULLY COOLED

Economies are Effected Claims Hon. Dr. Faulkner Under Hepburn Regime

(Continued From Page 1)

spot, some work done. He cited a piece of road built and completed from Concesson to Stirling, by way of Thurlow and Rawdon, with which satisfies had been given work on build, road at a cheap, when it was badly needed, he said. There was also the great Hastings Road between Belleville and Madoc, which had provided large numbers of men with needed employment, and it had strong pressure brought to bear upon the to have all that road built in West Hastings. But this would have been selfish. I am not of that nature, everything that is to be done with an eye to the interests of the most people, be they in West Hastings or any other part of the county."

Stand on Own Feet

"That road cost a lot of money. It is not completed yet. Some people have complained about the expenditure. Well the money will be finished in time, yet we must not forget, that the natural resources of the province must be looked after. There are farms to be worked, the pulp industry and other industries that must not be allowed to lag."

At the last meeting of the legislature it was pointed out by Sir Wm. Faulkner, that 60 cents tax upon the county for the maintenance of highways and bridges had been done away with. Through this each year the province will have to find $2,000,000. It was declared. In 1934 the tax rate for the county will be 60 cents less.

"This was a serious tax upon you, especially the residents of Sidney and Thurlow," he added.

Through economies effected in other branches of the administration at Toronto $ has been found possible to reduce the 60 cents per day grant to the hospitals, continued Sir Wm. Faulkner. Hospitals throughout the province must be standing at a loss all through the province it was shown, when the cut in the total budget was presented to the Premier Now, he said, the increase in the grant over three hundred thousand dollars over a year is available for the institutions.

"When Hepburn came he said he would effect economies by cutting down high salaries and so on it is shown, and he has kept his word."

Tuberculosis, the "white plague" has shown a steady gain in this province, there being 18 a higher death rate from the disease in the vicinity of Trenton and east of Toronto, than in any other province. This district has a death rate of 76 per 100,000 from disease.

Tolls of Clinic

"Although we did have travelling clinics in the province making free examinations, and the early treatment of Health have found, that this is not enough. We have also persuaded the government to erect various clinics throughout Ontario. One will also be established in Belleville and will be able to spread the work throughout the surrounding districts in the section. The officers will also have the authority to examine all school children for the disease.

Not only were economies effected in provincial administration, but also the fearsome liabilities as stated, he said.

"In Belleville here, for example we have amalgamated the offices of the registrar and sheriff. This is one of the most important offices of the riding," he explained. "Instead of a new Registrar was also met with one hundred per cent. approval following the change from the office of the Attorney General, he said. The work has not been cut, the sums he was astounded to find conditions in the manner they were. He told me he had no idea of how many Justices of the Peace, there were in Prince Province. And when a check up was finally made it was found, that some of them were dead for a long time but were still listed. Also when he took it over there were a total of 147 magistrates in Ontario. This number has been reduced to 70. And out of this 63, 46 of them were sitting on a Saturday. Now, in Bostock took over the office. Can we be accused of being brutal in the cut of replacements and appointments?"

Patronage a Curse

Patronage was dealt by Dr. Faulkner as "the curse of the man who wants to serve his country".

"We have had the idea that when a man if his work is being kept up to a high standard, then that office could and you make not one enemy but several. You make one friend by that but because he is a Liberal and I will venture to say, that not one in five were there two later on to shake your hand, even if you wanting him to".

From a letter produced and read to the audience, Dr. Faulkner referred proof that, especially on road work, politics had been entered into, when it came to the selection of men for the work, the most needy had been passed by.

At this juncture Mr. Chas. Cameron of the parties and Mayor Tice who had addressed a similar meeting in Bancroft entered the hall and were received with applause. Mr. Cameron's appearance was greeted with loud applause. Dr. Faulkner continued his point to other economies that had been effected by Mr. Hepburn.

"One of the first acts was the disposal of a number of cars owned by the Cabinet ministers. This will save the province hundreds of dollars of expense that was plugged up.

Mayor Campbell declared he reechoed the numbers and made other comments. The same for the Hydro Electric Railway. The Niagara Parks Commission. They are all operating with just as much efficiency as before and with less expense.

"Even the Workmen's Relief now mended just as soon as the organization was able to secure access to the files, declared Dr. Faulkner. "I am glad to say that I was with when the former chairman was asked to the floor of the House to fix the salaries of the officials, and refused to give them. Let the Opposition do that for them now and they have them in five minutes.

The Provincial Treasurer now was declared by the speaker to have been illegal. "Shall we go on with the power we don't use?" he asked.

Unemployment Serious

Unemployment in Ontario at the present time is assuming serious proportions, it was declared. It was a problem that must be dealt with regardless of politics. Single men are being driven from the construction camps with no expectation of ever being able to get out of the city unless they have work. All they ask for is a chance for honest employment. Many have families, married men are tramping the streets and relief cost are increasing.

The speaker turned to the country and discussed the present political aspects.

"We are always been a two party man. I admit it is good to have a little summer fallow in politics and then, with a change occurring at intervals, and it is time now to make the change."

"You who stand for solidarity in the province must stick and help the old parties and not be led off at a tangent by any new party. In Hastings County alone you pay the greater part of your taxes for social services. This is the case in the whole of the provinces. The Liberals and the Conservatives have joined hands to give help to those, who need it, and as long as this can be accomplished it will be done."

According to Dr. Faulkner there was no election held for registration of the ten per cent cut in civil service employees, which is retroactive.

"Maybe it's not unusual for farmers to get together now and then and build something in the community, as a time when they could at least afford it but I would infer, that from the thousands who will be employed there will not on indication, that election time is near is the statement that the 60 cents more per pound for cheese, which is the same as last year.

Also Toronto has been promised a million dollar tunnel, when conditions warrant it. By that is needed are bones to replace the present wooden ones, that is used in that city, but nothing is said about that. Toronto, however, will say this on election day." (applause).

Much has been proved, that the business of buying people's votes has passed. It is a thing of the past type of political activity. Money is spent and they cannot be traced, not even in the form of taxation. Do you as intelligent electors not believe, that it is time for a change?" concluded Dr. Faulkner. The Minister of Education was introduced by Mr. Chas. Cameron at the conclusion of his speech which undoubtedly a strong victory for the candidate in this riding at the election.

Harry W. Johnson

Mr. Harry W. Johnson, secretary of the Ingersoll association for the Province of Canada was first speaker of the evening. In a short but very conversational talk with his audience he pointed out, that Dr. Faulkner had won a place in the hearts of members of the Legislature and Ontario, that no member could attain in higher regard. Even non political members of the House frequently were quick to voice their high regard of the Minister of Education.

Some idea of the manner in which candidates were chosen by the power party was given by Mr. Johnson. Instead of holding their conventions in the old fashioned way the new party divided each riding into ten sections, and delegates were sent to select four persons in each section. These forty do not necessarily have to be candidates. He in turn is referred to the central committee, if they find that he his looks they send him back and advise the committee to select another.

"I don't think any man or woman of either party condemned to doing their own thinking in the matter of selecting their candidates will hold much brief or interest in a party, which makes a business of this manner," he added.

Organization work throughout the Province is proceeding at a highly satisfactory manner, declared Mr. Johnson. The Liberal party never had a higher standing of candidates than at present, he declared, prophesying also a tremendous sweep all over the province at the next election.

At this juncture Mr. Chas. Cameron of the parties and Mayor Tice who had addressed a similar meeting in Bancroft entered the hall and were received with applause. Mr. Cameron's appearance was greeted with loud applause. Dr. Faulkner continued his point to other economies that had been effected by Mr. Hepburn.

"One of the first acts was the disposal of a number of cars owned by the Cabinet ministers. This will save the province hundreds of dollars of expense that was plugged up.

Mayor Campbell declared he reechoed the numbers and made other comments. The same for the Hydro Electric Railway. The Niagara Parks Commission. They are all operating with just as much efficiency as before and with less expense.

"Even the Workmen's Relief now mended just as soon as the organization was able to secure access to the files, declared Dr. Faulkner. "I am glad to say that I was with when the former chairman was asked to the floor of the House to fix the salaries of the officials, and refused to give them. Let the Opposition do that for them now and they have them in five minutes.

The Provincial Treasurer now was declared by the speaker to have been illegal. "Shall we go on with the power we don't use?" he asked.

Unemployment Serious

Unemployment in Ontario at the present time is assuming serious proportions, it was declared. It was a problem that must be dealt with regardless of politics. Single men are being driven from the construction camps with no expectation of ever being able to get out of the city unless they have work. All they ask for is a chance for honest employment. Many have families, married men are tramping the streets and relief cost are increasing.

The speaker turned to the country and discussed the present political aspects.

"We are always been a two party man. I admit it is good to have a little summer fallow in politics and then, with a change occurring at intervals, and it is time now to make the change."

"You who stand for solidarity in the province must stick and help the old parties and not be led off at a tangent by any new party. In Hastings County alone you pay the greater part of your taxes for social services. This is the case in the whole of the provinces. The Liberals and the Conservatives have joined hands to give help to those, who need it, and as long as this can be accomplished it will be done."

According to Dr. Faulkner there was no election held for registration of the ten per cent cut in civil service employees, which is retroactive.

"Maybe it's not unusual for farmers to get together now and then and build something in the community, as a time when they could at least afford it but I would infer, that from the thousands who will be employed there will not on indication, that election time is near is the statement that the 60 cents more per pound for cheese, which is the same as last year.

Also Toronto has been promised a million dollar tunnel, when conditions warrant it. By that is needed are bones to replace the present wooden ones, that is used in that city, but nothing is said about that. Toronto, however, will say this on election day." (applause).

Much has been proved, that the business of buying people's votes has passed. It is a thing of the past type of political activity. Money is spent and they cannot be traced, not even in the form of taxation. Do you as intelligent electors not believe, that it is time for a change?" concluded Dr. Faulkner. The Minister of Education was introduced by Mr. Chas. Cameron at the conclusion of his speech which undoubtedly a strong victory for the candidate in this riding at the election.

Harry W. Johnson

Mr. Harry W. Johnson, secretary of the Ingersoll association for the Province of Canada was first speaker of the evening. In a short but very conversational talk with his audience he pointed out, that Dr. Faulkner had won a place in the hearts of members of the Legislature and Ontario, that no member could attain in higher regard. Even non political members of the House frequently were quick to voice their high regard of the Minister of Education.

Some idea of the manner in which candidates were chosen by the power party was given by Mr. Johnson. Instead of holding their conventions in the old fashioned way the new party divided each riding into ten sections, and delegates were sent to select four persons in each section. These forty do not necessarily have to be candidates. He in turn is referred to the central committee, if they find that he his looks they send him back and advise the committee to select another.

"I don't think any man or woman of either party condemned to doing their own thinking in the matter of selecting their candidates will hold much brief or interest in a party, which makes a business of this manner," he added.

Organization work throughout the Province is proceeding at a highly satisfactory manner, declared Mr. Johnson. The Liberal party never had a higher standing of candidates than at present, he declared, prophesying also a tremendous sweep all over the province at the next election.

In acknowledging his introduction and a vote of thanks tendered, Mr. Chas. Cameron declared the picture across his riding was an entirely different one. The loyalty and enthusiasm, that has so far been displayed was heartening, but even though conditions appeared favorable, a great deal depended upon the strength of the opposition must not be underestimated, reminded the representative.

"This election we are facing is probably the most critical one the country has ever experienced", continued Mr. Cameron. "It will not be a question of whether Canada is to forge on into the state where she belongs as a great country again, or slip backward among the third rate nations."

"It is through the little friendly meetings and talks like this, that we find the real reason for voting Liberal and for thinking Liberal. Two of the great parties are famous for recognition and votes. I don't know much about the C.C.F. because we haven't been bothered much with them around here, but it seems to me, that the reason behind the back of this party is to take your little savings and those of all they can get among those, who work work. You will remember some time ago a party promised to get rich quick with the idea of C.C.F. and foisted them. He dumped sugar on the people by making speeches for them. Finally he saw what the whole thing was leading to and came back to the Liberal fold. Now Mr. Pollpott is an accredited candidate at the coming election.

"The Conservative party is a parties of the past. It is as close to that we know how and why it has failed during the past five years, we have been in the last election in the form of a national debt the line of three billion dollars to a three billion. We have also a railway, that is losing money at the rate of $30,000 weekly. Our unemployment has jumped from a total of 117,000 in 1929 to one and one half million at the present time. And Canada was when under this, that the total population of Canada is only eleven millions."

Mr. Beamish described the speaker as a wealthy man, who knew what it was to struggle with a hard working man, the man on relief or the man out of a job. The typical leader was one who was brought up and educated with wealth, unable to see the other side of the picture. Bennett was also declared by Mr. Cameron to be "a hard man to work with".

Refers to New Party

The Reconstruction party was referred to as:

"Two weeks ago there shot across the political sky a new meteor in the form of Hon. H. H. Stevens. A meteor is a collection of hot gas and dust. It is a comet minus the tail. Stevens, and I believe, that Mr. Bennett and Mr. Stevens have created enough friction at Ottawa to manne this easily politic. Stevens once was a Conservative, Bennett and always would be a Conservative. Years ago he was taken under the wing of the late Sir Wilfred Laurier and Hon. W. S. Fielding, and was as true as staunch as he could be and he approved of all, that went on during the Liberal regime. Then came the change!" My theory is that it is a political trick of Bennett's party to get a majority at the election. It is perfectly logical to presume or suspect, that this has been long suggested, that Stevens form his party, and that when the election was over if the Conservatives were in the majority, Stevens and everything would be all right for Mr. Stevens."

"Stevens is a shrewd man, an opportunist. He may have sensed, that the Liberal party is drawing to an end. He may have made up his mind that it would be best to leave it and remain for a period of five years or so and then reorganize and come back.

"The platform of this party was one, that was bred overnight by Mr. Stevens and four of his colleagues from the planks taken from the platforms of the Liberals and Conservatives, declared Mr. Cameron. "It reminds simply the best points of both parties. There was not a single thing new in any of it.

"If we need reconstruction in this country, it isn't in a frank admission, that things have gone to pieces here?"

Even the most casual observers must have noted, that the only people prosperity enjoyed in this country were those periods, when the Liberal government held the reins of power. Even the depression took in 1930 nobody was being sold out. The Liberal government was not tramping the streets, and farmers are not losing everything as in fair profit from their labors, he added.

Free Trade Advocated

Mackenzie King was declared to be a man, whose heart is in touch with the people of his country. Far seeing statesmanship, sound legislation and study of economics His given him an insight into the troubles of the country that will stand him in valuable stead if elected to office. What is wanted in this riots and free trading with any country which wishes to trade with us. Let us avoid returning this looked for prosperity, he said.

"The coming election is a critical one. We are at the cross roads with the big boys ready for business. Upon which one will we take?" he asked.

"On the one hand we have Stevens, a man, who has been known for years; We have Bennett with his broken pledges and broken promises; and we have King, a tried and true leader, whose only aim is good government and fair play to all."

Mayor Tice Speaks

Mayor Geo. O. Tice, also received with considerable applause, in a friendly, serious and at times humorous address delved into municipal problems, as they were related to provincial and federal administration. Again he reiterated his statements, that the Liberal party must be returned if democracy and Bennett.

"What would you think of me as mayor of the city for four years if I got up and told you just before election time that I will not be returned again that I knew all along for the past four years, what the trouble was and could have remedied it, and now I wanted a chance to fix things up, that there would be plenty of work, no tax sales and so on if I am elected. Would you vote for me?"

Citing the problems of municipal managements, Mayor Tice called attention to the fact, that the only way in which a city or corporation could raise money was through taxes on homes and real estate. Yet we are expected to keep up our and when it really isn't our job at all."

"Relief is our problem, that's a national problem and as such should be handled by the Dominion. Mitchell Hepburn was agreeable to this, when approached by the convention of Mayors. He told us, that if the Dominion government would get party fifty with us he would do the same and take the relief burden off us. But would Bennett do that? No. If Charlie Cameron goes to Ottawa and don't fight for this I'll not vote for him again."

The paramount question of the day was also the unemployed, declared the Mayor. Never before or in the future will the province or the municipalities be able to secure the material as cheaply as now. Roads could be secured at a cost far below what it will cost a year from now other construction work could also be secured.

The Mayor concluded his remarks with an expression of appreciation for what has been accomplished already by Mr. Faulkner during his brief tenure in office.

The "Dean" of all comedians Joe E. Brown in the laugh-jammed comedy "Alibi Ike" now playing at the Bella theatre.

Library Corner

"Bigwig: a person of great importance, consequence, or distinction; a man of notable prestige." R. T. L. now disclosed as Charles Vining, writes of Canadiana, "wise and oldfashioned" in his book "Bigwigs". Some of the sketches appeared in the Goblin magazine, the more recent ones being published in MacLean's in this book, Bigwigs, Canada's Leading Citizens are scrutinized impertinently, but with good humour. Each sketch shows the date when it was written, so we revised Canada's Capitalist may be out for reform tomorrow." Among the Bigwigs discussed are Agnes Macphail and Lorenzo Bennett, King, Stevens, Woodsworth, Hepburn, Massey, Lapointe, Canon Cody, General Macdonnell, Sir William Mulock. Arthur Clisaco has supplied the caricatures which accompany the sketches.

We turn from politicians to politics in "The Country Beyond" an outline of Major C. H. Douglas's Social Credit Plan, compiled by Philip Mairet. The longest and probably authoritative statement of the principles of the new economics given by Major Douglas in extracts from his own writings. Louis Roth in reviewing the volume for the New York Times says: "The studies and the book itself are not for the casual reader, undoubtedly one of the most searching critics of the new economics in the fields of money and banking, provide the main study of what has become known as the Social Credit Plan". The volume will give an insight into the movement now in progress in Alberta.

"The Empire's Crisis, a series of newspaper articles by Sir Arthur Quiller-Couch is a volume which presents a tone of friendly admonition rather than that of raucous frankness. The papers were originally delivered as lectures delivered to Cambridge audiences and are notable for a certain sparkle and humor. Sir Arthur says the only thing new to discuss in the plays of Shakespeare, Dickens and Thomas Hardy, the poems of Tennyson. "Our professional critics take the conventions out of their trade with such a depressing solemnity but they dismiss as a matter of course the whole art of gay writing in which our literature has constantly excelled". Sir Arthur endeavors to illustrate his statement with "gay writing" of his own.

The announcement of a new volume of poetry by Miss E. Pauline Milley is an event in the literary world. "Wine from these grapes" is Miss Milley's first volume in three years, and contains, besides a wealth of lyrics, a sonnet sequence entitled "Epitaph for the race of Man." The poems reveal a lyric grace and a close and exact observation of nature and man. The sonnets march with a grave and distinguished tread and the volume, on the whole, is in these serious mood that has not been so long work. William Rose Benet, speaking at one post in another says of Miss Milley's poetry: "Her position here in Miss Milley's scrupulous publishing of fine, delicate craftable quality of some of her phrases in her fine proud walking. Miss Milley's volume is indeed a worthy addition to the literature of her province."

Her philosophy or a cheerful invalid is given in "Sunshine perfect day" by Anne Ellis. The author, formerly active in public affairs in Colorado has written a gay book around her illness, the doctors and nurses, the sanitariums, the suffering and the patients, she warns would-be readers is the outset. "Don't read this book unless you are a person who has been seriously ill, or who is now ill, or who is just recovering from illness, or who may have to be ill. Such is the advice of Anne Ellis." K. G.

Telephone Call From Australia Reaches Kingston

From Australia has come by way of London a trans-oceanic telephone call to Dr. Hendry Queen's of Kingston, asking for an immediate shipment of "Enos" solution for cancer treatment.

Dr. Connell has compared his report on the results of "Enos" a mine carcenoma, which will be published in a week or so in a medical journal.

Obituary

MRS. ROBERT ROLLINS

Madoc, July 26— (Special)— On Friday evening at her home in Madoc, Mrs. Robert Rollins, an old and esteemed resident passed away. Mrs. Rollins has been in failing health for some months, passing on peacefully in her sleep. Her death was not unexpected. Born in Madoc Township, 81 years ago, has resided in Madoc nearly all her life, with exception of a few years in Belleville, all her married life. Her husband died 22 years ago. She is survived by two sons and two daughters, Charles B. Rollins, former Warden of Hastings County, Coe Hill, Warrington of Winnipeg, Mrs. W. Magill of Toronto and Mrs. Wm. Wright of Madoc. She is a member of St. Peter's Presbyterian Church and Ladies Aid being active in church work. Funeral arrangements,

SERVANT VICTIM OF FUMES OF FIRE

Jenny Crystal, 40, is Trapped in Attic Bedroom

Toronto, July 26 (CP)—Trapped in her own attic bedroom when fire broke out early today in a two-storey brick building on Bowood Yonge Street, Jenny Crystal, 40, a maidservant was asphyxiated.

The woman's employer, Mrs. Goldie Kalerman, escaped with her 16 year old daughter by the fire escape climbing out onto a ledge from which they were rescued.

The blaze was believed to have started on the street floor on which Mrs. Kalerman operated the Lafayette Millinery Shop. Mrs. Kalerman and her daughter were asleep on the second floor and the maid in a small semi-attic room above.

While the fire was under control within half an hour flames and smoke poured out of the windows for some time longer. The bodies were later taken down from the ledge by an Ontario Hydro employee by means of a ladder which was used by him to reach the window above from which the maid's screams could be heard.

When firemen reached the upper bedroom they found Miss Crystal's limp form on the floor beside the bed. Death in apparent made futile attempts to get out of the small heavily-barred window in the rear.

Dr. Thomas Lowe, coroner for the body, Coroner Julian Loudon, said, however said Miss Crystal "must had been" suffocated before being found.

Damage was estimated at $1,000 to the building and a like amount to the contents.

Corner

HOUSE IS STRUCK IN MADOC STORM

Power Off For Time And Some Hail Falls in Village

MADOC (Special)—A very severe electric storm with considerable rain and hail passed over Madoc about two o'clock this morning. The home of Charles Martin was struck by lightning but no serious damage was done. The power was also off for some time and then passed north.

Sunday Churches

UNION SERVICES

11.00 a.m. Bridge Street Church.

Rev. Mr. Semple

CONSIDER THE LILIES

7.00 p.m. Tabernacle Church.

Rev. Mr. Semple

Subject:

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

Dr. Semple will preach at both services.

HOLLOWAY STREET UNITED CHURCH

Minister: Rev. R. E. Newman - Music: Clifford Tompkins A.T.C.M.

Sunday School and Teacher Training Classes 10.00 a.m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes.

11.00 a.m.—GOD IS BUILDING THE CHURCH."

7.00 p.m.—"WHAT IS THE WORLD CRAVING FOR"?

JOHN STREET UNITED CHURCH

Minister: Rev. Alma Lucas Rigg

Robert Hall, B.A., B.D. Mr. Alec Gordon

Morning Worship at Eleven o'Clock conducted by Rev. PRINCIPAL BERT HOWARD of Albert College.

Evening Service withdrawn.

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. W. J. Walker, B.A., B.D., Minister

11.00 a.m.—"THE BUSH BURNED."

No Evening Service During July and August

VICTORIA AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH

REV. ALEXANDER GRANT SINCLAIR, Minister

10.00 a.m.—Sunday School.

Services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Thursday, 8 p.m.—Prayer Meeting.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

(I.O.O.F. Temple, 57½ Front Street)

Service will be held on Sunday School 11.00 a.m. Subject: "LIFE"

Wednesday meeting second Wednesday of each month at 8 p.m. which includes testimonies of healing through Christian Science You are cordially invited to attend these services.

CANADA LEADS IN PLATINUM

Dominions' Output of Precious Metal Heads World

Toronto, Ont., July 26.— Canada in the matter of platinum is now definitely in first place," Mr. Nicholls said, "Ontario, Russia, and mines in the Ural mountains, has been the chief source of platinum. Recent figures on Russian production last year cannot be secured but a study of all data on production and consumption which is to be secured indicates that Canada is definitely taken the lead.

In 1934, Mr. Nicholls said, Canada produced slightly over 300,000 ounces of the metals of the platinum group. This year brought the 1935 production would also be high.

Platinum is a by-product of nickel mining, he explained. "There are approximately one ounce per platinum group metals in each ton of copper-nickel ore from the Sudbury area. With the efficiency of modern milling and refining methods now makes practical the collection of the small amount of platinum present in each ton of Sudbury ore," he said.

Though platinum has been found in seven of the nine provinces and territories of Canada, it is only there are no official statistics on production before 1926 and during the next 12 years, the total for the platinum group was only 1,000 ounces or slightly more than double the production during the last 12 months. For 1931, it was 31,753 ounces but the remarkable increase in copper and nickel mining in the Sudbury basin brought the total over 300,000 ounces for last year.

GREEK CABINET RESIGNS IN BODY

Early Restoration of Monarchy Cause of Deadlock

Athens, July 19—(AP)—The Greek cabinet resigned today in consideration of its members in a block today.

The cabinet was headed by Premier Panayoti Tsaldaris, Five cabinet members including Premier George Kondylis, War Minister, in support of his project for an early restoration of the monarchy had agreed to ask the Premier for an immediate referendum on the question.

An authoritative source said that Premier Tsaldaris was expected to London with a message from King George to Premier Venizelos asserting that the movement for a monarchy restoration was finding favor with the people and with republican Greece.

Premier Venizelos, upon his return recently from a trip to Italy and Yugoslavia, reiterated his belief that the people favored restoration. Premier Tsaldaris had planned to leave soon for a trip to Germany.

MOTORSHIP HITS REEF OFF ISLAND

Cutter Epeeds to Help of Polar-Bear in Kupreanoff Strait

Seattle, July 20 (AP)—The United States Coast Guard early today received a radio message that the Bear had struck a reef on Dry Spruce Island in the Kupreanoff Strait of Kodiak Island and needed help badly.

The cutter Northland and Captain Galysio was speeding to the Polar Bear's aid in response to a message from Lieut. Comdr. Capt. C. F. Anderson. "The Galysio, the Guard Cutter Northland, the Polar Bear" this forenoon.

MISS EDITH ORR

At her residence on Church Street, Miss Edith Orr passed away at an early hour this morning. A daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Orr, she was born in Belleville and had lived her life in this city. She was seriously ill only a day and a half.

The late Miss Orr, who was a member of Emmanuel Church, is survived by one brother, Mr. Jas. Anderson, Regina, and Miss Margaret Orr in Boston, and two sisters, William, Edmonton and Robert of this city.

"Canada is now producing on a commercial scale, five of the six precious metals in the platinum group," Mr. Nicolls said. These are platinum, palladium, iridium, ruthenium and rutheniam. All are found in the nickel-copper ores of the Sudbury basin and Ontario is also the world's chief source of palladium. Caesium is the remaining metal now produced in this country.

In addition to its use in jewelry and as a setting for gems and precious stones, platinum is widely used in industry. It also acts as a variety of chemical ringmaster, causing other substances to react while being unaffected itself."

FRANKFORD CAR IN MOTOR CRASH

Partially Turned Around When Striking Car Backing Out

Frankford, July 30 (Special)— Mr. Oscar Ketcheson while driving down one of Hamilton's main streets on Wednesday afternoon was involved in an accident which damaged the rear end of his car, blowing out a tire, but fortunately none of the occupants were injured.

The motorist pulled out from the curb as the Montgomery car was passing, striking it with such force as to partially turn it around.

The occupants of the car who were returning to Masonic Grand Lodge were A. Arthur and David Neal of Wooler, Mr. Oscar Ketcheson and T. Ketcheson of Frankford.

Mr. W. Lander, of Smith's Falls, was appointed Principal of the Frankford Public School at a special meeting of the School Board held on Wednesday evening, July 15th.

There were thirty-five applications received for the position. Mr. Lander takes the place of Earl A. Bell who resigned to take up insurance business in Campbellford.

DIED

STORE—At Windsor on Friday, July 18, 1930, Charlotte Lorena Laing, widow of the late Charles Moore Store, in her 84th year. Funeral from the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Wm. Dundas street east, on Monday, July 21st, at 2.30 p.m. Interment at 3.30 p.m. D.S.T. Interment family plot Belleville Cemetery. 29-31

ALLIANCE

Meets St. West. Near Upper Bridge

10 a.m.—Sunday School.

11 a.m.—Morning Worship.

7 p.m.—Gospel Service.

DAILY VACATIONAL BIBLE SCHOOL MONDAY, 9 a.m.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

CHURCH OF ST. THOMAS CHRIST CHURCH

Rev. A. Steadman, B.A. - Rev. C. G. Wright, L. Th., Rector.

The Vicar of St. Thomas' Church is in charge of both parishes during the month of July.

8.00 a.m.—Holy Communion in St. Thomas' Church.

11.00 a.m.—Matins in Christ Church.

7.00 p.m.—Evensong in St. Thomas' Church.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every morning except Sunday and Holidays (supplied) at The Ontario Building, 117 Front Street, Belleville.

C. N. R. PROGRESS SHOWN

A series of advertisements by the Canadian National Railways has been begun in the press, which should prove of intense satisfaction to the public in the light of the interest which has been shed on the railway situation in Canada. In the first of the series of articles which has already appeared in the Ontario Intelligencer it was shown that during the year 1934 the average number of persons employed was 74,774 while the wage bill reached almost one hundred millions of dollars, the number of employees and the wages being greater than in the year 1933. The Canadian National Railways with a milage of 23,676 remains the largest single railway system in the New World.

Signs of improvement are pointed out, eighteen per cent increase in freight haulage. The passengers travelling were over ten millions, an increase over 1933, and fares aggregated over sixteen million dollars.

The C. N. R. services remain a vast system and the services rendered last year were greater than in 1933. Continuation of this progress is expected and will have a large part in the speeding up of recovery.

AE

Letters have lost a great figure, "AE". George William Russell, founder of the Abbey Theatre of Dublin, poet, artist, journalist and mystic. It was he who led the Irish renaissance which established a modern Irish literature with such figures as John M. Singe, Lady Gregory, W. B. Yeats, Sean O'Casey and others.

He possessed great charm, as one would expect from the man who had at his finger tips that vast folklore of Ireland with its banshees and fairies. Few of Irish descent have been nursed on such romance and such tales of the doings of the "little folk"!

In this city-growing age he was a rejectionary. He favored return to the life of agriculture and nature. "Agricultural labor brings out the best in man mentally and physically" he said in an American lecture. "Not long ago I saw a laborer in Ireland. He was like the figure of Adam in Michelangelo's fresco in the Sistine chapel in Rome." At the same time he spoke of "people with sunken cheeks and hollow eyes, nice people but entirely out of the circle of natural living" mentioning an urban centre where manufacturing was in full swing. He deplored the nerve-wracking noises of monster cities.

Ireland may well be proud of her mystic, poetical son. He brought to that land a solid basis of literary and artistic development by the stimulation he gave the art forces in that country of Ireland's fame. AE was the leader in one of the most potent of these developments.

RECREATION PHILOSOPHY

The man who thinks he cannot leave his business should meet Mr. Harry Moore publisher of the Trenton Courier-Advocate. In the present week's issue he says "A lot of us are married to our business to the extent of not daring to feel that we cannot share the time or afford the expense of a little trip, a few days' holidays and yet we are all wrong about it. If we don't go fishing when we want to go fishing, we surely will not go. Too many of us have visions of the letter S with the down strokes through it. We like to amass a lot of that stuff. Then having amassed it, we will go fishing, we will take a trip; we will take that holiday that we have promised to give ourselves.

"Yes, it is easy to build castles that never amount to anything more than thin air. If we leave everything until the time has come when we think we can afford it, we will be sadly bunged up in the joints with rheumatism, so old and decrepit, we won't last more than a few hours, or just long enough to realize what a fizzle we have made of it. If you want to go fishing go fishing, because if you don't go fishing you never will. It is good sense, good logic, and you will learn quite smartly that business has gone on as usual during your absence. In short business does not know you by name; it will ever miss you if you go away for a few days or a week."

This homely philosophy might be studied and followed by more than the business man. The employee who takes a vacation but no holiday and no relaxation, and the housewife who feels she is bound eternally to the household duties should ponder over this fishing philosophy.

If you would relish food, labor for it before you take it; if you enjoy clothing, pay for it before you wear it; if you would sleep soundly, take a clear conscience to bed with you—Franklin.

What maintains one vice would bring up two children. Remember, many a little makes a muckle; and further, beware of little expenses; a small leak may sink a great ship—Benjamin Franklin.

SIDELIGHTS
THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the events of the day, home gossip and general news topics as revealed by the home newspaper—under the unwitting heading of common sense and Gay. — Reported by The Lamplighter.

The Voice

I have a voice within me
Which whispers low and long;
Sometimes a tale of sadness,
Sometimes a soft, sweet song.

I have wished for a painter's fancy
To bring with a touch and a look
A picture of smiling summer,—
Of trees! And flowers! And brook!

That I might have before me
The scene of a day long past;
To know that the years might vanish,
But the picture still would last.

Yet this voice gives comfort truly;
It whispers from day to day,
Memories sweet recalling
Of time now past away.

And so, without brush of the painter,
Dear hours which long have past
I write of, and can keep with me,
Like a picture, until the last.

—May Austin Low.

x x x x

MILK IS GOOD FOR WHAT AILS YOU the morning after the night before, according to the Bureau of Milk Publicity of the State of New York. In an advertisement in the New York City newspapers, it is sought to make milk drinkers out of "booze-hounds". The advertisement claims: "The next time you over-indulge ....and your system accumulates an excess of acid products ..... drink the one NATURAL way to head-off "morning-after." Simply drink a fresh cool glass of plain milk before you go to bed"..... and another in the morning before breakfast. Then it's There's nothing quite so soothing, plain, cold milk ..... helps you come back to par without drugs or dosing." Another tribute to wine old boozy, chewing her cud in contentment in yonder field of clover. We suggest the better way would be to drink milk only the night before the morning after — then there would be no call for anything except rejoicing at feeling fit the morning after the night before.

x x x

IS IT A PELICAN, a Stork or just Heron? asks the Deseronto Post about a strange bird seen in that vicinity recently. Now if Harry Moore, nature lover, and one-time proprietor of the Deseronto Post had been on the scene he would have had no difficulty identifying the feathered stranger. As to being a pelican, one has only to ruminate on the bill of the pelican which holds more than its stomach can to reject that theory. Member of the Sidelight family tells us that the strange bird is a WHITE IBIS, which according to Reed's "Bird Guide" is found in South Carolina and southern Illinois, and winters from the Gulf States southward. The description of the white Ibis given in "Bird Life" is: "Plumage primarily white, face and legs orange red or carmine. White Ibises are very abundant in the South Atlantic and Gulf States, breeding in immense rookeries in remote swamps, placing their frail platforms in bushes over the water or sometimes weaving them out of rushes attached to upright canes and brakes. Emits a loud, harsh croak." The picture of the White Ibis in Reed's Bird Life tallies with the description given of the Deseronto bird—long neck and long curved bill. There is also a Scarlet Ibis with habitat in Northern South America.

x x x

SEE CANADA FIRST — it is said to be a fact that more Yankee automobile tourists have visited Quebec City than have Canadians. Quebec in itself, outside of historical associations, is quaint and interesting, and the Old World atmosphere which hovers over it is something which once experienced is never forgotten. Quebec with its historical associations in the making of the Canada which is ours today is of compelling interest, and that grand old Citadel which crowns the heights is a splendid monument of merit to those glorious pioneers who paved the way with sacrifice and suffering for the Canada of today. Over 300 years ago, in 1608, Champlain arrived with his followers at Stadacona, an aboriginal village, and landed there to found the city of Quebec. Historic spots where little imagination is needed to encounter the shades of Wolfe and Montcalm, add interest to a Quebec visit. Canada has many other places of historical and scenic interest which Canadians should visit first, but it seems to us that the call of Quebec should come first.

x x x

What we need most in this country is someone who can take the all-out of railroads.

Weekly Crop Report

Winnipeg, Man., July 30—Warm weather with extremely high temperatures prevailed over most of the southern crop growing areas this past week. In northern districts the heat interpreted with heavy rains accompanied by high winds and considerable damage to, heavy crops was occasioned by lodging. Severe local hailstorms also devastated growing crops in different localities. Stem rust is noticeable in some southern sections while in others cut worm and grasshopper damage is reported, according to the weekly crop report of the Agricultural Department, Canadian National Railways.

In southern Manitoba signs of stem rust are apparent but not serious as far. Moisture is plentiful and all wheat and coarse grains are headed out. Grain heads in early sown fields are beginning to fill and if the rust menace does not develop, prospects are for a heavy yielding crop of good grain.

In the Dauphin (Swan River area) weather has been hot and dry with crops making rapid progress except in flooded areas. In the Robbin territory a severe wind and rain storm flattened about 75 per cent of the wheat crop, which was ripening tall and rank.

Along the Lew Van, Sangman, Avenue, Gravel, Shoal, Bourr, Butte, River Rhust, Bengough subdivisions of Saskatchewan Weather has been mostly warm and dry. Crop conditions remain good with sufficient moisture for the present but more rain will be required for normal filling. Rust infestation is apparent at some points but not enough as yet to affect yield and grasshoppers have been active, municipalities are supplying poison bait.

From Torptown through the Watrous, Biggar, Dodsland, Rosetown, Kindersley territories weather has been hot and humid tempered by a few local showers. In some isolated districts through the mid central territory crops on stubble land wilted somewhat from heat and a good general heating would be beneficial.

Along all subdivisions constituting the Prince Albert Division this week has been an entire absence of rain but moisture is sufficient for present requirements and the warm weather has been beneficial for rapid growth.

From the Drumheller, Oyen, Stettler, Three Hills, Red Deer subdivisions of Alberta come reports of intense heat and crops are now suffering from lack of moisture except where land is heavy. Slight damage from grasshoppers is noticeable but will not become serious.

In North Central Alberta wheat is practically all headed out and some coarse grains are starting to show seed. All crops are strong and healthy and conditions at the present time are excellent.

In the Peace River territory conditions are improved over a week ago and a weather has been warm and land is commencing to dry out. This northern territory now requires some steady warm days to hasten crop development.

Elevators reported have been reaching western markets in quantities larger than the trade can absorb with the result that prices have eased and while the price of dry cash wheat remained steady enough, all such offerings are appearing to keep the trade contented. Farmers would be well advised to hold back all grassy cattle. The first market displayed a slight strengthen but may again settle a few cents.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JULY 30th., 1918.

Mr. J. L. Tindall was in Kingston today on business.

Mr. T. L. Moore of the Ontario Business College, has returned after spending a vacation in Nova Scotia.

Mr. John Fairfield of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Fairfield. He is enroute to Scotland where he will be engaged in munitions work.

The total tax rate this year will be $4.7-10 mills, including the 1 mill imposed by the Government as a war tax. This is slightly over 1 mill in excess of the rate of last year.

Capt. Easton is spending two weeks' vacation at Picton and the Sand Banks.

Miss E. Sheyd, manager of the Merchants Bank, and his family are spending a few weeks at Rossmore Parry.

30 Years Ago

JULY 29th., 1908.

Mr. A. N. Reid of Toronto, district of Bellamy, is spending a few days in the city.

Miss Harry Smith entertained some time at the Sand Banks.

The new fountain at the Corby Park has been placed in position and the water has been turned on. The fountain is a work of artistic design and adds greatly to the appearance of the park.

Mr. George T. McHugh of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting relatives here.

Mr. Joseph Petty of Montreal is here for the Old Boys' Reunion.

The Rev. V. H. Cowart of Brantford, a former pastor of the Baptist Church here, is in town to attend the Old Boys' Reunion.

Mr. J. W. Johnson is attending a meeting of chartered accountants at Niagara Falls.

Progress Demands The Discard Of Outworn Opinions

By Louis E. Bisch, M. D., Ph. D
Famous Authority on Health and Psychology

(Copyright, 1938, Bell Syndicate, Features Syndicate, Inc.)

It is amusing at times to hear people boast that they never change their minds. Actually that is what they say is true, what does it amount to? It simply and solely mean that they have never grown up!

If a man of forty has not changed his mind since he was eighteen, it is rational enough to believe that he still reasons like an adolescent. And the person who thinks like an adolescent is out of date.

As a matter of fact, the only way to advance is to change our minds continually. The older we grow, the more we learn, and anyone who lays claim to the possession of a live mind is bound to change his opinion and judgment about many things.

I do not mean to imply that you should change your mind quickly and easily. When you are sure of your ground, stick to your guns, even to himself, of having employ-at all means; but if you find yourself wrong, admit it. Learn to turn about and think and act differently. Don't hesitate about changing, even if the new course is the opposite of your previous beliefs.

We are not at all consistent, but consistency carried too far becomes blind resistance to established fact. Many a business man has ruined himself because he has stuck to methods and mental methods of procedure he learned in his youth and has refused to adopt newer attitudes. While he nursed his stubbornness and refused to change his mind, his competitors across the street marched along with the times and got all the business.

The same holds true in all walks of life and in our more personal and intimate relationships.

I have known people to die of disease because they wouldn't call in a doctor. Others have been prescribed for themselves and refused to listen to reason. And they promptly paid the price for not changing their minds.

People who don't change their minds soon become back numbers. The grocer who keeps a dingy, unclean store; the butcher who won't adopt modern refrigeration; the manufacturer who thinks that it doesn't matter if his cake and pies and breads are prepared in an unsanitary environment; the manufacturer who can't see the advantages of new work under modern conditions; the people who won't read trade journals, attend trade conventions or otherwise keep abreast of modern advance — all these types remain to change their habits?

Would the world be where it is today if people in the past had not changed their minds. And whenever will any of us ever got to if we don't question our most common ends and to reverse our opinions?

Never be stubborn or over-conservative. Always be willing to think differently and to act differently if your reason dictates the change.

Because a method or habit is old does not mean that it is worthwhile. Often — very often — the new is the best!

Dr. Bisch's Daily Health Hint

The flavor of fruits, especially during hot weather, is markedly enhanced by serving it cold. All fruit, however, should first be thoroughly washed, even if the fruit itself seems to be clean. Not only may fruit carry germs, but the handling of the fruit should be carefully considered.

FISHING GOOD IN THIS DISTRICT

Fishing is good in this district this season. More visiting fishermen than usual are playing the lakes and streams bent on capturing some record size catch. Even the Bay of Quinte has been more populated than ever, it is reported by local guides and bait dealers.

Business in the sale of tourist fishing permits is brisk, it is reported by Mr. W. H. Barrett, official issuer. Although no check has been made of the figures of last year, it is expected, that sales of the permits this year will reach a high mark.

What's more the visitors are catching 'em. Several excellent strings of bass and other varieties of fishy specimen have been shown by even amateurs new at the game.

THE FOCUS OF THE PUBLIC EYE!

Canada has fifty-six thickly settled cities—the centres of highest buying power—from which radiate all the important markets of the Dominion.

More than two million daily newspapers are bought by Canadians every day, for daily newspaper reading is a habit that has grown and fastened itself upon our national life.

All the play and movement of civilization, from the Arctic Circle to the Equator, from the mystic East to the heart of the ultra-practical West—the life of the world—is focussed in the newspaper every day.

The readers of the daily newspaper embrace every class of occupation, every income group—the woman in her home, the executive in his office, and the messenger boy sitting outside; great merchants and keepers of small shops; artists, artisans, financiers and clerks; to each and all the daily newspaper is an essential part of everyday life, the focus of all human activities.

Daily Newspapers help to sell more goods than any other advertising medium because they are read by more people.

ADVERTISE IN DAILY NEWSPAPERS FOR action

SPONSORED BY THE
CANADIAN DAILY NEWSPAPERS ASSOCIATION

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

by R.J. SCOTT

FROM RULE OF SWORD TO JUDGES MALLET—BERMUDA COMMEMORATIVE STAMP—LOWER LEFT PANEL SHOWS SWORD OF JUSTICE BY WHICH ISLAND WAS RULED — RIGHT LOWER PANEL SHOWS THE JUDICIAL MALLET, WHICH KEEPS ORDER TODAY. Copyright, 1938, by Central Press

REVOLT IN THE DESERT

by

T. E. LAWRENCE

CHAPTER XV

Mieze in The Railway

At dawn on the sixteenth of September 1917 we rode out from Azrak, the blind Sheriff, insisted on coming, despite his eighty years, saying he could ride, if he could not shoot, and that if God prospered us he would take revenge from Feisal in the flesh of the accused and go home, too sore, to the blank 10s which would be left. Zaal led his twenty-five Nowasera, a clan of Anaza Arabs who called themselves my men, and were famous on the desert over for their saddle-camels. My hurt riding tempted them to my company.

Old Moleg el Auwar, owner of el Sedma, the finest she-camel in North Arabia, rode her in state, and insisted at her with proud and greedy eyes, according to our relationship with him. My camels was taller and more grand, with a faster trot, but too old to be galloped.

However she was only other animal in the party, or indeed, in this desert, to be matched with the Jebha, and my honour was increased by her dignity.

The rest of our party strained like a broken necklace. No one guessed would ride or spear with another, and I passed back and forth all day like a distant Cook, to make sure of seeing sheikh, and then to another, striving to keep them together, so that before a cry to action came there might be solidarity. As we prayed sunset only by hearing my word from Zaal as to the order of our march; and Sherif was admitted the most intelligent warrior, and the most aggressive, for my private comfort he was the only one to me that neither their words nor their counsels, fleeting or wise, were worth a straw.

We got our mid-day halt in a fertile place, where the late spring rain, falling on a sandy tilth, had brought up a thick lurking of silvery grass which our camels loved. The weather was mild, perfect as an August in England, and we lingered in green content, recovered at last from the battering appetites of the days before the start, and from that slight swelling of nervousness which, when leaving even a temporary settlement, lasts, in our circumstances, took root so soon.

Late in the day we rode again, winding downhill to the Wadi Sirhan by between moderate sandstone walls: the horses among us were used on another flat or laid yellow mud, like that which had been so wonderful a pavilion to Azrak. Sherif by his edge we camped. My care had been for Zaal, that he settled in one of three parties, by bright fires of crackling dry scrub-wood, one camped my men; at the second Zaal; at the third the other Howeitat: and late at night, when all the chiefs had been well adjusted with guards and bed bread, it was for me possible to bring them to my neutral fire, and discuss sensibly our course for the morrow.

It seemed that about sunset we should strike the railway westward, or three miles this side of the station and rest. In our estimate, we might yet attempt some stroke against it. I held strongly to this (against the common desire) that it was' by so much the most critical point of the line. The Arabs could not see it, since their minds did not hold a picture of the long, linked Turkish front with its necessitated demands. However, we had reached internal harmony, and scattered confidently for sleep.

In the morning we delayed to eat again, having only six hours of march before us; and then passed across the mud-flat in a plain of firm, limestone rag, carpeted with brown, weather-blunted flint. This was succeeded by low hills, with the occasional soft hole of sand under the steeper slopes where eddying winds had dropped their dust. Through these we rode up shallow valley to a crest; and then by like valleys down the far side. Our camels started abruptly, from dark, tussel stonegrass into the pale, strangely wideness of a plain. Across it an occasional low dune stretched a drifting line.

We had made our noon halt in the final entering of the last country; and, rightly, in the late afternoon came to the wall. It was an open pool, a few yards square, in a hollow valley of large stone-dabs: good still and sweet. The stagnant water looked uninviting. Over its face lay a thick mantle of green algae, from which swelled curious slimy blunt-ended of floating bubbles. Our camels sighted that the Turks had thrown dead camels in. Nevertheless, they needed to; but that time had passed and the effect was grown faint. It would not have made bad the criterion of their effort been my taste.

We all had to. It was all that we should get up here unless we took the railway, and that was the point of our waterskins. One of the Howeitat, while heaping in the, slipped and fell. His camel, a white, fine green carpet closed oilily over his head and fell to drink instead. Then he came up, gasping vigorously, and scrambled out. Next our camels, standing behind, him black hole in the scum from which they had drunk. Last I, with the servants and others, crept forward and filled the Jeb and after we were at the last crest, in a place where the Turkish had dug trenches, and stood up an elaborate outpost of engraved sangars, which on the black newground looked fresh. We saw the line in front and below by the station, its corrugated iron sheds sharply barred by the yellow cooking fires and lights of the garrison. It crawled across the last flat, till we could count the unlighted tents and the golden light of sunset along a high ridge. We rallied to them to lie down and rest. It was the last ridge before there on their perch like a school of sea-birds, in full view to the north and south.

At last we ran up and threw them off their perch, and late. The Turks in a little hillpost by Hallat Ammar, on the railway, saw the last of the golden light of sunset along a high ridge. We rallied to them to lie down and rest. It was the last ridge before there on their perch like a school of sea-birds, in full view to the north and south.

At last we ran up and threw them off their perch, and late. The Turks in a little hillpost by Hallat Ammar, on the railway, saw the last of the sun, and opened fire in their alarm upon the long shadowy which they considered ours, a puzzling gradual up the slopes towards the post. Then the moon peaked over the hills of using country, but it their shadow-screened from the Turks. The Turks they would take no care to night them. This ridge was visible to one from the railway-post, but not to the other. Between us and it lay a valley, and behind it a low hollow, baked bread and were comfortable. The common was to be the point of assembly for the hill-top fly shamed every one of the encampment that Zaal should be our leader.

CHAPTER XVI

Zaal and Dud

Day broke quietly, and for hours we lay about in the hollow, enjoying its peaceful camps. The constant care of Zaal and of his lame cousin Mahmud, who had been hurt badly with difficulty, because of the limping, constituted a care for Sedain, who would never sit down for ten minutes, but was fidgeting, fuss or something. This defect made them very inferior to the stolid Egyptians for the attack on the railway's waiting war. Also it partly accounted for the Howeitat's weakness in defence. To-day they made us very angry.

Perhaps, after all; the Turks saw us, for at nine o'clock some forty or fifty cavalry rode from the hill-top by Hallaj Ammar, to the south and advanced in open order, towards our alcove. They would turn us off our mine in an hour; if we resisted, with our greater force strength and drove them back, the railway would be safe and our traffic be held up. It was a quandary, which eventually we tried to solve by sending Mahmud and Zaal with the enemy patrol gradually; and, if possible, to lead them round behind into the broken hills. This might hide our main position and reassure them of our insignificance, and of good and purpose.

For two hours it worked as we hoped; the firing grew desultory and distant. A permanent patrol came confidently up from the south and walked past our hill, over our heads and on towards Mudowwara without noticing us. There were eight soldiers and a corporal.

We mopped his brew against the heat. It was now after eleven and really very warm. When he had passed us by a mile or two the the fatigue of the tramp became too much for him. He scratched his parch hair, shade of a long cultivert, under whose arches a cool draught blew from east to west flowing; and there in comfort they lay on his soft sand, drank water from their bottles, smoked, and at last slept. We presumed that this was the necessary rest which every solid Turk in the hot summer of Arabia took as a matter of principle, and that their allowing themselves the pause showed that we were disproved or ignored. However it was in error.

Noon brought fresh cause. Through my powerful glasses we saw a hundred Turkish soldiers issue from Mudowwara station and make straight across the sandy plain towards our place. They were coming very slowly, and no doubt unwillingly, for sorrow at losing their beloved midday sleep: but it was very worse marching and tamper they could hardly take more than two hours before they reached us.

We began to pack up, preparatory to moving off, having decided to leave the mine and its loads in place on chance that the Turks might not find them, and we be able to return and take advantage of all the confusion. I sent a messenger to our covering party on the south, telling them to withdraw further up, near those scarred rocks which served as screen for our pastspring camp.

Just as he had gone, the watchman cried out that another patrol was rising from Hallat Ammar. Zaal and I rushed uphill and saw by its shape and number that probably there must be a train waiting in that station. I ran forward to see it over the hill, suddenly it moved out in our direction. We rallied to Auda and Nasir into position as quick as possible, and there was a wild scramble over sand and rock, Stokes and Wewis, being booted, could not win the race; but they got a machine gun and a rifle-sentry forgotten.

The men with rifles posted themselves in a long line behind the spur running from the gate post to the railway, and in front of the valley. From it they would fire flat-trajectory, and Gerassi over-and-over less than one hundred and fifty yards. Meanwhile the armoured cars Stokes and Lewis guns were about three hundred yards. An Arab stood up on their roof, and was ready to shouted to us what the train was doing—whether it stopped there, or if it carried troops and detrained them behind our ridge we should have to move about like a flea on a drum fighting up the valley for our lives. Fortunately it held on at all the speed the two locomotives could make on wood fuel.

At the time where we had been reported, and opened random fire from the hip, Zaal and I took the rackel coming, as I sat on my hillock. The Turks would have been better if the first electrical experiment had been simpler.

However, at that moment the engine, looking very big, rocked with the strain of its speed, and screaming and whistling as the brakes bit heavy, and I wondered with how many men we were going to have affair, and if we should be strong enough for our rashly enough for our sighly fellows to withdraw. We could have been better if the first electrical experiment had been simpler.

However, at that moment the engine, looking very big, rocked with the strain of its speed, and screaming and whistling as the brakes bit heavy, and I wondered with how many men we were going to have affair, and if we should be strong enough for our rashly enough for our sighly fellows to withdraw. We could have been better if the first electrical experiment had been simpler.

However, at that moment the engine, looking very big, rocked with the strain of its speed, and screaming and whistling as the brakes bit heavy, and I wondered with how many men we were going to have affair, and if we should be strong enough for our rashly enough for our sighly fellows to withdraw. We could have been better if the first electrical experiment had been simpler.

However, at that moment the engine, looking very big, rocked with the strain of its speed, and screaming and whistling as the brakes bit heavy, and I wondered with how many men we were going to have affair, and if we should be strong enough for our rashly enough for our sighly fellows to withdraw. We could have been better if the first electrical experiment had been simpler.

However, at that moment the engine, looking very big, rocked with the strain of its speed, and screaming and whistling as the brakes bit heavy, and I wondered with how many men we were going to have affair, and if we should be strong enough for our rashly enough for our sighly fellows to withdraw. We could have been better if the first electrical experiment had been simpler.

However, at that moment the engine, looking very big, rocked with the strain of its speed, and screaming and whistling as the brakes bit heavy, and I wondered with how many men we were going to have affair, and if we should be strong enough for our rashly enough for our sighly fellows to withdraw. We could have been better if the first electrical experiment had been simpler.

You can make your vacation pay you health dividends! Plenty of fresh air, sunshine and pleasant exercise you complete with Chase's Nerve Food to make the blood rich and red and feed the tired, starved nerves back to health and vigor.

Dr. Chase's NERVE FOOD

J. ALDERIC RAYMOND PRESIDENT

VERNON G. CARDY MANAGING DIRECTOR

The most practical tobacco package ever invented!

TO SEAL—RUN THUMB NAIL ACROSS NOTCH

LARGE SEAL-TIGHT POUCH 25c

WARDEN'S PICNIC WELL ATTENDED

Warden Sine Blakely, P. E. Co., Host to Gathering at Sandbanks

Picton, July 20—The Warden's Picnic held on Wednesday as the holiday crowd to the Sandbanks on Wednesday afternoon, July 17th. Warden Sine Blakely was host for over fifty prominent men of the county, at a sumptuous dinner served at the Lake Shore House, at Sandbanks. Following the dinner Dr. Roblin was chairman of the events of the afternoon.

Mr. Harry Ridge McLean, S. E. Mastin, Stan Tripp, Prof. Ivas Martin, Thos. Bowerman, M.P.P., Mayor Jones and Rev. David Wren all spoke of the good fellowship and selfless service Warden Blakely has long given to the county. A man's life of war, foot races for men, boys and girls, an egg race, and a County League game between Ameliasburgh and Milford provided amusement for the large crowd, as this beautiful spot on the shore of Lake Ontario.

Mr. Dalton Price on Thursday, July 18th, 1935, to Mr. and Mrs. Murray Dayton, a son.

Mrs. Irvine Miller and Miss Vera Miller are leaving on Friday to visit in Chicago. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller, Chicago, before returning to Picton.

Mrs. Lovegrove and children of Toronto are occupying Miss Daisy Noble's cottage at the Outlet for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Cay Welsh are camping at the Outlet for a month.

Miss Blanche Davenport, of Toronto, is spending friendships in town and county.

Miss Jean Kerfoot of Toronto, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomson Walmsley and Mr. Walmsley, Bon Accord.

A good crowd with pleasant surroundings enjoyed the delightful dance on Wednesday evening at Bayside Park, under the management of Mr. Ted Dorsey. Dorsey's orchestra at Belleville played a good programme of dance music.

Picton relatives of Mrs. Henry McDonald of Toronto, who was accidentally killed in a head-on collision at Long Point.

Mrs. Ernest and William Jose have shingled their barn.

The community was greatly shocked when they heard of the death of the late W. F. Osborne who passed away at the Kingston General Hospital on Tuesday morning. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ackerman during the past week have been Mr. and Mrs. Ilse Gerrish, Leamington, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ackerman and family, Beth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ackerman and Gerald, Campbellford, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ackerman, Picton, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ackerman, Harding and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ackerman, Bloomfield.

Miss Pearl Jose, Mrs. Boyd and daughter Shirley, Toronto, were Tuesday evening callers of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallbridge and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wallbridge.

Mrs. Allan Herrington is visiting her brother in Owen Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Doocet spent the week-end in Montreal and Brockington, N.Y.

Messrs. Ronald Simmonds, Brevet, Morley and Arthur Valleau have been to camp at the Outlet.

Miss Jean Sprague spent the week end at her home in Ameliasburg.

Congratulations to the entire editorial staff of the Picton Times on the appearance of their handsome new paper. Last week at Rice Lake.

Mr. Harold Wood and sister Marion spent the week end at Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Milligan and family are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Milligan, also Mr. and Mrs. Will McLaren.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Perkins spent Sunday afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. James Perkins.

A number of the farmers are busy cutting and trucking their peas to the canning factory. A fair crop is reported.

Dance Director All Heated Up

Hollywood, July 18 (AP)— Leroy Prinz, dance director, has ended the British Labor Ministry demanding an explanation of a degree ceiling about the appearances of a group of American girls billed in London as an Prinz Hollywood Beauties.

He also wired the British Ambassador at Washington, Sir Ronald Lindsay, asking an inquiry.

"I'm burned up," Prinz said yesterday. "Here we are in Hollywood provided with English actors and actresses—most of whom are being paid fabulous salaries—and four poor little girls, none of whom receive more than $75 a week, have their means of livelihood taken from them."

He said many film stars, executives and directors have agreed to petition the British authorities for reconsideration of the degree.

HILLIER NEWS OF PAST WEEK

Hillier—Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Rose of Toronto visited the past week end at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kenny and son Harold spent Sunday with Mrs Kenny called on Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kenny, Consecon, on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Arthur of Consecon called on his friends at Bonny Brook on Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hagerman the week end with Mrs. Albert at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Spencer where Mrs. Albert is visiting her grandparents for a week or two.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Gamble and family spent the week end and spent Sunday with friends there.

Mrs. Albert Lloyd spend a few days in the northern part of the county visiting friends.

Mrs. Onderdonk of Ameliasburgh is visiting her sister Miss Thelma Perry.

Mrs. Florence Young spent a few days at Rochesterville visiting her friends Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Simpson.

Mr. Jennie Charlton visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Charlton on Sunday.

Mr. C. Gillis of Manitoba is visiting his sister Miss Arthur Bruce. Art also other relatives in this locality.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Higgs of Toronto spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Higgs and Miss Taylor.

The Consecon canning factory is running night and day in order to handle the peas that are being brought in. A lot of girls are helping them out with the canning.

VICE-ADMIRAL DIES

Peterfield, England, July 18— (AP)—Vice Admiral Sir Cecil Astley Astley-Rushton, 55, commander of the reserve fleet since last year, was instantly killed early today when a motor car he was driving crashed into a tree near here.

Safe Speedy Relief NEURITIS

Purchase of this package entitles you to a full treatment of T-R-C Tablets. Ask for them at all druggists.

T-R-C TABLETS

30c and $1 at all druggists

MASSASSAGA COMMUNITY NEWS

Massassaga, July 20—Miss Bessie Wallbridge who has been on the sick list is recovering. Dr. Connor has been in attendance.

Mr. Thomas Kilgar has accepted a position with Mr. I. Nightingale.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Anderson are holidaying at Temagame.

Misses Isabel Leader and Margaret Wallbridge attended the recital at the home of Miss Winnifred Jones on Friday.

Mrs. Norah Ackerman who is suffering from a burned foot is in Belleville, receiving medical attention.

Mrs. Howard Wallbridge and daughter Helen spent a few days last week with Mrs. T. O. Wallbridge, Sprague, Mountain View.

Miss Vera Woods is Bethany took charge of the church service on Sunday night.

Miss Mary Hamilton Reg. N. spent a few days last week with Mrs. T. O. Wallbridge, Sprague.

Mrs. Davidson who has been ill is improving.

The Misses Bell of Shannonville are visiting their sister Mrs. Geo. Bell.

Mr. K. Ackerman spent Tuesday in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ras Servise returned to their home in Leamington after visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ackerman.

Mrs. Ackerman is holidaying in Toronto.

Mr. George Wallbridge is building a cottage at Long Point.

Mrs. Ernest and William Jose have shingled their barn.

The community was greatly shocked when they heard of the death of the late W. F. Osborne who passed away at the Kingston General Hospital on Tuesday morning. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ackerman during the past week have been Mr. and Mrs. Ilse Gerrish, Leamington, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ackerman and family, Beth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ackerman and Gerald, Campbellford, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ackerman, Picton, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ackerman, Harding and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ackerman, Bloomfield.

Miss Pearl Jose, Mrs. Boyd and daughter Shirley, Toronto were Tuesday evening callers of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallbridge and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wallbridge.

Mrs. Allan Herrington is visiting her brother in Owen Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Doocet spent the week end in Montreal and Brockington, N.Y.

Messrs. Ronald Simmonds, Brevet, Morley and Arthur Valleau have been to camp at the Outlet.

Miss Jean Sprague spent the week end at her home in Ameliasburg.

Congratulations to the entire editorial staff of the Picton Times on the appearance of their handsome new paper. Last week at Rice Lake.

Mr. Harold Wood and sister Marion spent the week end at Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Milligan and family are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Milligan, also Mr. and Mrs. Will McLaren.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Perkins spent Sunday afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. James Perkins.

A number of the farmers are busy cutting and trucking their peas to the canning factory. A fair crop is reported.

Dance Director All Heated Up

Hollywood, July 18 (AP)— Leroy Prinz, dance director, has ended the British Labor Ministry demanding an explanation of a degree ceiling about the appearances of a group of American girls billed in London as an Prinz Hollywood Beauties.

He also wired the British Ambassador at Washington, Sir Ronald Lindsay, asking an inquiry.

"I'm burned up," Prinz said yesterday. "Here we are in Hollywood provided with English actors and actresses—most of whom are being paid fabulous salaries—and four poor little girls, none of whom receive more than $75 a week, have their means of livelihood taken from them."

He said many film stars, executives and directors have agreed to petition the British authorities for reconsideration of the degree.

HILLIER NEWS OF PAST WEEK

Hillier—Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Rose of Toronto visited the past week end at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kenny and son Harold spent Sunday with Mrs Kenny called on Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kenny, Consecon, on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Arthur of Consecon called on his friends at Bonny Brook on Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hagerman the week end with Mrs. Albert at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Spencer where Mrs. Albert is visiting her grandparents for a week or two.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Gamble and family spent the week end and spent Sunday with friends there.

Mrs. Albert Lloyd spend a few days in the northern part of the county visiting friends.

Mrs. Onderdonk of Ameliasburgh is visiting her sister Miss Thelma Perry.

Mrs. Florence Young spent a few days at Rochesterville visiting her friends Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Simpson.

Mr. Jennie Charlton visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Charlton on Sunday.

Mr. C. Gillis of Manitoba is visiting his sister Miss Arthur Bruce. Art also other relatives in this locality.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Higgs of Toronto spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Higgs and Miss Taylor.

The Consecon canning factory is running night and day in order to handle the peas that are being brought in. A lot of girls are helping them out with the canning.

VICE-ADMIRAL DIES

Peterfield, England, July 18— (AP)—Vice Admiral Sir Cecil Astley Astley-Rushton, 55, commander of the reserve fleet since last year, was instantly killed early today when a motor car he was driving crashed into a tree near here.

Safe Speedy Relief NEURITIS

Purchase of this package entitles you to a full treatment of T-R-C Tablets. Ask for them at all druggists.

T-R-C TABLETS

30c and $1 at all druggists

SALEM W.M.S. HAS MONTHLY MEETING

Salem, July 20—The regular meeting of the W.M.S. was held in the church on Wednesday afternoon with a fair attendance.

Mrs. Ernest Bird spent the week end with her daughter Mrs. Chester Rogers.

Little Jean Hanna visited her friend Doris Badgley at Mr. Will Badgley's one day recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Shalton McIntosh and family also Mr. Albert Hall of Stirling, were tea hour guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Leslie.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Merrick and Mr. Will Yateman, Bethany, were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gilts.

Mrs. Dan Smith is entertaining a friend from Oshawa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hanna and Hilda Hanna were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Pullen, took tea with Mr. and Mrs. Anderson 3rd Line on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Milligan and family are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Milligan, also Mr. and Mrs. Will McLaren.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Perkins spent Sunday afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. James Perkins.

A number of the farmers are busy cutting and trucking their peas to the canning factory. A fair crop is reported.

PHONE 249
QUALITY FURS, REPAIRS
SPECIAL PRICES
Ashley Furs
204 FRONT STREET
Next to Simm's, Belleville, Ont.

Personals

Master Bryce Mimms, Order Street, is spending his holidays in Toronto and Owen Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brickley and children, of Barnes, Orlando, Cuba, are spending the holidays in Belleville and this vicinity.

Miss. Hazel Peaks, Syracuse, N.Y., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fred Brownell, Dundas street.

Mrs. J. Fahey and Mrs. J. T. Lagash are visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. Corrigan, Peterborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fitzgerald and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fitzgerald spend the past week-end visiting their mother, Mrs. John Fitzgerald.

Mrs. A. E. McCoil and Mrs. O. A. Marshall were tea hostess at the Belleville Golf Club this afternoon.

Miss Marion Adams, Bridge street west, is spending several weeks at Ottawa, Manitoulin Bay and Lakewood, Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Mogk of Kingston, are spending a few days in the city.

Miss Marie House of Cobourg, is visiting in this city.

At the Belleville Yacht Club euchre last evening the following were prize winners: ladies' first—Mrs. Barnett, Toronto; Mrs. Clary, third, Mrs. Cote; fourth, Mrs. Riley; Dead Mrs. Beechman:

1. Although I know that when a lady is introduced to a gentleman she shakes hands in accordin' to whatever she wishes to do, I would like to know if there is any usual custom if it happens to be in your own home or in the home of a friend? Does it make any difference if the gentleman is old or young?

2. Quite recently I was in a gathering where people did not all know each other, but we all knew the hostess. It happened that the people were not in a position to each other. Is it a young lady's place to go and speak to a stranger she happened to know or had met before? It seems to me that the hostess made a mistake. But when this takes place, does it make any difference if it is an older gentleman or older lady, or a young gentleman that has not been introduced to you?

3. When a gentleman helps a lady with her coat, or helps her when down from the bus or any of the other things a gentleman often does, is it necessary for the lady to say "Thank you" or should these acts simply be taken for granted?

4. When someone excuses or asks your pardon, in case of a cough or a sneeze, or something like that, is it proper to say, "Certainly" or is that too much?

O.

1. Always a hostess should shake hands with every guest, man or woman or child, whom she is welcoming into her home. And this holds true too of a co-hostess, say the daughter of a married lady. And when a woman is greeting guests in the home of a friend she would more likely than not shake hands with any guest who came to that home. And it would make no difference if the guest were a man or a woman, and whether old or young.

2. A "gathering" implies that there were probably quite a few guests present, and so it is not something of that kind. And so-called "introductions" at such a party usually don't make the slightest bit of an impression either about the room introducing him or her to every other guest present at the party. Some will be introduced to the guest to the group standing by and there is time at the first moment, to a person or group of guests who she thinks will be particularly interested in the arriving guest. Then she takes for granted that the newcomer knows the guests that together, or that, the guest will take introduced to the people were not in a position to each other. Is it a young lady's place to go and speak to a stranger she happened to know or had met before? It seems to me that the hostess made a mistake. But when this takes place, does it make any difference if it is an older gentleman or older lady, or a young gentleman that has not been introduced to you?

3. When a gentleman helps a lady with her coat, or helps her when down from the bus or any of the other things a gentleman often does, is it necessary for the lady to say "Thank you" or should these acts simply be taken for granted?

4. When someone excuses or asks your pardon, in case of a cough or a sneeze, or something like that, is it proper to say, "Certainly" or is that too much?

O.

1. Always a hostess should shake hands with every guest, man or woman or child, whom she is welcoming into her home. And this holds true too of a co-hostess, say the daughter of a married lady. And when a woman is greeting guests in the home of a friend she would more likely than not shake hands with any guest who came to that home. And it would make no difference if the guest were a man or a woman, and whether old or young.

This is the STORY of Thomas McBlu
Whose lease will expire the first of July
There are his shoes (just picture his feet)
The result of six weeks of frenzied dancing
Running a home at six hundred a year,
Here's what he found—and isn't it queer?
He almost bought this in sheer desperation,
It really belongs on a Sioux reservation.
Poor Thomas just didn't know which way to turn
Till a friend told him "Then, there are values to burn
In the Classified section!" So Tom took the steer,
And here he is set for a comfortable year!
RENT, BUY or SELL Your Home Through the WANT-ADS
PHONE
98 or 99
Ontario Intelligencer

Correct Manners

By Mrs. Cornelius Beeckman

(Copyright, 1935, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

ANSWERING

Rose and Mrs. W. Phillips attended the celebration held at Foxboro on on Friday, while Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ketchabaw and Ida, and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Robson and family attended the celebration at West Huntingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Pearsall spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Phillpitt of Tweed.

Mrs. Hillbur Robson attended the pre-nuptial shower of Miss Gertrude Ketchison of Bellerille on Monday evening.

Weddings

WARREN—WRIGHT

A very pretty wedding took place Tuesday, July 16th at 11 a.m. at Salem United Church, when Vera Susanna, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright, became the bride of Mr. Wm. Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Warren, with Rev. Mr. Lackey officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn wedding music played by Miss Leola Chalky. She looked charming in her white morman crepe frock fashioned in straight lines with three-quarter length jacket, trimmed with fagoting and buttons. She wore a white picture hat with shoes and gloves to match and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses, baby's breath and fern.

Miss Aletia Herrick was her cousin's bridesmaid and wore a pretty green and shell pink morman crepe, with touches of fagoting. Her picture hat was of white mohair with pink roses to match. She carried pink trigo roses, baby's breath and fern.

Mr. Albert Warren, brother of the groom, acted as groomsman and Mr. Edwin Warren and Mr. Fred Hedington, as ushers.

During the signing of the register Mrs Annie Elliott sang "I Love You Truly". Also a little boy, dressed in the young couple, it being the first wedding in Salem church in forty years.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held for about twenty guests...at the home of the bride, Lake Road, where congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Warren left and showers of confetti for a motoring trip to Muskoka Lakes. The bride travelling in a navy blue suit with white spots, shoes, gloves and purse of white. Upon their return the young couple will reside in Kingston.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome natural gold bracelet, set with onyx and pearl; to the bridesmaid, a gold pin, pearl, gold compacts, the groomsman, gold tie pin, and the ushers tie clips. Mr. and Mrs. Warren received many beautiful and costly gifts.

AIKENS W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Aikins W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. W. Bush on July 10. The meeting opened with chorus 'Rise up' played by Mrs. F. Westover. Hymn "What a Friend We Have in Jesus". Prayer by Mrs. L. Hall. Scripture reading, Matt. 25, by Mrs. Bush and Mrs. E. Hubble. Devotional leaflet, "Joyous Friends" given by Mrs. E. Hubble. Minutes read and adopted. Roll responded to by verses on beautiful thought. Treasurer's reading were given by Mrs. A. Bunnett and Mrs. F. Grills. Watch Tower by Mrs. F. Westover and Mrs. L. Hall. Study in Reading on Christian Stewardship by Mrs. Bunnett. Hymn 115 was sung. Prayer by Mrs. H. B. Johnston. Reading "Prayer With the Basket" by Mrs. W. Bush. Miss Margaret Johnston then favored with a solo. Mrs. A. Bunnett read a short talk on the first part of the presbytery—the duty of stewardship with Mrs. S. Spafford, stressing the point of temperance. Mrs. S. Spafford gave a splendid report of the presbytery, based on "The Fruits of the Spirit and the Value of Living Water". A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Spafford and Mrs. Bunnett for their splendid reports. A solo was then given by Mrs. Earl Bush, Hymn, "There Is Sunshine In My Soul" was sung. Prayer, Mrs. F. Grills. Collection was taken and a dainty lunch was served. All enjoyed the social half hour.

GRAY HAIR SHOULD GIVE NO CAUSE FOR CONCERN

By Louis E. Bisch, M.D., Ph.D.
Famous Authority on Health and Personality

(Copyright 1935 King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

As we grow older, our hair tends to turn gray. This, however does not usually occur until we are past middle life. Few reach fifty, whether men of women, who do not have at least a few gray or white hairs.

The graying of hair is not a disease in itself. Certain diseases, however, may produce gray hair. Gout is one of these. Neuralgia and rheumatism are others. Nervous disorders may gray the hair. Emotional shocks of severe order may turn the hair gray rather quickly, although this is rather rare. Napoleon, as is reported, Marie Antoinette's hair turned gray one night when she was made prisoner at the outbreak of the French Revolutions. This should not frighten anyone. Fear is a sign of senile decay nor, indeed, is any indication that senility is rapidly approaching. This seems to be a rather common notion and undoubtedly has a lot to do with the anxiety with which people hide any evidence of grayness by means of hair dyes.

Certain individuals assiduously cultivate gray hair in the temples, especially premature grayness. Sometimes certain members of a family show this tendency at the same time of age, but even in the same places.

The color of the hair depends upon the presence of pigment granules which are to be found in the so-called "cortex" or middle layer of the hair. These pigment granules fade in an oil fluid in the cells of the hair bulb and are found in the cells of these cells. When the hair turns gray, the pigment in the cells ebbs and less oil than before.

The original natural color of the hair depends upon the combination of the pigment granules and the amount of oily fluid.

Scientists claim that only two main colors of these pigment granules exist — reddish yellow and sepia-brown. All shades of hair are made by color combinations.

The best and only way to put off graying of the hair is to lead a healthy and well-regulated life. It is really surprising that so many people gray their hair or are ashamed of it. Often it is most becoming. Nature is a fine artist.

Dr. Bisch's Daily Diet Hint

When the stage of convalescence from any severe illness has passed, the following menu is followed: foods particularly well. Chicken, in beef that is either roasted or broiled, mashed potatoes, a little of all kinds, well cooked soft boiled eggs, sliced potatoes, thick soup and custards.

Honest Thieves Leave Money in Nets

Hamilton, July 20—(CP)—When Ed Hand, grimsby fisherman went seven miles out into Lake Ontario today to lift his whitefish nets, he found a fragment of a man's shirt tied to one of the floats. Inside the shirt was seventy five cents in silver. Some passerby in less had lifted one of the nets, taken some fish and left payment. "They were honest—providing they didn't take too many fish," Mr. Hand commented.

TWEED TENNIS CLUB WINS FROM BELLEVILLE

Captures Nine Events, Ties Two And Loses Four

Tweed, July 20—Tweed tennis club entertained the Belleville club on the local courts at the High School and at Mr. W. S. Gordon's on Wednesday afternoon in a return match.

The local club won nine events lost four and tied two. Lunch was served in the visiting team by a committee composed of Mrs. J. J. McTague, Mrs. A. B. Allen and Miss Marjorie Quinn.

J. J. McTague and T. E. Moore-Cook, Tweed, won from W. Meagher and F. Fisher, Belleville 6-1, 6-3.

H. McCutcheon and F. Tummon, Tweed, lost to M. Mitchell and C. Hurst, Belleville 3-6, 6-4, 4-6.

G. McCutcheon and R. Sayers Tweed, won from W. Meagher and F. Fisher, Belleville 1-6, 6-5, 8-5.

G. Quinn and A. Foster, Tweed lost to E. Mitchell and O. Fisher Belleville, 6-4, 1-6.

J. J. McTague and Miss F. Graham, Tweed, won from W. Hurst and Miss Hinds, Belleville 6-1, 8-0.

T. E. Moore-Cook and Mrs. McTague, Tweed, won from Misses Moncrief and May, Belleville 5-6, 6-4, 6-3.

N. Sayers and L. Morrison, Tweed vs. E. Tummon and W. Mitchell, Belleville 5-6, 6-3 (unfinished).

S. Arber, Tweed, won from W. Hurst, Belleville 6-4, 4-6, 6-4.

J. B. Rollins, Tweed, won from C. Hurst, Belleville 6-4, 6-4.

J. Ryan and T. Quinn, Tweed, lost to W. Meagher and F. Fisher, Belleville 6-3, 6-3.

Mrs. Leonard and Miss M. Morrison, Tweed, won from Misses Wallbridge and Hinds, Belleville 6-1, 6-3.

N. Sayers and R. Ardenne, Tweed, won from C. Hurst and W. Johnston, Belleville 6-1, 2-6, 6-3.

N. Bowers and Miss E. Clark of Tweed won from J. Fisher and Miss Moncrief, Belleville 6-1, 6-0.

J. Courneyea and H. McCutcheon, Tweed vs. W. Mitchell and F. Fisher, Belleville 3-6, 6-4.

Sid Arber and Mrs. McTague, Tweed lost to W. Meagher and Miss May, Belleville 6-2, 6-0.

Several fine bass and lunge have been caught in Stoco Lake during the past few days. Mr. Wilbur Currie of New York, who is visiting at Stoco Lake, caught a fine bass on a bit of kinds, well cooked soft boiled eggs, sliced potatoes, thick soup and custards.

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE BELLE

"Alibi Ike"

Joe E. Brown opens at the Belle Today

Today and Monday, patrons of the Belle Theatre are to be treated to a smash comedy presentation "Alibi Ike" featuring none other than the "Dean" of all comedians Joe E. Brown.

"Alibi Ike" is heralded as the most hilarious film in which the famous star has yet appeared.

The story was written by Ring Lardner, who probably knew baseball players better than any other author. It is a gigantic winning pile comedy of baseball and blondes.

"Alibi Ike" is a big league baseball player, a crack pitcher and a star. Then averages, contrary to most writers, run around the .500 mark. He never makes a play on the field or off it without alibiing.

Even when he falls desperately in love with the sister of his team-mate's wife, he alibi's about it. She happens to hear him making excuses for giving him a cold-shoulder ring and turns him down cold, which makes a series of events as thrilling as they are ludicrous.

A gangster kidnaps the girl to keep her from marrying a group of gamblers, from whom he escapes in time to win the game in his pitching debut, just one of the exciting and funny incidents in the film.

There is more romance than usual in a Joe E. Brown comedy, his love affair winding up in a clinch that is most unusual.

Joe, of course, has the title role, Olivia de Havilland, a newcomer to the screen, is the romantic lead. She did such a fine piece of work in Max Reinhardt's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" that she was immediately given a long term contract by Warner Bros.

The role is an ideal one for Joe E. Brown and he is at his longest for several years and still owns a ball club.

Charlie Prawley has the role of the baseball captain with Ruth Donnelly playing the part of his wife and the sister of Joe's sweetheart. Spencer Karne is one of the chief ribbers who sits on the bench with his girl.

Others in the cast include Eddie Shubert, Paul Harvey, Joseph Kelly and Adrian Rosley, besides a score of expert baseball players. Action scenes were taken at Wrigley Field in Los Angeles, Calif.

Following a real two hours entertainment, the Belle is also presenting a Mickey Mouse cartoon picture, entitled "The Spectacle Maker", also a clever and snappy Harrison cartoon, "Amateur Night". The popular Belle Newsreel will complete the following week's performance commencing at 2.30; first show starts at 12.45 daily.

We urge you not to miss this outstanding program.

"Let Them Have It"

Commencing Tuesday, the Belle is bringing to its screens the real life-story of the blazing drama of the Federal men swinging into action and the relentless drive of racketeers who have plagued the nation! The inside story of how they really work....pitting microscopes against machine guns, science against slaughter, "brains against

AT THE CAPITOL

"G-Men"

A Vivid Gangster Film with James Cagney

In "G-Men", now playing at the Capitol Theatre, the motion picture fans given the public a vivid and accurate story of the past battles that the U. S. Govt., through their intrepid Department of Justice operatives, have had with the super-criminals that infested the States.

"G-Men," is as enthralling a story as you could wish for. It is based on episodes that have occupied the front pages of dailies for years back, such as sensational bold-ups, a wholesale slaughter of police in a railroad station, and of course, the raid of Dillinger in his lodge retreat, and scandals they have been welded into a whole. The picture ends with the dissolution of the gang by Federal forces.

Dynamic Jimmie Cagney, having played many a crook, is now changing his role to G-Man. He seems at his best most of his life in New York's East Side and his knowledge of the city's criminals is very extensive. During the picture he has the invaluable Cagney feud with his superior, Robert Armstrong, and his romance with Margaret Lindsay, the lovely lady, Margaret Lindsay, but it is the Cagney of the old racketeers which provides the excitement. The story is a swift, exciting melodrama with Cagney doing some excellent acting.

For Thursday only the management has booked a Western thriller in which Tom Keene is the hero of many a screen tale of life in the West of years past. It is called "Rider of the Plains" and depicts the battles between two rival cattle barons for water rights in the cow country.

Besides this long thrilling feature picture, the Capitol has a program of short subjects that promises to provide plenty of entertainment. Especially the comedy "Hollywood Party" featuring Jimmy Durante, which the screen's popular "stooges" Laurel and Hardy guiltless. A cartoon and the latest Pathe news also shown.

Beginning next Monday and continuing for three days, the Capitol will present two big features. There is "The Line-Up" in which Marion Nixon and William Gargan are featured, and the big special feature is "Village Tale," a story of what happens to one of quiet town gossip. On Monday and Tuesday the Capitol will present to each lady patron an attractive piece of the popular Dr. Barry dinnerware.

bloodshed! To "Let 'Em Have It".

The cast of this amazing drama is headed by Richard Arlen, whose all portray excellence in their respective roles. Richard Arlen, Bruce Cabot, Eric Linden, Virginia Bruce and Alice Brady.

The picture is amazing and will hold you spellbound from start until the final fade-out, we urge you to see it.

Remember "Let 'Em Have It" will be at the Belle for two days matinee daily at 2.30, starting Tuesday.

RADIO PROGRAMS

— Daylight Saving Time —

SATURDAY

5.15—Jackie Heller, tenor—WJZ
5.30—News, the Sinfonietta—WABC
—7.00—Portland Symphony Orch.
6.00—Happy Hour, Orch.—WJZ
7.15—The Jamboree—WEAF
7.30—Johnny Hamp's Orch.—WABC
7.30—Operatic Gems—WJZ
7.30—Hit Parade, Lennie Hayton's Orch.—WEAF
8.00—Lucky Strike Minstrels—WABC
8.30—Goldman Band Concert —WJZ
8.45—Lowell Broadcast From London —WABC
8.30—Sam Robbins—WJZ
9.30—Chateau: Al Jolson—WEAF
10.00—Dance Melodies—WJZ
10.30—Summer Follies—WEAF
11.30—Carefree Carnival—WJZ
11.30—Ben Barker's Orch.—WABC
11.00—Abe Lyman's Orch—WABC
11.30—Orchestra—WEAF
11.30—Ray Noble's Orch.—WJZ
11.30—Claude Hopkins' Orch. —WABC
11.30—Wayne King's Orch—WGN

SUNDAY

9.00—Sunday Morning Serenade —WJZ
11.00—Children's Hour—WABC
11.30—Mal. Sousa's Capitol Family —WEAF; WTAM
12.30—Radio City Tabernacle—WABC
12.00—Community Matinee—WJZ
12.30—Radio City Concert—NBC; WJZ; WLW
12.45—Crosscombe Broadcast —WABC
1.30—Words and Music—WABC
2.30—Radio Theatre—WJZ
3.00—Symphonic Strings—WABC
3.30—Penthouse Serenade — WEAF
3.30—Nat'l. Vespers—WJZ
4.00—Willard Robinson's Deep River Orch.—WEAF
5.30—Dream Drama—WEAF.
5.30—Frank Crummit and Julia Sanderson—WJZ
6.00—National Amateur Night—WABC

6.00—Carmen Cavallaro, Orch. —WEAF
6.00—Concert Gems—WJZ
6.30—Ed McConnell—WABC
7.00—Lanny Ross' State Fair Concert—WJZ
7.30—Ted Fiorito Summer Serenade—WABC
7.30—Philco Recitals — WEAF
8.00—"Rhythm at Eight"—WABC
8.00—Contented Hour—WJZ
8.00—Major Bowes' Amateur Hour —WEAF
8.30—Smiths—WABC
8.30—Silken Strings—WJZ
8.30—Manhattan Merry-go-Round —WJZ
9.00—Jo Stafford—WABC
9.30—Cornelia Otis Skinner—WJZ
10.00—Wayne King's Orch—WABC
10.00—Ben Bernie's Orch.—WEAF
10.00—Uncle Charlie's Tent Show—WJZ
10.30—Senay Vennis, songs—WABC

MONDAY

9.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ.
9.30—Joe White, Tenor—WEAF
9.30—Betty and Bob—WJZ
9.45—To Be Announced—WJZ
10.00—U. S. Marine Band—WJZ
8.30—News; Jim Hunter—CFRB.
7.00—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF
7.15—Tito Guizar—WEAF
7.30—Rhythm Boys—WEAF
7.30—Ozzie Nelson's Orch. —WABC
8.00—Showboat Srow. Orch.—WEAF
8.30—Mixed Chorus—WEAF
8.30—Death Valley Days—WJZ
8.00—Harry Horlick's Gypsies, WEAF
9.00—Minstrel Show—WJZ, WLW.
10.00—To Be Announced—WEAF
10.00—Ben Bernie—WABC.
9.30—Princess Pat Players—WJZ
10.00—Rhythm Kings' Orch—WABC
10.00—Lullaby Lady—WEAF.
10.00—Lullaby Lady—WEAF.
10.00—Ray Knight's Cuckoo Clock—WJZ
10.30—Jack Hart in "Funny Sketch"—WEAF

WHITE FLANNELS
CLEANSED PERFECTLY
by MODERN TREATMENT
The cleansing of your White Flannels is most important, inferior methods will ruin your trousers.
NO SHRINKAGE
That is Our Guarantee
Our method not only cleaners Flannels to a gleaming, snow WHITE but you are sure, that the size will be exactly the same as when sent here.
Size Right
MODERN
CLEANERS and DYERS
192 Front St. Phone 729

Mrs. Eric Keeler and daughters, Elizabeth and Yvonne of Ottawa, are visiting her sister, Miss Irma Fraser, at Consecon.

Mrs. J. Harley Neff of Ottawa, is the guest of Miss Irma Fraser, Redneroville.

CAVERLY PICNIC MUCH ENJOYED

Eighth Reunion of This Family Held at Twelve Mile Creek

The eighth annual Caverly Reunion was held on Wednesday, July 17th, on the Twelve O'Clock Point picnic grounds. It being a fine day everybody had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cain of Flint, Michigan, motored over for the gathering and spent a few days with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Caverly, daughter and son of Aylmer, Ont. motored down the day before but had to start back after the gathering broke up.

There were also friends from Toronto, Oshawa, Peterborough, Madoc, Marmora and points east.

After dinner games and swimming others played ball while the balance of the crowd visited.

Then the sports committee called order and ran the sports as follows:

Girls' race, 5 years and under, Sirtha Bradshaw.

Boys' race, 5 years and under,—Claud Comerford, 1st; Andrew Harris, 2nd.

Ladies' egg and spoon race—Selma Caverly, 1st; Mrs. Ewart Harns, 2nd.

men's egg and spoon race—Ed. Blakely, 1st; Ewart Harns, 2nd.

Bean bag race open to 13 years and over—Mrs. H. Comerford and Miss Selma Caverly, captains, proved a tie.

Hook Tie race—Mr. George Westerly and Mrs. W. Bradshaw, 1st; Mr. Ewart Harns and Mrs. H. Comerford 2nd.

Youngest person on grounds—Jessie Marvin.

Youngest person on grounds — Marvin Caverly.

Then the business meeting was called and the following officers were chosen:—

President—O. W. Tucker, Belleville.

Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Selma Caverly, Aylmer, Ontario.

1st Toastmaster — Wesley Caverly of Oshawa.

2nd Toastmaster— Leonard Cain, Flint, Mich.

Sports Committee—Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Harns, Mr. Fred Spencer, Mr. Ewart Harns.

Music Committee— Bruce Oliver, H. Comerford, Reid, Flint.

It was decided to hold the next reunion on the same picnic grounds on July 1st, 1936.

After the meeting the ladies spread the tables again. The bastets were light when placed in them but before some several large watermelons were cut and served during the day. After supper when darkness the crowd broke up all well pleased with the picnic and looking forward along with others next year.

MRS. R. CRANSTON HOSTESS TO W. I

Phillipston, July 20—The regular meeting of the Phillipston-Zion Women's Institute was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. Cranston. There was a splendid attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Phillips and Mr and Mrs. Carl Clark spent Sunday near Phillips.

Mrs. M. Park, of Stirling, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. Ketcheson.

Church service and Sunday school was held at Bethel Church on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Baker and children of Trenton are visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. N. Carter for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Marshall and

Advertising Will Work For You—BUY BY READING Other Peoples WANT ADS

UP TO $50. EACH PAID FOR U. S. INDIAN HEAD CENTS

We buy all dates regardless of condition. Up to $50. each paid for 1877-S, Extra Fine coins. Up to $4. each paid for 1909 and earlier Cents in Fine condition. Send 10c for Buying Prices List, Coin Collectors' Guide, Booklet, Old Paper Money, Gold, etc. Send 25c for large illustrated price list and information. Satisfaction guaranteed or 2c refunded.

HUB COIN SHOP

128-130 FRONT ST. SARNIA - ONTARIO

Business Directory

AUTO LOANS

AND REFINANCING
Dealt with Owner Car Financing of All Kinds.

S. J. FISHER & SON
20 Bridge St. East Belleville Phone 3439

Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
London — Ontario — London — Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.G., CHIROPRACTOR and Drugless Therapist. Graduate Canadian Universities. Metro Method examination of spine. Neurocalometer used. Spinal and foot adjustments. Electrotherapy, Ultra Violet Ray and Infra-Red Rays. 67½ Bridge St. E., Belleville, Ont. Phone 1274.

DENTIST

DR. ROST. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
Phone 666 Bell Block Phone 666
17-39

RADIO SERVICE

JOHN A. DEWAR
ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR
Registered — Graduate
Phone 817
262 John St. 1-52

SURVEYORS

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Provincial Land Surveyor, Old Engineer. Land Surveying and Engineering Work promptly attended to.
PHONE 7 — P. O. BOX 69
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance
SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
251 Front St. Phone 120

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass.
172 Front St. Phone 1154-W

STOCKS & BONDS

RIDDAN AND CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange. 178 P. E. Wills branch manager. 8-tf

LEGAL

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND CO. (Successors to Wills & Wills), Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Solicitors for Merchants Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge Streets, Belleville, Ont.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Etc. Office: Corbett Building, Belleville.

T. J. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public, etc. Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 14. 26-42

FORSTER, PAYNE AND ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Solicitors for Dominion Bank. Cable Address, "Forster." Phone 38, Belleville, Ont.

FOSTON AND GRAHAM, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Solicitors for Bank of Montreal. Office: 30 Bridge St. East, Belleville. Money to loan on mortgages. W. S. Foston, K.C. S. J. Graham. Office Belleville.

DONNAN AND BUTLER, B. C. DONNAN, K.C. H. C. DONNAN, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public and Commissioners, etc. Solicitors for Standard Bank. Belleville, Ont. Phone 22.

For Sale 246 Charles Street

(Between Queen Street and Victoria Ave.)

FINE BRICK RESIDENCE

Beautiful rooms; 5 bedrooms; drawing room; living room; dining room; kitchen; garage; fine grounds.

LOW PRICE TO CLOSE AN ESTATE

Belleville Locators
GEO. M. GORMAN, Prop.
Phone 38 Home Phone 667

PHONE 99 Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages, 50c; Engagements, 50c; Deaths, 50c; Cards of Thanks, 50c; Resolutions of Condolence, 50c; Memorial Notices, 50c; Obituaries, 50c; Funeral Notices, $1.00; Florist Tributes, 50c a line; Lodge Notices, 50c a line; Church Notices, 50c a line; Reading Notices, $1.00 per line, over that 10c per count line; Lodge Resolutions, $5.00; Lodge Meeting Notices, 50c a line; Cards of Thanks, 50c a line; Lodge Installations, $5.00; Lodge Socials, 50c a line; Entertainments, 50c a line; Auction Sales, $5.00 per day; Auction Sales, 50c a line; Auction Sales, 50c a line; Auction Sales, 50c a line

Baseball
Current Sport

IN THE REALM OF SPORTING EVENTS

Golf
Bowling

Radios Move Up in Standing Defeating Kingston by 4-2 Behind Swell Mound Work

Clancy Shelled For Thirteen Hits, Four Being Extra Bases

DEFENCE GREAT

Kerr Pulls Off Two Swell Plays in Left Garden

Continuing their triumphant march, towards regaining the O.B.J.A. leadership, the Belleville Stewart-Warners mauled the Kingston Ponies on their own diamond to the tune of 6 to 2 last evening. The Radios cantered a concerted attack against the offerings of Red Clancy and pounded out 13 base hits, including three doubles and a triple by Smith. While all this was going on Jack Williams, local mound ace, practically silenced the Kingston lads as he scattered six Kingston hits, only once did the homesters get more than one single in any individual inning, that being in the second, when they scored two son's runs.

The Mills-ieg aggregation time in a sparkling effort both offensively and defensively as they fattened their batting averages at the expense of Red Clancy. He then went on to give a marvelous defensive ball behind the stellar six-hit pitching of Williams, who was master of the situation from the barrier to the wire. The Kingston outfit showed flashes yet more than one single in any individual inning, that being in the second, when they scored two son's runs.

The Mills-leg aggressive time in a sparkling effort both offensively and defensively as they fattened their batting averages at the expense of Red Clancy. He then went on to give a marvelous defensive ball behind the stellar six-hit pitching of Williams, who was master of the situation from the barrier to the wire. The Kingston outfit showed flashes yet more than one single in any individual inning, that being in the second, when they scored two son's runs.

The Radios took second place in the league standings on with this win of Peterboro. Williams possessed more speed than he is reputed to have displayed in his debut as a curve ball and screw ball specialty ball and hitters throughout.

Baseball Starter's Duet

The game was a typical pitcher's battle with Williams coming down in fronts of Clancy. Both hurlers struck out six opposing batters, but Williams came down in the pinches and made his efforts count. Each hurler allowed one big inning to the initial sack as well. On the other side of the ledger, however, Williams scattering six singles well while the Kingston outfit safeties, getting more than one hit per inning in five different frames. The Radios had men on base when stranded on the base paths.

The big inning of the day was Dean Ford, local short stop, who helped himself to four hits, including a timely double, out of four official times at bat. Alex Scruton got the spherical over three singles as Jim Barclay counted a double and a single. Ivor Smith hit a three-base triple in the sixth, while Orvis Mc-Ilroy got the limelight when he doubled to score Ford in the second. Howth Smith, Kingston backstop for the day, was the next wielder for the home nine, he getting three hits in four of four tries. "Bert" Scruton helped himself to two singles and a doubled while only other hit registered by the Ponies a single. Only three Kingston hitters were fortunate enough to get hits from the offerings of Williams, two of these being of a scrubby nature.

Besides hurling superb ball, Williams had his positions perfectly handling six chances nicely. The local outfield carried out their usual outstanding effort when collectively they bagged nine put outs, with Kerr exactly eight put outs with Kerr standing out when he took Kerr to task single with the latter hand to throw the runner out at second as he tried to stretch it in the eighth. This play ended the only possible's this play ended the only possible's Kingston rally after the second. Kingston rally after the second. Kingston really were big guns around Sonny Green were big guns around the keystone sack as he handled five chances superbly McIlroy and Ford had a comparatively easy day as did R. Smith and Barclay.

Rain interfered and halted activities in the game for a period of five or five minutes. The victory tour of five minutes. The victory tour of five minutes. The victory was the eighth for the Mills-led aggregation and moves them into second place while the Mills-led aggregation can move into the league leadership by defeating the Ponies in Belleville on Tuesday evening next.

◆ WILLIAMS BEST

	AB	R	H	PO	A
Belleville	4	0	0	0	4
Kerr, l.f.	3	1	1	2	1
Barclay, c.	4	0	2	5	0
Weir, c.f.	4	0	0	2	0
Green, 2nd.	3	1	1	3	2
Smith, 1st.	4	1	3	0	0
Ford, s.s.	4	1	3	0	2
McIlroy, 3rd.	4	0	1	1	3
Williams, p.	4	0	0	0	4
Total	34	4	11	27	16
Kingston	AB	R	H	PO	A
Scruton, l.f.	4	0	2	4	0
Arnie, c.	4	0	0	6	1
Scruton, c.f.	4	0	0	1	0
McQuaide, c.f.	4	1	1	1	0
R. Smith, 1st.	4	0	3	7	0
Quinn, 2nd.	3	0	0	1	2
Cummings, s.s.	3	0	0	2	3
Stone, 1st.	3	0	0	8	1
Clancy, p.	3	1	0	0	3
Total	30	2	6	27	11

Score by innings: R H E
Belleville ..... 110 003 000—6 11 0
Kingston ..... 000 000 000—2 6 3

Summary—Errors, Quinn, Compeau, Stone, Barclay, Red Clancy. Belleville 6, Kingston 2. Two base hits Barclay, Ford, McIlroy, Scruton. Three base hit, R. Smith. Runs batted in, Barclay, McIlroy, R. Smith, Ford, Compeau 2. Sacrifice hit, Quinn. Struck out, by Williams 4, by Red Clancy 3. Bases on balls, off Williams 1, off Clancy 1. Hit by pitched ball, by Williams (Stone). Left on bases, Belleville 7, Kingston 4. Umpires, Meagher, Belleville; Carrigan, Kingston. Time, 1 hour, 50 minutes.

Third Innings

Belleville—Kerr was thrown out by Compeau. Barclay went out the same way. Weir singled to right. Green skied to Scrutton. 0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

Kingston—Clancy grounded to Williams. Scrutton was thrown out by Ford. Arnie struck out. 0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

Fourth Innings

Belleville—R. Smith was safe on Cummings's error. Williams struck out. McIlroy struck out. Williams did the same—3 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

Kingston—St. Louis skied to McQuaide. McQuaide whiffed. R. Smith singled to left. Quinn whiffed—0 runs, 1 hit, 0 errors.

Fifth Innings

Belleville—Grey dumped one to Clancy. Kerr struck out. Barclay threw out by R. Smith. 0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

Kingston—Compeau grounded to Williams. McQuaide whiffed. Scruton out by Ford. Arnie struck out. 0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

Sixth Innings

Belleville—Weir skied to Scrutton. Green singled to left. R. Smith singled to right, Green. Ford singled to right scoring R. Smith. McIlroy flied to McQuaide. Williams skied to Scrutton.—2 runs, 2 hits, 0 errors.

Kingston—Cummings doubled to right centre. Arnie skied to Green. Cummings scored on Stone's single to left. Clancy skied to Weir.—0 runs, 2 hits, 0 errors.

Seventh Innings

Belleville—Grey grounded to Compeau. Kerr was thrown out by Clancy. Barclay walked. Weir singled to left. Green struck out.—0 runs, 1 hit, 0 errors.

Kingston—R. Smith beat out an infield hit. Quinn skied to Grey. Compeau struck out. Stone popped to Williams.—0 runs, 1 hit, 0 errors.

Eighth Innings

Belleville—R. Smith grounded to Stone, Clancy covering the bag. Ford scratched a hit to second. McIlroy skied to Scrutton. Williams scratched a hit to Compeau.— 0 runs, 2 hits, 0 errors.

Kingston—Clancy grounded to Stone. Scrutton singled to left and Kerr threw to Ford who relayed it to Green, catching Scrutton at second. Arnie walked. St. Louis grounded to Williams.—0 runs, 1 hit, 0 errors.

Ninth Innings

Belleville—Kerr skied to Compeau. Barclay singled to left. Weir singled through second. Green popped to Quinn. R. Smith whiffed.—0 runs, 2 hits, 0 errors.

Kingston—McQuaide struck out. H. Smith struck out. Quinn skied to Weir.—0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

MERCANTILE SOFTBALL STANDING

	W.	L.	T.	Pts.
London Lunch ..	5	1	1	11
Ont. Intel.	4	2	0	8
Dominion	4	2	0	8
Recreation	3	3	0	6
Gen. Hardware ..	3	4	0	6
Loblaw's	2	4	0	4
C. D. S.	2	4	0	4
Finch's	1	5	0	2

AIRPORT TEAM WINS AT SOCCER

Defeat Trenton United 4-0 For Their First Loss

Trenton, July 20 (Special) — The Airport Rangers (Relief Project No. 38) soccer team took the wind out of the Trenton United team sails last night when they trounced them 4 to 0. The game was played on the Dowsie Cemiter field. This was a scheduled game in the Trenton and District League, and the first game that the United boys have lost, they have had one draw, with Brighton.

Carrying the play constantly into the Trenton territory the halves and goalie were hard pressed at times to save many close shots. Trenton, during the first half only had three or four close shots at Murphy, the Rangers' goalie. T. Smeddon came in on one loose ruh but Murphy was forced to kick out of bounds to save.

After ten minutes of hard play Daly received the first goal when he kicked and the ball slipped through Wall's hands. Within next minutes the Rangers scored again after Wall had made a save but Daly, following closely with him when he went to kick clear. Before the first half ended they augmented a free kick after Woodcare fouled, and the ball was headed in for the third tally. Constance and Daly were constant threats on the Trenton goal mouth, but failed to make quick returns when the Trenton defence broke down in their territory. The United team continued to press during the last half but their efforts to make a counter were in vain. Score at half time, Rangers 3, Trenton 0.

During the remaining half the battle raged fiercely, and when Constance broke through the United defence, beat Potts and Scudden, to counter. Howels and Daly each tried a penalty kick but Wall was alert to save each time.

Final score, Rangers 4, Trenton 0. Referee—Percival Morris, R.C.A.F.; Linesmen, A. Cantlay, E. Jones.

The line-up:

Airport Rangers— Goal, Murphy; backs, Scudden and Taylor; halves, Harris, Howels, Moore; forwards, Cantrell, Mallard, Smeddon and Robertson.

Trenton United — Goal, Wallbacks, Snoddon, Potts; halves, Austin, James, Woodcare; forwards, Smallwood, Brown, Knapton, Cornish, Moon.

Wooler 16; Canada Buds 4

The Canada Buds softball team in the Trenton and District League took their third defeat at the hands of the Wooler team at the Bayshore diamond last night. The score was 16 to 4. The fans expected the Canada Buds to walk away with a victory but the Wookerites had a different idea on the subject and in spite of all they could do the Wooler boys slashed the ball hard after one time while at bat.

In the opening the visitors stepped into the lead and held it throughout. The Buds were unable to score during the first five innings and only registered three hits during that time. Clarke pitched for Wooler, was the shining light of the hill, having two home runs, two singles and a two base hit to his credit. His first home run was made in the first inning with Putnam and Fox on bases.

Herm Chambers, outfielder for the Buds, made their first counter on a home run in the fifth. K. Chambers, Waldron and M. Kennedy made the remaining three runs in the last. Free did some nice pitching for Wooler and also had a home run to his credit.

The Canada Buds are still the goosechasers in the league.

Score by innings:

Wooler	...312 710 2—16
Canada Buds	...000 0013— 4

The line-up:

Canada Buds—L. Johnson, s.s.; G. Bowden, 3rd; B. Miller, c; H. Long, 1st; G. Rosenpiel, 2nd; E. Chambers, c.f.; B. Waldron, l.f.; M. Kennedy, r.f.; S. Sager (a to bat for Long); H. Chambers, p.

Wooler—Putnam, ss.; Curry, 3rd; Fox, c; Claude Ruitan, cf; Redcliffe 2nd; Bryant, r.f.; Free, p.; Sleeper, lf.; Reid, 1st.

◆ YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By The Associated Press)

Lou Warneke, Cubs: Held Giants to one scattered hits, scored one run and drove in two.

Julius Solters and Tom Carey, Browns: Solters led attack on Yankees with three straight singles; Carey hit two doubles in Major League debut.

Arky Vaughan, Pirates: Hit ninth inning homer tied score against Braves and paved way for victory.

Vernon Kennedy and Al Simmons, White Sox: Duel to start which rally against Red Sox.

Emerson Dickman, Reds: Pitched five-hit shutout against Phillies.

Tigers Slash Yankees' Lead To Half Game in American "Crucial Series" Next Week

Detroit Wins And Yanks Lose To Decrease Margin

CARDS STOPPED

Shutout by Dodgers After Winning Fourteen Straight

(By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

There are a lot of indications that the Second Division Clubs may ruin the last wrong the National League pennant race this season and one of them—Brooklyn—has just spoken in rather decisive tones.

Dodgers, Reds, Cubs hold fifth place, which they regained a few days ago by trimming Pittsburgh four games running, stepped out Cardinals' great winning streak, which was promising to carry Frankie Frisch's men right up to the top after five successive victories, the best string of the season. Cincinnati's mates Dodgers a bit as Johnny Babich set the Cardinals down with only five hits while his teammates batted out a 3-0 victory.

The Reds made two costly errors to let one run score and, Bill Walker let the Phillies down with a single in the other two. The Cards didn't have any serious scoring chances and Daly were constant threats on the Trenton goal mouth, but failed to make quick returns when the Trenton defence broke down in their territory. The United team continued to press during the last half but their efforts to make a counter were in vain. Score at half time, Rangers 3, Trenton 0.

During the remaining half the battle raged fiercely, and when Constance broke through the United defence, beat Potts and Scudden, to counter. Howels and Daly each tried a penalty kick but Wall was alert to save each time.

Final score, Rangers 4, Trenton 0. Referee—Percival Morris, R.C.A.F.; Linesmen, A. Cantlay, E. Jones.

The line-up:

Airport Rangers— Goal, Murphy; backs, Scudden and Taylor; halves, Harris, Howels, Moore; forwards, Cantrell, Mallard, Smeddon and Robertson.

Trenton United — Goal, Wallbacks, Snoddon, Potts; halves, Austin, James, Woodcare; forwards, Smallwood, Brown, Knapton, Cornish, Moon.

Wooler 16; Canada Buds 4

The Canada Buds softball team in the Trenton and District League took their third defeat at the hands of the Wooler team at the Bayshore diamond last night. The score was 16 to 4. The fans expected the Canada Buds to walk away with a victory but the Wookerites had a different idea on the subject and in spite of all they could do the Wooler boys slashed the ball hard after one time while at bat.

In the opening the visitors stepped into the lead and held it throughout. The Buds were unable to score during the first five innings and only registered three hits during that time. Clarke pitched for Wooler, was the shining light of the hill, having two home runs, two singles and a two base hit to his credit. His first home run was made in the first inning with Putnam and Fox on bases.

Herm Chambers, outfielder for the Buds, made their first counter on a home run in the fifth. K. Chambers, Waldron and M. Kennedy made the remaining three runs in the last. Free did some nice pitching for Wooler and also had a home run to his credit.

The Canada Buds are still the goosechasers in the league.

Score by innings:

Wooler	...312 710 2—16
Canada Buds	...000 0013— 4

The line-up:

Canada Buds—L. Johnson, s.s.; G. Bowden, 3rd; B. Miller, c; H. Long, 1st; G. Rosenpiel, 2nd; E. Chambers, c.f.; B. Waldron, l.f.; M. Kennedy, r.f.; S. Sager (a to bat for Long); H. Chambers, p.

Wooler—Putnam, ss.; Curry, 3rd; Fox, c; Claude Ruitan, cf; Redcliffe 2nd; Bryant, r.f.; Free, p.; Sleeper, lf.; Reid, 1st.

LEAFS SHUT OUT BY THE ROYALS

Allowed Only Two Hits, Ray Fritz And Appleton Doing Hurling

The Newark Bears are hanging up a record that they are not exactly proud of.

Last night they took another licking from the Syracuse Chiefs, 9-8, to run their losing streak to 13 straight. Besides it was the seventh time this season that Syracuse has defeated them.

It looked for a while as though the luckless Bears were going to pull out of their losing succession. They were leading 8-7 going into the last half of the ninth and then the home club pulled out the win on a single by Blemlice, a triple by Cans and three bases on balls. Cans, who turned in some beautiful pitching during the game, just skimmed the left field foul line with his three base blow.

The Newarkans was in the box for Newark and Johnny Day, who held the Bears hitless in the last two innings was credited with the Syracuse victory.

The Montreal Royals whose ten game winning spurt was shattered by Toronto yesterday, defeated the Maple Leafs 2-0 with Ray Fritz and Pete Appleton turning in some fine pitching.

The Montreal hurlers allowed the Leafs who are usually pretty good with the stick, two safe hits, Fritz pitched superb ball for eight innings being rushed when Toronto threatened. Appleton stopped the sudden rally before the Leafs could score a single run.

The Buffalo Bisons downed the Rochester Red Wings 6-3, registering their sixth victory in seven starts. Mod Lisenbee allowed nine hits, two of them homers, but he kept them fairly well scattered.

Joint-Party Debate In P.E.I. Elections

Charlottetown, July 20—(CP)—Joint-platform meetings of the vigorous Joint-debate variety fast dying out in Canada were planned for tonight throughout Prince Edward Island as the final gatherings in the provincial election campaign Tuesday.

Final meetings at which Liberal and Conservative speakers battled it out on the same platforms were held last night in Charlottetown, Vernon River, Webster's Corner, Hesbardeaks and Souris.

BASEBALL—C.O.B.L.

EXHIBITION GROUNDS, BELLEVILLE, ON

TUESDAY, JULY 23, at 6:15 p.m. D.S.T.

KINGSTON (Ponies) ... vs ... BELLEVILLE (Stewart Warners)

The Radios can edge into first place by winning this tilt. The locals are playing smart ball. Come! Usual Admission.

CURRENT SPORT

DAY BY DAY

"Gangway" shouted the Radios yesterday as they mauled Red Clancy and the Kingston Ponies 4 to 2. Incidentally four things stood out in yesterday's Belleville at Kingston C.O.B.L. game. First the marvelous pitching of Williams, second the brand of defensive ball provided by his team mates, thirdly the power shown by the locals at bat and lastly the two feature plays made by Centre Fielder Kerr in left. Kerr ran back in the initial frame and caught St. Louis' line drove over his left shoulder while in the eighth he trapped Scruton's line drive single on the dead run and threw the "sorrel top" out as he tried to stretch it.

In reality Williams should have had a shut out as a couple of errors of judgment in succession allowed the homesters to notch their only two counters. Incidentally after looking back over assisted runs there we find that Williams has only defeated the locals once in two years on the Kingston field. Which means, might I say that Clancy hurled a fair sort of ball game when he blanked the Reds as the Radios mauled him for 11 safeties, including doubles by Barclay, Ford, McIlroy and a triple by Roy Smith.

Incidentally, when the Radios collected 13 safeties last night they duplicated their feat of Tuesday last when they hit Russ Kitchen for an equal amount of hits, making a total of 26 hits registered by the Radios during their last two games. The more surprising feature of the batting powers of the locals is the fact the tall end hitters are cuffing the pellet with a degree of accuracy. Incidentally every member of the Mills led aggregation helped himself out to at least one hit except Sonny Grey, another feature similar to that of Tuesday when eight out of the nine local hitters arrived at the initial sack via the safe hit route. All the Radios need now is a win over the Ponies here next Tuesday evening and they will be back on top of the perch once again.

In a regular scheduled South Shaughnessy League game played at Canniston last night, the home team defeated Toronto 5 to 4 to move up the league ladder. Loucks and Jarrell formed the Canniston battery while Ashley and Ketcheson worked as battery-mates for the home.

In case our Peterboro and Oshawa contemporaries were unable to provide themselves with an official baseball guide we inform the quota in No. 70 "the scoring of base hits" which reads:

Sec. 5—A base hit shall be scored in the following cases:

When a fair hit is made as defined in Rule 37, and the batsman reaches first base safely.

When a fair hit ball is partially or wholly stopped by a fielder in motion, but such player cannot recover himself in time to field the ball to first before the batsman reaches that base, or to some other base in time to force out another runner.

When the ball is hit with such force to an infielder or pitcher that he makes a battle it in time to put the batsman or force out a base runner; except when the ball is recovered by another fielder in time to retire the batsman or force out a base runner. "In case of doubt over this kind of hit, a base hit should be scored. The batsman should be credited with the charge of an error."

Also, when the ball is hit so slowly towards a fielder that he cannot handle it in time to put out the batsman or force out a base runner, etc. (These rules clearly define the definition of when a base hit should be credited a batsman and we hope our efforts in copying the rule will be duly recognized by our Reverend and Oshawa paleies.) "You are welcome, boys."

Two automobiles and an equal number of truffers were needed yesterday to transport the Belleville Aajaxa Canoe Club to Ottawa where they compete in the northern division of the C.A.A.U. at Ottawa, New Edinburg course, to-day. Skipper Bill Fry expects much of his ace double blade star, Karl Gruber, ex-C.C.A. champion paddler. Gruber and paddlers have been entered in six events at Ottawa. Double blade singles, Karl Gruber and Jack Murphy; junior single, Louis Maraskas and Art Liddle; double blade tandem, Karl Gruber and Jack Murphy; junior double blade tandem, Liddle and Maraskas; junior fours, Capizzi and stroke Rod Davidson, Ken Doyle, Louden Hainsah and Jack Doyle. Karl Gruber is also entered in the intermediate singles. The winners from today's meet will compete in the annual Canadian Canoe Association's regatta later next month. Incidentally a contingent of paddlers from Winnipeg are expected to compete in Ottawa today, naturally making the going tough for our bugler for C.A.A.U. This is the first year in over a decade that Belleville has competed in the northern division, but Skipper Fry was quite optimistic over the chances. Canadian's regatta later left for the east yesterday.

A tidy pitchers' battle resulted when the Aalmaas returned to winning ways and defeated the Young Canadians Club 8 to 5 Tuesday in a regular scheduled senior softball game last evening. The Aalmaas collected seven runs and five of their eight hits in the initial frame which was the deciding one. Winning was the first when they scored four of their runs on five of their seven hits. Johnnie Bawden, hurling for the Aalmaas, and Bunt Milner, behind the fillings for the loers, were both in rare form and pitched a neat game, from Belleville working in the C.O.B.L. in the near future. Quite a prophet, this young man, but we must admit much the veracity of his announcement, as Belleville defeated Trenton in a fine effort last evening in Kingston."

Once again labouring under deadlines, or scrapbook, the Peterboro sport scribe says there may be additional surprises from Belleville working in the C.O.B.L. in the near future. Quite a prophet, this young man, but we must admit much the veracity of his announcement, as Belleville defeated Trenton in a fine effort last evening in Kingston."

FROM THE LOTS—Gerry Nugent, left, proxy of the Phils, signs Fritz Lucas, sandlot outfield star.

VON CRAMM, GERMAN ACE, STANDS IN PATH OF U. S. DAVIS CUP HOPES

Standing in the path of the United States Davis Cup team bidding for the return of the Davis Cup to America was the German team, which was to be met in the interzone finals at Wimbledon, July 18 to 21, Baron Gottfried von Cramm, star of the German team, was expected to bear the brunt of the battle against the invaders from the United States—Donald Budge, Wilmer Allison, Johnny Van Ryn, Sidney Wood and Gene Mako. Allison and Van Ryn were forecast as likely win-

Batting Leaders

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Hitting—Johnson, Athletics, .348; Vosmik, Indians, .345.

Runs — Gehringer, Tigers, 75; Greenberg, Tigers, 72.

Runs batted in—Greenberg, Tigers, 110; Johnson, Athletics, 73.

Hits—Cramer, Athletics, 117; Gehringer, Greenberg, Tigers, 116.

Doubles — Greenberg, Tigers, 29; Werber, Red Sox, 25.

Triples—Stone, Senators, 12; Cronin, Red Sox, 11.

Home runs—Greenberg, Tigers, 26; Johnson, Athletics, 19.

Stolen bases—Werber, Red Sox, 16; Almada, Red Sox, 14.

Pitchers—Thomas, Yankees, 7-2; Lyons, White Sox, 10-3.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Batting—Medwick, Cardinals, .384; Medwick, Cardinals, .363.

Runs—Medwick, Cardinals; Ott, Giants, 72.

Runs batted in—Collins, Cardinals, 71; Ott, Giants, 76.

Hits — Medwick, Cardinals, 132; Terry, Giants, 117.

Doubles—Martin, Cardinals; Herman, Cubs, 25.

Triples—Goodman, Reds, 10; Suhr, Pirates, Boyle, Dodgers, 9.

Home runs—Medwick, Cardinals, 21; Collins, Cardinals, 18.

Stolen bases—Martin, Cardinals, 11; Bordagaray, Dodgers, 10.

THE RED TIGER

By ALANSON CROSBY

"No," said Captain McMahon. "It's just as I thought—a wild goose chase. I'm terribly sorry, Miss Madison. I don't blame you for feeling sore. But you needn't bother about re-setting—re-removed—I'm going to resign the first thing I do when I get back to the police station. No man who will let a silly gyrol make a monkey of him has any business being a chief of police." He glared angrily at Sally. "Come on, Foley. This farce is ended as far as we're concerned."

"Wait!" commanded Sally. "You said you spoke of the roof, Miss Madison. I have been a fool. I've felt all along there was something we were neglecting. Why couldn't you think of the word till you mentioned roof? The cellar! There's one here—and we're going through it!"

"DID YOU RING, MA'AM?"

CHAPTER 23

"It really doesn't matter," said Mack the Dip after his first disappointment in finding he could not release Randall Spencer from his dungeon cell. "We'll have you out soon enough. McMahon, another cop and that red-headed reporter are upstairs, making a futile search for Miss Bates. Your girl friend's with them, he turned to Judith, "and she's got more sense than all the rest of them put together. But for her, Miss Madison would have bluffing 'em off the place. But you may be sure she'll find some way to keep them out of this cellar. I thought I'd tell you, because Mr. Spencer won't just walk in on them and give them a pleasant surprise. There's danger, though. That red-headed reporter, Sam, will stop at nothing and he may be looking for Spencer. Alone we could handle him all right if we should encounter him. As it is, we'd better play safe. I'll put you back in your cell, Miss Bates, go back upstairs, spill the beans, and bring that dumb-bell McMahon, and the rest down here. We'd better not lose any time, either. I think Miss Madison suspects me, and she's mighty resourceful. She'll probably use my absence I'm likely to have a set-to with Sam before I can get back upstairs—and he'd just love to cut my throat."

"Sally here? —God bless her!" said Judith. "And Bob and Captain McMahon! Everything will be plenty of time for explanations later on. And now your schemes is precious. You had better come back with me at once, Miss Bates. If Sam finds you here there'll be the devil to pay."

"You're right," said Spencer. "We owe everything to you, and we will go as you say. Goodbye, sweetheart, for a very short time."

He kissed her fervently and he and Judith instantly turned away at Dick's beck.

They climbed the semi-lit passage, with its twists and turns, in silence, Judith's heart beating like a trip-hammer with an instinctive sense of lurking danger, which might burst into reality at the next turn.

And suddenly it did. They came face to face with Sam, the red-haired servant and consential cut-throat, Foley, well behind him, and Dick hastily. "This will be serious!"

Even in the semi-darkness Judith could discern a gloating, malicious leer on the deformed face of the man in front of them, as though he was anticipating a pleasant slaughter. He even laughed a horrible, smirking chuckle, and made the fatal mistake of pausing to boast before starting the bloodletting.

"You ——— double crosser, I've got you at last!" he cried as he crouched to spring on Dick. Judith caught the glint of a long-bladed knife in his hand. She had not noticed that Dick's right hand was in the pocket of his coat. Judith screamed involuntarily as Sam sprang at Dick.

But the same instant the sound of an automatic reverberated through the passage. Sam's left arm was upset the knife intended for his heart. Sam lay writhing on the floor, a wondering, malevolent expression on his face, staring at the splotch of blood on his shirt front. Judith gazed fascinated, speechless, horror-stricken, at the gunsmoke or twice before the knife fell from his lifeless fingers.

"Sorry," said Dick, "that this had to happened in your presence, Miss—but it's all right—and I've got a pretty nasty cut on my arm."

For the first time Judith noticed the blood spurting from Dick's left arm and instantly forgot all else—she was diverted from the well-merited fate of Miss Madison's perfect servant.

"Oh, let me bandage it!" she cried.

"If you don't mind," said Dick calmly. "Here's a handkerchief. That will do till we get upstairs."

With shaking fingers in spite of their trembling, Judith soon had the wound—it was a deep gash—and a contusion above the injury, from a sixty horn dog, in her shirt sleeve.

"Well, we've passed the worst danger," said Dick. "And if Mr. Spencer knows Miss Bates' note is right dick. Perhaps we had better go back and relieve everybody's mind all right, Or you may go alone, if you wish, and I'll remain down here."

"Thank you," said Judith, "I'll go alone if you don't mind, and you can bring Sally and Captain McMahon and all of them down."

"Good," said Dick. "I don't think you are in any further danger. There is but one entry to this cellar and we'll all be guarding that."

So Judith rejoined her companions and Dick stepped over the corpse of Sam, headed for the stairs.

Miss Madison turned quickly upon Sally as she announced her determination to investigate the cellar. The malevolent fury of her expression caused stout Sally's heart to leap in double time even as it confirmed her suspicions.

"This outrage has gone far enough!" Miss Madison declared, with the first real show of passion she had displayed. "I appeal to you, Capt. McMahon, to stop this farce, now. There's nothing in my cellar but some valuable antiques, which may be seriously injured by being pawed over. I will not submit to it!"

"Yeah!" said Sally unsympathetically. "Well, we're going to have a look—see, at the antiques."

"Captain McMahon, if you permit this outrage you will suffer for it far more than a mere dismissal from the police force. I warn you that I have powerful friends and resources. This insult will not be unavenged. I am willing to overlook what has gone before, but emphatically I will not permit my cellar to be ransacked!"

Miss Madison faced Captain McMahon trembling with rage, her cold blue eyes seeming lit with an inner and consuming fire. The Captain, fearful of the consequences of what he had already gone on, grasped at the promise of immunity if the cellar were not disturbed.

"You are right, ma'am," he asserted. "We shall not disturb your cellar, for far as my department is concerned, this is ended—and sorry I am, maam, that we had a bobby rag you in the least. Come on, Foley." And without a glance at Bob and Sally, he started for the door, Sergeant Foley at his heels most willingly.

Miss Madison turned a triumphant unfeeling face toward Bob and Sally.

"You will oblige me by leaving my premises at once—or I'll have my butler eject you."

Forgetful for the moment of the butler's absence, she pressed the button that ordinarily summoned him to the drawing room. The effect was astonishing.

Richard, the gray-haired butler, appeared unbruised, his left arm bare and bandaged, with some blood coagulating through the bandage, his white hair seeming to set awry on his head.

He bowed gravely, yet sardonically "Did you ring, ma'am?"

"What does this mean, Richard?" demanding Miss Madison, a sudden suspicion of the truth flashing across her even as she spoke.

"It means the jig's up," said the homicidal butler. "That's your hurry, McMahon! Wait!"

The astonished chief of police turned in his tracks.

"Talking!" hissed Miss Madison. "You'll pay for this!"

"What the devil? Who are you?" demanded the confusing McMahon.

"You're losing your hair!" said Sally, with strange amusement. Somehow she sensed a denouement that was enjoying it in anticipation.

The butler grinned and pulled off his white wig.

"Well, I'll be damned if it ain't Dick the Dip!" puffed McMahon. "Put the nippers on him, Foley! He's wan that got away from us in the 'Red Tiger' clean-up. I thought your ugly face was familiar when I first saw you in here. If you ain't got a nerve impudin' on a lady and hidin' from the police as her butler! Well, this fool's errand has had one good result anyhow. Put the nippers on him, Foley. He's a shipped vagabond!"

"Hold your from the neck up is McMahon!" was Sally's audible comment.

"Don't be any more of a fool than you have to be, McMahon," said the pseudo butler sharply. He waved Foley and his "nippers" aside. "I can show you all the credentials you needy to establish my identity. There's something more important before you than arresting a bogus small-time crook."

"He's a detective," said Sally exultantly to Bob, who was only a little less astonished than Captain McMahon. "I thought as the minute he came in with his bandaged arm and his white wig all kitty-cornered."

"You'd better put your handcuffs on that wrecker," said Dick, "or she will get away from you yet —Where is she?"

The detective wheeled suddenly to find that Miss Madison had slipped unnoticed away.

"Cecil" he exclaimed, "here I am—myself like a lamb and not lift my out of our clutches! Come on, McMahon—to the cellar! If she's gone down there, I'll break her neck!"

He rushing for the narrow passage at the end of the hall, where the door leading to the cellar stairs. The others followed, strongly impressed by his excitement.

Sally, Bob and Judith exchanged glances.

"Bolted from the inside!" he gasped. "She's down there! Quick, Dick the door or something, or we'll be too late!"

THE STRENGTH OF MADNESS

CHAPTER 24

Judith finished telling Randall Spencer of the encounter with Sam in the passage, and the death of the red-haired servant.

"I heard the shot—faintly," said Spencer. "I—I—I see everything plainly in this terrible place! You can imagine my anxiety better than I can describe it. I feared the worst. I almost tore the flesh off my hands in my frantic effort to wrench the bars out of this door and come to your aid. Then I heard voices, and with you if you were dead. My God, I thought you were, though I had aged ten years in 5 hours!"

Judith kissed the haggard care-worn face pressed to the bars.

"I know, dear! It has been terrible—but the worst is all over now. Dick is upstairs before this, and Captain McMahon and Bob and Sally will come, and they'll force these bars and release you and our troubles will be over."

But even as she spoke she sensed a curious and inexplicable tenseness, and as she stood with her face close to Spencer's saw a sudden expression of despair cloud his countenance, and he ejaculated the word.

TO BE CONTINUED

Little Benny's Note Book

THE WEEKLY NEWS

Weather. Perfect.

Maud Jonson's grandmother is suffering from a partly sprained ankle as a result of showing Maud some new tricks with a skipping rope. We are trying to prove how good her hart still is.

SURELY NOT

Mr. Peter Weaver was again in our mist is perfect health Saturday afternoon after being confined to his bed Saturday morning by 2 mischeevous boys with a clothes line while he was still asleep.

AVERY INTERESTING

Do you have trouble with knots in your shoestrings? Our expert knott tyer will inspect you last every afternoon and make any necessary repairs so you can go to bed in comfort. Reasonable rates. The Ed. Wernick and Lew Davis Undoing Co.

BIZZNESS AND FINANCIAL

Sam Cross payed Reddy Mirfy back the cent he owed him with interist last Thersday, saving he didn't have it at first and chanzing his mind when Reddy offered to punish him ons in the snoot, the intrist being shown by those present including Benny Potts, Sid Hunt, Glanes Magee and Mary Watkins.

INTRESTING FACKS ABOUT

Puds Samkin's favorite fruit' is banananas, not being sure how many would be the most he could eat at one time on account of always having had to stop by request before he would of stopped by instinct.

FARMERS IN NEED OF HARVEST HELP

Moira, July 20.—The weather has cleared once more and the farmers are taking advantage of it. Everything in this section certainly points to a bumper crop and farm help seems decidedly hard to procure. However, at the present time a green escaped Roger's lips as he watched the wonderful. The words were drowned in the propeller's roar. Usanga had learned his lesson sufficiently well so that he started the motor without bungling, and the airplane was soon under way across the level meadowland.

Distracted, the young lieutenant realized that, if by some wonderful luck, Usanga could succeed in rising above the tree tops, there was but one chance in a hundred thousand that he could ever land without killing his fair captive and himself . . . But what was that?

Tarzan of the Apes had been hunting for two days. Swinging in a large circle he had returned to near where he had left Opa and the British lieutenant. Moving as a bronze statue, he crouched above a pool. Suddenly there was a crashing in the undergrowth.

By George McManus

BRINGING UP FATHER—

By Russ Westover

TILLIE THE TOILER—

By The Famous Explorer Martin Johnson

DANGER TRAILS—

By Briggs

MR. AND MRS—

(Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service)

TARZAN THE UNTAMED—

Harrowing Experience of Mrs. Vera Foster

Mrs. Vera Foster is spending a few days with friends in Peterboro.

Mrs. Clarence Elliott and son Grant are staying with Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Thompson.

A number from here attended the installation service held at Huntingdon on Sunday evening when the Rev. H. A. Turner B.A., B.D., was inducted into the pastoral charge of the West - Huntingdon circuit.

Mrs. and Mrs. R. Ketcheson and Ross and Mrs. Joe Williams and family were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell at Chatterton.

The condition of Mr. George Thompson is still very serious. Friends are hoping for a change for the better shortly.

Miss Nina Beverly of Belleville is spending the vacation with her grandmother Mrs. J. L. Brickman.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Hazzard are the proud possessors of a new car.

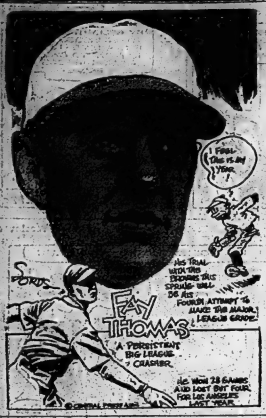
Miss Ruth Brickman is spending several weeks with friends in Peterboro.

Berry picking seems to be the order of the day for the women. The rattle of pails can be heard through the woods and all report a good crop of raspberries.

Mrs. Archie Bailey visited the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Scott recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mellinger attended the funeral of their nephew Clifford A. Mills who was unfortunate in marriage to Miss Rita Thompson, daughter of the late Charles Thompson and Mrs. Thompson of Stirling.

Dr. and Mrs. Girvin and children of Detroit are visiting at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. I. Vanderwater.



Mr. and Mrs. Andy McIlroy, Mr. and Mrs. Golden McIlroy were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McIlroy.

ONIONS FEEDING CANARIES

Waterford, July 19—Mrs. George Hodgen, Hesselah Corners, has a pair of young canaries which have graduated their affections from their mother to an onion, which drove the mother bird away from her young. The cage was hung outside in a tree with the baby canaries in their nest in it. The mother bird came and fed the little birds' appear to be thriving under the care of their adopted mother.

TO STAY IN ENGLAND

Southampton, England, July 19, —(AP)—Clive Brook, the British movie actor, arrived yesterday aboard the Aquitania and said he was giving up his home in Hollywood and would henceforth make England his headquarters.

SAVOLDI DROP-KICKS WAY TO VICTORY

Joe Savoldi, former star back of the Notre Dame football team shown leaping at the stomach of Irish Jack Donovan, feet first, during their wrestling match at Griffith stadium, Washington, recently. Although Savoldi's feet have obviously not reached Donovan's stomach, he seems to be letting out a bellow to inform the customers he had been badly hurt. Anyhow, he went down from the effects of this drop kick, and permitted his shoulders to be pinned to the mat. Another victory for the Hockney football system.

CHAMPION JUMPS—Barbara Sherman takes Grey Ray, champion, over the high hurdle in com petition in New York.

Two Surprised Citizens

FEW REALIZE to the full the tremendous selling power of the Classified Advertisements. Wanted, For Sale, To Rent, Help Wanted, Employment, etc. The Classified Page is perhaps the most widely read page in the paper and the reactions to Want Advs. are quick and snappy, as those who have ever tried them have realized.

The lady who advertised in this paper for a second hand wringer Wednesday phoned early Thursday morning saying: "Please take that advertisement for a wringer out, I have had my choice of fifty and more are arriving every minute."

The Front Street business man who advertised an automobile for sale Wednesday evening had it sold before nine o'clock that night, and asked that the advertisement be taken out as enquiries were constantly coming in.

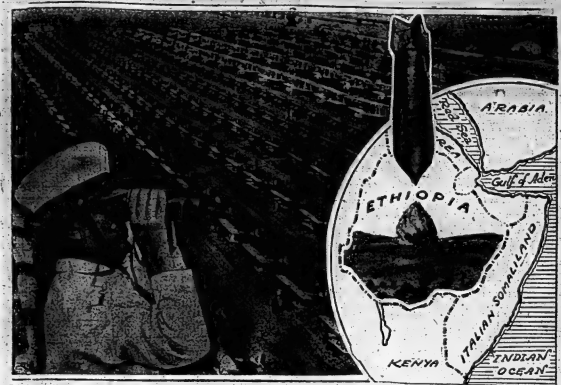
If you have anything to sell, rent or exchange, or want to buy or rent, or what have you—want a job or want to hire a man or woman, the Classified Advs. will do the trick so quickly you will think a miracle happened.

TWERTY WORDS FOR THIRTY CENTS.

Shoots Wife And Self; Shot Misses Motorist

Supposedly in a jealous rage, Lawrence Anderson, 34, of Colert, eight miles east of Minden, Ont., is reported to have shot his wife with a high-powered rifle, and then turned it on himself. Hearing shots then a scream, then another shot, neighbors found Mrs. Anderson lying on the floor of their cottage near the front door with a bullet in her side, and Anderson sprawled on the kitchen floor. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are shown at TOP, while BELOW is shown Robert McEwan, who was driving past the house when two shots plowed through his car windows, just missing him. Glass from the shattered window, also shown, cut his neck.

Reach Montreal on Planned Flight to Norway



Paul Cassaysan (LEFT) and Thor Solberg, (RIGHT), shown as they check charts and make last minute plans before hopping off from North America bound for Bergen, Norway by the northern transatlantic route. They made a fast and uneventful flight from Floyd Bennett airport, New York to Montreal on the first leg of the trip. Their departure and arrival was unexpected and a welcoming delegation at Montreal was not present when the fliers landed. BELOW is their seaplane the Leif Erickson. They will make the projected flight by easy stages.

Lost Uncle Leaves Wealth to Poor Relatives

All of his friends and acquaintances came into congratulate Abraham Starr, unemployed New York Foundry worker (on relief, when news arrived that an uncle he hadn't seen or heard of in thirty-five years had willed him, his sister and four brothers a $17,500,000 fortune amassed in South African diamond fields. Starr says he will give the inheritance to his wife (inset) to spread among their seven children and friends. A Montreal group of the deceased man's heirs are also eligible for part of the vast fortune and family lawyers are making frantic efforts to untangle the elusive legal tangle.

MUSSOLINI WILL RAIN BOMBS TO END 'LION OF JUDAH'S' REIGN

Bombs for Emperor Haile Selassie and scuds for any talons attempting to interfere with his announced intention of subjugating Ethiopia, is policy dictated for Italy by Premier Mussolini, who ordered 300 great bombing aeroplanes from this armada assembled at Rome to North Africa to deal with obstinate "Lion of Judah and Elect of God", Mussolini is seen viewing some of the damage done by bombers in manoeuvres.

MOSCOW TO 'FRISCO

Sigmund Lewanoffsky, noted Soviet airman who will head the crew of three in attempted non-stop 6,000-mile flight from Moscow to San Francisco by way of the North Pole in a single motored aeroplane. Success of flight may open east-west travel via pole, a route considerably shorter than round-world way.

JIMMY McLARNIN AND BRID ELEAVE ON HONEYMOON

Smilingly, Jimmy McLarnin, former world's welterweight champion, and his bride, the former Lillian Oupil, both of Vancouver, were fare-welled to friends on the dock as the S. S. Empress of Canada sails for Honolulu, where the newlyweds will spend the last part of their honeymoon. Upon their return from mid-Pacific, the McLarnin's expect to take up their residence in Oakland, California.

NO-ING "YESMAN"

Diplomats are supposed to be the mere "messenger boys" of their governments, but Yotaro Sugimura (above), Japanese ambassador to Italy, is giving one version of his conversation with Premier Mussolini over Japanese attitude toward Italo-Ethiopian war, and Japanese foreign office is giving another. Europe's chancelleries are reading deep significance in their difference.

'WELCOME' SAYS ONTARIO SIGN TO WESTERN TREKKERS

This picture shows the Winnipeg relief campers crossing the Ontario border en route to Ottawa at the "welcome" sign point, which proclaims to all and sundry coming from the direction of Manitoba, in vehicles or on foot, that the province of Ontario is glad to receive them. From all indications, no exception was made in the case of the Manitoba trekkers. Four Ontario provincial police are seen on the left taking to one of the Manitoba strikers, and making no effort to hinder the progress of the main body into the banner province of Canada. The marchers were heading first for Kenora. They stopped for several hours in the afternoon a quarter of a mile east of the Manitoba border. Police patrols every few miles looked them over from the side lines, but did not molest them. The police, however, closely examined all motor cars and trucks that came along for from Manitoba.

WEATHER
Partly cloudy and warm; local thunderstorms; moderate to fresh westerly winds. Tuesday—Partly cloudy; stationary or little lower temperature; local thunderstorms.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES

	max.	min.
Sunday	87	70
Today	85	72
Year Ago	88	58

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, MONDAY, JULY 22, 1935

3 DIRECTORS ONLY ESCAPE GODFREY'S CENSURE

NEWS BRIEFS AND COMMENTS

Dayton, O., July 22 (CP)—Joe Cox of Dayton bet a bottle of wine when he came to the 12th at Community Country Club yesterday, then did it and sank the same hole of the second round.

Cox, an Ohio State University tackle in 1933, drove with a No. 3 iron from the 211-yard downhill par 4 hole.

Kingston, Ont., July 22 (CP)—With the temperature standing at 92 in the shade, a man was arrested here yesterday afternoon by walking down the street in a fancy bathing costume.

Forest, Ont., July 22 (CP)—A new industry—turtle catching—is developing, up among the ponds at the town dump. It is said to be quite profitable. Small boys are now hunting and selling turtles to tourists. The prevailing price is 10 cents.

Milwaukee, July 22 (CP)—Mrs. Josephine Hoffman died in a good old Irish way when she went peacefully. Leaving the table to lay sleeping her head on the shoulder of her husband, Peter Hoffman, she died.

Funeral services were held immediately after the funeral was conducted. She shall be with Mary Magdalene, Mrs. Hoffman's name.

Gosfield, Ont., July 22 (CP)—Cowan Alderman, whose car was overturned not only the home and but another one with it on the roof of "here, Kitty, Kitty." Mr. Alderman's chauffeur came and walked to get out. There was trouble in the home and he found he had to take a car to extricate the car and began to shuffle around and found the animal finally was missing.

St. Thomas, Ont., July 22 (CP)—Municipal Utilities and the Board brought a total profit of $1,148 last week, or $1,000 more than the week previous. Chief Engineer Ogilvie, Chief P. Hopkins stationed behind the plate to umpire. The score was 4 to 3 in favor of Utilities, the tieing from behind to tally four runs in the last inning. Mrs. Chief Hopkins was the wife of Premier Hepburn's decision was final.

Regina, July 22 (CP)—Revival of baptism, meaning by Indians armed with bow and arrows has been attacked by the Saskatchewan section of Cruelty to Animal Association. The protest against such a heat phenomenon as a rain-in-Saskatchewan rumor has been sent to Hon. W. C. Davis, Attorney-General.

Shaunavon, Sask., July 22 (CP)—The town council has received a call for evening calls to be brought out of hiding. Complaints of the noise of the mosquitoes in the town outside the town council meeting with a five-year drought.

Regina, July 22 (CP)—A record has been made in death here were ordered. In the first case, Chester S. flew down a large 130-pound catfish by stealing 13 cakes of beer from a sealed car on Canadian Pacific Railway side track here last night.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., July 22 (CP)—A Kentucky tourist tells this:

While fishing near White River he caught a large trout. Preparing the fish for supper, he found a nugget in the stomach and he sent the fish to Ottawa to see if there was an advertisement for Ontario fishing.

"And that," said the tourist, "is advertising."

MANGLED BODY FOUND ON TRACK

Member of Railway Gang At Brechin, Victim

Orillia, Ont., July 22.—(CP)—The body of a badly mangled man, identified as that of Harry Turnbull, 32, of the extra boarding car railway gang, was found at Brechin, 6 miles from here, was found on the railway track just outside one of the boarding cars.

Apparently struck instantly by the westbound C.N.R. train, Turnbull was last seen about 10 o'clock one of the cars. He had returned from spending the evening in Brechin.

Turnbull had been with the railway gang for two years. He is believed to have a sister living in St. Catharines. She is stated to communicate with Constable Irwin Cox of Orangeville who investigated the accident.

SAY WIFE INCITED BROTHER-IN-LAW TO KILL HUSBAND

Police Allege Triangular Love Tragedy at Barry's Bay

17 YEAR BOY CHARGED

Police Say Wife Fell in Love With Brother of Husband

Renfrew, Ont., July 22.—(CP)—Provincial police began piecing together an apparent triangular love affair today which ended in the death yesterday of Albert Cowan, Barry's Bay farmer. They arrested his 26-year-old wife, claiming she incited his 17-year-old brother, Allan, to shoot him as he lay sleeping in his bed. Allan Cowan confessed, police said.

According to the police story, the 26-year-old wife fell in love with her young brother-in-law and obtained the brother's fling into her husband's head.

Both Mrs. Cowan and Allan were remanded a week when they appeared before Magistrate W. E. MacGregor today, pending the outcome of the inquest which has not been opened.

W. J. Johnston said he had a full confession from Allan Cowan, arrested while attending the wake of his brother. Mrs. Cowan, he said, refused to make any statement but admitted she had furnished Allan with the cartridge which was fired into her husband's head.

Constable Johnston quoted Allan Cowan as saying Mrs. Cowan's married five years, was not happy with her husband. If he were killed, told him she cared more for him.

Provincial Police Officer Cowan's story, he met his sister-in-law the Monday evening and she asked him if he was going to the dance.

"No what," Johnston asked him, "I did not," Cowan was quoting as replying.

"And what was that?"

"Murder," he allegedly replied. Constable said Allan Cowan related how he stole a rifle after his sister-in-law handed him a cartridge. He went to the dwelling house where Albert was sleeping on the ground floor. A window was raised a few inches and the rifle poked through.

"I pointed the gun at his head and pulling the trigger. I did not know if I had killed him," Allan Cowan was quoted as telling the police.

Allan threw the rifle in the lake on the way back to his father's house, police claimed.

ADMITS THEFT OF BEER

Sudbury, Ont., July 22 (CP)—Albert Marcel, 21, of Sudbury was remanded one day for sentence by Magistrate J. S. McKinnon when he pleaded guilty to stealing 13 cases of beer from a sealed car on Canadian Pacific Railway side track here last night.

Specially Constructed Automobile Used to Transport English Baby

Gloucester, Mass., July 22.—(AP)—Joe Randazza, 3½ months old, just about ready to give up his fight to wrest the "world's largest baby" title from the brow of Leslie Scott of Ramsgate, England.

Randazza now weighs 125 pounds, something of a record for a lad of three years and six months. But the English infant, two months younger tipped the scales at 143 lbs- and 12 to take a prize.

The homefolks are pulling for Joe—with the exception of his two aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Randazza. Mrs. Randazza is perturbed because her son is not a normal child as regards weight. He is one of six children, all of whom are normal for their age and Joe was

World's Chief Scout With American Leader

Lord Baden-Powell, who founded the Boy Scout movement in Great Britain, is shown with Mrs. Frederick Riley, American Girl Scout head at the New York luncheon given in

Mrs. Fallis of Peterboro One of Ten Appointed To Canadian Senate

Still Seven Vacancies to Fill Before Government Dissolves

PREMIER ON VACATION

Ottawa, July 22—(CP)—With Prime Minister R. B. Bennett absent on a week's holidays, an easing off in the intensive sittings of Cabinet council is expected this week. Nevertheless a number of meetings will take place to deal with urgent affairs of state and to discuss some further appointments unfilled in the long list announced during the weekend.

Personnel of the Wheat Board is yet to be named, although John I. McFarland, Ottawa manager of the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers Limited, continued to be the favorite selection as chairman. Robert McKee, Vancouver grain expert, and Jean Breton, head of the Manitoba Pool, may be his colleagues in the board.

There are still seven senatorial vacancies, two in New Brunswick, three in Quebec and two in Manitoba, additional to several unfilled posts as deputy ministers.

major portion if not all these appointments likely will be stood over until the Prime Minister returns, when cabinet reorganization and the date of the general election will be announced.

Wesman Appointed

Four members of the Bennett cabinet and four of his members in the Conference figured in the weekend list announcing 10 new Senators, filling of four judicial posts and appointment of one employment and social insurance commission. The list included a second woman the province of the upper house.

Hon. R. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, was named to the Senate although he will carry on his ministerial duties until after the general election.

Hon. Arthur Sauve, Postmaster General, likewise was appointed to a seat in the Upper House. He will carry on his ministerial functions until cabinet reorganization when Sam Gobeil (Con. Compton) may replace him.

Hon. Alfred Duranleau, Minister

(Continued on Page 9)

PETERBORO BANK MANAGER KILLED

Benjamin Chilton, Driving Car Strikes Hydro Pole

Campbellford, Ont., July 22—(CP)—When his car left the road just west of Hastings village and crashed into a Hydro pole early Sunday, Benjamin Chilton, manager of the Peterborough branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, was instantly killed. He was a native of Ottawa, a bachelor and was in his 50th year. Coroner Dr. C. O. Armstrong of Warkworth released the body to be prepared for burial. Constable William Wellman investigated.

Stork Handled Boat

In the meantime, Stork was working the boat closer to the boys but soon the young Hickey went down and did not rise to the surface. Immediately the boys left the boat and went to the Shore House, where the incident was related and Mrs. Stork informed. Then the boys went to the scene, which was indentified by debris and made a dive for the drowned youth. Mr. Stork dived several times in 18 feet of water but was unable to locate it and soon many boats were on the scene. Grappling hooks were brought into play but after working until late Sunday evening, there was a heavy wind blowing, which made grappling quite difficult.

Clarence Hickey, brother of the deceased came to the city last night from Peterboro and will stay until the body is recovered, making his home at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. Stork. He stated today, that the boys had been in swimming and that Basil left the home in October last, and since then has been living in Peterboro. Left to mourn his loss are five brothers, his father and a grandmother.

CIGAR STORE ROBBED

St. Catharines, Ont., July 22.—(CP)—The Smith Cigar Store here was entered by robbers early today and a safe was blown open, revealing $180 and $190 in cash and $40 in cheques was removed. It was then smashed on the outskirts of the city.

P.E.I. ELECTORS VOTE ON TUESDAY

Leaders Will Broadcast Final Speeches Tonight

Charlottetown, July 22.— (CP)—Tomorrow electors of Prince Edward Island will go to the polls to choose between the Conservatives and Liberals. There was a heavy wind blowing, which made grappling quite difficult.

Premier W. J. P. MacMillan and the Opposition leader, Hon. J. H. Mc. Lee, former Premier.

Both the two leaders, each heading a list of 30 candidates, will broadcast their last speeches of the campaign this evening, carried on since early in the spring.

Barn Blown Down By Force of Storm

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., July 22.—(CP)— Considerable damage was done in this district in the last few days by a series of local storms. A barn belonging to William Fraser of Gordon Lake was blown down and one belonging to Everett Wilson was burned after being struck by lightning. Trees and fences were blow down and crops flattened by the miniature tornado which did a swath two miles wide by 15 miles long.

BASIL HICKEY IS DROWNING VICTIM IN QUINTE BAY

Swimming From Boat Near Hospital, When Sinks

GRAPPLES USED

Body Not Recovered After an All Day Search

Although several boats manned by volunteer boatmen were patrolling the coves and inlets of the Bay of Quinte in the vicinity of the Hospital, where Basil Hickey was last seen in the water, up to a late hour today their efforts had been unsuccessful. The body had not been found.

Grappling hooks in the boats was a second volunteer party, which combed the bay shore from the hospital south. Experienced men with the currents of the bay pointed out that during the afternoon Sunday a strong breeze had been blowing, which would, it was claimed, have a tendency to wash the body in the south. Currents at that location are almost negligible, say experienced men.

The heavy drags being used from the boats are being quartered back and forth for some distance east and west of the hospital and also for some distance offshore.

Mr. Clarence Hickey, brother of the drowned man, Peterborough, is in charge of the search. Corporal Basil Hickey, aged 14, of 725 Dundas street, Peterboro, but resident of this city since October, was drowned in the Bay of Quinte Sunday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock and the body has not been recovered, although extensive search operations were carried on until dark last evening by a large number of boats and rowboats. Chief Inspector Chief Lynch and members of the Provincial Police.

The youth, who has been staying at the home of Mr. Mulcahy, near the eastern limits of the city, went to the home of Douglas Stork, 241 Dundas street, East, with Miss Davis, shortly before noon on Sunday and the boys went out in a boat to sail in a boat, that was loaned to young Stork. The boys after sailing around for some time, decided to go in for a swim and were diving off the boat and having plenty of fun, but Douglas Stork did not go into the water, he staying aboard to watch the boat.

Notifying the boy in swimming that the boat was drifting out in the bay, the two, Hickey and Davis started for the boat, while Stork manoeuvred the boat in to meet them. Davis was ahead of Hickey, according to the statement made by the survivors and Hickey stated he was getting tired. Davis turned around and started to render assistance but on reaching the youth, he tried in vain to get him to put his arm around in position to take him to the boat, but Hickey was too exhausted and it was only with difficulty that he released himself. He then tried to knock Davis out so that he could handle him but it was of no avail.

LLOYD GEORGE LAUNCHES WAR ON GOVERNMENT

Call to Arms Sounded by Wartime Prime Minister

RESULTS SURPRISE

Peace And Reconstruction Candidates Planned For General Election

By GEORGE HAMBLETON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, July 22 (CP, Cable)—David Lloyd George sounded war on the Government today. His response to the Government's rejection of his "New Deal" program is a call to arms.

"I am organizing," he told the Canadian Press, "throughout the country local councils of action are being formed and I myself am addressing meetings."

The war-time Premier's ire was aroused by the fact that when the Government turned down his programme, 10,000-word document, leaving the plan in its entirety, while polishing out certain features which already part of Government policy and in effect.

Independent Candidates

Independent candidates will be run in the next general elections, it is understood here, and financed if necessary by the "Council of Action"! The locality, Lloyd George said. Their program in brief will be peace and reconstruction.

Questions put to the little Welshman in an interview today indicate his mind is working towards a National government of the left, to borrow a phrase from the Canadian Parliament, in association with a group led by Lord Allen of Hurtwood. Linking of the two groups is regarded as very likely.

Declared the most notable feature of the Government's reply was "its complete failure to grapple with which the Government regards the most pressing problem."

Development of Prohibition

"Most of their document is not taken up with an examination of any scheme, but with torchlight processions of their own candidates," he declared.

The sharply challenged the Government view his scheme, revolving around pre-war prosperity, would mean grave injury to Canada's agricultural and general trade by drastically reducing the imports from the Dominions.

By developing poultry, pig and milk production at home Britain could be self-supporting instead of for Dominion grown cereals, said Lloyd George.

BRIDGE OFFICIALS BUSY THESE DAYS

The Bay Bridge officials are very busy these days as many boats, both pleasure and commercial are plying the bay waters. On Sunday evening quite a few boats passed through necessitating the opening

Boy of Four Years Asphyxiated Walked In Home Under Fumigation

TORONTO, July 22—(CP)—Norton Fry, fumigating contractor, and Percy Sullivan, 4-year-old boy, accused by Crown Attorney W. J. McWhinney today in connection with the death yesterday of four-year-old Russell Cairo, suffocated by cyanide fumes.

Norton Fry admitted he had not posted a warning sign while keeping the rooms, under fumigation, and signs were posted on the door, mean, said he was lying under the bed when the boy came into the room into the gas filling room unable to read a warning posted on the door. Fry said he thought the boy was playing inquiry into the death of four-year-old Russell Cairo, asphyxiated by fumigating gas, was promised by authorities today as attention centred on Percy Sullivan, Toronto's newly-drafted, stringent fumigation regulations.

As inquiry into the lad's death

(Continued on Page 8)

Manufacturers' Finance Inquiry Report Is Issued; 5 Directors Censured

Nine Men Listed as "Guinea Pig Directors" or "Front Men"

NO RECOMMENDATIONS

Commissioner Says Names Allowed to be Used by Gift of Stock

Toronto, July 22 (CP)—With three exceptions, directors of the defunct Manufacturers' Finance Corporation were censured today by J. M. Godfrey, Ontario Securities Commissioner, in a report of his inquiry into the company that went bankrupt in 1928 with a loss of more than $2,000,000. There were no recommendations toward what action, if any, might be taken.

The censured directors were Col. J. C. Cooper and J. A. C. Cameron, Toronto; Hon. H. H. Stevens, M.P.; the late W. J. Westaway, Hamilton; Hon. Frederick B. Howard, Liberal M.P. for Sherbrooke, Que.

In addition Mr. Godfrey listed nine men who he said could be described as "guinea pig directors" or in the vernacular of the financial underworld "front men:" Senator J. Andrew McDonald, president, Shediac, N.B., and his brother, the late Wm. McDonald, secretary-treasurer.

Nine Directors Not Censured

The three directors not open to censure because of the corporation's failure were William Duff, Liberal M.P. for Antigonish-Guysborough, N.S.; H. R. Ross, of Montreal, and A. E. Bill, Chicago, representing the Canadian Bond Company.

After naming these three the commissioner said: "The remaining directors must be censured for permitting shares to be sold to the public on the representation that the investors were guaranteed against loss by bonds and insurance of the accounts. It is difficult to value why with this knowledge that there were large deficits and that no claims were paid on the insurance companies they did not take some action to protect the shareholders and to prevent further investments by the public."

"Front" Directors

The nine termed "Guinea pig directors" were Hon. P. E. Blondin, Montreal; the late Sir Robert Borden, Ottawa; Lieut.-Col. Boyd Anderson, Moncton, N.B.; Col. Sir Herbert Holt, Montreal; Col. Sam Starke, Montreal; D. A. Morrison, Amherst, N.S.; Senator Andrew Howard and Westaway.

Further evidence Mr. Godfrey had no qualification to act as directors in such a highly specialized financial business is the way in which the company was engaged. He added: "Shares were sold by the company and allowed their names to be used as a gift or bonus for shares of stock."

Because of the time elapsed since

(Continued on Page 8)

8TH BIRTHDAY

REV. ALBERT LOFT GEEN,

(son of James and Elizabeth Geen, who celebrated their 50th anniversary recently in Millerville from Devon, England, nearly 100 years ago), was born, 22nd, July, 1840.

MYSTERY FLIGHT BY SOVIET PLANE

A 6,250-Mile Non-Stop Flight Projected by Russians

By JOHN LLOYD
(Associated Press Foreign Staff)

Moscow, July 22 (AP)—The when and where of a flight by a Soviet "mystery" plane over the roof of the world—from Moscow across the North Pole and Northwestern Canada to San Francisco—remained uncertain in their own right today.

A military airfield spokesman announced last night the ship would take off on the spectacular 6,250-mile not-stop flight at seven a.m. today (midnight E.S.T., Sunday night) but all official and semi-official information concerning the projected adventure was fruitless.

Not only the plans for the take-off, but even the whereabouts of the plane were kept strictly secret. Government officials asserting merely that one of the pioneer planes would be announced at the proper time.

The only clue to the disappearing ship came from a watchman at the Kalinin military field, 25 miles from the city, who said: he saw it take to the air Sunday morning. The plane has been making practice flights at different fields.

Excitement here had been aroused by a report of a plane crash near the city Saturday in which a ship said by the Tass (official Russian) News Agency to be one constructed especially for long distance flights.

The formal announcement of the scheduled takeoff of the "mystery ship" however, dispelled fears it had encountered an accident.

One of the Soviet's most famous fliers, Sigmund Levanefsky, was in command of the crew for the trip to North America, aided by a co-pilot, Rafukoff, and navigator, Levchenko.

The flight—one of the most spectacular undertakings—would, if successful, break the world non-stop distance flight record of 5,657.387 miles set by the French-men, Codos and Rossi, in a flight from New York to Rayak, Syria, August 5, 6, 7, 1933.

WEATHER

Toronto, July 22 (CP)—Local thunderstorms have occurred in many parts of Ontario and Quebec, where it has been quite warm, while in the Western Provinces the weather has been mostly fair with some light showers in Southern Saskatchewan.

Northern Ontario Moderate temperatures mostly fair today and Tuesday; not quite so warm tonight.

Lake Superior—Moderate to fresh winds; fine but mostly fair and warm; moderate winds.

Coming Events

IMPORTANT— EVERY MEMBERS of the South End Athletic and Yacht Club requested to attend a special meeting at the new Yacht Club, Wednesday, July 24th, at 8.30 p.m. Power boat owners also invited.—Charles J. Jeffs, Secretary. 2-22-23

Men Demur In Diaper Race But Judge Hints Some Professional

Seattle, July 23—(AP)—Men and women diaper changing experts were down to compete on even terms today in Seattle's diaper derby, after the rules committee squelched the men who demanded a 10-second handicap over the women.

"The women are professionals," the men argued in protest. "We are rank novices and we certainly ought to have a head start—10 seconds minimum."

William Shapiro, chairman, answered.

"You'll all start from scratch and anybody who scratches a baby will be disqualified. With women three days demanding no favors when they grab off a man's job, I see no reason for men asking any when they take a woman's. especially when I suspect a lot of you fellows are professionals yourselves."

The public was being admitted to the Woodland Park Hotel Rooms, the diaper changing area. But the antiseptic baths for babies were respected and foundation diapers were provided for all infants used.

First and Last Parachute Leap Brings In Donation of Only $10

Cleveland, July 22.—(AP) 2.—Through a loud speaker, a voice blared at 5,000 persons at Hinckley today, "and now, ladies and gentlemen, the mystery girl did her daring parachute leap. She will receive only what you have donated" As he spoke the eyes of several thousand men, women and children turned to a plane apparently motionless 3,500 feet above.

Then a figure dropped from the wing, grew larger, fell with the increasing speed—the white plume of a parachute opened—and dashed to the ground only 1,000 feet from the Women's grandstand.

The "mystery girl" explained George Shepard, pilot of the plane, was the cashier of a theatre, Jean Hall, 21. It was her second and last parachute leap. Her parents had not known of her adventure.

Women crowded around one asked: "How much was it?"

"Only a dime," replied it." Lisphard replied, "But it's between 50 and $100."

City and District News

TRAFFIC OFFICER ON SPECIAL DUTY

Called for special patrol duty, Traffic Officer Sam Irvine left his district in Belleville last night and proceeded westward to help the motorcycle patrol escorting the "on-to-Ottawa" truckers. Constable Irvine received his orders shortly after news was received in the city that the truckers had caused a disturbance when the buses, under the mayor of Whitby on Saturday night. According to local police reports on the matter today, a few arrests were necessary on Saturday night. Traffic Officer Irvine expects to accompany the truckers east to Ottawa, according to information received from his superior officer, Inspector Sid Hunter of Brockville, who has been accompanying the truckers ever since they left the outskirts of Toronto.

2,000 CHEESE CARGO FOR GLEN ALLAN

Over 2,000 cheese were puncled by hand-truck into the warehouse front of the steamer Glen Allen at the government dock today for shipment east to Montreal and overseas points on her regular weekly call. Accompanying the cheese was also a load of empty bottles and varied freight.

POTATOE BUGS QUITE VORACIOUS

Just by way of passing, it was pointed out by a well known agriculturist of this district this morning, the section is suffering at present from a potato bug plague. Not in years has the hard shelled beetles been so thick and voracious, it was stated. One resident west of the city who engages in truck gardening, 300 and 500 bags this year from his plot, confesses he hardly went up to the present over 700 pounds of killer bug addicts, that he is fighting an almost losing battle.

WORKMEN REPAIR COLLEGIATE ROOF

Following some repairs made last week to the stone parapet running around the top of the main building, workmen today had commenced the actual operation of repairing the roof covering on the Collegiate Institute this week. Contract for the work had been awarded prior to the Board of Education and the Sites, Buildings and Repairs Committee.

FOUR IN FIELD IN ONTARIO COUNTY

Oshawa, Ont., July 22.—(CP)—Ontario riding is assured of a four-cornered contest in the coming Federal election, nominations were made today by the C.O.F. and the newly-formed provincial Club they will have candidates in the field.

The C.O.F. has called a nominating convention to be held at Oshawa, July 31. The Social Service Club has selected provincial officers pending the holding of party conventions to be held at Whitby Town Hall to name a candidate and also elect permanent officers. The date of the Stevens' Party convention has not yet been fixed.

30,564 VOTERS IN BRANTFORD

Brantford, Ont., July 22.—(CP)—Brantford voting will have 30,564 voters in the coming Federal election, an increase of 775 prior to registration.

It Pays to Shop at the Rexall Store.

Developing and Printing
QUICK SERVICE
McKeown's
Drug Store

SHOP AT ZELLERS
IT PAYS
EVERY DAY LOW PRICES
Not a special Sale once or twice a year, but consistently low prices—that's the J.D.A. Policy.
SAVE SAFELY AT YOUR
I.D.A. DRUG STORES

Increase Your Ice Cream Sales by Serving
"Neilson's Ice Cream"
The Trade Supplied by
CITIZEN'S DAIRY
Phone 122
ASK-M-W-F-2

HONEY
NEW RIPE EXTRACTED
HONEY at 12c.
Ile in 10c. 10-lb. tins.
T. E. DEMILLE,
Holloway, No. 1.

Miss
Violet Lewis
Desires to thank her clients for their generous patronage, since she established the "LUCILLE BEAUTY SHOP" in Belleville, and announces her retirement from business FROM THIS DATE.

Mohawk Brothers Honor Shojejowaneh —Rev. A. L. Geen

White Brother Reaches Great Age of 86 And Indian Celebrate

Rev. Ar. L. Geen, who today received congratulations from far and near on the occasion of his 86th birthday is deeply appreciative of the following tribute of friendship of the Mohawks of the Reservation East of Shannonville, sent by one of the members of the band, Kahnawake Tohsta.

Mr. Geen is a member of the Mohawk Tribe having some years ago been made a member of the band under the name of Shojejowaneh,—which means Big Flower. This is the Mohawk tribute:—

From the Mohawks of the Quinte Comes loyal tribute—O! to whom? To none other than a brother, Rev. A. L. Geen of Belleville, Shojejowaneh—Big Flower.

Of Mohawk tribe and tortoise clan,
Revered patriarch and prophet,
Years of light that ever shines
To paths of everlastingness
Shojejowaneh—Big Flower.

With one accord the Mohawks voice
Their sincere congratulations—
To a beloved white brother true
For fifty years of service
Shojejowaneh—Big Flower.

"And now the Clans together rise
To wish for him many more years
Of happiness unalloyed
On being eighty-six years young,
Shojejowaneh—Big Flower.

Duce's Commander

COL. JAN. LOUIS MONNERET

Col. Jan. Louis Monneret, who is commanding Italian artillery units now encamped on the northern frontier of Eritrea, Italian—controlled East African territory on the borders of Ethiopia. Col. Monneret is the Count De Villard.

$15 IS TAKEN FROM LANGLEYS

Also Man's Coat, When Entrance Made by Back Door

Gaining entrance by means of forcing a side door, thieves operating on the Langley cleaning and pressing establishment, on Pinnacle Street, made off with a coat and $15 in cash. The robbery was reported to the police by Miss Margaret Mallett, of this city, who is in charge of the Langley's office in Belleville.

Constables Izard and Evans investigated the robbery and were of the opinion the intruder entered the building has previous knowledge of the premises, as the only door by which entrance could be made at the rear had been opened and closed carefully after the burglary. All of the cash in the cash register was removed, only one gentleman's coat taken. Police believe they have definite clues by apprehend the guilty parties, they announced today.

WOMAN RETURNED TO PICTON HOME

Found Wandering in City Saturday by Local Police

Local police were busy ove rthe week end following up minor cases, that continually were presented for their attention, but one case in particular put in appearance at the police station in quest of a night's lodging. The woman in question appeared before the sergeant's desk on Saturday night, and only gave a number-ed in the cell block on the night of the Sabbath.

Detective Izard found an elderly woman giving her name as Minnie Hunt, Picton, wandering at large on Saturday. The woman had walked out of the old people home at Picton, where she was an inmate. Chief Constable Biddle of Picton was notified of the finding of the woman. She was later returned to her abode in Picton.

No serious automobile accidents were reported locally in the immediate surrounding district over the week end. An accident on Front St. on Saturday resulted in two slightly damaged fenders, but no injuries, police reported today.

RECORD YIELD IN GARDEN PLOTS

A harvest is almost ready to be garnered. But the harvest is not in the far reaches of the rural districts 'round about this section. The crop, produced by toil and effort is within the confines of the city, and is made up of approximately 300 unemployed gardens planted in the spring and carefully cultivated and worked since.

The number of plots this year is considerably larger than last year, but the yield will be a large one and will more than satisfy the many families listed on the relief rolls.

Potatoes this year will be the chief crop, and already some of the carefully hoed rows have been dug up to contribute to the tables of the owners. Other staple vegetables have no far this year provided a welcome change from the ordinary fare supplied by the relief vouchers. Many who applied for plots and have worked them this season have been entirely conscientious in the matter and have raised products that would reflect credit upon professional gardeners.

FIRST INSTALMENT TAXES DUE AUG. 6

Many Residents, However Are Paying Before Due Date

"Nothing is sure but death and taxes....but more especially taxes," commented the portly citizen this morning, who entered the city hall and strode up to the wicket of the collector. A small sheaf of bills was then passed under the grating.

The citizen was a little early in paying out his money, it was pointed out by the clerk, but, well, he confessed, he wanted to "get his taxing out his mind."

Actually the greater number of property owners in the city will have their bills in well inside the 30th calendar attention to it on last, that the first instalment is now due. The second one year has been set for August 6, giving residents with the extra day of grace, Sunday 4th and Monday 5, which is a civic holiday.

However, not all property owners have invited until they received their bills, it was stated by tax collector A. F. Ketcheson this morning. At least 15 per cent of the number registered have "already paid their bill to the city and have received their receipts for same, another slight indication of better times," commented the collector.

From now on until August 6 business is expected to boom in the lower offices of the city hall, indicarily the majority of taxpayers wait until the last day of or before coming to the office and paying over their money. This year, however, a good start on the matter has been made, and it is hoped by the city clerks, that most of the business will be cleared up before the final date.

SOLSBERG FLIGHT HELD UP

Cartwright, Nfld., July 22.—(CP)—Unfavorable weather conditions on route of their proposed trans-Atlantic flight to Bergen, Norway, kept Thor Solberg and Paul Camanyan grounded here today. Their next stop is Greenland.

SLEEPLESS FOR 34 HOURS IS PLEA OF DRIVER

Brantford, Ont., July 22.—(CP)—Admitting he had had no sleep for 34 hours, Charles Hill of Scotland, on day was fined $10 and costs for reckless driving. His car hit James Douglas' machine head-on.

"Why I Should Patronize Delaney Exclusive Furriers"
PRIZE WINNERS ARE:
1.—Helen Armstrong, 12 Murney Street, City.
2.—Mrs. Chas. Hyde, 96 Victoria Ave., City.
3.—Miss Florence Tufts, 102 Cedar Street, City.
Special prices on relining and remodeling for a limited time only—the work is thoroughly guaranteed—see our window display then inquire about prices—our stock is exclusive.
Delaney Exclusive Furriers
Phone 727 37 Campbell Street Established 22 Years.
J. GORDON DELANEY, Manager.
MEMBER OF THE FURRIERS' GUILD OF CANADA

Lipson's
CHAIN OF POPULAR PRICED STORES
88c DAY
Tomorrow! TUESDAY!
ONE DAY ONLY
Everything at one low price—EIGHTY-EIGHT CENTS. Many more bargains on display in the store. We'll be seeing you!

Women's Shoes
Grey Sandals, Oxfords and High Cuffs, Suede and Leather. Sizes 3 to 8. Values to $3.98. Tuesday 88c

Women's Shorts
Regular 79c and 89c. 2 FOR
Blue ..... and white 88c
Sizes 32 to 38.

Women's Pyjamas
Reg. $1.39. two-piece Kimlin Crepe, with jumper top, elastic top, bottoms. Special 88c

Rayon Undies
Regularly 39c and 49c. 2 FOR
Vests, Tailored Band and Lace Trimmed Bloomers. Tailored and lace trimmed. Sizes to 44. Tuesday 88c

Girls' Summer Dresses
Regularly 79c but for one day only 2 FOR Tuesday we are almost the price of one 88c

Silk Hose
Reg. 59c. Silk to the top, reinforced heel and toe, summer and dark shades. Sizes 8½ to 10½. 2 FOR 88c

Girls' Swim Suits
Made to sell at $1.39. All wool, famous quality. Sizes 24 to 34. Red and black. Sizes 32 to 38 ..... 88c

Slips
Regularly $1.00. Lace tops and bottoms, adjustable straps. Tearose and white. Sizes 32 to 38 ..... 88c

Men's Work Trousers
Regularly $1.39. Khaki and blue drill. Fully cut, well pockets. Sizes 30 to 42 ..... 88c

Boys' Shorts
Regularly 39c. Sizes 2 FOR
6 to 14. Small sizes only. Limit two to a customer. Tuesday 88c

Boys' Underwear
Broadcloth or Denim. 3 FOR
Elastic style tops, knee length. Sizes 22 to 34. Tuesday only 88c

Broadcloth Shirts
Odd lots, formerly 69c 2 FOR and 79c. Assorted fast colors and stripes, neat-fitting collar attached. Sizes 14 to 17½. Tuesday 88c

Boys' Polo Shirts
Made to sell at 59c. 2 FOR Cotton rib knit. Sleeveless, collar, blue, white and fancy. Sizes 22 to 34 ..... 88c

Better Grade Whoopee Pants
Khaki or blue with zip fly. Well tailored and full cut. Really worth $1.00. Tuesday only 88c

Girls' Cotton Panties
Regularly 29c. Band top, elastic waist, lace trimmed, white and tearose. Sizes 2 to 14 years. 2 FOR 88c

Women's Hats
Felts and Crepes, white and colors. Many smart styles in the shoppe from 88c

Women's White Pumps
Regularly $2.49, summer weight, white kid, high heels. Tuesday 1.39
White kid, high heels. All sizes. Tuesday pair .....

Clearing Dresses
Crepes, Voiles and Silks, to $3.95. Tuesday 1.49
Crepes, Voiles and Silks, to $3.95. Clearing Tuesday 1.49

Men's Flannel Pants
Reg. $2.95 and $3.50. All wool, grey flannel, stripe effect, belt loops, sizes 30 to 42. Tuesday only! Hurry, no alterations 2.29

Men's Swim Suits
Reg. $1.39. all wool in black; navy and maroon, sizes 34 to 42. Tuesday only 1.00

Companion Events

City Gasps Under Heat Wave, Hottest Sunday Was Quietly Spent

Belleville gasped yesterday and fanned its collective self on steady temperatures that a boiling thermometer climbed rapidly during the day to a high point of 87 degrees official, and 90 unofficial on the shady side of the heat baked sidewalks in the city.

It was the hottest Sunday of the year. Even the family car in the garage was given a rest; it was too hot to drive. Only those who summoned up the energy to motor to nearby bathing beaches and cooling spots were to be observed on the road. Gas station men called the day almost a total loss, when compared with busier Sundays of the cooler weather.

At the Sandbanks, the Outlet, Presqu'Ile and other well known spots bathers and picnickers congregated in numbers, only a comparatively slight relief from the sun and the sapping humidity was experienced. Even the water was warm in bathers complained. Lowest point during the night Sunday, and by the thermometer was 72, a fair summer temperature for even day time, it was pointed out.

Storm clouds threatened during the day, but in the immediate district rain failed to fall, although reports from the northern part of the county indicated that fairly heavy showers had been received. In the meantime crops are drying and farmers are again scanning steely skies hopefully in anxious expectation of rain—soon.

NO BEACH!

"Where's the beach? All that beautiful water down there and no beach."

That's the usual question directed at the caretaker of the tourist camp this season by dusty travellers who use the facilities of the camp overnight on the cross country trips to and fro. A wave of the hand at the Bay of Quinte spread in the general direction off generally accompanies their reply, and certainly regarding the lack of beach at the tourist camp.

However visitors at the camp all report themselves well pleased both with the facilities available and the scenery with which they are receipted. Up to date not a single complaint as been registered by the tourists.

With the expectation that this season will see far more visitors registered than last year, up to the present some 500 names have been entered in the registration book.

POLICE COURT

A lengthy police court docket was presented before His Worship, Magistrate E. J. Butler K.C., today and before a court room jammed to overflowing.

Five inebriates all pleaded guilty as charged, three of them being given an extended time in which to pay their fine, while two remaining two were unable to procure the fine they took, going into jail in sentence in default. Two non support cases were enlarged.

Arthur Brant, Tyendinaga Reserve Indian, appeared before H. J. Rose, Indian Agent at Deseronto, on a charge laid by the R.C.M.P. under the "Indian Act". Brant was found guilty of possessing 16 quarts of beer, found in his home by the "Mounties" on Saturday morning. The minimum fine of ten dollars and costs was imposed. Brant being a first offender in connection with the matter. This was the first of some 30 charges that have been preferred against the six accused youths. The second, that saw only Ole Brown's evidence, was the same charge which was read to George Whalin, Thurlow, who is alleged by the O.P.P. to be one of the members of the party to molest and interfere with an automobile operated by Ray Powell, Belleville.

Poste gave evidence and admitted he did not see any person around him as he was parked on a side road east of Belleville early in June of this year, but when he turned on the lights of his car discovering the radiator cap was gone as well as the hood, which had been placed in the open rumble seat. The O.P.P. produced a radiator cap and hats, which Poste identified. He also stated that a rear tire on his car had been punctured by the "blade of a knife," he said. Under cross examination he interrupted the hearing and after a short consultation with Crown Attorney, Gerald Donnan, the two barristers asked His Worship to enlarge the matter for one week.

The six youths who are facing 30 charges in all are Gordon Aikins, John Seeley, George Whalin, Thurlow; Kenneth Randall Powers, all of Thurlow and Neil Harris of this city. The case is attracting considerable attention. The original 18 charges have been supplemented until a total of 30 have been laid in the hands of the authorities.

MIDLAND STORES ROBBED

Midland, Ont., July 22.—(CP)—Robbers last night forced two heavily barred doors and broke open a vault to remove a large quantity of men's and ladies' clothing and $900 in cash and negotiable securities from the Canadian Department Stores and W. E. Preston Stores here.

for a Beauty
Miss Joanne Steckley of 22 Dundas Street
Is at the Princess Pat
INSTITUTE OF BEAUTY CULTURE
THIS WEEK
FREE
Complexion Analysis and Make-up in your own home.
PHONE 106
for appointment or call and consult her without obligation

GEORGE PAULEY
Specialist in ORTHOPEDIC SHOE REPAIR

Obituary

MRS. MARY ANNE CROMDIN

Mrs. Mary Anne Cromdin, widow of the late John Cromdin, passed away Saturday afternoon at her residence, 203 concession of Tyendinaga, after a lengthy illness.

Born in Tyendinaga, she resided there all her life. She was a member of St. Church, Read.

Two sons, Michael John and Thomas James of Belleville, and five daughters, Mrs. Thomas Miller, Rockville, Sask., Mrs. A.-Varwick of Rockville, Sask., Mrs. Joseph Hogan and Frances at home, Mrs. Joseph O'Neil, Trenton, survive. She also leaves two brothers, Joseph Farrell, Read, Anthony Farrell of Belleville, and three sisters, Mrs. Joseph Champagin, of Belleville, Mrs. Peter Casey of Read, and Mrs. J. Fairlies, of Grand Rapids, Mich.

WILLIAM JOSEPH MURPHY

William Joseph Murphy, Marmora, passed away Sunday evening at Belleville General Hospital as a result of an accident which occurred Monday last on Number 7 Highway, west of Marmora, while he was working on highway construction point Mr. Murphy was operating a new flow off striking him in the groin and he eventually set in as a result of his injuries.

Born in Marmora fifty-two years ago, he was a son of James J. Murphy and the late Mrs. Murphy and had resided most of his life in that vicinity. His genial disposition won for him many friends who were shocked to learn of his sudden passing.

In 1914, the late Mr. Murphy went overseas and served four years with the 21st Battalion, C.E.F. In 1918. He was a member of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Marmora.

Surviving are his father, James J. Murphy, four brothers, James Leo of Eastend, Sask., Patrick Murphy of Marmora, Joseph of Eastend, Sask., and Charles Cecil of Oshawa and Charles Cecil of Toronto.

The body of the late Mr. Murphy was conveyed to his home in Marmora today by Thos. O. Thompson, funeral director.

CAPITOL
TWO BIG FEATURES
TO-DAY Tuesday — Wednesday
Shows at 2.30; 7.30; 9.30
DINNERWARE TODAY and TUESDAY

INNOCENT! YET SUSPICION ALMOST RUINED THEM!
The LINE-UP
WILLIAM GARGAN
MARION NIXON
A COLUMBIA PICTURE
COMING: Ben Bernie in "Stolen Harmony" also "Casino Murder Case"

D. J.: Those Two Letters Mean Death and Destruction to 1,000 Public Enemies!
BLAZING ACTION!
THROBBING ROMANCE!

The blazing, smashing story of the unsung heroes of '35 . . . the Federal men who trap the underworld's rats in their hideouts, and then . . .
LET 'EM HAVE IT
The REAL, factual story of the Department of Justice's battles in the crime war starring . . .
Richard ARLEN Virginia BRUCE
Alice BRADY Bruce CABOT
HARVEY STEPHENS — GORDON JONES — ERIC LINDEN and a cast of hundreds.
BELLE TOMORROW
COOLED TO COMFORT 2.30, 7.15, 9.10
TONIGHT ONLY — JOE E. BROWN in "ALIBI, IKE"

CHINESE FATHER WANTS SON HOME FOR PUNISHMENT

Report From Nanking Says Jimmy Lin Wed in China

TWO WIVES THERE

His Foster-Father Would Agree to Punishment in U. S.

NANKING, July 22.— Lin Sen, China's president and conservative of the old school, demands that Alfred Sze, Chinese Ambassador to the United States, send his adopted son, K. M. James (Jimmy) Lin, back to China for punishment for actign. Jimmy, with two legal wives in China, aroused his foster-father's ire by marrying a 5-10-cent store girl of Columbus, O.

The venerable president, summering at Kuling, Yangtze Valley resort colony, sent an urgent telegram to Washing officials urging the case be handled "strictly in accordance with law, to provide a warning to the wicked."

Lin received a telegram from Jimmy and his wife, Vida, requesting his approval of their marriage. It served only to increase his indignation and prompted his orders to the embassy to act.

The President's intimates said since American authorities are quick to prosecute for bigamy, Lin desires his adopted son's punishment either in China or the United States, if no object if the Americans prosecute.

Jimmy cannot be punished in China unless his wives have prosecute. They were suspected also to the traditional Oriental feminine attitude—non-interference in a husband's affairs.

Gen. Chen Shang-Tuan, former garrison commander for the Nanking district, Fukien province, and brother of both of Jimmy's Chinese wives, said he had advised his sisters to "remain calm". He confirmed the legality of both weddings under Chinese law.

Bridgeport's Nurses Give Way

Columbus, O., July 22.— Jimmy Lin was in bed with a nervous prostration over his marriage muddle, friends here worried had reported him that his foster-father had ordered the young Chinese back to China for punishment.

Lin's physicians refused to let any except his friends see the adopted son of China's venerable president. The people with whom he lives said Lin had not been told of his father's cable to Alfred Sze, Chinese ambassador to the United States, demanding the youth be returned immediately for disciplinary action.

Lin, who has two legal wives in China, married Viola Brown, 5-and-10-store girl, here last week. She knew nothing of his Chinese wives.

Local immigration authorities have questioned Lin several times but declined to reveal the nature of their investigation here and said they had not been asked to bring any charges against the young Chinese.

FALLS OFF PIER INTO TRENT RIVER

Healey Falls Scene of Boy's Death on Sunday

Campbellford, July 22.—Seven-old George Willacott, only Mr. and Mrs. George Willa- of 739 Woodbine Avenue, Tor- was drowned in the Trent Sunday afternoon, near ty Falls.

The lad had been throwing sticks the water from an old pier and believed he have had his balance and toppled into the water. The body was recovered at 7.30 in the evening, after being in the water about five hours.

The boy was visiting here over the week-end with his mother. The funeral will be held in Toronto on Tuesday or Wednesday. The father was notified by wire and left Toronto immediately for Campbellford.

The boy's body was recovered in eight feet of water, about twenty feet from the spot where he fell in.

SEYMOUR FARMER LOST WEEK IN BUSH

Two Men Lost in Bush For Week Are Located

Campbellford, July 22—(CP) — Lorne Hay, Seymour township farmer, missing from his home since last Sunday, has been found, it was learned yesterday. Hay was found on the Walkthrasher farm near Ingram's Woods by berry pickers and was in an exhausted condition, suffering from loss of memory and lack of food.

He was taken to the home of his brother, Bert, where he was reported progressing favorably.

MOSLEM RIOTERS ATTACK BRITISH

Total Deaths So Far in Disasters Reach Ten

LAHORE, India, July 22—British troops were forced to fire on three occasions Sunday in an attempt to disperse rioting Moslems who have been stirring since Saturday to gain possession of the Gurwara Mosque, which is being demolished by Sikhs.

The total deaths since the outbreak of the trouble yesterday are estimated at 10. The actual number is not ascertainable due to the native custom of quickly removing the slain and wounded.

Cavalry and armored car units were summoned to support the Royal Scots who have been doing heavy duty under the blazing sun.

The mosque around which the riots centred is an unused edifice of the Moslems which stands on property now owned by the Sikh community.

The Sikhs recently secured permission from the authorities to demolish the building. The Moslems, who had expressed opposition to the plans of the Sikhs, were aroused to active resistance when the Sikhs actually began tearing down the mosque.

The fighting continued through most of the night and became violent early Sunday when the stone throwing Moslems advanced on the troops. Fifty policemen, including five of the British force, were injured. One cavalryman was thrown his horse and was trampled to death.

The Moslem crowd of about 2,000 was shut off from the Mosque by barbed wire entanglements. But throughout the night, defying orders to disperse, the Moslems increased their ranks. This morning they became violent. They stormed the troops, hurling bricks, stones and other missiles.

The troops warned they would fire, but this failed to halt the onrush. Six rounds were fired and the Moslems fell back.

But they still refused to disperse and continued to press against the cordon drawn up around the mosque.

All bazaars were closed, entrance to shops guarded and armoured police cars patrolled the streets. The governor called high officials into conference in an effort to pacify the Moslems.

Between their rushes on the Mosque the Moslems squatted in the streets in emulation of the "passive resistance" of Mahatama Gandhi. They are sullen and the temper of the assemblage is ugly.

NAPANEE FARMER HAS $6,000 FIRE LOSS

Napanee, July 22—During the worst electrical storm seen in this district, this summer, Harold Dupee, a well-known farmer residing about three miles north of Napanee, lost early Saturday two large barns, one containing the season's crop of hay, a large drive house containing all his machinery, a ben house containing a large number of hens, and a pig pen with several pigs. The loss is estimated at $6,000 with some insurance.

Mrs. Fallis of Peterboro

(Continued From Page 1)

of Marine, will replace Mr. Justice Coderre on the Quebec superior court bench.

Hon. J. A. Macdonald, Minister without portfolio, will join Mr. Rhodes and Mr. Sauve next session in the Red Chamber.

Justice Kerwin Elevated

Additional to the three Bennett Cabinet Ministers, the other announced appointments to the Senate were Col. Thomas Cantley, M.P. for Pictou, N.S.; F. P. Quinn, M.P. for Halifax; J. L. P. Robichaud, Marvellon, N.S.; Hon. George B. Jones, M.P. for Royal, N.B.; Hon. Donald Sutherland, former M.P., Ingersoll, Ont.; Col. James Arthurs, M.P., Perth-Sound; and Mrs. Howard V. Fallis, Peterborough.

Elevated to the Supreme Court of Ontario Bench only a few years ago, Mr. Justice Patrick Kerwin has been promoted to the Supreme Court of Canada to replace Mr. Justice Frank Hughes, resigned.

Charles T. McTague, K.C., Windsor, will succeed Mr. Justice Kerwin on the Ontario Judiciary.

D. McKinnon, K.C., Charlottetown, has been named district judge in admiralty for Prince Edward Island.

With Hon. C. S. Harrington, Halifax, former Premier of Nova Scotia, as chairman, Tom Moore, President of the Trade and Labor Congress and H. E. Beaudet, Montreal, insurance officer, will comprise the employment social insurance commission.

BOOSTER KILLS RATTLER

Lee, Calif., July 22—(AP)—Mrs. R. C. Carlyle heard a commotion in her chicken yard. She investigated and was just in time, she said to-day to see a little red rooster deliver a death blow with his spurs to a two-foot rattlesnake.

Police Claim in Shooting Probe Barry's Bay Man Shot In Bed,

Renfrew, Ont., July 22 (CP) — Investigation today was being continued into the shooting of Albert Cowan, 27-year-old mill employe in his home at Barry's Bay, while inquiries were being made his wife was held in jail as a material witness. Cowan died from a bullet found in the head, although no trace of the rifle has been found today.

According to Provincial Constable William Johnston, Cowan was shot Sunday morning as he lay in bed. Mrs. Cowan told police she came home about three o'clock after visiting friends to find her husband bleeding profusely. She already had prepared for bed when she made the discovery, Mrs. Cowan said, and she did not wait to dress but ran half a mile to summons a doctor. Post-mortem examination of Cowan's body resulted in recovery of the bullet which was from a .22 calibre rifle.

POLICE STATE MOTHER THREW CHILDREN IN

Three of Five Drowned in Scugog River on Saturday

ARRAIGNED THURSDAY

Clarence McGee Acted in Heroic Manner Saving One

Lindsay, Ont., July 22 (CP) — Still under the shock of a heart-rending tragedy, which took the lives of three small children the citizens of Lindsay were wondering today how far police had got in checking the conflicting stories of 11-year-old Gavin Wallace, eldest brother of the three little victims.

Gavin and his baby sister, Mary, were the only two of the five Wallace children rescued from drowning in the Scugog River yesterday after allegedly being thrown into it by their mother, Mrs. Wallace 36, is believed to be unbalanced and is being held on a remand charge of vagrancy. Her husband is a totally disabled war veteran.

The three children drowned are Catharine, 9, Agnes, 7 and William J. Hervie 12-year-old Clarence McGee, in whose home the five children of the children. He brought them to the police court for trial and artificial respirations methods proved successful in the case of Gavin. During the time he took William out of the water but the four-year-old child was dead. One hour later the bodies of Agnes an Catherine were recovered.

While the rescues were being carried out and a search for the missing children made banks the mother ran to the nearby parish house crying: "Father Moylan, they have drowned my children."

Again and again she told he and his brother and sisters has disregarded their mother's warning and ran down to the water's edge. A clap of thunder frightened them and they scattered. Then it is asserted. Later, according to police, he changed his story. What he said was not reported but police stated that the mother threw the children into the river."

The Wallace woman has been in the district since the birth of a still-born baby several months ago. She lived with Mr. Moylan, the parish house "my husband is not to good to me, but he is a sick man. His sickness got on my nerves. I could not stand it any longer." Mrs. Wallace will be arraigned in court Thursday.

NAZI'S RENEW ATTACKS ON JEWS IN REICH

With Nazi radical elements firmly in the saddle throughout the Reich, bitter campaigns against Jews gained new emphasis. In Berlin brown shirted storm troopers made repeated raids in sections where Jews were known to congregate, mobbing and chasing any known or suspected of being Jews. Particularly bitter were the attacks upon Jews found associating with Aryan girls. Admiral Magnus Von Levenitzow, head of Berlin police and bitterly assailed for moderate treatment of Jews was suddenly dismissed and replaced by Count Von Helldorf, an avowed anti-semitist (INSET). ABOVE is shown actual scene of a Nazi storm-trooper separating a couple in a Berlin park. The man is a Jew, the girl a German.

FORESTRY MEN DISCOVER TRACKS

St. Ola Youth Found Wandering Lost. in North Woods

Bancroft, July 22—"Jimmy" Gunter, a six years old, an employee of W. J. McIntyre at Bessemer, decided Sunday morning to take a stroll in the woods. Mr. McIntyre did not become alarmed when the youth failed to return at the noon hour, but when he did not return home as darkness set in Mr. McIntyre began a search for the missing lad. Neighbours living in the vicinity could give no clues as to his possible whereabouts, but by having become lost in the dense woods surrounding Bessemer, says Bancroft Times.

Monday morning the employees of Hendry's mill joined in the search but failed in their attempt to locate the missing youth. It was at this point the Forestry Branch was notified of the alarming case, a couple of men being sent out to assist in the hunt. Around four o'clock in the afternoon the men from the Forestry Branch sighted tracks crossing an old road in the woods and shortly after located the missing lad still wandering in the woods about half way between McIntyre's camp at Egan Creek and Clear Lake.

Although it had rained all night and a steady downpour during the day, young Gunter did not appear to suffer any ill effects. Taking shelter in an old hunting camp, he spent the night there, but started again in the rain the following morning to try and find his way out. Outside of being tired and hungry and drenched to the hide, Jimmy is now feeling tip top.

Son Saves Mother, Overcome By Fumes

Napanee, July 22—Overcome by carbon monoxide fumes while sharpening mower knives on grindstone driven by a geared-up rear wheel of the family car, Clarence Fennell, North Fredericksburg township farmer owes his life to the resourcefulness of his wife, Nellie. Noticing her son collapse in the barn she immediately directed first aid operations that sustained life until the arrival of a physician. The latter commended the frail country woman for her nerve in time of crisis and credited her with saving her son's life.

NEW CANADIAN STAR IN HOLLYWOOD

Bobby Green, from Toronto, who is newest singing star of the movies shown at Los Angeles airport as he received his prize three-year-old Rhode Island chicken, which was flown to him all the way from his home city. Pilot Irving Greenwald is shown burning his fowl cargo over to Bobby. The chicken laid two eggs en route to the coast.

BUSTER KEATON IN MARITAL TROUBLES

MRS. SEWELL

MR. AND MRS. KEATON

Marital misbehavior between Buster Keaton, film comedian, and Mrs. Leah Clampitt Sewell of the sensational Swanson-Sewell "wife swap" case has been charged in a divorce suit and a $200,000 alienation of affections suit brought by Mrs. Keaton in Los Angeles. Mrs. Sewell, shown at RIGHT, has been seeking separate maintenance from Barton Sewell, millionaire yachtsman. The Keatons at LEFT, were married in 1933.

'ADVANCE GUARD OF TREKKERS IN OTTAWA PREPARE FOR COMRADES

While groups and "armies" and battalions of relief camp strikers and unemployed demonstrators marched on the highways from several directions intent upon reaching Ottawa to make their grievances known, a company of trekkers, more than 350 strong, are already in the capital making ready for the advancing comrades. From Rockcliffe, Ont., Valcartier, Quebec and Petawawa, they came, with some Regina strikers who escaped the police vigilance in the west. Manitoba trekkers started across Ontario to but turned back. Toronto's delegation is surrounded by police but the trekkers are sure somehow they will break through. Meanwhile here is the advance guard at Ottawa. TOP LEFT, some of the boys preparing a meal at the Labor Temple headquarters. RIGHT, doing a bit of barbering. LOWER LEFT, G. Cotter eastern organizer for the National Unemployed Council of Canada, in Ottawa to wreck destruction. LOWER RIGHT, a view of the Labor Temple with a group of men quartered there displaying their signs.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

SADISTIC TREND IN GERMANY

Students of racial psychology have an amazing phase of life to study in the fascorism and cruelty which are manifest in Germany at the present time. German authorities blame irresponsible elements but as far as can be learned the police appear to condone outrages on men and women, and attacks on the Jewish people. Just recently the Vatican has had to call the attention of Germany to violation of the agreement made with the Holy See in treating German Catholics in ways that are not only anti-religious but cruel and scandalous. As an offset to the trouble it was said that Reichsfuehrer Hitler rode about Berlin in his automobile frowning upon disorders. But Hitler has just removed the mild chief of police at Berlin for a violently anti-Semitic figure.

The mentality at which the German crowds have arrived has something morbid in it. Horror was felt a year ago at the Nazi blood purge. It is possible that the blood lust and cruelty have become second nature in Germany. It seems like a throw-back worse than savagery, if men delight in making others suffer. The growth of such a mentality from the ordinary human outlook is surely pathological. Is it a sign of German breakdown?

SWIM

Teach the children and even the older folk to swim, is the best advice which can be given. The Government of this Province has added its approval of a scheme which will bring to the attention of the people its advantage and the pleasure to result from ability to swim.

The main reason for the drive is of course to prevent drownings. Spectators seeing persons in difficulty will, if themselves able to swim, be able to lend aid.

There is one other advantage—pleasure. Canada is a land rich in waterways, lakes and streams. To be a full-fledged Canadian would seem almost of necessity that one ought to be able to protect himself in the water.

BIRD MISSIONARIES

Lover of birds and nature, Jack Miner has a Gospel message for the far north hunters, the Indians and Eskimos. Each year these people in the Arctic Circle kill geese banded by Jack Miner at Kingsville. Each tag besides having Jack Miner's post office address contains a verse of Scripture which is Jack Miner's unique way in spreading the gospel by using the fowl of the air as missionaries.

As soon as the Indians and natives kill a missionary goose they take the tag to the Anglican missionaries and the Roman priests for the information of God's word. As money is no good Jack Miner has secured several thousand Bible pictures and offers sending same on the "goose." The Hudson Bay supply boat that visits the Arctic region each summer, to be distributed by the missionaries to the Eskimos and Indians. Each picture bears words trade the Bible pictures for the tags. In this way Jack Miner feels he is doing good by not only the verse of Scripture on the tag, but by trading the colored pictures to the natives for the tags.

The missionaries return the tags to Jack Miner and data of such migration is used in schools for scientific study in regards to birds.

Can there be a more sensible manner in which the lay Christian can distribute "the glad tidings of great joy" than this way of using the fowls of the air into missionaries. Jack Miner does nothing by accidentally he is building up a migrations through the data so gathered will be invaluable. In a few years will be established a wild bird sanctuary he does not merely but all small birds also. Jack Miner's children and se[illegible] nesting of such birds gains [illegible] to the length of [illegible] different birds. [illegible] March 24th, he caught [illegible] ducks and replaced [illegible] from the Saskatchewan Fish and [illegible] Department, to the number of [illegible] being 1,500 miles from [illegible] Saskatchewan boundary line [illegible] Circle.

[illegible] were not approximately one [illegible] they were tagged by Jack [illegible] and only 9,000 miles from Jack [illegible] at Kingsville, Ontario, Can-

[illegible] been more different for a [illegible] red, for in the one [illegible] sids, as it often assists in [illegible] in the other sense is required. [illegible] not see a person deficient [illegible] ing in wealth; and then from [illegible] of sense, call head-over-heels to the [illegible] ...

[illegible] ...vinnes may be considered the can[illegible] of the matter. Life in vigor, and [illegible] improvement, that creeps on [illegible] ...ously depredations and taints and [illegible] ...ness what it cannot consume.—John[illegible]

[illegible] ...ignorance turns an ague into a fever, [illegible] into a plague, fear into despair, [illegible] into rage, loss into madness, and [illegible] ...sorrow into lasement.—Jeremy Taylor.

SIDELIGHTS
THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the events of the day, the gossip and general news compiled personally by the Intelligencer under the revolving name and comments Grave and Gay.—Supervised by The Lamplighter.

WALTER HARD sells sodas, pills and postal cards in the Hard drug store in Manchester, Vermont, which he owns. Between times he writes a column for the local newspaper, closing each column with a free-verse sketch of some living or local character. Two volumes of his verse have been published. "Salt of Vermont" is the title of the last.

A FORWARD LOOKER

The afternoon sun shone through
The plaid, flowered windows of Susan Merrifield's sitting-room.
It made them seem to warm
That Susan sat turned the pipe damper straight across
So the smoke-curling chimney cowl sent up a thin line of smoke,
Which drifted lazily away from the chimney.

The gaze of Susan's eyes was far seeing;
It was Mrs. Thompson with her gay shawl
Over her head,
Come in! Come in!" Susan called, sqawering the knock.
"I saw you scootin' up the path, Mis' Thurston.
Lay off your shawl and draw up that rocker;"
Mrs. Thurston put her shawl on the table
And drew a rocker toward Susan.
"I can't stop more'n a minute.
I don't like it when she fires.
No telln' what might happen."

Susan looked at her as she sat down.
"Well, did you ever see the beat of this weather?
Here it is 'most April and no spring.
It does beat all!"
Mrs. Thurston looked out of the window.
"Wal, I see Jeff Wing's peanuts" he spoke of it.
"Got to be too sure. It looks like a weather breedin' one."
Susan leaned over her sewing.
"Wal, it's been a breedin' for some weeks.
I declare I jus' enjoyed it
And My's me, I'm so fond o' wood."

Mrs. Thurston rocked a minute.
"Yes, it has been nice—so far.
I was kind o' afraid it might Put only 'a knows we was goin' t' have
A mild winter.
I got a lot more enjoyment
Out o' last summer."

x x x x

H.M.S. YORK steamed into Montreal harbor the other day and the Royal mountaineers are getting a big thrill out of close acquaintance with one of Britain's mighty warships—a ship of the line—not one of the largest but one of sufficient size and equipment to illustrate vividly just what the British Navy is composed of. H.M.S. York is a tower of strength. She carries six eight-inch guns, four 4-inch guns, and three pom-pom guns, in addition to torpedo tubes, and rapid-firing anti-aircraft guns. All of her two funnels, on a catapult machine, is a reconnoitering seaplane that would have been rad they remained in the old home town.

Dr. George C. Jackson was chosen for the reunion from Winnipeg.

Mrs. Fred Hamilton has arrived in town from Winnipeg.

Mr. W. W. Power is home from New York.

Messrs. J. M. and J. F. Copeland of Toronto, are guests of their father, Mr. James Copeland.

Mr. "Billie" Deapsey of Toronto is here for the reunion and is staying at Hotel Quinte.

Mr. Thos. Duncan of London, Ont., is here for the reunion. He was formerly assistant cashier here.

Mr. Geo. F. Newberry of St. Louis, Mo., is home for the reunion.

Mrs. Ras. Titus is among the visiting Old Boys.

Mr. Clark Diamond and wife of Chicago, are in the city. Many of the old boys will remember Bert as Clarky.

40 Years Ago

JULY 22, 1895

Mr. Archie Stewart, a former well known resident, is dead.

Mr. Henry Donnelly of Kingston spent yesterday in the city.

Mr. George Hamilton has returned to Montreal after spending his vacation here.

Mr. Jasper Nelson of Rochester, N.Y., who learned his trade in the Intelligencer office, is spending his vacation in the city.

Messrs. Chas. A. Ostrom and Harry M. Chilcott have gone for a ten days' trip on the lakes ahead to Toronto, London, St. Thomas, Niagara Falls and Buffalo.

Mr. Cecil Diamond is home from Rochester on vacation.

50 Years Ago

JULY 22, 1885

HOME AGAIN, BELLEVILLE'S WELCOME TO THE HEROES OF BATOCHE. THE STREETS DECORATED IN THEIR HONOR. ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION ALONG THE LINE OF MARCH. Shortly after twelve o'clock noon today the express train from Port Hope bearing the returning volunteers came into sight and was greeted with rousing cheers. As the train drew slowly up to the platform the Oddfellows' band struck up "Home Again," but the music was almost drowned in the cheers of the multitude. The crowd pressed forward but was held back by the close ranks of the 15th and 49th Battalions which were drawn up along the platform in front of the depot. It would be hard to tell which cheered the loudest, the returning heroes or their welcoming comrades. The company of the 15th Battalion was the first to leave the train. The men presented an imposing appearance. They were tanned as brown as leather and looked the hearty as good health could make them. The uniforms they were were in striking contrast with those worn by their comrades present to greet them. Instead of bright scarlet they were coats of a deep red hue, stained and dusty. They were hatless and many had bandages across their to be seen. In their place were khaki caps pinned from the lines. The company from the 49th Battalion soon joined them on the platform. Their looks were also gone and they were the coats made of bag linen and their uniforms were tattered and torn. As soon as it could be accomplished the men were formed into line in the depot yard and each of them was presented with a wreath by the ladies who welcomed they home. As an evidence of the popularity of Adjt. Jackson with his men, as he passed down the platform after the train had stopped and before the men had left the coaches, he was greeted with rousing cheers by all on board. Finally a line of march was formed and proceeding from the station grounds under the arch in the following order: Chief of Police McKinney and other mounted marshals; 15th Battalion Band; Adjutant Jackson mounted; "A" company of the Midland Battalion; "A" company of the 15th Battalion, carrying the wounded Halliwell boy here in a carriage; Lieut.-Col. Gilmour, Lieut.-Col. S. S. Lazier and staff; 15th Battalion; Stirling Band; Lieut.-Col. Brown and staff; 49th Battalion; Mayor Dunnet and members of the council; Hungerford Band; Trenton town council in carriages; Oddfellows' Band; Lodges in full regalia with banners; the Ramblers' Wheel Club under Capt. Neil; Lieut.-Col. Bleasdell, Lieut.-Col. E. Halliwell and Corp. E. Halliwell, the wounded soldiers, occupying a carriage which was escorted by a guard of honor composed of Sergt.-Major Cunningham, Capt. Benson, Capt. Anderson; Lieut. Ashford, Lieut. Lazier, Lieut. Harrington, officers of the 15th Battalion; Citizens in carriages. The wounded heroes belonging to that county and the gallant Bleasdell headed their party. All along the line of march the men were loudly cheered. The returning companies marched under the arch and Lieut. Lazier and Lieut. Ashford presented flowers by white-robed school children along the line of the march. Arriving at the corner of Bridge and Front streets the procession halted and marched to John street up John street to Dundas, down Dundas street to the market square where the volunteers were drawn up in line in front of the platform to receive addresses. The band will as soon as order could be secured prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Ryal Halliwell, Church of England clergyman and father of the Halliwell boys. Addresses of welcome addresses were made by Mayor Dunnet, M. P., Reeve Thomas, warden of the county, Mrs. S. S. Lazier, president of the Patriotic Ladies' Committee, Rev. Mr. Cox, Trenton, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Alex. Ferguson, M. P., after the Bleasdell medal. Orders had been read by R. E. Lazier, Capt. and Adjt. Jackson of the 15th Battalion, the officers of the 15th Battalion, Prince Edward Rifles, were escorted by Col. Lazier to his residence at the corner of John and Bridge streets and as soon as the men of "A" company were divested of their regimentals they returned, led by the band. Col. Brown took the officers and men of "B" company to the residence at the corner of William and Bridge streets, where the ladies of Mrs. Lazier's and also upon the lawn at Col. Brown's a bountiful luncheon was served. All the delicacies of the season were provided in both places and highly relished by the men. After the luncheon the men went where they pleased and they emerged from the grounds their progress was impeded by friends and acquaintances who desired to shake them by the hand. Most of them came for home, while those who lived out of town took a walk along Front street. In the evening the city was brightly illuminated and presented a gorgeous appearance with the myriads of Chinese lanterns and lighted windows. Front street was particularly inviting. A grand display of fireworks was made at the market field and the large area was crowded with people.

July 23, 1885.

The only veterans of the Rebellion of 1885, as far as known, who are at present residing in Belleville are as follows: "A" Company, 15th Battalion—J. W. Sadler, Lewis Soule and Sergt.-Major Aris. "B" Company, 49th Battalion—George Ray and William Watts.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JULY 22, 1915.

The G.T.R. Picnic at Massassaga Park was a great success and to the members of the following committees much credit is due for the enjoyable day afforded the many people who attended. Games committee—W. Dunn, chairman; G. Dorse, W. Small; Dancing committee—George Darrah, chairman; George Naylor; Ticket committee—J. W. Barlow, chairman; D. H. Fisher; Boat committee—S. Snell, chairman, S. P. Orme, W. Boyce, A. Brewster; Water sports—W. Rogers, chairman; W.R.T. Wenaley; Chairman of grounds, Col. Bonisteel. The baseball game between a picked team from the G.T.R. employees at Toronto and the G.T.R. team of this city resulted in victory for the local team, the score being 4 to 3. The following composed the team: Belleville G.T.R.—P. Coyer, Wilson, Mills, Mulr, D. Simmons, W. Simmons, Page, W. Gadsby, H. Simmons and Murphy. Toronto G.T.R.—F. Finley, Mumford, Gordon, Scott, Fogarty, Melbourne, Barker, Hoolnan and Hare. Umpire, Munro.

30 Years Ago

JULY 22, 1905.

BELLEVILLE'S WARM WELCOME TO THE OLD BOYS AND GIRLS. DECORATIONS ARE "OUT OF SIGHT." COMMITTEE UNDONE TO MAKE THE OCCASION A GRAND SUCCESS. The Belleville Old Boys' Reunion is that of a good start. This morning the old town from one corner of the city limits to the other looked like a scene from "Babes in the Wood." It seems to be a spontaneous outburst of welcome to the many visitors. Everywhere are to be seen waving flags, bright bunting and evergreens. In years to come the boys and girls of today will have many stories to tell of "When the Old Boys and the Old Girls" came home in 1905 and how the staid citizens went wild in their honor. Begone dull care! Come home time for some seldom in a lifetime. Visitors have been arriving for several days past and today the city is filled with Old Boys and Girls.

Hats off to the Old Girls. They're nearly as pretty as they should have been had they remained in the old home town.

Dr. George C. Jackson was chosen for the reunion from Winnipeg.

Mrs. Fred Hamilton has arrived in town from Winnipeg.

Mr. W. W. Power is home from New York.

Messrs. J. M. and J. F. Copeland of Toronto, are guests of their father, Mr. James Copeland.

Mr. "Billie" Deapsey of Toronto is here for the reunion and is staying at Hotel Quinte.

Mr. Thos. Duncan of London, Ont., is here for the reunion. He was formerly assistant cashier here.

Mr. Geo. F. Newberry of St. Louis, Mo., is home for the reunion.

Mrs. Ras. Titus is among the visiting Old Boys.

Mr. Clark Diamond and wife of Chicago, are in the city. Many of the old boys will remember Bert as Clarky.

40 Years Ago

JULY 22, 1895

Mr. Archie Stewart, a former well known resident, is dead.

Mr. Henry Donnelly of Kingston spent yesterday in the city.

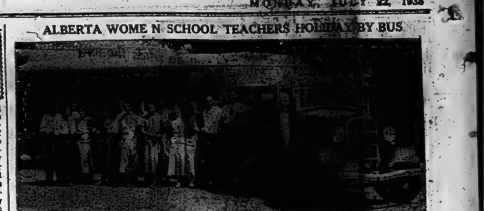
Mr. George Hamilton has returned to Montreal after spending his vacation here.

Mr. Jasper Nelson of Rochester, N.Y., who learned his trade in the Intelligencer office, is spending his vacation in the city.

Messrs. Chas. A. Ostrom and Harry M. Chilcott have gone for a ten days' trip on the lakes ahead to Toronto, London, St. Thomas, Niagara Falls and Buffalo.

Mr. Cecil Diamond is home from Rochester on vacation.

50 Years Ago



JULY 22, 1885.

HOME AGAIN, BELLEVILLE'S WELCOME TO THE HEROES OF BATOCHE. THE STREETS DECORATED IN THEIR HONOR. ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION ALONG THE LINE OF MARCH. Shortly after twelve o'clock noon today the express train from Port Hope bearing the returning volunteers came into sight and was greeted with rousing cheers. As the train drew slowly up to the platform the Oddfellows' band struck up "Home Again," but the music was almost drowned in the cheers of the multitude. The crowd pressed forward but was held back by the close ranks of the 15th and 49th Battalions which were drawn up along the platform in front of the depot. It would be hard to tell which cheered the loudest, the returning heroes or their welcoming comrades. The company of the 15th Battalion was the first to leave the train. The men presented an imposing appearance. They were tanned as brown as leather and looked the hearty as good health could make them. The uniforms they were were in striking contrast with those worn by their comrades present to greet them. Instead of bright scarlet they were coats of a deep red hue, stained and dusty. They were hatless and many had bandages across their to be seen. In their place were khaki caps pinned from the lines. The company from the 49th Battalion soon joined them on the platform. Their looks were also gone and they were the coats made of bag linen and their uniforms were tattered and torn. As soon as it could be accomplished the men were formed into line in the depot yard and each of them was presented with a wreath by the ladies who welcomed they home. As an evidence of the popularity of Adjt. Jackson with his men, as he passed down the platform after the train had stopped and before the men had left the coaches, he was greeted with rousing cheers by all on board. Finally a line of march was formed and proceeding from the station grounds under the arch in the following order: Chief of Police McKinney and other mounted marshals; 15th Battalion Band; Adjutant Jackson mounted; "A" company of the Midland Battalion; "A" company of the 15th Battalion, carrying the wounded Halliwell boy here in a carriage; Lieut.-Col. Gilmour, Lieut.-Col. S. S. Lazier and staff; 15th Battalion; Stirling Band; Lieut.-Col. Brown and staff; 49th Battalion; Mayor Dunnet and members of the council; Hungerford Band; Trenton town council in carriages; Oddfellows' Band; Lodges in full regalia with banners; the Ramblers' Wheel Club under Capt. Neil; Lieut.-Col. Bleasdell, Lieut.-Col. E. Halliwell and Corp. E. Halliwell, the wounded soldiers, occupying a carriage which was escorted by a guard of honor composed of Sergt.-Major Cunningham, Capt. Benson, Capt. Anderson; Lieut. Ashford, Lieut. Lazier, Lieut. Harrington, officers of the 15th Battalion; Citizens in carriages. The wounded heroes belonging to that county and the gallant Bleasdell headed their party. All along the line of march the men were loudly cheered. The returning companies marched under the arch and Lieut. Lazier and Lieut. Ashford presented flowers by white-robed school children along the line of the march. Arriving at the corner of Bridge and Front streets the procession halted and marched to John street up John street to Dundas, down Dundas street to the market square where the volunteers were drawn up in line in front of the platform to receive addresses. The band will as soon as order could be secured prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Ryal Halliwell, Church of England clergyman and father of the Halliwell boys. Addresses of welcome addresses were made by Mayor Dunnet, M. P., Reeve Thomas, warden of the county, Mrs. S. S. Lazier, president of the Patriotic Ladies' Committee, Rev. Mr. Cox, Trenton, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Alex. Ferguson, M. P., after the Bleasdell medal. Orders had been read by R. E. Lazier, Capt. and Adjt. Jackson of the 15th Battalion, the officers of the 15th Battalion, Prince Edward Rifles, were escorted by Col. Lazier to his residence at the corner of John and Bridge streets and as soon as the men of "A" company were divested of their regimentals they returned, led by the band. Col. Brown took the officers and men of "B" company to the residence at the corner of William and Bridge streets, where the ladies of Mrs. Lazier's and also upon the lawn at Col. Brown's a bountiful luncheon was served. All the delicacies of the season were provided in both places and highly relished by the men. After the luncheon the men went where they pleased and they emerged from the grounds their progress was impeded by friends and acquaintances who desired to shake them by the hand. Most of them came for home, while those who lived out of town took a walk along Front street. In the evening the city was brightly illuminated and presented a gorgeous appearance with the myriads of Chinese lanterns and lighted windows. Front street was particularly inviting. A grand display of fireworks was made at the market field and the large area was crowded with people.

July 23, 1885.

The only veterans of the Rebellion of 1885, as far as known, who are at present residing in Belleville are as follows: "A" Company, 15th Battalion—J. W. Sadler, Lewis Soule and Sergt.-Major Aris. "B" Company, 49th Battalion—George Ray and William Watts.

ALBERTA WOME N SCHOOL TEACHERS HOLIDAY BY BUS.

Alberta women school teachers believe in travelling during their vacations—and travelling as cheaply as possible. So they organized a club.

The Alberta Incursion club and bought this bus to spend their holidays motoring. Thirty of the western province's feminine pedagogues are making a tour to the Atlantic coast from thence to New York city by this novel mode of covering distance. Three male drivers handle the vehicle. The teachers eat and sleep in the portable "home" and all re-[illegible] ...ort of thing some on the journey to [illegible] ...ticular part of the route. [illegible] ...an "outlet group along with [illegible] ...ed the vacation bus. [illegible] ...ing it view of the dining-room department, with a quartette of ladies serv[illegible] in the rear section of the bus.

[illegible] ...latest contribution to the strike [illegible] ...ome during the week-end when $80 was collected at a female meeting.

MADOC

The evenings were spent in sitting around a camp fire listening to stories and singing songs. The spokesman for the party were Miss P. McCaig and Miss L. Peters.

On Wednesday the Madoc bowling club held a very successful tournament. Visiting clubs were attended from Kingston, Warkworth, Hastings, Campbellford, Tweed and Madoc. The complete tournament during the afternoon and evening. After the finals in the evening the ladies of Madoc club served lunch to the visiting clubs. The prizes were awarded as follows:

1st: Mr. Newman's rink, Kingston.
2nd: Mr. J. Wiggins rink, Madoc.
3rd: Rink of Mr. Hughes, Campbellford. Mr. W. Whitty's rink, Hastings.

On Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Rutherford, the ladies of the Madoc Anglican church entertained in honor of Mrs. George Mayberry, who is a few weeks leave for her home in Belleville. The hosts was nicely decorated with cut flowers. Mrs. Ansell received with her sister, Mrs. Mayberry. Mrs. Richardson assisting the ladies in the dining room where Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Dafoe poured tea. Mrs. R. Bristol and Mrs. A. Bristol assisting.

STEVENS SWINGS TORONTO WEST

Round-up of West Counties to Take Three Weeks.

OSHAWA, July 22—The campaign opened in Ontario, Hon. Dr. H. Stevens, leader of the Reconstruction Party, today looked toward Western Canada. While his itinerary was not available, it had been tentatively decided he would leave for the West about the middle of the week. He will probably break in all cities of the Prairie Provinces and British Columbia in a swift swing round the Western country, expected to occupy about three weeks.

A delegation of relief camp strikers from among the number gathered in Ottawa may see Mr. Stevens tonight. Last week he visited their headquarters and agreed to receive three of them if they wished to come.

Last Friday night, the campaign in Canada's most politically partisan opened in Hamilton. There the Reconstruction leader explained it was in Hamilton, less than three weeks ago, the new party had its birth.

The following day he spoke in St. Catharines, emphasizing his belief in the need for some regulative body to see the primary producer received a fair return for his produce. He instanced fruit and livestock particularly. If elected to power he asserted a Dominion Agriculture Board would be set up with the Reconstruction Government.

One of its functions would be to see the farmer was not victimized by packing companies or canners to whom he supplied their raw material.

295 MARCHERS ARE OPTIMISTIC

Sojourners at Oshawa Wait Orders to Resume Trek

OSHAWA, Ont., July 22.—(CP)—Trek-to-Ottawa marchers, 295 strong, today awaited orders from their leaders to set out on the next lap of their trek on the Capital.

Meanwhile two members of the strikers "executive" prepared to return to Toronto and take up leadership of their comrades, due to join in the march.

Strikers were obviously confident as they awaited orders to resume trek today. They have been marching here two days and have been accompanied by sympathizers.

If another conference is held here from Toronto it is expected one two would join the sojourners here. Authorities on the dining room where Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Dafoe poured tea. Mrs. R. Bristol and Mrs. A. Bristol assisting.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

by R. J. SCOTT

Baseball
Current Spo

IN THE REALM OF SPORTING EVENTS

Golf
Bowling

Big Series In Both Loops Opens In N.Y. Louis and Leadership Change

Tigers Meet Yankees And Cards Ties Into Giants

CARDS GAIN

Win Twin Bill And Giants Take Double Loss

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

If the big schedule-makers had known in advance what was going to happen this season they couldn't have arranged it much better than they did in bringing together St. Louis Cardinals and New York Giants in the big series starting today and the Detroit Tigers and New York Yankees in another.

For a couple of weeks the steady upward progress of the two second-place clubs, St. Louis and Detroit, and the slumps of New York's two leaders have been paving the way for a grand climax in the important games of the next few days and the events of the past week-end only served to increase the suspense.

Detroit climbed into a virtual tie with Yanks Saturday then slipped back a half game yesterday when New York managed to get an even break in a doubleheader with St. Louis while Tigers, after smashing Lefty Grove around, finally went down 7-6 before the Red Sox when Wes Ferrell belted a ninth home run with two on base in the ninth. The Cards started away at the Giants' lead with a double victory over Brooklyn, 13-7 and 7-4 and finally set it up 1-2 games, when Chicago knocked off the Giants in a doubleheader 8-4 and 11-4.

Cubs who slipped into a quite enviable third place only four games off the lead, had to take six hard way to both victories before a season record crowd of 44,186. After yesterday Giants a pair of homers, they enlisted Charley Root's 10-hit pitching to take the opening-game honors. They blew a five-run lead in the last inning of the second game and came back in the same frame to blast out the win.

Cards Winging

Cards also attracted the largest home crowd of the season, 26,000, and set-to-trained it by batting out 20 hits in their two games, winning the second on a four-run burst in the eighth after Fred Fitzsimmons had been belted to cover.

Yankees still unable to hit St. Louis pitching, took the opener of their bargain bill 2-0, when they yielded 3-1 hit 10th inning and in the afternoon, when Julius Solters, who had doubled home the first run, smacked Vito Tamulis for a homer.

Like Cubs, Chicago's White Sox maintained their place "ready to jump on either of the two clubs" that get badly beaten. The Hose took a place 1½ games back of Yanks by bowling over Senators 4-3 behind Lyons' steady flinging.

In the remainder of the league standings the Phillies put in a big day by splitting a doubleheader with Pirates, 10-0 and 2-1 to 8, as Curt Davis clinched victory and Joe Bowman followed up with a three-hitter.

Pittsburg, with Bill Swift granting only four hits, came out Braves' 7-0 for Boston's 16th consecutive defeat while Reds, one of other big loser recently, rallied to turn back the Athletics 6-4 on a five run rally in the seventh.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By the Associated Press)—
Charley Root and Billy Herman, Cubs—Root blanked Giants with five hits in the eighth inning of the first opener; Herman batted in four runs with four hits.

Wes Ferrell, Red Sox—walloped pinch home run with two on base in ninth to beat Tigers.

Bill Swift, Pirates—Held Braves with four hits and knocked in two runs.

Tony Piet, White Sox—Led attack on Senators with three hits, including homer.

Woody Wheaton and Joe Mowrey, Cardinals—Mayrin scored four runs in first victory over Dodgers; Mowrey made four straight hits in second.

Hal Trosky, Indian—Drove in three runs in triumph over Browns.

Curt Davis and Joe Bowman, Phillies—shut out rival in double header; Davis driving in his and Bowman five.

Johnny Broaca, Yankees and Pat Malone, Senators—Broaca pitched two-hit shut out in opener; Malone drove in three runs in second, game with double and home run.

CARL GRUBER QUALIFIES FOR C.C.A. REGATTA

Was Second in Double Blade Singles at Ottawa

GANANOQUE WINS

Amass Nine Firsts, Five Seconds And One Third

OTTAWA, July 22.—(CP)—Paddling second from the Gananoque Canoe Club today were more firmly entrenched than ever as rulers of the Northern Division of the Canadian Canoe Association.

Gananoque's stalwart blade wielders scored an overwhelming triumph over six rival clubs in the annual qualifying Regatta Saturday.

Only in five of 14 events did the St. Lawrence River paddlers concede first place to their opposition and when the finish gun fired the end of "the mile" to signal a new champion in each of that grueling race, Gananoque had amassed a total of 56 points in the aggregate. New Edinburgh placed second with 36 points and Carleton Place third with 14. Eldean Aquatic finished in fourth position with eleven points while Britannia had to be with six points. Belleville was credited with two points, with Thousand Beach failing to collect one.

Fall in Two Events

In only two events Gananoque fail to place a crew among first three finishers. They opened with a victory in the second race, but were pushed into two points in the third event they fouled far into the lead with six straight victories. In 10 Gananoque scored nine firsts, five seconds and one third to qualify. Effort marks the annual Canadian Championship meet to be held here August 8, at Mooney's Bay.

Listing the Gananoque's number of victories was not in half-mile war canoe. Captain Bill Edward's sailors, they opened with a race in that race, but in the third event of the day over the mile route, Cecil Powers' Red, White and Black crew scraped the previous set back.

Carl Burgis paddles a beautiful race in the mile, Gananoque led at the half, but Burgis' better power nor stamina to withstand the challenge that Burgis passed on them. At the three-quarters Mark Fralick took charge of command and increased their lead from there to the finish to win by a comfortable margin. Fralick and Burgis also took second place and Gananoque third.

Grober Qualifies

Carl Gruber, local sculptor, qualified to compete in the Canadian Canoe Association's Dominion regatta here next month by finishing in the double blade singles during the meeting of Northern Division at Ottawa on Saturday, Gruber drew the lane nearest the bank of the New Edinburgh course in the Ottawa River and was therefore handicapped somewhat, although he got away strong and a close second to the leader. At the finish Gruber was further handicapped by the wash of the boats which had been drawn the current lane. Gruber was the only entry in this class from the Belleville Aquatic Club. Although the local intermediate paddler failed to reach first class. A large entry was at hand.

TORONTO LEAFS WIN TWIN BILL

Whaled Out 27 Hits to Down Rochester Red Wings

(By the Associated Press)

Toronto Maple Leafs are jumping right on the heels of the pace-setting Rochester Red Wings in the International League and if the latter don't get under way soon they will be in the thick of the fight for one of the other teams, that have held that honored title.

Yesterday the Leafs took two games from the surprising Rochesters by identical scores, while the League-leaders were grounding out to Buffalo. Two wins for Toronto and the lead for Red Wings made the difference approximately four games in the standings.

Toronto won the first game 8-4 and the second 22-6. They whaled out 27 hits in the first game and it seemed, would never end. They got 16 in the first and 11 in the second. Ken Strong, veteran Toronto scored, six runs in the first game and the second pitcher to knock Johnny Mionskas from the mound and put the game on ice.

Strong, as Catcher, was injured in the Montreal defeat, throwing up his arm as a protection for his face, but only two Royals reaching second base after the second inning. The Bloore won 4-2 Marvin Olson his 4 homer.

The Baltimore Orioles swept their doubleheader with Albany, Jersey City's International League members first baseman, his safety in the first game making it a 3-for-4 in which he has made one or more hits.

BASEBALL—C.O.B.L.

EXHIBITION GROUNDS, BELLEVILLE, ON

TUESDAY, JULY 23, at 6:15 p.m. D.S.T.

KINGSTON (Ponies) vs BELLEVILLE (Stewart Warners)

The Radios can edge into first place by winning this tilt. The locals are playing smart ball. Come! Usual Admission.

Singles Scull Champion is Chas. Campbell

(By Bob Cavagnaro)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Princeton, N.J., July 22 (CP) — Charlie Campbell, a low-heated Canadian youngster, who refuses to take anything seriously — particularly himself—finished unscientifically in the spotlight today, amateur singles scull champion of the world.

The saga of the rise of James J. Braddock to the world's heavyweight boxing supremacy was no more sensational and spectacular than this 21-year-old Toronto oarsman's triumph Saturday in the Philadelphia Gold Challenge cup race on its smooth waters of Lake Carnegie.

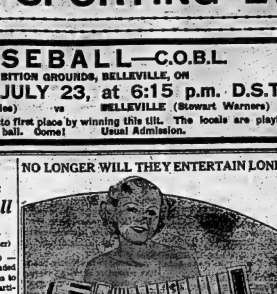
For a long time the Canadian rowing enthusiasts had been spectacle Campbell to try his hand at single sculling.

A year ago—June, the third day of the month to be exact, he gave in. He settled down on a sliding seat, wrapped his big hands around the oars and in his determined portfolio shook their heads. The wish was farther to the thought, they mused. Charlie stroked gracefully and inexpertly, but with a rowing smooth or rythmic about his timing.

Yet, a few weeks later he captured the Canadian championship and then went to Baltimore for the Ohni regatta of the United States National Association of amateur oarsmen. He gathered in the association championship and then finished off the season by finished half a length behind the great Victorian Winthrop Rutherford, Jr., despite the fact that he floundered all over the course and still stroked choppily.

He came back this year for the American classic in Princeton. He entered the association championship and was beaten in his first two heats and one-quarter straightaway. The next day he captured the championship, clipping almost two seconds off his trial time, and then proceeding to beat Rutherford, champion, and Al Begt of the Penn. A former mackerel, Campbell, the Gold Cup race, emblematic of the Centre amateur sculling event.

They met, Campbell took a quick look at his experienced rivals, shook himself and let go. He was off like his old self again—the chop stroke style, however, he smoothed out quickly, took command of the situation, left the starter's mark and then coasted across the finish line, winner by seven lengths over Rutherford and 14 lengths over Vogt. He will defend the Canadian title here in the Royal Canadian Henley, Ont., and will be a strong favorite to win the Olympic sculls next year.



"Gracks," he said shyly afterwards, "it was nothing. I guess the latter said before the race I had a good chance, but I wasn't to let him down because he's done a lot for me. Let's talk about the weather."

PETES EASILY WIN CONTEST

Defeat Oshawa 17-7 in Sloppy, Draggy Game

Peterboro, July 23 (CP)—Johnson Motors moved into a first place tie with Kingston in the O.B.L. here on Saturday by trouncing Dominion Motors of Oshawa 17 to 7. It was a sloppy and draggy game with none of the pitchers showing much effectiveness. The hot spell had had a field day at bat, pounding Don Ogden and Lefty Jones for 24 safeties, five being doubles. They pounded Ogden out in the fourth, and second on Jones to get the nine runs in that inning. Burton, Whaley and Reilly were the pitchers. The visitors tallied four in the seventh and the second game.

Knotty Lee started Frank White-head, reinstated pro player, and the latter showed some of his good but was tiring from lack of practice when he was replaced by Eichorn starting the fifth. The latter got by without working hard and Master-mann was sent in for the final frame. The Sea Horses gave their pitchers good backing while the Brewers kicked in with some bad mistakes and played rather ragged throughout. A large crowd stayed for two and a half hours as the homesters battered their batting average.

NO LONGER WILL THEY ENTERTAIN LONDON

LU ANNE MEREDITH

HARRIETTE HADDON

Harriette Haddon and Lu Anne Meredith are two of the score of American show girls who have been denied work in London after the expiration of their present labor permits because the British Labor ministry thinks hotels, where the girls have been appearing are not suitable places for girly floor shows.

The American beauties had been packing 'em in, even drawing British royalty to see them perform at the two London hotels. British performers had complained to the labor ministry that the hotel shows were drawing people away from theatres and music halls, depriving them of work.

INFLATION DRIVE IS NEW FACTOR

Two Measures Involve Five Billion Dollars

Washington, July 22—(AP)— A powerful drive for two measures involving $5,000,000,000 of inflation currency inflation introduced a tremendous new factor today into the Senate's drive for economy legislation.

The announcement of Senator Willis Kenneth (R-Ida) that the Pittsler-Lemke Farm Refinancing Bill and the Patman bonus bill as payment of the-veterans' bonus are almost certain to be added to the Roosevelt "must" measure, probably the new Tax Bill, immediately raise of this question to the minds of many observers.

"Will the Roosevelt tax program be scrapped for this session if the backers of the two measures mentioned by Borah succeed in their attempt?"

Borah's statement was interpreted as giving new force and attention to the drives for the Frazier-Lemke plan to issue up to $3,000,000,000 in new money to refinance farm indebtedness at low interest and the Patman plan to issue $2,000,000,000 at par during the session, to pay the bonus to about $2,000,000,000 worth of war certificates.

Observers recalled in voicing the Patman bill earlier this session President Roosevelt spoke critically of "printing press money."

SENATOR WILSON NOW ONE OF TWO

Better To Have Another Woman in Senate

St. Andrews, N.B., July 22—(CP)—"Naturally, I think it will be much better to have another woman in the Senate," Senator Cairine Wilson said at her summer home here regarding the appointment of Mrs. Howard T. Falls, Peterborough, Ont. to the Red Chamber.

"After all," she remarked with a smile, "women take things more seriously than men." Adding that she had grown "quite accustomed" to being Canada's only woman Senator, Mrs. Wilson said she was unacquainted with the new member and looked forward to meeting her. Senator Wilson received her appointment in February, 1930.

Marion Nixon in "The Lion-Tamer" one of the feature pictures now showing at the Capitol theatre.

CONFESSES TO DROWNING WIFE

Says He Tipped Canoe to Be Free to Wed 16 Year Old Girl

Worcester, Mass., July 22.—(AP) His love for a 16-year-old girl was blamed today by Newell P. Sherman for the confessed slaying of his drowning wife, mother of two children.

State Detective Edward J. McCarthy said Sherman confessed he deliberately overturned the canoe in which he and his 32-year-old wife were paddling on a pond in a fog-covered Lake Singletary. As the canoe capsized Sherman said he grew him, Sherman thrust her away and she sank from sight, the Detective quoted Him as telling him.

McCarthy said Sherman admitted he was in love with Dorothy Whitstaville, Mass. girl with whom he worked. She dallied "going around" with married men, McCarthy said, so Sherman decided to make a good impression on the girl by having no wife."

Sherman was charged with murder in the first degree. He is 36, The couple's children, one born by the tragedy are Janet May, 2 1-2 years old, and Dudley, 18 months.

VACATION DAYS Ahead?

TACKLE BOXES
LANDING NETS
MINNOW TRAPS
FLY RODS
ALL KINDS OF BAITS, etc.

It's a Safe Bet you have a glorious vision in mind of long, golden hours spent in coaxing the fish out of the lake.

For a successful holiday see that your fishing tackle is complete. We have everything you need!

WALKER HARDWARE
COMPANY LIMITED
248 Front St. Belleville Phone 193

REVOLT IN THE DESERT

By
T. E. LAWRENCE

Lewis and Stokes had come down to help me, as was a little anxious about them; for the Arabs, having lost their wits, were as ready to assault friend as foe. We therefore had had to defend myself when they pretended not to know me and pretended at my things. However, the sergeants' war-stained khaki presented few attractions. Lewis went out east of the railway to climb the thirty men he had slain; and, incidentally, to find Turkish gold and trophies in their barrow at Bedia. Stokes rolled through the wrecked bridge saw where the body of Lt. Ferris Turk Bey passed by his second shell, and retired hurriedly.

Ahmed came up to me with his arms full of booty and shouted that Arab could speak normally in the thrill of victory) that we had won the big battle. It was rogue but one which to see me. I sent him at once, simply handed, for my camel and some baggage camels to remove the guns for the enemy's fire was now plainly audible, and the Arabs, satisfied with spoils, were pressing one by one towards the hills, driving cattle, camels before them into safety. It was time for us to go. The guns until the end: but the confusion was indescribable. Our successful experiment had dulled our judgment.

Ahmed never brought the camels. My men, possessed by greed, had dispersed over the land with the Arabs in the dunins. The sergeants and I were left by the road in a strange silence now. We began to fear that we were abandoned with the

THRIFTY WOMEN are choosing their
FUR COAT NOW!
FINEST SELECTIONS.
LOWEST PRICES.
DEFERRED PAYMENTS
Woodleys Furriers
322 Front Street

INSTANT RELIEF from SUNBURN
Doesn't stain clothes
FIRST Aid Hospitals at all the big beaches use Nonsense Cream exclusively for sunburn. Notice how soft, cool and soothing this famous medicinal lotion makes your skin—by all "the fire" and soreness disappear from the worst cases of sunburn. Nonsense is snow-white and greaseless! Get a jar today from any drug or department store.
NOXZEMA

SAVE 25%—BUY $1.08 SIZE for $1.33 8 OZ. JAR 4 OZ. JAR for 54c
Posts BRAN FLAKES with WHEAT
THE NEW BREAKFAST FOOD delicious
MADE IN CANADA

Personals

ENGAGEMENT NOTICE

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lewis, of Belleville, announce the engagement of their only daughter, Violet Mary, to Frank B. Doig, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Doig, of Trenton, Ont. The wedding to take place shortly.

Jerry Doran and "Hoot" Gibson spent the past two weeks at Crowe Lake.

Mrs. L. A. Russell of Ottawa was a visitor in the city over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Mowan and family have left on a trip to Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron E. Jackson, Trenton, spent the week-end the guests of Mrs. Jackson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Adams, Foster Avenue.

Miss Mary Hurley spent the week-end at Crowe Lake.

Mr. Lee Grills, of Sidney, a patient of the Belleville General Hospital, having undergone an operation on Friday for mastoid, and is doing as well as can be expected.

Miss Evelyn Thompson, nurse-in-training, who underwent an appendix operation on April 1, is able to resume [illegible]

Miss Violet Lewis was hostess Saturday evening at a delightful midnight supper held at the Belmont Restaurant when twenty-two guests were entertained.

Mrs. Eugene Brennan, Rochester, N.Y., is spending the week with her mother, Mrs. Pat Lee, John St.

Mr. Alexander Garrett left today for his home in New Westminster, B.C., after having visited friends and relatives in this vicinity for some time.

Mr. Harvey Stewart of the Tip Top Tailors has returned after spending a week in Toronto and Hamilton, where he attended Masonic Grand Lodge.

Miss Nora Trualsch, Kingston, spending her vacation at her home here.

The condition of Miss Bernice Davison, who is a patient in the Kingston General Hospital, was reported as very critical over the week-end.

Mrs. Lavner Mason and daughter Aileen, are visiting friends and relatives in Smith's Falls, Ontario.

The engagement is announced of Margaret Mary, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. O'Connell, Toronto, to Frederick Eugene O'Donohue of Sarnia, son of Mr. Michael J. O'Donohue and of the late Mrs. O'Donohue. The wedding will take place quietly the early part of August. Mr. O'Donohue was formerly Advertising Manager of The Daily Intelligencer.

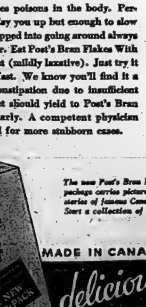
Weddings

PATERSON—KETCHESON

Christ Church, beautifully decorated with Shasta daisies and blue and white, was the scene of a charming wedding on Saturday afternoon at two-thirty, when Helen Gertrude, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ketcheson became the bride of Robert Ross Paterson, B.A., son of Mr. R. J. Paterson and the late Mrs. Paterson, of Agincourt. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. Orr.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, made a lovely picture in her gown of white chiffon, fashioned in long lines with slight train effect. She wore a large white picture hat and carried a white prayer book with streamers of the valley, the gift of Rev. A. L. Geen.

Miss Frances Thompson, Kingston, was bridesmaid, and wore pink organza with matching picture hat. She carried pink roses and delphiniums.



Mr. Angus MacKay, Toronto, was groomsman. Mr. W. S. Paterson, Toronto, and Mr. J. A. Paterson, Kirkfield Lake, brothers of the groom, were ushers.

At the reception held in the church, played wedding music.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, Victoria Avenue, Mrs. R. H. Ketcheson, mother of the bride, wearing a blue and white printed triple sheer gown, and Mrs. A. J. Donaldson, Agincourt, sister of the groom, attired in deep blue flowered crepe, assisted in receiving.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Paterson left on a wedding trip to Montreal and Quebec, the bride travelling in a frock of blue and white printed crepe with hat to match.

Upon their return they will take up residence in Toronto.

Joe E. Brown is to be appears in scenes from "Alibi Ike" his fun-filled picture, which ends at the Belle tonight.

Pigeons Carry 'Quots' on Fruit

Four Hours' Flight Brings News From Fruit Belt to Kingston

Stoney Creek, July 23—(CP)—Something novel hit the manner of sending fruit quotations to his firm is the method employed by a trucker who operates between Kingston and the fruit belt. He carries a crate of homing pigeons with him in the truck. Whenever he learns what he believes to be a favorable quotation of fruit he attaches a piece of paper to the leg of the pigeon upon which is the price and releases it.

It takes the pigeons about four hours to reach their destination. The prices are compared with the quotations received at other points after which a wire or telephone message is sent to the trucker advising him what to purchase.

According to the trucker this unique method of sending messages has a double purpose. The pigeons get a practice flight as the records show that when each of them takes the air, and telegraph and telephone polls are thereby saved. Each Monday, Wednesday and Friday the birds make the 300-mile journey.

Agua Caliente Resort Closes

All Gambling Forbidden And Casino is Padlocked

Agua Caliente, Mexico, July 22—(AP)—Agua picturesque Agua Caliente resort, largely built by North American dollars lost in its gambling casinos, was padlocked today.

By decree of President Cardenas of Mexico all gambling was forbidden at the resort after Saturday night. Since gambling had been the life-blood of the resort, Baron Long, President of the company controlling the resort, immediately ordered the closing of the hotel, the Spa, restaurant, bars—everything.

The famed resort an existence for the last seven years, was erected at a cost variously given from $6,000,000 to $10,000,000.

Tijuana's gambling casinos also felt the Presidential decree. Agua Caliente and Tijuana were Mexico places in Mexico where open gambling was allowed.

7 Cases Heard In Tweed Court

Tweed, July 22 (Special)—Seven cases were tried at the Police Magistrate's Court by J. Lloyd of Northbrook at Tweed on Friday. The first case was that of John Hendrickson, a Norwegian, who on Thursday, July 14th was arrested by Constable Hays on a charge of being in an intoxicated condition. He subsequently assisted the police officer it was said, who subdued him and after a stiff battle in the night charged with assaulting an officer of the law in resisting arrest and conviction he was given three months in the county jail. He was represented by Mr. Wallbridge, Q.C. and for which he received one month's imprisonment with hard labor charged with intoxication. This was his second offence and he was fined $10 including a one month penalty, sentences to run concurrently.

Wm. J. Brown of Marmora, appearing on a charge of reckless driving was assessed ten dollars and costs and his permit was suspended for one month.

The third case to appear before the Magistrate was Lawrie Chapelle, Tweed. On a charge of disorderly conduct he was given six months' imprisonment with hard labor and being intoxicated was enlarged one month.

Francis Casubo on a charge of driving without lights was fined one dollar and costs.

Aga Fleor, a Dane, living in Tweed, was charged with being intoxicated and on pleading guilty was given ten days in the county jail as he was unable to meet the fine imposed by the Magistrate.

Austin Moore on a charge of reckless driving paid a fine of ten dollars and costs.

Madeline Genereaux who pleaded guilty to the theft of a sum of money was given a suspended sentence.

This concluded the largest docket held here in some time.

LOCKJAW PROVES FATAL

Sudbury, Ont., July 21.—(CP)—Stricken with tetanus or lockjaw last week Vienna Koski, nine-year-old Coppercliff girl, died at St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday. The cause of death is said to be due to germs from lockjaw in the ground. The lowest-ice accident two weeks ago when the little girl ran a rusty nail in her foot.

THERE IS NO POSSIBLE SUBSTITUTE for BENSON'S
CORN STARCH
one of the Famous Products of
The CANADA STARCH CO. Limited 22

Bayonets Fixed on Irish Border While Churches Pray for Peace

Widespread Violence in Religious Riots Expected Today

BY STEPHEN WILLIAMSON
Associated Press Foreign Staff
Belfast, Northern Ireland, July 22

All Quiet—Widespread violence arising from Anti-Catholic disorders in Northern Ireland and resulting in silent anti-Protestant reprisals in the Free State threatened Ireland today.

With a ninth person died here last night under a sniper's fire, assassination, bombing and arson throwing swept border areas where mobs burned down three Protestant halls and one Masonic lodge.

Prayers for peace were offered in all Belfast churches while troops with fixed bayonets guarded.

At Limerick, on the Shannon river in the Free State, a mob ransacked and smashed windows in business houses owned by Protestants.

Gunfire broke out in the-Irish Free State, the Manole hall was destroyed. Two other Orange halls were damaged by incendiary fires. Gospel Hall property of the Protestant Gospel Hall Company, a recreation hall maintained by non-religious bodies, was destroyed by fire of arts, dwelling since the Orange celebration, July 12, the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, was Eddie Scarlet. He was shot on the city's Falls road.

A letter from the Bishop of Down and Connor and Dromore, Dr. Mac-Gilla Churches of Ulster, appealing to the congregations to "refrain from bitterness in their hearts, give offense to no man, avoid all occasions of controversy, continue daily in maintenance of order and do not impede the police or soldiers in the performance of their duty."

MANUFACTURERS' FINANCE PROBE

(Continued From Page 1)

the corporation went into bankruptcy and because the matter already had been considered by law officers in 1929, Mr. Godfrey said "I do not propose to make any recommendations as to what if any action might be taken."

The commissioner accompanied his lengthy report with a brief one of Dr. Ernest Lapointe, K.C., who took as a royal commissioner into prosecution and proposed prosecutions arising from the bankruptcy of the Corporation. He found on the advice of the late Edward Bayly, K.C., Deputy Attorney-General for Ontario, and D. L. McCarthy of Toronto that there was probably retained at counsel to advise the department, the prosecutions were not proceeded with.

Senator McDonald

Senator McDonald, said the commissioner, received a salary of $10,000 a year as President and an allowance of $30 a week for expenses and it could be expected his "shoulder" would have known intimately the condition of the company, its internal management and financial position.

"All the evidence indicates, however," the report said, "that he was nothing more than a promoter and was interested only in the sale of securities by high pressure methods and in the acquiring of assets of other companies. His conduct as President cannot be too severely censured."

The pamphlet called "Safety First" issued by the company to promote sale of securities here in Belleville, Mr. Godfrey said, "is misleading and dishonest."

Mr. Godfrey, however, pointed out he attended a meeting." The commissioner said, "and it is doubtful if he can be considered as the responsible head in the opinion of the solicitor for the bankrupt company, Mr. Bell, a director of the company."

Head Resigns

Hunt, elected to the Board in April, 1926 became "suspicious" shortly afterward of the financial position of the company, the report said. He had intimated his views to Mr. Bell and Mr. Stevens wrote a letter to Mr. Westaway and presented a memorandum which was sent to Messrs. Cooper, Westaway, Howard and the company secretary, Mr. Bell.

The commissioner said Mr. Hewson asked Hunt to give his address so the matters could be discussed. Hunt's reply was the next annual meeting and the McDonalds did not desire to have on the Board anyone who showed intelligent inquisitiveness. Mr. Hunt was dropped from the Board" and replaced by Hill. As soon as Hill found out the condition of the company he took the necessary steps for an investigation which resulted in its liquidation, Mr. Godfrey said.

Col. Cooper

"To the extent that he made an investigation into and handled the affairs of the company, Col. Cooper was to be commended, Mr. Godfrey said continued, but he could not escape censure through failure to continue his investigations.

Col. Cooper knew that by means of the "first" pamphlet securities were being sold to the public on the representation that investors could not possibly lose by reason of this insurance the company held against defaulting payments, the Commissioner stated and that the statements in these claims were made the policies would be cancelled. Col. Cooper apparently refrained from making claims as they knew if these statements were made policies would be cancelled and consequently no further money, until the policies were sold to the public, Mr. Godfrey added.

Commissioner Lapointe stated what had been said of Col. Cooper by way of censure or commendation was the equality of Cameron but in addition Cameron should be censured for his "D-Mor" and "Investors' meeting in May 4, 1926, memorandum and for the Martin-Cameron Auditor of conference with the McDonalds.

Stevens and Bosse Shares

Mr. Stevens, the Commissioner reported, was elected a director at the annual meeting on March 11, 1926, but did not qualify as a shareholder until March 4, 1925, when he received from W. M. Mackenzie, a bonus 2,000 common shares of "watered stock" having a nominal par value of $10. "For nearly a year Mr. Stevens acted as a director without being qualified," Mr. Godfrey said.

A subscription of shares which Mr. Stevens said had been ordered conditional upon the underwriting secured in Vancouver, the solicitor for the liquidator said could not be obtained because the holder until March 4, 1925, when he received from W. M. Mackenzie a bonus 2,000 common shares of "watered stock" having a nominal par value of $10. "For nearly a year Mr. Stevens acted as a director without being qualified," Mr. Godfrey said.

Mr. Stevens, the Commissioner reported, was elected a director at the annual meeting on March 11, 1926, but did not qualify as a shareholder until March 4, 1925, when he received from W. M. Mackenzie, a bonus 2,000 common shares of "watered stock" having a nominal par value of $10. "For nearly a year Mr. Stevens acted as a director without being qualified," Mr. Godfrey said.

"Notwithstanding this Mr. Stevens continued to permit the selling of shares in the Corporation by his agents in British Columbia and Alberta but through Canada," the report said. "There was received $1,021.50 as share of profits on sales later returned and this sum to the liquidator of the company.

Upon writing to a telegram Mr. Stevens had sent him stating he and other directors relied implicitly on the statements of the managers' and auditors' statements regarding custody of certificates. The duties of Directors believes was being properly discharged," the report said in view of warning Mr. Stevens received from Hunt, Col. Cooper and the auditors that the policies issued by him could not be accepted as a satisfactory explanation.

"And," he added, "Mr. Stevens cannot escape censure for failure to exercise his duty as a director, as a result of which the investing public suffered loss."

The Commissioner said Howard could not properly be expected to act on warnings Hunt gave as to company's financial position, as Howard was director of co-operating, was active in preventing the investigation upon which Hunt was acting.

While artin, the Corporation Auditor, made reasonable effort from time to time to have access to securities which finally involved the company in ruin, Mr. Godfrey said he was to be censured for lending himself to the issuing of financial statements which did not express the true state of the company's affairs."

Obituary

MRS. K MACOUN

Following a brief illness, Mrs. Elizabeth Macoun, widow of the late Doctor John Macoun, died in Belleville Hospital today. Mrs. Macoun was formerly Elizabeth Senior, daughter of the late Abram Senior who founded the first woollen mill in this district. She is survived by two brothers, Albert E. and William of Rochester, N.Y.,

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE CAPITOL

"Village Tale"

Double Bill of Unusual Interest

Today is bargain day at the Capitol, what with two excellent features being shown, in addition to the lovely piece of DeBarry dinnerware that each lady receives.

Of primary interest to countless fans is the showing of the RKO feature picture, "Village Tale," a Philip Strong story that presents a cross section of average community life.

The central theme of the story deals with public opinion, that spineless, heartless, soulless, but hypersensitive mass that is both the judge and jury of society.

Scenes are laid in a small village and with the people who live in it, from the successful farmer to the worthless loafer in the country store. Their gossip and whisperings of a tremendous interest in the accident is the cause of all the trouble.

Randolph Scott and Kay Johnson are the two principal players and they are ably assisted by such well known favorites as Arthur Hohl, Robert Barat, Janet Beecher, Lucien Littlefield, Cliff Clark and Dorothy Burgess.

The second feature and of equal enjoyment is "The Line-Up" a powerful story of the inner workings of a group of fur racketeers who eventually land in the police line-up.

Involved in the fur racketeering plot is Marion Stevens, fashionably thinking that she is conducting a retail fur shop for a legitimate business until the police walk in on her. Young Gargan, as a detective, believes in the old adage and undertakes to clear her, thereby starting a romance which eventually results in their marriage.

Following close on the engagement of Tyrone Power to Annabella comes a lightens the public still more on the romance of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Boddoe the charming Marion Nixon and the handsome William Gargan are the two principal players in "The Line-Up" an excellent picture that can perform due respective roles admirably. There are John Millan, Paul Hurst, Joseph Crehan, detective, Harold Huber and Noel Francis.

AT THE ISLLE

"Let 'Em Have It"

Reveals How Federal Sleuths Operate

Bite in apple or castigation "smite" may trap criminal.

Did you ever hear of a cartridge sniffer?

What can you tell about a footprint, the bite in an apple, a long strand of hair, a shoe, a glove?

All of these seemingly insignificant items are among the first clues that eventually lead to the apprehension of criminals and the solution of mysteries by Federal operatives and police.

The complex and fascinating ritual of scientific crime detection and its laboratory experiments form the back-ground for the story of "Let 'Em Have It" the new Reliance production which opens tomorrow (Tuesday) for a two days engagement at the Isolle. Justice operatives in tracking down police enemies are dramatically unfolded in this gripping story featuring Richard Arlen, Preston Foster, Bruce Alics Brady and Bruce Cabot.

There is a cartridge sniffer who can tell by the keen sense of smell when a bullet was fired, its calibre, and whether it was fresh or stale. Another can tell by examining the grain of the bandits, he sniffs the ground like a bloodhound for the scent of the fugitive and has superiors regarding the direction he took. Both scenes are thrilling.

The mere footprint of a person can tell the height, build, and exact length of his stride, and from the size of the foot, plus the length of the stride, a person's height can be accurately obtained.

The cross-section of a single human hair conveys a pretty fair description of the owner. If the hair is coarse and black, it is taken for granted the owner had a hot skin, perspires easily and often. Then the large ears, and full lips. Then the cellular structure of the hair will prove the owner's general health, and perhaps even the quality of his disposition.

From the bite in an apple a mean face and jaw are reconstructed. The finished sketch will invariably be an almost perfect likeness of a suspect which leads to inevitable identification and conviction.

Bruce Cabot plays the Public Enemy sought after by the Federal sleuths in "Let 'Em Have It".

The Metrotone Newsreel showing the latest world news events, a colored cartoon and a musical comedy will also be featured at each performance on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Ends Tu-Night

Joe E. Brown in Ring Lardner's laugh-jammed comedy "Alibi Ike" will be shown for the last times at the Capitol tonight.

Complete shows starting at 7.15 and 9.10 p.m.

Thursday and Friday

Next Thursday and Friday two of the most important pictures of the year are scheduled for exhibition on the Bells screen.

Those stars, "David Copperfield" with a star cast of 65, will be the feature attraction both afternoon and evening.

Friday will see the return for 1 day of that popular musical romance, Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy in "Victor Herbert's" thrilling stage success "Naughty Marietta". We guarantee both of these attractions.

Remember Thursday "David Copperfield" and Friday only "Naughty Marietta".

RADIO PROGRAMS
— Daylight Saving Time —

MONDAY

9.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ.
10.45—Joe White, tenor—WEAF.
11.00—Morning Melodies—WJZ.
11.30—Words and Music—WJZ.
12.00—Vincent Lopez and His Orchestra—WJZ.
12.30—Farm and Home Hour—WEAF.
1.30—Music Box Revue—WJZ.
2.00—Ma Perkins—WEAF.
2.30—Vic and Sade—WJZ.
3.00—Singing Lady—WEAF.
3.30—Betty and Bob—WJZ.
4.00—Stepping Lively—WEAF.
4.15—Midweek Hymn Sing—WEAF.
4.30—Jack Armstrong—WJZ.
5.00—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF.
5.15—Tony and Gus—WJZ.
5.30—Hello Peter, Tweet—WEAF.
5.45—Lum 'n' Abner—WJZ.
6.00—Gene Autry—WEAF.
6.30—Jimmie Kemp—WJZ.
6.45—Lowell Thomas—WEAF.
7.00—Jack Benny—WEAF.
7.15—Tony and Gus—WJZ.
7.30—Phil Culiner—WEAF.
7.45—Boake Carter—WJZ.
8.00—Gulf Screen Guild Theatre—WEAF.
8.30—Fibber McGee and Molly—WJZ.
9.00—Bing Crosby—WEAF.
9.30—Ben Bernie—WEAF.
10.00—Waltz Time—WEAF.
10.30—Ray Noble's Orchestra—WJZ.
11.00—Dance Music—WEAF.
11.30—Dance Music—WJZ.

TUESDAY

8.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ.
8.30—Vic and Sade—WJZ.
9.00—Bachelor's Children—WEAF.
9.15—Road of Life—WEAF.
9.30—Woman of Courage—WEAF.
9.45—Life Can Be Beautiful—WEAF.
10.00—Ma Perkins—WEAF.
10.15—Pepper Young's Family—WEAF.
10.30—Right to Happiness—WEAF.
10.45—Joe White, tenor—WEAF.
11.00—Morning Melodies—WJZ.
11.30—Words and Music—WJZ.
12.00—Vincent Lopez and His Orchestra—WJZ.
12.30—Farm and Home Hour—WEAF.
1.30—Music Guild—WEAF.
2.00—Betty Crocker—WEAF.
2.30—Three Flats—WJZ.
3.00—Army Band—WJZ.
3.30 Nellie Revell Interviews—WJZ.
4.00—Betty and Bob—WJZ.
4.30—Stepping Lively—WEAF.
4.45—Midweek Hymn Sing—WEAF.
5.00—Jack Armstrong—WJZ.
5.30—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF.
5.45—Tony and Gus—WJZ.
6.00—Hello Peter, Tweet—WEAF.
6.15—Lum 'n' Abner—WJZ.
6.30—Gene Autry—WEAF.
7.00—Jimmie Kemp—WJZ.
7.15—Lowell Thomas—WEAF.
7.30—Jack Benny—WEAF.
7.45—Tony and Gus—WJZ.
8.00—Phil Culiner—WEAF.
8.15—Boake Carter—WJZ.
8.30—Gulf Screen Guild Theatre—WEAF.
9.00—Fibber McGee and Molly—WJZ.
9.30—Bing Crosby—WEAF.
10.00—Waltz Time—WEAF.
10.30—Ray Noble's Orchestra—WJZ.
11.00—Dance Music—WEAF.
11.30—Dance Music—WJZ.

WEDNESDAY

8.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ.
8.30—Vic and Sade—WJZ.
9.00—Bachelor's Children—WEAF.
9.15—Road of Life—WEAF.
9.30—Woman of Courage—WEAF.
9.45—Life Can Be Beautiful—WEAF.
10.00—Ma Perkins—WEAF.
10.15—Pepper Young's Family—WEAF.
10.30—Right to Happiness—WEAF.
10.45—Joe White, tenor—WEAF.
11.00—Morning Melodies—WJZ.
11.30—Words and Music—WJZ.
12.00—Vincent Lopez and His Orchestra—WJZ.
12.30—Farm and Home Hour—WEAF.
1.30—Music Guild—WEAF.
2.00—Betty Crocker—WEAF.
2.30—Three Flats—WJZ.
3.00—Army Band—WJZ.
3.30 Nellie Revell Interviews—WJZ.
4.00—Betty and Bob—WJZ.
4.30—Stepping Lively—WEAF.
4.45—Midweek Hymn Sing—WEAF.
5.00—Jack Armstrong—WJZ.
5.30—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF.
5.45—Tony and Gus—WJZ.
6.00—Hello Peter, Tweet—WEAF.
6.15—Lum 'n' Abner—WJZ.
6.30—Gene Autry—WEAF.
7.00—Jimmie Kemp—WJZ.
7.15—Lowell Thomas—WEAF.
7.30—Jack Benny—WEAF.
7.45—Tony and Gus—WJZ.
8.00—Phil Culiner—WEAF.
8.15—Boake Carter—WJZ.
8.30—Gulf Screen Guild Theatre—WEAF.
9.00—Fibber McGee and Molly—WJZ.
9.30—Bing Crosby—WEAF.
10.00—Waltz Time—WEAF.
10.30—Ray Noble's Orchestra—WJZ.
11.00—Dance Music—WEAF.
11.30—Dance Music—WJZ.

THURSDAY

8.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ.
8.30—Vic and Sade—WJZ.
9.00—Bachelor's Children—WEAF.
9.15—Road of Life—WEAF.
9.30—Woman of Courage—WEAF.
9.45—Life Can Be Beautiful—WEAF.
10.00—Ma Perkins—WEAF.
10.15—Pepper Young's Family—WEAF.
10.30—Right to Happiness—WEAF.
10.45—Joe White, tenor—WEAF.
11.00—Morning Melodies—WJZ.
11.30—Words and Music—WJZ.
12.00—Vincent Lopez and His Orchestra—WJZ.
12.30—Farm and Home Hour—WEAF.
1.30—Music Guild—WEAF.
2.00—Betty Crocker—WEAF.
2.30—Three Flats—WJZ.
3.00—Army Band—WJZ.
3.30 Nellie Revell Interviews—WJZ.
4.00—Betty and Bob—WJZ.
4.30—Stepping Lively—WEAF.
4.45—Midweek Hymn Sing—WEAF.
5.00—Jack Armstrong—WJZ.
5.30—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF.
5.45—Tony and Gus—WJZ.
6.00—Hello Peter, Tweet—WEAF.
6.15—Lum 'n' Abner—WJZ.
6.30—Gene Autry—WEAF.
7.00—Jimmie Kemp—WJZ.
7.15—Lowell Thomas—WEAF.
7.30—Jack Benny—WEAF.
7.45—Tony and Gus—WJZ.
8.00—Phil Culiner—WEAF.
8.15—Boake Carter—WJZ.
8.30—Gulf Screen Guild Theatre—WEAF.
9.00—Fibber McGee and Molly—WJZ.
9.30—Bing Crosby—WEAF.
10.00—Waltz Time—WEAF.
10.30—Ray Noble's Orchestra—WJZ.
11.00—Dance Music—WEAF.
11.30—Dance Music—WJZ.

FRIDAY

8.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ.
8.30—Vic and Sade—WJZ.
9.00—Bachelor's Children—WEAF.
9.15—Road of Life—WEAF.
9.30—Woman of Courage—WEAF.
9.45—Life Can Be Beautiful—WEAF.
10.00—Ma Perkins—WEAF.
10.15—Pepper Young's Family—WEAF.
10.30—Right to Happiness—WEAF.
10.45—Joe White, tenor—WEAF.
11.00—Morning Melodies—WJZ.
11.30—Words and Music—WJZ.
12.00—Vincent Lopez and His Orchestra—WJZ.
12.30—Farm and Home Hour—WEAF.
1.30—Music Guild—WEAF.
2.00—Betty Crocker—WEAF.
2.30—Three Flats—WJZ.
3.00—Army Band—WJZ.
3.30 Nellie Revell Interviews—WJZ.
4.00—Betty and Bob—WJZ.
4.30—Stepping Lively—WEAF.
4.45—Midweek Hymn Sing—WEAF.
5.00—Jack Armstrong—WJZ.
5.30—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF.
5.45—Tony and Gus—WJZ.
6.00—Hello Peter, Tweet—WEAF.
6.15—Lum 'n' Abner—WJZ.
6.30—Gene Autry—WEAF.
7.00—Jimmie Kemp—WJZ.
7.15—Lowell Thomas—WEAF.
7.30—Jack Benny—WEAF.
7.45—Tony and Gus—WJZ.
8.00—Phil Culiner—WEAF.
8.15—Boake Carter—WJZ.
8.30—Gulf Screen Guild Theatre—WEAF.
9.00—Fibber McGee and Molly—WJZ.
9.30—Bing Crosby—WEAF.
10.00—Waltz Time—WEAF.
10.30—Ray Noble's Orchestra—WJZ.
11.00—Dance Music—WEAF.
11.30—Dance Music—WJZ.

TABERNACLE W. A. HONORS MRS. LITTLE

One of Murray Township's oldest and most esteemed residents was honoured last Wednesday, when members of the Women's Association of Tabernacle United Church gathered at the home of George Little to pay tribute to his mother, Mrs. Rita Little, who was celebrating her eighty-fourth birthday.

Mrs. Warren Preston and her group were in charge of the program and the afternoon. Readings were given by Mrs. R. Wiley and Mrs. C. Letch, while Mrs. Audrey Preston gave an amusing monologue. Contests and a spelling match were also enjoyed.

Rev. A. Foulker, pastor of the church, spoke words of appreciation to the guest of honour, and although the party was in the afternoon, Mrs. Little was able thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon and lasted all to come and visit her often.

After singing "God be with you till we meet again" the group in charge served dainty refreshments. Assisting in serving were Mrs. T. Elliott, Mrs. B. Wiley, Mrs. F. Smith, Mrs. B. Perry and Mrs. L. Ashley.

Mrs. Little's daughters, Mrs. F. Preston, Mrs. Ashley and Mrs. Cole, Belleville, also Mrs. O. Ragsdale, a granddaughter, and Mrs. Alec Ragsdale and daughter, Doris, of Belleville, were present.

Use Your WANTS BY READING Other People's WANTS

UP TO 50% BACK PAID FOR U. S. INDIAN HEAD CENTS
We buy all dates regardless of condition. Up to $5.00 each paid for U. S. Dimes. Up to $1.00 each for Type Coins. Illustrated Coin Catalogue, 10c. Send for large illustrated price list and interesting information; postage-stamp or coin collection.
HUB COIN SHOP
130-132 FRONT ST. BARRIE - ONTARIO

Business Directory

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner for Purchase of Any Make
E. J. FISHER & SON
26 Bridge St. East Telephone 169
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Barrie - Orillia - Lindsay - Woodbridge

CHIROPRACTOR
R. A. WYATT, Ph.G., CHIROPRACTOR
and Drugless Therapist. Electrical examinations and treatments. Modern equipment. Spinal and foot adjustments. Neuritis, rheumatism and all nerve troubles successfully treated. Special treatments avoids many operations. 26 Clarence Street, Belleville, phone 1000.

VIDA B. FITCHER, CHIROPRACTOR and D. T. Fitcher, Chiropractor and Drugless Therapist, Richmond Chambers, Richmond St., Napanee. Electrical and Radio-Frequency Machines. Consultation and examination free. Office hours: 9-12, 2-5. Phone 6334 Bridge St. N., Napanee, East, Phone 52R14.

DENTIST
DR. ROST. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray 3024 Front St.
Phone 488 Trenton

RADIO SERVICE
JOHN A. DEWAR
RADIO TECHNICIAN
Guaranteed Service — Guaranteed Parts
Phone 227
20 John St. Belleville

SURVEYORS
FRASER ALLWORTHY
Ontario Land Surveyor, Land Surveyor, Province of Quebec, Civil Engineer, Architect Specialty attended to.
PHONE 2 - P.O. BOX 68
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE
Protect yourself against accidents with your Automobile Insurance
SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
262 Front St. Phone 1126
HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass
272 Front St. Phone 1126-W

STOCKS & BONDS
RIDDAN AND CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of the Toronto Stock Exchange. 128, F. E. Wills, Branch Manager.

LEGAL

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND CO. (Successors to Wallbridge, Wallbridge), Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Bank of Nova Scotia Building, corner Front and Bridge Streets, Belleville. Ont.

MALLOCH, BRIGGS, HERRINGTON, Barristers, Solicitors, etc. Office: Campbell Building, Belleville.

W. N. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public, etc. Office: Campbell Building, Telephone 14. 260-12

POWTER, PAYNE AND ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors and Notaries Public. Offices: Bank of Nova Scotia Chambers, 218 Front St., Belleville, Ont.

POWTER AND CHAPMAN, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Conveyancers, etc. Over 32 Bridge St. East, Belleville. Money to loan on mortgages. W. N. Powter, K.C. H. J. S. Graham. D. Carter Bateman.

DONNAN AND BUTLER, B. G. Donnan, K.C., B. G. Butler, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public and Commissioners, etc. Office: 15 Bridge St. East, Belleville. Ont. Phone 124.

Front St. STORE To-Let
No. 326
Formerly occupied by Mc-Cormick Studio. Recently renovated and decorated. Living apartment upstairs.
IMMEDIATE POSSESSION
Belleville Locators
196 Front Street
GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.
Phone 39 Home Phone 427

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY at LUCKINS
Tuesday Only, Special
"WHY-PAY-MORE"
FRESH OUT SPARE RIBS lb. 10c
Veal
Butter With Meat Order lb. 21c
Jowl Shortening 2 lbs. 23c
Sliced Cooked CORNED BEEF lb. 15c
HEAD CHEESE (sliced) lb. 12½c
206 Front St. Phone 879 Free Delivery
CHOICE STRING LAMB
Legs 25c
Fronts 15c
Shoulder Chops .. 19c
Stew Cuts 10c
YOUNG WESTERN STEER BEEF
Boneless Shlw. 12½c
Minced or Waffled Steak ..... lb.
Pot Roast .. 10-12c
Oven Roast .. 14-16c
Wednesday Only Special
FANCY QUALITY
New Cheese lb. 12c

HOLIDAY INSURANCE. $5000 for $1.00
We insure you against Accident while on holiday and will pay:
IN THE EVENT OF YOUR DEATH BY ACCIDENT .. $5,000
LOSS OF BOTH EYES OR HANDS 5,000
ONE FOOT OR HAND 2,500
TOTAL DISABILITY (Limit of 52 weeks) ..... 25 per week
The rates are: 4 days $1.; 7 days $2; 15 days $4; 30 days $5.
We also insure your baggage at very low rates. Buy anything in the line of insurance telephone us.
JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Phone 1364 151 Front St.

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates
SOCIAL NOTICES—50c the 100 Marriages and Engagements Notices, 25c Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; Floral Tributes, 10c a line; Resolutions of Condolence, Cards of Thanks—$1.00 per month per inch.
OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES Gazetted rates one cent a word first insertion; ½c per word each subsequent insertion.
CLASSIFIED—Cash with order for first insertion; 1½c per line for subsequent insertions.
CLASSIFIED—Cash with order for first insertion; 1c per word for each subsequent insertion. Minimum charge for first insertion; 15c per line for subsequent insertions.
COMING EVENTS—15c per insertion of 25 words or less; additional words 1c per word.
PROFESSIONAL, LEGAL AND BUSINESS CARDS (Card of one inch)—$1.00 per month per inch.
OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES Gazetted rates one cent a word first insertion; ½c per word each subsequent insertion.
AUCTION SALE—$5 per week, headed by one inch display announcement. 25 words per inch; consecutive insertions, $4 per inch.
An initial or figure counts as one word.
In estimating how five words to the line count.
To discharge your Want Ads when in is more convenient. PHONE 99.
The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one insertion of an incorrect ad. Phone us if it is wrong.
Advertisers may have their replies addressed to The Intelligencer, Belleville Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

A GIRL FOR GENERAL HOUSEWORK. Apply 238 Foster avenue. J23-2i

SUMMER BOARDERS IN PRIVATE home, country village, bay shore. Good bathing, boating, fishing. Box 21 Sprague, Ont., Mountain View. J22-6i

MAN WITH SMALL CAR, STEADY work and good pay. Write Box 27, Ontario Intelligencer. J23-1i

FULLER BRUSH CO. CAN USE TWO local salesmen for north Hastings and Prince Edward territories. Write Box 29 Ontario Intelligencer. J23-1i

COMPANIONS WANTED FOR WEEK'S work and good pay. Write Box 28, Ontario Intelligencer. J23-1i

LADY FOR FINE SEWING, MUST BE experienced with sewing machine. Steady employment. Apply Box 30 Ontario Intelligencer. J23-1i

COOK, GENERAL, MUST HAVE REFerences. Apply Mrs. Frederick Ketcheson, Box "D" Ontario Intelligencer. J18-3i

FOR SALE

WICKER BABY CARRIAGE; ALSO three burner gas stove, good condition. Apply 8 Albert street. J23-1i

QUANTITY OF OATS to A.I.R. — W. Waterhouse, Lake Shore Road, R. 1, Consecon. J23-1i

BRICK HOUSE 43 HIGHLAND AVENUE, Belleville, and bath in good condition. Hot water heating, electric refrigerator. Nice lawn, shrubs and flowers. Apply on premises, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday 1230-2. For inspection see Mrs. Lonsdale, 37 Albert street. J22-6i

FARM ON BELLEVILLE ROAD FIVE miles west of Napanee, 200 acres more or less. Will sell whole or part. Five buildings, good house, new equipment, pure bred Ayrshire herd, good timber, well watered, under crop. Free from all encumbrances. Apply to Mrs. Smith, Napanee, R. 6. J18-1w

TWENTY ACRES IN BELLEVILLE Manoeuvre. Will sacrifice for cash or exchange for city property. Apply Box "E" Ontario Intelligencer, Belleville. J17-tf

HALF HOUSE NORTH FRONT STREET, 6½ rooms, bathroom, hot water heating. Possession immediately. Apply 242 Front. J22-2i

FIVE ROOM HOUSE 42 MURRAY ST., Trenton, with bath, hot water heating. Mrs. Moore. Phone 1151-W. J22-2i

BRANCHDALE BRICK HOUSE DONALD St., Trenton, 8 rooms, bath, hot water heating. Apply 42 Dundas St. E., Trenton. J22-1i

EXTRA LARGE BRIGHT FRONT room. Bed, dresser, chair, rug. Reasonable rent. 12 North Front street. J23-1i

SEVERAL UNFURNISHED, HEATED rooms, suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 242 Front. J22-2i

FOR SALE

Notice Re Water Rates

The last day for allowing the 20% discount on Water Rates will be Friday, July 26th, 1935. Postmay discount will be allowed after that date. Do not delay payment until the last day and save the discount. By order,
W. S. TOZER,
City Treasurer.
J23-2i

LOST

SATURDAY NIGHT, GREY PERSIAN kitten about three months old. Finder return to 13 Chatham street. J23-1i

NOTICE OF SALE

By virtue of a Landlord's Warrant I will offer for sale by public auction on the premises at Lot 14, Con. 1, Sidney, on Tuesday 23rd day of July, at the hour of 2 o'clock p.m. the following:
Dated this 15th day of July, 1935.
ALBERT E. WILLIAMS,
Auctioneer. Bailiff for Landlord.
J22-2i

NOTICE

Raymond Cecil Chapman of Ketchum Ward, in the County of Hastings in the Province of Ontario, Fruit Grower, Ward who are interested in the election of a Municipal Clerk for the Township of Ameliasburgh, to be held on the 5th day of August, 1935, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon at the Council Chamber in the Village of Roslin, in the said Township of Ameliasburgh, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the said office of Municipal Clerk.
Dated at Roslin this 15th day of July, 1935.
RAYMOND CECIL CHAPMAN,
Returning Officer.
J22-3i

SAFE CARRIED AWAY

Thursday, July 22.—(CP)—A half-ton safe containing approximately $1,000 was carried by thieves from the residence of a bagpipe Duncan Mills.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late William Henry Bedford, Rednersville, wish to thank the friends, relatives and neighbors who so kindly assisted during recent days of sickness and bereavement. J22-1i

BIRTH

MOORE—To Mr. and Mrs. John W. Moore, Queensboro, on Saturday, July 20, a son.

DIED

GEE—At her home, 83 Yeomans street on Saturday, July 20, Mary Ann Smith Gee, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gee.
Funeral will be held from the residence on Tuesday at 2.30 o'clock. Interment in Belleville Cemetery. J23-1i

TICKELL & BROWNE,
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve for Less
FUNERAL HOME
Corner Church St. and Victoria Ave. Phone 2222

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
37 Campbell St.
Phone 176-W Day and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Motor Hearse Only Equipment

Thomas G. Thompson Funeral Director
Funeral Home
25 Everett St. Phone 69
Office
280 Front St. Phone 69

For Exchange
196 ACRE FARM—half mile from school, general store and Post Office; well located. WILL TRADE FOR CITY PROPERTY.
Apply
BELLEVILLE REALTY CO.
Kraps Building
J22-2i

Notice Re Water Rates

The last day for allowing the 20% discount on Water Rates will be Friday, July 26th, 1935. Postmay discount will be allowed after that date. Do not delay payment until the last day and save the discount. By order,
W. S. TOZER,
City Treasurer.
J23-2i

LOST

SATURDAY NIGHT, GREY PERSIAN kitten about three months old. Finder return to 13 Chatham street. J23-1i

NOTICE OF SALE

By virtue of a Landlord's Warrant I will offer for sale by public auction on the premises at Lot 14, Con. 1, Sidney, on Tuesday 23rd day of July, at the hour of 2 o'clock p.m. the following:
Dated this 15th day of July, 1935.
ALBERT E. WILLIAMS,
Auctioneer. Bailiff for Landlord.
J22-2i

NOTICE

Raymond Cecil Chapman of Ketchum Ward, in the County of Hastings in the Province of Ontario, Fruit Grower, Ward who are interested in the election of a Municipal Clerk for the Township of Ameliasburgh, to be held on the 5th day of August, 1935, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon at the Council Chamber in the Village of Roslin, in the said Township of Ameliasburgh, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the said office of Municipal Clerk.
Dated at Roslin this 15th day of July, 1935.
RAYMOND CECIL CHAPMAN,
Returning Officer.
J22-3i

FINANCIAL MARKETS
NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

NEW YORK CLOSE

New York, July 22—The stock market pushed ahead at a steady pace all today, with the steels, motors and scattered specialties pointing the way.

U.S. Steel equalled its high for the year and over 1933 gains were recorded by Otis Steel, National Dairy, Chrysler and Case, all with gains of 1 to more than 2 points. Material advances were registered by Bethlehem, American Can, Dupont, and Sears Roebuck, while rubbers and oils eased and the rails were just about steady. The late buying was firm. Transfers approximated 1,300,000 shares.

TORONTO MINES CLOSE

Toronto, July 22 (CP)—Despite the extreme heat and the holiday atmosphere around the boardrooms, mining listings of the Toronto Exchange functioned over in very good volume today, particularly after mid-day and the price tone was mainly firm. Sector gold issues were slow with higher prices ruling for Pioneer and Dome and slightly lower prices for McIntyre and Bralorne. Base metal and silver stocks were also dull fixed.

While holding firm the mining section displayed no inclination during the early trading today to follow Wall Street's lead and move ahead. A few of the medium-price gold issues perked up in the first hour but the moderate gains were dropped before noon. McKenzie was active at 1.31 to 1.34 for a small advance and Little Long Lac, Pickle Crow, God's Lake, Sylvanite and Siscoe were steady.

Higher metal prices on the London market failed to lift the base metal stocks into action. Sherritt recorded a minor advance while Noranda and Hudson Bay held unchanged.

The silvers were slow with bids firm. Beaz came out in second volume at 66½, unchanged.

WALL STREET FINANCIAL

New York, July 22.—(AP)—The Steels again acted as a stock market magnet today and a most other equities reflected the optimistic influence. The list exhibited a steady to firm undertone from the start.

Canadian shares were mostly slightly improved. Small gains were registered by Brazilian Water, McIntyre porcupine and dome Mines, Lake Shore Mines held above even and International Nickel was fractionally lower. Canadian Government 4s were slightly firmer in the bond market, while Montreal bonds eased. The Canadian dollar eased 2-32 of a cent at 99.84 3-8 cents.

Shares up fractionally to a point or more included U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, American Radiator, Continental Can, American Can, General Motors, Chrysler, Public Utilities, Commercial Solvents, Columbian Carbonic, Union Pacific and Santa Fe.

TORONTO STOCKS CLOSE

Toronto, July 22 (CP)—From a low start the Toronto industrial section worked up a good liquor trade today and at the close prices were holding gains ranging up to a point or better at 2 p.m. Most of the old International Nickel were two other good traders at higher prices and this leadership gave the board an upward tendency though elsewhere trade was dull and featureless.

The liquor shares got into action around midday on the industrial section and soon had gains ranging up to 1 1-2 on heavy turnover. Walkers Common gained 1 1-2 to 81, Gooderham & Worts 1 to 1-3 and Industrial Alcohol A 3-8 to 1 1-8. The general list moved in sharp afternoon in response to the strong advance on the New York board but volume outside the liquor issues continued small.

C.P.R. changed hands in considerable volume, holding unchanged at 13 3-4 while Power A moved 3-4 to 27 Other leaders selling up fractions were Bell Telephone, International Nickel and Canada Cement. Mclntyre and Dome Mines were steady.

Board Room Gossip

As supplied to Biggar and Crawford by Financial Service.

Canadian industrials have not lost much appeal for investment and market operators, who are impressed with this evidence of general business recovery in the United States but who prefer the relative freedom from restrictions, and more definite freedom from constant political threats which industry enjoys there, states The Wall Street Journal. The Canadian liquor, newsprint, asbestos and nickel stocks are considered directly through exports to the United States and through the sympathetic trade expansion in the home market.

The continuous rise, month by month, in the value of building permits issued in 21 cities is significant. The value of the building authorized each month has also increased and has been higher than in the same month of 1934, while the five months' aggregate for each month has also exceeded that for the corresponding month of 1934. The value of building permits issued during June was $3,117,066, an increase of $2,705,000 for June, 1934. The cumulative total for the first six months of this year is $34,849,277 as against $14,411,377 last year. Although the improvement within the first half year is partly due to the granting of contracts delayed by the public hearings in several centres as an unemployment relief measure, the movement in general is unmistakable and has also been distinctly more favorable than in the last few years.

From nearly all commission houses the word is the same on the charts—the market is broadening—there is predominantly investment buying, and much of it a shifting from cellars to common. The chief complaint has been made of the market has been the lack of many the individual holders of the refunded issues have preferred to leave the bond market for stocks. The same is true of bonds that have reached investment grade. Help left by individuals has been amply filled by institutional buying.

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted Mines as furnished by A. E. McCuaig & Co., today—

Adanac 7-10
Amco 27-32
Banf 46-48
Bath 1-2 1-4
Beaq 9 1-2 10 1-2
Casey 3 1-2 4 1-2
Coin Club 68-78
ONP 2½
Da Santa 20c
El Bon 13-15
Garza 2 1-4 1-4
Gold Eagle 30-33
Great Bear 72-75
Greenlaw 5-6
Hard Rock 44-47
LaDulama 1-4
Lamaque 215-220
Magnet 7 1-2 8 1-2
McLeod 5-7
North Is 4-5
Obaska 26-30
Shawkey 40-41
Smelters 7 1-2 8 1-2
Sun Bear 18-20
Wilfa 9 1-2 10
Wendigo 15-17
Wingold 2c
Young Davidson 15-17

Produce Prices on Montreal Market

Montreal, July 22.—Opposing trends were reported in local dairy and produce markets at the weekend. Butter prices, No. 1 pasteurized, were cut 1c to 23c, unchanged to work fractionally lower reflected the lack of demand while new quotations firmed as demand for the better grade improved. Effective this week producers announced an increase of 1c on all grades of cheese in their prices to the retail trade.

In the carlot market, the only change was an advance of 1 cent on Ontario cheese. This on a carlot basis. A-large holding at 22, 23 at 22c and 47s at 18c.

On the butter market, No. 1 pasteurized carlot or 1.c.l. lots, was quoted lower at a range of 24 to 26c, while fresh creamery, the more widely quoted level. No change was reported in the egg and poultry trade, 21 cents holding for solids, 23 cents for prints.

In the cheese market, was again shaded slightly, Westerns being quoted 14c lower at a rage of 18½c to 19c, Quebec 14c lower at 19 to 19½c.

The potato market showed little changes at the week-end, the prices being quoted at 60-70c per 80-lb. bag, old varieties, for which demand is little stated, bringing 30 to 35c per 80-lb. bag.

Prices on dressed poultry showed no change, houses quoting the following on Grade A. with 2 3 cents

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, 49 Victoria street, manager. Quotations at 2.15 p.m.

Mines.

Acme 12c.
Alex 68½.
Ashley 10½.
Anglo Hur 400.
Brech Cons 62½.
Barry Hollinger 3½.
Base Metals 12½.
Bear Is 64½.
Bobjo 19½.
Big Missouri 54½.
Begamac 05½.
Bralorne 490.
Bovaride 1½.
Bra 43.
Buffadison Ank 280.
Castle Trethi 1.06.
Can Kirk 1½.
Canada Malartic 61½.
Central Patricia 1.70.
Chemical Research 136.
Coast Copper 180.
Chicagi 17½.
Clerley .23.
Conlaurum 1.66.
Dome 17.75.
Eldorado 185.
Falconbridge 381.
God's Lake 170.
Goldale 1.10.
Granada Stabelle 22.
Harker 3½.
Home 21.75.
Hollinger 13.
Hoyey 7c.
Hudson Bay 14.60.
Kirk Townsite 11½.
Kirkland Base 18.
Lake Maron 03½.
Lake Shore 2.90½.
Lebel 04½.
Le Gold 04½.
Little Long Lac 465.
Manaca .15.
Manitou 04½.
Maple Leaf 03½.
McIntyre 1.34.
McKenzie 131.
McMillan 17.
McWatters 122.
Mining Corporation 141.
Noranda 38.
Obrien 25.
Pickalli 20.
Paymaster 26½.
Pet O 04.
Perron 03.
Pend Oreille 80.
Pickle Crow 234.
Pioneer 101.
Premier 142.
Read Authier 83.
Reno 1.30.
San Antonio 355.
Sherritt Gordon 83.
Sigma 230.
Stadacona 22½.
St. Anthony 17.
Sudbury Basin 13.
Sudbury Mines 06½.
Sullivan 31.
Sylvanite 215.
Tahoka 82½.
Teck Hughes 410.
Ventures 85.
Wells Arnold 03.
Waysida 13.
Willroy 10 11½.
Wright Hargreaves 790.
Ymir 29.
Inter Nickel 27¼.

TORONTO

Bell Telephone 130 1-2.
B. A. Oil 15 3-8.
Brewing 125½.
Bras. Trac. 8 1-2.
Can. Bud Brewery 6 1-2.
Can. Cement 37 3-8.
Can. Dredge 25 1-4.
Can. Ind. Alcohol 9 2-8.
C.P.R. 9 3-4.
Can. Malting 34.
Can. Vickers 27 1-4.
Canada Car 6 3-4.
Cons. Smelters 14 5-8.
Con. Smelting 167.
Dominion Stores 8 3-4.
Dist. Seagrams 81 1-2.
Fanny Farmer 9 1-8.
Ford "A" 6.
Gypsum 58.
Goodyear 70.
Imp. Oil 18 3-4.
Inter. Pet. 34 1-2.
Int. Nickel 34 1-8.
Loblaw 19½.
Massey Harris 4 1-8.
Mont. Power 30 1-2.
McColl-Frontenac 12 7-8.
Power Corp. 8.
Steel of Canada 50 3-8.
Supertest "A" 23.
Shawinigan 15 7-8.
Walkers 30 3-4.
Walkers, Gd. 17 7-8.
Walkerville Brewery 38.

NEW YORK

American Can. 143¼.
American T. and T. 126¼.
Amer. Pur. Power 3¼.
American Radiator 18¼.
Anaconda 15¾.
Auburn 38.
Case 63¼.
Chrysler 56¼.
General Electric 27¼.
General Motors 27½.
Goodrich Rubber 25¾.
Inter. Telephone 9¾.
North American 16 1-4.
Montgomery Ward 30.
Packard 5.
Radio 6¼.
Standard Oil of N.J. 45¾.
Studebaker 13.
Stewart Warner 12.
U.S. Steel 63.
United Aircraft 17¼.
Woolworth 115½.
Westinghouse 69¾.

HOGS

Toronto, July 22.—(CP)—Hogs, 670; Sheep and Lambs 870.

The small offering was lost sight of and prices were nominally unchanged.

Hogs were unsettled with market feeling firm. Bulk of sales at $8.25 for bacons and $8.00 off car.

Lambs opened steady at $8.50 for good spring lambs and wethers, $8.50 to $9.00 for butcher lambs and $8.00 for heavy lambs.

Sheep were steady at $3.50 for good ewes and wethers, $3.50 to $4.00 for butcher sheep and $3.00 for heavy sheep.

Calves, good and choice, $6.00 to $6.50, common to medium $3.50 to $5.50; veal calves, $7.00 to $8.00.

Lambs, good, $8.50; medium $8.00 to $8.50; buck lambs $6.00; culls $4.00 to $5.00.

Sheep, good, light, $3.00 to $3.50; medium $2.50 to $3.00; culls, $1.00 to $2.00.

Produce Markets

Quotations furnished by The United Farmers Co-Operative Co., Limited.

Toronto, July 22.—Wholesale prices on produce delivered at Toronto as supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co. here to-day were:

Buying Prices

Eggs—
Grade A, large, doz. .. .. .

NINETEEN LIVES LOST IN ONTARIO DURING WEEK-END

Total Number Drowning Ten And in Two Cases Triple

TWINS DROWN

Two Killed, When Car Crashes Into Gravel Truck

(By The Canadian Press)

Lakes and rivers and the highways claimed 19 lives in Ontario during the week-end. In two cases there were triple drownings, bringing the total number of drownings to 16.

Three of her five children, whom Mrs. Guy Wallace, according to police, threw into the river at Lindsay, drowned. The oldest, Gavin, 11, climbed out of the river. The youngest, a baby, was rescued. Mrs. Wallace was held on a non-bail charge.

Near Morrisburg, Dora and Doris Robinson, 16-year-old twin sisters, of Winchester, Ont., and Ernest Hart, 18, Britishin, drowned while bathing in the St. Lawrence River.

Norman Beald, 32, Detroit, drowned in the St. Clair River at Sarnia.

Basil Hickey, 16, lost his life while swimming in the Bay of Quinte at Belleville, despite the efforts of two companions to save him.

Ehkart Wise, 12, dropped into a hole in the Sangeen River at Rhinevor and drowned before the eyes of three helpless companions.

George Stanley Williamson, 7, fell to his death in the Trent River near Campbellford, while playing on a pier.

Ladder Slipped

Frank Casey, 65, Toronto, was killed, when he fell 30 feet to his death at Kitchener. A ladder, from which he was painting a chimney, slipped.

Norbert Cairo, four, opened an unlocked door and walked into a block at Toronto being fumigated with poisonous gas. He died shortly afterwards in hospital.

Body of Harry Turnbull, 23, railway worker, was found near Orillia. He had apparently been struck by a train.

Trying to reach his bathing suit, which he dropped while crossing a railway bridge, Henri LaFrance, 11, died at Hawkesbury when he touched a high tension wire.

Mrs. R. R. Graham and Mrs. Miss Orford were killed when an automobile in which they were riding crashed into a parked gravel truck near Windsor.

Benjamin Chilton, 56, was killed when his automobile crashed off the road into a Hydro pole near Hastings.

William H. King, 48, succumbed to a heart attack brought on by the heat at Windsor.

Mrs. Jenny Crystal, 60, was suffocated when fire broke out in a downtown building.

EVACUATE CITY BRACKEN'S ORDER

Working on Ultimatum to Clear Winnipeg of 400 Trekkers

Winnipeg, July 22.—(CP)—Premier John Bracken worked today on an ultimatum in which members of his cabinet expected he would demand evacuation of the city within two days by Manitoba's contingent of 400 unemployed relief camp strikers.

The Premier was said to be ready to inform a strike executive representing marchers who abandoned a march on Ottawa at Kenora they would be classed as transients and as such, must leave the city within two days.

The marchers, fatigued from a 85-mile march into Ontario last week, returned here by special train Sunday.

Virginia Bruce and Richard Arlen, two of the stars appearing in the Shrine Show, "Let 'Em Have It", which opens at the Bells, Tuesday.

Randolph Scott and May Johnson in "Village Tale" one of the feature pictures now at the Capitol theatre.

Six Cows Killed In Field By Bolt

Roy Moorcroft, 7th concession of Madoc, lost six cows, killed in the electric storm that passed over that section about two o'clock Saturday morning. The cows were in the field under trees. Some crops were also flattened during the storm.

FAMILY RE-UNION AT CRESCENT BEACH

The 6th annual reunion of the Kelly family and descendants was held at Crescent Beach, Oak Lake on Friday, July 19th with ninety six members and visitors present. At 12 o'clock a long table was set with everything imaginable, after grace was sung and justice done to the good things, the register book was passed and collection was taken. Immediately after dinner, the President, Mr. C. Wilson, presided and minutes of last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. A. Lowery, showing 2 removals by death and 4 births. A 2 minute silence in memory of those passed on was observed. Rev. L. C. Beaney, was present and was called on for a few remarks. The same officer bearers were for two more years and committees for another year. The following program of sports then took place. Next re-union to meet in same place at same date next year. Those from a distance were Mrs. M. Jackson, from Watertown; Mr. and Mrs. H. Grooms and family, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McKeown, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Grooms and family, Napanee; Miss F. Kerr, Thomasburg and Mrs. Rev. Connell, Toronto, Rev. and Mrs. P. C. Beaney, Bogha, Mr. W. Kelly and Aileen, Madoc.

Children Yield 1 to 5 years — Shirley Kelly; Ronald Kelly.

Boys 6 to 8 years—Billie Kelly

Boys race 9 to 10 years—Bobbie Elliott; Lawrence Morgan.

Boys 11 to 15 years—Herald Elliott; John Grooms.

Girls race 8 to 10 years —Betty Kelly, Mary Grooms.

Girls 11 to 15 years— Dorothy Elliott; Muriel Grooms.

Mens to 60 years—Harry McAdullen.

Ladies to 60 years—Olive Howes; Miss Emerson.

Mens peanut dripping contest—Herald Elliott; C. Wilson.

Ladies peanut dropping contest—Olive Howes; M. Jackson.

Bounding ball in basket—James Elliott; B. Morgan.

Ladies bounding ball in basket—Doris Grooms, Bessie McAdullen.

Mens sponge ball contest—H. McMullen; B. Morgan.

Ladies sponge ball contest—Mabel Howes; Hazel Elliott.

For all, eat biscuit and whistle race—James Elliott, Bella Grooms.

For all, balloon contest— James Elliott, Muriel Grooms.

For all, bean guessing contest—C. Wilson; Herald Elliott.

Tug of war, married men against single men, single men winning.

After sports, bathing and social chat, supper was served and the gathering dispersed to their several homes.

AMPUTATED FEET FOUND IN DUMP

Newmarket, July 20.—The right feet of two women, found in the civic dump of this town, have provided a mystery for police and doctors, leaving them completely in the dark.

After the gruesome find was made by local boys, it was established today that a garbage collector had noticing one of the feet in his load last Thursday. The collector, Henry McCann, did not think the matter sufficiently important at the time to refer to the police.

Despite the apparent mystery, Chief Davidson of the local police stated he did not suspect foul play and did not attach "much importance" to the find. Dr. J. H. Wesley, M. O. H. and coroner, supposing the discovery to the detective division of the City of Toronto police after examining the remains last night.

HAND LABOR TOO COSTLY

Welland, July 20.—Department of Railways and Canals is unable to grant the request bank grading and other maintenance on the Welland ship canal can be done by hand labor, according to word received from George H. Pettit, K.C., M.P., for Welland. Municipalities in the canal area made the request. Hon. S. J. Manion said cost of hand labor, estimated three to four times greater than machine operation, was prohibitive.

Letters to the Editor

89 Dundas Street,
Belleville, July 19, 1933.

To The Editor Ontario Intelligencer
Dear Sir:

Recently Mr. King stated his stand on the Railway question. It is the same stand as he took in 1925 when the Duff Commission was on, namely for the maintenance of the integrity of the Canadian National Railways as a publicly owned and a publicly controlled system. Mr. Bennett still stands by his Regina of 1930 "Amalgamation never, competition ever."

Mr. Stevens, leader of the Reconstruction party, comes out against amalgamation or the selling out of the C.N.R. So private interests in states he has a plan for the railway problem which will be announced in the near future that he thinks will at once commend itself to the people of Canada.

Up to the present time no one at Ottawa has come forward with a solution that is satisfactory to the taxpayers and owners of the C.N.R. and if Mr. Stevens has a satisfactory plan, he can depend on the majority to support him regardless of politics.

About 95% in his community believe I have the correct solution for the railway problem which is "Stop and Travel C.N.R." To my mind up to the present time Mr. King's, Mr. Bennett's and Mr. Stevens' ideas are identically the same on the railway question, namely to follow in the same old rut, with both roads working against each other and the taxpayers paying the whole shot.

To my mind the Post Office Department is the best run institution in the world, no duplication, no competition and no politics. I realize it would be impossible to do away with competition entirely as the buses, trucks and aeroplanes are here to stay, also transportation by water, but as to two railways competing it is not a necessity. We do not want it, and we do not need it. If we skip and travel C.N.R. and that is what we should do, competition of the railways would be a thing of the past. We have got to keep the C.N.R. going whether we like it or not in order to help pay the debt which is piled up against it.

The C.P.R. is a different proposition altogether. It is run for a profit and nothing else and when they are they are going behind and no chance to go ahead they will have to give up.

We all know what Mr. Beatty and St. James Street want us to do and my advice is not to do it. I would advise also to cut out the pooling of trains as the C.P.R. don't pool unless they get the best of it and where they have the advantage they don't pool. The Post Office is run for our accommodation, why not the C.N.R.

D. S. LaRue.

P.S. The Duff commission advised the writing down of the C.N.R. debt. Mr. Beatty, Mr. Bennett, Sir Herbert Holt and St. James Street are all against it. The C.N.R. shareholders would like to know Mr. King's and Mr. Stevens' stand on this vital question.

Belleville, July 22, 1933.

To His Worship, Mayor Thos. And City Council,
Belleville, Ont.
Gentlemen:

I noticed in the press some time ago that the West Inspector notified the people owning property in the City to clean up the weeds. While driving through the City I visible several lots owned by the City have considerable weeds in them.

I had occasion to drive past Zwick's Island so decided to drive in and look around, and if there ever was a deplorable looking place it is one. Would it not be a good idea to have a few unemployed clean up this Island and the city lots in order that the City Fathers might set an example to the other citizens.

Zwick's Island is a disgrace to the City and I would strongly suggest that it either be completed or an apology made for what has been done. At any rate give some people a day's work to clean up the dirt and weeds. It is no credit to Belleville and as it stands to-day is an absolute waste of money.

I hope your West Inspector will see that this work is done.

Yours very truly,
"A Tax-Payer."

MUST WEAR HATS

Montreal, July 20—No matter how beautiful the hair or how shabby the headgear, women must wear hats in Judge A. Mobet's court. Five women were ordered out of his court-room because they appeared without hats.

Merchandise enters the City in trains

. . . sometimes by boat

again by airplane

or an army of trucks

. . . but

NEWSPAPERS

CARRY THE FIRST WORD OF IT TO THE CONSUMER

A Parade of Ceaseless Work

. . . a sign of triumphant industry marching ahead; truly a thought to make us ponder, but our constantly fulfilled expectations have helped us grow callous to that upon which our daily bread depends! There is life behind it—the unending struggle for existence. An epic in which the whole range of human effort is loosed every day. Allied with it, we have the record of perseverance, high ideals, and a system of co-ordination which have taken generations of progress to perfect.

We have FIRST—the group who force the earth itself to give up its goods. SECONDLY—those who take this material and make, mould or pack it into the form which civilization demands. THIRDLY—the men who transport this merchandise to the widely-located distributing points . . .

AND FINALLY, the one basic medium which carries the news of all these many necessities into the home of the consumer—THE DAILY NEWSPAPER

Reach the heart of the Market TO-DAY With Daily NEWSPAPERS

SPONSORED BY THE CANADIAN DAILY NEWSPAPERS ASSOCIATION

THE RED TIGER

By ALANSON CROSBY

"Horrible!"

She turned, shudderingly, to look into eyes that seemed to have turned from blue to red, as though aflame with a savage fury, a fiend livid with maniacal fury.

Scarlet lips curled, cruelly, and hideous laughter issued from them —the laughter of madness seeking vengeance.

Judith's heart fluttered with terror. She threw a forearm up against the iron door. Randall Spencer groaned, suffering continued torture in his helplessness.

The wild laughter continued for a full minute, then ceased as suddenly as it started.

"I heard you say your troubles would soon be over," the woman said, turning her terrible eyes on Judith. "You're right! All our troubles will soon be over—unless we meet again in another world! Then we'll resume the war! Didn't I tell you I always win? I do—even at the brink of the grave! We'll all be dead within two minutes—but I'll be the last one to go! You'll look die with my laugh of triumph ringing in your ears!"

She started off on another uncanny orgy of murderous laughter, and checked it as suddenly as before.

Three of us to die—like as dead duck there in the passage—a bullet in the heart of each of us . . . No! That is too merciful for you!" A look of limitless hate came into her face as she glared at Judith. "Hanny thinks you are beautiful. I shall see you die with your beauty spoiled—blood running down your pretty face! Then he shall die, and lastly me! Lastly! Visioned of you shall live to see me die! I shall triumph in the end! I always win—always!—always!—always!"

"My God, where are they?" groaned Spencer. "They will come too late! Judith, my darling, you are trapped, and all because you came to me!"

"Never mind," she whispered. "I would rather die with you than live without you."

It would have sounded cheaply theatrical in other circumstances; it seemed the natural thought in the face of seemingly certain death. The momentary terror had left Judith. She pertained that they were to die had a strangely soothing effect. Almost!

She shuddered only slightly as the mad woman drew a small automatic out of the folds of her dress. She closed her eyes that she might not weaken in the last moment.

"My God, Harriet!" She heard Randall's voice in one last, desperate appeal. "Don't let your soul be stained with this girl's blood! Kill me, torture me, do anything you wish with me, but don't harm her!"

The mad woman, about to press the weapon against Judith's head, paused uncertainly, lowered it, and looked about her wildly, as though bewildered. Then her eyes came to rest on Spencer's haggard face at the bars.

Pushing Judith aside as though she were some inanimate obstruction, she came close to the bars.

"My boy locked up!" she crooned. "My boy—my own boy! Don't cry, beloved! Harriet will not let the bad men come! Her own Harriet loves you—Harriet will always love you—Harriet will die with you! Kiss Harriet before we go on a long journey!"

She reached her left arm thru the bars and caressed Spencer as she poured hot, burning kisses on his haggard face. The maddened mind forgot vengeance temporarily in the heart's outpouring of ardor.

Judith, her eyes opening as the woman pushed her aside, saw and seized an opportunity. The right hand, with the automatic in it, dangled close to her. Judith seized the hand and tried to wrench the weapon from it.

"Hold her other hand!" she cried to Spencer.

Spencer seized Harriet's left arm, as Judith tried to wrench the automatic from her hand. But the strength of madness was terrible. It took all of Spencer's muscular atonement to hold the woman within the bars of the cell, and Judith's two hands were powerless to release the madwoman's grip on the weapon.

With horrible screams and oaths Miss Madison struggled, and finding she could not free herself, pressed her finger on the automatic's trigger. Fortunately for Judith, had the instinctive presence of mind to keep the weapon turned away from her, and the bullets tore themselves in the dirt floor or ricocheted harmlessly from the stone walls.

"Are you hurt?" gasped Spencer anxiously.

"No," Judith replied with amazing calmness considering the danger she had been in. "And I think the gun's empty now."

"But she's still dangerous," panted Spencer. "Save your breath for the strength of ten men! If she gets away from us, I'll smash her to pieces with her bare hands. Run Judith, for God's sake—get help—don't stay here! Run!"

Even as he spoke the mad woman, with a sudden access of strength, tore her right hand from Judith's grasp, and, swinging the automatic down on Spencer's head. With a groan he fell back, releasing her left arm involuntarily. She whirled into Nemesis, on Judith, and gave vent to another of her horrible fits of insane laughter.

Finally she checked it and signaled Judith that her claws had transformed into talons. They seemed to Judith, in the dim light, to be like on the appearance of claws.

"Your lover has told me what to do!" she cried, advancing upon the girl. "I—I—I'll tear you to pieces with my bare hands!"

Before Judith could move she felt those terrible hands on her throat. They were pressing tight. She heard demoniacal laughter—first loud, then faint and far away. She could not breathe. She felt that she was dying . . .

"She is coming to." Judith heard the words as though from far off, and opened her eyes to gaze into the tear filled ones of Sally.

"Where am I?" Judith asked, bewildered. "What has happened?"

"You're still right, darling," said Sally, her voice more than trembling. "You're in one of that hell-cat's bedrooms just now, and you will be long . . . Oh, Judie, we got to you just in time! She had almost choked you to death!"

"I remember now," said Judith, raising a hand to her aching throat. "And Randall?"

She saw him a rap on the head with her automatic that laid him low for a few minutes but he's all right now," said Sally. "She's dying to come in and get you, but we're making him wait until the doctor gets here. You mustn't talk much, dear. You've got an awfully sore throat, you know."

Strangely, Judith's mind reverted to "The Red Tiger."

"Somebody ought to let Harold Stokes out of the room he tried to imprison me in," said Judith, faintly.

I looked him in—at the "Red Tiger." She felt in the pocket of her dress. "Here's the key, Sally. Have somebody see to him, won't you? After my experience, I wouldn't imprison a dog for a day!"

"Well, for cryin' out loud!" said Sally with amazement. "I'll give it to Muttonhead Mac. Maybe he can catch a crook that's heavy enough to keep down, darlin'—and when you wake up again maybe you can see your Hanny."

"What about Miss Madison?" said Judith, with a shudder. "I'm afraid of her. She'll kill me as if she can get to me."

"You needn't worry," said Sally airily. "Your Hannie will never bother you again—in this life anyhow. She is dead!"

"Dead?"

"Yes. When we finally broke down the door she came running like mad looked from the inside, and got to you—just in the nick of time, darling—it took four men to hold her. And then she broke away long enough to slip something into her mouth. Boy says it was a strychnine pill, or something like that, and she was dead in five minutes!"

Chapter 35

THE TIGRESS

"A policeman, Foley," said McMahon, drawing great breaths of air while smoke through Napoleon between cruellar words—as he sat at his desk in central police station, "a policeman, to be successful in his trade, must combine the qualities of an officer, a politician, a conjurer and sleight-of-hand trickster. Pulling rabbits out of some other guy's hat, a fortune-teller a necromancer, and other arts of science too numerous to mention. And then, like as not, some private dick will come along and show him up for a weak-minded child who ought to be in the second grade of the School for the Blind."

"Yer right," said Foley, sympathetically, "like that guy this morning—what's his name?"

Captain McMahon picked up a card from the desk, scanned it, adjusted his spectacles, and read aloud: "Richard N. Forbes, representing Gurley's Detective Agency, 413 Flatiron Building, New York."

"And we takin' him to the Big Hotel, a real crook, these six months past," said Foley gloomily. "I don't blame you, Chief, for what you said this morning."

"What'd I say?" said McMahon, sharply.

"That you'de resign as soon as you got back to police headquarters. You didn't really mean it, though, did you, Cap?"

"Maybe I," said McMahon quickly. "I was down in the mouth. Nothing like that has come over me that got me kind of balty. Norton and Spencer and his lawyer and Miss Blair have all been up in the afternoon for a conference with me. Great, that Miss Blair, Foley. Plucky little piece!" McMahon looked out his cigar smoke and looked at it certainly. "They're the nicest two I've had dealings with, Foley, and let some of Napoleon's bad breath out. Did you pick up Forbes' report?"

"Yes, sir," said Foley. "He was said to pop, the age old ever present question is with us again, Willy, yum, I mean what shall I order for dinner? she said.

Anything at all, I don't care what, I'm immaterial to me just so long as it's not liver and onions, pop said, and ma said, Why Willyum, I mean Willyum, do I hear my own ears or am I witnessing a mirage? The idear of you of all people serving your thumbs down on liver and onions after dwelling me day in and day out up hill and down dale all these years to have it practically every day of your live-long life, she said.

I admit it, but it's been an unequal struggle, pop said. I'm just beginning to realize that the kid has been too heavy, the cost been too great. If I could of just settled for liver and onions and got it without a murmur, pop said, I would of been an earthly paradise. But I was cast in different mold, not. Every dish of liver and onions was won at the cost of an endless preliminery debate requiring the favor of an orator and the cunning of a lawyer. And is it worth it, I ask myself? No, I anser myself, so I've decided to cast liver and onions from my mind forever for the sake of peace without victory, he said.

Now Willyum I never heard such nonsense in my life, you know very well no man in the world's history has ever been served as much liver and onions in his own home as you have, ma said. Of course when you expect it 2 or 3 times a week it's quite voice a mild casual objection, but my goodness, all good things must end. Think no more about it, have a shake, have a roast, it's all according pa Sahara Lake for two weeks.

Mrs. Hollister of Buffalo, N.Y., is visiting her nieces Mrs. E. O. Hardon and Mrs. Ian Cohen.

Mrs. Connel of Toronto, is visiting Mr. W. Kelly and Miss Jean Kelly.

Miss Thornton Love, of Belleville is visiting her friend, Miss Clarice Dafoe at Mr. F. Dafoe's cottage, Moira Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kelly of Ottawa, are spending a few days with Mrs. A. Curtis.

Mrs. E. West is spending a few days in Peterboro.

Miss Stratton of Bancroft, is visiting her friend, Miss Jean Mackintosh.

Miss Jean Whylock is visiting Miss Margaret Moon, U-Mo-Mo camp Moira Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Georgo West spent Wednesday in Peterboro.

Messrs. G. I. Ross, C. Moon and Geo. Wood spent a part of Mr. W. Fletcher, Peterboro, on Wednesday and took part in a bowling tournament.

Misses Tuller and S. Tuller of Toronto are visiting their sister, Mrs. W. E. Jenkins.

Miss Lillian Connor is visiting in Toronto for a few days.

Miss Hamilton of Mill's College, is visiting at the home of Mrs. W. Mackintosh.

Camp Bear Mountain

On Tuesday morning the Panther Trail Rangers of Macdo returned after an enjoyable week at Camp Bear Mountain on Bass Lake.

The camp was under the direction of Rev. A. W. Harding of Bancroft who managed the camp very capably. He was assisted by Rev. S. L. Osborne, Bob Young, Phil Fraser and J. R. Bristol.

The camp program consisted of many activities, some of which were swimming, fishing, astronomy, field sports, baseball, life saving, merit badge work, Bible studies, and

The camp was divided into tribes which assumed Indian names and competed in all parts of the program. A shield was awarded to the Mic Mac of Macdo for obtaining the highest number of points. This was composed of the following boys, Chief Murray Irwin, Don Wittle, Don Rutherford, Edward Gillen, Erwin Nell, John Kerr, Newton Rinaldi and Gilbert Van Allen. Two of the highlights of the camp were, a talk by Lionel Connacher and on around the lake hike in Peterboro.

Miss Skelton of Macdo is visiting at the camp the boys visited highway Camp No. 3.

READ Before You BUY!

Little Benny's Note Book

We was eating breakfast and ma said to pop, The age old ever present question is with us again, Willyum, I mean what shall I order for dinner? she said.

Anything at all, I don't care what, I'm immaterial to me just so long as it's not liver and onions, pop said, and ma said, Why Willyum, I mean Willyum, do I hear my own ears or am I witnessing a mirage? The idear of you of all people serving your thumbs down on liver and onions after dwelling me day in and day out up hill and down dale all these years to have it practically every day of your live-long life, she said.

I admit it, but it's been an unequal struggle, pop said. I'm just beginning to realize that the kid has been too heavy, the cost been too great. If I could of just settled for liver and onions and got it without a murmur, pop said, I would of been an earthly paradise. But I was cast in different mold, not. Every dish of liver and onions was won at the cost of an endless preliminery debate requiring the favor of an orator and the cunning of a lawyer. And is it worth it, I ask myself? No, I anser myself, so I've decided to cast liver and onions from my mind forever for the sake of peace without victory, he said.

Now Willyum I never heard such nonsense in my life, you know very well no man in the world's history has ever been served as much liver and onions in his own home as you have, ma said. Of course when you expect it 2 or 3 times a week my goodness, all good things must end. Think no more about it, have a shake, have a roast, it's all

CONCLUDE VISIT TO CAMP BEAU'MER

Madoc, July 22—Mr. Wallace Dingman of Whitney spent the week end with his family.

Mrs. Barrager of Napanee visited at the home of Mr. Arthur Parks on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roblin of Adolphustown visited Madoc friends on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Connor are

BRINGING UP FATHER— By George McManus

TILLIE THE TOILER— By Russ Westover

DANGER TRAILS— THE KILLERS By The Famous Explorer Martin Johnson

MR. AND MRS— By Briggs

TARZAN THE UNTAMED— (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service)

WAR - - KIDNAPPING - - POLITICS - - DISASTER - -

BUT.... it's the LITTLE THINGS that count....

New drapes for the guest room, and Junior's first haircut. A new recipe for peach pie and new pans for baking it. A picnic at the beach, and a new hat for the weekly bridge. Every day events? Of course! But they're the things that make life livable! What's a war in Illyria and another Arctic expedition, compared to the thrill of the first glimpse of the family that's moving in next door, and the delivery of a shining new refrigerator? What's a royal wedding, and twelve rooms filled with gifts, when Anne has her fifth birthday tomorrow? They're interesting enough, something to talk about, to wonder at, perhaps, but pretty far away from that most important spot and the people who live there . . . . your own home.

That's where your heart is, and that's where the real thrills lie, in the things that concern you and the people who live around you, next door, in the next block, anywhere in town. There's news about them in every issue of the daily Ontario Intelligencer in "inside page" stories—and in every ad too, for the ads in the Ontario Intelligencer are news! There's news about new clothes for the family, and new food for the table, and new furniture for the home. There's news about new entertainment, and new ways to get to it. There's news about something new on every page, from the latest dispatch on the front page to the new shoes for Anne on the last . . . all written to you and for you, put up in a neat package and delivered at your door-step every day.

WEATHER
Moderate shifting winds; warm today and Wednesday with thunder-showers in many districts.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES

	Max.	Min.
Today	77	70
Year Ago	79	55

Weather—Overcast.

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, TUESDAY, JULY 23, 1935

$2,700,000 FIRE LOSS IN PEORIA DISTILLERY

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Little Rene D'Or, N.S., July 22 (CP)—A barred plymouth rock as a hen farm noted for large eggs gave the rest of the flock something to cackle about today.

It laid an egg weighing, announcer, measuring eight inches in circumference and 9 1-2 inches from tip to tip.

The enough witnesses had viewed the freak, Frank Coakley, owner of the farm, opened the egg and found in it two fully developed yokes without shells and another ordinary egg covered by a shell.

Ferry, Ga., July 22 (CP)—An ice cream cone competition was one go only so far, and then it got top heavy. At any rate, that's what happened when salesmen got up to seven scoops in a cone in their fight for patronage.

Fergus Falls, Minn., July 22—(CP)—Amund Johnson, Hetnes farmer, can cope with backward drivers but when a giant pig was the cockcrow—that's different.

Johnson and his two-year-old granddaughter were driving in the village with a small pig in a sack in the front seat. The pig, or wriggled across the floor and squealed on the gas feed. Then our got out of control and overturned in a slough. Johnson and granddaughter were soaked but uninjured. The little pig went to market—and did not return.

Montclair, N.J., July 22 (CP)—Sheriff's officers said Nathaniel Hall discharged his negro butler the doorbell began to ring.

A turkey was delivered. A crate of bee raised. A bicycle arrived. A chauffeur's uniform was demanded. Scores of applicants appeared for a job advertised in the local paper.

The chief, arrested, said it was "a practical joke."

Los Angeles, July 22 (CP)—Henry Rohwer, competent night club entertainer, pleaded guilty to driving without a license and stop-sign but he gave Judge Joseph Marchetti a great excuse.

"You see, Judge, I might see yesterday," Rohwer smiled. "But my side of the car was saging so close to the ground, I couldn't see over the dash. I figured if I didn't see the stop sign."

"Then you ought to fit up a periscope," Judge Marchetti smiled back. "Five dollars."

New York, July 22 (CP)—His news when an actor rebels against free publicity!

Hugh Sinclair, stage and screen star fled suit in Supreme Court to restrain the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company from selling poster containing pictures of himself and Elizabeth Bergner, actress, announcing the latter's friends of their appearance in a current film.

"It is a most undignified thing to say the least," Sinclair said.

Altoona, Pa., July 23 (CP)—Five-year-old Billy Orr broke his leg for the fifth time and is in a hospital cot where he was suffering with a broken arm and collarbone.

Billy, boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Orr of Hollidaysburg, suffered a fracture of his leg while seated in the seat of the family car July 11. He was brought to a hospital and he placed in a cast. As he sought to move his bed yesterday he fractured his right leg near the hip.

Physicians, making a close study of the case, said it seems are overly brittle due to insufficient calcium in his body.

SALVATION ARMY ROBBED

Toronto, July 22 (CP)— Police searched today for clues in the theft of $40 from the Industrial Building of the Salvation Army.

WEATHER

Toronto, July 23 (CP)—Pressure remains low over Hudson Bay and in the Mackenzie River and high over the Atlantic with a shallow trough extending from the Missouri Valley across Lake Ontario to Newfoundland. Local showers has been decidedly warm in Southern districts of Ontario and elsewhere, with some heavy thunder-showers near the St. Lawrence Valley, but with the exception of a few light showers in the Northern Saskatchewan and Manitoba the weather has been fair and warm in the West.

Lake Superior: Moderate variable winds, mostly fair and warm.

Lake Huron and Rainy River: Mostly fair and warm, possibly a thunderstorm.

Manitoba: Moderate winds; fair and warm.

Saskatchewan and Alberta: Fair and decidedly warm.

CATHOLIC VETERAN BODY DISSOLVED BY GEN. GOERING

Claim Unity of German People Disturbed by Separate Bodies

SCHOOL PROBLEM

High School Students Need Not Attend Religious Exercises

(By A. D. Steffered, Copyright, 1935, By The Associated Press)

Berlin, July 23 (AP)—Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering, Minister of Aviation and Premier of Prussia, today dissolved the Reichsbund (National) Association of the Catholic War Veterans on the grounds that the unity of the German people was disturbed by the organization of separate veterans' organizations.

The action against the Catholic veterans followed close behind another decree which provided students in higher schools need not attend religious exercises.

Designed to split war veterans, the official decree read, "The Prussian Premier, on the basis of a decree for the protection of the people and State dated Feb. 28, 1933, has dissolved the Reichsbund of Catholic front fighters including its subsidiary organizations. The creation of confessional organizations of veterans is calculated solely to lead to the splitting up of the unity of the German people (Volksgemeinschaft) and to carry confessional divergencies into the federations of veterans."

TEN NEW SENATORS CREATED BY PREMIER BENNETT

MRS. IVA CAMPBELL FALLIS
Peterborough, Ont.

HON. E. N. RHODES
Nova Scotia

HON ARTHUR SAUVE
Quebec

HON GEORGE JONES
Saint John, N.B.

HON. DONALD SUTHERLAND
Prince Edward, Ont.

COL. JAMES ARTHURS
Tory Scout, Ont.

Ten new Senators were created last week-end by Premier R. B. Bennett, three of the appointments being members of the federal cabinet. Six of the ten new Senators are shown above. Sir Parlia of Sen-

Peterboro, will be the second woman to take her seat in the Red Chamber.

Strongest Navy In History Massed In Mediterranean

Thorough Shake-up of British Fleet Declared to Have No Connection With Italian Military Enterprises

(Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press)

London, July 22.—Coincident with the concentration of Italian troops in East Africa, Great Britain is massing what naval experts rate as the strongest, fastest naval fleet ever assembled in the Mediterranean.

Concentration at Malta.

Official announcement disclosed today that the British fleet units in the Mediterranean is being increased at least 80,000 tons and the fastest big and small ships are soon to be centred at Malta, the base which commands the Italian routes to the Red Sea.

Officials explained the move had no connection with Italian military activities and it was but a coincidence that official predictions indicating a thorough shake-up of the Mediterranean fleet became public after the Italo-Ethiopian conflict arose.

Without infringing on any of its treaty obligations, Britain also is strengthening its home fleet by reassignment of war vessels' stations.

In addition to its past strength in fire battleships, the new Mediterranean fleet will have three battle cruisers heretofore included in the home fleet. These are the Hood, 43,000 tons, the world's biggest war ship, and the Renown and Repulse, 32,000 tons each.

The battleship squadron is being strengthened for speed. The Flagship Elizabeth returns but the other four will be the fastest ever built, ships, each of 31,000 tons. The Elizabeth Class was famous in the war under Rear Admiral Evan Thomas.

Britain's remaining seven battleships will go to the home fleet to

'WILL COME BACK' SLAYER DECLARES

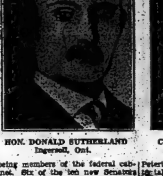
Swiger Kneels Before Electric Chair, Asking For 'Miracle'

Columbus, O., July 23—(AP)— Russell Phillip Swiger, 20, triple-slayer, died last night in Ohio penitentiary's electric chair muttering, "I am now ready but I will come back."

Before he stepped into the chair Swiger prayed for Miss Grace Mitchell, Pittsburgh nurse, whom he convicted of shooting and killing Harold Singer, 18, filling station attendant, in 1934 to retain alibi testance a trip to see her.

For eight minutes Swiger knelt in front of the electric chair praying and preaching that "a great miracle will be worked here tonight. I believe I will come back in the same body and soul to greet you men."

Uses Four Taxis and Airplane to Be Attended By Favorite Barber



Boston, July 22.—(CP)—Just to around his neck and hopped into a have his hair trimmed by his favorite barber, John Capobianco, wealthy Boston contractor, hired four taxis and an airplane.

Capobianco was lolling yesterday on a beach at Martha's Vineyard, James Penta, the man who has attended to the contractor's tonsorial needs for the past seven years, said today when he suddenly decided his hair needed cutting. Capobianco, clad in a bathing suit and bathrobe, wrapped a towel taxi and hopped into a waiting plane.

The taxi made for the airport where a plane was engaged because the regular plane wasn't leaving for an hour. It was one p.m. when Capobianco climbed into the craft and in 30 minutes he was at the East Boston airport, 80 miles away. Another taxi brought him to the north end shop of Penta.

An hour later the contractor, during the talk and the same plane Capobianco, clad in a bathing suit and bathrobe, wrapped a towel

Strongest Navy In History Massed In Mediterranean

FOR GRAIN BOARD

Vancouver's nominee for the new Canada Wheat Board is Robert Secker Reed, well known grain man who has been president of the Board of Trade and trustee of the Vancouver Merchants Exchange, and occupied many other important posts in community service.

Mr. McKee was a leading witness at the government hearing at Ottawa when the new grain bill was being discussed.

which four had been assigned previously. The aircraft carrier Glorious, 22,500 tons, is joining the Mediterranean fleet while the carriers, Courageous and Furious have already been assigned from the Mediterranean to the home fleet.

The first and third cruiser squadrons remain in the Mediterranean, the third being brought up to strength by the addition of the new Arethusa a 1931 program ship. The Galatea, 1932, and Penelope, 1933, will replace the Dispatch in the 8th squadron.

Fastest Submarine

The Severn, latest submarine in the world, returns to Malta and three new fast submarines will replace other units in the fleet of eight. Early in 1936, a flotilla leader and eight destroyers of the 1933 building program will replace one of the three destroyer flotillas.

Naval circles said despite concessions made to Germany in the recent naval pact, the Reich would not be permitted to reach a strength in the North Sea exceeding Britain's home fleet.

BRITAIN ADVISES MISSIONARIES TO LEAVE ETHIOPIA

Missionaries And Families Will Concentrate Near Addis Ababa

LEAGUE AND WAR

Feeling Expressed Britain Should Come Out For League Authority

By GEORGE HAMBLETON

London, July 23 (CP)—The British government today advised British missionaries in Ethiopa it is best for their wives and children to leave that country immediately, indicating assumption that hostilities between Ethiopia and Italy are unavoidable.

The missionaries themselves have been advised to concentrate near Addis Ababa, ready for evacuation if necessary.

British missionaries at present in Ethiopia together with their wives and families total not more than 100. Some are stationed in remote parts where it would be difficult to give them aid. It is these who have been specially advised to concentrate near Addis Ababa.

Peace Efforts Continued.

The cabinet continues to grapple with the problem of maintaining peace. A final decision, it is stated, has yet to be reached on the question of licenses for shipment of arms and ammunition to Ethiopia. It is predicted, however, the licenses will be granted subject to subsequent review.

It is frankly recognized in British circles that the special council meeting of the League of Nations called for next week, originally planned, to a discussion of the frontier incidents. The council must come to grips with the real issue of peace or war.

There was a strong feeling today the British government should come out more openly than it has hitherto on the side of league authority and declare itself ready to carry out the obligations of the covenant. If the other nations decline, it is argued, then Britain at least should have the credit of endeavoring to make the covenant a reality.

Sudan Interior Mission.

The strongest mission society in Ethiopia is the Sudan Interior Mission, largely composed of workers from Canada and the United States. The Bible Churchmen's Missionary Society has 15 workers and the Church Mission to the Jews, 11 workers, all German or Swiss.

Missionaries Safe in Italy

By A. E. STUNTZ

Rome, July 23—(AP)—While the Italian press persisted in its attack against Japan today for allegedly aiding Haile Selassie in the Ethiopian dispute, the decree was not publicized in the Japanese embassy.

The press, repeating its criticism of Japan—an attack which led to the posting of guards before the Japanese embassy— also displayed friendliness toward the 11 Swedish missionaries at Gimma in Italy

Girl Sent to Trial On Murder Charge

TORONTO, July 22.—(CP)—Jean Grunill, 25-year-old Toronto waitress, who confessed to police she threw her child to death in Lake Ontario, was committed for trial today on a charge of murder. The unidentified mother was arrested July 15.

Her statement she threw her two-year-old daughter into the lake because she had not enough money to clothe herself and the child was read to a coroner's jury yesterday. Miss Grunill earned $25 a month as a waitress in a hospital.

JOHN PENSOM DIES

Toronto, July 23.—(CP)—Son of late John Pensom, founder of the Pensom Elevator Company, John Pensom, 71, died here in his 76th year. He has been in the business for 60 years.

BRITAIN ADVISES MISSIONARIES TO LEAVE ETHIOPIA

Feeling Expressed Britain Should Come Out For League Authority

By GEORGE HAMBLETON

London, July 23 (CP)—The British government today advised British missionaries in Ethiopa it is best for their wives and children to leave that country immediately, indicating assumption that hostilities between Ethiopia and Italy are unavoidable.

The missionaries themselves have been advised to concentrate near Addis Ababa, ready for evacuation if necessary.

British missionaries at present in Ethiopia together with their wives and families total not more than 100. Some are stationed in remote parts where it would be difficult to give them aid. It is these who have been specially advised to concentrate near Addis Ababa.

Peace Efforts Continued.

The cabinet continues to grapple with the problem of maintaining peace. A final decision, it is stated, has yet to be reached on the question of licenses for shipment of arms and ammunition to Ethiopia. It is predicted, however, the licenses will be granted subject to subsequent review.

It is frankly recognized in British circles that the special council meeting of the League of Nations called for next week, originally planned, to a discussion of the frontier incidents. The council must come to grips with the real issue of peace or war.

There was a strong feeling today the British government should come out more openly than it has hitherto on the side of league authority and declare itself ready to carry out the obligations of the covenant. If the other nations decline, it is argued, then Britain at least should have the credit of endeavoring to make the covenant a reality.

Sudan Interior Mission.

The strongest mission society in Ethiopia is the Sudan Interior Mission, largely composed of workers from Canada and the United States. The Bible Churchmen's Missionary Society has 15 workers and the Church Mission to the Jews, 11 workers, all German or Swiss.

Missionaries Safe in Italy

By A. E. STUNTZ

Rome, July 23—(AP)—While the Italian press persisted in its attack against Japan today for allegedly aiding Haile Selassie in the Ethiopian dispute, the decree was not publicized in the Japanese embassy— also displayed friendliness toward the 11 Swedish missionaries at Gimma in Italy

GRAIN ELEVATOR FRANKFORD BURNS

Landmark is Destroyed With Loss Estimated at $1,800

Frankford, July 23 (Special) — A landmark in the village of Frankford, a grain elevator owned by F. E. Pinnigar was completely destroyed by fire of an unknown origin on Sunday evening of last week before eleven o'clock. The loss is estimated at $1,800 partially covered by insurance. Five hundred bushels of oats and barley, owned by Stanley May of Thurlow township, who was using the building as a storage place were burned and the grain was not insured.

The fire was first noticed by John King, a resident of the village and although the volunteer fire brigade soon responded, the flames had gained too much headway and their attention was directed to the nearby buildings, which were in danger of catching fire from the flying sparks. This especially applied to the C.N.R. freight sheds, which are only 150 feet distant from the elevator. A car of salt on a nearby siding was moved to safety by the volunteer workers.

The elevator has been built for over fifty years and in the early days was the centre of activity for the district. It was formerly owned by the Turley Brothers, who used it as a storage place, they carrying on a large grain trade. Later Mr. Pinnigar who purchased it has used the building for a grist mill and storage elevator, but recently now bins, a fanning mill and a new set of scales has been added to the equipment. It has been decided as to the rebuilding of the structure.

Girl Sent to Trial On Murder Charge

TORONTO, July 22.—(CP)—Jean Grunill, 25-year-old Toronto waitress, who confessed to police she threw her child to death in Lake Ontario, was committed for trial today on a charge of murder. The unidentified mother was arrested July 15.

Her statement she threw her two-year-old daughter into the lake because she had not enough money to clothe herself and the child was read to a coroner's jury yesterday. Miss Grunill earned $25 a month as a waitress in a hospital.

JOHN PENSOM DIES

Toronto, July 23.—(CP)—Son of late John Pensom, founder of the Pensom Elevator Company, John Pensom, 71, died here in his 76th year. He has been in the business for 60 years.

Ethiopian Women Will Brave Battlefield to Care for Wounded

London, July 23 (CP-Havas)—Ethiopian women will brave the field of battle with their men to care for the wounded of both sides in case of war with Italy, Empress Menan or Ethiopia said today in an appeal to the women of the world, published in The Daily Mirror.

"In the name of the women of Ethiopia, I make the appeal to women to help prevent war, "Our desire being to live in peace in our homes, we urgently call on the Italo-Ethiopian conflict will come to a pacific solution by the triumph of the just over the unjust," her appeal said.

"If this is not the case we are ready to maintain the rightness of our country, to accompany our husbands and our sons on the battlefield to care without distinction for the unfortunate wounded, Italian and Ethiopian."

Plant Employee Missing, Twelve Injured In Blaze, 6,000,000 Gallons Afire

Rackhouse Only Destroyed, Some Other Structures Damaged

PEORIA CITY ROCKED

W. J. Hume, General Manager Flies to Scene From Walkerville

(By Harry L. Thomas)

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Peoria, Ill., July 23 (AP)— Fire which swept the huge $6,500,000 Hiram Walker Distillery following a terrific explosion was brought under control today after causing damage estimated at $2,700,000.

Twelve men were injured in the blaze and searchers were seeking the body of John Barton, employee, missing since the blast in the rackhouse where he was working.

Another worker, William Hulsebus, was found after being reported missing. He reported he had narrowly escaped being buried by falling debris and had crawled to safety through a hole in a fence.

Greenish Yellow Flames

Six million gallons of whiskey were set afire, sending greenish yellow flames high into the sky. The force of the explosion was felt throughout the city.

Rackhouse number three where the blast occurred was destroyed. The six-story steel building fell to pieces under the intense heat. Although the fire was under control, firemen said it would be sometime before the whiskey burned itself out.

The rackhouse was the only building destroyed. Several other structures in the $6,500,000 plant—said to be the largest distillery in the world—were seriously damaged.

Frank Dornberger, employee, was blown 20 feet from the doorway of the rackhouse into an excavation, 20 feet from the blazing building.

A telegram message was received by friends here from Mr. William J. Hume, General Manager of Hiram Walkers, Walkerville, of which the Peoria plant is a subsidiary stating that he had travelled by airplane from Walkerville to Peoria, Ill., the scene of today's explosion and fire referring to the fire. Mr. Hume was former manager of the Gravenhurst plant of the Canadian Industrial Alcohol Company.

Further details of the fire appear on Page 4.

GIRL ABSOLVED FROM ALL BLAME

Tells Police She Did Not Want to Meet Sherman

WORCESTER, Mass., July 23—(AP) — Seventeen-year-old Esther Magill, designated by authorities as the unconvicted accomplice of the wife murder and absolved of blame, said she told Lowell P. Sherman "in a polite way" to go drown himself in Lake Quinsigamond.

Sherman, 35-year-old employee in a textile machinery factory found dead in the death of his wife, was quoted as the girl testified:

"I won't, but maybe someone else will."

Sherman's wife, Alice, was drowned in the Quinsigamond Lake Sutton Saturday night. Assistant District Attorney Alfred Gendelin said Sherman confessed killing her.

"Several times he asked me if I would marry him if his wife was out of the way," Miss Magill recalled. "The last day I saw him I would have nothing to do with him but he kept asking me to meet him.

"I have been in his company at times but his mother or wife always was around."

CHURCH OVERSEER

HANS KERRL

Minister without portfolio Hans Kerrl, known for anti-Semitic views is named to oversee all church matters in Germany. Rigid supervision over all church activities and sermons has been ordered by Nazi government.

COL. A. EARCHMAN HELD IN CUSTODY

Charged With Misappropriation of Funds From Relief Camp

Arrested on a warrant issued by Federal police at Ottawa, Lt.-Col. Adam Earchman, D.S.O., O.B.E., Peterboro County military man was taken into custody at Warkworth hotel by Lance Corporal J. C. McPhee of the R.C.M.P., Provincial Constable John Kelly last night and charged with the misappropriation of funds in connection with the canteen funds of Relief Project No. 150, at Meadowvale, Ontario. Col. Earchman was brought to Belleville and lodged in the local police station last night and will be turned over to the Ottawa detachment of the R.C.M.P. today where he will be taken to face the charges of embezzlement.

According to information received at the police station today, the funds arose out of the unauthorized disappearance of canteen funds from the Meadowvale Relief Camp Project No. 150, at which Col. Earchman was in charge. Two weeks ago Col. Earchman left Meadowvale in an automobile, accompanied by his wife he was thought to have gone to the vicinity of his old home in Peterboro town.

The amount of money, alleged to have been misappropriated, was not made known by the Ottawa authorities in the warrant for arrest which was received locally for service.

He is a noted horseman and has been active in local horse circles in Belleville and many fairs throughout the Province. Col. Earchman is well known in this district and formerly resided at Brighton.

Coming Events

OWING TO MEN'S TOURNAMENT there will be no tea at the Belleville Country Club, Tuesday, July 23rd. 23-1t

DON'T FORGET TO-NIGHT IS NIGHT'S night. Come and enjoy the fun—no chores. Free bus from four corners at 8 o'clock. Admission 25c and 35c. 23-1t

TENNIS DANCE BAY OF QUINTE Country Club, Tuesday, July 23rd, at 8.30 p.m. Dancing under the stars. Admission 75 per couple. Get your friends. Admission to members 50c. 17-6b-TS

NORTH HASTINGS COMMUNITY Picnic takes place at Crescent Beach, Oak Lake, on Tuesday, July 30th, 1935. Dinner at twelve o'clock.

FOSTER WARD CONSERVATIVES Club extend to all Conservatives those interested in the election of Ernie Hodgins, K.C., an Invitation to attend a euchre at the Technical Club on tonight, 8.30 o'clock. Refreshments and cards. Everybody welcome. 23-1t

IMPORTANT— EVERY MEMBER of the South End Athletic and Yacht Club is requested to attend a special meeting at the new Club House, Wednesday, July 24th, at 8.30 p.m. Power boat owners also invited.—Charles J. Jeffs, Secretary. 2-23-22

City and District News

COMMUNION CLASS ATTENDED LAST RITE

Port Hope, Ont., July 23—(CP)—Twenty girls dressed in white muslin boys in robes of blue and white material marched today from old St. Johnstown's Roman Catholic church to the burial grounds beside the body of eight-year-old Lyle Trendell. They were members of Lyle's communion class.

The boy was fatally burned when gasoline being poured into a tractor tank ignited and caught on his clothing.

CHEESEMAKERS TO HOLD MEETING

For the purpose of discussing matters directly connected with their industry, Provincial Inspector Gourley cheesemakers have announced their intention of holding an open meeting in the office of Mr. J. L. Irwin, Dominion Dairy Produce Grader, in this city on the evening of August 30. The meeting will commence at 8 o'clock, standard time.

RAIN BADLY NEEDED IN P. E. COUNTY

"Prince Edward County is dry — very dry," commented Mr. Wm. Michaud, Dominion district seed grader of this district, on a visit over there, but we are not in such bad shape in Hastings."

According to Mr. Michaud, showers are needed in this particular district as long as the rain is of genuine nature and is not accompanied by heavy wind which usually damages standing grain crops. It is pointed out that recent showers have not done the necessary good to the Bay of Quinte shore to the south.

FEW MORE STREETS TO BE OILED

With the expectation of using 8,000 gallons of oil, further street oiling will commence in the city on July 30th, it was announced today by city engineer Ponds. Mole Fourteen more streets, some of which were oiled in the 3rd by a special committee of city council following an inspection of the city are to be oiled.

ROAD REPAIR WORK SOON TO START

Considerable road repair work will be carried out in the city during the next few weeks, it was reported today by the office of the city engineer, Ponds listed to be resurfaced and rolled include north Coleman Street, west Dundas Street, from the Bridge Road to Hillcrest Road, Avenue, Ponton, Benjamin, N. Lingham, Bell, College and Gilmour Streets. At the present time the city roller is engaged in scarifying and rolling Foster Avenue south of Dundas Street.

PEDALLING WAY TO OTTAWA CITY

The unidentified cyclist who passed through the city late yesterday on his new model bike is announcing to the public at large that he is heading for Ottawa with the "On-to-Ottawa" marchers, but ordinary marching would not suit the adventurous spirit he evidently too feel-ings.

Pedalling slowly along Front St. headed east, the cyclist displayed on the bike a large sign: "On-to-Ottawa". A small luggage carrier on the machine was heaped high with personal effects.

2,300 BOOKLETS ARE DISTRIBUTED

Although printed only a short time ago, up to the present a total of 2,300 thousand booklets outlining the advantages of this district as a summer resort for tourists have been distributed by the committee named Bay of Quinte Tourist and Publicity Association. It was announced today by Mr. Wm. Parker, president of the new organization.

The booklets have received an enthusiastic response, by both tourists and residents of the district. "Even though we have distributed that many we still clamoring for more," stated Mr. Parker this morning.

It is the aim of the association to provide the larger gasoline and service stations as well as hotels of the city with a further supply of the booklets for distribution.

Gas Station Is Robbed Struck By Lightning

GUELPH, Ont., July 23.—(CP)—Double misfortune overtook Brown's service station corner of Speedway Road and Gordon Avenue today. Thieves broke into the building and made off with a sum of money and a quantity of tobacco. Then a bolt of lightning struck the station and demolished the chimney and damaged the roof.

It Pays to Shop at the Rexall Store.

Developing and Printing
QUICK SERVICE
McKeown's Drug Store

SHOP AT ZELLERS IT PAYS
EVERY DAY LOW PRICES
Not a special Sale once or twice a year, but consistently low prices—that's the I.D.A. Plan.
SAVE SAFELY AT YOUR
I.D.A. DRUG STORES

FACIAL MASSAGE $1.00
MANICURE 35c
Newest Methods
Polly Elvins
203½ Front St. Phone 7126

BASIL HICKEY'S BODY RECOVERED

Found Floating on Surface And No Inquest Deemed Necessary

Found floating close to shore near the Stephens-Adamson Machinery Company, the body of Basil Hickey, 19-year-old Peterboro youth, who was drowned in the Bay of Quinte Sunday morning, was discovered shortly before ten o'clock today.

The discovery was made by two local lads, Carl Smith, 82 Foster Avenue and Alfred Lacy, 30 Franklin street, shortly after they had put out from the shore line south of the Stephens-Adamson property. The two lads were about to leave on a fishing trip as they suddenly observed the body floating about 100 feet out from shore. Flying their troll line to the bathing suit of the drowned man they towed him ashore. Police authorities were then notified and Coroner Dr. F. D. Walbridge and Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan, K.C., were informed of the recovery of the body. After viewing the remains and having the body identified, Crown Attorney Donnan announced there was no necessity to hold an inquest as the fatality had been entirely accidental.

The body was identified by his employer, John McDonald, the deceased man's brother, clarence, of Peterboro, Douglas Stork and Ernest Davis, the two boys with whom young Hickey was in company at the time of the drowning. The body was then released by Coroner Dr. Walbridge and taken to the T. C. Thompson Burial Parlors.

According to Dr. Walbridge the body had apparently been either floating in the water for some time or in the water for at least 24 hours, as the hands and face were in condition to show signs of decomposition, due to warm weather conditions. The body was to be taken to Peterboro for burial, the deceased man's brother announced.

DRIVER THROWN FROM HAY LOAD

Driver of Car Causing Accident Fined in Trenton Court

Anthony M. Richwain, Detroit motorist, was arrested yesterday afternoon in charge of driving negligent operation of a motor car causing actual bodily harm to Vernon Bennett, 4-year-old of Tyendinaga, youth. Richwain was arrested by Provincial Officer Ralph Rudkin and into Trenton, where he pleaded guilty before Magistrate Butler and paid a fine and costs, amounting to $40 in all.

The accident in which young Bennett was badly injured, was caused when the car driven by Richwain collided with a hay load drawn by a team of horses and a wagon driven by Vernon Bennett. According to information given out by Traffic Officer Delaney, Richwain's car was travelling at speed and was about to pass the wagon which was proceeding in the same direction when the motorist apparently did not allow sufficient clearance and the car struck the wagon and frightening the horses, threw the driver to the ground, his left leg being crushed by the passing car.

Employees at the Airport rushed to Bennett's assistance following which he was removed to the office of Dr. J. J. Johnson, medical officer at the Airport, where first aid was rendered. Later it was discovered Bennett was suffering from a hip and leg injury, while he also sustained severe facial injuries, which needed medical attention. Later Bennett was removed to his home where fortunately no fractures had resulted.

RAIN DRIPS DOWN UPON DRY LANDS

Signs of Break in Spell of Torrid Heat Are Welcome

Rain dripped today in a gentle downpour which seemed destined to bring for a time the threat of dried garden produce in the ground, and parching grain to the brown of the leaves of the bay shore belt. In Prince Edward County, too, heavy rains were reported wilting from the past five days of record heat, which has been being offered for the welcome moisture.

The five days meteorological bureaus of the province had held out hope for thunderstorms relief for this district which was expected to break a continued heat wave of high temperatures of excessive humidity which brought distress to a city and district sweltering in the record breaking warmth. Although rain did fall heavily in the northern part of the county, in some cases levelling grain to the ground, in this particular section the showers had been needed. Indications at noon today were that the rainfall would be of welcome duration.

CAPITOL
NOW 2 BIG FEATURES
Also WEDNESDAY Dinnerware Tonight
The LINE-UP
The glare of suspicion lighted the way to love!
2nd. FEATURE Shows at 2.30: 7.30 9.30
VILLAGE TALE
RANDOLPH SCOTT KAY JOHNSON

Children's Wash Suits
All styles and shades values up to $1.98 —and in size 2 to 8.
COME EARLY FOR FIRST CHOICE!
McINTOSH BROS.
257 Front Street. Phone 302
BELLEVILLE

Regina Press Views On Strike Marchers

(Extract from Editorial appearing in the Regina Leader-Post, Saturday, July 13th entitled "Regina Is Ready").

Irresponsible statements—not unusual at such a time—have been made in Regina and elsewhere about events in Regina during the recent tragic visit of the R.C. Communist strikers about the people of Regina and about Regina itself as an organized community. Impressions may have gone abroad that do not reflect a true picture of the City of Regina, of its people, of its poise, of its calm, of its loyalty to the basic and of the people of Southern Saskatchewan. It is desirable to set down the facts in mind.

What should be said, however, is that the people of Regina, in the main, are good average law-abiding Canadian citizens, who work for their living, who try to pay their debts, who respect their obligations, who respect the authority of the nation. That is true of the great majority of the people of Saskatchewan. They have been beset by many troubles; they have had five bad years, the arrival of the R.C. strikers came about in a peculiar fashion. Under the circumstances, it was not surprising that there was excitement, rioting about, much talk, much of it irresponsible. Queer stories got around. It is to be hoped that these will later be sifted out.

But the fact remains that Regina and Saskatchewan citizens are continuing to plug along at the job of making a living, they are respecting the authority of the country and the authority they have established for themselves. They want peace and quietness and a chance to live their orderly lives. They are just good, average Canadians, perhaps a little more conservative in their outlook than the people of some other Canadian communities. While the smoke of the conflict was still in the air, as it might be said, a majority of the citizens had set over an aldermanic slate that had in it everything they might desire in the way of extreme "left wing" advocates, and elected two men who stood for the ordinary, commonsense, sensible, government of the community. The strike situation was an issue in the minds of the electors; the matter of law and order was involved. Realizing this, the citizens gave their considered answer that while they were sympathetic with those in distress, while they may not all approve the actions of men in authority, they uphold the organized State, with the right to change it by the ballot and not by appeals to passion and violence.

Extract from Editorial appearing in the Regina Daily Star, Friday, June 28th., entitled "Country Order".

It is evident that in the country districts there the farmers are still feeling severe effects of the last four years of depression and drought, there is very little sympathy with the strikers who are disturbing the country by "marches" on the top of freight trains in different parts of the country. Especially is it so with the men who have been "trailing" the men from British Columbia.

From Briercrest, a telegram, has been sent by Premier Bennett supporting his action in respect to his bail bond system in the city of Ottawa. The opinion was expressed that the strikers' demands were "ridiculous at a time when farmers are unfavouring to carry on in difficult times."

"The Alameda Deegaich which is well known in the field of provincial politics, and Prime Minister Bennett made the only possible decision he could possibly have given the strikers. "The demands" he says, "were utterly extreme and impossible of fulfilment, and have granted them would have been bowing to their whole."

The Maple Creek News, edited by Mr. John Diefenbaker, holds similar views. "Every straight thinking Canadian will right behind Premier Bennett in his refusal to allow the truculent Evans and his followers to dictate to Government."

"The preservation of law and order is the bounden duty of Governments everywhere."

POLICE BLOTTER

Routine activities only busied the local police department during the past 24 hours, no arrests were necessary in Belleville. War has been officially declared on motorists, who constantly refuse to obey the stop street signs, however, three have been entered in Traffic Officer Rae yesterday after being observed breaking this city by-law. "We will have to summons these offenders into court if this practice is not discontinued," declared Chief Kidd today when commenting on motorists' failure to stop at the designated stop streets.

SNAP SHOTS
FRESH STOCK OF FILMS —Every Size
Bring in Films Before 10 a.m. Finished at 4 p.m.
SEE OUR CAMERAS $6to $8.00
DOLAN
THE DRUGGIST
D.D.A. Druggist. Phone 126

Obituary

LATE BURLEY OSTROM

Attended by a large number of the brethren of the local Lodge No. 1.O.O.F., of which he was a prominent member, the funeral of the late Burley Ostrom, who died in Kingston on Saturday was held at the Belleville cemetery yesterday afternoon, the body having been conveyed to Belleville by hearse, accompanied by the deceased's brother Kingston friends, who acted as pall bearers. At the graveside the regular Oddfellows' service was held, conducted by Isaac Sills, Noble Grand, and Geo. Kerr, Chaplain.

The late Mr. Ostrom who had resided in Kingston for the past three years, was a formerly well known resident of the 2nd Concession of Sidney. He formerly was a son of the late Luke Ostrom, also of Sidney. Early in life he married Miss E. Young, daughter of the late Cornelius Young, who survives. Surviving also is one child—Mrs. Elvira McGuinness, Picton. At the time of his death Mr. Ostrom was 75 years of age.

Kingston bearers were: Geo. Mannix, A. Simpson, H. Waite, J. Kyle, C. Dickens and W. J. Noach.

PANTS BURGLAR GETS $10

Kitchener, Ont., July 22.—(CP)—A pants burglar made a rich haul at St. Agatha last night when he pilfered the trousers belonging to J. Reuber, proprietor of the Embassy Hotel. There was $160 in the pockets.

HYDRO DELEGATES WILL MEET HERE

150 or More Municipal Representatives Will be Addressed

With an expected attendance of 150 or more delegates from various municipalities throughout the eastern section of the province, the convention of the Ontario Municipal Electric Association, which will be held in this city on Wednesday afternoon promises to be one of the largest gatherings of its kind yet arranged in this city, President over by Mayor Geo. O. Reid, Chairman, the meeting will open in the city hall at 1.00 p.m., Standard Time and will last all day. Ex-Mayor Thos. Farrell Lyon, chairman of the Ontario Hydro Commission, it is expected also that Mayor James Simpson of Toronto will be one of the honored guests.

Following the day's business, which will be devoted to discussions connected with the Hydro of the province, a banquet will be being arranged in the Hotel Quinte during the evening by the Belleville Hydro Electric Commission.

The invitations have all been sent out and everything is in readiness for one of the biggest conventions of its nature we have had in this city in some time," commented Mayor Tice today.

PURSUERS FIND BOY IS ESCAPEE

Cecil Hason Gives Police Run For it, But is Overtaken

Following a lengthy chase by police shortly before noon today, Cecil Hason, age 16 years, was taken into custody by members of Cecil theft, but after his apprehension he admitted that he had escaped from the Provincial Boys' Training School at Bowmanville Ont., on Friday. The lad was then placed in the cell block at the police station where his parents friends were notified of his whereabouts.

The apprehension of the youth followed a complaint received from Mrs. Richard Hall, Dundas St., who informed the police a strange boy had taken his bicycle from in front of the Holland home. Chief Kidd and Traffic Officer Rae Delaney gave chase in the police car and drove eastward as far as Otbon's Corner, but the first trace of a boy on a bicycle, they having been informed that the stolen bike was being ridden eastward. Upon their return trip, however, the officers saw a boy walking on the highway just outside of the eastern city limits. When Hason saw the police slowed down in order to allow the officers to overtake him, the lad took to his heels and ran southward towards the bay. Traffic Officer Delaney gave chase on foot and soon overtook the youth. It was not until the youth was in the police station, however, that it was discovered that Hason had escaped from the Bowmanville school for boys, today. The youth admitted both running away from the school and taking the bicycle, but he told Bellevillo police that the end of a truck, he said.

Chief Kidd will allow him to stop behind the hospital where Hason stated he had abandoned the stolen bicycle, no trace of the bike could be found in the long grass, however, and the police authorities he had left the "hot" bike by the entrance. Hason will probably someone loitering in the vicinity of the car and near the hospital had seen Hason abandon the bicycle and picked it up.

HEPBURN STUDIES GODFREY REPORT

Decision Will be Delayed Until Return of Hon. A. W. Roebuck

Toronto, July 23.— (CP)—Premier Mitchell Hepburn today is considering with Hon. T. B. McQuesten, Acting Attorney General, to determine whether any action should be taken as a result of the findings of A. G. Godfrey, K.C., Ontario Securities Commissioner, who probed the affairs of the Manufacturers' Finance Corporation.

Although the Commissioner made his recommendations, the Government will consider whether in view of his findings of fact prosecutions will be launched. The cabinet will consider the question at its session tomorrow morning, but no decision is declared today whatever course is decided upon will not be delayed until the return of Attorney General Roebuck next week.

Tire Blows Out 7 Of His Teeth

Arden, July 23.— Harry Hayes met with a painful accident when a seven-inch tire he was changing in his gasoline service station blew out, cutting his lip badly and knocking out seven teeth. He also sustained minor injuries to his arms. Dr. Seldon of Sharbot Lake attended the wounded man, who is doing as well as can be expected but it will be some time before he can resume his business.

MAXWELL LAWN MOWERS
PRICED TO CLEAR
Here is your opportunity to buy a new Lawn Mower at a saving of from 20 to 25 per cent. Priced
5.95 6.95 7.75 Etc.
Lawn Hose
50 Foot Lengths, with couplings
3.49
SMITH HARDWARE
PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

NELLIE SMITH
• FINAL
• CLEARANCE • SALE OF ALL SUMMER DRESSES
• 5.95
• 7.95
• 12.95
This collection of smart summer dresses presents a complete and appealing picture of the summer mode
BEGIN YOUR VACATION OUTFITTING NOW. Sizes range from 14 to 44.
Kreege Bldg. (upstairs) 282A Front St.

Spiritual Healing Investigation Ordered By British Methodism

Bristol England July 23 (CP Cable)—A remarkable departure in Methodism, the annual conference of the church today directed appointment of a committee of doctors, ministers and laymen to consider the whole question of spiritual healing.

Rev Leslie Weatherhead of London, mover of the resolution, said a large number of people suffered from illness which was incurable by the result of disharmony between soul and God.

KINGSTON DINGHY SAILORS VICTOR

Rochester Club Defeated by 27 to 14 Points in Two Races

Kingston, Ont, July 23 (CP)—Kingston Yacht Club defeated Rochester Yacht Club 27 points to 14 in two dinghy races at the R.C.Y. Monday, team of the local club turned in two sterling performances to win both races. Complete results follow:

First Race—First, Grant, K.Y.C., time, 4.35.32; second, Ford, R.Y.C., 4.35.52; third, Hora, K.Y.C., 4.36.42; Jemmett, K.Y.C., 4.36.57; Farnham, R.Y.C., 4.37.10; Tarr, R.Y.C. fouled.

Second Race—Grant, K.Y.C., 4.51.45; Jemmett, K.Y.C., 5.52.43; Farnham, R.Y.C., 5.53.53; Hora, K.Y.C., 5.55.40; Ford, R. Y. C, 4.57.32; Tarr, R.Y.C., 5.58.05.

CONNELL CLINIC OPEN ON CANCER

More Clinics Will be Opened For Patients Seeking Help

Kingston, Onl., July 23 (CP)—Dr Hendry O., Connell, discoverer of biological products known as "Vaccel" for cancer treatment, has organized his Connell Clinic and has begun treatment of all patients who seek help. Dr. Connell said today he is delighted with the result of his discovery.

Dr. Connell said clinics in other cities will be arranged as soon as he has consulted with other physicians and explained the method of treatment whereby the "Vaccel" solution is injected into the blood stream.

Dr. Connell said his discovery in no way will be exploited or put on a financial basis and persons treated may be seen by interested physicians.

He Had a Million Dollars in COLD CASH!

LET 'EM HAVE IT
EXTRA ADDED HITS— 'COUNTRY BOY' 'MUSICAL QUEENS' METROTONE NEWS
BELLE
NOW PLAYING 2.30, 7.15, 9.10
Thursday Only—2.30: 7.00: 9.10
Return Engagement of the Most Glorious Love Story ever Filmed
"DAVID COPPERFIELD"
STAR CAST OF 48 PLAYERS

REVOLT IN THE DESERT

by

T. E. LAWRENCE

As the well was close to the station, it was highly desirable that it be put to use, something to distribute our course and find us there detectaphone. We broke up into little parties and scrambled, Victory always under an Arab force, so we were no longer a raiding party, but a camouflaging baggage caravan, loaded to breaking-point with enough household goods to make rich an Arab tribe for years.

My servants asked me for sword each, as souvenir of their first private battle. As I went down the column to lend one something, suddenly—I met Feisal's freedom; and to my astonishment on the crupper behind one of them, strapped to him, soaked with blood, unconscious, was the missing Salem.

I trotted up to Fertan and asked whatever had happened to him. He told me that when the Stokes gun fired the first shell, Salem thought that the locomotive and one of the Turks shot him in the back. The bullet had come out in front, but it had gone in their judgment, hurting him mortally. After the train was taken, Feisal had stripped him of cloak, dagger, rifle and bandoleer, leaving one of the gunmen, had found him, lifted him straight to his camel, and carried him forward with him still calling us. Ferhan, overtaking him, and Feisal relieved him, and so Salem; who, when he recovered as-later he did, perfectly, bore me always as a friend. I left him to comfort him behind, when he was of my company and I was not, and I failed in stamchmeat. My habit of pitiless Arab standard, with its economy for foreigners who had not learned to spend its manners. Not often was I straight with a false shield at the Sherif Aid.

We reached the well in three hours and watered without mishap. Afterwards we moved off another ten miles and bivouacked in a wadi suit. There we lay down and slept and in the morning the attack developed happily tired. Stokes had had his dysentery heavy upon him the night before, but sleep had the relief that anxiety made him well. He and I and the only other Englishman, one, went on in front across one huge mud flat, after another till about before sunset—we were at the bottom of Wadi Hinnun.

This new route was important for our armoured cars, because its twenty miles of hard mud might enable them to reach Mudowwara nearly. If so, we should be able to hold up the Damascus line at once when we pleased. Thinking of this, we wheeled into the avenue of Hinnun, still gorgeous in sunset colour; the effect was that of a desert in ruin, with like them in scale and in the level bar they raised against the sky. Again we felt our former inhibited excitement by its serene beauty. Such buildings appeared so dwarfed us, stripped off the cloak of laughter in which we had ridden over the deserted flats.

Two days later we were at Akaba; entering in glory, laden with precious things, and boasting that the trains were at our mercy. From Akaba the five armoured cars hurried ship to Egypt. Cairo had remembered them and gone perfectly because of their non-return. However, they could pay the penalty of this cheerfully. They had won a battle single handed; had had dysentery; lived on camel-milk; and learned to ride a camel fifty miles a day without pain. Also Allenby gave them a medal each.

CHAPTER XVII

Making Up Our Minds

October, 1917, was a month of anticipation for us in the Hejaz because that Allenby, with Bols and Lloyd, was planning to attack the Gem-Beersheba line.

Gaza had been entrenched on a European scale with the same system of defences in reserve. It was so obviously the enemy's strongest point, that the British War Council seemed had twice chosen it for frontal attack. Allenby, fresh from France, insisted that any further assault must be delivered by overwhelming numbers of men and guns, and that they thrust maintained by enormous quantities a full chain of transport.

Dawnay sought to destroy the enemy's strength with the least loss. He advised a drive at the far end of the Turkish line, near Beersheba. To make his victory cheap he wanted the enemy surprised and routed, so, which would be best secured if the British concentration was left to the last day. Dawnay thought the whole flank attack to be a shallow relief.

We on the Arab front were very interested in the enemy. Our Arab officers had been Turkish officers, and knew every leader on the other side personally. Relations between us and them was universal, for the civil population of the enemy area was wholly ours without pay or personal risk. In consequence our intelligence was the best we had ever had, and most certain imaginable.

We knew better than Allenby the enemy hollowness, and the magnitude of the British resources, in the under-nourished the crippling effect of Allenby's too plentiful artillery, and the enormous intricacy of their infantry and cavalry, which moved only with thousandth elsewhere. We hoped Allenby would be given a month's fine weather; and, in that month, we hoped to destroy the enemy Jerusalem, but Halla too, prevailing the Turks in rain through the hills.

Such would be our moment, and we decided to be ready for it in the spot where our weight and tactics would be most effective and most damaging. For my eyes, the centre of Turkish power was from the station of the Jerusalem-Haifa-Damascus-Medina railways, the navel of the Turkish Empire, and the point of common point of all their fronts; for my chance, in that it was the only lay great untouched reserves of Arab fighting men, educated and organized from Arab tribes.

I pondered for a while whether to attack Deraa in force, and intervents and tackle the Turkish communication, we were fighting for an Arab Government from Damascus northwards, or to make the destruction

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

CANCER RESEARCH

Is cancer at last to yield before science? Reported discoveries of possible cures naturally arouse the deepest interest and doctors with cause experience from the past are very cautious in making a pronouncement. Yet medicine believes that some one is to get at the secret of this most fatal malady.

There is a possibility that a Kingston doctor, Hendry Connell, with his biological product "ensol" has made a discovery of vast importance. He reports that it has halted carcinoma in mice, and will issue a statement in a medical journal in the course of a few days.

Should Dr. Connell have made a practical discovery, his work will prove to have been of the supremest value to the human race. Great things have been done in medicine and surgery and more are to follow.

Let it be hoped that Dr. Connell has through research found something of immense value to mankind. Time only will tell as tests are extended over a number of years.

SITUATION AT REGINA

Public support must rally to the authorities in the preservation of law and order, says The Regina Daily Star in an editorial "The Blood Bath", based on the incidents of the fatal disorders early this month in the city. The Star comments:

"The return to the citizens of this city for their aid has been to disturb public life. The strikers have received food, shelter and financial assistance from their people. They have also accorded sympathy in many quarters, but the events of Monday night will rob them of every particle of sentiment of good-will that has been expressed for them.

"The use of violence cannot be tolerated in Canada, any more than it would be in any country of the British Empire. If drastic action has to be adopted, loyal Canadians will give it their full support. Good Government must be maintained in the Dominion, and any subversive movement must be dealt with firmness. That is what the people will expect, and what it is the duty of the Federal Government to supply and is supplying.

"From the first the strikers have been wrongly led. Nothing whatever can result from actions which disturb the peace, defy law, and bring disrepute on the country. After the demonstrations of lawlessness on Monday night from which Regina has suffered severely by loss of life, severe personal injuries, great damage to property, strong action will have to be taken to prevent its repetition.

"Whatever methods the police authorities may adopt will have to be given the strongest public support. Protection of life and property is the first function of government. While the men remain here, that function is at stake. Obedience to law is the first duty of citizens. That applies not only to the strikers themselves but to every loyal Canadian wherever they may be."

The Leader-Post of Regina in a recent comment upon "Two New Aldermen" said:

"As to the 'left wing' vote, Mr. Toothill and Mr. Mikkelson were the 'Real Thing'. They had both been vocal and active during the recent strikers' situation in Regina, taking strong ground along with Rev. Mr. East, that there was only one side to the picture.

"Readers will have noted the references of strikers' leaders who have gone to Eastern Canada and been saying that Regina was '100 percent behind them'.

"The result of the aldermanic election indicates that Regina citizens are far from 100 percent behind some of the claims and arguments advanced by the strikers and those who climbed on the bandwagon when it arrived at Regina. Regina citizens are sympathetic to the plight of individuals, but there is a form of extreme radicalism that makes a mistake when it gets the idea that it is boss of the community.

"Regina has indicated, in its civic vote, that it is a representative Canadian town, reared in Canadian traditions, wedded to the British principle of democratic authority and not to be stampeded into a hysteria that would, in the name of an emergency that did not exist, throw overboard the things that are essential to the building of a society in which man's life and property are reasonably secure."

British institutions and British methods must prevail in Canada. Only in this manner can Canada remain what the people desire it to remain—a British country.

The way to avoid the imputation of impudence is, not to be ashamed of what we do but never to do what we ought to be ashamed of.—Cicero.

SIDELIGHTS
THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the events of the day, home gossip and general news items as revealed by the home newspaper—under the evening lamp—and comments Grave and Gay. — Supervised by The Lamplighter.

TO ENGLAND

O Mighty soul of England rise in splendour
Out of the wrack and turmoil of the night,
And as of old compassionate and tender
Uphold the cause of justice and of right.

Thine was the consecration and devotion,
The world-wide vision and the world-wide trust,
Which made a pathway of the tides of ocean
And fruitful gardens of the desert dust.

Thine was the call to face with dauntless bearing
All high adventure, all adversity,
Until thy sons by their resistless daring
Had girdled earth with realms from sea to sea.

Now in this age when out of cruel oppression
The hearts of men are yearning for release
O Soul of England—England's great possession—
Lead thou mankind into the way of peace.

—Archdeacon Scott (Quebec),
In "The Morning Post."

x x x

"CONTRARY CORRESPONDENT" is a familiar term in any newspaper office, but to many city newspaper readers the term does not mean much more than certain modest columns in the home paper which recite the daily happenings in certain rural sections. In the sections covered by the rural news gatherers, however, this part of the paper is eagerly turned to. For the most part the news items may be purely personal, someone visiting someone, folks going for a trip or coming back from one, births, marriages and deaths, perhaps, but all of interest to that particular locality. Some brilliant newspaper workers have graduated from the country correspondent class, in fact many leading lights of newspaperdom, past and present, received their first newspaper schooling as country correspondents or small town scribes. Recently the useful services of the country correspondent has been recognized in a big way by a contest which embraced the entire United States, and the winner was Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Mahnkey, of Oasis, Missouri, who was selected as "the best country newspaper correspondent in the United States." Her prize, awarded by a farm magazine, comprises a trip to New York City, a silver trophy and fifty dollars in cash. A total of 1,581 rural correspondents were nominated in the contest and a number of other prizes were awarded. Mrs. Mahnkey is the only newspaper correspondent in a village of twenty-seven persons, and every week for forty-four years she has sent a weekly news letter to the Weekly Republican of Forsyth, Missouri. Cub reporters in cities under fifty thousand population need never complain that there is no news, nothing to write about—just think of Mrs. Mahnkey and her immediate field of twenty-seven persons.

x x x

LETHBRIDGE, one of the young cities of the west, is all puffed up with pride celebrating the Golden Jubilee of the birth of that thriving community. Lethbridge was born in a coal mine and now boasts a population of 14,000 and a retail business of eight million dollars annually. The Lethbridge Herald declares that Lethbridge looks forward to its next fifty years confident that the foundation laid by the men and women and 1885 and since will stand it in good stead, and that steady development along sound and practical lines will enable the city to serve its territory with increasing efficiency. Congratulations to Lethbridge and its optimistic newspaper—and to all the other up and coming communities of the great Canadian West, which have weathered every storm and faced every critical situation with courage and optimism, conquering every difficulty and assisting materially in creating the greater Canada which has won the respect and admiration of the world.

x x x

FROM FLOODS AND SAND STORMS in Nebraska, Rev. Porter Bennett motored to Pennsylvania just in time to be evicted from a camp site by the flood waters of the Susquehanna. Then he came to Canada and his old home in the Bay of Quinte territory to realize what a blessed country is this Canada of ours and especially the Bay of Quinte region which is spared the calamities which visit other parts of the continent. Rev. Bennett is spending his annual vacation in this district and renewing acquaintanceships of many years' standing.

x x x

AND WHEN YOU HAVE both heat and humidity—time to fire the Weatherman or somefin.

WINNIPEG BOXER CHARGED WITH MURDER

Raymond Henry Bousquet, formerly of Winnipeg, who has appeared in London prize rings recently as Del Fontaine, is pictured here with Miss Sheila Meeks, pretty 19-year-old barmaid, described as his fiancee, pro whom death Bousquet was arrested in London a week ago. Despatches stated that Miss Meeks died after a shooting drama in which her mother, Mrs. Meeks was seriously wounded, and in which Bousquet was arrested and charged with murder in the case.

Hiram Walker Distillery Peoria, Ill., Burns With 2 Killed, Dozen Injured

Explosion Occurs in Rackhouse Holding 6 Million Gallons

$2,500,000 DAMAGE

Carloads of Alcohol on Siding Taken to Safety

(By Harry L. Thomas)
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Peoria, Ill., July 23.—(AP)—Two men were believed dead today, a dozen were injured and damage estimated at $2,500,000 was caused by a terrific explosion and fire, which swept the huge Hiram Walker Distillery here.

Frank Dornberger, employee, said John Barton and William Bulebosh, workman, were in a rackhouse, where the explosion occurred, setting fire to 6,000,000 gallons of whisky stored in the building, which collapsed as greenish-yellow flames shot high into the sky. Today the two men had not been located at the plant or at their homes.

Dornberger himself was blown 30 feet from the doorway of the rackhouse by an explosion.

Originating at Rackhouse No. Three, where newly made liquor was stored for aging, the fire destroyed the building— 11 stories high and 120 by 180 feet, in size—then it spread to the Cooperage shop and threatening another warehouse.

Twelve time six carloads of alcohol, standing on a siding close to the blazing rackhouse, were endangered by flames and until a switch engine hauled them away were a menace to firemen and spectators alike.

A dozen persons were treated for injuries, caused principally by falling debris. The majority of those hurt were firemen and policemen, though a few spectators were singed by the flames.

Attracted by the flames, thousands of persons thronged the streets leading to the scene.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JULY 23RD, 1915

Mr. Joseph Langman, of Cleveland, Ohio, an old Belleville boy, is visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Blair of Montreal are visiting friends in the city.

Dr. L. K. Mott of Cincinnati will shortly pay a visit to his parents in this city.

Col. W. N. Ponton at the meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge, Hamilton, yesterday was elected Vice President of the Board of General Purposes and for the fifth time he was elected chairman of the committee on the condition of Masonry.

30 Years Ago

JULY 23, 1905

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson of Toronto are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGie for the reunion.

Fully 2,500 visitors have registered at the Old Boys' Reunion committee rooms on Front Street. Quite that many if not more have not registered and good judges estimate that there will be at least 4,000 people attracted to the city by the reunion. This morning the Corby Park and fountain were formally presented to the city. It was much regretted that Mr. Corby could not be present, but the gathering was pleased that Mrs. Corby was in attendance and Mr. Porter acted for Mr. Corby. Mayor Chas. N. Sulman read an address of thanks and appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Corby.

The old boys and girls seem to be growing younger since they struck the old town.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Armistead will leave shortly on a trip to Vancouver, B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weller of Detroit, Mich., are here for the reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cotterell of St. Thomas are the guests of Mrs. S. Holmes, John street.

Principal H. F. Gardiner, of the Ontario School for the Blind, Brantford, is here for the reunion visiting his father, the Rev. Dr. Gardiner.

40 Years Ago

JULY 23RD, 1895

The haying of rails for the street railway was completed today with the completion of the siding.

The saw log drive is over for this season. The last log was put through the boom this morning.

The new watering cart for the city has arrived from London, Ont.

The four cars to be used on the electric street railway arrived today and will be running on Saturday.

The Rev. Father Carson, Belleville, was in the city today. A short time ago he was presented with a handsome gift by the members of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association of Belleville. (Kingston Whig).

Mr. A. A. Roberts, barrister, is visiting his brother in Orangeville.

50 Years Ago

JULY 23RD, 1885

Corp. S. M. Daly and Private Lewis Wainridge of the 15th Battalion are with friends in Winnipeg. Corp. Daly's wounded hand is improving.

Will Morton, who captured a half-breed during the fighting in the Northwest, was told by a prisoner that he did not know what he was fighting for.

The Woman's Christian Association desire to thank the members of the St. Andrew's Society for their liberal donation of $20.00.

The yacht Iolanthe will leave for Toronto today and the Islander on Saturday. Both will take part in the series of regattas at Toronto, Oswego, Kingston and Belleville. The Gracie will sail in the races at Oswego, Kingston and Belleville. The Norah will complete in the Kingston and Belleville races and the Sylvia will sail at home only.

New instruments are being procured for the Oddfellows' Band.

ISLANDERS TROOP TO POLLS TODAY

Prince Edward Island Electors Have Clear Issue

Charlottetown, July 23—(CP) — Prince Edward Islanders trooped to the polls today in a battle of ballots between Conservative candidates led by Premier W. J. P. MacMillan and a similar force of Liberals headed by opposition leader W. M. Lea, former Premier.

There was no Farmer party or Independent candidates in the fight for the legislature's 30 seats to be occupied by 15 councillors and 15 assemblymen.

Landowners, wives and husbands of landowners, clergymen and returned soldiers were voting for both councillors and assemblymen while all others were casting their ballots only for assemblymen.

Polls opened at nine o'clock, Atlantic Standard Time, and will close at five o'clock.

At dissolution of the legislature on June 18, the Conservatives held 16 seats and the Liberals 13. There were two vacancies.

Campaigns Closed

The leaders wound up their campaigns last night with broadcast appeals while tired candidates rested after weeks of touring the province and participating in strenuous joint debates, said the custom in Prince Edward Island.

"I submit that at the end of the present term when undertakings have been paid for, $1,000,000 will have been spent for new indebtedness," declared opposition leader Lea, attacking the plans of the strong business government, which would balance the budget.

Speaking at Montague in Victoria where he has been convalescing from recent illness, the opposition leader announced that if the Liberals came into power he would call together farmers of the province in a special conference to formulate a provincial marketing act and find a means of dealing with the depression, which has brought a partial loss of our potato market."

INVESTIGATE DROWNING OF CHILDREN

As thunder rolled and lightning flashed, tragedy struck the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace of Lindsay, Ont. It is alleged that Mrs. Wallace, crazed after a prolonged illness, threw her five children into the murky waters of the Scugog river. Two were rescued. Mrs. Wallace is pulling one out herself, according to reports. The other three, Catharine, Agnes, seven; and William, children and Gavin, six, eleven, four, were drowned. Gavin, 11, whose declared at first that they had all fallen from a log, and Mary, two and a half, were saved. The layouts shown the spot where drownings took place, being pointed out by Clarence Magee, 15, who rescued Mary, and recovered two bodies. Mary is also shown as she slept in hospital. Mr. Wallace, totally disabled veteran and father of the

AND NEVER THE T WAIN SHALL MEET?

Hodyard Kipling is all wrong in the opinion of K.M. James Lin, son of Chinese president and Mrs Amoican bride, the former Viola Brown, clerk in Columbus, Ohio, 5 and 10. But the pair may yet be proved is a student at Ohio State University.

In the form of protests from China's president, who claims James has two Chinese wives and five children. Lin and his new wife are shown together in first publication photos since marriage at Ashland, Ky. Lin

Blood Coolers
SEDLITZ POWDERS
2 for 25c
ENGLISH HEALTH SALTS
50c
Smaller sizes 15c and 23c
15c CITRO SALTS 4c
SALINE LAXATIVE 25c
WAMPOLES GRAPE SALTS
50c
MILK OF MAGNESIA
23c and 35c
CITRO ACID 5c oz.
CONCENTRATED DRINKS
Lemon, Orange, Grape, Lime, Ginger Ale
Root Beer, 25c, make 1c glass
Sodium Phosphate 25c
Bromo Seltzer 25c, 50c, $1.00
DOLAN
THE DRUGGIST
I.D.A. Druggist Phone 138

SOME OF THE SCENES AND DISTINGUISHED PARTICIPANTS IN THE KING'S JUBILEE CELEBRATIONS IN LONDON, VIEWED BY BELLEVILLE CITIZENS ABROAD

Highlights of King's Jubilee Told Rotarians

Belleville representatives at the King's Jubilee celebrations in London have all expressed their delight and amazement at the magnificence of the displays, the intense enthusiasm manifested, by the English people, and the loyalty expressed for the King and Royal Family. E. V. Illey, manager of the Belleville branch of the Bank of Commerce, recently returned from a trip abroad, gave members of Belleville Rotary Club Monday his impressions of the highlights of the King's Jubilee celebrations in a very interesting manner. Sharing his enthusiasm at the magnificence of the Jubilee displays were several Belleville people, including Ven. Archdeacon and Mrs. Beamish, Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Stobie, Bruce and Grace Graham. While seated in the House of Commons attention to the Premier's speech was interrupted by wig-wag signals from an individual some distance away across the chamber, who evidently knew some of the Belleville party. Close inspection revealed the wig-wagger as Bert McCoy, a Belleville Old Boy, for years connected with the Steel Company of Canada.

Mr. Illey told of sitting in the British House of Commons with Archdeacon Beamish in seats provided by Hon. O. Howard Ferguson, High Commissioner for Canada in London, and watching with deep interest the great men of the day including Premier Baldwin, Ramsay MacDonald, Anthony Eden and others. Big men in brains and integrity but absolutely without side or any trace umpishness.

Cathedrals and Wayside Inns

Of the cathedrals and castles, the wayside inns and the ancient caves of Cornwall, Mr. Illey touched lightly in the brief time at his disposal, and mentioned his trip to Scotland with its Edinburgh Castle and Scotch War Memorial as among the highlights of his trip.

A wayside inn, erected five years before Columbus came to discover America, "The King's Head", with its great oaken beams and its air of great antiquity mingling with the modernity of present day hotel demands, was described in an interesting manner.

Grandma Halts Traffic

Marvellous control of traffic in London was mentioned as intensely interesting to visitors and the London Busses and Bobbies. London busses are never overcrowded because when seats are full no other passengers are allowed. Despite the heavy vehicular traffic should an aged lady step from the curb to cross the street, such is the respect for age in the Old Land, that all traffic would stop until her trembling steps had slowly but safely negotiated the crossing. And if there happened to be a London Bobby there he would take her arm, pass the time of day, and escort her to the other curb.

Business in England shows wonderful buoyancy and Canadian cheese and other commodities are held in high esteem and command highest prices. The advice of English food importers to Canadians is to keep the quality up and the possibilities of this, the greatest world market, will develop wonderful surprises in the future and profitable marketing.

Mr. Illey devoted considerable time to enquiring into the condition of the English market for Canadian products and acquired at first hand much valuable information, which will be of interest and benefit to cheese and apple exporters especially.

As a travel talk and word picture of the England of the King's Jubilee the address was interesting and instructive and Rotary appreciation was voiced by J. A. McFee and President Bert Boyce. The speaker was introduced by Fred Deacon.

BLAZE NEW TRAIL

Plymouth, England, July 23—(AP)—A Royal Air Force flying boat, carrying a crew of six, took off at 1.34 a.m. today in an attempt to make an all-empire trail from England to Singapore. The first leg of the flight was scheduled to end at Othellar.

MINISTER REFUSES TO ATTEND PARTY

Refusal May Break Relations Between Italy, Ethiopia

Addis Ababa, July 23—(AP)—Reports circulated today a refusal by the Italian Minister to attend Emperor Haile Selassie's birthday anniversary reception today may cause a rupture of diplomatic relations between Italy and Ethiopia.

The Emperor was 55 years old today and the event was celebrated with Royal splendor.

Luigi Orsini Conte Vinci-Giglucci, Italian minister, refused to attend the diplomatic reception and an evening banquet because of the bitter tone of the Emperor's recent address to parliament.

The absence of the Italian from the official reception caused a sensation in the capital and the minister's action immediately was regarded as an Italian rebuff, which may cause an immediate complication in the already strained relations.

Tribesmen and chieftains, some bringing gifts of snarling lions, came to visit their monarch and to offer him fresh assurances of their loyalty and devotion.

MURDER CHARGE FOR MRS. WALLACE

Husband Buoys Her Up With Promise "I'll Look After You"

Lindsay, Ont., July 23 (CP) — Buoyed by the promise of her wrongdoing husband he would look after her, Mrs. Guy Wallace, 36, was in jail today awaiting preliminary hearing next Monday on a charge of murder. She is indicted for allegedly drowning three of her children.

Shortly after the woman's arraignment yesterday funeral services for the three little victims of the week end tragedy were held their grief-stricken father, Guy Wallace, stayed at home. With him was 11-year-old Gavin who, with his baby sister, Mary, narrowly escaped the same fate as their sisters and brother.

A large crowd gathered at the church where Mass was sung by Rev. Christopher McCarney. Before the altar rail were three small caskets holding the bodies of Catherine 9, Agnes 7, and William 4.

Neil and Chic. Mrs. Wallace heard the murder charge read without any outward signs of emotion.

A question from the bench whether she was represented by counsel drew the statement from Wallace he would have a lawyer on his wife's next court appearance.

"You will be all right, sweetheart" he cheered his gate, "I'll look after you."

Police withheld a statement accused is supposed to have made after the tragedy was reported.

Gavin first told police he and the four other children had disobeyed their mother's admonition and had stepped on to a log in the Scugog River. A clap of thunder frightened them, he asserted, and they all tumbled in. Later, police claim, the lad changed his story. The second version was not revealed. Police, however, stated, "we say it's the mother."

SURPRISE MOVE MADE BY POLICE

H. M. Walker, St. Thomas Faces Reported Charge of Extortion

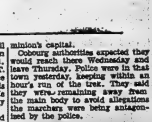
LONDON, Ont., July 23.—(CP)—Harry M. Walker of St. Thomas, will be arraigned in police court today to face a charge reported to be extortion.

He was arrested last night in a surprise move by police which was taken to indicate a re-opening of investigation into London's Blackmail ring which resulted some months ago in conviction and jail terms for Vincent Foley, Gordon Erskine and Mrs. Mae Turnbull.

Walker was taken by Inspector T. D. Cousans of the Provincial Police when that officer recognized his automobile license number. He spent the night in Middlesex County Jail.

Police and court officials refused to discuss the case early today. Because of illness Mrs. Turnbull was released recently from Kingston Penitentiary. She is now at the home of her son in London.

MARCHERS AT BOWMANVILLE



Expect to Reach Cobourg Some Time on Wednesday

Bowmanville, Ont, July 23—(CP) Toronto contingent of "on-to-Ottawa" marchers were on the road again today uncertain where they would stop for the night. They are expected in Cobourg tomorrow.

The marchers, with 30 more joining them at Oshawa, where they spent the week-end, kept their formations along the nine-mile route to here yesterday and camped in Rotary Park.

They said officials of the march were organizing another contingent in Toronto, which expected to join them before they reached the Dominion's capital.

Cobourg authorities expected they would reach there Wednesday and leave Thursday. Police were in that town yesterday, keeping within an hour's run of the trek. They said they were remaining away from the main body to avoid allegations the marchers were being antagonized by the police.

Randolph Scott, who distinguished himself as the romantic lead in "Roberta" is now seen with Kay Johnson in "Village Tale" playing at the Capitol theatre.

Use the Best Tea
"SALADA"
10

PHONE 1240
QUALITY FURS, REPAIRS
SPECIAL PRICES
Ashley Furs
204 FRONT STREET
Next to Kiaw's, Belleville, Ont.

Personals

Mrs. C. L. Martin and daughter have left for Glenwood, Manitoba.

Mrs. C. E. McEwain and son, George of Point Anne left yesterday for Owen Sound.

Misses Hazel McMillan and Irene Charlton have left for Eldorado and will proceed from there to Rapidan Lake.

Messrs. Frank Culhane and Gerard Buckley have returned from a week's camping at Crowe Lake.

Mr. L. P. Tschart and daughter, Miss Justine Tschart of Seattle, Wash., who are on a tour of Eastern Canada and United States are the guests of Mr. Finley Houston, 135 Pinnacle Street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Phillips, Gordon Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Appleton, Stirling, visited relatives in Oshawa over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Lewis have returned to their home at Roland, Manitoba, after a visit to the East, visiting relatives and friends at Toronto, Oshawa, Trenton, Belleville, Adolon, Plainsville, Mountain Grove, Sharbot Lake, Ona, Maberly and Kingston, Mrs. Lewis was Miss Annie Coe before her marriage and had many friends in this city, who were delighted to see her once more.

Mrs. Hercules A. Thompson is spending her birthday, Wednesday, July 26th, at Kenelle Cottage, Hastings, with her granddaughter, Mrs. H. A. Donner, Campbellford. Mrs. Thompson will be ninety-three tomorrow.

Mrs. G. Machollan has returned to her home at Glen Miller, Ont., after spending the past week the guest of Mrs. Charles Wallers, Catharine Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Tufts and family of Harris, Sask., are visiting Mr. Tufts' brother, Mr. Milton Tufts, Cedar Street, and other relatives in this vicinity.

Master Teddy Thrasher of this city is spending a few days with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Morley Craig, Huntington Township.

William Baker, son of Harry Baker, Catharine Street, underwent an operation in St. Joseph's Hospital, London.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fee, Detroit, and Miss J. Brown, Gravenhurst, Mrs. T. Cushing, Toronto, spent last week visiting at the home of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dermott, 36 Pine Street.

GARDEN PARTY HELD AT PICTON

United Church W. A. Sponsor Interesting Affair

Picton, July 23—The Women's Association of the United Church, held a most delightful garden party on the beautiful lawn of Mr. C. A. Newman's residence, King Street, on Friday afternoon. Many interior advantages of the perfect weather, to enjoy a cup of tea in this lovely spot. A profusion of flowers and evergreens, etc., was pressed from a buffet table by Mrs. (Dr.) G. A. Whiteman. Mrs. Manly Scott and Mrs. Dewitt Wood, the executive members of the association assisted in looking after guests. A housecooking table under the direction of Mrs. Don Van Dusen did a good business. The candy booth was in charge of Mrs. Chas. Hart and the Touch and Take table was presided over by Mrs. Andy Fairbairn. A most enjoyable affair netted a very satisfactory sum for the women's work of the church.

There is a slight outbreak of measles in town with grown-ups so far, the sufferers. These sufferers from the "red rash" are J. G. Crawford, Tom Desjardin, and Mrs. Geo. Hopper.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Meagher left on Friday for their home in Ottawa, after a pleasant holiday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Meagher, Royal Street.

Mrs. Geo. Lowey left on Friday to attend several days in Kingston, the guest of Mrs. Mae Lawless and Mr. and Mrs. Sid Cranston. Mrs. Geo. Lowey is ill at her home on Mary Street.

Mrs. Joseph Kearney and family of Oshawa, are holidaying with relatives at Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Norton (nee Daisy Turpin) are moving this week into Mr. Sherwin's cottage on Union Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Robbs and daughter Miss Margaret Robbs, of Vancouver, B.C., are visiting friends in Picton.

Miss Mildred Biff of Minneota is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hannon Biff, Centre Street.

EDEN W. I.

On Tuesday, July 18th, Mrs. Richard Cranston was hostess to the Eden Women's Institute and twenty-four members and Mrs. Milton Robson acted as chairman in the absence of the president and first vice-president. The meeting opened with the ode followed by the Lord's Prayer. The roll call was answered with "My favourite vegetable and how to serve it." Community singing followed. Mrs. Floyd Shaffield gave a splendid paper on "Our Out-of-Door Life" and all thought it much enjoyed. Clive Searles then gave an address on "Our Rural Community" and the meeting closed with "God Save the King." The assistant hostesses and hostess served a dainty lunch.

BETHANY W. M. S.

The July meeting of Bethany W.M.S. was held at the church on Wednesday, July 19th, ten members and seven visitors being present. The meeting opened by quiet music and call to worship, Hymn 326 was sung, followed by prayer by Mrs. Walker. Mrs. Robert Miller read the 6th Chapter of Matthew for the Scripture lesson, after which all repeated the Lord's prayer. Business matters were now discussed. Offering was taken which amounted to $3.75. Mrs. George Hamilton, group leader, now took charge. Hymn 361 was sung. Temperance reading by Bertha Badgley. Christian Stewardship by Eva Casey. Duet by Mrs. Walker and Edith Walker. Reading on Peace by Mrs. Berry. Mrs. A. Latta gave a chapter from the Study Book. Mrs. Hamilton closed the meeting with prayer.

CATTLE DIE FROM FORAGE POISONING

Wenatchee, Wash., July 23—(AP)—Central Washington ranchers whose cattle in recent weeks have died by scores of a strange sickness today appealed to the federal government to send an expert to the region to determine, if possible, the cause.

"We designate it as a forage poisoning," Dr. Robert Prior, State supervisor of dairying and livestock, said. "Apparently it is not from cattle ing any poisonous weed. It is one of those mysterious diseases and conditions about which we know very little."

Dizziness and staggering are common symptoms.

'GRANT OF YUKON' DIES IN TORONTO

Missionary Statesman of Presbyterian Church Was 73 Years Old

Toronto, July 23—In the death yesterday in the Toronto General Hospital of Rev. Andrew B. Grant, D.D., Secretary Emeritus of Missions for the Presbyterian Church in Canada, there passes a great missionary statesman. Affectionately known throughout Canada as "Grant of the Yukon," he was an outstanding figure in the Presbyterian Assembly. Within recent weeks he had undergone a serious operation, but it was thought he was making splendid progress toward health. His death, which came suddenly yesterday afternoon, was a shock to his friends and the Church.

Since 1926 Dr. Grant had held the office of Secretary of the Central Board of Missions, and previous to that the office of Home Secretary. He was regarded as the foremost authority on the romantic story and the services and devotion of "Grant of the Yukon."

In his seventy-fourth year, Dr. Grant was born at La Guerre, Quebec. He was educated at McGill and Edinburgh Universities and the Presbyterian College, Halifax. He received the degree of B.D., in 1886. Anticipating service on a foreign field, he left for Scotland, where although he never went abroad as a missionary, his unofficial gifts were recognized in the Yukon and he was appointed Moderator in founding the Good Samaritan Hospital.

Obituary

LATE MRS MARY A. CRONIN

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary A. Cronin took place from her late residence on Saturday afternoon of Tyendinaga on Monday morning to St. Mary's Church, Old Read, where Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father J. O. Crawford, Tom Desjardin and Mrs. Geo. Hopper.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Meagher left on Friday for their home in Ottawa, after a pleasant holiday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Meagher, Royal Street.

Mrs. Geo. Lowey left on Friday to attend several days in Kingston, the guest of Mrs. Mae Lawless and Mr. and Mrs. Sid Cranston. Mrs. Geo. Lowey is ill at her home on Mary Street.

Mrs. Joseph Kearney and family of Oshawa, are holidaying with relatives at Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Norton (nee Daisy Turpin) are moving this week into Mr. Sherwin's cottage on Union Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Robbs and daughter Miss Margaret Robbs, of Vancouver, B.C., are visiting friends in Picton.

Miss Mildred Biff of Minneota is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hannon Biff, Centre Street.

LATE MRS. CHARLOTTE LUCRETA STORR

With many in attendance at St. Thomas' Church, on Monday afternoon, the funeral service of the late Mrs. Charlotte Lucreta Storr was held. The cortege having proceeded from the home of her son, Morris Storr, 241 Dundas street east. Many beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem of the deceased, who formerly resided in this city for many years. Rev. T. Frederick Fayne conducted the services and interment of the remains in the graveside, interment being made in the family plot of Belleville cemetery. The bearers were Robert Tannahill, Alfred Gillen, F. O. Chamberlain, Wm. Carnew, E. A. Green, and J. P. Sargent.

JOHN THOMAS PRIDMORE

A well known and highly respected resident of this city in the person of John Pridmore, died suddenly at his home, 249 Harcourt Street early today. The deceased was not in good health yesterday but he early arose and at this morning suffered a stroke, from which he died very quickly. The late Mr. Pridmore was born in Lancashire, England, 68 years ago last May the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Pridmore. He came to this country in early life and for a number of years resided in Windsor and moved to this city five years ago. Since his arrival in Belleville, he has made a wide circle of friends. A member of the Salvation Army, he took an active part in the work and in all branches of the work. The deceased followed the occupation of sailor, but has been living retired in this city. Fraternally he was identified with the Canadian Order of Foresters, being a member of Windsor Court and the Surviving are his widow, one son Roy Pridmore of this city, one daughter, Mrs. Russell E. Smillie of Belleville, two sisters, Mrs. Stephen Hackett of Demorestville, Mrs. Joseph Hall of Saskatchewan, and one brother Timothy Pridmore of Windsor.

J. C. ASHLEY

Word has been received by Mrs. William Boyd, Catharine Street, of the death of her brother, J. C. Ashley, of Unity, Sask., who passed away in Saskatoon hospital on Thursday, July 13th, after a brief illness.

The late Mr. Ashley was born in Foxboro, sixty-three years ago, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ashley. He married Miss Libby Wickett, also of Foxboro. After their marriage they lived on a farm at Grand Rapids, Mich. Later they took up residence at Unity, Sask., where Ashley was a member of the United Church.

He leaves his widow, one daughter, Evelyn, Vancouver and one son, Milton, at home, two brothers, A. E. Ashley, Washington, D. F. Ashley, Foxboro and one sister Mrs. William Boyd, Bellerville.

DICTATOR'S PALACE GUARDED

Caracas, Venezuela, July 23—(CP-Havas)—An army guard was placed today around the palace of Gen. Juan Vicente Gomez, for 27 years dictator of Venezuela, and who spread the 76-year-old dictator was dying.

Now at a New Low Price!
The TRIPLE VALUE SALAD & COOKING OIL
1 Uncle Wonderful
2 Is Perfect for
3 In Mazola
MAYONNAISE
DEEP FRYING ECONOMICAL
MAZOLA

ELDORADO NEWS OF PAST WEEK

Eldorado, July 23—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Andrews and daughters Ruth, Doris and Shirley were during June guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of Flinton on Sunday, and te hon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas of Frederburn.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Blakely were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Whyte on Sunday.

At Sandwich on the 12th inst. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Andrews, a daughter.

Miss Pearl Empey is visiting relatives in the vicinity for a few days.

Mrs. M. Magee and Milton, Mrs. Maxwell and grandchildren and Miss Verna Reid of Bancroft and Mrs. Alex Brown of Edmonton motored to Actinolite and attended the funeral of Mr. Jos. Reid.

Miss Hilda Magee is spending her vacation with her aunt, Mrs. A. Gordon.

Mrs. Harry Waldron, and Christina spent Tuesday with Mrs. D. McCann's.

Mrs. Robt. Gordon, Bobby and Charlie were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Yearwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whiteman visited relatives in Cooper on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. George Wiley motored to Flinton on Sunday to attend the Orange celebration there.

Congratulations are due Goodchild and Harold Chambers on successfully passing their recent examinations. Miss Nora Sanford also passed on being recommended by her teacher Miss M. Wright for next year's work.

Mr. and Mrs. Findlay Harris spent the week end in Peterborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lloyd and family of Camden East spent Sunday in Bannockburn.

Mrs. Fred Blonden of Peterboro is holidaying with friends at Bannockburn.

Mr. Ira Roxborough of Ottawa, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. I. Serafin.

Mr. and Mrs. Tumkins and Kenneth of Queensboro Sunday visitors in Bannockburn.

Mr. Ed. Mitchell of Toronto, visited Mr. James Harris on Monday.

Miss Blanche Simpson spent a week at Marlbank with her aunt, Mrs. C. Dickinson.

Master Lloyd Weber of Toronto, is holidaying with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. H. Lloyd, Sr.

Misses Mary and Ruth Holmes and Messrs. Elwood Adams and George Dood of Trenton who have been guests of Mr. Jew Adams at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Brownson returned to their home on Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Tomkins and family of Ottawa, who have been spending the past week visiting friends and relatives here returned home on Monday. Quebec, on Friday attend the camp meeting held there.

Mrs. Kennedy and family of Saskatoon is spending a week visiting her mother Mrs. Robt. McCann.

Mr. George Sanford visited her brother, Mr. Ed. Sanford on Friday.

A number of the young people of Eldorado and Union, attended the picnic P. P. picnic at Foxboro on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Dan Mitchell spent Friday evening with Miss A. Holmes.

Mrs. Jas. Mitchell visited their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Frank, on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harvey went to Peterboro on Monday to meet their son Clifford and Mrs. Rose, and daughter Freda, nurse-in-training at the hospital, Peterboro, who will spend a three weeks' holiday with them.

Mrs. L. McMaster and Miss M. Chambers of Havelock are spending their holidays with Mrs. Jas. Mitchell and were tea hour guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Harvey on Tuesday.

Quite a large crowd attended the kitchen shower for Mr. and Mrs. Carley Cowan on Wednesday evening.

Rev. W. G. Fletcher accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. Harvey, Clifford and Freda motored to Perry spent a couple of days in Ottawa last week.

During the heavy electric storm storm which passed over here on Friday afternoon, Mr. Wm. Brown, son had the misfortune to have his barn damaged as one corner was knocked out of place and the "weather yoke" which was hanging by the barn door was split in two.

WORKMAN ELECTROCUTED

Cobalt, Ont., July 23—(CP)—Clifford Partridge, 23, New Liskeard, employed by the Northern Ontario Power Company, was electrocuted here yesterday when he came in contact with a 2,300-volt power line. Partridge was engaged in straightening poles and had climbed one of them during the work. His brushed the live wire and fell to the ground, dead. His widow and two children survive.

BRIDE-TO-BE FETED BY COMMUNITY

On Wednesday, July 19th, a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright, Harold, in honor of their daughter, Vera, to present her with a miscellaneous shower, prior to her marriage to Mr. Wm. Fairman of Wellington. The numerous gifts were very useful, consisting of granitewave, china, linen, glass, pyrex and silverware which showed the popularity in which Vera was held in the community.

After a delicious lunch the gathering was called to order on the lawn by Mr. R. Lackey who acted as chairman for the evening. The following program was enjoyed. A vocal selection was staged which was very amusing, a solo by Mrs. Franklyn Jeffrey, a reading by Miss Myrtle Reid, a duet by Hilda Kilpatrick and Neva Hagerman.

After the program an address from the members of Salem Sunday School and Young People's Society was read by Miss Josephine Sine and an address of appreciation to the bride and groom from the members of the community which was read by Mrs. Wright.

Dear Vera:

Your wedding is the golden chain that makes the world so fair and brings its golden hours about you. We are making our friends more dear as time goes on.

The members of your Sunday School class and Young People's Society feel that we could not allow you to leave our church without expressing our appreciation for all your kind assistance rendered so willingly to all the church activities. Your cheerful response to duty has endeared you to us all.

We shall miss you in many ways and shall often think of you in your new home. It is our wish that you may have a truly happy home, one of those with the latchstring always on the outside and one that radiates a wholesome influence in the community in which you will reside.

We wish to express our regret for you in your daughter more than mere words, and as a token therefore we ask you to accept these gifts as an assurance of our sincere wishes for your future happiness. May they often remind you of your fellow friends.

We followed an address from the community which was read by Mrs. Wm. Wright.

Harold, Ont., July 20, 1933.

Dear Vera:

Your friends having heard of your approaching marriage have arranged to tender you and your groom pleasant evening with you, and to present you your community gift to set up your new home.

We are glad of this opportunity to do honor to one of our girls who has been such a valuable asset in the church activities. You have grown up in our midst and have proved yourself a loyal and willing worker in our social and church activities.

Bill, we most heartily congratulate you on your choice of a life partner and we ask you to accept the richest blessing may follow you both through your wedded life.

We wish to show our appreciation of you by asking you to accept the then gift as a slight remembrance of our love and esteem and that when looking at it you may be reminded of the friendships of your friends and community of this community.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors: Margaret Reid, Mabel Twiddy, Ethel Clements, Lela Brownson, Josephine Sine, Beth Tanner.

The bride and groom-to-be responded in a few well chosen words thanking all for their gifts an invited them to call with them in their new home.

A lunch was then served by the ladies consisting of sandwiches, cakes and lemonade. Everyone departed for their homes wishing the young couple every success.

Cancer Serum Encourages Doctor

Kingston, July 23—Dr. H. C. Connell, who last week announced discovery of biological products he named "emeiin" for treatment of cancer stated he was greatly encouraged by reports so far achieved. He has been working steadily on detailed reports for publishing in scientific and medical journals, with the assistance of a pathologist. He has also been studying the cause of cancer.

Marked improvement has been shown by patients under Dr. Connell's care, even after ten days' treatment. Reports far achieved from as far away as Texas continue to come in.

Dr. Connell has found that injection of the "emeiin" solution into the bloodstream arrests cancer growth. He hopes the treatment may prove definitely to control cancer.

MILKING A COBRA

Doing the milking — but a dangerous job. Carl Stryker is shown holding the hand of a deadly king cobra and forcing the reptile to pour out its venom into the receptacle. The cobra was studied in supply venom for a serum prepared by Dr. Samuel Peck of Mount Sinai Hospital, New York. The serum is used to lessen pain of cancer, halt hemorrhages and in treatment of the bleeding disease, hemophilia. One cubic centimetre of poison was drawn from the snake—enough for 1,500 doses of serum.

LOOK FOR RELIEF AFTER RAIN STORM

Streets Flooded And Sewers Overflowed in Quebec City

By The Canadian Press

Residents of Quebec today looked forward to relief from the flood wave, which has held the province in its grip for the past week following heavy storms last night.

Streets were flooded and sewers overflowed in Quebec City, tying up traffic in the lower section as heavy rain sent miniature rivers pouring down the long hills. Communications were disrupted but damages were not heavy.

A barn owned by Louis Mercier was burned at St. Charles De Bellechasse when struck by lightning. Two horses perished in the fire.

At Mont St. Gregoire, Que., two stone workers employed by the Robert Brodie Granite Works had a narrow escape from death. They were struck unconscious by lightning and only recovered after treatment.

Jean Paul Gagnon, 23, son of the caretor of the Chevalier Tannant Hotel at St. Casaire, Que., also barely escaped death when stunned by a bolt of lightning which stopped on his person.

Three barns at St. Casaire were destroyed by fire after being struck by lightning with damages estimated at $12,000.

MINISTER TO RUN

Brockville, Ont., July 23.—(CP)—Hon. H. A. Stewart, Minister of Public Works announced today that he would be a candidate for re-nomination in the riding of Leeds in connection has yet to be announced.

CROPS NEED RAIN

St. Catharines, Ont., July 23—(CP)—Crops in the Niagara district are suffering because of lack of rain. Corn which made its first appearance of the season on St. Catharines tables is also suffering.

"Mayfair Beauty Salon"
SPECIALS
Owing to the great demand for our reduced waves we are obliged to continue them for ONE MORE WEEK.
REGULAR $7.50 for ... $4.00
Regular $5.00 for ... $2.75
Regular $3.50 for ... $2.00
WITH OUR WITHOUT AN APPOINTMENT
Phone 1228 28 Bridge St. East
Specialists in all branches of Beauty Culture.

Two Surprised Citizens

FEW REALIZE to the full the tremendous selling power of the Classified Advertisements. Wanted, For Sale, To Rent, Help Wanted, Employment, etc. The Classified Page is perhaps the most widely read page in the paper and the reactions to Want Advs. are quick and snappy, as those who have ever tried them have realized.

The lady who advertised in this paper for a second hand wringer Wednesday phoned early Thursday morning saying: "Please take that advertisement for a wringer out, I have had my choice of fifty and more are arriving every minute."

The Front Street business man who advertised an automobile for sale Wednesday evening had it sold before nine o'clock that night, and asked that the advertisement be taken out as enquiries were constantly coming in.

If you have anything to sell, rent or exchange, or want to buy or rent, or what have you—want a job or want to hire a man or woman, the Classified Advs. will do the trick so quickly you will think a miracle happened.

TWENTY WORDS FOR THIRTY CENTS.

I NEVER DUCKED A HOUSEKEEPER TO HOOK AXE, SUCH GLORIOUS OUTDOOR HEALTH I'VE GIVEN MY BROTHER IS GRAND

HE'S CERTAINLY FALLEN FOR YOU AGNES...INSISTS ON DRIVING YOU HOME TO TOWN...HIMSELF

A rainy day ...the trip back close, stuffy and...

NEXT WEEK
YOU SAY YOU CAN'T BE HELPED, WHAT DO YOU MEAN?

...I CAN'T EXPLAIN ... BUT WELL, SISTER.....

A WANT-AD WILL FIND IT!

YOU COULD HAVE KNOCKED ME OVER WITH A FEATHER WHEN I SAID "B.O." WAS MY TROUBLE ... BUT LIFEBUOY'S GREAT — PEPS YOU UP

"B.O." GONE — Agnes has no doubles!

EVER GET SCARED, HONEY, WHEN YOU LOOK AT THAT RING? THEY SAY MARRIAGE IS A GAMBLE

GUESS WON'T BE EMULINE!

EVEN YOUR COMPLEXION HAS THAT FRESH, SWEET, CLEAN LOOK

IT SHOULD! I USE LIFEBUOY. IT'S A FINE AND HANDY AS WELL AS BATH

CREAMY, rich-lathering even in cold water — that's Lifebuoy. Purifying, deodorizing, a sure end to "B.O." (body odour). Lifebuoy's delightful, fresh, mildet than many so-called "beauty soaps" according to scientific skin tests—that's Lifebuoy, too! In different words—Lifebuoy cleans face, hands, bath, shampoo. Its aroma never malicious—men, women, children. Join them!

Get the Lifebuoy habit

And watch your complexion glow with healthy radiance. Discover how refreshing a bath can be—know that this extra-clean feeling means safety from "B.O." (body odour). You'll find Lifebuoy's mild, fresh, clean, pleasant scent vanishes as you rinse.

LIFEBUOY

Approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau

QUAKER
MUFFETS
The Sunshine Breakfast Cereal
Rich Spun Golden threads of Whole Wheat woven into Delicious Biscuits toasted and Ready to Eat
Irradiated With Sunshine Vitamin "D"
QUAKER MUFFETS

Your Wants Are Met By Reading Other Peoples WANT-ADS

UP TO 200, BACK PAID FOR U. S. DOLLAR HEAD CENTS
We buy all dates regardless of condition. Up to $5.00 each paid for U. S. Large Cents. Also Canadian Large Cents, Half Cents, Tokens, Medals, Paper Money, Stamps, etc. Send 10c for large illustrated price list and information. Satisfaction guaranteed or its no sale.
HUB COIN SHOP
198-200 FRONT ST.
BELLEVILLE - ONTARIO

Business Directory

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct with Owner Or Financed
At an Attractive Rate
E. J. FISHER & SON
10 Bridge St. East Telephone 160
Agents
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Phone 4 Queen & Dundas — Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR
R. & WYATT, PH.D. CHIROPRACTOR
Graduate Chiropractic Physician
Specializing in Nervous Disorders
Electrical Treatments, Electro-Therapy, Ultraviolet Ray and Infra Red Ray Treatments, Manipulation and other modern methods of treatments. Home Treatments. Consultation and examination free. Office hours: 9 to 12 and 2 to 5 p.m. Evenings by appointment. 284 Coleman street, Belleville. Phone 1000.

DENTIST
DR. ROSY. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
Phone 460 340½ Front St. 17-tfn

RADIO SERVICE
JOHN A. DEWAR
RADIO TECHNICIAN
Authorized Philco Dealer
Phone 217 Phone 217
41-42

SURVEYORS
FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Provincial Civil Engineer. Land Surveying and Engineering Work promptly attended to.
Phone 1000 P. O. BOX 69
MADOC, ONT.

INSURANCE
Protect yourself against Accidents with our Automobile Insurance
SANDY BURROWS
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
351 Front St. Phone 130

HALL & EARLE
Consulting Engineers, Accountant and Plate Glass
279 Front St. Phone 1156-W

STOCKS & BONDS
HODGE AND CRAWFORD, MEMBERS
Toronto Stock Exchange
12th. F. E. Wills, branch manager
20-tfn

LEGAL
WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND CO.
Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Solicitors for the Merchants Bank Building, Belleville, Ontario.
MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISTER,
Solicitor, Notary Public, etc.
Campbell St., Belleville.
W. T. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR,
Notary Public, etc. Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 107.
MACKENZIE, GUNN AND ARNOTT, BARRISTERS, Solicitors and Notaries Public. Office: Bank of Nova Scotia Chambers, Corner Bridge and Front Streets, Belleville. Cable Address "Arnott."
CARSON AND GRAHAM, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Belleville Office: 20 Bridge St. West. Money to Loan. Wallbridge Block, Corner Front and Bridge Streets. Telephone 1000. Residence, 70 Orchard. Office: Belleville.
DONNAN AND BUTLER, B. C. DONNAN, K.C., Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Bank of Montreal Chambers, Belleville. Office: Corner Bridge and Front Streets. Residence, 70 Orchard. Office: Belleville.

Front St. STORE
To-Let
No. 326
Formerly occupied by Mc-Cormick's Studio. Recently renovated and decorated. Living apartment upstairs.
IMMEDIATE POSSESSION
Belleville Locators
186 Front Street
GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.
Phone 69 Home Phone 867

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; births and marriages, $1.00; Deaths, $1.00; Cards of Thanks and Funeral Notices, 50c; Floral Tributes, 10c a line. Memoriam notices, 10c a line. Marriages, minimum charge, $1.00 for 12 lines, over that 10c per count line. Locked Personal Messages, 25c month, minimum charge, 75c.
CLASSIFIED RATES—Per word, first insertion, 1c per word; each consecutive insertion, ½c per word.
MINIMUM CHARGE—Per insertion for 25 words or under, over that amount, 1c per word.
PROFESSIONAL CARDS AND BUSINESS NOTICES—Per line per month, $1.00; per week, 25c.
OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES (Standing)—Three consecutive legal issues—10c per agate line (6 lines to inch) for first insertion; 5c per line for each consecutive insertion.
AUCTION SALES—Per agate line, 10c for first insertion; 5c per line for each consecutive insertion.
No notice inserted unless money is forwarded to Box Number, care of the Ontario Intelligencer.
Cash in advance for Situations Wanted and Lost and Found Notices.

WANTED

WANTED TO BUY—Used tent, 10 ft. square, preferably with fly. Phone 1817-M. 732-1
A GIRL FOR GENERAL HOUSEWORK; apply 20 Fraser avenue. 732-2t
SUMMER BOARDERS IN PRIVATE home, 2 rooms and bath, in good condition, good fishing, rates reasonable. Phone 114 Sprague Line, Mountain View. 732-2t

Apply
BELLEVILLE REALTY CO.
Kresge Building
732-tfn

For Exchange

180 ACRE FARM—Half mile from school, general store and Post Office; well located. WILL TRADE FOR CITY PROPERTY.

Apply
BELLEVILLE REALTY CO.
Kresge Building
732-tfn

BAY OF QUINTE
FIRE INSURANCE CO.
Paid Up Capital, Lowest Premium Rates, Asts and Windstorm
Insurance
C. W. BIRD, Agent
311 Front St. Phone 2304
Belleville
J13-tu-th-tf

FOR SALE

ELECTRIC STOVE 4 BOILER, HIGH back, $20. Owner leaving city, 130 Bridge street west. Phone 2329-w. 732-2t
FORD ROADSTER DELUXE 1931, PERfect condition, new motor, new tires, $350. Apply 1017 or write S. Shannah, Madoc, Ont. 732-3t
BRICK HOUSE 43 HIGHLAND AVENUE, 7 rooms and bath, in good condition, beautiful location on No. 3 highway. Apply Mrs. Ada Neville Brown, Agent, 19 T. G. Trevorne, Lane, phone 1000, or Mrs. Ada Neville Brown, 43 A. E. Lockwood, 307 Albert street. 732-3t
FARM ON BELLEVILLE ROAD FIVE miles from Belleville, 100 acres more or less. Will sell whole or part. New brick house, 8 rooms, bath and furnace. Barn, hog and chicken house, some timber, well watered, under crop. Free from all encumbrances. John J. Reesmith, Napanee, R. 4. 732-1t
TWENTY CRYPTS IN BELLEVILLE Cemetery for sale at a reasonable price and quick sale. No offer will be refused. Apply to Box 77 Ontario Intelligencer, Belleville. J17-1t

TO LET

HOUSE WITH GARAGE AND TWO acres land for rent, 100 Dundas East. Reasonable rent. Phone 3079-W. 732-2t
SIX ROOMS STREET—ALL CONVENIences. C. A. Payne, 811. 730-eod-tf
HALF HOUSE NORTH PRINCE STREET; six rooms, all conveniences; garage. Apply Ontario Intelligencer. 732-2t
Strachan street. 732-3t
FIVE ROOM HOUSE WITH BATH. APply 20 Bridge St. East. Phone 2115-J. 732-2t
EXTRA LARGE HEATED BEDROOM, front room. Best location for business people. Apply Ontario Intelligencer. 732-2t
SEVERAL UNFURNISHED HOUSEkeeping apartments. All conveniences, 277 Bleecker avenue. Apply on premises. 732-2t

PERSONAL

PENT WERE A MISS—BEFORE SHE left for Europe. Call at 10 Bridge St. Sales. At Dain the Druggist. J18-1t

Notice

On and after this date I will not be responsible for any debts that may be contracted in my name without my written order. Dated at Belleville, Ontario, this 22nd day of July, 1935. R. S. McPHERSON. 732-3t

Notice

To Cheese Buyers

All cheese buyers take notice that the Board of Directors of the Belleville Cheese Board have ordered that the provisions of the Natural Products Marketing Act, and amendments thereto, be put in accordance with the provisions of the Cheese Board Act, and on and after August 1st, 1935, all cheese buyers purchasing cheese in the City of Belleville will be required to obtain a buyer's license from the Dominion Cheese Board, 306 Front street, Belleville, Ont. 732-1t

LOST
PURSE SUNDAY EVENING OPPOSITE American Hardware, containing valuables and money. Finder please leave at this office and receive reward. J23-1t

NOTICE
Raymond Carr, Chairman of Ketchabel Rural Hydro Area, is calling the poll offices and lists of voters in Ketchabel Ward who are interested in the election of the candidate, Mr. C. A. Carswell, at the Municipal Hall, Ketchabel, July 25th, in the South Hastings Liberal Conservative Association Rooms, Front street, being very important, would like as many interested as possible. Refreshments will be served. J23-2t

DIED
PRINGLE—Suddenly in Belleville on Tuesday, July 23, 1935, Alexander Pringle, in his 74th year.
Funeral from his late residence, 17 Pinnacle street on Wednesday, July 24, Service in the home at 2.30 p.m. Interment in Belleville Cemetery. 732-1t

TICKELL & BROWNE
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve the Little Flowers at Moderate Prices
Corner Church St. and Victoria Ave. Phone 2250

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
47 Church St.
Phone 7176 Day or Night
J. W. INLAH
Proprietor
Motor Equipment for Sale

Thomas G. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
25 Everett St. Phone 47
Office
352 Front St. Phone 48

Notice
Re Water Rates

The last day for allowing the 20% discount on Water Rates will be Tuesday, July 30th, 1935. Pending Court action, no water will be shut off before this date. Do not delay payment until the last moment and avoid the inconvenience of losing this discount.

H. B. STOCK,
City Treasurer.
732-3t

Landlord's Sale of Restaurant Fixtures

Under and by virtue of a landlord's distress warrant dated November 23, 1934 issued against the goods of Christopher Soupis and the goods of Christopher Soupis and Peter Soupis carrying on business at 306 Front street, Belleville, Ontario, under the firm name of "Belleville Restaurant" at 2 p.m. (D.S.T.) the following chattels:

1 Bishop, Rehcock soda fountain, 12 feet counter with 12 stools, 1 Frigidaire, 1 Frigidaire complete; meat slicer, Oliver typewriter, 1 cash register, 1 fan, 5 lamps, 1 Victor radio, 1 electric fixtures, 1 kitchen, glassware and other restaurant stock.

Terms—Cash.
The above chattels will be offered, for sale by Public Auction at the above mentioned time, but will then be offered separately subject to a reserve bid.

2412 Bridge street west, Belleville, Ont.
DATED at Belleville this 11th day of July, 1935. Chattels may be viewed for inspection apply to A. McGie, Landlord, 302 Bridge street west, Belleville, Ont.
GEORGE C. TIM,
Auctioneer.
J16-3t

TORONTO STOCKS CLOSE

Toronto, July 23.—(CP)— Selling of Walker's common at a substantial loss and others buying in some of the other interlisted leaders influencing C.P.R., Consolidated Paper, Noranda and Mickel on the inquiries of a Bernard New York firm combined to give the Toronto Industrial share market a much reduced trade today. The weight of price changes was on the down side at the close.

Trade was the smallest recorded since last autumn when 10,000 shares and took a new low of about three points.

Toronto Industrial listings again failed to respond to Dillon Read leadership of the New York market today. Liquors were held back by the break in Walkers on the news of a destructive fire at the Peoria plant and other leaders, with exception of the Metals and International Petroleum were on the soft side.

Walkers Common dropped more than four points to 1-3 at the opening and made active trading recovered to 28 1-2 by early afternoon to show a net loss of 2 1-4. The other liquors held steady. Firmness in the Silver Metals issues and Consolidating Smelters a gain of four points and Hollinger and Mickel 2. A sold down slightly and Brazilian came out in quantity at a minor recession.

Fruit, Vegetable Prices

Toronto, July 23 (CP)—The following price changes on fruit and vegetables were supplied by Whale and Co., here today: Canadian raspberries, pints 8c to 9c; Leamington tomatoes, No. 1, 11-quart basket, 75c to $1.00; No. 2, 11-quart basket, 50c to 65c.

HOLIDAY INSURANCE. $5000 for $1.00
We insure you against Accidents while on holiday and will pay:
IN THE EVENT OF YOUR DEATH BY ACCIDENT ..$5,000
LOSS OF BOTH FEET OR HANDS 5,000
ONE FOOT OR HAND 2,500
TOTAL DISABILITY (limit of 52 weeks) ... per week 25
The rates are: 4 days $1; 7 days $2; 15 days $4; 30 days $8.
We also insure your baggage at very low rates. For anything in the line of insurance telephone us.
JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Phone 1344 157 Front St.

FINANCIAL MARKETS
NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

TORONTO MINES CLOSE

Toronto, July 23—(CP)—A moderate flurry in the silvers and general strength in the base metal shares offset minor losses in the gold group on the mining section of the Toronto Stock Exchange today's action. Volume showed some improvement over that of the previous three sessions, due mainly to substantial trade in the white metal group.

A minor spurt in the silver group furnished the main interest in the mining section today. Although metal price quotations were unchanged at 45 cents an ounce, two points each for Eldorado and Nipissing and up to 3 cents for Beat and Castle-Trenton golds were mainly steady while the cheaper golds had some soft spots.

Firm to higher prices ruled in the base metal group for Hudson Bay, Noranda, Falconbridge and Sherritt was down a few points. The old war stock and Chemical Research was off a couple of cents.

WALL STREET FINANCIAL
By TOWNSEND ELTHAM.

New York, July 23 (AP)—Numerous new highs for the year were reported by today's stock market although leadership shifted from group to group.

Mining stocks and the rails came to the fore.

In the Canadian section of the list, a steady to fractionally higher prices trend was recorded by Mc-Intyre, International Nickel and Canadian Pacific. On the curb, Hiram Walker jumped more than two points coincident with reports by owners fire damage suffered by the company. Lake Shore was a bit improved. Montreal funds were up 1-16 of a cent in the pound.

Shares up fractions to around a point included Du Pont, Chemical, American Tobacco B, U. S. Smelting, American Smelting, Cerro de Pasco, U. S. Steel, General Steel, Otis Steel, Westinghouse, Sharon Steel Hoop, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, New Y. Central, Delaware and Hudson and Montgomery Ward.

Among losers of as much were American Can, Lambert, Chrysler, General Motors and Du Pont. The majority of the rails, utilities and steels were a shade up or down or unchanged.

NEW YORK CLOSE

New York, July 23 (CP)—Led by the rails, steels and mining issues, the Stock Market today overrode profit-taking and equities generally advanced to new high levels for the year or longer.

U.S. Steel, up 1 point, and others fractionally to a point or two included General Motors, Du Pont, American Smelting, Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Union Pacific, Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio, U.S. Steel, Otis Steel, Bethlehem, National Steel, Westinghouse and American Sugar Refining.

American Can and Du Pont yielded about a point each and General Motors and Chrysler were barely lower. The list as a whole, to firm. Transfers approximated 1,800,000 shares.

TORONTO STOCKS CLOSE

Toronto, July 23.—(CP)— Selling of Walker's common at a substantial loss and others buying in some of the other interlisted leaders influencing C.P.R., International Petroleum and Mickel on the inquiries of a Bernard New York firm combined to give the Toronto Industrial share market a much reduced trade today. The weight of price changes was on the down side at the close.

Trade was the smallest recorded since last autumn when 10,000 shares and took a new low of about three points.

Toronto Industrial listings again failed to respond to Dillon Read leadership of the New York market today. Liquors were held back by the break in Walkers on the news of a destructive fire at the Peoria plant and other leaders, with exception of the Metals and International Petroleum were on the soft side.

Walkers Common dropped more than four points to 1-3 at the opening and made active trading recovered to 28 1-2 by early afternoon to show a net loss of 2 1-4. The other liquors held steady. Firmness in the Silver Metals issues and Consolidating Smelters a gain of four points and Hollinger and Mickel 2. A sold down slightly and Brazilian came out in quantity at a minor recession.

Sealed tenders addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tenders for Cheese," will be received until 12 o'clock noon (daylight saving) Monday, August 5, 1935, for the reconstruction of a section of the Trent Flue at Killaloe, Renfrew County, Ont.

Plans, form of contract and specification can be seen and forms of tender obtained at the office of Chief Engineer, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, at the offices of the District Engineer, Corn Exchange, Ottawa, Ont.; Toronto Builders Exchange & Construction Bureau, Toronto, Ont.; Belleville, Ont.; also at the Post Office at Killaloe Station, Ont.

Tenders will not be considered unless made on printed forms supplied by the Department and in accordance with the conditions set forth therein.

Each tender must be accompanied by a certified cheque on a chartered bank of Canada, payable to the order of the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, equal to five per cent (5 p.c.) of the amount of the tender. Bills of exchange of the Dominion of Canada or of the Province of Ontario, or Province of Quebec and its constituent companies, unconditionally guaranteed as to principal and interest by the Dominion of Canada, or Province of Ontario, or Province of Quebec, will be accepted at par in lieu of cheque if required to make up an odd amount.

Each tender must contain the price and specification of the work for which it is made, and be made out in the form of a certified bank cheque or money order in favour of the Minister of Public Works. No deposit will be returned on account of any tender not being accepted, or within a month from the date of reception of tenders. If not claimed within that period the deposit will be forfeited.

By order,
N. DESJARDINS,
Department of Public Works,
Ottawa, July 12, 1935. J23-26-2t

Board Room Gossip

As supplied to Biggar and Crawford by Private Wire Service.

Sullivan.

The current issue of the Quebec Miner states that recent strength in the shares of Sullivan Consolidated Mines is attributed in usually well informed quarters to a strong rumor, or, brought from the field, that plans are being laid to again step up milling rate from the present 110 tons per day to 150, and possibly 200 tons per day.

Pickle Crow.

J. E. Hammell, president, estimates that there is three years' ore in sight above the 375 foot level. The shaft is being sunk deeper and three more levels will be opened up this fall following which a step up in tonnage to 300 tons daily will be decided upon.

Of the issued capital of 3,000,000 shares, a total of 1,399,984 shares of stock issued for property are subject to a pooling arrangement which expires August 1, 1935.

A New York opinion states that gilt edged, a reluctance to take taxable profits, relatively small borrowings to finance stock purchases and strengthening of corporate business recovery are behind the lack of pressing liquidation. On the other hand, consistent upward progress in prices must spring from a belief that stocks are worth currently in order to attract new buyers.

Aggregate net earnings for forty-four American industrial companies reporting for the second quarter were 21 per cent more than the earnings of the same companies during the second quarter to 1934. The companies reported earnings of approximately $40,410,000 for the second quarter.

The same companies earned approximately $74,831,000 for the first half year,an increase of 3.3 per cent. over their earnings for the corresponding period, in 1934.

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted mines as furnished by A. H. Ketchenon and Co. today:
Dunlop Yk. 1-2
Forty Four 850-750.
Calalta 2-3.
Mud Pat 10-13.
Lagoon 6-8.
Mandy 3-4 nil.
Rice Lake 2-3.
O'Ged 1-2.
B O Nickel 26 bid.
King Edward 4-5.
Sgr 78S.
Nicel 3½-4.
Porter Allen 7¼-8¼.
Adanac 7-9.
Ascot 27-29.
Benf 54½-57½.
Bathurst 1¼-3¼.
Bidgood 1-2.
Casey 7¼-8½.
Cobalt 26-28.
Cent Pore 26S.
De Kalb 2-3.
El Bon 13-18.
Garnet ¾-1¼.
Gold Belt 30-34.
Great Bear 68-71.
Greenlaw 1-2.
Hardrock 45-48.
Lafayette 5-7.
Langis 22-25.
Magnet 7¼-8.
McLeod Cock 3½-4¼.
North S 3¼-4.
Obaltaf 28-30.
Shawkey 33-41.
Smelters 7¼-8¼.
Sub Bear 28-30.
Wells 9¼-10.
Wendigo 14-17.
Wingold 3-6¼.
Young Pandora 15-17.
Pamour 36-39½.
Sigma 1606.

Grain Markets

Quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as supplied by Wills, Ketchenon and Co. today:

	High	Low	Close
July	81¼	80¼	81¼
October	81¼	81¼	81¼
Oats—
July	44¼	44	44
October	33¾	33¼	33¾
December			30
Rye—
July	35¾	35¼	35¼
October	39¼	38¾	38¾
December	41¾	39¾	40

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, F. E. Wills branch manager. Quotations at 2.15 p.m.

MINES

Acme 12S
Alex 30S
Ashley 19S
Angio Bur. 4.00S
Brit. Yk. Bell, 1 1-2S
Barry Hollinger 4
Base Metals 70
Bear Cr. 06S
Bobjo 3c
Big Missouri 5S
Bagamac 3 3-4S
Bralorne 5.00S
Brownlee 1 1-4
BRX 23
Buffalo Ank. 2.65S
Castle Tr. 1.07
Can. Kirk. 1 1-4S
Can. Malt. 60 1-2S
Central Pat. 60
Chemical Research 1.72S
Coast Copper 3.02S
Chibog 17S
Clarkp 2S
Conlaurum 1.57S
Dome .37 7-8S
Eldorado 1.23
Falconbridge 3.45S
Gold Belt 1-2S
Goldale 13 2-4S
Greene St. 90S
Harker 8
Home Oil 51S
Hollinger 19.15
Howey 70S
Hudson Bay 15 1-4S
J. M. Con. 3S
Kirk. Town. 15S
Kirk. Lake 40S
Lake Maron 3 1-4 B
Lake Shore 50 1-4
Lamak 32
Lee Gold 4S
Little Lil. 1 60S
Macassa 15S B.
Manitou 3 3-4S
Malrobie 10c
Maple Leaf 02¼B.
McIntyre 32S.
Mandrake 10c
McMillan 18S
McWatters 1.21.
Mining Corp 142¼
Noranda 51 ¾.
Obelen 38S.
Parkhill 20S.
Paymaster 36½ B.
Pet. C 04½.
Perron 80S.
Pend Or 62S.
Pickle Cr 2.25.
Pioneer 10.30S.
Premier 4.45 B.
Prud Ass 40c.
Read Auth 91S.
Reno 13S.
Royalite 23S.
San Antonio 145S.
Sherritt G 61S.
Sheco 2.90.
Stadacona 32½.
St. Anthony 16¼B.
Stad Bath 131S.
Std Mines 6.
Sullivan 85.
Sylvanite 21S.
Tash 38S.
Tor Dom 40 3-4.
Tobum 110B.
Ventures 36S.
Ventures 88B.
W Amulet 55S.
Waynden 13S.
White Eagle 14¾B.
W. Tretawas 78S
Yuk 36½B.
Wicker 2 3-4.

NEW YORK

American Can. 142 1-2
American Tel. and T. 127 5-8.
Amer. Por. Power 3 5-8.
American Rolling Mill 16 7-8.
Anaconda 18 1-4.
Auburn 22.
Case 46 1-4.
Chrysler 56 1-2.
General Electric 20 7-8.
General Motors 37 5-8.
Gen. Auto Lite 35 1-2.
Inter. Harvester 37 3-4.
North American 16 3-8.
Montgomery Ward 30 7-8.
Phillips Pet. 20 1-2.
Radio 7 1-4.
Standard Oil of N.J. 68 3-8.
Standard Brands 18 1-4.
Stewart Warner 13 1-4.
U.S. Smelters 111 1-4.
U.S. Steel 62 3-4.
United Aircraft 17 1-8.
Vandium 16.
Westinghouse 81 1-2.

TORONTO

Bell Telephone 130B.
B. A. Oil 19.
Brewing Corp 2 1-4S
Bras Thos 6 3-4S.
Can Bud Brewery 6 1-2S
Can Cem Pfd 100.
Can Dredge 36 1-4S
Can Ind. Alcohol 8S
C.P.R. 10 1-2.
Can Malting 23 1-2S
Can Vinegar 14 3-4S
Canada Car 6 1-4S
Coca Cola 60 1-2S
Con Smelting 144 1-2S
Dominion Stores 8 1-4A
Dist Seagrams 21 1-8
Fanny Farmer 9
Ford V.T. 2 3-4
Gypsum 5 1-8S
Goodyear 10
Imp Oil 19 1-2S
Inter Pet. 11
Imp. Tobacco 13 3-4S
Loblaw 18 1-8
Massey Harris 4 3-8S
Mont Power 31
McColl Frontenac 12 7-8S
Power Corp. 7S
Steel of Canada 50 2-3S
Supertest 7 1-4S
Shawinigan 18 1-4S
Walkers 28 1-2
Walkers Pfd. 17 1-2S
Walkerville Brewery 28

HOGS

Toronto, July 23 (CP)—Second hog price advance as all reporting market points today with gains ranging from 25 to 40 cents. Kitchener and Stratford were each up 40 to $8.60 while Hull and Brantford were 30, higher.

Produce Markets

(By United Farmers' Co-Operative Company)

Toronto, Wholesale prices on produce delivered at Toronto as supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co. here today were:

Buying Prices

Eggs—
Grade A, large, doz. 19
Grade A, medium, doz. 18
Grade B, doz. 15
Grade C, doz. 15
Specials—
Ontario No. 1 Creamery, lb. ..19½
Ontario No. 2 Creamery, lb. ..19½
Churning cream—
No. 1, lb. 19
No. 2, lb. 17

(F.O.B. shipping point)
Feeding

	Dressed
Live Drawn Milfed
Hens— "A"	"A"
Over 5 lbs. 12½	13
4 to 5 lbs. 11	12
3 to 4 lbs. 10	11
Old Roosters 07	08
Spring Broilers, over 4 lbs. .. 16	17
Broilers, 3½ to 4 lbs. 15	16
Broilers, 3¼ to 3½ 14	15
Broilers 3 to 3¼ 13	14
Broilers 11 to 2½ 12	13

Selling Prices

United Farmers Co-Operative Co. today were selling produce to retail dealers at the following prices:

Eggs—
Grade A-large, loose, doz. 25
Grade A-medium, doz. 24½
Grade B, medium, doz. 22
Grade C, doz. 21
Butter—
No. 1 Creamery, prints 22½
No. 2, Creamery, prints 22
Hay and Straw
No. 2 timothy hay, baled ton, $12.50 to $13.50; No. 3 timothy hay, ton, $11.00 to 12.00; straw, wheat baled, ton $10.00; oats straw, $7.50 to $8.50.

Graded Egg Prices

Toronto dealers Thursday were paying the following nominal prices for graded eggs, cases free:
Grade A, large, doz. 21½-22
Grade A, medium, doz. 20½-21
"A" Pullets 18

Livestock Quotations

(Toronto).

Steers, up to 1,050 lbs., good and choice 6.75 8.00
Steers, medium, do. 5.00 6.75
do. common 3.25 5.00
Heifers, over 1050 lbs., good and choice 6.00 8.25
do. medium 5.50 6.00
do. common 3.00 5.50
Heifers, good and choice 5.75 6.00
do. medium 5.00 5.75
do. common 3.00 5.00
Red calves, good and choice 7.00 7.50
do. common 5.50 6.50
Cows, good 4.00 5.00
do. medium 3.25 3.75
do. common 2.75 3.25
Canners and cutters 1.50 2.50
Bulls, good 3.50 3.75
do. common 3.00 3.25
Milkers and Springers 30.00 45.00
Stocker and feeder steers, good 4.50 5.00
do. common 3.50 4.50
Calves, good and choice vealers 6.00 8.50
do. medium 4.00 6.00
do. grassers 3.00 4.00
Hogs, bacon, f.o.b. 8.75
do. off cars 8.60
do. off trucks 9.20
Good ewes and wether lambs 8.00
do. medium 6.50 7.00
do. bucks 6.50 7.00
do. culls 4.50
Sheep, good lightweights 2.00 3.50
do. culls 1.00
do. medium 1.50 2.00

Livestock

Toronto, July 23 (CP)—With less than 300 fresh cattle and holdovers, trading on the cattle division of the Toronto livestock market was very slow at the opening today but fairly prices held, generally unchanged. Calves, sheep and lambs all opened steady but hogs had their unsettled start.

Receipts reported by the Dominion Livestock Branch were: Cattle, 200; calves, 100; hogs, 260; Sheep and lambs, 300.

Small sale of handyweight butcher cattle sold from $3.50 to $6 while a few choice fed-cattle brought $7 to $7.50. A few lightly steers purchased from $6 to $6.25 and good butcher cows held steady at $4 to $4.25. Stocker movement was almost at a standstill.

The calf division was unchanged at $4 to $6.50 for choice and $3.25 to $3.50 for medium grades. Lambs were steady at $8.50 for good ewes and wethers, $8.50 to $7.50 for mixed and $6.50 for culls. Light sheep sold at $2 to $2.50 cwt.

Quotations:
Cattle, cattle, sheep and lamb quotations were unchanged.
Hogs—No quotations.

Produce Market

Toronto, July 23 (CP)—Wholesale prices on produce delivered at Toronto supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co., here today were:
Eggs—Grade A-large, 26c; A-medium, 18c; B, 16c; C, 15c.
Churning cream—No. 1, 19c lb.; No. 2, 17c lb.
Butter—No. 1 solids, 19½c; No. 2 solids, 18½c.
Prince Edward Island old potatoes, bushel 55c, bag 65c.
Prince Edward Island new potatoes, bushel 85c, bag 65c.

ARREST REPORTED IN LABATT CASE

Detroit Police Will Make No Comment on Report

LONDON, Ont., July 23.—(CP) —Crown Attorney Norman Nelson today announced Michael McCardell was under arrest in Crown Point, Ind. in connection with the kidnapping a year ago of John S. Labatt, wealthy London brewer. McCardell is said to be a native of Ontario.

J 31 was also slated a warrant has been issued for a second arrest but the name was not divulged.

He led police on a chase of seven miles through Indiana farmlands before his capture. He is known by a number of aliases and has been sought in gangster hideouts in Chicago and Cleveland.

Police bullets whistled through the air when in which McCardell and a companion fled until it was abandoned and the two fled into a swamp, returning during the fire. McCardell is said to have been wounded but escaped. The other was captured. A missing finger has led police to believe he may be the "three-fingered Abe" who wrote the kidnap notes.

Detroit, July 23—(CP)—It was reported in police circles here today that an arrest had been made in connection with the kidnapping a year ago of John S. Labatt, London brewer. Police would make no official statement but it was understood inspectors for Mr. Cousins of the Royal Provincial Police was en route to Detroit and was further reported a second arrest was expected in Chicago.

A semi-official report declared one man, Michael McCardell, was under arrest at Crown Point, Ind., and may be taken to Chicago before efforts are made to take him to Canada. It was said he was born in Ontario but left there 30 years ago.

BRITAIN ADVISES

(Continued From Page 1)

question which was posed as a demand as to whether Europe is still able to accomplish the mission in the world of colonization which for centuries has been Europe's source of greatness—if the European perspicuity is no longer existent, then the Law of Inner Resistance is irremediably wounded."

Mussolini has further quoted as saying, "acts are more significant than words. At the end of August, I shall call up the reservists of the north Italy with 500,000 men. In October or November more than 1,000,000 Italians under arms."

"I have nothing to fear from anyone."

TREK MARCHERS GAINING SPEED

Oshawa, Ont., July 23 (CP)—The On-to-Ottawa trekkers rested at noon today by the side of the King's Highway near Belleville, having marched 10 miles from last night's camp site in the Rotary Park at Bowmanville.

A start was made this morning between seven and eight o'clock and the trekkers are planning an afternoon hop that will bring them to Belleville before continuing the 11-mile march which lies ahead this afternoon for Napanee, where they are now approximately 350 men in the trek, 30 Oshawa men having left the party as well as a number of additional men from Toronto including a few who had come from Regina and who joined the trekkers before they left Oshawa yesterday.

Nine Provincial officers are accompanying the men but little interference with the marchers' traffic now as the marchers are out of the heavy traffic area east of Toronto.

HEAT INTENSE DESPITE CLOUDS

More Rain But No Word is Heard of Cooler Weather

(By The Canadian Press)

Only in the conflict of rain and sun did the weather change today as an extended heat wave remained relatively unbroken. Humidity held higher than 80 degrees in Ontario and Quebec. In some sections the mercury was scarcely any less oppressive, however. Still the heat remained intense. Light rain fell in many districts, particularly in the Toronto area but the showers did nothing to lower temperatures.

Forecasts indicated there would be more rain. Even on the street blocked in vain for a sign the humidity would lessen. The weather bureau said nothing about cooler weather.

Baseball Current Sport

IN THE REALM OF SPORTING EVENTS

Golf Bowling

Five Cent Subway Series For New York In Jeopardy As Cards and Tigers Climb

St. Louis Wins to Draw Within Half Game of Giants

TIGERS RAINED OUT

Doubleheader Played Today in Yankee Stadium

By ANDY CLARKE

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

There is little joy on the sidewalks of New York for the five cent subway series is in serious jeopardy.

A few short weeks ago Giants were way out front, rolling along on the crest of seemingly unbeatable baseball. Even the laconic Bill Terry was spouting about finishing 26 games ahead. The Yankees came stronger and stronger until they were at the head of the class.

"Then it's the stadium and the polo grounds," they said. "Another subway series."

And then Cardinals and Tigers, the champs, stepped out to dispute the issue. They did it with such effectiveness that today they are just one-half game behind the leaders. The weeks have told a doleful story for the front-runners and the ensuing days may bring bad luck to the New York subway business.

Come to think of it, it was just a year ago today that Dizzy Dean beat the Giants to hang up his 10th straight victory and break Hal Schumacher's streak of nine wins in a row. The time-honored records also clashed some other facts not conducive to pleasant dreams for Terry and his mates.

One finds that in 1918 Giants under McGraw ran up a record of 26 straight victories and also 17 together. Joe, a row. Nobody thought they could be beaten that year either, but if you turn over another withered leaf you find that the New York Nationals of that year followed the Dodgers, Phils and Braves to the wire.

Perhaps that winning streak history doesn't bode well for Cardinals either. They won their 17th game in 18 starts yesterday, taking the measure of Giants 8-3.

Schumacher Shelled Out

Even as a year ago it was Hal Schumacher who met defeat. Schumacher left the mound in the third inning as the champions jumped out front not to be headed. The rejuvenated Bill Hallahan allowed 11 hits but they were well scattered, as he hung up his 4th straight win. He did not issue a single pass.

Meanwhile Yankees and Detroit were idle, rained out. The rain came as a benediction to Mickey Cochrane and his men for it gave Schoolboy Rowe another day's rest. He will pitch tomorrow and I wont hesitate either to throw him in there in the final game."

The Brooklyn Dodgers defeated Chicago Cubs in an 11-inning game in which a total of 42 hits, six of them homeruns, came from the bats. The final score was 14-13 after the teams had see-sawed in the lead during the closing innings.

Boston Braves ended their 13-game losing streak by taking Cincinnati Reds, 4-2 and Cy Blanton, Pirate rookie, pitched Pittsburgh to its fifth win in six, defeating Philadelphia 5-4.

Chicago White Sox moved within four games of the Yankees by defeating Philadelphia Athletics 12-3 in the opening game of their series; Cleveland Indians celebrated Walter Johnson Day by defeating Washington 6-4 and for the second time in two years a ninth-inning homer by Wes. Ferrel won a ball game for Boston Red Sox, 3-2.

YESTERDAY'S STARS!

(By The Associated Press)

Pepper Martin and Joe Medwick, Cardinals. Found Giant pitchers for three hits each.

Danny Taylor and Linus Frey, Dodgers: Former drove in four runs and latter's single broke up stinging contest with Cubs in eleventh.

Johnny Whitehead, White Sox: Held Athletics in check with nine hits.

Joe Mowry, Braves: His eighth inning double scored two runs against Reds.

Earl Averill, Indians: Had perfect day at bat with three singles and double.

Woody Jensen, Pirates: Drove Tom Padden home in ninth with run that beat Phillies.

Wes Ferrell, Red Sox: Held Browns to seven hits and hit homer in ninth for 3-1 victory.

BEAT THE SCOTS

BOBBY MURRAY

Young Bobby Murray of Montreal one of the Canadian tennis players with the team going overseas to Britain, won the lawn tennis championship of Scotland by defeating the veteran I. G. Collins after a grim extra-set struggle. Murray is shown in action.

Batting Leaders

American League

Batting: Vosmik, Indians .350; Cramer, Athletics .347.

Runs: Gehringer, Tigers 71; Greenberg, Tigers 73.

Runs batted in: Greenberg, Tigers 90; Johnson, Athletics 79.

Hits: Cramer, Athletics 125; Gehringer, Tigers and Vosmik, Indians 121.

Doubles: Greenberg, Tigers 20.

Triples: Stone, Senators 12; Cronin, Red Sox and Vosmik, Indians 11.

Home runs: Greenberg, Tigers 26; Johnson, Athletics 20.

Stolen bases: Werber, Red Sox 16; Alamada, Red Sox 14.

Pitching: Grove, White Sox 11-3; Allan, Yankees 9-0.

National League

Batting: Vaughan, Pirates .394; Medwick, Cardinals .371.

Runs: Medwick and Martin, Cardinals 78.

Runs batted in: J. Collins, Cardinals 79; Ott, Giants 78.

Hits: Medwick, Cardinals 131; Terry, Giants 125.

Doubles: Martin, Cardinals 28; Herman, Cubs 29.

Triples: Goodman, Reds 12; Boyle, Dodgers, Suhr, Pirates and Thevenow, Pirates 9.

Home runs: Ott, Giants 22; J. Collins, Cardinals and Berger, of Braves 16.

Stolen bases: Martin, Cardinals and Goodman, Reds 11.

Pitching: Castleman, Giants 8-2; Parmelee, Giants 10-3.

SOFTBALL

Young Canadas upset the dope in the local senior softball loop last night with a 9 to 3 victory over the Alemites elevating the former team into a potential play-off berth.

Bert Miller, ace moundsman of the Young Canadas, hung up his fifth consecutive win in as many starts as he kept the "lubricants" fairly well scattered, allowing them scoring counters in only three of the nine innings played. Miller whiffed four and walked two, while his opposing moundsman, Drury, whiffed three but proved more wild as he walked five, three of these resulting into ultimate runs. Both teams fielded well, giving their pitcher excellent support throughout the contest. Threatening weather and dark clouds impeded the progress of the game and its attendance.

The line-ups:

Alemite—Ziegler, Dickey, Gordon, Hall, Heun, Little, Haney, Lapensis and Derry.

Young Canadas: Letchford, Burridge, Palmer, T. Miller, J. Murray, Schreiber, Robinson, and B. Miller.

Score by innings:

Young Can. .. 004 030 002—9 runs
Alemites ..... 001 400 200—8 runs

BISONS SCORE 10 IN FRAME

Big Rally Defeats Toronto Maple Leafs By 11-6

(By The Associated Press)

It was the fourth inning and the Toronto Maple Leafs, second place club in the International League, were ahead 2-1. Buffalo came to bat.

Shades of the Argonne as the Bisons lowered their horns and charged in. If one were suddenly to have happened into into the Buffalo park he would have thought the Bisons were having lasting practice at several different plates. Batz were booming and balls were sounding and when the artillery ceased firing a total of 10 runs and a ball game hung from the score board.

It was the biggest single inning score that Buffalo turned in this season and the final count of 11-6 gave them their eighth win in 10 starts and placed them just a game and a half back of the team they vanquished.

Fourteen men took a crack at Peaches Davis in the big barrage. Carnegie belied his 36th homer of the season with two on and one to score back in the same frame to hit a single, Siebert got two singles and Olson rammed a double and a single.

Davis wasn't the only one, who fell bad about the proceedings, seven runs came in after Randolph dropped an easy fly ball, which could have retired the bellers from Buffalo.

Montreal at Rochester and Baltimore at Syracuse were rained out in other scheduled night games but the cellar dwellers from Albany took the field at Newark to take another drubbing, 7-0.

Ken Chase was the man at the controls, allowing but five scattered single and striking out 11. The Bears got to Dutch Leiber and Tracy Hitchner for ten hits including two homers and two triples.

BARON VANCRAMM BEATS ALLISON

German Even With U. S. in Singles at Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 22.—(AP)—Baron Gottfried Von Cramm scored a three set victory over Wilmer Allison today and enabled Germany to draw even with the United States at one match all in the Interzone Davis Cup Tennis final. The scores were 6-4, 6-3, 6-4.

Allison broke Van Cramm twice in the final game of the first set of the second set but thereafter, for a sequence of four games, the German put on one of the most masterful exhibitions ever witnessed on Wimbledon. He won four in a row, breaking Allison in the fourth and sixth games and two with the loss of only three points. For that stretch most of his thunderous drives were unreturnable and he nicked the sides and lines with uncanny accuracy.

Von Cramm won the sixth game of the final set at love to draw level at 3-3 and then there were three consecutive service breaks. Finally the tilted Uhlan won the 10th and final game with four aiming serves.

C.D.S. WINS IN MERCANTILE LOOP

Late Rally Defeats Finch Team by 7 to 6 Score

In one of the snappiest games yet played in the local Mercantile Softball League the C.D.S., nine clinched a 6 to 6 victory over the Finch aggregation last evening. Cook's circuit blow, with one aboard in the seventh started the C.D.S. rally, that saw the victors continue their slaughter and score again in the next inning while the Finch squad was being held scoreless during the dying frames.

McKeen, batting for the C.D.S. turned in a smart effort on the hill top slightly bettering Jenkinson's efforts for the losers. Jones, Cook and Booth made some sensational fielding put outs to materially assist the winners, in victory. Jenkins, batting for the C.D.S., provided the bulk of the feature plays for George's Finch's squad.

Tonight the league leading London Lunch nine tangle with the Kingsley-Shillingford nine in an important Mercantile League game.

The line-ups—C.D.S.—Thompson, Canning, Brown, Booth, McKeen, Cook, Jones and Langsfeer. Finch's—Boyle, Chumbley, Cliff Jenkinson, Giffin, Saxman, Dimmick, Jenkins, Fulton and Temple.

Score by innings:

Finch.. . . 1 2 2 0 0 0 1 0 0—6 runs
C.D.S. . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 3 2—7 runs

Umpires—Smith and Graham

Medwick's Spirit Keeps Cardinals Up

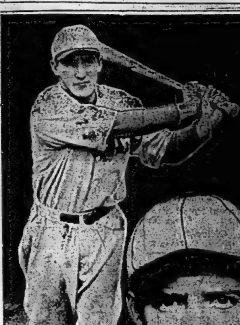
Ducky-Wucky is Fighter All The Time

By BILL BRAUCHER

Central Press Canadian Sports Writer

Youth is having its swing in the big leagues, with young players like Arky Vaughan, Bob Johnson, Joe Vosmik, Jim Bucher and Joe Medwick setting a swift pace.

Of all these, Medwick, who bears the misleading nickname of "Ducky Wucky" carries the loudest color. The 23-year-old outfielder from Carteret, N.J., is a fighter from gong to gong, whose bright spirit has led the papers and fans after time out of stumps to the heights.



How He Got Name

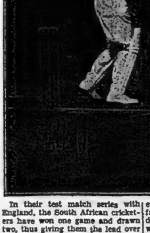
Ducky Wucky got his strange nickname in Houston, Tex., where he played on the Cardinal farm team four years ago. A girl friend remarked of his aquatic ability, "He swims like a duck." It got into the papers and they started calling him Ducky Wucky. In last year's world series, however, he proved anything but "ducky" when he and Marvin Owen, Tiger third baseman traded insults after Owen accused Medwick of spiking him.

Blackened eyes by Old Pop Owens' cause, and hurled whatever fit the hand onto the field. Ducky, nothing daunted, tossed a few back. Once at a time for a crowd is all the same to him and finally had to be led roaring from the field.

Ducky was born in Carteret, Nov. 11, 1911, and it was while pitching, fielding or flaying third base his baseball career by Old Pop Schriver, one of the Cardinals' A-1 crew of scouts, that he really rained and in other scheduled night games but the cellar dwellers from Albany took the field at Newark to take another drubbing, 7-0.

Ken Chase was the man at the controls, allowing but five scattered single and striking out 11. The Bears got to Dutch Leiber and Tracy Hitchner for ten hits including two homers and two taggers.

Joe Medwick . . . just the type to start a riot



Joe isn't big for a slugger—6 feet, 10 inches tall, weighing 197—but he gets distance on his drives by the terrific cut he takes at the ball.

He is of Hungarian descent, unmarried, and lives during the winter in his home town where he goes for skating and table tennis. One of his hobbies, aside from fighting is dancing.

SOUTH AFRICAN TEST TEAM CAPTAIN MAKES FINE CATCH

In their test match series with England, the South African cricketers have won one game and drawn two, losing the third game by the last few homesters in the five match series. England got the worst luck on the first and third games, however, leading both times only to fall, first because rain forced abandonment of play, and secondly when the Springboks stonewalled against a long English lead until time was called and the match automatically ended in a draw. At that the visitors have shown some smart playing. Here is H. F. Wade, South African captain, taking a fine catch to dismiss Keeton off Croy for a mere eight runs, when his team played Nottingham at Trent Bridge.

Marion Nixon and Wilmam Gargan in "The Line-Up" now playing at the Capitol theatre.

GOLF

BY ALEX MORRISON

Players in the habit of gripping the club on the very end waste about ten strokes per round. I have a pupil who stubbornly held to this practice. Only the other day did I get him to hold his iron clubs two or three inches down from the end.

The long hold made him wild on his second shots. He would take three or four shots to get on the green on an easy par four hole. He could have complete control of the club and invariably would look up before impact.

As soon as he adopted the short hold, his swing became smoother. He had plenty of wrist action, and felt that he had full control of the club. He had no trouble putting his second shots on the green. Many of them stopped close enough to the pin to afford him a putt for a birdie. It cut 15 strokes off his regular game.

It will help your game. Take a shorter hold on all of your clubs. The average in both distance and direction will be better than you've ever had before.

—

To tell a player to follow through is like putting a curse on him. In the main there are only three or four ideas that cause most of a player's troubles. Trying to follow through is later the top of the list.

Any player who gives thought to his follow through or what happens to his swing after the ball has been hit, just shuts his eyes to the rest of his swing. He overdoes both backswing and downswing in favor of something that has nothing to do with the flight of the ball.

The clubhead must be swung through the ball properly. Its movement must not be checked or deflected as it approaches the ball, but this does not mean that the player should make any effort to guide or control its movement toward the finish of the swing. No more, should he try to control the movements of the various parts of his body in this final stage. Momentum of the club should govern his finish.

CURRENT SPORT

DAY BY DAY

A victory for the Stewart-Warners this evening will materially assist their stock in the O.S.B.L. At the present time of writing the Peters and the Ponies are all knotted up in tie for first place in the local senior baseball loop, with the local Radios just one-half a game behind them. Coach Mills can make his charges to a win over the Daly-Ied crew from Kingston this evening at the local Exhibition Park, well, let's see what would follow. The Peters and Ponies are standing eight victories and seven reverses, while the Radios are one eight and eight. A home town victory this eve will sky-rocket the Radios into sole possession of second place, a matter of percentage points behind the Peters, while a loss to the Ponies will tumble them from the top rung to third place. "What we want tonight is a victory," smoked out Saturday at Peterboro and then straight sailing into the final play-downs," the Radios have been hitting with a better degree of consistency of late, all of which is the answer for their past two clean-cut victories. 'Twill be Jamieson and Calhoun on the rubber tonight, we imagine.

Yesterday the O.R.S.A. announced the draw for the Senior series and we find the local Kiwanis Juniors drawn against the winner of the Wellington loop, the series to open in Belleville on Aug. 10th or 11th, which ever is more convenient. The Lake Shore Junior League embrace teams in Peterboro, Oshawa, Orono and Bowmanville, and play on a home-and-home junior ball, informants say. The local new sportsign in the form of championship is by means of exhibition games versus Bowmanville, Bath and Hastings loop, incidentally President Chief Kidd announced yesterday before last night's game that the Hastings clubs would be arranged later.

Through some misunderstanding the regular scheduled Napanee at Belleville Bay of Quinte League game tomorrow afternoon has got the Gibbards as a home fixture for tomorrow afternoon. In the meantime the local intermediates were about to purchase their advertising, when this was brought to light. A hurried telephone conversation ramified with the result that the Gibbards have promised to switch dates with the Pamplins, which means the locals will play in Napanee on Wednesday with the Gibbards coming to Belleville some time next week. Doubleoaly Ross Smith will oppose Tommy Fowler on the mound.

Although Carl Gruber did not win any events at the Northern Division canoe regatta at Ottawa on Saturday, he proved to be the double blade singles. Gruber was in with the best canoeists in Canada and drew the lane in the current, of the river, which naturally impeded his progress to some little degree, but that he finished well up and only a nose behind the winner, Under ordinary circumstances Carl may well win the double blade championship of Canada, when he competes at the annual Canadian Canoe Club finals next month. Carl was quite disappointed because he did not qualify in the single blade. Incidentally the Gananoque canoeists again swept the meet by qualifying in... every event. Commodore Bill Fry's charges did exceptionally well for first year paddlers. They should in no way feel disappointed or down-hearted as many words of praise were heard for their fawor following the meet at Ottawa last Saturday. Their accomplishments may encourage them to greater heights and should they do so much as assist the efficiency of paddling in the waters of the Bay of Quinte, And don't forget the weekly pond sailing races off Victoria Park tomorrow, real competition is promised, as says Starter King Rogers.

Rain and darkness abruptly ended an exhibition ball game between the local Kiwanis Juniors and the "Little Chippers" on the latters' diamond last eve. The local kids were leading 12 to 6 when the umps were forced to call no contest. Incidentally the Meagher-led junior Kiwanis ball club is living up to all to their prowess. Lefty Weeks and Joe Kelleher swirled for the juniors. Weeks aiding the homsters for three of the four innings. The game was the last played by the local Kiwanis juniors versus the South Hastings juniors as a part preparation for their coming play-downs in the O. B. A. A. Coach Meagher has introduced a new shortstop in the diamond Collins, who hails from Carlton or thereabouts. Judging from the score card the local juniors are still a much better team on the offensive, however they are on the defensive, however.

While commenting on the Stewart-Warners' win over the Peters last week the Limestone City sports writer has a few words to say in relationship to the whys and wherefores of the home-town defeat—

Jack Williams, ace hurler of Belleville, was too much for the Kingston team last evening and turned them back with six hits while Williams' team-mates were collecting thirteen from Clancy, Kingston pitcher. Belleville played air-tight ball in the field and came through with a timely hit when the going got tough.

Failure to hit again cost Kingston plenty of chances to win last night's ball game. The slants of the Belleville twirler was the best pretty well under cover with their bats.

Major league baseball is demanding more than the usual attention at this particular time of the year. It may be due to the progress that is being made by the St. Louis Cards and the Detroit Tigers, worlds series contestants of 1934. Will they repeat, is the question being asked at every street corner these days.

Canuck Sculler Shows Heels to Amerks

CHAS. A. CAMPBELL

Charlie "Chuck" Campbell of Argonaut Rowing Club, Toronto, is the national senior sculling championship of United States by defeating Winthrop Rutherford at Princeton by seven length. The 31-year-old oarsman has been rowing for the past 13 months, now holds the championships of both U.S. and Canada. The time was 7:38.

THE RED TIGER

By ALANSON CROSBY

After everybody had been seated and the silence was growing awkward, McMahon cleared his throat and said:

"There's quite a lot of things to be cleared up yet. You remember, Mr. Spencer, three nights ago when you promised to explain more voluntarily within 24 hours with proof of your innocence of any connection with the—Red Tiger gang? You didn't appear as you promised, and, of course, we understand now that you were forcibly restrained. I presume, however, you are prepared to furnish those proofs?"

"No," said Spencer, slowly. "I am not. I withdraw that promise, and give myself up."

"The devil you do!" said McMahon. "What's behind this mean? You don't mean to confess that we had the goods on you after all, Mr. Spencer? Bedad, I'm sorry to hear it if you do. I was hoping you'd prove us a bunch of numbskulls after all—we're used to it by this time."

Spencer smiled wanly. Judith looked at him tenderly, with full understanding.

"This morning's events change the situation somewhat, Captain. I presume you are aware that I was engaged to marry Miss Madison? She is dead, you know. Her death seals my lips."

McMahon looked blankly from one to the other of the couple. Anderson spoke:

"That attitude does credit to your chivalry, Spencer, but isn't it rather unnecessary in the circumstances? Everybody here knows now, I am sure, that Miss Madison was mentally unbalanced—the end of raving maniac—and you have a duty to another to perform, too, my boy." He looked kindly in the direction of Judith.

"I think," said Norton, "I can save Mr. Spencer some embarrassment, and convince our friend, Captain McMahon, of his innocence." He turned to Ken. "If you'll allow me to do it, then Mr. Norton," said McMahon. "I want to dismiss all charges against Mr. Spencer if I can—and these riddles are giving me a headache."

The detective smiled.

"You know how of course, that I've been in your delightful city for the past six months or more. It's hardly necessary to go now into the details back of my coming. Mr. Anderson knows them, and can tell you later if you wish them. It is sufficient for the present to say that Mr. Gurley, my superior, was engaged to get at the bottom of a strange series of crimes—mostly robbery of valuable jewels from private houses—that have occurred on the 'Red' and which your efficient police force." McMahon reddened, and frowned slightly) "seemed unable to solve. I was assigned to the job came here quietly, studied the situation for several weeks—during which two more robberies were pulled off—and concluded that the 'Red Tiger' machinery was the headquarters of the gang conducting the robberies, as well as a variegated assortment of other crimes and malefeasances, including rum running and hi-jacking."

The detective paused and its a cigarette.

"Therefore I wormed myself into the confidence of some of the 'Red Tiger' gang, including our friend, whom I was obliged to kill this morning in self defense, known as Sam or 'Slick Sam'. They knew me as Dick, or 'Dick the Dip', under which cognomen I believe I have achieved some celebrity in the police circles of your fair city. It was soon evident to me that the ostensible head of the 'Red Tiger' resort was merely an underling—the real master-leader of the gang was unknown to more than two or three of its members. One of those, I learned confident was 'Slick Sam', and I shadowed him assiduously. One night—I speak right: I was at his beels, unobserved, of course—when he went by a roundabout way to Miss Madison's home, in a fashionable part of your town, and entered by the back door. At first I thought it meant another jewel robbery, but it didn't. I shadowed the inside all night, and stayed there. Then light began to dawn on me.

"I won't take time to go into all the details that came to the facts that explain the mystery of the 'Red Tiger' gang. He was head and all Miss Harriet Alden Madison. 'Slick Sam', her half-brother, and her right-hand man, Mr. Spencer, has just now, and no suspicion of Miss Madison's connection with it until a few weeks ago. The explains why, Captain, he refused to bring accusations which might have cleared him. To answer them would have wrecked the last suspicion on his fiancee. He would not do that. You may blame him—I—"

"Well, I'll do—ispered!" exclaimed McMahon. "What is pretty hard stuff to believe without proofs, Newton. Miss Madison was a member of an old and respected family in this community will be dumfounded if it's found out she was the head of a gang of crooks—and it won't believe it unless you can prove it beyond the shadow of a doubt."

"I have the proofs—but why re-peat? Sam was the head of the 'Red Tiger' gang is broken up; tears will not bring him to life, or other witness as their hands. Miss Madison is dead. I do not see that the feeble interests call for a revelation of the facts. You agree with me, Anderson, don't you, Mr. Anderson?"

"Absolutely," said the lawyer. "We should not bring to light the fact that Miss Madison was indubitably insane. I saw her father, Judge Madison, well. There was a streak of insanity in his family. The poor woman inherited her infirmity."

"Yes," said Norton. "And was nourished by the circumstances surrounding her. That old house, you know, is reputed to have been a pirates' and smugglers' stronghold in the old days. Secret exits, as we all know, is a network of dungeons and secret passages. Furthermore, the library, most of its inherited from Miss Madison's father, is a perfect storehouse of works on crimes and criminology. Her mother died in the child's infancy. Yes see the atmosphere a which the girl was brought up—alone with a partially demented father, and no wholesome balancing influence."

"After I first began to suspect that Miss Alden had some connection with the gang—and it was a long while before I could credit the fact at all—I worked hard to get into the full confidence of, first Sam and then her. The night of your raid on the 'Red Tiger', Captain, after young Stokes had made a prisoner of Miss Bates the first time—"

"And you, as Dick the Dip, helped me to escape him, Mr. Norton," Judith interrupted. "I shall never forget that, and your still greater service later."

Norton smiled.

"You gave me a good deal of trouble, Miss Bates, pulling you out of scrapes and warning you to watch your step. Mr. Spencer too. You remember I tried to insure his safety when they took him for a 'fifer'. And I thought I had failed when I heard those shots and you fainted mid-air."

"We both owe you a great debt of gratitude," said Spencer, "and shall never be able to pay it in full but we shall hope to make a start in that direction."

"Oh, that's all right," said Norton, lightly. "It was all in the line of duty. But to go on with my story after the raid, when the gang was pretty well scattered, I managed to wheedle Sam into recommending me to his half-sister as a butler, in that role I was able to confirm all my suspicions. I learned then for the first time of the relationship between Sam and Miss Madison, which of course nobody in this city suspected. They were very devoted to each other. Sam had a penchant for masquerade, and 'Dick' as his sister's negro chauffeur and Chinese cook when not engaged in the business of the gang. His disguises were perfect save for a deformity of his mouth and chin."

"I learned that Miss Madison first began dabbling in crime in a small way as an amusement, it pleased her to instigate and carry out with the assistance of her brother, some trick on your worthy police force, Captain. The obsession grew on her, as we all know, and became a mania. Then came Mr. Spencer and fell in love with him. I presume he loved her—that is not any of my business, of course."

"I did," said Spencer, firmly. "Still—" he frowned slightly and did not finish the sentence.

"Until you began to suspect things," Norton finished. Then Miss Madison, fearful of losing you, contrived, through Sam, to throw suspicion on you with Captain McMahon thinking thus to hold you. And you, out of loyalty to the woman you once had loved, would not expose her to save yourself. Is not that a fair statement of the case, Mr. Spencer?"

"It is," said Spencer in a low voice.

"Well," said McMahon, tapping the top of his desk nervously. "That explains everything but the murder of Hezekiah Stokes. We're holding that against Mr. Spencer, though between knows I hope he's innocent!

THE MOON SMILES

CHAPTER 36

"But what are your grounds for considering Mr. Spencer with the crime— the killing of my late partner?" demanded Mr. Anderson, carefully leaning a paper wrapped role he had carried with him into the police station against the wall near his chair.

"There are several damaging points," said McMahon, clearing his throat. "First, he is the last person known to have been with Mr. Stokes on the night he was killed. Second, that fact is also established by several witnesses that he left the house in a state of great excitement. Third, a check written by Mr. Stokes in favor of Spencer, dating that same day, for $15,000, was found in the waste basket, torn into small pieces."

"Was it endorsed?" Anderson asked.

"No."

"What possible sense could there have been in Spencer's tearing it up instead of keeping it himself, if he was the guilty man?" asked Anderson. "Why not destroy it in his study and slip late it along with him, if the check was the motive for the crime—a very good evidence for the defense, I should say."

"Maybe he was in a hurry," said McMahon, a bit sharply, "I'm just telling you what we have. The most important thing, of course, was the initials 'R. S.' written in Mr. Stokes's blood—on the floor where he lay dead. 'R. S.' Richard Spencer, eating it literally that photographed."

"H'm," said Anderson. "How about finger prints on the knife? It is your theory, I believe, that my late partner was stabbed with his own paper knife?"

"Sure! There was blood on the blade. But no finger prints. Nobody but an idiot would use gloves nowadays. He either used a rubber stamp or wiped the handle off. There's a lavatory a few steps from the desk."

McMahon went to the door and opened it. Sergeant Bowers entered.

"How about Harold Stokes, the old man's nephew? Didn't he have a quarrel with his uncle that same day?"

"Yes," said McMahon. "From what we gathering they were quarrelling most of the time. We might have suspected Harold if it hadn't been for those initials on—on—'R.S.' It's hard to get around them, Mr. Anderson. Now, if they'd only been 'H. S.' they might put a rope around the young man's neck—and still a bit, would I be sorry, for he's no good."

Anderson smiled inscrutably.

"Where's young Stokes now?"

"He's in a cage right in this police station, and if Miss Bates wants to press a charge of abduction and forcible detention, we can get him a few years down the river mighty easy. He dirty pleaper!"

"Will you have him brought in?" Anderson asked.

"Sure."

McMahon went to the door and opened it. "Bring up Stokes, Bowers," he said.

Harold Stokes into his private office. In a few minutes Harold entered, Foley's hand gripping his arm. Stokes scowled when he saw the assembled company. A large piece of court-plaster adorned his forehead, his face was scratched, one finger was bandaged, he was unshaven and he looked very much the worse for wear.

"What do you want?" he snarled.

"We just want to have a look at the murderer of Hezekiah Stokes," said Anderson, gazing sternly.

"Murder, a lie!" Stokes almost screamed He. "It's a frame-up! Spencer did it, and you're trying to put it on me!"

"You're just got that turned around," said Anderson calmly. "You did it and tried to put it on Spencer. It happens, however, that we have the proof of your guilt."

Anderson picked up the paper and wrapped roll leaning against the wall by his chair and slowly unwrapped all rres were revealed. Turning in his direction —those of Harold Stokes revealing terror as a square of linoleum came to view.

"Here," Anderson at last holding up the linoleum. "is the vital, the damaging, the unassailable evidence. McMahon, had it photographed, but he left me the original, for which I thank him. He will convict you, Stokes, before any jury in the world."

Judith and the others saw a brown pattern marking of crudely formed letters. R. S.—the linoleum square. Judith's lip quivered slightly. That dirty brown blotting was she knew, done in her murdered benefactor's lifeblood.

"Note the top of that letter 'R'," said Anderson—"how much firmer a stroke it is than the rest of the letter, or the 'S.' They waver and tremble, as well they might, being painfully scrawled by a dying man."

Anderson picked up the paper and held it to the letters. "But

GRAVEL STRIKES MOTORIST'S EYE

William LaTour, Carrying Plaice, Injured Near Havelock

Carrying Plate. — Misfortunes never come singly, say two local young men as they discussed their troubles during the past week. Trouble came first to Mr. Will LaTour on Sunday evening last as he was driving his father to his work near Havelock. Nearing their destination shortly after dark a bit of flying gravel from the road, thrown by the tires of another car passing, struck the unfortunate young man's eye inflicting a painful and very nearly serious injury. Returning to Bellevile Mr. La Tour consulted Dr. Chase, and at present is resting comfortably at home. The injury will not have permanent effect according to the doctor.

The other unfortunate, Mr. Wm. Hanthorn, local garage proprietor, also suffered an eye injury on Wednesday evening, when working in his shop. A bit of flying steel striking him in the eye made doctor's attention necessary, but fortunately no serious results will be noted.

A very enjoyable social was held on Wednesday evening in the United Church Hall, made especially enjoyable by the presence for the first time of the new minister of the circuit, Rev. A. R. Saunders of Donnecon. To welcome him to his new circuit a large crowd turned out for the occasion and as chairman of the ideal standing room was entirely used up ere the affair was over. Acting as chairman Mr. Saunders stated that it was most pleasant to be at the gathering and he knew that although most of the faces were strange to him he would know them better before long. A very talented family from Corbyville provided most of the entertainment, the Robertsons; and a jolly time they gave the crowd also. Outside talent in addition is often received very happily, and all were delighted with the entertainment provided. Each plays several musical instruments and their rendition of popular selections met with wide approval. A solo by Miss Mona Robertson, "Wish I Were Single Again," was applauded. An encore of "Mary Jones" Man" still received. Other numbers on the splendid program were: a cowboy song with guitar and mandolin accompaniment; a reading by Miss Lela Rhonnie; a selection on the Wedding"; an accordian solo; a duet by mother and daughter; a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, "Let Me In"; an imitation of the bagpipes; a Scotch song by Lloyd Hennessey; encore, a cowboy song; a guitar duet, "Give My Love to Nell"; the finale number by the entire family; the singing of the National Anthem. As a result of this entertainment the splendid sum of forty dollars was realized.

Miss Helen MacDougall of Picton was at the home of her parents here over the week-end.

Mr. Ernest Hennessey of Bloomfield is visiting his son, Mr. E. H. Hennessey, and family, for a few days.

Three Gardenville horses will soon be electrically lighted at Messrs. Morgan, Raymond and Manse) Young are planning to instal Hydro power.

Mrs. Harry La Tour spent a day recently with Misses Maud and Minnie Church.

A number of local boys are working in the canning factory at present.

Mr. Alec Campbell spent 8 few days in Hamilton recently.

Mrs. G. Morrison and son Douglas of St. Catharines, are spending a few days as guests of Mrs Manse and Mr. Will Corrigan.

Classified Ads. Bring Results

Obituary

MRS. E. MACOUN

Following a brief illness, Mrs. Elizabeth Macoun, widow of the late Doctor John Macoun, died in the Bellevile Hospital yesterday. Mrs. Macoun was formerly Miss Elizabeth Denton, daughter of the late Edward Senlon, who established the first woollen mills in this district. She is survived by two brothers, Albert E. and William of Rochester, N.Y.

ADMITS THROWING CHILD IN LAKE

Miss Jean Grumtil, Hears Statement Read at Inquest

Toronto, July 23 (CP)—Revelation Miss Jean Grumtil, 24, had thrown her child into Lake Ontario because she had not enough money to buy clothes for it and that the child was made yesterday as a coroner's jury investigated the death.

Jurors found the child Peter, aged two, died when "thrown into the water by his mother." The unmarried mother received $25 a week as a hospital waitress, the jury, under Coroner Dr. J. S. Lindon, was told.

Miss Grumtil complained her landlady, to whom she paid $10 for herself and the child, was not feeding the boy properly, Miss Annie Krupe, landlady, ended the matter by refusing to continue to look after the child.

Miss Grumtil, arrested July 8th, on a charge of murder, told police then, "I wanted to drown myself and I threw my baby in." She said she didn't get enough money to "buy clothes for me and my baby."

"I was disgusted and that's why I did it," she said.

Miss Grumtil added she gave her self to the police Monday and then wanted some back "to buy poison for myself but she wouldn't give it to me."

Miss Grumtil said she only knew the baby's father as "Johnnie." She didn't know his surname, where he worked or where he had gone to. The child appeared before the baby was born.

DENIES YOUNG LIN HAS TWO WIVES

Venerable President Grants 'Nephew' Right to Decision

Nanking, China, July 23—(AP)—Venerable President Lin Sen of China granted today to his nephew and foster son, Tsung Lin, the right "to make his own decision" in the youth's marriage to Yiola Schumann, Shanghai shopgirl.

"My nephew did not commit immorality in marrying an American until July 18, at which time I already had told the press of my disapproval," the President said. "However, according to law, he is of age now and has a right to make his own personal decisions."

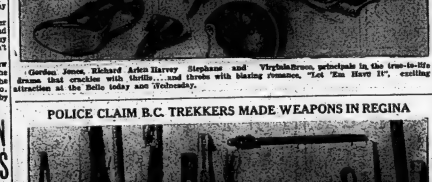
The Nanking semi-official news agency, Kuo-Min, at the same time published reports of existing rumors he already had two wives in China.

Friends of the family were represented as pointing out under Chinese law Lin is separated as one of two fathers and therefore entitled to marry twice.

KILLED ON WAY TO VISIT MOTHER

Toronto, July, 22—(CP)— John Charles MacGregor, 35-year-old Toronto motorcycle policeman of the Ontario College of Pharmacy and his wife, Mrs. Bertha MacGregor, were killed at Superior, Wis., in a motor accident yesterday, it was learned today. Mrs. MacGregor was killed instantly, her husband dying a few hours later in a hospital.

They were on their way to Lenore, Man., to visit Mrs. MacGregor's mother.



TRAFFIC HEAVY IN DOWNTOWN SECTION

Traffic in the downtown section from Front to Bridge streets reached a peak for the year on Saturday evening. There was a steady stream of cars up and down the main thoroughfare. The heavy traffic did not cause the police to direct the cars on the main intersection, although two of them stood on the corner keeping a watchful eye. According to Constable Evans there were no traffic jams of a serious nature.

Gordon Jones, Richard Arlen Harvey Stephens and VirginiaBruce, principals in the true-to-life drama that crackles with thrills... and throbs with blazing romance, "Let 'Em Have It", exciting attraction at the Belle today and Wednesday.

POLICE CLAIM B.C. TREKKERS MADE WEAPONS IN REGINA

Constable Don Taylor, 34-year-old police detective who went from Winnipeg to Regina to investigate relief camp strikers' activities, joined their organizations and stayed with them from June 19 to 26, swore in R. C. court on charges arising from the fighting which cost the life of a police detective. Mounted police claimed to have found the homemade clubs and weapons shown ABOVE hidden at various places in the exhibition buildings after the striking groups had left Regina.

M. P. court at Regina that strikers made clubs during their stay at the Regina stadium prior to the riots in that city, the identifying of the trial of ex strike leaders facing

FLIGHT OF 70 AEROPLANES ON GOODWILL TRIP TO CANADA

Seventy aeroplanes, with their pilots and observers, are shown lined up on Roosevelt Field, Long Island, before the start of the fourth annual goodwill mass flight to Montreal.

Such aces as Lee Gehlbach and Al Williams were among the fliers participating.

RADIO PROGRAMS

— Daylight Saving Time —

TUESDAY

4.00—Betty and Bob.—WJZ.
4.30—Singing Lady—WJZ.
4.15—Midstream Hits—WEAF
4.30—News; Jim Hunter—WGR
7.00—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF
7.15—Uncle Ezra—WJZ
7.30—Jackie Heller, Tenor—WEAF
8.00—Dr. Brinkley's Orch.—WEAF
8.00—"Lavender and Old Lace"—WGR
8.00—Crime Clues—WEAF
8.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WEAF
8.30—Death Valley Days—WABC
8.30—Edgar A. Guest—WJZ
9.00—Jan Garber's Orch.—WEAF
9.00—Nile T. Granlund's Girls—WJZ
9.30—Ruby Duchin's Orch.—WEAF
9.30—Fred Waring's Orch.—WABC
9.45—Goldman Band Concert—WJZ
10.00—Beauty Box Theatre, Al Goodman's Orch.—WEAF
10.30—To Be Announced—WJZ
11.30—Myrt C. Hill—WABC

WEDNESDAY

8.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ
11.15—Wendall Hall, songs—WJZ
1.15—Radio Gossip Club—WGR
4.00—Be...y &g Bob. Grams—WJZ
4.15—Jim Hunter, News—WGR
6.45—Lowell Thomas—WJZ
7.15—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAF
7.15—Tony and Gus—WJZ
7.15—Uncle Ezra—WEAF
7.45—Dangerous Paradise, sketch—WJZ
8.00—Hal Kemp's Orch., Babs and Her Brothers—WJZ
8.00—Johnstone and His Foursome—WABC
8.00—One Man's Family—WEAF
8.30—Rosemary Lane Sketch—WABC
8.30—House of Glass—WJZ
8.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WABC
9.00—Our Home On the Range; John Charles Thomas, baritone—WJZ
9.00—Fred Allen's Revue—WEAF
9.30—Presenting Mark Warnow—WABC
10.00—To Be Announced—WJZ
10.07—Burns and Allen—WABC
10.30—Hits and Bits—WJZ
10.30—Jack Denny's Orch.—WEAF.
11.00 — Claude Hopkins' Orch—WABC
11.30—Ted Florito's Orch.—WEAF
11.30—Jan Garber's Orch.—WJZ

(Continued From Page 9),

THE RED TIGER

By ALANSON CROSBY

When I saw him fall. I hurried away, but then I thought of my finger prints on the knife, so I came back to wipe them off. He was dead, but he had scrawled my initials on the floor in his blood. At first I was going to scrub them off, but then I thought how easy it would be to change the 'R' into an 'F' and throw suspicion on Spencer. They had been quarreling over a business deal—and I hated him, anyhow. I did that! Then I ransacked the desk and found the old will giving me his fortune. I couldn't find the new one he had just written, making Beauty Box Theatre, Al Goodman's Orch.—WEAF
10.00—To Be Announced—WJZ
10.30—Jack Denny's Orch.—WEAF.
11.00 — Claude Hopkins' Orch—WABC
11.30—Ted Florito's Orch.—WEAF
11.30—Jan Garber's Orch.—WJZ

killing wasn't premeditated. Anything but the chair! Chief, tell the district attorney I'll give him a signed confession on the understanding that he won't ask for a first-degree verdict."

"Look him up, Foley, before I swat him one," growled McMahon. "He dirty cur and coward. I'm sorry I wasted good whisky on the likes of him!"

The last course of a dinner for four had been served in Judith's apartment. Bob Harley raised his glass, with the toast:

"To the bride and groom to be!"

"May all their troubles be little ones!" added the irrepressible Sally.

"That's awfully old stuff, Sally," chided Bob, "and d—— poor taste."

"You'll teach me manners, will you, you red-headed dumb-bell!" Sally flared up, and dashed the contents of her glass in Bob's face. Then, instantly sorry, she was wiping the stuff off of him with her napkin, cooing, calling her darling boy, and begging forgiveness.

"All right," Bob spluttered, "on one condition—that you marry me and settle down, so we can do our fighting at home instead of in public."

"But we're not in public, Ducky," protested Sally. "This is Judith's apartment, and there's just us four here."

"And you and Bob will always be welcome to fight in my apartments, dear," smiled Judith. "But why don't you marry him, Sally, and put him out of his misery? We'll make it a double wedding!"

"Fine!" echoed Randall Spencer. "Say 'yes' quick, Sally, and I'll make you a wedding present of $10,000. If you're too slow about it it will only be five."

"Yes!" Sally shouted quickly. "I'm darned tired of being poor!"

Randall and Judith stood out in the moonlight in front of the little shack where they had announced during their harrowing days of trial and tribulation. Randall had taken her there in his tan roadster.

"We spent some happy moments here dear, in spite of all troubles, will we?" said Randall.

"The only really happy times I have known in a long while were

Judith.

"We'll keep the old shack much as it is," said Randall. "It will be our refuge when we want to get away from the world."

"Yes," said Judith, "shack or palace, it's all the same, as long as we have each other!"

The moon looked down on two blissful young people in each other's arms, and smiled.

THE END

Once Letter is Posted It Must Be Delivered

Impulsively you write a letter. Still in a state of righteous indignation you hurry to the mail box, push the metal flap and drop it in. Then, regrets. No sooner is it posted than you want it back. Calm reflection has given the matter and the letter a different aspect.

Impulsive people who say and write things they immediately regret are prevalent among us, people who apply to the local post office for the recall of some letter they've have mailed. Sometimes it may be a young lady who has written an indignant letter to her fiancee just as often it is some business man, who fervently wishes that he had not mailed that letter, that he has found later was so incomplete, or in many cases he sees that the party who has mirred her employer's private mail.

But, explains Postmaster J.C.V. Trustech of this city, their quest is futile. The letters have gone beyond recall. Once they have been mailed there is nothing that can be done, neither pleas, entreaties or supplications can prevail. That letter must be despatched to the addressee or the person to whom it is addressed.

"Under no circumstances are we allowed to return a letter that has once been mailed," he said, "and by the rigid, the inexorable rules of the postal department, it is one of the first rules that every employee of this service learns. Once that letter is posted it is beyond recall," added the Postmaster, "it is under the care of the Postal Department itself and it is delivered.

It is too bad, but the case is hopeless and there is nothing that the Postal Department can do about it, "in Canada, in Britain and any of the Dominions, colonies or protectorates, all postal matter belongs to the addressee at the moment it is dropped into the box." This is in virtue of Article 84 of the Postal Laws and Regulations as it was explained.

A letter that is found on the street must be given to the post office, not the sender's letter explains Postmaster Trustech. "The police or anyone else have nothing to do with it. That letter is ours. The only time a letter might be returned to the writer is when the address is so illegible that we are doubtful if it may be delivered. We must abide by our hard and fast rules."

So that is the reason that urge comes to write, by all means write, but take at least a day before you mail it. If it's that kind of a letter. Remember that once mailed it is lost, and neither can you nor the fellow next door can do much about it.

Little Benny's Note Book

Ma and Pada Simkins and Sid Stunt and Shorty Judge was sitting on my front steps to see about where we would go and what we would do for vacashun. After we had pick out whatever vacation we wanted to take we had to make a committee to celebrate the depression, and I said, I know what I'd do all right. I'd go around the world in a little homemade sailboat, and it would almost be worth while to be by the giant waves, but I'd have a regular adventure and come back and I'd trust to his judgment but he'd have to call me captain because I'd be the boss of the ship. Any big ocean liners signalled to me I would ignore them and not be picked up, I'd signal back to them I would tell them to tend to their own troubles, I said.

I know what I'd do, Sid Stunt said. I'd climb the highest peak of the highest mountain and I'd be the only human man in the world and I'd trust to his judgment but he'd have to call me captain because I'd be the boss of the ship. Any big ocean liners signalled to me I would ignore them and not be picked up, I'd signal back to them I would tell them to tend to their own troubles, I said.

I know what I'd do, Sid said. I'd climb the highest peak of the highest mountain and I'd be the only human man in the world and I'd trust to his judgment but he'd have to call me captain because I'd be the boss of the ship. Any big ocean liners signalled to me I would ignore them and not be picked up, I'd signal back to them I would tell them to tend to their own troubles, I said.

I know what I'd do, Pa said and I'd go to India and watch tigers from the top of a elefant. I'd be too tender hearted to shoot them or kill them but think of what a tiger would do to be up on the eyes off of a elefant, so why should I be so darn considerate? he said.

I'd go to the ice wholes in a aireoplane, Shorty Judge said. I'd be very much interested in the arctic ocean, I'd say they'd be sorry they ever came up so spot, he said.

Which just then Glassea Magee came up, saying, What's you thinks fellows, I'm about to squirt the hose in my back yard, and any fellow that wants to put a end to their bathing suit is about to come in and get a squirt, he said.

Which we all ran to do yelling as if nothing couldn't possibly of sounded no end better.

READ Before You BUY!

Wednesday Morning Specials at EATON GROCETERIA

AYLMER BRAND
Pork & Beans 3 No. 2½ size tins 25c
Fresh Minced Beef 3 lbs. 25c
Firm Ripe Tomatoes 2 lbs. 25c

PHONE 300—Orders of $1.00 or more selected and delivered without extra charge

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE BELLE

"Let 'Em Have It"

Thrilling Epic of Present Crime War

All the thrills behind the scenes of the Department of Justice's relentless war on crime are brought to the screen of the Belle Theatre today in Reliance's "Let 'Em Have It."

Harry M. Goetz and Edward Small, the producers, have gathered one of the greatest arrays of stars in Hollywood to bring to the screen this tremendously timely subject. Richard Arlen, Virginia Bruce, Bruce Cabot and Alice Brady head the cast which includes Harvey Stephens, Eric Linden and Gordon Jones among others.

"Three Musketeers"

Arlen as an attorney, disgusted with the case with which lawbreakers go free in court; Stephens as a wealthy sportsman who gives up a big-game quest to hunt more dangerous human quarry and Gordon Jones, a cheat-chot cowboy inducted at the instigation of modern buccaneers, become the "Three Musketeers" of the Federal Sleuths.

Their first job is to nip a kidnapping plot in which Bruce (Mrs. Spencer (Virginia Bruce) is involved. The monsters get life sentences but her chauffeur, Bruce Cabot, receives only a light punishment for carrying a gun. Over the protests of Arlen, Cabot is freed on parole through the efforts of the chief. From then on, the ex-chauffeur becomes by quick steps, Public Enemy No. 1.

A reign of terror sweeps across the middle — bank holdups, slaughter of innocent bystanders, all done with such lightning speed that local police are helpless. In the meantime Rodney Spencer kills Linden Eleanor's young brother, and joins the Department of Justice despite her father's objection to him. For this she blames Arlen who is thought responsible for the organization.

With every clue pointing to Cabot as the leader of the ruthless gang, Detective Arlen takes up the trail as the chase continues. One of the most exciting incidents occurs when Bobby is kidnapped and slain by the mob under Cabot's direction. The story takes about where we would go and what we would do for vacation if we could pick out whatever vacation we wanted to take and then make a committee to celebrate the depression, and I said, I know what I'd do all right. I'd go around the world in a little homemade sailboat, and it would almost be worth while to be by the giant waves, but I'd have a regular adventure and come back and I'd trust to his judgment but he'd have to call me captain because I'd be the boss of the ship. Any big ocean liners signalled to me I would ignore them and not be picked up, I'd signal back to them I would tell them to tend to their own troubles, I said.

I know what I'd do, Pa said and I'd go to India and watch tigers from the top of a elefant. I'd be too tenderhearted to shoot them or kill them but think of what a tiger would do to be up on the eyes off of a elefant, so why should I be so darn considerate? he said.

I'd go to the ice wholes in a aireoplane, Shorty Judge said. I'd be very much interested in the arctic ocean, I'd say they'd be sorry they ever came up so spot, he said.

Which just then Glassea Magee came up, saying, What's you thinks fellows, I'm about to squirt the hose in my back yard, and any fellow that wants to put a end to their bathing suit is about to come in and get a squirt, he said.

Which we all ran to do yelling as if nothing couldn't possibly of sounded no end better.

READ Before You BUY!

AT THE CAPITOL

"The Line-Up"

A Thrilling Tale of the Racketeers

"The Line-Up" now playing at the Capitol as part of a double-feature program, depicts in fascinating detail the inner workings of a powerful group of racketeers who eventually land in the police line-up, from which the motion picture derives it title.

Coupled with this dramatic expose is the romantic love story of the detective and the girl he is forced to exhibit to the humiliation and disgrace of the line-up. His harangues for her temporary release, plants her as a stool-pigeon, solves the series of robberies that have baffled his colleagues for months, and wins a lieutenancy and wife.

William Gargan is cast as the youthful detective and Marguerite Churchill is co-featured as the attractive cross-country girl who falls in love with Gargan.

John Milton, Paul Hurst, Noel Francis and Harold Huber share prominent parts in the picture.

The outstanding reception that greeted the screen story, "Village Tale" directed by Jackman as a gripping and faithful interpretation of the Philip Stone classic.

It presents a cross section of average community life in a typical small western town, showing how the lives of the people are interwoven in the fabric of that life in society and how public opinion is both the judge and the jury in such a narrow existence.

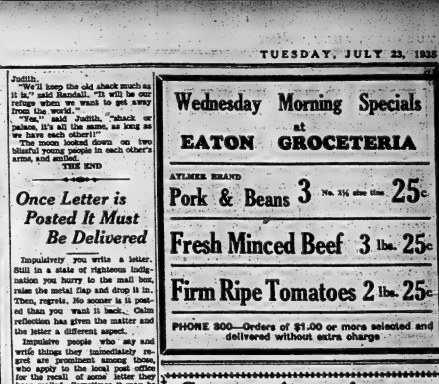
In the atmospheric Kay Johnson and Randolph Scott, giving admirable performances in the leading roles, try to find themselves and try to work out their tangled romance despite the interference of local gossips.

Robert Barrat, Arthur Hohl and Dorothy Burgess assist greatly in interpreting this powerful drama.

The engagement of this double feature program terminates with tomorrow's performances and on Thursday the Capitol offers an outstanding program that embodies two excellent feature pictures. In "The Casino Murder Case" movie patrons will have an opportunity to see a Van Dine story, with Paul Lukas as Philip Vance, leading detective, and the cast of this murder mystery includes such names as Alison Skipworth, Donald Cook, Rosalind Russell, Isobel Jewell and Louise Fazenda.

The second half of the same program will present what promises to be a personage than Ben Bernie, idol of radio fans, along with his boys, also George Raft and Grace Bradley. The engagement runs from Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

AT THE REGENT



"Village Tale"

Fine Cast Assembled for Screen Version of Stone Classic

"Village Tale" the dramatic story by Charles Dickens' includes Lionel Barrymore, Marjorie Gateson, Frank Lawton, W. C. Field, Elsie May Oliver, Lewis Stone, Roland Young and supporting cast of outstanding stars, too numerous to mention.

We guarantee "David Copperfield" to you, bring the family, and enjoy the most glorious love story ever filmed.

Remember "David Copperfield" is at the Belle Thursday only.

TAGGED TOO LATE—Rip Radcliff of the White Sox slides safely into third as Red Rolfe lunges to tag him too late.

UNRULY.—Long Bit is unruly at the barrier, Saffelli Downs, and thrower Jockey Bohm, The bet se ran tenth.

The Ontario Intelligencer

WEATHER—Moderate southwesterly winds; mostly fair today and Thursday; continuing warm; probably local thunderstorms tonight or on Thursday.

TEMPERATURES

	Max.	Min.
Today	86	58
Year ago	78	53
Weather—Fair.

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1935

ALL LIBERALS ELECTED IN PRINCE EDWARD I.

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

New Dundee, Ont., July 24 — (CP)—Although its 1935 crop of apples is still unborn, an apple tree on the farm of Kurt Wortenberg is in full bloomers with its second set of blossoms this season.

Hamilton, Ont., July 24 (CP)— A Hamilton motorcycle purchaser, a navy variable table recently and now finds she has bought a school producing piece of furniture. Green leaves have sprouted from two of the table legs and are weaned each day.

Three Forks, Mont., July 24 — A herbert, a team of sturdy ranch horses and a motorist promised to bring Miss Weaver, 5, to a doctor's office to treat insect bites, but a rattlesnake's bite could prove fatal.

The heroic record over mountain roads made they were exchanged and, after another hurried halt, the last of the way.

The turkey? Ellen's mother talked the first part and it as a pacifier on the child's little hand.

West Plains, Mo., July 24 (CP) — Al. L. Lewis, Republican spent three days trying to open the safe of the Ozark County bank here but it balked his every effort. Finally with hoist and tackle he hauled the safe on the floor. The tumblers fell and the safe opened.

New York, July 24 (CP)—William Gillette who as Sherlock Holmes delighted two generations of theatre audiences, asked if he would grant an interview yesterday, said: "Interview? Why, hell, yes", he said, explaining later that he had been an interview and "it's too late to start now."

New York, July 24 (CP)—The only phrase to talk all the heavyweight scrapping between Max Baer, 28 and to call a sparkling divorce of potato is the name of Mrs. Max Baer, perfect for unemployed workers.

Hamilton, Ont., July 24 (CP)— Mrs. Fred Hampshire and Mary Hall had a narrow escape from serious injury when they fell to the roadside when the car left an auto in which they were riding flew open. Both received cuts and bruises.

St. Paul, July 24 (CP)—News that his wife gave birth to a son reached Lieutenant-Governor Floyd B. Olson's desk, 22. He fainted. Patients and nurses in the hospital took him to a hospital where his wife was confined. Stock, his wife and the baby later were reported doing well.

Chicago, July 24 (CP)—"This is going to be funny," said Mrs. Ruth Snyder, convicted in New Jersey of murdering her husband, as she left the Cook County jail here for "home." Mrs. Snyder is to be released from the jail on a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Joseph Sabath.

In the elderly group as he left was Pennsylvania's purse, containing $435, the wedding ring of the dead husband and the seat of Pennsylvania's treasure. Pennsylvania's treasure was before she was "executed."

Washington, July 24 (CP)— Referring to the "new deal" supporters, you may put some comfort thinking about a job that has been assigned to members of the canal guard. They are steadying the boats with their skill and habits of long-haul. The study has carried the boats down the Potomac General Greene into the cold waters south of Greenland.

Washington, Ia., July 24 (CP)— "Blackie" Robertson's seven-year-old dog never has had to be taught how to fetch that hasn't kept her from "mothering" anything she finds that needs "mothering." At present she's raising three baby ground hogs and a baby rabbit. Pigeons are the second litter of their kind she has reared, but the deer is a new experience.

Corner's Jury Put Blame On Driver

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 24 — (CP)—The charge of reckless driving against Avis A. Allison 31, Niagara Falls, was increased today to "unlawfully doing grievous bodily harm" to Harry A. Elkins, 30, Niagara Falls, motorcyclist, who died as a result of being struck by the Allison car.

A coroner's jury placed the full blame for the fatality on Allison, describing him as being "criminally negligent" in driving on the wrong side of a car going in the same direction and striking Allison who was riding on the wrong side of the road. Hearing was set for August 1.

Premier - Elect Lea To Name One Member As An Opposition Voice

Situation in Prince Edward Island Unparalleled

'A CLEAN SWEEP'

Liberal Leader Directs Campaign From Sick Bed

Charlottetown, July 24—(CP)—A problem of parliamentary procedure unparalled in Canadian history loomed in Prince Edward Island today as Premier-elect Walter M. Lea, with all the Island's 30 legislative seats filled by Liberals, began the task of forming a cabinet that was to function without an opposition.

Although the overthrow of Premier W. J. Hughes, Island Conservative government had been expected, the most confident Liberals had not been prepared for anything like the landslide in yesterday's provincial election.

There was no precedent for such a situation in Canada, it was said. Premier-elect said frankly he was undecided about how he would handle parliamentarily procedure in the next legislature except to designate one of his members to act as a shadow opposition voice.

Speculation he kept his own counsel about cabinet possibilities. He held the portfolio of agriculture before the present Liberal government was defeated in 1931, but it was freely predicted he would succeed the Conservative Premier as Secretary-Treasurer and Minister of Education.

J. P. McIntyre was expected to get back his old job as Minister of Public Works, while Thane A. Campbell, K.C., the new Lieutenant-Governor, who was campaign leader during his chieftain's illness, was a choice for the post of Attorney-General, which he held in 1931.

Others considered cabinet material included Bradford W. Legge, a former Liberal cabinet minister, defeated for the C. C. Keeping, Provincial Health Officer.

Personal Victory

The Premier-elect, who directed the general campaign from a hospital room for six weeks and later from his home in Alberton, where he was convalescing from serious illness, won a personal victory in the election, defeating Conservative Leader R. R. Bell.

After the unusual province-wide triumph had been flashed as a personal message to the electors in a hushed voice still full of fight.

The Liberals have been given an emphatic mandate to put into effect their policy of retrenchment and economy and the balancing of the provincial budget, which accounted the first plank of our platform," he declared.

"We will abide for themselves. I have nothing to say," was the only comment from Conservative leaders whose defeat in the fifth district of Queens soon after the polls closed left them without hope of a follow.

Other prominent Conservatives defeated included Attorney-General H. F. McPhee, Minister of Public Works Shelton Sharpe, Minister of Agriculture; Thomas MacNutt, Hon. Matthew Wood, Hon. Adrien Arsenault and Hon. H. B. McLean, Ministers without portfolio, and Hon. Heath Steele, Speaker of the last legislature.

The closest the Conservatives came to electing a candidate was in the first district of Kings, where

Members Elect In Prince Edward

Charlottetown, July 24.—(CP)—Following is a list of members—all Liberals—elected in the Prince Edward Island Election, by constituencies, with majorities (X—indicates member of last legislature):

Kings, first district—H. E. Acorn, councillor, 1,208; P. A. McIsaac, assemblyman, 900.

Kings, second district— x J. P. McIntyre, coun., 389; x H. H. Carson., 606.

Kings, third district— x S. S. Hazard, coun., 336; x Minard, assem., 372.

Kings, fourth district—x M. Annear, coun., 239; x J. A. Campbell assem., 663.

Prince, first district—x T. A. Campbell, coun., 756; x A. Gallant, assem., 1,138.

Prince, second district—x W. H. Dennis, coun, 350; G. H. Bartlett, coun., 337; x Bell, assem.

Prince, third district—T. M. Lindsay, coun., 303; C. Callbeck, assem., 384.

Prince, fifth district—x L. S. Allen, coun, 301; P. E. Foley, assem., 469.

Queens, first district—W. F. A. Stewart coun., 413; D. M. McKay assem., 564.

Queens, second district—x B. W. Lefurgey, coun., 360; McPhee, assem., 394.

Queens, third district—M. R. McGuigan, coun., 233; H. C. Clark, assem., 363.

Queens, fourth district — W. Jones, coun., 409; D. MacKinnon, assem., 437.

Queens, fifth district—C. St. O. Trainor, 307; T. W. L. Prowse, assem., 943.

Hon. H. E. McLean was leading for the Queens-Prince Island claiming honors for the largest majority in the province, 1,123 votes in the first district of Prince. However, none of the Conservatives had their deposits forfeited, the total vote was neither so lopsided nor so heavy as at first indicated.

Assemblymen, for whom all electors voted, ranged from 1,208 to 845 ballots compared with 47,035 in the 1931 elections. Liberals received 26,353 or 56 per cent of the total vote and Conservatives received 20,682 or 44 per cent.

Under the Island's odd franchise system, landowners, wives and husbands of landowners, clergymen and returned soldiers and their wives were also permitted to vote for councillors. The total vote was therefore 2,000 greater than in the previous contest.

Liberal gains numbered 18 at distribution of the legislature June 15 to 12 Conservatives with 30 seats, the Liberals 13 and three that had been recounted by government supporters were vacant.

LINE THROWN ABOARD

San Francisco, July 24—(AP)— The coast guard cutter Shawnee early today placed a line aboard the steamship Calmar, disabled in a collision off the Golden Gate, and started towing her to San Francisco. The Swedish motorship Kerry Mara, reported to have crashed into the Calmar amidships, was proceeding toward the point under her own power.

30,000 BODIES OF FLOOD VICTIMS ARE PICKED UP

Piles up in Thousands as Waters of Rivers Recede

LOSS IMMENSE

Northern Provinces Still Battle Floods in Yellow River

Shanghai, July 24.—(AP)— The Hankow Red Cross Society announced today it had picked up 30,000 bodies of persons drowned in the present floods along the Han and Yangtze Rivers near Hankow alone and reports from other points indicated that the total would be far greater.

While Central China turned to the task of counting the dead, piling up by the tens of thousands along the banks of rivers from which flood waters were receding, the Yellow River province continued to battle the flood waters of the Yellow River.

The latter, crashing barrier after barrier to swallow immense new areas of fertile farmlands, has already blanketed more than 20,000 square miles of the Shantung countryside, Governor Han Fu Chu of Shantung said today in a telegram to Nanking reporting nearly 5,000,000 of his people homeless.

The neighboring provinces of Honan and Anhwei also were seriously hit. Chinese Press reports said the refugees are clinging to the remnants of dikes and dwindling mid-summer sun and dying like rats.

Efforts are being concentrated in preventing the spread of the water into Northern Kiangsu province where a farming population of 1,000,000 in the lowlying districts surrounding Ningpo is threatened.

The most formidable labors failed to forestall the collapse of the dykes surrounding Chengchow and Kaifeng, Shantung-Kiangsu border where the waters stood eight feet higher than the neighboring land. When the barriers went out the land deluged the countryside, destroying everything in its path.

The Yangtze has dropped slightly but no relief is in sight for the flooded areas, which will be covered with water for weeks to come. Communications are crippled and relief agencies said the Yangtze's devastation of the five provinces already is so immense that it is impossible to estimate the total losses.

ROBBED MAN LEFT IN WAY OF TRAINS

One Prisoner is Given 4 Year Term and Other Shorter Term

Hamilton, Ont., July 24.—(CP)— Christopher Gall, convicted of attacking and robbing Andrew Adams and driving him on the Canadian National Railway tracks in the path of an oncoming train a week ago, were sentenced, respectively, to four and two years in Portsmouth Penitentiary and Gall three years in the Ontario Reformatory.

"As far as Stacey is concerned, he's a menace," Magistrate Bartlett observed. "His only record is three years in Portsmouth penitentiary and this offence shows that he is no use giving him any more."

Monsignor Morris Dies At St. Catharines

St. Catharines, Ont., July 24— (CP)—Rt. Rev. Monsignor Denis Morris died here today after a short illness. Mgr. Morris had been ordained a priest by Bishop Jeremy, and had been honored for more than 50 years of consecrated and faithful service in the diocese and only recently the title "Protonotary Apostolic" had been confirmed.

Mgr. Morris was born in Lewiston Stewart, County Tyrone, Ireland, August 14, 1860. He was educated at Dundalk Academy and at Queen's College. He was ordained at Ballaghaderreen, Dublin, Ireland, June 24, 1884.

HEAD OF VATICAN GUARDS

COUNT SARAZANI DIES

Rome, July 24 (AP)—Count Filippo Sarazani, 65, Brigadier-General of the Vatican Noble Guard, died here today after a long illness.

Lead Home and School Federation Again

Delegates to the national convention of the Canadian Home and School Federation in Vancouver were unanimous in re-electing Dr. G. W. Kerby of Calgary and Mrs. R. S. McLaughlin of Oshawa as president and vice-president respectively.

Dr. Kerby has been president since inception of the organization in 1928. Before the convention he made an insistence on a national policy for education in Canada and toward that objective the establishment of a national bureau will be urged.

Bennett Policies Upheld By W. E. Tummon M.P. at South End A. C. Meeting

Major Price of Actinolite Also Speaker at Gathering

MANY ATTEND

Issues of Day Clearly And Concisely Enunciated

In a friendly, conversational chat with a fairly large and attentive audience at the South End Athletic Club Rooms last evening, Mr. W. E. Tummon, M.P. for South Hastings, assisted by Major M. Price, Actinolite, in the briefest of addresses, again reminded electors of the city of the closeness of the coming Dominion election and once more exhorted his audience to think matters over for themselves and then act at the polls as their conscience dictated.

The occasion was a regular euchre party arranged by Conservatives of Foster Ward, for their guests from throughout the city. In spite of the weather, the excellent crowd on hand to take part in the card contests and to hear the issues of the day discussed.

Introduced by Mr. R. W. Ketchen, chairman of the evening, Mr. Tummon waved aside any suggestion that his address necessarily would be brief, he would not, he added, take the time from any euchre player. He would speak as briefly as he could in the interests of both parties present.

To hear some of the supporters of the Liberal cause talk, one would be led to believe, that all the ills and woes of the world were being caused by the Bennett government. One would suppose, that Mr. Bennett was the direct cause of the depression, the reason why Britain went off the gold standard and also the cause of the bank failures in the United States".

(Continued on Page 3)

Lower School Results

Below will be found the list of candidates, who obtained Lower School standing on examination. The subjects or subject passed, is indicated by letters as follows. — English Grammar A, British History B, Geography C, Physiography D, Arithmetic E, Art F, Botany G, Zoology H, Agriculture I, Agriculture II J.

Marion Adams S.P., Barbara Baird F, William Bateman A, James Bell P.G.I., Donaleen Brenner A, Joseph Brunnell A, Jessie Bredin A.J., Douglas Browning F, Edward Bracken A, Robert Bunnett A, Reading Bush F, Marion Calnan J, Maureen Cannon B, Donald Cecil A.B.C., Dorothy Coiden E, Ray Cook B.P.J., Mary Daly B, Donald Dell F, Dorothy Dennis A, Sidney Denyer E, Leis Detlor I, Graham Diamond A, Joseph Doherty F, Francis Dominico C, Jack Ellis F, Norah Funnell B, Marguerite Griffin B.C., Ross Gill C.I., Edna Gilroy D, Margaret Green F, Mildred Hallett F, Catherine Harris A.C., Jack Hart C, Jean Holland A.B.C., Margaret Houston B.C., Irene Howe, William Howe A, Edna Kelleher A, Mary Kerr A.B.C., Lorraine Lester F, Mary Lang I, Mary McPherson B.C.I., Joseph McQuaid A.C., Margaret Miles F, Stuart Milligan A, Gwendolin E. John Moher A.C, Dorothy Moore A.B.C., Ronald Neilson C, Malcolm O'Callaghan C, Pauline Paul B.C., Gordon Peck A.B.C., Gordon Cecil Rouse A, Muriel Scott A.J, Jack Sharland A, Noreen Sheridan B.C., Dorothy Smith B, Francis Stoliker A, Lena Sutherland F, Dorothy Temple A, Edith Thomas, Ian C, Lloyd Thompson C.P.I, Jack Thorne A, Mary Tilley B.J, Mary Trnaich C, Mae Turner F, Barbara Turvey F, Everett Valleau A, Fred Vanalstine A.C, Alberta Vermilyea F, Margaret Wallbridge A, Rita Walsh A.C, Donald Wannamaker F, Warren Williamson A.

The following candidates from rural schools wrote at the County Lower School Centre at Belleville. The children have not the privilege of obtaining standing on report under the regulation. Special mention should be made of Marion Waddell of S.S. 9 Thurlow. She wrote on the full Lower School examination, eight subjects, and passed well in seven of them. This is a remarkable record for a candidate so young and coming from a one-teachered rural school. Such achievement reflects great credit on herself and her teacher.

Laurison Ketcheson, S.S. 16, Thurlow C.D.H, Geraldine McAvoy, S.S. 13 Thurlow A.D.P.G, Audrey McAvoy, S.S. 15, Thurlow A.D.G, Dorothy Bartlett, S.S. 3, Thurlow B.C.F, John Ray, S.S. 16, Thurlow C.D.H, Margaret Ray, S.S. 19, Thurlow A.B.C.I, Margaret Tuttle, S.S. 15, Thurlow A.D.G, Morden Gaston B, Donald Cecil A.B.C. (Argyle), Marion Waddell, S.S. 9, Thurlow A.B.C.D.F.G.H.

In addition to these, the following from graded rural schools obtained Lower School standing.

Marie Bartlett, S.S. 12 and 14, Thurlow A.D.C.F.I. Muriel Bartlett, S.S. 12 and 14, Thurlow A.B.C.E.I. Verna Bartlett, S.S. 12 and 14, Thurlow A.B.C.E.I. Sibyl Baxter, S.S. 2, Thurlow A.D.G. Ethel Bird, S.S. 22, Thurlow D.F.I. Doris Gilmour, S.S. 22, Thurlow F.I. Muriel Gilmour, S.S. 22, Thurlow D.F.I. Vera McDonald, S.S. 22, Thurlow D.F.I. Mary Neely, S.S. 22, Thurlow F.I. Hazel Simmons, S.S. 22, Thurlow D.F.I. Martha Stewart, S.S. 22, Thurlow F.P.I.

The following wrote at Frankford Public School, Lower School examination.

Helen Armstrong, S.S. 10, Sidney B.C.P.G.

Those who wrote from the Frankford Continuation School.

Doris Bush H, Grace Chisholm B, Dorothy Conley C.G, William Cleves A, Doris Embury B, Ruby Embury C, John Ferguson B.F, Evelyn Frost C, Helena Frost H, Florence Haggerty D, Doris Handley B, Geraldine Harrington B.C, John Hendrick A, Kathryn Hibbert H, Ray Johnson C.P, Norma Lott H, Jean Mackaliy F, Allen Mac F, Jean Mumford F, Sadie Wellburn A, Gladys Zufelt F.

Opposition Not Needed States Lea

Victoria, P.E.I., July 24—(CP)— Premier-elect Walter M. Lea said today Charlottetown's new legislature would function without an official opposition. Thirty Liberals were elected yesterday to the 30 seats in the House and the Premier said he had "no choice but to abide by the decision of the people."

"It is not necessary for the transaction of business of State," the new Premier said, "that members of parliament be elected as representatives of the government. I trust the electors of Prince Edward Island will have sufficient faith in their elected representatives to know the Liberals will not take advantage of the situation created as the result of the election and as clamor and greeds will be treated fairly and justly by the Liberal administration. They have always been treated by Liberal governments in the past."

Legislation in Usual Style

Ottawa, July 24 (CP)—Authorities in parliamentary procedure here do not expect the newly-elected Lea government in Prince Edward Island will have difficulty in meeting a House of Assembly with no opposition. In the elections yesterday the Liberals won each of the 30 seats.

According to a Senate official the new government will propose legislation in the usual manner and it will then be considered by the Liberals in much the same way as in a two-party House. Thus without the militant opposition usually sent, by two-party legislatures, the opposition party opposes legislation generally because it is sponsored by the party across the floor.

It was believed here it would be necessary for the Lea government to designate a member as the party opposition to adhere to constitutional practice and usage.

The budget, for instance, would be thrown down by the Liberal Treasurer and the usual reply from the Liberal benches across the floor would be missing for the simple reason there would be none but all was believed the budget and any other legislation would be debated with no more than the usual asking the criticism usually directed by the opposition party.

WARM WEATHER STILL IN SIGHT

Quebec Province is Very Hot at 76 Early Today

By The Canadian Press

The heat wave which has held Canada in a torrid grip for over a week continued today with only slightly lower temperatures and less humidity to relieve the situation.

Rain which fell over most of Ontario yesterday failed to relieve the drought in many areas and while temperatures early today promised cooler weather, showers are not due two more days.

Southern and central Ontario remained hot during the night with temperatures ranging from 60 degrees at Sudbury and 62 at Kapuskasing to 74 at Toronto and Ottawa.

It was 84 degrees in Toronto at noon and 70 degrees at Ottawa at 8 a.m.

Quebec Province was hot today with early morning temperatures of 76 degrees at Montreal. It was 62 degrees at Doucet and 70 at Quebec City. Temperatures in the Maritime provinces ranged from 56 degrees at Saint John to 68 at Halifax and 68 degrees at Moncton.

Moncton experienced its hottest day of the year yesterday, although temperatures came down during the night. Halifax had a high of 86 degrees at the thermometer stood at 76 degrees.

Temperatures on the Pacific coast ranged from 52 degrees at Victoria to 54 degrees at Prince Rupert. Hottest spot in the Dominion reported was Medicine Hat, Alta., where

Allege Man Robbed Drinking Companion

Hamilton, Ont., July 24.—(CP)— Benjamin Moore of Toronto, was sentenced by Magistrate H. A. Burbidge on a charge of assault and robbery to a term of six months plus two years less one day to be served in the Ontario Reformatory. Moore allegedly assaulted a drinking companion of $14. The original report of $14 was changed to "one day" because the indefinite term and gave the amount involved as $100.

ITALY, HOLLAND STAND ON VERGE OF DEVALUATION

'Lira Cannot Lie' Says London Newspaper Rapping Il Duce

DUTCH BANK RATE UP

Switzerland Strives to Save Tourist Trade by Special Rates

By GEORGE HAMBLETON

Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, July 24—(CP Cable) The European gold bloc faces a new crisis, Devaluation, it was believed here today, is now inevitable for Italy and Holland.

Italy has lowered the gold coverage of her currency, and the Netherlands Bank today hoisted its discount rate from three to five per cent in the fight against devaluation.

Switzerland, to save her holiday trade, is following the example of Germany by issuing special exchange rates for tourists. The French franc remains firm, but Premier Flandin is understood to be preparing fresh decrees to lower the cost of living in France.

"Eat Bitter Words"

"It is difficult to see how even by the short run Mussolini can maintain the existing exchange rate," commented the Financial News of Italy's situation. "It seems inevitable that sooner or later (and probably sooner) he will be compelled to eat the stirring words of his famous Trieste speech when he declared that Italy would if necessary defend the lira with her blood.

"Italy's difficulties are in a serious flight. The budget deficit, it is true, has fallen from 5,997,000,000 in 1932-34 to 4,450,000,000 as current year's rates in the year, which ended June 30 it is now less than current estimates for 1935-36 envisage an increase to 5,000,000,000 decrease in expenditure and deficit of only about 237,500,000.

Cost of Operations

"But this figure excludes all cost of the operations in East Africa, and if affairs go there as they are now expected, the deficit may assume astronomical proportions."

London, July 24 (AP)—The Evening Star says a clash at Dessie, Italo Mussolini today in an editorial entitled "The Lira Cannot Lie."

"The lira speaks in the decline and underlines the plain fact that Mussolini's adventure in Ethiopia is a desperate effort to obtain satisfaction from his failure at home by a big flag waving abroad," the editorial said.

"They have falsified every promise of the Fascist regime. Unemployment is on their heels and if Europe is not to relieve the situation will spur himself before the Ethiopians even have a chance to get at him."

STORM FORCES PLANE TO LAKE

Bingham, Me., July 24—(AP)—A scheduled passenger plane, en route from Lake during a heavy thunderstorm, was forced down on a lake early this morning after losing control of its pilot, Ralph Latham, Boston.

In the party were Paul Harvaloh of Miami, Fla. the pilot, Leigh Chapman, Jr., New York and Mrs. Morse all of Sullivan in East Algoma, Ont. Presume is relatives of Rockland, Morse's former home, to Sullan where the storm forced them down last night.

WEATHER

Toronto, July 24 (CP)—With the exception of local thunderstorm storms in Alberta, the weather has been fair and moderately warm in the west, but it is already becoming cooler in the Peace River district. Pressure is relatively high over the southeastern States and the Lake region, but low in the Mackenzie Valley.

Lake Superior—Moderate shifting winds; mostly fair; probably local thunderstorms.

Kenora and Rainy River—Moderate winds; mostly fair and warm.

Manitoba—Fair and warm; moderate winds.

Saskatchewan—Mostly fair and decidedly warmer.

Alberta — Moderate to fresh winds; mostly fair and warm; probably some local thunderstorms.

Coming Events

THE MORTON FAMILY PICNIC WILL be held at Rice's Resort, Oak Lake, on Saturday, July 27. A-1

MURNEY WARD LIBERAL RALLY ON Monday, July 29, at Murney Hall, Murney Ward, 8 p.m., July 24.—Registration. Speakers, J. A. Ferguson, Liberal candidate and others. 124-15

Delta Coola, B.C., July 24—(CP)— Dr. H. E. Maclean, superintendent of the Bella Coola Mission Hospital, reports an Indian patient recovering from an injury received last night. Intendent was forced to pursue his patient by aeroplane and saddle horse before he could be brought to the hospital.

Word was received here an Indian of the Kaistche tribe, living in their village on the shores of Gatcho Lake, about 100 miles northeast of here, was ill and wanted to be taken to the hospital in an aeroplane.

Pilot W. R. McLuskey of Ocean

Doctor Forced To Pursue Patient Horseback To Get Him To Hospital

Falls, B.C., flew Dr. Maclean, Trev Fougner, Indian agent, and Nurse, Miss M. Stevens over the 10,000-foot range of the coast range and landed at the village. The party found the patient in a critical condition, and started riding over the rough mountain trail to Bella Coola.

The doctor commandeered a saddle horse and rode in pursuit. He overtook his patient within a few hours and brought him back to the plane. After the return flight, the sea was too rough to alight at Bella Coola so a landing was effected in Dean Channel Arm and the passengers were taken to the hospital in a log boat.

City and District News

INDO-CHINESE COAL IS COMING

Thousands of tons of anthracite coal from French Indo-China will ascend the St. Lawrence this fall and go to the Canadian Canadian market under arrangement made by Miss Rogers and Co., Montreal, the importers. First cargo of the coal has reached Montreal in the Norwegian motorship Bonneville, and will be followed by others, to be trans-shipped at Lake Ontario ports for conveyance to destination. The shipments will continue after the close of navigation. The Bonneville carried 8,560 tons and will be followed by other vessels bringing 12,000-ton cargoes, says Brockville Recorder.

WARNING SIGNS PLACED ON ISLAND

Occasional bathers, who have been using Zwicki's Island this year as a swimming spot as signs have given the usual seasonal warning regarding the danger of deep holes there. One warning sign posted by the city engineers department last year calls attention to the dangerous hole on the south side, but has in the past claimed two lives. This undercut is at least 30 feet deep. Other holes are also encountered on the same side by unwary waders.

WILD GEESE ARE FLYING SOUTH

Wilde geese are flying south. Late this morning three fat honkers who flew into the city at a low altitude from the north, following the river down, after a careful survey of the Bay of Quinte continued their flight to the south, across Prince Edward County.

STANDING GRAIN HAS BEEN FLATTENED

Recent rain storms and heavy winds have flattened the standing grain crops in many parts of Thurlow Township, it was reported yesterday by Mr. Phillip Dunn, Deputy Reeve of Hawdon. Although this section has been needing rain, plenty of moisture has been received in the city, a report of the county, it was stated.

FISHING GOOD ALONG MOIRA

Not all the bass are being caught in the Bay of Quinte this year, with nothing more than home made fishing poles and the simplest of tackle, several residents of that section have been making fine catches of black bass in the upper Moira River near Corbyville. Fishing is fairly good along the length of the river from Corbyville north, it is reported.

SLIGHT DAMAGE ON DUNDAS EAST

When a new sedan, owned and driven by Joseph Doige, Smithfield, collided with the rear end of a truck, driven by Edward Birch, Napanee, the radiator of the motor car was badly damaged shortly before noon today. Both vehicles were proceeding westerly on East Dundas street, when the truck started to turn south at the John St. intersection. The automobile was being driven in the same direction, motor truck and collided with it as the truck slowed up to make the left-hand turn. The truck was not damaged by the impact. The matter was reported to the police, but no action was taken by this department as the collision was purely accidental insofar as the police were concerned.

It Pays to Shop at the Rexall Store.

BATHING CAPS
BATHING SHOES
THERMOS BOTTLES
VACUUM BOTTLES
PICNIC JUGS
(1 Gallon)
PAPER PICNIC PLATES
PAPER PICNIC CUPS

McKeown's
Drug Store

SHOP AT ZELLERS IT PAYS

Increase Your Ice Cream Sales by Serving
"Neilson's Ice Cream"
The Trade Supplied by
CITIZEN'S DAIRY
Phone 226

AM-M-W-F-tf

OBTAIN LICENCE TO BUY CHEESE

Regulations of Marketing Act Comes Into Effect

Under the new regulations of the Marketing Act which have just come into force in this district with regard to cheese, no person or partnership may buy in average lots of more than five cheese a month without taking out a licence prior to August 1 of this year. The licence costs $1 and will be issued only when the local board is satisfied as to the financial responsibility of the applicant. The licence expires on March 31, 1936 unless renewed by the Board.

Under the new regulations all licenced cheese buyers must pay a total of five cents per hundred pounds on all cheese purchased after August 1, the toll to be remitted monthly to the Secretary of the Ontario Cheese Patrons' Association of this city, together with a certified statement of the cheese purchased and the respective number of the factory from which it was purchased.

The Ontario Cheese Patrons' Marketing Co-operative has been designated the marketing agency through which all export of cheese for sale or experimental purposes shall be made.

The secretary of each cheese factory in Ontario is required to forward to the secretary of the Ontario Cheese Patrons' Marketing Board of this city the names and addresses of all persons, who have been patrons of the cheese factory during the current season. Also a monthly statement of sales of cheese from their factory.

HYDRO PROBLEMS FACE MEETING

Eastern Ontario Municipal Representatives Fore-

Between 75 and 100 representatives from various municipalities of the eastern district of the Ontario Municipal Electric Association launched their convention in this city at a luncheon held at noon at the Hotel Quinte. The luncheon as well as the meeting which was being continued late this afternoon was presided over by Mayor Gordon C. Thea, named chairman of the convention.

Prominent at the luncheon was Mr. T. J. Hannigan, secretary-treasurer of the Ontario Municipal Electric Association. Also expected to arrive during the afternoon was Mr. J. J. Stewart Lyon, chairman of the Ontario Hydro Commission, Mayor James Simpson, Toronto and others.

The meeting in continuance this afternoon was being devoted to close discussion of matters relating to Hydro affairs of District No. 1 comprising the eastern section. Participated in the discussion was the suggested change being made in the Hydro Electric Power Commission at Chats Falls which will furnish 60 cycle power.

TREKKERS TAKE LOOK OVER CITY

Two Men Sent Out as Vanguard of Marchers Near Port Hope

Burdened with heavy haversacks carrying their personal belongings, and bronzed to a coppery hue by the sun which has shone on their continuous march along the open highway, two stalwart youths comprising the advance guard of the on-Coldwin trekkers paid visitors in the city today, ostensibly making preparations for the reception of the marchers expected to arrive in Belleville during the latter part of the week.

The men who checked their baggage and enjoyed a hot and substantial lunch room, engaged in a close survey of Belleville with a view to selecting camp and other likely spots where the 250 or more marchers can be put up in the city likely to put up during their brief stay in the city.

Outspoken in their praise of employment men of the city were also the trekkers today who stated that those who were said to have produced credentials identifying them with the marchers.

It is believed that the men are the same two men who visited the Trenton Airport on Tuesday in an attempt to find how many men from that camp might be counted to join the trekkers on the march east. No visible progress was made by them, however, it was reported, and they were received with little encouragement. It is not believed that more than five or six men of the 500 or more men employed there will join the marchers.

Up to the present no statement regarding the reception that will be made by Mayor Geo. O. Fice or officials of the city. Any request for the holding of the flag over Belleville will likely be refused by the other municipalities. This has been the usual means of raising money on the part of the marchers. Whether any official recognition of the marchers will be made insofar as supplying them with food or accommodation has also not been announced.

As long as the men stay within the law and conduct themselves as they have done since the march was first started, city police are expected to leave the marchers solely under the guard of the present provincial escort.

STREETS NAMED TO BE OILED

Special Committee Has Inspected Following Streets

Street oiling, which will commence again in the city on July 30, will be carried out on the following streets, according to recommendations of the special committee of city council.

Bracey Street from Rednor to end of street.

Betts from Bracey to Bayers.

Bayers from C.N.R. tracks to Bleecker Avenue.

Baldwin from College to Stone Street.

Olive from Baldwin to Moira.

Gordon from St. Charles to Elm.

Ridley from Coleman to St. Charles.

Geddes from College to Strachan. This street is in the north side.

Foundry from Church to Ct. St. James.

West Dundas from the Bay Bridge Road to Highland Avenue.

Murney, from Catharine to Emery.

Purdy, from Moira to Frank.

Frank from Moira to C.N.R. tracks.

Elmer from Moira to Yeomans.

Boiler Explodes Killing 3 Persons

Frankfort-on-Main, Germany, July 24 (AP)—Three workmen were killed and eight injured today in the explosion of a boiler containing volatile liquid in the German Dye Trust plant, Farbenindustrie.

The entire building, forming one section of the big plant, was blown down with a loss estimated at about $600,000.

SUMMER SUITS

Made flawlessly clean of all stains, grease spots and most important, of all unpleasant odours.

Light Summer fabrics treated with special care by our

BURTOL METHOD DRY CLEANING

Phone 54 TO-DAY

ODORLESS CLEANERS & DYERS
316 FRONT ST.

Trenton and District

Surprise Sentence for Man Who Worked Horses Unfit

Must Leave Animals in Barn Until in Fit Condition

Trenton, July 24—(Special)—Magistrate's Court in Trenton on Monday afternoon was comparatively light. Magistrate E. J. Butler K.C., of Belleville disposed of the cases with Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan K.C. examining the witnesses. A Detroit motorist was charged with driving in a manner dangerous to the public after he drove his car into a horse and wagon near the airport on No. 2 highway. Traffic Officer Delaney of Belleville investigated. The driver was assessed the costs, doctor bill and wagon repairs, amounting to $40.10.

A local resident was found guilty of working horses unfit for work. Charges were brought after an investigation by Dr. T. Taylor V.S., local S.P.C.A. inspector. The magistrate gave the owner two months suspended sentence and ordered, that the horses were not to be worked until fit and that the mare and harness must be purchased. A case of a motorist not having his operator's permit was dismissed.

"Music" Heard at Rotary

Rev. W. E. Kelley, M.A., Minister of St. Andrew's Church was the guest speaker at the regular weekly luncheon held in the Quinte Hotel on Monday, a most interesting talk on music and singing in general. He said that he had always agreed that the love of music the conditions of the day would be better.

Rev. T. Peter Bennett of Halifax, N.S., and a member of the Wilber, Nebo, Rotary Club, also gave a short talk. Rev. Bennett has travelled extensively and has spoken at clubs in Europe, Egypt and Palestine. Rev. Bennett was born three miles east of Stirling and is visiting in this locality. President George Shoniker called Rotarians Ed. Simmons and Art Cuff to voice the club's appreciation to the speakers. The date of the annual Rotary Carnival was given for Aug. 14.

WHITTALL CAN 18
BENEDICT-PROCTOR 16

Poor fielding was the main reason for the defeat of the Benedict-Proctor softball team on Monday night when they lost 16-14 to the Whittall Can. The silver-platers were leading by a score of 14-13 in the last frame but in the seventh Trenton nearly a run when the Can four counters that put them in the lead which the Benedicts failed to overcome after leading into the last. "Sailor" Kidd was struck on the boot by a batted ball with two runners on base, forcing in the winning seven off Robert Kidd being relieved for ten safeties. Beanie Anderson hit a pair of homers and a triple to lead the batters. Ellis, Wannamaker and Kidd also connected for four safeties apiece.

The losers are still holding the top position in the league while the Whittall Can are in second place.

Whittall Can: Anderson ss, Robson 3b, Kidd p, Ellis c, McMillan 2b, Mitchell cf, Larry lb, Cain rf, Eurdes lf.

Benedict-Proctor: Hickerson rf, Lemoire H. Wells ss, Parks lb, Richardson cf, Johnson 3b, Wannamaker rf, Ib, Vieau p, Davis c.

Score by innings:

Whittall Can	211	136	4—16
Benedict-Proctor	140	073	0—14

CANADA BUD 12 MAPLE LEAFS 2

Doc Burrows' Canada Bud softballers are still leading the local softball loop and last night handed the Maple Leafs of the airport a 12-2 defeat. Darwin Bager in the box for the winner pitched a fine game with his team furnishing great support. No more than five batters faced him in any one frame. "Smoky" Davis, ace relief hurler for the Leafs pitched a steady game but the Buds hits came at opportune times.

The losers had a wonderful chance to make the game interesting in the last stanza when Sager walked into second base but was retired, the next batter singled filling the bases. Gilmoure came to bat with a great chance to make a hero of himself but he struck out on a double play that ended the game.

Canada Bud: K. Chambers ss, Bowen 3b, Bager p, Sager c, Kennedy rf, Miller c, Waldron lf, Johnston cf, Saffin rf.

K. Chambers replaced Johnston in 9th.

Maple Leafs: Gilmoure lb, Davis p, Pecteau ss, Hill 3b, Bailey rf, Richardson cf, Wade c, Scott and Sills cf, Goodwin lf.

Score by innings:

Maple Leafs	100	010	0—2
Canada Bud	121	001	7—12

Summary: Base hits, Baker, Bowen, W. Chambers, Bager, Kennedy, Miller, Waldron, Johnston, Saffin, Gilmoure, Davis, Pecteau, Hill, Bailey, Richardson, Wade, Scott and Sills. Goodwin. Home runs, Bowen, Waldron. Struck out, by Bager 7, by Davis 3. Bases on balls, off Bager 1, off Davis 1. Hit by pitcher, by Bager 1. Left on bases, Canada Bud 6, Maple Leafs 5. Umpires, Bert Hall and Ken Hall.

DAUGHTER WEDS

London, July 24 (CP Cable)—Miss Dorothy Chamberlain, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Neville Chamberlain was married in Chelsea old church today to Stephen Lloyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lloyd of Birmingham, the Chamberlain political stronghold.

PHONE 2340
QUALITY FURS, REPAIRS
SPECIAL PRICES
Ashley Furs
234 FRONT STREET
Next to Bige's, Belleville, Ont.

Obituary

LATE MRS. W. C. CHARDE

Mrs. W. C. Charde, Hamilton, Ontario, formerly resident of Belleville, died in General Hospital at Hamilton, on Thursday, July 18. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Annie Clement.

Surviving are her husband, two sons, Earl and Charles, of Hamilton, and two brothers, Patrick Clement, Honeoys Falls, N.Y., William Clement, Belleville, and one sister, Mrs. A. Quinozy, Belleville.

Interment was made in Woodland cemetery Hamilton.
uu.1p2d dpagnabh neiw

APPLE CROP PROSPECTS

In Eastern Ontario apple scab is being by the provincial department of agriculture to be quite prevalent on foliage and fruit in many orchards due to frequent rains from June 10 to 24 which rendered spraying difficult. Early varieties of apples, such as MacIntosh, Wealthy, Wolf River, Alexander, and Baxters promise a good crop, perhaps 20 to 25 per cent. above average, while late varieties such as Spys, Baldwin, Rhode Island Greening, Ribston Pippin, R.I. Greening, and Russets have set very patchy with some orchards showing no fruit. The light crop of late apples is due to the winter injury, the worst case of injury from the severe winters of 1933 and 1934. Tree mortality was heavy in 1934 and is expected to be heavy in 1935. Hope exist 50 per cent of all the trees over 25 years of age are now dead.

ROADS DAMAGED BY HEAVY RAINS

Road Superintendent And Committee Survey Damage

Although Belleville received only a scattered sprinkle of rain during the day yesterday, the downpour which was general throughout most of Ontario, assumed almost the proportions of a flood in the northern part of Hastings County, it was reported.

According to Mr. W. E. Tummon, M.P.P., visitor in the city last evening, rain fell so heavily in the Tweed district, that almost three inches of water covered the Tweed bowling greens. Traffic on the roads of that section was badly hampered by rain, cutting to the lack of visibility in the heavy downpour.

According to Mr. Simeon Fox, county road superintendent, rainfall was so heavy in the district north of Belleville that all motor traffic was forced to take over the task of directing traffic until repairs could be made.

KIWANIS JUNIORS TO MEET CANNIFTON

Preparing for their coming Ontario Baseball Association playoffs, the Belleville Kiwanis Junior baseball team will play an exhibition baseball game tomorrow with Canniflton team of the South Hastings independent league at the local Bridge Street Park. Manager Ellis of Belleville Kiwanis Juniors have arranged three games with South Hastings League clubs and have yet to taste defeat in these exhibition games. Tomorrow's game with Manager George Lee has gathered together a smart band of Junior ballisters and turned their material over to Coach Allan Meagher, who will direct the Kiwanis Juniors on the field tonight. The Kiwanis Kids are drawn against the winner of the Lake Shore Junior League on August 10th, the O.B.A.A. announced recently.

ONLY ONE MORE DAY TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF Community Silver
SPECIAL OFFER
1/3 OFF
GROSVENOR COMMUNITY FLATWARE
26-piece Set-in Chest
$17.65
OTHER PIECES PRICED ACCORDINGLY
Angus McFee
JEWELLERS
SINCE 1860

A MONEY SAVING FUEL
Every ton of the Coal we shoot into your bins increases an item of saving. It saves, first, by delivering more heat per ton. Secondly, by total elimination of clinker waste. And finally, by making continual furnace attention unnecessary. Order your supply now, and start saving.
HARRY SMITH
152 PINNACLE STREET. PHONE 2071

NEW MEMBERS AT KIWANIS CLUB

Phil McKee Conducts Meeting and Dr. Roblin, Picton, is Speaker

New members day at the Kiwanis Club under the direction of Phil McKee as chairman, was a well conducted and interesting meeting and those responsible for the program are to be congratulated. Lieutenant Phil were Harold Seldon as song leader, Albert Boynton as sergeant-at-arms and Len Pinnell as boosters of the luncheon. Another special treat was the humorous and interesting address by Dr. Roblin of Picton, who was addressed the club on former occasions.

A number of stunts was introduced during the luncheon, one being the roll call with each member giving his particular weakness. Leo B. Riggs won the award, his weakness at present being in trying to make the members sing "God Save the King" correctly. Benedict Proctor was the prize for having the largest family in the club and Bill Fluke was awarded the "booby" but no one ever heard him sing a note anyway at the luncheon. Len Foxard, proficient with a deck of cards, gave a number of interesting tricks.

The speaker of the day was introduced by Harry Pryce and Kiwanian appreciation was expressed by Earl Fry, Dr. Roblin is a fluent speaker, can converse on any subject and his address on Monday had to be heard to be appreciated. He spoke on "Imagination, Proper and Improper" and he made a field of golf-ance as his illustration for the points, that he brought out. It is almost impossible to give a synopsis of the address but suffice it to say that it was highly appreciated and Dr. Roblin will be welcomed at any time. A vote of thanks was expressed by the chairman for all who had assisted and Mrs. Ryan was especially praised for the excellent luncheon.

SINCLAIR STREET HOUSE GUTTED

Owned by Lionel Harris And Occupied by C.

Lurid flames which crackled through the interior of a rough-cast residence at 74 Sinclair street at 3.40 o'clock this morning, exciting a fed glow over the neighborhood awakening residents of that district in time to summon firemen of the local department before the blaze was completely gutted.

With the arrival of the department, the fire, which was believed to have originated in the room underneath the stairs in the lower part of the house had made its way through the front stairs part and had broken through the roof. Battling the flames strenuously, firemen were able to check the local advances of the fire, holding the loss to approximately $500, exclusive of the contents of the house, which is owned by Mrs. Lionel Harris.

Although rented and occupied by Mr. C. Coolagh and family, none were home at the time of the fire. No theory is given for the origin of the blaze although it is presumed the spontaneous combustion may have resulted owing to the heat of yesterday. House furnishings owned by Mr. Coolagh and family were badly waterscaked and are partly believed to be covered by insurance. Loss to the house, however, will be covered by insurance, it was reported.

Freight Train Riders Are Rounded Up

Brockville, Ont., July 24 (CP)—Opening a drive against trampsters riding on railway trains without payment of fare, Royal Canadian Mounted Police and railway police arrested nine men here. Four of five men taken from eastbound trains went to jail for 60 days in lieu of fines of $50 apiece and $6 costs. The fifth man, a student, was allowed to go on paying a fine of $5. Four westbound riders, begging to escape, were let go on promising to return to that town.

Seaplane Sideslips Occupants Escape

Toronto, July 24 (CP)—When their seaplane sideslipped from a height of 2,000 feet and landed in the water at Reservoir Park today, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cushing of Montreal were thrown clear.

They were the only occupants of the plane that took off a few minutes before and then fell in the North Toronto Park. It was believed damage to the plane was a wrecked pontoon.

CAPITOL
STARTS TOMORROW
YOUR MID-SUMMER SCREEN TREAT
2 BIG FEATURES
PHILO VANCE solves 2 NEW MYSTERY!

2nd. Feature

BELLE
Thursday Only
Performances at 2.30, 7.00, 9.15
Repeat Engagement
After hundreds of requests we just had to revive this best loved picture of 1935!
The Most Glorious Love Story Ever Filmed
CHARLES DICKENS' "David Copperfield" with 43 STARS including
W. C. Fields, Maureen O'Sullivan, Lionel Barrymore, Lewis Stone, Roland Young
It's worth seeing again and again—Bring the family
Feature at 2.40, 7.35, 9.30
TONIGHT
7.15 9.15
The year's most golden thrillers
"GET 'EM HAVE 'EM"

KEPT AWAKE BY BACKACHE

She Was Always Tired

TRIED KRUSCHEN NOW FULL OF LIFE

"Only those who have experienced backache can understand the misery it can be. Only they can understand the despondency of this woman who she tried one remedy after another only to find they failed. And then they will appreciate her delight at now being able to write the following letter:

"I was always tired, had no appetite and no energy, and could get no sleep at night, for the pain in my back. So after trying several different so-called remedies (which did me no good at all), I decided to try Kruschen Salts. I am delighted to be able to say that I am a different woman, full of life and energy, and free from the pain in the back."—(Mrs.) M. J.

Backache is commonly caused by the kidneys becoming inactive, and allowing poisonous accumulations in the blood-stream. The six salts in Kruschen will coax your kidneys back to healthy, normal action so that they will rid your blood-stream of every particle of poisonous waste matter. As an immediate result you will experience joyous relief from backache, dragging pains. And as you persevere with the "little daily dose" of Kruschen, the twinges will become less frequent and less severe until nearly all backache will be no more than the memory of a bad dream.

Kruschen Salts is obtainable at all Drug Stores at 45c. and 75c. per bottle.

CHURCH SPIRE STRUCK IN STORM

West Huntingdon Church Damaged in Severe Electric Storm

Stirling, July 24—During the heavy electric storm which raged in this part of the country early Saturday morning considerable damage was done to West Huntingdon Presbyterian Church. Lightning struck the spire and the impact jarred the plaster from the walls on the inside. Whether or not it will be necessary to remove the steeple has not yet been determined. The lightning struck the steeple just below the metal cross and travelled along the roof breaking some of the window and the hitting post to which a horse is tied. It is estimated that $300.00 damage was done. In the same storm Mr. Reginald Reid, a farmer living some two miles north of the church, had his barn fired seven logs when lightning struck and four of the best cattle. Stirring residents were not greatly alarmed by the storm which seemed to be far away but in West Huntingdon heavy rains accompanied one of the worst electric storms of the year and did a great deal of damage to the grain fields.

The annual picnic of the Young People's Societies of the Belleville Presbyterian Church and Sunday School was held on Wednesday at Oak Lake with a large attendance. Rev. Mr. Cameron of Northport, President was in charge of the arrangements and a fine programme of sport events. The group pictures of the Presbyterian Church, Trenton, were successful in carrying out the Presbytery decision which was offered to the Manse which will accompany the group securing the highest total of points in the series of events. The score was 83 points. Next in line were Hamilton Road, Bethesda, Eldorado, 32, Stirling, 25, Marmora 16, M.H.B. 13, Wesley 12, 10 points.

Supper was served at 6 in the evening and a twilight service followed when Rev. H. W. Rowland delivered a fine address to those present.

Hundreds Throng Shores of Oak Lake Over Week-End

With the intense heat of the past few days, thousands of people have sought refuge in the blasting shade at various lakside resorts. Oak Lake has certainly had its quota of visitors, and on Sunday a record crowd gathered about the shores of the Oak Hills, which only a few years ago was known to but a few, to the present day. Hundreds of cars with overloaded motors found a comfortable cool cover from the ice-like shores and the occupants found soothing comfort in bathing and lying about the beaches scantily attired. The streets of the Oak Lake of Stirling were almost entirely deserted by noon and the owners of the town's 'Fords' and 'Chevs' were a bit worried as to how to cope with ever increasing traffic. Parking space was at a premium. Traffic on the narrow road which skirts the south side of the lake was completely tied up several times during the afternoon and evening.

"Only a few years ago" stated one of the old time campers, "this was considered an ideal spot to find rest and solitude from the busy cares of the city, but look at it now." 'Tis worse than living in town. One is afraid to shout over the lake. We had to put signs up along the road to prevent them from being driven right in to the front yards. But you can't blame them for seeking a cool spot in weather like this. I come up here to get away from people and I see more people on Sunday than I do all week."

Last week nearly two dozen fraternal organizations chose this beautiful spot for their annual outing. At Crescent Beach, at the western end of the lake, embraced the United Church Sunday School, the Consolidated School of Trades, the Shapley residence, Stony Creek, Castleton United Church, Wesley's Anglican Church, the Keller reunion, all held their picnics on Wednesday. Edmonson on one of the large day at Bird's on the north side of the lake St. John's Anglican Church of Stirling held their annual congregational picnic. On the north side of the lake, on the property of the United Church in Canada's union picnic which embraced all the Young People's societies in the Belleville Presbytery was in full swing with representatives in attendance from many of the United Churches throughout the county. This great crowd of pleasure seekers were all comfortably accommodated and each enjoyed a thorough good outing.

But Sunday's crowd eclipsed any on record, especially in the evening when large numbers were entertained at Bird's on the south side of the lake by a splendid concert given by the Stirling band under the capable leadership of Maurice Bell, conductor. The early lighted park was crowded with eager listeners. Hundreds motored from other parts of the shore to hear the band concert. Others paddled their canoes dreamily over the lake as the strains of Dixie Danube waltz drifted across the water. The place that had been chosen by a few thousand people as a spot for rest away from the busy streets of the city was transformed into a Coney Island or a Scarboro Beach with all the noise and noise of happy children and no one seemed to mind. Everyone was cool and happy and glad to be alive.

Late Marney Sharp

On Saturday afternoon the funeral of late Marney Sharp took place in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Stirling, when many gathered to pay their last respects to this well known citizen of Rawdon township. The late Mr. Sharp passed away at his home on the Marmora road, Stirling, on Friday morning after a short illness. He was 66 years of age and the son of Mr. and the Late Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sharp. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church in Stirling and leaves to mourn his passing his mother, Mrs. Allen Sharp of Rawdon and one brother, Lorne of Sidney.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. A. Kotfend who brought a message of comfort and consolation from the Scriptures to the remaining members of this household into which the deceased had come twice in less than six years. The floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The pall bearers were Messrs. Alfred Sharp, Claude Sharp, Leonard Sharp, Clifford Sharp, Donald Sharp and Percy Robertson was made in the Stirling cemetery.

Personals

Mr. F. Hilderbrand, who for the past three years has been in the service of E. G. Bailey's Garage has severed his connections with that organization and expects to leave Stirling shortly for Trenton where he will direct an agency for the Excelsior Life Insurance Co. Doing the same in Stirling Mr. Hilderbrand has made many friends and will be greatly commended especially in musical circles. Besides being a vocal soloist in St. Paul's United Church choir he was a valued member of the Stirling band. His many friends though regretting his departure, wish him every success in this new field of activity.

Mr. Allan McIlwaith who for the past few weeks has been in Toronto marking examination papers has returned to his home here and returned home to spend his vacation at the summer home of his parents at Oak Lake "Dunvandenmn."

Many friends of Mrs. John McCaw will be sorry to learn that she was admitted to the General Hospital, Belleville, on Sunday evening suffering from a infected finger which was considered quite serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Murney Hagerman were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hagerman.

Friends of Helen Jeffery will be glad to learn that she was successful in obtaining the Reid prize for the highest marks in High school entrance work. Helen gained her high school entrance on the low aplest did results of the year's work passing with first class honors. This special prize is offered each year by Mrs. Harper Rollins for the purpose of stimulating interest on the part of the pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hallenay, Mary and John of Aylmer, Ont., were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bedshaw of Stirling left on Friday morning on a motor trip down the Atlantic Coast.

Miss Dorothy Hulls is spending this week at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hulls in Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. Disbrowe and Barbara of Elmore visited friends in Stirling on Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. James E. Beckel and family who have been camping at Oak Lake moved into their cottage at Crescent Beach.

Miss Catherine Simpson of Belleville is spending a couple of weeks with Mrs Harper Rollins at their summer home (Roll-Inn) on the north side of Oak Lake.

Mr. Cecil Ward, son of Mr. Herb Ward, Stirling, was successful in winning the Eastern Ontario junior paddling championship at Kingston on Saturday last. He will now go to Peterboro and will return to Ottawa at a later date to compete in the Dominion trials which will be held there. Mr. Ward's many friends will also be keenly interested in his showing in these trials and wish him every success in the sport in which he is a nephew of Mr. F. T. Ward of Stirling.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lamb spent the week end last week in Bancroft on business.

Mr. Allan McIlwaith spent Sunday with friends in Trenton.

Mrs. (Dr.) Fadley, Joan and Jeanette motored to Kingston on Sunday and Mrs. Fadley senior remained for a visit.

Mr and Mrs. R. L. Thompson of Belleville accompanied by Miss Dorothy Thompson of Campbellford were visitors on Saturday.

Mrs. Ross Ward of Campbellford, Lima, Ohio, are visiting friends in Stirling during the past few days.

The summer home of the former's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wells at Crowes Lake.

Mrs. Nora Vanosti and Mrs. Nina Vanosti of Belleville were guests on Sunday and Mrs. Fred Wells at Crowe Lake.

Mrs. Ross Ward of Campbellford and Lloyd and Mrs. Musgrove left on Monday morning for Varley Beach where their summer cottage is located.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnie Ward and family spent Sunday with friends in Picton.

Miss Doris Anderson has returned home after spending a few days at the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bates at Rawdon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart of Rawdon, motored into Stirling on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Martin and Miss Marvin of Belleville accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Cass of Flint, Mich., were visitors on Sunday at the home of Sou. Snider.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cook of Toronto are spending a few days with the latter's mother, Mrs. Collier.

Mr. William Wootten of Pennsylvania, U.S.A., and Mrs. Thomas Wootten former resident of Stirling called on friends in the village on Saturday.

Young people of the neighborhood are showing keen interest in the forthcoming junior farmers picnic which is to be held this week in Tweed.

Mr. Wm. Laycock of the Bank of Montreal staff in the city of Montreal and his wife and family are spending vacation in Rawdon township. Mr. Laycock was formerly attached to the staff at the Stirling branch of the Bank of Montreal, and is well known in the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Soldier who for the past few weeks, has been conducting refreshment booth on Church Street, moved to Marmora on Saturday where they will continue these services.

Rev. and Mrs. Osborne and Eileen visited friends in Prince Edward on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bailey of Campbellford is spending two weeks at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pick of Leonia, N.J., accompanied by Mrs. George Drewry and Miss Evelyn Drewry and Mrs. Alex Wyatt left on Monday morning for a motor trip through Eastern Canada and United States.

Mr. Wm. Ryckman is camping at the Trent River with friends from Toronto, and at the same time re-covering from an operation which he received some time ago.

Mrs. Lena Hubbs has returned home after spending a few days with friends in Toronto and attended the funeral of the former's mother-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mason were in Madoc on Thursday where they attended the funeral of the latter's brother Mr. Richard Mason who passed away on July 18th at the Sid Mason of Springbrook to Miss Mabel Carswell eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carswell of Madoc. The wedding took place in St. Peter's Presbyterian Church with Rev. W. A. Hunter performing the ceremony. The happy couple left later on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls.

Lieut. H. H. Fedley M.O. Lieut. Tom Ward, Cpl. Clifford Holmes, Pte. Ward, Pte. Ward, Pte. Ward, H. West, K. Mundy and F. Fitzgerald, members of K. Company of the "E and P. E. Regiment returned to Kingston on Sunday to take part in the musketry practice of the regiment which took place at Barriefield camp. A large representation of the various divisions were present and an enjoyable day was spent.

Dr. Embury M.P., of Bancroft, was a Stirling visitor on Monday, July 22nd.

Dr. Edmund A. Carleton of Stirling was elected District Deputy Grand Master of the Prince Edward District at the 80th annual convention of the Grand Lodge of Canada A.F. and A.M. in Ontario held last week in Hamilton.

ACCUSES OFFICER OF TAKING BOOTS

Man Employed as Trusty Faces Magistrate For Escaping

Sudbury, Ont., July 22.—(CP)—Three years and two days after he had been sentenced in the same court before the same magistrate to three years in Dorchester Penitentiary for breaking jail at Burwash Industrial Farm, Leslie Perrin, Toronto, today reappeared before Magistrate S. McCrimmon, charged with escaping custody at the Industrial Farm.

He elected trial before a Judge and jury. He will be tried at the general session in September.

Perrin begged permission to say a word. When it was granted he pointed to Sergeant W. F. Kavanaugh, chief constable of police at the Industrial Farm. "There's a man over there stole a pair of boots from me. They're in the corner, those slippers".

"Do you want Mr. Kavanaugh charged with the theft of the boots?" Crown Attorney Hopkins, K.C., asked.

"Yes, but I've got no proof but my word."

Mr. Wilkins promised to investigate the charge.

Perrin is alleged to have escaped yesterday morning when assigned as a trusty on a painting job in the new cell block.

FAMILY RE-UNION AT BUNNETT HOME

2nd Thurlow.—A pleasant reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bunnett on Wednesday, July 17th, when among the others, five brothers and five nieces of Mr. James Bunnett and Mrs. Lena Bunnett met for the first time in twenty-five years.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent and later all sat down to well-laden tea tables on the lawn. Those present were: Mr. Geo. Bunnett and Doris, of Hallowayville; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beach and Betty, of Minnesota; Mr. Ted Bunnett, Toronto; Mrs. Jas. Bunnett, Regina; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bunnett, Belleville; Mrs. Jas. McKenna, Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bunnett, Belleville; Miss Gladys Bunnett, Belleville; Mrs. Arthur Ray, Hallowayville.

Little Billie Houston of Toronto has been spending a few days with his cousin, Reggie Sprackett.

Mr. Denis Taylor, Toronto, is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. J. Huff.

Mr. Ben Anthonisen spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Moncrief, Omemee, spent the week end with the latter's sister, Mrs. A. Mitchell.

The Neighbours' Aid of the Second Line held their July meeting by meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Greenlaw on Wednesday with an attendance of around fifty. Two quilts were quilted during the day and at noon a delicious lunch was served which all enjoyed. In the afternoon the meeting was opened by singing the Ode, followed by repeating the Lord's Prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. E. Leeming and reporting collection. A social and picnic to be held later. Some business matters regarding the lawn social were discussed and all had fairly well responded to and the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

Mrs. Percy Belleville, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. A. Greatrix.

Rev. Jas. Bunnett spent a recent caller at the home of Mr. Jas. Bunnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sprackett, Belleville, Mrs. D. Houston, Billie and Joyce, of Toronto, visited Mr. and Mrs. F. Sprackett one day recently.

Messrs. Cecil and Earl Keene and Cameron Bunnett spent Sunday with Mr. Wm. Keene in Consecon.

Misses Francis Stollicker and Lulu Mitchell spent Sunday with Miss Ilsen Robinson.

Many friends of Mrs. Roberta Melburn and Miss Margaret Donaldson extend sincere congratulations to them as they have both been successful with their recent Normal School examinations.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Howe and Jack took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bunnett on Sunday.

Women Testify Cop Smelled of Liquor

TORONTO, July 22.—(CP)—A charge of assaulting Constable Edward Wells by Constable Michael O'Shea was dismissed in police court today when Wells' two women companions alleged the constable struck them on the street. The women said the policeman smelled of liquor and, striking Wells, they ran to report to the Constable's actions. Crown Counsel Greene and Mr. McFadden said his Department would investigate the matter.

HAND IS PIERCED BY PITCHFORK

Philip Tree, Frankford, Injured Working at Canning Plant

Frankford, July 24—While at work at the Canadian Canners plant Thursday afternoon Mr. Philip Tice came in contact with a pitchfork used by a fellow employee. As a result of the accident Mr. Tice's left hand was pierced which will prohibit him from working for a few weeks. Dr. D. W. McMullen dressed the injury.

On Friday morning July 19th a horse owned by George Burkitt which was being shod by Geo. B. Rose stepped on Mr. Rose's right foot breaking a bone in one of the toes at the ankle thus removing the nail. Mr. Rose was taken to Dr. D. W. McMullen's office by B. Harrison. Although suffering much pain Mr. Rose returned to his work in the afternoon.

The evening services of the United Church were taken by Mr. Kenneth Stewart a former resident of Frankford who is now living at Desmnito.

Mr. Stewart's address was well given and the congregation enjoyed hearing again this promising young preacher.

His text was the second verse of Psalm 121 "Our Fathers house are many mansions . . ."

Before the address Mrs. Walter Monroe contributed a solo which was well received.

During the regular service, communion service was held at which the pastor Rev. J. F. Lane, officiated.

Personals

Miss Joan McCurdy, of West Huntingdon, is spending a few days with Miss Lena Lane.

Mrs. J. Mikel and niece of Brighton, were visitors on Monday the past week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lane returned home on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Charles Bowen of Warkworth, spent Thursday with friends in town calling on friends.

Mrs. Whitlock of Winnipeg, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. O. Huffman, has returned home.

Mr. Whitney was formerly Miss Bertha Huffman.

Doris Rose and Lorin Carlin of Cobourg, spent Friday in the village.

Mrs. Lane is attending the United Church Y.P.S. summer school at Victoria College this week.

Dr. O. F. and Mrs. Fairbairn called on friends in the village on Sunday.

Mr. David Rodgers of Toronto, spent Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rogers.

Mrs. Ward and D. Powell accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Johnson were week end visitors at Wellington.

A large number of citizens were present for the street dance held on Saturday evening, the Frankford Citizens Band was on hand, part of the Main Street was roped off for the dancers. There will be more dancing on the street on Friday Saturday nights during the summer.

Mr. J. A. Stickle and W. J. Callaghan spent Monday afternoon in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Page of Rochester, N.Y., are visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lyons of Trenton, spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lyons.

Norma Leavitt and Edwin Dafoe cycled to Bloomfield on Sunday morning. They will spend a week's holiday there.

Mr. Percy Mikel, of Ottawa, was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Mikel.

Mr. W. Hinds spent Sunday at Crowe Lake.

Mrs. A. Coleman of the Bank of Montreal staff returned on Sunday after spending a two weeks vacation at his home in peterboro.

DOCTOR SAID SHE NEEDED "BULK" FOR HER CONSTIPATION"

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Brings Relief to Mrs. Maneely

Read the following unsolicited letter:

"For 25 to five years ago, I knew no end of suffering caused by constipation. I had all kinds of laxatives but only found relief till I got used to them. My physician told me to get some Kellogg's ALL-BRAN and instructed me how to use it.

"I did just as I was told and, almost overnight, got my right-out praise for what your ALL-BRAN has done for me. I'm glad to tell others."—Mrs. Mary Maneely, Jr. Address upon request.

"Due to insufficient "bulk" in our diet."

ALL-BRAN provides gentle "bulk" to help overcome common constipation. It is also a rich source of vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is often more effective than the "bulk" in fruits and vegetables, as it does not break down within the body. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. If not corrected this way, see your doctor.

Isn't this food much pleasanter and safer than risking patent medicines? Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Keep on the Sunny Side of Life

We Reserve the Right to Limit Quantities

I.D.A. DRUG STORES

Greater Values for Thursday, Friday and Saturday

End Pain from SUNBURN

DON'T SUFFER

GRAY'S BALM is guaranteed to relieve in a few minutes, or money refunded.

25c Size. CUT TO	39c	90 Size. CUT TO	69c

Wash Cloths

SUPER VALUE

Turkish knit cloths you would expect to pay 10c for at a special price of

5c

I.D.A. Milk Magnesia 15 ozs.—30c size 33c 2 for 65c

HYDROGEN PEROXIDE 4—8—16 ozs. 15c 25c 39c

SEIDLITZ POWDERS Fresh and fizzy 15c 2 for 25c

OINTMENTS Boracic, Zinc, Carbolic, Menthol, Hazdy Tubes 25c

Cocoanut Oil SHAMPOO Lathers Freely 8 ozs. 32c

TINCTURE OF IODINE Reliable Antiseptic 15c 25c

I.D.A. Corn REMOVER Safe — Sure	25c	AYERST DRI-YEAST 50c $1.50
NU-FEET MEDICATED INSOLES. Pair	25c	DIGESTIVE TABLETS 89c
		OVALTINE 1/2 oz. . . . 33c, 53c, 90c
TALCUM POWDER Large Can	15c	VI-TONE—three sizes 24c, 44c, 79c
Sun Glasses 35c 39c	25c	RUMACAPS for RHEUMATIC HEALTH 59c, $1.09
ALMOND LOTION 6 oz. I.D.A.	38c	BROMO-SELTZER, ... 33c, 44c, 67c, 79c
		ENO'S FRUIT SALT, ... 39c, 67c, 79c
		JAR SALTS, Condensed 55c

Unguentine For Burns	- 44c	PERSTOP LIQUID DEODORANT 25c, 50c
		HOLLYWOOD WAVE SET 15c
Olive Oil FRENCH 2 and 4 ozs.	15c, 25c	COLLYRIUM EYE LOTION and CUP. 69c
		NEET, CREAM DEPILATORY 54c
Nipples San-Tor —Black Band	5c	PERSODENT TOOTH PASTE 29c
		CALVERT'S TOOTH POWDER 15c, 25c
Comfy Baby Nursing Bottles	5c	TOOTH BRUSHES, ... 9c, 19c, 25c
		LISTERINE TOOTH PASTE 25c, 39c
Face-Elle Tissues—300 in box	21c	GILLETTE BLUE BLADES. . . . 5 for 25c

LAVENDER Shaving Cream Lathers freely 35c tube . 21c

LISTERINE Shave Cream with free trial tube 25c

KLEER-OR Tooth Powder 23c, 2 for 45c

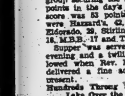
WERNET'S Plata Powder 2 sizes 27c, 54c 89c

BABY CREAM I.D.A. Relieves chafing 50c jar 38c

ODO-RO-NO Deodorant Stick—Ends Odor 35c 59c

Well made combs, with gralled teeth, excellent finish. Extra 5c Special . . . . .

5c COMBS 5c



Bobby or Pocket

Low Prices Every Day at these I.D.A. Drug Store

DOLAN'S PHONE 138 — DOYLE'S PHONE 326 — LATTIMER'S PHONE 67

GEEN'S PHONE 131 — SCHRYVER'S PHONE 49 — PAULEY PHONE 106

Going to NEW YORK?

Stop at a NEW hotel

. . . where luxurious surroundings blend perfectly with convenience and comfort. Private bath, Radio, Servidor in every room. Rates begin at $3 for one—$4 for two.

3 minutes from Times Square

1200 ROOMS BATHS

C.W. RAPLEY, Jr., Pres.

SHERMAN HOTEL

7th Avenue at 31st Street

A. & O. CARS STOP AT DOOR

OPP. PENNSYLVANIA STATION

PEAS AVERAGE ONE TON ON ACRE

Heavy Damage by Storms Reported in Eastern Ontario

TORONTO, July 22.—(CP)—Ontario farmers started the new growing weather this week as the largest hay crop on record lay unharvested in the fields, the weekly crop report of the Ontario Department of Agriculture reported today. This year's hay crop is reported to be the largest on record and the yield per acreage is twice that of last year.

Peterborough County pastures showed exceptional growth and all kinds of livestock were doing well.

The canning pea harvest in Prince Edward County was underway and peas averaged about a ton per acre. More than 50 percent of the grain crop in Victoria County was lodged, with the continued bad weather haying is almost completed.

Eastern Ontario reported heavy property loss for the week as a result of severe electrical storms. More than $400,000 damage was caused in Carleton County.

"WARNING GAS" MUST BE USED

Hon. Dr. Faulkner Announces New Regulations in Effect

Toronto, July 22—(CP)—Although legal force cannot be given to Ontario Department of Health's regulations governing fumigations until the fall session of the Legislature they are to become effective immediately, Hon. Dr. J. A. Faulkner, Minister of Health, announced after holding a conference with Premier Hepburn today.

The new regulations will require fumigators to employ a "warning gas" which would be immediately noticeable to anyone entering a house, where the deadly hydrocyanide was being used. Fumigators will also be required to post a bond to cover any damage which might be caused by their operations.

The Public Health Act does not at present authorize the imposition of such regulations but in view of the danger to the public the department takes the position it is justified in giving effect now to regulations which can be legalized by regulations adopted by the fall session.

The regulations will be the subject of an order-in-council to be passed at tomorrow's session of the Cabinet.

While for the present it would be impossible to lay a charge against a fumigator who failed to observe the regulations, action could be taken immediately the new amendments are passed in the autumn.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

CHANGE FOR A CENT

Illinois has an aluminum sales tax token, looking like money. It means money to the state and to the taxpayer, because the new token is a one-and-a-half mill token just enough to pay the three percent tax on a five cent or nickel purchase. Chicago Daily News says "this is the nearest man has ever come to seeing a mill in the flesh or, rather, in the metal."

Taxpayers in Belleville who have all their lives heard of mills never have seen one because it takes one thousand of them to make a dollar. Will it come to this that we shall ever see a mill? Likely not because no council or government would want to see its taxes paid in mills. Just now there is talk of the uncommonness of the Canadian nickel or five cent piece as against the elusive bit of silver which passed current in the old days when five cent pieces counted five cents. But what a host of money is in the new mill-and-a-half bits will make! A pocketful would be a pocketful but it would be light. It would take 667 to make a dollar's equivalent.

Yet all the days of mammoth extravagance in governments and in private spending are past and now that coppers or one cent pieces really count and as no one is ashamed to be seen up, it may be that it would be really advantageous to have a little piece of money much less than a cent in value. Sooner or later a handful of mills will make a five cent or ten cent piece.

The Illinois aluminum tokens will be like money in form and may pass current as such among many persons.

NEW YORK MINISTERS' VIEWS

"The real lovers of God are men who go beyond the love of men who search for the secrets of the unseen. Such people do not talk much about them," said Rev. Dr. J. F. Newton in New York on Sunday. Love for the far away and concern for the people whose faces we have never seen make all-embracing Christianity.

Faith and perseverance are the prerequisites for any cure or blessing, the Rev. Beat Gmur declared in the Roman Catholic Church of St. Jean Baptiste, New York. "No one who will depend upon the mercy and goodness of God will be sent away fainting," he remarked, commenting on the Gospel of the miraculous multiplication of the loaves and fishes. "Imitate the implicit faith of those thousands of worshipers. God will in the end bless you as He once blessed them."

The instinct of belief in God is a proof of His existence, Rev. A. W. Burnet, of Glasgow, Scotland, said in Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. "As far back in history as we can go, man has passionately affirmed a world which he cannot see, hear, nor touch. He has believed in a blessing to be procured, and he has agreed on the means by which it is to be procured. If religion were an illusion it would not have lasted through the centuries."

Life's progress, affirmed Dr. Norwood of City Temple, London, preaching at Riverside Church, New York, "What is man?" he asked, and answered: "All things personal and historical assume their final shapes in answer to this question. Man's victories have been sublime; his failures have been colossal. He is noble, he is base. There is no answer to our question, but the vital distinction is whether we accept the Biblical definition concerning man's likeness to God or whether we deny it." He said a universe without life would be mechanical, not going anywhere or doing anything.

"As soon as you get life in the universe, you get something with active principles in itself; which challenges the repetitive process of nature, defies it and outwits it. The simplest form of plant life is carrying on an offensive against merely repetitive forces. It is absurd to suggest that nature alone will care for us. She won't. In her mechanized processes she is ruthless. It is life that learns to use these.

"So long as the active principle within is superior to the repetitive processes without, there is progress and victory. Now we have lost our sense of direction and faith, our belief in our affinity with the Deity. We are falling into such ways of living that we are afraid of life unless we can get it mechanized. It is because life itself can become repetitive mechanism, and thus be defeated. Can there be any way out except by an increase in life? Can this increase in life be without something greater than itself?" Dr. Norwood pleaded with his congregation to turn away from the mechanical in nature towards the spiritual in life and to cling to the Biblical concept of man which places him next to God."

The man who cannot blush, and who has no feelings of fear, has reached the acme of impudence.—Menander.

Slumber not in the tents of your fathers. The world is advancing. Advance with it.—Macaulay.

SIDELIGHTS
THE HOME FORUM

Blessing the events of the day, verses, comic and general news topics as revealed by the home correspondents for the evening homily of Uncle Tom and Cicely—Suggested by The Lamplighter.

DRAKE'S DRUM

Drake's drum is beating along the coasts of Devon:
"Mariners, O Mariners, who warred so well with Spain,
Lo, the foe is here once more! Leave the ports of Heaven,
Haste across the jasper sea, and drive them home again."

All the streets of Paradise echo to his rattle—
Golden roads a-trembling to the chime of tramping feet;
Hawkins, Drake and Frobisher are marching forth to battle:
"Peter, open wide the gates. We're out to join the fleet."

Pinnace, caravel, caracque—many a galleon drifting—
Shadowy sails of old Renown upon the jasper sea;
Ghostly voices through the mists; "Lo, the white cliffs lifting;
Heaven's streets for those who will, but Devon's shores for me."

Drake's drum is beating along the coasts of Devon,
Calling, as in days of old it called to vanquish Spain;
Drake and Blake and Raleigh, they have left the ports of Heaven,
Homing back across the stars to England's cliffs again.
—From "Spunyarn and Spindrift."
by Mora M. Holland.

x x x

MEMBERS OF THE SIDELIGHT FAMILY spending vacations in motor trips at lake or river resort or back in the great lonely open spaces would confer a favor on all the readers of this column by sending in paragraphs outlining any odd or unusual happenings in their summer experience. This will help to entertain the whole Sidelight Family—just swapping yarns of the Great Outdoors. Don't bother to dress 'em up, just send in the rough outlines we'll do the rest. Thank You.

x x x

EVERYBODY COMPLAINS ABOUT THE WEATHER but nobody seems to do anything about it,—according to Mark Twain—and the same thing applies right now—and if somebody doesn't do something about it right soon it will just be too bad.

x x x

WATCHING THE STORMS pass around Belleville and lambaste the countryside with wind, rain and hailstones one wonders how this immunity was obtained. If Mayor Tice "could get little less thunder and a little more cooling rain for the city his name would be blessed forevermore.

x x x

AN ARAB PREACHER in Hyde Park, London, England, having an argument with a prominent business man of Belleville in which the son of Mohamed came off second best, was one of the sights of the many of interest making up the great and changing kaleidoscope of London daily life one evening recently.

x x x

"THE CONQUERING LION OF JUDAH". King Selassie of Ethiopia, distant relative of King Solomon, the wisest ruler of all time, expects war with Mussolini's legions and is preparing for it. Great interest is being taken in the coming conflict which neither the League of Nations nor British diplomacy can stop seemingly, mainly on account of the contestants, a civilized power with all the most modern weapons of warfare and a semi-civilized barbaric horde with archaic weapons, refused by other nations the modern war machinery with which Italy is supplied. King Selassie is certainly handicapped and it hardly seems a fair deal. Greater interest is taken in the impending war by those who read and enjoyed Vincent Sheean's "Personal History" and the experiences of this adventurous journalist with the fierce Riffs of Morocco in their war against Spain. These savage fighting tribesmen made things very unpleasant for Spain and were not subdued until France joined Spain and the combination proved too strong for the Riffs who fought against bombing planes, machine guns and every modern war machine—defied hunger, thirst, heat, cold and disease to retain some shred of their liberty in the rocky fastnesses whither they made their last stand. The Riff chieftain was captured and exiled on an island in the Red Sea. Some day he will escape, if he is permitted to live, and then there will be more trouble among the Riffs.

BARGAIN EXCURSION AUG. 1 and 2 from BELLEVILLE
TO C.N.E. — Exhibition in the Dominion of Provinces of Quebec, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia
AUG. 2 to OTTAWA $3.70
AUG. 2 and 4 to MONTREAL $4.40, to QUEBEC CITY $7.45
to Sio Anne de Beaupre $8.25
ROUND TRIP FARE
Tickets, Rates, Transit Limits and Information from Agents
CANADIAN NATIONAL Ask for Handbill CANADIAN PACIFIC

REVOLT IN THE DESERT

by

T. E. LAWRENCE

CHAPTER XIX
Services And Sermons

Next morning the atmosphere of the camp was serene and cordial. Old Auda, his difficulties over for the time, embraced me warmly, in a voice peace upon us. At the last, whilst I was standing with Nasir in the open ground, he ran out, took me in his arms again, and strained me to him. I felt his hard beard brush my ear as he whispered to me wistfully, "Beware of Abd el Kader." There were too many about us to say more.

We started for lunch and for a midday rest—the soldiers had to have three meals a day—when there was an alarm. Men on horseback and camels appeared from the west and north, and closed rapidly upon us. We snatched our rifles. The Indians, mounted, got in a hesitated moment, and after a minute's discussion, flagged back their cloaks in half-hearted reply to our challenge.

One of them rode towards us at a foot's pace. Awed, perplexed by our rifles, went two hundred yards to meet him, and saw that he was Mifleh, who, when he heard our names, feigned shock. They were a raiding party from the Zebn Ali Nahar, who were camped, as we had expected, in front of Bair.

All, furious with them for their treacherous attack on us, threatened all sorts of pains. They accepted the tirade mildly saying that it was a Beni Sakhr manner to add insult to strangers. All accepted this as their habit, and a good habit in the desert, but protested that the rather unheralded appearance against us from their sides showed a premeditated ambush. The Beni Sakhr were a dangerous gang, not good enough friends to hold the nomadic code of honour or to obey the desert law in spirit, and you were strange enough to have abjured the business of raiding and raid.

Our late assailants went into Bair to report our coming. Mifleh, chief of their clan, thought it best to efface the ill-reception by a public show in which each of us had personal attention. Clouds of parching khaki dust rose across the camp, and men's voices crowed.

Eventually the parade ceased of, but then Abd el Kader, Mifleh's opinion even of fools desirable, felt it open him to assert his virtue. They were shouting to Ali ibn el Hussein, "God give victory to our Sheriff," and were pulling back over their haunches beside me with "Welcome, Aurans, harbinger of action." So he climbed up his mare, into his high Moorish saddle, with the air of a serge Algerian servants behind him in Biff fie, began to prance delicately in slow curves over the sand, "Houp, Houp" in his throaty voice and firing a pistol unsteadily in the air.

The Bedu, astonished at this performance, gaped silently. Mifleh came to us, and said, in his wheedling manner, "Auda, you have your servant, for he can neither shoot nor ride, and if he hits some one he will destroy our good name for ever and ever."

We set-loaded by the ruins. Beyond us the black tents of the Beni Sakhr were full of men, who spoke quietly in the valley. A messenger beckoned to Mifleh's tent. My men whispered excitedly that these were the Turks we had left behind it, high on the knoll above the graves.

Hovelat feasts had been wet with butter; the Beni Sakhr were overflowing. Our clothes were splashed our mouths running over, the tips of our fingers greasy with the food. As the sharpness of hunger was appeased the hands dipped more slowly, but the bowl was still full when Ali ibn el Hussein, who had suddenly to his feet, edged his hands out a handbreadth, and sat back on the carpets by the fire. Then Abd el Kader, who had muttered "The fellah" and the work continued until all the men of the sitting were full, and the more fragal of us had begun to lick the stir of the dishes for the sparring flavours.

All cleared his throat, and we repeated by the carpets of the second and third relays round the pans were satisfied. One little thing, I feel or still, in a filthy smock, sat there stuffing solemnly with both hands from first to last, and, at the end, with swollen belly and face glistening with grease, staggered off to contemplate in a huge unpicked rib in triumph to its breast.

From of the tent the dogs cracked the dry bones loudly, and Mifleh's and his clan's conversation became dull and sacked out the brains. Meanwhile, Abd el Kader had risen, and bolstering and picking his teeth. Finally, he sent one of his servants to his saddle-bag, and poured himself out a draught, grumbling that cough meat had given him indigestion. He then began to wash his hands in the sand, and repeated the ablution with water, and then, with a sigh, he sat down and began to pray.

His own villagers could not doubt he browbeaten so, but the Bedu of the desert to be measured by a purely peasant-measure might, at least, have impressed eyes the contrary example of sheriff Ali ibn el Hussein's best dancer. But Abd el Kader was not understood.

He took himself off, and we sat in the tent mouth, above the dark hollow, now and then, in little crackles, a burst of rent-fire, seeming to mimic or reflect the sky above. It was a fine night, and the stars were clear. Auda provoked one another to choral singing, and as these grew drowsy we heard again the quiet, steady thudding of the heavy guns preparing for the dawn attack.

To this artillery accompaniment Auda told us that we were to ride to raid the Derna district, and would be glad to have him and some of his or his tribesmen with us, all on camels. After our failure with the Beni Sakhr manner he asked us to announce our plain object, lest its forlorn nature should cause us to flinch. However, Mifleh agreed at once apparently with haste and pleasure to accompany us, and sent him fifteen best men in the tribe and his own camel.

Dark had fallen long before our caravan left Bair, after watering, and we rode slowly through it and the Zeba got ready. Mifleh's presence had provided a visit to Nasir, the supposed ancestor of the clan, in his honour, and Sheikh thought the occasion warranted his adding another sheep to the raggle-taggle lection looped round Enaeil's head-stone, and we contributed fifteen to fifteen best men in the tribe and his own camel.

Dark had fallen long before our caravan left Bair, after watering, and we rode slowly through it and the Zeba got ready. Mifleh's presence had provided a visit to Nasir, the supposed ancestor of the clan, in his honour, and Sheikh thought the occasion warranted his adding another sheep to the raggle-taggle collection looped round Enaeil's headstone, and we contributed fifteen to fifteen best men in the tribe and his own camel.

Rosaland Russell and Fred Astaire in the Cuban Murder Comedy scene in "Roberta," showing at the Capitol, Thursday.

JOAN AND SON ARE VAGABONDING

Vagabonding somewhere near, has no idea where she can be reached. But Baby Norman, son of Commander Norman Bernard Barnes, has time also to pass for this photo prior to departure from Hollywood with his mother.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JULY 24, 1915.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell left today for Winnipeg and other western points.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Thomas of Buffalo, N.Y., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dowse, Octavia Street.

Mr. Douglas McKenna of the Bank of Montreal Staff, Toronto, spent a few days here recently with his mother, Mrs. J. McKenna, Great St. James Street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Embury and daughters, Grey Street, have returned after a two weeks' motor trip to London and other western cities.

30 Years Ago

July 24th, 1905

The Old Boys are having a great time. Shortly after the band concert last night some of them got it into their heads that they wanted some fun and for an hour or so there was "high jinks" on Front street. An old coach which had done duty for many years in the days of long ago was rummaged out and a long rope attached to it. Scores of willing hands grasped the rope and proceeded to draw the old coach through the streets. Headed by the Queen's Own Bugle Band the unique procession was started near Hotel Quinte and after a round of laughter and cheers from onlookers the procession went up the main aisle of the old town. Red lights were set off while this was going on and the scene was one long to be remembered. In the coach were three well known citizens. After parading up and down some of the visitors, grown men drawn up in front of Hotel Quinte, drenched with cold oil and set on fire. Someone suggested calling out the fire brigade which was done. The fire fighters came on the run and although their services were not required, the crowd was glad to see them and cheered them heartily. When things had quieted down some of the visitors, grown men with wives and families, celebrated on Front street, paying "pomp-pom-pull-away" and other games dear to the juvenile heart of Belleville when they were boys. It was all pure unadulterated fun; the old boys were just bubbling over with good spirits to think that they were together in the old home town once more ,that was all.

40 Years Ago

JULY 24, 1895.

Mr. Ali. McCall of Toronto, formerly of Belleville, called to spend a few days here recently and will spend a few days in town.

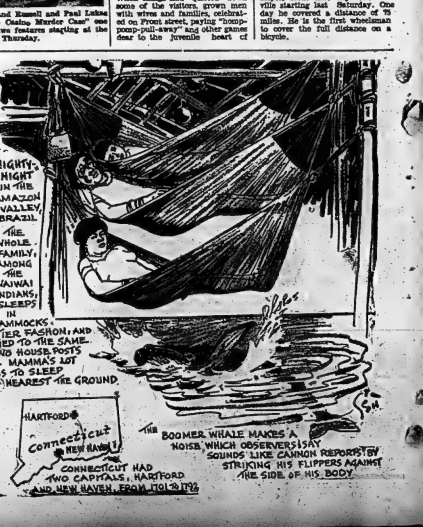
Mr. David J. McCoy of Wilkesbarre, Pa., formerly of Belleville, is visiting in the city.

Mr. A. B. Chown is spending a few days in Kingston.

The two motor cars for the electric street railway have been brought over Front Street and placed opposite the city hall. They were inspected by crowds of people today and the opinion of all is that they are magnificent cars. Two trailers are expected tomorrow. The conductors and motormen have been appointed. The conductors will be Harry Naylor and Harrison Meyers and the motorman will be John Johnson and an experienced man from Trenton. The cars will run on Saturday but the formal opening will not be held until August 7th.

50 Years Ago

50 YEARS AGO .....
July 24th, 1885



Ald. J. W. Johnson is spending the vacation at Old Orchard Beach.

The baseball club laid out their ground this afternoon and will commence practice without delay.

The Nellie Cuthbert will renew her trips to Consecon every day tomorrow morning and to Northport in the afternoon.

The returned soldiers have been paid off, receiving pay for the full time they were on service. One officer's cheque called for the sum of $2,000.00.

Mr. Thos. Morrison of Montreal, formerly of Belleville, rides his bicycle from that city to Belleville starting last Saturday, the day he covered a distance of 75 miles. He is the first wheelman to cover the full distance on a bicycle.

DON'T ENVY GOOD HEALTH

You, too, can have it with these and at small cost by NATURAL MEANS—HERBS.

FAMOUS EUROPEAN HERBALIST OF THE

DR. THUNA

BALSAM REMEDIES, LIMITED will be IN PERSON at

NEW QUEEN'S HOTEL, BELLEVILLE, on FRIDAY, JULY 26th.

If you are ailing—don't neglect yourself. You owe it to yourself and your family to have Good Health. Why suffer needlessly—Give Nature a chance—

USE HERBS AND HERBAL REMEDIES

Avail yourself of the free opportunity to find out how you can get started on the Road Back to Good Health through Thuna Balsam. Full information FREE OF CHARGE. Don't forget the dates.

POLICIES UPHELD BY W. E. TUMMON

(Continued From Page 1)

Blinded to Facts

"You will hear all this criticism levelled at the Bennett administration, but when they hide the opposition merely blind themselves to the fact, that they are contrasting present times with the better conditions of the period some years ago."

"Why not, if contrasts are to be made, take world figures? It was clear to the Imperial Conference of Overseas that world trade during the years of depression had shrunk one-third. Canada then was sixth place in the list of leading nations. To-day by skilful handling she has gone into fifth place and is still climbing."

Mr. Tummon referring to Mackenzie King's record in office during more or less prosperous years and from a lad he held in his hand, cited the many promises King was claiming he made just previous to his election in 1919. "These promises were the planks upon which he got into office, into Office, but were any of them ever carried out?" asked the speaker.

Included among the promises said Mr. Tummon was the avowal intention of creating an eight hour working day and forty hour week, the abolition of child labor; the abolition of sweat shops, a system of industrial control, to safeguard the workers' interests and shape an industrial policy; to create adequate insurance against unemployment, sickness and dependence of old age; government action to deal with the unemployment problem; to prevent profiteering; payment of adequate wages to maintain a decent standard of living.

Appealed on Promises

"King appealed to the people of his country for election on these promises," reminded Mr. Tummon. "But did he ever carry them out? After he was elected? He remained there nine year, you know, plenty of time for him to bring out any policy he wished, but for fifteen years he was content to remain in a look he wrote— and then forgot about. Only part of one promise was ever carried out. It remained for Mr. Bennett to incorporate them in the statutes in 1925.

Since July 10, 1934, when the Provincial Parliament was summoned, it has received more money for relief purposes than the Henry government ever did, challenged Mr. Tummon.

"Yet, where's the work— how much of it is being carried on? How much of it was ever done?" he asked.

Under the Bennett regime, to list only a few things, pointed out the speaker, stabilization of the wheat market has occurred. A central bank for the purpose of extending credit has been set up, "and just on a side", continued Mr. Tummon, "it has been realized, that Mr. Bennett has been favoring the big interests. There has never been a member man who has waded into the interests as Bennett has done."

Further acts by the present government include the passing of the Natural Farm Products Act, the Credit Arrangement Act, the Farm Loan Act, thus lowering of interest rates in the country, the establishment of a new Tourist and Publicity Bureau, which, said the speaker, would bring millions in revenue to the country; the passing of the Unemployment Insurance Act, the Act embodying the eight hour day, the setting up of a Price Spreads Commission (originally framed through a motion made by Bennett himself on the floor of the House), the refinancing of loans of the Dominion and the Housing Act.

At the present time a trade treaty with the United States is fast being worked out by the present government, it was added.

"Contrast this record of achievement with that of the government before it," Mr. Tummon invited his listeners. "See for yourselves how it compares."

Most Important Term

In a serious vein Mr. Tummon pointed out: "The parliament elected by the people of this country for the next term will be the most important one since Confederation."

"We are entering a new cycle in the world. Reforms are coming. If these reforms are not brought forth in an orderly manner they will come some other way. The Bennett government is the only reform party, not the Liberals, who just sit back and do nothing but find fault. The Conservative party is not the 'reconstruction' party, it is the 'construction' party, and upon you must pin your faith and hope at this coming election."

Major M. Price, Actinolite, as an informal and easy address chairman, pointed out the fact that elections were too often just taken for granted. Often, he added, electors were too listless to go to the polls at all.

"But if I had my way, and was in the position to do so, I would make it an offence, punishable by law, for a qualified voter to fail to use his opportunity to cast his ballot," he declared.

The British born residents were the worst offenders in this matter, declared Major Price. In New Ontario, especially, three out of five of the voters were unable to speak English properly, yet the British-born people calmly stay home at election time and allow those elections to run the country by electing a man of their own choice and favor.

"When you vote" continued the speaker, "give a reason for marking the ballot the way you do. Find out for yourself the answers to these things you mostly need to know at election time. Then vote as you see fit."

So far the Liberal party has been very quiet, and very slow in the matter of giving the people some definite platform, stated Major Price, who drew a contrast between the statements of H. H. Stevens and the late R. B. Bennett from Mackenzie King. "This is one of my deepest criticisms of the opposite party; the people should, and are entitled to know just what is what before election day is here. Four representatives should be fair and talk it over with you."

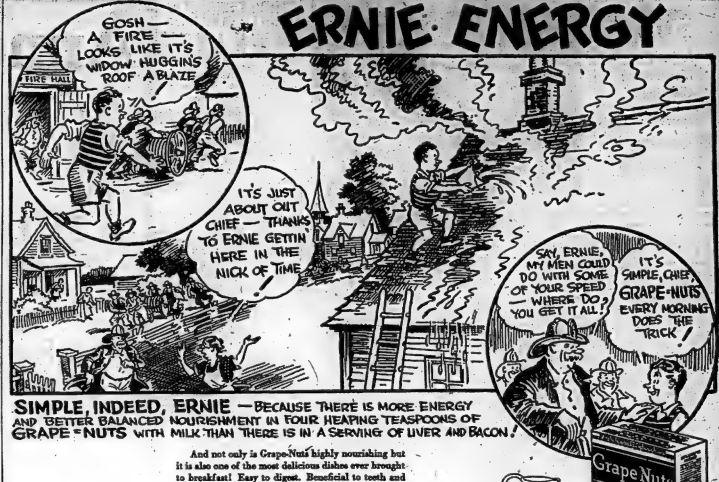
Government Not To Blame

Major Price referred to the recent period of slackness in employment.

"The depression was not brought about by any government, and it will not be cured by any government. We have been this all over the world, particularly in the United States. When depression struck there, Hoover who had been lauded to the skies, was kicked out of office. Roosevelt who arose as a savior and was elected as the only man who could restore prosperity has also failed to do the impossible by bringing back good times and also appears to be about finished. It was the fault of neither man, yet they are blamed.

"No government can revolutionize the economic conditions of the world."

Out of unity of nations, cramped and paralyzed by the depression England stands today as the only country working herself back to normality, pointed out Major Price. "The reason? In Britain and we see no great or sweeping turnover of government during the past few years as has been the case in other countries. The country has been the same, well represented governing body as always administering same government. England today is on top of the heap because of this. Because when the Englishman keeps his trusted men at the helm."



Work Minus Quantity

Although the present provincial government according to its claims has received more money for relief in the past year than the former government ever did, work for men was a minus quantity, declared Major Price. "People are picking blue berries at fifty cents the pail; there is nothing else to do," he added.

The highly advertised loan of $30,000,000 arranged by Premier Hepburn, declared Major Price, was not made up from the pockets of the smaller subscribers. "Do not be sure about this, and I also correct if it isn't so, but from what I hear, $1,700,000 of this came from the Workmens' Compensation Board; some $7,000,000 from the Liquor Control Board, and $8,000,000 from the Hydro Electric Power Commission. I hope we will in time, be given the full details of how this loan is subscribed," added the speaker.

"In Ontario one will better under the Hepburn administration than it was before!" asked Major Price. There are many more work to be had; is labor or wages any better off or is there any more money in your pocket? Not one political party can put in can make any difference."

Dear problems of agricultural

FAVORS MOTHER TO REAR CHILD

Senator Van Nuys Attacks Views of Lady Astor

Washington, July 23—(AP)—Senator Frederick Van Nuys, Democrat of Indiana, in a Senate speech today roundly criticized Lady Astor's views on the upbringing of children.

The Indianan described as "the most reprehensible statement from the public platform" in recent years a London dispatch quoting the former Nancy Langhorne of Virginia as telling an assembly of teachers that the duty of a mother being the best person to bring up a child was out of date.

Senator Van Nuys said Lady Astor, member of parliament, was quoted further as saying one of her sons recently complained she failed to take enough interest in him and by her views and if she had known as much then as now she would have been "a bit of a mother."

"England is welcome to her unsexed and expatriated Lady Astor and all of her ilk," the Senator said.

FRANCE SUGGESTS ITALIAN MANDATE

(By Richard O. Mamock, Associated Press Staff Writer)

Paris, July 23 (AP)—Authoritative quarters disclosed today France seeks a treaty giving Italy economic domination over Ethiopia in exchange for Italy's guarantee of Britain's nominal independence.

This treaty is sought, it was said, as the only likely preventative for war.

These same sources said France intended to use the forthcoming session of the League of Nations council at Geneva for the negotiation of the treaty. In it Italy would be given special privileges including immigration rights and would have, in return, to guarantee the sovereignty of the Ethiopian Emperor.

Ben Bernie and Grace Bradley get together in a scene from "Stolen Harmony," one of the few features opening to the Capitol on Thursday.

NORTH PROJECT MAKES PROGRESS

117 One on Relief Now Happily Situated And Happy

King, Ont., July 24 (CP)—Three miles from this town, 25 miles north of Toronto, there is a settlement of 74 homes. There 117 men, women and children—all from Toronto relief ranks, live happily and well.

The project, known as the King Ridge Settlement, was founded a year ago by Rev. Father F. J. McGoey. He began with 40 families and a loan of a 30-acre farm. Each family was given two acres to work and 50 chickens. The rest of the land was the community's.

Two cows and some pigs were put on the project. Crops were planted. Three months later they went off relief. By fall they had not only enough produce for the winter but were able to sell $70 worth of potatoes and carrots, St. Clare Parish, Toronto, gave all it's boy and girl which gave each family nearly $200.

This spring a 50-acre farm was purchased nearby and 17 more families were taken on. And in the original families was given a 10-acre plot, a cow, a horse and a seven-room home which everyone is helping to build.

"RED" RYAN ON TICKET OF LEAVE

Noted Criminal Has Become Model Prisoner, States Officials

Kingston, Ont., July 24.—(CP)—Norman J. "Red" Ryan, bank robber turned model prisoner, was a free man today, following an parole from a life sentence at Kingston Penitentiary he boarded a train here last night ,ostensibly for Toronto.

He had not arrived last night and his whereabouts were unknown. On July 2, when he was allowed to attend the funeral of his sister in Toronto he said if his long-rumored ticket-of-leave was granted he would enter business in Toronto.

Ryan entered upon a life of crime 25 years ago, when right of a bicycle took him before Juvenile Court. Serving in the Great War with the Princess Pats, later joining the Foreign Legion, Ryan returned to Ontario to participate in a series of bungalow and shootings.

He was sentenced to Kingston Penitentiary. With four companions he set a fire in the prison and under cover of the smoke climbed over the wall to freedom shortly after his imprisonment. A few days later a Toronto bank was looted under gunfire.

A companion, Arthur Sullivan, was killed in the battle with police in which Ryan was captured in Minneapolis in December, 1922. In June 1924, he returned to Kingston under life sentence and thirty strokes of the the lash. The lashes were later remitted. Ryan has been in jail since.

Ryan, however, has since become a model prisoner. His quiet temperament and good behavior have drawn favorable comment He is reported to have taken an interest in gardening and improved the prison grounds.

Ryan estimated he obtained $300,000 during his life of crime and squandered most of it with his footsteps. His prison sentences totalled, 60 years, With time off for good behavior he had been able, however, to join the Canadian troops overseas.

SIDNEY CROSSING COMMUNITY NEWS

Sidney Crossing—Mr. Lee Grills is a patient of the Belleville General Hospital. He recently underwent an operation for mastoid, but is gaining nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Patrick of Hinckley, Minnesota, also Mr. and Mrs. Manford Nelson and son John of Axton, Minnesota accompanied by Miss Annie Sickle of Johnstown, spent Wednesday last with Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hagle.

The many friends of Mr. Albert Page were sorry to learn that he is suffering from a broken nose and service followed, during which Misses Edith and Ila Hogle sang "The Glory Song."

A number of the neighbourhood attended the "Circuit Picnic" at Oak Lake on Thursday of last week.

A special selection at Aikins Sunday School on Sunday was a piano duet by Mrs. Harleigh Hamilton and Miss Zilma Wheeler, which everyone appreciated. The church service followed, during which Misses Edith and Ila Hogle sang "The Glory Song."

"The Car that has Everything"

But High Price and High Upkeep

The Oldsmobile Six Four-Passenger DeLuxe Convertible Coupe

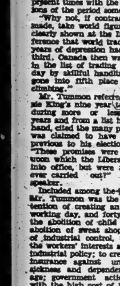
MANY influences guide the buyer's choice of a new car. Some people are attracted by appearance, some by performance and riding comfort. For others there are the appeals of economy, reputation and dependability. Oldsmobile Six meets your considerations from all these standpoints, because it is "The Car That Has Everything."

No car on the market has a finer reputation for dependability than Oldsmobile. Few measure up to the beauty of its streamline design. Features for features, Oldsmobile holds its own in any company, with solid steel "Turret Top" Bodies by Fisher; Hydraulic Brakes; Knee Action; Synchro-Mesh Transmission; No-draft Ventilation, and other modern developments.

In spite of all this an Oldsmobile Six costs but a hundred dollars or so more than the average small car. Operating economies are no greater. But see for yourself. Drive the Six or Straight Eight. Discover why so many people say no many nice things about this great automobile.

PRICED FROM $1053

One Six 2 wd. 2-pass. Coupe) Prices f.o.b. factory, Oshawa, fully equipped. Convenient Instalment Terms Arranged.



Prices for 2 wd. Models Belleville, begin at $1385

J. B. BOYCE

CHEVROLET, OLDSMOBILE, BUICK, PONTIAC

SALES AND SERVICE

348-50 Front Street Belleville Phone 704

Poison Ivy, Insect Bites and Sunburn are quickly relieved by this proven medicated treatment. Dr. Chase's Ointment. Clear, healing and lasting. Get it at your druggist's today.

EXPERT FUR Repairs
Modernizing
Cleaning (Protection)
SUMMER PRICES
Woodley's Furriers
BELLEVILLE'S OLDEST FUR STORE

Lewis Stone, Marilyn Knowlden and Freddie Bartholomew in a scene from Charles Dickens' famous romance "David Copperfield" coming to the Belle, Thursday only.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clark, Toronto, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hooke, Lima, Ohio, are visiting in the city, the guests of Mr. John Thompson and Mr. William Clark.

Rev. Dr. J. Bruce Hunter and Mrs. Hunter, formerly of Vancouver, visited in Belleville enroute to Dr. Hunter's new charge at Montreal. They were the guests of Mrs. F. E. O'Flynn, while in town.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Griffin and the Misses Dora and Marion Osborne have returned to the city after a ten days' cruise on the Great Lakes and a visit at Wasaga Beach.

Mr. J. T. Lascombe returned to Chicago after spending the last two weeks visiting his mother and sister, 264 Coleman Street.

Mr. F. W. Pindall, Trenton, R. A. Eastern Ontario checker champion and winner of the checker silver cup on March 21st, 1935, at the Y.M.C.A. is leaving for Prescott on Wednesday for some holidays.

Miss John A. Bush, Mrs. William Perry, Mrs. John R. Bush, Miss "Peggy" Jury, Reg. N., Miss Edith Bush left on a motor trip today for Montreal, Hawkesbury and Ottawa, where they will spend a week visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniels and daughters, Muriel and Cynthia, Toronto, are visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wallace, Highland Avenue.

Mrs. Fred Thomas and son Stanley, of Rochester, N.Y., are visiting relatives in the city.

Miss Gertrude Fisher and Miss Frieda York, Howard Street, are spending a week's holiday at Rice Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Olde, Mr. and Mrs. H. Moles and Miss Maples of Toronto, also Miss Olde of Smith's Falls have returned home after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. T. Hopkins, Station Street.

The first dance sponsored this season by the Tennis Club of the Bay of Quinte Country Club last evening proved one of the most successful of summer dances. Over one hundred guests were present. Many were from out of town, including about fifteen from Tweed. The spacious club room was an ideal setting for the affair which continued until about two o'clock. Music was furnished by Jack Grant and his Aces, who provided a delightful program. At midnight refreshments were served. Arrangements for the dance were in charge of Mr. Bill Hurst, secretary-treasurer, and acting president of the Tennis Club.

Weddings

RAY—HOGLE

A quiet wedding took place on Saturday evening, July 20th at the United Church Parsonage, Ivanhoe, when Bernice, second daughter of Mrs. M. E. Hogle became the bride of Phillip Ray, only son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ray, Centreton. Rev. H. H. Lackey performed the ceremony.

The bride was becomingly attired in a navy crepe ensemble with white fedora hat and white accessories. Immediately following the ceremony the happy couple left on a motor trip to points west and on their return they will reside in Sidney.

DOIG—LEWIS

Christ Church was the scene of a charming wedding at eight o'clock this morning when Muriel Mary, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Lewis became the bride of Mr. Ernest H. Doig, Toronto, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Doig. Rev. A. L. Geen, who had officiated at the marriage of the bride's cuties.

parents, performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely frock of pale blue chiffon with matching hat. She carried the prayer book which her mother had carried at her wedding.

Mrs. Ton Lewis was matron of honor and wore a dainty frock of pink organdy with matching hat. Her flowers were summer blossoms in pastel tones.

Mr. John Lewis, brother of the bride, was groomsman.

After the ceremony wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, intimate friends and relatives being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Doig will take up residence in Trenton.

BENNY—CHAMBERS

A quiet wedding took place at the United Church Parsonage in Stannonville on Saturday evening, July 20th, 1935, uniting in marriage Mr. James Bell Benny of Kaladar, Ontario, and Miss Ella May Chambers, daughter of the late William Chambers and Mrs. Chambers of Crookston.

The marriage service was conducted by Rev. W. H. Clarke and the witnesses for the ceremony were Mr. Fred Adams of Thomasburg and Miss Ruby Wood of Stannonville, sister of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Benny will reside at Kaladar, where Mr. Benny is railway section foreman for the C.P.R.

TWO DAY STRIKE ENDS

Terre Haute, Ind., July 24 (AP) —A two-day general strike that tied up transportation service and closed the doors of nearly every store in this city of 66,000 ended officially today. But some 1,100 guardsmen who placed the city under military control remained on duty as violence continued while Federal Labor Department conciliators pressed for a complete settlement of worker-employer difficulties.

STUDY PROBLEMS OF N. AMERICA

Institute on Economics Will Meet at Lake Couchiching

Canadian-American relations will be the main theme of inquiry in lecture courses, forums, and evening meetings at the Canadian Institute on Economics and Politics to be held at Y.M.C.A. Park, Lake Couchiching, Ontario, from August 8 to 17.

The principal courses of lectures are being given by noted American publicists and educators, Dr. George Albert Coe of Columbia University Dr. Quincy Wright of Chicago University, and Bruce Bliven, editor of the New Republic. Sir Robert A. Falconer, former president of the University of Toronto, is chairman of the committee and will preside at the Institute. He will also address an evening meeting on the subject "Education in North America Can Problem". Among the other evening speakers will be Prof. R. G. Trotter of Queen's University, J. M. Macdonnell, General Manager, National Trust Company; Hon. Newton W. Rowell and Hon. David Croll.

Owing to the International character of the Institute, registration for the Institute are being received from the United States as well as Canada. These include not only students of affairs and specialists in various fields but men and women with no pretension to experteess in such matters who are concerned about the present situation.

The subject chosen for consideration has been defined as "the common concern of Canada and the United States in the areas of domestic and foreign policies, with special reference to the relations between the two countries". The Institute committee makes the statement that "there can be no question of the importance of such a subject or its timeliness in the face of the ominous drift of world politics in recent months". Dr. Coe, who is acting as a social philosophy, will deal with the psychological factors in social conflict. The foreign policies of the two countries will be discussed by Dr. Quincy Wright, and their political economy programs by Bruce Bliven. Further information, rates for accommodation etc., may be had from Mr. J. E. Shortt, Secretary of the local Y.M.C.A.

Unnecessary Operation Of Trucks On Sunday Comes Under Ban

Unnecessary operation of commercial motor vehicles on Sunday will result in suspension or revocation of permits according to notice issued to owners and operators of such commercial motor vehicles issued by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles, J. P. Bickell.

Belleville police department has received a copy of the notice which reads:—

"In view of the growing tendency on the part of owners of commercial motor vehicles to operate or permit the operation of such vehicles on Sunday, notice is hereby given of the intention of the Department to suspend or revoke the permits of vehicles here after found being operated unnecessarily on public highways on Sundays. A very limited number of trucks must of necessity be operated on Sunday in connection with the transportation of milk. There is of course no intention to interfere with their operation. The operation of commercial motor vehicles other than those moving perishable goods is contrary to the laws regarding Sunday observance and in addition tends to further congest the highways on the only day of the week, when many operators of passenger cars can use them.

"The authority for suspending motor vehicle permits for unnecessary Sunday operation is contained in section 20 of the Highway Traffic Act."

Announcing the Opening

OF BELLEVILLE'S NEW

Health Institute

SPECIALIZING IN MINERAL FUME TREATMENTS

231 William St. Corner of William & Queen

Telephone 1182

SATURDAY, JULY 27

(from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. on this date)

Investigate This New Way to Health

We invite you to call and inspect our institute. We really have something worth while to show you. Courteous attendants will show you around and explain to you our system.

Appointments can be made at the same time. A special offer to those visiting the Health Institute on opening day will be made.

Mineral Fume Treatments are the most up-to-date method yet devised for the proper treatment of Arthritis, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuritis, Lumbago, Nervous Disorders and all forms of Head and Chest Colds.

Our treatments are preventive as well as curative. We have a private parlor for Ladies only, with Miss Thelma E. Strickland in charge; also private parlor for gentlemen only, with Mr. Alec E. Strickland in charge, and the entire institute is under the personal supervision of MRS. E. P. STRICKLAND, Graduate Nurse.

You are guaranteed privacy, spotless cleanliness, courteous treatment and the probability of abundant health.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION AND BOOKING OF PATIENTS ONLY ON SATURDAY.

OPEN FOR GENERAL BUSINESS ON MONDAY, JULY 29th AT 9 a.m.

"The Place of Greatest Possibilities"

Current Attractions at Local Theatres

What Local Theatre Managers Have to Say About Current Offerings

AT THE CAPITOL

"Casino Murder Case" and "Stolen Harmony" With Ben Bernie

While patrons of the Capitol are maintaining their undiminished interest in the two features now current, "The Line-Up" and "Village Tale", unusual interest is being displayed in the forthcoming engagement of "Stolen Harmony" and "The Casino Murder Case," the two features that will be shown the last three days of the week.

Perhaps no greater radio personage has ever been seen on the screen than Ben Bernie, whose fans are legion on the air. In "Stolen Harmony" he is being co-featured with George Raft. Along with his jaded bandsmen, Bernie leads his boys on a trans-continental barnstorming tour in a large bus. One of the members of the band is an ex-convict, Raft, whom Bernie has given a job in an effort to help the lad go straight. When money is missing things look bad for Raft, but Grace Bradley, also a member of the troupe, persuades him to stick it out and clear himself.

Enroute between towns, the band is kidnapped by desperadoes who intend to use the bus for their getaway. Raft sees his chance and makes the criminals believe he is one of them, then by a clever ruse, outwits them and turns them over to the police.

Bernie's band delight the audience with several novelty numbers and George Raft is seen as a dancer. He is ably supported by Grace Bradley and a cast of exceptionally clever performers. The picture is full of comedy and action.

No less entertaining is the second feature in which are such well-known players as Paul Lukas, Alison Skipworth, Isabel Jewell, Rosalind Russell, Eric Blore and Louise Fazenda. "The Casino Murder Case" provides an excellent vehicle for the talents of these popular players. Paul Lukas assumes the role of Philo Vance the perfect detective, who solves an almost perfect crime. The unraveling of the mystery is both skillfully and entertainingly played by this superb cast.

The latest news from Fox Movietone, newsreel will also be seen.

AT THE BELLE

"David Copperfield"

Return Engagement of the Most Outstanding Motion Picture, Thursday Only.

After hundreds of requests by letter and telephone, the management is pleased to announce the return of "David Copperfield" at the Belle Theatre.

"David Copperfield" will be shown both in the afternoon, commencing at 2.30, also again in the evening at 7.00 and 9.10 p.m. (Two complete performances) tomorrow (Thursday) for the one day only.

The great charm of this picture is the fact that it has something of interest for everybody. Those who love romance will find it here in abundance. Those who love spectacle will find it big enough to please anybody. Those who love comedy will chuckle and roar, for the humorous aspects of the original story have been emphasized.

Perhaps the most important thing "David Copperfield" accomplished besides giving the world a new high standard of entertainment, is to bring out a new child star. He is little Freddie Bartholomew, who appears to be eight or ten years old. Such wistful boyishness was never seen on the screen before. In moments he is reminiscent of the Jackie Coogan that first came to the world with Charlie Chaplin in "The Kid", for little Freddie Bartholomew has that same indefinable quality of wistful eagerness. But in fact he is like no child you ever saw before. He is a sensational "Find".

Among the score of favorites, besides this new child wonder, in the cast are W. C. Fields, Lionel Barrymore, Maureen O'Sullivan, Madge Evans, Edna May Oliver, Lewis Stone, Elisabeth Allen, Roland Young, Basil Rathbone, and many other featured players.

The story of "David Copperfield" has been followed with fidelity. Beginning with the day of his birth, the picture takes David through his boyhood with his mother and the stern Mr. Murdstone, his stepfather; takes him to Yarmouth and Peggoty clan and little Em'ly; to London and his unhappy apprenticeship in a warehouse after his mother's death; to Dr. Blackmore's where he learns to pawn silver teaspoons; to Aunt Betsey's at Dover, where he has his first touch of sweetness and care; to the Micawber's, where he meets Agnes and Uriah Heep and learns to love the former and hate the latter, to London where he meets and falls in love with and marries the winsome Dora and so through Dora's death, the unmasking of Uriah Heep's villainy by Mr. Micawber and a screamingly funny scene . . . to his love for Agnes, and its revelation of her love for him.

To guarantee your enjoyment of this famous story by Charles Dickens' depicted on the screen with such stirring beauty and tenderness.

"Naughty Marietta"

Do not forget that the Belle theatre is bringing back to its screen for one day only, Friday, July 26th., Victor Herbert's greatest musical romance "Naughty Marietta" with Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy. (Please Note) these two days are important ones to you. Thursday at the Belle "David Copperfield"; Friday at the Belle "Naughty Marietta".

Don't let cheap soaps send your clothes to the RAG BAG!

■ Do you realize that the harsh action of cheap, common soaps injures the threads in fabrics, causing thin weak spots and frayed edges?

■ Don't let that happen in your home. Use Sunlight, the all-pure soap. There is nothing in it to hurt even the finest linens. Sunlight's rich gentle suds loosen dirt without hard rubbing. All you have to do is to soak the clothes in Sunlight suds—then rinse. Sunlight protects all the clothes in the wash and makes them last longer.

■ Being all pure soap, Sunlight dissolves readily and the thick, creamy, lasting suds that are so easy on your hands, go to work at once. What a lovely, sweet-smelling wash Sunlight gives. Coloured things look like new and table linen as white as snow.

■ The $5000 guarantee of purity on the Sunlight carton means protection for your clothes, your hands—your pocketbook, too! For easier wash days get a supply of Sunlight next time you shop.

Lever Brothers Limited
Soapmakers by Appointment to their Excellencies the Governor-General and Viscountess of Bessborough

GETS A CHANCE

DORIS WESTER

Fresh from the amateurs, Doris Wester is reported to have signed a contract for $250 a week to sing in RCA Radio's Rainbow room, New York city.

Scientific HY-TOX KILLS all INSECTS

EVERYONE ADMIRES ME SINCE I GAINED 10 POUNDS

Gain weight quickly this new easy way!

4 to 15 pounds often gained in few weeks with C. C. & B. Tonic Tablets

Don't be called "skinny" and "scrawny" any longer. You can be as attractive as pounds become now it is so easy. Just one tablet with each meal. Watch those ugly hollows fill out and round your figure's curves—and in a short time you'll be simply delighted with results, or your money will be refunded. (See offer below.) Thousands have gained as much as 15 pounds after all other methods failed. You will marvel at the new vitality, new pep, new energy and new vigor you get. Clear skin indigestion, blemishes and constipation ended, too, ravishing health.

3 Tonics in 1—That is why C. C. & B. Tonic Tablets Build You Up

C. C. & B. Tonic Tablets contain Yeast, Iron and extract of Cod Liver in highly concentrated form. Supplying the system with the necessary elements to make rich, red blood. Blood that carries new health and vitality to every part of the body. Blood that builds up those hollows with pounds of firm flesh. Blood that brings new health and energy. Blood that helps you to gain weight quickly.

Make This Money Back Test!

Get two packages from your druggist (cost $2.50) and use as directed. If you don't gain 10 pounds and feel 100% better in every way, return the empty packages and your $2.50 will be returned to you. No questions asked. If your druggist cannot supply you, send $2.50 to Vitamin Laboratories, 32 Front St., West, Dept. B, Toronto, Ont.

C. C. & B. Tonic Tablets will cover these 5 ills: Poor blood, constipation, indigestion, skin blemishes and lack of energy. Don't accept substitutes.

REALIZE Your WANTS BY READING Other Peoples WANT ADS

UP TO 100. EACH PAID FOR U. S. INDIAN HEAD CENTS
We buy all coins regardless of condition, but we do want to pay full value for them. Send cash, by return mail, for each one listed. Up to $100. each for certain dates. Send 10c for our Large Illustrated Coin Folder. Send today. Only 5 cents. Coin, Box 2442, Toronto. Write for free buying prices list and instructions. Satisfaction guaranteed or coin returned.
HUB COIN SHOP
146-148 FRONT ST. E. TORONTO, ONTARIO

Business Directory

AUTO LOANS
AND REFINANCING
Direct from Owner Car Financing
ALL OVER CANADA
S. J. FISHER & SON
25 Bridge St. East, Belleville Phone 128
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto - Ottawa - London - Windsor

CHIROPRACTOR
R. A. WYATT, PH.C., CHIROPRACTOR and Electro-Therapeutic Specialist. Examination and treatment. Graduate Chiropractic Institute, Toronto. Electro-therapeutic treatments. Consultation and examination free. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. Evenings by appointment. Phone 1000. 178 Colborne St., corner Bridge, Belleville, Ontario.

WANTED
WHITE HALLOW BEDS AT 70 APTHOR. Apply Thomas Marmaris. 224-tf

DENTIST
DR. ROST. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-RAY
Phone 68 203½ Front St. Belleville

RADIO SERVICE
JOHN A. DEWAR
RADIO TECHNICIAN
Graduate
Phone 217 Belleville 41-tf

SURVEYORS
FRASER AYLESWORTH,
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Provincial Civil Engineer, Architect, Fire, Plans and Specifications, Surveys, Estimates and Reports a Specialty. P. O. BOX 46 Napanee, Ont.

INSURANCE
Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY, BURROWS
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
261 Front St. - Phone 139

REAL ESTATE
HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Sickness
Real Estate and Valuations
278 Front St. Phone 1156-W

STOCKS & BONDS
HOGSAN AND CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 37, 8 Wills, Trenton. 82-dy

LEGAL
WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND CO. (Successors to the late F. A. Wallbridge). Barristers, Solicitors, etc. Money to loan. Dominion Chambers, Belleville. Ontario. Cable address "Cameron."
MALCOLM WILSON MACKENZIE, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, Etc. Office: Campbell Block, Belleville.
T. W. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public, Etc. 13 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 48.
PORTER, PATER AND ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. A. Payne, K.C. R. D. Arnott, Counsel for Bank of Montreal.
HUTTON AND GRAHAM, BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Money to loan at lowest rates. Offices: Bank of Montreal, Money to loan at lowest rates. Offices: Bank of Montreal, Belleville. Ontario. Solicitors for the Bank of Montreal.
DUNNAN AND BUTLER, B. C. Dunnan, K.C. E. G. Butler, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, etc. Solicitors for Dominion Bank. Belleville, Ont. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, Belleville, Ont. Phone 238.

Front St. STORE
To-Let
No. 326
Formerly occupied by McCormick's Studio. Large window, valuable corner, well decorated. Living apartment upstairs.
IMMEDIATE POSSESSION
Belleville Locators
186 Front Street
GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.
Phone 30 House Phone 467

PHONE 99
Classified Ad. Rates
DEATH NOTICES—Births, Etc.: Maximum 50 words, $1.00 for first insertion and 75 cents for each subsequent insertion. IN MEMORIAM NOTICES—Maximum 50 words, $1.00 for first insertion and 75 cents for each subsequent insertion. ANNOUNCEMENTS—(For Sale, Wanted, Lost, Found, Personal, Etc.) Maximum 25 words, one insertion 25c, each subsequent insertion 10c. Over 25 words, one cent per word for first insertion and ½ cent per word for each subsequent insertion. CARD OF THANKS—75c per insertion. BUSINESS CARDS—$5.00 per line per year. LEGAL AND REAL ESTATE CARDS (Farms, Town Property, Etc.)—$1.00 per line per month. TRADE NOTICES (including Auction Sales, Lost Cattle, Strayed Animals, etc.)—$1.00 per insertion. DISPLAY RATES—Per inch per month, $3.00. Contract rates for yearly, half-yearly and quarterly advertisements. CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS—Cash with order. Charge accounts will be opened for regular customers. Minimum charge for any advertisement, 25c. Advertisements may be sent by telephone, subject to confirmation by mail. Phone 99.
Lost—Bunch of keys between Bridge and Front. Finder please leave at Intelligencer office. 224-1

TICKELL & BROWNE
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
We Serve for Less
FUNERAL HOME
Corner Church St., and Victoria Ave. Phone 2238

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
37 Campbell St.
Phone 276—Night and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Monuments Cryps For Sale

Thomas O. Thompson
Funeral Director
Funeral Home
333 Front St. Phone 48
Office
333 Front St. Phone 48

BELLEVILLE MADOC BUS
Leaves Madoc ..... 8.00 a.m.
Leaves Belleville ... 4.30 p.m.
Daily except Sunday
Parcel Express
PHONE 1340

Notice
Re Water Rates
The last day for allowing the 20% discount on water rates will be Thursday, July 20th, 1933. Positively discount will be allowed after that date. Do not delay payment until the last day. Office hours 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
H. B. STOCK,
City Treasurer.
222-31

EAST ONTARIO NOT AFFECTED
Chats Falls Operations Apply to Niagara Area, Says Lyon
Any work that is being done at Chats Falls has nothing to do with the Ontario Hydro Electric and no money will be taken from the Commission's funds, Premier James A. Simpson, chairman of the Ontario Municipal Association, is also president of the Niagara Power Interest. There are 150 delegates present.
Mr. Lyon, who is the first one called when the meeting got underway shortly after two o'clock and who was followed by Premier Simpson, will be told the gathering, that he was going to read a statement from the Premier Hon. Mitchell F. Hepburn in which was stated, that Eastern Ontario will be left unfected in any way by the work now being done at Chats Falls. Nipissing District only is interested in this work. The Hydro Commission will be much in dispute at the present time, Mr. Lyon stated, that although the Chats Falls not affected as only 82,000 h.p. was used in this district. However, if needed, apply to Isabel street.
224-21

HOUSE WITH GARAGE AND TWO acres land. Apply on premises, Cannifton road. Phone 3079-W. 222-31

HALF HOUSE NORTH FRONT STREET, Belleville. All modern conveniences. Possession immediately. Apply 34 Bridge East. 224-tf

FIVE ROOM HOUSE at MURRAY ST., reasonable rent. Apply W. Orvis, 35 Wills St., Trenton, Ont. 224-tf

SEVERAL UNFURNISHED, HEATED rooms, suitable for offices. Apply Bleecker avenue. Apply on premises.

Notice
On and after this date I will not be responsible for any article of mine contracted in my name without my written order or consent.
Dated at Belleville, Ontario, this 22nd day of July, 1935.
R. S. McPHERSON.
222-21

LOST
BOX OF LADIES' WEARING APPAREL, between Belleville and Frankford. Phone 661. 224-1x

Temperature as High But Seems Cooler
"Cooler today", commented citizens who once more breathed freely following a break in the excessive humidity of the past few days.
Yet, official registrations at the city filtration plant reveal that 90-day recording of temperatures, has been as hot as any day this week.
At noon thermometers registered a warm 86 degrees, with the respiration that during the heat of the afternoon a mark of 88 or 90 would be reached.
Relief came today however through cooler breezes and drier air. Humidation was more a mild 50-day making it appear cooler.

HOLIDAY INSURANCE. $5000 for $1.00
We insure you against Accident while on holiday and will pay: IN THE EVENT OF YOUR DEATH BY ACCIDENT ... $5,000
LOSS OF BOTH FEET OR HANDS 5,000
ONE FOOT OR HAND or SIGHT of ONE EYE ... 2,500
TOTAL DISABILITY (limit of 52 weeks) ... per week 25
The rates are: 4 days $1.; 7 days $2; 15 days $4; 30 days $5.
We also insure your baggage at very low rates. For anything in this line of insurance telephone us.
JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Phone 1344 157 Front St.

FINANCIAL MARKETS
NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Board Room Gossip
As supplied to Bigger and Crawford by Financial Service.
Gamage Gold.
When the public got light to subscribe to low-stock at 70 cents a share exploited week, the Gamage stock was quoted at considerably below the offering price of 70 cents, when the company announced the offering of new stock it stated that an option had been given to someone to take up to all stock not taken up by shareholders. No name has been mentioned in this connection but it is rumored on the street that those who were responsible for last year's sharp run up in the stock are again interested in the stock.
With two bullish factors in its favor International Nickel lost no time in developing strength this week. First, as reported by Financial Service yesterday, the selling of a large block of stock has been completed, and secondly, there is a noticeable increase in the interest in shares of copper producers. As Canada's largest copper producer, Nickel stands to benefit very materially from the recent sharp increase in the price of that metal, and the latest world production restriction agreement appears to be working smoothly. It is more than likely that Mr. Taylor rise in the price of copper may be reflected this week.

In his regular column in Barron's, The Trader expresses himself as follows this week:
In view of the overreaching tactics attempted before this year, by promoters and on account of the time of the year, it is possible that the market may run some and, in individual instances experience some further readjustment to the advantage of the investor. Barring wild-eyed federal legislation, however, it is difficult to look upon any of serious liquidation. Meantime, signs are multiplying in the motor, steel, machine tool, railroad equipment, and, latterly, retail trade, of an improving pick-up in business which could easily develop, by fall, into a high order of activity. Some of these industries third-quarter comparisons should prove unusually favorable. The investment attitude therefore, beginning to assert itself in the speculative field, would not be quite possibly long before fall, should give a definite complexion of stock speculation.

Building Products Limited appears to stand prominently in line among those firms that have benefited from the Dominion Housing scheme. The $100,000,000 to be provided by the government should provide over $50,000,000 of new residential construction. In this connection it is interesting to recall that last year residential construction was announced to be between thirty and thirty-five million dollars.
In 1934 Building Products earned $1.00 a share on its 120,846 shares, exclusive of profits on sale of securities on investments sold. The company is paying dividends at the rate of $1.00 per annum and, in addition, a bonus of 25 cents a share was paid on January 2 of this year.

Mr. Lyon advised that the organization of the Eastern District Hydro-Electric Power Commission could be trusted to look after the affairs of this district without representation from the Municipal Association on the Hydro Board. He also stated that he had published that every municipality in Eastern Ontario with the exception of Oshawa, had a credit bill for the 13th Bill. It was also stated that the net revenue for the eight months of 1934 was $76,313.00 while for the same period for 1935 the amount was given at $167,357.00.

BROKERS CLEARED OF IMPUTATION
Found to Have Had No Hand in Stock Depression
Toronto, July 24—(CP)—Toronto brokers had no hand in the depressing of the price of chemical stocks, it was officially declared and applied, according to the findings of the Mining Exchange Committee which investigated all transactions in stock between June 18 and July 18. The committee reported total transactions by members of the exchange, their firms or partners in the period was only 1,400 shares. Trading done by firm public in the period under review amounted to only 39,736 shares, says the report.

WALL STREET FINANCIAL
New York, July 24 (AP)—The stock market settled down to a quiet trading affair today and fluctuations in all groups were narrow with the exception of farm implement shares which showed a good demand at advances of 1 to 3 points.
Hiram Walker Canadian company paced a narrow price range maintained by International Nickel, Deere, Canadian Pacific, Case, Allied Chemical, Sears Roebuck, Liggett and Myers "B", Kennecott and Standard of N. J.
Farm implement shares setting up 3 points higher included J. I. Case, Deere and International Harvester. American Can also improved 1½ points and United Aircraft and Public Service of N. J. gained about a point each. Union Pacific lost more than 2 points under equally light offerings.

TORONTO MINES
(Closing)
Toronto, July 24 (CP)—Another session of generally firm prices on the Toronto Stock Exchange marked the Mining Share Market of the Twenty-Fifth Exchange today. Silver shared had a morning flurry but failed to hold their gains and there was a new rush for Base Metal and Gold shares while the Senior Yellow Metal Issues were mainly higher with good volume in evening. Prices showed few net variations at the close.
Senior Gold Stocks displayed strength in the early trading today and silver shares were higher on sizeable volume but, with a few exceptions, prices closed at about the gold stocks were heavy.
Base Metals were mainly leader on the up side, gaining 40 cents to 10.70 while Lake Shore advanced 30 cents to 10.70 and Noranda gained to 13.70. Bralorne was another leader, up 30 cents.
In the cheaper group McWatters was a leader and it touched 1.35 but retreated finally closing to around 1.30 where it was up 7 cents. McKenzie Red Lake Gravels were firm to strong and Sisco and Pickle Crow firmer.
Higher prices ruled in the silvers and base metals for Castle, Premier, Sherritt and Siscoe.

TORONTO STOCKS, CLOSE
Toronto, July 24 (CP)—Price advances were not at all plentiful on the Toronto section of the Toronto Exchange today and the weight of selling pressure the down side for a moderate extent. Liquor shares again led in volume, Walkers common registering a gain of 3¼ points and Hiram Walker Canadian Distillers showing a gain of 2 points. Canada Malting was another fraction but the liquors and oils were lower with exception of Walkers preferred. The latter issue rebounded about a half point from Tuesday's close. Steels, Golds and Base Metals and Imperial Oil eased back about ¼ each.
Selling was moderately active in Ford A and C.P.R. and the former weakened ¼ to 36. Industrial Alcohol A was one of the day's soft spots selling below 9 for a loss of a half point.

NEW YORK CLOSE
New York, July 24—(AP)— The stock market developed only a fairly wide advance during late trading today. Furnessen gains were limited to a few points and the outstanding shares and miscellaneous specialties made the group selling 1 to 2 points higher.
At the beginning of the final hour profession shares looked well above Tuesday's final levels included Bethlehem Steel, Gen. Electric, Mc-Clelland Stores, Montgomery Ward, U. S. Rubber First Preferred, A. Case International Harvester, Deere, Cerro De Pasco and Radio Preferred A. Steel and General Motors were unchanged to a small fraction higher. The late hour rally in Sales approximated 1,150,000 shares.

Tokyo, July 24.—(CP-Havas)—Japan is willing to make a separate naval treaty with Great Britain as a result of the talks, it might be arranged, a naval office spokesman intimated today in an interview with Havas.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Bigger and Crawford, H. Wills, branch manager, Quotations at 2.15.

MINES

Acme	13
Alex	30½
Ashley	10
Anglo Hur.	390½
Brwh. Tech.	1-2B
Barry Hollinger	3 1-2B
Base Metals	63B
Bear Ex.	67
Bobjo	19B
Big Missouri	2T
Bagamac	3 3-4B
Brabens	190½
Brownlee	1-4B
BRX	2 1-4B
Buffalo Ank.	270B
Castle Tr.	103B
Can. Kirk.	1 1-4B
Can. Malar.	63B
Central Pat.	14
Chemical Research	12T
Coast Copper	200B
Chicago	18 1-2
Clericy	3 1-2B
Columbia	185B
Dome	37 8-4B
Eldorado	180
Falconbridge	290
Gilbec	1 1-4B
God's Lake	166B
Goldale	13B
Great Sl.	213
Harker	3 5-4B
Home Oil	50B
Hollinger	1250
Howey	70
Hudson Bay	18 1-4B
J. M. Cons.	18
Kirk. Towns.	12 1-2B
Kirk. Lake	1-2B
Lake Maron	3 1-4B
Lake Shore	80 3-4
Lebel	4 1-2
Lee Gold	3 1-2B

TORONTO

Bell Telephone	130.
B.A., Oil	8 3-4
Brewing Corp.	3 1-4B.
Bras. Thor.	8 1-2.
Can. Bud Brewery	6 1-2B.
Can. Cement	63.
Can. Dredge	7 1-2.
Can. Ind. Alcohol	8 5-8B.
C.P.R.	10 1-4.
Can. Malting	34.
Can. Vinegar	12 3-4B.
Canada Cem.	2 3-4B.
Cons. Bakeries	14 1-2B.
Con. Smelting	170B.
Dominion Stores	8A.
Dist., Seagrams	37 1-2.
Fanny Farmer	8.
Ford "A"	36.
Gypsum	1 1-2B.
Goodyear	70A.
Gen. Steel	1 1-2.
Imper. Tobacco	13 5-8B.
Imp. Tobacco	12 3-4B.
Lobley	14.
Massey Harris	4 1-2.
Mont. Power	32 1-2B.
McColl-Frontenac	18½.
Power Corp.	72B.
Steel of Canada	50.
Supertest	27 1-4B.
Shawinigan	98 1-2.
Walker's	38 1-4.
Walker Pfd.	17 1-2.
Waterville Brewery	2 7-8B.

New York.

American Tel.	127.
Amer Pow Power	4.
American Radiator	17.
Anaconda	16¾.
Auburn	22¾.
Case Ab.	76.
Chrysler	56½.
General Electric	22.
General Motors	37¼.
Electric Auto Lite	25¾.
Inter. Harvester	36¾.
North American	17¾.
Montgomery Ward	34½.
Phillips Pet.	21.
Radio	8¼.
Standard Oil of N J	46¾.
Standard Brands	16¾.
Stewart Warner	12½.
U. S. Steel	61¼.
United Aircraft	16½.
Vanadium	16.
Wellington	60½.
Lake Sup.	40.
Macassa	152.
Manitoba	13.
Mar. & S.	3.
Maple Leaf	3.
McIntyre	39½.
McKenzie	128.
McMillan	4.
McWatters	130.
Noranda	1.40.
Noranda	371½B.
Obrien	33B.
Parkhill	7½B.
Paymaster	29¼.
Pet. C	35½B.
Perron	50B.
Pend Or	8½.
Pickle Cr.	225.
Pioneer	10.50.
Premier	16.
Pros Air	145B.
Read Auth	99B.
Reno	119B.
San Antonio	245.
Sherritt G	62.
Sisco	30.
Stadacona	33B.
St Anthony	15½B.
Sud Basin	25.
Sud Mines	6B.
Sullivan	87.
Sylvanite	214B.
Thd	37B.
T Hughes	4.00B.
Toburn	160B.
Ventures	14 3-4.
W Amulet	50B.
Wayside	3½.
White Eagle	1¾B.
W Hargreaves	73A.
Ymir	29½.
Int Nickel	27¾B.

Produce Markets

By United Farmers' Co-Operative Company)
Toronto, Wholesale prices on produce delivered at Toronto as supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co. here to-day were:

Spring Prices

Eggs—
Grade A, large, doz. 20
Grade A, medium, doz. 19
Grade B, doz. 15½
Grade C, doz. 13½
Butter—
Ontario No. 1 Creamery, lb. ... 19½
Ontario No. 2 Creamery, lb. ... 19½
Churning cream—
No. 1, lb. 18
No. 2, lb. 16
(F.O.B. shipping point)
Poultry

Live Dressed
Hens—	"A" "A"
Over 5 lbs.	12½ 13
4 to 5 lbs.	12 13
3 to 4 lbs.	10
Old Roosters	07
Spring Broilers, over 4 lbs. ...	16
Broilers, 3½ to 4 lbs. ...	15
Broilers, 2½ to 4 lbs. ...	13½
Broilers 1½ to 2½ lbs. ...	13
Selling Prices

United Farmers' Co-Operative Co today were offering produce in retail dealers at the following prices:
Eggs—
Grade A-large, loose, doz. 25
Grade A-medium, doz. 24½
Grade B, medium, doz. 21
Grade C, doz. 21
Butter—
No. 1 Creamery, prints 22
No. 2 Creamery, prints 21½
Vegetables—Straw ...
No. 2 timothy hay, baled, ton, $12.50 to $13.00; 3 timothy, ton, $11.00 to 12.00; straw, wheat baled, ton $10.00; oats straw, $7.50 to $8.50.

Graded Egg Prices

Toronto dealers Thursday were paying the following wholesale prices for graded eggs, cases free:
A-pullets 18-18½
Grade A 21-21½
Grade A-medium, doz. 21-22

Livestock Quotations

(Toronto)

Steers, up to 1,050 lbs., good and choice	5.75	6.00
do. medium	5.00	5.75
do. common	4.00	5.00
Steers, over 1050 lbs., good	6.00	6.25
do. medium	5.50	6.00
do. common	4.00	5.50
Heifers, good and choice	5.75	6.00
do. medium	5.00	5.75
do. common	3.50	5.00
Fed calves, good and choice	7.00	7.50
do. common	5.50	6.50
Cows, good	4.00	4.25
do. medium	3.50	4.00
do. common	2.75	3.25
Canners and cutters	1.50	2.50
Bulls, good	3.50	3.75
do. common	3.00	3.25
Milkers and Springers	30.00	63.00
Stocker and feeder steers, good	4.50	5.00
do. common	3.50	4.50
Calves, good and choice veals	6.00	6.50
do. common to medium	4.00	5.75
do. grasers	2.00	4.00
Hogs, bacon, f.o.b.	8.75
do. f.o.b. cars	8.75
do. off trucks	9.20
Good over a and wether lambs	8.50
do. medium	8.00
do. bucks	6.50	7.00
do. culls	6.50
Sheep, good ewes	2.00	3.50
do. culls	1.00
do. medium	1.50	2.00

Produce Prices on Montreal Market

Montreal, July 24.—Butter prices were almost unchanged today, as a rule, quoting No. 1 pasteurized, on a car lot of 1-1 lot basis, at 20½c to 20½c, with the odd package selling as low as 20c. Trade was described as very slow. Yesterday's price was 20½c to 20½c. The retail prices held steady, at 21c for solids, 22c for prints.
The egg market maintained its former position with reports of higher asking prices on dearest grades in the outlying districts. It could not be established that there was any increase in actual prices paid, dealers continuing to quote the market on A-large at 23c, A-medium at 22c, B's at 20c and C's at 18c, carlot or l.c.l. lots.
The cheese market was quiet, although in some quarters there were reports of an improved overseas enquiry. Ontarios were steady at 9½c to 9¾c, while Quebecs were dull at 9 to 9½c. Country offerings are nothing doing pending today's auction at the Board of Trade.
Prices paid by country dealers for No. 1 quality, delivered at Montreal, are: Grade A's (B's 2 cents per lb. less) prevailing:

HOGS
Toronto, July 24 (CP)—Branford and Harris heard hogs up 25 cents higher today and London supplies were 10 cents higher. All other reporting market points were unchanged. Prices:
Toronto: $8.25; Peterboro, $8.75; Barrie, $8.90; London, $8.90; Hamilton, $8.90; Brantford, $8.25; Kitchener, $8.00.

Grain Markets

Quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as supplied by A. E. Ketchum and Co. today:

	High	Low	Close
July	81½	81¼	81¾
August	83¼	81¼	82
Oats—
July	44¼	42	42½
August	43¼	42¼	42¾
December	30½	29¾	30½
Barley—
July			35½
October	33¾	33¾	36
December	33¾	33¾	35½
Rye—
July	36½	36½	36½
October	39½	38¾	39¾
December	41	40¾	41

Produce Market

Toronto, July 24 (CP)—Wholesale prices or produce delivered at Toronto supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co. today were:
Eggs—Grade A-large, 20c; grade A-medium, 19c; grade B, 15c; grade C, 13c.
Churning cream—No. 1, 19c lb.; No. 2, 17c lb.
Butter—No. 1 solids, 19½c lb.; No. 2 solids, 19c.
Prince Edward Island old, potatoes, 50c per bag.
Prince Edward Island new potatoes, bushel 55c, bag 85c.

Livestock

Toronto, July 24 (CP)—Killing cattle and steadily at the opening of the Toronto livestock market today with receipts of about 500 head. Calves, sheep and lambs all opened steady and unchanged while hogs were uncettled.
Receipts reported by the Dominion Livestock Branch were:
Cattle, 330; calves, 270; hogs, 390; sheep and lambs, 60.
Good and choice handyweight butchers sold steadily at 25.00 while plain sold down to $2.50. Good cows were steady $2.75 to $4.25 and canners and cutters were steady at $1.50 to $2.50 for common. Grassers were firm.
Lambs were firm at $8.50 for good to $8.00 for choice yearlings and at $4 for common. Grassers were scarce.
Lambs were firm at $8.50 for good to $8.00 for choice yearlings and at $4 for common. Grassers were scarce.
Calves were steady at $8.50 for good and $7.50 for choice veals, with one choice lot up to $9. Culls and bucks brought $6.50 to $7.50. Good sheep steady at $2 to $2.50 for good, light ewes.
No hog price was established though the market feeling was firm. Country and upstanding hogs quotations were unchanged.
Hogs—No quotations.

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted mines as furnished by A. H. Ketchenson and Co. today:

Dunlop	9-11c.
Big Four	200B.
Gallaher	4-5c.
Pamour	198-200.
Ulsters	6-8.
Hud Pat	11-12.
Lagoon	6-7.
Mosher	21½-31½.
Rice Lake	2-3.
Cad Ex	4.
Mng Star	4¼-5.
Big Dome	1.70.
Nicol	8½-9.
O'Brien	30-32.
Porter Idaho	7¼-8¼.
Adanac	7-9.
Ascot	27-30.
Banf	60-62.
Balmoral	1¼-3¼.
Boomg	8-11.
Casey	7½-8½.
Con. Quebec	76-78.
Cent P	18-21.
De Sauls	200.
El Don	14B.
Garnet	4-5½.
Gold Eagle	30-34.
Great Bear	75-78.
Hasaga	16-18.
Hardrock	48-51.
Gallayda	4½-7½.
Lamaque	215-225.
Magnet	7½-8.
Mandy	14-15½.
North Star	4-5.
Oblend	7-8.
Shawkey	39½-41½.
Smelters	84-86.
Sun Beer	18-20.
Wells	9-10.
Wendigo	14-16.
Wingold	7¼-9¼.
Young Dr	16-17.
Sigma	1805.

COL. EARCHMAN GIVEN REMAND

Charge is Read to Accused in Pembroke Police Court

Pembroke, Ont., July 24 (CP)—Lieut.-Col. Cecil Earchman appeared in court today on a charge of misappropriation of funds and was remanded until July 29. He was arrested at Warkworth on Monday night and spent the night in the lock up in Belleville.
The case came in connection with the alleged misappropriation of funds in connection with the Madawaska relief project where a sanding field is under construction. The amount involved is $800.

Baseball Current Sport

IN THE REALM OF SPORTING EVENTS

Golf Bowling

"Yammy" Jamieson Limits Radios To Three Hits, Kingston Winning C. O. B. L. Fixture By 6-1 Count

Diminutive Hurler Had "Indian Sign" on The Hitters

SWELL DEFENCE

"Bad" Wilkins Turns in Swell Job of Relief Hurling

Showing a complete reversal of form the local Senior Warriors bowed to the Kingston Frontis to the time of 6 to 1 on the Athletic diamond in a regular scheduled C.O.B.L. fixture played last evening. Pulling miserably before the slants of "Yammy" Jamieson, diminutive Kingston hurler, the Radios literally wilted on the offensive as the Limestone hurler limited the Mills-lad aggregation to three small singles and one lone counter. Jamieson proved the master of the situation throughout and displayed fine form, while Art Calhoun, last starting pitcher was blasted from the mound after a little over two innings of labour.

The feature of the game, insofar as the homesters was concerned, was the splendid relief hurling supplied by "Bud" Wilkins, pitching his seventh game of the season. The diminutive Radio moundsman stepped into a tough spot in the fourth inning, after Campeau had tripled, and went on to stop the Frontis at this point. For the remaining seven innings Wilkins allowed six hits and threw a creditable record for relief hurling under the prevailing circumstances. Bud Radio allowed helpless before the deliveries of Jamieson, Wer, Scrutton and Mc-Donald, the only Belleville batters to collect anything that resembled a safe hit.

The league-leading Frontis made merry at the expense of the two local moundsmen, collecting a total of one eleven clean hits. Abbey Joyce, lucky infield accident in the second was the big hitter of the day with two singles and a single and a triple to his credit, while Clancy cuffed the pellet for a double and a single. Arniel and Compeau also helped themselves to triples as every member of the Kingston team connected for at least one safe blow.

Defensively the Frontis played errorless ball behind Jamieson as the outfielders gathered in six fly balls for outs, covered for Art Louis' running catch of Ford's lofty drive in the seventh, when the Kingston right fielder raced into deep right and caught the drive running with his ball and his back to the stand. H. Smith around the hot corner also handled three flies on the field. Alex Weir and 'Sonny' Green carried the bulk of the defensive work in the infield, the latter gathering in five hard chances in centre as Green accepted six chances without a bobble. The victory elevates the Frontis into sole possession of first place, while the Radios are in third position.

While silencing the Radios bats Jamieson sent six back to the local bench via the three strike route and only walked one, while Wilkins whiffed two and failed to issue a single free ticket. So effective were Jamieson's endeavours that the local nine played the fourth and fifth.

1st Innings

Kingston—Scrutton grounded to Ford. Arnie tripled to right. Compeau added to Weir and Arniel scored on the catch. McQuade hopped to Green.

1 run, 1 hit, 0 errors.

Belleville—Ford popped Smith. Kerr slung to St. Louis. Barclay struck out.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

2nd Innings

Kingston — St. Louis skied to Weir, H. Smith singled to centre, Joyce tripled to right scoring Smith. Clancy singled scoring Joyce. Jamieson sliced to Weir. Scrutton singled to centre. Arniel hopped to H. Smith.

2 runs, 4 hits, 0 errors.

Belleville—Weir hopped to Joyce Green was thrown out to Compeau. R. Smith hopped to Compeau.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

3rd Innings

Kingston — Compeau tripled to right. Wilkins replaced Calhoun. McQuade struck out. H. Smith fanned. St. Louis popped to McIlroy. H. Smith struck out.

0 runs, 1 hit, 0 errors.

Belleville—Ford struck out. McIlroy flied to Scrutton. Wilkins grounded to Compeau.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

4th Innings

Kingston—Kerr replaced Grey in right field. Joyce grounded to H. Smith, Clancy doubled to centre and went to third on Weir's bad throw. Jamieson was thrown out at first. Clancy scored on a balk. Scrutton popped to McIlroy.

1 run, 1 hit, 1 error.

Belleville—Kerr grounded to Jamieson. Kerr walked. Barclay struck out. Weir singled scoring Kerr. Green popped to H. Smith.

1 run, 1 hit, 0 errors.

HITS APLENTY

Belleville	AB	R	H	PO	A
Grey, rf	1	0	0	0	0
Ford, lf	4	0	0	1	0
Barclay, c	4	0	0	1	2
Weir, ss	4	0	1	2	4
Green . . . 2nd	3	0	2	2	6
R. Smith 1st	3	0	0	9	0
Ferg 3b	3	0	1	1	2
McIlroy 3rd	3	0	0	0	2
Calhoun cf	2	0	0	2	0
(a) Wilkins p	3	0	0	0	0
(b) Kerr rf	1	0	0	0	0
	30	1	3	27	12

(a) replaced Calhoun in 3rd.
(b) replaced Grey in 4th.

Kingston	AB	R	H	PO	A
Scrution lf . . .	4	0	1	3	0
Arniel c . . .	4	1	1	6	0
Compeau 2b	3	1	1	0	3
McQuade cf . . .	4	0	1	1	0
H. Smith ss	3	0	0	2	1
H. Smith 3rd	3	1	1	1	2
Joyce 1st . . .	3	1	2	9	0
Clancy 2nd . . .	4	1	2	2	0
Jamieson p . . .	3	1	1	0	2
	31	6	10	27	8

Score by innings—
Kingston 0 1 1 1 1 1 0—6 10 0
Belleville .0 0 0 1 0 0 0—1 3 2

Summary—Errors McIlroy 2, two base hits, Clancy, three base hits, Arniel, Compeau, Joyce 2. Earned runs, Kingston 5, Belleville 1; runs batted in, Weir, Compeau, Clancy, McQuade, Joyce 2. Stolen hits, H. Smith, Scrution; Stolen bases, Compeau, Kerr, Weir; hits off Calhoun 0 in 1-3 innings; off Wilkins 1 in 2 2-3 innings; losing pitcher, Calhoun; winning pitcher, Jamieson; left on bases, Kingston 6, Belleville 3; umpires, Corrigan, Kingston plate; Hamilton, Belleville; time of game 1 hour and 40 minutes.

5th Innings

Kingston — Arniel grounded to Ford. Compeau hitted to Kerr. McQuade grounded to Green.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

Belleville—R. Smith singled to centre. Ferguson hitted to Wilkins. McIlroy grounded to Jamieson. Wilkins whiffed. Zero struck out.

0 runs, 2 hits, 0 errors.

6th Innings

Kingston—St. Louis scratched an infield hit. H. Smith scratched. Joyce tripled scoring St. Louis. Clancy popped to R. Smith. Jamieson grounded to Weir.

1 run, 2 hits, 0 errors.

Belleville—Barclay sliced to Scrutton Barclay lined to Clancy. Weir flied to Scrutton.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

7th Innings

Kingston — Scrutton struck out. Arniel was safe on Barclay's error. Compeau forced Arniel at second. Compeau stole second. McQuade singled scoring Compeau. He was trapped off first.

1 run, 1 hit, 1 error.

Belleville—Green popped to Joyce R. Smith lined to Clancy. Ford struck out.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

8th Innings

Kingston—St. Louis grounded to McIlroy. H. Smith sliced to Weir. Joyce singled. Clancy forced Joyce at second.

0 runs, 1 hit, 0 errors.

Belleville— McIlroy grounded to Jamieson. Wilkins fouled to Arniel. Zero struck out.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

9th Innings

Kingston — Jamieson singled. Scrution sacrificed. Arniel grounded to Green, Jamieson going to third. Compeau sliced to Weir.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

Belleville—Kerr popped to Joyce, Barclay fouled to Arniel. Weir sliced to McQuade.

0 runs, 0 hits, 0 errors.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By The Associated Press)

Paul Dean and Joe Medwick, Cards, and Al Smith, Giants—Dean held Giants to four hits and fanned 10, Medwick got six hits including two homers in doubleheader and Smith held Cards to eight hits in nightcap.

Frank Demaree and Cabby Hartnett, Reds,

Ival Goodman, Reds, and Ripper Collins, Cubs—Former hit two singles and a double, Goodman single in second game with Dodgers.

Wally Berger, Braves—Hit two home runs, last in 12th to beat Cubs, 5-4.

Lou Gehrig, Yankees, and Vic Sorrell, Tigers—Gehrig's homer accounted for two runs in opener, Sorrell held Yanks to one run in nightcap.

Julius Solters, Browns—Led attack on Red Sox with two doubles and two singles.

Johnny Marcum, Athletics—Held White Sox at bay with eight hits.

COOLS THE THROAT... MOISTENS THE MOUTH
GREAT "BETWEEN SMOKES"
WRIGLEY'S JUICY FRUIT CHEWING GUM
HAS A FASCINATING FLAVOR
KEEPS TEETH SPARKLING

New York Teams Hold Grimly To Fractional Leads As Cards, Giants, and Tigers, Yanks Split

For Awhile St. Louis Was on The Top Rung

ROWE DEFEATED

Vic Sorrell, However, Evened Matters in Nightcap

By ANDY CLARKE
Associated Press Sports Writer

New York teams were grimly holding their half game leads today as the Louis Cardinals and Detroit Tigers just as grimly sought to tear them from the pinnacle.

Dizzy Dean, brother of Mickey of Cochrane went sassy as his ace moundsmen, Schoolboy Rowe, failed to turn in the victory, that would have shot the batting Tigers into the lead.

But Mickey isn't downhearted. "That isn't his record. He set a hotter the other day as the rain, which had prevented the opening game of the Tigers-Yanks series, drummed against the window panes. He discovered on the baseball psychology; the science of handling men, that he learned in the slam-bang realm of baseball rather than in the quiet halls of Boston University, his alma mater.

"How is the winning spirit produced?" he was asked.

His sun-creased face grew serious as he said:

"Well its hustle and fight and playing heads up baseball. Its the will to win, to overcome odds. How to get it? Well its just in keeping the fellows on their toes. Its in making them humble. There are different ways to get the men to do this. Temperamentally our characteristics are different. Each fellow must have his own treatment. But to win you've got to have spirit, winning spirit."

His black eyes snapped as this words tumbled out. Then his voice could see him behind the plate, waving his right hand as he called for the fast one with the count three and two.

Rowe Loses

Rowe lost the first game to the Yanks 7-5 as Mickey belied a home run but Vic Sorrell evened matters in the second, holding the Yankees to right hits as the Tigers won 3-1. Rowe suffered his first defeat of the season, Johnny Allen and Lefty Gomez of the Yanks being the victims. Although Allen got credit for winning the first game.

Giants lost the first game of their doubleheader with the Cards, 6-1 and duplicated the second 8-2, retaining their fractional league lead. Paul Dean delivered hits and fanned 12 as Joe Medwick hit two for the circuit in the first. Pepper Martin's three errors figured heavily in the Giant's win in the nightcap. It was the fifth straight defeat for Giants, who seemed a cinch for pennant post very long ago.

As Cards and Giants battled for the lead, the third place Chicago Cubs closed in on them by sweeping a doubleheader with Brooklyn Dodgers, 6-4 and 5-3. Pittsburgh and Cubs winning streak to 14 out of 17 games and lifted them to within three games of the Giants.

Wally Berger led Boston Braves to their second straight triumph over Cincinnati Reds, 7-6, scoring three runs with a homer in the second inning and then winning the ball game with another, his 20th homer, in the 12th.

Athletics whitewashed Chicago White Sox 3-0 although Tyrus Kennedy, on the mound for the Sox, allowed but three hits, Johnny Marcum, for Athletics, allowed eight hits but was invincible with zero on base.

St. Louis Browns defeated the Boston Red Sox 5-2 as they shelled four Bosonian pitchers with 14 hits.

National League

Batting: Vaughan, Pirates .394; Medwick, Cardinals .387.

Runs: Medwick, Cardinals 80; Martin, Cardinals 77.

Runs batted in: Collins, Cardinals: Ott, Giants 80.

Hits: Medwick, Cardinals, 137; Terry, Giants 127.

Doubles: Martin, Cardinals, Herman, Cubs 30.

Triples: Goodman, Reds 11; Suhr, Pirates; Boyle, Dodgers, Thevenow, Pirates 9.

Home runs: Ott, Giants 22; Berger, Braves 20.

WON U. S. TITLE

Jack Pavelle of the Argonauts Rowing Club, Toronto, won the U.S.A. national 145-pound sculling championship against the pick of the class at the National Rowing Regatta at Princeton, N. J. He crossed the finish line a length and a quarter ahead of his nearest rival. The time was 7.36.

Batting Leaders

(By The Associated Press)
American League

Batting: Vosmik, Indians .350; Cramer, Athletics .343.

Runs batted in: Greenberg, Tigers 79; Greenberg, Tigers 74.

Runs batted in: Greenberg, Tigers 111; Johnson, Athletics 73.

Hits: Cramer, Athletics 125; Gehringer, Tigers 120.

Doubles: Greenberg, Tigers 29; Werber, Red Sox 27.

Triples: Stone, Senators 12; Cronin, Red Sox, Vosmik, Indians 11.

Home runs. Greenberg, Tigers, 27; Johnson, Athletics 20.

Stolen bases: Werber, Red Sox 16; Almada, Red Sox 14.

Pitchers: Lyons, White Sox 11-3; Allen Yankees 10-3.

BISONS CREEP NEARER 2ND

Defeat Leafs For Second Time in Night Game 8 to 1

By The Associated Press)

It's Buffalo Bisons turn to howl, apparently, and they are bowling up toward the peak of the International League like a South Sea typhoon.

They gave Toronto Maple Leafs another round licking last night to move up within a half game of that second place club. The score was 8-1. The Bisons now have won 13 out of their last 16 games and last night's victory was their third in a row.

The game was marked by much umpire baiting on the part of the Leafs and play was held up twice for five minute periods. Umpire Campbell ejected Manager Ike Boone and pitcher Lucas from the bench in the sixth inning after he had decided that their exoneration had gone a little too far.

Red Lisenbee pitched his second straight win and his eighth of the year, allowing only seven hits. Tom Oliver's homer prevented him from chalking up a shutout.

It was the sixth defeat of the year against 13 victories for Whitey Hilcher. Marve Olson led the attack on him with a triple, double and single.

Tony Kaufmann banged out a home run in the seventh inning to give the Rochester Red Wings a victory over the Montreal Royals in addition to delivering the second blow he held the Royals to nine scattered hits. The score was 2-1.

Rain washed out the Albany-Newark game in the second inning but a four run rally gave the Kilties-led squad assured victory with an eight inning pitching duel between Art Cole and Ed Heusser. Baltimore and Syracuse postponed their scheduled night encounter because of the downpour.

SPORT PROGRAM AT BOYS' CAMP

A happy band of youths returned to the city recently from the Moira Lake Boys' Camp after spending two full weeks of recreation and friendship in the great open spaces. The camp was under the direction of Lieut. E. Shortt, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. who has been responsible for the lengthy sport programme, that was presented during the progress of the camp.

The result of the sports program competed in by the boys in connection the Belleville boys' camp at Moira Lake was as follows:

100 yard dash — R. Foster; G. Cooper; J. Pritchard.

High jump—R. Foster; Richard Shortt; Bryson Donnan.

Running broad jump—R. Foster; Ted Clarke; G. Cooper.

Standing broad jump—R. Foster; T. Clark; G. Cooper.

50 yard dash—R. Foster; G. Cooper; R. Shortt.

75 yard hurdles—G. Cooper; E. Foster; T. Clark.

Ball throw—A. Griffin; B. Donnan S. Wonnacott.

Shot put—S. Womacott; R. Foster; J. Pritchard.

Relay race—S. Wonnacott; B. Donnan; R. Shortt.

Point winners—R. Foster 19; G. Cooper 9; and S. Wonnacott 8.

100 yard dash—J. Jackson; W. Browne; G. Griffin.

Running broad jump—W. Browne; William Yerrow; J. Jackson.

Standing broad jump—W. Hodges W. Browne; J. Jackson.

Standing broad jump—J. Jackson; G. Griffin; W. Browne.

50 yard dash—J. Jackson; W. Browne; H. Yerrow.

75 yard hurdles—J. Jackson; W. Browne; H. Yerrow.

Ball throw—W. Browne; J. Jackson; W. Yerrow.

Shot put—B. Donnan; J. Jackson, W. Hodges.

Relay race—W. Browne; Allan Argue; W. Yerrow and J. Jackson.

Point winners—J. Jackson 19; W. Brown 17; W. Yerrow 14 and W. Hodges 5 points each.

Starter—Trevor Naylor.

Judges and Scorers—Jim Zufelt, Elton McMurray and J. K. Ehrett.

Announcer—Bryson Donnan.

Bryson Donnan 6 points; R. Foster 5 points.

Senior section — W. Hodges, R. Clendenan, J. Argue.

Baseball winner—Cabin 2; Cabin 5; and Cabin 3.

Volleyball winners—Cabin 3; Cabin 2; Cabin 4.

Horseshoe pitching winner—Ralph Griffin.

Aquatic Events, Junior Section 100 yards—R. Foster; T. Clark; Ted Clark.

50 yards—R. Foster; T. Clark; B. Kerr.

25 yard breast-stroke—R. Foster; B. Kerr.

Relay race, won by G. Cooper; A. Griffin and R. Shortt.

Crab Walk—J. Pritchard; S. Wonnacott.

100 yard swim—R. Foster; B. Kerr G. Cooper.

Point winners—R. Foster 30; G. Cooper 8; B. Kerr and T. Clark 8.

Senior Events

100 yards—R. Clendenan; G. Griffin.

50 yards—R. Clendenan; W. Yerrow; J. Jackson.

25 yard breast-stroke—J. Jackson; R. Donnan; W. Yerrow.

Diving—W. Yerrow; J. Jackson; R. Donnan.

Relay race—A. Argue, W. Yerrow, G. Griffin.

Crab Walk—R. Donnan and W. Browne.

100 yard swim—R. Donnan; W. Yerrow; J. Jackson.

Point winners—R. Donnan 19; W. Yerrow 17; J. Jackson 16.

Assistant Leaders Events

100 yard swim—R. Clare and R. Gailey.

50 yard swim—R. Clare.

25 yard breast-strokes—R. Clare. Diving—R. Clare.

50 yard dash—R. Clare.

Point winners R. Clare 36; and R. Gailey 3.

LONDON LUNCH TAKE PRINTERS

While Simpsons Down American Hardware in Mercantile Loop

Continuing their triumphant march towards the championship of the local Mercantile Softball League, the London Lunch nine defeated the Ontario Intelligencer mashallers 13 to 8 at their Ferguson Street grounds while at the Alemite Grounds Simpsons downed the American Hardware 23 to 20.

The London Lunch "munchers" took an early game lead over the "printers" as they scored seven runs in the first four frames. The "inkslingers" came from behind and forged to the fore in the seventh, but a four run rallying gave the Kilties-led squad assured victory with an eight inning pitching rally. Art Cole hurled undefeated ball for the victors, while Harris pitched equally as well for the printers, but was not affected the support his opponent received. Besides hurling an excellent game Cole was the big hitter of the day with four safe blows to his credit. Hughes and Cronilah also hit well for the winners. Doyle was the only printer to get more than one safe blow. The win keeps the London Lunch nine well out in front as the league leaders.

The line-ups — London Lunch — McCreary, Smith, Hughes, Semark, Cole, Cronilah, Hall, Westfall, Rosebush. Ontario Intelligencer—Lumberg, Boyle, Robinson, Phillips, Canning, Harris, Dwyer, Brockbank and Riley.

Score by innings:—

Ont. Int. 0 2 0 0 2 0 3 0 1— 8 runs
Lon. Lun. 1 3 2 1 0 0 1 4 x—13 runs

Batteries—Harris and Dwyer; Cole and Cronilah.

In a free hitting Mercantile League encounter the Simpsons outpounded out a 23 to 20 victory over the American Hardware squad to remain in undisputed first place in the cellar and materially assist the Simpsons in their quest for a playoff berth.

Ken Lindsay hurled for the Simpsons and despite the fact his offerings were hit freely, his team mates gave him fine support in the field and gave him sufficient offensive attack to secure victory. Graham and Dinnins both ascended the mound for the losers but their efforts could stem the tide of hits coming from the bats of the Simpsons sluggers. Every member of each team participated to get on base at least twice during the nine innings.

The line-ups — Simpsons— Anne, Dinnins, Phillips, Clarke, Munning, Drscup, Reynolds, Muir, Ketcheson. American Hardware — McCrudy, C. Smith, Bell, J. Graham, Rushbrook, Dinnins, R. Smith, Dyer, McGuire, Boyd, Hogan and F. Graham.

Score by innings:—

Simpsons 4 2 2 0 3 8 0 1—23 runs
Am. Hard 0 3 2 3 6 1 0 0 5—20 runs

CURRENT SPORT

DAY BY DAY

"Runs is runs" at least so say the Kingston Frontis. Last Friday the Radios, behind stellar pitching by Jack Williams, mauled the Frontis 4 to 2 in Kingston, but alas, last evening the Limestone lads can get even for revenge when they plastered the Stewart-Warners 6 to 1 and right in our own back yard. There is little to say, except that "Yammy" Jamieson was too good for the Radios. The locals could only collect three safe singles from his deliveries, as the diminutive little chucker continually threw 'em where the locals' bats weren't, and therein lies the secret to last evening's reverse. One loss does not lose a pennant nor does it signify anything drastic.

For two games prior the Radios had collected 12 hits each game, and it just looks as though they ran out of base hits for a night, that's all, there ain't any more alibis boys.

Doubtlessly the highlight of the game, from a fans' point of view, was the splendid relief hurling supplied by Bud Wilkins, who had only been given a portion of one earlier game before in his varied pitching career. Art Calhoun couldn't get 'em by the Frontis' bats. In reality his control was uncanny, as he issued no free passes, but the league players' bats with continued accuracy. It just seems that Art, apparently Jamieson still holds that old jinx over the local seniors. For seven innings Wilkins pitched and he proved a stumbling block to Limestone batters, as he limited the safeties fired in nicely around second in the seventh inning. Wilkins is a pitcher with a cracked bone in his ankle, we hear.

A number of fans were wondering why "Sonny" Grey was removed from the pasture. Grey, unbeknown to Manager Mills, got out of a sick bed and tried his best to play ball, but his condition of health would not allow it. Many local fans hopped Umpire Corrigan for some of his decisions, but now it can be truthfully said that Jamieson was the man who stood between the Radios and victory, not Corrigan. Of course his calling Barclay out on third in the fourth looked bad from the stands as the pitch seemed to all but hit Barclay's collar button. As this was the only inning in which the Radios scored Barclay made two out, not actually it hurt.

Next week sees the end of the local Senior Softball schedule, with the possible exception of a few postponed games. Considering the Senior softballers will commence their play-downs about Aug. 2nd (Friday of next week). At present the Aal

Control Your HAY FEVER
Don't be Hay Fever or Asthma miserable. Use Dr. Hayes' Antiseptic Compound. Soothing, healing, relieves quickly. Get Dr. Hayes' Compound today. Only 25c. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. Hayes' Laboratories, Buffalo, N.Y.
Try it now! Use it for 7 days! If you are not entirely satisfied, return the bottle and we will refund your money. Don't suffer needlessly. Get Dr. Hayes' Compound today. Only 25c. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. Hayes' Laboratories, Buffalo, N.Y.
HAVE YOU Seen THE EXTRA VALUE IN THE SENSATIONAL NEW Lower Priced
ROADFLIGHT TIRE
(MADE BY GUTTA PERCHA)
"PERKY"
Friendly Radio Comic Perky Appears Every Week in Roadflight Tire Ads. Look for Him and Win a Prize in the GP Dealers' Windows
PRICE SIZE 4.75-19 $9.70
OTHER SIZES PROPORTIONATELY PRICED
A deeper, wider tread
More rubber
Stronger sidewalls
New tougher tread rubber
New non-skid grip
A tire without equal at its price
See the new Roadflight before you buy any other tire.
THE ULTRA RIBBON TIRE VALUE FOR 1935
Look for the Blue Ribbon in the GP Dealers' Windows
GUTTA PERCHA TIRES
GUTTA PERCHA AND RUBBER LIMITED
THE LARGEST ALL-CANADIAN RUBBER COMPANY FOUNDED 75 YEARS AGO
The New G. P. Roadflight Tires are For Sale at:
BELLEVILLE VULCANIZING CO., Moira St., Belleville; JOHN LLOYD, Belleville;
BROWNIE'S GARAGE, Brighton; CASSAN BROS., Campbellford;
J. W. RULIN, Madoc; LOUIS BASSOTTE, Trenton.

SINISTER SHADOW

by JOHN GOODWIN

CHAPTER ONE
THE SKULL

"Of course my dear Brian—you did your best," said Mr. Bannister Coote. "It's the infernal dump in diamonds. But—a six-thousand-mile journey, and very little to show for it."

"I followed your instructions, Bannister," said Brian.

"I know you did my dear boy. I'm not blaming you."

Bannister Coote, Brian's cousin, walked across the library to his desk, limped slightly. There are certain things in his that one would never be mistaken and of these is the commanding sincerity of a typical elderly benevolent gentleman.

Not that Bannister Coote would have admitted being elderly, but only in the prime of life. He was fifty-four, but slightly less inclined to stoutness; stiff iron-gray hair beginning to thin somewhat on top. His eyes were light blue, his manner with a soft benignity. A broad sleeve, forehead, a distinguished face, a strong, indented chin, softened by rather loose lips. He looked anything but what he was; a merchant prince, financier and the owner of a great country property.

"Now that means there's no commission coming to me," said Brian.

"Very little this time, I'm afraid," signed Mr. Coote.

"Little in it? Bannister I've a feeling that I need a lot more money. I never felt it so strongly as I do just now."

Bannister, arranging the papers on his desk, glanced at the speaker quickly.

"Why?"

Young Brian Chalmers did not answer. His back was turned to his cousin; he stood in the recess of the tall oriel window, looking out into the night. He had the illusion, familiar to the traveller, that the floor was heaving gently under his feet, as though he were still on the liner that had brought him from New York.

But here was a scene very different from rolling waters and sea-fog. The immemorial peace surrounding an English country house, centuries old. There was no sound except the far-off whirr of the night caprice, speeding through the railway cutting beyond the wide, timbered park.

The rising moon slightly veiled in cloud, shone through the hollow beds and branches of a huge sandal-tree on the crest beside King's Elm House and threw a curious blurred shadow across the lawn. Something a shape that fascinated Brian and held him.

It might have been some magic of the moonlight or some fancy of his brain, but it seemed to him that the shadow took human form, larger than life, and extraordinarily arresting. The profile of a girl's head very modern with its fringe of bobbed hair; charming, challenging, and tilted back the length of the mouth invited a lover's kiss. Sonia's face . . .

Strange tricks the moonlight plays. It carried Brian in spirit three hundred miles away; back to the ship he had left that morning. The memory brought a stab of heart-ache like the probing of a wound. What a fool he had been!

Then the veil of cloud cleared from the moon, which almost full-faced through the tree. The change was startling. The shadow on the lawn contracted to the outline of a great black skull, staring vacantly, the eyes hollowed like pits upon the grass. Merely a moon-shadow, yet a rather grisly and disconcerting thing to see.

There was no illusion about that. The Skull Tree at King's Elm is well known and has often been described. It is not often visible, only if the weather is clear and when the moon is at the exact angle of inclination which throws her ray through the tree. Then the skull about fifteen minutes, the skull shows itself, and slowly fades. It was not new to Brian, he had seen it before, but though he was hardheaded and little troubled with fancies, tonight it sent a queer little goose-flesh shiver through him.

"Bannister," he said suddenly, "why don't you have that dashed old tree cut down?"

Bannister Coote looked up from his desk in evident surprise, and laughed.

"The Skull Tree? Why the devil should I? I'm proud of it. It's unique—gives atmosphere to the house. Besides—you surely know I've only a life-interest in the place and the income from it, while I live, but I haven't the right to cut a single one of those trees, if I wanted to."

He rose from the seat.

"Neither will you have, Brian my dear fellow. Some one must keep the organ of nature and under the Coote Will, the place falls to you. And I'm relying on it, mark you, I know. The estate's entailed for two generations—failing my own direct children, if you ever have any, will be able to do what they choose with ducks and drakes with the Coote fortune and the rest of the King's Elm property after I'm dead."

"Dead, Bannister!"

He came to Brian's side, and looking out at the shadow skull on the lawn, chuckled.

"Look at it, Brian! Already it's fading as the moon sinks her way behind the ship. A pretty thing, isn't it? Does it really call to your mind thoughts of death and disembodiment? Ah! I'm not superstitious; my nerves are as hard as yours. I never afraid of man or devil, let alone a shadow."

Brian looked back from the window, and lit a cigarette.

"There's no one you're afraid of?"

"No one living; nor ever was." He was younger man have a cloud of smoke, and looked at his cousin through it.

"If that's so, Bannister, I wonder why you sleep with a gun under your pillow!"

Bannister blinked. Taken aback, he stared at his cousin.

"How how the devil do you know I do that?"

"Perhaps I guessed it."

Mr. Coote recovered himself, and laughed.

"If I do," he said, "it hardly shows me to be of a scary nature. Just the contrary. A reasonable man takes precautions. One who has so much to do with diamonds as I have, is entitled to be armed."

"That's right enough. On that new trip— diamonds being my job I carried a gun myself. The difference is that I know how to use one, and I doubt if you do. But I don't sleep with one."

Bannister laid a hand on his shoulder.

"Brian, my dear boy," he said affectionately, "what's the matter with you? You don't seem at all yourself tonight. What's all this talk about deaths and guns, and money? I'll tell you. Something has happened on this last trip to upset you. Are you in love? Or have you been having a few drinks on the way? Anyway, here you are, home again, and you'll soon find your feet. You know how glad I am to have you back."

"Bannister I'm going to quit."

"Money? I never felt it so strongly as I do just now."

Bannister, arranging the papers on his desk, glanced at the speaker quickly.

"Why?"

Young Brian Chalmers did not answer. His back was turned to his cousin; he stood in the recess of the tall oriel window, looking out into the night. He had the illusion, familiar to the traveller, that the floor was heaving gently under his feet, as though he were still on the liner that had brought him from New York.

But here was a scene very different from rolling waters and sea-fog. The immemorial peace surrounding an English country house, centuries old. There was no sound except the far-off whirr of the night caprice, speeding through the railway cutting beyond the wide, timbered park.

The rising moon slightly veiled in cloud, shone through the hollow beds and branches of a huge sandal-tree on the crest beside King's Elm House and threw a curious blurred shadow across the lawn. Something a shape that fascinated Brian and held him.

It might have been some magic of the moonlight or some fancy of his brain, but it seemed to him that the shadow took human form, larger than life, and extraordinarily arresting. The profile of a girl's head very modern with its fringe of bobbed hair; charming, challenging, and tilted back the length of the mouth invited a lover's kiss. Sonia's face . . .

Strange tricks the moonlight plays. It carried Brian in spirit three hundred miles away; back to the ship he had left that morning. The memory brought a stab of heart-ache like the probing of a wound. What a fool he had been!

Then the veil of cloud cleared from the moon, which almost full-faced through the tree. The change was startling. The shadow on the lawn contracted to the outline of a great black skull, staring vacantly, the eyes hollowed like pits upon the grass. Merely a moon-shadow, yet a rather grisly and disconcerting thing to see.

There was no illusion about that. The Skull Tree at King's Elm is well known and has often been described. It is not often visible, only if the weather is clear and when the moon is at the exact angle of inclination which throws her ray through the tree. Then the skull about fifteen minutes, the skull shows itself, and slowly fades. It was not new to Brian, he had seen it before, but though he was hard-headed and little troubled with fancies, tonight it sent a queer little goose-flesh shiver through him.

"Bannister," he said suddenly, "why don't you have that dashed old tree cut down?"

Bannister Coote looked up from his desk in evident surprise, and laughed.

"The Skull Tree? Why the devil should I? I'm proud of it. It's unique—gives atmosphere to the house. Besides—you surely know I've only a life-interest in the place and the income from it, while I live, but I haven't the right to cut a single one of those trees, if I wanted to."

He rose from the seat.

"Neither will you have, Brian my dear fellow. Some one must keep the organ of nature and under the Coote Will, the place falls to you, you know. The estate's entailed for two generations—failing my own direct children, if you ever have any, will be able to do what they choose with ducks and drakes with the Coote fortune and the rest of the King's Elm property after I'm dead."

"Dead, Bannister!"

He came to Brian's side, and looking out at the shadow skull on the lawn, chuckled.

"Look at it, Brian! Already it's fading as the moon sinks her way behind the ship. A pretty thing, isn't it? Does it really call to your mind thoughts of death and disembodiment? Ah! I'm not superstitious; my nerves are as hard as yours. I never afraid of man or devil, let alone a shadow."

Brian looked back from the window, and lit a cigarette.

"There's no one you're afraid of?"

"No one living; nor ever was."

He was younger man have a cloud of smoke, and looked at his cousin through it.

"If that's so, Bannister, I wonder why you sleep with a gun under your pillow!"

Bannister blinked. Taken aback, he stared at his cousin.

"How how the devil do you know I do that?"

"Perhaps I guessed it."

Mr. Coote recovered himself, and laughed.

"If I do," he said, "it hardly shows me to be of a scary nature. Just the contrary. A reasonable man takes precautions. One who has so much to do with diamonds as I have, is entitled to be armed."

"That's right enough. On that new trip— diamonds being my job I carried a gun myself. The difference is that I know how to use one, and I doubt if you do. But I don't sleep with one."

Bannister laid a hand on his shoulder.

"Brian, my dear boy," he said affectionately, "what's the matter with you? You don't seem at all yourself tonight. What's all this talk about deaths and guns, and money? I'll tell you. Something has happened on this last trip to upset you. Are you in love? Or have you been having a few drinks on the way? Anyway, here you are, home again, and you'll soon find your feet. You know how glad I am to have you back."

"Bannister I'm going to quit."

"Leave King's Elm?"

"Yes. You own this place. I'm nothing. I've been on this business trip for you—the first real job you've given me. I don't think you would have sent me if you haven't been burned by that accident and unable to go yourself. The result doesn't seem to please you—"

"I didn't say so—"

"Now listen, Bannister. I don't want a good chance to come to you. You persuaded me—I hardly know how—to join up with you and make my home here. You've been very good to me, sure. But you've tried to keep me tied down—under your wing—buried in this forsaken place. I'm wondering why?"

Mr. Coote looking deeply hurt.

"Why? Because I like you. Surely, my dear boy," he said gently, "you know what an affection I have for you. We're kinsmen; the last of the clan. I'm a lonely fellow, perhaps not very long for this world. You know my personal views on marriage, Brian. I look on you as a son; all the son I'm ever likely to have. Then if we quarrelled—which God forbid— I couldn't let you out. This is your home; King's Elm and all that goes with it. It will be made easy! Isn't it natural you should be here to look after it?"

"Then I'm waiting for dead men's shoes. Is that it?"

Mr. Coote winced. He looked quickly and reproachfully at Brian who flushed red.

"Sorry, Bannister. I suppose I shouldn't have said that. Not come down to brass tacks, that's what it means. It's no job for me. As for King's Elm—"

"Surely. Under the Coote Will—"

"Damn the Coote Will!"

"Why it's perfectly sound. You know how the Will stands. Myra, old Joshua Coote's widow, left me the Coote fortune and King's Elm in her life-tor-life, and entailed the whole property to my children, if any. You know how Myra's next clause runs:

"In the event of Bannister Coote dying without issue, I direct that the entire property held in trust together with the estate of King's Elm shall pass to his cousin Brian Coote-Chalmers as Bannister-Coote, on condition that he shall assume the name and arms of Coote, with remainder unconditionally to his children."

"What could be clearer than that! It provides that the holder shall not waste the capital, that the names Coote of King's Elm shall flourish and endure.

"Rubbish!" Brian and laughed. "Brian!"

"Listen, Bannister. This old-family-Coote stuff may be real to you; to me it isn't. It's bunkum; the only solid thing to it is the money. Old Joshua Coote was a man to be proud of—a hard-shelled Illinois manufacturer who piled up a million dollars, and had the sense to marry Myra Bannister, and the Bannisters had been for centuries the class any Coote's society game is easier there if you've got the stuff behind this and that. It's the trend of establishing the Cootes as a family business.

"She settled to England and bought King's Elm, and then proceeded with Myra's own family about Cootes as a family business.

"She settled to England and bought King's Elm, and then proceeded with Myra's own family about it. Myra agreed, both ayes—and it's now going to clear out, Bannister, if there's nothing more to come than that."

Mr. Coote's lips tightened. The mention of money had always a chilling effect on him.

"That!" Brian stared. "You've fifty thousand dollars a year; before your own business."

Bannister shook his head gloomily.

"I've very heavy expenses, just now, Brian," he said sacklingly. "we've never had the shadow of a difference before; we must put it right. Tell me, why do you want money?"

"Christopher! Do you think I want to live indefinitely in another man's house on twenty dollars a week? Suppose I want to get married."

"Married! Are you thinking of getting married?"

(TO BE CONTINUED)

U. S. WINS DOUBLES

Wimbledon, England, July 23 (AP)—The United States made the score 2-1 in their interzone Davis Cup tennis final with Germany today, capturing the doubles match and in five sets.

BRINGING UP FATHER— By George McManus

TILLIE THE TOILER— By Russ Westover

DANGER TRAILS— MAMA TO THE RESCUE By The Famous Explorer Martin Johnson

MR. AND MRS— By Briggs

TARZAN THE UNTAMED— (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service)

Tarzan saw the English officer, helpless upon the ground, surrounded, by the deserters from the Red army. He knew his time was short. The plans coming toward him was piloted by the Sergeant Usanga, and seated behind was the white girl whom Tarzan only knew as the Red spy.

How it befell that the ignorant savage could operate the plane, Tarzan could not guess. But his knowledge of Usanga, together with the position of the white man, told him the black sergeant was attempting to carry off the white girl. Already the machine was slowly leaving the ground.

At first Tarzan thought of fitting an arrow to his bow and slaying Usanga. He abandoned the idea when he realized that the moment the pilot was slain the machine would dash the girl to death. There was but one way in which he might hope to aid her.

Usanga did not see him being too intent upon the unaccustomed duties of a pilot. But the blacks across the meadow saw a giant white man leap from the trees and race rapidly toward the plane. With bow and savage cries and menacing weapons, they ran forward to intercept him.

Little Benny's Note Book

NUISANCES

Rain is a nuisance to fellows not aloud to go out and to people in the midst of a picknick, but farmers enjoy it and it probably relieves them.

The pleasure of receeving a letter is partly spoiled by the nuisance of having to answer it, but on the other hand the nuisance of waiting for your term in the barber shop is partly consoled by being able to read the joke magazines without any danger of being chased out.

One of the easiest ways to be a nuisance is to ask a question and then ask more questions about the answer, and so on till the other person and is satisfied.

People can stand one nuisance, but when he realized that the moment the pilot was slain the machine would dash the girl to death. There was but one way in which he might hope to aid her.

Usanga did not see him being too intent upon the unaccustomed duties of a pilot. But the blacks across the meadow saw a giant white man leap from the trees and race rapidly toward the plane. With bow and savage cries and menacing weapons, they ran forward to intercept him.

McPherson Appeal Judgment Reserved

London, July 23 (CP Cable)—The McPherson divorce appeal to the Privy Council concluded today and judgment was reserved. The decision is not expected before the end of October.

Mrs. McPherson is appealing the decision of the Alberta Supreme Court, rejecting her action to nullify the divorce decree granted her husband, O. L. McPherson, in Edmonton in 1931 when he was Alberta Public Works Minister. Appellant contends the decree was not granted in proper judicial form but in the judge's library of the courthouse, from which the public was excluded.

Accused Of Fraud From A "Mr. X"

LONDON, Ont., July 23.—(CP)—Benny Mc. Walker, 54, (Alma street), St. Thomas, was arraigned in police court today on charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. He was not asked to plead and was remanded to jail until July 31. Nowlan, Newton, acting Crown Attorney, was ordered home from his vacation to take charge of the prosecution. He was in court today.

The arrest of Walker was a surprise move. He is alleged to have obtained money from a "Mr. X".

Radio Equipment Favored by Police

North Bay, July 23 (CP)—Strong advocation every police station in Ontario be equipped with radio featured the first session of the second annual convention of the Ontario Police Association which opened here today. Approximately 50 police chiefs from all parts of Ontario were present.

"There wouldn't be a criminal escape in Ontario," said Chief Constable Newell, Peterborough. "If there was a proper radio system."

BUSINESS GOOD DESPITE HEAT

Stores Cool And Clerks Busy Serving Customers

Although perspiring dizziness, who have been mopping beaded brows during the past several days of the continued heat wave have undergone a temporary let down in business owing to the heat, from the electrically cooled interior of leading stores along Front street during idle past day or so have coming reports of a slight business boom. The languidness observed on the street is not visible in the interior of the greater number of stores. Clerks are busy and sales are brisk, it was stated.

To many merchants along Front Street the tropical heat has meant greater sales in a wide range of lines. From electric fans to summer furniture and clothing the shoppers have gone from counter to counter pricing and buying.

"The hot weather hasn't bothered us, not at all," declared one well known merchant. "In fact the hotter it gets the more business we have seemed to do.

Tourists passing through the city are not the least of those, who are spending money in local stores. The amount left behind in Belleville each day is reported by the general run of merchants to be considerable. And the purchases, it is pointed out, are not petty ones. Orders in a single purchase up to thirty and forty dollars, stated the manager of one of the largest stores, are not infrequent.

Thirsty Belleville is also accounting for a few hundred thousand more gallons of water each day, it is reported by officials of the local waterworks system. This amount of fluid consumed by heat worried citizens, it is explained does not take into account the thousands of cases of "pop" and soft drinks poured into frost-rimmed glasses each day.

COLIN CAMPBELL IS AGAIN CHOSEN

Only Name Submitted at Frontenac-Addington Convention

Kingston, July 24—(CP)—Colin A. Campbell, Liberal member of the House of Commons for the riding of Frontenac-Addington, was again chosen candidate to contest the riding in the Federal election at a meeting at Enterprise Tuesday night.

Mr. Campbell's name was the only one put before the convention. Hon. J. C. Elliott, Minister of Public Works in the King Cabinet; Nelson Parliament, Dominion Liberal Organizer; Norman Rogers, Liberal candidate in Kingston; James Clarke, Liberal candidate for Prince Edward; and John German, Toronto, addressed the meeting.

Mr. Campbell declared the Bennett Government had not given as much Dominion unemployment relief aid to Ontario under the Hepburn Administration as it had granted under the Henry Government from March to July, 1934. Federal aid was $2,700,000, compared with $600,000 granted since the Hepburn Government had been in power he charged.

He declared the Dominion was only granting Ontario 80 per cent of what it paid the Province when the Henry Cabinet was in office. He said that caused Premier Hepburn to enact an amusement tax. Premier Hepburn cancelled the Quebec power contracts to save the taxpayers money, he continued.

Mr. Campbell charged the Bennett Government with responsibility for present conditions of the wheat and cheese markets. There were no foreign markets, he said. There were 220,000,000 bushels of wheat in storage and no place to sell it.

Trade had dwindled, debt and unemployment had increased under the Conservative regime, he claimed. Interest on the debt meant $27 to every man, woman and child in the country, he said.

Norman Rogers charged there was not a safe Conservative seat in Canada, that the Premier had "said that would not be and ears that would not hear."

James Clarke, Liberal candidate for Prince Edward, declared the Marketing Act interfered with the rights of farmers in the disposal of their products. Mr. Parliament said he was in favor of co-operative control, and predicted a Liberal victory. Hon. C. G. Hudson, former Minister of National Defense, was unable to attend. Premier M. F. Hepburn of Ontario telegraphed greetings.

Three-Fingered-Abe?

Said to be a native of Beachwood, in Perth County, Ontario, Michael McCardell alleged to be the "Three-Fingered Abe" of the Labatt kidnapping case, was arrested at Crown Point, Indiana, after a gun-fight with police. Under aliases of James Parker, Connelly, Walker, Palmer and Monson, he is wanted by Chicago and Detroit police for robbery. Ontario and R.C.M. Police assisted in tracking this man, who they believe to be Mack Long, to earth. He is being brought to London to stand trial for kidnapping of John S. Labatt.

NAVAL REVIEW

A striking aerial view of the destroyer unit of the British fleet assembled off Spithead for His Majesty's Jubilee review.

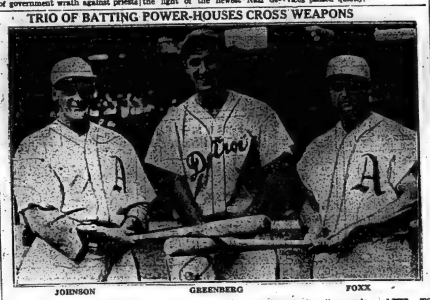
WHO'S BOSS?—Max Baer isn't champion any more. See how his new bride, the former Mary Ellen Sullivan, handles him?

TRIAL OF TRE KKERS ATTRACTS LA RGE CROWDS

Trial of six leaders of the British Columbia relief camp strikers is arousing great interest in Regina, and as the mounted police courtroom where the sessions are being held only accommodates 40 persons, and about 100 people stand in an alley each day "listening in" at the window, and providing scenes such as this, it's men, and women, first—and the youngsters couldn't even find the smallest vacant spaces at the window. The strike leaders are charged with being members of an unlawful association, — the Relief Camp Workers' Union.

GERMAN CATHOLICS AWAIT ACTION OF THEIR LEADERS

Cardinal Bertram



Cardinal Faulhaber

Cardinal Schulte

German Catholics, faced by strict Nazi surveillance worshipped unusually as they waited action by their leaders following expressions of government wrath against priests accused of political activity and threatened with arrest. Cardinals, pictured above, were expected to confer on policies to be pursued in the light of the newest Nazi decrees. LEFT to RIGHT, Cardinal Bertram of Breslau; Cardinal Faulhaber of Munich and Cardinal Schulte of Cologne. Sunday services passed quietly.

TRIO OF BATTING POWER-HOUSES CROSS WEAPONS

JOHNSON GREENBERG FOXX

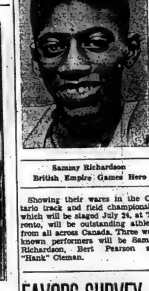
Leaders in the post-Ruthian dynasty of home run hitters are pictured before a game in Philadelphia: More than 60 home runs have been produced by their bludgeons with Hank Greenberg of the Tigers leading the parade. LEFT TO RIGHT, they are Bob Johnson of the Athletics, Greenberg and Jimmy Foxx of the A's.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

By R. J. SCOTT

Seek Ontario Honors

Henry Hank Cleman Walks his way to win



Bert Pearson Hamilton's Sterling Stepper

Breaks Records When Necessary to Win Titles

This is how a champion keeps her throne. When records have to be broken to stay out in front, Lenore Kight of Homestead, Pa., goes out and breaks them. In defending her free-style 440-yard United States swimming championship at Manhattan Beach in the national women's meet, Miss Kight set a new American record. She had to beat her own time for the distance to do it. Then, when she took the water in defence of her one-mile national title, she set a new world record over the longer route to stave off her challengers, (TOP) Lenore is seen finishing the 440-yard race, and below, plowing through the water in the one-mile jaunt.

LOOK OUT! THAT BA LL'S COMING AT YOU!

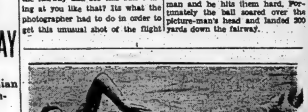
Sammy Richardson British Empire Games Hero

Showing their wares in the Ontario track and field championship which will be staged July 26, 27 in Toronto, will be outstanding athletes from all across Canada. Three well-known performers will be Sammy Richardson, Bert Pearson and "Hank" Cleman.

How would you like to stand on the fairway and see this ball coming at you like this? Ill what the photographer had to do in order to get this unusual shot of the flight of a golf ball. Willie Turnesa is the lad firing the pellet at the cameraman and he hits them hard, Fortunately the ball soared over the picture-man's head and landed 200 yards down the fairway.

FAVORS SURVEY GOV'T OUTLAY

A. O. Dawson of Canadian Chamber Urges Commission Study



Saint John, N.B., July 24 (CP)—Appointment of a Royal Commission to survey the whole field of Governmental expenditures "for the purpose of indicating where and how such expenditures might be curtailed" was urged today by A. O. Dawson, Montreal, President of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, as he spoke at a luncheon sponsored by the Saint John Board of Trade.

Declaring the people of Canada were being placed in a "taxation bondage," Mr. Dawson asserted, "We cannot permanently bear the burden of our governmental load."

He coupled his appeal for reduction of public expenditures with admonishment against the "barracking of business" and stressed what he termed "the desirability of less government in business."

The crusade which the Chamber of Commerce has been carrying on, on behalf of sound public finances," said Mr. Dawson, "has created an increasing public opinion for balanced budgets and the reduction of all Governmental expenditures.

"The effectiveness of the drive for economy is illustrated in the fact a large number of municipalities, especially in Western Canada, have actually put their budgets in balance, that the enfrolloable expenditures of the Dominion were reduced some 81 million dollars during the past three years, 1931-1934, and there has been a net increase in Provincial expenditures of some 74 million dollars during 1933-34 compared with a net increase of some 29 million dollars during the preceding year," Mr. Dawson said.

BOY STAR—Dick Keating, one of the younger swimming stars, is pictured making a splash at San Francisco.

RADIO PROGRAMS

— Daylight Saving Time —

WABC

WEDNESDAY

8.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ
11.15—Wendall Hall, songs—WJZ
1.15—Radio Gossip Club—WOR
4.00—Betty and Bob, drama—WJZ
6.30—Jim Hunter, News—CFRB
6.45—Lowell Thomas—WJZ
7.00—Amos 'n' Andy—WEAP
7.15—Tony and Gus—WJZ
7.15—Uncle Ezra—WEAP
7.45—Dangerous Paradise, sketch —WJZ
8.00—Hal Kemp's Orch., Babs and Her Brothers—WJZ
8.00—Johnson and His Foursome—WABC
8.00—Joe Man's Family—WEAP
8.30—Broadway Varieties—WABC
8.30—House of Glass—WJZ
8.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WABC
9.00—Our Home On the Range; & John Charles Thomas, baritone—WJZ
9.00—Fred Allars Revue—WEAP
9.30—Presenting Mark Warnow —WABC
10.00—To Be Announced—WEAP
10.00—Burns and Allen—WABC
10.00—Hits and Bits—WJZ
10.30—Ray Noble's Orch.—WEAP.
11.00 — Claude Hopkins' Orch —

WABC

11.30—Ted Florito's Orch.—WEAP
12.30—Jan Garber's Orch.—WABC

THURSDAY

8.00—Breakfast Club—WJZ
11.00—Poetic Strings—WABC
4.00—Betty and Bob, drama—WJZ
6.30—Jim Hunter, News—CFRB
6.45—Lowell Thomas, news—WJZ
7.0 —Amos 'n' Andy—WEAP
7.15—Tony and Gus—WJZ
7.30—Merry Minstrels—WEAP
8.00—Rudy Vallee—WEAP
8.00—Kate Smith's Swanee Music —WABC
9.00—Show Boat—WEAP
9.00—Death Valley Days—WJZ
9.30—To Be Announced.—WABC
9.30—Goldman Band Concert.—WJZ
10.00—Paul Whiteman's Orch.—WEAP
10.0 —Haidt's Brigadiers—WABC
10.30—Ted Florito's Orch.
11.00—News—CFRB
11.15—Jesse Crawford, organist—WEAP
11.30—Wayne King's Orch.—WGN

WEATHER
Moderate northeasterly winds; mostly fair and not quite so warm tonight and Friday, probably a few thunderstorms in southern districts.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES

	Max.	Min.
Today	83	64
Year Ago	85	61

Weather—Fair

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, JULY 25, 1935

EASTERN HYDRO MUNICIPALITIES ORGANIZE

NEWS BRIEFS AND ODDITIES

Centreville, Ia., July 25 (AP)—Phillip Morris, groom, and a bulletin with Phillip Morris, second hand store operator today and found they were born on the same day of the week, month and year.

"We married!" asked groom Morris.

"Yes, I've got five children," said bewildered Morris.

"That's funny," said grocer Morris, "we have 5, two boys and three girls, too."

"Well, I'll be!" they both exclaimed when they discovered their eldest children, both sons, were the same age.

They gagged again when they found each had a son named Harold and a daughter named Marjorie.

London, July 25 (CP)—Sponge cakes and lumps of sugar may serve as bombs to be used in a gathering of scientists was told here.

Professor W. R. Tack of London Ontario Research Foundation, headlines of those awards before the scientists. He packed a piece of sponge cake in a liquid air which flashed up violently when touched with sugar.

"Treated with liquid air a piece of cake or a lump of sugar could be used as high explosives," said Professor Tack.

New York, July 25 (CP)—William Hactigan was fined $3 for a traffic violation, he had in his car with him—two paper dollars and an old dollar bill.

"I hate to part with the," he said as he drew the money forth. "The other dollar is the one I've me good luck for many years."

Magistrate Aurelio was sympathetic enough to reduce the fine to $2.

New York, July 26 (AP)—At a meeting of a club which will be a hall of hay adorned with hats, the route to designate the age of the guest of honor, Mrs. Ida Hall of army pole peony of long and brilliant career.

Lieutenant Harry Collins gallanted Bill through his party training as a pole peony at San Antonio Tex., and then left him in 1929 to cheer a Hempstead, Nassau Island home. Three years later Bill was transferred to the home where Collins was wrinkling a sign post. He felt a change for he had moved and went sprawling on his face. Behind him stood Bill, gently nodding.

Denver, July 25 (CP)—Two municipal swimming pools have been supplied with flood lamps equipped with coin-in-the-slot devices which supply 30 minutes of light for 25 cents, Parks manager Cooney Cranmer announced. Quarter-in mixed doubles valcing scores around the clock. The devices might as well go back to the bench free games."

Postville, Ia., July 25 (CP)—Ia man is that won't fit the men who make it.

Hence city councilmen here ordered that a new fire hydrant be named H. W. Falb who operates a hardware store. Falb's name is visibling a recently passed ordinance requiring the closing of stores Saturday nights.

Texas, Sask., July 25 (CP)—J. D. Parker of Texas considers his life charmed against lightning strokes. Behind his residence stands a tall stack the pipe from his cookstove and failed him in the fray. Outside of the shaking, he suffered no ill effects.

Guelph, Ont., July 25 (CP)—A wrestling match came to an unexpected end when two of the three grapplers turned on the referee and began a fight of their own. Spectators freed the official who immediately disqualified the contestants.

Woodstock, Ont., July 25 (CP)—Charged with riding a bicycle in a "wanton and furious manner", a Woodstock youth will appear in court here. The boy disrupted a cricket game and injured a girl when he rode his bicycle through the cricket grounds.

Norman, Okla., July 25 (CP)—J. Richard Carpenter, Rhodes Scholar, Rutgers graduate, presented a letter of introduction from President W. S. Bissell of Oklahoma University appointing him a delegate to a Zoological Congress.

Said Carpenter, he's sending to Lisbon, Portugal, and making my geography is sadly mixed Lisbon's in Portugal. Now where'd I get?

E. Ontario Not Affected By Chats Falls Change

Convention Held in This City Most Successful

Chats Falls development has nothing to do with the Eastern Ontario Hydro division, any changes that may be made there will not affect power users and consumers of this district, promised T. Stewart Lyon, chairman of the Hydro Electric Power Commission of Ontario and chief speaker at the largest Hydro convention of the Eastern Division, ever held in this city which was inaugurated in the city hall late yesterday afternoon.

The eastern district will not suffer in any way, in connection with the Quebec contracts; Niagara district only is interested in this work he pointed out.

At the end the Prime Minister of Ontario has authorized me to state that the rates for electrical energy furnished to line operating municipalities of the Eastern Ontario territory by the Hydro Electric Power Commission of Ontario will not be increased as a result of any power taken by the Government of the Commission for the cancellation of the contracts with the Province now in force between the commission representing the Niagara system—and the municipal operating companies of the Province of Quebec, Mr. Lyon said.

(Continued on Page 10)

MOTHER PROTESTS JURY'S FINDINGS

Jury Presents Verdict on The Death of Child

Three Rivers, Que., July 25—(CP)—In view of the protests of the mother of Jean Marie Lemay, who met death killed by an automobile at Saint Du Lac, a coroner's jury today rescinded a verdict of accidental death and has ordered the inquest indefinitely.

The child was struck and fatally injured as she played near her mother, waiting for a bus. The car was driven by Mrs. Emile Rivers of Oak Park, Ill., who immediately stopped. Witnesses said Mrs. Rivers Guilbert, fainted when she saw the child struck by the left mudguard of the car despite Mrs. Rivers's efforts to prevent, according to evidence at the inquest conducted by Dr. J. A. Tetreault, coroner.

The jury returned this afternoon in the Guilbert home but was allowed to proceed on her trip after leaving her name with police. The child died shortly after Mrs. Rivers left.

The jury declared themselves satisfied it was a case of accidental death after the witnesses had described the accident to the jury. Guilbert raised a vigorous protest in court when the verdict was rendered. The jury declared they would add a rider and would bring down a verdict later.

Ballet in Thigh

OTTAWA, July 25—(CP)—Mitchell Greenberg, 34, Billings' Bridge, a suburb of Ottawa, was in the hospital today with a ballet in his thigh received in a tussle with an intruder at his home early today.

The intruder who gave the name of Patrick Mecknowck, 45, was arrested on a charge of housebreaking.

Fisherman's Dream Come True As Fish Bites Stick Poked At It

Halifax, July 25—(CP)—The fisherman's dream came true yesterday when Joseph Martin of Mount Henry. They found a fish, that needed no coaxing to be caught.

Resting on the grotesque shape swimming in shallow water, they poked a stick in the general direction. The fish bit into it and hung on until it has been dragged up on the shore and killed.

It weighed about 75 pounds, five feet long and had a head two feet wide. Two rows of small sharp teeth ran around the curved mouth. Martin's flippers were attached to each side and projecting from the underbody were two hand-like appendages.

Dr. Vadim Vladykov of the fisheries experimental station here could not identify it but said he believed it was a monkfish or angle fish, fairly common in the north Atlantic, though usually in deep water.

Impending Death of Old Dictator May Start Venezuelan Civil War

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, July 25—(CP Cable)—Ready for civil war 1,000 Venezuelan expatriates here prepared for a return to their homeland today as undercurrent of reports brought word General Juan Vincente Gomez was dying after more than 26 years of absolute dictatorship.

The imminent death of Venezuela's aged President, they believed, would thrust upon the likelihood of strife for control of their rich country.

LIGHTHOUSE LIFE STIRS ROMANCE

Correspondence Links up Lonely Lighthouses in Love Story

West Jeddore, N.S., July 25—(CP)—This story is of William Martell and Edna Blakeney who had never seen each other but who found their happiness together where the breakers growl and the lighthouses send their saving beams to the men on the ships at sea.

Bill Martell is one of the lighthouse men, standard light keeper on bleak Jeddore Rock, where no vegetation grows and few visitors take the cable ride up a cliffside from the sea below. Life was lonely there with little to do but keep an eye on the blinking lamp and listen to the monotonous roar of the surf.

It was dreary too for the girl, Flint Island, 100 miles down the Nova Scotia coast, is as lonely a spot as you'll find. Only the lighthouse keeper and his family live there and she's the lighthouse's daughter.

Then they got through a correspondence club, romance grew over several years. Finally they met. And they're to be married here tonight. The fishing fleet is in and they say Martell's going to get a big catch for the young couple starts off for Prince Edward Island on their honeymoon.

Where are they going after? Such is Billy's right. That the cable will haul them up the cliff together this time and Bill won't be so lonely for Bill and Edna from now on.

EXTORTION MAY BE CHARGE LAID

Premier Hepburn Likely to End All Threats in Court

TORONTO, July 25.—(CP)—The Toronto Star Empire says today:

"Information charging attempted intimidation and extortion may be sworn in by Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn against Western Ontario miners during the next few days as one more development from the recent intense period of activity in that section of the province.

"The Premier would not discuss the matter today but it can be learned from other sources he is definitely considering such drastic action as a means to ending, if possible, the strife which has been made with varying persistency during the last little nine of the Treaty of August 21, 1930. The French Government, I understand intends to ratify the agreement.

"It is no secret now that many of the threats have been of a most lurid nature. Some of them on the advice of close friends and associates with the prime minister and his personal aids who is constantly with him in his travelling up and down the province often carry firearms.

Impending Death of Old Dictator May Start Venezuelan Civil War

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, July 25—(CP Cable)—Ready for civil war 1,000 Venezuelan expatriates here prepared for a return to their homeland today as undercurrent of reports brought word General Juan Vincente Gomez was dying after more than 26 years of absolute dictatorship.

The imminent death of Venezuela's aged President, they believed would thrust upon the likelihood of strife for control of their rich country.

BRITISH BAN ON EXPORT OF ARMS NOW IN EFFECT

This Order Applies Both to Ethiopia And Italy

MAY CLOSE SUEZ

Permission to Transport Across British Territory Given

By A. K. STONE

Rome, July 25 (AP)—An authoritative source said today the British Minister to Addis Ababa has made representations to Emperor Haile Selassie, stating Italy is willing to resume the abandoned Italo-Ethiopian conciliation commission sessions.

The commission broke down recently on Netherlands refusal of members, representing Italy and Ethiopia, were attempting to reach basis for conciliating frontier incidents between.

Conte Vinci was said to have asked the Ethiopian sovereign if he was willing for the commission to meet again, particularly for the purpose of appointing a neutral chairman.

However, the minister was reported to have made it plain the commission, even in case an independent arbitrator were added, would have a limit itself to the discussion of incidents which have taken place on the frontier and could not include in the negotiations the question of the frontiers themselves.

The Ethiopians have insisted this should be included.

It was denied no official answer had yet been received from Addis Ababa, but that it was believed the response was liable to receive the sympathetic support of a body of an all-embracing discussion which would include the question of demilitarization of frontiers.

Clamp on Arms Export

London, July 25 (CP Cable)—The British Government today put the clamp on the export of arms and ammunition from Britain to both Italy and Ethiopia.

Previously it had been expected the Government would permit such shipments. Applications have been received recently for permission to export arms to Ethiopia but these were held up with the official explanation necessary documents from Ethiopia were not attached.

Sir Samuel Hoare, Foreign Secretary, said in the House of Commons the Government will not for the present grant licenses for export of arms from Britain to either country, but the transit of arms for Ethiopia through British territory would be permitted.

Transportation Permitted

Replying to George Lansbury, Labor Opposition leader, Foreign Secretary said: "The transit of arms destined to Ethiopia across British territory or possessions or mandated territory will be permitted in accordance with article nine of the Treaty of August 21, 1930. The French Government, I understand intends to ratify the agreement.

"It is no secret now that many of the threats have been of a most lurid nature. Some of them on the advice of close friends and associates with the prime minister and his personal aids who is constantly with him in his travelling up and down the province often carry firearms.

PETER TILLEY BADLY BURNED

Car Owner Resting Easily From Burns Suffered Cleaning Car

A supposedly empty automobile gasoline tank proved a veritable burning spout of flame in some mysterious manner at Tilley, July 24, and engaged in cleaning it in the garage at the rear of his home, Mr. Moira Street was shortly before midnight this morning; caused the latter to fall to the floor out of that address, and ignited the gasoline before the flames could be extinguished by the local fire department.

Immediately following the flare up of fire from the tank, Mr. Tilley's clothing caught fire, the flames out was burned about the upper part of the body and arms. Failing in his attempts to quench the fire and in a successful effort to push the flaming car from the garage further burns were received about the lower part of the body.

Taken to the Belleville General Hospital in the city ambulance, first aid treatment was given. Today the patient was reported by the family to be resting easily.

The garage was badly scorched by the fire, the car was only slightly damaged.

RUSS FLIGHT CHIEF

Flight of Sigmund Levanevsky, Soviet flier, across the North Pole with U.S. as his goal, was organized by Gen. U. Schmidt, head of Arctic Bureau chief of U.S.S.R. to test feasibility of regular air service across top of earth as short cut route from Europe and U.S.

JUMPS 15 FEET TO HANG HIMSELF

Clarence Hayes, 24 Found Dead in Barn in Camden Tp.

Found dead after dropping 15 feet on the end of a rope, Clarence Hayes, 24, Camden Township farm hand, committed suicide in the barn on the farm of his employer, Albert Pennell, Camden Township, sometime late last night. The gruesome discovery was made by Mr. Pennell on the evening the man early this morning to attend to his stock. An inquest was opened at noon today by Dr. Sanderson and adjourned until Monday next at 10 o'clock.

Hayes had been employed by Mr. Pennell for a number of years and was considered a steady worker. He had been home when he was not given his usual holiday. Yesterday, Wednesday, he was in Belleville and returned home about 6 o'clock. When Hayes did not return for his evening meal nothing was thought of the matter as he had been known to leave the farm on previous occasions without explanation. After investigating the case, Constable Barrett announced that he had used a length of rope taken from the boy's trailer. He securely tied one end around his neck and a cross beam in the roof of the barn and then apparently jumped off with the other end tied securely around his neck. Dr. Sanderson announced death was due to a broken neck.

Legal Mug of Beer Year Old Today, But Many Forget Its Anniversary

Just one year ago today ninety cities and towns in Ontario had the novelty of the thing congregated in the first of the licensed beverage rooms of the city and watched the amber fluid flow from the taps and openly from the kegs for the first time, lawfully, in many years.

Many huge long-cool days back in 1934 when the novelty of the thing was at its height and even home-lured many to the beverage rooms, the novelty has worn off, business has slackened and the mug of beer that was formerly experienced in the first days of license, has

Stevens Denies League To Split Anti-Gov't Vote

Explains Plan to Pay Off Debt And to "Reconstruct"

Toronto, July 25 (CP)—The Reconstruction Party, if elected to power in the Federal field, hopes to work in harmony with Provincial Governments throughout Canada, Hon. H. H. Stevens, chief of the new party said today.

He was asked if the Reconstruction Party proposed to enter the Provincial field. This had not been considered, he replied, and as long as it was found possible to work harmoniously with Provincial administrations there was no reason going into the Provincial field."

Prince Edward Island Vote

The Liberal avalanche in Prince Edward Island resulted in great satisfaction with the Federal Conservative Government led by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett and the current unrest among the majority of voters, Mr. Stevens declared.

Prince Edward Island voters had no choice but to vote Liberal if they wanted to oppose the government. "It will be different in the Federal election, when the Reconstruction Party will have a candidate in each of the 245 ridings in the Dominion," he added.

Election Date

Dropping off for a day here on his way to Ottawa, Mr. Stevens discussed the political situation briefly.

"I think it is little unfortunate the announcement of the election date is to be given out at this time.

"The present uncertainty is disturbing to business. The sooner the date is known the quicker will business men adjust themselves to the fact. We have grown weary of resolution from business arising from the uncertainty and the delay in the various rumors which emanate from Ottawa suggesting different dates.

He stepped hard on Premier his party was in league with the Conservatives to split the anti-government vote.

"There is no ground for the statement and no truth in it," he replied. "There is no comparison between myself and government party or any member of the Reconstruction Party is in no sense allied with the Conservative party nor any other party. Our object will be to have a candidate in every riding and to back it to the limit if we would succeed."

Big Business Interest

He had been approached, Mr. Stevens stated, by many members of other parties, now candidates for re-election, who were 26 or 30", expressing a willingness to embrace the principles of the Reconstruction and asking for its endorsation. They had been told the only way they could receive the Reconstruction Party's endorsation was to come out openly, as Reconstruction Party candidates, he emphasized.

"There is no attempt to counteract the widespread Liberal support in Quebec by the inducement of provincial elections," Mr. Stevens declared.

"From Sidney to Prince Rupert there was no difference between election both the old parties are subject to the dominating influence of the Montreal power interests," he replied.—What is known as the Beauharnois project might well be working from 1,000 feet in some instances.

24 Refuse Jobs Picking Berries

If you can't tell one prminent agriculturist and berry patch owner on the Trent Road just a short distance west of the city that the "surplus" of youths and men are now beating their way back and forth across the country on the highways need of want work. His experience disputes that.

During the past few days, hard pressed for help, the resident has stopped by some of the youths on the street with an offer of work at picking berries, the tempting wage of $1.50 per day, board and lodging included, has been offered. Not one of the twenty-four men approached would take the job, he said.

will be in resentment of that situation."

New Fabric Interest

He believed that the public was looking at economic and political issues today in a different way than for the past 25 years.

Reduction of Debt

Mr. Stevens was asked how he proposed to reduce the public debt in 25 years and yet pay for construction measures outlining in his manifesto.

His reply was the proposal to create a Reconstruction Department for the purpose of retiring the National Debt. "Successive Liberal and Hitherto Governments had looked merely to taxation and taxation to the limit."

While maintaining taxes to balance the budget he felt the policy whereby the treasury would benefit from Canada's resources instead of giving away concessions" would provide an ever increasing revenue over the years for debt retirement.

Mr. Stevens had nothing to say in respect to the social credit system of Premier Aberhart. He was always prepared to discuss matters with anyone, he replied, but he considered the experiences from the West indicated he would meet social credit leaders there.

Sham Air Raids Are Instructive

(By Thomas T. Champion)
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

Ottawa, July 25 (CP)—Mock "Enemy" air raids have theoretically done untold damage to the Air Ministry in Kingsway, the heart of Britain's air defence, Hendon's Royal Aeronautical Club was told today.

A whole week of the most strenuous tactical exercises yet undertaken over the Metropolis ended yesterday.

An important feature of the programme exercises in the Briefing in which operations were conducted. Aircraft pooled eight members were working from 1,000 feet in some instances.

THOSE ON RELIEF PHYSICALLY FIT MUST DO WORK

Bumper Crop Must be Garnered States Premier Hepburn

MAY BE CUT OFF

Taxpayer Beginning to Assert Right in Relief Matters

Toronto, July 25.—(CP)— In the luxuriant crops of Ontario's fertile farmlands Mitchell Hepburn, the province's former Premier, saw today a solution to rapidly-mounting relief costs.

In maturing crops, waiting hands to harvest them, the Premier saw a potential employment for the welfare-supported idle and decided to make the minister discussion of ways and means putting indigents to work in the fields.

If they refused to take advantage of the work the country offered them they would be cut off relief lists, the Premier said last night.

"One thing we will insist upon is that those on relief, who are physically fit must work. Bumper crops to harvest the crop or relief will be discontinued for themselves and families," Premier Hepburn asserted.

Meanwhile it was learned a special meeting of Dominion-provincial ministers would be called today to discuss the $1,000,000 thoroughfare in an effort to reduce the $2,000,000 a month welfare bill, which the Premier claims is blocking him from balancing the budget.

Ottawa will be bowed

"No work, no relief," is a policy learned from this government and will not depart," the Premier decided. "The government and municipalities have made a most generous response in offering to pay the usual relief to families of men who do farm work this summer in not deducting earnings from relief allowances and in reinstating relief when the men return in the fall."

The Premier digressed to put in a sympathetic word for the taxpayer.

"Up until this time," he said, "the taxpayers have been the forgotten men but I am pleased to note today they are becoming more assertive with the government and take cognizance of their protests."

Against were blamed by the Prime Minister for trouble with relief workers. "They are doing real, constructive work in the bush fields—their demands for 'idle relief' are stirring up a revolt but it's a revolt among the taxpayers of the province."

COLORED GIANT STARTS RECRUITING

Toronto, July 25—(CP)—Kaiman Singh, six foot Indian giant, continued his recruiting efforts for Ethiopia after announcing he had enough to make a battalion. Consulate informing him he had lined up 1,000 Canadians, black and white, for service in Africa.

Kaiman Singh he planned to hold a mass meeting here shortly to prevail on Joe Louis, Detroit negro fighter, to accompany him.

WEATHER

Toronto, July 25.—(CP)—Synopsis—The weather remains mostly fair and warm. From Ontario eastward with some thunderstorms on the Great Lakes and in Nova Scotia.

Forecasts: Moderate southerly winds in Manitoba and Saskatchewan but mostly northeasterly winds in Alberta. Temperature is moderate in Ontario, Quebec and Alberta.

Maritime: Moderate northerly winds, mostly easterly possibly a thunderstorm tonight or Sun. fair elsewhere.

Lower and Rainy River—Southeasterly winds; mostly fair and quite warm.

Manitoba — Fresh southeasterly winds mostly fair and decidedly warm. Probably local thunderstorms.

Today somewhat cooler.

Alberta —Unsettled with scattered thunderstorms.

Coming Events

DANCE TO THE COMMODORES AT Riley's re-sight. Voucher tickets will be given away. Dancing every night. Free bus. Admission 25 cents. Bus 25c. 125-15

CARD PARTY AT ST. GEORGES SUNday evening at 8.30. Good prizes. Admission 25c. 125-11

REGULAR WEEKLY EUCHRE AT the Yacht Club every Friday evening 8 p.m. No prizes. Admission 20c plus 5c tax. 125-11

THE MORTON FAMILY PICNIC WILL be held at Roy's Beach, Carl Lake, Wednesday, July 31. 124-26

Hold the Phone . . . !

YES — OUR

20% Discount SALE

on Ladies' Shoes

Closes Saturday Night

Don't Let This Opportunity Pass—

The Haines Shoe House

230 Front St. Phone 115

City and District News

STARLING MENACE BEING OVERCOME

Starting new work in Hamilton, July 26.—(CP)—The starling menace in the fruit district can and is being overcome, it was announced today from the Vineland experimental farm and the farm of S. H. Rittenhouse.

Traps have been secured from the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph and installed in the trees of the Vineland farm and on those on Rittenhouse's property. So far more than 1,000 starlings have been trapped and destroyed and some days as many as 300 are caught.

FRUIT IN DEMAND ON LOCAL MART

Thursday's market was exceptionally well attended by both vendors and buyers. Fruit, consisting of cherries, red and blue raspberries and huckleberries was in plentiful supply. Raspberries, red, sold at 16c a box, two for a quarter and blue at 20c, a box or three for 50c. The ruling price for huckleberries was 20c a box. Cherries were in plentiful selling at 45 to 60c a basket according to quality. New potatoes at 20 cents a peck and green peas at 10 cents a quart.

BOY HURT IN FALL FROM TREE

Harold Kessler, a young son of Mr. Karl Kessler, Lewis Street, was on Wednesday the victim of a painful accident. He had was climbing an apple tree, when he slipped and fell to the ground. As a result teeth penetrated both lips causing injuries, that required medical attention. Two of his teeth were broken off.

It Pays to Shop at the Rexall Store.

BATHING CAPS
BATHING SHOES
THERMOS BOTTLES
VACUUM BOTTLES
PICNIC JUGS
(1 Gallon)
PAPER PICNIC PLATES
PAPER PICNIC CUPS

McKeown's
Drug Store

ROAD MAPS BETTER FEWER STOPOVERS

Clearer road maps and better direction signs on roads throughout the province has resulted this year in fewer registrations by tourists, the visitors' book at the local Chamber of Commerce it is believed. This year the number of visitors entered in the book is considerably short of the corresponding period of 1934. Yes, sir.

CITY COULD SUPPLY ABOUT 250 MEN

If the proposed Hepburn Act compelling all able bodied relief recipients in the Province to do their share in harvesting Ontario's bumper crop this year becomes effective, Belleville will be in a position to supply between 200 and 250 men for the work, it was announced by the Dominion Employment Service Central Relief Office this morning. At the present time approximately that number of men, married and single are on the work call list of the local office.

TAX COLLECTIONS QUITE SATISFACTORY

The first concerted rush on their part of citizens to pay their first instalments of taxes was witnessed at the wicket of the city tax collector in the lower office of the city hall building this morning. Well thumbed bills and coins piled up carefully hoarded silver were among the offerings tendered the collector, who cheerfully accepted all donations so long as it was money.

"The harbor it is doing what it has been very satisfactory" was the statement given out by the busy office.

HARBOR SPEED LAW MUST BE KEPT

Owners of fast power boats who plow through the upper harbor at excess speed, disturbing other moored craft with their turbulent, heavy wash and wave, are in for trouble unless the practice is discontinued, stated Harbormaster Noel Ponton today following complaints made by some boat owners.

"There is a speed limit of five miles per hour in the harbor, and I've warned some of these boat owners before about it. The next time there won't be any warning," intimated they might find themselves explaining it to the judge."

The harbor it is added out, includes that area of the bay from the harbor mouth to the centre.

FLYING SPARKS GIVE DEPT. RUN

A smouldering saw dust pile which sent red sparks flying in the wind gave firemen a run by the factory of the old quarry on Coleman Flats shortly after 1.30 o'clock this morning after an apprehensive resident of that district had sent in an alarm. It took the second call within an hour early this morning.

POWER BOAT SINKS IN BAY OF QUINTE

A navy launch sank and a boy was drowning was registered in the Bay of Quinte this week near Mississauga when a power boat containing Mr. and Mrs. German Seeley and Mac Seeley, Picton, struck a submerged reef near that location while travelling at a fast rate of speed and ripped a large hole in the bottom of the craft. The party removed their coats and donned lifesaving preservers. All could swim but Mrs. Seeley, who was carried up by a passing skiff. The men later donned bathing suits and managed to raise the boat and beach it on shore.

NEW PLANES FOR TRENTON AIRPORT

According to an announcement by the Hon. Croak Stirling, Minister of Defence, Trenton Air Camp will receive an addition to its winged craft already possessed by the Royal Air of ten Atlas airplanes from the British manufacturers. Four of these have been secured and will be used for training purposes at the Trenton Camp, and Camp Borden.

BAY WATER STEAMS AS HEAT CONTINUES

"Warm as toast", that time worn expression of the days of long ago is the old swimming pool had a literal meaning in the Bay of Quinte today. Following days of scorching heat the bay water has taken on a temperature almost as warm as the humid air. At noon, according to official thermometers kept by young bloods officials the water had reached a mark of 79 degrees.

DOUGLAS FRINK HURT ON SLIDE

Douglas Frink, Bleecker Street, received severe injuries yesterday at Oak Lake when he was thrown from the toboggan. In some way the rope became twisted, the machine skidded and the riders were hurled out. Douglas Frink received injuries to the face and side, while his arm was bruised His companion had one leg badly hurt in the accident.

ROBLIN'S LAKE PICNIC SUCCESS

On Tuesday last the Sunday School of the Anglican Mission to Canniffton held a picnic at Roblin's Lake. The weather was warm and showery. Nevertheless a large party of children and adults enjoyed the outing thoroughly. Mr. Harry Smith was kindly responsible for providing transportation, and it was through the kind permission of Mr. Roblin that the outing took place where it did. Mr. Adams and Mr. E. Masters of Roblin's Mills were most kind and helpful. The Rev. C. H. N. Humphreys and Mr. D. Osborne supervised the sports and saw the party home safely.

BASS ARE BITING AT LAKE L'AMABLE

Mr. "Tommy" Tucker, well-known Toronto resident, a recent visitor at L'Amable Lake, near Bancroft, reports excellent bass fishing there, though good strings were shown friends.

HONEYMOONERS ON MOTOR BOAT TRIP

An interesting feature of the wedding yesterday of Miss Violet Lewis, popular member of Belleville's younger set, and Mr. Frank Dolgaf Trenton was that the young couple left for a honeymoon, cruise in Bridgroom's motor boat, adroitly engaging the fraternity friends. Mr. and Mrs. Dolg were married by Rev. A. L. Geen, the same minister who performed the ceremony, at the wedding of Mrs. Dolg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lewis, twenty-seven years ago.

FENDER DAMAGE IS AMICABLY SETTLED

Fender damage to both vehicles followed a motor accident on Bridge St. Shortly before the noon hour no person being injured. P. C. Evans investigated and found that an automobile being backed out from the north curb had collided with a truck, being driven by Ernest Dickens, of this city. The motor car was driven by Walter Waite, 51 Strachan St. The left rear fender of the motor car and the right rear fender of the truck were badly damaged. The matter was amicably settled between the parties concerned and no charges were laid by the police.

Big Reduction PRICES Slaughtered on Choice USED CARS

SEE THEM — DRIVE THEM and be convinced we have the best Values in USED CARS Obtainable

1930 HUDSON SEDAN Newly painted—Tires, upholstery and mechanically perfect condition. Reduced from

$450 to $375

TWO 1929 ESSEX COACHES Reconditioned throughout, paint, tires, upholstering Al. Reduced from

$250 to $185

TWO 1930 MARQUETTE SEDANS A wonderful car for service and in splendid condition. Reduced from

$375 to $275

1930 BUICK SEDAN A six cylinder, strong and serviceable car; splendid appearance; upholstering fine —mechanically good. This is a real buy. Reduced from

$425 to $325

1928 BUICK SEDAN Perfect running condition — a fine family car. Reduced from

$250 to $200

MODEL 60 CHRYSLER SEDAN A real good car in nice condition. Reduced from

$250 to $195

1931 DURANT COUPE Newly painted, mechanically good; looks and runs fine. Reduced from

$295 to $245

1930 INTERNATIONAL TRUCK Dual wheels; Wood Hydraulic dump. This truck has gone a few months and is in perfect condition. Reduced from

$500 to $450

We have Several USED CARS such as Ford, Chevrolet, Plymouth, Sedan and Dodge ranging in price from

$50 to $250

YOUR PRESENT CAR ACCEPTED AS PART PAYMENT—Easy Terms for the Balance if Desired.

OUR USED CAR LOT IS NEXT TO SEAGER THEATRE We are Open Evenings.

J. B. Boyce

350 FRONT STREET BELLEVILLE Phones 706-705

Obituary

LATE WILLIAM J. MURPHY

Marmora, July 25.—Military honors were accorded the late William Joseph Murphy at his funeral which took place on Tuesday morning from the residence of John Clifford, Division Road, to the Sacred Heart Church, Marmora. Arrangements were in the hands of Marmora Branch No. 227, Canadian Legion.

Marmora Community Band, led by Past President Percy Gordon, played very impressively on the march till the large cortege reached the church. Solemn Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Father Le Sage who is at present officiating in Tweed.

Miss Eva Shannon sang two vocal solos during the Mass.

Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

After 125 last rites of the church had been performed the short ritual of the Canadian Legion was taken by President Wilbert Mumby. The firing party under Past President L. R. Rundle was composed of the following:—?, Cousins, R. Johnston, J. Dougall, J. Nobes, H. Osborne and D. Tandy. The Last Post was sounded by Comrade G. Brook.

The casket, draped with the Union Jack, was borne by the following ex-service men: J. Callery, J. O'Neill, S. Stephens, H. Boudreau, F. Clement and C. O'Connor. A number of other ex-service men were also in the procession.

LATE MISS EDITH ORR

Accompanied by a large entourage of friends, the funeral of the late Miss Edith Orr was held from the late residence, Yeomans Street, on Tuesday afternoon. The funeral was characterized by an abundance of floral tributes tendered in memory of the deceased who had been one of the well known residents of the city.

Services were conducted in the home by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Geo. Marshall, after which the funeral procession wound slowly through the city to the Belleville Cemetery where interment was made. Services at the graveside were also conducted by Bishop Marshall.

The bearers, former friends of the deceased were F. Arthur; J. Gillespie; C. Cook; Geo. Kerr; J. Canning and C. Greairic.

LATE JOHN THOMAS PRIDMORE

Held from his former residence, 28 Harriett Street, the funeral of the late John Thomas Pridmore was largely attended on Wednesday afternoon.

Services in the home were conducted by Adjutant Foster of the local Salvation Army Corps, assisted by Brothers R. W. Brown and Sergeant Major Hart. The late Mr. Pridmore had for some years held an active position in the Corps and was one of the individuable members of the local unit.

Following services in the home interment was made in the Belleville Cemetery, after appropriate services had been conducted by Adjutant Foster and his Corps assistants.

The bearers were—Ralph Smith, R. Hart, Sergeant-Major Hart; M. Mackrell; F. Mason and E. Naylor.

HAT SALE Woodley's

Cattle Spray

MAKE YOUR OWN

CHEAP

Pyrethrum Powder and Coal Oil

We tell you how to make it right.

DOLAN

THE DRUGGIST

Phone 138

SCREEN DOORS

New styles, Mortised Doors in 2 popular models, with galvanized screen.

Priced

2.10 and 2.95

FITTING 25c EXTRA

WINDOW SCREENS

Hardwood frames, strongly built, galvanized screen.

Priced

35c to 85c

SMITH HARDWARE

PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

MANY ATTEND PUNT RACES

North-West Breeze And Ideal Weather Prevails

That considerable interest is manifested in the sailing events held every Wednesday afternoon on the bay was that which was manifested by the large attendance of the South End Yachting Club is apparent from the number of spectators who gather on Victoria Park to witness same. Wednesday saw one of the largest assemblage of the season. It was an ideal afternoon for this sporting event. While warm weather prevailed there was a refreshing breeze from the northwest which was much appreciated by all present. While children sported themselves in the supervised swimming pool the elders watched the various crafts which were competing for supremacy. Mr. William (King) Rogers was the starter, with Mr. Charles Jeffs was scorer and timekeeper. These two officials are well known in the bay in the right place.

There were seventeen crafts placed in seven events and while there were away it was a pleasing spectacle with the white sails caught to the breeze. In two of the events, namely the D, Class and B. Class only a few seconds separated the winners from the nearest competitors. This was an evidence of the crafts being evenly matched. In the A. Class the Joka, owned by F. Smith, finished first, capturing the flag presented by Mayor Tice. Last week the "Alice Yeo" owned by M. Callaghan was the winner. At the conclusion of the event Mr. Callaghan presented the flag to Mr. Smith. There are also flags as trophies in the various other classes.

Events and results are as follows:

"A" Class

Joka, owned by "Duke" Smith, proved to be the winner in this class, making the course in 1 hr. 45 mins., 30 secs. Alice Yeo, owned by H. Semark, was second; and After You, owned by M. J. Callaghan, was third. The latter, owned by J. Hinchey was also a starter but failed to retire owing to a broken halyard. The time made by the winning craft was exceptionally good.

"B" Class

The finish in this event was close. Let's Go, owned by E. Kellar, crossing the finishing line first, but 18 seconds ahead of Dorothy, owned by A. Rushlow, Strachan Ave. The time was 1 hr., 50 mins., 30 secs.

"C" Class

The course sailed by this class is much shorter than that for the other classes, TWOL, owned by P. Green, was the winner, her time being 23 mins., 48 secs. Tex, owned by W. Cook, was third and other competitor, She finished 3 minutes behind the leader.

Scipe Class

In this event the Eagle owned by L. Flagler won over the Wanda, owned by W. Bishop, Time, 3 hrs., 14 mins., 30 secs.

Sixteen Footers

Scotteia, owned by R. Rushlow and the Sea Serpent, owned by R. Hoerner were the two entries. The Scotteia won, her competitor not finishing the course. Time 2 hrs., 2 mins., 30 secs.

Scows

There were but two entries in this class, namely the Allegro, owned by B. Hinchey and the Pronto, owned by R. Salisbury. The Allegro was the winner, her time being 1 hr., 39 mins., 30 secs., the Pronto being some minutes behind.

Notes

Nothing occurred to mar the afternoon's sport, not even a spill which usually occurs.

Many spectators remained upon the park until the last craft had passed the winning mark.

The course is such that during the entire sailing the crafts are in full view of the officials, also the spectators.

ASELSTINE BUSSES OPERATE 50 YEARS

Now Operating Mail Service on Tweed-Belleville Route

A unique milestone of the history of a local business concern was celebrated this week, when the Aselstine and Sons bus lines completed 50 years of Royal Mail service, the late A. Aselstine purchasing a stage line and mail contract from the firm of Wemp and Cunningham on July 21st, 1885. The first Aselstine stage line and mail route was operated between Belleville and Trenton for a period of thirteen years when in 1897 this route was sold to John Rathbun of Trenton, while the late Mr. Aselstine purchased the Belleville-Tweed stage and mail route and has continued in service ever since. The Aselstine and Sons bus line still operates the Tweed-Belleville, as well as the Marmora-Belleville bus and mail route today, the old stage coach having been replaced by motor buses early in the 20th century. The unique feature of continually carrying His Majesty's Royal Mail for a period of 50 years is a record well to be proud of.

It Starts TOMORROW LIPSON'S Sale of DRESSES

AND ENDS SATURDAY

Bought to Sell at $3.49

VALUE UNEQUALLED IN OUR HISTORY!

PASTELS
CREPES
FLOWERED CREPE
VOILES
and BETTER QUALITY COTTONS

at the One Low Price

1.49

ODDS AND ENDS FROM OUR STOCK OF BETTER DRESSES

25 Dresses 1.00

Jacket Dresses

An outstanding collection of smart dresses with short and three quarter length jackets. Prints and solids with a size range of 14 to 20

2.95

OUTSIZE

DRESSES

Dresses for the woman with the larger figure, slimming styles in pretty printed crepes, cape or short sleeves. Sizes 38-52

4.95

Dresses

Summery looking dresses in Voiles, Prints and Novelty Crepes—several styles, suitable for dainty evening wear.

2.49

DRESSES

In Only Dresses, formerly selling at 1495 that we are need clearing at the extraordinary low price of

1.97

EVERY DAY LOW PRICES

Not a special Sale once or twice a year, but consistently low price—that's the I.D.A. Policy.

SAVE SAFELY AT YOUR

I.D.A.

DRUG STORES

SCHOOL OF DANCING

MISS PETULA WHITE a graduate of THE MARGARET EATON SCHOOL of Physical Education, Toronto is organizing classes in Creative, Ballroom and Tap Dancing; Remedial and Natural Exercises; Danish and German Gymnastics, for all ages, boys and girls, in BELLEVILLE and Surrounding in September

Those interested write immediately for particulars to PHYLLIS WHITE, Mill Street Port Hope

CAPITOL

TODAY - also FRI.—SAT.

Last Complete Show at 8.45 p.m.

2 BIG PICTURES

FOR THE PRICE OF ONE

"STOLEN HARMONY"

with GRACE BRADLEY - IRIS ADRIAN

A Paramount Picture

3 Good Bands

2nd. Feature — Also FOX NEWS

Hope of Settlement Fades

Port Arthur, July 25.—(CP)—Small hope of settlement of a wage dispute between the Canadian Pacific, Canadian National Railways and the Western Stevedore Company was held today by members of the International Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees.

Repeat Engagement!

Brought Back by Popular Demand for 1 Day ONLY FRIDAY!

THRILLS . . . Set to Music . . .

A Gloriously different musical romance . . .

Introducing the screen's new singing sweethearts . . .

Jeanette MacDONALD and Nelson EDDY in Naughty Marietta

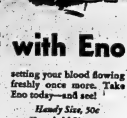
Hear "Sweet Mystery of Life" "I'm Falling in Love" and other great romance with FRANK MORGAN Douglas Dumbrille

TODAY ONLY! Beautiful Copper-Plated Electric Toast at 12 Pieces at Only 3.10

VICTOR HERBERT'S

BELLE

COOLED TO COMFORT



Cool Off with Eno

"Another scorcher," you say joyously as you tear way to the office. But look at how by the afternoon Collar limp. Sleepy and yawny. No energy for anything. If only you'd do what thousands of people have done for 60 years—take Eno when the day is sunfree. In three minutes you'd feel better!

Eno is more than a sparkling refreshing drink. It cools the system, relieving heviness and congestion, setting your blood flowing freshly once more. Take Eno today—you'll see!

Handy Size, 50c
Household Size, 85c

CAUTION

Eno's Fruit Salt

REVOLT IN THE DESERT

by

T. E. LAWRENCE

The wind became faint at dawn, and we moved forward for Azrak, half a march away, behind a low scarp-ryer, were we clear of the drifts beside the wells when there was an alarm. Mounted men had been seen in the brushwood. This country was a tonsidedly ground of raiding parties. We drew together in the best place and halted. The Indian section chose a tiny ridge behind us with narrow ruts of water-channels. They combed camels into the hollow behind, and tied their guns mounted in dua order in a moment. All and 'Abd el Kader threw out their great crimson banners in the sun, and formed the skirmishers, headed by Ahmed and Awad ras ool to right and left, and long shots were exchanged. All of it ended suddenly. The enemy broke cover, and marched off towards the us, waving their cloaks and sleeves in the air, and chanting their war-march of welcome. They were the fighting men of the Serahin tribe on their way to swear allegiance to Feisal. When they heard our news they turned back with us, rejoicing to be spared the road, for this tribe was not ordinarily warlike or too made. They made some little pomp over our joint entry to their tents at Ain el Beidha, a few miles east of Azrak, where the whole tribe was gathered; and our reception was loud, because there had been fear and lamentation among the women that morning when they saw their men march away.

The men distributed our party among their tents for the privilege of entertainment. All, that el Kader, Wood and myself were taken by Mtair, the paramount sheikh of the tribe, an old, toothless, friendly thing, whose loose jaw wagged in his supporting hand all the while he talked. He gave us a funny greeting and abundant hospitality, and fetched sheep and bread. Wood and Abd el Kader went to perhaps, a little squeamish, for the Serahin seemed primitive in food-discipline, and at the common bowl there was more splashing and spluttering than was proper in the best tente. Afterwards, by constraint of Mtair's urgency, we lay on his rugs about with narrow ruts of water-channels. They combed camels into the hollow behind, and had their guns mounted in dua order in a moment. All and 'Abd el Kader threw out their great crimson banners in the sun, and formed the skirmishers, headed by Ahmed and Awad ras ool to right and left, and long shots were exchanged. All of it ended suddenly. The enemy broke cover, and marched off towards us, waving their cloaks and sleeves in the air, and chanting their war-march of welcome. They were the fighting men of the Serahin tribe on their way to swear allegiance to Feisal. When they heard our news they turned back with us, rejoicing to be spared the road, for this tribe was not ordinarily warlike or too made. They made some little pomp over our joint entry to their tents at Ain el Beidha, a few miles east of Azrak, where the whole tribe was gathered; and our reception was loud, because there had been fear and lamentation among the women that morning when they saw their men march away.

The men distributed our party among their tents for the privilege of entertainment. All, that el Kader, Wood and myself were taken by Mtair, the paramount sheikh of the tribe, an old, toothless, friendly thing, whose loose jaw wagged in his supporting hand empty-handed; to be beaten, not aided by more mind, but by its advantage of better tools.

This was a halting, half-coherent speech, struck out desperately, moment by moment, in our extreme need, upon the anvil of those white minds round the dying fire; and hardly its sense remained with me afterwards; for once my picture-making memory forgot its grade and only felt the slow humbling of the Serahin, the night-quiet in which their worldliness faded, an din last their flashing eagerness to ride with us whatever the bourne. Before daylight we rose, and Abd el Kader, and, taking him aside among the sandy blackets, screamed into his dense ear that the Serahin would start with us, under his auspices, for Wadi Khalid, after sunrise. He grunted that it was well: and we said to one another, never, if life and opportunity were prolonged for us, would we take a deaf man for a conspirator again.

CHAPTER XX
Racing To The Bridge

Exhausted, we lay down a moment but were astir again very early to review the camel-men of the Sirhan. They made a wild and ragged show, dashing past, but we thought them loose riders, and they blustered too much to be quite convincing. However, they were the force we had as there was an end to it, and at three in the afternoon we mounted for Azrak, Abd el Kader and his servants mounted their mares, as ajin that the fighting-line was ready. They rode just behind us.

It was to be the first view of Azrak, and we hurried up the stony ridge in high excitement, talking of the wars and sons and adventures of the early shepherd kings, with names like Abraham, who had roamed this place; and of the Roman legionaries who languished in the black garrison in yet earlier times. Then the blue turf on its rock above the rustling palms, and the flight of doves and shining springs of water broke on our sight, and halted us.

At last All shook his rein, and his camel picked its careful way down the lava flow to the rich turf behind the springs. Our puckered eyes opened wide, and behind the bitterness of many weeks was gone out of the reflected sunlight. All screamed "Grass", and flung himself off the saddle to the ground on hands and feet. Then he rolled down among the harsh stems which seemed so kindly to the touch.

When we turned again to business there was no All or Kader. We looked for him in the shade, in the palm-garden, over by the spring. Eventually we sent our men away to search and they came back with Arabs, who told us that from just after the start he had ridden off northward through the flaky hillocks, towards Azrak. The line rank and file did not know our plans, hated him, and were glad to see him go: but it was bad news for us.

Of our three alternatives, Um Keis had been abandoned: without Abd el Kader, Wadi Khalid was impossible: this meant that we must attempt, somehow, the bridge at Tell el Shehab. To reach it we had to cross the open land between Remtha and Azrak. Abd el Kader was gone up to the enemy, with information of our plans and strength. The Turks, if they took the most reasonable precautions, would train us at the bridge. We took council with Fahad and decided to push on none the less, trusting to the usual incompetence of our enemy. It was not a confident decision. While we took it the sunshine seemed less lambent, and Azrak not so aloof from fear.

Next morning we pushed on for miles over perfect going, through rich country for the camels, till at Abu Zarzaya we found a flinty hollow, brimful of deliciously clear rain-water in a narrow channel two feet deep, and a hundred yards wide, but half a mile long. This would be a starting-point for our bridge-raid. To be sure of its safety we rode a few yards further, to the top of a stony knoll and there posted ourselves looking down upon a re-breathing party at wasaim Jemaal men, sent out by the Turks to repair if the wires were disrupted. They had missed us, to our mutual benefit, by five minutes.

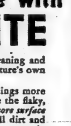
All dawn we marched leisurely until the desert ended in a three-foot depression at the edge of a dead plain, which extended flatly to the details of the railway some miles off. We halted a dusk to make its crossing possible. Our plan was to slip over secretly, and fight in the further foothills, below Deraa.

We made our halt another opportunity of food, for we were uncleasily eating all we could as often as we had the chance, lightened our stores, and kept us from thirsting: but even with this help the day was very long. At last sunset came. The plain shivered once, as the darkness, which for an hour had been gathering among the facing hills, flowed slowly out and conquered it. We mounted. Two hours later after a quick march over gravel, we came to the railway, and without difficulty found a stony place where our caravan would make no signs of passage. The Turkish rail-guards were very clearly at their ease, which meant that Abd el Kader had not yet caused a panic by his news.

We rode the other side of the line for half an hour, and then dipped down a very wide, shallow depression full of succulent plants. This was Ghadir el Abyadh, recommended by Nasir as our ambush, both for its surprising word that we were in cover, and lay down among our loaded beasts for a short sleep. Then we would grow as how far we were safe and hidden.

As the day was breaking, Fahad led me to the edge of the pit, some fifteen feet above, and from it we looked straight across a lovely dropping meadow to the railway, which seemed nearly within shot. It was much inconveniently close, but the Sukhur knew no better place. We had to stand-to all the day. Each time something was reported,

NOW AT A NEW LOW PRICE



Cleans Quickly

DOESN'T SCRATCH because it's made with SEISMOTITE

Seismotite is a matchless, scratchless cleaning and polishing material of volcanic origin. Nature's own cleanser.

The reason Old Dutch cleans more things more thoroughly and more quickly is because the flaky, flat-shaped particles of Seismotite cover more surface and contact it completely. They remove all dirt and impurities, visible and invisible, with a smooth, scratchless, clean sweep.

By all means test Old Dutch in your home for any and every cleaning task you've tried with ordinary cleansers. Try it for cleaning and polishing enamel, tiles, porcelain. Its uses are so varied, you'll quickly agree that Old Dutch is the only cleanser you will ever need.

MADE IN CANADA

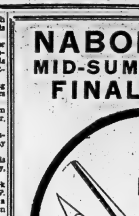
Old Dutch

There's nothing else like it!

113 Year Old Inventor of Hunger Marching

MR. "BARTYACK" JOE DANIELS

Who also includes a thrilling account of how he recently led the unemployed quarrymen's spectacular march on Niagara Falls in his reminiscences which appear exclusively in the amazing New Canadian Metropolitan Magazine (TNT) NOW ON SALE at all the better stands for 15 cents.



NOW AT A NEW LOW PRICE

MAZOLA

1 makes Wonderful MAYONNAISE
2 is Perfect for DEEP FRYING
3 ... is Most ECONOMICAL

Canada Starch Co. Limited

NABOROOD MID-SUMMER SALE FINAL WEEK

Special
WHITE PUMPS

Reg. $2.98 and $2.45 pumps in fine baby calf and kid leathers, widths A, C and D all sizes in the group.

$1.00 PAIR

CENTRE DISTRICT NEWS OF WEEK

Centre—The open meeting of the Girls' Auxiliary was held at the recent appointments held at Victoria Church on Wednesday evening was very nicely attended owing to the rush of work and extreme heat. Mrs. W. J. Prentice, President of the W. A. of Hastings and Prince Edward was present and gave a very fine address, readings and solos were also on the program. The ladies of Victoria served lunch and lemonade at the close of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Long of Toronto are holidaying with friends at Centre and vicinity.

Mrs. Ralph Redner and children also Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Redner spent Sunday at the Outlet.

Mrs. D. W. Redner is quite ill with heart trouble. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

No church service at Centre for three Sundays owing to the absence of Rev. Mr. Mullin on his holidays. Sunday School was well attended Sunday morning.

Berry picking is now in full swing and promises well if a few showers visit the district.

Mrs. Ralph Redner and children spent Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Black of Stuff's Island.

Mr. Arthur Payne has been assisting Arna Pulver with his hay harvest the past two weeks.

The extreme continued heat is having its effect on grain and hay, hastening the ripening.

Mr. Albert Buckle spent the week end with Mrs. Buckle and Mr. W. N. Redner. Mr. Buckle is taking a special science course in Kingston University during his holidays.

Miss Valleau of Brighton has been visiting with Miss Phyllis Hubbs for a few days.

Centre—Mr. Robert Redner spent a few days last week with his sister Mrs. Morley Moy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conkell of Shannonville spent Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Giles and family.

Miss Myrtle Bass of Belleville spent Sunday afternoon and evening with her parents.

Mr. Frank Redner spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dunham.

Mr. Earl Wood called at the home of Mr. Jack Hubbs Sunday evening.

Mr. Nelson Parliament of Toronto is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Parliament.

A few from this vicinity spent Sunday afternoon at Oak Lake.

Miss Clara Hubbs spent Monday with her sister Mrs. Frank Townsend.

Mrs. D. B. Fox spent Monday with Mrs. Ira Pryner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cherry of Belleville spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redner.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Nobes spent Sunday with her parents in Sidney.

Mr. and Mrs. James Barber spent Sunday with her parents at Crowe Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Moy spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Holiday.

Mr. Frank Hall of Stonefield called Sunday at Mr. Rock Hubbs's.

Mrs. Elgin Bellyou spent Monday afternoon with her sister Mrs. Fred Russell.

Mr. Maccoe Hubbs is spending sometime with his brother Mr. Harry Hubbs of Ameliasburg.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL GREATLY ENJOYED

Hall's Island—Miss Margaret Gifford, Belleville, visited Miss Lottie Wallbridge, last week.

The successful ice cream social was held on the church grounds Thursday evening. The program was given in the school house, with Mr. Noel Humphrey as chairman. Those assisting in the program were Mrs. Minore, Messrs A. and E. Townsend, F. Delong and M. Wallbridge.

A number from the island attended the funeral of the late W. Osborne Thursday afternoon. Much sympathy is extended the bereaved wife and father.

Berry picking is now in order, there is a good crop of berries, this season. Grain cutting has also started and that too is an excellent crop.

Miss Frances Wallbridge spent the week end with Miss Betty Pitney at their summer cottage, Grape Island.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Black and family spent Sunday at the Sandbanks and the Outlet.

Mr. Allen Wallbridge, Richmond Hill, Mr. Ridley Wallbridge, and Mrs. R. McPhail and girls were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wallbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hall and family spent Sunday at Mr. Arthur Alpaw's, Consecon Lake.

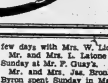
CARMEL WEEKLY NEWS BUDGET

Carmel—The farmers are very busy cutting hay.

The road men are engaged cutting the weeds on the road.

Mrs. W. Liddster's sister and her husband of Detroit are spending a few days with Mrs. W. Liddster.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Lalone spent Sunday at Mr. P. Guay's.



Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bronson and Byron spent Sunday in Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Simmons spent Sunday evening at Mr. Ira Simmons', Foxboro.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Nolan and family of Belleville spent Sunday at Mr. F. Guay's.

Mr. Fred Vandewater spent a couple of days with his grandmother and uncle, Chas. Simpson.

INSURED AGAINST ACCIDENT—

THE COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS MUTUAL ACCIDENT ASSOCIATION of AMERICA
H. E. TRETVET, Secretary
160 Wellington Street, OTTAWA, ONTARIO

FREE DELIVERY SERVICE PHONE 1490

Ayres & MacLaurin

PROMPT COURTEOUS SERVICE PHONE 1490

186-188 FRONT ST.

Montmorency Cherries Are at their Best

AND WE HAVE CHOSEN THIS WEEK AS THE IDEAL TIME TO FEATURE THIS VARIETY FOR PRESERVING. WE HAVE THE FINEST QUALITY OBTAINABLE AT THE LOWEST PRICE IN BELLEVILLE.

(PHONE US FOR PRICES)

CERTO bottle 29c
FRUIT PECTIN
HEAVY RUBBER RINGS dozen 5c

REDPATH GRANULATED Sugar 10 lb. 52c

GENUINE ZINC (SEAL HEAVY) RINGS doz. 21c

HORNE'S Peanut Butter FINEST QUALITY 26 oz. jar 25c

PIMENTO STUFFED Olives 18 oz. Jar 25c

Clover Leaf Fancy Pink Salmon 2 for 25c 1 lb. tins

PURE ORANGE Marmalade 32 oz. jar 27c

SANI WHITE Toilet Tissue 4 rolls 25c

CHASE and SANBORNS "DATED" Coffee lb. 37c

CHIPSO THE BETTER SOAP FLAKES 19c Large Package

MONARCH OR LADIES FAVORITE Pastry Flour (24 lb. bag) 67c

LOCAL CABBAGE - 5c Large Heads

ONTARIO STAKED TOMATOES FINEST QUALITY 3 lbs. 25c

SPECIAL—LARGE CANADIAN Cucumbers ea. 5c

MESSINA LEMONS doz. 33c

FANCY CALIFORNIA Cantaloupes 2 for 25c (Golden Hearts)

BRUNSWICK Sardines 6 tins 25c

FOR SALADS (Flaked) Tuna Fish tin 15c

SEA STAR CHICKEN Haddies tin 13c

HEDLUND'S Meat Pastes tin 10c

MEAT DEPARTMENT SPECIALS

Real Spring LAMB
Legs lb. 25c
LOIN Chops lb. 25c
POT ROAST BEEF 11c to 13c lb.

WITH THAT CERTAIN FLAVOR We All Like lb. 25c

PEAMEALED Cottage ROLLS lb. 23c

LEAN BACON Squares lb. 19c

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Printing House, Front Street, Belleville.

MODERN CRIME

Chief Draper's speech at North Bay before the chief constables' convention pointed out the peculiarity of modern criminals which is often an organization with the men who plot, often not appearing at the scene of the crime. Criminals have developed as the modern world has developed into something mammoth, directed by efficiency. Crime which so develops in sympathy with the development and achievements and scientific progress of the age is something more impersonal than the older type of criminal who liked crime just for thrills and booty. Today criminals like thrills but they like what they think they will achieve much more than the thrill. That makes crime a more ruthless foe to face than ever the older type of crime was.

In the modern criminal there is a pride in mind and skill, and a recklessness that is appalling, though most crime defeats itself in the long run, even the crime of the present time, which has protected and equipped itself with every modern invention.

The tragedy is that many boys and men and some girls and women take to this ruthless existence, and that they find for a time some little exhilaration in the life which has its hand raised against society and law.

Modern forces of police must be adequately equipped to face these enemies the brains of crime as well as the men who do the actual performance of crime. Forces must be highly trained to combat this menace. It is no wonder the police departments urge the use of radio and other means of fighting the criminal.

WHEN THE WEAK SHOW STRENGTH

The classic and recurring tale of some frail individual who under the stress of excitement picks up a poker, a trunk or other heavy object which later three strong men could scarcely raise has been too often verified to discard as fiction, declares The Journal of the American Medical Association, adding that such an episode must be viewed as one effect of strong emotional disturbance.

"It has been regarded as a complex having four aspects: (1) Behavioristic—the facial expression and observable action; (2) physiologic—vascular, secretory, neuro-muscular and other changes; (3) introspective—the conscious attributes, and (4) psychopathologic—the pathologic disturbances of emotional life," the writer goes on.

"In determining the presence of emotional excitement, four criteria were used by Dr. Morris. The first was the knowledge of the situation by the observer, the second the subject's introspective report, the third the observation of facial expression and actions, and finally such observable bodily changes as tremor, flushing, pallor, perspiration or lacrimation. Knowledge of the situation by the observer and at least one of the other criteria were considered necessary to establish the presence of emotional excitement.

"The pulse rate was counted by palpation of the radial artery in most instances. The blood pressure was determined in all cases by the use of a mercury sphygmo-manometer. The blood sugar was estimated by a combination of the method given by Dr. Michael Somogyi and the calorimetric method of Dr. S. R. Benedict.

"Twenty-six subjects were studied during a state of mild excitement and during a state of calm. When tabulated there was an average rise of 22.1 mm. in systolic pressure, 11.8 in diastolic pressure and 14.3 in pulse rate during the period of excitement. There was, however, considerable individual variation in ach of these psysiologic variants.

"In another series of eight showing prolonged emotional excitement the blood sugar levels were noted especially. Control values were obtained in five while in a state of calm. The rise in the blood sugar during excitement were respectively 20, 25, 30, 42 and in one case 140 mg. The case of maniac-depressive psychosis was included. While excited, this individual had a blood sugar of 79 mg., a blood pressure of 120/80 and a pulse rate of 104; when calm, 78 mg., 110/78 and 86.

"The fact that certain physiologic variations under emotional stress verge on the pathologic does not come as a surprise. Among other indications of possible significance it adds point to the common observation that the pulse and blood pressures recorded on patients on their first visit to a physician are frequently not a satisfactory index of the patient's norm."

People seldom improve when they have no other model but themselves to copy after.—Goldsmith.

Too great refinement is false delicacy and true delicacy is solid refinement.—Rochefoucauld.

SIDELIGHTS
THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the events of the day, how gossip and general news topics of interest in the home town appear under the available headings and comments Grave and Gay. Supervised by The Lamplighter.

THE OLD-TIMER

I'm an old-timer,
Came when the country was new,
When never a city or hamlet
Clouded or brightened the view,
Before the hum of the auto,
Before the smoke of the train,
When only the speed of the saddle
Matched the miles of the plain.
Before the bridges were builded
Over those rivers so free
That hurry down from the mountains
Across the plains to the sea.
Those rivers we've forded, a-plenty
As swollen and muddy they ran;
We've patted our horse from the saddle
And whispered, "We'll make it, old man."

I'm an old-timer;
I used to circle the range,
Rounding the young for the branding,
Searching the old for the mange;
Up with the herd in the morning—
Away with a yip and a song,
Driving the prime to the market,
O'er trails that were weary and long.
Gone are my mates of the saddle,
Gone are the cattle and range,
Gone are the frolics of cowboys—
Had to give place to the change.
And now I'm left—making up the
Came when the country was new,
Been here for all of the building,
Hope it's well done when I'm through.

—J. F. Hamilton, in The Lethbridge Herald.

x x x

AN ARAB PREACHER in Hyde Park, London, England, having an argument with a prominent business man of Belleville in which the son of Mohammed came off second best, was one of the sights of the many of interest making up the great and changing kaleidoscope of London daily life, one evening recently.

x x x

OLD ENGLAND went deeper into the depression than any country, and on account of her world dealings suffered more, but no country recovered quicker nor in a more business-like way without stunts or theatrics and is now away out in front in the world's race for recovery, amazing every visitor from other countries who expect to see the Old Country still down in the dumps.

x x x

THAT WHITE IBIS, of Deseronto, has awakened much interest among local Nature lovers, and no challenges have been received thus far as to identity. We had hoped for expressions of challenge from Nature lovers as to the identification given in this column from description without close inspection. Consequently must conclude that the identification has been accepted as official!

x x x

LETHBRIDGE, one of the brightest jewels in the brilliant constellation of Canadian star cities west of Winnipeg, is gaily celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of its birth. Imagine, just fifty years ago Lethbridge was just a hole in the ground surrounded by Indians and prairie. Moose Jaw was a pile of buffalo bones and wigwams were more plentiful than habitable homes. This amazing youth of Canada is a child of the growth and development of this nation in fifty years—compared with the thousand or more years behind the Mother Country. Canada, the Cinderella of the British earlier sisterhood of nations, more of a curse than a blessing to the Mother Country, is now a lusty young giant among the nations of the world.

x x x

FIFTEEN THOUSAND PEOPLE visited the British battleship York, flagship of the Atlantic squadron, Saturday afternoon at Montreal. The vessel is moored at Laurier dock and will remain until July 31. Saturday and Sunday will be the principal visiting days. Anyone who can visit Montreal should visit York while in port there should do so, for only in this way can one get a true perspective of the wonderful power and might of Britain's navy, the ships which give her the mastery of the seas.

x x x

HAVE YOU HEARD THESE?

"Is your poor husband gone?" asked the colored minister of an aged woman in his block who had put on heavy mourning.

"Oh o, suh, he ain't dead," she answered.

"Then why are you wearing black?"

"Ca'se my old man, he's mah second, you know, keeps naggin' an' botherin' me so much Ah's gone into mournin' again fo' mah fust husband."

x x x

"Was the subway crowded when you came home?"

"No, I had a strap all to myself."

LOOKING BACKWARDS

20 YEARS AGO

July 25th, 1915

Mrs. Frank Van Norman is visiting friends in Toronto.

Mr. Lewis K. Carr, attorney for the Delaware and Hudson Railway and family of Albany, N. Y., are spending the season at their summer home at Rosemore.

The Rev. J. Bruce Hunter and Mrs. Hunter of Toronto, are visiting friends in the city.

Judge Deroche, Mrs. Deroche and family have gone to Lake Ontario where they will spend some weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Van Norman of Toronto has returned home after visiting her son, Mr. Frank Van Norman in this city.

Mr. Peter Lane has returned to Toronto after visiting in the city, Mr. Lane is a jolly good fellow and we hope he comes again.

30 Years Ago

JULY 25TH, 1905.

The last day of the Old Boys' Reunion—the old town will be quiet tomorrow.

"Well good bye Jim, take good care of yourself."

Congratulations to everyone who had anything to do with the reunion of 1905. You did us proud.

The Rev. Father Farrelly was out in a carriage yesterday, the delighted spectator of the big procession.

The parade yesterday was great and was hugely enjoyed by the crowds. The executive committee of the reunion marched proudly like men who had done their duty, which everyone will admit they have. The city council made a fine appearance. There are no flies on the city fathers—Yes Nay! Pauline. The Board of Education boys stepped out like a lot of cells. They're all good for the election sure! And the Separate School Board! Dressed to kill! Why you couldn't have thrown a brick without hitting a pair of hats. And the Board of Trade! Why, to see them step out you'd think the Government had already taken over the bay bridge. The 4th Battalion lads looked just like veterans and looked fine. The little Sugar Band was on its mettle and surprised its best friends by the way they played. Trim came the new colors of the 15th Battalion guarded by the four Kahki Belt Privates Gibson, Austin, Large and McCoy, South African veterans, and the old days of a few years ago were recalled when we were all cheering over the news from South Africa. The Union looked spick and span. And the Tyrendic Old Boys! Hats off to them. They were the warmest bunch in the parade. The Boys' Brigade of St. Thomas' looked neat and the Deseronto Band handed out a real line of marching music. The Kilties, of course, looked splendid. There is nothing so showy as the kilts. The different floats were splendid—very good in fact—and the pretty little maids singing were just as sweet and winsome as they could be. The Hospital Float was splendid and came in for applause as did the ladies in the ambulance. All the floats were fine. The Madoc Band played an excellent march for the railroad men who stepped out bravely. The Sons of England headed by two jolly tars clothed in sailor's uniforms looked very well. The firemen had quite a businesslike appearance and the prettily decorated fire trucks were very creditable. Taken altogether the parade was one of which the old town could well be proud. It probably be long before we see another one like it. Magistrate Flint was the marshal of the parade.

All the members of the various committees in connection with the Old Boys' Reunion have done noble. Following are the chairmen: Hon. President, The Hon. Sir Mackenzie Bowell. Hon. Vice Presidents, Mayor Chas. N. Sulman, C. M. Stork, H. Corby, Dr. Wallace, Dr. Stevens, A. Guss Porter, M.P. W. B. Northrup, M.P., M. C. Hurley, ex-M.P. President, William Johnson; Secretary, Arthur McGinnis; Treasurer, J. W. Johnson; Reception committee Col. Ponton, chairman; Transportation committee, F. C. Jones, chairman, Entertainment committee, Dr. Ashley, chairman; Decoration committee, W. B. Deacon, chairman; Information and Accommodation committee, Curtis Bogart, chairman; Parade committee, J. J. B. Flint, chairman; Press and Publicity committee, Col. S. R. Lazier.

40 Years Ago

July 25th, 1895

Look out for runaways when the trolly bell rings on the new electric railway cars.

A horse attached to William Black's delivery wagon runaway last night and demolished the harness.

Sheriff Hope and family are summering at the Sand Banks.

Mrs. Fred J. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson (nee Miss Cuaste Ostrom) of Milwaukee, Wis., are in the city the guests of Mrs. Henry Ostrom.

The annual meeting of the members of Bridge Street Methodist Church is called for certain persons to represent them on the Quarterly Official Board of the church was held last night and the following were elected: Messrs. T. S. Clark, R. D. Couger, James Coulson, William Hopkins, F. A. Lazier, George H. Pope and D. H. Sargeant.

50 Years Ago

July 25th, 1885

Private John Ferin, who served in the Queen's Own Rangers and was engaged in the Cut Knife fight, is in the city visiting his father.

Mr. George D. Dickson, barrister, is spending a few days at Clifton Springs.

Mr. A. Asseline has purchased the stage plying between Trenton and Belleville.

On Sunday there will be a church parade and thanksgiving service in Christ Church at 3 p.m. The service will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hallivell. The parade will form at the Battalion Armory on Bridge street at 1 p.m. sharp.

Islands in Ocean May Be Fortified

Washington, July 25.—The United States is studying a proposal that it fortify the Aleutian Islands, Guam, Yap, and possibly other possessions in the Pacific when the Washington naval limitation treaty expires December 31, 1936, it was learned unofficially today.

The proposal follows informal denunciation of the Japanese navy-building program by the Department of State.

An official indication of the United States opinion to obtain naval mastery of the Pacific may be expected shortly, it was understood, although the state and navy departments refused to comment tonight.

Ziff Blames Britain In Palestine Problem

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 25.—(AP)—William B. Ziff, New York publisher and president of the Independent Zionists of the World, says the British Government is pushing the every obstacle possible" to creation of a Jewish National State in Palestine. He lists members of the Pittsburgh, Y.M. and Y.W.H.A., last night the British Administration "has made Palestine economically dependent on Jewish support from abroad."

POLITICAL FLAVOR MORE DIVERSIFIED

Calgary, July 25.—(CP)—Political flavor in the provincial election campaign became more diversified today, with dual policies proclaiming social credit, aimed at encouragement of private enterprise but differing materially on some points to met the modern age, were discussed as possibilities.

Significance was attached to a declaration by the Douglas Social Credit Association it would contest the Alberta Federal Field and campaign for acceptance of the Social Credit Scheme sponsored by Major C. H. Douglas, well known English economist.

SHOP AT ZELLERS IT PAYS
ZELLERLITES TO THRIFTY CANADIANS

Just Before Summer Inventory — We Present

Values that Increase Your Dollar Power

You are looking forward to many more weeks of warm weather, during which you will be needing Summer Things for yourself, for the kiddies and for the home—but we must make space in our store for the advance styles of Fall. Consequently, stacks and stacks of smart, useful Summer Things are marked at prices that will Thrill the Thrifty. If you want to increase your DOLLAR POWER, remember, Zellers Pre-Inventory Sale enables you to buy MORE FOR YOUR MONEY.

SALE OF DRESSES

LINENES VOILES — PIQUES and COTTON MESH

An assortment at a price that will tempt you to buy several. Comfy, good-looking HOME FROCKS that are suitable and good wearing. Sizes 14 to 44. Only 150 to clear at the surprisingly low price of

79c

Celanese DRESSES
Styles your daughter will adore! Gay summer colors. Grown-up styles carefully adapted for the junior miss. Reg. $1.98. Pre-Inventory price 1.00

Children's DRESSES
Organdies! Broadcloths! Whites! Pastels! Isn't that a grand get-together. Really all a real price. 79c
To Clear at .....

Pantie DRESSES
Another group of dresses for the tiny tots, two to four years. Gay colored broadcloths. Clearing price 49c

CREPE SLIPS — white, tearose, flesh, lace trim $1.
$1.98

Rayon Panties — In fine woven rayon, lace trim 1.00

Rayon Gowns — Plain rayon, V back, lace trim 1.00

Knit Bloomers — Fine cotton knit, white, in various sizes 25c

FLOP HATS — Colored organdie, lace trim 19c

Wash Suits — Appealing color combinations, 2 to 6 years 29c

Women's Swim Suits—all wool various colors 1.98

Bathing Caps — In red, blue, green, black 15c

WOMEN'S SLACKS — White, navy, Sizes 14 to 20 1.00

WHITE PUMPS
COOL, COMFORTABLE SUMMER STYLES

PER PAIR 1.43

Cuban and high heels. Such conservative styles, you can easily save a pair for next summer and be right in fashion. 100 pair to clear at

HATS

Two groups of summer hats, crepes and felts. Reduced for Pre-Inventory Sale

78c — 1.00

Crepe Dresses

Crepe is the chic and practical choice for Mid-Summer wear. So cool and so dressy. A variety of plain, pastels and pastel prints. To clear at 1.98

FULL FASHIONED SILK HOSIERY

Chiffon and Service Weight —suns —(flaws barely perceptible), featuring Mid-Summer shades, so right with White! Pre-Inventory bring crowds to our Hosiery section during Pre-Inventory days. Pair only

49c

CELANESE HOSIERY

Dull finish Celanese Hose, extra durable—and very good looking. Sports wear, you'll find them a great buy at this low price. Pair only

25c

YARD GOODS SPECIALS

FLOCK DOT VOILES — Dark grounds in brown, navy and black, 36" wide. Pre-Inventory ..... Yard 23c

DRESS CREPES—what value and what variety. Novelty weaves of unusual charm. 38 ins. wide. Yard 49c

PRINTED VOILES — Gay, bright patterns in floral and modern designs. Pre-Inventory price. Yard 21c

FLOCK DOT GRANDIE— White grounds with pin dot designs. Reg. 36c. Pre-Inventory price. Yard 21c

KRINKLE CREPE—Cotton Krinkle Crepe, pink, blue, white, peagh. Yard 21c

PRINTED PIQUE — Extremely smart and practical, looks well, wears well, 36" wide. Pre-Inventory Price, Yd. 23c

CHAIR SEATS — Reduced for quick clearance 39c

TERRY TOWELING — Red and blue stripes, yard 12c

TABLE OILCLOTH — 45" wide, plain and printed seconds, yard 29c

VACUUM BOTTLES — 1 pint size. Special 29c

CUSHIONS — Suitable for the home, camp or cottage 25c

TERRY TOWELS — Striped body — fringed ends. Each 25c

PORCH CHAIRS — Hardwood frame — striped seat and back 1.00

REXOLORM MATS — Various designs. Size 18 x 36 15c

SWIM SUITS — Boys' wool swim suits. Special 1.00

SUMMER TIES — A variety of pleasing patterns 25c

KNEE PANTS — Boys' Khaki and denim knee pants 59c

BOYS' JERSEYS — Long and short sleeve. Buy 25c

MEN'S HOSE — Fancy cotton hose, sizes 10 to 11½. Pair 12c

ATHLETIC VESTS — Fine knit ribbed cotton 25c

PLAY SUITS — Reduced for Pre-Inventory Sale 69c

MEN'S — Handkerchiefs — White, generous size. Each 4c

WORK SHIRTS — Heavy quality chambray. Sizes 14 to 17 79c

MEN'S SHIRTS

Standard qualities in shirts are what counts with discriminating men. So if you are one of our customers, don't imagine that our low Pre-Inventory prices effects on the quality of these well made, excellent grade broadcloth shirts. To clear at .. 84c

Boys' Blouses

Famous "Warrendale" brand — your active boy will be proud to own several of these sport blouses. Fancy collars and fancy stripes. Priced at only 59c

W. C. Fields and Helen Prejette Barthelomew two of the most important acquisitions in Charles Dickens' masterpiece "David Copperfield" playing at the Belle today only.

SHREDDED WHEAT

MADE IN CANADA - OF CANADIAN WHEAT

THREE SOCIETIES ARE ENTERTAINED BY VICTORIA L. A.

Victoria—Having is the order of the day, and plenty of work. A nice shower is needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Crocker spent Sunday at Mr. Henry Lamb's.

Mr. Leslie Smith has his sister and two little daughters of Toronto visiting them for a couple of weeks.

Miss Phyllis Weese of Toronto is visiting her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Weese.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Lent of Toronto is spending a few days at Mr. W. S. Parr's and Mr. Ray Parr's and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holmes spent Sunday at Mr. Everett Brickman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Arza Pulver called Sunday evening at his brothers, Mr. Melvin Pulver.

The ice cream social on Wednesday evening last was a decided success. Proceeds amounted to about $24.00.

